Coal Miners Control Situation.

Business Men Ask For Arbitration.

So Long as the Licensed Men Remain True to Mitchell Strike Will Continue.

COAL STRIKE CONDITIONS AT END OF 13TH WEEK.

Strike fund from soft coal miners expected on August 15.

Union officials holding meetings to hold strikers together.

Operators planning to resume work at several mines next week.

Strikers leaving region at rate of three hundred a day.

Locals distributing supplies and relief money only to those in greatest need; others told to wait.

Estimated number of workers mining and washing coal, 2,500.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Aug. 16.—So long as a body of 45,000 men remain steadfast to John Mitchell and the demands of the United Mine Workers of America so long will the strike in the anthracite coal fields continue, provided that the coal presidents also remain firm in their announcement that there is nothing to "arbitrate."

There are in round numbers 148,000 men who work in and about mines on a strike. But these 45,000 men hold the key to the situation. They are the miners—men holding certificates of competency frim the State examining boards. Without such aid not a ton of coal can be cut, and so long as they, or a majority of them, remain out there will be no change in the situation.

WILL KEEP MEN IN LINE.

Mitchell realizes this, and his entire energies, as well as those of local boards, are devoted to keeping these men in line. They are the men favored. To them is distributed the bulk of the money received from the monthly assessments. They are assured that there will be no change in this plan. The one hundred thousand others—the helpers, laborers, pumpmen and engine men—receive what remains. They could return in a body Monday morning, and, except that the mines could be cleared of water, the breakers repaired and the culm banks washed for the smallest sizes of coal, the situation would remain unchanged.

WIDELY DIVERGENT ASSERTIONS.

At the end of this the thirteenth week statements made by operators and strikers differ widely. Both declare they have the mastery of the situation. The operators declare that between Carbondale, on the north, and Shamokin, on the south, about one hundred and forty miles, there are five collieries working, with vastly reduced forces. The strikers declare there are only two, around Wilkesbarre, and not a carload of hard coal is being shipped, however much may be cut.

It is intimated that soon efforts will be made for a general resumption of work. The strikers laugh at this and point out the statement of

The First Local Mint.

One of the institutions here which has the special attention of tourists as well as the local people is the Mint, which is established on Nuuanu street, opposite Queen Emma Hall. It is interesting to enter the large main working room where general manager McDonough and his corps of assistants are at work. The cool and large lanai is a proper resting place and the vaults, where the "bars" to be minted and beer are kept present a very tasty spectacle. The Mint is open from 5:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m. and during those hours the work never ceases. Visitors after looking over the place will find first class refreshments and the purest of liquors.

THOSE NATIVE TEACHERS.

Acting Governor Wright, of the Philippine Islands, says that "there are 3,400 native teachers employed in the islands, all Catholics."

Whence came these native teachers? Did they come apparently from nowhere, like young toads after a shower? Or did the education of these natives come by nature, like the measles?

The mystery is explained by a study of the statistics (beg your pardon, Oh Staff) of education in the Philippines prior to the advent of the American flag in those islands.

To begin with, there is the University of Santo Tomas of Manila, which is a quarter of a century older than Harvard, it having being founded as a college in 1611, while Harvard was founded in 1636. In the year 1895-96 this university matriculated 2,418 students. There were nine colleges for secondary education in the various towns with an attendance of 8,070 students.

There were 69 private Latin schools with an attendance of 1,915. There were a normal school, schools of arts and trades, a nautical school, a school for painting and engraving, six theological seminaries and a military academy. As to primary education, there were 2,167 elementary schools and primary education was obligatory for all the natives.

These statistics do not include colleges for girls, of which there are several, in charge of orders of women. Most of these institutions were conducted under the direction or supervision of the four religious orders that Secretary Root appealed to the Pope to have summarily deported. In making his appeal, the Secretary could not have been in ignorance of the educational work done by these four orders, for the official report of the Commissioner of Education containing these statistics was submitted to the Government and is doubtless preserved in the archives at Washington.

The sudden appearance of 3,400 native teachers, all Catholics, reported by Governor Wright, is no longer a mystery. They are employed, we presume, for the most part, to teach the teachers and schoolmarms sent there from the United States, the language of the people they crossed the Ocean to teach.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Monday next is Labor Day. What is Honolulu going to do about it? Did you say hard times? And how about "Protection and Prosperity?" Too-too, Too-too!!

WANTED:—A faithful of the Republican faith, to be immolated on the altar of that party next November. Address all applications to The Advertiser, this city.

The Spokesman has been ill for two weeks. Since that time nothing has been heard of the candidature of A. G. M. Robertson as Delegate to Congress. Wake up Spokesman, now is the time.

Next Monday will be the Republican Territorial Convention day. Will that political party forego that day and give way to Labor Day? Adjourn over, should be the order and hold an evening session or a whole night one. If not, why not? Sure kela, wela ka hao!

The Portuguese Political Club meets this evening for the election of a candidate or candidates for representative in the Legislature. If our Portuguese friends know who their best friends are, the name Major J. M. Camara should come out ahead of the ballot box this evening.

It is reported that the Advertiser has a new prayer which is being recited every evening by the assembled staff of that paper. It is something like this: "O Lord, may it be Thy will that the morning mail will not bring any more communications on city and county governments from Colonel Iaukea. We have had enough. Thank you!" Too-too!

There are two departments of the Territorial government of which every citizen is proud of. They are the Fire and Police Departments. For discipline, efficiency and usefulness they can't be beat by any similar organizations in the mainland cities of the size of Hono'ulu. Their work is a hard one, sometimes, but they always may be relied upon in time of need. They're all right! You bet!

The Republican Territorial Convention meets next Monday and no candidate for the Delegateship has been decided upon. If none can be found in the Republican ranks we understand that the Democratic and Kuokoa Associations, Limited, have some in stock which they are desirous to dispose of. Address C. J. McCarthy or Prince Cupid for particulars. No fee charged for the information.

Mr. Chairman of the Young Men's Republican Club, if it is not contempt, may we suggest that the name of Professor Brigham, of the Bishop Museum, be added to the list of speakers for next Saturday's meeting? What Mr. Thurston doesn't know about Hawaii could readily be supplied by the "kanakaphobe" professor. He could speak on "how a missionary lies when he goes to Washington" and we guarantee he would score a success. Try it and see.

The Bulletin announces that the meeting of the Portuguese Club at which a candidate was to have been chosen will not be held this evening. This statement is nothing but a part of the Republican game of bluff. The special committee which met the Republicans today has no authority to pledge the Club in any way, shape, form and manner and according to the officers of the club the meeting will be held this evening, all else to the contrary notwithstanding.

As a sincere friend of the Portuguese THE INDEPENDENT wishes to warn them of a plot which has been organized to have the club declare itself as Republican, at this evening's meeting. If we are correctly informed a motion to that effect will be made by M. T. Furtado, a self appointed and disappointed candidate. If the club wishes to prosper and succeed in its undertaking it must remain true to its original principles, and while being friendly with all show no special privileges to none.

Cuba, which has a Spanish speaking population and who does not want to be annexed to the United States, is nevertheless considered as a desirable acquisition by Uncle Sam, if it could be had. Cuba of course is a prosperous country and possesses rich sugar plantations. On the other hand, Jamaica which has an English speaking population is clamoring for annexation, but is not desired by the benevolent Uncle. Jamaica is in distress, her markets are ruined her chief staples no longer yield a profit,—and there you are. Uncle Sam is a shrewd old fellow, you know!

POLITICAL EXCERPTS.

What's Going on and Being Done---- All Is Hot Air and Nothing Likely.

Yesterday was a busy day in party politics, and it was moreover quite warm, particularly in Republican circles. Strenuous work was undertaken by certain energetic ones in the party on the side of harmony in the ranks, claiming that such was the only safe course to do.

It is understood that the missionary wing wants W C Achi for a senatorial candidate and the other wing Lincoln L McCandless. But there is a stronger element who wants Dr G H Huddy and Jno C Lane as their candidates for senators. On the side of the alleged harmonists, they are willing to give and take and will accept Achi and Lane as against the other two proposed nominees.

A hot caucus was held at noon yesterday at headquarters and neither side would give in. An adjournment was taken to last night and results were very obvious and scarcely noticeable.

After the noon hour yesterday, a harmony conference between committees from the Republican and Democratic parties was held. Nothing definite, was done as the former had nothing tangible to give, although offers and propositions were made. A lot of hot air was let off and they finally adjourned to some other future time.

In the meantime, while all this is going on, the Kuokoas and Home Rulers are doing quiet and good campaign work on the outskirts and street junctions. But in a few days more, probably during the present or the coming week, great things are expected to happen.

The committee appointed by the Portuguese Political Club to confer with the leaders of other parties met at noon today with three delegations of the Republican party, at Republican headquarters, in the Elite building.

The Portuguese delegates asked for the Republican endorsement of a Portuguese Senator and a Representative but this was refused. The Republicans could not promise any Senator as they are not sure, in fact they are very doubtful if they can elect one themselves. Numerous suggestions were made, but nothing definite was done, the Republicans demanding more time to take the whole matter under consideration.

The personality of the candidate was also discussed. In case Major Camara is elected by the Club, the Republicans are ready to endorse him, as long as he proves himself a traitor to the non partisan standing of the club and stands willing to support any and all measures proposed by the Republican party. In other words it is still the same old Republican story of bluff and deception: Fusion by Absorption.

The Misses Mary Nailima and Annie Akumu were the guests of Mrs S K Aluli during their week's visit to Wailuku, Maui. Being Hilo school teachers whose vacation will soon expire, they were to return home and to their posts by boarding the Claudine last night at Maalaea.

To Elect a Delegate.

A general meeting of the Portuguese Political Club will be held this evening at San Antonio Halli for the purpose of electing one or two candidates to represent them in the Legislature. According to the wise ones. Major Camara should come out ahead of the contest with M A Silva, a close second.

A LEGAL RECEPTION.

The Entire Honolulu Bar Responds to the Invitation of Judge Estee to Meet Senator Thurston.

Eloquent speakers filled the United States District Court this morning with brilliant oratory, when called upon by Judge Estee to greet the distinguished lawyer and statesman ex Senator Thurston. The seating capacity of the Court room was taxed to its utmost by the attorneys present.

Promptly at 10 o'clock Judge Gear adjourned the Circuit Court in order to give judges and attorneys an opportunity to join in the reception. U S Judge Estee presided over the session of the U S Court having with him on the bench, First Circuit Judge Humphreys on his right and Supreme Court Justice Perry on his left.

Upon being introduced by Judge Estee ex Senator Thurston spoke in part as follows: "Your Honor, Gentlemen of the Honolulu Bar, I am indeed very glad to be able to meet my brother attorneys of this portion of the great Republic. I can truthfully say from an invalid's standpoint that you have here, the most beautiful country and the most delightful climate I have ever seen. I hope gentlemen that I will have the pleasure of meeting you in your offices, as I am always glad to meet my brothers of the legal profession. Gentlemen, I was greatly pleased when we passed in Congress the act for the government of this islands. It may be in complete, it may have some defects, but you have a splendid judicial system. I am pleased to see on the bench here, my distinguished friend Judge Morris M Estee (great applause). Under his decisions, the liberty, prosperity and rights of the people of this Territory will be well guarded and jealously taken care of. Gentlemen, you have such a beautiful country that I have almost decided to make a yearly pilgrimage here if I can find the time and opportunity, (long applause).

Judge Estee then made some witty and eloquent remarks and called upon the following members of the bar to address the meeting: Attorneys Highton, Tom Fitch, Cecil Brown, Davidson, F M Hatch and Attorney General Dole.

Nearly every member of the legal fraternity were present at the reception.

The Prince's Progress on Hawaii.

The Prince Cupid party, since leaving Hilo, has toured overland through all of North Hilo into Hamakua and Kohala. Last Wednesday the party was at Waimea and from there into North Kohala.

They left Mahukona by steam launch and arrived at Kailua last Friday. Held an enthusiastic meeting at Honaunau on Sunday, where a large crowd of people had come to see the consecration of a new Roman Catholic church at that place. They expected to hold a meeting in Kailua Monday evening, and from there they went to tour the whole of the Konas into Kau, and may catch the Claudine in Hilo on Friday so as to return here on time.

Everywhere the Prince and party have called, they have been welcomed and enthusiastically received by the people. The Prince is doing good hard work, having canvassed so far as heard from nearly the whole of the big Island of Hawaii.

Laid to Rest.

The last of the once mortal remains of the late Thomas A Lloyd was consigned to Mother Earth yesterday afternoon. Sharply at 3 o'clock, the hearse arrived at the Roman Catholic Cathedral from the undertaking parlors of H H Williams. Rev Father Matthias conducted the services, assisted by the Rev Father Sylvestre. As the casket entered the door, the Rev Father Valentin played the organ softly and sang a solo, and at the end of the services he further sang another solo softly and sweetly.

Besides the family, there were many friends present. The Superintendent of Public Works, Assistant Marston Campbell and other employees of the Road Department were present.

The following were the pallbearers: David Dayton, Col Jno D Holt, D Logan, G J Waller, L B Kerr and C B Dwight. Interment was at Nuuanu cemetery.

Coal Miners Control Situation.

F. C. Luther, chief engineer of the Pottsville district, this week, who declared not only was there no prospect of resumption, but he had received orders to give up the struggle to keep five big collieries free of water and abandon them. This means a loss to the operators of $1,500,000, and also that about thirty-five hundred men and boys will find no work for themselves when the end does come.

IN FEAR OF RIOTS.

In the northern coal field there are more indications of an endavor to resume work. Around Scranton, where the anti-strike sentiment was strongest, the operators declare that when the time comes there will be no trouble to find men willing to work. The Hazleton district is not so certain. At Tamaqua there were rumors of an attempt to resume, and a riot followed at Summit Hill.

As no man can read the mind of the Slav miner, so no man can tell at what moment or where rioting will begin. Without a word of warning a mob may descend on the deputies and police in some little out of the way "patch" in Carbon county, to the north, or in Northumberland county, a hundred miles away. If the eight thousand militiamen of Pennsylvania were actually under arms, they could not prevent this. From one end of the coal field to the other there is a succession of cities, towns and camps too numerous to be adequately guarded by them.

WHERE MILITARY CONTROLS.

But there will be no more serious outbreaks in the Shenandoah region. The fifteen hundred men of the Eighth and Twelfth regiments and the Governor's Troop have the Lithuanian settlements so well awed that even "the worst citizens in the United States," as they are called, can do nothing but resort to isolated instances of brutality and a guerilla warfare from the underbrush.

Even this is reduced to an occasional pot shot at sentries or a volley of stones at a camp. Any serious outbreak in any district, however, will be followed by troops in a half dozen hours, as every regiment in the State is practically under waiting orders. General Gobin, at Shenandoah, is constantly in touch with every part of the district, trains are awaiting orders to rush on the men and commissaries have engaged supplies for them.

THEY'RE HAVING HARD TIMES.

The quiet of Sunday appears to have fallen over this, six months ago the busiest and apparently the most prosperous section of the State. It will be many years before the millions now being lost can be recovered. From Shamokin to Scranton "hard times" have truly come. In Hazleton to night the main street of the city, with its long line of stores, had not one-twentieth of the usual Saturday night crowd and merchants stood in their store doors for hours undisturbed. It was the same in Shamokin, Mahanoy City, Delano, Ashland, Mount Carmel, Centralia and Nanticoke.

ARBITRATION THE ONLY SALVATION.

Arbitration, forced by President Roosevelt or Senators Quay and Penrose, is the only hope now. Business men in every town are organizing associations and petitions for executive interference of sime kind daily burden the mails. Quay, perhaps, is the main dependence. He has said he will do what he can, and every one knows that "can" would only have to be an intimation that the next Legislature might pass certain stringent corporation laws to end it all.

CONTRA NOTICE.

This is to give notice, that T. R. Mossman having never at any time held any power or powers of attorney, either written or otherwise from E. E. Mossman, nor either any intimation of any, as purported by notice from him in this morning's issue of the "Pacific Commercial Advertiser," has never at any time acted, attempted, nor does he propose to act for said E E. Mossman in any capacity whatever. Any such notice on his part is obviously a deliberate attempt to deceive some one or other.
