JAPANESE ARE TO PROTECT FORMOSA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAM.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Advices received by mail at Victoria state that the Japanese reserves are rejoining their regiments and that the Japanese troops are being hurried into Formosa to occupy the whole country and prevent a possible Russian invasion in case war broke out.

From the same source it is learned that Russia is making enormous expenditures in Manchuria, building railways through strategetic portions of the country, and erecting many barracks for troops.

By the terms of the treaty of Shimonoseki, which in 1895 brought to a close the war between Japan and China, Formosa and the Pescadores were ceded to Japan, and upon ratification of that treaty in May of that year were formally handed over by the Chinese to the Japanese.

An attempt of the Chinese in Formosa to establish a republic proved abortive, so that by October, 1895, the Japanese had secured military occupation of the island, although it was many months before that occupancy became real. For several years, indeed, regular or guerrilla warfare was continued by Chinese bandits and the aborigines; and even now occasional outbreaks are experienced.

Formosa is far to the south of Japan and although connected with Japan by cables the Japanese fear that in a war with Russia the latter power would first attack Formosa with its large fleet and with the help of the rebellious people there inflict a great loss on Japan.

INSTRUCT DELEGATES

Second Precinct Wants Honest Men.

Don't Like Action Of The Executive Committee.

Organization For Campaign Is Effected—Nominees Must Be Republicans.

The ten delegates from the Second Precinct in the Fourth district will go into the county convention instructed as to what nominees they shall vote for, if the plan decided upon at the meeting of the precinct club held last night is carried out. There was a unanimous expression at the meeting that great care should be exercised in the selection of candidates particularly for supervisors and there was also voiced strenuous objection to the action of the Republican Executive Committee in fixing the date of the primary elections for the day after the selection of nominees. In fact so strong is the objection that the Second Precinct will break away from the order of the Republican Committee, and though there will be primary meeting next Friday evening as ordered, the selection of nominees will take place at an earlier meeting.

The Second Precinct is the first to organize for the coming campaign. The meeting last night at the home of C. M. White was attended by about twenty-five Republicans and all vacancies in the party organization were filled.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President J. H. Soper, First Vice President Hiram Kolomoku, Second Vice President M. A. Gonsalves, Secretary Geo. B. McClellan, Assistant Secretary H. E. Murray, Treasurer J. A. Gilman, Judges of Election John Ouderkirk, H. Tarlton and J. H. Soper, Executive Committee W. T. Rawlins, C. B. Wilson, Frank Krueger, George Sa and J. U. Joseph.

After the election of officers, J. H. Fisher called attention to the order of the Executive Committee that the primary nominations must be made next Friday night and that the elections of delegates to the county convention must be held the following day. C. B. Wilson said he was opposed to having the county delegates railroaded through, with the nominations one evening and the election the following day. He said it was not justice and he did not think it to be fair.

Mr. Fisher said he had fought against this but was outvoted by the members from the outside districts. Mr. Gilman suggested that it was a scheme put forward by a Fifth district politician. He thought that the precinct club could hold as many meetings as it wanted to and the nominations be made previous to Friday, the action to be ratified on the normal

BRITISH SLAY MANY IN NIGERIA

Small Body Of Troops Kill Seven Hundred Followers Of Sultan Of Sokoto.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLEGRAMS.)

ZUNGRUE, Northern Nigeria, Aug. 20.—A British force consisting of thirty white soldiers and five hundred natives met in a fearful battle the forces of the Sultan of Sokoto. Eleven of the British force were killed but the Sultan's forces were frightfully decimated as he lost no less than seven hundred men in the battle.

Great Britain has been fighting the forces of the Sultan of Sokoto since the first of the present year. Many fierce battles have been fought and as a result of each the Sultan and his followers have been rushed farther back towards the great Sahara desert. Sokoto is a rich negro state of Nigeria on the west coast of Africa. Kano and Sokoto, two of the largest cities of the state, were captured by the British sometime ago.

SICK MAN HAS THROWN UP SPONGE TO RUSSIA

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 20.—The Turkish minister for foreign affairs today notified the Russian embassador at Constantinople that the Porte would accept all of the demands made by Russia including the immediate pacification of Macedonia and a reform in methods of governing there.

At the same time reports come from the troubled section in Macedonia that the insurgents are continuing an active campaign against the Turkish forces.

The Sultan also begs that Russia withdraw her powerful Black Sea squadron from Constantinople.

HANGED BY MOB AND RIDDLED BY BULLETS

HALIFAX, North Carolina, Aug. 20.—A negro confessed here today that he was the rapist of a white girl and a mob immediately took him out and hanged him, afterwards riddling the body with bullets.

Bissell Critically Ill.

BAR HARBOR, Maine, Aug. 20.—Former Postmaster-General Bissell is critically ill here of Bright's disease.

William Shannon Bissell was born at New London, Conn., in 1847, but removed to Buffalo during his childhood. He was a graduate of Yale in the class of 1869, studied law, and was admitted to the bar. He formed a law-partnership with Lyman K. Bass in 1872, and a year later Grover Cleveland was admitted to the firm. In 1893, while President, Grover Cleveland appointed Bissell Postmaster-General of the United States and he held the post for two years.

JAMES GORDON BENNETT AN EARLY RACING ENTHUSIAST

JAMES GORDON BENNETT.

In the history of international yacht races there is no more exciting chapter than that which describes the great race across the Atlantic ocean in 1869 between James Gordon Bennett's schooner yacht "Henrietta" and the "Vesta" and the "Fleetwing." Bennett, now one of the best known newspaper proprietors and sportsmen in the world, was at that time but twenty-eight years of age. Young Bennett bet the other yachtsmen a cool ninety thousand dollars that he could beat them over a course from Sandy Hook to the Needles. Bennett won the race, making the course in thirteen days, twenty-one hours, and fifty-five minutes. Writers of that time described the race as the greatest one that had ever been held. Almost a gale of wind swept the yachts across with every stitch of canvas set. Now Bennett spends most of his time in Paris. He draws a million dollars a year in dividends from the New York Herald.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES FROM ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—The Reliance was two miles ahead of the Shamrock III. today when the first of the cup races was called off on account of the inability of the yachts to finish within the time limit. This is in brief the story of the first race for the America cup.

Although the weather offered little promise for the sort of a race the people like to see, there was no falling off in the crowds that assembled in every form of steam and sailing craft near the starting line. Weather reports promised light winds throughout the day and this was borne out by the light breezes of the morning just heavy enough to keep the course clear of the fog.

Crews of the contending yachts were up with the dawn busy with the preparations for the contest. Sir Thomas Lipton stayed on board the Erin last night and accompanied by Designer Fife visited the Shamrock early in the morning. He was greeted with hearty cheers from his crew on his arrival and departure from the yacht.

In the vicinity of the Reliance a scene of equal activity and enthlusiasm was enacted. Representatives of the defender syndicate were on board the tender Sunbeam.

The yachts were towed from their moorings and by 10 o'clock all was ready for the start, a flotilla of torpedo boats clearing the course from the crowds of tugs and excursion boats. Just before the signal guns signals were set for the triangular course and promptly at 11 o'clock the boats crossed the line with the Shamrock in the lead, Captain Wringe outsailing his opponent in the contest for place.

With the prospect of the wind dying down during the day there was little hope for anything more than a drifting match with the possible danger of the boats being unable to make the course within the time limit. The Reliance was easily a favorite from the start, the yachting experts as well as the loyal crowds having full confidence in her ability, barring accidents, to outstrip the Shamrock in any kind of wind or weather. The race to the first mark was largely a search for wind with the Reliance a trifle more successful in finding it. The Reliance, before reaching the first mark, caught and passed Lipton's boat, steadily increasing the margin of her lead in the drifting match that followed.

It was a procession and a slow one. Soon after passing the second mark of the thirty-mile course, it was apparent to the committee that the race could not possibly be finished in the time limit and signals were hoisted from the judges' boat announcing the race called off.

The crowds were disappointed but the performance of the Reliance was such that the first contest, though lacking in positive results, shows that the cup is not in serious danger this year.

ST. PETERSBURG, Russia, Aug. 20.—A special to a St. Petersburg paper states that the Chinese in Manchuria have assumed a seriously threatening attitude toward Russian officials. The officials have been subjected to frequent insults from the Chinese and the situation is considered to be very grave.

LONDON, England, Aug. 20.—The leading European Powers are conducting negotiations to secure joint action for the maintenance of peace in Macedonia. The officials of all countries are satisfied that a new course must be determined upon and it is hoped it will be possible to devise a plan which will be earnestly supported and secure the desired result.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 20.—The steamship Missouri was successfully launched today.

BRAINY SKIPPERS WHO ARE DOING THE REAL RACING

CAPTAIN BARR OF THE RELIANCE.

CAPTAIN WRINGE OF THE SHAMROCK III.

Captain Charles Barr, of the Reliance, is a son of John Barr, the man who sailed the Thistle. Young Barr made his reputation as captain of the forty-footer Minerva, which won nearly every race in which she entered. Barr is a thorough sailor, a blue-water man, and a competent handler of racing yachts. He knows all the tricks of the trade on both sides of the Atlantic and it will be a very canny Scot indeed, who will beat him in making a good start for each race.

The people on the other side of the duck pond pin great faith in Captain Wringe, the new skipper of the Shamrock III. He has had a lot of experience in American waters, having sailed the Beatrice yacht for some time. The captain is considered a mighty man in the picturesque little Essex town of Billingsea, whose every inhabitant, man, woman, and child, knows all there is to know about yachting, and more, too.

MAY BE BETTER OFF A CENTURY HENCE

One year (sic) is not a long time in the history of States, not long enough to test anything; and yet we find a multitude of people who declare that "the folly of establishing a Territorial government with practically universal suffrage among a people untrained to the exercise of political power has been conclusively illustrated in Hawaii by the doings, this past year, of incompetent legislators, and mischief-making demagogs." But twelve months is a very short time in which to test and condemn the wisdom of universal suffrage. Let us imagine that it is a Philadelphia paper from which we quote; is Mayor Ashbridge's town ready, after a century and more of experience, to give up universal suffrage? It has taken more than a year to make popular government a real success in Mexico, Chili or Argentina; was the experience of repeated revolutions any reason for being discouraged? By the end of the century, or less, we find them very decent republics. Give Hawaii the same chance to retrieve her blunders that we ask for New York and Philadelphia before condemning universal suffrage. The experiment of restricting the suffrage is not working with perfect beauty in certain of our southern States.—New York Independent.

ANOTHER CASE OF CONTEMPT

A citation for contempt of court was issued by Judge Gear yesterday against Sam Wong for failure to pay alimony to his former wife Margaret Wong. In the affidavit accompanying the motion it is alleged that Sam Wong was ordered to pay his wife twelve dollars a week as alimony. He has paid only $420 since November 1902 and still owes something. Judge Gear ordered his appearance to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt.

DETECTIVES GO SWIMMING AND CLOTHES ARE ROBBED

That the members of the Police force are not free from the onslaughts of robbers and thieves, is shown by the following incident which occurred the other day.

Two members of the department, who draw their salaries under the disguise of detectives, last Sunday after going off duty felt that a cool plunge would do much to relieve their minds of the problems of a hard day's work.

Accordingly the two with stealthy tread and wary glance proceeded to Kapena falls in Nuuanu Valley back of the Davies' residence. There was no one else in sight and the surface of the cool waters of the swimming hole were unruffled by any swimmer's arm. It took but a few seconds for the detectives to prepare to swim, and with graceful pose and in a correct manner they dived in. They sported and played as mermen should, paddled and dived, gurgled and floated. At last weariness overtook the larger one and he climbed to the bank for a rest and to look at his watch. A short space of time and a hoarse, low and menacing cry brought the man in the water to the bank. Here he found the first man crouching behind a rock and scanning the valley up and down from beneath his raised hand. "Hist," he muttered and the second detective sank to the ground. A nerve racking silence. "My trousers," was the next speech delivered in an awe struck tone. "Has anyone dared to attack us, us, the two well known detectives who always have a clue—" "My shirt and coat," interrupted the second man peering around another rock. They were gone. On hands and knees the men made a rapid search around the pool and finally found their things. But from high hopes they were plunged to deep despair. The clothes had been rifled and everything was gone. Nineteen dollars from one pair of trousers, several dollars and a watch from the second pair was what the thieves got. It was almost too much to believe and the detectives sat down to gather their scattered wits.

"To think," said the first one, "that I who have charged a whole room full of sleeping Chinamen, and have made a masterly retreat unaided through the window when they awoke should be subjected to such treatment at my stage of life."

"And I," muttered the second, "who have never failed to track small bad Portuguese boys who have stolen to their hidden lair behind their mother's apron. Ye Gods, this is too much."

As the shadows of night fell upon the now quiet pool the detectives walked to the car line and after waiting for a conductor whom they knew, rode into town after making solemn vows of secrecy to one another.

"I wonder," said the first detective, "if any one would suspect what is up if they asked me what time it was and I told them I didn't have my watch."

Five days have elapsed but there has been no clue, although one of the men claims that he has a good scent, but the other man says it is one he found in his coat pocket marked 1860. However, it will be good to work on.

IAUKEA COULDN'T WORK HIS BLUFF

The Republicans in the Waialua district elected a president and secretary to succeed Curtis Iaukea and Naukana both of whom are Home Rulers, at a meeting held Wednesday evening. Archie Mahaulu is the new president and W. S. Wond the secretary.

Iaukea tried to break up the Republican party by refusing to allow the precinct club to meet. He sent the following notice to the club, which the members wouldn't recognize:

Waialua, Oahu, August 18, 1903.
Mr. Oscar Cox, Waialua.

Dear Sir:—Until my resignation as president of the Republican Club of the precinct has been made and duly accepted by the members at a meeting of the club, I cannnot recognize your authority as vice president to call any meeting of the club for its executive committee. All meetings will have to be called through the president if he is in the precinct.

Yours respectfully,
C. P. IAUKEA.

SUGAR MEN AGAINST A REFINERY IN HAWAII

Say That the Scheme Is Impracticable As the Refined Sugar Would Cake Before It Reached New York Market.

Sugar men almost as a unit appear to be opposed to the projected refinery which E. L. Lewis has been advocating for Hawaii since his recent return from the mainland. Prominent men who were interviewed yesterday on the question are opposed to the refinery idea emphatically, while those men who failed to express an opinion one way or the other certainly were not even lukewarm in support of the proposition.

The matter of a refinery has been investigated very thoroughly before this, and the decision has been against it. Instead of attempting anything of the kind, the Hawaiian planters invested in the California refinery which was recently closed down.

MR. JONES'S VIEWS.

P. C. Jones is emphatically opposed to the idea of building a refinery in the islands. He is interested in many of the larger plantations and is a director of Brewer & Co.

"If there is a refinery put up here and I could buy stock for twenty-five cents on the dollar I wouldn't take it," said Mr. Jones yesterday. "That is my view, brief and to the point. I have looked into this refinery question before and I don't want anything to do with it—not in these islands."

DAVIES & CO.

F. M. Swanzy of Davies & Co., said: "I don't see much use in expressing an opinion on the subject. No, Mr. Lewis hasn't been in to see us. I have seen him quoted in the papers but I haven't given the matter a thought and I don't see what good an expression from me will be."

BREWER & CO.

C. M. Cooke, President of Brewer & Co., was opposed to the refinery scheme. He said he didn't believe there was any discussion of the matter at present among the planters and had heard or seen nothing aside from the published interviews with Mr. Lewis.

"I don't know of any scheme for a sugar refinery now," said Mr. Cooke. "I am not in favor of it, nor of each plantation refining its own sugar. I prefer shipping the raw product.

"I don't believe the idea is practicable. The sugar would cake before it reached the eastern market if it was packed in bags, and if boxes or barrels were used it would be too expensive. There has already been some trouble of that kind with the sugar shipped from the California refinery. When it reached New York the sugar had caked and had to be refined again. It was finally sold at a loss, I believe.

"Until the demand is large enough in California, there is no hope of building a refinery in the islands. Then there is the danger of competition. The plantations here might send their sugar to the California market all at once and demoralize the market. The price would be likely to drop to that of raw sugar. The trust has its entire output provided for. The difficulty also would be in getting the planters to sell through one agent.

"No, I don't believe there will be a refinery established here—at least not for a good many years. The refinery question has already been pretty thoroughly investigated in the islands and it was not found to be practicable."

At Hackfeld & Co., Mr. Pfotenhauer was the only member of the firm in, and he said he preferred not to discuss the subject. Mr. Lewis had presented his plan to the firm, but no action had been taken and nothing was contemplated in the matter.

CORONER'S JURY SAY WIRES WERE NOT IN GOOD ORDER

At the inquest over the body of one Chang Yee Tong who was killed on Wednesday evening by a live wire just Ewa of the King street bridge crossing the Nuuanu stream, the jury handed in a verdict to the effect that both the Mutual Telephone Co. and the Rapid Transit Company were responsible for the Chinaman's death, the former having defective wires, and the latter having trolley wires insufficiently protected.

The jury met yesterday afternoon in Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth's office to hear evidence.

Dr. Emerson stated his conclusions after examining the body of the deceased Chinaman, stating that there were burns on his hand and heel, and that an overcharge of electricity passing through the body was responsible for the death.

H. L. Hudson, the superintendent of the Hawaiian Electric Company, was then called upon to testify. He was at the the scene of the accident and stated that his company's lines were not touching any other lines. He gave expert testimony as to the condition of the wires near the scene of the affair.

Manager Ballentyne of the Rapid Transit stated that the trolley wire and the feeder carried at least 500 volts and so far as he knew the feeder was insulated and in good condition.

Manager Lehigh of the Mutual Telephone Company held that the wires of the Rapid Transit were not properly protected. Here Mr. Ballentyne and Mr. Lehigh had a spirited d'scussion on technical points regarding the wires.

The jury and the witnesses subsequently visited the place where the accident occurred, and then heard testimony from one of the telephone linemen and Mounted Officer Hart.

Shortly afterward the jury adjourned to meet in the evening at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Hudson was again called upon to give testimony. It seems that the telephone wires were above the trolley wires but running parallel to them, therefore the guard wires of the Rapid Transit system were useless as they also ran parallel to the trolley wires. Mr. Hudson stated that in such a case on some systems a net work or ladder of wiring was used running at right angles to the trolley and had there been such an arrangement in this case the telephone wires in falling could not have touched the live trolley wire. There were two sets of telephone wires one above the other and the evidence seemed to show that one of the upper telephone wires had either been broken or else had rusted through and fallen against the trolley. The 500 volts from the trolley had gone back along the telephone wire until it struck one of the lower line of telephone wires the current running along this latter wire several hundred feet until it came to a defect in the wire which broke and the end dropped into the street. There were then two live wires hanging down to the street but it was the latter wire which killed the Chinaman.

THE JURY'S VERDICT.

That the said Chang Yee Tong came to his death at Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Territory of Hawaii, on Wednesday, August 19, A. D. 1903, at or about 11:35 p. m. of said day, from an overcharge of electricity passing through his body, caused by coming in contact with a wire belonging to the Mutual Telephone Company of said Honolulu and receiving current from the trolley wire of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, Ltd.

We further find that the wires of the Mutual Telephone Company were defective in the immediate vicinity of the accident and that the trolley wire of the Honolulu Rapid Transit and Land Company, Ltd., was insufficiently protected at the place of the accident.

COLBURN GETS INTO TROUBLE

J. F. Colburn, manager of the Kapiolani estate, was almost sent to jail for contempt of the tax appeal court yesterday. He had appealed from an assesment of $35,000 against Punchbowl leases of the Kapiolani estate, and Attorney Wilder for the assessor asked him what the amount of the rentals he secured from the lands was. Colburn declined to answer, saying the information was private. He also charged that Wilder wanted the information for his own use. Colburn was threatened with a jail term until he did answer, but the court finally dismissed thne matter by refusing to entertain the appeal.

DAVIS AND THE ALLEN ESTATE

The Star publishes an interesting story in connection with the Allen estate, George Allen's disinheritance and George Davis' attempt to get him for a client.

The story is that Davis approached Mrs. S. C. Allen asking to represent her in settling the claim of George Allen against the estate. He is said to have asked Mrs. Allen to put up money for a trip to the penitentiary in order to settle the matter with George. Mrs. Allen is reported to have refused the offer.

INFORMATION FOR TOURISTS

At a meeting held yesterday by the Hawaiian Promotion Committee it was decided to have printed immediately a folder for the information of passengers touching at Honolulu. The work of the committee has been so far advanced that this was decided upon as necessary.

The folder will contain much of value to the stranger in the city. There will be a map of Honolulu with a description of the points of interest and the easiest methods of reaching them, also cost and other information which a tourist might want.

Reports were also received from the committee which had been raising funds indicating that the movement was being generally supported in the city.

A TREASURE TROVE IN THE HARBOR

Since the dredger has started to work in the naval dock slips small boys, Japanese, natives and others have been reaping a harvest in coal which is brought up by the suction of the dredger. The pipe line carrying the sediment runs over to a triangular piece of water next to the Marine Railway. The coal pickers station themselves near the mouth of the pipeline and grab for the coal as it is brought out on the stream of water. As it was estimated that there were somewhere around seventy-five tons of coal in the slips the boys have run across a lucrative pursuit which is likely to keep them busy.

Many coal ships have discharged at the Naval wharves and in the course of the unloading a large quantity of coal generally falls from the hoppers and slings. Now that the place is being dredged out, the coal is being brought back to the surface. Yesterday afternoon the boys had about thirty sacks of coal stacked up on shore ready to take home.

CITY BURIALS.

It is getting towards time when the health authorities must take up the question of city burials and settle it. The need has long been apparent. Nearly four years ago the Board issued an order closing the city cemeteries to new business—that is to say to the burial in them of any but lot-owners and their families who had acquired their rights before the order was issued. However, little attention was paid to this decree, burials went on indiscriminately and interest in the matter died out, as it had a few years previously, when it was proposed to substitute a burial ground on Punchbowl for those in the settled districts of the town.

It is only a few months ago that the matter came up again. Another order was issued and then, at the demand of people interested in the present cemeteries, it was rescinded. What was the result? What but a postponement of the inevitable, the taking of further public risks, the deprivation of the coming dead of privacy in their own graves?

Meanwhile deaths have gone on in Honolulu at the rate of from fifty to eighty registered ones per month and most of the bodies are being put in cemeteries already full. Now in digging graves three burial places are sometimes exposed to make one, letting loose no one knows how many germs of disease on the community. In places the soil is packed with bodies, some of them in water which drains upon land nearer the sea where people live and where vegetables are grown. Of course the more bodies, the more danger, and it is plain that sooner or later this cemetery and other burial grounds must be closed as a measure of sanitary importance. Why not do it sooner rather than later? Why wait until some emergency demands summary action?

Is there no suitable site on government land for new cemeteries which will be within reach of the electric car and yet not in the way of progress?

THE COMING PRIMARIES.

In deciding for wide-open primaries the Republican Territorial Committee takes chances with the public temper. The threat of a citizens' movement, made after the meeting in which the majority delegates of the Fourth District surrendered to the minority of the Fifth, was not an empty one. Had there been any occasion to start a citizens' party then the result would have been surprising to the politicians. But it was deemed best to wait and see what the Republican primaries brought forth. If the product was a reputable ticket, well and good; then the occasion for a bolt would have passed. If not there would still be time to put a citizens' non-partisan ticket in the field and sweep the Fourth District with it and make serious inroads on the Fifth.

Everything depends on the result of the primaries which, according to the decision of the Republican Territorial Committee, are not to be confined to Republican voters. Should the class of delegates that framed the last legislative ticket win, then the taxpayers will be driven, in self-defence, to frame a ticket of their own. They cannot, with any self-respect, vote for men of the Kumalae-Kupihea-Gear class—and they won't, come what may! It will be well for the Republican managers not to forget this warning and to do their best to secure the election, at the primaries, of delegates whose character and antecedents commend them to conservative members of the party.

The officers at the Naval Station may well take a tumble to themselves or a tumble will be taken for them. Citizens of the Islands are not disposed to stand much more monkey-business in this line.—Independent.

Why of course. If officers of the United States navy do not heed the orders they get from "citizens" of the Territory they may be dishonorably discharged per direction of the Home Rule party. It's a simple case of superior authority. But where is the native statesman who proposed to have the Legislature abolish the United States quarantine laws? He also ought to unlimber.

And now the Chinese are "insulting Russian officials in Manchuria." This will, of course, require the introduction of more troops and the building of more fortifications. It never takes the Russians long to invent an excuse for staying in a place they don't want to leave.

When Shamrock I. raced, she won the first day's light wind match and everybody thought the cup would be hers. But things were so different the next morning. If this is an omen let bettors make the most of it.

The native, however, does not relish work on the roads any more than any other people.—Independent.

Then why does he demand a monopoly of it?

THE WORK OF PROMOTION.

The Hawaii Promotion Committee has gotten well under way in its labors, and of the many things which it has accomplished so far none gives such promise of ultimate success as the fact that a primary step was the placing of the aims and objects of the body before all the people. Circular letters have been sent to every business man in the Islands without respect to nationality and his aid solicited in the carrying out of the plans which are to be followed in furthering the exploitation of Hawaii.

There are two sides to the request of the committee for subscriptions to its funds.

First, the sinews of war are necessary if there is to be a successful campaign through the columns of American periodicals and as well by the distribution of hundreds of thousands of pamphlets and folders.

Second, a united effort must be made if real success is to be obtained. No one would be so short sighted as to contend that the success of the work of this committee would be beneficial to any single class of citizens. Every one would enjoy his share of these benefits, be he merchant or professional man, clerk or workman.

It is understood that the range of the responses already received by the committee is exceedingly wide. It is to be hoped that very soon the committee will be able to report that the people generally have united to assist in the carrying forward of this new enterprise. It is not always the large contribution which is most welcome, but the aggregate of many small sums, for in this as in all other endeavors, in unity lies strength. If you have not responded to the committee's invitation to subscribe you should do so today, no matter how small your contribution..

There is something wrong with the cablegram which reports the "battleship Missouri" as having been launched yesterday at Baltimore. The battleship Missouri was launched at Newport News, Va., on December 28. Miss Marion Cockrell, daughter of Senator F. M. Cockrell, was sponsor for the ship and Lieut. Gov. Lee of Missouri acted for Governor Dockery. The "Missouri" reported yesterday was probably a Pacific liner of that name, in which case the Bulletin's purported cablegram announcing the presence of "the Governor of Missouri and State and National officials" was also—in view of the Star's not having the news of their presence from the same service—a mild fake.

Senator Gorman is not unlikely to lead the Democratic hosts next year. He is a strong man and has more of the confidence of the business classes than any other Democrat with the possible exception of Olney. It is a mistake to accuse the business men of any overpowering affection for Cleveland. The commercial disasters that followed his tariff experiments are not forgotten, nor do the trusts overlook his bitter arraignment of them in his last message to Congress. Bryan is not available any more, but he has an infinite capacity for mischief; and if either Gorman or Olney is nominated Bryan's influence, if not thrown against the new leader, will not be exerted in his favor.

The Star had a remarkable Davis story last night, which accuses the disbarred attorney of having tried to get a fee from Mrs. S. C. Allen for inducing her adopted and disinherited son George to let the Allen will stand, at the very time he was urging George by letter to contest the will. If the story is true—and we have no reason to doubt it—Davis was disbarred none too soon. For such a man the right bars to practice at are those one gets behind.

It is surprising to hear that a telephone line which is hardly strong enough to carry a message can kill a Chinaman. Still, it claims to have got help from the Rapid Transit, which perhaps accounts for it.

If the natives have anything left they will probably take it to that pawnbroking shop, when it opens, and then lay the loss to the missionaries.

When the electrical inspector was legislated out of office it was predicted that the neglect of wires would bring death to somebody.

BAD MILK.

[The Official and Commercial Record.]

The monotonous refrain in Dr. Shoreys' monthly report still continues: "Nobriga's milk examined and found below standard."

What the Record does not understand, however, is the fact that although each report shows from half a dozen to a score of bad milk examinations, the reports of prosecutions are few and far between.

Such men as Nobriga have no shame. Publication of the fact that they are selling bad milk does not stop them from continuing the murderous business.

Prosecution should follow each and every analysis which shows adulterated milk. The milk furnished by Nobriga should be analyzed every day, and half a dozen times a day, and a prosecution based on each examination. Upon conviction, his record should be presented to the court and the full limit of penalty allowed by the law should be asked for. If this course were pursued the reports of bad milk sales by Nobriga would cease. As it is, the bad milk prosecutions amount to simply throwing grass. What is needed is that Dr. Shorey throw stones and throw them hard.

It is up to the doctor. If the doctor does not do his duty it is up to the Board of Health to throw a stone at him.

THE ST. LOUIS COMMISSIONER.

[The Official and Commercial Record.]

The Governor is to be congratulated upon his appointment of F. W. Macfarlane as Commissioner of the St. Louis' Fair. The community is assured that whatever can be done to make a creditable Hawaiian exhibit at the Fair, will be done. Mr. Macfarlane has been one of the leading spirits among the younger men who have made the Merchants' Association a power for good in Honolulu. He is energetic, of good address, and what is more, has good sound judgment. His appointment will encourage the people of Hawaii to put forward their best efforts in support of the Fair, for they are now assured that they will be actively and intelligently assisted by an able Commissioner.

It will be impossible however for the Commissioner alone to make a good exhibit with the limited funds at his disposal. He must have active and intelligent co-operation at home to secure the best results.

The Record earnestly bespeaks such co-operation. If it is given we will be proud of the results. We want no repetition of the report from the Osaka Exhibition.

meeting night fixed by the executive committee.

John Hughes was opposed to this method. He said a great deal depended upon these elections, that the welfare of the conservative men of the community depended upon the result. The nominations should be made openly and fair and square with no hole in the corner schemes. He wanted good honest men selected, neither autocratic nor grafters. He wanted the delegates instructed as to what candidates they should support.

C. M. White said he was in favor of instructions, the voters should have some say as to what men were to be nominated. The delegates were no better judges than the voters, and they should follow the precinct's wishes as far as feasible.

W. E. Fisher objected to placing a rope around the necks of the delegates, but said only good men should be selected as delegates.

Major Pratt said that the delegates were representatives of the people and there was no reason why they should not be instructed.

Mr. Hughes stated that the past history of the party in the islands shows that radical attention was required. There were two parties as bitterly opposed to each other in the Republican party, as Populists are to Republicans. He wanted good solid Americans nominated and the delegates should be required to do as the precinct wished.

C. B. Wilson suggested that perhaps the Republican Central Committee might furnish a slate for the county offices from which the precincts might choose, but this was resented by G. B. McClellan as giving the committee too much power and tending towards bossism.

Mr. White said that the custom in the States was for the candidates to announce themselves in the newspapers and Col. Jones suggested that each candidate might send a written pledge to the precinct club that he intended to support the Republican party. The matter was finally brought to a head with a motion by W. T. Rawlins that a meeting be held Wednesday evening to discuss candidates and delegates. J. A. Gilman offered the loan of his tent for this meeting and for any future meetings which was accepted with thanks. Mr. White was also given a vote of thanks.

Before adjournment C. M. White gave notice that he would introduce a resolution at the next meeting requiring all nominees appearing before the county convention to pledge themselves to the support of the Republican party.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Hollister Drug Co., Special Agents.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

who have used it, or are now using it, we have never heard of any one who has been disappointed in it. No claims are made for it except those which are amply justified by experience. In commending it to the afflicted we simply point to its record. It has done great things, and it is certain to continue the excellent work. There is—we may honestly affirm—no medicine which can be used with greater and more reasonable faith and confidence. It nourishes and keeps up the strength during those periods when the appetite fails and food cannot be digested. To avoid imitations and substitutions, this "trade mark" is put on every

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. Taken before meals it creates an appetite, aids digestion, renews vital power, drives out disease germs, makes the blood rich, red and full of constructive elements and gives back to the pleasures and labours of the world many who had abandoned hope. Dr. S. H. McCoy, of Canada, says: "I testify with pleasure to its unlimited usefulness as a tissue builder." Its curative powers can always be relied upon. It makes a new era in medicine and represents the best medical advice of the twentieth century. Effective from the first dose. "You cannot be disappointed in it." Sold by all chemists the world over

INTERESTING BITS FROM THE LATEST COAST FILES

NEW YORK, August 8.—The Press says: Admission that the present plants erected by William Marconi along the English and American coasts have not proved practical for the transmission for wireless messages across the Atlantic ocean was made by an official of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company to-day.

In the hope of remedying shortcomings or defects in the instruments, Marconi has invented new contrivances. These, it was predicted, will lead to finally perfecting the commercial wireless line between Europe and America, but until their worth is proved by experiments a practical wireless line across the Atlantic seems to be a thing of the future.

Incident to the admission that there had been a hitch in the forging of the wireless Atlantic line it was told that an explosion had practically wrecked the station in Poldhu, Cornwall, a short time ago. Further than this it was stated that Emperor William has arisen as an opponent of Marconi, and is using his imperial influence to further the plans of the Slaby-Braun Company, a German firm.

X RAY AND RADIUM.

LONDON, August 8.—Published statements with regard to medical discoveries, chiefly in connection with the X-ray and radium, follow one another with such rapidity that it is difficult to follow them with precision. The deepest interest is centered on the achievements of those who are trying to work their way to the discovery of a cure of cancer, which, as a cause of death in this country, ranks second only to phthisis.

Experiments in Great Britain and on the Continent are such as naturally arouse the hopes of expert investigators that they are at least on the right track. It would be rash and unjustifiable at present to say more. Professor Duguet, a prominent Paris physician and professor in the French Academy of Medicine, declares the experiments hitherto made have revealed nothing on which to base scientific treatment.

He says: "We are still groping in the dark with regard to reported cures by the X-ray. My long experience in the largest hospitals in Paris has made me most skeptical. Believe me, these cures are not definite."

Middlesex Hospital in London is the pioneer in cancer research in Great Britain. It receives suggestions of cures from all parts of the world weekly. Many are given a fair trial, but hitherto without success.

Middlesex Hospital doctors authorize the positive statement that while they do not claim to have effected anything like a cure by means of the X-ray and Finsen light treatments, yet pain has been abolished.

MORE LIGHT WITHOUT MORE HEAT.

LONDON, August 8.—Various newly discovered rays of surprising properties have been disclosed in "n" rays recently by M. Blondlot. They have been found capable of raising the luminosity of gas without raising the temperature thereof. More light without more heat may be regarded as something of a paradox. An article in the Electrician, commenting on this, says:

"There seems to be, under the influence of "n" rays, some modification of atomic vibrations, which, while leaving their energy unaltered, increases their frequency of vibration. In any case, the fact itself is of great importance and interest. Anything tending to increase luminosity of an object without increasing temperature brings us nearer to the solution of the great problem of economical production of light."

ARRESTED HIMSELF.

SANTA ROSA, August 10.—One of the most unusual cases on record in the Justice's Court of this State is reported from Ukiah. Ben Ayers, a well-known character around town, becoming disgusted with himself on account of the state of intoxication into which he had allowed himself to fall, sought diligently for a policeman to deliver himself into custody and be sentenced for his inebriety. The man was unable to locate one of the guardians of the peace, and thereupon took the law into his own hands.

He went to Justice Crockett's office, and stated his case briefly.

Justice Crockett sentenced Ayers to six days in the jail, and he was incarcerated at once. During his sojourn in prison, Ayers was offered a position by Cal Toney, a business man, who believed his repentance of his folly to be of the genuine sort, and upon his liberation the man will have a good position.

CROSSING THE BORDER.

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 10.—Natives of Lower California are crossing the line into the United States at Campo in large numbers, because of a general conscription that is now being carried on for the Mexican Army. Rurales are busy rounding the natives for a five year term in the army. The pay is poor and the men object to the conscription.

A FLOOD OF COUNTERFEITS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Shovers of the "queer" flooded Coney Island on Sunday with more than $10,000 worth of counterfeit half dollars and quarters, many of which were refused at Coney Island and Bath Beach banks to-day, when the proprietors of hotels and business men generally made their deposits. Every business man on the island had some bogus money when he closed Sunday night.

Waiters and ushers, many of whom had not been warned about the coin, turned in their receipts for the day and found that from two to half a dozen halves and quarters were no good. The coins are excellent imitations. They are dated 1902 and are perfect as to weight and depth of cut. Unlike genuine coins, they do not lose their bright, new aspect by handling.

GORGEOUS WIVES OF GAMBLERS.

SARATOGA, August 10.—The wives of bookmakers and of the men belonging to professional racing have set a pace this year in the matter of fine raiment and glittering jewels, and society women have been outdone. On any night at the Grand Union Hotel gems and jewelry worth $1,000,000 can be seen. The finest diamonds adorn the women who are with men who make their money in the betting ring.

On a recent afternoon the wife of one of the well-known layers of odds appeared in the stand so gorgeously arrayed in finery and precious stones that curious-minded persons came from the nethermost part of the grand stand to look her over. "Mrs. Bookmaker" sat unabashed and glorying in an outfit valued at not less than $20,000. Her gown was evidently a Worth or a Paquin of the finest silken texture, hand embroidered and finished in real lace.

Experts said the lace alone must have cost $500. A hand-painted bodice and a diamond-studded parasol lent a dazzling effect. The gown could not be purchased for less than $5000. She wore a wealth of diamonds. To estimate the value of her gems at $15,000 is well within the mark.

BRIDGE WHIST SCANDAL.

LONDON, August 8.—Clubmen are discussing another bridge whist scandal occurring at the house of people socially conspicuous. A youth who is very rich was invited to play bridge. He declared two guests plied him with liquor assiduously and asserts that while unconscious he was robbed of a large sum of money. The youth declares the liquor was drugged. He was taken home in a cab and a doctor who was called restored him. The youth says the doctor discovered he had been drugged. It is probable that if the money is not restored the victim will bring the matter into court. Friends of the host and hostess declare this story is silly, asserting that the youth drank too much and played recklessly, hence he lost his money.

This is the latest addition to the long list of bridge scandals produced by the bridge craze of the past season.

LIEUT. EDIE'S CASE.

OSTERVILLE, (Mass.), August 9.—"What are American institutions stumbling upon if an insult to a woman by an officer of the United States navy or of the United States army can be passed as a trifling matter? Lieutenant Edie offended my daughter Marguerite, who is a mere child, in the home of her sister. He had just been introduced by his friend and fellow officer, Lieutenant Courtney of the same ship. He was an utter stranger. Must we expect this of those who wear the nation's emblem, who are supposed to be the plumed knights of the land and who are taught chivalry first, last and all the time?"

Ex-Governor Baxter, the millionaire mining man of Colorado, was intensely angry as he said this to-day on the veranda of his summer home. He is the father of Mrs. Hugh Tevis, who made a report a few days ago to the naval officers that Lieutenant Edie had been guilty of conduct unbecoming a gentleman and an officer while visiting her cottage in Bar Harbor. These charges are now the subject of an investigation by a court of inquiry.

If I had been there at the time of the insult my actions would have been impulsive. But in my calmer mood now I can see the affair in a broader light. A court-martial would do no good. If our navy is contaminated with an ungentlemanly set of young men, the evil cannot be cured by court-martial.

"One cannot make a silk purse out of a sow's ear. One cannot mold gentlemen by court-martial. The evil goes further. In recent years the professions and trades are so much more tempting to the flower of our young men that they do not enter the army and navy as they once did.

"The incident involving my daughter's name in the public press has mortified me very much. It is simply revolting to me; but, above all, the glaring fact of the deterioration of our men of the United States service is most firmly impressed upon my mind in this affair."

Governor Baxter said he does not know whether Lieutenant Edie has ever apologized to his daughter.

TWITTED TO SUICIDE.

SEATTLE (Wash.), August 9.—Because of the persistent twitting of friends on account of her excessive corpulence, Susan B. Bachelder, a girl fifteen years old, last night, took strychnine with suicidal intent and died. She took the deadly dose while lying in bed.

OLONA NOT GOOD FIBRE

An Official Report Made by an Expert.

Old Natives Used It for Fish Nets and Lines.

Department of Agriculture Experts Say It is Worthless for Manufacture.

Olona fibre is of no value commercially according to a report received from the Department of Agriculture by Director Jared G. Smith of the United States Experiment Station.

The olona fibre grows wild in the Olaa district on Hawaii and many years ago was believed to be very valuable. The difficulty has always been in obtaining a suitable mechanical extractor and the Department finds this to be hopeless. The sample of specimen of fibre obtained from the material sent by Director Smith was sent back, and is apparently of little value. It appears to be very fine but has little strength.

The Olona is a native name for a Hawaiian plant which was much used in years gone by for the manufacture of fish lines and nets. These were of course made by hand, and the fibre was extracted through the same primitive methods. In the seventies the fibre was exported to Switzerland where it was sold to Swiss Alpine clubs it being much in demand because of its light weight and great strength.

The sample obtained by the government Agricultural Department though of light weight is not of great strength.

The letter received by Mr. Smith from Lyster H. Dewey, the botanist in charge of fibre plants, contains also a communication from the chemistry bureau where tests were made of the fibre. Mr. Dewey also says he is glad to learn that the sisal industry is becoming well established in Hawaii.

The two letters are as follows:

I am forwarding to you herewith a copy of a report of the Bureau of Chemistry on investigations which they made at my request in regard to methods for extracting the olona fiber.

When submitting the specimens, I asked especially to have the nature of the gum determined if possible. Their report indicates that water-retting appears to be the most practicable method for dissolving the gum. I fear that water-retting is impractable from a commercial standpoint. I forward to you herewith the specimen of fiber which they obtained. Fiber of this character would have no value for any manufactures so far as I am aware.

Washington, D. C., June 2, 1903.
Mr. Lyster H. Dewey,
Division of Botany.

Dear Sir: We have subjected the fiber plant, Touchardia latifolia, to an elaborate investigation for the purpose of determining, if possible, some means of removing the gum, in accordance with your suggestions. Various reagents were tried for the purpose of separating the outside material from the fiber, but its reagents were found to be water at about 30 degrees C., which softens the material so that washing in flowing water and combing the straight fiber will remove practically all the material surrounding the fiber. The nature of this material has not been definitely determined, but it is little affected either by hydrochloric acid or by yeast. It is probably a gum or non-fermentable adhesive carbohydrate. The material which was treated is enclosed herewith to show the success we had with it. The sample has been over-retted and consequently somewhat weakened and darkened. Retting from 15 to 20 days will probably so loosen the fiber that the outside material may be removed by combing the straight fiber in running water.

Respectfully,
H. W. WILEY,
Chief.

Editor Advertiser — Witts Baseball Guide has the following:

"Any man desirous of using his physical and mental powers to their best advantage, must ignore first, intemperance in eating, and second, refuse to allow a drop of alcoholic liquor, whether in the form of spirits, wine, beer or cider, to pass down his throat. We are not preaching temperance to the fraternity, but telling them facts, hard, incontrovertible facts, which experience is gradually proving to those who have charge of the training of athletes for feats of physical skill or endurance.

THE QUEER LOT IS REENFORCED

Editor Advertiser—Not long since an acquaintance, a layman, expressed the view that the eminent physicians and scientists that I have had the privilege of quoting for years past in your journal, were "a queer lot." I have yet another of that kind, not however this time a physician but a naval officer who in the past few weeks addressed a letter to King Edward asking if he might issue an order stating that His Majesty did not consider it necessary that when his health was given, it should be drunk in wine. The King's secretary replied that "His Majesty thought the Lords of the Admiralty would not like his interference by issuing orders, but he would be glad if it was circulated privately that His Majesty considered that his health was as much honored by those who drank it in water as by those who drank it in wine.". Swift on the heels of this pronouncement comes word from Germany that Count von Haeseler, lately commander of the sixteenth army corps, has issued a strong protest against the use of intoxicants. He says: "The soldier who obstains altogether is the best man. He can accomplish more, march better and is a better soldier than the man who drinks even moderately. Mentally and physically he is better."

"I Can Handle Any Man My Size"

HOW OFTEN THAT IS SAID BY MEN WHO HAVE BEEN cured of Nervous Debility by the Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt! They say it every day. Men who have been weak, gloomy, irresolute and who had no confidence in themselves at all, are now holding up their heads in pride, with the knowledge that perfect strength is restored; that they are as good as any man that walks, and better than any man of their size. You know you are weak now and wish you could say that you were as good as any man of your size. You can if you will use this grand incigorator.

Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt

DR. McLAUGHLIN—Dear Sir: In regard to the belt I purchased of you, I will say it is the only cure that I have ever found. I have gained 15 pounds since I began your treatment and feel like another man. I can work and have the energy to do my work. Yours very truly, C. H. DREWRY, Korbel, Cal.

They come every day from everywhere. There is not a town or hamlet in the country which has not cures by Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt.

Now what does this mean to you, dear reader? If you are not what you ought to be, can you ask any better proof to make you try it? Is there a remedy which is as simple, as easy to use, as sure to cure and as cheap as Dr. McLaughlin's Electric Belt? I have not seen one. You must try it. In justice o yourself and those who look to you for their future happiness, try it now. Act this minute. Such a matter ought not to be delayed.

It's as good for women as for men. Worn while you sleep, it causes no trouble. You feel the gentle, glowing heat from it constantly, but no sting, no burning, as in old style belts.

Call to-day, or send for my beautiful book, full of the thing a man likes to read if he wants to be a strong man. It is sent sealed free. Cut out this ad. DR. M. G. McLAUGHLIN, 906 Market Street

CHU KIN IS TANGLED UP

His Stories Vary With Every Breath.

Attempt To Take Away Babes From Mother Continues.

Judge Estee's Warnings Are Unheeded—Various Matters On Court Files.

The habeas corpus case brought by Chu Kin alias Jue Gun against Jung Hing to take her two babies away from her, under a claim that being his children they should be surrendered to his custody, occupied all of yesterday in the continued hearing before Judge Gear and comes on again at 10 o'clock this morning.

Chu Kin himself was on the stand most of the day. His evidence was a network of pointblank contradictions. He swore in the morning, over and over on questions repeated, that his bride, the present respondent, was brought to his house for the marriage ceremony at noon on the 17th day of the 6th moon of the 19th year of Kwangsui, and that this was the first time he had seen her that day. A few minutes later he testified that he had gone to her mother's house that day with presents, a sedan chair "set for the bride" accompanying him.

Then he swore that he bought the woman, naming $200 as the price which was paid to her mother along with the delivery of 400 cakes, a jar of samshu and a roast pig. Almost in the next breath he swore the $200 was paid to the mother solely as money with which to provide clothes for the bride.

In the afternoon he swore positively that when he sent the sedan chair for the bride he did not go to his mother-in-law's house himself. He said now he went there at 9 o'clock in the morning and it was after his return the bridal sedan chair was sent. When Judge Gea referred him to his previous evidence he denied having so testified and then said he might have made a mistake.

Judge Gear asked Chu Kin how it came that the paper purporting to be his marriage certificate—which acknowledged receipt of the $200, pig, samshu and cakes—was dated the 15th day of the 6th moon when he had sworn he was married on the 17th day.

His answer was ready—"the 15th was a lucky day" and in consequence the certificate was made out two days in advance of the ceremony.

Chu Kin handed out enough variety of names for the woman to make a good-sized subdivision in a directory. His own name was made to appear with as many joints as a centipede. This was a family name, that a title, the other signified a man, etc. At these gymnastics in nomenclature Willie Crawford, his own private interpreter attending counsel, gave a side show by flourishing a Federal registration certificate that belied the witness. Crawford moved from a seat on the jury dais and going back to the side of Mr. Cathcart said a lot of things in whisper under evident excitement.

A Chinese woman, who has been employed as nurse to the children at times, gave her evidence. Judge Gear refused to admit any evidence as to fatherhood, holding that the law did not allow this question where marriage was proved. He thought a common law marriage was proved in this case, but strongly doubted that such a marriage was legal in Hawaii.

Li Cheung, the court interpreter, was on the stand when the court adjourned for the day. He testified that the paper produced was not regular as a marriage certificate according to Chinese custom. It was not customary to have the money consideration in a certificate. Chinese marriage certificates varied in details, but some features were invariably present in all regular documents of the kind.

Judge Estee in the Federal court, when he released the present respondent from the present petitioner's immoral thraldom of eight hours' duration, found that the parties were not married even according to Chinese custom. He further uttered a warning, orally, on leaving the bench after rendering his decision that any interference by Jue Gun with the children—not only their mother—would be regarded as a contempt of court.

Judge Gear took jurisdiction to try the question of marriage on the ground that Judge Estee did not decide it upon the same issue as was brought up by these proceedings against the mother—namely the custody of the children.

PEACOCK VS. VIDA.

An order was signed yesterday by Judge De Bolt, in pursuance of his ruling of the day previous, dissolving the attachment in Peacock vs Vida. Robertson & Wilder filed a demurrer for defendant in the assumpsit suit, stating that the complaint was not addressed to any court in this Territory nor to any judge thereof, that the prayer of the complaint was insufficient in not asking for a jury and that the complaint failed to allege a demand upon defendant, prior to the beginning of the action, for payment of the alleged indebtedness.

JUDGMENTS SATISFIED.

In the action to quiet title of Lucy K. Peabody vs. S. M. Damon, J. O. Carter, W. F. Allen, Charles M. Hyde and W. O. Smith, trustees under the will of B. P. Bishop, deceased, and in the similar action of Lucy K. Peabody vs. S. B. Dole, C. M. Cooke, Henry Holmes, J. O. Carter, S. M. Damon, W. F. Allen and W. O. Smith, trustees of the Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum, D. Kawananakoa and Jonah Kalanianaole, the defendants respectively, excepting the last two in the latter suit and C. M. Hyde (deceased) in the former, have filed acknowledgments of satisfaction of judgment and payments of all sums due under the judgments, both of which were adverse to the plaintiff. Kinney & Ballou, attorneys for each trust, sign the papers.

COURT NOTES.

Pilihaau, guardian of Kamaka, boy, and Papaenaena, girl, minors, in his annual account charges himself with $250 and asks to be allowed $62.65, which would leave the wards a balance of $187.35.

Judge Gear ordered temporary letters of administration to issue to John K. Prendergast under the last will of his wife.

W. S. Edings by his attorney, H. A. Bigelow, makes answer to the complaint of the Oahu Lumber & Building Co., denying each and every allegation.

The Commercial and Official Record has come to stay. It is filling a long felt want.

The Chinese and Japanese soda water and candy sellers along the waterfront now have a lively competitor in the person of a young Italian who passes from ship to ship and through all the waterfront offices carrying an open basket in which he has a large display of sweets. He passes around in a harmless way and stops in front of each person with the simple remark "Candy." He is said to be doing quite a business.

WHEN BUSH WAS AN ATHLETE.

An old timer on the waterfront tells a story of the old whaling days. John Bush once went out before the mast on a whaler of which Captain Andrew Fuller was mate. Years later Captain Fuller found himself serving as harbor master in Honolulu and taking orders from Bush who had then risen from the life of the sea to become Minister of the Interior of Hawaii. But in the whaling days Bush was noted as an athlete. The whalers had a habit of climbing up the rigging hand over hand. Bush could beat all of the sailors at this game and with his body as rigid as a piece of iron would pull himself hand over hand to the highest rigging of the ship.

CLARK AS A CABIN BOY.

At about this same time Charley Clark, former boss of the Kalihi camp, was serving as a cabin-boy on a whaler. He is described as having been "just like the usual run of cabin-boys, full of tricks, but a hustler at his work."

TRIPP'S MARINES.

Captain Tripp is another of the old-time whalers who have good old yarns to spin of the Arctic. Tripp took many a crew of Hawaiians away to the north. His greatest trouble was that the natives would stand around on deck and permit their feet to be frozen. To prevent these occurrences Tripp converted his sailors into marines. He armed them with brooms and marched them around the deck at a lively pace until all evidences of cold in the feet had passed away. Tripp had guns aboard but he thought it safer to use the brooms as drilling pieces.

HOW WILLER LOST A SHIP.

Captain Willer, who sailed the old bark Ceylon until she was so full of holes that she finally foundered, had hard luck sometime ago. He made a trip or so in command of the bark C. D. Bryant until another man who was to take the vessel was ready. He arrived in Honolulu and handed over the ship to the owners. Then he hied himself away to his home expecting the other man to at once take command. But the owners of the vessel had some trouble with the new captain with the result that he was fired and it was determined to give Willer permanent command of the bark. The vessel was ready to sail and so Willer was needed at once. But after hunting high and low no trace of the master of the late Ceylon could be found. Another man had to be given the place but to make up for his loss Willer got into the Harbor Master's office. He is said to be one of the hardest working men on the waterfront.

MAHANY HAS MANY FRIENDS HERE.

Captain Mahany, of the ship Helen Brewer which is now long overdue on a voyage from Java to Delaware Breakwater, has many friends in Honolulu. He has been here often. One skipper said of him yesterday: "Mahany is a smart fellow. He is a very good sailor and has made some good trips with the Helen Brewer. He keeps his vessel in the pink of condition and in the matter of handling his crew I believe he would rather fight than eat. I think that he will reach port all right although if he were dismasted in the Indian Ocean his crew might have starved to death before assistance could be secured for them. He left Java during the hurricane months and it is possible that he struck a very bad storm in trying to round the Cape of Good Hope."

YOU WOULD NOT KNOW MACAULEY.

Captain Macauley who was formerly connected with the Custom House is back in Honolulu again after having made a trip to the Coast for the benefit of his health. He comes back so much improved that one would hardly know him. Judging from his ruddy cheeks his friends declare that he must have been dreaming for weeks that he had been hunting on the wild moors of his "own dear Scotland."

ERSKINE M. PHELPS IS DUE.

The ship Erskine M. Phelps, Captain Graham, is now out 107 days from Norfolk for this port with a cargo of coal and is expected to arrive very soon as she has a habit of making very fast round the Horn voyages. Last year the Phelps came around in the record time of ninety-seven days.

Shipping Notes.

The steamer Nihau sails for Punaluu by way of Lahaina today at 5 p. m.

The Alameda is due from the Coast early this morning with four days' mail.

The steamer Kauai sailed for Kauai ports yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The British ship Fleur De Lis sailed from Newcastle for this port on August 17.

The British bark Brunel will move to the coal wharf today to begin discharging coal.

Admiral Terry is due on the Alameda which will arrive this morning from San Francisco.

The R. P. Rithet will move to the Bishop wharf today to finish discharging a general cargo.

The American ship George Curtis will sail some time today for San Francisco with a load of sugar.

The steamer Rosecrans instead of making another trip to this port with a cargo of oil has gone to Nome.

The Annie Johnson will move from the Railroad wharf to the Irmgard wharf today to finish discharging.

The Mauna Loa sails for Kona-Kau ports at noon today. She will carry a large party which is bound for the Volcano.

The Italian ship Herat finished discharging coal at the Kekuanaoa wharf and will move into the stream today to await orders.

The British ship Carmanian finished discharging coal at the Railroad wharf yesterday and will move into the stream today to await orders.

The American ship Dirigo, Captain Cally, arrived from Newcastle yesterday afternoon with a cargo of coal consigned to Castle and Cooke. She made the trip in 54 days.

The S. S. Nevadan will sail for Kahului this afternoon. She will not return to this port for mail or sugar but will go from Kahului to Hilo where she will finish loading and then sail from that port direct for San Francisco.

The bark Fullerton arrived at San Francisco from Kihei on August 19. She was in tow of the steamer Whittier, but that vessel cut loose from her off the California Coast several days ago, leaving the bark to make the remainder of the trip alone.

THE QUEEN'S HOSPITAL

Trustees Elected For the Two Years.

Biennial Reports Show A Good Work Done.

Discussion of a New Wing For the Hospital—Reports For the Last Quarter.

The quarterly and biennial meetings of the trustees of the Queen's Hospital were held yesterday morning in the offices of F. A. Schaefer & Co.

The report of J. F. Eckhardt, superintendent, was submitted for the two years ending June 30, 1903. It was in substance as follows:

The number of patients on June 30, 1901, was 66; admitted during the 24 months, 1398. This makes a total of 1464 patients as against 1835 for the previous biennial period. Of this number 522 were Hawaiians (369 males, 153 females) 232 Americans, 165 Portuguese, 94 Porto Ricans, 61 Germans, 47 English, 44 Japanese, 42 Norwegians, 32 Chinese, 17 Scotch, 114 Danish, 9 South Sea Islanders, 7 West Indians, 35 Swedish, and the remainder scattering among a large number of countries.

The number of deaths was 92 in a total of 1464 patients, giving a percentage of 6.28 per cent as against 9.8 per cent for the previous biennial term.

There have been 95 major and 128 minor operations and 12 post-mortem examinations.

Two hundred and thirty-seven American seamen, of whom 41 were Hawaiian born, have been admitted under an agreement with the U. S. Marine Hospital Service. These have been attended by a Marine Hospital surgeon.

One hundred and sixty-eight private room patients have been admitted. Of these, 81 were attended by the hospital staff and 87 by members of the honorary staff.

The endowed beds have been occupied as follows: C. R. Bishop bed No. 1, by 20 patients, 670 days; same No. 2, by 18, 721 days; same, No. 3, by 12, 642 days; same, No. 4, by 18, 639 days; A. A. Carniot bed, by 16, 678 days, F M. Irwin bed, by 20, 634 days; Hackfeld bed, by 11, 629 days; T. R. Foster bed, by 1, 730 days.

NEW TRUSTEES.

A communication was received from Governor Dole announcing the appointment of five trustees for the government as follows: H. A. Isenberg, F. J. Lowrey, Geo. W. Smith, David Dayton and W. H. McInerny. F. A. Schaefer was also appointed a vice president by Governor Dole.

A committee was appointed to amend the by-laws to conform which changed political conditions, chiefly in the title of the officers.

The trustees chosen by the corporation to serve for the next four years are E. D. Tenney, M. P. Robinson, Henry Waterhouse, F. A. Schaefer and A. J. Campbell.

QUARTERLY REPORT.

The following quarterly report was submitted by the physicians:

The number of patients at present in the hospital is 71; viz.: 36 Hawaiians (30 males, 6 females), 1 Japanese and 34 of other nationalities; 18 paying.

The number of admissions was 204 viz.: 76 Hawaiians (52 males, 24 females), 6 Chinese, 2 Japanese and 120 of other nationalities.

Died, 7; viz.: 2 Hawaiians (1 male, 1 female), 1 Chinese and 4 of other nationalities.

The causes of death were: Chronic nephritis, 1; enteritis, 1; hemorrhage after coeliotomy, 1; hemorrhage, 1 shock resulting from railroad injuries, 1; valvular heart disease, 2.

Of these, 1 died within 6 hours and 1 within 16 hours of admission.

The highest number of patients was 82, lowest 53, daily average 70. Number of prescriptions, 515.

The 204 patients admitted may be divided as follows: Free patients 115, viz.: Hawaiians 66, foreigners 41. Endowed beds occupied by 8; by patients, 98; viz.: Private 22; Ward 24, U. S. seamen, 43.

The total number of patients has been 410; viz.: April 128, May 140, June 142; the number of hospital days has been 6,267; viz.: April 2,085, May 2,073, June 2,109.

There have been 13 major and 23 minor operations and 1 post-mortem examination.

Twenty-four patients were refused admission; of these two were sent to Kalihi detention camp, 8 were suffering from tuberculosis, 3 from other incurable diseases, and 11 were not proper hospital cases; 8 patients, after receiving treatment, did not remain in the hospital.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. WOOD, M.D.,
CHAS. B. COOPER, M. D.,
W. H. MAYS, M. D.
E. C. WATERHOUSE, M.D.

The officers elected were Henry Waterhouse, treasurer, M. P. Robinson, auditor, and G. W. Smith, secretary The election of physicians was postponed to a special meeting to be held later.

Consideration of the proposal to build a new wing for the hospital will also be acted upon at a special meeting.

The current expenses for the biennial period amounted to $78,308.33 and the payments by patients to $28,044.75 for the same period.

MR. MACFARLANE RECEIVES HIS COMMISSION

Commissioner F. W. Macfarlane yesterday took the oath of office before B. L. Marx, notary public, and on filing the certificate with his acceptance in the Governor's office received the following worded commission:

SANFORD B. DOLE,

Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

To all who shall see these presents, Greeting:

Know ye, that reposing special trust and confidence in the wisdom, integrity and ability of

FREDERICK W. MACFARLANE, ESQ.,

I do by these presents hereby constitute and appoint him Commissioner of the Hawaiian Territorial exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition, and do hereby authorize and empower him to do and perform all such matters and things as are now or may be hereafter given him in charge and the said office to hold and exercise during my pleasure;

And I do pray and request the President of the said Exposition, and all others in authority, to permit the said Frederick W. Macfarlane fully and promptly to enjoy and exercise the said office with all the powers, privileges and authorities to the same of right appertaining.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and caused the seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be hereto affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Honolulu, this 19th day of August, A. D. 1903.

SANFORD B. DOLE.

(Seal)

Mr. Macfarlane on this occasion presented the final report of the Fire Claims Commission to the Governor. It deals with the bulk of the work covered in earlier reports and gives a detail of all the proceedings after the signing of the records of judgments.

Being asked after his interview with the Governor about any plans he might be considering relative to his duties as Commissioner to St. Louis, Mr. Macfarlane said:

"I had a talk with the Governor to ascertain what his views were as regards commencing the duties of this office, but further than a discussion of the matter in general no program was reached. The Governor promised, however, to meet me at an early date and express his views as to how I should start in on the work of this mission."

LOAN MATTER SUBJECT OF CONFERENCE

Governor Dole has called a conference with himself this afternoon of Treasurer Kepoikai, Secretary Carter and Auditor Fisher, to discuss a line of action regarding the Territorial loan matter.

Secretary Carter stated yesterdsy, before the Governor asked him to the conference just mentioned, that he had presented his views on the matter to Governor Dole in a letter.

"It is my opinion," the Secretary said to a reporter of the Advertiser, "that arrangements ought to be made for the issuance of a million dollars of bonds immediately in the President's approval.

"I believe that we should have the best legal opinion in New York upon the loan. It would be cheaper to pay for such an opinion than to save what it would cost, if it had the effect of making the bonds sell at an additional one per cent.

"We ought to be ready to call for bids the moment we are advised of the President's approval. To this end all the information and data bearing upon the financial status of the Territory, which should accompany the call for bids in the great money markets, ought to be prepared while the President's decision is awaited."

TWO CROOKS ARE CAUGHT

Forging a Postal Money Order Charged.

Warrant Served While Men Were Already Under Arrest.

Porto Ricans Who Were Mixed Up With Robbery of Lieutenant General Miles.

Two Porto Rican crooks are under arrest for the forgery of the signature and endorsement upon a United States postal money order. They were already in the custody of the Honolulu police authorities for misdemeanors of some kind yesterday afternoon, when Marshal Hendry served the Federal warrant upon them for the serious crime already mentioned.

Claudino Pui and Francisco Leebrun are the names of the accused. Sophia Dagnin, a Porto Rican woman, swore to the information before E. A. Douthitt, United States Commissioner, and J. J. Dunne, Assistant United States Attorney, signed his approval of the complaint with a prayer for the issuance of a warrant. The complaint sets forth that Sophia Dagnin, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that on the 27th day of August, 1902, at Honolulu, in the District of Hawaii, "Claudino Pui and Francisco Leebrun, in violation of Section 5463 of the Revised Statutes of the United States, did wilfully, intentionally, unlawfully, knowingly, falsely, feloniously and with intent to defraud, falsely forge and counterfeit the material signature and endorsement upon a certain money order issued under the direction of the Postoffice Department of the United States," by the Postmaster at Makaweli, Island of Kauai, payable in the United States at Honolulu, Island of Oahu, to one Sophia Dagnin. A copy of the money order front and back, is given showing on the former the signature "Fancico Dagnin" to the receipt portion, and on the back the signature "Sophia Dagnin" to the endorsement clause.

The men will be brought before Commissioner Douthitt for examination at 9 o'clock this morning, but owing to Mr. Douthitt's engagement in the habeas corpus case before Circuit Judge Gear there will be a continuance until tomorrow morning.

This is not the first time that these two men have had to answer to a charge of crime in this Territory. When Mr. Douthitt was attending to the territorial criminal business as Assistant Attorney General he had them indicted, along with Gregorio Abile, for larceny in the second degree in connection with the looting of the hand baggage of Colonel Maus, aide de camp to General Miles, at the Hawaiian Hotel when the commander of the United States Army was here on his tour around the world. Papers belonging to General Miles were taken along with other articles of more or less value. Through a failure of evidence the trial resulted in acquittal.

The offense with which Clandino and Francisco are now charged is a serious one, as are all crimes of fraud upon the United States government. The minimum penalty is a fine of $1000 or imprisonment for five years, or both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Claudino Pui, under the name of Manuel, is well known as a police spy who has been employed among his countrymen.

H. A. C. FOOTBALL TEAM ORGANIZED

A meeting to organize the H. A. C. football team for next season was held last evening in the Catholic Mission hall. The meeting was an enthusiastic one, about twenty members of the Club being present.

Pat Gleason was elected temporary chairman and was also elected manager of the football team for next season.

Jess Woods will do the coaching.

A committee consisting of John Lane and W. S. Ellis was appointed to look into the matter of securing grounds for the team to practice on.

It was decided that the manager and the coach should represent the team at the league meetings.

Fifteen new suits have already been sent for and there is a good prospect for securing men, there being about thirty in the club who will be able to turn out.

Last years suits will be used by the second team.

It is said that the H. A. C. team will not send to the Coast for any new material, but will rely entirely upon local men.

A Japanese Hold-Up

Night before last the servant's quarters of Mr. Creasson's cottage on the Manoa road was entered by two Japs who demanded $50 of the Japanese servant and his wife. The woman was ill and was nursing a baby and the husband was so frightened that he made no outcry. He managed, however, to lock his door against the intruders and they fastened it from the outside, remaining there all night and threatening the couple inside. The two did not leave the premises until broad daylight. Mr. Creasson's servants would probably have paid the $50 but they had no money on hand.

CHOLERA INFANTUM should be guarded against, and prevented by treating the child at the first unusual looseness of the bowels. Mothers can not be too careful about this, especially in hot weather. They should have medicine ready for such an emergency. No better remedy is prepared than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Every household should have a bottle at hand. Get it today. It may save a life. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents, sell it.

New moon on the 22d, at 9:20 a. m.

Times of the tide are taken from the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey tables.

The tides at Kahului and Hilo occur about one hour earlier than at Honolulu.

Hawaiian standard time is 10 hours 30 minutes slower than Greenwich time, being that of the meridian of 157 degrees 30 minutes. The time whistle blows at 1:30 p. m., which is the same as Greenwich, hours 0 minutes. Sun and moon are for local time for the whole group.

BASEBALL LEAGUE DOES BUSINESS

The regular weekly meeting of baseball league was held yesterday afternoon in Elk's Hall. Secretary Andrews presided and the following representatives of the teams were present: Vierra of Kamehameha, Carter of Punahou, Murphy of the Elks, Lucas and White for the Mailes, and Ellis for the H. A. C. team.

Secretary Lorrin Andrews brought in his report of the bills which he had already received. He stated that if the bills were paid out of the $450 which he had received from the Trustees, each of the teams would have received a trifle over $48. As the members present considered some of the bills excessive, an auditing committee consisting of Carter, Murphy and Lucas were appointed to get all the bills and be given full power to act in making payments.

There was some discussion as to when the different teams were to use the baseball grounds during the week. Each team was allowed one day, but the days not being specified, there was some confusion as two teams met on the grounds at the same time. It was finally decided that the four teams playing a week from tomorrow should draw lots to see what days each would use the field.

The result was as follows: Monday, the Elks; Tuesday, Punahou; Wednesday, Kamehameha; Thursday, H. A. C.

This arrangement only holds good for next week. At the League meetings every Thursday the teams will draw to see what days they will use the grounds on the following week.

The meeting then adjourned.

The new arrangement of the Elk team is causing some little speculation as to whether the men will become accustomed to their positions in time for the game. Still the Elks will not have the hardest kind of a game to play, although there are dark rumors that the Mailes are out for at least one game before the season is over. Gorman who may play first and Kennedy at third should give a good account of themselves, being seasoned men, but there seems to be some doubt as to whether Meyer can fill the position of shortstop successfully.

Lucas will not umpire at Saturday's game as he will be out of town. An umpire to take his place will be chosen on the grounds before the game.

Leslie's hand is still in bad shape but he may be able to play in tomorrow's game. If he does not catch, Louis will be behind the bat and Leslie will go to right field. If Leslie does not play at all, Pryce may be put in.

Punahou will find it hard to get a man who can fill the position of second baseman as well as Judd has filled it when the latter goes away. He leaves on the Sonoma on the first therefore will not play in three games.

It all depends on steamers as to whether Castle will be able to play the season out with the Punahou's. The last game in which Punahou takes part is on September 12th.

Castle is due to leave here on the City of Peking of the 12th. If that steamer is late as she is quite likely to be Punahou will have cause to rejoice, if not another man will have to take Castle's place in the box, unless he can wait over another steamer.
