ROOSEVELT IN HIS NEW ROLE.

(Special Correspondence of THE INDE-PENDENT, by Charles A. Edwards.)

It was Loeb who instigated him to undermine discipline in the army by jumping Dr Wood into a major generalship over the heads of hundreds of educated officers whose lives had been spent in the service. It was Loeb who injected into his brain the fancy to have the navy down to Oyster Bay for the amusement of the children, but at great cost to taxpayers. It was Loeb who, night and day, whispered into his ear the notion that it would charm the American people to have their president model himself on Germany's imperial War Lord. It was Loeb who counselled him to substitute executive orders for laws of Congress. It was Loeb who advised him to accept free special trains from favor-seeking railroad corporations, and refuse an American flag from a Boston girl on the ground that it would be unbecoming in the President to accept gifts. It was Loeb who filled him with arrogance which did not stop short of lecturing venerable Senators as if they were ignorant and naughty schoolboys. It was Loeb who inspired him to hector and blame and praise and exhort, as if all wisdom and virtue were concentrated in one person, until the country grew tired, very tired, of strenuousness and egotism and swagger, and longed for a rest from Theodore Roosevelt.

If the President shall offer his fellow citizens this explanation of why he has looped the loop from what he was to what he now wishes them to think him—the silent, thoughtful and discreet statesman—he will, of course reveal by what means he has rescued himself from the satanic arts of Loeb and reduced that matchless Mephistopheles to his proper place as a simple secretary. And it is to be taken for granted also that Mr Roosevelt will endeavor to give satisfactory assurance that, in the unlikely event of his election, he will be able to resist a resumption by Loeb of magical influence over the Presidential mind and conduct.

Perhaps the best guaranty Mr Roosevelt could furnish that, if accorded four years more in the White House, he would not loop the loop backward and become again his former self would be to discharge Loeb or to put him to death. If allowed to live and serve as secretary, his secretary might prevail and drag from their retirement the khaki uniform, the sword and the big stick.

Freed for the time being from the malign enchantment of Loeb, Mr. Roosevelt is apparently sincerely ashamed of his past, but it is well understood by physicians that one who has been bewitched is always in danger of falling again under the spell. On the whole, therefore, it will be safer and kinder to return Mr Roosevelt to private life. The White House is not good for him. It effects his head.

"Small Farmers" Meet.

At the meeting of the Board of Agriculture yesterday afternoon, John Watt was appointed forester in Puua in place of F. B. McStocker, resigned. Mr Kotinsky, of Washington, D. C., was appointed to assist Mr Craw, the entomologist, in place of Messrs Terry and Kirkaldy, who go to the Planters' Association.

WHAT DID THEY DO?

It is now up to the Republicans to call upon their representatives in the last Legislature, and urge them to give an account of what they accomplished during the past sessions of the Legislature, and what record they can give of themselves, before they ask the voters for a re-election. We, in Hawaii, do not follow the customs, which is in vogue in most countries, where parliamentary government exists, in which the representatives of the people, upon the close of a session of the Legislature, make their appearance before their constituents and showing exactly what they accomplished, what benefit to the country at large, and the election districts especially, accrued from their work, and finally give good reasons why they should again be honored by the confidence of the people by a re-election.

Here, when a session closes, the honorable members pack up any stationery, pen knives, books, etc., they can conveniently lay hands on, put their hats on, stalks out of the building which shall know them no more, for a while, at least, and totally ignore the men who sent them to the Legislature in a most frosty, frigid manner. "The voters may be compelled to say not place!" is the mental, if not, open remark which greets any one who should suggest that an accounting is due to the sovereign people. And nothing more is heard of the festive lawmakers until the ambitious politicians again assume their most fascinating smiles and manners, and cordially shake the hands of the men who are asked once more to waltz to the ballot box and vote for "yours very truly, humble patriot."

We urge the voters, irrespective of party, to seriously scrutinize the records, which the members of the last Legislature made for themselves, and refuse positively to give another chance to those who were weighed and found wanting. What did they do, these brilliant Republicans? They gave us a County Act, which they had purposely "spoiled" to the extent, that it wasn't worth the paper it was written on. Of course, they will remind the voters of the fact, that a County Act was passed and through no fault of theirs, it was knocked out by the Supreme Court. They will blame the Democrats for that fact, and hint at a dark conspiracy between the Home Rulers and Democrats to defeat the will of the people by passing an impossible act.

Then they will assure the people, that Republican Kumalae and others, whose actions caused an unpleasant stench to reach the nostrils of the voters from the legislative halls, were never members of the Republican party but were simply elected by Home Rulers and Democrats, although they did appear on the stump for the Republican party. Oh! they will have explanations and apologies ad galore for the benefit of the voters in an attempt to smother the miserable fizzles they made of the high office entrusted to them, and they will unblushingly expect the people to "bite" again, and be caught on the same old bait once more. Gentlemen of the Republican party, you cannot fool the people all the time, as you will learn on election day. Even if a new set of men are paraded as candidates for the next term by the Republican party, the sensible voter will rightly fight shy and cast his vote for the Democrats, who at least stand as a party with an unblemished record here.

Now let the Republican papers and speakers show, what their representatives did for the people during the last Legislature, and we should willingly publish their good work, if any we find. So far as our memory serves us, their work was confined to the prearranged death of a decent County Act, the inauguration of discredited paper money (if these Republican treasury warrants can be called money), a failure to provide for funds necessary to replete a treasury, which a Republican administration had depleted, the passage of a few unconstitutional acts and not a single, solitary measure to the advancement of the Territory and to the bettering of the conditions of the people.

And with such a record, these politicians, so anxious to serve the Territory, propose again to go before the voters and ask for another expression of confidence. Will they get it, voters of Hawaii? We think not!

INCONSISTENT SYMPATHY.

We fully agree with the Star that a gross injustice was done to two Porto Ricans, who were imprisoned in Hilo after pleading guilty to a charge, of which they were innocent, their plea being caused by their utter inability to understand the language of the Court or know what offense they were charged with having committed. The Star soars to lofty peaks of eloquence, caused by its righteous indignation. How truly beautiful it is to read the glowing lines in fat black type and feel that we have men of such humane sentiments in our midst. Is that the same Star which, in 1895, saw innocent men torn from their families and cast into dungeons here in Honolulu, without uttering a word of protest, but simply egging on to further outrages the mad hirelings of a government crazy with fear? Is that the same Star, which wanted the gore of decent citizens, who, although absolutely innocent, were made the victims of the rioting hirelings and adventurers? A miscarriage of justice is always a sad spectacle, but we must ask the Star to save some sympathy for those outraged in 1895, who now finally are face to face with just redress they should have and would have obtained years ago, if there had been a spark of manhood, a glint of honor even in the bosoms of the clique represented by the Star.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Any American small farmer who thoroughly understands the art of selling ballast to ships, and can command the trade, can make a living in Hawaii.

"More Anton Perry's are needed," shouts the Advertiser. Yes, and the very reasons that move the morning press to desire more Anton Perry's are the identical reasons why the public wants no more of them.

The Democrats may regard themselves as "specially interested spectators" of the fight going on among the Republican Portuguese over the selection of a nominee for the Legislature. The Republican portion of the colony is divided almost in half between Representative Andrade and M. C. Pacheco. This augurs well for the Democratic Portuguese. They have a man in the background who, when sprung, will not only sweep the Portuguese colony but will carry the Fourth District, hands down.

In accepting the Democratic nomination for the Vice-Presidency, Hon Henry G Davis jabbed the Republican party at the fifth rib several times. His diagnosis of the financial policy of the administration showed that millions upon millions of dollars were being deliberately squandered. Mr Davis shows how all this vast amount of money could and should be saved to the people. This arraignment, coming from a financier of almost international reputation, will undoubtedly have an important effect upon the banking interests of the country as well as the people at large. They will come to see that they have been systematically bled to keep up a Roosevelt patronage, and, it is safe to say, they will not stand for it.

THE INDEPENDENT 50 cents per month.

The Board of Health did not hold a meeting yesterday afternoon.

Robert, the son of L A Thurston, is seriously ill at the Peninsula.

John Guild, of Alexander & Baldwin, went to Maui by the Claudine last evening on a visit.

Bill Huibui and Tim Murphy have posted $200 a side on the coming fight between them.

The oil ship Marion Chilcott and barkentines Archer arrived in port yesterday from the Coast.

The jury yesterday afternoon acquitted P O'Sullivan of the charge of selling liquor on Sunday.

For hard time prices on certain necessities, call on Harry Roberts, Beretania street, near Palama junction.

C B Hoffgaard has been appointed district magistrate of Waimea, Kauai, defeating William Sheldon for the place.

Dr W H Payne, a veterinary surgeon, died on board the transport Sherman just before the vessel reached Honolulu.

The wedding of E L Peters and Miss Mapusua Smith will occur on the evening of September 20, at St. Andrew's Cathedral.

O'Sullivan will preside over the Fourth District Democratic convention on September 24 and Frank Harvey over the Fifth.

The steamer Helene is on the marine railway for a cleaning. She is not in need of any repairs, so will likely come off tomorrow.

Mr and Mrs W E Devereux will leave by the Kaiulani tomorrow for a tour of the mainland, after which they will settle in San Francisco.

The transport Thomas was due this morning from San Francisco but did not put in an appearance. She will likely arrive this afternoon.

The Republican District Convention will be held on September 17, the Democratic on September 24 and the Home Rule on September 26.

A total of 263 voters registered at Honolulu Hale yesterday. The total for today promises to be larger, as considerable "rustling" is being done.

Mrs E Hart and children who left by the Claudine last evening for Maui, the family's future home, was accompanied by her brother, James R Love.

The office of THE INDEPENDENT is in the brick building next to the Hawaiian hotel grounds on Beretania street, Waikiki of Alakea, First floor.

Contractor Emery is enlisting carpenters and painters for work on the new immigrant station. He expects to begin operations between now and the last of the month.

The case of the Territory against F J Testa, libel, was this morning continued in the Circuit Court to the next January, (1905) term by the consent of counsel on both sides.

A gang of little boys gather behind the merry go-round almost every afternoon and shoot craps for the money they have made selling papers. One little fellow is always perched on the fence to give the alarm when a policeman comes in sight.

The transport Sherman which sailed early this morning for San Francisco, left about a dozen soldiers behind. There seems to have been some misunderstanding about the sailing time, many of the men having the impression that the vessel would not leave before 10 o'clock.

At the Maui district Republican convention held at Lahaina Tuesday the following were nominated: For Senators: S E Kiana and A N Hayelden. For Representatives: Moses K Nakua of Molokai, P Pali of Lahaina, W J Coelho of Wailuku, G Copp of Makawao, J Kalino of Hamakua and W P Haia of Hana.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Judge Robinson spent all of the forenoon calling the civil calendar.

The transport Thomas, which is due this afternoon, will have two or three day's late mail.

A meeting of Democrats of the new tenth precinct of the Fourth District will be held Friday evening for the purpose of organizing.

The Sixth Precinct, Fourth District Democratic club will have an important business meeting in the Occidental reading room this evening.

The Iroquois will sail on Saturday for the Midway Islands. "Happy Hooligan" Hoppe, who is on his vacation, will take his place in the engine room and make the trip.

Bond, the motorman who ran into the hearse near the depot Monday ago, will be tried in police court tomorrow. The charge against him is furious and heedless driving.

The case of Liu Lock, charged with murdering Lam T Chin on June 22, was stricken from the calendar yesterday on account of the death of the defendant while in prison.

John D O'Connor, of San Francisco, and Miss Alvina J Dalle, of Alakea street, Honolulu, were married last evening by Father Valentim. They will reside at the Wicks house next to the Y M C A.

The schools of the city, according to statisticians, are not so crowded as has been reported. The total number of pupils is about the same as last year but the space is greatly increased, affording ample room for every one.

The steamer Likelihi arrived last evening and will again leave this evening on her usual mid-week run to Molokai and Maui. She will also go to Mahakona this trip for cattle and will take a few passengers from here for that place.

W O Barnhardt, who punched Superintendent Pratt, of the Rapid Transit Company for interfering with his business, is suing the company for $5,000 damages for malicious prosecution. Barnhardt was arrested and acquitted.

It is reported from Hawaii that the Home Rule speakers met a cold frost every where they have been. No interest was manifested in their harangues and in many places they were told flat-footed that the people were waiting for Iaukea to come up.

Bishop Restarick, son and daughter departed by the transport Sherman this morning for the mainland. The Bishop goes to attend the general convention of the Episcopal Church at Boston. Miss Restarick will take up work at Ogontz School in Pennsylvania.

District Court Doings

Nothing very much transpired at today's session, most of cases going over to tomorrow. The case against two Chinese for assault and battery with weapons were again put off to tomorrow, as also was two charges against D Kamai, the first for malicious assault with intent to commit rape on a young Hawaiian girl and the other for assault and battery on Lizzie Naone, as also on one Morita for malicious injury. Geo Campbell for profanity, forfeited bail of $6, and J C Croon did the same for disturbing the quiet of night, making another $6 for the treasury. Three drunks also forfeited their cash bail of $6 each and two who appeared in Court were fined the usual $3 and costs.

The Grand Jury

After appointing J D Tucker foreman and Eugene Buffeau bailiff, Judge Gear yesterday charged the Grand Jury and set it to work. The charge was short, the Court remarking that most of the jurors had served in a similar capacity before and understood their duties. The first cause up was that of the shooting of U S Harris, the prize fighter, by a sailor.
