AGUINALDO TALKED

MRS. COFFEE SECURES AN INTERVIEW.

Imprisoned Leader Talks Diplomatically—Is Afraid of Lunar's Men. Plays Good Game of Checkers.

Mrs. Coffee, wife of Colonel "Jack" Coffee, who has just returned to Honolulu while only a few weeks in the Philippines enjoyed the unique experience of a lengthy talk and conversation with Aguinaldo in the old palace in which he is now confined.

"I had an exceptional opportunity to see him," said Mrs. Coffee this morning, "and you may be sure I made the most of it and fully enjoyed the occasion. Lieutenant Lewis, who is in charge of Aguinaldo, is a personal friend of Mr. Coffee and myself and made the arrangements for us to see him. We drove out Mindanao way to the old palace where he is, riding in a carromatta, a vehicle that is beyond description and minus springs. One has to ride in one to appreciate, or rather depreciate it. We stayed longer than we expected because it rained, not that that was anything unusual, it always raining over there. I had two weeks of the climate which proved two weeks too many for me.

"Well as misfortune had it, we had been deluded into taking this rig that was a regular sieve as far as wet weather was concerned, so that we had to stay over at the palazzio while another covered arrangement on wheels was sent for from town.

"Of course you all know what Aguinaldo looks like, short and swarthy with a pompadour brush of hair springing up from a not very high forehead beneath which gleam two bright black eyes. He is very cautious and pretends that his English is mostly of the 'no sabe' order but in reality he has quite a fluent tongue in the language of the Americanos. He spoke to me nearly all the time in beautiful Spanish. He converses generally through the medium of Lieutenant Lewis who acts as general interpreter.

"The place is very closely garrisoned and Aguinaldo himself keeps inside the house by preference. The old palace is on the river and he is in mortal fear of Lunar's men. There seems to be no doubht that if they had the chance Del Lunar's people would kill him without compunction the first opportunity they got.

"Aguinaldo is extremely politic in his speech concerning America and very profuse in his personal compliments. He declares himself to be a great admirer of all American women and insinuates that he is of the one he is speaking to in particular. The fact that I was married and had a little girl he protested against as impossible.

"He declares that he wants very much to come to America and that he is going to do so before long. Washington would seem to be the particular point of his ambition 'It is a beautiful city, I have been told,' he says, 'as of course it should be, seeing that it is the capital of that great nation America.'

"We stayed there altogether four hours and I spent quite a little while with him. He was extremely courteous during the visit. He reads and writes and smokes, passing away the time much as any other individual in his circumstances. He plays checkers a good deal and I had a game with him. I have been told that I play a very fair game of draughts myself, but my utmost endeavors could not cope with the strategy of the little leader. He turned my defeat into victory however with graceful and flowery compliments. Altogether he is a very interesting personality, aside from his political importance and I would have been very sorry to have missed the chance of seeing him."

FILIPINOS SUBDUED

HOW CHICAGO CORRESPONDENT VIEWS SITUATION.

Says Disasters in Samar Island Were Due to Fact that Place Had Not Been Subjected.

According to the opinion of J. M. McCormick, of the Chicago Tribune who is returning home on the Coptic, the Philippines are under excellent control and there is really little occasion for alarm over the recent killing of several detachments of United States troops on the island of Samar.

Mr. McCormick went out to the Philippines last summer at the invitation of Adjutant General Corbin, when the latter went on his inspection of the Philippines. Mr. McCormick had the opportunity of inspecting the various army posts throughout the islands and becoming intimately acquainted with the real condition of affairs throughout the islands. He is quite optimistic in his estimation of the situation.

"In my opinion," he said this morning "The reports which have been sent out by the Associated Press and New York Sun correspondents are too much of an alarming character. The situation in the Philippines does not, I think, warrant such reports being sent abroad. As a matter of fact, we have the islands under control, with the possible exception of Samar, Mandanao and some of the hill section of Luzon. Those recent outbreaks at Samar have practically no bearing whatever upon the situation throughout the other islands of the Archipelago. In fact, those uprisings have no more significance or influence than an uprising in Alaska, for instance might have on the balance of the United States, or indeed, probably not so much.

"You see the conditions in the islands are simply this: each island has to be subjected in turn. The army has disposed of practically all of them except Samar, Mindanao and some of the hill section of Luzon and these will in turn, have to be handled as the rest of the islands were.

"It is a wonder to me that worse loss was not inflicted upon our forces on Samar. Practically no offensive operations had been begun before these outbreaks and the United States forces were scattered in small detachments about the islands. I accompanied General Smith to Samar after the first outbreak and was on the island when the second attack occurred. At the time of my departure for home, operations against the insurgents on Samar were being begun and I look for news within a few weeks more of the subjugation of the entire island."

FRANCE AND GERMANY

FRANCE HAS SOME LOOTING SENSATIONS.

SHANGHAI, November 28.—A sensation has been created in Paris by the disclosure of a confidential report of General Voyron, accusing a French missionary and a legation lady of systematic looting at Peking.

SAIGON, November 27.—On the demand of the government, the French Chamber of Deputies fixed at 265 million francs the amount of the Chinese loan.

SAIGON, November 23.—The Chamber of Deputies has discussed the Chinese loan. M. Hubbard made a long speech against the French protectorate of Christians in China. The general dicussion having been closed, M. Sembat proposed the adjournment of the debate. M. Waldeck-Rosseau opposed the proposition, and by 398 votes to 183 the Chamber agreed to pass to the discussion of the articles.—Japan Mail.

SHANGHAI, November 25.—The German press has resumed its normal tone, although Anglo-phobe demonstrations continue, and the pastors throughout the country deliver Anglo-phobe homilies.

SHANGHAI, November 26.—The German agitation about Chamberlain's speech finds not the fainest echo in Austro-Hungary, which looks askance at the German tariff.

SHANGHAI, November 23—The British papers comment on the seriousness of the German agitation. The Times reminds Germans that we claim an equal right to defend the honor of our gallant soldiers, and that we resent accusations founded on the most hateful and poisonous calumnies and disseminated with a persistence inexplicable in a friendly nation.

ALARM CALL SYSTEM

FIRE AND POLICE BOXES TO BE INSTALLED RIGHT AWAY.

Manila Boasts $100,000 System Now. Filipinos Slow to Trust American Kindness.

Colonel Coffee, with whose firm the contracts for installing the fire and police alarm system of Honolulu was completed and appropriations made by the last legislature; returned from the East today on the Coptic.

Colonel Coffee has just finished the installation of a complete fire and police system in Manila, including patrol wagons and all the accessories of a complete and up to date equipment which will cost the new territory in the neighborhood of $100,000.

"Many improvements have been made of late in Manila," says the colonel "and they were pointed out to me by the official and older inhabitants. I must confess that I looked upon them with a jaundiced eye however as the climate there treated me any thing but kindly. I managed to lose thirty odd pounds, while I could comfortably dispense with some of them, thirty in so short a time was more than I had bargained for.

"Things over there are generally getting more settled and the reins of official government have been drawn tighter. The characteristic of the Filipino seems to be an uncertainty as to the meaning of the term friendship as offered to them by the American government.. Friendship and peaceful tactics seem to them to spell weakness. They have been so often deceived, I suppose under the old Spanish regime, that offering to treat them decently makes them think there is something behind it all, some scheme by which you are trying to get the better of them.

"After the Samar massacre there seems to be a general official opinion that the Filipino is not to be trusted and closer watch is being kept on those lines. It looked for a while as if the only good Filipino, like the American Indian, was a dead Filipino.

"There is one thing over there that needs remedying and that is the lightering and casco service in the Philippines and indeed all the way down from Hong Kong to Manila. The material that I took down for instance, could hardly have been more staunchly and carefully boxed. It came out of the steamer at Hong Kong all right but when next I saw it at Manila there was hardly a piece that had a comple covering left upon it. The way they handle things there in the Custom House with the Filipino and Malay laborers is a caution.

"But it is during the lightering and unloading that the worst damage results. They throw boxes anyhow from one casco to another and the more they smash the happier they seem to be, for all the world like a continental baggage smasher.

"We tried to get up a lodge of Elks in Manila but although we started a little enthusiasm it died out as all enthusiasm does in that Monday-morning-in-a-wash-house climate and when I left nothing definite had been arranged.

"The installation of the local system here will soon be commenced. I am only awaiting the arrival of my men who are due here now and will I imagine come on the Doric which I think arrives today. It will not take very long to have the whole system in working order. I shall remain here myself to superintend the matter for the firm."

FISHING RIGHTS LAW

JOHN II ESTATE FILES A PETITION.

To Establish Its Rights, Which are to be at Once Condemned by the Territory.

The John II estate by J. A. Magoon and T. I. Dillon has brought suit against the Territory to establish its fishing rights appurtenant to eight pieces of land on this island, all but one in the district of Ewa. The company states that it has held the rights since time immemorial and desires to establish a legal title, under section 96 of the Organic Act.

The pieces of land in question are named as follows: Ahupuaa of Waipio, III of Homakaia, Hanapouli, Miki, Auiole, Ulemoku, Mokuumeume and Mokuumeume and Makaua, all in the district of Ewa except the last named piece, which is in Koolauloa. All the fishing rights involved are in Pearl Harbor lagoon or lochs, or in the channel leading from the harbor to the sea.

Section 96 of the Organic Act, under which the suit is brought, provides that any person who claims a fishing right shall file petition to establish such right. If the right is established the Attorney General shall proceed to condemn the right for use of the public, just compensation to be made to the holders of the rights.

J. J. Arrail has begun suit for divorce from Guilhemma J. Arrail, charging her with desertion and asking for the custody of their child.

An appeal has been made by Henry Smith, against the order of Judge Gear, directing him to pay into the estate the sum of $2,114, repaid to Bruce Cartwright, on account of advances made by him to the heirs.

Kaoluho Kahula has brought suit against Julia Lee, Mary Lee and Clara Lee, minors, for partition of some property in Pauo, owned by her and the defendants as heirs of the estate of Rose Kahula Lee.

COPTIC'S FAST TRIP

BROKE HER OWN RECORD FROM YOKOHAMA.

Brought Large Number of Japanese For This Port—Has Big Lot of Freight—Her Passengers.

A record between Yokahama and Honolulu was broken this morning when the Coptic was sighted from the Orient about 2:30 o'clock. The crack vessel of the O. & O. Company lowered her own record for that run and established a new second-best record for the trip. She made the voyage of 3400 miles in 9 days 9 hours and 42 minutes, which is exceeded only by the China, which holds the best record with 8 days, 6 hours and 15 minutes, made in December, 1897.

The Coptic left Hongkong, November 20, Nagasaki, November 28 and Yokohama, November 30. For the first time in many months, she brought the latest news from the outside world. The newspaper files contained six days additional information, although the news is of the briefest character.

The vessel brought the largest number of Japanese landed in Honolulu in months. The list of Japanese consists of 243, including about 90 women and children. In addition to these passengers, she brought several cabin passengers for Honolulu and 1183 tons of freight, of which 800 tons consists of gunny sacks. The vessel has a large list of cabin passengers for San Francisco.

Among those aboard is G. E. Allen, a bank clerk at Tientsin.

L. L. Bailey is a mining engineer who is returning from Singapore. He is accompanied by his wife.

Quite a number of Hollanders from Sumatra are passengers on the vessel. They are returning home from the Orient by way of the United States. Among them is Colonel van Bylevelt and wife. He was in command of one of the regiments in that island. R. Z. Dannenbargh is an ex-judge of Sumatra. He is accompanied by his wife.

J. T. Bigelow is a mining engineer who has been in Siberia.

John W. Campbell and Thomas Fisher are coal mining men who are returning from a tour of the east. They have been inspecting coal mines in that quarter. They represent Pennsylvania capitalists.

Lieutenant Benten C. Decker was formerly on the Helena.

Lieutenant A. L. Key was formerly the United States naval attache at Tokyo, until relieved recently. He is accompanied home by his wife and children.

Mrs. R. C. Howard is the wife of the O. & O. Company's agent at Yokohama. She is accompanied home by Miss Gladys Howard.

Miss Dessa M. James and Miss Olive E. James are society people of Pittsburg, who have been touring Japan.

The Coptic will leave for San Francisco at 10 p. m. tonight. She may discarge her freight before that time and in such an event she will leave earlier. Dr. R. B. Irones who has been the surgeon of the vessel for some time past, will probably leave the vessel this trip, as he desires to practice his profession ashore.

INCOME TAX SMALL

THE TOTAL ASSESSMENTS ONLY $335,000.

Almost All From Oahu—Returns From Other Islands Being Investigated by an Expert.

The total amount of the assessments of income tax throughout the Islands, as shown by reports received and figured up by Treasurer Wright, show the amount of money coming from this source to be far less than any of the estimates made so far. The assessments amount to $335,000, of which $277,00 is for the island of Oahu.

The figures show that returns were made by persons whose incomes for the year 1900 aggregated $16,750,000. Citizens and corporations of Oahu alone had incomes amounting to $13,850,000. Most of this is Honolulu returns, where the large corporations have their head offices. The incomes are net incomes, with the sum of $1000 from the net receipts deducted in each case.

The total is little over half what was expected by many who had made calculations. In the legislature, when the income tax bill was under discussion, it was estimated that the tax would bring in $500,000.

The returns from the other islands may be revised to some extent. Expert Scrimgeour is now on Hawaii, expering accounts. Before returning to Honolulu he will visit Maui on the same errand, and his reports may result in some increases of the amounts assessed. It is not expected, however, that there will be a very material increase.

NOT A HAPPY LIFE

DISAGREEABLE EXPERIENCE IN THE PHILIPPINES.

Among the passengers on the Coptic are Miss C. M. Gray and Miss E. L. Gray who went out to the Philippines last August to teach in the public schools. Their experience was not a very happy one for owing to the misfortune of Miss E. L. Gray's health breaking down, they were forced to give up their positions and return home. Both remember Honolulu very kindly, as they were among the famous crowd aboard the transport Thomas which stopped here last July with several hundred teachers aboard.

After reaching Manila, the Misses Gray were assigned to position at Pasig, which is about 12 miles out of Manila. They did not teach more than about six weeks for Miss E. L. Gray became very ill with consumption and it was decided absolutely imperative that she should be removed to her home in Missouri. They lost no time in resigning their positions and starting for home November 13. They left Manila on that day for Hongkong where they caught the Coptic.

"We are scarcely long enough in the island," said Miss C. N. Gray this morning, "to become very well acquainted with the conditions there. In fact, we were not thrown much with the other teachers and did not, in consequence, hear much of their experiences. Some of the teachers who went to the outside provinces found the work far from agreeable. The cost of living was quite high. In many of the places, the teachers have begun to teach night school, for which they receive $15 additional every month. The children, and in fact, the adult Filipinos are very bright. When the teachers first went to the schools, the children did not know a word of English but within a very short time however, the pupils learned the English language or at least enough of it to understand. They are very anxious to learn English. In some of the schools men sixty years of age attend. They prove very bright pupils too."

Although Miss Gray was rather reticent about discussing the experience of herself and sister in the school service in the Philippines, to fellow passengers on the Coptic she was not so guarded and is quoted by them as declaring that the Philippines were an awful place. Life in those islands was very severe and trying and it was hard to get anything very good to eat.

In speaking of the question of health Miss Gray said today, "The climate in the Philippines is very hard. Quite a number or resignations have been sent in because the teachers were unable to stand the climate. Indeed, I think that this will prove to be the cause of most of the resignations. Just how many have resigned I am unable to say, for the school department keeps those matters to itself. I understand that Miss Mossman who is a Honolulu girl, was not pleased with her position and as they did not transfer her, she resigned."

The Manchurian Muddle Receives New Complications—Russia Seems to be Getting the Worst of It.

YOKOHAMA, November 27.—A dispatch just received at Tokyo says: Prince Ching was to arrive in Peking on November 29.

An Imperial Decree has been issued that the Court will leave Kaifong for Peking on December 3.

The Asahi Shimbun publishes a telegram to the effect that, according to a distinct declaration made by the Russian Minister, the Newchwang-Shanhaikwan Railway will not be restored to China until the Manchurian problem is solved. On the other hand, England declares that she will not give up the Peking-Shanhaikwan line until Russia restores the Newchwang Shanhaikwan. It is alleged that Admiral Alexieff's visit to Peking is in connection with the Manchurian question.

TOKYO, November 27.—The Japanese Consul in Newchwang reports from Newchwang under date of the 16th instant that Admiral Alexieff reached that place by train from Port Arthur on the 15th instant, and left, the same day, by rail for Peking. It is supposed that he visits the capital for the purpose of consulting the Russian Representative with regard to the Manchurian Agreement.

The same Consul reports that the head of the civil administration of Newchwang, having obtained leave of absence, handed over the duties of his post to Commander Eberhardt on the 14th inst.

The French Government, having for some time entertained the design of attaching a commercial agent to the Legation in Bankok, has now carried out the project. M. de Nofiuean has been appointed and will soon arrive at Bankok.—Japan Mail.

TIENTSIN, November 26.—According to a rumor circulating in diplomatic circles here Russia seems to have found it disadvantageous for herself to retard the progress of the Manchurian negotiations and has decided to simplify the alleged agreement with China on this affair so as to hasten its final conclusion.—Japan Times.

E. H. Wang Wen-shao, who cannot arrive at Peking before the Empress Dowager's Birthday, is anxious to leave the settlement of the Manchurian question with Russia entirely to Prince Ching.

The Empress Dowager has almost determined to follow Prince Ching's advice and return at once to Peking, but the final decision is postponed to the 25th instant when a decree will be issued fixing the date for the return. —N. C. Daily News.

DIED.

McMILLAN—Sunday morning, December 8, 1901, at the Queen's Hospital, Honolulu, Hugh McMillan, a member of the M. E. B. A. No. 35 of San Francisco, Cal.

San Francisco papers please copy.

The funeral was held at 1 o'clock this afternoon from the hall of the Marine Engineers Benevolent Association.

MEMENTO MORI.

Funeral Yesterday of the Late Johnson Nickeus.

Funeral services over the ashes of the late Johnson Nickeus were held at the Elk's hall yesterday afternoon. The ceremonies were those of the Elk's ritual. The funeral sermon was preached by the Rev. William Morris Kincaid. The body had been cremated, and the ashes now repose in a mortuary urn.

Final disposition of them will not be decided on until directions are received from the widow, who is in New York.

Besides members of the Elks there were present at the services many friends of the deceased including a number who came from Hilo by the Kinau. Among these were Judge Carl S. Smith, L. M. Whitehouse W. A. Brown and George Rodiek.

The daughter of the deceased also came by the Kinau, but was not present at the services.

There were many floral tributes presented. These were afterwards distributed among the hospitals of the city.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

Wanderers' Nine Loses to Maile Ilima Eleven.

The first game of the Association League brought out a big crowd of interested spectators. The Wanderers played two men short, no reserves having arrived. The Mailes won the game by a score of five goals to none the losing team being unable to make headway against the odds.

Boyle played an excellent game for the winners. Notley for the Wanderers defended his goal bravely, Blackman and Catton played well but there is a tendency in both teams on the part of individual players who consider, perhaps justly, that they have more experience than the others, to keep the ball all to themselves and attempt to dribble it through an entire eleven. Saturday's game particularly showed the fallacy of such attempts. A little team work in passing does not furnish such gallery plays but it is better football. D. W. Anderson made an excellent referee.

Hot Flashes,

Blurring of the sight, rush of blood to your head, creeping sensations, numbness, dizziness, headache—don't amount to much? Well, yes! They mean that your nerves have been and are being overworked; that your nervous force is nearly exhausted, and that you are on the eve of a general break-down unless you hasten to repair the lost vitality and regain your nervous strength by taking Dr. Miles' Nervine, the great nerve food and tonic.

"I was subject to hot flashes, rush of blood to head, nervous chills, numbness, tender scalp, declining memory, irritable temper and a general run-down condition. AN APPEAL IS TAKEN

EFFORT TO FORCE HUMPHREYS TO SIGN DECREE.

Supreme Court Will Hear Petition for Mandamus tomorrow—Two Decisions Given on Saturday.

The Kapiolani estate is now trying to force Judge Humphreys to sign the decree of sale in the matter of the foreclosure on the Progress block. This is the case in which Judge Gear signed a decision just before he left, and Humphreys refused to sign the decree because he had not heard the case. A petition was made to the Supreme court on Saturday praying for a writ of mandamus to compel the judge to sign the decree. Chief Justice Frear signed citation for Humphreys to appear tomorrow morning in the Supreme court, on the following showing of facts:

"That no objection was offered or raised by the Hon. A. S. Humphreys as to the form of said decree, but the sole and only objection raised by the Hon. A. S. Humphreys is his lack of jurisdiction and power to sign a decree in equity resting upon a decision made and rendered by the Hon. George D. Gear, second judge of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit nor have said defendants, Charles S. Desky, trustee, and Minnie Desky, or their attorneys, or any of them, objected to your petitioner or to the said decree at any time.

"That your petitioner's right to have a decree signed by the said A. S. Humphreys is a clear, legal and existing right, and one which cannot be enforced by any other proceedings than the one here instituted, nor has petitioner any other specific and adequate remedy."

"I hereby waive service of process herein and do now enter my appearance in said cause and submit to such order as the Honorable Supreme Court may be pleased to make in this behalf.

"A. S. HUMPHREYS.
"First Judge."

An appeal to the Supreme Court has been noted in the case of F. Wundenberg vs. George Markham, in which a demurrer was sustained.

Judge Humphreys Saturday granted Ahu Ahona a divorce from Ahena Kino Ahona on the ground of desertion.

Judge Humphreys has reduced the fine of Adachi, convicted of selling liquor, from $250 to $100.

An appeal has been filed from the order of Judge Gear in the matter of the Schlief estate, allowing $300 to J. A. Thompson, as commissioner, and to W. E. Fisher, of $1,148.20 for auctioneer's fee.

The Supreme Court in a decision filed Saturday, reversed the Circuit Court in the case of Schweitzer & Co., vs. Charles J. Fishel. The suit is for a balance of $640.08, due for goods sold and delivered by plaintiffs to Mrs. G. A. Turner in reliance upon a letter from Fishel requesting that they "see to me for payment." The lower court held for plaintiff, ruling that Fishel was liable as guarantor. In an opinion written by the chief justice the distinction between guarantor and surety are clearly drawn. It is held that Mrs. Turner was primarily liable for the debt and Mr. Fishel only secondarily, after all means to secure payment had been exhausted. The decision of the trial court is reversed, and the case remanded for a new trial.

The Supreme Court also decided an appeal from the tax appeal court, assessing certain property of the Carniot estate at $10,000. The property involved in this appeal consists of a piece of land situate on the corner of King and River streets, and extending to Hotel street, in this city, the frontage on King street being 70 feet and on River street 50 feet. The other dimensions do not appear in evidence. The area is 8712 square feet. The lot was on January 1, 1901, the date of the assessment, vacant and entirely unimproved. The value returned by the taxpayer was $5,000, that placed by the assessor $15,000, and that fixed by the Tax Appeal Court $7,500.

W. J. England and company have filed a notice of a mechanic's and materialman's lien against M. W. McChesney and company, for $168, on account of some work said to have been done for the firm.

An appeal has been taken by V. Fernandez from a judgment of Judge Dickey for $256.80, in favor of C. C. Bitting. Appeal has also been taken in the case of Gehring and Butzke against Chee Wo, a suit for $76.87, in which a judgment for defendant with costs was given in Dickey's court.

A GREAT MEDICINE.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera nd Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

POLITICS

There is a notable difference between the mere politician and the true worker for the advancement of the community in which he has been brought up, and desires to push along both commercially, financially and politically. The politician can see nothing but a constantly recurring period of excitement, during which he can shout howl, and occasionally shuffle this or that disreputable candidate in. The true worker for his county, municipality, Territory or State views the periods of unrest as unfortunate, but knows that as matters are now organized such periods are inevitable, but meanwhile he desires that as much thought should be given to material advancement as possible. In this view of the case the true citizen is right, and the mere politician is entirely wrong.

Unfortunately for the Home Rule party, with a few exceptions, it is made up of the class of would be professional politicians. Many men of the party have been bitten with the rabies. Politics to them seems to be chance for an easy living, and at times an opportunity for pulling off a very brilliant coup, a few hundred and mayhap a few thousand dollars merely by the turn of a hand or the giving of a vote. There are, it is true, members of the Home Rule party who have recognized that their business should be their main object in life, and have learned that the life of politics is by no means a safe or a sound one, as far as monetary consideration and safety of future is concerned.

The average professional politician is not an independent man. He must be at the beck and call of another man who is stronger in politics than he is. It may be said that few men are independent in the sense of doing exactly as they please. Kings and Presidents are not, for they depend upon popular favor, and it is a good thing for them that they do. There were once a series of men in the first and second century of the Christian era, who thought they were independent of everybody, but they found themselves the practical slaves of their own guards and parasites, and one and all perished by either murder or suicide.

To return to the modern professional politician, if any one is not independent, he certainly is most dependent and it is a sad thing to see the youth of a comparatively unformed country carried away into a torrent which is bound, after a few moments of exhilerating bobbing in a sunny stream, to whirl away the useless body to hopeless disaster and utter oblivion.

One would think that the examples we have out here, of discarded politicians, who having served their time in their respective states and territories, have been sent out to the new territory to earn a small salary, very much on the principle that the priests of the Temple were given a "piece of bread" to serve therein, because they were of the tribe of Levi, would have had some kind of an influence, but evidently the lesson is not taken to heart by the members of the Home Rule party. To them politics looks as if it were an easy method of acquiring an easy and luxurious living without any work. It is not measures good or bad, that such a set of men care about, it is their own ease and contentment. This may look like a harsh way of putting it, but it is the absolute truth.

The professional politician is the curse of any community which he comes into. The professional politician did to some extent exist here before annexation, but he has budded forth since then and has even blossomed into magnificent efflorescence. Unfortunately for the Hawaiian he has imbued or inoculated the latter with his particular views, and the result is the continuous meetings of the Home Rulers, evening after evening, called together with an idea that all the gas and wind let off will have some wonderful effect in the future.

It is necessary for the proper carrying on of a free body politic, that there should be the utmost vigilance on the part of the free citizens, but there is a great deal of difference between the vigilance of free citizens and the machinations of professional politicians who are purely seeking for place and emolument, and who expect to get that out of the free citizens if they can hoodwink them enough.

There are, one may imagine from one's knowledge of the world, few or no ideal countries, but any country that is cursed with the professional politician is exceptionally unhappy. As a municipality New York had this curse, and has now broken its chains. President Roosevelt has no use for professional politicians. We might just as well make up our minds that we do not need any professional politicians as a permanence amongst us. We have them but they can be eliminated, and the budding ones can be weaned from the error of other ways.

CUBAN SCHOOLS.

The school question has been met in Porto Rico and the Philippines, but it remains only a partially solved problem in the Semi-Americanized Cuba. Cuba is not American, though there is a strong American party which desires annexation, and there is another and stronger party which desires all the advantages of annexation and protection, while remaining an independent Republic.

When the Americans occupied Cuba and commenced to bring order out of disorder, the lack of public schools at once struck the officers in charge of the military districts. The Spaniards had no public school system, and when they evacuated the Island they consequently left no public school buildings. At the present time most of the buildings occupied by the Cuban schools are rented. They are not properly adapted to their purpose and in many cases the rent is excessive. "In the country," says Walter J. Ballard, who has been studying the question, "they are mainly thatched huts with poor floors, or no floors at all, and no conveniences."

The problem becomes an excessively hard one to solve when it is understood that there are half a million of Cuba children of school age, and that provisions has not been made for one-half of them yet, despite the great efforts that have been made, and the interest that wealthy people in the East have taken in the matter. One Boston man gave thirty thousand dollars towards new buildings. Harvard University entertained and taught a large number of Cuban teachers at its own expense for over a month.

But after all educational matters, like all matters such as good roads, good harbors, and public works of all kinds, come down to a matter of dollars and cents. If of the 500,000 children of school age in Cuba but 350,000 were enrolled in the public schools, the work would require at the least 7,500 teachers, which at the average salary of $45 a month, the ruling price in Cuba, would amount to $4,140,000 annually, and to properly equip these schools with buildings and furniture would raise that amount to $8,280,000. And Cuba has not got the money to meet any such expense. The logical conclusion of this is that for many years to come, although there will be a great improvement among the Cubans, there will be a large mass growing up in utter and complete ignorance.

Pineapple culture and the canning industry is to have another trial. The industry up to the present has not been renumerative, but under changed conditions it promises to look up well and make good returns.

George Davis has started out with a hatchet, and intends to return with Judge Perry's scalp at his belt. He is much more likely to return with a gold brick which he has had put on him during a moment of hilarity.

The geographical knowledge of the New York paper which located Pago Pago in Guam, was about equalled by the Kansas school teacher who thought the Hawaiian Islands belonged to Japan.

The Japanese have had a turn at the dog tax, but they have left the lady-dog question severely alone. To the first Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii will belong the proud honor of having devoted time and thought to the lady-dogs, while such minor matters as appropriations for public works, loan funds and so forth were held in abeyance.

The Mon War incident is by no means closed. The Federal Jury is now considering it, and it may go hard with not only the Mon Wars, but with other Chinese as well. The custom of buying children from their parents is quite legal in China. During periods of famine numbers of children are thus sold to save them from starvation. But the sale of a child made in China is by no means legal here, and people who have made such purchases find themselves in trouble when they get on to free American soil.

The Chinaman is a true fatalist and every now and again proves it. Being rather weary of life and having monetary troubles a Chinese gentleman very summarily ended his life on Saturday by cutting his throat. Sometimes the Celestial makes his exit from this world by hanging himself up in his queue, and occupying some one's outhouse for the purpose. An Oriental does not put anything like the value upon human life that we do, in spite of the fact that there are many suicides amongst our race, but the Western suicide is emotional, while the Oriental is deliberate and unemotional.

The imported negro has not proved a remarkably brilliant success. He gave a great deal of trouble on Maui, doing acts of burglary, firing at policemen, running of with other people's wives and totally refusing to work. Apparently that particular class of negro has left Maui, and is now in Honolulu. The criminal characteristics come forth again in the way of a hold-up at the point of pistols. Gradually most of this criminal population will drift into jail becomes thoroughly known to the police and will find life so monotonous that its members will seek the broader field of the mainland.

Another suggestion as to a Territorial flower has come up. This time it is the ohai. But the ohai has the same objection that the white hibiscus has, it is very rare. Up to the present the tendency of opinion sets towards the scarlet ohia and the ilima. The ohia has been noticeable as a button hole flower lately, and really makes a very pretty coat decoration. The ilima is not suitable for that purpose, so the ohia advocates have scored a distinct point. The ohia, moveover, is thoroughly distinctive while the ilima is not. There are many flowers like the ilima, notably the marvel of Peru, with its many hues.

HURRICANE IN JAPAN

THE WIND ACCOMPANIED BY HAILSTORMS.

Snowstorms in Various Parts of the Empire Interrupt Telegraphic Communication—Other Damage is Done.

YOKOHAMA, November 28.—Gales and snowstorms are reported on the northeast coast. At Kanazawa a westerly gale began to blow on November 24, developing into a hurricane by midnight. Many trees were blown down and some damage done to houses. It was still blowing on the forenoon of the following day, the wind being accompanied by hailstorms.

A snowstorm was also reported from Aomori on Saturday night, over twenty telegraph posts being blown down between Nobechi and Kariba. Telegraph communication was interrupted for the time being.

In the south at Sendai a heavy thunderstorm was experienced on Saturday night, and snow fell on the following morning.

At Nagano snow was falling heavily on Saturday and Sunday. This is said to be the first snow experienced this season.

Snow fell at Toyama also on Monday.

THE CONCERT.

The Boston Concert Company presented a very enjoyable program to a good house on Saturday evening. The program was well chosen attempting neither the supreme difficulties of "classical" repertoire or rushing to the other extreme.

Walther, the Belgian violinist proved himself a thorough master of technique and interpreted Sarasate with considerable feeling. His playing is thoroughly enjoyable and ranks well with other virtuosos that Honolulu has had the pleasure of hearing.

Lillian Norma Walther was very pleasing in her ballade singing and indeed in her other numbers although the "Robert, toi qui j'aime" was lacking in fire and feeling. Her voice is a pure well trained soprano with some beautifully full notes in the lower register.

Jessie Teasdale, the wife of Oliver Bainbridge, was accompanist for the evening, playing with excellent precision and judgment. Having only lately recovered from a severe illness and having had but little time for practice with the visiting musicians, she deserves particular credit and it is a matter of congratulation to discover that we have another resident player who can upon occasion prove equal to the task of accompanying soloists who may travel this way without a pianist.

Altogether the concert was very pleasing and in no sense a disappointment. A second program will be given this evening before the trio depart for Australasia.

BISHOP ESTATE WHARVES.

The Bishop estate has received and now has under consideration bids for the construction of the two wharves near the marine railway which have been in contemplation for some time. The work includes excavation and dredging for slips. The bids are as follows:

Cotton Brothers, Honolulu—All work as per specifications for $143,082. Time 10 months.

Hawaiian Eng. & Construction Co., Honolulu—$153,401.91. Time 10 months.

Ferris & Haas, San Francisco—$198,500. Time 16 months.

John A. Hughes, Honolulu—Wharves, sheds and all work excepting excavation, $99,860. Time six months after excavation.

Healy, Tibbitts & Co., San Francisco—Same, $64,900. Time six months.

Hawaiian Dredging Co., Honolulu, per W. F. Dillingham—Dredging, etc., etc., at $1.34 per cubic yard; wharves, etc., etc., $97,000. Time 12½ months.

MERCHANT'S ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Merchant's Association was held Saturday afternoon. The committee previously appointed to confer with the inter-island steamship companies in regard to the increased freight rates reported that there was little prospect of relief. The steamship companies averred that the increased rates were the only relief from the continued losses they have been suffering. These losses they attributed to the increased operating expenses due largely to the application of the United States shipping laws to their vessels, whereby the freight and passenger carrying capacity is decreased and new appliances designed for safety are required. An instance was given where thirty or forty Japs only were permitted passage under the new regulations, whereas formerly three hundred were carried.

A committee was appointed to secure improvements in shipping facilities at this end of the line. Covered wharves and warehouses were suggestions that will be looked into.

NEW CHINESE TARIFF.

SHANGHAI, November 25.—The new tariff rates for goods entering Shanghai have been published.

The claims for compensation by private Japanese in connection with the Boxer outrages aggregate 2½ million yen. The Belgian Minister in Peking is reported to have said that his nation's demands, when reduced to their lowest figure, total 8,960,000 taels, and the Dutch claims amount to 800,000 taels.

A new pier, 3,600 feet long and 800 feet wide at its broadest part, is to be constructed at Cheefoo so as to give maritime access to the Chinese town. The work will be commenced next spring, and is expected to occupy two years. The cost is estimated at 237,000 taels. The Engineer is an Englishman, and the work is under the superintendance of the Imperial Maritime Customs.—Japan Mail.

HEAVY DEFALCATION.

SHANGHAI, November 24—The Bank of Liverpool announces defalcation by an absconding book-keeper amounting to £170,000, but the stability of the bank is not affected.

THE WAR IN AFRICA

SAID TO BE 70 COMMANDOS AFIELD.

Lord Kitchener is Now Reduced to an Effective Force of 45,000 Men—Various Engagements Reported.

SHANGHAI, November 21.—A Cape Gazette announces that the colony resumes control of the colonial forces in certain districts.

Lord Kitchener's weekly report brings the total Boer losses for November to 1287.

SHANGHAI, November 27.—General Knox has captured 26 Boers including Commandant Joubert and two field cornets. Practically the whole of Joubert's commando has now been accounted for.

SHANGHAI, November 26.—A combined movement of several columns near Reitz has resulted in the capture of 28 Boers and the killing of several.

A later telegram says that a despatch of Kitchener's says the bulk of Fisher's men captured have been released. Remington pursued the scattered enemy and captured eight.

SHANGHAI, November 26.—The Times Pretoria correspondent says there are still seventy recognized Boer commandos in the field, of which twenty-six are in the Transvaal, thirty-one are in the Orange Colony, and thirteen are in Cape Colony. The task of capturing these must necessarily be slow. Lord Kitchener's striking arm consisting at present of only 45,000 men.

SHANGHAI, November 25.—Commandant Buys has been captured after attacking a patrol of 100 railway pioneers ner Villiersdorp. Major Fisher was killed and two officers wounded. Some prisoners were taken by the Boers and the Boers lost ten.

SHANGHAI, November 23.—Canada's offer to raise 600 more mounted infantry has been accepted. Eighty men of Ackermann's commando have been captured in the Orange Colony.

Three field batteries are returning to India from South Africa.

NOT MUCH DAMAGED

WARREN SOON TO LEAVE THE DRY DOCK.

Only Nine Plates Reported Injured. Captain of Transport Said to Have Ordered Her Run Onto Rocks.

According to information brought this morning by the Coptic, the damage to the transport Warren will not prove so serious as was first reported. Instead of thirty five or more plates being injured it appears that about nine were hurt by the vessel running on the rocks.

The Kobe Chronicle has the following in reference to the Warren:

The U. S. Transport Warren is now docked in Uraga, and is expected that the necessary repairs will take about 14 or 15 days to complete. Examination showed that on the starboard side of the vessel there were nine plates dented, one of which had two holes in it, and no less than twenty more plates were more or less grazed. Had it not been for the fact that she is exceptionally strongly built the extent of the damage would have been considerably greater. As it is she will have nine new plates fixed in before she is ready to put to sea again.

It is evident from the fact that the vessel did not have to remain on the dock more than a couple of weeks, that her damage could not have been very great. The Coptic left Yokohama November 30, and the Warren expected to come off the dock and sail for Manila three days later. Evidently the transport has gone to Manila and ought, within a few weeks time, start once more for San Francisco.

Captain Fisher, the pilot, who was on the Warren when she struck the rocks is said to be the best pilot in Japanese waters. He was on the bridge with Captain Barneson of the Warren, when a Japanese vessel got in the course of the transport. Fisher is said to have told Barneson that it was a question of running on the rocks or running the other vessel down and Barneson is reported to have said to let the transport strike the rocks.

The transport Hancock reached Nagasaki November 26 the same day that the Coptic did. In fact, the two vessels raced into that port as the Coptic wanted to get to quarantine before the transport. The Hancock had the start of the passenger liner however and beat her in. While the officers of the Coptic are not sure they understand that instead of the Hancock going to San Francisco November 19 as was first reported, the transport returned to Manila. This belief is corroborated by the fact that the transport was returning to Nagasaki once more. She was to have sailed for San Francisco from Nagasaki about November 28.

COPTIC A CHRISTMAS BOAT.

Contrary to expectations, the Coptic will be the Christmas boat for the Coast By getting in port a day ahead of time, and leaving fully 24 hours in advance of schedule time, she will carry over 200 sacks of mail containing most of the Christmas packages from these Islands. The Sonoma is due tomorrow afternoon from the colonies. She will remain in port not over six hours. She will also carry mail for the mainland.

TURK AND LEWIS SHIPPING MEN.

Turk and Lewis have taken the order of captain Amesbury of the ship Roanoke to ship him a second mate and 24 men for that vessel as she will sail within a few days for San Francisco.

THRILLING PERFORMANCE.

The management of Hogan's minstrels announce that this evening in addition to their regular entertainment, there will be a free exhibition of tight rope walking on a wire stretched from the top of the Orpheum building to the fire house tower.

The Carter brothers who have a world wide reputation as high rope walkers will give a performance which promises some very daring feats of gymnastic work. Such feats as one swinging in mid air and performing upon the bar of trapeze held by the jaw of the other as he hangs by the legs on the wire, standing on the head upon the wire balancing himself without touching his hands to the rope, one will walk while the other does cortortions about his head and shoulders. It will certainly be a thrilling performance and well worth witnessing. It will take place at about 7:30.

THE RATHBURN CASE

OUTCOME OF THE SHOOTING AT KOOLAU.

Judge Humphreys and a Jury Hearing Trial of the Ex-Magistrate of the Other Side.

The perjury charge brought against ex-Judge Rathburn of Koolau by the late Grand Jury was before Judge Humphreys and a jury this morning. A. G. M. Robertson defending and Deputy Attorney General Cathcart prosecuting. There was little difficulty in securing a jury and three members of the grand jury gave their testimony during the morning session. Captain Swinton, who was called as a juror, was excused as he said he had a positive opinion about the shooting affair which was being investigated when the alleged perjury was committed.

"Nothing in creation could move my opinion," said the captain, though he admitted that it was based on newspaper reports. A challenge for cause was allowed.

The following jurors were accepted to try the case: J. K. Musberger, G. K. Kaia, J. Kahalepua, J. K. Nakila, Edward Woodward, David Notley, John L. Hansman, Herman Levy, Edwin K. Blake, George W. Macy, N. C. Bickerton, Alexander G. Nicholas.

C. T. Wilder, L. T. Peck and Moses Nakuina, members of the Grand Jury, testified as to the statements made under oath to the jury by the defendant. The statements dealt with Rathburn's doings on the night of July 14 last, when he was shot by Dr. A. B. Carter. Carter was charged with assault with a dangerous weapon, and claimed that the shot was fired while Rathburn was on his premises at night. It is claimed that Rathburn made a number of misstatements of material facts in connection with his actions just before the shooting, claiming that he remained on his horse outside the Carter place, whereas according to other witnesses he dismounted and approached the lanai.

If you stop eating you will surely get thinner and thinner, until at last you starve to death. Grass won't answer, although it is good for the horse. You must have a food suitable to your needs.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

is a hair food. It won't take the place of grass or bread. It is good for the hair, and that is all. It feeds the hair with hair food. The hair can't keep from growing. It stops falling out because it is hearty and strong. And it always restores the early rich, dark color to gray hair.

We say that "gray hair is starved hair"; and the only way to treat it is to supply the best kind of hair food. This is where Ayer's Hair Vigor differs so greatly from other hair preparations; it feeds the hair. Just keep that in mind all the time you are using it.

THE NUISANCE RECORD

CASES AVERAGE ABOUT 2,500 A MONTH

Sanitary Inspectors Find Constant Work in Preventing Accumulation of Filth Like Those in Plague Times.

The Board of Health's report for the month of November shows 2,358 nuisances abated during the month, by the sanitary inspectors. These large figures are the result of the work of six men, under City Sanitary Officer Tracy. They show the success of the plan put in operation some months ago by the board, as a means of keeping the city clean. The November figures are not above the average. Since the plan went into operation, it has been a regular thing for the officers of the board to find from 2,300 to 2,600 nuisances a month, and peremptorily order them abated.

The nuisances are mostly rubbish piles, heaps of garbage, etc., which are left to rot and breed disease, unless the inspectors make regular rounds. The same places are reported month after month, a majority coming from the homes and places of business of the Chinese. When an inspector finds such a state of affairs, he at once orders the refuse burned and removed, and in this way Honolulu is being kept more clean than ever before.

"It is impossible for the tenement houses and other places to get dirty again as they once were," said Dr. Pratt executive officer of the Board of Health. "The inspectors visit every place in their district twice a week except in some of the districts far out, where it is impossible to call so often. They discover any lack of proper cleanliness at once, and the nuisance is abated, to the benefit of the whole district and city.

"The results show that the only way to deal with the population we have here is to keep at the people all the time. The places became dirty again and again. The inspectors report the same place often, after they have had it cleaned once, showing that the only thing we can do to keep such places clean is to have men at work constantly enforcing the laws.

"The system was inaugurated last May, and has worked well ever since. The figures for November, 2,356 nuisances abated, are not larger than usual. The month is a fair sample of the amount of cleaning done that would be left undone if we had no such system, and the amount of dirt that would accumulate from month to month, until the city would be like it was before we had the great clean-up in plague times. It can never get like that again under this system."

A small proportion of the nuisances are due to defective plumbing, and need of connection with sewers. In these cases the necessary plumbing is ordered. In some cases owners of big lodging houses have been compelled to cement their back yards, this being the only way to keep them clean. Throughout the city there are large tenement houses with small sunless backyards, and these have the special attention of the inspectors.

The Chinese and Japs, who receive special attention, are becoming accustomed to the visits of the inspectors, and know what to expect when the latter make their rounds. In spite of all, however, they continue to allow rubbish to accumulate, and the reports show that but for the regularity of the visits the most ordinary rules of sanitary cleanliness would be neglected, and the city would soon become as filthy as it was when the citizens went through Chinatown and burned tons of rubbish in the streets.

ST. CLEMENT'S FAIR

FETE CHAMPETRE THAT WAS A SUCCESS.

Much Interest Aroused by the "Old Curiosity Shop" which Contained a Valuable and Interesting Collection.

The fair and bazaar given by the Woman's Guild of St. Clement's chapel on the Rectory grounds Saturday afternoon and evening was a very successful affair. The receipts were in the neighborhood of $700.

The day was an ideal one. The grounds were attractively decorated with flags and bunting. The booths and marques were brave in their show of color.

The "Old Curiosity Shop" proved a delightful attraction. The collection it displayed was surprisingly valuable and interesting. Among many other things there was a dessert plate belonging to a set of the time of Andrew Jackson, loaned by Major Davis, U. S. A. It is from a set presented to President Jackson by the Duchesse d'Angouleme, daughter of Louis XVI, when the White House was opened by Old Hickory; an incense burner from an old Mexican church; a sample of embroidery work done in 1808 by Mary Hamlen, aged 10 years; which is now owned by Mrs. A. S. Parke; Chinese cups and saucers over 200 years old, loaned by Mrs. Kincaid; a Viennese-carved cane once used by Kamehameha V; a Rubens tapestry from the Chateau Montpensier, France, bought for the old "Deacon House." This tapestry was hung in the streets of Antwerp in honor of Marie de Medicis, and was loaned by E. A. P. Newcomb; an engraving representing a "Bonne Femme de Normandie," dated 1715, also loaned by Mr. Newcomb.

There was also a portrait made in 1857 of hair from the heads of the Davis family of Kentucky loaned by Major Davis, U. S. A. The Hawaiian flag lowered from the flagstaff of Iolani Palace in 1893 was displayed; an original will of Joseph Bailey, dated 1747, in which he willed "my negro slave woman named Maigrett" to his wife. This was loaned by Mr. Newcomb. A piece of rare Persian embroidery, said to be over 200 years old, was loaned by W. R. Castle Jr..A piece of a silk dress once worn by Marie Antoinette, was shown by Mrs. Wallbridge. So great was the interest in this loan exhibit that it has been decided to keep it open again this afternoon and evening.

There was a most interesting collection of old laces, embroideries and hand-wrought fabrics loaned by Mrs. A. S. Parke; a rare collection of Filipino weapons and curios loaned by Mrs. T. J. King; a number of Solomon Island and Hawaiian relics loaned by Mr. and Mrs. Allan Dunn; some rare poisoned Italian jewels and jewelry of the period of Machievell, loaned by Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., a vinaigrette, card case, gold-wrought purse and other articles of ornament dating from the XVIIIth century, and a very old violin, loaned by Mrs. Charles L. Rhodes; besides a great many other articles of curious or historical interest.

The Territorial Band furnished music in the afternoon, and in the evening James Dougherty sang a number of selections, and W. H. Soper and Walter and Frank E. Greenfield, as a trio sang and played Hawaiian music.

The fair closed with an auction sale conducted by Will E. Fisher in his best vein, he keeping the gathering in a roar of laughter till the last article was sold. The "Old Curiosity Shop" will be kept open this afternoon and evening.

LOCAL CHINESE KICK

OBJECT TO PORTUGUESE GRAB OF LAND.

Send Protest to Washington and Peking And Some Will Return and Fight if Necessary.

A large meeting of Chinese residents of Honolulu was held on Saturday night under the auspices of the Chinese United Societies to protest against the cession of the district of Heong San to the Portuguese government. A dozen speakers addressed the gathering, and some of them talked fight. Heong San happens to be the district in which are the former homes of most of the Chinese here, and there are not a few Chinese in Honolulu who say that rather than see this part of their country turned over to Portugal, they will go home and resist. The meeting decided to address memorials to Minister Wu Ting Fang at Washington and to the imperial government at Peking.

Heong San is on the Chinese coast, close to Hong Kong, and includes some valuable sea-ports. It has a population of about half a million people. Recent press dispatches have contained statements that as a result of the late troubles the district was likely to go to Portugal and it was these statements that aroused the Chinese here. A similar meeting to that in Honolulu has been held in San Francisco, say local Chinese, and they predict that the Portuguese government will have its hands full if it tries to take the territory. There are many wealthy Chinese, both here and in Heong San, who are interested in the proposition.

The meeting on Saturday night was presided over by Wong Leong, president of the Bow Wong Wui of Hawaii. About 500 Chinese were present, all eager to do something to save their native land from Portuguese domination. This number, it is stated, does not by any means represent the full strength of the sentiment here in opposition to the Portuguese grab of land, and the memorials that will go forward will contain over a thousand signatures, if there is time enough, before the steamers leave, to get that many. One petition is to go to San Francisco, addressed to Wu Ting Fang at Washington, and the other leaves on the steamer the other way, for China.

One of the Chinese, who is a prosperous merchant here, expressed his intention to give up his business and go back and fight if necessary. He owns a home and has relatives in Heong San, but has lived here a number of years and made a small fortune. "If the government gives the land to Portugal I shall go and fight the Portuguese," he said last Saturday afternoon. "They say that the Portuguese have better weapons and a better army than the Chinese, but we shall be fighting for our homes. Suppose I am killed, I shall only die once, and maybe I kill two, three men before I die.

"There are plenty Chinese here who will go back too. Nearly all Chinese here come from Heong San and if Portugal gets the land then they have no more homes. My relations are in Heong San, and they no want Portuguese government. Other Chinese all the same. Portugal has not many men and not much money, and maybe we win if we fight."

"If we no win," the Chinese added, "then I get killed, but I only die once."

At the meeting Saturday night the Chinese expressed similar sentiments. The speakers dwelt a good deal upon the fact that the only idea of the Portuguese was to exploit the country. Heavy taxes would be levied and all the money that could be collected would be squeezed out of the land, only for the purpose of sending it to help along the Portuguese government with its expenses.

This evening there will be another meeting of a committee to finish work on the memorials.

SOLDIERS BEAT ATHLETICS.

Artillery Team Shows Unexpected Qualities and Wins Easily.

Intercollegiate football has closed for the season as far as the game with the oval ball is concerned while the association league is just commencing the regular series of games.

The closing tournament on Saturday afternoon between the H. A. C.'s and the Artillery team, called out but a small attendance and the game was only made interesting by the unusual form displayed by the Artilleries who completely demoralized the Athletics' line and outplayed them in both tactics and vim. The military team showed evident signs of coaching since the last game and by keeping up the same licks might with the continuance of the season become formidable opponents for the Mailes or the Punahous. Bennett played an excellent game for the victors and Cominsky kept Cunha thoroughly wel' aware of his presence throughout the second half. The Athletics had several men in new positions and seemed to entirely lack a knowledge of their own signals. Gleason and Joy did the best work, Vida assisting materially in tackling until he was put hors-de-combat in the first half. Umpire Kimball's rulings were entirely satisfactory and Bob King as referee had only one question raised as to his decisions.

The comrades of the Artilleries rooted lustily. The win was a popular one on account of the earnest work that had evidently been done by the Artillery team between matches and the vim displayed throughout the match. Lower tackling and better defensive work will make them hard to beat. The Athletics played in very half hearted fashion leaving the scrimmages before they had got half way into them. The score was 11 to 1, one goal having failed in the kicking. The attendance was short of 500.

INDOOR BASEBALL.

The Mailes won handily from the Evening Classes team at indoor baseball in the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday evening by a score of 21 to 13. The game was fast and the series of matches bids fair to become popular after so auspicious an opening.

SATURDAY'S POLO GAME.

Camp McKinley Quartette Unequal to Occasion.

That polo is popular was proved by the large attendance at Kapiolani race track on Saturday afternoon. The game was well worth seeing. The ponies are rapidly becoming polo wise and getting in hard condition and their riders are playing a faster, closer game with visible attempts at team work. The happy mean where riders can support each other without crowding has yet to be accomplished however.

The Business Men, allowing the Artillery team one goal handicap, regained the advantage and finally defeated their opponents by a score of 4 to 2.

Two players were spilled, happily without harmful results. The winning team scored by individual plays the Artillerys defeating their own efforts at team work by too close in playing. Charles Rich acted as referee.

OF SPANISH ORIGIN.

The term "infantry" is said to have been first used by the Spaniards in the wars with the Moors to designate the bodyguard of a royal prince or infanta. It was extended to the entire body of foot soldiers, and finally adopted throughout Europe.

IS YOU HAIR FALLING?

The cause is a parasite in the hair-follicle eating away the delicate membrane which holds the hair-root in place. The only way to stop failing hair is to destroy the parasite which causes it.

Pacheco's Dandruff Killer does this, and then feeds the follicles and roots and rebuilds the wasted tissue.
