Fire Destroys Puunene Camp 1 Teachers' Cottage

All Furniture And Much Of Personal Effects Go Up In Smoke
— Loss $3,000

ROBERT JUDD SLIGHTLY INJURED

An accidental fire completely destroyed the teachers' cottage at Camp 1, Puunene, between 3:30 and 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The building was completed at the end of August, just in time for the school opening, at a cost of something like $3,000. It was well furnished. All of the furniture and most of the private belongings of the teachers went up in smoke.

Accounts differ somewhat as to the origin of the fire, but not as to the main fact that it came from a small oil stove in the kitchen. The story, as it has been gathered, is that the employed Portuguese girl named Emily Meyers found that the oil container, just below and attached to the burner of the stove, was nearly empty. She took a small oil can and started to fill the container, with the usual result. When the blaze started it is claimed that the girl dashed water on it, causing it to spread.

At that juncture Robert Judd called at the cottage to interview the young

CONSERVATION IS CONSIDERED BY MAUI WOMEN

Reports From The Field Of Very Encouraging Nature—Paper Read And Officers Are Elected For The Ensuing Period

A meeting of the Maui Women's Food Conservation Commission was held at the Kahului Community House last Saturday at 3 p. m. There were sixty-seven present.

The report of a meeting of the Oahu Women's Food Conservation Commission, held in Honolulu on Oct. 15th, was read and ordered placed on file.

A very comprehensive report from Mrs. W. A. Clark, of the Makawao district, was read and approved. Mrs. Clark reported: "In a great many cases, especially among the Japanese and Portuguese, I find that they raise the greater portion of their own necessities, and I also find that the Japanese much prefer their own bread and rice bread to wheat or rye bread. In a great many cases it is practically impossible to show these people how they can further economize, as, owing to the low wages which the majority of the bread-winners receive, and the present high cost of living, they have to economize in every way possible. For instance, it is not in-

SWIMMING MEET AT PUUNENE A PLEASING AFFAIR

Wailuku Girls Win, But Highs Carry Off Total Contest In Matter Of Points

LARGE CROWD WITNESSES EVENTS

The swimming meet at Puunene Saturday evening, in which the Maui High School and Wailuku Gymnasium competed for points, was a most delightfully interesting affair, enjoyed by a large number of people. The events started about 8 o'clock and lasted until shortly after 10.

The first event was the 25-yard dash for boys, and was won by the High School. Nils Tavares, first; Willie Kallhua, second; Ted. Hair, third. Time, 13 seconds.

In the same race for girls, honors were divided, Corrine Wilbur, of Wailuku, taking first place; Dessie Lindsay, of the Highs, second, and Mary Hart, Wailuku, third. Time, 16 seconds.

The 25-yard underwater race for boys was very close between several competitors, Enos, who took the place of Frank de Rego on the Wailuku team, nosing out ahead. Sevath Boyum and Nils Tavares, Highs, second and third. Time, 20 seconds.

Honors were divided again in the

Entertainment Of The Congressmen

Entire Party Will Be Quartered At Hotels — Trip To Haleakala The Main Feature

The committee on entertainment of the visiting congressmen held one meeting this week and mapped out a sort of tentative plan. Senator Baldwin will go to the city tonight, returning Sunday morning, and the program may be amended somewhat upon his return.

As now outlined, the committee, consisting of R. A. Wadsworth, chairman; F. F. Baldwin, Wm. Walsh and D. H. Case, secretary, will go to Lahaina next Friday evening to meet the party, arriving from Hilo at 11 o'clock, bring the Congressmen and others accompanying them to Wailuku, where they will be quartered for the night at the three hotels.

It is expected that the visitors will wish to rest late Saturday morning, so it is planned to make the start for Haleakala at 11 o'clock, taking lunch at Idlewild (Olinda) or some other place enroute. The night would be spent on the mountain, returning for luncheon at the Grand Hotel, Wailuku. The afternoon is left open for the present. The schedule of the steamer calls for her departure at 5 p. m. that day, but this may be changed to 6.

The assumption is that the Congressmen will be accompanied on

Maui Music Club

The annual meeting of the club was held at the home of Mrs. J. P. Foster in Hamakua. The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year:

President, Mrs. W. O. Aiken; Vice-President, Miss Blanche Mast; Sec-Treas., Mrs. Geo. Aiken; Chairman Program Committee, Mrs. J. J. Hair. The subject of the afternoon's program was "A Review of the Year's Work," and there were songs, musical selections and guessing contests.

Gamblers By Wholesale

During Saturday night the police rounded up four sets of Japanese gamblers, there being 17 men in all. With one accord, they fought shy of the court on Monday, forfeiting bail in the total sum of $107.50.

Farewell Concert

The Puunene band will give a farewell concert to the National Guardsmen at Kahului Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3:30, after which the band will play the sodier boys off on the steamer.

Five Horse Races Are Set For December 1

Angus McPhee and Frank B. Cameron have practically completed the program for the race meet which they intend pulling off on the Kahului track on the afternoon of Saturday, December 1, beginning at 2 o'clock. There will be five races and all of them will be good. The purses will total $600.

It is not planned to make any money on the meet, the idea being merely to keep the sport alive and give the public an afternoon of good racing. For that reason, the promoters announce that the net profit, whatever it may be, will be turned over to the Red Cross.

There will be two races between Japanese horses, the winner of each event to receive $100.

The free-for-all will carry a purse of $150 and will call out some well known horses that are now in training for the race meet in Honolulu on New Year's Day. Mary J. will be entered by Angus McPhee, Copra, by Dr. Fitzgerald, and a third racer will come from the von Tempyky stables.

For the Portuguese race there will be a purse of $100 and the remaining will be put on a cowboy race.

This, it is thought, will round out a program which will be very enjoyable.

High School Cadets In Camp Tomorrow

The cadets of the Maui High School will go into camp at Puunene at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, breaking camp again at 4 in the afternoon. This is the usual annual affair. The instruction will be in charge of Sergeant George A. Wetzel, U. S. A., the schedule for the day being as follows: Physical drill, 10 minutes. Company close order, 10 minutes. Squad drill, 10 minutes. Squad drill with arms, 10 minutes. Signal drill, 20 minutes. Extended order, 20 minutes. Attack on camp, 20 minutes. First aid drill, 5 minutes. Breaking camp, 15 minutes. An invitation is extended to the public to witness the instruction.

The Telephone Deal

In all likelihood the pending deal, mentioned last week, for amalgamation of the Maui Telephone Company with the Mutual, of Honolulu, will go through. At Honolulu the Mutual has approved a new issue of stock to cover the stock to be turned in by holders in the Maui, and it now seems probable that nothing further will stand in the way of the deal. The arrangement will not affect in any important way the present plan of running the local system.

Korean Robs Friend And Slips Away Home

Hong Chee Pung, a Wailuku Korean, was arrested upon the arrival of the Claudine at Kahului from Hana on a charge of larceny.

It seems that Pung went to Hana on business and stopped for a week at the house of a friend, another Korean. When he left the friend found that $4 in cash, a suit of clothes and underclothing were missing. The police were notified and, when arrested, Pung confessed to have stolen the property.

Missner Stops Home

The Maui exemption board held a meeting Wednesday to pass upon the case of Dr. Missner, who claimed exemption from the selective draft for health reasons. Dr. Missner was drafted at San Francisco. Two physicians examined Dr. Missner and agreed that he should be excused, which will be done.

Mrs. Wadsworth Honored

Mrs. W. H. Engle honored Mrs. David Wadsworth with a linen shower Saturday afternoon, the affair coming as a surprise to the latter. The house had been prettily decorated for the occasion and about sixty invitations sent out. Girlie Chillingworth and her brother "Buddy" brought in the basket of mementoes, and the opening of the packages was a pleasing feature of the afternoon. After refreshments, bridge and dominoes were taken up.

Wireless Accident

Owing to the breaking of some of the wiring at the Lahaina wireless station by the wind late yesterday the service was disrupted for two or three hours. At about 7:30, however, everything was in good shape again.

Supervisors Hold Monthly Sessions

The Board of Supervisors began their October sessions at 2:10 Wednesday afternoon, Mr. Kalama in the chair, all being present except Mr. Drummond. A big batch of communications and reports, after being read, went to the files to be taken up later.

With Engle-Couch defeating Schenberg-Myhand there remains only the semi-finals and finals to be played in the mixed doubles.

The semi-final matches to be played this coming week are Engle-Couch vs. Sawyer-Chillingworth and McKenzie-McNecke vs. Baldwin-McAllister.

Judge Edings this morning sustained two points in the demurrer of defendants in the water controversy of John Keao, et al., vs. Olowalu Sugar Co., bill for injunction, and five days were allowed petitioners in which to file an amended complaint. The points sustained were (1) Misjoinder of party petitioners and cause of action; (2) Allegations are indefinite and uncertain as they do not show title or right of petitioners to any water or water right lands. ## Petition Of Hindu For Naturalization

Unusual Case Has A Day In Judge Edings' Court—U. S. Attorney Defends

The petition of Sanrangahadhar Das, a Hindu chemist in the employ of the Maui Agricultural Co., for the rights of American citizenship came on for hearing in Judge Edings' court Saturday morning, C. C. Biting appearing for the petitioner and U. S. Attorney S. C. Huber for the U. S. government, contesting. J. P. Foster and H. A. Baldwin testified as to the term of residence and character of the petitioner.

The point involved was whether or not the person could qualify for citizenship under the terms of the law, which provides that right to "free white" persons or persons of African descent. Mr. Das laid no claims to being of African descent. On the witness stand he stated that he belonged to the Aryan race, a superior caste, and told of the migrations of his race into India.

Mr. Huber quoted a number of decisions, but six were each way on the question at immediate issue. The

American Instructor For Japanese Girls

On Wednesday an important meeting of the Wailuku Japanese Girls' Home Committee was held at the office of the Maui Aid Association for the purpose of considering the possibility of securing an American worker. One or two candidates in the islands were considered, but none of those who seemed possibilities were well known in the Territory or were able to accept the position that is now being created. This was a disappointment, as it was hoped that some one could be obtained at once for the work.

It was voted to try to secure Miss Lucina Thompson of Herkimer, N. Y. Miss Thompson is a graduate of Mount Holyoke College, 1913, where she obtained high honors for scholarship. She is especially fitted by her training and disposition to undertake the work at the Girls' Home, and the Committee were unanimous in their desire to secure her for the position. She will be called the American worker in the home, and will also superintend the sewing and cooking classes. The committee hope to be able to obtain her by the first of the new year, and intend fitting up one of the large rooms in the new building for her home.

Petition Of Hindu For Naturalization

court called attention to a decision of a circuit court holding that a Parsee was entitled to citizenship, overruling two decisions of U. S. district courts as to the same man. Mr. Huber tried to establish a distinction between a Parsee and a Hindu.

Mr. Bitting cited a decision of a Washington or Oregon court holding that a high caste Hindu who testified that he belonged to the Aryan race, with blood unminged, was entitled to citizenship as a "free white" person; and a second case in Los Angeles in which the man was admitted, Judge Morris, T. Doelling, of San Francisco, admitting another Hindu to citizenship on the same decision. Mr. Bitting filed briefs, based upon material furnished largely by the petitioner, giving the genealogy of his race (the Hindu's, of course) and authorities of writers on the subject.

The court took the matter under advisement and will render a written decision later.

Before adjournment Mr. Huber announced that if the decision were against the United States he would take the matter to the higher courts for review.

Organ Recital, 7:30 preceding the usual service.

Adult Bible Class, which is studying "The History and Literature of the Old Testament," under the leadership of Miss Gertrude B. Judd, meets at 6:15 on Sunday evening.

The regular Sunday School session 9:45 to 10:35, Sunday morning.

Red Cross Class meets Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

"Bright Monday" Club Friday afternoon directly after school at the church Sunday School rooms. Evening Club for High School pupils meets at the homes of the pupils Friday evenings.

To the services of this church every one is most cordially invited.

KAHALUI UNION CHURCH

Ellis E. Pleasant, Minister.

On Sunday evening November 11, at 7:30 at the regular church service the pastor will speak on the subject, "The Message of the Ant." This service will be especially for the young people. A male chorus will sing a special number.

The Sunday-school session will be at the usual hour 10 o'clock in the morning.

There was a good attendance at the church last Sunday evening at the special service commemorating the 400th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. A specially prepared order of service was used, the choir of the church leading the hymns. A duet by Mr. Hoopli and Mr. Pleasant was very effectively rendered.

The usual services will be held, as follows:

Holy Communion, in the morning, at 8 o'clock. Morning Prayers at 11 o'clock. Sermon on: "What the world needs."

A welcome to all; strangers invited. The Sunday School, held in the Parish house in the morning at 10 o'clock, is open to all.

MAKAWAO UNION CHURCH

Rev. A. Craig Bowdish, Minister. 10:00 Sunday school.

11:00 Morning Service. Theme, "Our Skyline".

7:30 Vesper Service. A large share of the hour will be given to the singing of familiar hymns.

UNION SERVICE SUNDAY

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock there will be a union service at the Japanese Christian Church. The Wailuku Union, Kaahumanu and Chinese Churches are invited to unite with the Japanese Church in this special service. It is expected that Rev. Frank S. Scudder, of Honolulu, will be on Maui and preach the sermon in English.

To this service all are cordially invited.

BIBLE STUDY AND BRIGHT MONDAY CLUBS

Every Sunday evening between 6:15 and 7:00 o'clock a Bible Study class is held at Wailuku Union church.

The Introductory course on the "Structure of the Old Testament" has been completed, and the main work, "The History and Literature of the Old Testament" has been begun.

During the winter months the work of the class for the class hour will center around the Old Testament period of the world's history, which, if it is not very familiar, is as fascinating as it is obscure. All who are interested in this new course are cordially invited.

The Bright Monday club meets at Wailuku Union Church every Friday afternoon at two o'clock directly after the closing of the public school. At this time all pupils who have home work to prepare for Monday are urged to meet with Miss Judd and get their lessons out of the way at once. Owing to smallness of table space in the Sunday school rooms it is necessary to give preference to Wailuku Union Church School pupils, but others are welcome as long as there is sufficient accommodations. Everyone knows how difficult it is to get week-end home work accomplished. Unprepared, or poorly prepared, home work means a blue, not a Bright Monday. Will not all the mothers of Wailuku Union Church School children cooperate with the Sunday School, by urging their children to stop at the church on Friday afternoons?

A second Bright Monday Club is now being arranged for High School pupils under the direction of Miss Cramer. The club will meet on Friday evenings in the homes of the various members of the club. Anyone wishing to join the Club will please communicate with Miss Cramer, to learn the place of meeting.

At Makawao Union

Last Sunday the Rev. A. Craig Bowdish centered the attention of his congregation on Jesus' parable that the Kingdom of God is like leaven or yeast which is put into dough, making it light and palatable. Jesus' truth and spirit was numerically small when it entered into the life and ferment of that time. By the time of Luther this leaven had so spread that the works of Michael Angelo and Raphael were greatly influenced by it. One of the great thoughts of Columbus was to carry the Gospel to peoples who did not know of Christ.

Several editions of the Bible were among the first products of the newly invented printing by movable types. Today the Great War is not because of Christianity, but in spite of it. Missions, the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the moral and social welfare of our soldiers are all evidences of the Christian leaven in the hearts and spirit of men and women of today. Democracy is the realization of the rights and worth of the other person. The soldier not only has a body, but his morale, his spirit and human ties are even more important. Everywhere is seen the direct influence of this leaven in the ideals, the co-operation, the willing sacrifice of men and women for the good of others who are less fortunate.

The Kahului Ladies' Aid will hold a cheap sale at the Community House Saturday Nov. 10 beginning at 8 o'clock the morning and lasting until all the things are sold.

MR. VILLIERS' SERMON

At the Church of the Good Shepherd, last Sunday morning, the Rector, Rev. J. Charles Villiers, preached on: "Repentance and Reconciliation," from the text: "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ. II Cor., 5. 18.

He made extended reference to Martin Luther, and the part Luther played 400 years ago, in rescuing from the oblivion into which it had fallen, the true doctrine of "Repentance and Reconciliation." For many centuries the Holy Roman Church had given place to undesirable practices in connection with her doctrine of the forgiveness of sins, among which, perhaps, the sale of "indulgences" was the least in harmony with the teaching of our Lord.

For many centuries before Luther's day the sale of indulgences had obtained in the Roman Church to a greater or less extent. But at no earlier time had it become the general evil it was in Luther's day. Pope Leo 10th. was in the papal chair. He was a great lover of art, and it is said, of personal luxury. His predecessor, Pope Julius II, had begun building the great Church of St. Peter's, Rome, from plans of Michael Angelo. But he left the work incomplete, his funds having run out. Pope Leo conceived the idea of extending the custom of selling indulgences, and of using the proceeds to continue and complete the building of St. Peter's. He put this idea into practice with the result that there was, so to speak, a wholesale disposal of them. This aroused the righteous indignation of Martin Luther, and he both preached and wrote against a practice so pernicious, pointing out that the forgiveness of sin could never be secured from God by the possession of a scrap of paper called an "Indulgence." True pardon, he vehemently contended, by voice and pen, comes to us only from God in response to true repentance. We are reconciled to God, not by deeds of merit, but by grace, and this grace is ours not for the asking but is our moment we, in the mood of a true repentance, turn to God, as the prodigal turned to his father, and say: "Father, I have sinned against thee".

There may be, and often is, a world of difference in saying "I have sinned" and saying "I have been detected in my sin". The one represents the mood of sorrow for sin, the other annoyance, and it may be something worse, that our sin has been "found out."

No better definition of true repentance is there, perhaps, than in Isaiah's words: "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, for he will have mercy, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon." That was the doctrine of Martin Luther when four hundred years ago, by his caustic preaching and writing, he defied the Pope and his satellites to prove that "Indulgences" were consistent with "repentance and reconciliation" as the same are taught by Jesus Christ.

Close Of Convention

The convention of chemists and mill engineers came to an end Friday evening with a banquet at the Commercial Club, Honolulu, which proved to be a very enjoyable affair. Prior to the feast, officers were elected for the ensuing period. Only one Maui man was on the list, Hamilton McCubbin, mill engineer of Pioneer, being chosen one of the directors at large.

The convention lasted several days and resulted in a number of technical papers and discussion of interest to engineers and chemists.

Noblesse Oblige

In the privacy of his home the village butcher was telling his wife of the arrival of a new summer resident.

"She came in today," he said, with enthusiasm, "and I can tell you she's a real lady, brought up select and exclusive. She don't know one cut o' meat from another, nor veal from mutton."—Christian Register.

A well-known banker in a downtown restaurant was eating mush and milk.

"What's the matter?" inquired a friend.

"Got dyspepsia."

"Don't you enjoy your meals?"

"Enjoy my meals?" snorted the indignant dyspeptic. "My meals are merely guide-posts to take medicine before or after."—Illustrated Sunday Magazine.

frequent to run across a Portuguese family of eight or ten with only the husband earning anything (excepting during vacations,) existing on wages not exceeding $40.00 per month. Since the increase in the cost of flour I find that corn meal is being used extensively in its place, chiefly among the Portuguese. There is a corn mill in Kula which is turning out corn-meal and corn-flour from corn grown in that district.

Mrs. MacDonald, of the Lahaina district, reported: "I have visited and spoken on Conservation at all the schools in the Lahaina district. I find the principals and the teachers interested and willing to co-operate in this work, and they told me that while they have taken the matter of Conservation up with their pupils, they felt that the coming in of an outsider would emphasize what they had already told them. I have, in season and out of season, tried to emphasize the necessity of using home-products, wasting nothing, and using every scrap of fat, instead of using lard and crisco; instead of buying tinned meats and fish, bacon and ham, I have urged the getting of fresh meat and fish. A number of families are using brown sugar instead of white, and have cut down the amount used."

Miss Adela Adams, of the Kula district, reported that she had visited the school impressing upon the minds of the children the importance of the "clean plate" and substituting "home-products" for wheat bread.

Miss Crook reported that the Makawao Bakery was willing to make Graham bread if shown how. Steps are being taken whereby said baker many receive this instruction.

Mrs. Krauss reported that a great variety of upland taro had been raised at Haku, but on account of the lack of rain, a much smaller amount had been raised this year than previous.

Mrs. Crowell, of the Wailuku district, reported that she had visited most of the families and they were doing all they could to conserve food; most of them were raising vegetables.

Mrs. A. C. Bowdish, chairman, reported as follows:
Twenty-three schools have been visited.

A demand for Graham bread has been created in Paia, which is being met by the Paia Store, the manager requesting that consumers place their order for Graham bread in advance, that there may be no stale bread left on their hands and wasted.

Mr. MacPhee, of the Paia Meat Market, was willing to store and deliver 200 lbs. of fresh fish, provided it is obtainable and there is a demand for it.

"Let us emphasize the importance of the little, common place things that count and make the most of every opportunity to save and share."

"One of our problems to guard against, is the question of the under-nourished families, and when urging people to cut out different kinds of food, we must not appeal to the under-nourished children in the schools and families in the homes, but we can ask them not to waste and may be able to help them find island products which will take the place of more expensive food. Twenty-two million families in America are now living so near the bread-line that they cannot further economize. Therefore, it behooves all those more fortunately situated to "Save and Share."

The Territorial Food Commission have announced that Wednesday, November 21st, will be known as "Wheatless Day," and every Wednesday thereafter.

An interesting paper on "Conservation and Economic Efficiency," was read by Mrs. D. Case.

The following committees were appointed:
Food Demonstration Committee

Finance Committee
Mrs. W. D. Baldwin, Mrs. S. A. Baldwin, Mrs. Seaby, Mrs. M. Hair, Mrs. F. B. Cameron.

The Alexander House Kindergarten room was kindly offered by Mr. Matthews for the next meeting, which will be held in a month's time.

Mrs. Bowdish, chairman, announced that there was "War Food" on exhibition, with accompanying recipes the food to be sampled by those present.

THE LANSING-ISHII AGREEMENT

The agreement reached between Secretary Lansing, on behalf of the United States, and Viscount Ishii, acting for the government of Japan, is a matter of especial interest to us in these islands. Boiled down, it means that the assertion by Japan of a sort of "Monroe Doctrine" principle as to China is approved, in consideration for the "open door", respect for existing treaties and fair-play in China; and it means, further, and most important to us here, peace and safety in the Pacific for an indefinite time.

That the agreement will be looked upon with suspicion and criticized by some, goes without saying. But, why, pray? Since Monroe's famous message to Congress on December 2, 1823, we have maintained a far more monopolizing attitude, not only in respect to our own continent but also as to the continent to the south of us. Japan has never been unfaithful to her agreements, and we have no reason to fear that she will prove unfaithful in this instance. The United States has no designs upon any territory in Asia; therefore, it seems to us that Japan's guarantee of the integrity of China and the "open door" in that republic should fully satisfy us. If the agreement is as we now understand it to be, we hope that it will be formally approved by both governments without delay.

THE DEFEAT OF MITCHELL

The election for mayor of New York this week excited almost as much interest on Maui as did the recent battle for the world's championship in baseball. As between Mitchell, the independent Democratic candidate, and Hylan, representing the Tammany-Hearst wing of the Democratic party, Maui's wagers were on the former; and the landslide in favor of Judge Hylan was even more of a surprise locally than was the Waterloo of the Giants a few weeks ago.

The defeat of Mayor Mitchell removes him, perhaps, from the list of presidential possibilities. For months some of the magazines and many newspapers had been grooming him for the race three years hence, but it is doubtful that he will be able to emerge from the snow-slide, which struck him on Tuesday, for a long time to come. Judge Hylan is said to be a very excellent man, but with Hearst and Tammany as his chief sponsors the nation will be impressed with the fact that he is not over-particular as to the company he keeps.

GERMAN-AMERICAN LOYALTY

A pamphlet has just been issued in the east entitled "American Loyalty, by Citizens of German Descent," in which occurs articles by leading citizens of German birth or extraction, expressing in very interesting manner their position in the great crisis between the country of their nativity and the country of their adoption. The following frank statement, by C. Kotzenabe, is the first in the series:

My emotions tell me one thing at this awful time, but my reason tells me another. As a German by birth it is a horrible calamity that I may have to fight Germans. That is natural, is it not? But as an American by preference, I can see no other course open.

For 25 years, Germany has shown dislike for the United States—the Samoan affair, the Hongkong contretemps, the Manila Bay incident, the unguarded words of the Kaiser himself, and, lastly, the Haitian controversy in 1914 * * *. And it has not been from mere commercial or diplomatic friction. It is because their ideals of government are absolutely opposite. One or the other must go down. It is for us to say now which it shall be.

Because of my birth and feelings beyond my control I have no particular love for the French and less for the British. But by a strange irony of fate I see those nations giving their blood for principles which I hold dear, against the wrong principles of people I individually love. It is a very unhappy paradox, but one I can not escape. I do not want to see the allies triumph over the land of my birth. But I very much want to see the triumph of the ideas they fight for.

It sickens my soul to think of this Nation going forth to help destroy people many of whom are bound to me by ties of blood and friendship. But it must be so. It is like a dreadful surgical operation. The militaristic, undemocratic demon which rules Germany must be cast out. It is for us to do it—now. I have tried to tell myself that it is not our affair, that we should have contented ourselves with measures of defense and armed neutrality. But I know that is not so. The mailed fist has been shaken under our nose before. If Prussianism triumphs in this war the fist will continue to shake. We shall be in real peril, and those ideas for which so much of the world's best blood has been spilled through the centuries will be in danger of extinction. It seems to me common sense that we begin our defense by immediate attack when the demon is occupied and when we can command assistance.

There is much talk of what people like me will do, and fear of the hyphen. No such thing exists. The German-American is as staunch as the American of adoption of any other land and perhaps more so. Let us make war upon Germany, not from revenge, not to uphold hairsplitting quibbles of international law, but let us make war with our whole heart and with all our strength, because Germany worships one god and we another and because the lion and the lamb can not lie down together. One or the other must perish. Let us make war upon the Germany of the Junkerthum, the Germany of frightfulness, the Germany of arrogance and selfishness, and let us swear not to make peace until the Imperial German Government is the sovereign German people.

SHOULD SAVE BONUS MONEY

The bonus of 78 percent, to be paid to plantation laborers this month and next is unprecedented in this country, and will come as an immense windfall to the workers in the canefields.

Surely no one begrudges them a penny. At the same time we cannot be unmindful of the growing tendency among laborers to spend this bonus money lavishly. The Japanese consul last year found many instances of the most flagrant prodigality among them as the result of this sudden, additional wealth, and the probabilities are that the same thing will be repeated next month.

Language papers of the laborers would perform a worthy service by cautioning the beneficiaries under the bonus system that the payment of this extra money is temporary only, and that they should strive to save as much as possible. Sooner or later sugar will go down in price, and the time will come when the payment of a bonus will be impossible. By saving now laborers will feel more comfortable and better satisfied when "times" are different.

SUGAR RESPONDED PROMPTLY

It is notable that in his efforts to get at facts regarding food supply conditions, the national administrator found the sugar interests the most ready and willing of all to co-operate with him. Of the matter, Facts About Sugar says:

"As is suggested in our Washington correspondence published on another page, the work of the Food Administration in dealing with the sugar situation to date presents a truly remarkable record of rapid progress and efficient achievement. Within two months of its establishment practically complete plans for handling the sugar supply have been formulated and put into operation. Half the country is already enjoying cheaper sugar as a result of the steps that have been taken and there is prospect that the other half will receive similar benefit within a reasonable time.

"For all this Mr. Hoover and his aides deserve credit. The savings which consumers are realizing daily on their sugar bills give testimony to the efficiency with which this part of their task has been accomplished. At the same time it must not be overlooked that the prompt accomplishment of these results has been made possible by the whole-hearted co-operation of the representatives of the sugar industry in the plans put forward by the Food Administration. American sugar producers offered to place their industry at the service of the Nation long before the legislation providing for food control was enacted, and they have not failed to meet promptly and fully every demand that has been made upon them in fulfillment of this offer. Mr. Hoover himself has given unstinted praise to the sugar industry for the spirit in which it has responded to the call to national service."

CAPTURE OF ANCIENT GAZA

Gaza, the city captured by the British on Wednesday, is an ancient town, figuring in history for many centuries. It is in Syria, fifty miles from Jerusalem and on the main road from Egypt to Damascus. Gaza has famous bazaars and markets, has many potteries and is a depot for barley. The district of which it is the capital occupies the southwest corner of Syria, with the Mediterranean on the west and the valley of the Jordan and the Dead Sea on the east. The city of Gaza has a population of 35,000, composed of every race known in that part of the world; and more dogs than Kaunakakai. It is quite plain that one of the objectives of the British is Jerusalem, and in all human probability, following the fall of Gaza, they will reach and occupy that city very soon.

To our mind the command to be given the selective draftees of the Islands will be, in effect, like this: "Right shoulder hoes; backward to the canefields, guide right. March!"

THE LATEST COLLAPSE OF RUSSIA

The overthrow of the Kerensky government at Petrograd yesterday is the most serious happening in that country since the Czar was sent into exile. It is distinctly a triumph of the peace party, and if the new government to be set up is able to keep its legs for long there will undoubtedly be an effort to break the war pacts with Britain and France and to conclude a separate peace with Germany. Before this comes about, however, Russia will quite likely experience an internal upheaval such as she has never known before—a revolution filled with the most momentous consequences.

The effect of the bloodless overthrow of the Russian government upon the general trend of events, however, will be next to nil. The United States and the European Allies sometime ago ceased to consider Russia as of any great value in the war, and she has been, on the other hand, an interminable expense and nuisance. At the beginning she was of great value, but the instability of her internal conditions led to costly miscalculations, and matters have gone rapidly from bad to worse.

The harmful feature of Russian suicide lies in the encouragement it will give to the German people, already buoyed by Teuton successes at the border of Italy. With their feet firmly planted in the Italian feed trough and the bear of the north busy biting at his own wounds, the German heart will be thrilled with a new hope, which will find expression in greater enthusiasm and more determined resistance along the western front. The American eagle is arriving upon the latter scene at a most opportune moment.

It will be interesting to note what attitude, if any, Japan will take in the Russian emergency. In view of the nose-rubbing act of a few days ago at Washington, perhaps she might now feel inclined to take Russia's place on the eastern, European front.

Italy says that the United States can best aid her by declaring war on Austria, and if that be so we see no reason why the request should not be complied with. The presence of German forces in Italy fully justifies the aid which America will speedily render the latter country, and inasmuch as Austria is allied with Germany in the present attempts at invasion it would be splitting hairs to longer distinguish between "bad friend" and "enemy." If a formal declaration of war on Austria will help Italy, let us declare war.

The campaign of the British in Palestine brings into the daily news a test of our knowledge of biblical names. Doubtless in many an American home the Sunday School children of the family will have a long-delayed inning, in explaining to the older folk the progress of the invaders.

That Arizona bull may have outrun William Jennings Bryan, but we'll wager that he cannot out bellow the famous ex-pacifist.

their rounds by quite a few Islands people, but no line can now be had on how many or whom. The following is a list of the Washington visitors, very nearly, if not all, of whom, will be here:

Senators Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona, Henry L. Myers of Montana, William King of Utah, Miles Poindexter of Washington and William H. Thompson of Kansas.

Representatives Bland, Indiana; Geo. M. Bowers, West Virginia; Jas. P. Buchanan, Texas; John A. Elston, California; Wm. H. Carter, Massachusetts; Thomas Gallagher, Illinois; Goodall, Maine; Wm. Gordon, Ohio; E. Lundeen, Minnesota; Jas. C. McLaughlin, Michigan; Jas. V. McClintic, Oklahoma; Chas. A. Nichols, Michigan; Edmund Platt, New York; Chas. F. Reavie, Nebraska; Henry W. Temple, Pennsylvania; Allen T. Treadway, Massachusetts; Benjamin F. Welty, Ohio.

In addition there will be Angus Ely, secretary to Delegate Kuhio, who is in charge of the party, and Wm. Hess, of the United States department of agriculture.

Plantation Laborers To Get Large Bonus

Plantation labor will this year get a bonus of 78 percent, which is much the largest ever paid. Royal D. Mead, director of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Bureau of Labor and Statistics, has worked out the bonus and has issued the following announcement regarding it:

"The average of the daily New York market price for 96 deg. centrifugal sugar, duty paid, for the year ending October 31, 1917, was 6.098 cents per pound or $121.96 per ton. At $121 per ton the bonus to plantation laborers would be 76.5 per cent. At $122 per ton the bonus rate would be 78 per cent.

"A bonus of 78 per cent has therefore been determined. It will be payable to the laborers on the plantations of Oahu and Hawaii in November and on Kauai and Maui in December.

"The wage and bonus questions will be considered at the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' association to be held December third."

The bonus record since the system was established is as follows:

Ten months to October 31, 1912, 13 per cent.
Year ending October 31, 1913, 1 per cent.
Year ending October 31, 1914, 5 per cent.
Year ending October 31, 1915, 20 per cent.
Year ending October 31, 1916 (average) 52.95 per cent.

Maui Baseballers May Play On Oahu

Maui will have a number of baseball players in the National Guard camp on Oahu, and, according to reports arriving here from Honolulu, they are liable to run into a challenge at once upon arrival there. Of the matter, a Honolulu paper says:

"Plans have already been made for sports for the coming encampment of the National Guard of Hawaii. The life of the camp will probably be too short for a variety of sports and baseball will naturally be the one game to be played.

"Bill Inman has already organized the Machine Gun Company team and is out with a deft to meet the teams of the guard from the outside islands during their stay on Oahu.

"Here is the list of players Inman has signed up:

"Wadsworth of Punahou, catcher; Bill Inman, pitcher; Bill Janssen, first base; Chinito Moriyama, second base; Swan, third base; Joe Kauli, shortstop; 'Haoie' Sumner, left field; Bill Paty, center field, and 'Blue' Fraser, right field. Inman's list has still a bunch of other men.

"This looks like a formidable aggregation. Maui will probably have a good team and so will Hawaii. Kauai may also come through with a nine." (Alfred Wadsworth, of Punahou, is a Wailuku boy.)

MARRIAGE LICENSES

The following marriage licenses have been issued in Wailuku district since last report:

Frank Aldonius, Keahua, 22; Bella Crahorodo, Keahua, 17.

Joseph Calahorrado, Keahua, 55; Dolores Alburiz, Keahua, 50.

Joseph Akina, Kahului, 21; Mary Wing Hee, Kahului, 21.

RED CROSS ITEMS

Red Cross units can be found at work nearly every day in the week in the various districts of Maui. On Monday at Pala and Kahului, on Wednesday at Wailuku, on Thursday at Haiku, on Friday at Kahului, Puunene, Wailuku and Kula and on Saturday at Lahaina.

Puunene Unit reports an average attendance of fifteen women, a good amount of work accomplished, and a growing interest (on the outside among the laboring classes) in the Red Cross.

As all roller bandages are to be made in the future at the factories, Kahului Unit is to discontinue making them and make other bandages instead.

The work at the schools is progressing well. Hamakuapoko Kindergarten children turned in a number of pillows last week. The work from other schools is coming in by degrees.

Lahaina Items

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Krauss and family, of Haiku, were in Lahaina on Sunday, the guests of Mr. Howell and his mother.

Mrs. Gossin, of Baldwin House, spent the week end with Mrs. Robertson, at Honolulu.

Mrs. Annie Howell went over to Kahului on Saturday to attend the meeting on Food Conservation, which was held in the Community House there.

Mr. Uahinui, the Molokai member of the Board of Supervisors, was in Lahaina on Wednesday.

Notes Of The Schools

Maui teachers will be interested to know that Mr. Kinney, superintendent of education, was a passenger aboard the Tenyo Maru when that steamer was wrecked near Japan a few days ago. He was coming home on the Tenyo. Mr. Kinney had quite an exciting experience, but landed safely in Japan. Just when he will now be able to get home is not definitely known, but it will probably not be before early in December.

Supervising Principal Raymond has been promoted to a first lieutenant in the National Guard and as a penalty for the honor has been ordered to go with the Wailuku company, leaving Sunday afternoon, to the training camp on Oahu. He expects to be relieved on November 29 and to be back here just in time to attend the teachers' convention.

The completed program for the teachers' convention will be ready in a day or two.

Miss Annie Ching, of the Lahaina, school has been granted a month's leave of absence. It will be remembered that Miss Ching lost her mother a short time ago.

A. C. Perriera, vocational instructor of Pala, and Joseph Cravalho, principal of the Kealeku school, were both among the first drawn in the selective draft and it is quite possible that they may be leaving shortly for some training camp—somewhere.

Carload Shipments Tabu On Coast

Manager Walsh, of the Kahului Store, has received advices through Alexander & Baldwin that a tabu has been placed on shipments in car lots from eastern points to the Pacific coast and Hawaii. This, Mr. Walsh figures, will be of benefit as it will have the effect of relieving the congestion at San Francisco.

Mr. Walsh has also received advices that it is impossible to obtain a satisfactory offer for Maui beans on the coast, the quotation over there being around 7 cents, and if weevily they were liable to be condemned by the authorities. From this information it seems doubtful that growers will be able to get the same prices as last year.

Catholic Ladies' Fair

The Catholic Ladies' Aid Society will hold a bazaar in the gymnasium, Wailuku, on the afternoon and evening of Saturday, December 1. In the afternoon the program will be largely for children, while the bazaar features will take up the early evening, to be followed by a dance.

Conservation and Economic Efficiency

By Mrs. D. H. CASE

(At the conservation meeting held in Kahului on Saturday, Mrs. Case read a paper, entitled as above, which was so much enjoyed that requests have been made by ladies of the audience that it be published in the MAUI NEWS. The first instalment is hereunder submitted.)

We have all heard the call of our country for men, for money and for food. The young men of America are responding to this call and will do their part in the effort to preserve those ideals for which our forefathers fought and died. Although we women of America will have no call to bear arms, we are called to be loyal soldiers in this same cause. It is your cause! We have only to remember the fate of the women, girls and little children of the war-ridden countries to realize what might be our own fate. We who stay behind the lines have a work just as great as those who are fighting at the front. Our work is in helping to build up and keep up the courage and efficiency of those who go into the fray and of the needy ones left behind. We are facing a crisis, and the only way to meet it is to put aside all delusions, false pride and thought of self and give honestly and conscientiously whatever service we can render.

We must not forget that keeping a country of 115,000,000 going forward and lending crippled nations a helping hand is even a bigger job than fighting the war, and whether that war continues for one year or four our job will last much longer. If there is an essential difficulty in feeding the nation when our problem is only 115,000,000 souls, how will this be met when we are 500,000,000?

Because the Allies are depending upon us more and more for food and funds, our duties become more and more important. In joining the Allies we said: "We will give you food." Our pledge is still unfulfilled. The next year's burden will be a big one. We must prepare to shoulder it. The world is bidding frantically for the food we alone can supply. The high prices of previous years have been so eclipsed as now to appear trivial. Americans alone are the surplus producers and the condition of all our crops on July 1 was none too good. It was still ten percent below the ten-year average and the total acreage in cultivation is only three percent more than last year. The promise of big corn, wheat and potato crops offers little substance for optimism. A lot of things may happen before harvest is completed to bring the totals down below the average.

These are hard facts, but the farmer knows that these possibilities must be reckoned. With America's ability to produce and her wonderful resources she should be able to meet these demands upon her if her people join in a saving system. The fact that the department of agriculture estimates an annual waste of food amounting to $700,000,000 bears out the necessity of care in the use of wheat, meats, fats and sugar, if we send the amounts needed to the Allies. Our exports of breadstuffs for April of this year exceeded those of a year ago by $18,000,000, nearly fifty percent increase over April of last year. The increase for the ten months ending in April was $78,000,000. The total of meat and dairy products has increased nearly $80,000,000. This is only a forerunner of what will be needed, and as cattle and other animals are being killed off so fast, the percent is greatly decreased. At this this rate we may soon face the following conditions, which are exact quotations from German papers of last June: "For sale for cash on delivery, fat for frying, $4.05 a lb.; goose fat, $5.26 pr. lb.; duck fat, 1/4 lb., $1.13; salted goose legs, 94 cents each; well fed giant Emden geese, $11.01 to $19.06 each; horse flesh, 53 to 56 cents a lb." Of course these quotations are for the rich. Even horse flesh is a luxury beyond the common people. The scarcity of fats has not been exaggerated from other sources.

Prof. Snyder, of Minneapolis, chemist, says that "Every war in which this country has been engaged has been won on white bread. This war has emphasized more than any other the real value of white flour, but there are materials that can be used in the dietary so as to conserve our valuable flour."

The greater portion of the Allied nations at present fighting are accustomed only to the white flour products. We can see then how necessary it is that we turn to our corn, oats, rye, barley, rice taro and such other food materials as can take the place of those most needed elsewhere. In fact we Americans might find the change in methods most beneficial, other than a sacrifice.

We need not do as did the Irishman, who, because of hard times, decided to feed his horse on saw-dust, and said: "Whin I'd joost get the baist used to it, he oop and died."

It is not necessary to adopt freak foods, but just get down to a simpler, saner system of diet; leave out the frills that serve only to tickle the palate and add nothing to one's efficiency. Let us be brave enough to defy criticism and live according to our own incomes, our own standards of economy, provided they are honestly conscientious ones.

In a bulletin issued by the U. S. Department of Agriculture on home canning there is the following advice: "Establish a home canning firm—Father, Mother & Co.—don't forget the little companies." Some writer in commenting on it says the advice is good and might be amplified. The firm of Father, Mother & Co., should not only do its own canning, but its own planting, its own character building and its own thinking."

We must always keep in mind the individual needs. We can find help of all kinds in the bulletins sent out by the U. S. Department of Agriculture; suggestions in various papers and magazines; notes from various housekeeping-institutes, where reliable information is founded on actual tests. Here in Hawaii we have leaders versed in domestic science and dietetics who are giving of their time and knowledge in trying out our Islands foods for the purpose of helping us to adopt the home-grown produce and to release imported for more urgent needs. In the States community kitchens are being established, where canning, drying and other forms of preserving are carried on. In Brockline, Mass., a community vegetable exchange is conducted, where one can take the surplus of their own fruit or garden produce and exchange for some commodity of which another customer may have an over supply. In fact I believe that the thinking women of America are very much awake to the needs of their country and of the men who are going out to fight for its freedom and safety.

Weekly Market Letter

Honolulu, Nov. 3.—There has been very little change in the market during the past week. The Division has received large shipments of sweet potatoes from several different farmers on Oahu. The price of sweet potatoes has dropped a little and there is a fairly good demand for them.

The Division has received several shipments of corn from Maui and Hawaii, which have been disposed of at $67.00 to $75.00 a ton. We expect to receive further shipments of corn from both Maui and Hawaii, in a few days. A large shipment of peanuts was received two weeks ago. These peanuts though of a very good quality, are not moving very fast.

A shipment of seed potatoes, the Division ordered from the mainland some time ago, arrived this week. We were unable to get the Early Rose but have received instead, two other very good varieties; the British Queen and the Red Chili. Most of the potatoes in the market at the present time are imported from California. More Irish potatoes should be raised in the Islands and when there is a scarcity of Islands Irish potatoes, the people should use more Islands sweet potatoes, of which there are different varieties, and which grow very well on the Islands and always sell a great deal cheaper than Irish potatoes.—O. B. LIGHTFOOT, Acting Superintendent.

To Give A Dance

The finance committee, of the Maui Women's Food Conservation Commission, consisting of Mrs. W. D. Baldwin Mrs. S. A. Baldwin, Mrs. Scarby, Mrs. Millie B. Hair and Mrs. F. B. Cameron, met Monday afternoon, November 5th. The committee decided to hold a dance at the Paunene Club house on Saturday evening, November 17th, in order to raise funds to cover the necessary expense connected with the Food Commission on Maui.

All envelopes must be securely sealed and should have the requisite stamps attached thereto before they are placed in the mail.

Any person who presents more than one application for this land drawing, or any application in any other than his true name, shall not be permitted to participate in such drawing.

All envelopes which indicate by whom they are presented or mailed will be opened as soon as received and the application therein will forthwith be returned to the applicant.

5. DRAWING AND ASSIGNMENT OF ORDER OF SELECTION. Upon receiving any such envelope properly addressed and properly endorsed as above required, the Commissioner will deposit it in a suitable container, into which will be deposited only and all such envelopes as are properly endorsed for the drawing, and such container will be so constructed and so kept as to prevent envelopes deposited therein from being removed therefrom without detection until they are publicly opened on the day when the drawing and assignment are made.

At 9 o'clock A. M., at the Capitol Building, Honolulu, on Tuesday, January 15th, 1918, or as soon thereafter as may be, the container for such land drawing will be publicly opened and all the envelopes therein will be thoroughly mixed, and will then be taken, one at a time, impartially and indiscriminately, from such container and the applications contained in such envelopes when correct in form and execution will be numbered serially in the order in which they are taken, beginning with number one, and the numbers thus assigned shall determine the order in which the persons named therein may select and take lots.

A list of the applicants to whom numbers are assigned showing the number assigned to each of them, will be conspicuously posted, and furnished to the papers for publication as a matter of news, and notice of the number assigned and the time and place he must appear to make his selection will be promptly mailed to the address set forth in the application of each person to whom a number is assigned.

All applications which are not correct in form and execution will be marked "Rejected, imperfectly executed," and filed in the order in which they are rejected, and notice thereof will be sent to the persons who presented such applications.

6. SELECTION OF LOTS. Beginning at 12 o'clock, noon, on Saturday, February 2nd, 1918, at the Court House, Wailuku, Maui.

Any persons holding numbers assigned to them for any such land drawing may make their selection of the lots that are open to selection and desired by them in the order in which their applications for participation are numbered.

If any person who has been assigned a number at the drawing fails to appear and make his selection when the number assigned to him is reached and his name is called, his right to select will be passed until the other applicants assigned have been disposed of, when his name will be called again, and if he then fails to appear and make his selection, he will be deemed to have abandoned his right to select.

7. PROOF AT TIME OF SELECTION. At the time he appears to make his selection, each applicant must be prepared to show his qualifications to take a homestead by affidavit in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, and otherwise.

If any applicant is not a citizen of the United States by birth, he must present at the same time either the original of a certified copy of his declaration of intention to become a citizen, or of the order of the court admitting him to citizenship; and if an applicant who is not born in the United States claims citizenship through his father's naturalization while he was under twenty-one years of age, he must present a certified copy of the order of the court admitting his father to citizenship.

No person who appears to be disqualified to take a homestead will be permitted to make a selection, or in case he has made a selection, to receive the necessary papers or take or retain possession of the lot selected.

8. FORMS, MAPS, INFORMATION. Blank forms of applications, addressed envelopes for applications, blank forms of affidavits of qualifications, other necessary forms and information in regard to the lands to be opened and the terms under which they may be taken, may be obtained from the Commissioner of Public Lands at Honolulu, or from Sub Agent W. O. Alken, Paia, Maui.

LIBERTY CATERING

No. 23 BY MAUI WOMEN

A Department Of Domestic Economy Intended To Serve A Patriotic Purpose In Conserving Food Needed By The Allied Armies In Europe

Recipes for foods demonstrated at meeting of Women's Committee, Food Commission, at Kahului Community House, November 3rd, 1917.

War Breads

1. Indian Bread (F. M. Farmer.)

1 1/2 c. graham flour, 1 c. cornmeal, 1/2 ts. soda, 1 ts. salt, 1/2 c. molasses, 1 2/3 c. milk. Steam 3 hours in 2 well buttered one-pound baking powder tins.

2. Corn Bread (Recipe No. 5, Kitchen card.)

3/4 c. cornmeal, 1 1/4 c. flour, 1/4 c. sugar, 5 ts. baking powder, 3/4 ts. salt, 1 c. milk, 1 egg, 1 tbl. chrisco. Mix dry ingredients and sift. Add milk, egg well beaten and melted chrisco. Bake in shallow tin.

3. Rolled Oats Bread (F. M. Farmer.)

Pour 1 1/2 c. boiling water over 1 c. rolled oats. Stand 1 hour. Add 1 tbl. shortening, 1 ts. salt, 1/4 c. honey or molasses and 1 c. yeast. (If started at night use 2 c. water and 1 1/2 c. yeast.) Mix into a hard loaf, using 5 or 6 c. white flour. Let rise into double the bulk. Mix into loaves. Let rise again and bake 1 hour.

Note: Following recipes have been adapted by Mrs. A. C. Bowdish from above recipe, using rolled oats as part substitute for the white flour.

3-A.—1 c. flour, 1 c. rolled oats, 2 c. graham flour, 3 c. white flour, method and remaining ingredients same.

3-B.—1/2 c. rolled oats, 1 c. rye flour, 1 1/2 c. graham flour, 1 1/2 c. white flour.

4. Eggless Cake (Mrs. W. O. Aiken.)

1 c. sugar, 1/2 c. butter, 1 ts. each cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, 1 ts. soda, 1 c. apple sauce, 1/2 c. raisins, 1/2 c.

nuts, 2 1/2 c. flour, 2 ts. baking powder.

5. Honey Gingerbread

1/2 c. sugar, 1 c. shortening, 1 1/2 honey, 1/2 ts. salt, 1 c. milk, 1 egg, 1 leveled ts. soda, 1 ts. each cinnamon, cloves, allspice, nutmeg and ginger. Suet can be used for shortening egg may be omitted, and an extra 1/2 c. honey substituted for the sugar.

6. Canada War Cake

Boil for 5 minutes the following, 1 c. brown sugar, 1 c. hot water, 2 tbl. lard, 1 ts. each cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, salt, and 1/2 package chopped seedless raisins. When cold add 1 ts. soda dissolved in 1/2 ts. hot water, 1 1/2 c. flour, and 1/2 ts. baking powder. Bake slowly in very slow oven.

7. War Jelly (substitute for animal gelatin.)

In 1 quart water, boil 2 bars, "kanten" (Japanese sea moss carried by all plantation stores) until dissolved. Will take about ten minutes. Add 1 cup brown sugar and when melted, strain through cheesecloth. Add any flavoring desired. Lemon juice, canned coconut, wine, tea, grape juice, sliced bananas, guava syrup to taste, all make pleasant combinations. These proportions make a stiff jelly which will become firm in half an hour without the use of ice.

8. Raisin Bread

See Ladies' Home Journal, November, 1917, Page 57.

9. War Jam

Use equal parts dried apricots (after soaking) and papaya pulp. Add sugar to taste, or about enough for a marmalade. Flour with powdered ginger, about 1 ts. to 1 qt. or 1/2 oz. sliced fresh ginger root to the same.

AT THE THEATERS

"Her Better Self"

Pauline Frederick unable to give the time necessary for study with the Red Cross classes for nursing the Famous Players star in Paramount Pictures, devoted her entire time during the filming of the hospital scenes for her latest picture, "Her Better Self," to a practical study of methods used in first aid work. Every moment available between the scenes in which she appeared Miss Frederick was being guided about the different wards and receiving very thorough instruction from the nurses and internes.

The story of "Her Better Self" deals with a love affair between a wealthy society girl and Robert Keith, a young doctor, friend of the poor. The latter is somewhat abstracted during his first meeting with Vivian, the idle society girl, and his indifference piques her to prove her ability to meet him on his own ground and show him that she, too, is a worker not a drone.

She runs away to his hospital in the slums, and although often weary and nearly fainting at the horror of it all, she bravely persists until an unforeseen incident sends her back to her luxurious home.

This is the finding of a locket with Keith's picture in it on a girl of the streets. She cannot understand this, and what follows is even more terrible. She returns to try to see if there is not some extenuating circumstance, only to find the girl in Keith's arms.

From this point the play sweeps to a dramatic climax, keeping the interest at the highest pitch until a full explanation is arrived at between the lovers, and "all's well that ends well."

"Aladdin from Broadway"

Edith Storey, Antonio Moreno and William Duncan in Aladdin from Broadway.

A most unusual place to meet a white girl and also on a most adventurous errand.

Broadway sport—gay, young blade, he wagered to reach Mecca—the forbidden land where no Christian ever trod. To prove his case he was to get an old Bible secreted in the ruins. He gets the Bible—a knave steals it and sets the natives after him. He becomes a pilgrim and presto—he is kidnapped and forced into a marriage. But there is a proviso—he must announce the triple Moslem divorce vow.

How he fools his captors—escapes with the girl he has never seen and to whom he is married, and how he regains the Bible, makes a joyous photo-drama jammed with action—humor—pathos—love—and purpose that will instruct, entertain and hold by its sheer heart pull.

"The Undying Flame"

Mme Olga Petrova, the world renowned Russian actress has been engaged by the Jesse L. Lasky, company in a long term contract and will make her first appearance in the Paramount Picture, "The Undying Flame," a picturesque production of which the scenes are laid in ancient and modern Egypt.

This photoplay is divided into two distinct parts, the first of which occurs during the days of the Pharaohs and concerns the love affair of the daughter of one of them and a shepherd lad.

The marriage is forbidden, for it is not permitted a princess to marry beneath her rank, and the humble lover is sentenced to immediate execution. Before they separate, however, they break in two a mystic scarab, each according to their belief, symbolized their souls, and when reunited in years to come would reunite their souls.

The second part of the story brings us centuries later, again to Egypt, where the two parts of the charm are again brought together in a most mysterious way that seems to substantiate the theory of the Egyptian belief in the transmigration of souls throughout the ages.

The modern lovers, however, have no realization of what is taking place, and the romance of their love affair forms almost a second story, were it not bound to the first part by a clever weaving together of circumstances, in the mystic power of the scarab.

A most astonishing and mysterious climax occurs unexpectedly and, while the last few feet of celluloid are flashing across the white screen one finds oneself wishing to see still more of Mme. Petrova in her marvelous interpretation of this dual character, differing widely yet the same through the ages.—Adv.

Maui Agricultural Notes

The harvest of the Kula and Makawao fall bean crop is well underway and promises much better than the summer crop. In a recent survey made by the County Agents it is estimated that the 1000 acres now in the above crop, will yield approximately a million pounds or 10,000 hundred pound bags. At an average value of 8 cents per pound F. O. B. Kahului, the crop would be worth $80,000 or $80.00 per acre for the four months' crop.

The potato crop, which is estimated at 300 to 400 acres, also promises well and should yield 15,000, to 20,000 bags if our present efforts to control the blight are successful.

This should add at least $35,000 to the earnings of the small farmers of the Kula-Makawao districts, or a total gross income of say $115,000.00 for the fall and winter crop.

Not alone Maui County but the entire Territory must profit from the prosperity of our small farmers this year, for whom it may be said in passing, that it has been a good many seasons since a good substantial profit has resulted from their labors.

Haiku district has never presented a busier farming scene than at present. A half dozen large tractors are putting the finishing touches on some eight hundred acres to be planted in leguminous and other feed crops immediately, now that the favorable rains have provided sufficient moisture to insure vigorous germination.

The principal crops being planted are cow peas, velvet beans, peanuts, cassava, sweet potatoes and corn. It is confidently expected that Maui County will be independent of food-stuffs from the mainland within a very few years.

Mr. C. W. Carpenter, Pathologist of the Hawaii Experiment Station, who is responsible for inaugurating the systematic spraying of potatoes for the prevention of blight in Kula and Makawao, arrived on Maui on the 6th inst. He comes to consult with the County agents in connection with the campaign against the destructive potato disease now in full progress.

In addition to the power sprayer and one-horse sprayer already noted, a half dozen hand-sprayers are now in daily operation. Favorable results are already noted and it is hoped that a large percentage of the crop will be benefited.—F. G. K.

ladies about a night school which is being started. He saw the smoke and rushed in, grabbed the burning oil stove and would have succeeded in throwing it out but for the fact that the back door was hooked. In the momentary delay his left hand was quite severely burned and he was obliged to drop the stove. Blankets were hastily obtained and an attempt made to smother the blaze, but the flames had in the meanwhile spread to the shelving and walls of the building.

There was then a rush to save the belongings of the young ladies, it being plain that the cottage was doomed. About half of their effects were gotten out, although they lost considerable clothing and some valuables.

The young ladies occupying the cottage, all of whom were at home at the time, are Miss Wilson, Miss Wiggin, Miss Swift and Miss Prouty. After the fire they went to the Fantom residence to spend the night.

When the alarm was received in Wailuku, Deputy Sheriff Cummings set out in a machine for the scene, arriving there as the house was falling in. After working at it for several minutes, they discovered that the switch had not, in the excitement, been turned on. After turning on the switch the machine started off without cranking.
