NATIVES SERIOUSLY ASK IT OF THE COMMISSION.

Present a Memorial This Morning, Which is Regarded as a Curiosity, Unequaled among Political Papers.

A delegation of the Kalaiaia society, composed of E. K. Liliokalani, L. W. P. Kanehille, Frank Silva, A. Kuleikau and M. Kane, were received by the Commission at 11 o'clock this morning. E. K. Liliokalani acted as spokesman of the party, and spoke in native, which President Dole interpreted. With as much bowing and scraping as he would have done in the presence of royalty, Liliokalani stated that the gentlemen with him represented the prominent and influential native society known as the Kalaiaia. That they had called to ask the honorable Commissioners and the honorable president to set a time to hear a memorial which had been agreed on at last night's meeting.

"We will hear you right now," said Senator Cullom.

But the delegation had not brought their memorial with them; they had supposed that so important a matter would take more than one visit to consummate, consequently they were told by Senator Cullom to go and get it and the Commission would hear it at once.

The memorial was presented in the afternoon. The following is the substance of it:

The undersigned being delegates of the Hawaiian Patriotic League, an organization which is composed of native Hawaiian people from all the districts of the Hawaiian Islands, assembled in a convention held in the city of Honolulu, Island of Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, on the 12th of September, A. D. 1898, hereby respectfully submit to your honorable Commission, the following resolutions:

The resolutions set forth Liliokalani's protest when yielding to the Provisional Government, January 7, 1898; President Cleveland's review of the situation in his message to Congress in December of the same year; alleges that the annexation treaty having failed, the joint resolution is ineffective because not passed by the people of the Hawaiian Islands or the representatives in the Legislature and concludes:

Therefore, be it Resolved, That as the representatives of a large and influential body of native Hawaiians, we solemnly pray that the constitutional government of the 16th day of January, A. D. 1893, be restored, under the protection of the United States of America.

COURTESIES ACCEPTED.

It was arranged this morning that the Commissioners will accept the hospitalities of the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday and be their guests for a tour over the Oahu railway and a visit to the Ewa plantation pumping plants and mill. The special train will leave the depot at 8 o'clock and go direct to the end of the road. Lunch will be furnished at the Dillingham ranch at Waiialua. Returning, the party will visit the Ewa and Oahu plantations and spend as much time there as the length of the trip will permit.

All the Commissioners except President Dole will go on the trip, as well as the two attaches of the Commission and several members of the Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Cullom, and Mrs. Ridgeley will not go, having made previous engagements. If the members of the Cabinet, who have been invited, accept, there will be about forty-five in the party.

NEW BOOK ABOUT HAWAII

CASPER WHITNEY IS HERE TO WRITE IT.

Comes Right From Santiago, Where He Saw Newspapers Sold on the Battlefield During the Fighting.

Casper Whitney, the recognized authority on amateur sports, and a most extensive traveler and explorer, is in Honolulu, almost direct from the seat of war in Cuba.

Mr. Whitney left New York a year ago to travel and hunt big game in Siam, Anam and Indo-China, for the purpose of writing a book on the subject and the countries he visited. He had scarcely secured his material, and had not written a line when the war broke out and Harper & Brothers sent him to Cuba. He was with General Shafter throughout the fighting around Santiago and shared with the troops the dangers of the trenches and hasty fortifications of the advance on San Juan.

After the surrender of Santiago Mr. Whitney went to New York, spent ten days writing of what he had seen with Shafter and then came direct here. He will write a series of articles, to be published in Harper's publications and afterwards in book form, on the Hawaiian Islands. He will treat the subject descriptively, historically, politically and economically.

Mr. Whitney is a writer who sees and investigates the things he writes about. His reputation has been made by knowing what he was talking about.

Speaking of some of the odd things of the war, Mr. Whitney said that during the second day's fight at San Juan a Chicago newsboy rode a mule along the trenches which marked the line of battle, calling out "Chicago Record," the paper he had for sale. He sold hundreds during the battle, as this was the first American paper that had reached the soldiers for days. While the newsboy was not in any particular danger while actually going along the line of the trenches in order to get there, going back and forth for fresh supplies he had to pass through a zone of great danger.

This is probably the first time in the history of the world where newspapers have been sold on a battlefield during the progress of a battle.

OLD SCENES RENEWED.

The departure of the Australia yesterday afternoon presented a typical Honolulu scene which has not been witnessed here for four months. The Australia is the first "local" steamer to sail since the regular steamship service began to be interrupted by the necessities of the war last May. Since the last trip of the Zealandia, the Australia is the first steamer to sail on which all the passengers were from Honolulu, either visitors or residents. And as there was a very large passenger list there was a very large crowd at the wharf. The band was there; the public was there. For an hour before sailing time the decks and gang plank of the Australia were crowded with people with armsful of leis for departing friends. It was an animated and striking scene. It was one of those sights which visitors remember pleasantly almost longer than any other.

WANT TO SEE THE ISLANDS

BIG TOURIST PARTIES FROM MINNEAPOLIS.

Interest in Hawaii is Very Intense in Every State Whence Manila Bound Soldiers Boys Come.

George W. Parker of the Minneapolis Times, a passenger on the City of Columbia, is here making arrangements for the series of excursions from Minneapolis to the Islands, which the Times is about to inaugurate.

He says that the entertainment of the soldiers here on their way to Manila and the annexation of the Islands has created a widespread interest in Hawaii which manifests itself in a desire on the part of thousands to visit the Pearl of the Pacific. Especially in Minnesota and the northwest, the region from which so many soldiers who passed through here came, is their interest manifest. Thousands of letters of inquiry have been written to the Times and to Robert W. Shingle, the Hawaiian Commissioner at the Omaha Exposition. It was in response to these inquiries and to gratify these desires to visit the Islands that the Minneapolis Times undertook these excursions, and Commissioner Shingle is working in co-operation.

Two excursions have already been arranged, and others will be, if the desire for them continues. The first will leave Minneapolis November 5th, over the Northern Pacific, to Seattle, sailing thence on the City of Columbia November 8th, for Hilo. Time enough will be spent there to visit the Volcano and see something of the Big Island, and a week will be spent in Honolulu.

The second excursion will leave Minneapolis in January. Each party is limited to about 100, and a rate of $250 for the round trip has been made.

Mr. Parker says the people who have already arranged to come are largely people of means, who come for the purpose of seeing the newly acquired territory, and some of them, if they see an opening, to invest. Mr. Parker while here will make the hotel arrangements and the arrangements for entertainment while here. He comes with letters of introduction from Commissioner Shingle to a number of government people.

Feeling on the Scandia in Regard to Them.

When the transport Scandia left San Francisco, the California Red Cross Society put aboard a quantity of supplies for the use of the hospital corps on the trip to Manila. These were in addition to the supplies sent for the use of the soldiers in Manila, and for the use of the sick soldiers which it was then expected would be brought back. It comprised cocoa, chocolate, malted milk, permanganate of potash, Jamaica ginger, listerine, condensed milk, lime juice, clam jelly, dried fruit, farina, chipped beef and all the things that make a long sea voyage on a transport pleasant.

Mrs. Harrington, the manager of this department of the California Red Cross, gave a list of the articles sent to members of the hospital corps. The supplies were put in charge of a representative of the Red Cross. But as complaint had been made from previous transports that similar supplies sent had never been received by those for whom they were intended, Mrs. Harrington requested the members of the hospital corps on the Scandia to report to her if they did not get what was sent, and it was for that purpose that the list was given.

But the men of the hospital corps on the Scandia say that they have yet received none of these supplies. None were issued to them on the trip from San Francisco here, and they are now wondering whether any will be issued between here and Manila. These supplies are not in the control of the army officers nor of the ship's officers, but of the agent of the Red Cross. The hospital corps men when they asked him about the matter found him to be very evasive and contradictory in replies, at one time denying that he had any and at another that they were not to be used until after Manila was reached. The Red Cross agent has been away from the Scandia almost continuously since she has been in port, and considerable feeling has been worked up concerning the matter among the men of the hospital corps.

MADE A GOOD IMPRESSION

HAWAIIAN NATIONAL LEAGUE COMMITTEE.

Present Their Memorial to the Commissioners This Morning and Were Asked Many Questions.

The Hawaiian National League presented their memorial to the Commission this morning at 10 o'clock. The committee were before the Commission nearly an hour, many questions being put to them by the Commissioners directed to last night's royalist meeting, for which the Commissioners seemed to seek an explanation. From the tone of questions and the evident desire of the Commission to ascertain all that was possible about the leaders of the royalist meeting, it would appear that a very bad impression has been effected by it in the minds of some at least of the Commissioners. Other questions put to the committee touched on the franchise.

The Hawaiian National League by its committee duly appointed by the several delegates of the several branch associations from the several Islands at a meeting duly held in Honolulu, on the 12th day of September, 1898, respectfully ask you to embody in your report as part of your recommendation to Congress the following:

The form of government which would meet the approval and serve the best interests of these Islands would be in our humble opinion that of an organized territorial form of government with the right to administer our own local affairs in the widest manner possible, not in conflict with the interests of the Federal Government. Our reasons for asking for this form of government are:

First—That we have been accustomed for the past fifty years or more to exercise the highest prerogatives of a sovereign state.

Second—That in the exercise of these sovereign rights we have kept ourselves free from foreign entanglements, and have given the greatest amount of protection to life and property, enabling subjects of other nations to enjoy the benefits of a free and enlightened government.

Third—That under the new order of things, the form of government we pray for will enable us to qualify ourselves for statehood, should wealth and population favor us.

We pray that we be given the right to vote in all local affairs compatible with a representative government, without any restriction except that of an educational one. Our reasons for asking for the suffrage in this form are:

First—We believe that every person living in a representative government should have the right to participate therein, and as we have had a representative form of government heretofore, the exercise of such right is neither new nor strange to us.

Second—We believe that the imposition of a property qualification is not compatible to the best interests of all, but gives to the property holder an over-powering influence not in accordance with the constitution of the United States, or with its policy, that enlightenment or intellectually shall be the guiding star of its institutions.

We pray that our judiciary system shall be kept in the present form as near as possible, and that our supreme court be the last court of resort in all matters pertaining to our local affairs. Our reasons for asking this are:

First—That our present system has given us the fullest measure of justice.

Second—That it would work a great hardship to us if appeals were to be taken to the United States which none but the rich could afford to.

We pray that no contract laborers be allowed to come into the country, but ask that a transition state be allowed the agricultural interests of the country, to adjust themselves to the new conditions of things. We ask this for these reasons:

First—That the existence of contract laborers is degrading, and contrary to the spirit of the laws and policy of the United States.

Second—That we believe the agricultural interests of the country could be best served under the new order of things by applying the principle of co-operation; this will then bring into the country a desirable class of people, who will make homes and develop the latent resources of the country.

Third—That as nearly all lands are now held in the hands of a few, and are being held and will be held in large tracts as long as a cheap class of laborers are imported; but by excluding them, and applying the principle of co-operation the lands will be divided into small holdings thereby benefiting the people and country at large.

We pray that the laws relating to piscatorial rights in the Hawaiian Islands be abolished.

We pray that the local flag of Hawaii, be the flag which we have been accustomed to live under; such act of courtesy will be most pleasing and agreeable to the people of these Islands.

We pray that in the formation of our local government we be allowed to make appropriations for Ex-Queen Liliokalani, Princess Victoria Kaiulani and Queen Dowager Kapiolani.

BIGGEST PLANTATION YET

BELIEF THAT OAHU WILL GROW INTO THAT.

Capital Stock is to be Increased to $2,400,000, and the Property of the Company Fully Developed.

Oahu may be expected to develop into the largest plantation on the Islands, with the possible exception of Pioneer Mill.

This is the plan and belief of the managers of the company. It has the land and it is proposed now to develop it.

At a meeting of the shareholders this morning it was voted to increase the capital stock by 6,000 shares making the total capitalization $2,400,000. The new stock will be issued November 15th, and sold at par, payable as assessments are called for, to the stockholders pro rata. The money derived, as well as that now being collected on the outstanding assessable stock, will be used to put in two new pumping plants this year and to develop the land owned by the company. This plan is adopted instead of issuing bonds. The general belief is that the plantation by this action will be put on a dividend paying basis sooner than if the enlarging plans had not been undertaken.

NEW QUARTERS.

Stock Exchange Goes Into Its Permanent Location.

The Stock Exchange is in its new and permanent quarters. Today's session was held in the rooms known as the Hawaiian Lodge Rooms, on the corner of Fort and Queen streets. There are accommodations for visitors here, and the sessions of the Exchange will hereafter be open to visitors.

Of between board sales two blocks of Oahu assessable, one of eleven and the other of twenty-five shares, were reported sold at 125, and five shares of Ewa at 240.

On the Exchange eight shares of Ewa were sold at 240.

The prices asked for stocks on the call were: Ewa, 240; Hawaiian Sugar, 175; Homomai, 330; Honokaa, 395; Kahului, 150; Oahu assessable, 120 bid, 125 asked; Ooia, 100; Pacific Sugar Mill, 250; Pepeekeo, 212 1/2; Pioneer Mill, 397 1/2.

THEY WANT THEIR QUEEN

Restoration Speeches Made at the Meeting of the Kalaiaina Society on Union Square Last Night.

The so-called mass meeting of natives on Union square last night under the auspices of the Kalaiaina society brought out between two and three hundred natives. The meeting did just exactly what The Star said it would, passed a set of resolutions to be included in a memorial to the Annexation Commission, recommending that the monarchy as it existed prior to 1893 be restored, and that Liulokalani once more be allowed to reign over her people.

After a Mr. Kanui had been made president of the meeting, and had stated its object, D. Kalaoukalani read the memorial proposed to be addressed to the Commission.

Kamakeli, a delegate from Maui, was the first speaker. He had little to say except that he swallowed the memorial whole and at one gulp.

E. K. Liliokalani made the longest speech of the evening, and probably said the least of any of the speakers. His topic was Hawaiian independence and the fitness of the Hawaiians for self government.

Robert W. Wilcox, he of revolutionary fame, appeared in his latest lightning change act. While a few weeks ago he was an ardent annexationist, and took the oath of allegiance in order to qualify himself for a full pardon for past misdeeds, he is now convinced that he was wrong.

The natives had been robbed of their country, first by the Provisional Government, then by the Republic and now by the United States. "It is useless to say that the flag over three (pointing to the Stars and Stripes over the government building) will not come down again," said the irrepressible revolutionist. "It was up before, and came down. The wrong was shown then and it can be shown again. It will be shown that the annexation movement was carried through by a handful of foreigners, and I tell you, the flag of the United States will then come down. If America loves us, why were not Hawaiians placed on the Commission? We are not represented there. Next thing we shall not be able to vote. No benefit to us can come out of the arrangement. Speak your minds. No one can hold your tongues. Persevere. Work for restoration."

Tom Clark, a Wailuku delegate, told his hearers that they were led by lawyers, ministers and kahuna. Laziness and drunkenness prevailed among the race. It was time to leave liquor alone and go to work, to save money to buy back the lands lost in the past seventy-five years. He blamed the people for not taking the oath under the Provisional Government and getting their way through the ballot.

D. Kalaoukalani closed the meeting by saying that the three principles of the memorial were, first, expressing disapproval of annexation; second, praying the return of Hawaiian independence, and third, the restoration of the monarchy. The memorial was adopted and three cheers were given.

Made From Hawaiian Fruit.

The Guava, like the Mango, a fruit which furnishes food for many a people throughout all tropical countries, possesses medicinal virtues which are certainly beneficial. A famous English writer, in treating on the subject, stated that the Almighty might have made a better fruit, but if so it had not been discovered.

Guava

Within our shores we grow a bountiful supply of these fruits, and as their value is well known the introduction of the name is sufficient to insure the endorsement of most all who have indulged in eating the fruit.

Cordial

We have prepared a Cordial from the fruit of the Guava which cannot be surpassed for correcting bowel troubles. A sure panacea for dysentery and summer complaint. Safe to administer to children. The taste is quite pleasant.

Corrects.

Most bowel correctants produce unsatisfactory results on account of their constipating tendency. Guava Cordial will not constipate.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1898.

It was a pleasure to see the familiar Australia, with the well known faces of her officers, bearing away so many kamainas. The Australia is essentially our own boat and we cannot help having a thorough aloha for her. She has carried hundreds, nay thousands, of our people for business, for pleasure, in health, in sickness, in happiness, in sorrow. Many memories happiness, in sorrow.

The career of the late Theophilus H. Davies shows what can be done by a man of ability and frugality in early life. Mr. Davies in less than forty years raised himself from the position of a subordinate clerk with a very small salary and no "pull" or influence to one of the foremost financial positions on the Islands. He told the writer many years ago that out of his first year's small salary he saved $30. That $30 may be regarded as the foundation stone of the $2,000,000 which he willed away at his death.

"AT SIXES AND SEVENS."

One would think that after the exhibition of discordant views which have been presented to the Congressional Commission during the last few days a lesson will have been learned. The three Commissioners will go back to Washington with an idea that no two people can be gotten together upon any one subject. The cause of this is our insularity and not to put too fine a point upon it, our selfishness. Instead of taking broad views of what will benefit the whole, we are apt to look at what will only benefit a small section of the whole. The lesson that the whole country has to learn is the lesson of sinking small differences for great ends.

In the United States there are very great sectional differences. The ways of life, the aspirations of the East are very different from the ways of life and the aspirations of the Far West, and the Middle West and the South differ materially from one another, and also from the other two. But there is one bond which unites all these differentiations into two great camps, and that bond is the political party. It is exactly the same in Great Britain, which although in name a monarchy, is of a truth a republic, and there the sectional differences between the rugged North and the softer Southern counties, between the mining, the manufacturing, the agricultural and other interests, meet upon one common plane, and for the purposes of government rally round the party. There may be divisions in the ranks, there may be divergences of opinion among the leaders of sections, but when it comes to broad legislation, all divisions and all sectional differences are laid aside, and the party advances to victory or to defeat as a unit.

If great countries can manage their affairs with the myriad opposing interests, and can state a policy broadly to the world, surely a small one should be able to do so. With us, some come forward and ask for a state government, others want a territory, but upon the exact form of the territory they are not decided, they have a dozen modifications to propose to the regular form of territory which the United States usually has granted. Others again want government by commission, with a vote for no one. Even the lawyers are not decided. There was a meeting of the bar the other day, and a memorandum was drawn up and presented to the commissioners. But there is another section of the bar which does not agree with the sentiments expressed in that memorandum, and which will consequently get up another memorandum of its own.

One is very forcibly reminded of the homely proverb of "too many cooks spoil the broth." It is to be hoped the broth will not be spoiled; it is not likely to be spoiled, because, after all, the Hawaiian cooks who have been holding up handfuls of impossible and antagonistic ingredients won't have any chance of getting them into the cauldron, but will have to eat their little flavorings themselves, with the best grace they can. The cooks at Washington will prepare the meal that we shall have to eat, and will spice it to suit themselves, without much consideration as to particular palates.

Then there will come a change over us, and we shall understand our position in the world, and it will be a very small one, but we shall understand that the only way we will be able to get what we want is by joining some great party organization. We shall lose our insularity, sink our selfishness and become worthy citizens of a great state, which at present we are not.

The three hundred Kalaikaina resurrectionists have demonstrated their utter unfitness for dealing with the questions of the hour. They are a section which has taken the bit within its teeth and will listen to reason from no one. There are those, who viewing the suicidal policy of these people, pretend to believe that they have been urged on by their opponents. There is nothing of the kind, it is only a clear case of giving a fool rope enough, and his getting completely entangled in it.

R. W. Wilcox bobs up serenely as a restorer of monarchy. Not long ago he was for having annexation and enrolled himself as a member of the Annexation Club; he was demonstrating how nothing but annexation would do the Islands good, and how vicious was monarchy. Now with a breath he considers that the Stars and Stripes can be run down and the Hawaiian flag once more run up.

Of course the astute and erudite E. Lilikalani appears upon the restoration scene. Mr. Lilikalani is a man of such weight, his intellect is so vast, his learning so great, that he must be the bulwark of any cause he takes up. There is one thing that this gentleman can do, he can talk, talk by the yard, talk by the hour. It is of him that Interpreter Wilcox said when called upon to translate, "The gentleman has been saying the same thing for the past two hours, as soon as he says something new I will inform the house." Now this is true eloquence, modeled no doubt on Cato's celebrated "Delenda est Carthago."

There was one man who talked sense, and that was Tom Clark of Wailuku. He advised the Hawaiians to go to work. They would win the respect of the Commissioners and of Congress if they followed his advice, but among the crowd he was talking to the idea of work would be by no means congenial. Restoration to them means free luau and unlimited laziness.

It is a pity such a section of the Hawaiian race should thrust itself forward and spoil the chances of the conservative and worthy. Senator Morgan's words published in yesterday's Star should be carefully pondered over by the Hawaiians. The game is in their own hands. They can make or mar themselves, and the exhibition given last evening will go far to mar them.

THE WORLD MOVES.

We have only to go back to the time of Charles I. to come upon the discovery of the circulation of the blood. To day we understand that the life of the body is in the blood, and that impurities in it are the seeds of disease. Whatsoever improves the digestion and stimulates the Liver, Lungs and Kidneys, drives out these impurities, or disease germs, and enriches the blood, and is, therefore, the source of health and strength. Thus far in the history of medicine nothing has been so successful in this as

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION, of the nutritive Properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, Malt and Wild Cherry. It makes fat which is like fuel to the system; is scientifically combined, and a specific for Fevers, Bowel Complaints, Debility and wasting diseases. There is no bad taste to it. You get all the curative properties of the cod liver oil, but not a whit of its offensiveness. How different from the old-fashioned mixtures! Well, the world moves, and this remedy illustrates the fact. It is a scientific modern combination of the best of curatives made palatable as honey. Sold by all chemists.

Of the multitudes who have used our preparation, or are now using it, we have never heard of any one who has been disappointed in it. No claims are made for it except those which are amply justified by experience. In commending it to the afflicted we simply refer to its record. It has done great things, and it is certain to continue the excellent work. There is—we may honestly affirm—the medicine which can be used with greater and more reasonable confidence. It nourishes and keeps up the strength during those periods when the appetite fails and food cannot be digested.

RED CROSS AS HOSTESS

A HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL BALL IS GIVEN.

The Red Cross and Progress Hall were both introduced to society as social factors last evening, and society voted them both excellent.

As hostess and managers of a gay public function the ladies of the Red Cross proved in their official capacity as charming and efficient as they have so often proved themselves in their private and individual capacity. And Progress Hall was demonstrated an ideal place for a ball. High up where it catches the breezes, surrounded by enclosed verandas, which are ideal for between the dances purposes, the octagonal shape of the room lends itself admirably to decorative purposes, at least when decoration is in the hands of Mrs. Hutchinson, the Misses Patey, Miss Hall and the Misses Afong, who had charge of it for last evening's affair.

Alternate streamers of pepper tree leaves and maile extended from the center of the cathedral glass ceiling to the angles of the room. Potted palms with a few flowers were used effectively in the verandas. The effect was light and delicate, rather than profuse and heavy.

The officers of the Red Cross Society were the patronesses and reception committee of the ball. There were present Mrs. E. K. Wilder, Mrs. H. M. Sewall, the Princess Kaiulani, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. C. B. Cooper, Mrs. John Luens, Mrs. M. C. Widdifield and Mrs. E. W. Jordan. Mrs. Widdifield had executive management of the affair.

The Government band orchestra furnished the music and there were fourteen numbers on the program, besides several extras.

Both the army and navy were well represented and society was out in force.

It was highly successful socially, and will add materially to the funds of the society.

REGATTA DAY.

Regatta Day promises much this year. Eighteen events have been scheduled, ranging from a yacht race to a tub race. Entries close Thursday afternoon, September 15th, at 4 o'clock, for all the events except the swimming, diving and tub races. The entries for these do not close until the start of the races.

The racing rules of the Hawaiian Rowing Association govern.

AN EQUITY CASE.

The equity suit of the Hawaiian Agricultural Company vs. Samuel Norris was tried before Judge Perry yesterday, and decision reserved.

APPOINTED ADMINISTRATOR.

DUST CLOAKS.

A dust cloak at one time was a loose garment which was easily donned and served the purpose of protecting one's clothes from the hateful dust, but now a days the dust cloak is as smart as any other coat, and its form closely resembles both the race coat and the ulster, a sort of cross between the two. It is a wrap or covering which people would find it economy to indulge in far more than they do.

SHARP PRACTICE.

"I don't suppose my wife will speak to me again for a week."

"Why?"

"About a month ago I bought a new razor without letting her know it, and since then she's kept on ripping seams with the old one. When she found out last night how she had been fooled her consternation was really pitiful."—Cleveland Leader.

A KICKER.

Charles—The seventeen-year locust now devastating the West has 120 times the kicking power of a man.

Clara—Is that so, Charles?

"Yes, I read it in a scientific work."

WAS HER GRANDSON.

Dude (to the theater doorkeeper): "Ah, could you—aw—let me see—aw—Mdlle. de Montfort? You know her—chawming young creature, with blond hair, don't you know. Dawnces—aw—in the ballet." Doorkeeper (gruffly): "No, you can't see her, young feller. If you have any message, give it to me. I'm her grandson."

THE CHINESE EDITOR.

They have fearfully and wonderfully polite ways of doing things in the Celestial Empire. In America, editors decline manuscripts in language curt and sometimes almost profane, but in China it is said that the editor takes an entirely different tone. This is a specimen:

"Here is a copy of a letter forwarded by a Chinese editor to a contributor when returning a manuscript: 'Behold thy slave, prostrate at thy feet! Bent before thee, I beg permission still to live and speak! Thine honored manuscript has deigned to let fall on us the light of its inspiring contents. I have read it with enthusiasm. By the bones of my ancestors I have never found such wit, combined with such sublime pathos. I send it back with fear and trembling. For, were I to make public such a treasure, the emperor would order it to be used as a standard, and then one would not dare to publish aught that did not resemble it. Those who know literature as I do, know that from now until ten thousand years hence nothing can appear equal to it. This is why I return thy MS.'"

SCROFULA

It is Foul Blood's Advertisement

Yes, Scrofula, if anything, may be called the advertisement of foul blood. It is the scourge of the world—offensive, painful, debilitating, stubborn and well nigh unendurable.

Outward applications do not cure, they only drive the difficulty to new quarters. Emollients may palliate, they cannot abolish the evil. There is but one sure way out, and that is to eliminate the taint from the blood.

There is one remedy that can effect this, and it is the only one that, so far as we know, has almost invariably succeeded—even where the system has been poisoned by long years of taint, and the ravages to be repaired are tremendous. That remedy is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Read this:

"My daughter was afflicted with impure blood. There were running sores all over her body and they caused her much suffering. We tried medicines that were recommended as blood purifiers, but could not see that they did any good. A friend told me about Hood's Sarsaparilla and I began giving the girl this medicine. The result was that she was perfectly cured after taking a few bottles. She has had no symptoms of scrofula sores since that time." MARIETTA M. SMITH, South Middleboro, Mass.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Insist upon Hood's; take no substitute.

The cleanest, brightest safest and really, for the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give us figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp tipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."

This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with this perfect light. Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want. melt these flakes of dandruff in the scalp. It goes further than this: it prevents their formation.

It has still other properties: it will restore color to gray hair in just ten out of every ten cases.

And it does even more: it feeds and nourishes the roots of the hair. Thin hair becomes thick hair; and short hair becomes long hair.

THEO. DAVIES' LAST WILL

ESTATE IS VALUED AT ABOUT $2,000,000.

Clive Davies Gets the Interest in the Iron Works and George F. Davies the Property in Canada.

The will of Theo. H. Davies was filed yesterday afternoon, together with the petition of F. M. Swanzy for letters testamentary in these Islands. The value of the real estate set forth in the petition at $40,000 and the personal property, including stocks and bonds at par, at $1,574,000.

T. Rain Walker, F. M. Swanzy, T. Clive Davies and George F. Davies are named as executors and the following compose a permanent board of trustees: Ellen Davies, the widow; T. Clive Davies, George F. Davies, Frederick J. Jackson and Thomas Rain Walker. These selections were made and the will was signed in 1897.

To his widow Mr. Davies leaves all of his personal effects in England. The English homestead known as 840-down goes to the trustees and is to be preserved and used by the family as a homestead as tenants at will. European, Indian and Canadian stocks and bonds go to the trustees for the benefit of the several trusts named in the will.

Craigside, in Honolulu, and the adjoining land, recently purchased, go into the hands of the trustees to be preserved as a Hawaiian home for the family, to be used by the widow or any one or all of the children at will.

Sixty thousand pounds in English bonds are to be invested for the benefit of the widow, becoming an annuity, and to continue during her lifetime. At her death the interest accrues to the children.

T. Clive Davies is given all the interest of deceased in the Honolulu Iron Works.

To George F. Davies he bequeathed all the lands, buildings and other property belonging to the estate at Winnipeg, Canada.

For the special benefit of the minor children a trust of 50,000 pounds is established, the interest upon which, up to the time each attains the age of 25, is to be paid in the shape of annuities, for the expense of education, etc. The trust is divided into five parts of 10,000 pounds each and is to be held for the benefit of the following children: Arthur Wickliffe, Theo. Maxwell, Harry Llanover, Alice Marian and Violet Mary Davies. This trust is to come out of the following stocks held by Mr. Davies:

Six thousand and sixty shares of Theo. H. Davies & Co.; 200 debentures of Theo. H. Davies & Co., £200 each, 5 per cent; 20 shares Union Mill Co.; 1,250 shares Waiakoa Mill Co.; 1,200 shares Hamakua Mill Co.; 450 shares Kahuku Plantation Co.; all the shares in the Laupahoehoe Sugar Co.; a half interest in Kukaia Mill Co.

Thirty thousand pounds invested in American securities is placed in the hands of the trustees, the profits upon which are to accrue in equal proportions to the children.

Five hundred pounds per year to Margaretta Dredge, of England, sister of deceased.

One hundred pounds a year to each of the three daughters of Mrs. Dredge.

One hundred pounds a year to each of the three daughters of the late Mary Anne Jackson, sister of deceased.

Additional bequests made from the estate are:

Four sons of Mrs. Jackson, 1,000 pounds each.

Two sons of Mrs. Dredge, 1,000 pounds each.

Son of late brother, Frederick Davies, 1,000 pounds.

F. M. Swanzy is appointed managing director of the business of Theo. H. Davies & Co., in Honolulu.

THE SHIPS DEWEY SUNK.

The question of making an effort to raise some of the ships sunk by Admiral Dewey's fleet in Manila bay has been before the navy department for some time, but it is vehemently denied by naval officials, as a rumor had it, that a St. Louis wrecking firm will get the contract. Officials say the suggestion is preposterous, and that if it should be deemed feasible to save some of the ships bids therefor will be regularly received, with the chances that either a San Francisco or a Hongkong firm will be awarded the contract owing to their contiguity to the work.

THE WAGNER CULT.

English admirers of Wagner are about to build a theater near London to be dedicated to the performance of the mater's works with all the approved accessories, hidden orchestra, darkened auditorium and afternoon performances. The theater will not be conducted for pecuniary profit. The Wagner cult is growing and extending.

HAD MANY AILMENTS.

Japan is now fitting its new warships with improved torpedoes, vastly superior to those in the British or any other navy. The new torpedoes, of which fifty are being made, are 24 inches in diameter, and are calculated to go at a speed of 35 knots for a distance of 2,000 yards.

LORD WOLSELEY.
Lord Wolseley is almost as devoted to the pen as the sword, and if he had not been fated to be a field marshal he would beyond question have been a man of letters. He rises early in the morning to write, and his official duties only commence when a pile of MS. testifies to his industry with the pen. For some time past he has employed a number of copyists in making extracts for him in the archives of Venice.

D. 1898, to the highest bidder, all the right, title and interest of said defendant, James K. WHY NOT BUY A SINGER?
You want a sewing machine? Then why not buy a Singer; there has been more of them sold than any other make. They wear longer, run lighter and do better work than any other make. They have never been a cut price machine, the workmanship on the Singer will not admit of cut prices. A few dollars in the original cost between a good machine and a poor one counts for nothing. B. Bergerson, agent, Bethel street.

ABOUT REPAIR WORK.

There is a great deal that might be said about repair work and a great deal that it is better to leave unsaid.

We claim to have the facilities, workmen and experience which enables us to turn out work that is entirely satisfactory to you and to us. We never slight any work entrusted to us but rather, the reverse, by making a little better job than you anticipated. In the long run it pays us—for when you next have a job—you naturally bring it to us.

Do you like our policy?
