FATHER DAMIEN'S MONUMENT.

Account of Dedication Ceremonies at His Birthplace. TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY BULLETIN: Dear Sir:—Complying with my promise, I send you the account of the erection of Father Damien's monument at Louvain.

The ceremony opened with a pontifical high mass celebrated in St. Peter's Church by Cardinal Goossens, Archbishop of Malines, and primate of Belgium.

When mass was over, a procession formed itself and was composed of all the corporations, clubs and societies of the town with bands of music, the professional body of the University in full dress, the board of organization, ecclesiastical, political, artistic and diplomatic notabilities, among whom were Count de Merode-Westerloo, Minister of Foreign Affairs; Mr. J. de Burlet, Minister of the Interior and Chief of the Cabinet, both representing the Belgian Government; Sir F. R. Plunkett, the English Ambassador, etc.

The procession set out to St. Donat's Park, where the statue of Father Damien is erected. There the President of the Committee, Earl Edward Descaups, member of the Belgian Senate, delivered a short speech summing up the titles of Father Damien to immortality, and entrusted the monument to the care of the city.

Then fell the veil of the statue, showing to the eyes the splendid group due to the chisel of a sculptor of renown, Mr. Constantin Meunier. Father Damien is standing upright, larger than life, pressing with one hand the cross on his breast, and with the other hand sheltering one half-naked leper, the folds of his monkish cloak. The countenance and attitude of both personages have a mighty expression; the enlightened face of the monk seems to be animated by a supernatural ecstasy, and admirably expresses the mystical enthusiasm that characterizes the hero. Two faces of the pedestal bear in French and in Flemish the inscription: "To Joseph de Veuster, Father Damien, of the Sacred Heart's Congregation, born at Tremelois, 3 January, 1840; died at Molokai, 15 April, 1889."

On a third face are the words: "Majorum hec dilectionem memo habet, ut animam suam ponat quis pro amicis suis."

The sight of the statue excited continued cheers, and the Minister of the Interior congratulated the artist "for the new gem added to a crown of masterpieces." The company then repaired to the hall of the University where the whole family of Father Damien, viz., his old father and his brothers, and a distinguished society were already assembled. Earl Descaups, the President of the Committee, delivered the panegyric of the apostle of the lepers with an eloquence and attitude of ideas, a nobleness of sentiments, such as to excite cheers and tears.

This ended the magnificent homage paid to the memory of Father Damien, a ceremony which will leave a profound impression in the minds of all who participated in and witnessed the exercises. Such is a short account of the inauguration of Father Damien's monument, if it may please you to publish it in the DAILY BULLETIN. I am, dear sir, Respectfully yours,

H. JALLIAT, Consul for Colombia.

THE HAWAIIAN OUTBREAK.

The Royalist revolution in Hawaii has come and probably gone by this time. It was a foolish enterprise, but nothing else could have been expected from those who fathered it. Wilcox is one of those ill-conditioned men who are always making trouble in one way or another. He has been a revolutionist in Hawaii on nearly all sides of all propositions. His white associates in this outbreak were a lot of ex-officio holders, opium smugglers, lottery sharks and hangers-on under the Royalist regime. They appear to have been backed by perhaps a couple of hundred natives, mostly of the lowest class. It is noted by the Honolulu papers that many of the more respectable and responsible natives loyally supported the Government.

The outbreak has merely served to advertise the weakness of the Royalist cause and the strength of the republic. As a matter of fact it is likely to have more effect in the United States than in Hawaii. It further discredits the policy of the Administration toward the islands. It must be admitted that the withdrawal of all our naval vessels from Honolulu was largely responsible for the outbreak. There is not the least reason to believe that it would have taken place if an American cruiser had been in port—Secretary Herbert to the contrary notwithstanding. Minister Thurston ought to know more about his own people than Mr. Herbert, and he affirms that the presence of an American man-of-war there exercises a strong moral influence on all the disorderly and disaffected elements on the islands. If Messrs. Cleveland and Gresham desired to test the stability of the Hawaiian republic by withdrawing our naval forces, they have accomplished their purpose, but public opinion in the United States will not approve any such unnecessary experiments.

Another effect of this affair will be to promote the laying of a cable from Monterey Bay to Hawaii. Whether as a commercial point, as a republic threatened by monarchist plottings, or as a part of the United States, Hawaii should be within instant communication with San Francisco, and that communication should not be by way of British Columbia. The fact that it has taken a week to bring the news of this insurrection to this port, and that it would take at least another week or ten days for our Government to take any steps deemed desirable in such an emergency, is an argument in point for the cable. If this Congress does not provide for it the next one will.—San Francisco Bulletin.

"Signor Campobello." Henry M. Campbell, the Scotch singer who appeared in Honolulu as Enrico Campobello, an Italian baritone, is suing for a separation from his wife. She was Grace Porter, daughter of David Porter, a San Francisco liquor dealer, who was accidentally killed two years ago. Campbell got a divorce from an Italian wife to marry Grace, whose father was thought to be very wealthy. After Porter's death, however, it was found his estate was insolvent.

The Wrecked Haleakala. The schooner Haleakala, which went on a reef off Waianae last week, is still in about the same position as last reported. Her bottom on the port side is stove in, and her keel and rudder are gone. Empty casks will be placed in position and an effort will be made to-morrow to float her into deep water. There are about 20 cords of wood in her hold which will be discharged when everything is ready. The reef on which the Haleakala lies is almost dry at low water.

Masquerade Ball. The Maui Dramatic Association will give a masquerade ball on the evening of February 13. Prizes to the aggregate value of $150 will be given to the best dancers, the most original and comic, and the best dressed characters. It will be given in the Wailuku skating rink, the admission 50 cents. Preparations are being made to make the event brilliant.

G. R. Harrison, practical piano and organ maker and tuner, can furnish best factory references. Orders left at Hawaiian News Co. will receive prompt attention. All work guaranteed to be the same as done in factory.

Timely Topics A Cyclone

January 19, 1895.

Electricity and the methods of handling it may be reckoned among the greatest of the world's wonders: such advancement has been made with it during the past few years, that it is difficult for even electricians themselves to tell where its uses will end. No one would have believed a few years ago that anything that moved so rapidly could be measured, and yet it is, and the people who have meters in their houses realize it. Every year brings us greater knowledge on the subject; and with it comes a desire to go deeper into the mystery. A few years hence there may be appliances with the aid of which we may come down town without exercising our limbs at all; there's nothing impossible in electrical science after what has already been accomplished.

A plantation manager called on us the other day in search of plows, and when he examined them he remarked that "the stock is not only larger than the other dealers combined, but that the plows were of a better quality." It was no trouble to sell him just what he wanted. The demand upon us for plantation implements is always at the top notch, and for that reason we always keep a good stock on hand.

Among plantation supplies we can truthfully say that our Hendry Breaker and Double Furrow plows have filled a want, and every manager who has them on his plantation tells us they are the best plows he ever had on his place. Our stock of the Hendry Plows, bath Breaker and Double Furrows, is large, and we can supply any demand that we may have. If you will compare their capabilities with other plows you will see where they are superior.

Every plantation on the Islands uses fertilizer to a greater or less extent. If you doubt it drive out Kalihi way and see the immense works of the Pacific Guano Fertilizer Co. The difficulty the plantation manager has had to contend with in the use of fertilizer is to secure an implement that will distribute it economically, yet thoroughly. We believe our Avery Distributor is the most perfect machine for the purpose ever put on the market. This has been in use on the plantations of Louisiana for a long time, and is now being used with great success on Hawaii. By the use of this machine there is absolutely no waste of material, and nine acres can be thoroughly covered in one day by one man. It means economy to the plantation that uses it both in labor and material.

The Avery Cane Cultivator is another machine that is making its inroads on the plantations here after a thorough trial in Louisiana. We have sold several of them on Hawaii and the parties using them seem perfectly satisfied with their purchase. We believe this machine is destined to be extensively used wherever sugar cane grows.

We have made arrangements for the handling of the celebrated Pasteur Filters so much used in the United States in places of business, public institutions and private residences. These filters are rented or sold outright as people prefer. One of them is now in use at the Queen's Hospital, and after a careful trial by a Honolulu physician, says:

"I have examined the 'Pasteur Filter' manufactured by the Pasteur Chamberland Filter Co. I consider it to be the most efficient filter I have ever seen."

Anyone desiring to examine one of the filters at their residence may communicate with us, and Mr. H. L. Thiron will call upon them and fully explain the working of it.

A Cyclone

struck my store during December. It was a strong, vigorous, full grown affair, and had no respect for other people's feelings. It would push its way in through the front door rummaging among my choice goods, tear down, pick to pieces, growl at everything except the quality and price, buy a paper of Pins or a Silk Dress, go out and come back in a short time reinforced by neighboring cyclones. This nagging during the month has made me gray before my time, and standing in the middle of the store at 12 p. m. on December 31, 1894, I was glad to say "Pau." Feel somewhat better this week and have arrived at the conclusion that I will hold my Annual Clearance Sale. Now a clearance sale may mean nothing or everything. In my case it means everything. I have a large assortment of goods on hand that I must get rid of before the return of next Australia. I must have shelf room and to get it I am prepared to make a sacrifice. Everything must be sold. Now each week I am going to offer something special, this time it is millinery. Nowhere in Honolulu can you buy Hats and all the attachments thereto for the next week as cheap as at Egan's. No other house in the city can sell these goods at 50c on the $1. We can't keep it up long, but will endeavor to satisfy everybody as long as the Hats and Feathers last. And remember that you get two dollars' worth for one of King Kalakaua's silver cartwheels.

National Cane Shredder

PATENTED UNDER THE LAWS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.

Mr. John A. Scott, Manager of the Hilo Sugar Company, gives the following wonderful record of the working of the NATIONAL CANE SHREDDER, which was erected by their works at the commencement of the crop just harvested:

"During the past week the Hilo Sugar Company's mill exceeded any of its former records by closing the 125 hours grinding with an output of 3000 tons. This is fully 10 percent more than the best work of former years. The three roller mill being 26 in. by 54 in. and the two roller mill 30 in. by 60 in. The first mill doing this amount of work in an efficient manner and with great ease, compared with work on whole cane, owing to thorough preparation of the cane by the National Cane Shredder, recently erected by the Company.

"And by its use the extraction has been increased from 3 percent to 5 percent on all kinds of cane, and in some cases 80 percent has been reached; the average being 75 to 78 percent, according to quality.

"I continue to find the megass from shredded cane better fuel than from whole cane.

"The shredder has been working day and night for seven months and has given me entire satisfaction, having shredded during that time about seventy thousand tons of cane, and a large part of it being hard ratons."

"The shredder and engine require very little care or attention."

Plans and specifications of these Shredders may be seen at the office of WM. G. IRWIN & CO., Ltd.

TRIAL OF BOWLER.

He Is Charged With Misprision of Treason.

Nowlin Says the Prisoner Permitted to Capture the Bell Telephone Central.

NINTH DAY.

The Military Commission opened promptly at 10 o'clock, and minutes were read by Lieut. J. W. Jones.

Judge Advocate Kinney announced that J. F. Bowler would appear before the Commission for trial.

After swearing of the Commission the charge against the prisoner was read. It is misprision of treason during three months past by concealing knowledge of treason and not apprising a member of the Executive Council, marshal, sheriff, or deputy sheriff of the same.

Paul Neumann appeared for Mr. Bowler. He argued against the jurisdiction of the Military Commission, on the ground that there was no actual treason existing in Hawaii.

The Court deliberated with closed doors, and on re-opening the taking of evidence was proceeded with.

Mr. Bowler declined to plead under advice of counsel to both charge and specifications. Samuel Nowlin, sworn, states: Took part in the rebellion of Jan. 6 and 7 for the restoration of the monarchy; was present at meetings at Gulick's place where plans of the rebellion were discussed; meetings were held in October, November and December; arms were sent for to the coast; a schooner brought them and the steamer Waimanalo landed them; planned to enlist men; between five and seven hundred men were enlisted; had plans to take the station house, telephone buildings, electric light station; they were witnesses originally and were submitted to the others; witness asked Bowler to take the Bell telephone building; Bowler said he would go there; talk occurred Friday or Saturday before New Year's; the Waimanalo went to sea for the arms on Friday, Dec. 28; talk with Bowler occurred on witness' veranda at his house; asked Bowler because witness knew that his feelings were with the royalists; knew he was a royalist since the overthrow of the Queen; Bowler was to take possession of the Bell telephone office and stop communications; Bowler asked witness who would be detailed with him, and witness said that he would give him the Fern boys, employees of the Tranway; know Bertelmann, told him to tell Bowler to take the Bell Telephone with the Fern boys; saw Joe Fern on Jan. 3 on a tram car; witness told him that he would like to see him and his brother at Pawa at 11:30 o'clock that night; there was planning to make a raid on the city at 1 o'clock Friday a. m.; wanted to see the Fern boys so that he would give them their arms; Bowler knew that there was to be an uprising that morning; told him the Thursday morning; did not go to see the Fern boys because had learned that the matter had been exposed to the police; learned of this at 10 p. m.; the gathering of natives at Kakaako was dispersed; saw Bowler the Saturday evening following; at that time the arms had been landed at Diamond Head; the original plans had been changed and told Bowler to report to Tom Walker; the next date fixed for the revolution was Monday morning, Jan. 7, at 6 o'clock; the men were to march into town from Diamond Head on the Waialeale road along Berehania street; at Alapai street half of the men were to go along King street and the other on Berehania street as far as the Police Station; witness did not think that he told Bowler about the second date, only told him to report to Walker; Walker was assigned to the Police Station; saw Bowler and asked him where he was on that Thursday night, and he said he was at Gulick's house; forty men were detailed under Walker to take the Station House; the leaders of the squads were armed with pistols; these men were to rush in and take the Station House; Bowler knew of this, because witness had told him; the plan about taking the telephone office was abandoned for the last attempt.

Cross-examination—Have made a confession to the authorities; did so on Wednesday; was arrested on Monday after the outbreak; made the confession at the station house in the presence of Kinney, Robertson, Alf. Carter; made confession to no one else; witness was promised his life; he was asked to tell everything he knew; knew a good many white men who are sympathizers with the royalists; have no hostile feeling against any of them; witness did state that he gave up because the white men did not appear; did not tell Bowler that anyone had sent for arms, neither did he tell him that a vessel had been sent to procure arms, remember telling Bowler on Saturday evening, Jan. 5, that arms had been landed at Diamond Head; do not know whether Bowler reported to Walker; told Bowler on Saturday evening, Jan. 5, about abandoning of original plans; told Walker that he was to take the same position, viz. police station, on the Saturday afternoon before the uprising; witness went to his house to tell him; the Fern boys to assist Bowler in taking the telephone were Joe and Henry Fern; learned about the Ferns' feelings from Bertelmann.

To Kinney—Townsend told witness on Friday morning that the arms were landed; witness had detailed him to go out on the steamer Waimanalo and land the arms; saw Warren that same day; he had gone on the schooner and later came on board the steamer Waimanalo; Townsend and Warren were in the fight at Diamond Head; the revolution was for the restoration of the monarchy.

A recess was taken till 1:30 o'clock.

GERMAN EMPEROR'S BIRTHDAY

Consul Hackfeld Entertains a Large Party at Luncheon.

Yesterday was the thirty-seventh anniversary of the birth of Emperor William of Germany. There was a pretty display of flags from vessels in the harbor, and the German commercial ensign was floating at the residences of Germans, besides the imperial flag at both the residence and the office of the Consul.

At noon today J. F. Hackfeld, Consul for Germany, entertained, according to the invariable custom of the Consulate, the official, professional and business community in general, at luncheon. It was a splendid collation comprising the most delicious fish, fowl, egg and vegetable salads, toothsome sandwiches, cake, etc., with accessories of fine champagne wine and prime cigars.

Among those who called were the following: Chief Justice Judd, Minister of Foreign Affairs F. M. Hatch, Minister of the Interior J. A. King, Attorney-General W. O. Smith; A. S. Willis, United States Minister; Ellis Mills, United States Consul General; A. G. S. Hawes, British Commissioner; A. de S. Canavarrro, Portuguese Charge d'Affaires; F. A. Schaefer, Italian Consul and Dean of Consular Corps; H. Renjes, Mexican Consul; J. Hoting, Chilean Consul; F. W. Macfarlane, Danish Consul; Bruce Cartwright, Peruvian Consul; Chas. S. Weight, (acting) Consul for Sweden and Norway; W. F. Allen, President of the Advisory Council; Senator W. C. Wilder, A. S. Hartwell, Col. Teed of the Los Angeles (Cal.) city council, H. A. Widemann, F. S. Bachholtz, P. R. Isenberg, Captain Ahlborn, J. G. Spencer, Col. W. A. Whiting and colleagues of the Military Commission; Capt. John Good, Capt. C. W. Ziegler, Dr. Cooper, Lieut. J. W. Jones and other officers of the National Guard of Hawaii.

The Government band, stationed in front of the Consulate, under the leadership of Professor H. Berger, played appropriate selections, beginning and ending with the German national anthem—"Watch on the Rhine." One of the numbers was the "Song to Aegir." Later composed by Emperor William himself, and its music was much admired by the company. This composition has been praised on its merits by the European critics, and its sale up to latest accounts had realized $10,000. The proceeds are devoted by the Emperor to the erection of a church.

HE CHANGED HIS PLANS.

Wilcox Wanted to Go to China and Bring Moreno Here.

The following letter from Robert W. Wilcox to Celso Caesar Moreno is telegraphed back from Washington to the Examiner:

"DEAR MORENO: I am tired of the Hawaiian question, and don't bother myself about it. There are too many cowards, and frauds, and fools in the ranks of the Royalists—the same that brought or rather allowed to make a successful revolution here through the cowardice of those in power. If they only realized their smallness then and allowed me my proper position in the army, I would have made Stevens know his position. He would not then have tried to violate his duties, nor would he have dared to assist in overturning the kingdom of the queen.

"My whole idea now is centered on China, and you should not be surprised if I come to Washington by next month. China is now open for me to make a splendid career and become a great man, rather than to stay here among ignorant statesmen, who do not understand me. My life has been wasted here these last five or six years.

"The queen thinks a great deal of you. We had a long conversation last Sunday, and I told her that she must have a premier who has brains, and she said to send to you to come as soon as she should be restored, as she has nobody here. If she had any thought of that when she was on her throne she would still be there.

"But the only hope I have, should I be successful in China, would be an alliance with this country, to be made immediately to save Hawaii's independence and that of the Hawaiians. The Hawaiians are with their queen, and they all prefer to starve rather than join the missionary 'Republic' farce. My best aloha to you. R. W. WILCOX."

LATE FOREIGN NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, JAN. 21. (Per S. S. Australia.)

UNITED STATES.

The Kansas House has adopted a concurrent resolution calling on Kansas Senators and Representatives in Congress to favor an amendment to the Constitution of the United States providing for the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people.

SERIOUS STRIKE IN BROOKLYN.

An electric railway strike in Brooklyn has produced so much disorder that the militia have to be called out. The local force not being sufficient, a brigade was sent over from New York. Several serious collisions happened between militia men and the strikers. In driving back the crowd the militia inflicted bayonet wounds on several persons including a woman.

EUROPE.

AN OLD STATESMAN RETIRES.

The Duke of Argyll has announced his retirement from public life, after having fainted while speaking at Glasgow. Next to Mr. Gladstone, he has had the longest and most noteworthy career of anyone now in English parliamentary life. The Duke succeeded to his title in 1847. In 1852 he was in the Cabinet. His eldest son, the Marquis of Lorne, is married to the Queen's daughter, the Princess Louise.

The Duke will always be kindly remembered by Americans, for he was about the only one among the British nobility who showed any regard for the Union. He was not only staunch throughout all our troubles, but he has been the constant friend of America and Americans ever since. He was intimate with Mr. Motley long before Motley dreamed of being Minister to England, and was one of the earliest to greet the historian on his arrival in London as Envoy.

FAURE IS PRESIDENT OF FRANCE.

France has escaped the melancholy distinction of being the first country to fall into the hands of the revolutionists. Felix Faure, a moderate Republican and a member of the present Cabinet, was elected President of the Republic by the National Assembly at Versailles, on January 17, to succeed President Casimir-Perier, resigned. He received 430 votes on the second ballot against 361 cast for the Radical candidate, M. Brisson.

The credit for this conservative victory is given to the handful of royalists remaining in parliament. They were patriotic enough to throw their votes for Faure instead of nominating a candidate of their own. There was a division of the moderate republicans between Faure and Waldeck-Rousseau, which might have proved fatal to their cause had not the royalist votes helped Faure to get 244 on the first ballot against 338 for Brisson and 184 for Waldeck-Rousseau. As soon as the result was known Waldeck-Rousseau wrote the following note: "I thank my colleagues of the Senate and Chamber for the honor done me in according to their support in being chosen now to transfer their votes to Felix Faure." The second ballot was begun without debate and united Republicanism triumphed.

OMINOUS QUIET.

The correspondent of the New York Sun says: The attitude of Paris throughout the crisis has been wonderfully calm. Popular indifference was so complete that it impressed me as an ominous feature of the situation. The Parisians have become so disquieted by an endless series of political scandals that it is almost true that they have lost confidence in all public men of all parties. The next step after this stage reaches France is apt to be an indiscriminate visitation of popular vengeance, which would not be confined to the ballot box, as in America. There are more grave scandals to be uncovered before the exposures are complete. Hence the political torpor of the Paris masses must be regarded as a bad sign.

THE EX-PRESIDENT DENOUNCED.

Public criticism of Casimir-Perier before his resignation was severe enough, but it is not to be compared to the storm of execration which still rages about him. "Coward," "traitor," "deserter," "second Judas," "another Dreyfus," are among the epithets hurled at him. The almost unanimous verdict of the European press condemns him. It is impossible to believe that he will rest silent under such abuse. His defense, when he chooses to make it, will contain some highly interesting revelations.

PRETENDERS ON THE MOVE.

The only gleam of humor in the trying hours of this crisis has been the solemn advance made by the Duke of Orleans from London to Dover in the hope of being called across the channel to mount the throne of France. To day's despatches tell that each of the little group of pretenders in their respective retreats felt encouraged to believe that the psychological moment had arrived when they would be permitted "to save France."

It is useless to say that there has not for any instant been the remotest thought in a sensible Frenchman's mind of turning for succor to any of these high-born weaklings. I do not deny that the opportunity has existed and probably will come again before the campaign of the social revolutionists ends, for terribly effective work by "the man on horseback," if he existed, but he is not here, and there is no sign of his coming.

Pistols Recovered.

Senior Captain Parker up to this morning secured thirty-nine of the rebels' pistols, all in good condition. With each pistol is a box containing fifty rounds of ammunition. Six of the pistols were found yesterday in the homes of Niolo and William Olepa, and near the California Feed Co.'s warehouse, where John Beko, one of the rebels, was employed.

Ivy Poisoning

Eight Years of Suffering

Perfect Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla

"Dear Sirs:—We have tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and find it to be all you claim for it. My wife was poisoned by Ivy when a young woman, and for eight years was troubled every season with the breaking out and terrible itching and burning. I thought there was as bad a case as anyone ever had. She was in this distressing condition every year until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has effected a perfect cure, without leaving any scars, and she has had."

No Sign of the Poison Since.

She is well and hearty. I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla after the grip with good results, and have also given it to our four children. We are all pictures of perfect health and owe it to Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. C. FREEMAN, Vandalia, Illinois.

N. B. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to buy any other instead.

Hood's Pills are hand made, and perfect in proportion and appearance. 25c. per box.

LADIES' COLUMN.

Popular approval goes far toward establishing the standing of a business house in any community, and the good-will and patronage we have had during the last forty years indicate, not only that we have the POPULAR APPROVAL, but that those who have dealt with us have eminently satisfied with their transactions.

We attract and retain patronage more by the EXCELLENCE OF QUALITIES SHOWN and OUR REASONABLE PRICES than by preposterous claims of selling goods below cost, etc.

We repeat—we have said before that when you pay less for goods than we ask for them you get an inferior quality.

While we carry a stock of dry goods that is complete in every sense from the lowest priced goods to the most luxurious made, we make a specialty of the highest grade, and exclusive designs of the most recent and accepted styles.

It is worth your while always in making purchases to look at our stock before deciding. If we have what you want you will certainly buy it, if quality and price are any consideration.

This week Ladies' Underwear in connection with our general stock will receive considerable attention; it is our intention to make a run of them and as the stock is an over large one, first buyers will have first choice.

Drink Hires' Root Beer!

This delicious temperance drink not only quenches thirst, but promotes and preserves good health. There's no drink in the world like HIRES' ROOT BEER, in composition, in preparation, or in popularity. Its wonderful success is a matter of history, and can only be explained by the fact that people everywhere recognize and appreciate its health and pleasure-giving qualities. They will not drink the worthless and injurious substitutes.

Ask your storekeeper for it. Made only by The Charles E. Hires Co., Philadelphia, U. S. A.

is a fair and comprehensive example of a cheap and centered lens. You think you get the same amount of relief from a cheap glass, because it may have the same amount of refractive power as the more costly. See where the above lens focuses. See the scattering of rays. As much spherical aberration in such glasses as there is aberration of the mind in an insane person; yet this is the general run of glasses you buy cheap. How long will your sensitive eye stand this strain? Why, until they are ruined entirely. Can you afford to wear such glasses, simply because they cost you a little less than the perfect? No, a thousand times, No. You could not if they were given you with a bonus. We will not sell such glasses; would not be guilty of giving them away. But we guarantee to fit every manner of complicated case with the proper and correctly ground glass, and to give perfect satisfaction.
