NOTICE.

Having leased the TRAINING STABLES
from H. J. Agnew, at Kapiolani Park, I am now prepared to take horses to train, and prepare them for the coming Fair on the 11th of June next.

Breaking and Educating Young Horses a specialty.

It is a point of importance to all owners of fine young colts not to have them jammed or hammered over the hard roads, and to get them properly handled for the first lessons are the ones that make the horse.

Also in connection with my Training Stables, I will serve a certain number of choice mares with my Young Hambeltonian Stallion "APTOS CHIEF." He was sired by Electioneer, owned by Gov. Stanford. The sire of Electioneer was Risdeke's Hambletonian. The dam of Aptos Chief was sired by Speculation;
he by Risdeke's Hambletonian—so it will be seen that Aptos is an in-bred of Hambletonian.

Terms for service of Aptos Chief, $50 for the season, payable at the time of service; and all mares failing to be with foal will have the service of the horse the next season free of charge.

FARM AND HOME.

The noon meal for working horses should be principally grain. It can be quickly eaten, and will not disturb the stomach.

Water is death to raspberry canes if it stands around them. It should find quick means of exit, either on the surface or by soaking in the drains.

Any ailing fowl should be at once removed from the flock to comfortable quarters, and specially treated with medicines and food. A fowl is worth saving, but is often neglected and left to get well or die.

It is the opinion of some well-informed people that the fig and olive both do better with very little pruning, manuring or irrigating.
Both seem to rather enjoy neglect, requiring only sufficient cultivation to keep down the weeds.

As trees are generally scraped, more harm than good results from the operation. Great care should always be taken not to disturb or injure the lower and living part of the bark. A common mason's trowel or a short-handled hoe makes a good scraper.

The cattle that make the largest returns for the food consumed pay the best. It is the well-formed animal that makes the most valuable meat. It does not pay to feed hogs that will only develop head and snout when there are good grades to be obtained.

Very rich and heavy soils are in most cases inferior to the loamy or gravelly soils for fruit growing.
On these lighter soils the trees ripen their wood better, grow less rapidly and give better flavored fruit than those grown on very rich soils. Usually the best fruit lands are those which are naturally light, but which are kept up by a judicious system of cultivation and manuring.

BEZF CROQUETTES.—Mince finely a pound and a half of cold roast beef and mix it with a bunch of savory herbs, a shallot and an anchovy, all of these cut up fine.
Season with pepper and salt, and put all the ingredients into a stewpan, add a half-pint of white sauce and allow them to stew for a few minutes. Then stir in the yolks of three eggs, and let it stand until the eggs set. Then spread the meat out upon a dish and when it becomes cold, cut it into pieces, and roll these upon a board strewn with bread crumbs, giving them a round, oblong, or pear-shaped form as may be fancied. Coat the croquettes over with beaten egg; then strew them thickly with more bread crumbs and fry in lard, or a mixture of lard and Lucca cream oil, being careful that the frying material is boiling hot when the croquettes are put in.
When done to a golden-brown color, take them out, drain them, garnish with parsley and send to table with Italian or other desired sauce, served in a tureen separate.—The Caterer.

GINGER BISCUIT.—Ginger biscuits, an agreeable variation of ginger cookies, are made of one pound of flour, half a pound of butter, half a pound of sugar, two eggs, two heaping table-spoonfuls of ginger, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder; mix thoroughly and mold into small biscuits; bake in a quick oven. A little salt is required unless the butter is very salty.

A BREAKFAST DISH.—A very nice breakfast dish is made by chopping remains of yesterday's roast very fine and seasoning well; then take some mashed potato, mix one or two raw eggs with it until it is like a paste and can be spread out, sprinkle it with flour, and cut out round cakes; put a teaspoonful or more of the meat upon one cake; lay another over it and press the edges together, and fry in hot lard or beef drippings until a delicate brown.

"You're the most curious woman I ever heard of," said a boy to his mother—"you tell me I have a bad temper, and yet blame me for losing it!"

He had asked his friend to lend him a certain sum, which the latter refused. "Why, I asked you only for a trifle!" "Well, and I refused to lend you only a trifle!"

An honest old farmer once, addressing a schoolhouse audience on temperance, confessed that he had been a drinker. "But, my friends," said he, in conclusion, "I never drank to success."

This advertisement appears in the pages of a contemporary—"Wanted, a respectable young man, age about eighteen, that has been used to deer-park; he must be able to ride and drive deer well, and will have to make himself generally useful; good references required."

PUBLIC HIGHWAY.

One of the very first objects of Government in this country should be good roads and enough of them.

Even countries that have railways, and are suited to them, make a great mistake when they neglect their ordinary roads. Much more culpable would such a neglect be in a country, like these Islands, unsuitable to railway systems. Until this group is hundreds of times more densely populated than at present, any project of general railway building would be great folly. Of course street railways in the city are desirable and almost a necessity, but they are not in the same category as railways for traffic between different points throughout the country.

Our roads are gradually improving, there having been great changes for the better right at Honolulu within the past few months. Some of the main roads leading into the city have been transformed from almost impassable ruggedness to very agreeable smoothness, and from the condition of a slough to that of a hard pavement. Good, permanent bridges have been constructed throughout some of the Islands, and improvements in roadways in many cases made to correspond. For all this advancement in the right direction let due credit be given to the Government. Credit, not praise, for there is too much fuss made nowadays over the simple performance of duty. No matter how favorably the present Government's work in this, or indeed any matter, may compare with that of former ones, it must be judged by its own merits and in the light of the progress of the country. Not a very great while ago wheeled carriage roads were not required in the country, because there were no wheeled carriages. It would be nonsense to compare the roads of this time with those of that time, in order to find glory for the Government of the day in the vast difference. It might, in proportionate degree, be unfair to compare the present Government's achievements with those of the immediately preceding one. If a satisfactory ratio of progress has been maintained, the people have reason to be thankful. But the fact that, when the treasury became low, the roads were made one of the first subjects of economy, indicates that the Government does not duly appreciate their importance. The "unexpected road balances" that had to be revoted at the last Legislature bears unfavorable witness against the administration of affairs.

There can be scarcely anything more important to this Kingdom than its roads. Nothing can be more politic on the part of the Government, viewed from the standpoint of self-interest alone, than to make the public highways among its first objects of concern. A system of good roads, ramifying into every cultivable part of the country, would, more than anything else within the scope of Government, add value to both public and private lands. The placing of roads, already laid out and in use, in permanently good condition would add immeasurably to the comfort and greatly to the wealth of the inhabitants. What an amount of suffering and loss is annually caused by bad roads! There is the physical shock of the jolting of vehicles and the stumbling of saddle horses; the wearing tedium of a necessarily crawling pace; the constant care to avoid accident; the wear and tear of animals and vehicles; the loss of time and the waste of force—all these make up a stupendous account against bad roads. Then there is nothing in which a liberal public expenditure will more assuredly commend itself to the people of such a country as this, or command warmer approval of an administration, than well-made and well-kept roads. Everybody has to use the roads, and their condition will appear in some degree to the intelligence of the stupidest elector.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

If some of the shipping reporters would make sure and return passenger lists and manifests to where they found them in the Custom House, it would save trouble to the officers and unmerited censure to other reporters. All the papers are threatened with being deprived of their usual privileges in this regard the next time documents are mislaid by carelessness of news gatherers.

The letter of Mr. Crowley, that of another correspondent in a former issue, and several letters in other papers, show that there is a very strong feeling abroad against the action of the Privy Council in extending the legalized sale of liquor throughout the Islands. But what is going to be done about it? There does not seem to be enough force of public opinion in the Kingdom to prevent the perpetration of any wrong by those in authority.

It is gratifying to learn that the Japanese Consul is enabled to report to his Government that his countrymen on the plantations are well-satisfied, and more than willing to encourage their friends at home to come. We can only hope that the Privy Council will not at some future day have the humiliation of knowing that its extension of the liquor traffic has been the means of demoralizing that susceptible people and making them a failure to themselves and to the country. At present that retrograde policy is the most threatening element in the prospects of every description of labor.

Notwithstanding the lull in the currency controversy and the comparative easiness of exchange, there is still great inconvenience suffered in local trade from the position in which the matter is left. Indeed it is only by mutual concessions and the waiving, through necessity, of legal rights, that business can be done at all to any extent. We have heard of cases where firms doing a commission business have undergone serious hardship from having to give concessions to their clients which they could not get for themselves.

There has been a great deal of talk in the currency discussion about the Chinese hoarding and sending away gold. Three points should be noted in this regard. First, the Chinese have a right to make what disposition they please of gold that they get honestly. Secondly, if there was due equilibrium between gold and silver circulation, the Chinese or any other people would have more difficulty in hoarding gold than at present is the case. Thirdly, the Government, if it chose, could place such restrictions upon the exportation of gold as would make it unprofitable to send it out of the country while exchange was obtainable at a reasonable rate.

EXTENSION OF LICENSES.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—The friends of social reform are startled at the action of the Privy Council in authorizing the extension of liquor licensing to the other islands, and having recently spent some months in Hilo, Kohala and Wailuku, I venture to speak of what I know of the drink question in those places, and the causes which probably influenced the action of the Council.

I have no fancy name for the alcoholic spade. The drink traffic is ever to me a traffic in blood, and I regard the men who engage in it for profit—be they licensed or not—wholesalers or retailers—as the worst enemies to the state, and their trade as one against which organized society must, in pure self-defense, wage unceasing war. Therefore any apparent encroachment of this subtle enemy to society over an established boundary line is a proper cause of alarm.

And here I remark that this is not a political question, it should never be a party question; it is one in which every resident, be he voter or not, has a right to be heard, and one in which every man who rightly values the natural right to state protection, and the well-being of himself and family, will demand to be heard.

At Hilo, the first place I visited, I was surprised at the amount of undisguised tippling—especially amongst native women—but the solution was at hand. I discovered that there were not less than fourteen places where the contraband article could be bought. About nine of these dealers were Chinamen, one white man, the rest natives and Portuguese, all carrying on some other business; but the lions' share of the grog-selling was in the hands of a Chinaman who runs a dry goods store. These men and their doings are well known to the police, several of them having been fined by the police judge, who strictly enforces the law, but none have been driven out of the business.

Now I can understand an enlightened Privy Councillor reasoning thus:—"Here is a large amount of drunkenness, for the population far exceeding that of Honolulu, resulting from a traffic which the police are powerless to check. If licenses were granted to responsible persons, the authorities would be able to control some of the abuses of selling which they cannot do now, and last but not least, the revenue derived would be acceptable." This is just what many honest, but mistaken men think. I cannot trespass further on your space or I would enlarge upon some of the fallacies of this logic, but I would respectfully submit to the authorities, that there is a wholesome police practice in other countries, which might prove of service here; change the men to a fresh scene of action at least once a year. The police are as good as can be expected, and if they can't regard an illicit dram-seller as a great malefactor, they are no worse than their confederates of an older civilization, for has not Miles-na-Coppaleen been the stage hero of Boucicault, and his potheen cheered the heart of "Father Tom." Hoping to return to the subject.

D. M. CROWLEY.

United Carriage Co.

PLEASE take notice that the UNITED CARRIAGE CO. (Telephone 290), having been re-organized, wish respectfully to inform Tourists and the public generally, that in order to compete with another firm who prohibits other hacks but their own from soliciting patronage at the Hotel, they have found it necessary to hike more strongly, and have selected from about 250 hacks now running in Honolulu, a number of first-class teams, which in addition to the teams we already have make the UNITED CARRIAGE CO. the strongest in Honolulu. Most of the drivers in this company, who by hard work and perseverance have become owners of the teams they drive, have agreed to conform to certain rules deemed necessary by the managers for the protection of Tourists and the public against overcharging, incivility, &c. Two very important rules governing the drivers of the UNITED CARRIAGE CO., are Rule No. 1, that expels any driver from the company who wilfully charges more than the legitimate rates of fare; Rule No. 2 compels any of our drivers to respond to a Telephone call whether it be a Ten Cent or a Ten Dollar fare. Thus it can be seen that the object of the company is to supply the public with good teams driven by good, reliable men, who will do their best to give satisfaction, and hope by so doing to merit a share of public patronage. All complaints left at our office, in the shape of a note directed to the managers of the UNITED CARRIAGE CO., will receive prompt attention.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

A HORSE, thoroughly broken to harness and sound, is advertised for. FARM and Home notes on our first page and selections on the fourth. BILLY Emerson says he will make you all laugh heartier to-morrow night than ever. THERE is a long string of cases set down for hearing in the Civil Court to-morrow morning. THE usual prayer meeting at Fort Street Church this evening. Subject, "Difficulties and how to meet them." FRESH and new goods by every steamer from the coast. King Bros., frame and cornice makers. 971 St. VERY little business was done in the city yesterday. Most of the larger stores were closed during the afternoon. OWING to the inclement weather last evening the roller coaster was not running. However, it will be running this evening. THERE was quite a number of picnic parties over the Paia yesterday. Some of them got badly caught in the rain in returning. A DIVIDEND of three dollars per share is being paid to the stockholders of Paia plantation. That is not bad by any means. FLORIDA Lemonade made by the Crystal Soda Works is the finest in the market. Try it and be convinced. 967 1w. A LARGE variety of cabinet celebrities, also stereoscopic views, stereoscopes, graposcopes, etc., at King Bros.'s Art Store. 969 3t. You will certainly regret it if you do not attend Sachs' great hosiery sale now in progress at 104 Fort street. A SPECIAL Lenten service will be held at St. Andrew's Cathedral this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Geo. Wallace will deliver a short address.

Messrs. Wenner & Co., the well-known manufacturing jewellers, keep constantly on hand a large and varied stock of jewelry, watches, gold and silver plated ware, at the old stand, No. 92 Fort street.

The Remenyi concert party is now in New Zealand. At the first concert in Auckland the attendance was tremendous, and the old fiddler was repeatedly encored. Mr. Luckstone the pianist received much applause for his playing.

Prof. Wayland's lecture will be given next Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The subject will be, "Parliamentary Government, with anecdotes of the English Government."

To-morrow at 10 o'clock, Lyons & Levey will offer at public auction, from instructions received from Mr. C. H. Woolmington, his residence and lot on Punahou street. There is every convenience. Also, the entire household furniture.

There is going to be a doughnut party at the skating rink Friday night. Go and see the fun. The proprietor will not explain beforehand what it is to be like, but it will probably be a feast of oiled rolls, fried skates and broiled soles.

A VERY important horse race will take place at Kapiolani Park May 24th. It will be a 3/4 mile dash for a purse of $400, between H. J. Agnew's Eva, W. H. Cornwall's Maid E., Miles Bros.' Australian Filly and James Gay's Colonel Gift.

His Ex. the American Minister and Mrs. Daggett, His Ex. Gov. Dominis and Deputy Marshal Dayton, left Waialua shortly before noon to-day and will be in town this afternoon. They have had a very pleasant time in going round the island.

Quite a number of people went out to Kapiolani Park yesterday afternoon to witness the trotting race between the horses Joe Duke and Thomas H. The former won in three straight heats. Times, 2:45, 2:41 and 2:41 1/2. The track was rather heavy.

Miss Annis Montague and Mr. Chas. Turner will arrive by the next steamer from the Colonies. They will remain here a month and then proceed to the States, and probably to England. It is nearly five years since they left the Islands. Some fine musical entertainments may be looked for during their stay here.

The Post-office is just getting out a new specimen card of Hawaiian postage stamps. It embraces all the stamps issued from the office with the exception of the envelope stamps, though there is a vacant place for one of the latter, which ever is preferred. There is a large demand all over the world for our stamps.

COL. Sam Norris was booked to leave by the W. H. Dimond yesterday, and had even paid his passage money, but at the last moment he concluded not to go. He discovered that a number of lady passengers were going, and he feared he could not endure to see them sea-sick. Gallantry is a drawback with people whose hearts are too tender.

THE King's Own Volunteer Guards turned out yesterday afternoon in their new uniforms, in command of First Lieutenant C. H. Clark. They presented a very creditable appearance, and their new uniforms were much admired. Headed by the Royal Hawaiian Band they marched to the Palace and were inspected by His Majesty. Later on a lunch was served in the armory. His Majesty was present and several toasts were drunk.

THE Honolulu Rifles held a meeting last evening, when twelve new members were elected. Afterwards, a short drill took place under command of Capt. Aldrich. The following promotions have been made: 2d Sergeant F. W. Wood, to be Quarter Master Sergeant; 3d Sergeant S. J. Levey, to be 2d Sergeant; 4th Sergeant F. Godfrey, to be 3d Sergeant; 1st Corporal J. Simmons, to be 4th Sergeant; 2d Corporal W. T. Monsarrat, to be 1st Corporal. An examination for three corporals will be held shortly.

A FINE programme is being arranged for the regatta of the Honolulu Yacht and Boat Club, on the 28th. There will be seven events.

EMERSON'S Minstrels will give a grand matinee performance at Music Hall Saturday afternoon. The admission will be, adults 50 cents, children 25 cents.

A MEETING of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A. parlors. All ladies are cordially invited.

LYONS & Levey had quite a good attendance this morning at the sale of furniture at the residence of the late Capt. Oat. The articles offered brought fair prices.

HEREAFTER, Manager Thos. Wall of the skating rink, will be in personal attendance afternoons and evenings. The rink will be open to the general public this evening.

MESSRS. Hackfeld & Co. are sole agents in these islands for the New Zealand Frozen Meat and Storage Company, Auckland. This company's meats are the finest in the market.

THE following is the junior crew of the Myrtle Boat Club at present in training for the regatta on the 28th: J. L. Torbet, F. Whitney, W. McBride, W. T. Monsarrat, A. W. Carter, A. M. Brown and W. F. Love, coxswain. We are unable to find out anything about the senior crew.

A MEETING of the subscribers to the stock of the Kukaiau Plantation Co. was held Monday, when the Charter of Incorporation granted them was accepted and the following officers elected: President, H. F. Glade; Vice-President, J. M. Horner; Treasurer, J. F. Hackfeld; Auditor, A. Horner; Secretary, E. Muller.

WE are sorry to see that the crews of the Honolulu Boat Club are not taking so much interest in their coming regatta as they ought to. It seems as if the first crew was nibbling pretty thoroughly the bait held to them by the Myrtle boys, as there is no doubt the latter crew will enter the arena on the 28th inst., and, as usual, walk away with the spoils. The King's crew is in active training at Kalia. What's the matter with you, Honolulu? Brace up or you will most decidedly get left.

EMERSON'S minstrels had a large audience last evening and the performance gave great satisfaction. The programme was an entirely new one. There was a decided improvement in the music, Mr. Berger being at the piano and Mr. Reinhart leading with the violin. Billy Emerson was immense in his vocal selection, and also in the concluding piece, "One night in a bar room." The Cogill Bros., Walsh and King, as usual, delighted the audience. The programmes were perfumed with Benson, Smith & Co.'s celebrated Maile Cologne. The fifth performance will be given to-morrow evening.

POLICE COURT.

The following cases were heard and disposed of by Justice Bickerton in the Police Court this morning: Joe Helcluhi, a coachman, was fined $5 for heedless riding. H. A. Heen, for assault and battery on Mow Leong, was remanded until the 23d. Mr. Hartwell for prosecution and Messrs. Preston and Russell for defendant. Bila, for larceny of a bunch of bananas from a Chinaman, was sent over the reef for 40 days. Geo. Nawakoa, for assault and battery on a Chinaman, forfeited bail of $10.

The wild-looking Chinaman, See Wong, with the long hair, was brought up on a charge of vagrancy. Since he was arrested, Dr. Webb examined him and testified he was not insane. His Honor said the man needed a general cleaning up, and sent him to Capt. Tripp's stone mason for fifteen days.

Some of the native policemen are a little apt to exaggerate matters, and this was the case with No. 9, when he preferred a charge of heedless driving against Ah Fo, who drives a meat wagon for butcher Oliphant. It was proved that the horse couldn't travel any more than three miles an hour, and that with constant whipping. The animal could go to Waikiki and back in two hours and a half. Of course on such evidence the Chinaman was discharged, though His Honor told him to be careful.

Wahineaukea is a prisoner serving sentence at Oahu Jail. The other day he felt in need of a little cash, so sold the boots he was wearing to a native for 50 cents. Of course selling prison property is an offence which cannot be looked over, so Wahineaukea will have to serve an additional two months' imprisonment.

The Albany Argus thinks that if Tennyson's play is too long for the stage, as has been alleged, the stage should be enlarged.

"Neck or nothing," remarked the landlady as she handed that part of the chicken to the late boarder.—Boston Post.

The practice of a new and infamous kind of rascality has just been discovered in New York and Brooklyn. Dr. Bartley, a chemist, has detected butchers using Venetian red and other reds to give a bright color and other reds to head cheese and other meats that have lost their color by decomposition and have become unfit for food. These dyes usually contain arsenic.

"Ma," remarked young Johnnie Jarphly, "I heard Mr. Brown say he was going to put some more of his land in strawberries this year." "Gracious me, I hope not!" exclaimed Mrs. Jarphly. "There was enough of his land in those I bought of him last year."—Pittsburg Chronicle.

THE LATE COLONEL BURNABY.

Colonel Burnaby had a strong hankering after journalism, and has himself done good work in the field. He wrote some graphic letters for the Times during the last Carlist War. Of late years his special attachment has been to the Morning Post. Here again, one of the leading impulses of his life—the desire to help a friend—came into action. Sir Algernon Borthwick was a friend of his, and accordingly Burnaby both during the Russo-Turkish War and the operations in Egypt sent valuable contributions to the Post. He was a man who liked his dinner, and an interminable succession of cigars after it. But in order to do a service to a friend he scorned delights, and lived the laborious days of a special correspondent. Pay was pressed upon him, but he would take nothing but the satisfaction of having served a friend. Of late he was obliged to give up all kinds of violent exercise, and began to take on flesh, with other and more serious disadvantages to his health. It is only two years ago since the colonel and a friend were travelling in a railway carriage in Spain. There entered a German, who, as he passed, carelessly knocked down the hat of Burnaby's companion. As he made no apology the owner of the hat asked him to pick it up, whereat he gave a snort and sat down. Burnaby, quietly rising from the other side of the carriage, opened the door, took hold of the German by the collar of the coat and a convenient portion of the trousers, and just lifted him out of the carriage as if he were a basket. Then he quietly shut the door, resumed his seat, and lit a fresh cigar. There was a terrible row and some fussiness on the part of the police, but nothing more came of it. But though Burnaby had a giant's strength, he had for generosity and kindness a child's heart. Perhaps never before was so gentle a nature envied by what was, when the light of battle danced in his eyes, so fierce a giant.—Home News.

BILL NYE ON POLAR EXPEDITIONS.

Everything shows us that the summer is gone and the twilight of the year is settling down upon us. We begin to wonder whether we had better run the furnace this winter or take the money and buy Cuba so as to have a winter resort. Speaking about winter resorts, a military friend of mine writes me that he wouldn't ask anything better than a commission to make a trip in search of the open Polar Sea. He invites me to go. I thanked him for the invitation and asked him when he wanted his men picked, before or after the trip.

While I would like well enough to catch a few pickers in the open Polar Sea and breathe the crisp, pure air of no degrees and no minutes longitude due west of a given point, I am almost positive that I will dig the clinkers out of a large base burner this winter and write foamy, frothy, sunny, soothful poems for a dying world.

While no one would more cheerfully enter into the giddy whirl of Esquimaux society, or load his stomach with cod-liver oil and old harnesses and saddles with vinegar, in order that he might gratify a morbid curiosity as to whether the North Pole had a hot box or not, yet I shall not avail myself of the opportunity to go this winter.

While few could more joyously contemplate a life where it would take a ninety-day note a lifetime to mature, I am free to say that I would rather, at present, climb a tall tree until the payee gets by.—Denver Opinion.

MISCELLANY.

The English bishops have what would be termed in slang language a "soft thing." The bishop of London gets an annual salary of $50,000; of Durham, $35,000; of Winchester the same; of Ely, $37,500, and the others about $25,000. Even the nominal bishop of Sodor and Mann, who has neither cathedral nor dean, gets $10,000 a year for doing nothing.

The Rev. Dr. Sankey of Rochester, N. Y., returned from the Presbyterian Council at Belfast, is reported to have said: "I believe the Presbyterian churches of England, Scotland and Ireland are tending toward ritualism very rapidly. This is especially so in the Scottish churches, surprising as it may seem."

The latest surveys of the tract proposed to be occupied by the great inland sea to be created in North Africa, under the auspices of M. de Lesseps, indicate that this now arid region was once covered by a large estuary of the Mediterranean, which was cut off by a prehistoric upheaval of the coast, laying the foundation for the slow conversion into desert that has since taken place. Traces of the ancient water-courses have been discovered and followed for leagues.

WHAT IS THIS DISEASE THAT IS COMING UPON US?

Like a thief at night it steals in upon us unawares. Many persons have pains about the chest and sides, and sometimes in the back. They feel dull and sleepy; the mouth has a bad taste, especially in the morning. A sort of sticky slime collects about the teeth. The appetite is poor. There is a feeling like a heavy load on the stomach; sometimes a faint all-gone sensation at the pit of the stomach which food does not satisfy. The eyes are sunken, the hands and feet become cold and feel clammy. After a while a cough sets in at first dry, but after a few months it is attended with a greenish coloured expectoration. The afflicted one feels tired all the while, and sleep does not seem to afford any rest. After a time he becomes nervous, irritable, and gloomy, and loses evil forebodings. There is a giddiness, a sort of whirling sensation in the head when rising up suddenly. The bowels become constipated; the skin is dry and hot at times; the blood becomes thick and stagnant; the whites of the eyes become tinged with yellow, the urine is scanty and high-coloured, depositing a sediment after standing. There is frequently a spitting up of the food, sometimes with a sour taste, and sometimes with a sweetish taste; this is frequently attended with palpitation of the heart; the vision becomes impaired with spots before the eyes; there is a feeling of great prostration and weakness. All of these symptoms are in turn present. It is thought that nearly one-third of our population has this disease in some of its varied forms. It has been found that medical men have mistaken the nature of this disease. Some have treated it for a liver complaint, others for kidney disease, etc., but none of the various kinds of treatment have been attended with success, because the remedy should be such as to act harmoniously upon each one of these organs, and upon the stomach as well; for in dyspepsia (for this is really what the disease is) all of these organs partake of this disease and require a remedy that will act upon all at the same time. Seigel's Curative Syrup acts like a charm in this class of complaints, giving almost immediate relief. The following letters from chemists of standing in the community where they live show in what estimation the article is held.

John Archer, Harthill, near Sheffield:—I can confidently recommend it to all who may be suffering from liver or stomach complaints, having the testimony of my customers, who have derived great benefit from the Syrup and Pills. The sale is increasing wonderfully.

Geo. A. Webb, 141, York Street, Belfast:—I have sold a large quantity, and the parties have testified to its being what you represent it.

J. S. Metcalfe, 55, Highgate, Kendal:—I have always great pleasure in recommending the Curative Syrup, for I have never known a case in which it has not relieved or cured, and I have sold many gross.

Robt. G. Gould, 27, High Street, Andover:—I have always take a great interest in your medicines and I have recommended them, as I have found numerous cases of cure from their use.

Thomas Chapman, West Auckland:—I find that the trade steadily increases. I sell more of your medicines than any other kind.

Frickheim, Arbroath, Forfarshire, Sept. 23, 1882. Dear Sir,—Last year I sent you a letter recommending Mother Seigel's Syrup. I have very much pleasure in still bearing testimony to the very satisfactory results of the famous Syrup and Pills. Most patent medicines die out with me, but Mother Seigel has had a steady sale ever since I commenced, and is still in as great demand as when I first began to sell the medicine. The cures which have come under my notice are chiefly those of liver complaint and general debility.

N. Darroll, Clun, Salop:—All who buy it are pleased, and recommend it.

Jos. Balkwill, A. P. S., Kingsbridge:—The public seem to appreciate their great value.

A. Amstetel, Market Street, Dalton-in-Furness:—It is needless for me to say that your valuable medicines have great sale in this district—greater than any other I know of, giving great satisfaction.

Robt. Laine, Melksham:—I can well recommend the Curative Syrup from having proved its efficacy for indigestion myself.

A certain minister in my neighbourhood says it is the only thing which has benefited him and restored him to his normal condition of health after being unable to preach for a considerable length of time. I could mention also a great many other cases, but space would not allow. A near friend of mine, who is very much addicted to costiveness, or constipation, finds that Mother Seigel's Pills are the only pills which suit his complaint. All other pills cause a reaction which is very annoying. Mother Seigel's Pills do not leave a bad after-effect. I have much pleasure in commending again to suffering humanity Mother Seigel's medicines, which are no sham. If this letter is of any service you can publish it.

(Signed) William S. Glass, Chemist. A. J. White, Esq. 15th August, 1883. Dear Sir,—I write to tell you that Mr. Henry Hillier, of Yatesbury, Wilts, informs me that he suffered from a severe form of indigestion for upwards of four years, and took no end of doctor's medicine without the slightest benefit, and declares Mother Seigel's Syrup which he got from me has saved his life. Yours truly, (Signed) N. Webb, Mr. White. Chemist, Calne.

Macneale & Urban Safes!

Honolulu, Jan. 11, 1885. C. O. BERGER, Esq., Agent Macneale & Urban Safes. DEAR SIR, It is with great pleasure that I add my testimony to the Fire-Proof qualities of your Safes. I had a small single door Macneale & Urban Safe in last night's terrible fire, and, on opening the same this morning, found its contents—consisting of books, papers, and money to the amount of $1040—in PERFECT CONDITION. I am so well satisfied with the result that I want another No. 3 Safe at once. Yours truly, GEO. M. RAUPP, Germania Market.
