Room Enough For All.

Don't crowd and push in the march of life,
Or tread on each other's toes,
For the world at best, in its great unrest,
Is hard enough as it goes.
Oh! why should the strong oppress the weak
Till the latter go to the wall?
On this earth of ours, with its thorns and flowers,
There is room enough for all.

If a lagging brother fall behind,
And drops from the toiling band,
If fear and doubt put his soul to rout,
Then lend him a helping hand.
Cheer up his heart with the words of hope,
Nor season the speech with gall;
In the great highway, on the busiest day,
There is room enough for all.

If a man with the tread of a pioneer
Steps out on your track ahead,
Don't grudge his start, with the envious heart,
For the mightiest once were led.
But gird your loins for the coming day—
Let nothing your heart appal—
Catch up if you can with the forward man,
There is room enough for all.

And if, by doing your duty well,
You should get to lead the van,
Brand not your own name with a deed of shame,
But come out an honest man.
Keep a bright lookout on every side,
Till, heeding the Master's call,
Your soul shall go, from the world below,
Where there's room enough for all.

VARIETY.

"Dey say dars pervishuns in de Constitution fur de kullured man," said the old fellow sadly, "but I haint seen de fust crumb."

"Now," said the school trustee to an applicant for a situation, "we know that a b c and d is vowels, but what we want to know is, why is they vowels."

A freedman was killed by a boiler explosion in New Orleans, and his monument bears this inscription: "Sacred to the memory of our steemed friend."

An English woman has ordered from a New York jeweler a bangle bracelet worth $40,000. Even with nothing on but her bracelet and one hairpin that woman would be expensively dressed.

"Resigned for more congenial duties," is the way an exchange puts it, referring to a young lady who has given up school teaching to get married. It is to be hoped her anticipations will be realized.

Thomas Jefferson is said to have been the only smart man that ever lived, who parted his hair in the middle. The sensible woman who banged hers has not been heard from. Correspondence solicited.

A Sunday School teacher in this city has a boy in her class who has not failed in his penny contribution for more than a year, and when he was found empty-handed last Sabbath the teacher observed; "Why, Johnny, did you forget your penny to-day? "No, ma'am," he humbly replied, "but father says the Wabash road will do this town more good than any fourteen Sunday schools, and I'm going to chuck my coppers into that enterprise for the next few weeks." "Won't the heathen miss your pennies?" she queried. "I 'spose they will, but we've got to come right down or this town is busted.—Detroit Free Press.

A parting glass—The maiden's final look in the mirror at her new hat.

Merely because he tied her up with a clothesline, poured kerosene over her, and was about to light her, Mrs. Walton of Plymouth, Conn., is suing for a divorce.

"George, dear, don't you think it's rather extravagant of you to eat butter with that delicious jam?" "No, love; economical. Same piece of bread does for both."

It has become very fashionable to have the walls decorated with worked mottoes, but no eye ever sees that motto, "Base is the slave who pays," adorning the walls of a beer saloon.

They say that profanity was not known in the world until one day, somewhere about 500 years before the Christian era, when Aristides, chasing from his office in desperate haste to catch the last street car, was stopped by Themistocles, who wanted to tell him how the rheumatism had been troubling him nearly all winter, and how many things he had tried for it.

"No use in my trying to collect that bill, sir," said a collector to his employer, handing the dishonored document to the latter. "Why?" "The man who should pay it is 'non est,'" replied the collector. "Then take it and collect it, sir. A 'non est' man will not fail to meet his obligations."

A store was broken one night, but, strange to say, nothing was carried off. The proprietor was making his brag of it, at the same time expressing his surprise at losing nothing. "Not all surprising," said his neighbor; "the robbers lighted a lamp, didn't they?" "Yes," was the reply. "Well," continued the neighbor, "they found your goods marked up so high that they couldn't afford to take them."

"Madam," said a doctor one day to the mother of a sweet, healthy babe, "the ladies have deputed me to inquire what you do to have such a lovely, happy, uniformly good child?" The mother mused for a moment over the strangeness of the question, and then replied simply and beautifully: "Why, God has given me a healthy child, and I let it alone."

"What did your mother say, my little man? Did you give her my card?" asked an inexperienced young gentleman of a little boy whose mother had given him an invitation to call upon her, and whose street door was accordingly opened to his untimely summons, by the urchin aforesaid. "Yes, I gave it to her," was the innocent reply, and she said if you were not a nat'ral born fool, you wouldn't come on Monday morning, when everybody was washin'!"

HOW TO DO IT.—"Bob, the Sea-Cook," tells in the New York Times how ladies may peel onions without crying over them: "She came on board as pretty as a daisy, and as sweet and fresh as an elegant make-up could make her. There was a chattering aft, on the yacht, what they would have for dinner, and it was agreed, for fun, that as it was chowder, each one was to do something for the same. 'You have got to peel and chop up them onions,' says a dandy kind of fellow to the pretty girl. 'Agreed,' said she, not wincing a bit, and they all laughed and pitied at her. When the time came for fixing up things, kind of urged to it, I brought that pretty girl a peck of the fireiest onions—real red-skin ones—you ever smelled. 'There is going to be a lot of crying,' thinks I; 'if that would be the only sorrow in her life!' Says she to me; 'Mr. Robert, do you haul me a bucket of water,' and I did it. 'Now,' says she, 'just put them there onions in that there water,' and I did it. Then she took off her white fingers a lot of rings, and put them in her pocket, and asked for a knife, and the onions being in the water, she peeled and sliced them under water, and nary a tear came, nor nothing. 'Now,' says she, holding out the tips of her pretty fingers, 'who will be gallant enough to kiss these?' Seeing I was cook, I didn't like to be so bold, but there was a half dozen of the men who rushed forward, and of course I had no chance. That's the way I learned how ladies can peel onions, and not cry over them."

FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1880.

The arrival of the City of New York with passengers, freight and a small amount of treasure $9,000 from San Francisco, was the opening boom to business on the first of the week, and the departure of the Forest Queen, the latter part of the week with a cargo of island products, valued at $90,438.42 assisted in keeping life in business circles. The total amount of imports for the week is, including treasure, $44,000, and the exports for the same time $90,835.82.

Sugar, (1,253,128 lbs) molasses, nearly 7,000 gallons, hides and sheep and goat skins were the principal articles of export, while the imports have been general in their character, and include live stock brought by the W H Meyer.

By our Eastern exchanges we learn that sugar has been in good demand, while imports have been less than needed. Rice has fluctuated a little, while syrups and molasses have been scarce, firm and in demand, Hawaiian being quoted at 25@27½c; pulu is quoted, yellow 12½c, white 6c.

The Bonanza brings a cargo to Kahului, valued at $10,-943, composed in part of 24,266 lbs rice, 40,000 feet lumber, and 38 m shingles. The amount of sugar received since last writing is over 20,000 packages.

ALONG THE WHARVES.

The Am bktne J A Falkinburg, at the Old Custom House wharf, has discharged all her cargo and is now loading for San Francisco, for which port she will sail early next week.

The Am sch W H Meyer at Brewer & Co's wharf has discharged all her cargo from San Francisco, and is now loading again and will sail the latter part of next week.

The Am bktne Discovery is discharging at the Esplanade, she will return to San Francisco soon.

The Am bk Camden is at the foot of Fort street, she will sail on Monday for Port Gamble.

There has been a mail received here for H B M S Rocket, so it is supposed that she may be expected here soon.

Captain Ingalls, formerly master of the bktne Catherine Sudden has taken command of the steamer Constantine.—Alta.

The Japanese training ship Tsubukan may be expected at this port on her way home, after visiting Victoria a c and San Francisco.

THE PACIFIC

Commercial Advertiser.

SATURDAY, MAY 22.

The successful experiments by Mr. James Campbell, and later by Mr. Marquez in Artesian wells, doubtless marks a new era in the development of Hawaiian resources. It is still to be ascertained whether these wells can be successful at high elevations. The present success, however, is sufficient to affect the future value of many large tracts of rich land, lying near the sea, and now almost worthless for want of water. We understand that the success of the well on Mr. Marquez' land has produced something like a gold excitement among land owners, and the demand for wells is far beyond the capacity of the machinery now here to bore for years to come. This gives a chance for other well borers, and for such competition, which would fix the cost of such jobs at a reasonable figure.

A proposal to increase the expenditures of the government by $447,799.44, or nearly half a million, in a single biennial period is somewhat startling, but it may well be argued that such an increase is justified by a corresponding increase in the revenue in the last biennial period. Admitting this to a certain extent, we lay down as a good rule, that the income of the preceeding period should be a guide to the regular expenditure for the succeeding period; and where it is desirable to make appropriations for public improvements, these should be included in the revenue derived from irregular sources. In fact the proposed appropriations for improvements, &c., have fallen considerably below the amount of such revenue, which we make $657,407.99, being the balance left in the Treasury from the last period $338,880.44, with the revenue derived from Government realizations $318,527.45.

The proposed appropriations for new water works, light houses and Government buildings, for palace, immigration, pali road, marine railway, Kapiolani and Thomas parks, laundries and foreign steamer subsidies, amount to $457,000, leaving $200,000 more that should have been placed on the appropriations for developing the resources of the country, but which is proposed to be squandered with more besides upon new expenses of Government got up for the occasion, but in the nature of permanent expenses such as decorations, royal household expenses and military nonsense. The budget is thus worked up until it amounts to $1,889,499, which is $54,-921.08 larger than the total revenue of the last two years. We certainly disapprove of this useless addition to the running expenses of the Government, and also this small appropriation of appropriate funds for developing the country.

We learn from the San Francisco papers that the Pacific mail steamer City of Peking has again been in quarantine at San Francisco, with small-pox on board. It also states, there may be no way of preventing the immigration of healthy Chinese, but surely the local authorities have the right to prohibit those affected with infectious diseases of any kind. A strict quarantine enforced against all Asiatic ports would do much to check undesirable immigration, if it did not prevent it altogether.

As the antipathy to the Chinese increases in San Francisco, so do we get more of them in these islands. The majority of them do not come direct to Honolulu, but via Hilo. No doubt the agencies of many existing societies, or as the Chinese call them guilds, are anxiously looking for the result of the bills now before this Parliament affecting their interests, and in the meantime they are gradually augmenting their forces in this land of Paradise to them.

The City of Peking, brought over 300 Chinese on her last trip, en route for Honolulu, many of whom were suffering from small-pox on their arrival at San Francisco, and in spite of all the precautions taken to prevent the spread of the direful disease there, there is the bare possibility of it being carried to Hawaii. Therefore we hope that speedy action will be taken to so control further immigration of Chinese, either direct or through those favorite loop-holes, San Francisco and Portland, Oregon, that there may be no risk of this disease being brought here.

We return to the subject of the Appropriation Bill, which we briefly critised last week. As we hinted, some of the new departures have not been favorably received in the community. The Gazette of this week has well riddled the proposed appropriations for "household expenses" and the military. Tax payers have a right to express themselves as to the expenditure of the revenue. We should like to hear further from that paper what shall be done with our volunteers and standing army; and if the present organization is bad, what can be proposed in the way of re-organization. Of course it must be remembered that the present establishment is on a peace footing which accounts sufficiently for a disproportionately large number of officers; in case of war it would be quick work filling up the rank and file, but you cannot make an officer in a week. We would go further and recommend that several brigadiers and major-generals be commissioned upon the understanding that they furnish their own uniforms and receive no pay except in case of war. Something is at fault with the rank and file of our standing army; they have never distinguished themselves and never will. If they could be mustered out and the horde of officers, that our neighbor speaks of, mustered in and formed into companies, we should have a reform that promised something. By all means let the army at any rate be decently drilled so as not to be a "laughing stock" to men-of-war anymore.

One item in the Budget needs explanation,—purchase of decorations $3,000. If this means decorations in the royal orders of Kamehameha and Kalakaua, it should not be allowed. The fortunate receipients of these orders pay from seventy-five dollars to two hundred and fifty, according to the degree of the decoration. These large fees are for the expenses of the orders, particularly for the purchase of the decorations and are more than adequate for this purpose. At the time of the inauguration of these orders it was not intended to make them a matter of government expense.

LEGISLATIVE JOTTINGS.

On Friday the 14th instant, numerous petitions of a minor character were presented and disposed of in the usual way. The order of the day was very lengthy. It opened by a third reading of the Commission of Boundaries, to extend to 1886, which passed. The second reading of the bill on leprosy led to a long debate, and elicited various expressions of opinion, as to whether it was advisable to confine the lepers to Molokai, or whether hospitals should be provided on each island. The arguments in favor of the latter view were that the friends of lepers would be able to provide food and clothing for the afflicted, and thus reduce the expense to which the Government is at present put, by providing everything. Mr. Gibson evinced a deep interest in this question, urging that the health of the people is the supreme law, and made a motion that the question be referred to a special committee, which was carried.

On Saturday the unfinished work of the previous day was followed up. After disposing of various petitions, a report of the special committee appointed to take charge of the design and execution of a monument, the centennial of Cook's discovery of these islands. Whilst being read, copies of a photograph of a statue of Kamehameha I were distributed among the members. The Hon. W. M. Gibson, chairman of the special committee, made a few interesting remarks on the statue. In another column we give particulars of its size, height &c. A motion that frames should be provided for the photographs, met with universal approval. A request was made that $250 be paid to the widow of the late H. U. Mahi, but on the motion of His Ex. the Attorney General, it was very justly resolved that this sum should be paid to the administrator of the estate.

The principal feature in Monday's proceedings was a report of the Judiciary Committee on the use of spirituous liquors. We commend to the perusal of our readers the very able report on that all-important subject. A discussion arose as to the propriety of having a physician on the Board of Health, which was finally referred to a special committee.

On Tuesday an Act respecting masters and servants, gave rise to a long discussion, which was resumed on Wednesday, and finally referred to a special committee.

The Fisheries Bill occupied the attention of the House on Wednesday. On the division of the House on the subject of its indefinite postponement, there were Ayes 25, Noes. 17

On Thursday the Finance Committee reported at length in relation to the expenditure for South Sea Island Immigration, which report we reproduce in extenso. A voluminous report on leprosy was read by Mr. Rhodes and ordered to be printed.

On Friday a resolution was presented which has particular reference to a paragraph that appeared in the last issue of the Gazette.

To-day the members will no doubt avail themselves of the opportunity offered of a free ride around town, and a fiying visit to the Artesian well.

The Currency Question.

To the Editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser.

Sir:—I am not sure that I quite understand the general line of argument pursued by the Gazette in its last article on the Currency question, and as it is always desirable to narrow down a discussion as much as possible to a few definite points, I shall confine my remarks at present to the last paragraph, in which it is stated that "Mr. Green's suggestion of over-valuing gold would do no good, for more money could be made by importing silver at its present over-valued current rate." The remaining portion of the same paragraph, which suggests the evils which might ensue "if we continued to pass 90 cents in silver as 100 cents, and called $1 in gold equal to $1.10." I shall also pass over, as it is not at all probable that any one will come forward to make a proposition so gratuitously unsound.

The actual position of matters with regard to importations of silver coin appears to be thus: There is a Section in the Act of 1876 which provides that a duty of ten per cent be paid upon all silver coins, from any country with which His Majesty has not any treaty to the countrary. "Provided, that this section shall not come into operation until a proclamation to that effect has been issued by His Majesty by and with the advice and consent of a majority of His Privy Council, at a duly convened meeting thereof." The object of this section was to prevent the undue importation of silver of which the Gazette complains and which it fears. The necessary proclamation has however, for good reasons I admit, never been issued. It can however be issued at any moment. This section acts then as a check upon the importation of silver. It acts something like the notice we sometimes see on peoples grounds to keep off tresspassers—"Beware of the dog" and has a certain influence on the general public, whether the dog be really there or not. Again as by the same law nobody is obliged to receive large sums in silver except in certain defined proportions with gold, each importer of silver coin does it at his own risk, and the moment that the bank and the merchants saw that the importations of silver was becoming excessive, they might shut down on the tacit understanding which exists now, and might only receive silver to the extent that the law prescribes, so that the large importer of silver would have it thrown on his hands.

These are the considerations which have in fact limited the importation of silver coin up to the present time, and which have so far kept the quantity imported practically to about what the increasing transactions of the country required. The importation of silver has been made, as it should be, under the present law, a risky business, and as I view the whole question, the very small and strictly legitimate advance in the legal current volume of gold here, which I propose, three per cent, would induce most people who wanted coin to send for it in gold in preference to silver, as that would involve no risk whatever.

But by thus just turning the scale in favor of importations of gold, should we not settle the whole question? I think we should, for a means would then present itself to everybody to return in a short time to gold payments as prescribed by law. There would then be no difficulty in the matter, and as we all want the gold currency, the gold law would work. The moment it did, the silver bugbear would disappear, for nobody would then think of importing silver in larger quantities than it was wanted, as, if they did, they would have the pleasure of holding it till it was wanted, which would not hurt anybody but the importer. His Majesty's Minister of Finance and the Privy Conusil would then also be relieved from the awkward responsibility of advising His Majesty to issue the proclamation to place a ten per cent. duty on silver, (and which course is unfortunately open to several objections,) for when once the gold law was in a state to work, we might let importations of silver take care of themselves. Total result—a U. S. gold currency, and no trouble. I shall be much pleased, however, to see any other alterations of the law suggested which has not the admitted inconvenience of this plan, which may have no others greater, and which will be sure to work. It is not right to go on as we are.

But it will be quite useless to say, as I understand the Gazette article to say, in effect, although I admit not in such clear terms as it might, that the bank or merchants should be at the expense of bringing the gold, and more especially when we consider one of the reasons given why they should do so—namely: that there might be no "monopoly in exchange;" or in other words so that people "with money" may be able to corner that very gold for export whenever they may find exchange too high. This would truly be quite convenient for the public "with money;" but is it not expecting a little to much from weak human nature, to require the bank or the merchants to be at the expense of importing gold in order to deprive themselves of any profit they might otherwise make on exchange; an article which the Gazette however seems to think should always be kept on hand by somebody at a moderate price, irrespective of whether the basis for the exchange, a sufficient quantity of exportable produce, exists in the country at that time or not—Or, at least, it says, if you can't give us exchange, keep a good supply of gold in the country at your own expense so that we can always make our remittances abroad when we want to.

And here we are just brought back to the old difficulty. Even supposing the bank and the merchants went to the expense of introducing U. S. gold for the benefit of the public, and which they might possibly consent to do, that public would "box it up and export it" the very first moment that exchange, from causes over which probably the usual sellers had no control, got scarce and dear, and then I presume the public would politely request the bank and merchants to send for the gold back again as quickly as possible, to use for our "circulating medium," or at a heavier expense than they incurred before, and which they would certainly decline to do. Ergo—if we want to get a U. S. gold currency here, and keep it here, we shall have to circulate it at its proper value—its cost laid down in Honolulu—for then it will come with ease, and go away with difficulty, instead of, as now, just the opposite.

W. L. Green.

East Indian Immigrants.

Honolulu, May 14, 1880.

To the Editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser:

Sir:—At this time, when the question of obtaining immigrants from the East Indies is again drawing public attention, a few words on the subject from one who was for nearly ten years a resident of Bengal, may prove of interest to your readers.

I have always understood that the reason why these intelligent and industrious people have not been brought here, lies—not so much in any difficulty in obtaining them, or in any obstacles that may be placed in the way by the Indian Government—as in the fact that Indian coolies are British subjects—and this is the real difficulty which the American members of the Cabinet cannot possibly bring themselves to swallow.

Whether this is the real objection or not, I am not in a position to say, but if it is so, I am quite sure that it ought not to be. In allowing emigration from India to these islands, it would undoubtedly be the duty of the Indian Government to have some guarantee that the emigrants would be treated at least on an equal footing with those who have gone to Mauritius, Demerara, and other parts; and I do not doubt that such matters would be easily capable of amicable arrangement between the two governments.

I cannot agree with the paragraph in your last issue, quoted from that of 10th May, 1877, as to the desirability of bringing Eurasians here. Eurasians, or half castes, would be completely unfitted for agricultural laborers, and in fact never work as such. It is true that there are large numbers of them in the three Presidencies—Bengal, Madras and Bombay, but they have all been brought up with some sort of an English education; and I cannot call to mind a single instance of an Eurasian ever working as an agricultural laborer. Some few of them have made for themselves names which are honored throughout the land, and occupy onerous official positions of great trust; but as a class they are unfortunately not a satisfactory people, it being commonly said of them that they inherit the vices of the two races from which they spring, without the virtues. As a rule the great aim of a Eurasian lad is to become a clerk in a government office, and if he attains to that giddy height his ambition is gratified. Many of them are employed in the different merchants offices, and by the Railway Companies, &c., and the lowest and poorest of them are employed as domestic servants. In writing thus I am not in any way actuated by a desire to run down these people, among whom, as I have already stated, may be found many most worthy and estimable individuals, but I have given what is, I think, the general impression entertained of them by all who have come in contact with them.

The class of people who are really wanted are similiar to those who have already emigrated to Demerara. I allude to the ryots of Northern Bengal and the Central Provinces. They are an industrious and reliable race, and have been used to tilling the soil, as far back as their earliest traditions extend. In India caste determines every man's position,—the son always following the same calling as the father. Once a Brahmin, always a Brahmin, unless some degenerate scion of the race should break his caste by going across the Kala Panee (black water, or ocean) to the land of the unholy pale face. Then are they cast out and excommunicated. They may be re-admitted to their caste on their return however, by going through an ordeal, and performing other penances of a disagreeable and disgusting nature. I may here say, parparenthese, that most of the young Bengalese of high caste, who have visited England for educational and other purpose, return as a rule with a decided liking for roast beef and bitter ale, and would far sooner eat the flesh of one of the sacred cows which roam at pleasure through the city of Bengal, than the dried preparation obtained from the same animals.

The ryot class stands however, about as low as any of the castes, and he loses nothing by going to other countries. If, in his absence he should accumulate a fortune, it is most probable that on his return he would be welcomed with open arms and no questions asked by the priest or any one else.

In appearance these people are pleasing, not exactly robust, but wiry and enduring, and from the fact of their having proved successful in Demerara I should imagine there could be no doubt of their thrieving here. The climate of Demerara has the reputation of being a deadly one. The soil is swampy, and the air filled with malaria all the year round. Cold in winter, and intensely hot in summer, while here we enjoy an equable and genial warmth at all seasons.

In addition to the ryots, I should immagine that an importation of domestic servants would prove a boon to the ladies of this community. Excellent cooks, table servants, coachmen, grooms, &c., may be had all over India at wages varying from $3 to $5 per month, out of which they board and lodge themselves. It is not to be expected that they would come to this country for the same wages, but I am confident they would be cheaper than Chinamen, and would be preferable in every way. A Chinamen is incapable of feeling gratitude or affection for his employer, but an East Indian gets attached to his master if kindly treated. Many touching instances of devotion on the part of native servants, were called forth by the troubulous times of the mutiny in 1857.

I think that in saying it would cost from $200,000 to $400 000, before a single Indian could be got here,—Mr. Carter probably over estimated the difficulties in the way, and that a prevailing famine should be brought forward as a cause for the prevention of emigration from India—seems on the face of it to be absurd. At such a time the Government of India would only be too glad of an outlet for the famine stricken people.

I cannot speak with certainty about the first cost of procuring coolies, but I believe that for iemgrants going to Demerara, a bonus of about $50 for every adult is paid to the contractors, who send their agents into the country to recruit the people, and have to pay a part of that sum as bounty to the cooly, before he will consent to leave his home. The term of service is, I think, five years, and the rate of wages about $7.50 a month with house room, but without board. A full passage with bedding, blankets, &c., is also provided. On tea plantations in Assam and Cochar a bonus of about $35 per adult is paid to the contractors, and the wages paid are about $8 a month without board.

I am, Sir, Yours, &c.
Edwin C. Fishbourne.

BRIEF MENTION.

☞ A great Cæsar—Markham.

☞ Has anyone accomplished the 15 puzzle?

☞ Where are the police? The moon is getting full again.

☞ The borrowers supplication—Pythias Damon and let the Bishop hear our prayer.

☞ The currency question is not yet exhausted. We should recommend object lessons in the treatment of this subject.

☞ It would not be a bad idea for the managing committee of Kapiolani Park, on the 11th of June, to tabu liquors on the grounds that day.

☞ The P. M. S. S. City of New York arrived at this port at 9 P. M. of the 17th inst., seven days and six hours from San Francisco, and left for Sydney and Auckland at 9:15 A. M. on the 18th.

☞ This is the latest. From a cardboard eight inches square, cut inch pieces and cover sixty-five square inches. For further instructions apply to Inspectors Department of the Customs.

☞ The latest dodge in San Francisco advertising is a promise to give a "bright new prize dollar" to every boy born during the months of November and December.

☞ The new Artesian well being sunk on the grounds of His Majesty is progressing favorably. Hard rock was struck at nine feet from the surface and the thickness of the stratum was about 11 feet. This has been penetrated, and a soft substance is now being bored through.

THE FAIR.—We are pleased to learn that the receipts from the Library Fair will prove much larger than first reported. Over two thousand dollars are already in the hands of the Treasurer, without including the proceeds of last night's auction, the result of which has not yet been announced.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S BIRTHDAY.—On Monday next the 24th inst., occurs the anniversary of the birthday of Her Majesty Victoria, Queen of England and Empress of India. Her Majesty will be 61 years of age on that day. She is now in the 41st year of her reign and the 20th year of her widowhood.

THEATRICAL MISREPRESENTATION.—The play put on the boards on Saturday last was not as "Good as Gold." but a substituted piece of indescribable worthlessness, and seemingly in unison with the capabilities of the performers. Two other performances one at the theatre and the other at Buffum's Hall, to-night.

LOST.—The following is inserted for the sake of "sweet charity," and for the benefit of the parties concerned: The Police Judge of Lahaina, who left his office on or about the 18th of April, and has not yet returned, some of his friends think he has gone to attend the Legislature. Anyone returning said Judge will be rewarded with a copy of the new laws that are to be passed this session.

The Gazette has again got itself into trouble with the legislature. Its remark, that the division of His Majesty's salary in the appropriation bill, into separate items was too thin to deceive even "the most stupid legislator," was regarded by some of the Honorable members as personal to themselves, and yesterday morning the objectionable sentence was solemnly discussed before the House.

A CHAMPION SWIMMER'S SAY.—A communication from W. H. Daily, the champion swimmer of the Pacific Coast, has been received, and in which he states for the benefit of himself and the public at large, that the party who swam a race here lately, with a native, and was beaten, has no claim to the name of Daily, but is really one James Maben, and whom the champion himself has already defeated. Mr. W. H. Daily also says that he intends to visit the Islands in the near future, and as he has the reputation of being a first-class swimmer, we hope he will, and try conclusions with some of our boastful natives.

THE ELECTION AT EWA.—The returns from the election at Ewa and Waianae, held to elect a representative to the Legislature to fill the unexpired term of the late H. U. Mahi, show that the paper contest has resulted in a victory for Mr J. S. Kaanaana, by a plurality of 12 votes; following is table of candidate and votes cast

| | Ewa. | Waianae. | Totals. |
|---|---|---|---|
| J. S. Kaanaana | 66 | 16 | 82 |

NEWS FROM FATHER DAMON.—A late letter from our old friend, Rev. S. C. Damon, dated at Liverpool, April 19th gives a glimpse of the reverend gentleman's whereabouts and doings. He says, "We have spent most of our time in North Wales, enjoying the hospitality of an English friend. To-morrow we go to Scotland,—Edinburg—hoping to reach Lundie about May 1. On Wednesday last we enjoyed the opportunity of visiting Aarwarden, the family residence of the Hon. Mr. Gladstone, and Mrs. Damon and myself were introduced to the great Premier, his wife, and a son lately elected to Parliament. We also drove through the spacious grounds of the Duke of Westminster. Sunday was spent by us in visiting the Seaman's Orphan Home, where I addressed a congregation of 200 lads and 150 girls, orphans of sailors. We send our aloha to all our friends in our now distant island home.

THE COMING STATUE.—By the kindness of the Hon. W. M. Gibson, we received a photographic copy of the statue of Kamehameha I., ordered by this government from a Boston sculptor, and which is now on its way hither from Paris, via the Isthmus of Panama. The picture represents the Conqueror Kamehameha I., in a standing position the right hand grasping a spear, the left extended as if in salutation, and the expression on the face conveying without words the welcome "Aloha." The body is encircled with the sacred kapa, while from the shoulders in graceful negligee hangs the royal cloak of feathers. The extremes of the body the head and feet, have rather outre coverings for an untamed savage, the head encircled with a helmet shaped ornamentation, while the feet are encased in sandals of Grecian pattern, both coverings being articles un-Hawaiian in character, and consequently detracting from the fidelity to characteristic details so desirable in a national monument. The figure is of a dark bronze, and the cloak, kapa and helmet are light in color. The statue, including pedestal, is 19 feet in height, and cost a trifle over $10,000.

SOMETHING OF IMPORTANCE TO SUGAR CANE GROWERS.—We have been shown a new method of transporting Sugar Cane, a Peruvian invention, and known as the Hevner system. It is said that it will greatly lessen the cost of getting the cane from the field to the crushing mill, that it is simple and portable in its construction, unlimited in capacity and withal reasonable in cost. It is shown that cane can be transported, by this principle, from the field to crushing mill, a distance of two miles doing away with the force of men at the cane carrier, for the sum of ten cents per ton of cane. Why should not this take the place of mules and oxen, as it is not affected by any kind of weather. Distance, water courses, ravines or mountains are said to be no obstacle to this system, and it may be transfered from field to field in a remarkable short time and at but slight expense. It is advisable that sugar cane growers should look further into this matter. Any other information regarding this system can be had by addressing Messrs. C. O. Berger, and J. M. Thompson, Honolulu, who have the agency for these islands and are prepared to give estimates as to the cost of constructions, the moving of crops and make contracts for same.

BRIEF MENTION.

☞ The Lehua leaves at 5 P. M. to-day for Maui and Hawaii.

☞ Two Fairs have been held within a month. Surely this must be a Fair-y land.

☞ Another pressure upon our columns compels a paucity of foreign news. We will make amends next week.

☞ The Prince's Own intend to honor the birthday of Her Majesty the Queen of England, by a ball on the evening of the anniversary.

☞ We return thanks to Purser Platt of the City of New York, for the late papers, also to the Merchant's Exchange of San Francisco.

☞ There will be a special meeting of Hawaiian Lodge No 21, F. & A. M., on Tuesday evening next May 25th, 1880, at 7:30. Visiting brethren in good standing cordially invited.

☞ We are informed that the new bronze statue of Kamehameha I. is shod with classic Greek sandles. Would the chairman of the statue committee rise and explain.

☞ The Ministry ask for $15,000, for running the tug Pele. It would seem that with the present business of this port, the work of providing towage might be left to private enterprise.

☞ If Patrick Donelly is residing on these islands at the present time, he will hear of something for his benefit by communicating with this office or with the Governor of this island, immediately.

☞ Mr. Toel, who has held the position as Perveyor to the Queen's Hospital for so many years, is very sick. It is hoped that he may soon recover and take his old position.

MUSIC.—The Band will play this afternoon at Emma Square, commencing at 4:30 P. M. The following is the programme:

| | |
|---|---|
| March—Straight Forward | Kuhner |
| Overture—Emma of Resburg | Meyerbeer |
| Finale—Belisario | Donizetti |
| Waltz—Violets | Waldteufel |
| Selection—Suzanne | Paladilhe |
| Gallop—Hermit Bells | Maillard |

A STORY.—It is related, by persons in high places that a boat is now waiting off the Island of Molokai, for the appearance of the schooner Alaska from San Francisco. And it is also related that the said schooner left San Francisco in a hurry, was piloted to Jaluit, and there sold. Expectant consignees take a note of it.

☞ Before the legislature appropriate additional funds for the statue, let them decide whether they will accept it sandals and all. We do not exactly relish the idea of having a ridiculous joke perpetrated in bronze upon Kamehameha I. as well as on the community, at a cost of ten or fifteen thousand dollars, and placed in honorable position with all the solemnities of salutes, dress parade, speach making and Royal Decorations.

☞ The Honorable legislators have voted themselves framed photograph's of the new statue, sandals and all. We were first disposed to object to this action as pure legislative greediness; but have deemed it fair to conclude that they merely wish to examine the thing at their leisure with a microscope in order to decide whether to accept it or not. We call their special attention to the sandals.

Supreme Court—April 28th, 1880.

BEFORE MCCULLY J. AT CHAMBERS.—IN PROBATE.

In the Guardianship of Maluna (k) a Minor. Petition of Kalimahauna (k) Guardian, for License to sell Real Estate.—The Court granted the license upon the Guardian filing a bond in the sum of $1,500. The land to be sold at an upset price of $1,500, the sale to be advertised for three consecutive weeks in the P. C. ADVERTISER and Kuokoa newspapers. Castle & Hatch for petitioner.

In the Guardianship of Willimana and others, Minors. Petition of Naweli (w) for the appointment of a Guardian and for the sale of Real Estate.—The Court appointed Naweli Guardian of the Minors and grants her license to sell the Real Estate, the bond as guardian and under the license to sell, to be $100. The Guardian to comply with the statutory requirements in regard to sale of Real Estate of Minors. Castle & Hatch for petitioner.

May 6th, 1880.—Before Chief Justice Harris at Chambers.—In the Guardianship of Nan Hung (ch), a female Minor. Petition of Chung Hoy for letters of Guardianship of said minor. The Court after hearing the evidence appointed the Petitioner Chung Hoy Guardian of said minor. S. B. Dole for petitioner.

MR. EDITOR:—You ask in your paper of the 15th. "Did I not commit an error when I intimated that East Indians could be engaged for ten years, and did I not forget that the Hawaiian law forbids a contract for a longer term than five years?"

I did not commit an error. It is a well known fact that these people, when disposed to emigrate, are engaged for a period of ten years,—the first five corresponding exactly with the Hawaiian law, under contract with the employer. At its expiration they are free either to renew the contract or to seek other employment. They are bound however to remain in the country to which they are taken for ten years. This is for the benefit of the country itself.

Enough, I think, was said on this subject last year. I answer your questions courteously asked; but do not care to carry on a further correspondence on a subject on which objections are not on the demerits of the case, but are made for reasons, which, as much as possible, are carefully concealed. This expression, Mr. Editor is not intended to apply to yourself. Your most obedient servant. GODFREY RHODES.

Honolulu, May 21, 1880.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The very rapid increase of the business of Honolulu with San Francisco may be inferred from the fact that by the steamer City of New York 4,720 letters were received from Honolulu for distribution at the San Francisco Post Office. The mail by steamer from Honolulu is monthly, but there is also a considerable mail received by sailing vessels.

The delayed mails included from 8,000 to 10,000 letters for Australia, China and other foreign ports.

SACRAMENTO, April 26.—Governor Perkins, having been petitioned by two-thirds of the Executive Council of Two Hundred of San Francisco, this morning signed the Charter governing that city.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—The House Committee on Post Offices resolved that it was wise and expedient to establish ocean mail steamship routes, to be served by American-built vessels, at a just and proper rate of compensation.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—The bark Stormy Petrel arrived at Queenstown from San Francisco the 23d. She had encountered heavy weather, and lost yards and wheel.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 26.—To-day is the sixty-first anniversary of the establishment of Odd Fellowship in the United States.

NEW YORK, April 26.—Peruvian reports of the 18th inst., say that the transport Oroya has just returned to Callao. after repeating the exploits of the Union. She ran past a Chilean fleet in the night, visited Tocopolla, destroyed some launches and captured a small steamer. The Oroya then proceeded to China and discharged arms and ammunition for the brigade organized in Arequipa.

BERLIN, April 26.—King Karl I., of Wurtemburg, has given his consent to the betrothal of the Princess Pauline to a young physician, of whom she is enamored, on condition that she assumes the name and title of Fraulein Von Kirchback.

LONDON, April 26.—The absence of the Prince and Princess of Wales from the wedding of Princess Frederika of Hanover and Baron Pamel von Ramengen, and the Princess' visit to congratulate Gladstone on his appointment to the Premiership, are much commented on. The marriage of the Princess of Hanover to her father's secretary has caused much discussion.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 26.—The Powers have addressed a collective note to the Porte demanding that the frontier evacuated last week, and since occupied by Albanians, be immediately re-occupied by the Turks and then surrendered to the Montenegrins, in accordance with the terms of the Convention.

It is reported that the British Embassadors to Constantinople and Vienna have forwarded their resignations.

CABUL, April 26.—Following are the full details of the battle between General Stewart and the Afghans, on the 19th inst: The enemy was observed two miles off, and the British forces were immediately placed in position. The artillery advanced to the attack, firing with great effect on the enemy, who lined the crest of the hills, but before the attack was developed, a desperate charge by 3,000 Ghazis was made along the face of the whole line, enveloping both flanks. The action lasted an hour, when the enemy retired off the hills to the plain, leaving over a thousand dead, and removing many wounded. The British loss was seventeen killed, and 126 wounded.

Second reading of proposed amendment to the Constitution, Article 50.

The bill to establish leper hospitals on all the islands as read—introduced by Member of Hanalei, Honorable J. Kakina. This bill was very strongly supported in Committee of the whole by a very large majority of the native Members; thirteen of their number spoke very strenuously in its behalf; and there was every indication in the House, that it would be carried, when the Member for Lahaina, Mr. Gibson, moved that it be referred to a Special Committee, supporting his motion with assurances that the health of the people was his foremost consideration, he feeling that here as in Ancient Rome, it should be declared that the health of people is the supreme law. Motion to refer to a Special Committee. Carried.

Special Committee appointed, Honorables W. M. Gibson, J. Kakina, their Excellencies Minister of the Interior, Minister of Finance and the Honorable J. L. Kaulukou.

House adjourned till 1 o'clock, to-morrow.

THIRTEENTH DAY.—Saturday, May 15, 1880.

The House met at 1 o'clock. The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and confirmed.

PETITIONS.

That prisoners on the different islands be sent to labor where the large towns are. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

That the law prohibiting the use of liquors by natives be extended to Chinese, South Sea Islanders and Portuguese. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

The Honorable W. M. Gibson, then presented the following report, and whilst reading it, copies of photograph of statue of Kamehameha I. were handed round to the members.

Charles R. Bishop, Esq., President of the Legislative Assembly;

Mr. President: The Legislative Assembly, during the Session of 1878, appointed a Special Committee to take charge of the design and execution of a monument to commemorate the centennial of the discovery of this Archipelago, for the carrying out of which object the sum of $10,000 was appropriated.

This Special Committee now beg to report that a statue of Kamehameha I., the founder of the Kingdom, was chosen as the proper subject for a commemorative centennial monument. The Chairman of the Committee proceeded to the United States, at the close of the Session of 1878, visited the studios of many eminent artistes in New York City, Boston and other cities in America, and after a careful consideration of the subject, entered into a preliminary contract with L. R. Gould, an artist of the city of Boston, who had executed many notable statues for that city and the State of Massachusetts, to design and execute a statue of Kamehameha I. in bronze, about 9 feet high for the sum of $10,000. The contract as drawn up by J. W. Austin, Esq., of Boston, and a former resident of Honolulu, was approved by the committee, and Mr. Austin and Mr. E. M. Brewer, His Majesty's Consul in Boston, were appointed agents of the committee to take charge of the fund appropriated, and to disburse the same in accordance with the terms of the contract.

The committee have furthermore to report that the design of the statue modelled in part from a portrait of the Conqueror found in the illustrated account of a visit to this Archipelago by the French Commander, Dumont D'Urville; and in part from photographs of living Hawaiians of fine physique, was modelled and moulded in plaster in the city of Florence, Italy, a photograph of which design is now laid before the Assembly, and that a cast in bronze of this plaster-mould has been taken in the city of Paris, and the finished statue is now on its way, via the Isthmus of Panama to its destination in the Capital of the Kingdom.

Accompanying this report are thirty-seven documents being copy of contract with artist, correspondence of the Chairman of the Committee with the artist, correspondence of other members of the Committee, letter of Minister of Interior, report of Committee to Minister of the Interior, correspondence of His Majesty's Consul, also correspondence of J. W. Austin, jr., of Boston and of F. A. Schaefer Esq. of Honolulu.

(Signed:) W. M. Gibson, Chairman; Simon K. Kaai, A. S. Cleghorn, Jos. Nawahi.

Mr. Gibson added in reference to the statue of Kamehameha I. that it had been exhibited in Paris before sculptors and other scientific men, and it had really been an interesting advertisement for this country. It stands 19 feet high. The feather mantle and helmet are a gold bronze, whilst the body is a dark bronze, thus forming a beautiful contrast. It was not the object of the Committee to reproduce him as an old man, but as he was at the time he conquered these Islands when he was about 40 years of age. The photograph just now handed to the Hon. members is a copy, but an imperfect copy. It must not be considered an exact likeness, but rather be looked upon as a commemorative monument. The warrior appears in his feather cloak as described by the British Commander Vancouver when he first visited these Islands.

RESOLUTIONS.

That the members having been furnished with a photograph, the same be returned to the sergeant-at-arms to be framed and then given to the Members of the Assembly.

That the Secretary be instructed to pay to the widow of the late H. U. Mahi the sum of $250, immediately. Carried.

Amendment—That the money be paid to the proper representative of the deceased estate or whoever is appointed administrator. Carried.

That $500 be appropriated to erect a barrier along the Esplanade to prevent accidents. Referred to Special Committee.

Hons. J. K. Hanuna, Hoapili Baker and His Ex. Minister of the Interior were appointed a Committee to report on the resolution.

Notice was given to introduce a Bill, authorizing His Ex. the Minister of Finance to take charge of the Hospital Funds and passport dues.

Resolved, that the House appoint a Committee with the Hon. W. M. Gibson as Chairman to go to Molokai to report upon the condition of the lepers. Laid on the Table.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

The unfinished work of preceding day was resumed.

An Act to amend Section 498, Civil Code, was referred to Judiciary Committee.

An Act to amend Sections 118, 119 and 120, Civil Code, was read a second time and upon motion was ordered to be engrossed—and ordered to be read a third time on Tuesday the 18th inst.

An Act to repeal Section 487, Civil Code, relating to road tax was read a second time. Laid upon the Table.

The House adjourned at three o'clock till Monday 17th inst.

FOURTEENTH DAY—Monday, May 17, 1880.

The House met at 1 o'clock. Minutes of previous day read and confirmed.

The oath was administered to Mr. Robert Wilcox, member elect for Wailuku.

PETITIONS.

Mr. Gibson presented a petition.—That an appropriation be made for building a bridge at Kapoulu. Referred to Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements.

Petitions were presented from various districts, praying that the sale of spirituous liquors be prohibited to Hawaiians, Chinese and Polynesians. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

That $15,000 be appropriated for the assurance of parents who have 10 or more children and in poor circumstances.

That all laborers working under contract or otherwise begin work on Mondays and cease at noon on Saturdays. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

That the law against the sale of opium be repealed, and two licenses granted for Honolulu, and one each for Lahaina, Wailuku and Hilo. Referred to Committee on Judiciary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Gibson read the following report on the restriction against the use of spirituous liquors by native Hawaiians.

MR. PRESIDENT.—The Judiciary Committee to whom was referred a petition introduced by the Hon. J. Nawahi, of Hilo, and signed by 156 of the most influential residents, native and foreign, of the Hilo district, praying that no license be granted for the sale of intoxicating drinks in that district; that the tabu forbidding the selling or giving of intoxicating drinks to native Hawaiians be maintained; and that Chinese and other races with whose government we have no treaty relations be placed under the same restrictions as native Hawaiians in respect to intoxicating drinks. Your Committee fully endorse the views expressed in this petition in respect to use of ardent spirits. The Assembly has also endorsed in part the sentiments of this petition in as much as it has recently postponed indefinitely the consideration of a bill which proposed to repeal the prohibitory section of the Penal Code in respect to the use of intoxicating drinks by Hawaiians. And your Committee are of opinion, that a Hawaiian Legislative Assembly, wherein native Hawaiian Members so largely preponderate—who represent a people living under the sway of a native Hawaiian Sovereign, served in the administration of public affairs by native Hawaiian Ministers, do themselves honor by this imposed restriction.

In respect to the proposition to impose a similar restriction upon all races living in this Kingdom (with whose governments our Government has no treaty relations, your Committee beg to say that the Hawaiian Kingdom in its perfect autonomy is not bound by any treaty relations which would prevent its Legislative Assembly from imposing restrictions by law in respect to the use of intoxicating drinks upon persons of any nationalities, even upon those with whom our government has treaty relations, if deemed advisable to do so for public welfare. (signed) W. M. Gibson, Chairman, G. N. Wilcox, Jas. Nawahi, A. Kalauli.

His Ex. the Minister of Foreign Affairs replied to request of the Hon. W. M. Gibson on the subject of the Pacific and inter-islands submarine cables as follows: In 1876 he wrote to Mr. E. H. Allen, Minister at Washington, to see if he could get Cyrus W. Field to proceed in this important matter, but owing to the failure of the Glasgow Bank the project failed. This morning he had received a letter from Washington stating that Mr. Allen was going to New York, and adding that now is the time to push the matter of submarine telegraph. His excellency had nothing to report on inter-island communications.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Gibson proposed that a special committee be appointed, including His Ex. the Minister, to further report on the information received, and also seek other sources of information on the subject.

That the statue of Kamehameha I., be placed on the mauka entrance to the Legislative Hall.

Mr. Gibson said he thought that the front of this building is the most appropriate place for it to be placed, but proposed that the House vote on the question. Notice was given to introduce an Act to regulate the emigration of Chinese into this Kingdom; and also of an Act to amend Article 20 of the Constitution. A bill was read to repeal Section 924 of the Civil Code.

Resolved: That the Minister of Finance give notice whether any rule existed to prevent vessels carrying freight from other ports than Honolulu to foreign ports.

His Ex. the Attorney-General replied that no vessel can load a cargo for foreign countries except at a port of entry.

Notice was given to introduce an Act to amend Article 56, of the Constitution.

An Act to amend Section 480, of the Civil Code. The bills were read for first time.

An Act to amend Section 29, Chapter 41, Penal Code.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

A bill to regulate the sale of opium was read a third time.

An Act relating to the Public Health, was read a second time.

Mr. Rhodes differed in his views from the Honorable gentlemen who presented the bill. He thought that physicians proper persons to be on the Board of Health, stating that if they were excluded there would be a charge for services that are now rendered gratuitously.

Mr. Gibson said, he was aware that several Boards of Health, such as those of New York and San Francisco had physicians, and also lawyers on their Boards, but the duty of a Board is a business management. It is not supposed that the Board of Education should have a Professor amongst its number. We all know that physicians have had the controlling powers of our Boards hitherto, but as our conditions are exceptional, there being more than one race to consider, he thought we should not be tied to any practical practitioners. We should have property-holders, men of long experience in the Kingdom who would make the best selections for medical advice. There might be extra expenses incurred, but the object was to carry sanitary measures through the best channels.

The bill was referred to a Special Committee: their Excellencies Minister of Foreign Affairs and Minister of the Interior, Messrs. Nawahi, Gibson and Hanuna.

A bill to provide for number of hours to constitute a day's labor, was read a second time. A long discussion took place principally amongst the Hawaiian members, and it was finally referred to a Special Committee, viz.: Messrs. E. K. Lilikalani, J. W. Kalua, J. K. Kaunamano, Jas Woods and G. W. Pilipo.

The House adjourned till 1 o'clock, P. M. to-morrow.

FIFTEENTH DAY—Tuesday, May 18th, 1880.

The House met at one o'clock. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed.

PETITIONS.

That tenants on konohiki and Crown Lands complaining that where these lands are leased to different parties, tenants are taxed from $8 to $10 a year. Referred to Committee on Public Lands and Internal Improvements.

That the House oppose any attempts that may be made by the Minister of the Interior, to take water from Kailiki. Referred as above.

That the whole or part of the passenger tax, paid by the Chinese, be set apart in support of a Chinese hospital, and that an annual tax of $1 be assessed upon all Chinese tax payers in the Kingdom for the same purpose, and price of Chinese passports be raised to $2 each, one half of which shall be devoted to the above purpose, and that a Chinese doctor be licensed to attend such Hospital. Referred to Committee on Finance.

Several petitions of minor importance were also presented and referred.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Mr. Gibson, Chairman of Judiciary Committee reported, in regard to petition from North Kohala, complaining of certain irregularities committed by inspectors of election. A statement of evidence without any recommendation. The Committee thought it advisable to wait for proper certified returns.

His Ex. the Minister of Foreign Affairs moved that the report of Committee be re-committed, and that the Secretary be instructed to obtain further information and certified returns from the President of the Board of Election. On the motion of the member for North Kona, the report of the Committee was rejected, and Mr. Woods was declared duly elected.

The Printing Committee reported the printing of several bills.

A bill to amend an Act to regulate contracts between masters and servants was read for the first time. Also, a bill to amend Article 20 of the Constitution. Also, a bill to amend Chapter 41 of Penal Code. Also, a bill to amend Section 29, Chapter 41, of Penal Code.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

A bill to amend Sections 118, 119, and 120 of Civil Code was read a third time. To be laid upon the table.

An Act regulating the practice of law in the Police and District Courts was read a second time and ordered to be engrossed.

An Act respecting masters and servants was read a second time; indefinite postponement was proposed and seconded, when the House adjourned at 5 o'clock.

SIXTEENTH DAY—Wednesday, May 19, 1880.

The House met at 10 A. M. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed.

PETITIONS.

That $1,500 be appropriated for a bridge at Moanalua. Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

That South Sea Islanders be imported into the Kingdom. Referred to Committee on Agriculture.

RESOLUTIONS.

That the order of the day on Thursday, the 20th inst., be the subject of Immigration.

That $35,000 be appropriated for the purpose of erecting hospitals on the different Islands. Laid on the table until the Appropriation Bill is before the House.

That the Minister of the Interior be requested to make a written report in regard to $20,000 borrowed by his Department. Laid on the table until to-morrow, 20th instant.

That $1,200 be granted for an anchor, chain and buoy at Pukoo, Molokai, and that $1,000 be set aside for street lamps in Wailuku. Ordered to be considered with the Appropriation Bill. Also, $2,000 for Court House in North Kohala. His Ex. the Minister of Interior pointed out that this had been provided for.

The unfinished business of yesterday then came up before the House—the consideration of an Act respecting masters and servants. The first motion to indefinitely postpone the consideration of the bill was lost, and the second motion to refer to Special Committee, as follows: Hons. J. L. Kaulukou, J. Kakina, J. P. Parker, C. H. Judd, and His Ex. the Attorney General.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

An Act to regulate the sale of opium was read a second time, by its title. It was moved to go into Committee of the Whole; to be referred to a special Committee, and also to be indefinitely postponed. It was referred to a special Committee, viz: Hon. J. Keau, His Ex. the Attorney General, H. J. W. Kakua, George N. Wilcox and J. Nawahi.

A bill respecting the carriage of Chinese passengers was next read Pending discussion, the House adjourned at noon and re-assembled at one o'clock. The consideration of this bill was indefinitely postponed.

A bill making all fisheries appertaining to Crown and Kohohibi lands free to all the King's subjects was read a second time. On motion that the ayes and noes be taken on the subject of indefinite postponement, it was carried—ayes 25, noes 17.

The House adjourned at 3 P. M., until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

SEVENTEENTH DAY—Thursday, May 20, 1880.

The House assembled at 10 o'clock. Minutes of previous meeting read and confirmed.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE.

Mr. Gibson, Chairman of the Finance Committee, read the following report on Immigration:

Mr. President—The Finance Committee beg to submit the following information to the Assembly in relation to the expenditure for immigration of South Sea Islanders and Portuguese.

South Sea Island Immigrants brought here from May 17, 1878, to May 19, 1880, 836 adults and 269 children, the latter reckoned as half, or say 135 adults. Total 971 adults. Total disbursement by Minister of Interior, of account of above $85,046.73; less amount received from employers of same for payment of passages, $38,851; and to receive from those just arrived, $4,500; clothing, &c., for 80 yet to arrive, $500. Total cost to Government, $44,695.73, which is about $46 per head. The amount paid by employers will show an average of $44 per head, and a total cost to Government and employer of $90, besides cost of papers and stamps. The two vessels, the Storm Bird and Hawaii remain to the credit of the enterprise.

The expenditure of receipts of Portuguese immigration are as follows:

|---|---|
| To charters and expenses of vessels Ravenscraig and Highflyer | $78,879 18 |
| To sundry expenses here | 2,410 40 |
| | $81,289 58 |
| By amount received from employers | 25,430 00 |
| Total cost of 405 adults and 305 children | $55,859 58 |

Reckoned at 1-3 or 506 adults, makes the cost of each adult average $110. Total cost to Government and employer, $150 each, besides cost of papers and stamps.

The above statement your Committee obtain from the books of the Interior Department, the accounts of which, they are happy to state, are kept in accordance with an excellent system, and are in superior order.

One important source of this immigration is the island of Apemama, which has a population of about 5,000 souls. The Chief of this island, influenced by certain German traders, who have a monopoly of the cobra, or dried cocoanut business, being the chief products and only exportation article of the island, has agreed to the deportation or migration of a large portion of his people, in order to enhance the value of the cobra interest to the German traders, and on condition also that he shall receive one dollar a month from the wages to be paid by every one of his deported people during the whole term of their service in their new homes. And the Hawaiian Agent had bargained of the Apemama people, promising to the Chief the reserve of wages as stated, which would amount to a revenue of $12,000 a year to the Apemama Chief for 1,000 of his people engaged in this archipelago. Your Committee would suggest that it might be regarded as questionable by philanthropic states, contemplating Polynesian immigration, that an enlightened state like Hawaii should aid a barbarous chief to derive a revenue from the expatriotism of his own people. And your Committee are of the opinion that it is not advisable for the Hawaiian Government to bargain for immigrants to be placed under such conditions. Our government will prove its enlightened by such case of the immigrants who may be poor and ignorant, that be shall receive the full advantage and value of services. Your Committee also received information from Capt. Freeman, in regard to the people of the New Hebrides and Solomon Archipelagoes, regarded as important sources for immigration for this archipelago, which they deem it their duty to lay before the Assembly.

The male inhabitants of the two groups of islands mentioned are stout able bodied laborers, and of a race known as the Oriental Negro, but like the Chinese they will not migrate with their females. No women have accompanied various migrations of New Hebrides and Solomod Islanders to Queensland, Australia, and to the Fiji Groups; and as these islanders are a strong passionate race, they have frequently committed violence upon the women, white as well as native, of the colonies to which they have been sent; so much and consequently it has been found necessary to impose stringent regulations upon these people in order to limit their movements and to confine them to their quarters. In the opinion of your Committee that this Kingdom should carefully avoid any condition of society which would require any system of permits or passports to be imposed upon the perfect freedom of any of her people enjoyed in lawful pursuits. Your Committee submit this as partial information and will report again upon this subject and other matters pertaining to the interest of the Kingdom. (signed) W. M. Gibson, J. P. Baker, Jas. Wood, F. W. Beckley.

Report accepted and upon motion was laid on the table until the Committee present their full report on same subject.

Mr. Rhodes, Chairman of the Sanitary Committee, read a lengthy report on the subject of leprosy. Upon motion of His Ex. the Minister of Foreign Affairs, was ordered to be translated and printed.

Mr. Lilikalani, Chairman of a Special Committee of a bill to amend Section 47, Session Laws, 1876, recommended that the consideration of the bill be indefinitely postponed, which was lost, and upon motion the report was adopted.

The Committee appointed to report upon the advisability of erecting a barrier on the Esplanade, recommended that it be indefinitely postponed.

A bill to amend Section 384, Civil Code, was read a first time. Referred to Commitee on Revision.

A bill to regulate the Candidacy of Judges, Tax assessors, Collectors, as Representatives of the peoples, was read a first time and referred to Committee on Revision.

A bill to amend Section 780, of Civil Code, was read for first time.

SPECIAL ORDER OF THE DAY.

His Ex. the Minister of the Interior moved the subject of Immigration, which had been set down as the special order of the day, be postponed and taken up with the report of Finance Committee, carried.

A bill respecting masters and servants, was read a second time and ordered to be laid on the table.

A bill to repeal Section 924 Civil Code, was read a second time, and upon motion the bill was ordered to be engrossed and read a third time on Saturday the 22d.

An Act to regulate contracts between masters and servants was read a second time, and referred to a Special Committee as follows: Hons. R. Hoapili Baker, T. Martin, His Ex. the Attorney General, Hons. J. Nawahi and J. Kakina.

A proposed amendment to Article 20 of Constitution, to read "No judges shall ever be a member of the Legislative Assembly," was read a second time, and upon motion was indefinitely postponed.

A Bill to amend Article 56 of Constitution was read a second time, and upon motion was indefinitely postponed.

A resolution was introduced that the sergeant-at-arms be requested to provide carriages for all the members of the Assembly, at noon on Saturday the 22d, for them to visit the different Government buildings, and the Artesian well on the plains at Mr. Marquez's residence. Carried.

The house adjourned at 4 P. M. until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Cheerful Revelations as to Food.

George T. Angell read a paper recently before the American Social Science Association at Boston on "Public Health Associations," in which he made some startling assertions about the adulteration of food. He said:

Cayenne pepper is adulterated with red lead, mustard with chromate of lead, curry powder with red lead, vinegar with sulphuric acid, arsenic and corrosive sublimate. It is stated that probably half the vinegar now sold in our cities is rank poison. One of our Boston chemists analyzed twelve packages of pickles, put up by twelve different wholesale dealers, and found copper in ten of them. Many of our flavoring oils, syrups, jellies and preserved fruits contain poisons. The adulterations of tea are too numerous to mention. Coffee is not only adulterated, but a patent has been taken out for molding chicory into the form of coffee berries, and I am told that clay is now molded, and perhaps flavored with an essence, to represent coffee. Cocoa and chocolate are adulterated with various mineral substances.

Several mills in New England, and probably many elsewhere, are now engaged grinding white stone into fine powder for purposes of adulteration. At some of these mills they grind three grades—soda grade, sugar grade and flour grade. It sells for about half a cent a pound. Flour has been adulterated in England, and probably here, with plaster of Paris, bone-dust, sand, clay chalk and other articles. I am told that large quantities of damaged and unwholesome grain are ground in with flour, particularly with that kind called Graham flour. Certainly hundreds, and probably thousands of barrels of "terra alba," or white earth, are sold in our cities every year, to be mixed with sugars in confectionery and other white substances. I am told by an eminent physician that this tends to produce stone, kidney complaints and various diseases of the stomach. A Boston chemist tells me that he has found 75 per cent. of terra alba in what was sold as cream of tartar, used for cooking. A large New York house sells three grades of cream of tartar. A Boston chemist recently analyzed a sample of the best grade, and found 50 per cent. of terra alba in that. Much of our confectionery contains 33 per cent. of terra alba. The coloring matter of confectionery frequently contains lead, mercury, arsenic and copper. Baking powders are widely sold which contain a large percentage of terra alba and alum.

It is not water alone that is mixed with the milk. Thousands of gallons, and probably hundreds of thousands, are sold in our cities which have passed through large tins, or vats, in which it has been mixed with various substances. Receipts for the mixture can be bought by new milkmen from old on payment of the required sum. I am assured upon what I believe to be reliable authority, that thousands of gallons of so-called milk have been, and probably are, sold in this city, which do not contain one drop of the genuine article. Large quantities of the meats of animals more or less diseased are sold in our markets. Cows in the neighborhood of large cities are fed upon material which produces a large flow of unwholesome milk. Poultry are fed upon material which produces unwholesome eggs. Meats and fish are made unwholesome, frequently poisonous, by careless and cruel methods of killing. A California chemist recently analyzed many samples of whisky, purchased at different places in San Francisco. He found them adulterated with creosote, salts of copper, alum and other injurious substances. He states it, in his published report, as his opinion that there is hardly any pure whisky sold in that city. A gentlemen recently purchased from a prominent Boston firm a cask of pure sherry wine for his wife. His wife grew worse. He had the wine analyzed, and found that there was not a drop of the juice of the grape in it. An eminent medical gentlemen of Boston said to me; "The adulteration of drugs in this country are abominable." I say that laws should be enacted and enforced prohibiting the manufacture and sale of these poisonous and dangerous articles under severe penalties, and compelling the manfacturers and sellers of adulterated articles to tell buyers the precise character of the adulterations.

Minister Angell has been confirmed Commissioner to China. His instructions are being prepared at the State Department, and it is expected that he will take his departure for Pekin at an early day. The two Commissioners will follow as soon as Congaess makes the necessary appropriation for their compensation and expenses. Mr. Evarts appears to be in earnest about concluding a new treaty before he goes out of office.

Foreign News Items.

The British Navy is becoming a school for royalty. Not only are the two sons of the Prince of Wales midshipmen, but Ernest, the thirteen-year-old son of the Grand Duke of Hesse and the late Princess Alice, is about to join. Queen Victoria is said, however, to be rather indifferent to the navy, taking more interest in the army.

The Governor-General of East Siberia has telegraphed to St. Petersburg that they were not Chinese troops, but irregular Tartars who invaded the Russian Territory. They attempted to cross the Amoor River, but were unsuccessful. He says the Chinese Government is quite innocent of the invasion, and will punish the Tartars severely.

At Cassiar, British Columbia, quicksilver balls were fired with muskets through inch boards. Both there and at Glenora the thermometer was standing at 48° below zero. Nitric acid and whisky froze solid. Case brandy froze solid enough in 20 minutes to roll up in lumps like marbles. During the intense cold breathing was very oppressive.

The Los Angeles Herald says that the charms of Santa Catalina Island are many and varied. The clearness of the ocean at that point is something to marvel at. Dropping a line, with bait, to a depth of sixty feet, you can see the hook and its burden and watch the fish as it approaches the snare. The air is redolent of iodine and brimful of health.

A dispatch from Rangoon reports that 700 men, women, boys, girls, priests and foreigners have been burned alive under the towers of the city walls, as a sacrifice for the restoration of the King's health. The panic in Mandaley is frightful, and hundreds of people are leaving the city. The King's illness is said to be leprosy.

The Board of Directors of the National Rifle Association resolved that the match for the Centennial trophy palma has lapsed by failure of any foreign team to enter since 1877, but recommended that the trophy be again offered for competition under amended conditions. In future, only one team to represent Great Britain and Ireland will be eligible. An American team will go to Ireland in June to compete in the intercolonial contest.

Spain, imbued with a conviction of the usual peace-at-any-price policy of the English Liberals, again casts envious eyes on Gibraltar. Castellar, speaking before Congress in the discussion of a railway projected from Xeras to Algesiras, in place of one projected from Cadiz to the Capes of Gibraltar, said: "We can not and will not renounce our claim to Gibraltar. Mr. Gladstone presents himself before the electors with a programme ceding Gibraltar as he ceded the Ionian Islands.

The British bark Oriente, which arrived recently in Liverpool from San Francisco, was struck by a whale, while off Cape Horn. The whale struck the ship on the port bow, between the 8 and 9 feet marks, broke two beams of the 'tween forecastle deck, and also broke deck and bulged in the bulkhead. After that the vessel made about sixty buckets of water per day in the fore-compartment. Whether the whale suffered from the encounter is not known. The vessel was docked at Liverpool for repairs.

The spectacle of the city of Louisville, Ky., on Sunday last would have gratified a New England Puritan of the last century. The police enforced an old law prohibiting all labor on Sunday. They took the names of editors, printers, newsboys and others whom they found engaged at 2 o'clock on Sunday morning—the busiest portion of the entire week for newspaper people. These names will be presented to the Grand Jury, but an indictment will scarcely be found unless the jurors are given to reading last year's almanac over their Sunday morning coffee.

A ludicrous incident of the Whittaker inquiry points out the old moral that courtesy is never thrown away, while rudeness may often be very costly. Recorder Lieutenant Sears of West Point, who represented the Academy, was asked a civil question one morning in court by an old man dressed plainly in civilian's clothes. He replied in insulting terms that he was busy and could not answer questions. When the court adjourned he found he had been rude to the Secretary of War. He then changed from boor to toady and tried to repair his fault by fulsome flunkeyism.

A very unique bill, remarkable alike in form and purpose, was introduced in Congress lately by Mr. Downey, Delegate from Washington Territory. Commencing with the declaration that the people of the United States are a Christian people, he gives their religious belief in the words of the Apostolic Creed. The bill provides that so much of $500,000 as may be necessary shall be appropriated to decorate the walls of the Capitol with paintings by the great living artists illustrating scenes in the life and death of our Lord. The bill was referred to the Committee on Library.

Much anxiety is felt with respect to the fate of the Atalanta, a training ship. She carries 11 officers and 300 young seamen. Her commander is Captain Stirling. She is a sister vessel of the Eurydice, which foundered off the Isle of Wight in the spring of 1878, having on board 325 officers and seamen, of whom 250 were young men in training, 20 officers and the rest invalids, time-expired men, and court-martialed prisoners, on their way home from Bermuda. The Atalanta was last seen at Bermuda on January 29. She was expected at Portsmouth some weeks ago. She had water for 60 days. The Channel fleet has been ordered to search for her in Bantry Bay and at the Azores.

In a speech in behalf of an Ex-Convicts Home in Indianapolis, the Ex-Governor Hendricks said that it is not true, as generally supposed that the majority of the convicts go to prison as drunkards. Nor is it true that they come mainly from the uneducated classes. An Ex-Governor Baker, at the same meeting, decried the common denunciation of the exercise of the pardoning power, and, while admitting that he himself made some mistakes, expressed regret that he did not pardon more than he did. Statistics, he said, show that of those who give themselves over to society after having been punished for crime, only about 6 per cent. relapse into their former criminal state. Probably these statements will surprise most readers.

A Burmah correspondent says Mandaley astrologers maintain that, in order to remove evil influences, great propitiatory sacrifice is requisite. Victims will be taken from all ranks to the number of 400. The priests contribute 100, the remainder men, women and children. Many arrests have been made to secure a sufficient number for victims to be selected from. The priests, who have hitherto enjoyed immunity from sacrifice, are quitting Mandaley in great numbers. The Catholic Convent was entered to procure victims from among the girls there, but the attempt was frustrated. The internal condition of the country is most unsatisfactory. The people, while seeing the folly of King Theebaw's acts, are helpless to effect a change.
