

IMMIGRATION TO BE INVESTIGATED

PROF. DENING WILL HAVE TO STAY

Judge De Bolt this afternoon denied the motion to quash the subpoena of Professor Walter Dening. This action compels Dening to stay here to testify in the remaining Japanese conspiracy cases.

HAWAII A SEPARATE ARMY DEPARTMENT

LEILEHUA DESTINED FOR HEADQUARTERS OF LOCAL FORCES. WHERE INFANTRY, CAVALRY, ARTILLERY AND ENGINEERS WILL BE STATIONED—ARMY EXPERTS FIGURING ON THESE ISLANDS AS GOOD FIELD FOR A VIATION TESTS TRAINING.

There recently passed through Honolulu, en route to the Philippines, an officer of the Army who, during his brief stay on this island, visited Schofield Barracks, the camp of the Fifth Cavalry troops at Leilehua.

A Honolulu citizen, acquainted with and advised by the Army visitor, yesterday visited the beautiful Leilehua camp, shown over the encampment, and to him was pointed out the site for the permanent headquarters of what will before long be the headquarters of "The Department of Hawaii."

While Congress must before then act in the matter of appropriations for the expense involved, the plans of the United States War Department are to make a place in the Leilehua region the headquarters of the Department of Hawaii.

There has been talk of Leilehua becoming a brigade headquarters, where a regiment of infantry, a regiment of cavalry, a battalion of engineers and several battalions of artillery would be stationed permanently, but the ultimate destiny of Leilehua, that ideal spot which was first spoken of merely as an acclimatization camp, is that it shall be the Army headquarters for these islands, when these islands shall be an Army department by themselves; and there will be practically no limit to the forces that may be stationed here.

In the meanwhile there are accommodations planned for at least a brigade headquarters of nearly five thousand men, where infantry, coast artillery, engineers and cavalry, everything except marines, will be headquartered.

Another matter of interest which is being considered by the army experts for these islands is the military airship. In this way: If it can be demonstrated by the army is practicable for distances between islands, such as exist in this group, there will be established here within a few years, or sooner if reasonable, a military aviation corps for purposes of experiment and aerial scout training.

Howard Kipp and infant, who are going to join their husband and father in Manila, Mr. Kipp being an army man. The ship's surgeon this trip is Dr. Fred Bass, the regular doctor, Dr. H. D. Hauxhurst having stayed in San Francisco owing to the death of his sister.

At a meeting of the Territorial Board of Immigration in the Slangewald building this afternoon it was finally settled that A. L. C. Atkinson is to go to Siberia for immigrants for these islands for plantation work.

Mr. Atkinson gave his decision as to being willing to undertake the mission and will leave Honolulu on Monday, August 30, in the P. M. S. S. Siberia, en route for the Orient.

Hukimoto, Japanese, must suffer punishment for kicking a Japanese boy in the stomach, even though the child undertook to tease the man. Hukimoto's temper will cool behind the bars while the boy recovers in the hospital.

TRIAL OF STRIKE CONTEMPT CASE

At two o'clock this afternoon the strike contempt case is due for hearing before Judge Robinson, after several postponements on account of the conspiracy trial before Judge De Bolt.

Several groups of the defendants have answered with general or specific denials. One of them, Hada, has eluded service of summons.

Picketing, boycotting, ostracizing, etc., are the elements of disobedience of the mandate involved. Makino, Negoro, Soga and Tasaka, sentenced on Saturday to imprisonment for ten months and payment of $300 each, head the list in the contempt citation.

UNITED STATES COMMISSION COMING HERE

An investigation of immigration matters in the Territory of Hawaii by the Immigration Commission of the United States will be held here early next month.

The whole Commission is not coming, but Senator Dillingham, chairman, Commissioner Wheeler and Professor Mills, the last named an official of the Commission, will leave San Francisco next Saturday in the Alameda for Honolulu.

This morning's press cablegram mentions only Messrs. Dillingham and Wheeler. A letter from Washington to the Governor states that the two Commissioners will be accompanied by Prof. H. A. Mills, superintendent in charge of Pacific Coast investigations.

It is further stated in the letter that the party is coming here to investigate immigration conditions in the Territory. A request is made that the Territorial authorities in immigration matters should make arrangements so that the members of the Commission can obtain information and conduct hearings and investigations.

Secretary Mott-Smith, in the absence of Governor Frear, has taken action on the letter. He has asked Richard Ivers, chairman of the Board of Immigration, to make the arrangements requested.

Arriving here about four days after the Congressional party, the Immigration Commission contingent will leave in the Mongolia on September 13. They will thus have about two weeks in the islands to make their investigations. A secretary will accompany them.

The whole Commission is officially listed as follows, containing three Senators, three Representatives and three others: W. P. Dillingham, U. S. S.; Henry Cabot Lodge, U. S. S.; Anson J. McLaurin, U. S. S.; Benjamin F. Howell, M. C.; Joan L. Burnett, M. C.; William S. Bennett, M. C.; Charles P. Neill, Jeremiah W. Jenks and William R. Wheeler.

PROF. DENING'S FIGHT AGAINST DETENTION

Professor Walter Dening's motion to quash the subpoena to appear as a witness for the defense in the case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. Y. Soga, on Wednesday, September 1, was set for hearing before Judge De Bolt at two o'clock this afternoon.

In an affidavit the movant, who is booked to leave for Japan in the Nippon Maru now in port, says that the subpoena was an abuse of the process of the court and not issued with a bona fide desire and intention of requiring him to appear as a witness for the defendant.

For thirty-six years past he has been a resident of Japan, but is now temporarily sojourning at Honolulu, being engaged by the Department of the Attorney General of the Territory of Hawaii as an expert in translating certain documents in the Japanese language into English in the conspiracy case pending when the affidavit was made.

On August 2 he was served with a subpoena to appear as a witness for the defense in the case of Territory vs. Soga on Wednesday, September 1. The $1 witness fee tendered to him he had declined.

Affiant is professor of English literature in the second high school of Sendai, Japan, a government school, and is required by the rules and regulations of the school and the government regulations as well to return to his chair not later than September 19, and in the event of his failure to do so there would be grave danger that he would lose his position.

All the duties which he has been required to perform here have been completed. He does not know anything about the case of territory against Soga, and he concludes by relating evidence of animosity toward him on the part of Attorney Lightfoot during the conspiracy trial.

Attorney Ballou, in an affidavit, declares that Lightfoot caused a subpoena to be issued for Prof. Dening for the purpose of annoying and harassing him in carrying out his intention of returning to Japan on August 24, which intention was well known to Lightfoot at the time of the issuance of the subpoena. Reference is made to newspaper extracts attached, being portions of Lightfoot's address to the jury in which Prof. Dening was ridiculed and called nicknames and an interview with Lightfoot in which he mentioned his intention to detain Prof. Dening for the subsequent strike trials.

AT THE THEATERS

The new Princess Rink, Hotel and Pauahi streets near Nuuanu was the star attraction in the amusement line Saturday night. In a half hour after the opening fully 2,000 people had been admitted, and they continued coming and going until the time of closing for the night. The rink was as smooth as glass and was constantly filled with merry skaters. Cloak rooms, refreshment booths, skate cloisters and all other departments were managed with the precision of clockwork. The band, stationed in a commodious alcove, supplied delightful music. Promoter J. C. Cohen was more than pleased with the endorsement given him by the Honolulu public and feels more hopeful than ever of the success of his enterprise. All present on Saturday night were delighted with the exhibition work of Miss Emma Wiener, the champion lady skater of the world, who appeared in the rink for the first time. The rink was open again Sunday night and will be open every afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock and every evening from 7:30 to 10:30.

AT THE ORPHEUM.
Despite counter attractions the Orpheum had a record audience Saturday evening to witness the excellent vaudeville program of the Oro Company and the motion pictures. Every number elicited rounds of applause. There will be a complete change of program tonight, so that patrons will have entirely new features. The Ors will depart from the Islands by the Alameda, so none of the programs of this week should be missed.

THE NAINOA SINGERS.
Sam Nainoa's famous glee club made a great hit at the Gem theater Saturday evening and will appear again tonight. This feature alone is well worth the price of admission. Tonight there will be a new program of motion pictures.

OPENING ATHLETIC PARK.
The first of the series of entertainments at Athletic Park will be offered the Honolulu public this evening, and it goes without saying that the audience will be an immense one. There will be good music. The pictures will be thrown on a screen inside of the baseball diamond, where they will be in plain view of the grandstand, bleachers and carriages in the park. Rain will not bother as the grand stand is sheltered.

PROGRAM REPEATED.
The fine program put on at the open air Park theater Saturday evening will be repeated tonight. "The pocket policeman" will be one of the splendid features to be put on again. There will be new songs and stories.

FEATURES AT EMPIRE.
A highly comical sketch entitled "A visit from the white folks" will be put on at the Empire theater this evening. "Napoleon, the man of Destiny" will be a feature of historical interest. A third good film will be "A Brave Irish Lassie." Sibyle Campbell Reid, will appear in Irish dances. These specialties combine to make up one of the best programs ever attempted at the Empire.

ART THEATER.
In "King Lear"—subject of feature film at the "Art" today—more than in any other of his plays, Shakespeare stands in the presence of the mysteries of human life. Hence, the irony in the tragic fate of Lear, hence all that is tragically sublime is also grotesque. Hence it sees a man groping in the mist, committing extravagant mistakes, wandering from light into darkness, spending his strength in fits of impotent rage; man in his weakness, his unreason, his affliction, his anguish, his poverty and meanness, his everlasting greatness and majesty. Hence, too, the characters, while they remain individual men and women, are ideal and typical: Goneril and Regan, the ravaging egoism in humanity which is at war with all goodness; Kent, a clever, unswerving fidelity; Cordelia, unmingled tenderness and strength, a pure redeeming ardour. The excellent program includes the last appearance, before going to Hilo, of Lesso, the Australian Cinquevalli. No extra charge.

WOMANLIKE.
Mrs. Stubb—"Oh, John, what in the world has happened to you? Why, you look as pale as a ghost."
Mr. Stubb—"No wonder, Maria. I was out beyond my depth and went down three times before being rescued. During that time I remembered every event of my life."
Mrs. Stubb—"Gracious, John! And—did you remember that letter I gave you to mail last week?"

SOUTH AFRICA'S FUTURE BRIGHT

PREMIER SAYS THAT NATIVE PROBLEM IS THE MOST SERIOUS ISSUE.

LONDON, August 7.—Among the many notable figures assembled here recently to bear their share in the founding of new South Africa none stands out more prominently than that of the Right Hon. J. X. Merriman, Premier of Cape Colony. He went to Africa when 8 years old, sixty years ago. He entered politics in 1869, and for forty years has kept at it.

"We all look forward with hope to the future of South Africa," said Mr. Merriman, discussing his momentous mission. "There are difficulties ahead and problems to be faced, but the difficulties and the problems are not always those talked about in England. You mention the racial division between the Dutch and the British. There is no true racial difference, and any trouble in that direction is largely stirred up by writers at home. They remind us of things better forgotten and try to keep them fresh. It is a pity they were not better employed."

"The Englishman and the Dutchman are of the same race. The Dutchman has all our unpleasant qualities and many of our good ones. He is as pugnacious, as determined, as obstinate, as disagreeable and full of angles as we are. He shares our love of sport. If a Dutchman from South Africa were to walk into the room now you could not distinguish him in speech, in manner or address from an Englishman. These are not two people, but one, and they are bound to work together more and more in overcoming the great problems with which they both alike are confronted. The biting and scratching days between them are over. Leave them alone. The so-called racial enmity between Dutch and British in South Africa does not exist and presents no problem to be solved."

"In South Africa and in many other parts we have the white and the colored races face to face, struggling for supremacy, and it has yet to be shown what the outcome will be. This is a problem, of course, not confined to South Africa, but we have it in its most acute form. The difficulties of the native question are bound to be vastly increased by the action of some of the so-called friends of the natives, who are taking what I believe to be an injurious and disastrous line in raising the native issue over the passing of the act of union."

"The proposed Constitution for a United South Africa maintains the status quo of the native in each province. The only new restriction passed—new that is to the Cape Colony—is that natives, while allowed to vote and to become members of the provincial councils in that province, can not sit in the Legislature of the Union. Over this a controversy is threatened."

"The new Constitution is not a copy of that of the commonwealth of Australia and the Dominion of Canada," Mr. Merriman continued. "We have gone further than either of these, and have in many ways radically departed from their precedent. In United South Africa there will be only one Parliament and that Parliament will be supreme in all affairs. There are no separate State Legislatures. Provincial councils are to be appointed in the different sections of the country, but these councils will be wholly subject to the supreme authority of the central Legislature. No possible controversy between Federal and State rights can arise, because United South Africa will be one great State."

LUCKY JUMBO.
"Life with you must be monotonous," remarked the monkey, as he swung by his tail in the park zoo. "Why so, my friend?" queried the lazy Jumbo. "Well, all you have to do is to sit here all day and be stuffed with peanuts."

The elephant smiled an elephantine smile. "That may be, my friend, but I'd rather be here being stuffed with peanuts than over in Africa being stuffed for a museum exhibit."

Which shows that even an elephant knows a good thing when he sees it.

DOWN THE OLD ROAD.
The fireflies twinkled in the tall grasses like myriads of tiny stars. "You John Luther Elderberry!" giggled the pretty girl in the pink sun-bonnet. "I am surprised!" "Surprised at what, Cynthia?" drawled the lanky youth at her side. "Why, at you, standing there and kissing a lone, defenseless girl that way."

"Oh, don't worry about that, Cynthia. Here is another way." And the moon man came out from behind a cloud and grinned until it seemed his face would crack.

PRESS SENDOFF TO DE YOUNG

M. H. De Young, proprietor of the San Francisco Chronicle, was the guest of the local newspaper fraternity just before his departure in the Manchuria yesterday, at a luncheon in Japanese style got up in the pink of perfection and served by dainty daughters of Nippon with flawless gracefulness at the Mochizuki Club. Editors Smith, Henshall and Sheba, respectively of the Advertiser, Star and Hawaii Shinpo, managed the affair. Those who squatted at the low and rickety laden table were M. H. De Young, Walter G. Smith, George F. Henshall, S. Sheba, W. M. Langton, Daniel Logan, A. P. Taylor, L. S. Conness, H. M. Ayres, C. Harvey-Elder, E. P. Irwin, R. O. Matheson, J. N. Densham, A. F. Thayer, V. L. Stevenson and Loring Mackay, all clad in kimonos.

Photographs of the party at the table and upon the lawn by the seaside were taken. There was no ceremony of a scheduled sort. The chopsticks in unaccustomed hands were wielded with surprising dexterity, while lively conversation gave a happy family sociability to the feast. Mr. De Young, on taking leave of the local men while the party was dispersing, expressed his appreciation of having been entertained in a way out of the ordinary by the newspaper men. It was so different from the formal and conventional functions that it would always linger pleasantly in his memory.

AFTER DOCTORS FAILED

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Her.

Willimantic, Conn.—"For five years I suffered untold agony from female troubles, causing backache, irregularities, dizziness and nervous prostration. It was impossible for me to walk upstairs without stopping on the way. I tried three different doctors, and each told me something different. I received no benefit from any of them, but seemed to suffer more. The last doctor said nothing would restore my health. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see what it would do, and I am restored to my natural health."—Mrs. ETTA DONOVAN, Box 299, Willimantic, Conn.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

You Want the News First ?

You want Your Ads Read ?

Here is some advice---

Honolulu more than any other city in the World, is a place where the EVENING PAPER gets the news first. The clock here is over two hours behind the clock at San Francisco, five hours behind New York and ten to eleven hours behind the clocks in the European capitals.

This means that when THE STAR is going to press The Day is Closed in Washington, Chicago, New York and Europe and almost over in San Francisco. The news of the day is here for THE STAR.

Under modern conditions it takes practically no time to prepare and transmit news and

The Star gets every Evening the Cable Dispatches giving The News of all the World

For the day just ended

Here are some of the features that go to make the evening paper the predominating factor in an advertising campaign:

It is delivered at the home each night when the whole family has plenty of time to read it.

It is carried home by the business man when his day's work is done and it stays there. A morning paper is usually carried down town by the head of the family and hurriedly read.

The evening paper is not read hurriedly, but thoroughly, so that all the advertisements receive their share of attention.

It presents the store news a little ahead, giving the prospective purchaser time to plan a shopping tour for the next morning.

The evening paper presents the news the day it happens. The morning paper the day after.

The evening paper presents the news first. The morning paper merely elaborates it.

OUR JAPANESE TERRITORY.

The following are the opening paragraphs of an article on "Our Japanese Territory," in Collier's Weekly, by Alexander Hume Ford:

Ten thousand Japanese strikers are in open rebellion in Hawaii, and seventeen of their leaders are under arrest, indicted by the Grand Jury on the charge of conspiracy.

The most recent official reports from Hawaii indicate that over fifty per cent of its population is Japanese and that the little brown people there are outracing, births over deaths, all other nationalities in the islands combined.

There is much more of the same sort, much writing to show, as everyone here knows, that the cheap Japanese has driven white skilled labor out of the country and threatens to drive everyone else.

It is the intention of the management of Haleiwa to give one of the dances for which that place is noted next Saturday night. The music is to be the best there is in the city and the Waiwala band will probably furnish that which is usually required for the promenades. These affairs are patronized by the best people of Honolulu and the plantation. They are looked upon with favor and are awaited for with fondest expectations. There is no more delightful place for a dance and the one next Saturday will no doubt we well patronized.

CLASSIFYING PUBLIC LANDS

The following is a synopsis of an address of George Otis Smith, Director, U. S. Geological Survey, at National Irrigation Congress, Spokane, Washington.

The necessity for classifying the public lands is not a recent discovery. The earliest land legislation in this country both contemplated differences in the quality and character of the public lands and planned for descriptions based on field examination. Yet even the honest administration of the land laws has ever been subject to criticism arising from the fact that no adequate provision was made for land classification.

A period of national awakening to the worth of the public domain followed the close of the Civil War and another epoch of realization by the nation of the true source of its wealth and prosperity has just opened while both the legislative and executive branches of the Federal Government are awake to the fact that exact knowledge is essential to the proper utilization of our country's great resource of land. The earlier proposition bore fruit in the creation of a scientific bureau whose functions was the classification of the public land, but this specific duty was subordinated to the more general task of determining the natural resources of the public domain. The duty of classifying the remaining unentered public lands is now definitely accepted by the United States Geological Survey and the opportunity earlier neglected has for several years been vigorously improved. The Survey is heartily cooperating with the General Land Office to the end that the best disposition of the land may be secured, and it should be noted that no small part of the data utilized in this work represents the fruitage of the Survey's earlier general investigations.

Utilization is the keynote of the present public land policy and by utilization I mean not that kind of local development that is promoted by the "land skinner," but rather a development whose plan weighs national needs and calculates future demands and whose accomplishments will serve our country's development in the next century as well as in the present decade. Utilization is opposed to both non-use and waste.

A notable example of land classification in aid of proposed legislation is afforded by the Acts of March and October, 1888, wherein Congress directed that an irrigation survey should be made by the Geological Survey and that the reservoir sites and irrigable lands designated as a result should be reserved pending further legislation. The legislation of 1888 was itself the logical outcome of Major Powell's 1879 report on the arid lands and his subsequent work as Director of the Geological Survey and the law that eventually resulted from the work thus authorized in 1888 was the Reclamation Act of 1902, through the operation of which the West is coming into its own as the garden of the nation.

Hydrographic and topographic surveys which are now in progress under instructions of the Secretary of the Interior have as their purpose the collection of information that may be presented to Congress in aid of legislation looking toward the best utilization of the water powers on the public domain. Reports on the mineral and non-mineral character of coal, oil and phosphate lands of which the Survey has made actual field examinations are now being transmitted to the General Land Office. Another line of activity is the segregation of non-irrigable lands under the terms of the "enlarged homestead act" of the present year. The existence of Survey data whereby within the few months since the passage of this law the Secretary of the Interior has been able to designate 162 million acres is in itself a forceful argument for an adequate land classification.

The classification and valuation of coal land is a special phase of public land work to which the Geological Survey is giving increased attention. The geological investigations of the last three field seasons have not only furnished a knowledge of the quantity and quality of the coal on the public domain but have rendered possible the present policy of obtaining coal prices for coal lands. The General Land Office now depends on the Geological Survey to furnish detailed valuations for every 40-acre tract of coal land that is placed on the market. In the two and a half months following the adoption of the revised scheme of valuation the reports to the General Land Office released to agricultural entry approximately two and a half million acres in Colorado, Wyoming and Montana and placed selling prices on nearly 400,000 acres of coal land with an aggregate valuation of over $15,000,000. The price of Government coal land is now determined on the basis of estimated tonnage, the unit rate varying with the quality of the coal from 1-2 cent to 3 cents a ton for coal deposits within 15 miles of a railroad. These prices average less than one tenth the usual royalty paid in the West. Yet this conservative valuation will more than double the average price of public coal lands. In exceptional cases the price based on tonnage represents a fifteen-fold increase over the old minimum price. It is conceded that this policy of basing the price on the quantity and quality of the article sold will not encourage purchase by speculators, but I maintain that the Government valuation will not impede the disposition of the coal deposits for purposes of utilization. The real development of the West will be promoted, not retarded. The increased valuation of the millions of acres of public coal land must result in increased contributions to the Reclamation Fund and greater possibilities for local utilization of the agricultural lands through irrigation.

A principle that is winning increasing recognition in land legislation is that of relative worth. The present coal land law expresses this principle by giving gold, silver and copper deposits priority over the coal, and the coal in turn preference over agricultural values. These distinctions necessitate land classification based on adequate field examination. Wherever the different values can be separated that separation by appropriate legislation is at once the easiest and best solution of the problem, and the first step in this direction was taken in March of this year in the passage of the Mondell Act whereby the homesteeker may secure all for which he makes entry—all that he swears he is getting—while the coal beneath his tillable land is reserved to the nation for future disposal.

The ideal land classification is that based on field examination, scientific and detailed enough to include every natural resource; the ideal land legislation is that which fully recognizes the principle of relative worth; and the ideal land administration is that which will assure the reservation or the disposition of the land for its highest use.

THE BOXING RECORD OF DICK SULLIVAN

RETIRED MIDDLEWEIGHT CHAMPION OF HAWAII.

Dick Sullivan, champion middleweight boxer of the Territory, announces that he has quit the ring for good and will hereafter settle down in business in Honolulu.

Sullivan, who was born in Ireland, is 24 years of age. He came to San Francisco with his family when five years old. After leaving school at the age of sixteen he went to work with a commission house and stayed there until he took up the boxing game seriously as a semi-professional a few years later.

Sullivan learned to box when a member of the Olympic Club and did good work in several amateur bouts. After a while he received offers to enter the four-round game, which is practically semi-professional. In 1905 he became connected with this branch of boxing in San Francisco and boxed with much success, losing but few bouts till he graduated into the professional ranks proper in 1906, the year that he first came to Honolulu.

Sullivan's record in Honolulu is as follows:

Feb.—Bill Huihui, K., 7 rounds.
March—Bill Huihui, W., (on foul), 2 rounds.
June 3.—Joe Silva, K., 3 rounds.
Sept. 1.—Spider Welch, K., 8 rounds.
Sept. 15.—Mellvain, Dec., 15 rounds.
1908.
Nov. 16.—Soldier Miller, K., 2 rounds.
Feb. 13.—George Peterson, W., (on foul), 5 rounds.
March 13.—George Peterson, K., 4 rounds.
July 3.—Jack Cordell, draw, 15 rounds.
July 28.—Jack Cordell, draw, 15 rounds.
Aug. 14.—Jack Cordell, K., 8 rounds.
Mellvain gave Sullivan the hardest battle he ever had in Honolulu. The fight took place at the Kaimuki Zoo and was refereed by "Pneumatic" Billy Woods. Mellvain, who arrived here on a transport and entered the ring without much training, put up a sensational battle, the issue being in doubt till the end of the fifteenth round.

The contest took place on the night of Regatta Day and in the afternoon Sullivan had rowed a race as a member of a Heanani crew, which must have taken the fighting edge off him.

The boxing game was stopped in Honolulu after this contest and Sullivan went to the Coast and re-entered the four-round game. He obtained decisions over such clever boxers as Frank Mayfield, George Murray, and Walter Stanton, and lost a decision to George Brown.

Sullivan next went up to the north of the state and in July of 1907 knocked out Mike McClure in Sisson, Cal., in six rounds. His next fight was in the following month with George Carter, whom he knocked out in less than two rounds. On Oct. 16 he knocked out E. Chambers, the Philadelphia middleweight, in four rounds, in Los Angeles.

Oct. 25 saw Sullivan fight Kyle Whitney in Marysville. He knocked the colored wonder out in twelve rounds.

Early in 1908 Sullivan boxed Young Peter Jackson in Marysville, the referee stopping the bout in the seventh round on the ground that neither man was trying his best.

Sullivan took Jackson on at catchweights and the colored man weighed in the neighborhood of 180 pounds. Jackson didn't get a cent for this go but Sullivan fared better, having had the foresight to demand his money before he entered the ring. Jackson's end of the purse was donated to charity.

The match came about in this way: Sullivan was to have boxed Billy Burke but the latter was unable to go on owing to sickness. An effort was made to have Joe Thomas take his place but the latter had just been beaten by Jack (Twin) Sullivan and refused the offer. Young Peter Jackson, who had been training for a go with Nick Burley, which fell through, owing to the latter's arrest on a serious charge, was secured as substitute for Burke. Jackson agreed to make weight for Sullivan but no forfeit was demanded by the club and the colored man refused to weigh in and fought with a big pull in the weights over Sullivan.

May 30, 1908, Sullivan again boxed Kyle Whitney what was to have been a twenty-five round contest, at Vallejo. The police stopped the contest in the twenty-second round and Whitney was credited with a knock-out. The battle took place in the open air and Sullivan's share of the purse amounted to $900. When he beat Whitney his end was $1,500, the biggest winning he has made since starting boxing.

After Sullivan knocked out Whitney there was some talk of matching him with Stanley Ketchell. Ketchell had made his first appearance in California in Marysville, fighting a twenty-round draw with Joe Thomas. Ketchell wanted all the money, however, so the Phoenix Athletic Club refused to bother with the match.

Beside boxing, Sullivan is a pedestrian of no mean order and holds several local walking records. He is also an expert oarsman and one of the most valuable members of the Heanani Yacht & Boat Club.

"I am out of the game for good," said Sullivan, the other day. "I was never particularly in love with it but followed it because it gave me a chance to see places and things and because I found that I could make more money in less time than at any other business for which I was suited. There is one thing in particular which makes me glad that I became identified with the fighting game, and that is that had it not been for boxing I would probably never have come to Honolulu which I consider to be the finest place that I was ever in."

Maui Cricket Team Strong In Bowling

The cricket match played at Makiki on Saturday afternoon between the eleven selected to go to Maui tomorrow, and The Rest, resulted in a win for the team by an innings and 4 runs.

It was distinctly a bowler's day 25 wickets being taken during the afternoon for the small cost of 120 runs. While the Maui team showed up well in the bowling department a different story must be told with regard to its batting. Out of a total of 68 compiled by the team Lothrop Withington was responsible for 33 runs. No other member of the team got closer to double figures than 7. Had it not been for the run-getting of Withington the aspect of the match, if not the result, would have been materially changed.

The fielding of the team was, on the whole, very fair, there being only

ARCHIE GOT LARGE KUMU

The continuance of rough water outside the reef kept anglers from their favorite diversion yesterday, though a few tried their luck off Black Point and in Hanaua Bay.

Archie Robertson had some good sport toching, one night last week, along the reef on the Kalia side of the Moana hotel. He secured two big kumu, the largest weighing eight pounds, several smaller kumu, and some eels and red squid.

The big kumu were found in a hole, their red color revealing their hiding place under a rock. A throw-net, skillfully cast resulted in their capture.

Yesterday Robertson and two native fishermen hunted for wana (sea-eggs) along the reef and succeeded in obtaining 120 fine large ones.

TUG-OF-WAR IS PROBABLE

There is some talk of a revival of the tug-of-war game in Honolulu and it is probable that the management of the Athletic Park will bring it about.

While no definite announcement of anything of the kind has been made, as yet, it is known that tug-of-war enthusiasts are busily discussing the situation and that the possible strength of certain teams is receiving serious consideration.

If a tournament comes about the champion Hawaii will surely be contenders under the management of George Harris, who probably has had more experience at the particular sport than any other man in Honolulu.

The Hawaii, formerly known as the Pacific Hardware team, have been champions since 1902 and have never been pulled over. They won the championship at the last tournament by defeating the Stevedores, a team of more than average strength.

The Hawaii team is composed entirely of Hawaiians, some of whom are as fine specimens of physical manhood as can be found anywhere in the Territory.

The army and navy would undoubtedly cut quite a figure in a tug-of-war contest today. A United States combination would surely take a lot of beating. Then there would probably be Portuguese, Roads and Bridges, Stevedores, Colored, and other teams which would make the tournament full of interest and keep the issue in doubt until the final pull.

THE "IRON HAMMER"

Fans are already talking of the big game to be played at the big league ball park on Labor Day between the St. Louis and Diamond Head nines, both of which at present hold unbeaten certificates.

A competitor in the ladies' doubles at the coming tennis tournament will be Miss Miriam Hall, a well known tennis player of Pasadena.

JUST A REMINDER.

The young man who graduated some weeks ago had secured a position in the great business emporium and was there to tell them how to run the business.

"You seem to know a great deal, young man," said the senior partner.

"Do I?" boasted the recent graduate, his chest swelling with pride. "Ah, sir, some day I expect to wake up and find myself famous."

The senior member silently opened a drawer in his desk and took out a package.

"Here you are, young man. Take this home with you with my compliments."

"What is that?"

"An alarm clock. It will help you to wake up."

CHANGE IN PLANS FOR CONGRESSMEN

HILO, August 20.—There is a possibility of a change being made in the plans of the Congressional party as far as the island of Hawaii is concerned. This news came from Mr. J. A. Kennedy through Purser Phillips, Mr. Kennedy having just attended a meeting in the Governor's office prior to the sailing of the Mauna Kea. It is as follows:

The steamer to leave Honolulu at her usual time on Tuesday, September 7. After touching at Makona, to go to Mahukona and Kawaihai, landing regular passengers there (also landing at Mahukona such members of the Congressional party as wish to come overland to Hilo), sleeping at the Ditch on Wednesday night and arriving here on Thursday night, September 9.

From Kawaihai the Mauna Kea would go to Napoopoo with the other members of the party, who would there take autos and other vehicles to Kaina where the steamer would meet them. She would then sail direct to Launapohoe and on to Hilo, arriving here at 5 p. m. Wednesday, September 8. It is possible that they will go straight on to the Volcano House the same night, but this is not decided.

The Mauna Kea would discharge freight here on Wednesday night, leaving for Honolulu at 10 o'clock on Thursday morning, September 9. She would then leave Honolulu on Friday morning, leaving at midnight with the whole Congressional party for Hana and Kahului. She would get into Honolulu on the afternoon of Sunday, September 12, sailing again at 3 o'clock on Monday afternoon for Lahaina, arriving back at Honolulu with the Congressmen early on the morning of Tuesday, September 14, so as to leave on her regular time on the weekly run to Hilo.

Regular passengers and tourists for the Volcano leaving Honolulu on Tuesday, September 7, would stay over either at the Volcano House or in Hilo until the steamer leaves here on the evening of Saturday, September 4.

Why does the FRANKLIN win all the important economy contests and outclass all other automobiles in reliability trials, if it is not the most economical, most efficient and strongest automobile made?

1909 FRANKLIN RECORD CONTEST

HARRISBURG RELIABILITY AND ENDURANCE TEST.—Franklin Model D won the Governor's Trophy, the highest award of the contest. In this run the Franklin's nearest competitor had 96 points penalization.

NEW YORK AUTOMOBILE TRADE ASSOCIATION ONE-GALLON MILEAGE CONTEST.—The Franklin won its class prize, also grand prize, and established a world's economy record by carrying the greatest load the greatest distance on one gallon of gasoline.

PITTSBURG ENDURANCE RUN.—Franklin Model D was the only automobile to make the run of 450 miles without penalization for repairs or adjustments.

WORCESTER RELIABILITY TRIAL.—Franklin Model D won the only perfect score. The technical examination after the contest eliminated thirteen contestants who had clean road scores.

CLEVELAND ENDURANCE AND ECONOMY CONTEST.—Franklin Model D won the highest award. It had a perfect road score and also the lowest gasoline consumption.

CHICAGO 1000-MILE RELIABILITY TEST.—Franklin Model D won a perfect score. The technical examination after the contest caused the penalization of many entrants.

BRETTON WOODS RELIABILITY RUN.—Franklin Model D won a perfect score. In this run it was the only 1909 stock model that was shipped direct from the factory to the contest route. It went through the 1600-mile grind without a single adjustment.

GLIDDEN TOUR.—Franklin Model D and Model H both won perfect scores. In this contest they were acknowledged to be the easiest-riding of all motor-cars, and they had no tire trouble.

All of which proves that an automobile constructed so that it rides easily is the best automobile mechanically and the most reliable, that great weight is not necessary for strength, that Franklin non-jarring construction and light weight mean comfort, economy and safety, that the Franklin air-cooled engine is without a rival for efficient work and staying power.

No other make has ever stood the test and by means of the removable ice chamber as well as removable shelves, drain pipes, traps, etc., we have solved the problem.

Assail us where you will you cannot help but admit our claim. All other makes fall when it comes to keeping the ice chamber pure, sweet, clean and germ proof, but

THE GURNEY

Listen to idle talk and arguments put forth in favor of cleanable provision compartment. All refrigerators have this feature. You cannot deny that unless ALL COMPARTMENTS can be kept absolutely pure and wholesome that a refrigerator is germ-proof. Go from the provision chamber to the receptacle for the ice and it is here where all other makes fail. There's the weakness that cannot be overcome by them.

The Gurney with its removal Ice Chamber feature has supplied the great want and therefore.

DODGING HOT LARD

COUNTY JAIL INCIDENTS—WIFE'S HEART ACHES AND COOK WANTS REVENGE.

"My heart aches!" Thus spake a woman from behind the bars of the City and County Jail to a representative of The Star this morning.

A certain prisoner was wanted as a witness, in an important matter that is soon to come before the grand jury, and the reporter accompanied an officer to interview the outlaw. It happened, however, that the convict was out on the road doing work and could not be seen until 4 o'clock this afternoon, so the officer had to possess his soul in patience until the prisoner's regular office hours. In the meanwhile, while the officer was otherwise engaged taking a tally of some of the latest guests of the institution, the scribe was courteously conducted over the premises by one of the polite guards.

The City and County Jail, separated from the Territorial institution, and under charge of Jailor Asch, is a scrupulously clean establishment with accommodations for about a hundred guests if but one inmate is allowed to a cell. At a pinch, however, two guests can be entertained in a cell, so there is room enough for the leaders and others of a riot, if necessary.

"My heart aches!" This was the expression, in effect, that greeted the guard and the reporter upon arrival upon the third floor and approach to the barred gateway that separated the female from the male ward.

There are at present but three female inmates, a Portuguese, a Portuguese-Moor and a Porto-Rican. They have the runway of some dozen cells and occupy, at the most, but three. Now and then the Porto-Rican and the Portuguese-Moor double up for company's sake, because one is inclined to be lonely; the one whose "heart aches."

But her heart is likely to ache un-comforted for the next few days for she is in for violent vagrancy, though no such language would appear in the official charge. She is married and her husband, she fears, has by this time fallen in love and perhaps left the country with some other woman. Thus is it that she explains her heart ache, and she explained it all to the reporter in some fanciful hope that he might be able to shorten her stay in the women's ward of the City and County Jail.

The guard explained that even though her heart ached she was not likely to die of a broken heart, for while she bewails her separation from her husband it seems that the only thing she appreciates his more or less steady devotion is when she is in jail. The Portuguese woman was busy patching a pillow, while the Porto-Rican was endeavoring to ornament her cell with paper flowers.

In a cell by himself in a secluded ward was the Japanese who did up a fellow countryman at Waipahu, suffering from rheumatism, his tin plate of food untouched.

As the officer passed out by the barred window of the kitchen of the jail he was hailed by a voice from within, saying, with an oath: "I know you!"

The officer stepped just a little bit more lively for the Japanese who had hailed him was frying cakes in lard and it was the officer who had been the main instrument in leading the temporary cook in jail.

"We don't want to get a dash of hot lard in our faces," he said; "that chap would gladly get even with me if he could."

The English will content themselves by reflecting that if a man can fly from Calais to Dover he also can fly from Dover to Calais.—Chicago Post.

OCEAN BREEZES

Lying in the Mid Pacific, swept by the trade winds which blow across leagues of ocean and are absolutely pure, with the mountains from whose higher altitudes cool breezes descend upon by the city, with its delightful climate all the year around, is one of the many reasons why Honolulu is being recognized as one of the world's most healthful places in which to live. There are no biting, cold winds, but, instead, refreshing, health giving trade breezes that make every person want to return—especially if he has been at that elevation where he can get a glimpse of Diamond Head in its majesty on the left, the panoramic view of the city on the right, the beautiful ocean view and its exhilarating breezes on the south and the mountains with their picturesque scenery on the north; all of which can be obtained from any point on Kaimuki where choice, residential property is being sold by the Real Estate Exchange.
