HOW DO YOU EAT SOUP?

Some of a certain class of young New Yorkers are awfully proud of President Arthur. I was saying to one of them how the President's grand manner charmed everyone. Then he gave me a very knowing look and said:

"Oh, yes: he knows how to eat soup."

"Undoubtedly, and a great many very common place people know how to do likewise—myself for instance."

"How do you eat it, pray?"

"The regular regulation way, to be sure, as laid down in all the standard works on etiquette. I take it from the point of the spoon, and no matter how much I want more, never ask for the second plate."

"You're out of time; go eat soup with the mummies."

"A new departure in soup eating—and I with out the pale! For goodness sake, post me."

"Listen to your preceptor: The newest agony in soup, the esthetic, the intense manner of imbibing it, is to scoop it up with the spoon away from you and take it from the edge of the spoon, making a graceful movement from the soup to your mouth."

Send the news circling through space. It is not every hoodlum that knows how to eat soup.—Detroit Free Press.

When I was a young man I spent several years in the South, residing for a while at Port Gibson on the Mississippi river. A great deal of litigation was going on there about that time, and it was not an easy matter to obtain a jury. One day I was summoned to act in that capacity, and repaired to Court to get excused. On my name being called I informed his Honor the Judge that I was not a freeholder, and therefore not qualified to serve. "I am stopping for the time being at this place." "You board at the hotel, I presume?" "I take my meals there, but have rooms in another part of the town where I lodge." "So you keep bachelor's hall?" "Yes, sir," "How long have you lived in that manner?" "About six months." "I think you are qualified," gravely remarked the Judge, "for I have never known a man to keep bachelor's hall the length of time you name who had not dirt enough in his room to make him a freeholder. The Court does not excuse you."—Tioga Agitator.

WHY SHE WEPT NOT.

"I saw you at the funeral the other day," said one lady to another.

"Yes. I saw you, too."

How natural the corpse looked!"

"Just like marble."

"I never heard a more affecting funeral sermon, did you?"

"Never. And just think of it, when everybody was crying, I reached for my handkerchief and found, to my horror, that it was a red one I had in my pocket."

"Goodness! What did you do?"

Why, I didn't cry. How could I, when everybody else in the church was using white!"

THE EVILS OF PAINTING

And their Remedy.

"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual.

Believing the above to be true, A. B KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. Max Kohn, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade.

The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. Geo. Stratmeyer, (further comment unnecessary.)

A ROAD OBSTRUCTION.

We have several times lately noticed in these columns the fact that King street has been obstructed by old lumber being left on it, in front of the Chinese wash-houses. On enquiry we find that this wood is there used to light and keep up the necessary fires; and that it is left there on the road because there are no means of getting it anywhere else. It cannot be unloaded off the road beside the buildings because no vehicle can get there, as things are at present.

The Chinese, therefore, are not to blame for this obstruction. Who, then, is? may be asked. We answer: the Minister of the Interior. The law provided that these wash-houses should be segregated and kept out of the city. The place for them was chosen by the Government and not by their tenants. The tenants require this wood, and the Government ought to have provided them a means to get it without inconveniencing the rest of the public.

This could easily be done by a road leading from King street up along the rear of the buildings. It need not be very long or very expensive, just enough to allow this wood to be carted there and no more. This would relieve King street of the obstruction and greatly add to the washermen's convenience. It may be said that there is no money for this. If we are credibly informed the Government is now making out of those wash-house rents more than three times as much as anybody else would give for the land, and not only that but the rents have more than paid for the buildings and are yielding a heavy profit. Take some of this money then and expend it for the benefit of those from whom it is unrighteously extorted.

Taylor (Brown & Phillips, garnishees), action of assumpsit for $25; case partially heard; continued for 2 weeks until 14th. P. McInerny vs. R. Wallace (W. G. Parke, action for $200 damages, continued by consent to 2nd. Hart Bros. vs. F. H. Oeding, action of assumpsit for $31.50; defendant confesses judgment; for $16 and costs $3. J. W. Girwin vs. H. Bryant, balance of account, $114; defendant confesses judgment for $114; attorney $20.05, costs $3. S. H. Makanahoa vs. Taikuu, et al continued from 23rd. Action for trespass, damages $50. This action seemed to be brought to get money out of the defendants, still they had trespassed. Judgment was therefore given for plaintiff for $5 damages, and $4.65 costs.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.

PEOPLE had better look out for their chickens.

THE new lanterns along the path to St. Andrew's Cathedral are a great improvement.

THE usual monthly reception was held at the residence of Gov. Dominis yesterday afternoon.

THE "Honolulu Cathedral Building Committee" will meet to-morrow, March 3rd, at Aliiolani Hale, at 12 M.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Honolulu Library & Reading Room Association will be held this evening, at which the election of a Secretary will take place.

WHICH are we to believe, the Gazette or the 'Tiser, about the complaint of the French man-of-war captain? Everybody (including ourselves) says the Gazette, of course.

YESTERDAY, at the departure of the Ullock, a number of the friends of Mr. and the Misses von Holt assembled on the wharf to bid them "God speed and a safe voyage."

WHETHER, in the case of Thomas' Square, is it better to lay out the walks first and have them weeded, or to weed indiscriminately without any walks being laid out? The first, decidedly.

YESTERDAY our reporter anticipated the facts about the Orca's arrival by 24 hours. If this keeps on he will have to set up for a prophet. In honor of his foresight a prominent merchant has presented him with an elegant appendage of the Order of Medallio Corii.

YESTERDAY, for the first time, the new steam whistle, at the Honolulu Planing Mills, was heard in all its shrill noisiness. It is louder than any other in the town, and even, we think, as loud as the California steamer whistle.

WE have received from Messrs Castle & Cooke, a very handsome card Calendar from the New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., of Boston. It is elegantly engraved by the American Banknote Co., and represents Time leading a procession of the Months. This the most artistic thing if its kind we have seen.

MR. and Mrs. Lowenberg were pleasantly surprised on Wednesday evening by a party of friends, who unexpectedly called upon them to wish them a pleasant voyage to Fatherland and a safe return to their new home. Music and dancing were engaged in, to the delight of all present. The affair was very enjoyable, even to all those old dry monopolists.

WE heard yesterday that the English Commissioner had applied to the Foreign Office, demanding a retraction of, or an apology for, certain statements. These statements were contained in a letter written to and appearing in the Pae Aina. This was afterwards translated and appeared in the Saturday Press. They were to the effect that shots had been fired from the English man-of-war at the Quarantine Ground on the 11th ult. An inquiry was made by the Attorney-General, but the Hawaiian who wrote the letter persisted in his statement. Nothing further has been done yet.

KOHALA NOTES.

From our own Correspondent.

The "Pluvial gods" have been more than kind lately. There has been such a copious and frequent downpour that our planters cry hold, enough, give us now a few weeks of sunshine. The roads, in spite of all that our efficient Supervisor, Mr. J. Smith, can do, are perfectly wretched. I must however say, that in no part of the Kingdom which I have visited have I seen better roads than here. But these persistent rains will spoil any road. And that reminds me of the Kohala Railroad. Every heavy rain we have, I am reminded of the difficulties that Superintendents have to encounter and watch for, in the washing away of the track, so tortuously laid, as it is here, in and out of steep ravines. But we feel confident that Mr. Wilder has foreseen all this, and provided for it. In fact the other day, in making a trip over the road, I noted three or four parties, at different points, engaged in the work of repairing the track. In such rainy times as these, such supervision is quite necessary.

We in this out of the way district, have read with interest the published accounts of the Coronation. We have our own views of the whole business, and these views from a distance, may possibly be worth stating. Well, then, we think your newspapers have made vastly too much of the affairs, by virulent opposition. Where was the great harm of it? Admitting that the money was to be uselessly expended,—the Legislature authorized it. And then, what we must emphatically condemn, is the degree of personality indulged in, sometimes extremely low in tone, not to say ribald. All this is calculated to do us injury in the minds of calm outsiders. Perhaps you will deem me too conservative; but that is just the way we people in the country view the case. We quote the proverb, the least said the soonest mended.

The "Wah May."—Kim Wing is the latest addition to literary circles in San Francisco, and he made his bow to the City Prison authorities last night as combined editor-in-chief, local, editorial, telegraphic and commercial staff of the Wah-May, or the Chinese-American. The sheet for a time will be issued weekly, and after a short time semi-weekly, and ultimately, it is proposed, daily. The paper will be of four pages, the first two containing the news in the Chinese language, which will be translated into English on the third and fourth pages. As the 60,000 Chinese wood characters are not represented by type, the method of publishing will be for the editor or an employe to write or paint his news on paper, from which it will be photo-lithographed. Kim Wing was seeking particulars of the Chinese fracas which took place in Chinatown during the evening. He also gave the preceding information, and proposed, if the press representatives present would kindly accommodate him with general news, he would return the compliment by furnishing Chinatown items.—*S. At a test of the fire proof qualities of the Magneso-Calcite, held on the sand-lot near the City Hall, San Francisco, Nov. 27th, a pile of about a cord of pitch-pine wood was prepared, and five gallons of tar poured over it. A small iron chest, with a 1¾ inch lining of Magneso-calcite was placed in the centre of the pile and the mass set fire to. After the chest had been kept at a red heat for an hour, it was taken from the fire, cooled with water, and opened, and the contents, consisting of papers and circulars, were found in a perfect state of preservation, being not at all discolored, only slightly warm, and having a trifling smell of smoke.

We, the undersigned, were present at the above test, and saw the box opened, and we certify to the perfect preservation of its contents. The entire test was perfectly satisfactory to us. H. L. DODGE, (of Dodge, Sweeney & Co.); C. H. LATON, and others.

A public test of the quality of these goods will be made at an early date.
