LI WAS GREETED BY GROVER.

Courtesies Exchanged With U. S. Chief Executive.

SURROUNDED BY OFFICIAL GUARD

Many Influential Men Take Part in Viceroy's Entertainment—Mr. Cleveland Says "Aloha" and Then Goes Home — Li Hung Chang May Return via San Francisco.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 29.—In the magnificent white and gold ballroom, just off from the main hall of the mansion of William C. Whitney in Fifth avenue, the President of the United States, at 11 o'clock today, formally received the respects of the Emperor of China through the medium of the great Chinese statesman, Li Hung Chang.

The Oriental Embassador left the Waldorf Hotel at 10:40 o'clock, escorted by the Sixth United States Cavalry, and attended by his secretary and interpreter, Lo Fung Luh, and Secretary of State Richard Olney. In the next carriage was the Chinese Minister, Yang Yu, and his secretary, with General Ruger. The third vehicle contained the Viceroy's two sons and Colonel Davis. Commissioners of Chinese Customs J B Drew, with a staff omcer, was in the last carriage.

Earl Li wore his famous yellow jacket and peacock feathers. The party reached the Whitney residence at 11 o'clock sharp, and Li Hung Chang was received by the President a few minutes later. Secretary Carlisle, Assistant Secretary of State W. W. Rockhill, General James Wilson, John Russell Young, John W. Foster, Private Secretary Thurber and William C. Whitney were the only others present at the reception, the character of which was changed at the last moment from a public to a private one. The representatives from the two press associations, who had been invited, were not permitted to be present.

The letter from the Emperor of China which Li Hung Chang presented to President Cleveland was a very elaborate affair, done in Chinese parchment and wrapped in a yellow silk covering, upon which was the Chinese dragon worked in red, blue, green and white. The parchment resembled a large music roll.

After Mr. Cleveland finished his remarks he introduced Secretaries Carlisle and Lamont, Attorney-General Harmon, Mr. Whitney and the other gentlemen present whom Li Hung Chang had not met. Ex-Secretary of State John W. Foster was cordially greeted by Li Hung Chang. The official interpreter, Lo Fung Luh, introduced the two sons of the Viceroy and the others who accompanied him to President Cleveland.

President Cleveland and Secretaries Olney, Carlisle and Lamont took luncheon with Mr. Whitney. Mr. Cleveland left on the yacht Sapphire for Gray Gables this afternoon. He was accompanied by Mr Olney and Private Secretary Thurber.

MAY COME THIS WAY.

Efforts Made for Li to Visit San Francisco.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—About half an hour previous to the return of Li from the residence of Colonel Grant Liu Baw, one of the Viceroy's suite, consented to talk with the "Examiner's" correspondent.

"Does the Viceroy intend to go West and pass through San Francisco?" was asked.

"Perhaps. They are doing a great deal out there to get him to stop over at that point. He has been informed that nearly 30,000 Chinese are living there and that it is the largest Chinese settlement in America. It is likely he will accede to their wishes."

ALL DEMOCRATS, ALL FOR GOLD.

Indianapolis Convention Will Name National Ticket,

AND BRYAN KEEPS ON TALKING

Silver Candidate Has Reached Ohio—McKinley Receives Delegations at His Home—Vermonts Republican Majority the Largest for Years—Cockran Supposed to be for McKinley.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 2.—Forty-one States and three Territories, represented by 824 delegates, met today in Tomlinson Hall as the climax of a six-weeks campaign to repudiate the action of the Chicago Convention and put forth a declaration of principles and name a Presidential ticket. Senator Palmer, who called the body to order, termed it the first convention of the National Democratic party, while others referred to it as the Democracy which held its last convention in 1892.

Admission to the hall was confined strictly to ticket-holders. As a result, many people were denied admittance. Inside, every seat in the space reserved on the floor for delegates and alternates was taken, and the galleries, except on the upper balconies in the rear of the hall, where the band was located, were comfortably well filled. The chairs in the rear of the platform reserved for the distinguished guests were nearly all occupied. The decorations were lavish. There was a profusion of flags and bunting, trailing smilax, Spanish moss and potted flowers, but the most noticeable feature was the prevalence of gilt, symbolic of the spirit of the convention. Gold wreaths were everywhere in the decorations, and half the delegates were sprays of golden-rod in their lapels of their coats. There was an unusually large number of ladies in the galleries.

The delegates themselves were an imposing body of men. Among them were many who have for years been prominent in national affairs and the councils of the Democratic party. Not a few were delegates to the Chicago convention, including several chairmen of delegations, who returned here in the same capacity, except that whereas they were hissed there for declining to participate in the proceedings, their appearance here was the signal for outbursts of enthusiasm.

There was plenty of enthusiasm, and demonstrations were numerous. Every reference to Mr. Cleveland was the signal of a scene, during which men cheered and waved whatever they could get their hands on. Miniature flags found their way out of mysterious recesses and were waved on every occasion.

The convention held two sessions, but got no further than effecting the permanent organization. Ex-Governor Flower, the temporary chairman, and Senator Caffery, the permanent chairman, both delivered addresses, and Dr. Everett of Massachusetts and John P. Irish, the Pacific Coast orator, voiced the spirit of the convention during intermissions in the proceedings. There was not a jar or hitch anywhere. The temper of the delegates was displayed in the vigorous fashion with which the denunciation of the Chicago platform and its candidates were received.

Governor Flower referred to Bryan as an "ambitious, unsteady and unsafe man," and a "demagogue and a word juggler," with "a revolutionary mob behind him," and the rafters rang with applause.

Perhaps the most important action taken by the convention was the adoption of a recommendation to make the organization permanent and to empower the National Committee appointed to call future conventions. This indicates a contest four years from now over the regularity of the two organizations, and may prove far-reaching in its effects. The platform will be adopted and the candidates nominated tomorrow. Tonight a great mass-meeting was held.

An unusual feature is the entire ab-

DAME RUMOR GETS ANOTHER SLAP.

Those Willis Instructions Were Never Given.

DENIAL MADE AT WASHINGTON.

United States Consul General Mills Reports on Condition of Trade—Exports Nearly Double Those of Last Year—Good Portion of Sugar Sent Around the Horn to New York.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The dispatches from San Francisco yesterday to the effect that United States Minister Willis had been authorized to negotiate with President Dole of Hawaii for either annexation, a monarchical form of government with Princess Kaiulana at the head, or a United States protectorate for the Hawaiian Islands find no credence in official circles in this city. It is regarded as extremely improbable that President Cleveland should desire to reopen the Hawaiian scandal under existing conditions; and it is thought to be even more improbable that President Dole would consider overtures from an unfriendly administration so near the end of its term, especially when there is no doubt that the Island Republic would receive much more generous treatment at the hands of the next administration, regardless of its personality. Nor is it thought that there is any likelihood of a further attempt of the Cleveland administration to "right the wrongs" of Liliuokalani, or to restore the monarchy under Kaiulana.

State Department officials disclaim all knowledge of any such negotiations as are indicated in the rumors from Honolulu. Acting Secretary Adee says he has never heard of any such negotiations, and intimates plainly that the Hawaiian story is very much overdrawn, if not altogether without foundation.

BUSINESS BEING DIVERTED.

Consul-General Mills Reports on Hawaiian Trade.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—The diversion of Hawaiian trade from San Francisco to New York is commented on by Consul General Ellis Mills at Honolulu in a report to the State Department. He says the exports this year are almost double those of last year, reaching $8,748,000 for the year, against $4,949,900 last year. Most of this is in sugar, of which $2,457,500 has been carried around Cape Horn direct to New York instead of going via San Francisco. One large shipment has gone round the Horn to Boston.

The Roanoke in New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The long over due Roanoke was among the marine arrivals today. She is from Honolulu. Tugs have been searching for her for the past week. She brings the biggest cargo of sugar ever cafried on the water.

Armenians Will Fight to a Finish.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 29.—The Armenian revolutionary committee have issued another manifesto, in which are embodied twelve demands, the chief of which is that autonomy be granted to the Armenians.

After enumerating their demands the manifesto goes on to declare that the Armenians will fight for their rights until the last of them have been killed.

PEACE SEEMS NEAR IN CRETE.

General Weyler Will Inaugurate Campaign of Destruction—Trouble With General Lee. Grand Army Veterans in St. Paul—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain in New York.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—In official circles it is believed that the Marquis of Salisbury has determined to pursue his own course at Constantinople in the future, and has given the British Ambassador, Sir Phillip Currie, precise and significant instructions, with greater powers to command naval aid in enforcing the demands of Great Britain.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 2. — The Turkish Government has sent a circular to its representatives abroad to the effect that there have been no disturbances since Saturday, and that order and security reign at the capital as well as in the provinces of the Empire.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The Herald's Constantinople correspondent cables to that paper under date of August 29th: The events of the last few lays have indeed proved a terrible verification of the information vouchsafed me since my arrival here, and repeatedly emphasized in my letters, that though Crete might occupy the telegraphic wires for the moment, the Armenian conspiracy was the ulcer which, backed by foreign sympathy, was eating at the vitals of Turkey.

Now that dynamite has proved the character of the disease beyond a doubt outside opinion may well be left to take care of itself. The police as well as the soldiery are accused by some of not having done all in their power to prevent the Armenians being killed. Voices are even heard saying the police here and there even winked at the conduct of the mob. Anybody who has lived through these forty-eight eventful hours may well believe it possible that among the police of so mixed a population black sheep cannot be absent.

WILL SPREAD DESTRUCTION.

Indications That Weyler Will Devastate Cuban Fields.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The World's Havana cable says: "The rebels must be defeated before the year ends or we are lost," Premier Canovas cabled to Captain General Weyler. The despairing dispatch explained that the Spanish Government had taken alarm at the developments of a recent interview between United States Minister Taylor and the Duke of Tetuan, Spain's Minister of Foreign Affairs.

General Weyler cabled back to Madrid that in that case he must resort to extreme methods. "Do as you please," replied Senor Canovas. Thereupon General Weyler determined to issue shortly an edict forbidding the grinding of the season's sugar crop. When that edict appears war will begin in earnest. The Cubans will occupy the hills and the woods, while the Spanish troops will be in the towns and the villages. Sugar mills will be destroyed by both sides, for Weyler will adopt Gomez' tactics and enter upon a campaign of extirpation. Cuba will be made desolate by fire and sword. The torch will be applied by the regulars and the insurgents alike, to everything which might give aid and comfort to the enemy. Everybody outside the military lines will be shot without challenge.

WEYLER'S RECALL DEMANDED.

Spanish Merchants and Planters Angered by a Decree.

NEW YORK, August 29.—Captain-General Weyler's purported decree forbidding planters to make any attempts to save their incoming sugar, coffee, cocoa and tobacco crops, and virtually approving Gomez' threat to paralyze the agricultural and commercial interests of the island while the war continues, is creating a big sensation and a panic is threatened. It is rumored this morning that Marquis Opeztegs, president of the Spanish Conservative party on the island and a leading sugar producer, was at the head of the committee of Spanish planters and merchants which called at the palace yesterday to protest. Captain-General Weyler denied them a hearing.

Then, it is alleged, a secret meeting was held last night, at which it was decided to send telegrams to Spain, via Key West, today, demanding the recall of General Weyler, and asking that General Polaviaja be sent to succeed him.

POSSIBLE PEACE FOR CRETE.

Reported that Measures for Reform Have Been Agreed to.

CANEA, Crete, Aug. 30.—The news that a broad reform measure has been agreed upon, alike preserving the interests of the Mussulmans and giving the Christians whatever is necessary, has created universal joy.

There has been a small encounter between the natives of Palatama, in which each side accuses the other of commencing the attack. Several Christians were killed. It is also said that refugees in Candia are much disturbed at the report having falsely gone out that they were about to be deprived of many of their rights. It may be necessary for war ships to be sent there. The Deputies have been summoned to hear the reading of the terms granted. The reading may possibly take place Monday.

LONDON, Aug. 30.—A dispatch to the Times from Athens says that the settlement accepted by the Sultan in the matter of reform in Crete virtually concedes all that the Cretans have demanded.

More Fighting in Crete.

ATHENS, Sept. 2.—Several conflicts occurred in the Heraklion and Salino districts of the Island of Crete on Sunday and Monday. Several foreign war ships have arrived at Heraklion.

JAPAN SWEPT AGAIN.

Another Big Earthquake With Typhoon Accompaniment.

YOKOHAMA, September 2.—Much alarm is felt here over a meagre report of a great earthquake which occurred in the northeast province of the main island of Japan on Monday evening. The town of Rukogo has been utterly destroyed and several other towns severely damaged.

Many persons are reported to have been killed by the earthquake, and a still larger number injured, while a multitude have suffered severe losses by damage to property.

The provinces visited by the earthquake are the same as those devastaed by the terrible earthquake and tidal wave of June 15th last, when a large number of towns were wiped out and the estimated loss of life was 30,000.

The provinces of Eckuesan and Rikuchu, along the coast from the island of Jonkasan northward were the principal sufferers today. The recollection of the havoc to human life wrought by that convulsion causes grave anxiety as to what further reports may show of the results of Monday's earthquake.

On the same day a typhoon caused extensive damage in Southern Japan, a sandstorm, followed by a thunderstorm, demolished nundreds of huts and tents, destroying twelve miles of the new railroad, and cut off telegraphic communication with the front for several days.

WHOLE CABINET GOES OUT.

Japanese Empire Not Without Its Political Woes.

YOKOHAMA, Aug. 29.—The entire Ministry has resigned. Count Kuroda has been appointed Acting Premier. The crisis arose on account of a difference of opinion regarding the vacant foreign portfolio.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—It is announced that France has signed a twelve-year treaty of commerce with Japan, by the terms of which France agrees to renounce consular jurisdiction and the French concessions at the open ports within three years, and the two countries exchange the most favored nation treatment. France is thus put upon the same footing as the United States.

CHAMBERLAIN IN NEW YORK.

He Says No One in England Wants to Fight.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Right Honorable Joseph Chamberlain, British Secretary of State for the Colonies, arrived here today. With him was Mrs. Chamberlain, who is the daughter of former Secretary of War Endicott of Massachusetts. Chamberlain said he came to visit Mr. and Mrs. Endicott at Danvars, Mass. He expects to return to England in a fortnight.

Mr. Chamberlain said his visit has no official connection with the Venezuelan matter except in so far as he is interested in British Guiana as a colony. He said: "The idea that I came to America to meet Secretary of State Olney and to confer with him about the Venezuelan matter or any other public business is not so. Indeed, I have no appointment with Mr. Olney. My visit is purely personal and a domestic affair."

Continuing, he said: "I do not think there is a man in Great Britain who wants to fight. It would be a terrible calamity, much to be deplored. I trust the Venezuelan matter will be amicably adjusted. As Mr. Cleveland says himself, the findings of the American Commission are not binding, but we should look for their report with as much interest as you in the States, and hope that it will shed such a bright light on the whole matter in dispute that the affair can be readily and easily adjusted to the satisfaction of both sides."

RUSSIA'S NOTED OFFICIAL.

Death of Prince Lobanoff-Rostovski While With the Czar.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Telegraph from Kieff says that Prince Lobanoff Rostovski, Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, died suddenly while traveling from Vienna to that place. Prince Lobanoff Rostovski was in the company of the Czar at the time of his death, and his demise was wholly without warning.

The news of the death of Prince Lobanoff Rostovski, according to the dispatch to the Telegraph, caused great excitement throughout Russia, where the personality of the Minister of Foreign Affairs was considered to be second only to the Czar himself. Prince Lobanoff Rostovski pursued a strong foreign policy, which was regarded in some quarters as threatening the peace of the world. Besides his political work, the Prince devoted his leisure hours to the study of and to the writing of works on Russian history.

The tour which he had planned to take with the Czar through the countries of Western Europe was expected to be most far reaching in results affecting the settlement of the Eastern question. Emperor Francis Joseph paid Prince Lobanoff Rostovski the highest honors during the recent visit of the Czar to Vienna, and his death at the present juncture is regarded as a most dramatic and important event, upsetting as it does all possibilities of conferences between the Foreign Ministers of the great powers, and compelling the Czar to change the plans concerning his tour through Germany, France and England.

SERIOUS TROUBLE NOT EXPECTED.

British View of the Brazilian Difficulty.

LONDON, August 29.—In political circles it is believed that the difficulty between Italy and Brazil will be amicably arranged, as Italy, with her Abyssinian trouble still unsettled, has quite enough to do without engaging in hostilities with Brazil, especially in view of the state of the Italian exchequer.

From Rio Janeiro it is stated that it is not believed there will be any serious complications, as the Brazilian Government is determined that the material damage sustained by Italians and the demagogic insults to the Italian flag shall be fairly dealt with and that suitable amends will be made.

NEW ITALIAN SQUADRON.

It Will be Stationed in South American Waters.

ROME, Aug. 31.—The Opinione announces that King Humbert has signed a decree authorizing the re-establishment of an Italian squadron in South American waters. It is stated that the squadron will include three cruisers and a dispatch vessel.

GENERAL LEE IN TROUBLE.

He is Refused Admission to Spanish Fortress by Weyler.

HAVANA, Aug. 29.—Americans here are highly indignant over an official notice posted at the entrance to Cabanas Castle, singling out United States Consul General Lee for exclusion, and instructing the guards on duty if he should ever come there to see American prisoners to arrest him and take him before General Oliver, governor of the prison.

The Consul, when told the news, disbelieved it, but subsequent investigation confirmed the story of the notice. He sent a strong note of protest to the Captain General yesterday against the unexplained discrimination, and insisting that if other foreign Consuls be allowed to see their countrymen that an equal privilege be extended to ours.

General Lee also again called the Captain General's attention to the case of the American newspaper correspondent, Govina, and demanded that the latter be produced if allive, and if dead that the officers who ordered his death be punished.

REVOLT IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Insurgents Easily Beaten in the First Conflict.

MADRID, Aug. 30.—The official telegrams received here from Captain General Blanco of the Phillipine Islands announce that 1,000 rebels took the field against the Spanish forces for the purpose of bringing about a revolution. The insurgents were badly armed and were easily defeated. Troops are now in pursuit of the fugitives. Governor Blanco, however, estimates that the separatists number at least 4,000. He has asked the Government to send reenforcements. The Spanish Ministry today decided to send 2,000 troops to the Philippine Islands without delay.

POWERS GETTING TIRED.

Inform the Sultan That He Must Do Better.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—A dispatch to the Times from Constantinople says that the joint note of the Embassadors of the powers asking the Sublime Porte to suppress the disorders in Constantinople without delay a failing to have the desired effect, the Embassadors of the powers dispatched a joint telegram warning the Sultan that he endangered the Turkish empire by suffering the continuance of anarchy by the connivance of imperial troops and the police. It is said that the Sultan trembled when he received the warning telegram.

Neither the members of the diplomatic circles nor rational observers doubt that an armed mob of Turks had been previously organized for possible riots. It was noticed that in less than two hours after the insane attack on the Ottoman Bank by the Armenians the mob that filled the streets at Galata overspread the whole city, and Turks in parties of from 120 to 150 strong, apparently well organized and acting in concert, crossed in lighters from Stamboul.

In commenting upon the rapidity with which the mob overspread Constantinople after the attack upon the Ottoman Bank, the Constantinople correspondent of the Times says that the mischief could not have been done without organization and without the connivance of the authorities.

A dispatch to the News says: Stamboul has been covered with revolutionary placards, evidently posted by the young Turkey party. Serious trouble is expected Monday, the anniversary of the Sultan's ascension.

TO UNITE IRISH FACTIONS.

Great Convention of Representative Men Opens at Dublin.

DUBLIN, Ireland, Sept. 1.—The great convention of representatives of the Irish race, summoned with a view to affording an opportunity to all who desire to see unity restored among the Irish Nationalists, to come together and formulate a platform in support of which Irish Nationalists throughout the world may act together, was opened in Leinster Hall at noon today. Fully 2000 delegates were present, including representatives from Great Britain and Ireland, the United States, Canada, Australia and South Africa.

Right. Rev. Patrick O'Donnell, Bishop of Raphoe, was elected permanent chairman. The Healeyites and Parnellites took no part in the convention, holding themselves entirely aloof from the gathering. Resolutions were passed favoring the reconstruction of a united Irish party bound together in home rule ranks and disciplined under the rule of the majority.

Will Not Surrender Khalid.

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—A dispatch to the Cologne Gazette from Zanzibar says that the German Consul there has refused to surrender to the British Said Khalid, the self proclaimed Sultan, and those of his followers who took refuge at the consulate after being driven from the palace by the bombardment of the British warships.

Canadian Was Victor.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 1.—Today was the opening day of the regatta of the Northern Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which attracted a large number of spectators. The chief event was the race between Dr. McDowell and Bob Johnston, the Canadian amateur champion, which was won by the latter.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT STILL ILL

His Condition is Regarded as Precarious.

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 31.—Cornelius Vanderbilt, although seeming to mend slowly, is in a precarious condition. His physicians today ordered that he should not be removed from Newport, and his wife has made arrangements to pass the coming winter at this resort.

ACTION OF SEATTLE BANKS.

They Will Discount Canadian Coin and Paper.

SEATTLE, Sept. 1.—The Seattle banks will retaliate on Canadian banks for discounting the money of the United States. The matter was discussed informally by the clearing house today, and tomorrow final action will be taken. The Canadians having been making a discount of 10 per cent on American money, and the proposed action of the local banks, which will undoubtedly be taken, will be a discount of 2 per cent on paper, while 50-cent pieces will be received for 40 cents, and 25-cent pieces for 20 cents. The banks will give ten days' notice to their customers of the new rule.

VETERANS IN ST. PAUL.

Big Parade on Third Day of Grand Encampment.

ST. PAUL (Minn.), Sept. 2.—Nearly 40,000 veterans tramped the streets of St. Paul for several hours today. The day was an ideal one for marching, the sun being behind the clouds and a light breeze making the air cool.

The enlivening music of many bands and the stirring sound of veteran drum corps signaled the approach of each new department and the crowd showed prompt appreciation of the appearance of favorites. Waves of applause went up and down the crowded streets, and at times the veterans themselves cheered.

Opposite the residence of Colonel R. M. Newport many white-haired veterans uncovered and saluted as they recognized Mrs. John A. Logan, who gracefully returned every salute.

The parade has been in mind to such an extent that the politics of the encampment must take a back seat and wait for the business session to open tomorrow. The candidates are still being urged by their friends, the leaders being Rear Admiral Mead, Major T. S. Clarkson, and New Hampshire's candidate, Comrade Linehan. It seems tonight to be dividing between East and West, and the fact that Buffalo will surely get the next encampment may affect the result, as the sections are somewhat jealous of the honors. There are more candidates, and they will have strong support, but these are the leaders. The other offices will depend to a considerable extent on the result of the Commander-in-Chief contest.

ANOTHER IDIOT LOOSE.

Capt. Frietsch Going Around the World in a Boat.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 1.—Capt. Adolf Frietsch, who crossed the Atlantic a year ago in the little cockleshell Nina, started at 3 o'clock this afternoon on a voyage around the world in his little sailboat the Schlitz Globe. He will sail down the lake to Chicago, pass through the drainage canal to the Mississippi river, down to the Gulf of Mexico, cross the Isthmus of Panama by rail and then sail to San Francisco. His voyage will consume four years. He goes alone.

MAY RECALL FAVA.

Italian Govt. Said to be Dissatisfied With Handling of Lynching Cases.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—It is rumored in diplomatic circles in Washington tonight that Baron Fava, the Italian Ambassador to the United States, has been recalled by his Government. It is understood that the reason for this action is that the home Government is dissatisfied with the way in which Baron Fava handled the Italian lynching incidents of five years ago at New Orleans and those of more recent date at Hamersville, La. It is said that the recall papers are now on the way to this city.

BRITISH ADVANCE UP THE NILE

Delay Caused by a Storm Which Wrecked the Camp.

LONDON, August 29.—The advance of the British expedition up the Nile has been seriously retarded by unheard-of weather during the past week. A heavy cyclone swept the advance camp with hardly and warning, and a sandstorm followed by a thunderstorm, demolished hundreds of huts and tents, destroying twelve miles of the new railroad, and cut off telegraphic communication with the front for several days.

Why Should He Talk?

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 1.—Mr. Bryan was shown the latest bulletin from Vermont giving the election returns, just before he retired. He declined to talk.

May Return to Armenia.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Miss Clara Barton, who is in Liverpool, has received such news of the massacre of Armenians in Constantinople that she abandoned her intention of sailing for American on the Servia today. If the troubles in Turkey continue she will return immediately to Armenia.

Italy's Demand From Brazil.

THE PASTEUR FILTER

STANDS ALONE IN THE WORLD AS A GERM-PROOF FILTER.

"The very best filter yet devised cannot rid the water of all micro-organism, with the sole exception of the PASTEUR FILTER."

—From report prepared for the Parliamentary Bills Committee of the British Medical Association, of England, in the "British Medical Journal," July 6th, 1895.

"In a report just issued, General Zurlinden, the French Minister of War, reviews the progress made in the army since 1886, in point of prophylactic measures. The most striking results are still as they were in Mr. de Freycinet's reports from 1889 to 1892, those relating to typhoid fever. In 1886 the number of cases of this disease was 7,771, being over 14 per 1,000; in 1894 it was 3,060, being under 6 per 1,000; a reduction obtained by an almost progressive decrease in each year. This result is shown by a detailed examination of the circumstances of those stations where the reduction has occurred to have invariably followed on the purification of the drinking water supplies. The report instances twenty-nine of the garrisons most subject in earlier years of typhoid fever, in each of which the introduction of an uncontaminated water supply has been followed by the disappearance of the disease, except in isolated cases, the majority of which were shown to have been contracted outside the barracks. In those cases where a new water supply has been provided, and the water was drunk UNFILTERED, epidemics followed from time to time on the contamination of the source, and disappeared on the application of PASTEUR FILTERS.

A Model Plant is not complete without Electric Power, thus dispensing with small engines.

Why not generate your power from one CENTRAL Station? One generator can furnish power to your Pump, Centrifugals, Elevators, Plows, Railways and Hoists; also furnish light and power for a radius of from 15 to 26 miles.

Electric power being used saves the labor of hauling coal in your field, also water, and does away with high-priced engineers, and only have one engine to look after in your mill.

Where water power is available it costs nothing to generate Electric Power.

THE HAWAIIAN ELECTRIC COMPANY is now ready to furnish Electric Plants and Generators of all descriptions at short notice, and also has on hand a large stock of Wire, Chandeliers and Electrical Goods.

All orders will be given prompt attention, and estimates furnished for Lighting and Power Plants; also attention is given to House and Marine Wiring.

The political pot is bubbling across the water and business there will be dead until after the election in November. We knew it would be and took advantage of the manufacturer's willingness to part with their goods below cost, rather than hold them over. You share the benefits with us.

This week we are offering you an opportunity of a life time to secure towels. When we say cut down the prices, it does not mean old stock, sold cheap to get rid of them, but new articles reduced to meet popular demand.

We have linen towels all lengths and qualities; a fine article for the boudoir and indispensible to ladies and children. Honey comb towels cheaper in price and not so good in quality, suitable for ordinary use. Turkish towels for the bath are as necessary as soap, no bathroom can be considered complete or perfect in its furnishings without them, and the prices are right.

A lot of good cotton towels at $1.25 per dozen means money in you pocket.

sence of any aggressive competition for the nomination. The trend of sentiment favors Bragg and Buckner, but there is a strong undercurrent for Vilas.

VERMONT'S MAJORITY.

It Far Exceeds Fondest Hopes of Republicans.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 2.—B. B. Smalley, a member of the Democratic National Committee for Vermont, who has in previous Presidential campaigns been an active worker at national headquarters, says the figures look more like a Republican caucus than an election. He starts for Europe tomorrow to remain until after the Presidential election.

The estimate of 40,000 plurality as the measure of Vermont's Republican victory bids fair to be realized by the official figures. Complete returns from 241 out of 247 counties and towns give Grout for Governor 53,824; Jackson, 14,676; Republican plurality, 39,418. The six towns to hear from will increase the plurality to more than 39,500.

The Republican vote is 5,302 larger than any ever before cast, and the Democratic vote is smaller than in any election since the close of the Rebellion. The Republican plurality is 10,000 larger than was ever given a candidate for Governor. There is a gain in the Republican plurality over the Presidential figures of 1892 of 11 per cent.

It is a noteworthy feature that with all the different political beliefs represented in the field this year the scattering vote, or all in opposition to the two leading parties is 594 less than in 1892. The Populist candidate for Governor polls less than 1000 votes and the Prohibition nominee probably less than 300.

WERE M'KINLEY EDITORS.

Big Delegation From West Virginia Visits Canton, Ohio.

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 1.—The advent of autum was noticeable in Canton by the arrival of a delegation of the Republican editors of West Virginia, 95 per cent of the Republican papers of the State being represented by their editors or owners in the delegation, and every man as well as woman and child who accompanied the delegation came to see Major McKinley.

The editors after dinner marched to the McKinley residence. The appearance of the Major was the signal for an outburst of applause. He was introduced by Hon. P. W. Morris, editor of the Ritchie Gazette and president of the Republican Press Association of West Virginia.

"Major McKinley's speech," said the Hon. A. B. White, secretary of the Republican committe of West Virginia, "will be of untold service to the Republicans of our State. It is a message freighted with information and wisdom. It will add to our strength in every community. It shows our people how great is their interest in protection and makes clear to them that their material proseprity depends upon the success of the Republican party. We are gaining ground every day in West Virginia, and we are working and fighting hard every day."

HOKE SMITH IS OUT.

He Has Finally Retired From Cleveland's Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Secretary Smith closed his administration of the Interior Department today and retired from the Cabinet. Today the Secretary devoted almost his entire time to taking leave of his associates and employes. When ex-Governor Francis will arrive from Missouri is not yet definitely known, though it will be before the end of the week. Secretary Smith will leave for Atlanta this evening or tomorrow night, leaving Assistant Secretary Reynolds in charge.

All important matters have been disposed of, so Francis will have a clear field to begin with. In the General Land Office the work is now practically up.

Still He Managed to Do a Little Talking.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The Bryan party left here this morning for Springfield. There were crowds at the train to see him off. On the train were the reception committees from Springfield and Kenton. A short stop was made at London for the nominee to shake hands with the crowd.

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio, Sept. 2.—The Democratic nominee was greeted by 20,000 people here, cheering him from the time he left the train until the police finally fought a way for him to the train bearing him to Toledo.

COCKRAN FOR M'KINLEY.

He Will Not Take Part in the Gold Convention.

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Edward M. Shepard, leader of the Brooklyn gold standard Democrats, announced last night that Bourke Cockran would not preside at the Indianapolis Gold Standard Democratic Convention if requested. He said that Cockran believes that the election of McKinley is necessary, and that Cockran had so announced himself, and does not care to participate in the convention when he intended to vote for McKinley.

Mrs. Lease Will Aid Bryan.

RUSHVILLE, Ind., Aug. 30.—Mrs. Mary E. Lease of Kansas in an interview after her speech here said she had espoused socialism for the coming form of government, and will, after the campaign, begin a propaganda for socialistic principles. She has abandoned all ideas of entering the ministry.

Mrs. Lease will stump the States of New York and Pennsylvania for Bryan. She says she proposes to take up her permanent residence on the Aatlantic coast. She does not like Tom Watson, and says if he is patriotic and a gentleman he will withdraw from the vice presidential race. At present she thinks him the greatest menace to Bryan's success.

Case of McKinley Fever.

KENTON, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Bryan said in his speech at Bellfontaine that the crowd seemed to be affected with yellow fever. Fully half of the people wore big yellow labels inscribed "McKinley Club." Men and women wore them and waved them in front of the Democratic candidate. There were plenty of Bryan shouters in the crowd, however, and these cheered while the brass band they had engaged cheered in his honor.

Big Crowd at Kenton.

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 2.—At Kenton Bryan addressed 6,000 citizens of that county. The address was made in the park of the little city and was well received. The crowd was mostly made up of farmers, who cheered the utterances of the nominee heartily.

THE PACIFIC
Commercial Advertiser.

WALLACE R. FARRINGTON, EDITOR.

FRIDAY, : : SEPTEMBER 11.

One of the coast exchanges is responsible for the statement that fifteen thousand people gathered on the wharf at Seattle when the first steamer of the new Japanese line arrived. It is said the people assembled to welcome the Miike-Maru "as a harbinger of increased commercial prosperity for the city." This is all very well, but the good citizens of Seattle must necessarily feel some chagrin that with the wonderful resources of the United States they are obliged to look to Japan for harbingers of prosperity. The American people ought to be ashamed of themselves that the time has come when the Japanese are giving them lessons in progress. When the "little brown men" get their fingers well clinched about the carrying trade of the Pacific, these enthusiasts of Seattle and other cities of the Western Coast will begin to wake up and wonder why they didn't take the initiative and seek to gain a foothold before it was too late.

Li Hung Chang's visit to the United States is of course a very serious matter, but he had not been on American soil very long before he was party to a farce-comedy that can only be equaled in diplomatic circles. We refer to the address made at the meeting with President Cleveland, when Li said: "It will always be the desire of my august master, the Emperor of China, to maintain the most cordial relations with America, whose friendly assistance rendered to the Government of China after the China-Japan war, and whose protection for the safety of Chinese immigrants in America are always to be highly appreciated." The assistance rendered after the China-Japan war is all right, but when the august Viceroy begins to talk about the protection his people have received from the American Government, his carefully prepared address appears like a big joke. If there is one place on the face of the earth where the Chinese have been hounded about, and in many cities kicked from pillar to post, that country is the United States. The Government may have offered a protest, but it was quite ineffectual, and finally the friendship became so warm that the Chinese were excluded from the country. Possibly Li regards exclusion as protection, because if any more had come to America, the anti-Chinese riots would have been of more common occurrence.

THE POLITICAL DRAMA.

The Vermont State election and the gathering of the National Democrats at Indianapolis are the leading features of the political drama in the United States since the last mail. The Republicans are naturally hilarious over the returns from Vermont, since the majority by which the State ticket was elected was several thousand above the calculations of the most enthusiastic prophet. Both Democrats and Populists suffered losses, which shows that the silver sentiment is at a very low ebb in this State, which is distinctly a State ruled by the farmers. The returns demonstrate that the educational campaign of the McKinley forces has been successful in one section.

The Democratic leaders are not given to explaining the result on any other grounds than that it is an example of the power of Committeeman Hanna's political machinery. The San Francisco Examiner says of the facts and figures produced by the voters of Vermont: "Their portent is not to be gainsaid. Explanation of them only makes more clear the duty of every Bryan supporter. * * *

"The vital lesson of the Vermont election is the evidence it gives of the resourcefulness of the Republican national machine. No point is too small for it to cover, no task too great for its capacity. Its means are ample, and its confidence, as is usual with the bearers of full purses, unbounded. The Democrats, unable for lack of the sinews of war to meet the enemy at every point, must pick the States in which the battle can be fought with the least ammunition, and deliver their attacks there. Vermont was not one of these States. Maine, which votes four days hence, is not. But from the returns in these invariably Republican States, Democrats may gain some idea of how fierce is the contest they have invited. * * * *

Let us not underestimate the significance of Vermont's election. It is twofold. It indicates surprising Republican activity and entire absence of Democratic effort."

But even Vermont's big majority has by no means wrought a panic in the silver ranks. Already the results of Candidate Bryan's tour through New York State are beginning to count for silver, it now being claimed that the Empire State, where a Republican majority of 100,000 seemed a sure thing, has been turned to the doubtful column and it is by no means a foregone conclusion that the much coveted thirty-six electoral votes will be secured for McKinley.

The gathering at Indianapolis is made up of the old line, conservative Democracy. It is distinctly a Cleveland convention and the power which its candidates will exert cannot be overestimated. The presence of such were as ex-Governor Flower of New York, Senator Caffery of Louisiana, Fairchild, Watterson, Outhwaite, Bynum, Hopkins, Vilas and Dr. Everett, all men of recognized ability who have a strong following, proves beyond question that the third party will not be a weakling.

Willett & Gray's sugar circulars continue to sing in a minor tone, and promise very little improvement in the market until the people of the United States have settled down to a definite idea whom they will elect to the President's chair. The circular for Aug. 27 has the following: "The political and financial situation is so much against improvement in any merchandise or trade prospects that holders of sugar are again despondent and more inclined to let go their stock as opportunity offers. Hence sales which were small at the beginning of the week under more cheerful outbursts have become larger toward the close under the less favorable prospects. We appear to be drifting into worse conditions as the time for violent political agitation comes nearer. The next two months will undoubtedly witness some important movements in the commercial trade of the country of a not altogether pleasant nature. We can have no improvement until the people make up their minds that McKinley is sure to be elected. While the silver craze will no doubt increase very much before election, and very likely produce much commercial trouble, yet we have no doubt at all that it will blow over before election day, and that McKinley will go in with a handsome majority. In the meantime, however, the sugar trade will continue on a hand-to-mouth basis and no unnecessary risks will be taken. There should be sufficient demand for refined product to permit refiners to accept all raw sugars that holders desire to sell, and it would seem to be good policy to keep the trade here rather than encourage foreign importations under present financial conditions. A very considerable amount of foreign sugar is, however, under engagement at the present time." It is to be noted that they expect more trouble before they have less, but still seem hopeful of the final outcome. As the majority of Hawaii's crop has been disposed of, the producers of this country can rest easy for a while, to say the least, and be thankful for the good fortune of catching the current of good prices while it flowed.

The return of the Armenian massacres again demonstrates the rottenness of the Sultan's administration and it is refreshing, that late dispatches bring well founded reports that Lord Salisbury is "getting tired" and unless baulked by the greed and jealousy of other nations is prepared to put an end to the Sultan's misrule. It seems reasonable to believe that the civilized nations of the globe cannot forever stand gaping at and bemoaning the horrors of Turkish rule without taking a disciplining hand in the affairs of the heathen Turk.

Came over to visit us on the Steamer Australia. He encased himself comfortably in one of our Alaska Ice Chests, and stowed his grub away in one of our Alaska Refrigerators, of which we have sizes and prices to suit either Jack or his wife Jill. Instead of a gripsack, Jack carried a Gem Ice Cream Freezer, and as fast as he twirled the freezer the ice cream began to heap up around him so that he had to empty it into one of our Painted Iron Bath Tubs, which suited the spectators to a T; for they all helped to eat up the ice cream, and then bought all the bath tubs before we could get them to the store. Never mind! We can get more of them, if you want one.

Jack got one of Captain Houdlette's men to swab him down every morning and he enjoyed the stream of water that issued from our 3-4 inch Garden Hose, which we carry in 25 and 50 feet lengths. "I'LL SIGN NOTHING, I AM AN OLD MAN."

Campbell on Witness Stand Testifies Against Winthrop.

WAS IN IRONS OVER TWO DAYS.

District Attorney Barnes Conducts Examination—First Saw Defendant in San Jose. Complainant Tells of Pete's Part in the Game—Was Plucky to the End of Drama.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Millionaire Campbell, in homely phrase, through which ran a suggestion of his native Scotch brogue and mode of expression that forty-six years' residence among the soft-speaking Kanakas of the Sandwich islands has not obliterated, told as weird and startling a story of crime from the witness stand and under oath as ever Robert Louis Stevenson put in a novel.

It was the story of his abduction and his fifty-two hours' imprisonment in handcuffs and chains in the cottage, 4109 California street. It was told without effort at dramatic effect and under the limitations which the rules of evidence impose, but with a simple earnestness and intensity that gave it a convincing force. At times he was carried away with the flood of his memories of his tragic experiences, and rising from his chair, accompanied his recital with gestures, unpracticed but forceful, that gave it a wonderful effect on those who heard it. His description of his struggle to escape when he was first made aware of the purpose for which he had been enticed to the isolated cottage was graphic in the extreme.

Again, when he told of the threats of torture made to him unless he signed the papers presented for that purpose, by which a ransom of $20,000 was to be extorted, his voice faltered and his eyes suffused with the remembrance of it as he repeated his reply, "I'll sign nothing; I'm an old man; I haven't long to live; what money I've got I worked hard for and I'll never give it up to a scoundrel like you, and rob my children."

Campbell was on the witness stand nearly the entire day, and his cross-examination is yet far from completed. His narrative was detailed and circumstantial without any confusion of incidents, as though each separate fact during that entire fifty-two hours of suspense had been burned into his memory. In only one particular did his testimony contradict the fact. That was in relation to the way in which the front door of the cottage is hung on its hinges.

District Attorney Barnes himself conducted the examination of Campbell. In reply to the usual preliminary questions the witness said he was a resident of Honolulu, and had been a resident of the Sandwich islands for forty-six years "come November." At that time, also, he would be 66 years old. He first saw Winthrop, the defendant, Friday afternoon, July 31st, about 3 o'clock, at the Hotel Vendome, San Jose. Winthrop introduced himself, said he had just sold a ranch for $70,000, wanted to invest it in coffee lands in the Sandwich islands, and wanted the witness' advice as well as his assurance to his wife that it would be a good climate for her health, she being an invalid.

"I told him I was going to sail Tuesday, and I would be very busy and wouldn't have time to call on his wife. But he urged me so much that I said, finally that if had time I would call."

Campbell then told of his return to San Francisco Monday, August 3d. Soon after for the Anglo-California Bank, Winthrop came up and began talking to him, urging him to see Mrs. Winthrop. Campbell refused for want of time, and the two walked together down Montgomery to Pine, where they separated, Campbell going to the bank, where he drew $250 in twelve double eagles and one $10 piece on a letter of credit issued by Bishop & Co. of Honolulu for $10,000. Campbell had this $250 in gold he had just drawn and which was in a leather purse, two $20 bills and one $10 bill, which, with his letter of credit, were in a long pocket-book in the inside pocket of his coat, and a $5 bill, two silver half dollars and a few silver dimes in his vest pocket.

Later in the day Winthrop again met him, and he yielded to his persuasions and started with him on a Sacramento-street car for Winthrop's supposed home on California street. Near the Mills building they met Urquhart in company with a lady.

Arriving at the cottage, 4109 California street, Campbell was ushered into the parlor to the chairs facing the door into the hall. The supposed Mrs. Winthrop did not appear and Campbell grew impatient. Winthrop assured him his wife would soon come in.

"The next thing I saw there was a man standing in the doorway. He had a pistol in his hand pointing it at me. His face was covered with a black silk or cotton handkerchief stuffed in his vest and under his hat, with holes bored in it for his eyes. He said, 'Up hands, or I'll shoot.' Winthrop stood up and held up his hands. I sat there. I didn't know what to do. Then the man came a little nearer and said again to throw up hands. Winthrop said to me, 'You'd better throw up your hands or he'll shoot.'

"I said, 'I'll be——if I throw up my hands'—that's the words I used—then I threw myself forward and to one side and struck him. He went down. Just as he was going down the pistol went off. The bullet grazed the right side of my head. I could feel it sting and it bled a little. The bullet went right through the rim of my hat. When the pistol went off I grabbed it by the muzzle and tried to take it away. He struggled to keep it. I was bending over him when Winthrop struck or kicked me from behind, at the same time saying, 'Hold on to the gun, Pete.' When he struck me from behind it threw me forward. I made a spring for the door and caught the knob. The door opened and I got one knee and one arm out. Winthrop threw himself against the door to shut it again and caught hold of me with one arm around my neck to pull me back. Then one of them hit me with something hard just behind the ear. It stunned me and I fell down. When I came to again I was lying on the floor. My legs were tied, but my hands were free. I began to struggle to get free. Then Winthrop said, 'Cut his throat, Pete, if he makes any more trouble.' Then they tied my hands together, dragged me into the hall bedroom back of the parlor and put me on a cane chair with a straight back. They lashed me to this.

"About 9 o'clock Tuesday morning Winthrop came in and asked if I would sign the papers. I said 'No.' 'Well,' he said, 'we'll have to torture you, then; them's the chief's orders.' Then Winthrop and Pete went into the bedroom, and I heard some hammering. Pretty soon they came out and took me into the bedroom and put me on the bed. They put handcuffs on me and fastened a chain to the handcuffs. The chain was fastened to the floor with three staples. They put a rope around my body and passed it around my wrists, and then around my legs, holding my hands down to my legs. Then Winthrop put a gag in my mouth, fastened it behind my head and kept there until Wednesday morning.

"Wednesday about o'clock Winthrop came in again. He said he was going to Mexico. He said he had brought me a new hat. I said, 'You'd better give me the old one.' He said the new one was better, and as it was the same size as the old he thought it would fit. He took the gag out of my mouth and asked me if I would eat. I said 'No.' I was afraid."

At 2 o'clock Winthrop came in again and said he was going to Mexico, and had given orders for Pete to release Campbell Thursday night. He placed the new hat, Campbell's pocket-book containing the letter of credit, the knife and keys and a nickel on the bureau in the room.

Then he went to the foot of the bed, and, putting his hands on it and leaning forward, said, "Now, Campbell, I'll give you a little advice; never make any friends with strangers after this." Campbell never saw him again until after his arrest. Soon after Winthrop left Pete came in.

However, the conversation with Pete and the details of Campbell's release from the fateful cottage were kept out by and objection interposed by Mr. Bell that it was long subsequent to the alleged robbery, and was not in the presence of the defendant.

Campbell was released that night, however, and "piloted" by Pete to within half a block of the Geary-street cars.

The witness identified the chain and ropes with which he was tied, the pillow slip and blankets of the bed to which he was chained, the file with which Pete pried up the staples and the pieces of board taken from the floor into which the staples were driven. Besides these, they were introduced as exhibits the coat he wore at that time, which was torn in his struggles at the door, and the new hat Winthrop gave him.

During Campbell's testimony the defendant Winthrop busily took notes of it and coached his attorney in cross-examination. It has been hinted that the story of the robbery was invented to account for it.

By the Transit which arrived on the 4th inst., we received 100 Jewel stoves and ranges (one large car load) direct from the factory at Detroit.

This is our third shipment, and we find that we have only 4 stoves left from our previous lot.

The excellence of these stoves has already been proved by the large sale, but we will name three points:

First. Long life from the heavy high grade of iron which is the same in the $12 stove as in the $50 range.

Second. Economy in the use of fuel.

Third. Quick and even bakers.

We propose leasing these stoves on the following terms:

When the stove is delivered one-third of the price is paid in cash, and the balance monthly thereafter in five equal payments.

If before the expiration of the five months, the lessee wishes to pay off the balance, he will be entitled to a discount of five per cent. on the amount unpaid.

If a customer wants to buy outright, he gets five per cent. discount on the whole amount.

Jewel stoves and ranges can be had only of us.

What Is PURIFINE?

It is the new disinfectant which has superseded all other disinfectants, being a scientific compound, having no odor, yet possessing the qualities of a powerful disinfectant.

The automatic distributor should be placed in every house in Honolulu where odors and germs of disease exist. They are placed free of charge, taken care of and kept working day and night for $1.00 per month. It's an innovation, but on scientific principles, and appeals to everyone of common sense. The idea is this: The distributor drops two drops a minute, day and night. Foul odors are killed, yet no disagreeable smell of carbolic acid or crude disinfectants takes its place. You don't know that a powerful disinfectant is being used if you judge by the lack of oder. But it's doing the duty—doing it well. Can we show you the "Ideal Automatic Distributor?" THREATENED TO KILL.

Joe Mattias, a Spaniard, Wanted to Carve John Bird Last Night.

Draws a Jack Knife While Under Arrest—A Struggle in Which Police Officers Come Out Ahead.

"Tomorrow I am going to kill a man," were the words addressed to officers Kakalia and Moau by Joe Mattias, a Spaniard, as he was being taken to the police station last night and subsequent action on his part gave force to his words.

Shortly before 8 o'clock, John Bird who drives a delivery wagon for McIntyre's grocery store, called in at the police station and told a story of how Mattias had threatened three separate times during the day to kill him. The last occasion had been just previous to his call at police headquarters. At this time Mattias had threatened that he would kill him during the night without fail. The Spaniard had entered the Magoon premises at Kakaako where he is living to give him this cheerful information.

The Deputy Marshal was informed and the order came up for Captain Hookano and two officers to go to Kakaawo at once and arrest Mattias. Arriving at his home near the Magoon premises Captain Hookano sent officers Kakalia and Moau inside while he remained outside in the hack.

Mattias was found at home and was put under arrest. While passing the house of a Portuguese friend on the way to the hack Mattias shouted, "Joe, come out here." "Joe's" wife got ahead of him and came running out with her daughter. The tardy husband followed at a distance. Then came some parley between the Spaniard and the Portuguese. The officers became weary of this and hurried their prisoner forward.

It was at this time that he threatened to kill a man on the morrow. After saying this he reached around in his hip pocket and pulled out a jack knife whether to cut off a piece off his plug of tobacco or to go through the motions of cutting some one's throat, has not been decided on yet.

At any rate the officers took no chances and Kakalia grabbed the wrist of the hand that contained the weapon while Moau attempted to pin the prisoner. Mattias made a dive at the latter and threw him over, but Kakalia held on to his wrist. After a spirited struggle the officers got control of Mattias who by this time had dropped the knife.

While this little side play was going on, a crowd of Portuguese collected and some of the bolder spirits made an attempt to get Mattias out of the hands of the officers, but the latter hurried their man to the hack and took him to the police station.

Shortly afterwards Mrs. Mattias, a Portuguese, appeared at the police station and gave the information that her husband would not have gotten "crazy" if it had not been for the wine the Portuguese gave him in liberal quantities.

Probably a Thief.

On Tuesday between 12 and 1 o'clock young Alfred Castle, who was dressing in his room at his father's place on Kinau street, happened to look across to the Lowrey residence, just mauka and there saw a half-white boy about sixteen years old taking stealthy peeps in at one of the windows. He at once notified his mother, who ran over to the Lowrey home. The intruder caught sight of some one coming and dropped the spade he had in his hand, made a break for the gulch near by, ran into the street and then on as hard as he could go toward Waikiki. Of course he may not have meant any harm, but his gazing in at a window with a spade in his hand, and then running off at full speed at the appearance of any one, would at least go to show that the boy had a guilty conscience.

The Old Red Lion Burned.

STOCKBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 31.—The historic Red Lion, of Stockbridge, the most popular hotel in the Berkshire hills, was burned today. Only the front wall, which dates from 1773, was left standing. The house had 189 guests, but no lives were lost. The loss is $50,000.

The case of George Houghtailing for selling spirituous liquor without a license will be the first on the police court calendar today, and will probably take up the whole day, as a determined fight is anticipated. Charles Creighton and Ka-ne will appear for defendant, and Marshal Brown will attend to the prosecuting.

Applicants selected twenty-eight more lots yesterday in the Bruce Waring tract at Kewalo, making seventy lots in all, now taken. This is the result of advertising in the Advertiser.

No one with any sporting blood can afford to miss the bicycle races at Kapiolani Park Saturday afternoon, and Horstman of Dortmund, Germany, will be the contestant upon whom all eyes will be turned.

During the last three months there have arrived in Honolulu from the coast several young ladies and gentlemen who are fine tennis players. The season will start up again soon, and then they will be sure to come to the front.

The reserved seat sale for the Trilby performance opened with a rush yesterday morning and before night nearly 300 seats were disposed of. The sale will be continued this morning. Positively but one performance of Trilby will be given.

It is rumored that the Honolulus have a big surprise in store for the soldier boys on Saturday. They are unwilling at the present time to give out anything on account of the very fact that they have determined to make the surprise complete.

The sale of the season will take place next Friday, September 18th, when W. S. Luce will sell at public auction the entire stock of dress goods, clothing, hosiery, etc., belonging to the estate of M. S. Levy, said sale to be held at M. S. Levy's old stand on Fort street.

There will be a grand celebration by the Sons of St. George at Independence Park Pavilion on the evening of September 25th, in honor of the fact that Queen Victoria has been so privilieged that she has reigned over the British Empire longer than any of her predecessors.

There was but one fish received at the fish market from the harbor yesterday, and that was a big 75-pound ulua, caught in a net near the lighthouse. The Chinamen could not get their nets and boats ready to do any work yesterday, but today the market will very likely be overflowing with fish.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pacific Tennis Club was held in the office of the Hawaiian Safe Deposit and Investment Company at the noon hour yesterday. Ladies' day will be started again on the first Wednesday in October, with a formal opening. Other routine matters of business were attended to and the meeting adjourned.

Within the past fortnight or more there have been quite a number of calls at the police station for assistance of officers to search various premises in the city, people having caught sight of suspicious looking characters prowling round their respective homes. The mounted patrolmen are keeping an extra sharp lookout for such people just now.

Tennis enthusiasts will be interested to learn that Neel, Larned and Wrenn, three Eastern champions, will compete in the San Rafael tournament in the near future. Robert S. Wrenn is the holder of the singles championship of America. Carr B. Neel of Chicago, formerly an Oakland boy, recently won the doubles championship of America with his brother, and W. S. Larned was the runner-up at the national tournament held at New York.

Bruce Waring & Co. are having the land they recently bought at Kewalo, just back of the Kawaiahao church, platted and surveyed, and invite prospective purchasers to send in their applications for lots. Those who come first will have first choice. The price of $200 per lot on the easy payment plan brings this property which is so close to the business part of town within reach of everybody. Applications for lots will close on Saturday, Sept. 26th, 1896.

Jas. Harvey, of the Wilder's Steamship Company shops, had his hand badly cut by a buzz-saw while at work yesterday morning. He will lose four fingers.

A Portuguese grocery wagon with a pretty frisky horse attached to it made things lively in front of the Eagle House yesterday afternoon when it collided with a garbage wagon that happened to be in the vicinity at the time. There was a lively kicking match on the part of the horses and a chorus of screams on the part of the women near by.

SENT IT TO HIS MOTHER IN GERMANY.

Mr. Jacob Esbensen, who is in the employ of the Chicago Lumber Co., at Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I have just sent some medicine back to my mother in the old country, that I know from personal use to be the best medicine in the world for rheumatism, having used it in my family for several years. It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work." 50 cent bottles for sale by all druggists and dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

FOOD

How is your appetite? That's a leading question—it means one of two things—health or illness. No matter how much or how excellent food you have, without a normal appetite, you can't enjoy it. The digestive apparatus gets run down; needs toning up.

The "BEST" TONIC, made from wholesome grain, is excellent for a jaded appetite. It seems to be just the thing needed. A few bottles will set up a normal appetite. You can get Pabst's "Best" Tonic of

The Ruling Fad

Fac similes of your signature accurately engraved, no matter how badly or how well you write. No matter how many flourishes you affect, we'll portray it exactly as you write it.

The "Four Hundred" are using this style, which for the time being is superceding the plain script; yet for all that it must not be inferred that it is the only correct thing; as even a plain block letter has made its appearance.

Tastes and a leaning to "Fads" have much to do with ruling styles.

We stand ready to cater to your taste.

Our suggestion might help you some also; for you know we keep posted on correct things in that line.

Safe Deposit Boxes

WE HAVE A FEW MORE BOXES in our Safe Deposit Vault which are not yet rented. There are four sizes, varying in price from $12 to $30 per year. Any private papers left in these boxes are perfectly safe, as the vaults are fire-proof and are fitted with time locks, which makes them absolutely burglar-proof. There are two keys to each box, both of which are given to the party renting box, and should these keys be stolen they would be useless to bearer, as he could not open the box without our master-key being first inserted.

Parties leaving the Islands for their summer vacations will find it a convenient place to leave any valuables.

Boxes can be rented by the month or year as desired. Apply to

THE GAELIC'S MISHAP.

Several Plates were Damaged. On the Drydock.

VICTORIA (B. C.), September 1.—The Occidental and Oriental Steamship Company's steamer Gaelic was actually crowded on to what is known as Beacon rock in Shimonoseki channel, according to the latest advices received by the Empress of China, which arrived here today. The channel was crowded with vessels, principally junks, which will not clear the course for even the largest steamers.

The Gaelic could not get out of the way of the vessels and one of them, a coal-laden junk, she ran down. A few minutes later another coal-laden junk struck her on the starboard quarter and the junk began to sink. The big steamer, which was going very slowly, was stopped and a boat lowered to save the crew of the junk. While this was going on the Gaelic was drifting toward Beacon rock and before it was noticed she was dangerously near it. Orders were given to get under way, but they came too late, for before the big steamer was in motion she was caught by the tide, which took her on the rocks broadside.

Although not under way she struck hard enough to fracture several of her plates, and an examination showed that there was water in all three compartments. She was floated about three hours after striking and after being beached was pumped dry and the cargo discharged. The Nagasaki drydock being in use, the Gaelic was patched up and was to have been sent to Hongkong for repairs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The steamer Gaelic, that ran on a reef on the Japanese coast, has been placed in the dry dock at Nagasaki. Today the Merchants' Exchange was notified that several of the vessel's plates had been broken and the frames near the broken plates bent. The damage to the steamer, however, was not of serious consequence and could be easily repaired.

The ships W. F. Babcock and Iroquois which took sugar from this port last season, are on the berth in New York loading for San Francisco.

WHARF AND WAVE.

AT DIAMOND HEAD SIGNAL STATION, Sept. 10, 10 p. m.—The weather is clear; wind light, east.

The steamship Altmore will sail for Yokohama at 12 o'clock noon today.

Yokohama—Arrived, August 27, Br. stmr Belgic, from San Francisco August 8, via Honolulu.

The Martha Davis, Aloha and W. H. Dimond are on the berth in San Francisco, loading for this port.

The bark Ceylon sailed from Port Gamble on August 28th, with a lumber cargo consigned to Allen & Robinson.

The schooner J. A. Cummins sailed for Koolau yesterday, taking over 1,500 bags of paddy for Hyman Bros.' rice mill.

The S. G. Wilder left San Francisco for this port on August 30th, and the schooner Muriel for Honoipu August 31st.

Yesterday afternoon twenty Japanese were sent out to work coal on the Gainsborough. The Lavinia, came in with 1,000 bags of coal yesterday morning.

The Waialeale arrived yesterday morning from Kauai, bringing only 175 bags of rice. She departed in the afternoon for Kapaa, taking 100 tons of coal for the plantation.

Captain Griffiths of the bark Albert, Charles McCarthy and Messrs. Babbitt and Bliss left on the train for Waianae Wednesday morning for a tour of inspection of the plantation at that place.

The ship Roanoke, which took the largest sugar cargo that ever left this port—88,500 bags—arrived in New York on August 30th, making the passage in 125 days, having left here on April 26th.

Captain Hubbard expects to leave for San Francisco about Tuesday next, and should the Castle and the Albert leave the same day there will be a chance for an ocean race, for both are smart packets.

The S. S. Altmore, Captain Watts, arrived yesterday morning, 10½ days from Portland, Ore., consigned to Theo. H. Davies & Co. She brings some 300 tons of freight, principally flour and feed, for this port, and a heavy cargo in transit. She is discharging at the Oceanic wharf and will sail from that dock today at 12 noon.

The tug Fearless and the ship John Ena while on their way from Mare Island to San Francisco got the full of the explosion of the California Powder Works on September 1st. Both vessels were off Point Pinole when the disaster took place and the concussion almost stopped the tug white the ship heeled over as if in a heavy gale.

The P. M. S. S. City of Rio de Janeiro came into port early yesterday morning. Following is the report kindly furnished by Purser Freeman:—City of Rio de Janeiro, Captain Wm. Ward, from San Francisco, Sept. 3, 1896, at 4.07 p. m. Arrived at Honolulu Sept. 10th, at 4:14 a. m. Passage 6 days, 14 hours, 31 minutes. Have had fine weather the whole trip.

Inter-Island's New Steamer.

On August 30, in latitude 42 deg. 3 min. N., longitude 125 deg. 14 m. W., the schooner James Spiers, from Port Blakeley, was spoken, arriving in San Francisco on September 2d. When the James Spiers leaves San Francisco she will be the steamship ——, for the Spiers is none other than the new steamer which will carry the commodore's flag of the Inter-Island Company. She is a vessel 195 feet long and fitted up with all the latest improvements known to marine architecture, and will be a credit to the merchant marine of Honolulu, as well as to her owners. The vessel came down from Port Blakeley, where she was built, to San Francisco, under sail, in the short time of 10 days, with a load of lumber for Benton Holmes & Co., and in command of Captain Allep. The vessel will receive her engines and boilers in San Francisco, and may be expected here in charge of Captain Godfrey early in November.

Coal for P. M. S. S. Co.

The steamship Aztec was telephoned at 11:30 yesterday morning and arrived in port at 2:30 p. m.

The Aztec is commanded by Captain Brown, and left Nanaimo, B. C., on August 29; consequently made the passage in 13 days. She is consigned to H. Hackfeld & Co., and brings a cargo of 4,652 tons of coal for the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, by whom she is owned and used for the purpose of supplying outside ports with coal. The Aztec came into port flying the Hawaiian flag, having a temporary Hawaiian register. When discharged she will be remeasured and formally put under the flag of the Islands.

The First Japanese Steamer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The Mike-Maru of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha, the Japanese Mail Steamship Company that recently decided to run its vessels to an American port, will leave Seattle on September 5th. All her cabin accommodations have been engaged. The steamer City of Puebla, which leaves here for Seattle tomorrow, will take about twenty passengers who will go to the Orient on the steamer. She will carry about 300 tons of freight from this port. The steamer is one of 3,112 tons burden and has been handsomely fitted up. A steamer of the Japanese line will leave Seattle for the Orient about the 1st of each month under the present schedule.

Pacific Lodge, A. F. & A. M.

COLD WATER PAINT

Especially Designed for Inside Work on Factories and Public Buildings.

It is a dry powder which can be prepared for use by simply stirring in COLD WATER, and can be applied by anyone, and will always produce good work.

It is VERY WHITE, extremely reflective and hardens on a wall like stone, and will take any tint.

It will last for years and is unaffected by gases.

One coat covers better than two coats of oil paint or whitewash.

It can be used on any surface and for all classes of work, even for the finest decorating.

OUTSIDE INDURINE.

This Is for Outside Work.

Such as Fences, Outbuildings, Laborers' Quarters. It is a thick paste to be diluted with cold water, stands rain and exposure as well as oil paint, and costs but a fraction as much.
