KAWAILANI WRECKED

The island schooner Kawailani was wrecked at Hakipu, Koolau, at 3 o'clock this morning.

She is a total loss and was abandoned by her crew. The little vessel was anchored at Hakipu, when a sudden gale came up and swept her toward the land, causing her to drag her anchors. No lives were lost. She is owned by Alec Lyle and was insured for $1,000. She was operated under lease.

Quit Ohio Excursion To Go Home

SOME LOS ANGELENOS LEAVE S. S. OHIO TO RETURN TO COAST IN S. S. ALAMEDA.

Some of the Los Angelenos who came in the S. S. Ohio excursion to Hawaii from San Pedro returned to the coast today in the S. S. Alameda.

There is some little dissatisfaction among the Los Angeles crowd because of alleged crowding aboard the Ohio. Some folks, who wanted to be two in a cabin, had others thrust in upon them. In one cabin there were four ladies, where but two had hoped to be. Climbing in upper berths and four women trying to operate their dressing functions in one cabin has in at least one case, it is said by the Los Angelenos, worked out unsatisfactorily.

There are others of the crowd who will not return in the Ohio. They will wait for the Ventura. A few, it is said, will stop in Honolulu indefinitely. Some of the Ohio passengers are selling their return tickets.

Among those of the Ohio pilgrims who left the vessel here and took passage in the S. S. Alameda for San Francisco are Percy H. Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Forve, Mrs. J. Maier, Mrs. Innes Maier, Mrs. H. J. Woolcott and Miss M. Woolcott.

Henry C. Vida, formerly assistant sheriff here, writes Detective Joe Leal from San Francisco to the effect that he, having found the mines at Goldfield tied up on account of the shortage of lumber is bossing a quarry for the Gray Brothers, contractors in San Francisco and doing well.

FAREWELL DANCE AT THE SEASIDE HOTEL

The last event for the entertainment of the Los Angeles tourists will take place Thursday evening in the form of a dance at the Seaside Hotel. And a general invitation is extended to the friends they have met here and the general public to attend and assist giving the Los Angelenos a good time. Quintette club will render Hawaiian music on this occasion. The dance will begin at 8:30 p. m.

Exodus Portuguese To Coast

OVER 200 LEAVE IN S. S. ALAMEDA. MOSTLY FROM OTHER ISLANDS. SOME NEWCOMERS.

Over two hundred Portuguese left these islands this morning in the Alameda for California. This number is made up chiefly of whole families from islands other than Oahu, some of whom have been working on plantations and many of whom have been engaged in business of their own. A few families but only a few, are from the S. S. Suvaric's load of Portuguese brought here from the Azores and Madeira a few months ago.

The emigrating Portuguese are, many of them, going to engage in work on fruit ranches, having received calls from friends and relatives in California to go to that country.

There were hundreds on the Oceanic wharf to see them off and a great demonstration of flowers and tears.

John Carden of the Hawaii Immigration Board was on the wharf and he observed the big departure of families with regret.

SAINT BYBEE KISSES BABIES

WOMEN AND CHILDREN WEEP AT DEPARTURE OF BELOVED PASTOR.

Tall, slim and auburn, smothered in leis and moist about the eyes, Reverend Oliver H. Bybee, prominent in Latter Day Saint circles, Lale, Oahu, boarded the S. S. Alameda this morning for San Francisco and Salt Lake after an unusual scene of painful parting.

There were over thirty women, young girls and children and a few men to bid him farewell. In the eyes of every girl and woman in the little circle there were tears, while the babies, some of them, wept in sympathy. It was a touching spectacle, this farewell to their pastor, who kissed them in parting.

TO OPEN UP BISHOP STREET

A PETITION TO SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC WORKS FOR ROAD COMMISSION.

Signatures are being obtained to a petition circulated by the Waterhouse Trust Company asking the Superintendent of Public Works to appoint a committee of road supervisors to take measures looking to the opening of Bishop street from Allen to King.

The opening of this street is a condition of the selection of the Mahuka site on King street by H. A. Taylor for the federal building.

This petition while not exactly in open opposition to the proposed gore site near the Capitol is certainly intended to determine the selection of the Mahuka site by ensuring the fulfillment of the necessary condition.

LOOK OUT FOR APRIL FIRST.

The American-Hawaiian stands ready to place in the Pacific as many boats as the traffic will bear and plans are already made for a complete passenger service, although the details have not yet been given out.

In less than a month the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company's recently purchased S. S. Missouri will be at Honolulu. She is on her way from New York to San Francisco now. The S. S. Maine also recently purchased by the A.-H. Co. but not yet delivered, is another vessel of the line which will carry passengers.

The Missouri has cabin accommodations for sixty and steerage accommodations for about five hundred. The Maine is nearly as roomy.

Together the two vessels cost about two millions.

With the three vessels building at San Francisco for the A.-H. Co. and recent additions to the rapidly growing fleet, the company has laid out over five millions in a year for new boats.

The Nebraskan is now en route to Honolulu from San Francisco with a dozen passengers and will take back passengers. The Nebraskan as published yesterday, leaves San Francisco on April 5 with 12 passengers and will take return passengers April 20, some of whom have already booked.

In connection with the company's San Francisco-New York line, the chartered S. S. San Mateo left San Francisco on March 12 with a full general cargo for New York via Tehuantepec.

IN THE HOUSE

TWENTY-THIRD DAY.
AFTERNOON SESSION.

In the debate on the bill allowing fees for lawyer appointed to defend indigent defendants Representative Kalelopu spoke against the adoption of the report. Mahoe, who had introduced the bill and led the majority, made a vehement speech in defense of it.

Rawlins announced that if the report was adopted he should introduce an amendment embodying the minority view on the matter.

Long also spoke against the bill. He held that it did not provide adequate compensation to an attorney in the defense of a murder charge and condemned the idea of the government paying for smaller cases. He also declared that such a bill would tend to monopolize the business in the hands of a few practitioners. The result, he said would be an attorney's trust. He moved the report should be tabled.

Kalelopu moved to table the bill, and a vote finally being called resulted in both the bill and report being thus tabled.

Long introduced a bill to amend Section 1861 of Revised Laws of Hawaii relating to arrest of judgment, stay of execution etc., pending an appeal, and providing for bonds to be furnished in case of such action. Passed to Printing committee.

The House then resolved itself into Committee of the Whole to consider House Bill No. 135, to amend the County Act and boost salaries of County officials.

The Coney salary bill was dragged before the House for an hour or more in the afternoon, the body sitting as a Committee of the Whole to consider it.
After quarrelling over the first fifteen or sixteen items, and for the most part boosting them all, a motion to report progress prevailed and the bill was laid over until tomorrow when it will again be taken up.

Representative Kalelopu started the ball rolling by moving to make the salaries of supervisors $900 instead of $600, as provided in the bill. This was opposed by Rice, and approved by Ka-lana, who seconded Kalelopu's motion.
Akau opposed the motion, and Carrea supported it. Rice again gained the floor and urged caution in raising salaries promiscuously. He urged that $600 was ample for the duties performed by supervisors.

Alawa thought it was such an onerous job and so important that $600 is entirely inadequate.

Rawlins called on Hughes who had had experience as a supervisor.

Hughes thought $500 more nearly in accord with the duties demanded; that the low salaries have never prevented strenuous efforts on the part of candidates to secure the offices, and he thought that public officials ought to think of something higher than drawing their salaries.

Kalelopu backed up his motion by comparing the salaries of the supervisors with those of policemen. A vote was called and the item as amended passed, giving supervisors $900.

The salaries of the sheriff's of both Oahu and Hawaii Counties were then rushed through at $2400 each as in the bill.

Pall then demanded the same for the sheriff of Maui, but lost on a vote, the $2100 in the original draft of the bill being allowed to stand.

Rawlins made a motion to make the salary of Kauai $2000, but the motion lost, and the $2400 was approved.

The salary of $2400 for the County Clerk of Oahu, as provided by the bill was rushed through with little opposition, and that of the clerk of Hawaii boosted to the same figure instead of $2100 as it originally stood. On this debate in which Rawlins and Kalelopu took the leading parts, Rawlins moved to make the salary $1800 which on a vote lost, and Kalelopu's motion for $2400 carried.

There was also some debate over the salary of the County Clerk of Maui which had been fixed at $1800. Pall before the question could be put a motion finally prevailed. Pall made a similar motion in the case of the County Clerk of Kauai which had been fixed at $1800, but after some discussion, asked that action on it be deferred which was done.

The Auditor's salaries of both Oahu and Hawaii were rushed through at $2400 each, but an attempt to put that of the Auditor for Maui through at $1500 as in the bill met opposition headed by Naksieka and it was crowded up to $2000.

The salary of $1500 for the Auditor of Kauai was allowed to stand as was that of the County Attorney of Oahu, which was $2400 per year.

The hardest fight of the session, however was on the salary of the County Attorney of Hawaii, which Naillina wanted to have raised to $3000 from $2400. This aroused opposition from Rawlins, Rice and several others, but before the question could be put a motion to report progress was made and carried and further consideration of the bill was laid over.

The following House Bills were then reported for a second reading and referred to committees as follows:

House Bill No. 140, to create a board of trustees for the Hawaiian Infant Asylum, Committee on Health and Police.

House Bill No. 141, to provide for public loans by the County of Oahu, Finance Committee.

House Bill No. 142, to amend Section 12 of Act 39 of laws of 1905 relating to power of deputy sheriffs to appoint police officers, Judicial Committee.

House Bill No. 144, to add two sections to Chapter 135 of the Revised Statutes of Hawaii relating to garnishment, Judicial Committee.

House Bill No. 146, making special appropriation for use of government for two years which will end June 30, 1909, to be used for building new school buildings and carrying $308,050, referred to special committee appointed to pass on bill, consisting of Representatives Rice, Kalelopu, Akau, Alawa, Hughes, Pall and Coney.

The Germ Of Sensationalism

It is to be feared that the newspapers are not the only institution, nor newspapermen the only class, who have become infected with the germ of sensationalism. If anything, a careful review of current information would indicate that professors of science in our colleges and universities, or some of them, and members of professions classed as scientific, or some of them, have been more thoroughly and more malignantly infected by this germ than any others.

One can not fail to be struck with the frequency with which the most astonishing claims of discovery of Nature's secrets are made by men of these classes. The origin of life has been discovered two or three times, according to these claims, once at least by Prof. Jacques Loeb, then of Chicago University, now of the University of California, who seems to have been the originator of these startling claims as well as of the press bureau attachment to sound them forth.

Among the latest of these sensational claims are those put forth by "five Massachusetts physicians of high professional standing who have been experimenting for six years to determine whether the human soul is an actual material thing."

As a result of this long experimentation they are now able to announce "their conclusion that the soul really exists, and that, furthermore, it has a weight which is ascertainable by scales. The difference between the weight of the live human body and the body a moment after death, or when the soul has quit it, was found to be from one-half ounce to one ounce, and to this, it is said, there can be no other solution except that it is the weight of the human soul. Dr. Duncan MacDougall of Haverhill, one of the experimenting physicians, gave a statement, which was made public. He believes neither in Spiritualism nor psychic phenomena, and says the experiments were made entirely on scientific lines. Among others associated with him are Dr. Syroul of Haverhill and Dr. Grant of Lawrence."

The statement that Dr. Duncan MacDougall of Haverhill, one of the experimenters, believes neither in spiritualism or in "psychic phenomena," can hardly be considered as adding to the confidence in his claims, as, though there is as yet no generally accepted theory as to the causes or laws of psychic phenomena, there is a whole body of phenomena accepted as actual and existing by the general consensus of scientific men which for want of a better name, and in default yet of exact definition or accepted system of laws, is called "psychic phenomena"; and not to believe in it—that is believe in its existence—is to refuse to accept the conclusive evidence of science.

This whole account, in its naivete, sounds like a conclusion of the schoolmen of the middle ages, or would it didn't betray the evidences of infection by the germ of sensationalism.

Financial Conditions

The cable dispatches of late have been filled with news of sharp declines in the Wall street market, of high rates for money, and of requests—acceded to—for large deposits of federal money in the New York banks, in order to help out the financial situation. These dispatches have shown that there were some mighty currents at work in the financial world, and this knowledge naturally led to more or less apprehension.

The following from Henry Clews' financial letter on the situation throws a great deal of light on the subject, and is in itself of much interest:

"We have now had over six months' liquidation and the market has shown a shrinkage of ranging from 15 to 50 points' reaction in the active shares. This enormous shrinkage in Stock Exchange valuations has been accomplished gradually and without any apparent serious consequences, or even symptoms of disaster. On Wednesday the market received a severe shaking down such as in some conditions would have suggested panic. In fact, it is a question as to whether we have not been through a period of panic adjustment, stretched over several months instead of being concentrated into a few days. That the market stood the violent break of Wednesday without disaster or rumors thereof was a demonstration of soundness that was hardly expected. In view of the tremendous decline, which has already taken place and of the manner in which that test was met, it is proper to ask, Are we not approaching a turning-point in the market? Apparently, we are. The fact that we are now on a much lower level than six months ago diminishes fear of panic. It is evident that the big holders sold stocks freely in the latter part of 1906 and commenced to buy some of them back on Thursday's sharp decline. The market, therefore, is consequently in a much safer technical position than for many months. The severe liquidation should very shortly be reflected in an improvement in monetary conditions. It is true local bank reserves are at a very low ebb, and the national bank statements published at the end of January showed that the West had been lending its surplus funds freely in New York. As the time approaches for the April settlements, the course of the local money market will be watched with much interest. Should the interior freely withdraw balances held in this city, we may see sharp spasms in local rates. Yet recent liquidation in stocks ought soon to bring considerable relief and be reflected in better bank statements. After the April requirements have been provided for, we look for improvement in this respect, and by midsummer—if not in the spring—the money market should be materially easier and in a more comfortable position.

The possibilities of gold imports are encouraging. It is quite evident that we are a dominant influence in the world's movements of gold. Should we need that precious metal, we will be able to command it and will no doubt exercise the power when necessary. Our international bankers seem disposed to respect the feelings of foreign bankers, for the reason that they do not wish to stir up any further animosity against American finance,—a policy that is wise, in view of the fact that we may still be obliged to seek aid from abroad in the marketing of our securities. If our railroad managers are correct in their calculations, there is still a large supply of these forthcoming for the purpose of carrying out imperative railroad improvements, and it is desirable that the market for these should be cultivated and not spoiled by overinsistent demands for gold and credit abroad. The market was, of course, considerably excited on Thursday by the report that two prominent operators had secured control of Reading. As yet the outcome of the movement is not disclosed. Evidently there is a spirit of rivalry between our great railroad leaders which, unless kept within reasonable restraint, may easily create occasional disturbances in the stock market. We have previously seen the effect of such rivalries upon market values, and it is to be hoped we are to see no repetition of the experiences which happened a few years ago when competition was so rife between many of the same men.

"Apart from these movements, the railroad situation is not satisfactory. Gross earnings, it is true, are large; but the number and extent of declines in net earnings are increasing to a significant extent. If these continue, it is quite certain that some of the recent advances in dividends will not be permanently maintained, and reductions will follow. General trade conditions continue satisfactory. Business is on an active scale, although as in the case of railroads there is an increasing complaint of diminished profits. At present, however, there is no prospect in sight of diminution in business, except such as is likely to come from railroad retrenchment. The latter is a foregone conclusion. Several of the railroads have announced their intention of keeping down outlays for new improvements at as low a figure as possible, and some railroads have already cancelled orders for locomotives, cars, etc. If this policy continues, it is likely to have a quieting effect upon the iron and steel industries. Whether this will extend to other departments of industry or not remains to be seen. As for the future of the stock market, recent liquidation and the prospect of better monetary conditions have not yet apparently induced a change of the attitude of the speculative leaders, who continue to depress values, although many of the worst features in the situation have been well discounted for the present, at least. On the pronounced declines hereafter we now favor conservative buying of many of the good active stocks, for quick turns at least. In fact, some of them can now be picked up as desirable investments."

Bids Much Exceed The Estimates

FEDERAL LEPROSARIUM ON MOLOKAI HELD UP BY LACK OF SUFFICIENT APPROPRIATION.

The first news giving details of the various bids for the Federal leprosarium arrived here yesterday in a communication to Lucas Brothers, from the Metropolitan Surety Company of New York. The company acquainted Lucas Brothers with the names of the bidders and the amounts of their bids. There were only three bidders on the work, although fully eight contractors intended at first to try for the contract.

The bidders and the amounts they asked, together with the time for completion were as follows: John Duggan, $129,563, in 18 months' time; H. De Pries $204,000, by June 1, 1908, and Lucas Brothers, $180,532, in 18 months.

Dr. Brinkerhoff, who is to have charge of the leprosarium, was instructed some days ago from Washington to confer with Duggan with a view to consider the details of the bid, so that the specifications may be changed in order to get them within the appropriation of $100,000.

The purpose of the Surety company in addressing Lucas Brothers, and no doubt similar communications were sent to the other bidders, was to offer to bond the successful bidder for the performance of the work. The award of contract has not been made.

Dr. Brinkerhoff stated in regard to the matter that nothing can be done until he is able to confer with Contractor Duggan. It will be a question of modifying the plans to come within the appropriation, or of leaving a part of the work to be completed when an appropriation can be secured from Congress to cover same. The $100,000 now available was based on the cost of building materials and labor nearly two years ago, and with the great increase in cost of both of these commodities it will be impossible to construct and equip buildings such as the U. S. medical department feels to be necessary before beginning the important work of investigating the disease.

Dr. Brinkerhoff is not able to say when he can have a conference with the contractor as Mr. Duggan is at present in the States and as yet has not been located by cable. It is surmised that he will return here as soon as he can be advised of the situation.

The cost of the buildings, Dr. Brinkerhoff says, can be brought down to $120,000, but this is $45,000 more than is available for the buildings alone, as it was contemplated to spend only $75,000 for buildings, and the remaining $25,000 to be used for equipment. If it is found impossible to bring the leprosarium within the bounds of the present appropriation, it may be necessary to prepare new plans entirely and re-advertise for bids. This of course would cause an indefinite delay in commencing the work.

Peacock Lawn Luneta Concert

THE FIRST OF THE SOCIAL EVENTS AT KAPIOLANI PARK PROVED A GREAT SUCCESS.

If the interest manifested in the band concert at Kapiolani Park yesterday afternoon can be maintained hereafter the efforts to revive the idea of the old Emma Square concerts is likely to prove a success. The concert was one of the most pleasant which has been given for some time, and was attended by upwards of 500 people.

Utilizing the great banyan tree as a band stand, the music seemed to be of a softer quality than usual and was favorably commented upon by almost everybody present.

Among the guests was the Governor and a company of friends, while a large number of the Los Angeles visitors were also present. Most of the crowd of course came by the street cars, but there was a large number on horse back and in automobiles. A number of pa-riders added picturesqueness to the characteristic scene, and a group of peacocks strutting fearlessly amidst the throng lent a pleasing touch of color to the picture.

It has been proposed to hold these concerts regularly on the third Thursday of each month, and the idea will be carried out if the necessary public support can be secured. The name of "Peacock Lawn" has been suggested for the section of the park in which the concerts will be held, and has met with much favor.

IN THE SENATE

Relative to House Bill 105, the same committee reported favorably on the measure. The bill amended the existing statutes so that all offenders under 18 years could be committed to the reform school. The report was tabled to be considered with the bill. The same committee reported in favor of the passage of Senate Bill No. 49, the innkeeper's measure, with some minor changes in phrasing.

A report was also received from the same committee on House Bill No. 123, amending Section 18, Chapter 7, Act 29, Session Laws of 1905, prohibiting the holding of more than one office by one person at one time. The committee stated that the changes proposed in this bill are merely those of phrasing, and that while it could not see any special need of the bill, it had no objection to its passage.

All of these reports were tabled to be considered with the bill.

For the Ways and Means Committee Senator Dowsett reported in favor of the passage of additional appropriations for the use of the department of Public Works and the Bureau of Agriculture and Forestry. The items inserted were for the payment of services and to reimburse C. S. Holloway for the payment by him for the printing of the report of the Bureau of Agriculture and Forestry.

Senator Lane offered a resolution asking Congress to deed back to the Territory the title to all singular the several public water works systems, public highways, parks, squares, fire department buildings, and jails, and all property, appurtenances and interests used in connection therewith. In order that the various Counties could secure control of those properties in order to advance the interests of County government. After some discussion the matter was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Senator Smith introduced a bill giving the Counties the right to condemn property desired for roadways.

The consideration of the Governor's veto of House Bill No. 15, relating to coroner's inquests, came up for consideration. The Governor said that the bill was loosely drawn. Senator Smith thought that the Governor's veto was much the same, so the matter was referred to the Judiciary Committee to clear up the ambiguity of the Governor's message.

Senate Bill 44, relating to the exemption of certain industries from taxation, came up on third reading, but consideration was deferred until the afternoon.

House Bill No. 24, requiring the Rapid Transit to sprinkle certain sections of the streets, passed third reading, as did House Bill No. 51, relating to lesser offence and verdicts being found in criminal cases. No. 53, relating to quo warrants proceedings, and No. 51, relating to publication of statements of copartnership.

House Bill No. 11, relating to provision for families in probate matters, came up on second reading and went to the Judiciary Committee. House Bill No. 118, providing for the use of typewriters in connection with public documents, came up on second reading and went to the Miscellaneous Committee, while House Bill No. 120, relating to registration of copartnership went to the Judiciary Committee on second reading.

Senate Bill No. 71, relating to the

IN THE HOUSE

Rice opposed this on the plea that it was bad practice to make changes in bills on third reading, and that any way the Senate could make the desired change. The amendment was lost. Representative Kalelopu moved to amend by increasing the item of $12,000 for promotion work to $25,000. He stated that the eyes of the world are on Honolulu and Hilo, and something should be done by the Territory to induce merchants to visit these cities. The Promotion Committee, continued Representative Kalelopu, should be liberally supported because it had already done good work for the Paradise of the Pacific, as evidenced by what it had accomplished in California. Representative Rice opposed the amendment because, while he favored supporting the Promotion Committee, he objected to that committee's policy of attacking the House through the press because it did not get everything it wanted. He said he had been attacked yesterday; today it might be somebody else. "Let us all stand together," said Mr. Rice. Representative Kalelopu objected to letting Representative Rice's insinuation that he (Representative Kalelopu) had been influenced by the papers go on the House record. He was not, he said, controlled by either the press or the Promotion committee, but had been influenced only by his regard for the general welfare of the Territory.

The bill passed third reading without amendment.

House bill No. 94, introduced by Representative Rawlins, which amends Chapter 29, Revised Laws, relating to the practice of medicine, by requiring that the examination of applicants for license to practice medicine be conducted in the English language, passed third reading.

House bill No. 116, introduced by Representative Long establishing a pension fund for retired school teachers, came up for third reading. Representative Rawlins wanted time to consider the bill, so action was deferred until Wednesday next.

House bill No. 62, introduced by Representative Naillima, amending Act 29, Session Laws of 1905, creating counties was tabled on motion of the introducer of the bill.

The House at 10:30 took a recess until 2 o'clock.

SPORTS

ALL PREPARED FOR MARCH MEET

ENTRIES CLOSED FOR CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES NEXT SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

The executive committee having in hand the preparations for the field meet on Saturday next completed the arrangements yesterday afternoon at their meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms.
Entries closed on Monday at 5 p. m. Four teams comprising men of Kamehameha Alumnal, St. Louis College, Oahu College and Diamond Head Athletic Club have entered.

It was decided that every contestant must bear a number on his back, and E. Fernandez was delegated to see that no one entered any of the events without complying with this rule.

Another decision of interest was the excluding of Ah Sam, otherwise Sam Hop, the Chinese puglist from the list of competitors. He had entered his name for the mile walk, but the committee argued that as the meet was an amateur affair, and Sam Hop is a professional prize-fighter, he should be ruled out.

A boy of Oahu College also a Mr. Reid were shut out because they had filed their entries too late.

The track and field events have been placed in separate divisions.

The order of the events will be as follows:

- Track—
- 1. 100-yard dash (trial).
- 2. 1 mile run.
- 3. 100-yard dash (final).
- 4. 440-yard run.
- 5. 50-yard dash (trial).
- 6. One-half mile run.
- 7. 50-yard dash (final).
- 8. 220-yard run (trial).
- 9. 120-yard dash (trial).

OUR BARNEY JOY

"OUR JOY" IN FRISCO

THE HAWAIIAN PITCHER IS MAKING GOOD WITH FRISCO'S FAST TEAM OF BALLPLAYERS.

The San Francisco Bulletin of March 11 has this to say of Barney Joy: "Frank Barney Joy must look like ripe peaches to Danny Long this morning. Danny was pleased with the big Hawaiian as soon as he set eyes on him last Wednesday, which was the day of his arrival in San Francisco. He liked his manner, his build, his action and the way he expressed himself. But what must he think of Joy this morning? Joy arrived at Bakerfield Thursday. After three days' practice Barney steps in the box pitches two linings and fans five batters. This shows he has something more than his glove. The dispatches state that the young giant was burdened with so much speed that big Escobar had the greatest difficulty holding him. Joy is muscular enough to have a world of speed. He is constructed on the lines of Ovie Overall, and like the latter was a football hero before he became famous as a pitcher. In the last game he played at home he worked behind the bat just for a change. He can play the outfield, so you see our Joy is versatile. Joy is 24 years old."

DETECTIVES DO QUICK WORK AND LAND YOUNG DESPERADOES IN JAIL.

During Monday night the homer pigeon houses of W. O. Smith were attacked by a gang of young hoodlums. The Japanese boy of the premises endeavored to defend the property and was knocked silly by one of the larger boys.

Chief of Detectives Taylor and Detective Leat today worked on the case and have now three of the youngsters in jail, Manuel Correa, Joe Correa and Eddie Fragas, alias "Monkey."

The boys were caught on Punchbowl and one of them, seeing that they were captured, opened the window of a room and let out 19 of the stolen pigeons. These young men confess to robbing the home of the Rev. Alexander Mackintosh also.

AFTER SICKNESS

BOARD OF HEALTH DECIDES TO RESTRICT THE PARTY TO A VERY FEW.

After some discussion the board of health decided yesterday to grant permits to only members and officers of the legislature, representatives of the newspapers, the Governor's and Secretary's offices, members of the board of health and representatives of the marine hospital service, to visit the Leper Settlement. The party will leave on Saturday for the bi-ennial legislative investigation.

On recommendation of President Pinkham of the board, it was decided to recommend to the board of supervisors, to require that all swill wagons be off the streets by 10 o'clock in the mornings.

The resignation of B. W. Miller as trustee of Maluluani Hospital was accepted and W. T. Robinson of Waialuku appointed in his stead.

Reports from Pure Food Commissioner Duncan, Chief Sanitary officer Pratt were received. Reports of the rat and mosquito crusade were also read.

SUPERVISORS GO INTO EXECUTIVE SESSION

BOARD GOES INTO SECRET SESSION AND FINDS FAULT WITH THE SHERIFF—COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO INVESTIGATE MATTER OF PRISONERS SAID TO HAVE BEEN LEFT UNGUARDED—INTERESTING PETITION FROM WAIMANALO.

An unusual haste characterized the regular business session of the Board of Supervisors last evening, routine matters being hurried as if those supervisors present were anxious to get to a lodge meeting or a luau.
 The explanation came at 8:45 o'clock when, for the first time in the history of the County system of government, in this County, a secret session was suggested and voted.

Supervisor Dwight moved for a privy council and, it evidently having been prearranged, all present agreed and the people's representatives in the persons of the newspaper reporters were excluded while the County Papas bunched their heads to roast the County Sheriff, Curtis Iaukea, for alleged breach of duty in supposedly leaving some prisoners unguarded in the circuit court room last Saturday.

One curious individual asked a supervisor if the mysterious secret session had anything to do with the confessions of the San Francisco supervisors, but this, of course, was only a joke.

Present at the executive session were Chairman Hustace, Kealoha, Dwight, Harvey and Archer. County Attorney Cathcart was invited to attend. Cox and Fern were absent. Cathcart was needed for legal advice, though some of the attending supervisors were much disappointed to find that Iaukea could not be convicted of any crime.

All that was accomplished was the appointment of a committee to investigate Iaukea's action.

Archer declared to a reporter before the doors were closed that he had no idea what the session was for.

In the open session the committee appointed to confer with members of the Legislature in regard to the support of the Hawaiian band asked for further time.

A letter was received from the Maui county clerk asking for the use of an Oahu county odorless excavator. It was referred to the sanitation and health committee, the opinion was expressed that $2 an hour should be charged for the use of the excavator, instead of $1 as heretofore.

From Waimanalo came the plaint that the office of a useless resident policeman at aWialua, "established for political reasons," should be abolished, and the money saved for roads. George Chalmers was the writer, manager of Waimanalo Sugar Co., and he said that the policeman was unnecessary, the people he was supposed to restrain from wrong being law-abiding and not requiring his presence. This was referred to the Police Committee.

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway wrote to introduce a petition signed by Kailhi residents, requesting that Kailhi, Queen and Mokaukaea streets in the Kapiolani tract be accepted as public highways and that lights be placed. The roads have been graded, although they require top dressing.

Holloway believed the roads should be taken over by the Territory and maintained by the County. Referred to the Road Committee.

Residents of Paunui, above Wylie, asked to have the extension of Liliha street and neighboring streets repaired. Referred to Road Committee.

Cheng Lim petitioned for a storm sewer at Kekaulike and King or at Maunakea and King, where the water floods the sidewalk. Referred to Road Committee.

Fire Chief Thurston reported seven fire alarms in February, two of which were false. Property loss estimated at $216.40 for which liability of insurance has been adjusted in that amount. Property at risk, $7,550.

The fire chief also reported the accident whereby a Japanese, S. Inada, on a bicycle, ran into the chemical engine and was run over and killed, Mar. 1, 7:15 a.m. King street and Kapiolani street, the coroner's jury finding death due to the carelessness of the Jap.

Residents of Kamohili petitioned for electric lights. Referred to the Lights Committee.

Zeno K. Myers, for executors of the John Ems Estate, wrote to say they would consider, as per advertisement, propositions for lease of quarry privileges, wanting to act soon. The quarry will not be auctioned. The County Attorney, J. W. Cathcart, was directed to draw up a lease. Road Supervisor Johnson urging an arrangement with the Ems Estate at $40 per month to use the quarry at Kamohili instead of that at Makiki.

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway wrote saying that under an agreement made two years ago the Territory had permission from the Bishop Estate and Catton & Neill to place coral taken from the Alakea-street slip on their property near the Union Feed Co.'s warehouses, Kakaako; this was to be moved by July 1; the County has been allowed to remove the stuff for road filling, although says Holloway, the Territory has been offered money for the coral. Holloway asked that the County grade lots about to be occupied by Catton & Neill. Referred to Road Committee.

DELICATE WASH GOODS.

SERIAL STORY No. 25.

The thin delicate laCes' wash-goods, such as Shirts, waists, shirts, Negligees and Underclothing is not worn out on your person. It is the continual washing. It is the laundry. It is not so much the way your clothing is handled but it is the soap, bluing and starches that work ruin. Now because we launder hundreds of these garments weekly we naturally know the best materials to use to give the best satisfaction to the patrons. We would not think of using soap containing a bit of lye on ladies' clothes. We would never dream of using the common bluing of commerce. We know by analysis starches that contain acids—and we do not buy them. We keep studying and experimenting all the time, in a scientific manner, how to launder. Don't you think it would be safe to entrust us with your work?

William Niles, one of the Los Angeles visitors, paid a call yesterday to Sheriff Iaukea, whom he had met during the visit of King Kalakaua to the California city. Iaukea at that time was chamberlain, and Mr. Niles was a member of a reception committee.

The usual series of noon day services for men under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held this year at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, the services will be from 12:05 to 12:25, a short address will be made by a clergyman or layman from one of the churches.

Miss Laura Wells, of Maui, an ambitious young student of Stanford University, has left school for the balance of the year owing to ill health. She recently made a strenuous campaign for editorship of the "Quad," the Stanford year book, but lost by a narrow margin.

Rev. G. L. Pearson, who until two years ago was connected with the Methodist missionary work in Honolulu but who is now presiding elder of Napa District, California, has recently pleased a number of large California audiences with his lecture, "Hawaii, The Paradise of the Pacific."

Ahrens Hated To Work

AT LEAST SO THE LOG OF THE SHIP CLAVERDON WOULD INDICATE CHARGES AGAINST HIM.

Sailmaker C. Ahrens who was on trial today before Judge Robinson on a charge of setting fire to the ship Claverdon, appears to have caused Captain Thompson, the master of the vessel, nothing but trouble during the trip from Tacoma to Antofogasta, to Kahului, and finally Honolulu.

The following are some excerpts from the official log of the Claverdon.

"Tacoma, April 23, 1906, at sea: C. Ahrens, sailmaker, in speaking to him today about his work he struck me to the effusion of blood and ran along the deck crying, 'come on boys, I have got him now, come on and help me!' For such mutinous conduct I have put him in irons by mate and boatswain.

May 1st, 1906, at sea. C. Ahrens, sailmaker, this day has asked to be allowed to resume his duty, he promising to give no trouble but to do his work properly and no bother in presence of mate. I then allowed him to be taken out of irons and resume duty.

"Antofogasta, Nov. 9, 1906. C. Ahrens, sailmaker, has refused duty; he was told to come and work cargo by chief officer and he did refuse, saying he did not come here to work cargo. I also asked him and he refused. I wish the full penalty enforced. C. Ahrens says he fancies he is the sailmaker and not supposed to work cargo.

"Nov. 10, 1906. Have this day disgraced C. Ahrens, sailmaker, to A. B. for insubordination at the rate of $15 per month.

"January 16, 1907, at sea. C. Ahrens has this day without any reason or cause given me very insolent and contemptuous language just nearly to open mutiny, and I wish to have the full penalty to be conferred.

January 16, 1:20 p. m. Having been read over to him he calls me a swindler, scoundrel and vagabond, and he says that this is correct.

"January 16, 3 p. m. After log being read over to C. Ahrens he got into such a mutinous manner, calling me everything that he could name that I was obliged to get mate and third mate to put him in irons. I was afraid also that he would cause disturbance in ship.

"January 22, 1907, at sea. C. Ahrens has this day apologized for anything he has said or done or bad language that he has used and promises to go about his work and behave himself in future. This entry signed C. Ahrens.

"Kahului, March 1, 1907. Sent mate for sailmaker to come aft to have log read over to him. He would not come saying to mate that he was frightened to get shot. I sent the mate then forward to ask him to turn to, but he would not do any more work, saying that I had knocked him out.

"Kahului, March 2, 1907. Asked C. Ahrens again to go to work but it is of no use, he is very mutinous in his manner and defies me, so have put labor in his place.

"Off Koko Head, March 9, 1907. C. Ahrens still going about deck smoking his pipe and talking to the men and still refuses duty."

LOS ANGELENOS AT WAHIAWA

ABOUT HALF THE PARTY GO BY TRAIN TO THE CELEBRATED PINEAPPLE COLONY.

About half of the Los Angeles visitors are spending today at Wahiawa, a special train having been run for their benefit, leaving the city at 10 o'clock this morning. One of the features of the jaunt arranged through the efforts of H. P. Wood of the Promotion Committee was a pineapple luncheon. The luscious fruit of Wahiawa district was served the guests in a dozen different forms and brought forth many compliments to those whose efforts had prepared the spread. The crowd will arrive home sometime late this afternoon, but in ample time for those who care to attend the ball tonight at the Moana hotel.

Two large tallyho coaches filled with the tourists paid a visit to the Palm. A number of those in the party were making the trip a second time having been so impressed by their first view that they wished to see it again before leaving the island.

The dance at the Moana Hotel tonight will be the most important of the number of similar affairs arranged especially for the visitors. It will probably be largely attended. A band concert has been arranged for the early evening, and the music for the dancing will be special character.

Tomorrow the visitors will be thrown on their own resources for entertainment no fixed program having been arranged for that day, with the exception of a farewell dance in the evening at the Seaside Hotel. This will be preceded by a special dinner served on the lanai at 6:30 o'clock.

Let your will govern your action. Put your valuables where they will be safe and relieve yourself of a source of worry.
