WAR WITH BULLER FOR SIX MONTHS IN TRANSVAAL

H. M. Marshall Speaks of the Boers and Their Country-Buller's Defeats and Official Jealousy -- Boers' Freebooters.

On board the collier S. D. Carlston. lately from Tacoma, is a sailor, H. M. Marshal by name, who is now bound for his home in South Side, London. Mr. Marshal is now off on sick leave, having served six months under General Builer in South Africa. "Yes," said Mr. Marshal yesterday, when visited by a Bulletin reporter, "I have been in South Africa and have served in the present war. I was under General Buller for six months, having fought in nineteen engagements in all. I was also in at the relief of Ladysmith.

"The war is now practically over. There is still considerable guerrilla warfare but no concerted action on the part of the Boers. As soon as the capture of De Wet is affected the whole rebellion will fall to pieces and work in the mines will recommence.

"No one who does not know the country can have any idea of what the British had to contend with. The posts held by the Boers were second Gibraltars, and could the same number of British troops have held the Boers positions, the armies of the world have been folled in an attempt to dislodge them. Why, for the first four engagements I was in, I never saw a Boer. Fighting in the dark is hard Buller was promoted over Warren's head which stirred up considerable jealousy be-tween the two. After the disaster, it was found that Warren had deliberately kept his brigade out of action, a deed which came very near losing considerable ground to the British.

"At another time, the scouts led us into a trap and we suffered considerably. Every one sympathized with the Boers and no one could be depended Buller himself has been badly maligned but, barring Lord Roberts, geous lei of bright flowers and ribbons, there is no better strategian nor a today. The present commander, Lord Kitchener, is the man who will bring the war to its close.

"The stories concerning the great cruelty of the Boers are all false. The cruel people were the foreigners and Afrikanders, etc., who enlisted with the Boers. These were French, Austrians, Germans. Russians and a few Irish-Americans. Of all these, the Russians were the most cruel to men, but no fault was found at the treatment received at the hands of the Boers.

I am strongly inclined to think that Mr. Catheart's conclusion is correct as a matter of law.

I have the honor to be, Sir, With great respect, Your obedient servant,

Attorney General Honorable E. P. Dole, Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii. Sir:—In this behalf a careful exami nation of the authorities leads me to the conclusion that the Governor has the power, under the Organic Act, to approve a bill (presented to him before the adjournment of the Legislature) after the adjournment of the Legislature sine die, within the ten day limitation of the Organic Act; and that upon such approval the bill becomes a valid law. There are two opposing lines of decidon upon this question.

The earliest case was decided in Callfornia in 1852, and became the leading authority in support of the position that a Governor has not the power to A meeting of the Board of Health approve bills after the adjournment of the Legislature. W., 224; Lankford v. County (Md.), 20 Atl., 1017; State v. County (Miss.), 1 So., 501; Detroit v. Chapin, 108 Mich.,

The provisions of the constitution of California at the time of the decision in Fowler v. Pierce (supra) was practically the same as the provisions of our Organic Act.

In the Nevada cases the decision was based on the view that the Governor. under the Territorial Act, was so component a part of the Legislature that his power necessarily terminated with that of the Legislature. The Territor-ial Act reads as follows:

"That the legislative power and au-thority of said Territory shall be vested in the governor and legislative assem-bly." See also Sec. 1846 of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

In the States where the courts have taken the position that the governor has such power, the decisions are based upon the provisions of the several constitutions which are similar to those of our Organic Act. The whole subject is elaborately treated in the case of Detroit v. Chapin (Mich.), reported in 37 L. R. A. 391, and in the notes there-to; and a perusal thereof will inform one so fully in regard to the law in this behalf, that I respectfully call your attention to that case as reported.

Now that the details of the famous ed out, it will be a valuable addition to the literature of the case if Foreman Adams publishes a transcript of his speech in the jury room.

If the Governor finds that he can sign bills within ten days after the Legislature adjourned, he certainly has time to go through the County bill and refusal to sign it.

Great Scott! Here comes the Chief Justice with a bill that he was especially interested in having become law. His part in the program was to "see" the Governor provided the measure ran U. S. Attorney. the gauntlet of the Independents. The Chief Justice seems to be having all fired hard work in keeping out of poli-has no occasion to worry over the at- sorrow. Our long and close acquain tacks made upon him from official or-gan sources. Nor is he worrying. He enabled us to more fully realize the integrity; he stands by what he said His was a patriotism which found ex-before the Court and, though the strugutter; finally he has the unhesitating "Friendship, Charity and Loyalty" endorsement of the Court, which of were the three graces which dominated itself is sufficient, District Attorney his everyday life. To him our great Baird has had more experience in Republic meant, "One Country and one United States courts than any man who Plag." and the comrades who stood now tells him what he ought not to shoulder to shoulder with him in that the enemy howl as it will.

Hardly less important to Americans than the great international yacht race will be the contest to determine which again been reminded that in rapid sucboat, the Constitution or the Indepen- cession we are dropping out of the line, dence, shall defend the cup against Lipton's Shamrock II. New Yorkers have been more than half inclined to shut out the Boston boat because owner Lawson does not happen to be a rade member of the New York Yacht Club. The affair has now been settled by arranging a race of the defenders Newport next July. Lipton is making very favorable comments on his latest production, but it stands to reason that the Americans are not putting a second class article in the contest although H. B. M. S. Turanga; Maj. Gen. Hogge they are not saying much about the speed of their yachts.

ENERGETIC MEN.

By selecting young men to fill the offices made vacant by refusal of the nate to confirm appointments the Governor has made a diversion from the beaten paths of the past which may be hoped to prove fruitful in results This implies no reflection upon the fathers of the hamlet but it shows a readiness to go outside the old time ranks of continuous office holders who. if they didn't show up in one place were always provided for at the public crib. E. S. Boyd is one of the young Hawaiians of the Territory who by faithful service has proved himself ca pable and worthy of trust. Among the Health Board members E. A. Mott-Smith has shown that youth is no im pediment to capable and successful ad- Telephone to All Parts of the Island ministration of an important office. His associates have established good reputations in business circles and Wm Auld furnishes the conservative bal ance wheel of long experience. Wha Governor Dole's administration needs more than anything else is fair miaded common sense backed by active, force ful energy. The Governor in his official capacity does not have active force or energy. In Superintendent Boyo appointees, the Governor has aroun him men who have to some extent their reputations in the highest public offices to make.. Their ambitions are progressive and while they may make mistakes, the errors are not likely to be along the lines of retrogression.

FLED FROM HUSBAND.

A Japanese woman, Kiku by name was kept over night at the police sta-tion last night, she having expressed the fear that her husband would do her bodily injury. The woman stated that her husband had forced her to a life in the Iwilei corral for over five months. During that time, every cent of the money she received was turned over to her husband. She became ill and finally running away, hid in the bushes out in Kalihi. She was helped by another Japanese woman. A day or so ago, she went to Relief Camp No. 2 and was tracked there by her busband and beaten. The police will ger that she is protected from her worse than brute of a husband.

WHAT REYNOLDS SAYS

Editor Evening Bulletin:-In regard to the article concerning the testimony and proceedings in the case of the United States vs. William Walsh, appearing in your issue of May 7th, 1901, I desire to say that the transcript of the proceedings furnished to you by John C. Baird, U. S. Attorney, over my certificate and signature is not an authentic copy of the proceedings. A correct copy of the proceedings was contained in the Advertiser of yesterday, save only that the same did not contain all that was said by W. A. The only revision that was ever made by me of the copy of the proceedings furnished by me to Mr. Kinney and the WEDNESDAY MAY 8, 1901. U. S. Tract

The Kapiolani Tract extends from King street to the Beach. A road 60 feet wide will be opened on the east side of the property adjoining the Kamehameha Girls' School; said road will extend to the sea.

Cross-roads will be opened between blocks. Every lot will have a frontage on a road. The elevation varies from forty feet high to ten feet high above sea level.

No swamps around the premises. No freshet will enter the property.

There is an offer to buy a part of the property by a great manufacturing company. The chances are the offer may be accepted. There is every reason to believe that the prices of lots will increase in a short time. The owner of the property will give all chances to purchasers to make money on their investments.

The ground is superior to any tract in the market.

The premises are situated within one mile and a half of the Postoffice.

The Government water pipes are laid along the upper portion of the property.

The prices are the cheapest of any tract within two miles from the center of the city.

The terms which will be given to purchasers will be the best ever given by any real estate dealer or broker during the last twenty years in Honolulu.

HILO HOPES FOR

Hillo, May 3.-The arrival in iHlo the promoters and engineers of the Hi-lo and Kolsala rallroad has occasioned no end of discussion as to the probable outcome of their visit.

The entire party is headed by H. B. Gehr, who, when approached by a Bulletin reporter for an interview, main-tained the strictest allence.

When the proposition was originally discussed, the business men and others realizing the great value from a commercial standpoint that would accrue to Hilo by the construction of the system. every assistance was accorded the promoters, but when the scheme fell through apparently, everything became quiet in the city of Hilo and the volume of trade that would have accrued in the event of the construction of the ystem did not materialize.

The company opened offices in the Severance building on Walanuenue street and to all intents and purposes vere arranging the prenminary work. preparatory to commencing construcexpended in surveying for right of way and matter incidental thereto. Mr. Gehr has apparently socceeded in incurring the enmity of the managers of some of the plantations, which resulted in causing a feeling of animosity towards the promoters and thus rendermatters a rather difficult task.

The gasoline schooner Eclipse which arrived this morning from Kona brought 1734 bags of Kona sugar, see sacks of charcoal, 20 head cattle, 14 hogs and 60 packages of sundries. She sails on Friday at 3 p. m. on her regular trip and will take no freight after noon on sailing day.

The last time the British vessels City of Hankow and Woolahra were here Captain Williamson the latter boat. Now the commands are just reversed. Captain Williamson brought into the Hankow and took command of her while Captain Thompson took the Woolahra. On her last trip to this port the Hankow was navigated with great difficulty on account of damage to her rudder susvained in a storm encountered on the voyage. Great credit damage to her rudder sustained in a storm encountered on the voyage. Great credit was due the captain for his work in bringing the vessel to port and on returning to the Coionies he was well remembered by his owners. During the present trip Captain Thompson was not accompalied by his wife and he says that this is the first and last time since he was married that he will travel without her.

ANOTHER WEEK

GREAT TRUNK AND BAG SALE

You bought generously of the bargains offered in Trunks and Bags last week, so that many of the numbers are completely exhausted; e.g., the better dress suit cases—one lady bought six of them on Monday morning.

But there are still many trunks and bags left that it will pay you to see on this, the last week of the sale.

We would call your attention particularly to the two styles of steamer trunks and to the canvas telescopes and grain leather club bags. They are marked at prices at which it is seldom possible to obtain them.

Remember that the sale closes at 5 o'clock on Saturday evening, May 11th, and that after that we shall have no more trunks or bags to show you.

STEAMER RUGS HERE TOO IN GREAT VARIETY.
