PLANTERS APPROVE IMMIGRATION BOARD

FLEET COMMITTEE HAS GOOD BALANCE

PLANTERS TO SUPPORT IT

Policy of Immigration Board Taken Up By Hawaiian Planters Association and Given Full Approval---Probable That Funds Will Be Forthcoming

The Hawaiian Planters' Association will support the Territorial Board of Immigration in its effort to secure European immigrants for the Territory from the mainland centers, where the great bulk of the better class of Europeans arrive.

This was practically settled at a meeting of the Association held this forenoon, when the trustees are said to have considered the project which the Immigration Board has had on hand for some time.

Secretary W. O. Smith of the Association stated over the 'phone this noon: "The Planters' Association this morning took action approving the plan of the Immigration Board. The planters will assist in whatever the Board does. While the details are not yet complete, the planters approved the endeavor of the Board of Immigration to get more people here."

This is interpreted to mean that the Immigration Board may now go ahead with its plans assured that funds for the project will be supplied in reasonable quantity by the sugar planters.

As is well known, the Immigration

Senator Lane Pleased With New Policy

ADDRESSES LETTER TO GOVERNOR ON SUBJECT OF CHANGE THE BOARD OF HEALTH HAS MADE IN DEALING WITH LEPROSY PROBLEM—IT IS ALONG LINES HE WORKED FOR

The new policy of the Board of Health in making the treatment of leprosy more prominent than the segregation is particularly pleasing to Senator John Lane, who has expressed his views in a letter addressed to the Governor.

There are some friends of Dr. Koch in the city who feel somewhat slighted because when the matter of changed policy was originally given publicity the officials did not speak of the part Dr. Koch played. It is claimed that the whole change was brought about through the visit of the noted bacteriologist at the Settlement.

The Doctor is said to have criticized the plan being followed. He held that many of the old cases at the Settlement were not dangerous so far as contamination was concerned; the sores had healed and there was nothing more to do. He claimed that more should be done for treatment at the inception of the disease and to gain the confidence of the people.

It is also said that the new arrangement will make it possible for Dr. Brinckerhoff to make his headquarters in Honolulu instead of at the Settlement, as hitherto supposed he would do. As to this, however, there can be nothing definite said until Dr. Brinckerhoff returns to the city.

Governor Frear has given out an

Sheldon Blown Up

A terrible explosion took place in the County quarry at Kaneohe this forenoon that probably cost Sam Sheldon of Waiau his life.

One of the blasting charges placed in the quarry yesterday missed, and the foreman expected to shoot it today. For some reason or other Sheldon got an idea that he could do the shooting and he was in the act of putting a drill into the hole when the foreman saw him. The latter jumped to prevent the catastrophe he knew must result from inexperience, but he was too late. The impact of the drill in the hands of Sheldon set the dynamite off.

Sheldon was thrown in the air and the wonder is he was not killed instantly. His skull was fractured and his body injured in many places. A physician was summoned from town and the man taken to the hospital this noon.

FLEET COMMITTEE ADJOURNS SINE DIE

Contrary To Frear's Suggestion--$3,498 Left On Hand

The Fleet Committee met this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, and adjourned sine die, after accepting reports of the treasurer and accountant, showing the state of the finances. These reports were accepted subject to auditing, to be published in the public prints as soon as the accountant is through.

Some minor matters had to be finally tied up. Fifteen dollars was appropriated for auditing the accounts of the sports committee, the sum having been already paid out.

The matter of unpaid subscriptions, mostly from saloon men, was taken up, and it was finally decided to let these stand over, to be used in helping with a fund for the entertainment of the Pacific Fleet, which is expected here next month.

The report of Treasurer Tenny Peck was then read, showing $3496.56 on hand, and the report of the accountant, checking the other report by another route.

Both were accepted and placed on file subject to auditing.

George Potter was selected by motion to go through the 101 vouchers whic hare to be examined.

A letter was read offering the use of the Moana and Young hotels free of charge for entertainment purposes when the Pacific Fleet is here, and the offer was accepted and referred to any committee which shall have

Government Money In Local Banks, Says Frear

That Governor Frear will make a recommendation to the next Legislature that Government funds be deposited in the local banks instead of lying idle in the Government vaults, is practically certain, although the Chief Executive stated this morning that he did not care to make any definite statement as to the exact context of his recommendation. In fact, he said, it had not been formulated as yet.

"Yes, I have taken this matter into consideration," stated the Governor in answer to a reporter's question, "and I shall make a recommendation to the next Legislature on the subject. I have taken a deep interest in this, and have studied the laws in other places regarding the depositing of Government funds in home banks. I had these laws looked up several months ago, and I can see no reason why the Government funds should not be deposited in local banks. It does not seem necessary that large sums of money should be allowed to accumulate downstairs in the vaults, when the Government might as well be drawing down interest on it. I think that the best manner of following out this plan would be to let the Government official in charge of the money, the Treasurer, deposit it in amounts and at such times as he sees fit. There have been times when vast sums of money have laid idle in the vaults here when they might as well be out at interest."

Governor Frear was conservative in tone on the subject, notwithstanding the radical words he used, and he would make no statement concerning the exact nature of his proposed recommendation to the Legislature. However, it is pretty positive that his recommendation will be favorable to the depositary law that has long been urged by the Bulletin.

Unanimous For Kuhio

"I think the Democrats would show good sense this year by not putting up any candidate for Delegate and allow the Territory to give Kuhio a unanimous re-election," said a business man this morning in commenting on the political situation.

"Prince Cupid has a position at Washington that makes his service in the next Congress of the utmost importance. He knows the ropes and has friends and that is what we must have when the tariff is being considered. If the Democrats cut out the Delegateship this year they might stand a pretty good show on the local ticket.

"It may not be politics but Delegate Kuhio is entitled to a unanimous re-election irf any man ever was."

STOLE SOME PIPE

A man who gave his name as Brown was arrested this morning for having stolen some pipe which the telephone company uses for underground connections. The pipe was missed from a sub-station, and later found by the police. It was identified as the property of the 'phone people. The case against Brown is pretty strong.

Stackable, Custodian

At last there is something definite concerning the new Federal building site. Interest in this was revived to a great extent some time past, but in some manner the proposition has seemingly lain dormant of late.

Collector of Customs E. R. Stackable has been appointed custodian of the Federal public building site. This was announced in a letter received from Washington by United States District Attorney Breckons this morning.

Change In Precincts Mystify Party Men

Some of the political workers don't understand why the Governor has become so active in making changes in the voting precincts. They seem to think that there are matters of politics as against public policy involved, though they don't know just why.

It is said to be claimed that the breaking up of some of the precincts is being done to facilitate the voting; yet when the people who read this turn to the laws of the last Legislature they find that the law was changed so as to allow more than three voting compartments in each booth.

Hitherto the splitting up of precincts has been urged because the voting booths did not allow a large number of voters to be taken care of—the voting became congested. At that time only three voting compartments were allowed in a booth.

The new law changed all this. More than three compartments may be placed in a booth, thus providing for all who may come. The law quoted is Act 19, page 22, section 65 of the Session Laws of 1907: "The inspectors shall cause to be provided within the polling department not

ANDREWS WANTS BIG MONEY FOR LAND

Lorrin Andrews of Hilo still has the idea that he can win out from Uncle Sam. Some time ago a proposition was made to him by the Federal Government for a right-of-way through a certain small tract of land which he holds under lease. At first he placed the value of the right-of-way at a very nominal figure, but later raised it to several hundred dollars.

As the United States Government, through its attorney here, Mr. Breckons, thought that the price asked was exorbitant, condemnation proceedings were begun and the right-of-wdy was forcibly taken.

Now, in answer to the condemnation proceedings, Andrews has filed a damage suit for $1,000, claiming that he or his property is injured to that amount by the condemnation of the bit of land. What will be done by the Federal authorities is not known as yet.

MANY NATIONAL CONGRESSES HELD

Hawaii To Have Good Representation At Gatherings

W. W. Goodale, manager of Waialua plantation, will be a delegate to the Sixteenth National Irrigation Congress to be held this year at Albuquerque. Mr. Goodale expects to leave shortly for the Coast. It is also probable that he will be a delegate to the Lake Mohong Conference, at which Hawaii expects to get a great amount of attention this year.

Governor Frear stated this morning that there would probably be four or five representatives of Hawaii at the Lake Mohonk Conference, among them being Admiral Very, who was until recently Commandant of the local Naval Station. Gorham D. Gilman will also probably be on hand to do what he can to advance the interests of Hawaii at this momentous gathering, and Attorney Withington of this city may also be in attendance. Titus M. Coan, literary critic, whose father was an old misisonary here, can be counted on to do whatever he can to boost Hawaii at the Conference, according to the Governor.

In speaking of conferences Governor Frear mentioned the Trans-Mississippi Congress, which will be held in San Francisco some time during November. This Congress deals with all general matters of import and interest to the great West, and it seems that Hawaii should have a good representation. Attorney General Hemenway may be one of the delegates, as it is probable that he will be in the States at this time.

A problem of train traffic in Chinese cities presents peculiar difficulties, in view of the crowded condition of the streets and the lack of familiarity of the people with time saving devices generally.

FLEET COMMITTEE

charge of entertainment for the Pacific Fleet.

It was reported that some of the transformers had been taken down fro mthe streets, and that probably the water front, the fish market, Aiakei street, the and Capitol were the only places now available for lighting. The Young hotel illuminations are to be left up. Colonel Jones and Mr. Gartley were appointed a committee of two to determine what wires shall be removed, and what illuminations are to be left up.

Geo. W. Smith brought up the matter of a suggestion of the Governor that the present committee should not adjourn sine die, as it has funds in its charge, and as an appointment of a new committee would probably result in the same men acting again, making it unnecessary to disband and be merely reappointed.

Chairman Carter said that it had been found that the large sub-committees appointed had not worked as successfully as might be, and suggested that it be recommended to the Governor that a small committee of about seven men be appointed, who would attend personally to the details of any work to be done.

G. W. Smith moved to adjourn sine die, and that Tenney Peck be custodian of the funds now on hand until they could be turned over to a new committee. He further moved that Mr. Carter make his suggestion about the small committee to the Governor, and explain the reasons for adjourning as they did, sine die. Tenney Peck moved as an amendment that Secretary Wood be constituted custodian of all personal property of the committee outside funds, and amendment and original motion were carried.

During the meeting a letter of information about the Pacific Fleet from Captain Corwin P. Rees, commandant at the Naval Station, was read. Captain Rees stated that the ships which would be down were the West Virginia (flagship), Colorado, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Washington, California and South Dakota, all armored cruisers, the protected cruiser Charleston, the auxiliary Solace, and eight destroyers, probably the Truxton, Whipple, Paul Jones, Perry, Preble, and Stewart.

The Fourth of July parade at West Palm Beach, Florida, was headed by John C. Kling, of Fort Lauderdale, who stands 6 feet 8½ inches in height. On this occasion Kling wore shoes with two-inch soles, a hat with a two-foot crown and carried a Stars and Stripes parasol.

WATERFRONT NOTES

AFTER THE transport Sheridan had steamed out of the harbor yesterday afternoon she was seen slowing down and came to a standstill. She signalled for the pilot boat to return. When the boat was alongside the transport, the quartermaster sent down a stowaway. Hp had a valise and was brought back to the pilot house, where he was turned loose. The man was afterwards arrested by the police on a charge of embezzlement.

THE MAUNA KEA, which will arrive tomorrow morning from Hawaii, will bring among her passengers from Maui a number of the Honolulu people who went up to take part in the polo contest.

THE LITTLE schooner Kawailani is being repainted on the Waikiki side of Hackfeld wharf. She is lying at an angle of 45 degrees, to enable the workmen to paint her bottom.

THE SCHOONER Ka Moi Wahine, will leave this afternoon for Honolpu. She will be in command of Captain Sam, carrylag freight for Hind brothers.

The steamer Claudine, in command of Captain Bennett, leaves this afternoon for Maui ports. She sails at 5 o'clock.

Board some time ago engaged the services of Mr. Trenor to visit the Territory and go over the field with a view to making recommendations regarding European immigration. Mr. Trenor came to the Islands very highly recommended by the Federal officers engaged in the important work of distributing the immigrants throughout the country, preventing the congestion in the cities and putting the people where they are needed, and where they can make a good living. Former Commissioner Powderly is in charge of this Bureau, with headquarters in New York.

Mr. Trenor has gone over the field and made his report. The next thing for the Immigration Board to discover was whether it could obtain the funds. Getting immigrants from New York will be expensive. The sugar planters have now gone on record as approving the movement. As the same association spent over a quarter of a million of dollars in transporting Europeans direct, there seems little doubt that they will be liberal in this matter, and the Immigration Board will have the funds to make a fair test.

TEACHERS' COMMITTEE MEETING ON MONDAY

Superintendent of Public Instruction Babbitt will not be able to give out the assignments of teachers for the remaining thirty open position until he has received mail from the other islands. This will probably arrive Saturday or Sunday. He has called a meeting of the Teacher's Committee for Monday afternoon when the matter of the assignment of teachers to these vacant places will again be taken up.

Although the details have not been mapped out, it is planned by Mr. Babbit to have a great house-warming in the new High School building the Friday before school opens.

Mr. Babbitt is in receipt of a number of very excellent pictures of the visit of Secretary Garfield to the schools during his stay here. The pictures are of the High School graduating class with the faces of the Secretary, Governor Frear and Principal Scott in the background, and were taken by J. H. Donahue.

According to the advices received by the local agents of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, the Hongkong Maru is taking the place of her sister ship the Nippon Maru, for this trip. She will arrive some time this afternoon.

LAND QUESTION STIRS DEMOCRATS

RATIFICATION MEETING HELD AT AALA PARK SHOWED TREND OF THINGS—NOT VERY LARGE CROWD—IT ENTHUSED PARTICULARLY ON SHOTS AT LAND POLICY — HARVEY TALKS

The Democrats of the city had a Bryan ratification meeting at Aala Park Thursday evening. They did not turn out very much of a crowd, the seats offered by the benches being filled and a few additional chairs being brought in. The threatening weather doubtless kept some away. It was not a large meeting and there was not much enthusiasm, but the speakers did their work well, and were well received.

G. J. Waller, the Democratic National Committeeman, presided, and prominent Democratic leaders were on the platform. The band played. Fred. Weed interpreted. A large picture of Wm. J. Bryan adorned the back well and on either side was a large American and Hawaiian flag.

The responses of the audience showed very clearly that the rank and file will respond with more enthusiasm to the land question than anything else the Democrats have to offer. Watson made some very radical land comment and he was vigorously applauded. In speaking of the Kapaa land business he said that the Republicans had refused the land to the white citizens, the Hawaiian citizens, and the Portuguese citizens, and given it to the Molokans. When the Molokans failed, did the Republicans then give the lands to the citizens? No! They intend to turn it over to a sugar plantation.

Allan Herbert brought forth a hearty response when he said he wanted no office and wanted no land. All he asked was, "Homes for the homeless and lands for the landless."

Many hoped to hear L. L. McCandless, but he did not speak. His beaming countenance was prominent among those on the platform and he looked supremely happy.

"On my return from Denver, I heard some Hawaiians speaking about drawing the color line at the coming election. They advised the people to vote for that man; vote for Hawaiians and not the haoles. We must not do such a foolish thing. We will lose our franchise by adopting such a policy. I am not in favor of drawing the color line. I will oppose it with my last breath."

Frank Harvey, who was introduced as the first speaker of the Democratic meeting at Aala Park last night, uttered the above words. During his speech Harvey was frequently interrupted by Jesse Makainai, who occupied one of the front seats placed on the ground.

"Let us as voters put up a clean political fight," continued Harvey. "We must not oppose each other, skin against skin. We must not oppose one man because he is haole and vote for another man because he is a Hawaiian. The Hawaiians today are enjoying the franchise given them by the Americans because they believed we were educated; but if we draw the color line, which is one of the most foolish things, we will surely lose our franchise."

"How do you know we would lose our franchise if we draw the color line?" asked Jesse Makainai.

"Because of our foolish act," answered Harvey.

"We won't lose our franchise by drawing the color line," continued Makainai. "As long as we are educated we will everlastingly enjoy our right of voting," retorted Makainai.

"We must recognize the fact that we are all American citizens. We are living under the Stars and Stripes. We are under the protection of the American eagle. If we draw the color line our political days will be short.

"The Hawaiians today are getting their daily bread from the haoles. No Hawaiian can deny it, as it is a fact. Why, then, should we agitate the color line. If we insist on drawing the color line we will be pilikia, and not the haoles, who are amply supplied with the necessaries of life."

Harvey was applauded at the conclusion of his speech.

Treasurer R. H. Trent was next introduced, and he entertained the audience with his usual humorous speech. "I am a sandwich man," said Trent. He said that the Democratic delegation from Hawaii was given due recognition in Denver, while the Republican delegation was only represented by two delegates. The others who went in the hope of being seated, were told to go away back and sit down. "When Bryan was here, he shook hands with a Hawaiian policeman," continued Trent. "Had he been a Republican, he would have simply passed with his tall hat and swallow-tail coat, and never have had time to meet a Hawaiian policeman."

"I wish to say that the Municipal Act was somewhat neglected in its enforcement after its passage," began Fern. "Those who registered in 1906, according to my understanding of the law, are eligible to vote for both the Territorial and County officials. While those who registered in 1908 can only vote for Territorial officials. It was intended that the election under the Municipal law was to take place in 1907, but this was not done. I intend to ask the opinion of the County Attorney on the municipal law before we proceed to do politics." He said that this question of qualification should be tested by the Supreme Court at once for settlement rather than wait until after the election, when the whole Act might be declared void.

Wm. Olepau of the Labor party did a little interferring, but he was smoothed over by Fern, who knows how to handle William in such a case. Fern before closing said that the Democratic Mayor defeated the Republican Mayor in Walla Walla, which meant that the Democrats are gaining strength in the United States.

Herbert Still Young.

"I don't want to be called, for there are many ladies present," said Allan Herbert. He then switched off and related Frank Harvey's secrets while in the States recently.

"I came here and lived under three kings and a queen. I want no office and I want no land, but I want the homeless to have homes and the landless to have lands.

"You must do something for yourselves, instead of hooplilpilling with Achi and the Home Rule party."

Watson's Able Speech.

E. M. Watson, with Fred Weed as Hawaiian interpreter, made one of the best speeches of the night. His words were to the point and full of vigor and enthusiasm.

Watson said that the Hawaiian delegation was recognized at the Denver convention. Every member was seated and some of the most prominent Democratic Senators and Congressmen came to see the Hawaii delegation. The Republican delegation was not received warmly by the mainland Republicans, as only two of Hawaii's delegates were seated while the rest wandered about. "The Republican Governor here did everything he could for the Molokans, who were mailhinis in the country. They were given lands on Kauai, while the Hawaiians and the American citizens who have lived here were turned down. That is what the Republican party has done for many years. Since the Democratic party presented its land policy and got a plank in the Democratic platform, the Republican Governor has appointed a Land Advisory Board to investigate the situation. No Hawaiian can expect anything good from the Republican party here.

"Give the Democrats a chance to control the local affairs and we will see that everyone is given fair and impartial treatment.

"We intend to hold our convention first. We will place before you good and reliable men for candidates. We are not afraid of the Republicans. They know their weakness today and are afraid to hold their convention first.

"On the mainland there are two well known political parties, the Republican and the Democratic parties in Hawaii nei there are three, the Republican, Democratic and the Home Rule parties.

"Under the tariff policy of the Republicans sugar from the Philippines will come in to compete with ours and Hawaii will be the home of small farmers like Walter G. Smith."

Watson said the Democratic plan is a tariff for revenue and not one of devastation like the Republicans.

Maui Home Rulers Now Democrats.

Rev. Kekipi, one of the most accomplished Hawaiian speakers, was listened to with interest and enthusiasm.

"The Maui Home Rulers are today staunch Democrats," said Kekipi. "I am today a Democrat, though formerly a Home Ruler. The action of the Republican party in giving Lanai to one man is the downfall of that party Today, the opihis and squid on Lanai are tabued. This one man who owns Lanai has adopted that no opihis and squid could be taken away from and around Lanai. The natives on Lanai are prevented from eating them and on that account they would vote for Democrats.

"Another reason why the Hawaiian Maulans intend to work for the Democratic party is because it was the party that tried to restore the Monarchical form of government after it was overthrown by the Republican administration. Cleveland sent Blount down here in order to accomplish his purpose, but when Harrison became President of the United States he ordered the Hawaiian flag lowered and the American flag raised on the then palace. This action of the Republican administration is still fresh in the memory of the Hawaiians on Maui."

Kekipi told many interesting stories and the Hawaiians applauded him loudly.

Kiakahi Attacked Cupid.

Ioela Kiakahi, a defeated candidate for the House of Representatives, was the last speaker. He said among other things that the Democratic party would put up a good man as a candidate for Delegate to Congress. "Delegate Prince Kuhio has not done anything for the benefit of the poor people," said Kiakahi. "He was and is for the rich people. The poor people could not expect to derive any good from him."

THE DIRECT PRIMARY.

Hawaii has made one fight for the direct primary, and lost. The fight will not be given up. It will be won eventually, and we are inclined to believe carried through the next Legislature regardless of which party the voters place in power.

One claim made against the direct vote by the people for their nominee for office is that it does not work. This is a very general term, and in many instances very effective in quieting people who will not take the trouble to look further.

The direct-primary principle is making steady headway, however, and the generality no longer suffices. States and municipalities have tested this method of nomination and they find that it does work. The claim is also made that the voters will not take part in these primaries; that they stay at home, just as they do when party caucuses are being held.

This claim is not borne out by the facts in the State of Iowa, where a very fair test was made in the contest for the nomination of United States Senator. A total vote of 194,945 was registered and showed the widest participation of Republicans. This was the contest in which the late Senator Allison won.

Commenting on the result, the Des Moines Register (Republican) said: "Not only has the popular will been fairly expressed, but it has been expressed quietly, without disorder, coercion or bribery; there has been freedom from drunkenness and fraud. As for expense, which will be most talked about by those who would abandon the new system, we undertake to say that more money has been spent in a single campaign in the Seventh Congressional District than has been spent this year in the entire State."

Of course we know that the old-line politician does not like the direct primary. He has no chance to manipulate a convention. The nominees are voted for direct by the people. The men whom the people want are put up for the final voting. There is no intermediate jockeying.

The result in Iowa is merely one of the splendid proofs that the direct primary will not only work, but it is the best guarantee for carrying out the will of the people that has yet been brought out in the American scheme of government.

A plank for the direct primary must go in the Republican platform in this Territory this year, else the party will repudiate its own arguments of two years ago. May we also hope that the Democrats will have the good sense to declare forcibly for the direct primary. There is no better means for carrying out the alleged purpose of the Democrats—Equal rights to all; special privilege for no one.

LAND QUESTION THE ISSUE.

If you are looking for the policies of a political party that pretends or has the good sense to keep in touch with the sentiment of its rank and file, watch the action of the rank and file when the leaders are making their speeches.

On this very practical method of forecasting the future, it is clear that the principal issue of the Democrats in the local campaign this fall will be the land policy.

At the first rally of Democrats held in this city, the only bait thrown out by the speakers to which the audience would rise with anything like a semblance of enthusiasm, was the land bait. The people do not care so very much about Bryan—they don't vote for him. They see dangers in the tariff, but they are not yet quite clear on the subject.

When the land question is brought forward in any form, they prick up their ears. They know what it means, and if a Democrat, regardless of the truth, puts the situation in a manner that seems good to them, they applaud.

In settling the land question the Bulletin has no better suggestion to offer the Territorial Administration than our old recommendation of Action. Vigorous, common-sense Action will upset more campaign misrepresentations and prevent dissatisfaction more effectively than any theory or change in the law.

The Republican party, however, in addition to a policy of Action by the Administration, has cause to carry on a campaign of education. The sooner is gets to work the better.

SENATOR LANE PLEASED

interview in which he speaks in the highest terms of the work already done by the Territorial physicians, which he apparently did not think of at the time his first statement was given out.

The letter of Senator Lane, which undoubtedly carries the views of a large majority of the Hawaiian-Americans, is given:

Honolulu, T. H., Aug 12, 1908.

Honorable W. F. Frear, Governor Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, Oahu.

Dear Sir:—Permit me to convey to your Excellency my appreciation of approval and thanks as an Hawaiian for the newly adopted policy which was inaugurated yesterday to be hereafter carried on by the Board of Health concerning the treatment of the disease of leprosy, and also the method of segregation.

The interview purported to be given by you in the Bulletin:

"For forty-three years we have been continuing the policy of segregation of lepers of the Territory, but we are just about now where we were at the beginning, so far as stamping out the disease is concerned, and we will be there forever if the same policy is continued." fully supports my arguments presented in the Legislature during the session of 1905 and 1907, the ultimate result of which was the passage of the compromise "Leper Law" between the Executive and the Legislature.

Your policy will surely meet with universal commendation and approval by the Hawaiians and the general public throughout the Islands, and it will surely eliminate hard feelings which the people entertain toward the Board of Health in that respect. The old policy should have been abolished long ago, and it is really a pleasure to see that you have remedied the defect in this Department of the Government.

Wishing you success in all undertakings for the betterment of the administration of public affairs, I remain

Sincerely yours,
JNO. C. LANE.

Executive Chamber,
Honolulu, Hawaii, August 13, 1908.

Honorable John C. Lane, Honolulu, T. H.

Dear Sir:—I am very much gratified to receive your letter of the 12th instant in regard to the newly adopted policy concerning leprosy. I am very glad to know that this commends itself to your judgment and is in harmony with the views that you have long entertained. It is a subject to which several of us in the Executive department have given considerable thought for some months past and we feel confident that no mistake has been made in entering upon the new policy. We regret that we are not in a position at present to do very much towards carrying it out, but we trust that the Legislature at its next session will give us the necessary support and means. By cooperation along rational lines, there would seem to be no reason why we cannot get ahead of the disease and begin to realize the good effects of the ne wpolicy in a comparatively short time.

Thanking you for your kind wishes, I remain,

Very sincerly yours,
W. F. FREAR,
Governor.

CHANGE IN PRECINCTS

less than three shelves or compartments in which voters may conveniently mark their ballots."

It is held by the unofficial law interpreters that this means as many compartments as are needed, may be put in.

Therefore they hold that the splitting up of city precincts, where there is no great difficulty in getting about places an additional expense on the Territory without gaining anything for the people. Each new precinct has to have its full complement of officers, and they have to be paid, so it is thought that each new precinct means at least $100. extra expense.

There seems to be no feeling that the action of the Governor is intended to influence immediate party administration, as the changes in the precincts cannot be made till the coming election, and naturally do not in any way affect the precincts the parties will recognize according to the rules for conducting the next primary.

Apparently the change will not make much political difference, but some party workers want to know.

Denmark grows about 100,000 pounds of not very good tobacco yearly and smokes all of it in pipes that have very long stems. The Danes do not like our American tobacco; they say it's too strong, and they prefer the Brazilian or Javan product in cigars. Nowadays they are smoking Russian, English and Egyptian cigarettes at the rate of about 10,000,000 a year.

SAYS MOOTED STONE WAS SOLD TO HIM

Tait, Arrested for Embezzlement, Says 'Tis False

The case of Eddie Tait, charged with embezzlement of studs, valued at $100, was nolle prossed this afternoon in the District Court. Attorney Peters apepared for defendant while Attorney Douthitt assisted the prosecution.

The case was nolle prossed, on account of lack of evidence on the part of the prosecution, and apparent ability of the defendant to prove sale of the stone, which would exonerate him.

Stewart Tait was last evening taken off the transport Sheridan, on which he had stowed away, and placed under arrest for alleged embezzlement of a diamond stud, claimed to be the property of William Jack.

The affair came up in court at 2 o'clock this afternoon. It appears to be much mixed up. Tait states that the ring was sold him, and a local man, acting for William Jack, states that the ring was given as security on a loan of $50 which Tait made to Jack.

Jack is the man who had a fist fight with Captain Redfern of the yacht Gwendolyn at Hilo, and came to this city on his way back to the Coast. He was broke, and so secured the money here for a steerage passage home.

Tait told his version of the transaction this morning. "William Jack came to a fellow I know and tried to sell the stone. The man didn't know anything about stones, so he told Jack to wait and see me, as I might do something about it. I came in presently. It was the first time I ever saw this man Jack. He said he wanted to sell the stone in order to get passage money home. I told him that I might take it if it came at a bargain. He asked, 'How would $50 strike you?'

"I thought this was about right. It was a straight sale.

"I was going out to Manila with my baggage. I had had it packed for some time, but did not know just when I would leave. Of course, I had no right on the transport, but I know everybody on these boats, and wanted to save a few bucks in getting to Manila."

He had an appointment with Jack's representative yesterday afternoon, and says he kept it, but the other failed to show up on time.

It appears that the vesting of powers of attorney in another by Jack was by advice from the outside.

PLENTY OF WATER IN RESERVOIRS

Far different indeed is the situation with regards to water in Nuuanu Valley today than it was a few days ago. There is water "to burn." The reservoirs are full, even overflowing, and the sluicing work is going ahead with greater rapidity than it has in months past. The drought that has lasted for nearly six months is entirely broken, and there is no likelihood that there will be any dearth of water for a long time to come.

Number Four reservoir is the largest of the lot in Nuuanu valley and it is flowing over. The valve is wide open, but Pluvius is still king, and the water keeps up its pressure. Conditions are no different at the electric light station, where the water is also overflowing the reservoir.

There are eleven feet of water at No. 1 reservoir in Nuuanu, ten feet at No. 2, and nine feet at No. 3. This alone is more water than the department has had to draw on in all the months of the past drought.

Your own Oddities Of Shape

BY VIRTUE OF THE SKILL AND EXPERIENCE of the STEIN-BLOCH ORGANIZATION, the difficulties and impediments that confront the one-man shop are overcome, with the result that you get the suit of clothes most perfectly adapted to your particular needs.

You visit the best clothier's and insist upon having clothes bearing the STEIN-BLOCH label. You see the suit or overcoat finished before you buy it. You know what it will look like ON YOU—by walking to the mirror, you can see an exact reflection of yourself and YOUR style peculiarities and the suit and ITS style peculiarities together.

It is a pleasure to try on the several STEIN-BLOCH styles, for there is little question about complete, perfect fit. You are absolutely sure to find that rare harmony of fit and fashion—the thing appropriate to YOUR individual needs—unless your case is hopeless

And no man's case is hopeless, unless he is so far out of the normal that any kind of a fashionable fit is impossible.

WE ARE AGENTS FOR STEIN-BLOCH CLOTHES IN THIS TERRITORY.

RING AND LOVING CUP FROM SAN PEDRO

Kind Old Lady Sends Wedding Ring to Chamber of Commerce—Cup Token of Good Will.

It was presentation day at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held yesterday afternoon. A loving cup to typify the closer relations of Honolulu and San Pedro, as established by the recent trans-Pacific yacht race, coming as a present from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce to the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, together with a really, truly wedding ring and a beautiful calabash for Gorham D. Gilman completed the exhibit.

The ring, coming first, was accompanied by the following note:

"To the Chamber of Commerce of Honolulu.

"I extend my greeting an dask that this wedding ring be given to the first one of your members who may choose an American bride. May the blessing of God and good and love be and abide with you.

"MRS. HENRIETTA BEARDSLEY, "San Pedro, Cal.

"July 4, 1908."

The calabash was allowed for a few moments to the gaze of the admiring mob, when it was shrouded again from view, pending its presentation to Gilman.

An annual report was planned for, to cover exactly and precisely a variety of subjects, the articles to be written by those most in a position to know and give the facts.

The annual meeting was fixed for August 19th, at 3 p. m., and the president was authorized to appoint a nominating committee for the selection of names for offices during the coming term.

MORE HAWAIIAN MAPS FOR DISTRIBUTION

At a regular meeting of the Hawaiian Promotion Committee held yesterday afternoon it was decided to have 150 of the new "Cross Roads of the Pacific" maps forwarded to various points by early steamers. The map, besides showing up in large type the principal Pacific ports which have communication with this place, gives some data in regard to Honolulu and Hawaii in general.

It was reported that the mantle piece to be presented to Mark Twain in appreciation of his fine boosts for the Islands, is about finished.

The secretary had something to say of the visit of Mr. Gibson of the Manila Chamber of Commerce here. Mr. Gibson stating that the methods pursued there closely resembled those of the local chamber.

A communication was read from A. Claude Brandon, a lecturer who will shortly be here on the Siberia to collect materials for a lecture on Hawaii.

A price of $50 is up for the best design for a floral parade poster for 1909, the committee being anxious that designs should be submitted.

MORGAN ON FORESTS

James F. Morgan, president of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, has, in reply to a request for information, written a letter to Gustav H. Schwab, chairman of the advisory committee, National Council of Commerce, New York, in which he outlines the needs for irrigation here, and the care taken for the preservation of forests on the watersheds, owing to the necessity for well timbered mountains in securing a steady supply of water through rainfall. The letter speaks of government establishment of reserves, and gives figures. The question of the value of koa and other Hawaiian woods is exploited, and a list of suggestions is appended to the communication.

THE PASSION PLAY

An entirely new picture of the Passion Play, different from anything ever shown here, will be put on the screen at the Empire Theater next Monday afternoon and shown for a few days only. It is customary to increase the price of admission wherever this picture is shown, but the management of the Empire will make no change.

A wireless from Hilo says that Charles Gay, wife and guide, left Humuula sheep station on Monday for the Volcano House. The guide lost his way, and the party wandered about for two days and night, finally reaching Shipman's place on Wednesday evening. They were sixty hours without water, except such as could be wrung from ferns.

CECIL BROWN SAYS DREIER WAS SANE

"Do you believe that the action of Mr. August Dreier in cutting off his son Emil with a sum insufficient even for his maintenance at a sanitarium and making absolutely no provision for his son's wife and infant child was that of a sane man?" was the final and direct question which was put by Attorney Prosser, who is attempting to break the will, to Cecil Brown, one of the executors of the estate, on the witness stand this morning.

"I do," came the answer without hesitation.

And this question, the asking of which was caled for by the stories of paralytic strokes suffered by Dreier, seems to hit the nail on the head in the contest of the will of August Dreier. Was August Dreier influenced unduly by outside parties?—seems to be another point that is to be decided. Cecil Brown was positive in his statements that, so far as he knew, Mr. Dreier had never had a good word to say for Emil,—the feeling had always been antagonistic, and especially so after Emil had drawn a pistol on his father some years ago. At this time, the father had Emil arrested and placed in the police station.

Mr. Brown was not on the stand very long this morning, Mrs. John Markham, a daughter of Mr. Dreier, being called shortly after 10 o'clock. Her testimony was remarkable in view of the fact that she stated that she would be greatly surprised should anyone tell her that the married life of her father and monther was not a happy one.

She said that her father had always treated her well, though he had not visited her often after her marriage, but Mrs. Dreier seemed to dislike her, and at one time ordered her out of the house and told her not to come again.

Antone W. Seabury, an employe at the Oahu Ice Company, which is owned by Dreier, was next called on the stand.

Subpoenas were issued for Fred. L. Waldron and F. A. Schaefer this morning, and they will be called on the stand this afternoon. Schaefer is one of the executors, and was the first witness called by the contestant.

NO UNCERTAINTY AS TO WHAT DIVIDENDS SHALL BE.

DUTCH ARE AFTER PRESIDENL CASTRO

The Hague, July 28.—Interference by Dutch Socialists will prevent a declaratoin of war against Venezuela by The Netherlands. It is possible that as a result of the due and cry being raised by the Socialists against Wilhelmina's stand, there will be no bombardment of the Venezuelan ports of La Guayra and Porto Cabello.

The attitude of the Socialists is that the threatened war will furnish an additional expense, to be borne by the common people.

As a result of the outcry the Government's plans are today being guarded with the greatest secrecy, and no information is forthcoming at the Foreign office. While it is understood that a number of other Dutch vessels have been ordered to join the Gelderland for a demonstration against Castro, the report here is that none of the commanders has permission to open fire on the Venezuelan ports without further orders from the Queen. It is hoped that the show of force will suffice to bring Castro to terms.

America's Rifle Match Was No Easy Victory

The London Daily Mail's overseas edition of July 18 gives the following account of how the American team won the international shooting match:

The closing day of the Olympic competitions at Bisley saw the United States team win a brilliant victory in the international match, fired with military rifles. Throughout the match the Americans led, but at no time was the advantage one that substantially out-distanced the teams representing the United Kingdom and Canada.

All the teams produced range totals, and eventually grand aggregates that were remarkably close, showing that in no case did the teams carry a long tail. The match was fired in two stages, the first leaving the United States team with a stage aggregation of 1,291 points for the three shorter distances—200, 500, and 600 yards. The British score at this stage was but 10 points lower, while that of Canada was 1,244. This order, oddly enough, was maintained throughout the whole of the second stage yesterday, which embraced the 800, 900, and 1,000 yards ranges.

The following were the final scores:

United States	2,531
United Kingdom	2,497
Canada	2,439
France	2,272
Sweden	2,213
Norway	2,192
Greece	1,986
Denmark	1,968

WINNING TEAM'S RIFLES

A point of much interest to be observed in connection with this match is that the winning team fired with the new Springfield rifle that has recently been adopted by the United States Army. It is, like the Lee-Enfield rifle now in possession of the regular troops of the British Army, very much shorter than the military rifles generally in use. Its barrel is only 24 inches in length, which corresponds with the length of the short Lee-Enfield rifle, concerning which so much embittered controversy has been waged in this country during the last two or three years.

The British and Canadian teams both used the long Lee-Enfield rifle, with its 30-inch barrel. The American rifle fires a pointed bullet weighing 180 grains, which is considerably less than the sharp-nosed bullet used by both the British and Canadian teams, that fired by the British team weighing 225 grains, which is 10 grains heavier than the ordinary bluff-nosed bullet used with service ammunition.

THE LEADING SCORES

The leading scores in the great international military match were as follows:

The Norwegian team won the international Olympic championship match, fired with any rifles, at 300 metres—328 yards—with 5,055 points. Each member of the team received a gold medal. The Swedes won the silver medals, and the French team the bronze medals. The British team was sixth.

MINIATURE RIFLES.

In the miniature rifle series the following results were announced:

Individual (25 yards moving targets).—Gold Olympic medal, J. F. Fleming, U. K., 24; silver Olympic medal, M. K. Matthews, U.K., 24; bronze Olympic medal, W. B. Marsden, U. K., 24.

Individual at 24 yards, disappearing targets—Olympic gold medal, W. K. Styles, U. K., 45; Olympic silver medal, H. Hawkins, U. K., 45; Olympic bronze medal, E. J. Amcore, U. K., 45.

The revolver team match did not prove of great interest. The American team proved good winners, the team total being 1914. The Belgians won the silver medals with an aggregate of 1864, and the British team the bronze medals with 1816. Other team totals were: France, 1750; Sweden, 1732; Holland, 1632.

The winner of the revolver gold medal for an individual shoot was P. van Asbroeck, Belgium, with 490 points. The silver medallist, also a Belgian, whose score was 387, was R. Storm. The bronze medal was taken by C. S. Axtel, an American, with 480.

Roller Says He'll Down Three Local Champions Within An Hour

WILL TAKE ROBERTS, KANAE AND MITSUKE

Honolulu may soon have the opportunity of seeing a real wrestling match. These "fight" cards, so carefully planned and mapped out by confident promoters, usually leave the ring-fan with a bad taste in his mouth "the morning after" for the reason that, while some sport may have been dished up, it was not of the class that makes you want to lose much sleep. Here in Honolulu at the present time is a man who has won two straight falls wrestling from every man in America except Frank Gotch, the present world's champion, and, while he is not over-anxious, having come down here for a vacation, he is ready to give an exhibition of his prowess.

Dr. B. F. Roller, the Seattle physician-wrestler, will take on Sailor Roberts, Frank Kanae, and Mitsuke, the Japanese champion, and will undertake to throw the three of them within an hour.

That Roller is not a bonster, that he has confidence in his own ability, and that he is willing to furnish an exhibition of the strength-game here, is certainly shown by the offer he has made. Sailor Roberts is a big man himself, withal being as quick as a cat, and the match between these two alone should be decidedly interesting. Roller, of course, has it on the sailor lad in point of weight, but the latter is a fighter through and through and is well known for his staying abilities.

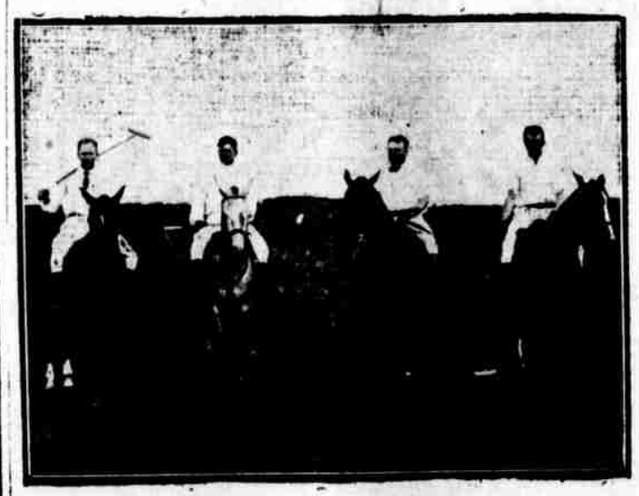
Roberts has been in constant training since Froelecher, the lanky Swiss, first started him on the right road. The burly sailor thought he was a mat-artist before he hooked up with the Switzer, but the latter was wise to all the inside tricks of the game, and Roberts swallowed a bunch of valuable information as a result of their meeting. Roberts should be able to stay some little time with Roller, and the longer he stays, the harder it is going to be for Roller to get the other two men down on the mat inside of the specified hour.

Frank Kanae, the Hawaiian champion, is a bull for strength. But little versed in the science of the game before his meeting with Froelecher, he, like Roberts, was a wiser man after the grinning Swiss had handled him. His enormous power is his main asset, however, and it could be counted on to keep his shoulders off the pads for some space of time, though how long must remain to be seen.

Mitsuke is like the other locals mentioned,—he needs no lengthy description for the reason that he is well-known. He lost to Froelecher, but he stayed with him a long time. And it would be a question of staying ability should these three local champs decide to meet Roller.

Roller has made a gamey proposition. He isn't particularly looking for a match, as the rest-cure is his special forte at the present time, but a great many people have been trying to figure out a way in which things could be so evened up that they would have an opportunity of seeing what is perhaps the best wrestler in the world in action. Roller would have to work on this kind of a proposition too, and it would bring out in him all the qualities that go to make up a world-beater. If the right sort of interest is taken in this match, it may be pulled off in the Hawaiian Opera House, where the seating capacity is ample.

This Crack Maui Team Wins Again In Polo



The Maui Polo Team, which again defeated Oahu yesterday. The men are S. Baldwin, No. 1; C. C. Krumbhaar, No. 2; F. Baldwin, No. 3; and Dave Fleming, No. 4.

The crack polo team which last year, after one of the hardest battles ever fought on a polo field, snatched laurels from the Oahu men and carried all the foliage and a beautiful trophy off to Maui, duplicated the trick yesterday at Punnene, by the big score of 17 to 4.

On a sloppy field, with bad going under foot, the game was played this time on the enemy's own ground.

The Maui team which turned this trick was: Sam Baldwin, No. 1; C. C. Krumbhaar, No. 2; F. Baldwin, No. 3; and Dave Fleming, No. 4.

Mention is made of the fact that Castle and Shingle scored for Oahu. Naturally, just as a half-back might "score" for a football team. That was their especial function.

The game last August was one of the classy events in all the history of local athletics. The outcome this time indicates that Oahu has deteriorated or that Maui is much improved.

NELSON SAYS REILLY IS "ALL RIGHT"

Charlie Reilly has cut out the heavy work with the weights and the gym fixings, in training for his coming go with Jack McFadden, and is now confining himself to boxing, and a little fast work which gets a fellow's wind in condition without getting off too much weight.

Jack McFadden is also doing the fast work now, and both of the boys are including a good deal of boxing in the program of events.

Young Nelson has worked out a couple of times with Reilly. "He is all right," said Nelson this morning, in referring to the sparring he has done with the clever boy from the Coast.

And so he is. He is just about as tough a proposition from almost any standpoint that the local man ever went up against.

HUGHES REVENGEFUL

New York, July 31.—Instead of plunging at once into the task of getting William H. Taft's campaign under way, Frank H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, was occupied the greater part of his first day here in attempting to prevent an open split in the Republican machine in this State over the nomination of Governor Hughes for a second term.

Mr. Hitchcock arrived in the city early this morning and set out at once to get the rooms in the Metropolitan Life building for headquarters. Before he had been here long, however, Herbert Parsons, president of the New York county committee, called on him and went over the situation created by the governor in his desire to get revenge upon the State leaders for their failure to back his candidacy at the national Republican convention.

Mr. Hitchcock intimated that the national committee might take a hand in the situation.

All-Hawaiian Team Is Triumph of Good Selection

When it comes to picking an all-star aggregation, the job done by the Honolulu BaseBall League yesterday is a hummer. The best of the local talent has been rolled into a pill that any aggregation would have a very bad few minutes in swallowing. This, too, is the very job which the Santa Clarans will tackle Sunday.

Barney Joy is to preside behind the bat. Barney is right there with the eye and the wing, and can swing the stick in a way that plucks down the homers every little while.

Dick Reuter has been selected to do the twirling. If Dick is in his best form, it looks bright for the All-Hawaiis. That underhand shoot of his is a bad one when well controlled. It all depends qon the shape the big fellow's hand is in.

In Eddie Fernandez, who will cover first bag, the All-Hawaiis have a jewel. Eddie is the bunt and steal kid, with a batting average which ranks out on top. He can play his position to perfection, too. In fact, he is perhaps the best ball player in the Islands.

Bill Vannatta, the Kam's old reliable, will field up everything about the keystone bag.

Bill Hampton, the fast Pun and the batting wonder, is the man who is to stop at the third way-station. "Ham" is a fast fielder and a bat wielder; and some class at both.

Burns, the St. Mary's boy, who might split honors for premier baseball ability with Fernandez if he were regularly in the Islands, and who is certainly in a class away and above the ordinary seen here, is to hold down the honors at shortstop.

En Sue, the fast baserunner, will preside in left garden; Jack Kia, a hard hitter and the most reliable fielder in Honolulu, will attend to center, while Oimos, in right, will sustain his reputation for sure work and timely hitting.

This makes a team with two Saints, two Kams, two Jewels and three Puns in the line-up.

If this bunch can't give the Clarans a run for the money, there will be something radically out of whack with all the prognostications.

Tomorrow, the Kams and the Clarans were to do the curtain raising stunt, but the schedule has been modified, and one game a day will content the fans until Sunday week.

The triangle series will close on August 23rd, with a memorable game for one of the two offered. It is a Jewel-Keio return match. 'Nough said.

Tomorrow, all locals will be seen. The Puns and the Saints will play the game which may or may not decide the outcome of the first series, for first honors in which the Jewels and the Puns are so nearly tied.

The schedule made yesterday is:

Saturday, Aug. 15, 3 p. m., (1 game)—Puns vs. St. Louis.

Sunday, Aug. 16, 3 p. m., (1 game)—All-Hawaii vs. Santa Claras.

Saturday, Aug. 22, 3 p. m., (1 game)—Puns vs. Santa Claras.

Sunday, Aug. 23, (double header)—1:45 p. m., Keios vs. Diamond Heads and St. Louis vs. Santa Claras.

BRITISH PRAISE OUR OLYMPIC WINNERS

LONDON, Eng., July 26. — This morning's newspapers contain extended reviews of the Olympic games, and almost without exception the officials come in for severe criticism for the way in which they mismanaged the affair. England's athletic prestige was injured more by the amateurish way in which the meet was conducted than by the failure of the British athletes to perform up to expectations, is the conclusion of one of the well-known sporting writers.

There is universal praise for the work of the American athletes, but general condemnation of their withdrawal from the 400-meter run and a reiteration of the charges of deliberate fouling by Carpenter. The supremacy of America in track and field athletics is admitted, the result being due, according to the English viewpoint, to the fact that America makes of her athletics a business rather than a sport. Her men were the best trained that ever appeared at an Olympiad, is the way one paper puts it.

LONDON, Eng., July 25. — You can tell an American athlete tonight the moment you see him. He has two distinguishing marks—one being a broad smile and the other a medal. There are a few athletes wearing medals who are not Americans, but as a rule the decorated chaps are from the land of the sprinter and the home of the jumper.

Queen Alexandra presented fifteen gold medals to the Yankees at the Stadium this afternoon. These, with a tray full of silver and bronze emblems of victory, made by far the most imposing array of "jewelry" awarded to any nation. Not one of them would part with his emblem except in case of starvation.
