SHIPPING NOTES.

The U. S. S. Pensacola was coaling yesterday. She sails for Japan immediately after the arrival of the next mail from San Francisco.

The Portuguese banana growers were rejoicing over the arrival of the steamer.

The S. S. City of New York brought 2 boxes of sovereigns £10 000, 300 sbs of potatoes, and 125 pkgs of miscellaneous goods, 4085 pkgs in transit.

Mr. R. Sterling went to Waianae last Tuesday, per stmr C. R. Bishop to inspect the wharf there. He returned yesterday morning per Jas. Makee.

The bktnr Eureka will sail for Puget Sound some time next week.

Stmr Jas Makee bro't 2035 bgs paddy.

By the Jas Makee we hear that all the mills on the windward side of Kauai have stopped for the present.

The rigging of the schr Waimalu will be overhauled to day.

The s.s. City of New York took 5211 bgs sugar, 549 bgs rice, 1865 bgs paddy, 1315 bunches of bananas, and 23 pkgs of leaves; total domestic value $39,584.66.

A most remarkable seafaring coincidence occurred on July 30, in the almost simultaneous arrival of the barques Otago (Captain Davison) and Christine (Captain Wilfang) from Melbourne, after an eight months' tour of the globe. They both left originally for St. Vincent's Gulf together, and thence within a few hours of each other for Algoa Bay, South Africa. In January last the Christine left Port Pirie, and the Otago Port Augusta; both were in Algoa Bay together, and left there in company for Mauritius, arriving at their destination within three days of each other. They were chartered there by the same agents Blyth Brothers and Co., and once more quitted the same bay on the same day, bound for the same port. They kept in company nearly the whole way, bound each for Melbourne, and passed Cape Otway on the same day, arriving at Melbourne almost together, the Christine having a day to the good. Business concluded there, they once more quitted Port Phillip Heads at the same hour, and arrived at Newcastle within an hour and a half of each other, the Christine being the first to put in an appearance round Nobby's. Their casting was run down on an average of about 40 degrees S.; when about 37 S. and 56 E. both vessels were so close in company that, on several occasions just prior to striking the trades, boats were lowered and their masters pulled aboard, and mutually entertained one another at lunch in mid-ocean. A voyage almost round the globe under such circumstances has been seldom if ever recorded.—S. M. Herald.

LOCAL & GENERAL NEWS

The Rev. Canon Barry has been appointed to the long vacant Bishopric of Sydney.

We learn that Chief Justice Judd will return to Honolulu on Wednesday next by way of Wailua.

The members of St. Andrew's Guild will meet in the school room of the Cathedral close this evening at 7:30.

It appears that the Mounted Police caught the two deserters from the Canopus. So they have done something praiseworthy at last.

YESTERDAY a Hawaiian named Koli who has been in gaol over a year for selling liquor without a license was discharging under the Pauper act.

Lost a bunch of five keys on Saturday, Aug. 25th, by Dr. Hagan. The finder will please return the same to the owner. 491 3t

Lost a score Book and Catchers Gloves belonging to the Honolulu Base Ball Club on Makiki Reserve, the finder will please return the same to this office. 492 2t*

AMONG the mechanics who arrived by the Kalakaua is a first-class Horse-shoer for the City Shoeing Shop. His previous reputation guarantees that he will be second to none in the country.

THE work on Emma street of taking up the old pipes and laying down the new ones, has been an annoyance to the residents there for some time. Some idea of the cause may be obtained when we state that a gang of prisoners averaging 22 in number were employed on it for a fortnight. Then the Superintendent of Water-Works determined to dismiss them and employ outside labor. He hired 20 laborers at $2 a day, and they did as much on Tuesday as a whole prison gang had done in a week. The prisoners cost 65 cents a day each. The saving in both time and money can readily be seen.

WHEN Mr. James Dodd returns from San Francisco he will bring with him a number of fine horses and a quantity of gear for his carriages and busses. It is rumored that he will also bring a new bus or two.

WE were yesterday shown by Mr. T. G. Thrum, a splendid specimen of rulling in the shape of a monthly statement for a plantation on Hawaii which required no less than 25 district rullings. It contains 14 separate accounts on the one folio.

SOME days ago one of the sailor's of the Pensacola dropped some money in the harbour at the boat-lading. At the time it was dived for but, unsuccessfully. Yesterday a boy named Akina recovered about $9 of it in small gold and silver coin.

YESTERDAY afternoon Captain Erben and officers of the U. S. S. Pensacola, accompanied by Marshal Parke, visited the prison. They expressed themselves as highly satisfied with all the arrangements and praised the neatness and order in which they found everything.

IN reference to this tramcar business it will be remembered that a bill was brought before the last Legislature to charter an enterprise of this kind. The projectors produced guarantees of $300,000 that, of their requests were acceded to, they would have it in operation in a year. The idea of starting such a thing here was clearly theirs, they belong to the country, and by all customary rights no one should be allowed to step in and take the fruits of their brains at any rate till the Legislature has had an opportunity of expressing an opinion.

SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

From Our own Correspondent.

Our Legislature takes leisure in dealing with its work. The Upper House has done but little during the present session while the Lower House has been engaged on a prolonged discussion on the Education Bill; this Measure is still before the House. The portion of the Bill which proposes to increase the school fees meets with great opposition and many public meetings, throughout the Province, have been held protesting against this clause. The general feeling is, that if education is compulsory, it should be free; and if the voice of the people is heeded the Bill will either be very much modified in Committee or rejected altogether.

A Bill has been introduced by the Government which proposes to extend the great Northern Railway still further into the interior a distance of about 150 miles with the ultimate object of continuing it across the Continent to Port Darwin.

Splendid rains have fallen throughout the colony and although it is premature to speak of the harvest which is at least four months distant yet the prospects are exceedingly encouraging.

Our leading journal ("The Register") is passing under a cloud. One of the members of the Executive Council (The Hon. A. Catt) has charged the said journal with malicious libel. "The Register" doubtless has been somewhat severe in its comments on the Commissioner; still, it is questionable whether he has not deserved all that has been written about him. "The Register" is an exceedingly well conducted paper; fearless and outspoken, but not more so than the general public approves—indeed, public men, with large salaries from the State must expect to have their actions criticised in the public prints. Mr. Catt, is a man of honest purpose and weight of character, but he lacks that magnanimous grasp and discernment requisite to make a model Commissioner. The trial now pending is a proof of this assertion and he would have done well to have left it alone. Even should he succeed (and no one except the Commissioner thinks he will) and have the journalist both fined and imprisoned yet the issue would be against his prudence, it would put a bad mark upon him as a public man and sympathy would be strongly in favor of the Register's proprietor. O. B.

HANLAN V. LAYCOCK.

Mr. James Hunt, of the Oxford Hotel, in Sydney, has, on behalf of Elias Laycock, challenged Edward Hanlan to row a race on the Parramatta River, for £1000 aside. Hanlan will be allowed £200 expenses, and the challenge has, we learn by cablegram, been accepted. The full text will be forwarded by the present outgoing San Francisco mail steamer. There a general desire to see one of our champions have another chance of obtaining the sculling championship of the world, and it is stated on good authority that three times the amount of the stake would have been readily subscribed if necessary. It has also been arranged to hold a large professional regatta in December, but it will for a certainty be postponed so that Hanlan may take part in it. The challenge issue by Mr. Hunt is as follows:—"Sydney, N. S. W., Australia, Aug. 6, 1883. To Mr. Edward Hanlan, Toronto, Canada.—I, James Hunt of the Oxford Hotel, King-street, Sydney, do hereby offer to match Elias Laycock, of Shark Island, Port Jackson, to row Edward Hanlan, of Toronto, Canada, for the championship of the world and one thousand (£1000) pounds aside, and to allow Edward Hanlan the sum of two hundred (£200) for his expenses. The race to be rowed over the champion course, Parramatta River, Sydney, on a day and date to be fixed, and at a not later period than the thirty-first day of March, 1884. I am also prepared to deposit the whole stake of £1000 as soon as Hanlan's acceptance of the challenge shall have been received by cablegram, which stake must be covered by Hanlan in the preliminary amount of two hundred and fifty pounds (£250) in testimony of good faith to such challenge. The articles in connection with the race to be subject to mutual agreement. Given under my hand this sixth day of August, 1883. Signed, J. Hunt. Witness: W. S. Targett, M.P., N. S. Wales Legislative Assembly; R. B. Armstrong, J.P.; Angus Cameron, J.P., M.P." —S. M. Herald.

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

Paris, Aug. 10.—A force of six hundred troops has been despatched to Madagascar, to re-inforce the French garrison at Tamatave.

London, Aug. 10.—The latest news from Madagascar states that the French garrison at Tamatave are threatened with famine. The Hovas refuse to supply the troops with any provisions.

Madrid, Aug. 10.—Telegrams from Barcelona report that considerable agitation prevails in that district in consequence of the revolutionary movement which has lately been manifested. Fears are entertained that a serious insurrection is imminent. Some alarm has been created here by the intelligence just to hand that several Carlist emissaries are now in the northern provinces with the object, it is feared, of stimulating the revolutionary feeling in the army.

A proclamation has been issued to-day declaring the province of Catalonia in a state of siege, and strong forces of troops have been despatched to the centres of population in consequence of the disaffection now prevailing in the district and the fear of an insurrection.

Latest accounts from Leo de Urgal report that on the arrival of the loyal troops at that place a portion of the rebel garrison crossed the border into French territory, and the remainder submitted.

London, Aug. 11.—The Statist predicts that the Australasian colonies will sever their connection with the Empire unless England takes effectual means to prevent the deportation of French convicts to the Pacific. The Saturday Review expects that serious difficulties will arise unless Lord Derby yields to the representations of the colonies, and it notices that they address England as an equal power.

The Austral has arrived and been docked in Glasgow, where the Board of Trade has made certain experiments with a view of testing her stability.

Melbourne, Aug. 11.—The Governor has received a telegram from Earl Derby, notifying that arrangements have been made by the Imperial Government for the Irish reformers to be returned to England.
