While the NEWS had just occasion in the past to severely condemn gross improprieties in the official conduct of Hon. John W. Kalua, yet this paper is equally ready to praise where commendation is deserved. Consequently it is with no little degree of satisfaction that the NEWS notes that for some time past Judge Kalua has apparently been endeavoring to perform the high duties of his office with an honest intention to administer justice properly and to square his private life with his public acts. The NEWS recognizes the principle that when any official performs his duties acceptably to the community which he serves, it is only his due to receive approbation from the community, if for no other reason than the encouragement it gives to continued effort to retain the good opinion of his fellow citizens. Judge Kalua is one of the brightest and ablest of our Hawaiians, and as it was in sorrow rather than in anger that the NEWS condemned his official shortcomings, consequently it is with equal pleasure that the NEWS testifies to the acceptable official record which Judge Kalua is now making for himself.

Speaker Fred W. Beckley touched the heart of the matter when he said that the whole trouble with the Home Rule party is in its leaders and not in the party itself. That is only one-half of the truth however, so far as the Home Rule party on Maui is concerned. As any one who lives on Maui knows, practically all of the intelligent Hawaiians belong to the republican party, and the home rule party, with a small percentage of exceptions, consists of the non-educated and non-progressive classes. While many of the ignorant class are naturally shrewd and observing men within the limited horizon of their mentality, yet they are too easily led by glittering and untruthful generalities. This is our danger on Maui, and it is the solemn duty of the more intelligent Home Rulers to assist the voters of their party to weed out incompetent candidates for county offices and vote for the men who are most competent for the positions they seek. It is not politics, but business, to do so.

The act of the Oahu home rulers in reading Fred Beckley out of the home rule party, and of the Maui home rulers in reading D. H. Kahaulelio, who has heretofore claimed himself a republican in "principle" into the home rule party, and giving him a prominent nomination on the home rule ticket, is a natural sequel to what occurred on Molokai three years ago. Beckley and Kahaulelio were rival candidates to the republican convention, and Beckley received almost all the votes under his Hawaiian name of Kahapula. But Kahaulelio's friends controlled the polls and threw out the Beckley ballots, thus seating Kahaulelio. Beckley, who is a republican at heart was thus driven into the home rule party, but as water seeks its level so Beckley has practically drifted back into the republican party, and the lovely Kahaulelio has bloomed out into a full blown home ruler.

The Federal Grand Jury has taken up the matter of the malodorous vouchers of the recent lower house of the legislature, and it to be sincerely hoped that they will be able to either dig up the vouchers or find out who destroyed them, if they really have been destroyed. There is a strong impression that there was quite an amount of rascality practiced in the last legislature, and if this be true, the truth should be made known, and if there was guilt, the guilty ones should be punished. And the fact that the vouchers cannot be found is the strongest evidence that there is something wrong somewhere.

The "Dowie" movement from Lake Shore, Ill., "on to New York" is an affair of more than ordinary note. Dowie, who personates a second Elijah, gained his eminence by a claimed gift of healing by prayer and has founded a church at Zion City which has gained thousands of disciples. Americans who enjoy novelties will kindly greet the hosts of Zion in their Madison Square Garden and street work, accompanied as they are by surpliced choir of 600 singers. While such movements are not harmful, and may accomplish some good, yet the novelty of the movement will prove its chief attraction.

While the Alaska boundary question was not settled in all its details by the treaty recently made, yet the question is now definitely removed as a disturbing element, even though the two Canadians forming a minority of the arbitration committee declined to sign the treaty. Both countries are to be congratulated on the final disposition of this matter, which only assumed importance in connection with the discovery of gold at Klondyke. Canadians may continue to feel sore over the matter for a while, but they will finally accept the inevitable.

A Hawaiian gentlemen of prominence dropped into the NEWS office last Saturday and found fault with the editorial which dealt with that Honolulu jury, claiming that the NEWS was drawing the "color line" on Maui. A careful reading of that editorial and other editorials in the same issue should thoroughly remove that impression. It was the old jury system, which tended to influence haole as well as Hawaiian juries, that the NEWS was scoring.

Curator W. T. Brigham of the Bishop Museum may be a very able and learned curator,—doubtless he is,—but it was a maxim of the late Lloyd Tevis of California that there is no man whose place cannot be filled, and the time is now rottenly ripe when Curator Brigham should either be incontinently fired out of the Bishop Museum, or preserved in formalin and picked away with the other curios of the institution.

Mr. C. W. Ashford, the silver tongued home rule candidate for supervisor of Oahu delivered an eloquent address to the Wailuku home rulers on Thursday evening, on Market street, Mr. W. Coelho acting as interpreter.

A large number of invitations have been issued by the Morning Star Club for the concert and ball which will be given at the Knights of Pythias Hall, on next Saturday evening. Trains will run from all points at excursion rates returning after the ball.

The lower road extending from Market street past the Wailuku mill to the depot is beginning to become worn and rocky from constant travel, and should be repaired now rather than waiting till it will become so worn out as to render the job of repairing it an expensive one.

The grand jury committee are reported to have made a quite thorough investigation of the Maui police department, and it is hoped that the guilty ones, if there are any, will realize that the people of Maui do not propose to stand any more foolishness or misconduct in the department.

Mr. Emmett May, manager of the Honolulu Investment Co., Agents for the Fidelity Insurance Co. the only Hawaiian Company authorized to issue Surety Bonds, under the new insurance laws of the Territory of Hawaii, is on Maui this week, and has appointed the following local agents; L. M. Vetlesen, Lahaina; D. H. Case, Wailuku; W. O. Aiken, Paia; N. Omsted, Hana; H. R. Hitchcock, Molokai.

In order to introduce the big monthly magazine, THE ALKAHEST, we offer the same for one year together with a LITTLE GIANT Typewriter, which alone costs $1.10, to each subscriber sending us $1.50. The subscription price for the "ALKAHEST" is everywhere else $1.00. It is published at Atlanta, Ga., and full of reading and illustrations. Circuit Court Notes.

The court, the grand jurors, the petty jurors and the court officers have had a busy week, working overtime during several evenings, and the prospects this morning are that the term will run several days into next week.

Acting Attorney-General Magoon, owing to his ripe experience in such matters, has made a record for himself in the prompt handling of work submitted to the grand and petty juries, and the criminal calendar was cleared on Wednesday. Another case, that of Fugihara was presented to the grand jury on Thursday afternoon, who presented a true bill charging defendant with abduction and tried partly yesterday afternoon.

The fishery cases and several other civil cases have been continued for the term, but efforts are being made to secure a trial of the cases of Ah Mi vs. L. M. Baldwin et al., and of Ah Mi vs. A. V. Marciel et al. at this term.

The grand jury committee selected to investigate the charges against the police have been quite busy this week, and visited Lahaina in the course of their investigations. Their report will probably be embodied in the final report of the grand jury which will probably be handed up some day next week, provided certain much desired testimony can be secured.

In the case of the Porto Rican, Francisco Quirasiquo, charged with burglary of the Hamakuapoko Store the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, as the evidence was purely circumstantial, which gave rise to reasonable doubt in the minds of the jury.

The Silver Sword of Haleakala.

The silver sword of Haleakala is one of the most interesting plants which grow in the craters or around volcanoes. The October issue of Sidights now in the hands of the printers, will have a very complete descriptive article on Haleakala specially written for Sidights by D. T. Fleming of Paia. Two full page illustrated groups show views of the bed of the crater, the silver sword, moonlight and cloud effects which still further enhance the article. Another feature will be the story of spear catching as practiced by Kamehameha I, and with the usual articles of interest to agriculturalists make an unusually entertaining number.

Those desiring extra copies will have to place their order at once, as the edition will probably be soon exhausted. Every one on Maui who has friends in the state or "back home" should write for copies, addressing "Sidights, Hilo, Hawaii." Or what is better, subscribe for "Sidights" which is only $1.00 per year, and is an unusually interesting and attractive little monthly.

Mr. J. A. Harris of Wailuku is the local Maui agent for "Sidights."

LAHAINA LINES.

Business was interrupted at the Wireless Office, during the electrical storm last week. It was impossible to read the messages, on account of the difficulty of distinguishing between the "strays" and the regular signals.

Henry Nahaolelua and family will soon sail for San Francisco.

Mrs. Wells of Honolulu, and her little boy, are the guests of Miss A. Z. Hadley.

Mr. Bergstrom, the well known Honolulu musician, has tuned a number of pianos in Lahaina, during the last ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert of Chicago were recently entertained by Mrs. Olsen, and subsequently engaged passage for the volcano.

The Wailuku Brass Band gave a very creditable concert, under the spreading branches of the great banyan tree in the courthouse park last Sunday afternoon.

Several of the republic candidates gave addresses at the fish market, last Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. W. D. Rose has been unable to attend to her duties at the school for several days, on account of illness.

At an early hour on Saturday morning the entire South Sea Island Colony, with the exception of one man, took passage on the Kinau for Honolulu; there to be transferred to the steamer Isleworth, which will return them to the islands where they were born. There were about 80 persons in the colony, and they are bound for the Gilbert Islands, except a very few natives of the Tonga group.

Rev. Martin Lutera accompanies his people. He was born on the Island of Lanai, but was taken to Honolulu at an early age, and became a pupil at the Royal School. When about 12 years of age he was accepted as cabin boy on the Rainbow, a British war vessel. While attached to that ship he visited Samoa, Fiji, Tahiti, Tonga, New Zealand, Australia, Japan, China San Francisco and Vancouver. Returning to Honolulu, he received a theological training, and was sent to the Gilbert Islands as a missionary. More than once he has seen frightful cannibal revelries. Since his return to Lahaina, he has served very acceptably as the pastor of the South Sea Islanders; and a considerable portion of their church was built with his own hands.

There is a large number of agricultural reports, dealing with the growing of plants and the killing of insect pests, etc., which may be a help to planters or gardeners.

By application to the Settlement Worker and the payment of a small fee the books and magazines in the library may be taken out for two weeks. At the end of that time they may be renewed for one week. Each book will be charged to the person drawing it, as in all public libraries, and a fee of one cent a day for holding a book longer than two weeks (unless renewed) will be charged to the one who drew out the book. The fee for the privilege of taking books away from the reading room is 75 cts. for the school year, or $1.00 for the entire year. The latter includes the privilege of keeping one or two during the summer vacation.

People of all nationalities are always welcomed at the Settlement.

WAS IT PELE?

PUNALUU, Oct. 17.—Another wonder has come upon the land and started the old timers to speculate. Last night about midnight the volcano was giving a most brilliant exhibition when all of a sudden an immense smoke cloud began to form. Illumined from below it first took the form of an enormous balloon. Then changing slowly it formed perfectly into the likeness of a gigantic woman. It was so distinct as to be almost startling. The form remained for some minutes, one arm extended over Kau as if in benediction, the other arm extended toward Kona apparently holding a stick or spear. The form then changed into that of a cat or tiger sitting on its haunches with its tail curved up behind.—Advertiser.
