SKIN DISEASE CURED BY Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Mr. Geo. W. Turner, Keokuk, Iowa, writes, as follows: "Shortly after leaving college, I was troubled with a skin disease which showed itself first at the ankles. Physicians pronounced it eczema, and treated me for that complaint. The eruption spread over my limbs, and on the body, until it enveloped the whole frame. It gave me intense itching with constant itching, causing loss of my sleep, and a watery fluid which would ended from under the scales. I treated it for over three years unsuccessfully, and was unable to check it until I began using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I used three bottles of this medicine and my skin became as smooth and clear as before."

HE KNEW. Dr. 'Lias Explains What He Knows About Rheumatism.

There was an old ducky in southern Illinois who wanted to join the ministry. He had progressed through many years of trial and tribulation from the position of chief deacon and honest robber of the community to the members' bench, to membership, to a deaconate, and finally to the dignified office of sexton and chief bell ringer of the white folks' church in his same town. He couldn't read, but his granddaughter Lucindy could, and he made her read to him every evening from the good book and profectly paddled her with a beater three times a week that she might fear God. He was finally brought before the board of examination, which was conducted as follows:

"Ever 'Lias, do you know the Bible?" "Yes, praise de Lawd."

"Ever 'Lias, do you believe it to be the word of God?" "Yes, dat I do, praise de Lawd."

"Do you believe the parables?" "Dat I do. Ever 'Lias, do dem parables is facts, or no?" "Gospel truth."

"Do you know any of them well enough to repeat, Dr. 'Lias?" "Dat I do. I know dem all, but dat one of Potiphar and Joseph is de truest an' mos' powerful one ob all. Hit goes dis way: In his charity 'Lias, I'm glad to see you. He drove 'long 'til he w'en 'long come Joseph. She say, 'Wite man, gimme a ride, an he done tick 'er up behin him in his chariot. An he went along a lil further an fell among 'twees. An dey say, 'Frow down Joseph!"

"An Potiphar, he say, 'Let him among you widout sin cas' de his stone.' 'But dey say all de tender, 'Frow down Joseph!"

"An finally he frow down Joseph. But dey warn satisfied an yell, 'Frow down Joseph!"

"An he frow her down ergin. An dey yell you out, 'Frow her down some mo'!" An he frow her down sebn' times. But dey was dat mean dey warn's satisfy nohow, an dey call a hullier, 'Frow down Joseph!"

"An he frow her down sebn' times sebn'. An ob de remanue dey goldered up sebn' baskets full." -Washington Post.

She Wanted to Know. An old lady in Ogletown county, Ga., boarded the north bound R. & D. train. At every station she fanned her hand to her ear and screamed out to the conductor:

"Is this Toccoa?" Annoyed by her persistent query, the conductor said: "Madam, when we get to Toccoa I will let you know."

Presently a party of picknickers got aboard, and the conductor, in the confusion of getting the ladies all seated, passed Toccoa and several other small stations before his promise to the old lady, according to a recent ruling of the railroad commissioner of Georgia, the tenure of his position was jeopardized by such negligence, he ordered all the brakes on, and at the end of 15 minutes he had backed into Toccoa.

"Madam," he said, reaching out for the old lady's hand and green cotton umbrella, "this is Toccoa."

"Thankee, sir, thankee," (reaching and fumbling down into her green reticule, and finally catching out a little round box), "my sis Sue told me I mustn't fergit to take my pill when I got at Toccoa!" -Detroit Free Press.

Progressive. "Yes," said the old man, addressing his young visitor, "I'm proud of my girls, and should like to see them all comfortably married, and as I've made a little money they won't go to their husbands penniless. There's Mary, 25 years old, and a real good girl. I shall give her $1,000 when she marries. Then comes Bet, who won't see $3 again, and shall have $2,000, and the man who takes Eliza, who is 40, will have $3,000 with her."

The young man reflected a moment or so, and then nervously inquired, "You haven't one about 50, have you?" -Tit Bits.

Time to Consider. "Will you be my wife?" "I cannot answer such a question as that without taking time to consider."

"Pardon my impetuosity. How long must I wait?" "I think there will be time for you to close the doors and turn down the light a little." -Puck.

Too Exposed. Tom - I like your new house. What a charming vista one gets through these parlors into the library!"

Kitty - Yes, but my brother says I'll never have any luck until the portieres are up. -Life.

The Man For the Place. Visitor - How did it happen that such an unpopular man as Grumpy got elected road inspector by such an unprecedented majority?"

Host - Grumpy rides a bicycle - Good News.

A Pet Dog and a Husband. "I can't understand how Mrs. Smiley can waste so much of her time with her pet dog."

"Well, you would if you had ever met her husband." -Chicago Inter Ocean.

Obviously Unappreciated. "Why do you think Amosie is not a man of experience?"

"Because last night he asked one girl if she didn't think that a certain other girl was pretty." -Chicago Record.

From New Zealand Change of Climate Brought on Rheumatism

Perfect Cure Effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla - Better Health Than Ever.

Many homes are sad because of the failing health of some dear one, - a mother breaking down under heavy household cares, father weakened by advancing years and hard, incessant myself or undress, and some days I could not walk across the room. One time I thought I should have to use crutches. I was attended by two doctors and they did me no good whatever. Learning about Hood's Sarsaparilla, I made up my mind to give it a fair trial, and I Bless the Happy Day I did, for the good it has done me. I can't speak too highly of it, and I am sure all who suffer with rheumatism, if they will have the faith in Hood's Sarsaparilla and give it a fair trial, it will do the same for them as it has done for me. I am now taking the eighth bottle and I can safely say I feel as well today as any day in my life. My age is 32 years, and I have lived in New Zealand since 15 years of age.

I am glad to learn from a copy of your "New Banner" that Hood's Sarsaparilla is now on sale in New Zealand, and that the headquarters is at Christchurch. I am well acquainted in that city and know many of

The Leading Drug Stores there, some of which I will mention. There are

"G. BONNINGTON, "G. S. COOKE, "W. P. TOWNSEND, "GOULD & CO., "COOK & ROSS, "J. BAXTER, "H. BARKER, "W. J. COOPER, "STEVENSSON, and others.

"I shall write to my friends in Christchurch and recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to them. We also lived in Port Lyttelton toil, brother or sister, growing thinner every day, or suffering from some insidious disease of the blood. Such homes may be made bright and happy again by the restoration of health and vigor which will follow the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla. It makes pure blood and thus cures disagreeable eruptions, gives nerve strength, good appetite, and perfect digestion. In the most natural and healthy way Hood's Sarsaparilla really makes the weak strong. Every sufferer should carefully read the following letter:

"220 King Street, "La Crosse, Wis., April 24, 1894. "C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sirs: I came here from New Zealand and Australia twelve months ago, and owing to the change of climate, eight months ago, I was taken very sick with a severe attack of rheumatism in all my joints, from head to foot. My right arm was drawn so bad that I could not dress

"Truly yours, "MRS. ANDREW GRAY."

Testing a Person's Age. If you want to amuse yourself make your friends believe you are extraordinarily gifted and do a little practicing in mental arithmetic...

Suppose he is 49 years of age and was born in February, the computation might stand thus: 2x2=4, plus 5=9, 30=39, plus 4=43, minus 30=13, plus 11=24.

Had Him There. Lawyer—When were you born? Whittier—I can't tell you. You told me awhile ago that I must only say what I knew myself and not what I heard other people say.

THE VEILED WOMAN NEAR BY.

A Story Illustrating the Foolishness of Whittier's Tale. Mr. Snodgrass stepped into a bus one day and was greeted by his friend Mr. Fleming, a cynical old bachelor.

"Well, what about her? She has a tolerably good figure, but I expect it's faded," replied Snodgrass.

"Right you are—at least, my wife does," said Snodgrass. "Savages scalp their victims; women snatch them baldheaded."

"Right you are. Savages don't take care of themselves, but they are provided with rattans and everything else they need, and if they don't get what they want they go on the warpath. They don't differ anything in that respect from women."

"Women love sweet things of all sorts. So do savages. Savages wear feathers on their heads, and all women wear whole birds."

"Right you are." "Savages can't vote, neither can women, and both are vindictive and unforgiving."

"The bus was now near Snodgrass' residence, and Fleming having accepted the invitation to dine they both stood up to get out. So did the veiled lady. She threw back her veil—her countenance showed that she had overheard every word."

"My wife!" gasped Snodgrass. "I believe I'll not get out," said Fleming, sitting down again.

The bus went on.—London Tit-Bits.
