WILL BE NO RACE.

Answers of Myrtle and Healani Crews Received Yesterday.

There will be no race next Saturday between the Healani and Myrtle senior barge crews. In a communication to the judges yesterday, Captain W. W. Harris adhered strictly to the stand which he outlined in a statement to the Star several days ago and refused to row the race.

His letter is as follows: "Gentlemen: I hereby decline to row the senior six-oared barge race with the Healani Yacht and Boat Club, on next Saturday, September 28 as per your decision, that it was 'no race' and should be rowed over again. An award of the race of last Saturday, September 21, should be made, on the ground that either one of the boats were in error, and whoever committed the 'foul' should be determined."

Captain Jack Atkinson of the Healani club sent the following communication: "I beg leave to notify you that the open six-oared barge crew of the Healani Yacht and Boat Club is ready to row the race over again next Saturday, according to the decision of the judges."

The judges have not decided what action to take. They may decide to award the race to the Healani crew if that crew goes over the course on Saturday, or else they may call the event off entirely.

MAILE ILIMA CLUB MATTERS. At a meeting of the Maile Ilima Athletic Association last evening several changes were made in the constitution and by-laws. The affairs of the association will after this be managed by a board of directors consisting of nine members. The officers will be elected at a meeting to be held next Wednesday.

Between Men's and Boy's Clothing...

We make no difference in the case and furnish all attention to detail. There is no sweat-shop work on any of our suits. Is not this worth the thoughtful consideration of mothers? Isn't it worth paying a trifle more to have your boy's suit made in a proper manner. If the wife were consulted, wouldn't she insist that the husband avoid wearing sweat-shop clothing?

We have just received a new line of STAR WAISTS, with and without collars. Just the thing for the school season.

EXTRA PANTS FOR MEN AND BOYS.

IN HONOR OF MCKINLEY

MEETING AT THE DRILL SHED LAST NIGHT.

Resolutions of Labor Union—Audience Applauds Condemnation of the Growth of Un-American Principles.

The memorial meeting at the drill shed last night was attended by a large crowd, all the seats being occupied. The band gave some sacred music before the meeting was opened.

Col. J. W. Jones asked Grand Army men to come forward, and those present took seats on the stage. W. L. Eaton, the post commander, was chosen for chairman and John C. Lane for secretary.

P. M. Hatch was the first speaker. He was followed by J. M. Vivas, T. McCants Stewart, ex-Judge Stanley and Representative F. W. Beckley. The speakers all paid tribute to the late President. A set of resolutions which had been passed during the afternoon by the Labor Union were passed up to the stage by John Dawson. The crowd gave the most vigorous applause of the evening, to the part of the resolutions which declared the growth of anarchistic principles to be contrary to the spirit of American institutions.

"Whereas, William McKinley, President of the United States, having passed from this mortal life by the hand of a cowardly assassin; and "Whereas, The sorrow of the people is profound, with words of grief and deep feeling for one whose character and virtues were so honorable; therefore, be it

"Resolved, That we, the labor organizations representing the different trades of the city, express our deepest sorrow at the assassination of the President, and that we condemn the growth of this country on principles inimical to all recognized government, and entirely foreign and adverse to the spirit of our institutions; and be it further

"Resolved, That we deplore the mad act which has taken the life of our much loved President and placed this country in sorrow; and be it further

"Resolved, That we extend to Mrs. McKinley our profound sympathy in her bereavement." Before adjournment the meeting decided that a committee of citizens should be appointed to draft suitable resolutions expressing the sentiments of the public. The audience rose and remained standing while the band played "Nearer, My God to Thee" for the last time, and Berger struck up the "Star Spangled Banner" as the gathering dispersed.

THE BAND ARRANGEMENTS.

The moonlight band concerts arranged for this week will be given up and their place concerts, at which only hymns and sacred or solemn music will be played, have been arranged as follows: Tomorrow at the Capitol grounds and on Saturday at the Reform School. The regular Sunday afternoon concert will be held on the Capitol grounds, but by the particular orders of the Governor, no secular music of any description is to be played this week. It is anticipated that the band will also be in attendance outside the church during the memorial services to be held on Saturday morning at Kawalaho church.

DANCES ARE POSTPONED.

The Red Men's ball, for which invitations were issued for tonight has been postponed until October 25, owing to the death of the President. There was a special meeting of the Thistle Club last night to arrange for their moonlight dance, but it was determined to postpone the same, the club also adjourning out of respect to the memory of the late President until October 4. The dance was to have taken place on Friday night at Moanalua.

HE OWES HIS LIFE TO THE FORE THOUGHT OF A COMPANION.

While on a camping trip in Webster country, Mr. S. I. Stump, of Norman-town, W. Va., had a severe attack of bloody flux. He says, "I firmly believe that I owe my life to the forethought of one of the company who had taken along a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Moral—Procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. It cannot be obtained when on a hunting, fishing or prospecting trip. Neither can it be obtained when on board the cars or steamship, and at such times and places it is most likely to be needed. The safe way is to have it with you. Thousands of travelers never leave home on a journey without it. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., general agents, Hawaiian Islands.

THE HAWAIIAN STAR
DAILY AND SEMI-WEEKLY.
Published every afternoon (except Sunday) by The Hawaiian Star Newspaper Association, Ltd.
FRANK L. HOOGLS, Manager.
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1901.

A REMINISCENCE.

Ample and full respect will be shown to the memory of the late President by services and exercises through out the city, and later throughout the group. The dead President was a true friend of Hawaii, and outside of political reasons he had a personal feeling. His brother "Dave" McKinley was American consul here for a considerable length of time and soon after the expiration of his term he was appointed by the Hawaiian Government, Hawaiian consul in San Francisco, which position he held until his death.

The late President was much attached to his brother and when he was mentioned to him by an Hawaiian a year or so ago, spoke very feelingly of him. He said that to that brother he owed his present position as President, for David went west and worked hard, and sent back money which enabled him to continue his education when otherwise he would have had to give it up.

"Dave" was a rough diamond, true product of the West, but he had the kindest heart in the world. His purse was never as large as that great big heart. He had the most profound belief in his brother, and often would say to his intimate friends "My brother William will be President of the United States some day, mark my words." Poor fellow he did not live to see the realization of his hopes but one can be sure that he died in the full conviction that those hopes would be realized. His daughter, now married, was named Ida after Mrs. McKinley.

THAT WATER SCHEME.

In a matter of such vast importance as the Kohala water scheme, which is doubtless going to have vital influence upon the fortunes of those living in the area of supply, it is incumbent that those who safeguard the people in this matter should be thoroughly acquainted with whom they are dealing. It is a very serious thing to tie up a public right, and then find out, when it is too late that a mistake has been made.

On the face of it the Kohala water scheme, as many another scheme put forward, seems a good one. But it is very evident that the promoters think that they can make considerable money out of it. They certainly are not promoting the scheme for philanthropic reasons. If they can make money out of it, why should not the Territory itself make money out of it. Why should the profit go else where, why should it not stay right here.

The Star pointed out the other day what was being done by the Egyptian government under almost exactly similar circumstances. The irrigators of the Nile valley upon scientific principles will add largely to the productivity of the fertile land, and to the steady growth of the crops. The work is being done by the state and not by a private company. In a year or so the Territory of Hawaii may be in a condition to take up this work, no one can state positively that it will be, on the other hand, no one can state positively that it will not.

There would be a great deal more confidence in the public mind if it was known what capital is behind the scheme. There may be ample capital behind it, but why should it hide itself. A statement of what capital was available at once, would disarm a very great deal of criticism. Hawaii in common with many another State, Territory or municipality has given franchises away which she has regretted and has thus blocked the path of progress, by finding that the holders of the franchise simply were it hawking around. The Star does not claim that this will be the case in the Kohala water scheme, but on the other hand there is nothing to show that it may not.

Naturally in the present situation of the scheme there are various rumors as to who is behind the proposal, and the unfortunate tendency of the rumors has been towards men of straw, or men that the public can have no confidence in when dealing with so large an outlay. If the public could be satisfied as to the incorrectness of these wild rumors it would tend very much to the advantage of the scheme. Why there should be such secrecy about those who are at the back of the ostensible promoters is by no means clear. As was said in the Star of Monday, and can be repeated today, come from cover.

SOME LIGHT.

The condition of affairs in South Africa is certainly deplorable, and the division of families and relatives is as sharp and as sad as it was in the days of the North and South, or as it was in the times of the cavaliers and round heads. Whatever side one may take up from reason or prejudice, there is always sympathy to be given to the opponent. Reason and justice may make a man heart and soul a federalist, but one cannot help feeling a deep sympathy for the gallantry and even the wrong headedness of the South. The cause of Cromwell was the cause of liberty, and its triumph brought untold blessings to England, but the chivalry of those who fought for the royal cause can never be forgotten, and appeals to even those who firmly believe in the principles that the parliamentary party fought for.

In South Africa the case seems the same. Brother is there divided against brother. The wife sympathizes with one side, the husband with the other, sister is against sister, cousin against cousin. The whole Dutch population is not all upon one side by any means. The Dutch population is divided, and its sympathizers are divided. Take for instance the Schreiner family. One of them was the leader of the Afrikaner party in the Cape Parliament, another is a South African vigilance delegate and a leader in the Imperial South African Association. Both were born in South Africa, both had the same educational influences, but their paths are now spreading further and further apart, just as Naval Cadet Evans, now Admiral Evans, path took him away from his brothers who joined the Southern side.

Theophilus Lyndall Schreiner has written a pamphlet upon the "Afrikaner Bond and other causes of the war" which is well worth perusal. It is a calm and dispassionate setting forth of the case, by a man who was born and bred among the Boers, who understands their language, believes in their religion, admires their good qualities, and knows their limitations. His summing up is worth reproduction because it does away with many mis-conceptions, and yet states the case clearly and without heat, which is the fault of so many writers.

Mr. Schreiner says: "The only arbitration which the Transvaal cared for was arbitration on a matter which England could not submit to arbitration without ipso facto giving up her supremacy. The insistent ultimatum to England of the Transvaal Republic of October 9, 1899, which we now know to have been ready for issue some ten days earlier, was but the outward expression of the definite secret purpose which Republican Afrikanerdom had held and worked for ever since 1881. To those acquainted with that purpose the despatch of State Secretary Boeschoten of May, 1897, that of State Secretary Leyds of April 16, 1898, and that of State Secretary Reitz of May 9, 1899, marked three successive stages in the carrying out of that purpose; and there is no doubt that when Mr. Reitz, before the date of the Bloemfontein Conference, penned the last-named despatch, the Transvaal Government had already determined that the time had come to measure swords with England for the possession of South Africa. Only those unacquainted with the purpose and spirit that had filled Afrikanerdom for long years, or those who did not believe that England was in earnest in demanding the redress of the Uitlanders' grievances, could have doubted that war was inevitable during the four or five months prior to its breaking out.

"The idea that the war was caused by capitalists, or due to a desire on the part of England to rob the Transvaal of its goldfields, is simply ridiculous to those who have watched the dream of Dutch Republican domination unfolding itself stealthily but unflinching during the past eighteen years. No diplomacy could have finally averted the war; only an absolute climb-down by England would have availed to do so. The utmost measure of responsibility for the war resting on England is this—that by her firmness she forced the Transvaal Government to unveil its purpose somewhat sooner, perhaps, than it otherwise would have done.

"I cannot express my conviction of the justice and righteousness of England's action in regard to the present war more strongly than by saying that, even if those who delight to prophesy evil for the future prophesy correctly, even if England were to lose South Africa in the course of some terrific life-and-death struggle with other great Powers—an eventuality which I do not for one moment believe will come to pass—still even in such case she will have no reason to reproach herself for her present action; she will still have done nothing more nor less than her simple duty to herself, and to the peoples committed to her care, in upholding her supremacy in South Africa at the present time. To have shirked this Imperial duty would of all courses have been the one most likely to bring about the catastrophe indicated; and to restore independence to the Dutch Republics now would work towards the same end."

The contending ecclesiastics are all wending to San Francisco to wage war upon one another. The path of peace will be somewhat disturbed by charges and counter charges. Even the church has its fallings out and very bitter ones they are.

Signs of mourning are to be seen all over the city. Our people are sympathetic and ever ready to show respect. In the case of the late President our people were especially attached to him and regarded him as the true friend of Hawaii, which he certainly was. To him was due, more than to any other man, perhaps, that the islands became an integral part of the United States and were saved from possible Asiatic domination.

The strikes remain undecided. Every here and there in the papers appear paragraphs about the possibility of there being a compromise, but only to be contradicted in the next issue. Both parties are determined to wear the other out. The strike in San Francisco which affects our interests and our comfort shows no signs of breaking down, though the employers are beginning to handle their goods with greater ease. The feeling of the state farmers is very strong against the strike and will tell seriously against the labor party at the election.

A warfare on rats has been inaugurated in Manila by the medical authorities. The city has allotted twenty-five hundred dollars to be paid in bounties of one and one-half cents, gold, for each rodent captured, dead or alive. The rats will be taken to the crematory. The system of eradication is to be thorough, and an appropriation has been made for the purpose of traps, drugs, and other means of destroying the pest. The action is taken on the advice of the medical officers as a means of preventing the spread of the plague.

JAS. F. MORGAN,
AUCTIONEER

AFTER J. A. MCGANDLESS

WILL BE ASKED TO GIVE POLICE INFORMATION.

Is Alleged to Have Said There Were Between 250 and 300 Armed Porto Rican Vagrants Here.

Judge Wilcox and Deputy High Sheriff Cummings were after J. A. Mc-Gandless, they intend to try and have him "make good" regarding an assertion he is alleged to have made to the effect that a large number of Porto Rican vagrants are going armed about Honolulu.

This announcement was made this morning at the trial of Josepa Barata a Porto Rican charged with being a vagrant. The defendant was charged with having no means of support and being idle for some weeks previous to his arrest.

"So this is one of those Porto Ricans?
You say you have two others under arrest on the same charge?" said Judge Wilcox. "Well, J. A. Mc-Gandless has made the statement openly on the streets, that there are between 250 and 300 Porto Rican vagrants who are going armed with long knives about the streets of Honolulu.
I think we had better subpoena him and let him tell us if he is one of those '250 to 300 armed men'."

"If Mr. McGandless says that there are so many armed Porto Rican vagrants here, he must know them so it would be an excellent thing to have him brought here and tell about them."
In fact Mr. McGandless seems to think that these people should all be thrown into jail and be sent out to some plantation as he says the plantations are short handed and pressed now for help."

The deputy high said that he had not had the opportunity of serving a subpoena upon Mr. McGandless, so the court continued the case until tomorrow morning in order to give the officers time in which to secure the attendance of Mr. McGandless in court when he can give his expert testimony regarding Porto Rican vagrants.

ARE FORCED TO LEAVE

IWILEI WOMEN SAY THEY WILL GO.

Announcement Made in Police Court
If Police are to Continue Raids, Women Will Depart Immediately.

"If the police say that these women must go," said their attorney in Judge Wilcox's court this morning, "they will leave at once on the next steamer. All that is desired is to be told that they are not to be allowed here and they will take their departure."

This declaration was made today as the result of the crusade inaugurated by the police against the Porto Rican and white prostitutes of the Iwilei district. Several of the cases were in court on the charges against all of the women and a visitor were secured by the police.

Jennie Carey and Charles Nelson were fined $25 each for fornication. It was during the course of the trial that the attorney for the female defendant made this announcement, which evidently was on behalf of all of the other women. Judge Wilcox said that he could not do other than enforce the laws and while perhaps, this illicit business and, in the past, received more or less sanction, he could do nothing in that regard. He stated however that he would do the same carried to a higher court. The bond in the case of the woman was permitted to stand and it may be decided today to take an appeal. Nelson paid a fine.

In one of the other cases Officer Toma Abe acting as interpreter, allowed one of the defendants a Japanese, to get away from counsel for the defence and innocently plead guilty. The proceedings were interrupted however and the defendants' plea was reserved until tomorrow. The case was in that against Watanaba and Maggie Arno charged with fornication. When asked to plead the Japanese evidently in ignorance of his constitutional rights to being advised by an attorney, admitted that he had visited the woman.
Both cases were continued however until tomorrow morning.

There is a probability that unless the case of the Chinese woman is appealed and the police should persist in their crusade against those women, the prostitutes will all be forced to leave Honolulu. The announcement which was made today in Judge Wilcox's court is regarded as official from the women and there is a very strong probability that the town may soon be rid of this low element.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Action Taken by the Special Meeting Yesterday Afternoon.

The committee appointed by the citizen's meeting at the Chamber of Commerce rooms adopted the following telegram which was sent off on the Aorangi yesterday afternoon signed by W. G. Irwin and F. M. Swansy in the name of the citizens' committee. The text was as follows:

"The people of the Territory of Hawaii join with all other States and Territories of the Union in their expression of intense sorrow upon the death of our noble President and respectfully request you to convey to Mrs. McKinley and the late President's family the heartfelt sympathy of Hawaii's entire community."

The message was addressed to the Secretary of State.

The memorial services were arranged for at Kawaiahaou church on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The seats will be free with the exception of a few reserved for the Governor, the army, naval and government officials and resident consuls.

Sub-committees were appointed on music, addresses, and programs, ushers and arrangement of seats. W.
Mutch is chairman of the committee on decorations, Theodore Richards and Mrs. Annie Montague Turner were appointed on music. W. F. Allen on programs, ushers, etc., and the Rev. Wes-terfelt on addresses.

The whole committee then adjourned to meet again this morning at W. G.
Irwin's office at 10 o'clock.

THE LILLIPUTIANS.
Tonight is absolutely the last night of the Pollard Lilliputians vaudeville and a bumper show is expected. On Saturday "The Belle of New York" will be presented and judging from the plan, there will not be standing room on Saturday night. The matinee in the afternoon promises well also. This will probably be the only matinee performance of "The Belle," so parents should book early. On Saturday afternoon the doors will be opened at 1:30; performance at 2 p. m. There will be no performance tomorrow evening (Friday) September 27. Tuesday night's performance of the "kiddies" in vaudeville was most excellently received.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE.

At the last regular meeting of Damien Council 563, Y. M. I. the following memorial resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, it is with deepest sorrow and most profound regret that every true citizen of the United States residing in these Islands has learned of the great calamity that has befallen our country in the death of the honored President, William McKinley but in no instance has the sorrow been deeper, nor the regret more profound than among the members of Damien Council of the Young Men's Institute, which order had its inception and attained its present splendid growth in the great nation of which our honored President was chief executive officer."
"Therefore, Be it resolved, that this council desires to express hereby its deep sense of our loss and feeling of bereavement upon learning of the foul assassination of our chief in the height of his usefulness and power.

"Be it further resolved, That the members of this council be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, out of respect of his memory."

COULD NOT AGREE.

Trouble of Markle's Aired Before Judge
Wilcox Today.

Mrs. N. Markle was before Judge Wilcox today to answer to a charge of desertion. She claimed that her husband was unkind to her and, because of his harsh words and general abuse, she had been forced to leave him. The woman seemed to entertain the utmost resentment against her husband and both of them occupied considerable of the court's time in arguing their case with each other. Markle brought one of their daughters to testify against the mother but the child did not care to say much.

Markle claimed that the woman had demanded the use of the horse to take two of the little children to a kahuna.
Markle had refused to let her go. Judge Wilcox saw that Markle was obstinate and as the woman continued obdurate also, the court became disgusted and

There was quite a pathetic incident in connection with the case. Markle left his seat on the spectators bench and his four little children followed him.
In leaving the bench, they had to brush past the mother. Evidently the children felt much sorrow over having to leave their mother and two of them ran back to her and manifested affection for their mother. The father, followed by the four children marched toward the door however, leaving the mother alone and weeping on the bench.

ALLEGED BURGLAR ARRESTED.

David Hoopli, alias "Barefooted Bill" and Punihua suspected by the police with having had something to do with the recent Fort street burglaries were arraigned before Judge Wilcox this morning on charges of larceny in the second degree. The intention of the prosecution is to hold the pair in custody until more evidence can be secured against them and if they can not be connected with the recent crimes of burglary to have them convicted of vagrancy. The cases were continued until tomorrow.

A special meeting of the Bar Association tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 3

THE LATE MR. MONROE.

Prof. Goldwin Smith is inclined to interpret the new title of the British monarch, with the phrase, "and of all the British dominions beyond the seas" as "a challenge thrown out" by old world monarchy and aristocracy to the democracy of the new world." He argues evidently that it means a strengthening of monarchical institutions in this hemisphere. If that is the case, it is surprising that no one has remonstrated in the name of the late Mr. Monroe—Springfield Republican.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

You know the story—how good Queen Bess, pointing to the beautiful hair of a peasant girl, said, "There's a real royal crown. I would trade my golden one for it." That was long ago. Now you can have a "real royal crown" of your own, simply by using Ayer's Hair Vigor. It makes the hair grow thick and long and stops it falling out. When your hair is rich and heavy, and when the closest inspection fails to detect a single gray hair, you will certainly look a great deal younger, and you will be much better satisfied with yourself, too. Isn't that so?

INTERVIEW WITH CZOIGOSZ

HOW HE HEARD OF MCKINLEY'S DEATH.

Has No Regret, Except for Himself, as About to be Punished—Emma Goldman is Satisfied Also.

BUFFALO, September 14.—Czoigosz was taken to the office of Superintendent Bull immediately after the issuance of the Bulletin that President McKinley was dead. In addition to the Superintendent there was present District Attorney Penny, and several other officials. Bull said to Czoigosz:

"Do you know that your bullet has killed the President?"

"I was there for a minute, while Czoigosz looked around the room. Then he replied:

"That is what I expected it to do."

"Well, do you not regret it?" asked Penny.

"I only regret that I must suffer the penalty," answered the assassin.

The police are still trying to get more information from the prisoner.

Shortly before midnight a report was circulated that President McKinley was dead. The great crowds that had thronged the streets all the evening took up the cry, and in few moments a mob formed and made a rush toward the police station where Czoigosz is confined. Then the about went up that the assassin was to be lynched, and the crowds rushed after those who were on their way to the station. The police were quickly notified by telephone, and the reserves mounted and on foot, met the mob and drove it back after a weak resistance.

Two companies of the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-fourth regiments of the National Guard have been assembled in their barracks to be in readiness should the crowd about the police headquarters make any hostile demonstration.

CHICAGO, September 14.—"Emma Goldman is still at Harrison-street Police Station," said Chief of Police O'Neill when his attention was directed to a story that she had been spirited away because of fears of mob violence.

"There is no occasion for alarm and there is no reason for her removal from her present quarters."

Early this morning about 100 men started for the women's annex of Harrison-street station, loudly threatening to lynch Miss Goldman. They had waited in front of the bulletin board till all hope was gone and they started out to execute vengeance. After proceeding a few blocks, however, cooler heads in the crowd succeeded in checking the excitement, and somewhat later the crowd sullenly dispersed.

"Do you feel no sorrow today?" the prisoner was asked.

"No!" she exclaimed, in a harsh voice.

"You read the account of how a crowd of people gathered in the street, prayed and sang hymns when they heard the news. Have you no feeling for their sorrow?" was asked.

"They were ignorant, deceived." She snapped out the words, and struck the paper in which she had read the account with clenched fist. "I see no reason for regretting McKinley's death."

Out of respect to the memory of William McKinley, and to allow the police an additional opportunity of investigating a case which is now of the most serious character, a recess until Tuesday in the anarchist cases was ordered today by Judge Chetlain.

AT CENTRAL UNION.

The regular prayer meeting at Central Union Church last evening was turned into a meeting, in memoriam of William McKinley. Rev. J. P. Erdman led the meeting. Following the opening prayer, P. C. Among the hymns sung was "Nearer My God to Thee."

CROWDS IN UGLY MOOD

DEEP POPULAR FEELING AGAINST THE ASSASSIN.
Measures Taken in Buffalo to Protect Czolgosz, and in Chicago to Protect Emma Goldman—The Situation.

NEW YORK, September 25.—A special to the Sun from Buffalo says: The Buffalo police and State troops are ready to meet any attempt by a mob to get at Assassin Czolgosz. At 7:30 o'clock the police established lines around police headquarters at a distance of two blocks from the building. Ropes were stretched along tree boxes and lamp posts and policemen were stationed at intervals of five or ten feet.

Deputy Superintendent Cussack said that this was done because of the experience the police had a week ago tonight, just after the President was shot, when a mob came to police headquarters, determined to take Czolgosz out and kill him. The anger has lost much of its terrible quality since then, but the police intend to take no chances. At 8 o'clock there was an ominously quiet crowd three deep at the ropes of the closed-off streets. Small boys of the sort who weld a mob together and stir it into the fever which finally ends in delirium were already running back and forth in the streets, yelling, "Kill him! String him up!"

One hundred patrolmen guarded the ropes and fought back the crowds, while ten mounted men galloped to and fro holding the crowds back. New details of police from outside stations came in from time to time, and Superintendent Bull kept in constant touch by telephone with Colonel Welch, who was at the Sixty-Ninth Army. A mile away. Among the crowds the report was circulated that Czolgosz had been removed to the jail or some other place of confinement, but this was denied by Superintendent Bull and the other police.

Superintendent Bull has held the full Police Department in reserve, and has made his plans so that 300 men can be assembled at police headquarters on five minutes' notice.

After consultation with Superintendent Bull Colonel Samuel L. Welch ordered out the Sixty-fifth and Forty-seventh regiments of the National Guard. These regiments were assembled at their arsenals at 8:15 o'clock and stood armed in readiness for any call. Colonel Welch, who commanded the Sixty-fifth Regiment, said that he and Colonel Fox of the Forty-seventh had agreed on this course. "I have ordered the regiments to assemble at the arsenals on my own responsibility," said Colonel Welch tonight. "They will be prepared to respond to any call to quell a riot or disturbance, to protect the police headquarters and to maintain law and order in the city."

The members of the two regiments were summoned to their armories by messenger, telegraph and proclamations in the theaters and public places. This news only helped to direct attention from the dying President to the cell which held the assassin. Superintendent Bull issued a public statement in which he said he was prepared to meet by force if necessary any demonstration that might be made by the people against his prisoner. "Crowds will not be allowed to congregate on the streets," said Superintendent Bull, "and should people gather in any considerable numbers in the vicinity of police headquarters they will be dispersed promptly. We do not propose to allow our prisoner to be taken from us and shall meet force with force. The prisoner will not be removed from police headquarters to jail. We are able to protect him and we have the Sixty-fifth and Forty-seventh Regiment under arms if we need them. No matter how dastardly this man's crime is we intend for the good name of the American people to keep him safe for the vengeance of the law."

CHICAGO, September 25.—General orders were issued tonight by Chief of Police O'Neil for every available man on the police force throughout the city to be kept in reserve in the event that there was any demonstration against the anarchists. At the Central Station thirty-five men were detailed to watch the principal hotels and public buildings for any signs of a demonstration, and thirty more were held in reserve. At the detail station the entire day force was held on reserve duty.

"We are prepared for any kind of an emergency," said Chief O'Neil.

Chicago was quiet all evening. Around all the hotels in different parts of the city large crowds gathered to get the latest news of the President's condition. There were many expressions of deep feeling against the murderer, and not a few were leveled at the anarchists confined in the County Jail here, and toward Emma Goldman, a woman held in the Harrison-street Police Station.

There were no speeches, but the crowds were in a dangerous temper, and had any of the anarchists, man or woman, been turned loose a killing would have followed as soon as the crowd could have managed it.

Three men, one of them the son of a prominent hotel-keeper, visited the offices of the newspapers during the early part of the evening with a call written out and signed by all three, stating that if there were definite news of the death of President McKinley by 10 o'clock tomorrow morning they wanted 10,000 men to meet them in front of the jail and take steps to lynch the anarchists confined in the building. Their call met with little response, although the general feeling was with them. There were no crowds around the jail or around the Harrison-street Station, nor were there any indications of trouble.

CANNOT HOLD GOLDMAN.

BUFFALO, September 25.—"We have not sufficient evidence to warrant the holding of Emma Goldman," said District Attorney Penny this afternoon, just after he had a conference with Superintendent Bull. "We have not prepared any papers, and, of course, have sent none on. Neither do we intend to prepare any extradition papers. You may say on our present evidence we cannot hold the Goldman woman, and no extradition papers will be prepared today."

MOST ARRESTED.

NEW YORK, September 25.—Johann Most, the most widely-known of New York anarchists, and editor of Freiheit the organ of the anarchists, was arrested tonight by central office detectives. The arrest was made in a saloon over which are the offices of the newspaper. Herr Most objected volubly to the arrest, but to no purpose, and was locked up at police headquarters as "a suspicious person." Captain Titus refused to allow Most to see any one or make a statement, the captain declaring that he would not allow the prisoner to pose as a martyr before the public.

Shirt Waist Collars Style and Comfort Combined. BE ADVISED AND TRY ONE! "My dear," said the groom, "Why do you insist on turning in the neck of your shirt waist like that? It isn't at all artistic." "Because, John, its so hot here," said the bride, "And, besides, low neck is all the style in the East now." Two good reasons; true ones, too; but we wonder if that bride had been introduced to the SHIRT WAIST COLLAR. Made of dainty laces and ribbons it can be worn with any shirt waist, adding prettily to the appearance of that garment, and taking away the unfinished look which it has when the neck band is merely folded in. They don't cost much either. A quarter will enable you to try the experiment. WHITNEY & MARSH, LTD
