OPERATIONS THIS DAY.

Government Troops Gradually Converging on the Rebel Positions.

The Notorious Fitzgerald Captured—Back of the Rebel Line.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found the record of what was left of yesterday's events after the BULLETIN was issued.

Our Own Reporter in Front.

Through the courtesy of Colonel J. H. Fisher, commanding the forces, a plenary pass was granted to our mounted correspondent of yesterday, B. L. Finney, to enter the Government camps wherever situated.

Our correspondent returned about noon and, after his notes had been taken down in shorthand, he was ordered back—tired as he was after fifteen miles in the saddle—to the base of operations.

Companies D and E marched over from Manoa to Pauoa Valley this morning. They had searched all the intervening country without encountering any body of rebels.

Lieut. King captured one prisoner this morning. His company (E), under Captain Coyne, had spent all last night sleeping on the very summit of the range.

Captain Kidwell with his Sharpshooters was ordered up to the head of Nuuanu Valley and is now there. A native was captured going down over the mountains, in a gulch, with out shoes or coat.

When the troops came down the mountain side they brought with them Thomas Poole, a half white who is well known in Honolulu as a carpenter living on Liliha street.

Poole said he had been with Wilcox's party and left them last night. When apprehended he had a Winchester 4 cal. rifle and 100 rounds of ammunition.

THE VERY LATEST.

Positions of the Troops at a Quarter to Four O'Clock.

Our reporter arrived from Pauoa Valley at 4 p. m. There are about 150 Government soldiers now in Pauoa Valley—Co. E and a portion of Co. C, together with the Sharpshooters, who came up out of Nuuanu Valley over the ridge and scoured the whole country.

Co. B is patrolling the very summit of the ridge between Pauoa and Manoa, and it is supposed it has orders to join the rest of the forces. They struck a trail leading down into Nuuanu Valley, along which were strewn lots of empty cartridges.

Captain Kidwell is certain that it is the rebels' trail, and that they are now located on the Ewa side of Nuuanu Valley.

Others think that they are on the Kupaunihia ridge back of Pauoa. The entire command is waiting at the head of Pauoa Valley for orders from Colonel Fisher, who is now on his way to the front.

Lieut. King, who has been in command of a detachment of Co. E, has been on his feet since Sunday night. His ankles are much swollen, but he is determined to stay in it till the finish.

The Sharpshooters are now marching into town. All the forces have had all they wanted to eat and drink to-day.

An Explanation.

Referring to a statement in Monday's paper that Lieut. King had refused to take Bertelmann's house without orders, Lieut. King desires to make a statement. He was ordered to report to Deputy Marshal Brown for orders. He waited a reasonable time for Mr. Brown and then he took possession of the house on his own responsibility.

Carl Widemann Believed Dead.

It is believed at military headquarters that Carl Widemann was killed during the encounter in Manoa Valley yesterday. All the prisoners who were brought in say they never saw him after the conflict.

Coming in Town.

Shortly before noon to-day two large buses and a number of hacks left for Manoa and Palolo valleys to bring in Captain Ziegler's men and the Citizens' Guard under Tim Murray, who were stationed there. The Citizens' Guard sent in a despatch this morning stating that the men had been up all night, and that they had seen nothing of the rebels. They were pretty well tired out. None of the men were injured. They skirted a gulch in the Palolo valley and waited for the conveyances here.

A note from one of the BULLETIN special agents says that Murray and his party have scoured the entire Palolo range and been as far as Waianalua mountains. They had forced the rebels to Manoa. The rebels were caught sleeping. Two of them were captured last night. There was but little firing yesterday evening. The military were lying on their arms.

Under Orders of Wilcox.

The three natives—Pulo, Haul and Kaho—who were captured at Makapu Point yesterday by Cecil Brown and Alf. Carter and taken to the jail at Kaneohe, were brought to town at 10 o'clock this morning. The men all belong to Kailua. Kaho had a blanket with a handkerchief tied around it in his possession. On being questioned by Senior Captain Parker, Kaho stated that they had been notified by a man named Kauli to go to Waialae and Robert Wilcox would be there to meet them and supply them with arms and ammunition. The man who notified them to go to Waialae came from Ewa. They were not the only ones who were ordered to meet Wilcox.

Strangers Seen.

Paul Isenberg, Jr., drove out to Waikiki at 10:45 o'clock this morning on a scouting expedition. He drove around to the Moiliili road and in a lantana brush near the road to Palolo he saw two white men, both strangers, evidently looking for something among the brush. One of the men had a big bushy beard. Mr. Isenberg believes this man lives in the immediate vicinity of Sam Nowlin's residence, because he had seen him there. The men had gone out to the place in a brake, as the horse and vehicle were tied to a tree near where they were. The discovery was imparted to headquarters.

In Nuuanu Valley.

At nine o'clock last night there was some excitement at the station—in fact the only thing that seemed worth a reporter's while to stay out of bed for. Orders were given in intense sibilant tones, and sturdy men, booted and spurred, sprang to horse in the paddock across the street. The word was given out that the insurgents were going over into the head of the valley, with the evident intention of fighting their way into town. A large expedition was sent out to head them off, but hours passed without hearing of any collision. There were no rebels there.

Well-known Native Killed.

Thomas Poole, one of the prisoners brought in this afternoon, made the fact known that Pukila, one of the rebels, is dead. Poole was with Pukila in the Manoa fight yesterday. They were walking down the valley when a shot hit Pukila in the head, killing him instantly. Pukila was a dock laborer and a well-known figure on the city front.

WILCOX LOCATED.

He Makes a Last Desperate Move with Thirty Men.

At noon to-day Robert Wilcox with thirty men was located on the ridge on the right hand side of Mount Tantalus looking down toward Pauoa valley. From those taken prisoners it is learned that Wilcox has picked the thirty men and allowed the others to follow or desert him just as they pleased.

Trouble at Waialua.

About 11 o'clock last night a telephone message reached town from the Waialua courthouse that twenty natives had massed together for the purpose of taking the courthouse. The natives in that district were assembling in numbers at different points in the district. Marshal Hitchcock was notified but no action was taken. Although the telephone connection is all right, still nothing further was received from Waialua up to 10 o'clock this morning.

Deserters Put to Service.

Four of Paul Isenberg's native ranchmen snatched home this morning at Waialua. The discovery was made by W. A. Kinney when he returned to-day. Mr. Kinney acquainted the Marshal with the fact, and requested that official to allow them their liberty, providing they would give away the location of their late comrades in arms. The deserters agreed and the Marshal requested Kinney to go with the men.

T. B. Walker Arrested.

B. F. Dillingham drove to the residence of John A. Cummins at Pauoa at 10:30 o'clock this morning for T. B. Walker. Walker was found sitting in the parlor. Dillingham asked Walker to accompany him. He did so and was driven to the station. This puts at rest all the stories about Tom Walker's having been among the rebels, fighting hard and, yesterday, falling dead in the field.

Positions This Morning.

The Sharpshooters went around to the Pali side this morning and advanced on Pauoa valley, where Wilcox and his followers are stationed. Lieutenant King and his company are at the entrance to the valley. Captain Ziegler and his detachment are still in Manoa valley. The Citizens' Guard are on Mount Tantalus.

The Sharpshooters.

By noon to-day the Sharpshooters under Captain John Kidwell had reached the ridge in Nuuanu valley above the Honolulu Dairy. They had encountered none of the rebels and were marching towards Pauoa.

Torbert's Catch.

Lieutenant James Torbert brought a prisoner into the camp at Pauoa this afternoon. His name is Charles Poole and he was caught in the Pauoa valley.

Various Items.

About 10 o'clock last night a report was sent in to headquarters from Kaneohe that two shots had been heard at Waikiki. As no more were heard no inquiry was made.

Robert Palau, who was in the Wilcox insurrection of 1892, is reported to have been killed yesterday. He was a swipes seller at "Cape Horn" in the piping times of peace.

One of Hustace & Co.'s teams hauled a cannon to the front yesterday afternoon. Mr. Nolte has to keep the Beaver saloon open all night to supply meals to the men on duty.

Several bombs were found in Manoa valley yesterday. At 10:45 o'clock this morning a man of war was reported as fifteen miles east. At 11:30 a report was received from the Diamond Head lookout that it was an Ecuadorian man-of-war. She proved to be the Esmeralda flying the Venezuelan flag.

At 3 o'clock this morning Deputy Marshal Brown sent a lot of hot coffee and other refreshments to Captain Tim Murray's camp at Manoa. The police station was as quiet as a churchyard from midnight until 6 o'clock this morning. Even the usually very busy telephone was idle.

Clark Hammer of the Police Station has charge of the commissariat for the hungry warriors of home guards and the much worked police. Many names of prominent residents on some of the other islands are said to be on the suspect list.

Captain Gus Cordes and members of the mounted patrol went out to Waikiki at 2 o'clock and arrested Samuel K. Pua, a printer, who was a National Reform member of the Legislature of 1892. He was in a house near his own at the foot of Diamond Head.

Chester A. Doyle objects to people taking his brake for a milk wagon. He was stopped early this morning by a gentleman with a can.

All W. Carter's party with Cecil Brown's squad returned from Waianalua pass last night. Mr. Brown was rallying another party to return to Makapu Point at midday.

Carl Mett was not arrested yesterday. His name in the list was the only item the BULLETIN took on trust yesterday, and the only one in which it was left. A private apology has been made to Mr. Mett.

Marshal Hitchcock, Minister King and Superintendent of Water Works Brown returned to the police station at 3 o'clock this morning from a visit to the Pali and various points along the Nuuanu road. They reported everything quiet, but had been told that something had taken place in Pauoa valley a little after midnight.

Robert Wilcox and about thirty of his men last night occupied Mr. Schmidt's "Maluhia" home in the rear of Mount Tantalus. They ransacked the house for food.

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon officer Cook stationed at Luakaha, near the Electric Light Station, reported that he could see three prisoners coming down the hill. They were two white men and one native.

At 2:45 o'clock the lookout at Manawili reported that a number of natives belonging to the rebel band were making their way hastily down a taro patch between the Manoa and Palolo valleys. There was quite a crowd of them.

Captain Hilbus of the Citizens' Guard states that his squad divided the rebels, Sam Nowlin going toward Diamond Head and Robert Wilcox toward Nuuanu.

Kamela Hakuole, at one time an orderly in the Household Guards, was brought in along with Thomas Poole and Arthur Fitzgerald.

Joe Aea was found in his Manoa house this afternoon and placed under arrest.

At 11:20 Captain Pratt telephoned for carriage transportation to be sent to Manoa.

It was J. L. McLean and not W. H. McLean who had charge of the Sharpshooters on board of the tug Eleu last trip.

A company of cavalry will be instituted this afternoon. The company will consist of members of the regulars.

Cecil Brown returned to Makapu Point this afternoon. A small fort has been built there and the men under Brown and Carter will be posted behind it. The party was to consist of 25 or 30 men—if so many were available who could ride hard and handle a rifle.

The tramcars are not yet allowed to run. Telephonic communication in general is still cut off by military orders.

THE ESMERALDA.

A Famous War Dog in Harbor—Destined for Japan.

The Esmeralda, before mentioned by the BULLETIN as being likely to touch here on her way to Japan, arrived this afternoon. She is the Chilean warship sold by the Government to the Venezuelan Government and now flying that flag. The latter Government by arrangement sold her to Japan, to which country she is now on her way. She simply carries a navigating crew who will be discharged on her arrival. She resembles the Boston somewhat in appearance.

The Esmeralda is immediately from Ecuador via Galapagos Island, which she left on December 22, 1891, and had a pleasant trip hitherto. She has only called in order to replenish her tender and coal bunkers and will only stay in port a sufficient length of time to do so. Her commander was formerly a midshipman in the Chilean war vessel Pilcomayo, which was here some years ago. W. Lanz, representing F. A. Schaefer, the Chilean Consul, visited the cruiser this afternoon. She is a beautiful vessel, being fitted out with all the latest improvements. The Esmeralda has quite a history in connection with the late Chilean rebellion.

Mr. Narita, Acting Japanese Consul General, visited the Esmeralda, the future property of his Government, this afternoon.

J. T. Waterhouse's Funeral.

The remains of the late John Thomas Waterhouse were laid in their last resting place in Nuuanu Cemetery yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were held at the family residence, Nuuanu avenue, at 3 o'clock. The house was filled with friends, associates and the many employees of the departed. Rev. H. W. Peck, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, conducted the services. Mrs. Judd led the choir. The Government band was stationed at the cemetery and as the procession approached dirges were played. Rev. H. H. Parker conducted the services at the grave.

Dyspepsia

Mrs. Judge Peck Tells How She Was Cured

Sufferers from Dyspepsia should read the following letter from Mrs. H. M. Peck, wife of Judge Peck, a Justice at Tracy, Cal., and a writer connected with the Associated Press:

"By a deep sense of gratitude for the great benefit I have received from the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I have been led to write the following statement for the benefit of sufferers who may be similarly afflicted. For 15 years I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia and Heart Trouble. Almost everything I ate would distress me. I tried different treatments and medicines, but failed to realize relief. Two years ago a friend prevailed upon me to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first bottle I noticed helped me, so I continued taking it. It did me so much good that my friends spoke of the improvement. I have received such great benefit from it that gladly recommend it. I now have an excellent appetite and nothing I eat ever distresses me. It also keeps up my strength and health."

Hood's Pills are made and perfect in proportion and appearance. See a box.

A Cyclone

struck my store during December. It was a strong, vigorous, full grown affair, and had no respect for other people's feelings. It would push its way in through the front door rummaging among my choice goods, tearing down, picking to pieces, growling at everything except the quality and price. I buy a paper of Pins or a Silk Dress, go out and come back in a short time reinforced by neighboring cyclones. This nagging during the month has made me gray before my time, and standing in the middle of the store at 12 p. m. on December 31, 1891, I was glad to say "Pau."

Feel somewhat better this week and have arrived at the conclusion that I will hold my Annual Clearance Sale. Now a clearance sale may mean nothing or everything. In my case it means everything. I have a large assortment of goods on hand that I must get rid of before the return of next Australia. I must have shelf room and to get it I am prepared to make a sacrifice. Everything must be sold. Now each week I am going to offer something special, this time it is millinery. Nowhere in Honolulu can you buy Hats and all the attachments thereto for the next week as cheap as at Egan's. No other house in the city can sell these goods at 50c on the $1.

We can't keep it up long, but will endeavor to satisfy everybody as long as the Hats and Feathers last. And remember that you get two dollars' worth for one of King Kalakaua's silver cartwheels.

That Tireless Toil is, J. J. EGAN, 514 Fort Street.
