KIPAHULU ESTATE MANAGED BY PAKE

PLANTATION TURNS OVER ENTIRE PROPERTY TO AH PING, WHO IS TO RUN THE BUSINESS—APPLICATION OF CONTRACT SYSTEM ON A LARGE SCALE—HACKFELD & CO. ARE THE AGENTS.

An important agreement has been field with the registrar. Under the terms of the document the Kipahulu Sugar Company of Maui gives up the business of raising sugar and turns its property over to Ah Ping who is to become a planter. H. Hackfeld and Company are named in the agreement as the agents of the new planter and through them, he will purchase all merchandise, supplies etc. The agreement was made March 11, 1907 but went into effect on December 15, 1906.

Under the conditions, Ah Ping is to have control of all lands held in fee simple or leased by the Kipahulu Sugar Company. He is moreover, to have the use of the company's plant, including the use of the animals etc, at the plantation. He is to be paid by the company for his sugar at the following rate for the crop of 1907, $20 a ton; for the crop of 1908, $30 a ton and for the crop of 1909, $50 a ton, delivered in Honolulu. The crops of 1907 and 1908 are to be delivered F. O. B. at the company's wharves at Kipahulu. He is allowed $100 a month as planter and he agrees to raise at least 1,400 tons for 1907 and 1908 and 1,500 tons for the following year. The reason for the variation in the prices that are to be paid to Ah Ping, is the fact that the company did much of the work in preparing for the crops of 1907 and 1908. He is supposed to attend to all expenses of producing and manufacturing sugar. He is to employ all labor required in the raising of the sugar but will not discharge the men employed on the plantation at the time the agreement went into effect. The agent can employe a bookkeeper and Ah Ping is to pay $40 a month toward the salary of this man, the company paying the remainder. The agent has the right to audit the books and the planter is required to furnish a weekly statement of the sugar made and a monthly statement of expenses, etc. He is required to employ an engineer and sugar boiler competent and satisfactory to the agents. The agents agree to advance him at the rate of $15 a ton on the crops of 1907 and 1908 and $20 a ton on the crop of 1909. The agreement is to run from December 15, 1906 to the harvesting of the crop of 1909, with the right of extension if deemed advisable.

Conditions are also attached whereby the agreement terminates. The violations of various terms of the agreement, one of which is a failure to work the plantation for a period of three months, are provided for. It is specified that Ah Ping shall discharge any employee that the agents require. Provisions made for the maintenance of a visitors cottage at the plantation, Ping is to be paid for the housing of visitors.

The filing of this agreement caused considerable surprise as it was not generally known that the Kipahulu company had abandoned the actual raising of the sugar. The agreement entered into with Ah Ping is the application of the contract system on a very large scale. The experiment will be watched with a great deal of interest.

JAPANESE ARE COMING WITH TWO OPERAS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Japanese opera by Japanese singers and instrumentalists may be one of next season's local amusement novelties. From the capital of the Mikado's empire comes intelligence that an American tour, to be opened in San Francisco, is contemplated by an organization of 50 players and 30 singers that is performing there with great success two tragedies, "Hagamoro" and "Tokoyami," composed by professors in the Tokyo conservatory of music. The Italian style is said to be dominant in both these works.

With the adoption of occidental music in Japan the native music is not being neglected, but is in process of revision in accordance with what is best in western art. While the chamber, theatrical, assembly and educational music is being improved by experts in the original, specialists in occidental music are obtaining a strong foot hold, and it is to them, with the aid of Japanese dramatists, composers and poets, thta the world is indebted for the production of the two operas mentioned.

PUBLIC ARE SATISFIED

APPOINTMENT OF JUDGE HARTWELL RECEIVED WITH SATISFACTION—BALLOU ACCEPTABLE

The news of the appointments to the Supreme Bench were expected by Chief Justice Frear. He had anticipated that news to this effect would arrive today.

The elevation of Associate Judge Hartwell to be the head of the Supreme Bench has caused the utmost satisfaction. Expressions of approval of the appointment have been general, both by members of the legal fraternity as well as the community generally. Chief Justice Hartwell has been one of the leading attorneys of these islands for many years. He was on the bench as early as 1868. He is a lawyer of much resource and a man who has always ranked high in the community.

The appointment of S. M. Ballou to the Supreme Bench has also met with general satisfaction. He will lend dignity and ability to the court. But he will sacrifice a very profitable legal practice to accept the honor.

The appointments that have been announced would indicate that the new Governor would at once have to assume the reins of government. With the appointment of the Frear to the governorship his tenure of office on the bench ceased. Carter's resignation must have been accepted and his successor would, it would seem, be holding that office. Governor Frear or Chief Justice Frear, which ever he may be, had not up to shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon received any intimation from Washington on this score.

There is little question that the appointment of Frear will not be a happy one for the "party men." He has never been a party man in the strict sense of the word. He will not be anything like as strict a party man as was Governor Carter. The indications are that some of the appointments that may be made will cause some surprise to the hide bound Central-Committee-endorsing outfit.

In the opinion of some, however, it is thought that the press dispatches are the announcements of intention to make appointments, rather than the actual appointments. It is thought in official circles that there will be no changes until after Carter's return the latter part of next month.

TODD RECOMMENDS US CARPET-BAGGER

SAN FRANCISCO EDITOR COMPLETES VISIT HERE AND HEADS FOR BIG MEADOWS.

E. M. Todd, who edits a commercial paper in San Francisco and has been spending several weeks here for his health, left in the Sierra today for home. His wife and child accompany him.

Editor Todd is much interested in Honolulu and wants to visit this city again. "I know lots of people who will be wild to come here when I tell them of the charm of the place and the delightful people one meets here," he said just before leaving. "I have never been in a town where interest in politics and other local affairs was so general, but what you want for a Governor here is a carpet-bagger.

"We've enjoyed Hawaii immensely, now we are bound for Bunnell's, away up in Big Meadows at the headwaters of the Feather River, California."

Allan Dunn, well known here, has been running Todd's paper during his absence.

YOUNGEST SOCIALISTS ON RECORD

Lara and Gogo Reusner, the 13-year-old daughter and 8-year-old son of a famous Russian professor who was dismissed from his post at Tomsk, Siberia, for promulgating Socialistic doctrines, have, of their own volition, joined the Socialist Party and have been proclaimed by that body its youngest members in any land. The children live at Riga, Russia, and during their vacation from school will attend all the meetings of the party, in order that they may be prepared, when school re-opens to preach the doctrine to their school-mates.

TO ENTERTAIN JAPAN'S PRINCE

MEETING OF PROMINENT JAPANESE TO BE HELD TONIGHT TO ARRANGE THE PROGRAM.

Details of the reception which is to be accorded Prince Fushimi, the Japanese royal envoy, who arrives here next week on the British cruiser Monmouth on his way back to Japan from a visit to England, have not yet assumed much shape, although in a general way it has been decided upon. The royal guest and his party which numbers ten in all will be quartered at either the Young or the Moana Hotel. The Japanese Consul General Miki Saito was looking after this matter this morning.

A meeting of prominent Japanese will be held this evening for the purpose of discussing the situation and formulating plans, and it is likely that something definite in the way of entertainment will have been fixed upon by tomorrow.

As the Prince if the guest of Great Britain, the British consulate here will also take a prominent part in the entertainment; while Federal and Territorial officials will do the honors in representing the United States and the islands.

CLERK LEAVES SAFE LOCKED

GREAT PILIKIA NEAR ROBINS' EGG BLUE CHAMBER—EVIDENCE WANTED BUT NOTHING DOING.

Here is pilikia with an upper case P. When Chief Clerk Lloyd Conkling of the Secretary's office, departed for Maui last Tuesday with the Congressional Party, he took the exclusive knowledge of the combination of the Secretary's safe along with him. This is the reason that the attorney general's department and the secretary's office have been greatly perturbed during the last two days. An important part of the evidence of the Territory in the J. Lor Wallach perjury case, is locked in the safe and until it can be opened, the case cannot be proceeded with. The election proclamation and other matters that are required in the case, are in that safe. Yesterday Acting Governor Atkinson had a wireless message sent off at "double rush" rate to Conkling directing him to send the combination af the safe at once, by return wireless. If Conkling does not send that combination, nobody can get into the safe until he returns.

There is considerable speculation as to the cause for Conkling locking that safe and not giving the combination to any one else. May be he put some sweet scented note inside, or it might have been a Stilton cheese. Nobody knows but Conkling.

HUNG JURY

E. S. Barry is the man who hung the jury in the recent Goo Shee damage suit against the Mutual Telephone Co. and the Rapid Transit Company. The eleven other men were for reaching a verdict but Barry could not be convinced so, after being out over 6 hours the jury had to return to Judge Lindsay and report that it was impossible for them to agree on a verdict. The court discharged the jury. The case was one where the husband of deceased met death from an electric shock, transmitted it was claimed by the Rapid Transit wires through a telephone wire that had broken and was hanging in the street.

PETERS WILL RETIRE

CALLED ON GOVERNOR FREAR TODAY AND SAID HE WOULD NOT BE A CANDIDATE FOR REAPPOINTMENT—JUDGE A. PERRY SEEMS TO BE STRONGEST MAN IN RACE FOR THE OFFICE.

E. C. Peters will not be a candidate for reappointment as Attorney General. This afternoon Attorney General Peters called upon Chief Justice Frear soon to be the new Governor and paid his respects to the new Governor. Peters stated that he would not be a candidate for reappointment to the head of the Territorial law department. The Chief Justice took occasion to speak in complimentary terms of the ability that Peters has shown. Peters' appointment does not expire until next year, but he will evidently tender his resignation, as is customary when a new Governor takes hold of affairs.

Former Justice Antone Perry is being mentioned as a successor to Peters. The relation between Perry and the new Governor-to-be as well as Chief Justice Hartwell are understood to be very cordial. M. F. Prosser, the Chief Deputy Attorney General, has done splendid work in that department and a promotion to the head of the department may be in store for him.

BATTLE A GALE FOR THREE DAYS

BRITISH SHIP CAPE BRETON AND BARK ANNIE JOHNSON MAKE PORT UNSCATHED.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16—A heavy northwest gale prevailed off this coast several days ago according to the reports made by the British steamer Cape Breeton and Bark Annie Johnson, which reached port today. Both vessels reported that for the last three days at sea they battled with violent northwest wind and heavy seas, but neither suffered any damage.

The steamer Cape Breeton brought 3,980 tons of coal from Newcastle, N. S. W., and 1,425 tons of coke from Sydney. Captain Warden reports that, aside from the bad weather encountered the last three days, the voyage was uneventful. The bark Annie Johnson arrived from Hilo with a cargo of 28,000 bags of sugar. The schooner W. F. Jewett came from Willpa Harbor with a cargo of lumber and reports that on June 10 she struck a southeast gale, but it was weathered without damage.

CHAOS REIGNS IN FRENCH PROVINCES

PEASANTS REVOLT AND TROOPS REFUSE TO QUELL DISTURBANCES.

PARIS, June 16.—"The mayor will not listen to any orders from the Prime Minister." This is the latest proclamation issued by Marcellin Albert, leader of the wine-grower's revolt in Southern France, who openly defies the Government. Matters are in a bad state in the southern provinces and they show no sign of improvement.

The mayors who have resigned refused to resume their duties ,although urged to go so by Premier Clemenceau and others powerful in the councils of the Government. No taxes are being paid, as there is no one to get the money. Registration of births and deaths and civil ceremonies of marriages are suspended, and this is causing great confusion and apprehension.

The troops are with the people. They would not fire on them, even if ordered to. The soldiers are kept confined in the barracks so that they may not give open demonstrations of friendship to the toilers of the vineyard. Troops will only be used when all other means fail to end the trouble.

Some of the people who cannot bury their dead, on account of not being able to procure permits threaten to bring damage suits against the Mayors. The people feel convinced that the government by some magic means can relieve the situation which is caused by an overproduction of cheap wines.

The charges of adulteration are said to be greatly exaggerated. The whole situation is caused by making more wine than can be consumed. Enemies of the republic, royalist agents and others are at work among the growers trying to undermine the authority of the government. The Premier predicts that the revolt will end as suddenly as it began, but there are many who do not agree with him.

NIIHAU AND KE AU HOU.

The island boats Niihau and Ke Au Hou arrived early today, the former from Kahului whither she went with coal and the latter from Anahola with 2415 bags of sugar, 514 bags of rice and 16 packages of merchandise. There is more sugar at Kilauea ready for shipment.

CLAUDINE RETURNS WEDNESDAY

The S. S. Claudine, which sails at 5 p. m. tomorrow, for Hawaii and Maui ports, will return to Honolulu 24 hours ahead of time, arriving on Wednesday morning next instead of Thursday on account of the latter day being the Fourth of July.

S. S. TEXAN IN PORT.

The A.-H. S. S. Texan reached port from Seattle yesterday afternoon, lying outside the harbor to be fumigated before docking today. She is now commanded by Captain Hall, Captain Lyons having taken the Missourian. She takes sugar to Salina Cruz.

A maid thinks she is necessary to a man's happiness, a widow thinks a man isc necessary to her happiness, and a man—well, no matter what he thinks.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE NOT SUCCESSFUL

PHOEBE COUZINS CHANGES HER MIND IN REGARD TO THE BALLOT—ON WRONG TRACK.

ST. LOUIS, June 16.—Phoebe W. Couzins, the first woman United States Marshal this country ever had, for many years one of the most ardent advocates of equal rights for women, and a prominent figure at every woman's rights convention in the early days of the movement, declared tonight that suffrage has been a failure, and expressed the belief that the country is not ready for female votes and won't be for some time.

Miss Couzins declared that suffragists got off on the wrong track. She defended Reed Smoot against his female opponents, and said that the suffragists, in fighting Smoot, were trying to mix church with state, a condition that should never be tolerated.

"I was in Colorado in 1894," said Miss Couzins, "and had an opportunity to judge the woman voter. She had her full swing that year. The results showed that women were just as rabid partisans as men; they voted for party, not principle."

NO MORE KISSES SAYS SCIENTIST

CHICAGO, June 16.—No longer is it safe to kiss your girl good night. No longer is it commendable and prudent to kiss any one, or be kissed, if done on the mouth. If possible to slip one under the ear, or to insinuate it upon the cheek, well and good. All others are tabooed.

It has been brought before the attention of the National Conference of Charities and Correction that kissing is dangerous. That great white plague which is annually getting a firmer hold on the American public is due to a large extent to the art of osculation.

Dr. S. A. Knopf, an eminent German scientist, who has been lecturing before the conference on the care of the health, is responsible for the drastic tirade. He bars them all—from the burning kind that Bertha Clay used to write about, even to the more common ones that are current on days and evenings in June.

CLEAN COLLARS FOR SUFFERING PUBLIC

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—The clean collar and cuff famine from which San Francisco has been suffering for the last two months and a half will come to an end this morning, when the laundry workers will report back to work.

This news will be received with rejoicing by housewives as well as bachelors and benedicks, all of whom have had their troubles since the strike of the laundry workers was declared on April 1. Soft shirts will no longer be the fashion on the boulevards and the clothes lines that have been so fantastically decorated in the residence portions of the city lately are not so likely to break under the weight of their rinsed burdens.

For the last few days the laundry wagon drivers have been the busiest men in town. When the news of the settlement of the strike was made known early in the week the drivers at once hitched up their teams and began calling on their old customers. Needless to say, they were all welcomed, and the business they have been doing since bids fair to stand as a record in their line for a long time to come.

These are housecleaning days—the saddest of the year for many householders. Happy the household where the work is not thrice done; once by threat or prediction, again actually, and finally by reminders of what a work it was.—From the Worcester (Mass.) Gazette.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

Plan To Reach Harmful Trusts

A new plan for amending the anti-trust law was presented to the President recently by Francis B. Loomis, formerly assistant secretary of state. Mr. Loomis is not the author of the plan, but John R. Dos Passos of New York, who is regarded as an authority on corporation law. The essence of the plan is a radical change in the present anti-trust law. It aims to restrain only corporations and combinations that are harmful to the public, and does not make the mere fact of combination and monopoly unlawful. It also puts the power to proceed against any combination into the hands of any citizen where the district attorney fails to refuse to act, and makes the jury that tries the case judge of whether or not the combination has been proven harmful or oppressive. The proposition provides that the district attorney shall proceed in the court against any corporation that in his opinion needs prosecution.

The jury, from the evidence presented, decides whether the combination is harmful. A penalty of fine and imprisonment is provided with the power of the court to force a dissolution of the combination.

If the district attorney fails or refuses to act, any individual citizen through his own attorney can bring the same sort of a prosecution against the alleged trust, which can be served with papers and compelled to return an answer within twenty days.

It would require an act of Congress to amend the anti-trust law and put the new procedure into effect, but it is claimed by the author that the prosecution would effect what the law now aims at but is not framed to reach, namely, the elimination of the harmful trusts without touching those that are really helpful to business by cheapening production through combination.

Montana Passed Some Queer Laws

The laws passed by the last Legislature of Montana have been issued in book form, and it is the opinion of lawyers and others that never before did a Legislature have so many careless authors and incompetent enrolling and engrossing clerks. The result is that Montana has some of the most ludicrous laws that ever graced a statute book.

In fact so numerous are the errors that the Secretary of State was impelled to put this notice on the fly leaf: "The within are the exact copies of the enrolled laws as the same reached this office, and neither this office nor the printers employed in the work is responsible for spelling or punctuation."

The effect, it is thought, will not be serious, as the Supreme Court in passing upon the laws tries to determine the intent of the Legislature. One law was passed to prevent the sale of diseased meat, while the enrolled and engrossed copies thereof read "deceased meat." Thus, literally speaking, it is against the law for butchers to sell meats except upon the hoof, and if they obeyed it they would be compelled to drive cattle around to purchasers and dispose of them while alive.

A bill was passed relative to the measurement of hay. It provides certain rules for determining the amount "when it has been in the stack six months, provided it has been to the stack three months." The intention of the Legislature was to make allowance for shrinkage after the hay had stood three to six months. Still another law requires boarding houses, restaurants and hotels using adulterated foods "not" to post notices in plain sight of patrons and customers, when its intention was just the opposite. Another law, dealing with the land question, refers to "parented" instead of patented lands.

Hawaii's Trade Is Increasing

Trade of the United States with its noncontiguous territories will aggregate nearly 150 million dollars in the fiscal year which ends with the present month, against less than 100 millions in 1903, the first year for which complete figures of trade with all the noncontiguous territories are available. Prior to 1903 no official figures of trade with Alaska were reported to the Bureau of Statistics, and therefore a complete picture of trade with the entire noncontiguous area now under the flag of the United States can only be given for the term 1903-1907. During that period the shipments from the United States to its noncontiguous territory have increased about 90 per cent and the receipts of merchandise from them have increased about 25 per cent. Comparing the ten months of the present fiscal year for which figures are now available with the corresponding period of 1903, the first year for which complete figures can be had, the growth in shipments to the entire noncontiguous territory of the United States has been from $29,529,068 to $55,149,243, an increase of 86.76 per cent, while shipments to foreign countries were increasing but 31.4 per cent. During the same period the merchandise sent from the noncontiguous territories to the United States has increased from $48,250,099 to $59,693,323, an increase of 23.7 per cent, while merchandise received from foreign countries was increasing 38.2 per cent.

The growth in shipments from the United States to its non-contiguous territories has been more rapid, measured in values, than that in shipments from those territories to the United States, this fact being due, in the shipments to the islands, to increased requirements for railway construction, plantation development, etc., and in the shipments from the islands to the recent fall in the price of sugar, a staple article of shipment from Hawaii and Porto Rico to continental United States. The value of shipments from Hawaii to the United States was in the ten months of 1905 nearly 25 million dollars and in the corresponding period of 1907 but 21½ millions, this decrease being due to a reduction in the price of sugar, the chief article sent from that territory to the United States, rather than to any decrease in quantity. In the ten months of 1905 the 580,940,402 pounds of sugar shipped from Hawaii to the United States were valued at $24,115,252, while the 605,431,431 pounds of sugar shipped in the same period of 1907 were valued at but $20,282,387, an actual increase of 24 millions pounds, but a decrease of nearly 4 million dollars in value. In the case of Porto Rico, the shipments of sugar to the United States amounted in the ten months of 1905 to 199,867,093 pounds, valued at $,870,921, and in the corresponding months of 1907 amounted to 298,918,649 pounds, shipped from Hawaii to the United States in the ten months of 1905 was 4.15 cents and in 1907 3.35 cents; and of that shipped from Porto Rico to the United States in 1905, 4.44 cents, and in 1907, 3.59 cents.

To Hawaii the shipments during the ten months of 1907 were valued at 11⅜ million dollars, against 9 millions in the same months of 1903, and the shipments from that territory to the United States amounted to 21½ million dollars in the ten months of 1907, against 18½ millions in the same months of 1903.

Tales Worth Telling

SAFE.

In a certain court in New York permission had been demanded by one of the attorneys to introduce the testimony of a couple of witnesses who had not been duly cited.

"Do you suppose," suggested the wily Judge, "that they will materially assist us in getting at the facts?"

"I think so," answered the attorney, "I have not had an opportunity to communicate with them."

An audible smile ran around the court room.

"In that case, let them be called at once!" exclaimed his Honor. And the smile grew in volume.

PUBLIC OFFICE.

"Well, Moses," began the Senator, as a grinning Southern darky was ushered into his presence at Washington. "What brings you here?"

"Mars Joe," replied Moses, "I'se got 'portant business, sah, I want er office."

"You want an office? Why, what can you do?"

"Do, Mars Joe? What does everybody do that gets er office? Bless yer heart, Mars Joe, yer don't un'stand ole Moses. I ain't lookin' fer work, sah; I only wants er office."

WANTED TO GO HOME.

M. Deverne was waiting at a station in Ireland for his train. Two Irishmen entered and engaged in the following conversation:

"Sure, Pat, it's down to Kilmary I've been, on me way back now to Kil Patrick."

"Arrah, musha, Mike, it's meself that just after coming from being down to Kil-Kenney, stopped a bit before I go down to Kil-Moore."

"I say, Pat, let us take the day and go down to Kil-Maule."

"Ye gods," exclaimed the Frenchman "what assassins. Would that I were back in France."

A MISUNDERSTANDING.

At the breakfast table in one of the mining towns the landlady gave Mr. Muggins a severe look and said:

"Mr. Muggins, I understand that you have been circulating injurious reports about my house."

"How, madam?"

"I understand that you said you had used better butter than I have here to grease wagons with."

"I did say so, madam, but not to injure your house. I have used better butter, madam, to grease wagons, but I wouldn't do it again. I'd sell it to you."

A STORY OF A THIRSTY CAT.

"Perhaps you think the old water-in-the-milk joke has been worked to death, but I've found a new variation of it," said a Baltimore man. "You know I have a small negro girl as a nurse for my children, and one of her duties is to tell stories to the kids just before bedtime. They always listen intently to what she says and last night I decided to listen, to. This is what I heard:

"An' de cat, she got thirsty, an' she got thirstier an' mo' thirsty, an' finally she went to a pan ob milk sittin' in de pantry to get a drink ob watah!'

"I told the story to our milkman this morning and he didn't laugh at all."

BOUND TO TELL.

At a dinner party the little son of the host and hostess was allowed to come down to dessert. Having had what his mother considered a sufficiency of fruit, he was told he must not have any more when, to the surprise of every one of the guests, he exclaimed:

A fresh supply was at once given him, and as soon as it was finished he repeated his threat. Whereupon he was suddenly and swiftly removed from the room, but he had just time to convulse the company by exclaiming:

"My new trousers are made out of ma's old bedroom curtains."

HOW CROKER MADE GOOD HIS PROMISE

PURCHASED ESTATE AND WON THE DERBY WITH A COLT OF HIS OWN BREEDING.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—A well known writer on horses says: "That presumably the best of the horses in the 'tight little isle' (Orby) should be related to the Burns handicap winner, Kercheval (whose sire was probably The Commoner) is rather odd. Rhoda B., dam of Orby, was an own sister to The Commoner. She won in England in the Croker colors, as did her brother, Argadeen. Mr. Croker has a fine estate not far from Dublin, and I believe he was born in Ireland. On that estate he had Americus (formerly Rey del Careres), a son of Emperor of Norfolk and Clara D., that was one of the speediest horses ever foaled in California. Americus won in England, I think, and when Mr. Croker, Ed. Corrigan and other Americans were denied the privilege of training horses on Newmarket Heath the Tammany boss bought the Irish estate and declared he would come back to England and win the Derby with a colt of his own breeding. He has made his promise good, and it must have been a source of great gratification to him. Speaking of the Americus, I believe it was while on his trip to California about 1894 that he saw the colt run for the first time. Bill Brien trained for E. J. Baldwin then, and a Brien bred Kercheval and was superintendent of Belle Meade when Mr. Croker had a half-interest in the establishment."

MARRIAGES BY BUDDHISTS LEGAL

THE WEDDINGS PERFORMED BY PRIESTS OF THE ORIENT MUST BE RECOGNIZED.

SEATTLE (Wash.), June 15.—United States District Attorney P. C. Sullivan, today ruled that a wedding ceremony performed by a Buddhist priest must be recognized by the Federal Government. The District Attorney's decision applies directly to the shipboard weddings of Japanese women who come here on every Oriental liner to meet promised husbands. The immigration authorities will not permit them to land without a marriage ceremony and it has been customary for a Buddhist priest to perform the marriage.

The immigration officers claim this ceremony should not be recognized but Attorney Sullivan rules that the Federal statutes do not recognize creeds and any person authorized by State law to perform a marriage ceremony can qualify the Japanese women for admittance.

GOOD BYE S.S. SIERRA

TALK OF AMERICAN-HAWAIIAN BUYING HER FOR THIS RUN—MONSTER PASSENGER LIST.

The Oceanic steamship Sierra, Captain Houdlette, sailed from the Oceanic wharf this forenoon for San Francisco, probably never again to come to this port, unless, perhaps, there is something in the rumor that the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company is going to buy her to place on the San Francisco-Honolulu run.

A large crowd, larger than usual, went to the wharf to see the Sierra go; everybody realized, it seemed, that it might be good-bye forever to the good Sierra, as far as Honolulu is concerned. It was the same old "aloha steamship" crowd, almost, that was wont to say farewell to the Australia and has been saying au revoir to the Alameda for years. The Hawaiian band played patriotic, sentimental and pretty near being a record-breaker for senger list, the vessel was late in leaving her wharf, the tug Intrepid having hold of her a long time before she was ready to be strained into the stream.

The outgoing passenger list comes pretty near being a record-breaker for an Oceanic boat from this port. After all, many who had booked did not go, but their places were quickly filled by those only too anxious to get away.

In the steerage the remarkably small number of ten was taken. This is on account of the fact that the Sierra does not carry women in the steerage and since they are the Portuguese who are most anxious to get away and they do not travel much unless in families, the half-a-score single men and men going up to prepare the way, perhaps, for their families, have the steerage to themselves.

A glance through the passenger list elsewhere published, having been revised up to the time of the Sierra's departure, will reveal the names of many school teachers going away on vacation on the Coast.

The Sierra takes up a fair cargo, including over 1,000 tons of sugar, about 50 tons of rice, 2,000 cases of canned pineapples, 700 cases of fresh fruit, 4,000 bunches of bananas and much other island stuff.

At the office of the agency and aboard the Sierra nothing is known of the vessel returning here. The Sierra's crew, in case they do not get another chance, today said good-bye to Honolulu.

THE FOUNDING OF JAPANESE FLEET

ANGLO SAXON LAID FOUNDATION OF MODERN FLEET NOW OWNED BY LAND OF NIPPON.

One hundred and fifty years before the United States of America sprung into splendid existence a forefather of John Adams, the second president of the Republic, had sailed around the globe to the little known Japanese islands, then the limit of the world, and founded the modern Japanese navy The story of how the Kentish sailor was made a god by the grateful islanders, of how they erected a great temple to his honor in which prayers are said to this day, and of how everything heart could wish was pressed upon him, with the one exception—the thing he desired—liberty to return to his home, his wife and his children, reads as one of the unequalled romances of medieval days.

The figure of Adams is one of the most pathetic in history for not even the wildest guess of that day would forsee the brilliant result that sprang from his work. For forty years the sailor lived on the great hill where the temple of Hemimura erected in his honor, now stands, above the great docks of Yokosuka, gazing day by day over the Pacific for the sail that never came. Without one, in the whole nation that spoke his language, without family, country or friend, he lived out his life, actriving to teach the savage islanders the rudiments of shipbuilding and navigation as it was then understood. And when he died at last the Japanese continued the study he started them in, and over three centuries later, when their day of trial came and the battleships of Russia stood arrayed against them in the sea of Japan, the little islanders proved that they had well remembered the lessons that Will Adams had spent his life in demonstrating three hundred dead years before.

To Ronald McDonald of Oregon, who crossed to the then closed land of Nippon six years before Commodore Perry opened that country to the world, belongs the pioneer credit of the first crossing of the Pacific and the linking of the newer races of the west with that people who remain in the cradle of the human race.

Eva Emery Dye, the Oregon author has told the story of McDonald's adventures and properly preserved the life story of this splendid crusader. And the proposal that at the coming Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition which will be held at Seattle in 1909 to exploit the Northwest and the countries of the Pacific, the memory of McDonald shall be honored with a statue, has met with acclaim everywhere.

Because of this American interest, and America's commercial connection with Japan, those who will have the directing of this portion of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition will take good care that the stories of the earliest connections between the Anglo-Saxon and the Oriental people are properly exploited and preserved.

McDonnald is usually spoken of as being the first white trader who reached Japan. The story of Adams who really deserves the credit turning, the tale of the rough sailor who became a god, whose descendant gave two rulers to the greatest Republic the world has ever known, has not the general circulation it deserves.

To the people of the United States the story of William Adams ought to be of intense interest for anachronistic as it may seem to speak of the United States in the year of grace 1600 William Adams was, if not by ancestry, at least by posterity, as good an American as ever sailed the seas. For from his immediate family were descended John Adams, second president of the United States and John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States, and others of that distinguished Massachusetts line. The story of William Adams, the first, is as follows:

AMERICAN DUCHESS.

DUCHESS of MARLBOROUGH.

ENGLISH WRITER OF FICTION.

MR. A.E.W. MASON.

On April 12, 1600, a Dutch ship piloted by William Adams, a Kentish seaman of good family but roving disposition, reached Japan. At that time it was part of Japanese religion, patriotism and statecraft to keep all foreigners out of the country. The Dutch traders, however, were persistent, and finally gained permission to build a trading factory at Firando. For this concession the traders were compelled to hand over to the chief or Tycoon their best seaman and boat builder. Adams probably the best, in any case, but the ship, its captain and its seamen were Dutch and the man who was handed over was to be a life prisoner. This fact probably led the captain to sacrifice to the Tycoon's command, the one foreigner on board.

While not exactly pertinent to the story it may be pointed out that the Aleut, the Kenait, and the Kenit, races of the Aleutian islands and the Alaskan coast invariably call their chiefs Tycoons or Tyoons, the similarity being another link in the chain that proves the North American Indian and the Japanese people have a common origin.

Adams was treated with all honor. He built the first Japanese war fleet and improved the coasting and trading vessels of the islanders enabling them to make further trading and fishing journeys than ever before. For years he worked with hundreds of men under him founding the Japanese shipping the founder of the present Japanese fleet, and back to him may be traced the first impulse that led to the victory of the sea of Japan on May 28, 1905, three nundred and five years later.

Adams often grew weary of his honorable captivity and longed to return to England. Everything his heart could wish, wealth, honors, wives, titles, the love of a nation, were his—all but liberty. He died an old man, and was buried on the hillside of Hemimura above the present great naval arsenal. After his death he was made a god and a great temple was erected in his honor. Here for three hundred years the devout of Japan have bent the knee and prayed to this simple English sailor. On the three hundredth anniversary of his landing in Japan, April 12, 1900 the following poem, written by J. H. Knight-Adkin, the English novelist and poet, was given place of honor in the London Standard. It is doubtful if the poem has ever been published or the story ever before been told in America. It is as follows:

WILL ADAMS.

On the hill of Hemimura, looking out across the sea
O'er the docks of Yokosuka, and the warships sailing free,
'Midst the Shinto pennons streaming
Lies Will Adams, still a-dreaming,
Of the busy port o'London, and the Kentish wood and lea.

He forgets the fleet he builded and the decks that once he trod,
That his grave's afar from England and his pall is alien sod,
That the incense sticks are burning
And the praying wheels a-turning
To the name of William Adams, Kentish sailorman—and god.

So he drowses till the screaming of the sirens once again
Calls him back to where beneath him, like mailed Barons of the main
Ride the warships, while the rattle
Of Dai Nippon's seaward battle
Rings and mingles through his dreaming, like a distant song's refrain.

For when the great gray battle-ships roll down upon the foe,
Or Togo's lean torpedo boats charge shoreward through the snow
When the giant shells are crashing,
And the league-long searchlights flashing,
Then Will Adams sees the triumph of his toil of long ago.

The committee which has charge of the early morning demonstration on the Fourth of uly—the fantastic parade horribles, etc.—has announced a list of cash prizes which should result in a keen competition on the part of those who go in for this sort of thing. The same line of march will be followed by the military parade, which will follow the antiques and horribles.

AFTERNOON SPORTS.

The list of events has now been practically determined on, together with a handsome assortment of prizes to be awarded the successful competitors. The committee has asked for two teams of the Riverside league to play the ball game in the afternoon, and it is possible that it will be arranged to have the Chinese Alohas meet a team of the 20th Infantry, which has challenged for a game on the Fourth. This will be the first occasion in which the new regiment which only arrived last week, will have been seen in any sporting event since their arrival, and a good deal of interest will likely attach for that reason.

DATES SET FOR POLO GAMES WITH MAUI

WILL BE MIDDLE OF AUGUST—TEAMS WORKING FOR FOURTH OF JULY GAME.

At a meeting of the Oahu Polo Club held yesterday the matter of playing a series of three games with the Maui Polo Club was taken up, with the result that the dates of August 10th, 14th and 17th were decided on. This is in accordance with the wishes of the Maui aggregation of polo players, who in a letter received here earlier in the week, proposed a series of three games to be played some time in August.

It has been two years since there has been a contest between the Oahu and Maui teams, and the coming tournament will be looked forward to with great interest by all lovers of the sport.

The local teams held an unusually good practice game at the Moanalua grounds yesterday afternoon, which was won by the Blues by a score of 3 to 2, after some very fast and clever work. The teams are getting ready for the big Fourth of July game, which will be contested by the Blues with much vigor in an effort to retrieve their loss of the game on Kamehameha Day.

The lineup of the teams yesterday were:

Blues—W. D. Baldwin, No. 1; C. H. Cooke, No. 2; J. L. Fleming, No. 3; A. Clough, No. 4.

Reds—G. P. Denison, No. 1; Walter Macfarlane, No. 2; W. F. Dillingnam, No. 3; E. H. Lewis, No. 4.

JIMMY BRITT SAYS NOT A SPITE MATCH

FIGHT PROMOTERS ARE KNOCKING THE BRITT-NELSON FIGHT, SO BRITT SAYS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17.—Having read so many untruths in connection with the Britt-Nelson fight by the hired emissaries of the opposing promoters, I desire to make my position in the matter clear. I have in the past avoided newspaper controversies, but the persistent "knocking" by the people directly interested in the Squires-Burns fight forces me to defend myself.

In an article in the San Francisco Examiner of June 12 one Jack Curley, trained and rubber of Mike Schreck is reported to have said that he talked with me in San Francisco and that I was as big as he—meaning, I guess, that I weighed somewhere near a ton. I do not know Mr. Curley nor have I ever to my knowledge spoken to him. His object in "knocking" the Britt-Nelson contest is clear, as Schreck has been promised by the promoters that they would match Schreck and the winner of the Squires-Burns battle. In gratitude for this Curley lies about me, but like all of his class he takes care to be at a safe distance.

As to my weight, the newspapermen and the public in general are invited to see me weigh at any time and if I do not weigh less than 140 pounds I will forfeit all right to box Nelson or any one else in the light-weight division. The Britt-Nelson contest has been refrered to as a spite match by the press agents of the Squires-Burns fight and some others who, not liking Nolan, seek to belittle the match. It seems to me that all the spite emanates from the other end. I would sooner box Nelson on some other date, but after clamoring for two years for a return match I cannot see how I could refuse this chance, nor do I want to.

Ase there is no other fight carded for San Francisco on the evening of July 3 I cannot see why they take so much pains to belittle this one, except that they know that a Britt-Nelson contest is a better card and will consequently overshadow and outshine the contest they are interested in. If the Britt-Nelson fight is not a better card than the Squires match why do they take such pains to knock it?

The Britt-Nelson contest takes place in San Francisco, my native city where I have been raised and hold interests. Who has a better right to box here than I have? Has Squires or Burns?

In conclusion I can assure the sporting public that I am in good condition and will give them a fight that they will long remember. If I do not win I will retire from the ring forever. That's fair, is it not? Trusting and feeling that the sporting public and my friends will uphold me in this matter, I am very truly yours,

JIMMY BRITT.

ROBB CARRIES OFF SHOOTERS' PRIZE

SPLENDID RECORD MADE DURING SIX WEEKS SHOOTING—NEW CUP WILL BE PUT UP.

J. A. Robb won the handicap cup of the Hawaiian Gun Club, for a third time in the weekly shoot of the club at the Kakaako traps yesterday afternoon, and the trophy now becomes his personal property. His score was 21 out of 24 for yesterday's shoot. From the standpoint of improvement Robb has made probably more marked progress than any other member of the club for the same length of time. He has been only six weeks in winning this cup, starting in with a handicap of ten and having had it reduced to four this last shoot. His shooting is going to put him very near the scratch line in the next contest.

The other names on the cup are those of Irvin Spalding, S. J. Call and J. W. Harvey. A new cup will be put up for weekly contest next Wednesday.

The scores made for yesterday's meet follows:

J. A. Robb, broke 21 out of 24.
W. E. Wall, broke 20 out of 25.
J. Connor, broke 19 out of 30.
K. B. Porter, broke 18 out of 20.
J. W. Harvey broke 18 out of 20.
D. L. Austin broke 17 out of 20.
J. E. Whitney broke 16 out of 27.

HARMONY REIGNS WITH SUPERVISORS

QUIET SESSION LAST NIGHT WITH ONLY ROUTINE BUSINESS—BENCHES FOR AALA PARK.

The meeting of the County Board of Supervisors last night was in marked contrast to several of the preceding ones. No untoward incident marked the monotony of the regular routine grind. The only thing which threatened trouble was an objection on the part of Supervisor Harvey to the wording of the minutes of the last session with reference to the turning down of the proposition for the County's paying for improvements in Koolau road. Chairman Hustace put the question to a vote and declared it lost, Supervisors Harvey, Fern and Kealoha voting for it. On motion of Harvey their opposition was recorded in the minutes.

After this the allowance of a number of ordinary bills and the passage of estimates for the coming month, together with a few communications of minor importance, took up the remainder of the hour and a quarter which the body was in session.

The Finance Committee submitted the following financial statement:

General fund—Balance on hand, $6,-612.21; from Territory for June, 1907, $35,000.00; total, $41,612.21.

Road Tax—Honolulu, $13,482.40; Ewa and Waianae, 9,278.90; Waialua, $2,647.66; Koolauloa, $956.93; Koolaupoko, $252.70; total, $26,618.59.

Deducting from this balance the amount of the estimates for July, which is $37,435, and a balance of $30,-795.80 is left.

Chairman Hustace warned the members that they must exercise much caution in expending money, owing to the fact that the balance on hand must be made to extend over nearly nine months. He took occasion a number of times during the course of the meeting to urge curtailment of expenses as much as possible.

The appropriations for the month were then voted, as follows:

Fixed salaries, $1670; County Clerk, $305.32; County Attorney, $800; County Treasurer, $125; Poundmaster, $30; Keeper of parks, $200; Electric light department, $671; Police and fire alarms, $155; Kapiolani Park, $413.75; Road district, Ewa, special, $1370.20; Police department, $5845.85; Hawaiian band, $1250; Fire department, $3372; Road department, $1525; Garbage department, $210; County Auditor, $125; Waialua road district, $797; County Engineer, $269.

The matter of providing for some kind of sanitary toilet arrangements at the County eBach lot was called up by a communication from the Park Commission, which asked for the appropriation of $150 for the purpose of having the necessary plumbing done. Under the consideration of estimates for the coming month, this was afterwards allowed.

A petition from the Sachs Dry Goods Company for having the streets in the vicinity of their place of business oiled to prevent the dust, called forth the statement from Chairman Hustace that it is impossible for the County to undertake to oil streets wherever it would be advisable to do so for the purpose of laying dust, and that to do so in one place would be establishing a precedent which would lead to all sorts of trouble. No action was taken on the petition.

The Honolulu Reliance Bicycle Club asked the Board to have the race track at Kapiolani Park put in condition for bicycle racing by the Fourth of July, but the request was refused on the grounds that the County no longer recognizes a race track at that place, and the petitioners were referred to the Park Commission.

As a result of a protest from Capt. A. Tullett regarding the glare caused by a dressing of white coral on Kalakaua Avenue, the matter was referred to the chairman of the roads committee with a recommendation that a dressing of oil be given the offending thoroughfare.

The ordinance prescribing certain hours during which swill must be removed was passed at a second reading without comment.

The following estimates were passed for the coming month of July:

Public expenditures—Fixed salaries, $1670; County Clerk's office, $440; County Auditor's office, $250; County Attorney's office, $875; County Treasurer's office, $875; County office rent, $150; poundmaster payroll, $30; County Engineer's office, $375; keepers of parks, $200; Kapiolani Park, $700, and special appropriation for July, $150.

Roads, bridges and parks—Honolulu district, $11,000; Ewa district, $2200; Waianae district, $400; Waialua district, $1400; Koolaulua district, $900, and Koolaupoko district, $750.

Police department, payroll, $5920, supplies $1000; fire department, payroll $3400, supplies $600; garbage department, $1500; electric light department, payroll $650, supplies $750; police and fire alarm system, payroll $100, supplies $160; and Hawaiian band, payroll $1250, supplies $75.

Total estimates for July, $37,435.

Supervisor Dwight brought up the matter of supplying benches for Aala Park, and it was decided to purchase about 50 such substantial seats for the park to be ready for the concert at that place week after next. It was especially stipulated that these benches are not to be used for the base ball games on Sundays.

The Board adjourned at 9 o'clock.

BREWERY MAN AND HIS BEER CAPACITY

COMMISSIONER LUCAS WANTED INFORMATION—MEETINGS OF COMMISSION INTERESTING.

"What is your capacity?" asked Commissioner Jack Lucas.

"I work in the warehouse at the brewery," replied W. A. Perry.

"I mean what is your capacity for drink—how much can you hold?" asked Lucas.

There was a general laugh at this and the merriment was large for the crowd in the legislative hall in the Capital last night at the session of the Board of License Commissioners was very big. This was in the matter of the application of A. O. Rosa for the renewal of a license for the Wigwam Saloon near the Kakaako Misson.

The Mission folk here arrayed against the saloon. Lyle Dickey was there to talk law and B. W. Ryder, Superintendent of the Mission, was on hand to tell all about the place and how he thought it was too near the building where children gathered.

W. A. Perry had been brought in by those protesting against the license as sort of an awful example, the contention being that the Wigwam people had served him with drinks when he was drunk.

The aged, aged man, Perry, gave evidence that proved this charge a mistake for he testified that he had never been unable to stand up to the bar and ask for what he wanted and distinguish the liquor served to him. "Then you were never drunk," said Lucas, emphatically, and there was another welcome laugh. Perry testified that he usually filled up at the brewery.

The sensation of the evening occurred when Lyle Dickey produced a Hawaiian male child of about 7 years and wanted him to tell the Commissioners how he had visited the saloon, if he had ever visited it. The child was frightened, but while being examined by way of ascertaining whether or not he should be allowed to testify, he stated that his mother frequently sent him to the Wigwam for beer. As further questions were put the little boy wept, possibly believing that he was there to be punished.

W. C. Peacock loomed large in the front row of the audience and he suddenly gave tongue, crying aloud that anybody who would put such a child through such an ordeal "should be sacrificed, crucified and flayed."

Chairman Ballentyne rapped for order and declared that he did not want any repetition of the incidents of the night before. "Scotty" wanted to hear the testimony and Peacock demanded that the testimony be given, remarking that the hearing was public. Ballentyne stated that the questioning of the boy was but preliminary. Frank Thompson, who won additions to his laurel pile by successfully defending Sam Johnson for assaulting "It Is Said" in the police court in the afternoon, jumped up to protest to the further examination of the baby and was loudly applauded. Jack Lucas put in a word and said he thought time was being wasted since the child was crying and in no condition to testify. Chairman Ballentyne then gracefully excused the youngster.

Judge Perry represented the partners applying for the renewal for the Wigwam and put on a host of witnesses who all testified that the groggery was always conducted in a decent and legal manner. When Dickey brought on his testifiers Judge Perry asked to be allowed to cross-examine then, but was denied the right. His protest was entered on the record.

Anti Saloon John Martin was on the stand.

"It is your business to bust up saloons, is it not?" inquired Commissioner Lucas.

Martin was not familiar with so slang a word as "bust," and said so, in effect. The expression was interpreted for him and he admitted that it was his aim in life to "put saloons out of business."

"Then what do you mean by boosting McTighe's saloon?" asked Lucas.

"What?" cried Martin, "me boostin' McTighe's saloon—never!"

"I heard you myself say that if anybody was given a license in his district McTighe was the man who should get it," said Lucas.

"Hif you call that a-boostin' of 'is saloon," said Martin, "why then you may say I was a-boostin' of hit." Applause from the house.

Martin complained that children played tag through the Wagwam's bar room.

W. P. Ryder gave testimony of seeing drunks go in and out, of noises and of children playing around outside. He utterly forgot that he had ever testified in the police court in a case in which the Wigwam proprietor was charged and acquitted of selling to a minor. The incident was recalled by the production of the court record.

Patrick Francis Ryan's application for renewal of a license for his saloon in the Occidental Hotel also brought out much of interest.

Frank Thompson represented Ryan. The Rev. G. D. Edwards of the Christian Church on Alakea street led the protesting element and had come to the hall with a dozen ladies of his congregation who were ready to testify that they had been annoyed by drunks on the corner of Alakea and King streets, a Rapid Transit transfer point. One lady did testify and Thompson, to save time, admitted that all the others would testify to the same effect and the ladies were excused.

Edwards and a young man by the name of Ramsay testified that they had seen drinks served in the cafe on Sundays with nothing in evidence but the drinks, when the law called for a sandwich. They saw through the swinging doors in the place.

W. McCandless who had put his signature to Ryan's petition for a license testified that he did not know what he was doing at the time. Evidence was produced to the contrary, a notary's testimony leaving no room for doubt. Ryan, answering questions, said the complaining church was going out of business and the pastor was going to the coast on July 1. The Rev. G. D. Edwards testified concerning a man "who was never sober enough to be baptized," and said that Ryan had given him a drink when he was drunk.

The Commission sat until 12:30 o'clock this morning and reserved decisions in both cases.

THE NEW GOVERNOR.

To begin with, Gov. Frear knows the lay of the land, knows the native and his tongue. That is well and ought to be half of the battle in doing the work.

Personally, (pardon us) he has a pleasing, gentle countenance and would impress anyone by his calm, dignified poise, recollected and gracious, polished and suave as a trained knight of the "round table."

We likely have, the right man, for the next four years; he is not short sighted, he is not even "slightly deaf;" not too tall, not too short, not too old, not too young; and, as he is dark, that certainly ought to go with the Hawaiians; they can't say, "he's one of the blonde kind,—kind of faded out." But, to sum it all up Governor Frear is a fine-loking man and a grand Christian gentleman, consistent, sound and wise; and, this Territory will be blessed in, and because of ,him.

TRAIN ROBBER TURNS MERCHANT

FORMER EXPRESS MESSENGER FINDS MAN WHO LOOTED CAR YEARS AGO.

GALVESTON, (Tex.), June 12.—A prominent and respected citizen of Houston was confronted today by John T. Dickey, who positively identified the merchant as one of the train robbers who held up a train and robbed the express company of about $25,000 eighteen years ago.

Dickey was a Wells, Fargo express messenger on the Houston and Texas Central line and the hold-up took place on the night of September 24, 1889, ten miles south of Fort Worth. Two robbers did the work, and for half an hour the express messenger was face to face with the man who robbed the express car while his companion covered the engineer and fireman and the messenger with guns.

The robber who emptied the contents of the safe and lost his mark while ransacking the packages, guyed and joked the messenger and trainmen. Dickey made a study of this man's features and voice, and declares he could recognize either. He has not been in South Texas for fifteen years, and, upon entering the store today he was astonished to be greeted by the train robber. The storekeeper has offered to restore the amount stolen from the express company with interest if the case be dropped.

AWARDED CONTRACTS.

A meeting of the board of health was held yesterday afternoon when when various contracts were awarded. The contract to supply paint to the leper settlement went to the Kalihi Poi Factory, whose bid was 63 cents per 21 pounds. Benson, Smith and Company secured the contract for supplying drugs etc., to the board of health. The petition of Moiliili Japanese to establish a cemetery in that section, was refused.

MANY BEG FROM HELEN GOULD

OUTLINE OF REQUESTS FOR MONEY RECEIVED IN ONE WEEK —TWO MILLION A WEEK.

NEW YORK, June 17.—According to a statement made public today, the requests for gifts sent to Miss Helen Gould aggregate nearly $2,000,000 a week. They range all the way from the asking for $15 for a set of false teeth to $1,000,000 to start a colony in Cuba.

Miss Gould gave an itemized list of a week's requests recently to Franz Kallenborne, the orchestra leader. A movement is on foot among the music lovers of this city to make Kallenborne's orchestral music a permanent feature in New York. For this subscriptions from wealthy persons would be necessary. Miss Gould was one of those consulted. She encouraged Kallenborne, but incidentally cited the fact that this was not the only thing she was asked to encourage. Then she gave him the list.

In the week referred to Miss Gould received 231 requests for money outright. Out of these 199 left the amount to her good will and discretion. Miss Gould was asked in that week for $5,000 to help form an anti-saloon league in Idaho. She received forty-three requests for aid for churches, twenty-seven for educational institutions and twenty-six for libraries. More than thirty were for help for charitable institutions. Four persons, presumably young women, wanted Miss Gould to help them buy trousseaus. Eleven persons wanted pianos and twelve wanted Miss Gould to buy their inventions.

Following are some of the other wants: Bibles, bicycles, a farm and three cows, one invalid's chair, enough air pillows to supply a regiment of soldiers, one set of teeth, five sewing machines and fifteen railway tickets.

MAIL SUBSIDIES EXTENDED.

Be Not Deceived

There is only one cleanable Refrigerator and therefore GERM PROOF, and that is the Gurney Refrigerator handled by us.

No other make has ever stood the test and by means of the removable ice chamber as well as removable shelves, drain pipes, traps, etc., we have solved the problem.

Assail us where you will you cannot help but admit our claim. All other makes fail when it comes to keeping the ice chamber pure, sweet, clean and germ proof, but

THE GURNEY

Listen not to idle talk and argumen ts put forth in favor of cleanable provision compartment. All refrigerators have this feature. You cannot deny that unless ALL COMPARTMENTS can be kept absolutely pure and wholesome that a refrigerator is germ-proof. Go from the provision chamber to the receptacle for the ice and it is here where all other makes fail. There's the weakness that cannot be overcome by them.

The Gurney with its removal Ice Chamber feature has supplied the great want and therefore

TAMMANY MAY HAVE NEW LEADER

It has been announced that Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany is to vacate his office and turn the chair over to Thomas F. McAvoy. Mr. Murphy has denied that he will resign, but the friends of Mayor McClellan claim that the latter will force his enemy out. McAvoy is leader of the 23rd Assembly District and Chairman of the Tammany Hall Executive Committee. He is one of Murphy's strongest lieutenants and is a wealthy contractor. He was once a police inspector and later Deputy Police Commissioner of New York City.

OFFICIALS TO RESIGN

BELIEF THAT PRESENT HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS WILL TENDER RESIGNATIONS.

There still continues to be the utmost speculation as to the "Slate" that will be named by the new governor. Absolutely nothing that the Chief Justice has said on this subject for publication gives any light on his intentions. It is highly probable that the Chief Justice will, after giving the general method of administration of the departments careful consideration, listen to the recommendations of Governor Carter on the score of assistants.

Going as he will do into an entirely new breach of the government of the Territory, Governor Frear will naturally be desirous of having the various departments administered without unnecessary delays and annoyances. For this reason it is possible that he may decide to retain some of the present officers appointed by Governor Carter. Undoubtedly there will be changes made in respect to the departmental heads. It is more than probable that all of the officers will hasten to place their resignations in the hands of the new governor, as soon as he is inaugurated, as they will not desire in any way to embarrass him. No decision is apt however to be reached by the new governor in the matter of his appointment for some weeks at the earliest.

A host of names will be suggested for the various places during the course of public conversation on the subject, but it is safe to state that no decision will be reached by the new governor until after he has made a most careful inquiry and has consulted with people in whom he has the highest confidence.

ALEWA LAND SOLD IN JULY

MOUNTAIN HOME SITES AND OTHER DESIRABLE PROPERTY TO BE PLACED ON MARKET.

The sale of Alewa lands will probably occur on July 29. This is the date that Land Commissioner Pratt has in mind and unless something unforseen occurs, he will have the sale take place then. The sale will be held in the front of the Judiciary building, commencing at 10 a. m.

It has been decided to offer from lots 5 to 57 without residence conditions and lots from 58 to 85 with residence conditions. This division will enable people desiring to secure homes at a reasonable figure, an opportunity of possibly securing them, whereas people having homes already, may secure in the first batch, land for mountain residences or for other purposes. Other conditions involved in the sale are about the same with both classes of lots. The government offers the lots just as they are, without any guarantee of water being put on them. The government does agree however to devote 50 per cent of the appraised value of the lots, that may be derived from the sale, for use in the construction of roads to open up the various lots sold.

This sale of lots has attracted considerable attention and a great many people will ,it is predicted, attend the sale for the purpose of bidding on the lots. The sale will have to be advertised for a period of 30 days. Commissioner Pratt may be able to start the advertising today.

NO DIVIDEND ON STOCK.

Directors of United Railroads Decide Against Profit Division.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The directors of the United Railroads investment company, it was announced today, have determined that it would be inadvisable at present to take action with respect to the semiannually dividend on preferred stock, which is ordinarily payable in July. This step was taken, it was said, in view of the existing strike situation in San Francisco, and to the end that the investment company might be enabled to afford to the United Railroads of San Francisco the fullest measure of support. The dividend upon the preferred stock has been at the rate of 2½ per cent semiannually, the last two having been paid in scrip.

The S. S. Alameda is due early tomorrow morning from San Francisco with four days' mail.

ARRIVAL OF SONOMA PLEASES SEATTLE

FORMER AUSTRALIAN LINER CARRIES A LARGE PASSENGER LIST FROM SOUTH.

SEATTLE, JUNE 8.—The steamship Sonoma, chartered from the Oceanic Steamship Company by the Pacific Coast Steamship Company for use on the San Francisco run, arrived in Seattle harbor for the first time in her history yesterday. The big liner, formerly of the Australian run, arrived at about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, blowing the three blasts of marine salute on her deep whistle. Various craft of the bay acknowledged the courtesy.

The Sonoma is the largest liner the Pacific Coast Steamship Company has ever used on the San Francisco run. She presented a fine sight when she slowly drew into the docks yesterday afternoon, the rails lined with passengers waving greetings to their friends on the dock.

The Sonoma brought 390 passengers and a cargo of freight. Capt. Cousins, formerly of the steamship Queen, commanded the vessel. Only three of the Sonoma's old officers remained with her. B. B. Bendall, who has been purser of the Sonoma for a number of years when the ship was on the Australian run, has transfered to the service of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, as have J. J. Sullivan, chief engineer, who made several voyages for the Oceanic Steamship Comjany, and J. Carleton, chief steward of the vessel for a number of years.

The Sonoma will sail again for San Francisco on June 11. The vessel is particularly well adapted for summer trips, with large, roomy social decks and very handsome accommodations. The Sonoma was built in 1900 by the Cramps, of Philadelphia. The tonnage of the ship is, net, 3, 936; gross, 6,523.
