TREATY TALK.

Some interesting discussion of the Hawaiian treaty, in the East and on the Coast, is brought by the last mail. The following from the San Francisco Post is clear and strong on the benefits of the treaty to California, and the plain duty of that State's representatives with regard to the attempt being made at abolition. The article appeared on March 18 under the head, "Our Representatives:—"

Representatives Morrow and Felton, it is said, favor the continuance of the Hawaiian treaty. This is natural, as they are in closer connection than their colleagues, with the merchants of this city who form the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade. Representatives McKenna and Henley are said to be opposed to the treaty. If Mr. McKenna's constituents, who are largely engaged in agriculture, studied up the final destination of the produce they raise, they would not lose any time in laying their side of the case before their member. Mr. McKenna is evidently acting without full knowledge of the far reaching benefits of this treaty. This reminds us that some time ago, the editor of an important journal, published in one of the wealthiest river counties, and who had evidently been reading the San Francisco Chronicle, violently denounced the treaty as of no benefit to this State. He met one of his subscribers next day, a man who is not only one of the largest farmers in California, but one of the most respected of our citizens. "Hello! my friend," said the farmer, "you are opposed to the Hawaiian treaty." "Yes," said the editor, "it is injurious to the State." "Don't make any such mistake, my good fellow. Do you know where all our light weight mules go and how much forage we send after them every month? If you want to befriend your county, stand up for that treaty." And the editor has never said a word, we believe, against the treaty since. So it only needs some of Mr. McKenna's farming friends to trace out where so much of what they raise, outside of wheat, is finally consumed or used, and enlighten that gentleman, and he will not, we know, willingly do anything to injure his own constituents. As for the Hon. Barclay Henley, he is, or supposes himself to be, the friend of Barclay Henley, and we never heard of his showing much true friendship for any one else. If Mr. Henley's interests run or seem to run counter to those of his constituents, or he has a grudge to gratify, the worse for those constituents, and that grudge will be gratified to the extent of his small ability. Representatives Markham and Louttit are said to be non-committal; wise men wait for information before deciding on which side to cast their vote. The latter has got one of "the right sows by the ear." He sees, we learn, the importance of the treaty as a political and military measure. If he studies the matter further, he will find the commercial benefits of the treaty almost equally so to the Pacific Coast.

A clipped paragraph has been handed us from the same paper, which says:—

It is time California bestirred herself, or the Hawaiian treaty will be so overshadowed by Searles and the Chronicle, that Congress will vote in favor of abrogation.

In connection with the freight war between the Atlantic and Pacific, the "Shipping and Commercial List and New York Price Current" says:—

One result of this contest has been to bring refined sugar from the Pacific Coast into the Chicago market in competition with the product of Eastern refineries. Granulated has been offered there at 6 cents f. o. b. San Francisco, with 3 1/2 cent freight, which was about 1/2 cent under the price here with considerable sales made last week, but since then the agents of Mr. Spreckels have withdrawn, and cancelled some of their sales, probably because of a threatened contest with Eastern refiners, which was not desirable so long as the abrogation of the Hawaiian treaty is under discussion in Congress. The opponents of this treaty could scarcely ask for a stronger argument in their favor than the fact that it rendered possible such an unequal contest, which was in the nature of a blow at one of the most important of industries, and likewise a menace to one of the largest sources of revenue to the Government. Certainly the consumers of sugar derive no direct benefit from the operation of this treaty, for, notwithstanding that the bulk of the raw material worked up on the Pacific coast pays no duty, the market price of refined sugar is uniformly above this market, and yet the cost of manufacture there is no greater than it is here.

The San Francisco Merchant has another able article, showing that the commercial interests of California are entirely with the treaty, and that the opposition to it is dictated by Eastern monopolists who desire to control the trade of the Pacific Coast as well as that of the rest of the country.

A Washington despatch of March 19 gives an account of the matter before the Ways and Means Committee, as follows:—

The Committee on Ways and Means took up the Hawaiian Reciprocity Treaty this morning for consideration. Mills of Texas read the report of the sub-committee, which took strong ground in favor of the resolution to abrogate the treaty. He reviewed the discussion of 1876, when the treaty was under consideration. He stated that the arguments in favor of the adoption of the treaty at that time were, first, that it would stimulate exports from this country to the islands and thus greatly help our trade, and, secondly, that it would give this country a political advantage over other countries with reference to the islands.

The report states that for the six years previous to the adoption of the treaty 65 per cent. of the trade between this country and the islands consisted of imports and 35 per cent. of exports. For the nine years from 1877 to 1885, inclusive, the imports were 69 per cent. and the exports were 31 per cent. It is apparent from this statement that our side of the trade has not grown so fast as was anticipated by the friends of the measure when it was before Congress for adoption. The exports relatively have steadily decreased, and for the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1885, the trade stands still worse against the United States, the imports being 76 per cent. of the trade and the exports 24 per cent. This enormous balance of trade against us is paid by this country in money to the sugar planters, some of whom live on the islands and others in the United States, England and Germany.

The claim was made, the report adds, by friends of the treaty in 1875 that the people on the Pacific Coast would get their sugar cheaper under it. For a number of years before the treaty the price of granulated sugar was practically the same in New York and San Francisco, but since the treaty was made, instead of being cheaper in San Francisco, as predicted, it has been from 1 to 2 cents higher. It is evident, the report says, that we gain nothing commercially from the treaty. The articles which the islands import from us they will continue to import whether the treaty is abrogated or continued. They cannot obtain lumber, cattle and breadstuffs so cheap in England as they can in this country, and they will continue to buy in the cheapest market. They cannot afford to put a prohibitory duty on such necessary articles which they cannot produce. The bounty given by our Government out of the public Treasury of the Hawaiian sugar producers has stimulated very greatly the growth of population and wealth in the islands, and of course has stimulated considerably our export trade; but when we see by the returns that we have remitted revenues amounting to more than $22,000,000 since the treaty went into effect, while our exports for the same time amount to about the same sum, it would seem that we had paid rather dearly for our bargain.

The report further says that much stress was laid on the argument of 1876 that this country would gain much under the treaty in the event of war between this country and any European or Asiatic power. It was then claimed that we would have the benefit of a harbor for our fleets and coaling stations to supply our vessels, and that the American influence in the island would predominate. As for the coaling stations and the harbor, the treaty contains no provision of that kind. Since the treaty was adopted American influence has steadily declined. The report concludes by saying that the treaty operates injuriously to the people of the United States and ought to be abrogated.

After the report was made the committee entered into a discussion of the subject, the Democrats generally taking ground in favor of the abrogation of the treaty and the Republicans in favor of continuing it. It was decided to ask the Secretary of the Treasury for his notes on its operation. The subject will be taken up again for final consideration.

A memorial to the Ways and Means Committee from the merchants of San Francisco, in favor of the continuation of the treaty, occupies two columns of very fine print in the Alta. It concludes: "A wise public policy made the treaty; a wise public policy will continue it if private interests are to be subordinated to the public good." The Alta has an article refuting at length the assertions of Searles, who heads the lobby in Washington against the treaty. It shows that individual's motive in the fact that he is a New York sugar refiner, and lays stress on the absolute purity of Hawaiian sugars, while being particularly severe on the deleterious products of Eastern refineries, adulterated heavily, as it alleges, with glucose.

VESSELS LEAVING TO-MORROW.

Star Iwalani for Kauai... Star Jas Makee for Waianae...

VESSELS IN PORT.

Bk Cap. Christiansen... Bk Elsinore, Jenks... Bk Hope, Penhallow...

PASSENGERS.

From San Francisco, per S S Zealandia, April 3rd—G. P. Castle, C. H. Judd, Jr., Mrs. Anna McCully, A. Burt, J. T. Ballard, F. Hermans, N. Burt, Mrs. H. A. Coleman and son, Miss J. C. Barnes, W. H. Bailey, Dr. L. B. Dayton, Miss Ballard, 11 European and 107 Chinese steerage.

SHIPPING NOTES.

The Oceanic Steamship Zealandia, Captain Oterendorp. Left San Francisco March 27th, at 4:30 P.M. Experienced fine weather throughout entire voyage.

Steamer Kilanea Hou arrived yesterday morning from Windward with 2,500 bags sugar, and 35 cattle. Purser Farr reports plenty of rain and pretty good weather along Hamakua coast.

Steamer Caterina brought 500 bags of sugar, and 25 bbls molasses from Hamalei yesterday.

Steamer Jas Makee sails to-morrow at 8 A.M. for Waianae only.

Schooner Rainbow brought 47 bbls of molasses from Koolau yesterday. The captain reports strong trade winds.

The 1300 bags of sugar that came by the Dowsett Saturday P.M. were put in the Pacific Navigation Co's warehouse for the bark C. B. Kinney.

The bark Lady Lamson is 15 days out to-day from San Francisco for this port.

The Ella and Eureka sailed from San Francisco for this port on the same day the Zealandia sailed.

The bgtne J. D. Spreckels sailed from San Francisco for this port March 26th.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS.

MILLIS and his mannikins make the multitude merry again tonight.

MESSRS. DAVIS & WILDER have received per Zealandia fresh vegetables, fish, etc. on ice.

A FINE painting in oil, by Tavernier, of the Volcano as it is, can be seen at J. Williams', Fort Street.

HAWAII won the initial baseball match of the season on Saturday, beating the Benedict Club 1 to 12.

A DETACHMENT of the King's Own volunteer company attended the Bishop's service at 9:30 yesterday morning.

THE Yosemite Skating Rink will be closed until next Friday evening, to allow carpenters to put the floor in perfect order.

THE Portland "Oregonian" of March 18th contains a notice of the death of Mrs. Yardley, mother of Mr. J. W. Yardley, of this city.

WINSTON & BURKE leave by the Zealandia for San Francisco, Friday, and will return to Honolulu on a sailing vessel with another drove of hogs.

G. A. FELLOWES, a comparatively recent arrival here, died on Friday last of some brain affection, and was buried on the following day with masonic ceremonial.

A PORTION of J. M. Oat, Junr., & Co.'s English paper and Magazine mail was lost in the steamer Oregon. Probably letters due some people here may have met the same fate.

THE following names of new comers are registered at the Hawaiian Hotel:—J. G. Forsyth, L. P. Dayton, I. T. Ballard, Mrs. Ballard, F. Hermans, M. Burt, A. Burt, C. Putnam, and Mrs. Putnam.

IMPORTERS are reminded that the next mail to the Coast will be the last opportunity of forwarding orders to New York for goods by the vessel to be despatched by W. H. Grossman & Bros., about the 15th of May.

TWO Chinamen were arrested with opium in possession on arrival of the steamer Iwalani at Nawiliwili, Kauai, on Wednesday last. They were tried in the Local Court, and fined, respectively, $125 and $150, with costs.

THE low rate of freights between San Francisco and the East has induced Eastern people to send fresh apples to San Francisco, some of which were sent from the latter place to Lewis & Co., of this city, by the Zealandia.

LITTLE Rowena Dowsett was eight years old on Saturday last, and she invited her little friends for miles around to come and be happy with her on that day. They did come and were happy, and manifested their happiness in ways natural to innocent childhood.

A SAN FRANCISCO paper intimates that Luke G. Sresovich, of that city, has begun to import bananas from Havana by the way of New Orleans. The fruit of a sample shipment arrived in excellent condition, the article being pronounced fully equal to anything yet imported.

HARRY BYNG reports that this new barber shop, corner of King and Alakea streets, was besieged, on Saturday evening, by persons in search of the small boy, for whom a big reward had been offered. Harry is sure he can be found there, and wishes the search to be continued.

NEGOTIATIONS are in progress for a dramatic season of three or four weeks in the Hawaiian Opera House, by Mr. Joseph Grismer, Phoebe Davis his wife, and about half a dozen supporters. This couple has a high reputation on the American stage and with good assistance should give our people some satisfactory drama.

MR. JOHN BROWN, formerly connected with the press of Honolulu, for several months past engaged on the Kilanea Sugar Plantation, Kauai, was seized with an apoplectic fit, last Saturday morning. Dr. Campbell was in attendance, but consciousness had not returned up to the time of the steamer's leaving, about 1:30 P.M.

E. A. BROKAW, who has unsatisfied monetary obligations in Honolulu, is before the San Francisco courts on two charges of forgery. On one forged check he got $31.50 from William Crooks, formerly of Honolulu. It appears, by other cases heard of, that Brokaw has looked up on visitors from these Islands as his regular prey.

THE Zealandia will leave on her return for San Francisco next Friday, probably at noon. Intending visitors to the Coast should secure passage in her, because the Alameda, which will follow a day or two later, had her entire passenger accommodation monopolized before leaving the Colonies, according to telegraphic information.

WILLIAMS, DIMOND & Co.'s circular per Zealandia indicates the San Francisco sugar market unchanged. The New York market was still dull and declining, although a slight advance was noted in centrifugals, that were 5.50 for 96 percent. Owing to heavy receipts of Eastern rice, the importers of the Hawaiian article have sold freely at 4 1/2c. cash to 4 3/4c. 60 days.

J. C. COOKE, an old whaling captain, who first visited these Islands over thirty years ago, and has been permanently residing here a good many years past, died rather suddenly yesterday morning, at his residence, on King street. He was removing a small branch of a tree that had fallen near his house, when he experienced a sensation of faintness, and at once sat on the ground to save himself from falling. His wife and others came to his assistance, and carried him into the house. An hour after he expired, perfectly conscious to the last. Captain Cooke was a Massachusetts man, and about 4 years of age at the time of death. He was buried in the Makiki cemetery this morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. J. A. Cruzan officiating.

THE VENTRILOQUIST KING.

Mr. Fred. Millis was again greeted with a full house on Saturday evening. Though suffering from a cold, caught, likely, on his recent tour of the islands, his performances were, as on former occasions, of the first order. The audience was kept in almost continuous outbursts of laughter, at the supremely ludicrous character impersonations, while the feats of ventriloquism served to add to the entertainment a wholesome sprinkling of the marvellous. Mr. Millis, in "The Young Scapgrace at His Sister's Wedding," executes absolutely instantaneous transformations from the young scapgrace to the old man, and vice versa. The representation of the timid gentleman, with the song "Skating on the Rink," was introduced for the first time, and was only too well acted, and though highly amusing, was so suggestive to many of his audience, of scenes in real life, that it was not perhaps received so enthusiastically as it would otherwise have been. The side-splitting character farce "Come and Mind the Baby, John," was performed even better than on previous occasions. The Sydney policeman, with song, "Are You There Moriarity?" was an admirable piece of burlesque, and produced uproarious merriment. The masterpiece of the evening was the ventriloquial song, "The Bay of Biscay," sung out in bold and clear tones, through the merry mannikin, Terence O'Reilly, and was enthusiastically encored, upon which "McCarty's Mare" was trotted out. A duet, per Terence O'Reilly and Sarah Walker, was greeted with an encore, accompanied by a call for "Lah-de-dah," which was responded to. Several fresh local hits were introduced, and the performance throughout was a decided success.

SUPREME COURT--APRIL TERM.

MONDAY, April 5th. The Court opened at 10 o'clock, at Alolani Hale, Mr. Justice McCully presiding. The docket contains 47 cases, five to be tried by a Hawaiian, seven by a mixed and fifteen by a foreign jury. There are six criminal cases, one of which will be tried by the Hawaiian, the others by the foreign jury. Of the cases on the docket, nine are divorces; and sundry cases, to the number of twelve, including two criminal appeals from the Honolulu Police Court, are to be tried in banco.

ALAIU was arraigned on the charge of burglary. He pleaded guilty, and asked the mercy of the Court. The sentence passed was one year's imprisonment at hard labor to begin at expiration of existing sentences. The first jury case called was J. M. Horner vs. Claus Spreckels, assumpsit. Austin and Dole for plaintiffs, Neumann and Hatch for defendants. The following named jurors were empanelled and sworn: T. M. Starkey, W. F. Allen, Godfrey Brown, W. C. Wilder, G. T. McLean, T. G. Thurm, G. West, L. Way, J. G. Spencer, A. Jaeger, Frank Brown and A. Young, Jr.

FOREIGN NEWS.

(San Francisco, March 27th, per S. S. Zealandia.)

UNITED STATES.

Grain speculators have brought to their serious attention the fact that, during January and February, the importations of East India wheat into the English markets, for the first time, exceeded those from the United States. The exact figures are: From India, 2,249,867 centals; from the United States, 1,312,154 centals. Russia and Germany are increasing their shipments of the same commodity.

A valuable mineral-bearing ledge, three miles long, has been discovered in the towns of Peru and Worthington, near Springfield, Mass. This ledge contains two parallel veins of gold and silver.

The Apaches have been completely routed near the Mexican border, and Gen. Crook has started to receive the unconditional surrender of Geronimo and his whole band.

Extensive strikes, under the auspices of local assemblies of the Knights of Labor, are reported from many points. With regard to the great railway strike centering in St. Louis, Grand Master Workman, Mr. Powderly, after consultation with other members of the Executive Board in New York, announced that on the 27th they would submit this proposition to Mr. Gould, viz: "Let him appoint a committee of three and we will appoint a similar committee, then let these gentlemen select a seventh, they to investigate the whole affair and make recommendations, and we will agree to abide by their decision. We will not ask for the retention of any man who has been guilty of an act of violence to either person or property, for we are not organized to promote or shield wrongdoing." In a circular to the order Mr. Powderly threatens to resign his office unless the local assemblies cease placing him and the society in a false position by carrying on boycotts and strikes, both of which are contrary to the principles of the Knights. He says: "Those who boast must be checked by their assemblies. No move must be made until the court of last resort be appealed to. Threats and violence must not be made. The politicians must be hushed up or driven out. Obedience to the laws of Knighthood must have preference over those of any other order. If these things are done the next five years will witness the complete emancipation of mankind from the curse of monopoly. In our members we require secrecy, obedience, assistance, patience and courage. If, with these aids, you strengthen my hands I will continue in the work. If you do not desire to assist me in this way, then select a man better qualified to obey your will and I will retire in his favor." The Emperor of Japan has sent $500 as a contribution to the Grant Monument fund, and "in token of the high estimation in which he holds the memory of the illustrious deceased."

TRANSATLANTIC.

The temperance party in the British House of Commons number 300 strong, and have determined to organize. If they act together they can force their views on any Ministry.

The German ambassador in London has officially notified the British Foreign Office that the Marshall, Brown and Providence Islands have been placed under the protection of Germany.

Mr. Gladstone has promised the introduction of a bill on April 8th, for the future government of Ireland. This announcement produced a sensation in Parliament. The Government's supporters have been privately assured that the Government's Irish programme has been settled by the Cabinet. The home rule measure will be introduced first, followed immediately by the Irish land bill. Both measures, if passed by the House of Commons, will be presented to the House of Lords together. Chamberlain and Trevelyan will remain in the Cabinet until the home rule bill has been tabled.

REGULAR Meeting of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M. will take place THIS EVENING at 7:30 P.M. Visiting brethren are cordially invited. Per order, W. JOHNSON, Sec'y.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that neither the Captain nor the Owners of the German bark APOLLO will be responsible for any debts contracted by the crew of said vessel at this port. H. HACKFELD & CO., Agents. Honolulu, April 3, 1886.

IT affords us great pleasure to testify that we are highly satisfied with the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company's route to the Volcano. We believe it to be the best and most convenient, and have much pleasure in recommending it to the notice of intending tourists. We have looked over the pamphlet written about this road, and everything stated in the same fully corresponds with the reality, without being overdrawn.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States.

ESTABLISHED IN 1859.

ISSUES Policies on the most approved plans, viz:—Ordinary Life, Life, Limited Payments, Endowments, Tontine Savings Fund, Tontines, Semi-Tontines; A. B. C. Tontines; Life and Survivorship Annuities; Children's Endowments, Joint Life Risks, Partnership Insurance, etc., etc., etc.

Policies both Incontestable and Non-forfeitable. Contested claims, none. Before insuring elsewhere, call and get an estimate. It is calculated that every reasonable wish of the insured is embodied in one or more of the plans. For full particulars and pamphlets, apply to

STATEMENT.

THE undersigned, a Committee of Directors of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States, appointed to formulate the views of the Board on the advantages offered by the Society to the public, report:

1st—The Society issues all the approved forms of assurance, including Ordinary Life, Endowment and Tontine policies. It is immaterial to the Directors which form of policy is taken by intending assurers.

2d—The Life and Endowment forms of policy provide for annual cash dividends and a surrender value; are indisputable after three years and payable immediately after proof of death.

3d—The premiums on a Tontine policy are the same as on the Ordinary Life, but, while the latter is only payable in the event of death, the holder of the Tontine policy has the right to draw the whole of the reserve and the accumulated profits in cash at the end of a stated period; thus, during his own lifetime, after his producing years are past, he can, without any larger premium than on an ordinary policy, secure these greater advantages.

4th—Experience shows that the return paid in cash on maturing Tontine policies approximates to or exceeds the amount of premiums paid by policyholders, so that the average cost of the assurance will be only about the interest on the premiums.

5th—Tontine policies, like others, are paid in full in the event of death at any time during the term of the policy, and are incontestable after three years, and payable immediately after due proof of death.

6th—Experience shows that the mortality is lower among Tontine policyholders, as the better lives seek this kind of assurance, which is a considerable source of profit.

7th—Tontine policies will be made non-forfeitable under the laws of the State, if so desired at the time the assurance is effected.

8th—The Tontine system is fair and just; its accounts are accurately kept, separate from all other business; the funds judiciously invested and improved, and the accumulated profits faithfully guarded and properly apportioned.

9th—The Society has since its organization transacted a larger amount of new business than any other company, while its new business for the first half of the present year is $1,750,000 larger than that of the first half of 1884. It has Assets of $60,000,000; over $14,000,000 of Surplus, and its ratio of Surplus to Liability is greater than that of any other company.
