NOT RESPONSIBLE.

"Judge, I think you ought to let me go," said John Hamilton yesterday, when called upon to plead to a charge of having been drunk.

"Why?" asked the Judge. "If you had not been drunk it is not likely that the officer would have brought you here."

"I dare say, Judge, that I was drunk; but it was not my fault if I was in that condition."

"Whose fault was it?"

"Well, you see, Judge, I was foolish enough to make a meal of salt mackerel, boiled ham and corned beef and cabbage last night, and—"

"What has that got to do with your not being at fault for becoming intoxicated?" asked the Judge, interrupting the prisoner.

"I'll tell you, Judge, if you'll wait a minute. You see I forget all about the fact that Spring Valley had shut down the water supply, or I wouldn't have eaten that salt dinner. However, it made me very thirsty, and when I went to get a drink of water—water is my usual drink—I found the faucet dry, and to quench my thirst I had to take something strong from a black bottle. So you see Spring Valley is to blame for this."

The Judge scratched his head for a moment, muttered something that sounded like "Too thin," and ordered Hamilton imprisoned for twenty four hours.

The country editor now takes up his pen to say: "We have received from Hon. Fixem Perkins, member of Congress, several very valuable public documents, for which he will please accept our thanks." Then he lays it down again and calls out to the office boy: "Here, John; throw these into the waste-paper barrel," adding to himself: "Old junk's increasing pretty fast these days—great country, great country."

THE EVILS OF PAINTING And their Remedy.

"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual.

Believing the above to be true, A. B. KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. MAX KOHN, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade.

The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. GEO. STRATMEYER, (further comment unnecessary.) P.S.—Send for designs of frescos for ceiling and cornices. Something new; and if you want any glass put in call at have advertised for some time that they will hold their first annual show in June, but in order to make it a success it is necessary that there should be exhibits at the show. The varied and extensive list of prizes, already made public shows that the Committee have carefully thought over all the classes of exhibits which it would be proper to have at their exhibit. It now remains for the public to show that they appreciate the care and expense which has been gone to by the gentlemen who have interested themselves in the matter, by getting ready to exhibit whatever they can that will add to the interest or value of the exhibition.

It is not necessary here to dilate on the many advantages that will accrue not only to exhibitors, but to the whole population of the islands, from successful shows of this kind, or to do more than briefly allude to the healthy spirit of rivalry in improvement of agriculture and horticulture that the competition will call forth. What we have most at heart at present is to say that the list of exhibits for which prizes are offered is of so varied and comprehensive a nature that there is hardly a man, woman or child in the kingdom but that possesses something they can exhibit. Those who have not cattle, horses, sheep or swine, may have poultry; those who have no dairy produce may have mats, kapa, hats, or calabashes; those who do not grow sugar, coffee, rice or taro, may have roses, ferns, geraniums, or fuschias; while those who do not even grow flowers or fruits may gather them, and having arranged them in a bouquet, receive a prize for that.

Slight as has been our resumé of the articles for which prizes are offered, it will be seen that there is hardly a class of objects connected with agriculture or horticulture which is not represented. It remains therefore for our readers and their friends to select in what class or classes they will compete for prizes, and to set to work immediately to make sure, as far as possible, of getting that prize. We wish to all every success that should attend on perseverance.

BURGLARY.

A daring attempt at burglary was discovered yesterday morning. Messrs. Castle & Cooke's premises were entered during the night of the 4th, or early in the morning of the 5th inst. On Wednesday night the premises were securely locked up, as usual, and the different employees went home. On returning yesterday morning the back door and the iron shutter of one cellar window near to it were found opened, from the inside. On entering the building it was found that most determined efforts had been made to get the cash-drawers open, but unsuccessfully. Apparently nothing was missing from the stock. From this fact it appears to have been the work of some one who had observed where the money was kept, and a native youth, who was hanging round the establishment all day, is suspected. The one cash drawer is in the shop, and this is locked by a complicated system of levers, which the burglar failed to master. He then tried to cut the wood-work through, but gave it up after considerable hacking. He next went to the cash drawer in the office, and succeeding in wrenching off the brass handle of the drawer and in breaking the lock, so that its key would not open it. This did not succeed so here; as before, he attempted to cut open the wood-work, and after spoiling considerable part of the mouldings of the handsome desk in which the drawer is, he gave up the attempt and went away, probably being disturbed at his nefarious work. He used a strong iron pincers, taken from another room, in his efforts to force the drawer open.

It is surmised that he opened the iron cellar shutter, which only opens from inside, after the boys had fastened it, and then slipped out before the shop was fastened up for the night. This would leave him an easy mode of ingress.

LOCAL & GENERAL ITEMS.

His Majesty paid a visit to the S. S. Oceanic yesterday.

The Chinese, brought by the Oceanic, were landed at the Quarantine Station yesterday.

We notice that our contemporary the Press has succeeded in persuading the U. S. Consul to get a new flag. It was time.

It appears that the donation of ice cream to the patients of Queen's Hospital on Sunday last, was made by the Trustees of the Lunalilo Home.

At the annual meeting of the Deutscher Verein the following gentlemen were elected officers for the ensuing term: President, W. Maertens; Vice-President, C. O. Berger; Secretary and Treasurer, E. Kruse. We hope they will have a lively time.

Messrs. Lyons & Levey will hold a sale of Engravings, Chromos, Fancy Articles, &c., &c., to-morrow evening, at 7 o'clock at their sales-room.

The jury, in the case of Hailama Kamekona and Kaai, who were tried at the Supreme Court for the manslaughter of Paioia, brought in a verdict of guilty of assault and battery. The prisoners were then remanded till to-day for sentence.

At 3:30 p.m. yesterday Mr. Davies' house and grounds on Nuuanu Avenue were thrown open for the reception and welcome to the Bishop of Honolulu. The Band was present and played some beautiful selections. We give fuller particulars to-morrow.

Messrs. Ehlers & Co. are showing just now some very natty gents' underwear in silk finished Balbriggan and Lisle suits, in patterns of stripes and plain colors. Even socks are shown to match. Scarlet medicated suits are also much worn and robes de nuit with fronts, cuffs and collars, elaborately patterned are the latest style. Pajama sets are also shown.

At 3:15 p.m. yesterday afternoon the tug Pele conveyed a large number of passengers to the steamer Oceanic, lying outside the harbor and bound to San Francisco. Amongst those who went, a full list of which appears in another column, was Judge McCully, who takes a well earned vacation of six months, during which he will make an extended tour in America and Europe.

In days gone by a loan was authorized and bonds issued under it for six months. The question was raised at that time as to whether a re-issue could be made of these bonds, or whether they were already a complete issue under the meaning of the Act. The latter was then decided to be the case. We hear, however, that this decision has been reversed, and that the Government are about to borrow money, some say at 9 per cent.

The Custom-House officer has come out in a new light; as a Censor Morum. Whilst a P. and O. steamship was discharging her cargo, a box was broken open, and revealed to the chaste eyes of one of Her Majesty's officials several slabs on which the female form divine was depicted with beauty unadorned. The said official promptly seized them all, labelled them "Indecent," and confiscated them. But his zeal for a good cause cooled somewhat later on, when the case was found to be a consignment of antique marbles for the Marquess of Ribon.

If the provisions of the French expulsion commission be adopted, the King of the Belgians will be affected by it, and His Majesty will be unable to cross the French frontier, as the bill applies to all descendants of those who have reigned in France, and King Leopold II, belongs to the Orleans family. This is a contresens that was not thought of.

Something for Everybody—a new discovery, The Magnesio-Calcite Fire Proof Safes, Jewel Cases and Bond Cases.

 At a test of the fire proof qualities of the Magnesio-Calcite, held on the sand-lot near the City Hall, San Francisco, Nov. 27th, a pile of about a cord of pitch-pine wood was prepared, and five gallons of tar poured over it. A small iron chest, with a 1 1/2 inch lining of Magnesio-calcite was placed in the centre of the pile and the mass set fire to. After the chest had been kept at a red heat for an hour, it was taken from the fire, cooled with water, and opened, and the contents, consisting of papers and circulars, were found in a perfect state of preservation, being not at all discolored, only slightly warm, and having a trifling smell of smoke.
 We, the undersigned, were present at the above test, and saw the box opened, and we certify to the perfect preservation of its contents. The entire test was perfectly satisfactory to us. H. L. DODGE, (of Dodge, Sweeney & Co.); C. H. LATON, and others.
 A public test of the quality of these goods will be made at an early date.
