THE LATEST.

The news from the United States, so far as it concerns annexation, and as it is related by Commissioner Castle, may be described as encouraging. Public sentiment, by a vast majority approves the measure, and it is not thought that the President is against it.

A WORD ABOUT TARIFFS.

Whoever it is that signs himself "Royalist" in the Bulletin, when he does not use some other non deplorable, should lay down the polemical pen and take up the political primer.

As an independent state at the "Cross Roads of the Pacific," with the Nicaragua Canal accomplished, the markets of the world are ours and we would be at liberty to load our ships to whatever point we could find the most advantageous for our peculiar products.

What, pray tell, would be in the way of doing that as American territory? Does "Royalist" assume that annexation means a restricted liberty upon outgoing commerce? There is nothing to keep a shipper in San Francisco, Sitka or Pensacola—cities of annexed regions—from seeking a maritime outlet for their wares in any part of the world.

If the American Agriculturist is to be believed in ten years the United States will be able to produce beet sugar enough for her own consumption. In this event our cane sugar produced 2000 miles away from market will be at a disadvantage if, as a part of America, we are tied up to her tariff policy and are not at liberty to trade independently in other markets.

Still harping on a chimera! Does the Bulletin's correspondent imagine that the United States imposes an export duty? Does he think that there is any law against an American citizen sending his wares abroad? The tariff policy of the great republic covers an import tax and would leave Hawaii as free as California to ship sugar where she could get the most for it.

As an independent people, we are in a position to induce America to receive our rice free, and also seek independent advantages in other markets for our raw rice, or by manufacturing it into starch or alcohol.

That is to say, as outsiders we could get more favor from America than as insiders. Let the STAR inform "Royalist" what it ought not to be compelled to say to any one above the age of fifteen years, that there is no tariff on products which are interchanged between parts of the Union. As a territory of the United States Hawaii could enter her rice free at any American port and be at liberty, without, to send it anywhere else, during times of peace, that might suit her better.

ONE of the first things which Col. Blount is likely to discover in the Hawaiian situation is that the sugar planters had very little to do with producing it. An impression that they did has prevailed at Washington but it is certain to be upset by the facts. The records of the public meeting which preceded the revolution must show that the planters were far behind the commercial, industrial and professional men in urging a summary course.

No one who cares to learn the truth, or to tell it, need hesitate to fall into line with the STAR, in declaring that whenever suffrage comes, as in due time it will come, aboriginal Hawaiians will be on the same plane with whites. Preliminary negotiations rest with Mr. Cleveland and the Senate, and in no way can they affect such questions as suffrage, which must be passed on by Congress.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

Gen. E. Kirby Smith is dead. Queen Victoria has gone to Italy. The Japanese navy is to be increased. Sugar has gone up from 3.11 to 3.60. Oxford won the University Boat race by a length. The new torpedo boat will be named the Ericson.

Southern Californians are booming State division. A conflict between Brazil and Paraguay is impending. Italian anarchists in Rome are waging a dynamite war. Ex-President Harrison denies that he is to write a book. Four American first-class war ships will be sent to the Pacific. The bark Merom is believed to have been lost off Cape Flattery. Montreal is making elaborate preparations to resist the cholera.

Charles De Lesseps, Baihut and Blondin have been found guilty. The Mayor of Moscow was shot and killed at a meeting of the town council. It is reported that the New York Times has been sold to Charles R. Flint. The cruiser New York has had its trial trip and maintained a speed of 20 knots. Stockton and other towns in the San Joaquin valley have suffered serious floods. Costa Rica has sent a Special Envoy to President Cleveland with congratulations.

Of 280 Siberian exiles caught in a snow storm at Tomsk all were frozen to death. Several lives have been lost by the burning of the Morgan apartment house in Cleveland. Editor Pulitzer's failure to get the French mission has soured the World on Cleveland.

The flag of Ecuador was put at half-mast upon the announcement of Mr. Blaine's death. The Pope has declined to meet the German Emperor except with the ceremonial used in 1888. Life-boats belonging to the missing White Star steamer Naronic have been found in mid-Atlantic. Lord Beresford ship, the Undaunted, went aground near Alexandria on Mar. 22, but was floated off. Villagers near Chifu, China, seized sixty pirates and killed them. The bodies were mutilated and the hearts eaten.

Col. Elliot F. Shepard, son in law of the late Wm. H. Vanderbilt and editor of the N. Y. Mail and Express died while under the influence of ether. Jack the Ripper is thought to have been captured in London. The name of the man is Castellano. He is an Italian barber employed on an Atlantic liner. At the Brisbane conference Mr. Ward advocated a route for the Pacific cable from Queensland to Ahipara bay, New Zealand, thence to Fiji, Hawaii and Vancouver. On motion the route was adopted.

A hurricane has made great devastation in the New Caledonia and New Hebrides groups. The settlement of Port Sandwich was swept away and appalling floods swept the country. The Governor has cabled to France for $100,000 to relieve distress.

FOUND IN A BOTTLE.

An Alleged Message From the Lost Naronic. NORFOLK, Va., March 28.—William Johnson, winter watchman at Ocean View, Va., near the mouth of the Chesapeake Bay, this morning picked up on the beach at that place a champagne bottle with several corks tied about its neck and with a letter inclosed giving alleged information of the sinking of the White Star steamer Naronic. It reads: "3:30 A. M., Feb. 19, steamship Naronic, White Star line, at sea. 'To who picks this up: Report when you find this to our agents, if not heard of before, that our ship is fast sinking beneath the waves, and it is such a storm that we can never live in the small boats. One boat has already gone with her human cargo aboard. God let all of us live through this. We were struck by an iceberg in a binding snowstorm and floated two hours. Now it is 3:20 A. M. by my watch and the great ship's deck is level with the sea. Report to the agents at Broadway, New York, M. Kerser & Co. Good by! It is thought that the bird was from the lost steamer Naronic.

SPREAD OF CHOLERA.

Despite Every Effort It Is Advancing Through Europe. VIENNA, March 29.—Cholera has appeared at Zalosse, a market town of Galicia. Every attempt has been made by the town authorities to check the disease, but despite their efforts it is spreading. Three deaths from cholera have already occurred, and a number of new cases are reported to-day. St. PETERSBURG, March 29.—It is stated in the official report that an average of 150 new cases of cholera and 50 deaths from the disease are reported every week in the Government of Podolia. HALIFAX, March 29.—The condition of the two immigrants removed to the hospital yesterday is favorable, and the hospital authorities declare that they are not suffering from cholera.

ADMITS HER IDOLATRY.

A Writer in the Holomua Discusses the Queen's Heathenism. A writer in the Holomua of April 6th, offers the following "defense" of the ex-Queen against the charges made by Rev. S. E. Bishop that she had sacrificed pigs and fowls to the goddess Pele: "How much pecuniary loss did you, S. E. Bishop, suffer by reason of the Queen's sacrificing to Pele a little pig and a fowl? Will the condemnation for those acts fall upon you in the day when Jesus comes? Are you the one who is to intercede for my Sovereign in that great and notable day? Very holy are you and other associates of your standing who are living and who have passed away? Suppose that my Sovereign did really sacrifice, are these then the words of God written in the second section of the Ten Commandments, 'Thou shalt not give a pig and a fowl to Pele merely as a present? Is that a reason for making an end of this thing, the love of the Chief from the hearts of the Hawaiian people? Are you, great hypocrite, one superior to Jesus Christ, who talks right before your spectacles, 'I did not come to this world for the righteous?'"

Not a Public Character.

The young lady who is variously known as the Princess Kaulani and Miss Cleghorn has said her good-by very prettily. She is thankful for the recognition that has been extended to her and for the words of sympathy that have been spoken and written. The error of this young lady is in supposing that she is in any sense a public character. As Miss Cleghorn she will always be kindly received in this country, and by none more so than by those who favor the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands. Although the admission will not be made that she has any claim upon the island throne, there will be no objection to a reasonable compensation for the loss of expectations which annexation will involve. With an income of $20,000 a year Miss Cleghorn would be much happier than Queen Kaulani could hope to be.—San Francisco Bulletin.

By and By the evening falls, Sons of labor rest; Weary cattle seek the stalls, Birds are in the nest. By and By the tide will turn, A change come o'er the sky; Life's hard task my boy will learn, By and By. By and By the din will cease, Days long hours be past; By and By in holy peace We shall sleep at last. Calm will be the sea wind's roar, Toil and moil and weep no more, By and By. MARY SUTHERLAND.

American Sentiment.

Letters from two prominent citizens of New York which have been received in Honolulu, which both state, that while Cleveland has not uttered a word on annexation so far, the people generally throughout the union are in favor of it, and believe it to be the ultimate result of the present negotiation.

The right of any person or corporation to erect electric apparatus and produce electricity for either light or power for his or its own use upon the premises where produced. 2d. The right of the Hawaiian Tramways Company, Limited, under the franchise already granted to it, to erect a plant, poles and wires for the purpose of furnishing power for the propulsion of its cars, or for making a contract with any one or more of the contractors to furnish it with such power for use on any of its tracks, whether the same is within the district of such contractors or not. 3d. The right of the Government to furnish to any part of Honolulu, electricity for light or power, produced by the power now obtained from the present water supply of the city, up to the capacity of electric dynamos now owned by the Government. The sale of such franchise is subject to the Rules, Regulations, Inspection and Tariff of Rates to be charged to Consumers, as set forth in the said above-mentioned Act. THE UPSET PRICE, at Auction, of said Franchise is 2 1/2 per centum of the gross receipts of the Contractor from all electric light and power furnished to consumers. THE BIDS for such Franchise shall be for the percentage of such gross receipts, which the bidder is willing to pay to the Government over and above such percentage. THE CONTRACTORS shall be exempt from paying such percentage of receipts for the first two years of such contract. A DEPOSIT of $500 either cash or a certified check on a Honolulu Bank, will be required from the successful bidder on the fall of the hammer, which deposit shall be a forfeit to the Government if such bidder fails to execute the contract provided for in Section 5 of said Act, within twenty days from the date of sale. A BOND, in the sum of $5000, with two approved sureties or a deposit of $2500 in gold coin in lieu thereof, will be required, for the faithful observance of all of the terms of the contract, and for the observance of all the terms and conditions of the law under which the franchise is granted. J. A. KING, Minister of the Interior. Interior Office, Feb. 21, 1893. 1

General Advertisements. New Ideas! M. McINERNY. A merchant is nowhere unless abreast of the times. We have gotten several new ideas through the observation of Mr. T. J. King, while on the coast and we propose not only to profit by them ourselves but to give our customers the benefit of the low prices that shall henceforth prevail in our establishment. As time rolls on, we shall gradually unfold our new ideas to the mutual benefit of our customers and ourselves. Call and be convinced of the sincerity of our propositions. Has it not occurred to you that you've been wearing that old hat long enough! In these progressive times if you intend to be "in it," you've got to keep pace with fashion. No matter how otherwise well dressed you may be, unless your hat is the correct thing you bear a shabby appearance. We have already laid in a stock of the Latest Hats of the coming Spring and Summer styles, in hard felts, soft felts and straws, and including a line of the celebrated "Fidora" Hats, at present all the rage in the United States. There is therefore, no necessity for you to hang on any longer to that old Tile that bears such a strong resemblance to the hat "your father wore." Believing that business will be better in the near future, we have not hesitated to keep our stock full in all lines. Take collars for instance: We have almost everything you could wish for. If you wear a standing collar, just come in and take a look at our "Narenta" or "Ardonia;" or if you prefer a turn down collar, try the "Winnipeg" or "Goswell;" we have a lot of others, and can't fail to suit you. Cuffs in abundance, links or otherwise. Neckwear in profusion, scarfs windsors 4-in-hands, and a special lot of "Boys' Bows;" suspenders in great variety, leather and woven ends, good strong, serviceable goods. We might go on indefinitely, but space is valuable, and to enumerate everything we carry would fill a pretty fair sized Book. If there is anything you want in the men's line, just drop in and see us, and if we can't suit you, we don't believe any one can. If you should want a pair of nice shoes, let us try a hand at fitting you. Did it ever occur to you How much a man is like his shoes; For instance, both a soul may lose. Both have been tanned; Both are made tight by Cobblers; Both get left and right; Both need a mate to be complete; And both are made to go on feet. They both need healing; oft are sold, And both in time will turn to mould. With shoes the last is first; with men The first shall be the last; and when The shoes wear out, they're men dead too. They both are trod upon, and both Will tread on others nothing loth. Both have their ties, and both incline When polished, in the world to shine; And both peg out. Now would you choose To be a man, or be his shoes.

THE ALAMEDA ARRIVES.

SHE BRINGS PAUL NEUMANN AND "PRINCE" DAVID.

Wm. R. Castle Also Comes Back - An Interesting Scene at the Oceanic Wharf.

The Alameda was telephoned this morning between 7 and 8 o'clock, but did not reach the wharf until near 10 o'clock. Long before she arrived there was a big crowd gathered at the Oceanic dock, among it the usual people having business there, besides a large number of natives, sight-seers and business men drawn to learn the first news, if any came, regarding annexation and the mission of Colonel Blount.

At last the sharp prow of the Alameda shot into view across the end of the wharf and the crowd gathered along the edge to describify if possible the features of friends as they neared the landing.

"There is old Paul," cried a dozen voices, as the Alameda drew on. And sure enough, there stood Paul Neumann against the rail, alternately lifting his hat and waving his hands as his friends hailed him from below. "Hello! Paul," cried someone, "did you get the boodle or did you annex the United States to Hawaii?"

Paul smiled, and carefully kept his eye off the groups of reporters who were waiting the raising of the gangway. Among the passengers were recognized the well known features of Hon. E. C. Macfarlane and "Prince" David and as soon as a few of the privileged were allowed aboard, before the passengers landed, it was learned that there was no startling news brought except sugar had taken a jump of half a cent and there would probably be an extra session of Congress held in September next.

It was some time before the gangway was opened to passengers and, in the mean time, a dense crowd had gathered at the spot.

Suddenly there was a commotion and a little fellow in a big plug hat struggled to the front and was half up the gangway before he was recognized as J. W. Robertson. He had arrived in the "Queen's" coach which had just driven on the wharf, and his advent was followed by the plug hat brigade in white cotton gloves, looking like a corps of undertaker's assistants.

It was the arrival of the Hui Kalaiaina, who drew up in two lines at the foot of the landing and patiently awaited the coming of jolly Paul and drowsy "Prince" David.

Mr. Neumann appeared at the head of the gangway first, and was greeted with subdued applause. Paul gracefully lifted his hat, as he caught on to the delegation at the foot of the gangway and with much gravity of expression said, "Aloha," in his most engaging Supreme Court voice, ere he placed his foot again on Hawaiian soil. The plug hat brigade bowed low and all within reach pushed their hands forward to welcome the commissioner of the lost cause. It was a grim sight. It had the appearance of a funeral, until Commissioner Neumann reached the end of the line, where he was heartily welcomed by members of his family, Chief Justice Judd, and many other citizens.

"Prince" David soon appeared. He walked deliberately down the gangway accompanied by Mr. J. W. Robertson. The "Prince" was dressed in a dark sack coat with colored trousers, and looked as neat and natural as usual. He was not allowed to delay long in his welcome to the plug hat bearers of the Hui Kalaiaina, but was whisked away to the ex-royal carriage which stood afar, surrounded by servants in livery and politicians in waiting.

There was room for four. They got in; the Honorable Paul, the ex-Queen's Chamberlain, "Prince" David and "Cupid." The members of the Hui Kalaiaina, who had not yet got into the wagonette in waiting, bowed and scraped. The procession started. It consisted of the ex-royal carriage, a wagonette and half a dozen hacks carrying the remnants of the faithful.

The large crowd on the wharf was already in motion, and the procession ambled away between the long line of hacks and people forming a lane throughout Fort street. Had it not been for the sprinkling carts the royal cause would, at least, have raised a dust in the world.

Commissioner Wm. R. Castle was among the arrivals, to whom a cordial public welcome was given.

Commissioner Blount. CHICAGO, March 22.—A Washington special says: Commissioner Blount has gone to Honolulu clothed with extraordinary authority. Should any trouble arise on the islands pending his investigation, the naval commanders and Minister Stevens are expected to follow his advice. He has discretionary orders, it is said, to decide after his arrival whether the continuance of a temporary protectorate is desirable and whether American sailors should be continued on shore.

Presidential Nominations. WASHINGTON, March 20.—The President has sent to the Senate the following nominations:

Thomas F. Bayard of Delaware, Minister to England. James B. Eustis of Louisiana, Minister to France. Theodore Runyan of New Jersey, Minister to Germany. John E. Risley, Minister to Denmark. James G. Jenkins of Wisconsin, United States Circuit Judge, Seventh Judicial Circuit.

The Princess of Wales and the Duke of York were received by the Pope on March 22d with great ceremony.

CUNNING, MR. DAVIES.

How He Has Kept Father Cleghorn Advised.

NEW YORK, March 24.—A morning paper claims to have unearthed something new in the Hawaiian affair, and this is the story: A supposed dispatch from the Princess Kaiulani's guardian (Davies) to Father Cleghorn has been discovered in the Brevoort House. The message, if genuine, is fraught with importance. It reads:

"To Cleghorn, British Consulate, Honolulu.—Suggest Vic to Blount. Talk Yankee greed and sugar. DAVIES." On Wednesday evening while William M. Awl of Pittsburg was writing in one of the general rooms of the hotel he observed a telegraph form sticking between the desk and the wall and on examination it proved to be the dispatch above quoted. An ink blot had fallen across the words "British Consulate," which may have been the reason why the form was discarded. He showed the message to the hotel clerks, but declined to let it go out of his possession. The clerks were inclined to treat the matter as a jest, although they were forced to admit that the handwriting bore a striking resemblance to that of Mr. Davies.

The hotel telegraph operator declined to say whether she had dispatched any such message, but a gentleman acquainted with Davies and Hawaiian affairs was shown a copy of the message and said:

"The term 'Vic' in the message is undoubtedly meant for 'Victoria,' that being the Princess Kaiulani's first name. The Cleghorn address is probably Archibald Cleghorn, Kaiulani's father. Reading between the lines, I should say that Davies suggests to Cleghorn to see Commissioner Blount when he arrives in Hawaii and suggest to him the expediency of re-establishing the monarchy, with Kaiulani on the throne. He also counsels him to accuse the Americans of interested motives in asking for annexation and to dwell upon the sugar industry of the islands as the probable cause of the revolution."

Awl to-day forwarded the dispatch with an explanatory note to Secretary Gresham.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—Captain Witke, who has just returned from Honolulu, where he commanded the United States steamer Boston at the time of the overthrow of the Hawaiian monarchy, reported at the Navy Department this afternoon. He had a short interview with Secretary Herbert and arranged for a more extended conference next week in regard to the participation of American sailors in the event. He declined to be interviewed.

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 24.—Rear-Admiral Belknap, discussing the Hawaiian question, expressed himself warmly in favor of the United States assuming a protectorate over the islands. "Of course people who had not been there might talk against it," said he, "but the interests at the islands are so plainly American that the United States cannot afford to throw the plans aside. If this country does not assume a protectorate Great Britain will quickly do so."

OPPOSES ANNEXATION.

Claus Spreckels' Opinion on Hawaiian Affairs.

NEW YORK, March 23.—C. A. Spreckels denied emphatically that the firm of Spreckels & Co. was desirous to overthrow the Hawaiian Government or that it had anything to do with the sudden change of affairs. Spreckels says, as was much a surprise to his father and to other members of the big sugar firm as it was to anybody. "We do not," he said, "believe the sugar bounty is going to last much longer and nothing could be gained by annexation. We can do a more profitable business with our contract labor than we could under the laws of the United States, and for that reason we are opposed to a change. We would much prefer that Hawaii remain a kingdom and then we should know that our business would not be interfered with. A short time before the Queen was deposed the sugar firm made a large loan to the Government, and it is not likely that we should extend financial assistance to a nation and then take part in a movement to overthrow it."

KAIULANI'S FAREWELL.

NEW YORK, March 21st.—Princess Victoria Kaiulani has promulgated her farewell address to the American people as follows:

"TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE.—Before leaving this land I want to thank all those whose kindness made my visit such a happy one. Not only the hundreds of hands I have clasped, nor the kind smiles I have seen, but the written words of sympathy that have been sent to me from so many homes have made me feel that whatever happens to me I shall never be a stranger to you again. It was to the American people I spoke and they heard me, as I knew they would, and I now say, God bless you for it, from the beautiful home where your fair first lady reigns to the dear crippled boy who sent me his loving letter and prayer."

"KAIULANI." The Princess will sail for England to-morrow.

The Mariposa.

The Mariposa's delay was caused by an accident to her propeller which detained her at Auckland. She left for the coast at 2 a. m. If things go well with her from this on, she will reach San Francisco in time to catch the overland mail next Thursday afternoon.

WM. R. CASTLE TALKS.

HE SAYS ANNEXATION SENTIMENT IS WIDESPREAD.

Public Opinion in the United States.—The Democratic Attitude.—A Boom Ready to Come.

Wm. R. Castle, one of the Hawaiian Commissioners, arrived on the Alameda and was found by a STAR reporter this morning at his pleasant home. He said that there had been no change in American sentiment towards annexation up to the time he left.

"We were supplied by a clipping bureau," said Mr. Castle, "with extracts from the press of all first, second and third-class cities in the United States and found that four-fifths of the papers, in their Hawaiian talk, were on the annexation side. Invitations came to us from all over the country to address the people and wherever we went the cause of annexation was extremely popular."

"What do you think of the Democratic attitude," the reporter asked. "It is evident that Mr. Cleveland intends to go slow. We were assured by the friends of the administration, however, that there was no purpose on his part to discontinue the annexation policy. The President had heard certain things about the revolution here which displeased him and he wanted to investigate. These were matters which the enemies of the Provisional Government told him and which are easy to refute."

"How about the feeling of Democratic leaders generally?"

"The majority of those we met at Washington side with us. There are a few who take a doubtful stand and a small group which fears that annexation would be unconstitutional. We saw Mr. Gresham and were received by him with marked politeness. His lips were sealed but his manner showed an interest in our cause and was in all respects an encouragement to us."

"What is thought of Col. Blount's mission?"

"Nothing was given out about it at Washington, beyond the fact that Col. Blount was sent on an important survey of the Hawaiian field. It is presumed that he is here to find out what class of people make the revolution, particularly what share the sugar planters had in it. We are advocating the suffrage for all Hawaiians, Mr. Castle? What do you think of it?"

"I agree with you fully. That is the just and proper course to take."

Mr. Castle said that, in the event of annexation, there was certain to be a tremendous rush to the Hawaiian group of people anxious to settle here and develop the country.

MACFARLANE TALKS.

Guarded Language of the Returned Honolulu.

A STAR reporter caught Mr. E. C. Macfarlane for a minute this afternoon on his way home. Mr. Macfarlane hesitates to express any opinion regarding the annexation question, because he only was present in Washington as a private citizen. Personally Mr. Macfarlane says that the appointment of Mr. Blount as Commissioner to Hawaii gives the greatest satisfaction to everybody in the United States, as far as he was able to judge.

"He is certainly satisfactory as far as I am concerned," said Mr. Macfarlane, "and I know he is eminently fitted to hold the position of trust he occupies. The United States did the very best thing in sending him here and I believe he will impartially and thoroughly investigate both sides of the matter, without prejudice to either side. I consider the defective treaty of annexation sent the Senate to be the cause of the present investigation by the United States. I certainly do not consider that treaty the thing for us, in its present shape."

Passengers Arrived.

The following list of passengers arrived by the Alameda this morning:

W. J. Anderson, G. Atcherly, Mrs. Capt. Bagwell, Wm. S. Bowen, Thomas A. Brannon, Dr. E. Bull and wife, Miss K. Bull, Hon. W. R. Castle, Will H. Cole, Miss B. Conwell, Miss A. M. Carter, G. S. Dyer, A. Seck, wife and 3 children, C. S. Hulbert and wife, Max Kauffmann, H. R. H. Prince, Kawananakoa, J. R. Kendall, G. Runcie, M. Liebenstier, Mrs. A. W. Sogley, Hon. E. C. Macfarlane, Hon. Paul Neumann and servant, Charles Nordhoff, Hon. Harold M. Sewell, J. E. Standlock, E. M. Walsh, Miss K. A. Welch, Harry S. Hicks, and 9 steerage.

Mr. Nordhoff Here. Charles Nordhoff, the veteran correspondent of the New York Herald has arrived in this city and is at the Eagle.

SUICIDE AT SEA.

The Sensational Act of a Despondent German Taylor.

Quite a sensation occurred on the steamship Alameda Wednesday morning, early in the suicide of Richard Kioer, a German Taylor booked by steerage passenger for Sydney.

Kioer evidently premeditated suicide as he acted queer from the time the ship left San Francisco, so his fellow passengers claim.

Wednesday morning at 6:40 o'clock when the Alameda was in lat. 26 deg. 04 min. long. 147 deg. 50 min. Kioer deliberately went aft on the rigging deck and after walking back and forth several times stepped to the port of the vessel, scrambled over the side and after bidding some fellow passengers good-bye jumped overboard. There were several sailors near scrubbing the deck, and a number of steerage passengers standing around but the man's action was too quick for their interference and he was over and out of sight before the alarm could be given to stop the vessel or lower a boat as the ship was steaming under full headway.

The ship was stopped backed up and made to describe a circle while a life-boat plied around, but to no purpose, the man had apparently disappeared for good. The life-boat was approaching to be taken aboard when the body of the little German sailor was seen floating along side the port stern exactly as if sitting at a piano playing, with arms and fingers outstretched and head bent forward. The propeller was in motion and could not be stopped until it caught the body in the maelstrom and carried it out of sight forever.

As a further evidence that the suicide was premeditated, Kioer had left $225 in coin and a gold watch and the keys to his trunk with Captain Morse, besides showing despondency to the verge of melancholia during the entire trip.

WHY WE SMILE.

Paul Neumann's Characteristic Talk to a Reporter.

Paul Neumann, commissioner of the ex-Queen to Washington, was seen this afternoon. He was the same old Paul, almost the only man in Honolulu without an enemy. In answer to the STAR reporter Mr. Neumann said:

"So far as the treaty of annexation which was introduced into the Senate is concerned, I should oppose it, even had I not been employed to do so. It took every thing away from us and even left the planters without support."

"I return because there was no necessity of my staying in Washington after Commissioner Blount had been appointed and I had private business here to attend to."

"If annexation were possible I should be in favor of it, but I don't consider it possible at present. I don't think it practicable and I don't believe the United States would annex the islands unless it was practicable."

"If it is feasible I am decidedly in favor of an American protectorate, which I believe would settle the whole question once and for all."

"I hope, like all who have the welfare of the country at heart, that the present gordian knot of trouble will be untied without the use of the sword."

"I went to Washington in the interest of the Queen to prevent if possible any injustice from being done. I favored the appointment of a Commissioner to examine into the state of affairs before judgment was pronounced and I have secured my point. I have brought back no assurances to the Queen, but I believe her assurance lies in the fact that Mr. Blount was appointed and has been sent here. I feel I have done my duty and shall now leave the problem in the hands of the people here to be worked out."

"In regard to the franchise I can truthfully say that any offer to disfranchise the native people would bar any approach of ourselves to the United States. I believe this to be the feeling there." is the best of salesmen. He's always at our store, and that's why our sales of footwear touch so high a figure. We have shoes for all occasions, for all feet, and at all prices. Whether you need footwear for outdoor or indoor purposes, business or pleasure, it's all the same; you can possess your sole in peace and comfort, if you buy of us. It's a queer foot we can't fit and a queerer taste we can't suit. There are varieties of both feet and taste, but not the variety we can't match. There's something of everything in our stock, and although you don't want to buy everything, you want to see everything before buying.

THE MANUFACTURERS' SHOE CO.
Wholesale and Retail Boots and Shoes.
102 FORT STREET.

The "Ship of State" having changed her course, the citizens of Hawaii are now sailing in smooth water, and on a course which is bound to lead to success. When we arrive at the port of Annexation the business of this community will be revolutionized. By this we mean that the methods of conducting business will be different. The business men of this community will be compelled to increase their energies in order to compete with new capital and fresh blood from abroad.

After considering this from all sides we have concluded not to wait until annexation is secured before changing our course. We intend to put the helm "hard-a-starboard" and let the breezes of competition fill our sails.

In order to do this we must begin by granting to all our customers who pay cash a discount of 10 per cent from the present retail prices of all merchandise which affords sufficient profit to enable us to do so. It is easy for the purchaser to comprehend what this will amount to on the purchases during the year. We are sure this will be appreciated by the public in general.

10 per cent. will be allowed on all purchases amounting to 50 cents or over. Remember the place to buy your medical supplies is at Island Potatoes have heretofore given but scant satisfaction to local consumers. This has been partly attributable to the fact that they were in the hands of growers of small means who desired to realize on their crops as quickly as possible, to obtain which potatoes have invariably been harvested in an unripe condition. The undersigned proposes to market none other than produce in full maturity. Our Potatoes are grown from the Best New Zealand Seed, and from lots now coming to market are pronounced to be superior to any imported article. Shipments are received by every week's steamer and will be sold at special rates to the trade.
