WAILUKU TO HAVE A NEW POSTOFFICE

Inspector Hare Issues Call For Tenders For Furnishing A Suitable Building

MUST BE SUPPLIED BY FEBRUARY 1

Structure To Have Not Less Than 875 Square Feet Floor Space—Lots Possibly Available

Frank J. Hare, postoffice inspector, came to Maui Saturday morning to look into several matters connected with his department, the most important, perhaps, being that of a new postoffice building at Wailuku. He returned to Honolulu Monday night.

The inspector found that the postoffice accommodations at the county seat were not satisfactory, the building being old, not properly arranged and too small; and decided that steps for a new building should be taken at once. Before leaving he drafted a notice to the public, the following being the most important points in it:

"The undersigned will receive proposals up to and including October 20, 1917, for the furnishing of suitable quarters for postoffice purposes at Wailuku, Hawaii, under a lease for five or ten years from February 1, 1918, in accordance with the attached blank, which, as will be noted, calls for the furnishing of rent, heat,

Tennis Tournament Develops Fine Games

Tennis is still the craze on Maui, judging from the number of games that are in progress. During the week the drawings were made for the men's handicap singles for members of the Wailuku Sugar Co., court, Wall & Dougherty cup trophy, one game having already been played, in which Caleb Burns, the new assistant manager of the Wailuku Sugar Co., defeated Warren Alston 6-2 6-0.

The following games have been set to be played this week: Friday, Crawford vs. Townsley; Saturday, Hansen vs. Hoogs, and Penhallow vs. Aiken; Sunday, Blair vs. Engle, and Rietow vs. Bento. R. B. Rietow was the winner of this tournament last year.

In order to create more interest among the ladies, Mrs. Caleb Burns has offered to put up a cup for All Maui ladies singles. Owing to the absence of any reliable data for the handicaps it has been decided that there will be no handicaps, and this should bring forth some very exciting

Ladies' Aid Bazaar

The Ladies' Aid Society of Makawao will give a bazaar in the Community House on Saturday, October 27th. A good program is being arranged by Mrs. H. A. Baldwin. Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Tin Scraps For Japan

All of the scraps of tin around the cannery of the Haku Fruit & Packing Co., have been sold to parties for shipment to Japan, where, it is said, they will be used in the manufacture of war munitions. It is understood that similar purchases have been made of other canneries in the Territory, and that Japan hopes to secure quite a lot of rough material in this way.

Last Sunday's Game

There was only one baseball game last Sunday, the Portuguese taking a fall out of the Japanese. The Chinese failed to show up, forfeiting the game to the Hawaiis. Everything will give way next Sunday to the game between the Hilo visitors and the All Mauiis.

Maui Supervisors In Regular Session

County Fathers Have Batch Of Business Which Keeps Them Occupied Nearly Three Days

The October sessions of the Maui Board of Supervisors began at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, continued through Thursday and were resumed this afternoon. Messrs. Kalamana, the chairman; Fleming, Cockett and Uahinui were present Wednesday, Mr. R. A. Drummond being absent on account of illness.

The entire time the first day was taken up with the reading of communications and reports from the various departments of the county's work, after which adjournment was taken to 10 a. m. of Thursday.

THURSDAY'S MEETINGS

Most of the time Thursday morning was taken up with the reading of further communications and reports. The only other business transacted was the granting of the request of the Wailuku Sugar Company for a permanent crossing on the Kahului road.

The session was resumed at 2:15 yesterday and the report of the county engineer was taken up. Appropriation For Camp 10 School

Mr. Fleming moved that the County Engineer be instructed to draw on the appropriation for janitors' service & supplies an amount equal to that given other two room-schools. Motion seconded by Mr. Cockett and carried.

Book-Cases For Schools

Mr. Fleming moved that the County Engineer be instructed to take up with Mr. MacDonald of the Lahainaluna school the matter of book-cases for schools and inform the Supervising Principal that out of a matter of

Metal Thieves Fined In Wailuku Court

Just before business with the Claudine ceased, prior to her sailing Wednesday night, the police arrested a Japanese called Takayashi Gishi, he having in possession brass and copper weighing about 500 pounds which he was trying to ship to Honolulu. Metal and Japanese were brought to the police station in Wailuku, where Gishi balled himself out in the sum of $40, at the same time stating that he had purchased the metal from Spaniards working at Puunene, giving the names of the men.

The following day Juan Molliva, Morale worker in the machine shop at Puunene, and Francisco Dura Neto, a man employed to clean up around the Spanish camp on the plantation, were arrested. Both confessed to having stolen the metal and in the district court this morning were fined $10 each. The penalties were made light on account of the men having large families—Morale being blessed with eleven in his home and Neto having six. The Japanese did not appear at all, forfeiting the $40 which he had put up as bail money.

The metal, which is valued at $28.50, will be returned to its owners.

Makawao Organ Recital A Delightful Affair

The organ recital at Makawao Union church, given by Miss Alice Harrison, organist of Central Union church, Honolulu, Wednesday evening, was a delightful affair, and all those not attending missed a great treat. The attendance was fair only.

Owing to the power being off until 4 o'clock, Miss Harrison did not have the opportunity of "trying out" the organ, so that the entertainment Tuesday evening next promises to be even better than the initial one, and it is hoped that the church may be crowded at that time.

Mr. Coale To City

Rev. W. B. Coale of Lahaina, will go to Honolulu on or about December 1, to take charge of the Kalihui Union church.

ARRANGE TO ENTERTAIN CONGRESSMEN

Chamber Of Commerce Meets And Starts Plans To Receive Visitors

COMMITTEE NAMED BY THE CHAIR

Liberty Loan—New Wailuku Postoffice, And Other Matters Discussed At Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Maui Chamber of Commerce was held in Wailuku last Tuesday afternoon, beginning at 3 o'clock, President R. A. Wadsworth in the chair. Members present were: R. A. Wadsworth, F. F. Baldwin, Wm. Walsh, D. C. Lindsay, W. O. Aiken, W. A. Sparks, H. S. Perry, Dan Quill, A. F. Costa, H. K. Duncan, F. B. Cameron, E. Brecht, H. B. Penhallow, W. A. Baldwin, F. G. Krauss, W. H. Field, Rev. A. C. Bowditch, J. C. Blair, Rev. J. C. Villiers and Dan H. Case.

The President stated the objects of the special meeting to be to consider ways and means looking to the entertainment of the Congressional party, due on Maui November 17 to 20, calling attention to the fact that a legislature committee had been appointed and to the advisability of the Chamber also appointing a committee, possibly to work with the legislators.

Mr. F. F. Baldwin read a letter from C. R. Hemenway, of Alexander

Capt. W. Matson Dies Suddenly

The Kahului Railroad Co., received a wireless message yesterday morning from Alexander & Baldwin, Honolulu, announcing that the information had just arrived of the death in San Francisco of Captain Wm. Matson, head of the Matson Navigation Co. This news followed a press wireless to the effect that Captain Matson was seriously ill, the trouble being a cerebral hemorrhage.

Captain Matson was personally well known to many people on Maui. When a comparatively young man he ran a sailing vessel between Islands ports and San Francisco, frequently coming to this island. He had much to do with organizing the company which bears his name and was a large stockholder in it.

Girl Knocked Down By Auto In Wailuku

Struck By Ford Car Of Konda In Congested Street And Narrowly Escapes Death

Rose Merchena Garban, Spanish girl, aged 14, was run down by a Ford touring car opposite the makai corner of the postoffice, Wailuku, at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening and quite painfully injured, although not dangerously so. She was picked up by bystanders and taken into the office of Dr. Osmera, where emergency attention was given, after which the patient was removed to the hospital.

The car was driven by T. Konda, the eighteen-year old son of S. Konda, superintendent of the Japanese girls' boarding school, Wailuku, and was proceeding down the street from the direction of the Maui hotel. Two cars were standing on opposite sides at the postoffice, and young Konda turned to the left to pass around the one nearest the building. At that juncture the girl left the postoffice, passed back of the standing car and was struck just as she emerged into the street. The car struck her on the left shoulder and drove or carried her about fifteen feet, where she was picked up.

The Ford car was tested at the police station later and it was found that the brakes were not working well. No arrest was made, and probably will not be.

Probably Accidental

Despite strong suspicions held at the time, the police have been wholly unable to find anything to indicate that the Anderson house, near Hana, which was burned last Friday, was intentionally set afire. The house and everything around was very dry, and the police now think that the blaze started from a cigarette stump, thrown on or under the verandah. Although the building was well furnished, no one lived in it.

Wailuku Police Court

Gonsalves Koolau was fined $20 in the Wailuku district court this morning for entering the Iao Stables premises Wednesday midnight and helping himself to gasoline and oil for his machine.

Frank Cambra and Joe Morreira were fined $5 each for trespassing in the forest reserve.

Lurline A Caller

The Matson steamer Lurline arrived at Kahului Wednesday afternoon from the Coast, via. Honolulu, bringing 1575 tons of cargo for Maui. She took on a small quantity of molasses and left at 3 o'clock this morning for Hilo.

By previous arrangement, the Lurline picked up the Falls of Clyde off Makana during the day and will tow her to Hawaii. The Falls of Clyde was brought as far as Makana by the tug Intrepid.

Wailuku Gets A Shower

There was a feeling of relief in the lower stretches of Maui Tuesday when the clouds began to extend out from the mountains over the island. Light rain began to fall and kept up, at intervals, for several hours. Wailuku probably had more than in two weeks before. Since then, however, it has been fair and hot and moisture is badly needed at every hand.

More Pupils In School

Statistics completed by the Department of Education show that there were 237 more children in the schools of Maui in September than at the closing of the term in June. The June closing total was 4819, while 5056 were on the rolls of the Maui schools in September. The gain throughout the Territory was 2240. Allowing forty to the room, this increase alone would call for 56 additional teachers.

Major Green Coming To Maui Tuesday

Major Francis J. Green, who is in charge of the selective draft in the Islands, writes that he will arrive on Maui next Tuesday morning, making his headquarters at the Wailuku Hotel. He will be here two days or more, depending somewhat upon the amount of work he finds to do.

All the forms, etc., have been sent over ahead of Major Green, and the work of preparing for the draft is well advanced. His work here will have largely to do with details.

Improvement At Hospital

A Kny-Scheerer instrument and dressing and water sterilizer is being installed at the Malulani hospital, to replace the old plant, which had outlived its usefulness.

The new outfit cost in the neighborhood of $1500.

Claudine Sails Early

The Kahului Railroad Co., received a wireless from Honolulu this morning stating that the Claudine would leave Kahului at 4 p. m. tomorrow afternoon in place of 9 p. m.

Passengers and shippers are cautioned to remember this.

No explanation is given as to why the schedule is changed.

The change is for one day (tomorrow) only, so far as now known.

Pauwela Postoffice Will Be Reopened

The postoffice at Pauwela, which was closed following the financial juggling of a former postmaster, will be reopened, with David Kiakona, manager of the Pauwela Store, in charge.

Mr. Kiakona, who is a very responsible and capable man, has already filed his bond. It will undoubtedly be approved, and postoffice business will be resumed in the Pauwela store in about sixty days.

Mossman A Deputy

Harry C. Mossman, who has been officiating as a clerk in the office of Division Tax Assessor Kunewa, received his commission this week as a deputy assessor and collector for Wailuku district. An additional deputy for the assessor's office was provided for by the last Legislature. The appointment is in the nature of a considerable promotion.

Nitrate Schooner Arrives

The American schooner Samar arrived at Kahului Friday from Chile, bringing a cargo of nitrates. On account of regulations in regard to vessels arriving from South American ports, the schooner was fumigated by representatives of the U. S. public health service.

WHAT GOVERNOR SAID ABOUT US IN HONOLULU

Governor Pinkham returned to Honolulu Saturday morning from Maui and there had a few things to say to the papers about conditions here. He is quoted by a city paper as follows: "My visit to Maui was a very busy one," said the governor. "At the suggestion of Mr. Harold Rice we covered from 100 to 125 miles daily by automobile, visiting thoroughly the homesteads opened and to be opened, and examined the cane fields so seriously and extensively affected by the drought. We drove over quite extensive government and private lands that have rarely, some never, been inspected. Neither hills or rocks stopped us in our rough cross-country rides.

"The Kula district up on the side of mountain Haleakala has had sufficient rain. The homesteads look well and crops excellent. Below and on the Makawao and Haiku side the lack of rain is distressing, and the lack of water for irrigation will result in the loss of 80 per cent of the cane in large fields and serious diminution throughout."

The governor believes that in the production of food and fodder staples success now, as ever, depends on the destruction of pests, proper curing and their preservation.

"The financial returns depend on marketing economies," he says. "Heretofore men of large means have thought exclusively in terms of sugar from which their fortunes have been derived, and might still so think, could a reliable water supply be found for the 8000 to 10,000 acres of good cane land unappropriated.

"Fortunately, the five male members of the Baldwin family, including Mr. Rice, live on their lands and, as aggressively as sound prudence and nature permits, are developing their lands, improving the breeds of their stock, and raising the necessary subsistence for them and to spare.

"To their Maui properties they have added Lanai, the development of which will require comparatively great investment.

"The homesteader needs also to breed up his stock and feed his produce so as to be able to market a large proportion in a concentrated form.

"In the limited way our small country competes, I hope, relatively, our homesteaders may find a dealers' market near their own doors as is the case on the mainland, for a small farmer cannot be producer and distributor.

"It will become practical, now men of great means are determined to solve the problems not only for themselves but their neighbors.

"The ladies of this progressive family are demonstrators of the fact we can live well on what we locally produce, as I can testify, having been a guest in their homes.

"With the combination of land, financial means, aggressive intelligence and experiment and entire unity, I courtesy the board asked his co-operation, but to note that it did not ask for his authorization. This motion was seconded by Mr. Cockett and carried.

The Clerk was instructed to forward to the Managing Committee of the Kula Sanitarium and to the Pauwela Jail a copy of that portion of the County Engineer's report relative to water used by the Sanitarium and Jail.

Communication No. 148 of Geo. S. Raymond, supervising principal, was referred to the County Engineer.

Communication No. 164 also of the Supervising Principal, was ordered filed.

Subject matter of communication No. 177 of W. S. Beeman, Principal Maui High School, was referred to the County Engineer, and the matter of shed for horses was referred to School Commissioner Lindsay. Communication No. 177 filed.

Mr. Fleming moved to notify Mr. Bowman that in reply to his letter of October 9th the board has asked the County Engineer to attend to the distribution of the articles he mentions and also to notify the Engineer of the contents of this letter and ask him to distribute those articles to the schools where he finds such articles are necessary. Motion seconded by Mr. Cockett and carried.

Mr. Cockett moved that the request of Mr. Bowman Vocational Instructor, for material for making shelves, etc., be granted. Motion seconded by Mr. Fleming and carried. Communication No. 178 filed.

All matters of school supplies were referred to the County Engineer, and matters of repairs were referred to the District Overseers of the respective districts.

Adjournment was taken from yesterday afternoon to this afternoon on account of the trip to the Kula Sanitarium this morning.

Maui has in progress one of the most remarkable agricultural efforts, yet inaugurated anywhere, and that its success will build up the small man.

"Already a spraying machine is at his service with intelligent operators. Tractors can be secured. Motor fuel manufactured from molasses at the Paia mill is an assured fact, the plant being under construction. Low cast cement is an assured fact. Water for domestic and other stock will be amply supplied by the Olinda reservoir, the substantial reconstruction of which I can testify to.

"I may say the Haiku homesteading was largely academic and indiscreet. I most thoroughly inspected all of the homesteads now largely orientalized, except for about 10 and of these but five are cultivated by their owners, and almost entirely in pines.

"My time is too occupied to say more, besides it is doing from neighbor to neighbor and less writing and talking that is needed."

Meeting Of Maui Racing Association

A part of the proceedings of the meeting of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association, held last Friday afternoon, appeared in the paper of the same day.

In addition, there was read a letter from Mr. Cockett to the Maui County Fair & Racing Association and a statement of account of the old Maui Racing Association due to the Kahului Store in the sum of $282.61. The President appointed Mr. Wadsworth a committee of one to interview the manager of the store with a view to having the account "forgotten." Mr. Case was appointed a committee, and given like instructions, in regard to an account of $17.07 due by the old Association to the Maui Bank, Ltd.

The advisability of subletting the race track to others came up and it was decided to permit the use of the race track on Saturdays to Japanese or others at not less than $25 per meet.

Mr. Case called attention to the advisability of the Fair Association and Chamber of Commerce jointly leasing the premises lately vacated by the Hugh Howell Engineering Co., for permanent headquarters for these organizations, and a place wherein members, directors and committees could meet from time to time. On motion of Mr. Lindsay, seconded by Mr. Wadsworth, the Association went on record as favoring the rental of rooms in Wailuku as permanent headquarters, provided the Chamber of Commerce would join in and share the expense.

The committee appointed at the last meeting to consider the question of paying the secretary reported in favor of the proposition. Secretary Case expressed it as his wish, however, that he be not paid, preferring to give his time in public work of this character sans remuneration. In view of this request of Mr. Case, no further action was taken on the report.

The following new members were elected: Dr. J. J. Carey, Honolulu; R. B. Walker, Kihel; Geo. H. Cummings, Wailuku.

Forms For The Draft

Sheriff Crowell has received a big lot of forms to be used in connection with the selective draft. Such forms as the registrants should be familiar with have been hung on a string in the corridor of the police station where they may be examined at any time by those immediately interested.

KEEP BUSINESS GOING

From Wanamaker's Advertisement in N. Y. Post

OUR country prosperous can pay our war costs, as they come, and have enough left over to aid our Allies.

Our country unprosperous, with business halting, money hoarded, through fear or false economy, will be hard pressed to keep food on the table and clothing on the back.

KEEP BUSINESS GOING

is a patriotic slogan. Keep money in circulation. Keep employment for everybody. Keep wages good. Keep on making money that we may have money to spend for war sacrifices.

The worst thing that could happen to the world these days would be a business depression in our United States.

War in itself does not cause business depression.

The billions of dollars of money to be expended in war preparations will be put into circulation in our own country and this in itself will create new wealth for use in the world-struggle for humanity.

The one thing that might halt business now is an unpatriotic psychological feeling of panic and a false idea of patriotic economy.

Patriotic economy means the elimination of waste and extravagance. It means the conservation of our food products, our natural wealth, our health, our energies, our labor, our very lives.

Cities and communities must go on with their civic improvements. Road building and public works must proceed. Factories must be kept going to their full capacity. Labor must be employed. Merchandise must be produced, distributed and used. War duties and war expenditures must be in addition to peace duties and peace expenditures. The more we do the more we can do.

In a word: the natural sane life of the country must proceed as though we were not at war, in order that we may have the necessary prosperity to promote the war to a quick and successful conclusion.

New Revenue Tax On Merchandise

Law Drives Hard On Luxuries And Ingredients—Items Already Affect- ed By It

The acting collector at Honolulu announces the following as some of the main features of the war tax bill:

Tobacco manufactured and sold 30 days after the passage of the act now has a tax of 5 cent a pound. The floor or retail tax for small dealers is 2½ cents, just half that of manufacturers.

The floor tax for dealers in cigars and cigarettes is governed by the retail prices per cigars and cigarettes. Cigars selling over 4 cents each up to 15 cents, $1.50 per thousand; up to 15 cents, $2.50; 20 cents and up, $3.50. Small cigars 12½ cents a thousand; small cigarettes, 40 cents a thousand; long cigarettes, 60 cents a thousand.

Manufacturers tax 30 days after the law passed, October 4, will be double the foregoing figures.

Distilled spirits, if withdrawn from distilleries or bonded warehouses for other than beverage purposes, will be taxed $2.20 a proof gallon, while for beverage purposes the tax will be $3.20.

Floor tax other than beverage purposes, $1.10 a proof gallon; for beverage purposes, $2.10.

Fermented liquors manufactured and sold after the date of the law are taxed $3. This is just double the original tax. The floor tax is $1.50, which provision affects only brewers such as the Honolulu Brewing company and agents of brewers here.

On still wines, vermouth, champagne, sparkling wines, manufactured and sold after October 3, the tax is double the present rate, the floor tax being equivalent to the present tax.

Grape brandy for use in fortification of sweet wines will yield a tax of 30 cents a proof gallon, and grape brandy in sweet wines, held for sale, 10 cents a proof gallon. Grape brandy withdrawn from fortification and not used to date, is to yield a tax of 20 cents a gallon.

Syrups and extracts sold by manufacturers, producers or importers are subject to tax at the following rates: Selling price not more than $1.30 a gallon, tax 5 cents per gallon; over $1.30 a gallon and not more than $2, tax 8 cents a gallon; $2 and not more than $3, 10 cents a gallon; $3 and not more than $4, 15 cents a gallon; $4 and up, 20 cents a gallon.

Unfermented grape juice and soft drinks (including ginger ale, soda water and carbonated waters and beverages and carbonated acid gas used in carbonating same, tax 1 cent per gallon.

Natural mineral waters and table waters selling from 10 cents per gallon, tax, 1 cent per gallon.

Carbonic acid gas sold by manufacturers, tax, 6 cents per pound.

Decision In Appeal From Tax Assessment

The Maui Agricultural Company, which paid $40,000 under protest to the late John Haley, formerly collector of internal revenue, as income or excise taxes, will not receive it back again, a decision having been handed down in the federal court by Judge Vaughan, dismissing the demurrer of the company, holding the money to the internal revenue office, and paving the way for the collection of about three times that amount in taxes due since the suit was commenced.

Judge Vaughan holds that the Maui Agricultural Company, which includes seven plantations and sugar companies is, in reality a joint stock company and therefore liable to taxes to the internal revenue office. In finding that the company is a copartnership, Judge Vaughan in the syllabus, says:

"Paragraph 6 of section 2, of the act of congress of October 3, 1913, levying tax on incomes of corporations, joint stock companies or associations, and insurance companies, not including partnerships, is construed to include within its meaning of joint stock companies or associations those organized under the common law, though considered in law partnerships and to include within the meaning of partnerships ordinary partnerships only, and not joint stock companies or associations."—Star-Bulletin.

AT THE THEATERS

"The Valentine Girl"

Laura Sawyer knows Marguerite Clark and in writing the scenario for "The Valentine Girl" she had in mind the delightful little star who was to appear in the title role as Marian Morgan.

Marian is the daughter of a gambler-crook who lands behind the prison bars, the child being adopted by a kindly minister and his wife. Later her father is liberated and would make capital of her engagement to a young millionaire. Rather than see her fiance injured Marian tells all. The result is perfectly satisfactory and included the reformation of the gambler parent.

"The Girl At Home"

Jean Hilton, a wealthy orphan, is in love with Jimmie Dexter, with whose mother she lives. Mrs. Dexter is about to send Jimmie to college when she loses her small income. Jean hears this, and through Squire Padgate, her guardian, induces Mrs. Dexter to let her supply the funds. Jimmie goes to school, meets Diana Parish, a cabaret singer and falls in love with her.

Jimmie expects to go home and great preparations are being made for his arrival, but he meets a crowd of friends, and misses his train. Jimmie gives Diana a check which she raises. The check is turned back to Detective Hagen is sent to investigate. Diana pleads with Jimmie to save her. Just as she puts her arms about his neck, in walks Squire Padgate, his mother and Jean. The Squire tells Jimmie bluntly that it is Jean's money which is supporting him, Jean breaks the engagement and Jimmie flings himself from the room announcing he will earn his own living. He has a hard time of it trying to make his living. Finally Detective Hagen meets him and induces him to return home. Jimmie does so and all is forgiven.

"The Primitive Call"

Betty Malcolm, society girl, makes sport of Brain Elkhorn. He is an Indian, and, worthy only of contempt. However, when Betty learns that her father is trying to put through a big land deal with Brain's father, she decides that her wiles will be useful in bringing the transaction to a successful close. Only when Betty acknowledges that she had been leading him on for this purpose does Brain realize the trick she played on him. But light, water, closets, accessories, safe or vault, and all necessary furniture and equipment for the proper conduct of said office at a stated price per annum.

"There will be needed in this instance:

"Not less than 875 square feet of floor space:

"Good day-light. Location not far from business center and within 80 rods of railroad depots are points for general consideration." Etc., etc.

While here Mr. Hare looked over several sites that might become available, the owners of which may tender for the building. One of these is the lot on which the office of John Brown, Jr., is located, next to the present postoffice building. It belongs to the Robinson estate, D. C. Lindsay being trustee. It is small, but has the advantage of being satisfactorily central.

Another lot is the one near the Orpheum theater, across from the Episcopal church. A part of this property is owned by the Maui Dry-goods & Grocery Co., and the remainder by the Maui Bank, Ltd. It is possibly equally central, according to the viewpoint, is slightly nearer the railroad station and has the advantage of being larger than the Brown office site.

Everything else being about equal, as we understand it the choice will hinge upon the size and character of the building offered. Uncle Sam wants a good-looking and creditable building, and is willing to pay reasonable rent for it.

It will be noted that the time is short, tenders being required by October 20, and the building being called for at the first of February. Of course it is understood that an extension is possible on the time allowed for the completion of the structure.

Betty's confession has made her discover that she really loves the big Indian. So, in the end, she capitulates and both Betty and Brain are happy.

CAPTAIN WILLIAM MATSON

In the death of Captain William Matson, people of Maui and of the Territory feel that they have lost a prominent citizen. So closely had he, for many years, been identified with our shipping and general business interests that he has seemed like one of us, and to all intents and purposes has been one of us, despite his residence on the Coast.

Captain Matson began life as a common sailor and worked up until he became the official of one of the most important transportation companies operating in this ocean. His career will stand as a monument to thrift and strict attention to duty, his place in the shipping business of the Pacific will be hard to fill.

DO WE LOVE OUR COUNTRY?

During this war Great Britain has already created two large loans of $5,000,000,000 each, and for the last one, subscriptions were received from about 8,000,000 different buyers.

The French people are known as the greatest government bond buyers in the world.

Fifty years ago we raised over $3,000,000,000 to provide for the expenses of the Civil War. The wealth of this country today is eight times as great as it was then; our banking resources are twenty times as great as then or even as late as 1870.

Soon after the beginning of the Spanish-American War our Government offered for sale $200,000,000 of 3% bonds, which were oversubscribed 7½ times. This was equivalent to subscriptions totaling about $1,400,000,000.

Can it be that we love and appreciate our country to a less degree than England or France? Is it conceivable that we have lost our enthusiasm for our Government's ideals since 1864, or even since 1898?

It is estimated by the Controller of Currency that there are now more than 10,000 individuals and corporations in the United States in a position to subscribe from $100 to $100,000,000 to the Liberty Loan. There are easily a hundred times that many who are able to buy a $50 bond on easy terms.

You are one of these individuals. Subscribe today for the Liberty Loan at your bank or with your employer.

PROBLEMS OF THE SMALL FARMER

In last week's issue Mr. J. F. O'Brien gave us some interesting and instructive data on the subject of small farming in general and diversified farming in particular, and we feel sure that his opinions and advice have been much appreciated. The writer of the published article told us, however, only of the things we should grow, not enlightening us to any extent on the equally important questions of where and how we are to find profitable markets for the same. Corn and oats cannot be grown to advantage, while it is difficult and expensive to reach markets with fresh legumes, fruits and vegetables.

Standing in the way of the successful and satisfactory marketing of fresh fruits, vegetables, legumes and corn (for table purposes) in the Islands is the general practice of using canned goods. It is doubtful that ten per cent of the vegetables sold in this Territory are fresh, the remaining ninety per cent arriving here in tins from California, and even as far back as the Atlantic coast. Of course everybody stands ready to admit that fresh fruits and vegetables are better, but the ease with which the canned article is obtained and served has always "turned the trick," so that the practice of using imported goods has become universal.

Take, for example, a certain small tin of tomato sauce, sold in every city, town, hamlet and grocery store in the Islands. It comes from California. Everybody knows it, without our naming the brand. We are informed by reliable parties that 100,000 cases (not dozens, but cases) of this sauce (one big crushed tomato, a little pepper, and water, to the tin) are shipped into this Territory every year. In addition, enormous quantities of tomatoes, prepared, if you will, in other ways, are imported. Then there are beans, peas, corn, asparagus, etc., etc., to the end of the chapter, in tins, imported by the thousands of cases. Inquire at the grocery department of any store and you will find large quantities of all these things, but no fresh vegetables nor fresh fruits, except oranges, apples and such standards as keep a long time. It is probably a safe venture that any large grocery store in Honolulu sells more canned vegetables in a month than all the market places combined—and possibly with the Chinese truck peddlers thrown in for good measure.

It is a peculiar situation, perhaps, but the condition is none the less real, and it must be dealt with accordingly. How are we to deal with it? By giving the people what they want. How are we to determine what they want? By noting what they purchase and use. In this case, as we have pointed out, they purchase and use canned goods. It may be merely a matter of convenience and all that, but they do it just the same and, as a business proposition, that is all the grower should care to know.

The solution of the problem is to meet canned goods with canned goods. A pineapple cannery is able, at very small expense, to take care of a large volume of this business—the situation on Maui being such that an arrangement of this sort would likely be easy and could be made to work out satisfactorily to everyone. The market is here and all around. It is always here, and is certain. All required is a working arrangement between the growers, the packer and the dealer. The consumer will do the rest. Maui has the best opportunity of any of the islands in this business. Oahu will stay with pines for a long time, while Kauai small-farmers are tied up to pines and cane. Owing to recognized conditions, Hawaii would not be a competitor in many years, if at all.

The idea would not be to abandon anything now grown and marketed at a profit. Keep all those things going, and going strong. But in addition to that, go energetically after the Hawaiian market for canned fruits, legumes, vegetables, etc., out of which Coast growers and canners have been, and are, making fortunes. We believe that if the small farmers, so called, of the island take this matter up in an earnest, business-like manner they will find that the canners and merchants are willing to meet them more than half way.

Mr. O'Brien, in his paper, invited suggestions that might lead to a solution of the problems of the small farmer on Maui, and we understand that the invitation has the endorsement of the Haiku Farmers' Association. We are submitting the above as our first suggestion on this important topic.

TWO OF MAUI'S NEEDS

Although Maui feels a just pride in being up-to-date on most things, there are at least two real needs here that are now indifferently and unsatisfactorily supplied. The first of these is a first-class drug-store, in charge of a registered pharmacist. The second is an up-to-date plumbing establishment, with plumbers informed on all the finer, modern points of the business.

We have gotten along for so many years without a real drug-store, run by a pharmacist, that the matter may not appeal to us, at first thought, as of vital importance. But it is; and as our population increases and our towns expand the need becomes more and more pressing. A first-class drug store, in Wailuku, for instance, with a modern soda fountain, etc., would be a good thing for the whole island and a gold-mine for its owner. It would indicate a progressive spirit were our business men to invite a registered pharmacist to come in here and set up an up-to-date establishment.

We have plumbers on Maui, but it seems to be necessary, every-time a large house is planned, to look elsewhere for plumbers and plumbing material. There have been notable instances of this in the past year or two. Moreover, property owners have found it necessary to call in assistance from outside on small contracts requiring skilled workmanship. This is not as it should be. There is work enough here to command the undivided attention of the best plumbing establishing in the Territory, and we should have the convenience.

Both of these matters are important enough to engage the attention of the proper committees of the Chamber of Commerce.

OUR NEW POSTOFFICE

Wailuku is to have a new postoffice, and it is largely up to the people of the community whether or not the building is such as to harmonize with the progressive appearance and spirit of our little city. The United States erects only first-class postoffice buildings. All others are supplied by citizens, the government paying rent for them. Our postoffice is third-class, although it is very close to becoming second class, which will call for improved facilities and a better building.

The postoffice building is generally the most conspicuous and the most frequented of any public structure in a town. It is oftentimes the basis of the general opinion a visitor forms of a place—whether it is up-to-date or not. Wailuku's present postoffice building is not a good advertisement, and as such we shall all be pleased to see it go.

There should be an immediate awakening of public spirit on this proposition, and enthusiasm for as large, as conveniently arranged and as beautiful a building as Uncle Sam will stand the rent on. Let us hold up the hands of those who seek the contract for the building, to the end that we may get the swiftest and best postoffice structure to be had in a town of this size.

There has been something crooked in Chile and Venezuela ever since the beginning of strained relations between the United States and Germany. The alignment of all other countries of South America against Prussianism will, however, force those two states to either fish, cut bait or go overboard. It will likely be found out very soon that the pirate down Samoa way was fitted out in Chile, while the enemy wireless plant on Curacao was probably established with the full knowledge of the Venezuelan government.

The news reached Honolulu yesterday that a special dispensation had been made allowing the shipment of bananas from the Islands to the Coast in foreign ships. This would be quite important were it not for the fact that after information of the concession was mailed from Washington, Congress suspended the coastwise shipping laws. It is still interesting, however, in that it is evidence of the friendliness of the Federal bureau of commerce.

Although the Wailuku police are efficient and alert, it might be a good idea to station a traffic man at the postoffice when the mails are being distributed. At such times the locality is usually congested with pedestrians and autos, and there is danger to life and limb. A conspicuous showing of police authority around there would have the effect of checking careless driving, at least.

The French report that the German trenches in Flanders have been blown to pieces is gratifying, but we have our misgivings as to what may be a few miles back of the shattered lines. At the same time it is plain that the situation of the foe in that quarter is becoming little short of desperate, and something will have to "give" before long.

We will wager someone else's Mexican dollar that several of the banquets and "blow-outs" given the visiting Congressmen next month will make that much-talked about Civic Convention dinner at the Moana look like the luau Lazarus found on the doorstep of the Rich Man.

A rule of the owners forbidding the landing, or possession, of liquors on the island of Lanai would, perhaps, serve to prevent lawlessness there and render a jail unnecessary. Such a rule is in force on Niihau and works satisfactorily.

Maui will extend a "glad hand" to the Hilo ball-players tomorrow. It is hoped that they have a good time, and return home with only the most pleasing impressions of the island and of our people.

It is fitting that after laying the foundation for the successful termination of the greatest war in history our Congressmen should come to these Isles of Peace for recreation.

The Christmas exhibition of pictures, in Wailuku, is well worth the time of art connoisseurs. We understand that the display will be withdrawn after tomorrow.

If Honolulu don't quit this practice of bombarding our flagship Claudine, we'll be tempted to sever diplomatic relations.

Oh, what a scamper there was last night back to the band-wagon of the New York Giants!

Where is The Food Commission? What has become of the Territorial Food Commission? Two or three months ago it was continually in evidence with all kinds of information, instruction, and advice...

It was all immediate and urgent, and insistent, like the cries of a drowning man. Then all of a sudden it ceased, and now for some time, there are only a few bubbles coming up from where the Food Commission used to be...

Injured Innocence

Sweden's air of injured innocence in the matter of the Luxburg dispatches from Argentina, looks too much like the surprise of a few neapoptium smugglers, who not so many years ago, were so nearly caught with the goods on them, and who, were they to be forced to acknowledge facts would hardly be gracing the streets of Hilo today.—Hawaii Post.

Lahaina Items

Mr. and Mrs. Rosecrans, of Paia, were in Lahaina on Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gannon.

Miss Merriman went to Honolulu on Friday nights' Mauna Kea and returned home again on Saturday.

Mrs. Martinsen, of Wailuku, was a guest at Baldwin House on Friday of last week. Miss Mossu, of Paia, was at Baldwin House on Sunday.

Baldwin House has just received a fresh consignment of books from the Library of Hawaii. These books must be returned to Honolulu about Jan. 5, 1918. There is no charge for the use of these books. Both adults and children are welcome to use them freely.

RED CROSS ITEMS

The ladies of the Kahului Unit who commenced their regular meetings for sewing on Friday, Sept. 14, in the Community House, by unanimous consent agreed to devote every Friday afternoon to this purpose. The attendance at the meetings already held has been very good and the work accomplished very satisfactory.

Kahului ladies wishing to knit may obtain materials from Mrs. J. Thomson. All finished knitting should be sent to Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, Hamakua-poko.

The Lahaina Unit sews from 9 to 5 o'clock every Saturday, in the armory. Seven machines are in constant use. The Hawaiian, Japanese, Chinese and Portuguese women have all joined in the work.

The Paia-Hamakua-poko Unit devoted Monday morning to the making of surgical dressings and under the efficient leadership of Miss Edmunds, a good amount of work was accomplished. This work will be continued on alternate Mondays.

& Baldwin, touching on the matter. After discussion Mr. Cameron moved—seconded by Mr. Walsh—that the chair appoint a committee of three to act with the President, to co-operate with the legislature committee and assume full charge of all things having to do with the entertainment of the Congressmen while on Maui. This motion carried, the chair appointing as the additional members of the committee F. F. Baldwin, Wm. Walsh and D. H. Case.

L. R. Mathews, on behalf of the Boy Scouts of Maui tendered the services of the Scouts, should they be needed, during the visit of the Congressmen.

To Widen New Roadway Discussion was had on the question of widening the new street being constructed from High street by way of the armory, in Wailuku. It was moved by Mr. Case, seconded by Mr. Baldwin, that the matter be taken up with the county attorney and supervisors. This was carried and the chair appointed Mr. Case, H. B. Penhallow and D. C. Lindsay to carry out the provisions of the motion.

For A Permanent Home The question of permanent headquarters for the Chamber was brought up, and attention was called to the fact that the Maui County Fair and Racing Association had voted in favor of securing permanent headquarters for that organization, if the Chamber would join with them in apportioning the expense. After discussion, Mr. Penhallow moved, seconded by Mr. Lindsay, that the President of the Chamber investigate the matter of available rooms for offices and the approximate cost in the way of rental and equipment, reporting at the next meeting. Motion carried.

Mr. W. O. Aiken reported on Civic Convention at Honolulu.

Liberty Loan Committee A letter from Robert F. Stever, general executive secretary of the Liberty Loan Committee, suggesting that the Maui Chamber appoint a local committee, was read. After discussion Mr. Cameron moved, seconded by Mr. Penhallow, that the chair appoint a Liberty Loan Committee of seven, chosen from different districts, with a view to securing all the subscriptions possible to the second Liberty Loan. The chair announced the following to be the committee: R. A. Drummond, for Hana; F. B. Cameron, Paia; W. A. Baldwin, Haiku; E. R. Bovins, Wailuku; Geo. Freeland, Lahaina; Harold Rice, Makawao and Kula; George Cooke, Molokai.

Postoffice At Wailuku The attention of the members was called to the fact that the Federal government was now advertising for a new postoffice building to be erected in Wailuku. Mr. Case moved, seconded by Mr. Penhallow, that a committee of three members, resident of Wailuku, the president to be one, be appointed with power and authority to investigate possible sites and equipment for a new postoffice for Wailuku and to report at either a later meeting of the Chamber or a meeting of the trustees. This carried and Messrs. Costa and Lufkin were appointed to act with the President on the committee.

Adjourned.

The Lanai Policeman In Need Of A Jail

Robert Cockett, lone police officer on the island of Lanai, needs a jail, and that badly, from all accounts. It used to be that an arrest on Lanai was a rare occurrence, so there was seldom, if ever, use for a lock-up. But Lanai has evidently fallen from grace, or, to be more exact, the water wagon for Cockett complains that there is much drinking over there. There being no jail, when an arrest is made it is necessary for the police officer to stand guard, over his prisoner at night, or until he can find a way to send him to Lahaina for trial. Lately there have been so many arrests that the job of "keeping wake" over the drunks has become quite irksome.

In answer to the appeal, Sheriff Crowell went to Lanai Monday, returning again on Wednesday. He found the situation just about as bad as Cockett had stated, and will recommend to the supervisors the erection of a small jail over there.

Weekly Market Letter

Honolulu, October 4.—The price of island eggs have dropped a little during the week and are more plentiful than they have been for the past two months. The price of poultry remains about the same as it was last week.

Maui red beans have sold well during the week and the price has advanced a trifle. A shipment of island Irish potatoes was received from Wailuku and sold for three twenty-five a hundred pounds.

There are plenty of sweet potatoes in the market which are selling for $1.10 to $1.25 a hundred.

Beef and veal were raised a cent a pound on the first of this month, while mutton and pork have remained the same.

Local producers are not sending enough cabbage to the Honolulu market, so it is being imported from the Coast.—O. B. LIGHTFOOT, Acting Superintendent.

Information For All Persons Registered

The official bulletin of information for persons registered for the draft arrived here Sunday and the important points should be read and remembered by everyone affected. There are twenty sections to the information, the following instructions being emphasized in respect to the first five:

1. Find out what board has your name and where the office of that board is.
2. If you intend to make a claim (for exemption) on industrial grounds including agriculture, learn what district board to apply to.
3. Inspect the list and inform yourself of your red-ink serial number.
4. Go to your local board and find out the order in which you stand for call.
5. Watch the lists at the office of your board and see when you are called for examination.

Under section 7 occurs this important information:

(a) No claim of discharge on account of the industry in which you are engaged can be decided by a local board. (See Par. XV below.)

(b) Whether you file a claim of exemption or not, you must present yourself for physical examination on the day named in the notice.

From the day notice that you are called is mailed and posted you have seven days in which you may file a claim of exemption or discharge. The form for filing this claim is simple. If you wish to file such a claim—

- (a) Go to the board and get Form 110 for exemption or Form 121 for discharge. If the board has not the printed forms ask to consult the form pamphlet and copy the form shown there.
- (b) Fill out the proper form and file it with the board.
- (c) Do this within seven days of the posting and mailing of notice to you to present yourself.

The following are the only grounds for exemption:

1. That you are an officer, legislative, executive, or judicial of the United States, a State or Territory, or the District of Columbia.
2. That you are a regular or duly ordained minister of religion.

3. That you were on May 18, 1917, a student preparing for the ministry in any recognized theological or divinity school.
4. That you are in the military or naval service of the United States.
5. That you are a subject of Germany, whether you have taken out papers or not.
6. That you are a resident alien who has not taken out first papers.

In addition to claims for exemption claims for discharge may be made on any of the following grounds, which are the only grounds for discharge by a local board.

1. That you are a county or municipal officer.
2. That you are a customhouse clerk.
3. That you are employed by the United States in the transmission of mails.
4. That you are an artificer or workman employed in an armory, arsenal, or navy yard of the United States.
5. That you are employed in the service of the United States (under certain conditions). See paragraph (e) of section 20, Regulations.
6. That you are a licensed pilot regularly employed in the pursuit of your vocation.
7. That you are a mariner actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States.
8. That you are a married man with a wife or child dependent on you for support.
9. That you have a widowed mother dependent on your labor for support.
10. That you have aged or infirm parents dependent upon your labor for support.
11. That you are the father of a motherless child under 16 dependent upon your labor for support.
12. That you are a brother of an orphan child or children under 16 dependent on your labor for support.
13. That you are a member of any well-recognized religious sect or organization organized and existent May 18, 1917, and whose then existing creed or principles forbade its members to participate in war in any form and whose religious convictions are against war or participation therein in accordance with the creed or principles of said religious organization.

These are the only grounds for exemption or discharge by a local board.

Another person can file a claim in your behalf, but must use different forms in filing the claim.

VIII.
TEN DAYS AFTER FILING CLAIM TO FILE PROOF.

Your claim of exemption or discharge must be filed within seven days of the day on which notice to you that you are called was posted and mailed. But after you have filed your claim for exemption or discharge you have ten days within which to file proof.

The method of proving claims is very simple but it is rather exact. If you follow the rules given below you will have done what is required of you.

First. Go to the local board and consult the regulations to find out the form number of the affidavits that you must submit for your particular claim.

Second. Ask the board for the blank affidavits that are necessary in presenting your proof; if the board has not the forms, ask to consult the pamphlet of forms.

Third. Have the affidavits properly accomplished and return them to the board within the time limit assigned you—10 days from the filing of your claim.

Remember:

- (a) You must submit your proof in the prescribed form and the board has no authority to exempt or discharge you unless you submit all the affidavits required by regulations.
- (b) There will be no argument before the board and no proof other than the prescribed affidavits unless the board calls for other proof which it will do in only a limited number of cases.

IX.
WHEN CLAIMS ARE DECIDED.

Every claim for discharge or exemption will be decided by the local board within three days after your affidavits have been filed.

X.
CERTIFICATE OF EXEMPTION OR DISCHARGE.

If your claim is allowed a certificate of exemption or discharge will be issued to you.

Remember:

- (a) This certificate may be recalled at any time.
- (b) If it is temporary or conditional, it becomes of no effect when the time or the condition named are fulfilled.

(c) You have been drawn for military service and when the condition that has postponed your posting to the colors ceases you may be recalled at any time.

(d) Remember that your case may still be appealed to the district board by the Government and on this appeal your certificate may be withdrawn at once. When so withdrawn you stand precisely as though you had been selected for military service by the local board.

XI.
ADVERSE DECISIONS ON CLAIM.

If your claim is disallowed by the local board your name will be certified and sent by the local board to the district board as one who has been called for military service and not exempted or discharged. Within two days thereafter, if practicable, a list of those so certified to the district board will be given to the press with a request for publication, will be posted in the offices of the local board accessible to the public view, and notice will be mailed to the address on your registration card.

Therefore, if you have filed a claim for exemption and proof in support thereof, watch the notices in the office of the local board beginning about five days after you have filed your proof to see what disposition was made of your case and make arrangements for the prompt receipt of mail.

XII.
HOW TO CLAIM APPEALS TO DISTRICT BOARDS

Claims of appeal may be made by a person within 10 days after the day when notice has been posted and mailed that such person's name has been certified to the district board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

Therefore if you desire to appeal—

1. Go to the local board and get or copy Form 153 or 154 for filing your claim of appeal.
2. Get or copy also Form 151 or 152 for notifying the district board of appeal.
3. File your claim of appeal (153 or 154) with the local board.
4. Send your notice of appeal (Form 151 or 152) to the district board.
5. Do this within 10 days from the day when notice that your name was certified to the district board was posted and mailed.

Remember:

1. You can only appeal the final order of the board exempting or discharging or refusing to exempt or discharge you. You can not appeal

Our Country's Second LIBERTY LOAN

A Liberty Bond is an INVESTMENT that every man and woman in the Territory should strive to make. It is by no means a donation. It is the highest class of investment in the world today, because it is so safe.

It is the promise of the United States of America to pay the sum for which the bond is issued. All the resources of the whole country lie back of that promise.

It pays a HIGHER RATE OF INTEREST, 4%, than any bond before issued by this country.

If a new issue of Liberty Bonds is issued to pay a higher rate, you can exchange the bond you buy now for one of the new ones, dollar for dollar.

The Liberty Bonds are issued so that our Country will have sufficient money to carry on the war against barbarism and bondage. The treasury MUST be kept filled. To assure this there must be a Liberty Bond in every Home.

Liberty Bonds give YOU the chance to help your country and HELP YOURSELF with a positive assurance that you will get your money back, WITH INTEREST.

$50 bonds paying 4% interest may be bought on these terms: $1 on application; $9 November 5th; $20 December 5th; $20 January 5th. Other denominations may be had also—$100, $500, $1000 and upwards. Any Bank, Trust Company, Plantation Office will receive your subscription and give information regarding the bonds.

This is a request for information—NOT an order.

other orders or action of the local board.

(XIII. and XIV. omitted.)

XV.

CLAIMS FOR DISCHARGE ON INDUSTRIAL GROUNDS

Only the district board can receive claims for discharge on the ground that you are engaged in industry, including agriculture found to be necessary to the maintenance of the military establishment...

Such claims must be filed with the district board on or before the fifth day after the mailing and posting of notice that you have been certified by the local board as one who has been called for service and not exempted or discharged.

If you desire to file such a claim:

- 1. Get or copy at the local or district board Form 161 or 161a.
2. Fill the form out properly.
3. File it with the district board within five days after the mailing and posting of notice that your name has been certified from the local board to the district board.

XVI.

PROOF IN SUPPORT OF INDUSTRIAL CLAIM.

Only affidavits can be used in filing proof before the district board of a claim for exemption on industrial grounds. All such affidavits must be filed within five days after the filing of the claim.

XVII.

DECISIONS OF DISTRICT BOARD ON INDUSTRIAL CLAIM.

Within five days after the closing of proof in any industrial claim the district board must decide the claim.

If the decision of the district board is in favor of the claim the board will issue a certificate of discharge. If the decision is against the claim the district boards will so notify you.

Remember that you have been called for military service and that the certificate of the district board is only conditional on your remaining in the kind of industrial service on account of which you were discharged. No such exemption shall continue when a cause therefor no longer exists and your certificate of discharge may be withdrawn or modified by the district board at any time that the district board shall determine that the circumstances require it.

XVIII.

APPEALS OF INDUSTRIAL CLAIM TO THE PRESIDENT.

Only decisions of district boards on industrial claims for discharges can be appealed.

If you desire to appeal the decision of the district boards to the President, you may do so within seven days of the date of mailing to you of the decision of the district board. To perfect your appeal—

- 1. Get or copy from the district or local board Form 163.
2. Fill out the form and file it with the district board.
3. Do this within seven days after the mailing of notice to you of the decision of the district board in your case.

XIX.

HOW YOU WILL BE NOTIFIED THAT YOU HAVE BEEN SELECTED FOR MILITARY SERVICE.

As soon as your case is finally disposed of, the adjutant general of your State will notify you by mail that you have been selected for military service.

Your local board will post a list of all persons selected for military service in a place at the office of the local boards accessible to public view. The local board will also give lists of persons selected for military service to the press with requests for publication.

XX.

Notice that you have been selected for military service will not necessarily order you into service.

The notice to report for military service will come when the Government is ready to receive you.

HILO'S CHAMPION BALL TOSSERS WILL BE HERE TOMORROW

The Y. M. I. Baseball Team which is to invade Wailuku, arriving here tomorrow morning. Standing, left to right: M. Baptist, p; W. Brown, 3b; J. G. Andrews, Manager; Yasuji Nakamura, p. Seated, left to right: R. H. Thomas, 1f; Ahina, sub. c; W. O. Watson, Capt. and c.; C. W. Cleveland, 2b; A. Kimi, rf. Bottom row, left to right: Boxer, ss; Carter, cf; Tourist Vieira, sub. and press agent.

The World's Series of Maui-Hawaii will commence tomorrow afternoon on the Wailuku ball grounds at 3:30 sharp, when the Y. M. I. team, champions of Hilo, clash with the All-Maui's in their initial game. The Hilo battery for this game will, in all probability, be Yasu, the Japanese wonder, pitch, and Watson, catch; as for Maui, it is undecided. Manager Paschoal has five reliable pitchers to pick from. This game will prove interesting as both teams want to land the first game of the series.

Much interest is centered on Sunday's game, as this contest gives promise of being a hummer, foretold as being a pitchers' battle. Baptist, the best bet of the Hilo's will do the hurling for the Y. M. I. visitors, with Watson at the receiving end. The All-Maui will have either Cockett or Bal to do the brunt work behind the bat, both being very good back-stops; with Foster Robinson, W. Bal, E. Wicke and Kugiya, to pick from to do the twirling. Bal may be slated to pitch Sunday's game, as he has shown his worth, and when working right, is invincible.

The rest of the positions will be taken care of by Jim Kahawini at the initial sack; Joe Rodrigues around the keystone garden; Sam Kaleo at the difficult corner with Wm. Duro at the short infield. In the outfield garden will be stationed, Akion, Joe Silva, the speed king, and David Wadsworth. The Maui ball-players have been practising this week, rounding themselves into form, and the way things look at present, they have turned into a splendid fighting machine, destined to outplay and outpoint the champions of the rainy city.

Can the Hilo champs beat this combination? See for yourself tomorrow, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. If they can, it would be advisable for them to challenge the winner of the Chicago-New York World's Series.

Tomorrow evening a basketball game between the Hilo Y. M. I. and Kahului will be staged at the Alexander House Gymnasium, followed by a dance with Miss Hoffmann's orchestra in attendance. This game will be a treat to the lovers of basketball, for both quintets are about evenly matched, Kahului shading a trifle better. The playing of Baptist, the Hilo star and all-around athlete, will be watched with much interest, as this boy is a wonderful basketball player; his position being forward. Another game will be played at the Gymnasium on Monday evening between the Y. M. I. and Gymn. quintet.

matches. Notice of entries for this tournament will be announced in the near future.

During the week the following mixed double matches were played: Engle-Conch defeated Weight-Rosecrans, 6-2 6-3; Schoenberg-Mylhand defeated Wicke-Robinson 6-0 6-1; Deibert-Wodehouse defeated Lindsay-Boym, 6-8 6-4 10-8; and Baldwin-MacAllister defeated Burns-McPhee, 6-8, 7-5 6-2. This last match proved to be the most exciting game so far played. Playing was started on last Friday afternoon but had to be called for darkness, with the score at nine all in the first set. Playing was renewed on Saturday afternoon with the first set going to Burns-McPhee, while the other two sets went to Baldwin-MacAllister only after some very hard and exciting fighting, especially on the part of the ladies as they were forced to receive the hard driving of the gentlemen players.

The Art Exhibition Of Mr. Christmas

The display of paintings and drawings by E. W. Christmas, R. B. A., now being held in the old Bailey building is attracting much attention and comment.

The collection comprises pictures of the Islands and Islands life and of Europe, New Zealand, South America, and Alaska. The most striking amongst the oils is the large canvas of Iao Valley "Sunnglits," which is full of beautiful light and color and true in expression and feeling of that delightful valley.

Sunset on the West Maui mountain from Puunene beach, and incoming tide at Hanauma bay, Oahu, are equally meritorious.

The water colors, especially of the island scenes, possess much fine and rare quality, both in work of art, in that medium, and truthful in color. The exhibition is a rare treat to Wailuku which is being fully appreciated by all art lovers on Maui. The pictures are now on view.

When Mother Lets Us Give a Party

Supervisors Visit Kula Sanitarium

Members of the board of supervisors, the county attorney and others went up to Kula Sanitarium this morning on a tour of inspection, returning around the noon hour. At the Sanitarium they met the managing board, by previous arrangement, and went thoroughly over the buildings, improvements and the farm. Everything was found to be in excellent shape.

The board resumed its session this afternoon and hopes to finish up today.

Visit Of Congressmen

According to the schedule as now arranged, the Congressional party will arrive at Lahaina by the Mauna Kea from Hilo on the night of Friday, November 16-17; and will sail from Lahaina for Honolulu by the same steamer on the night of Monday, Nov. 19-20. It is understood that an effort will be made to change the first part of this plan in order that the party may be landed at Kahului after daylight on the morning of the 17th; an entertainment of some sort and send-off being given the party at Lahaina on the night of the 19th.

Makawao Union Church

There will be vesper service at Makawao Union church Sunday evening, starting at 7 o'clock sharp. There will be special music by Miss Alice Harrison on the new organ, duets by local talent and selections by the choir. Those in charge make the following announcement: "We want everyone to come. Do not dress for church, but just step in and make yourself at home."
