Hawaiian Gazette.

VOL. XVII.—No. 50. HONOLULU, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1882. WHOLE No. 935.

Hawaiian Gazette
PUBLISHED BY ROBERT CRIEVE & CO.
Every Wednesday Morning.
AT FIVE DOLLARS PER ANNUM
PAYABLE IN ADVANCE.
Foreign Subscriber, $6.00 in Advance.
Office in new Gazette Building, 25 and 27 Merchant Street.

The Bride's Toilette.

Miscellaneous.

The comet's tail is said to be 50,000,000 miles long.

Glasgow has one-third of the police of Scotland.

The False Prophet Quo multiplies measures to attacks on Obeid.

Expensive outfits forms are now called "bad form" in Paris.

The threatened seal fishery this year is expected to be a failure.

Germany and Russia are strongly fortifying their contiguous territory.

A single type is often equal to ten thousand tongues in spreading the truth.

Admiral Seymour has been made a Peer, with the title of Baron of Alnmar.

There is a large movement of emigrants of a high class from Scotland to Manitoba.

Among the afflictions of Turkey a visitation of the phylloxera has not yet been included.

According to late statistics Russian manufacturing industries have doubled in twenty years.

The Turkish Government has entered into a contract for a telegraphic cable between Egypt and Arabia.

The London World says that more marriages are outside than are made during the London season.

Complaints are made in England that hansoms and tricycles are becoming a pest, and that a tax should be put upon them.

The Pope, it is said, has lost his appetite, and is constantly in a state of weariness. His physicians have ordered an immediate change of air.

Christian literature is in such demand in India that in Lucknow and Cawnpore there is no less than forty-two publishing houses doing this work.

It is a strange coincidence that Lord Byron, the Earl of Beaconsfield and Professor Darwin died on the same day of the same month, viz., the 19th of April.

Telluric ore contemplates bungs. To retail in one house what is sent to spokes of in another is a treason against society, which cannot be too thoroughly despised.

Russia is supporting Turkey against England in seeking to obtain a revision of the Berlin Treaty, together with an extension of the Russian protectorate over Armenia.

From January 1, 1862, to September 18, the notices of the deaths of 214 persons who were more than 90 years of age were printed in the N. Y. Sun. Of these 135 were women, and 80 men.

"Gen." Booth of the Salvation Army in England is annoyed by a rival organization called "King Jesus Army," and appeals to people not to patronize "the ship across the way."

Public men in France are more closely connected with journalism than in any other country. There was essentially a newspaper man, and ex-Premier Simon is his office of the London.

Russia and the Porte are unable to agree on the time for commence payment of the indemnity. The Porte claims it ought to begin in March, and Russia claims that it should begin in January.

Letters from Ireland state that a famine is impending in the counties of Donegal, Clare and Roscommon. The potato crop has been a failure, while the narrow fertilizing the fields and raising of the poor.

It is said that plaster of Paris of hardness sufficient to be employed as a mortar for cement may be made by using 10 per cent of alum in the water which is intended to be mixed up with the plaster.

The three richest widows in New York are Mrs. A. T. Stewart, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, and Mrs. Marshall O. Roberts, and the last named and most wealthy is believed to be worth six millions of dollars.

Eight hundred thousand people have come from other lands to the United States during the past twelve months. With the average increase of population added, the gain is 1,000,000 or 20,000 each week.

Mrs. Sarah J. Hale, editor of Godey's Lady's Book, who died recently, nearly ninety years old, was the author of "Mary had a little Lamb." It was written forty years ago, and first published in Boston (1830), at that time.

Mrs. Maxwell, better known as Miss M. E. Braddon, is just passing the prime of life and enjoys the most vigorous robust health. She lives in a fine house near London, and is fond of driving a team of spirited chestnut horses.

Joseph N. Ralph, Oregon's new Senator, will not rank among the millionaires of the Senate, but he has an income of from $20,000 per annum, and is reckoned among the right wealthy in fortune. He is married to his wife and three children, and owns 640 acres of land in Oregon.

The new English Bishop of Lincoln has a fine but low, [illegible] Bishop Trefusis, [illegible] Bishop Trefusis, and a [illegible] Bishop Trefusis, [illegible] Bishop Trefusis, [illegible] Bishop Trefusis,