REUTER'S SYRUP No. 2.

The hereditary blood poison of scrofula develops in the delicate tissues of the brain, mental weaknesses and infirmities, idiocy and insanity. It enlarges the glands of the throat, impairs the sense of smell and taste, or breaks into consuming ulcers on the neck. It destroys the lungs, or fills them with tuberculous secretions. It eats away the coating of the stomach, enlarges the liver, clogs the kidneys, creates constipation and induces piles. No human agency can so speedily, permanently and economically cleanse the blood of scrofulous poison, clear the complexion and skin, scalp and blood, as Reuter's Syrup No. 2, the great blood purifier.

Reuter's Healing Soap

NOTICE TO MARINERS.—PENRYHN ISLAND.

Several good ships have ended their days at Penryhn Island, and it is not long since a Sydney-owned vessel made a voyage there for a cargo of timber, some of the contents of the ill-fated ships. It is therefore of considerable interest to shipmasters trading in the Pacific that the following notice should be published as widely as possible :—Capt. F. Ohlson, of the barque Vivid reports that a dangerous reef exists off the northeast point of Penryhn Island, in about lat. 9° 3" S., and long. 157° 50" W., and that it extends about five miles off that point right in the track of vessels coming from California or British Columbia. For the first two miles from the point the sea breaks heavily over the reef; then there is a channel about one and a half miles wide, in which no bottom was found at 25 fathoms; and outside the channel there is a rocky patch of about two or three cables in extent, on which the sea breaks heavily in patches. Note.—Probably this is the dangerous reef reported to exist about four miles off the east side of the island. Sailing direction, South Pacific, Vol. iii., page 114. Captain Ohlson also reports that there is a shoal water off the northwest end of the island, but that the least water found was seven fathoms, half a mile off shore.—Sydney Herald, May 13.

The Daily Bulletin

Pledged to neither Sect nor Party, But established for the benefit of all.

FRIDAY, JUNE 26, 1891.

The poem read by Mrs. B. F. Dillingham at the Jubilee of Oahu College contains six as fine stanzas of poetry as were ever written by Tennyson or Longfellow. The lines begin, "The Sunlight falls upon the sea."

The address of General S. C. Armstrong, delivered at Kawaiahao Church last night has been a painful surprise to many of our citizens. It was neither expected nor anticipated that General Armstrong, after an absence of over ten years, would assume to influence Hawaiian politics by turning a college oration into a political stump speech. A few years ago General Armstrong made an unwarranted attack upon the American Minister, Mr. Merrill, through an American newspaper, for which he was forced to apologize. The General seems to possess great literary ability of the extremist sort, but what he does not know about Hawaiian conditions and politics would make several volumes more than our present political conditions demand.

There are, at present, two political parties, broadly named, in Hawaii. One represents the people, the other machine politicians. It is not strange that a former resident should be lured by the fascinations of the machine politicians of the Reform party. These politicians a new comer like General Armstrong is almost sure to follow. The only criticism we have to make on the part of the people is that, as a lately returned visitor to Hawaii he should not have allowed himself to be made a political tool, through prejudice or otherwise, for displaying the policy of a political party which has failed in securing the voting patronage of the people of Hawaii.

Is it possible we have not sufficient political vitality in the "Paradise of the Pacific" to determine our political emergencies and protect our political rights without the interference of foreigners? We wish tourists to reach our shores, but there is no demand for gentlemen, who suddenly come here under a literary or religious halo, to attempt to formulate our political policy for the future within a fortnight of their landing. We have enough of political cranks at home; there is no cause to turn our national eyes elsewhere.

"August Flower"

For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDERICK, Saugerties, New York.

"IT'S THERE YET."

If anyone to whom we had sold air Aermotor would come to us and say the mill did not give satisfaction we would be surprised. The old old story is told in three words "It works beautifully" and when that is said the purchaser is satisfied or he would tell us.

The other day a party came to us and said the mill was a disappointment and when we asked in what respect he said "the wind wind blew a gale out at our house the other day and as two men passed the mill one of them said the mill would be blown down. I thought so too but I found it all right and working to a charm next morning. While I was watching it going around the same two men went along and one said to the other "Why no it ain't, its there yet."

Those people were disappointed, because the mill had not been destroyed. We were not, because we have great faith in them and know that unless the wind would blow down buildings it would not wreck an Aermotor.

Storms may come and storms may go
But an Aermortor runs forever.

The following tells you how well Luther Wilcox is pleased with his.

THE HAWAIIAN HARDWARE CO.

Gentlemen:—I have put up the Aermotor purchased from you and, after four weeks use I find it giving perfect satisfaction. It filled three tanks, (elevated about thirty feet from the ground) with a capacity of 5500 gallons yesterday in about four hours. In addition to this water was furnished for household use and some of the taro patches.

The wind yesterday was in gusts and, at times, worse than a Kona yet it had no bad effect on the mill, the wheel closed up or faced the wind to my entire satisfaction. and I believe it to be the best wind motor on the market.

OAHU COLLEGE JUBILEE.

Continuation of First Day's Report--The Literary Exercises.

In yesterday's report written in the field, the names of Rev. T. L. Gulick of Maui and Rev. Wm. Gulick of Spain were omitted from the list of clergymen. Among the residents and strangers within the gates present, with wives and families in most cases, were the following, in addition to those noted yesterday: Hons. W. D. Alexander and Paul Neumann, Judge F. S. Lyman, Dr. J. M. Whitney, Dr. Peterson, M. P. Robinson, L. A. Thurston, A. P. Peterson, J. F. Brown, F. H. Hayselden, W. F. Frear, C. L. Carter, Thos. Wright, Mr. Beckwith of Maui, Mr. Pinkham of Boston, W. C. Weedon, Mr. Adams, F. P. Hastings, C. H. Dickey, Mr. Lowrey, Sr., W. J. Lowrey, W. Maertens, John Angus, H. S. Tregloan, S. D. Fuller, J. L. Kaulukou, W. C. Achi, W. W. Hall, J. C. White and W. P. Toler.

Those participating in the cavalry drill were the following:

A M Atherton, F C Atherton, W E Brown, W R Castle, jr, W C Chamberlain, C M Cooke, jr, C H Cooke, S E Damon, H Dillingham, C K Hyde, H A Jaeger, J R Judd, A F Judd, jr, A W Judd, C A Rice, W H Rice, jr, G S Waterhouse, H Waterhouse, jr, J Waterhouse, W L Whitney.

Under the captain, Principal Hosmer, the young cavalrymen went through marching evolutions and lance exercise. They made a fine appearance in white uniforms and helmets, their lances decorated with the College colors of buff and blue.

The knights engaging in the tournament were the following: F H Armstrong, C H Cooke, S E Damon, C K Hyde, H A Jaeger, J R Judd, N K Lyman, C A Rice, J Waterhouse, W L Whitney. They had three tilts each at three rings about fifty feet apart. Hyde carried off first honors by getting eight of a possible nine, Lyman second with seven rings. The others who took three rings in a single tilt were Jaeger and Whitney. Damon took two each time. It was a fine sight to see each rider dashing down the course at full galop.

For running high jump there entered A M Atherton, H C Hapai, C J Holt, E H Lyman. Holt was first, making 4ft. 9in ; Lyman second, 4ft. 7in ; Atherton, third

An interjected event was the old man's race by members of the alumni, in which there entered Chief Justice Judd, Judge Dole, Judge Lyman, Rev. Wm. Gulick, Gen. Armstrong, Hon. J. T. Waterhouse, jr., Robert Andrews, P. C. Jones, W. W. Hall and H. Waterhouse. The course was about 70 feet. While the grave and reverend seignors were, in shirt sleeves and bare heads, drawn up in line waiting for the word, Mr. C. M. Cooke shouted, "Two to one on Jones!" The old boys none of them attempted any mean advantage, and at the word "go" made a very fair start. They came puffing and jostling down the track at a terribly fast pace. Jones who is about 50 pounds heavier than any of the others, made a gallant pull for first place, but Henry Waterhouse and W. W. Hall passed him halfway down, tying each other for second. John Waterhouse was first to cross the line, his brother and Hall coming abreast close behind. Counting the second a tie, Jones came in third. The rear guard of half a dozen came in rather demoralized. Armstrong, Gulick, and a third who was indistinguishable in the cloud of dust, and tumbled over each other when opposite the royal box, and rolled part of the way to the goal. The time is given as six seconds. Mr. Jones is not an alumnus, but ran on behalf of his wife.

The 100-yard dash was won by H. C. Hapai in 11½ seconds, E. H. Lyman, S. E. Damon and C. J. Holt being beaten in the order named. It was a close finish by all.

E. H. Lyman defeated H. C. Hapai in the hurdle race.

The sports ended with a foot ball match between the Buffs and Blues, following being the teams:

Buffs—S. E. Damon, C. K. Farden, H. C. Hapai, W. H. Hayselden, A. F. Judd, jr., J. R. Judd, E. H. Lyman, N. K. Lyman, G. W. McDougall, H. Waterhouse, jr., and J. Waterhouse.

Blues—G. H. Angus, F. H. Armstrong, C. M. Cooke, jr., C. H. Cooke, C. J. Holt, E. E. Lyman, C. A. Maertens, Kee Owyang, E. A. Ross, H. H. Walker and Wood.

The first half was a draw of eight points each. There was unfortunately too warm a temper shown in the play by several boys, and the Blues refused to play the second half. Mr. E. Baldwin, referee, awarded the game to the Buffs.

The judges of the sports were Prof. W. T. Brigham, E. A. Jones and H. M. Whitney, jr.

At the close of the sports there was one (1) bobtailed car waiting on the tramway at the gate, to transport to town hundreds of people who depended on that means of transportation.

Her Majesty remained till near the close. On her departure with her retinue in the state carriage, the band played "Hawaii Ponoi." The Queen gracefully bowed in response to the respects of individuals all along the sides of the carriage drive.

THE LITERARY EXERCISES.

Kawaiahao Church was crowded to the doors on the main floor and in the galleries, in the evening for the literary exercises. Queen Liliuokalani sat in the royal pew lately constructed. Her Majesty was accompanied by Prince Kalanianaole, Hon. A. S. Cleghorn, and His Excellency Sam. Parker, Premier. Seated in the pew just in front were the Queen's retinue—Major J W Robertson, Chamberlain, and Mrs Robertson, Mr and Mrs John Richardson, Mrs C B Wilson, Mrs Chas Clark and Mrs W H Aldrich. In the double pew across the aisle from Her Majesty's were His Excellency J L Stevens, U S Minister; Mr H W Severance, U S Consul-General; Hon S M Damon, Mrs J O Carter, Mrs Haalalea, Mrs T R Foster, Mrs Coney, Mr. and Mrs A J Cartwright, jr, and Mr J O Carter, jr.

On a large platform built for the occasion were seated: Hon S N Castle, one of the "fathers" of the school; Mrs M S Rice, relict of one of the early instructors; Mrs J M Cooke, Rev and Mrs H Bingham, Rev E G Beckwith, D D, a former Principal; Gen S C Armstrong, orator of the evening; Mrs B F Dillingham, lyricist of the occasion. Trustees—Hon A F Judd, Chief Justice; His Honor Justice Dole, Hons W D Alexander and J B Atherton, Rev C M Hyde, D D, Dr N B Emerson, Messrs P C Jones, W R Castle, C M Cooke and W O Smith. The Faculty—Principal F A Hosmer, Profs A B Lyons and A D Bissell, and Mr J Q Wood, Misses M E Spooner, P E Cushman, M Brewer, E B Snow, H M Sorenson and C A Gilman, instructors.

The following young gentlemen were ushers and well performed their duties: U Napoleon, W F Forbes, G E Smithies, E Baldwin, R A Lyman, jr, Harry Rycroft, Willie Armstrong and Antone Perry.

The front of the choir loft was draped with Hawaiian and American flags and the college colors. "1841" and "1891" appeared in green on the bunting. Hawaiian flags covered the front of the platform, along the edge of which was a row of ferns in pots.

The Royal Hawaiian Orchestra stationed on the choir loft, led by Bandmaster Berger, opened the program with Bach's "Festival" as an overture. Rev. Dr. Hyde offered prayer.

Principal Hosmer began an introductory address by quoting Daniel Webster's saying, "Let us never forget the religious character of our ancestors." Standing as they did at the end of fifty years of the life of the school, they should remember the words of Isaiah "Do not forget the rock from whence ye were hewn." The purpose of the missionaries was a lofty one. He envied the man who had the blood of a missionary in his veins. The noble and devoted lives of the missionaries to Hawaii created a civilization, and we profited by their labors. Like their Puritan ancestors the missionaries were the inveterate enemies of ignorance. They established school and church side by side as a token of the protection of our liberties. Many who have made their mark here and many who had found their life work in other lands had been trained in Punahou. In behalf of teachers and pupils he extended to all a hearty welcome.

Dr. Leonard Bacon's anthem, "God bless our native land," was sung by the College choir and the audience.

Mrs. B. F. Dillingham then read in a clear voice, with good elocution, the Jubilee Poem composed by herself for the occasion. It will appear in this paper later.

The school chorus, led by Prof. Bissell, sang Tennyson's Bugle Song to a tune composed by the leader. It was an appropriate and beautiful score, well sung with the exception of a rather weak bass.

General Armstrong came forward as Jubilee orator. The production was very long and hence probably the speaker rattled it off in anything but oratorical style. It revived reminiscences of the early days of the Punahou school. The census of several decades were analyzed and conclusions drawn therefrom. There was a decrease apparent of one percent a year in the Hawaiian population. All residents should be true Hawaiians. The speaker spoke of his experiences with and his knowledge gained of the Indians and negroes of the United States. The weakness of the less favored races is their lack of power to assimilate knowledge; they are equal to their white fellow-beings in acquiring knowledge by memory. The speaker spoke of the majority of Hawaii's population being alien heathen, and gave his hearers advice as to their political responsibilities and duties.

Choir and audience joined in singing the "Punahou Song," composed by Rev Daniel Dole, first Principal of the Punahou schools, the tune being "Auld Lang Syne." Rev. Dr. Beckwith pronounced the benediction, when, to the national anthem by the orchestra, the great assemblage dispersed.

Second Day's Celebration--Reception at the College--A Thousand Feasters.

Principal and Mrs. Hosmer held a reception from 11 to 12 o'clock today at Oahu College, Punahou. They were assisted in receiving the multitude by Mrs A. F. Judd. So many callers paid their respects to the host and hostess that the hour was fully occupied. Queen Liliuokalani was among the visitors. Her Majesty was accompanied by Hon. A. S. Cleghorn and attended by Major Robertson, Chamberlain, Mrs. Robertson, lady-in-waiting, Capt. Lilikalani of H. M.'s staff, and the following ladies: Mrs J. O. Carter, Mrs. C. B Wilson, Mrs. W. H. Aldrich and Mrs. C A. Brown. Their Excellencies Sam. Parker, C. N. Spencer and W. A. Whiting, Rev. A. Mackintosh, Hon. H. M. Whitney, John A. Cummins, W. F. Allen and J. B. Atherton, Dr. Rodgers, Major Seward, Mr. M. M Scott and the notables named in previous reports, were present, together with an increased host of men, women, and children over the attendance of the previous day's festivities.

Fully a thousand people sat down at long tables under the spacious lanai, where they were expeditiously served with a variety of food cooked in the Hawaiian style. Only a favored few were vouchsafed the privilege of using modern table implements, the flesh hooks of Eden being the regular thing to maintain ancient usage. When all had been satisfied with the juicy fish and roast pig, baked sweet potatoes and watermelon, there was more forthcoming on demand. Hart & Co. catered to the more fastidious tastes, and to any who might have failed in getting the number of their native mess, with a supply of sandwiches, ice cream, cake and coffee. Bottled temperance beverages flowed in seemingly inexhaustible supply over the whole feast.

After the luau Chief Justice Judd from the veranda of the main college building commanded attention. He read a long list of letters of regret received from members of the alumni in the islands and abroad who could not attend. The only letter he read was a very interesting one from Hon. C. R. Bishop in San Francisco, in which the former faithful trustee and generous benefactor of the college tendered his greetings to the Principal and all concerned.

His Honor also read a letter from Messrs. B. F. Dillingham and A. L. Smith, present, offering a $1000 bond of the Oahu Railway & Land Company as a memorial token in honor of the late Rev. Dr. Lowell Smith.

Professor the Hon. W. D. Alexander was then felicitously introduced by His Honor, as the historian of Oahu College. Mr. Alexander, in a lengthy historical paper, sketched the career of Oahu College from its foundation in 1841 to the present joyous jubilee. He was frequently applauded as he made striking points in the course of his profound crystalizations of facts from his own remembrance and his deep store of local lore. Rev. Daniel Dole, father of Judge Dole, was the first principal of the school, assisted by his wife. It was chartered first on June 6, 1849, as Punahou School. A new charter was got for it as Oahu College on May 23, 1853.

Other addresses, more or less impromptu, were to follow. The principal addresses of the whole celebration are to be issued in pamphlet form.

LATEST FOREIGN NEWS.

Rudyard Kipling is reported to be dying with consumption, and has been taken to Italy.

In order to determine the exact longitude of Montreal and other points, the observatory at the McGill University sent by way of the Canadian Pacific Telegraph and the Commercial Cable 120 signals to Greenwich Observatory. The average time of transmission over the round circuit of 8,000 miles was 1.05 seconds the whole number ranging between 1 and 1-10 seconds.

The Scotch Leader of Edinburgh says: At the time of the financial crisis, when the Barings were embarrassed, several financiers who had loaned the Prince of Wales large sums of money, were obliged to ask for its return. These sudden demands put the Prince in a serious fix for a time, until Arthur Wilson, at whose house the famous games of baccarat were played, came to the assistance of the heir apparent and loaned him $1,000,000, with which the Prince paid back some of the money he had borrowed from other financiers.

It is semi-officially stated that Arnoled White, agent of Baron Hirsch, who has been sent to Russia in order to make arrangements for the emigration of the Jews, has been very favorably received by the higher authorities, who are greatly in favor of the scheme.

W. A. Thompson, an American in the Chinese Customs Service at Whampea, China, is now in Chicago. He says the grip swept over the Chinese Empire in February last and many thousand natives died of the disease. It prevailed for over thirty days, and the death-rate increased frightfully. During one week in Canton fully 10,000 people were buried.

A QUICK CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

In many cases persons subject to rheumatism, have got prompt relief from pain by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm.
