EIGHTEENTH YEAR WAILUKU, MAUI CO., HAWAII, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1917. NUMBER 923

Hawaii's Beloved Queen Crosses The Great Divide

After Months Of Suffering, Liliuokalani Passes Away At 8:30 Sunday Morning--Great Preparations For The Funeral, To Be Held In Honolulu Sunday--Historical Facts

Queen Liliuokalani died at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning. At the bedside at the time were her physician, Dr. W. C. Hobdy, Prince and Princess Kalaniano'le, Col. and Mrs. Curtis P. Iaukea, Mrs. Lahilahi Webb, and two faithful retainers. The end was peaceful.

As soon as the physician had pronounced the Queen dead, Rev. Leopold Kroll, of the Hawaiian congregation of St. Andrews' cathedral, and Rev. Henry H. Parker, of Kawaiahao church, were notified; and the bells began at 9 o'clock, to toll 79, that being the age of the deceased. Flags at Washington Place the capitol and throughout the city were immediately set at half mast, to remain there until after the funeral next Sunday.

The Queen had been very ill for three months and during that time had been helpless from the hips downward. Her mind, too, was weakened. For the previous two weeks the end was expected at any moment.

Monday night at 12 o'clock the body was moved from Washington Place to Kawaiahao church, where it lay in state from 10 o'clock Tuesday morning to 10 o'clock Tuesday night.

The casket, which is being specially prepared of koa, will not be finished until Sunday morning when it will be taken to the throne room to receive the body. It is not the intention to place the body in the mausoleum, as has been the past practice, but to transfer it directly to its final crypt.

On Sunday the English part of the service will be conducted by Rev. Henry Bond Restarick, of the Episcopal church, assisted by Rev. Leopold Kroll, of St. Andrews, and Rev. Henry Parker, of Kawaiahao, the latter in Hawaiian.

The funeral has been definitely set for 10 o'clock Sunday morning in the throne room of the capitol building. Only Hawaiians, prominent officials and a few others having special passes will be admitted. The procession will be an elaborate military and civic affair, participated in by Hawaiian societies, the army and navy. The National Guard will have four companies in the parade, one from each island, in command of Major Gus Rose, of the Honolulu regiment. The Congressional party will all be

Native Fisherman Is Lost Off Kihei

Charles Poepeo Falls From Boat Saturday And Presumably Eaten By Sharks

Charles Poepeo, a well known Hawaiian fisherman, age 26, fell from a gasoline fishing boat off Kelepolepo shortly after 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and was, supposedly, drowned and devoured by sharks. No trace of the body has been found.

The deceased, accompanied by his brother-in-law, Thomas, and two other Hawaiians came up from Makena in the boat to Kihei to lay in a supply of foodstuffs, arriving at their destination at about 10 o'clock Saturday morning. While there the Chinese poi peddler brought out a gallon of wine, and when they left, at about 2 p. m., three of them, including the deceased, were feeling quite happy.

On the return trip, Charles Poepeo took the wheel. At the point indicated he stood up to tighten some rope on the wheel, the ends of which had become loose, lost his balance and fell overboard. His brother-in-law reached out and caught his shirt, but it tore away. The boat, at the time, was travelling very fast, besides which it was windy and it took some

Program Planned For The Coming Teachers' Meeting

The following is the program mapped out by the committee for the annual meeting of the Maui Teachers' Association to be held in Paia School building on Friday, November 30: 9:30 A. M.—Martial Music, by Paia Orchestra. Invocation, by Rev. Rowland B. Dodge. Patriotic Program led by teachers and pupils of the Paia School as follows: Song—"America", All Present. Flag Salute, All Present. "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the Republic for which it stands, one Nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." Recitation—"Lincoln's Gettysburg Address." Song—"Oh Beautiful America". Song—"Canning the Kaiser", All Present. 9:40—Patriotic Reading, by Mrs. Helen Mar Linton. 9:50—Address—"The First Duty of the War-Time Teacher", by Rev. A. Craig Bowdish.

How Our Soldiers Sailed For Camp

Got Away In Sections, But All Landed Safely—Shorn Of Flowing Locks

The Maui battalion of the Second Infantry, N. G. H., left for the encampment on Oahu in three sections, getting away Saturday evening, Sunday morning and Sunday night. The plan had been for the Matsonia to take all except the Lahaina company, but near the last of the week the agents of that steamer notified the Guard authorities at Honolulu that the Hawaii detachments of soldiers would be all she could carry under her passenger registry. It was arranged to have the Mauna Loa make a rush trip to Kahului Saturday night and the Claudine to return Sunday for the remaining men.

After leaving Kahului Saturday afternoon, the Claudine went around to Lahaina, picking up the company there, Captain Wm. Kaluakini, commanding. This company had gone into camp the night before, and was all ready, with its equipment, to move on the minute when the steamer arrived off port.

The Mauna Loa got away from Kahului at about 7 o'clock Sunday morning, taking the entire Wailuku company, 149 men and three officers; the

CONGRESSMEN NOT TO VISIT MAUI AFTER ALL

A Few Clung To Idea But Finally Quailed Away From Small Steamer Travelling

RUSHING TO QUEEN'S FUNERAL

Maui will not get any of the Congressmen on this trip, so feasts may be called off and the band put its music away until the next time. First, it was, and would come; then it was nine, then it was six or more and now it is—nixie.

Following the death of the Queen, many of the Congressmen decided to return directly to Honolulu by the Mauna Kea, passing Maui tonight. Reports had it that probably all would give this island the go-by.

On Wednesday Senator H. A. Baldwin received a wireless stating that nine of the national legislators would like to stop off at Lahaina from the Mauna Kea tonight, spend tomorrow on Maui and take the Claudine tomorrow night for the city. After consulting with members of the committee, Senator Baldwin replied that Maui would be most delighted to have them stop over, but added a slight caution that the Claudine might be

Reclaim Land For Ranching Purposes

Two Thousand Acres At Ulupalakua To Be Cleared Of Pests And Planted

A scheme has already been set going which will practically revolutionize things on Rose Ranch, Ulupalakua, of which Dr. J. H. Raymond is manager and his son, Harvey Raymond, is assistant manager. The idea is to put about 2,000 acres of additional land in corn, legumes, grasses and other feed for cattle, etc., with a view to increasing the amount and quality of beef and other meat.

The lands to be thus utilized are included in the old Makee plantation tract, a good part of which is covered with paamakani and lantana. All will be reclaimed. Arsenite of soda will be used for the lantana and burning vapor will be thrown into the ground by Haugh burners for the destruction of the paamakani. This work is now under way.

Frank Sutherland, former herdsman at Waikapu, has been engaged to work with Assistant Manager Harvey Raymond. A 75-h. p. Holt caterpillar, hoes and plows have been purchased for work after the land has been cleared.

Plans For Funeral Of Queen On Sunday

Official announcement was made Wednesday by Maj. F. J. Green, aide to the governor, in charge of funeral arrangements for the late Queen Liliuokalani that the funeral services on Sunday morning will begin at 10 o'clock. The procession will start at 11 or 11:15 o'clock.

Admission to the throne room will be by card only. A salute of 21 guns will be fired by the army as the procession leaves the grounds and a second salute will be fired at the cemetery. Whether this will be a volley of rifles or of artillery has not been settled as yet. A conference will be held today between representatives of the army, navy and national guard, with Maj. Green representing the governor.

Capt. George R. Clark, commandant of the naval station at Pearl Harbor, announces that a company of sailors will be sent for a part in the procession, also a company of marines.

Capt. Robert Parker has been designated by Maj. Green as marshal in charge of the Hawaiian section of the procession. He is making arrangements with the various Hawaiian societies which are to be represented.

Last Day's Session Of The Supervisors

The supervisors met in final session at 2:20 Friday. Chairman Kalama presiding, all members present.

Mr. Fleming moved that D. C. Lindsay, commissioner, be authorized to make arrangements for temporary quarters for the Camp 1 school teachers, whose cottage was burned. Motion seconded by Mr. Cockett and carried.

On motion of Mr. Fleming it was decided to instruct the county engineer to call for bids for the construction of a teachers' cottage at Kealahou, plans to be the same as those for the Camp 1 cottage, the bids to be opened at the next meeting of the board, December 14, at 2 p. m.; also for a two-room teachers' cottage for Kaupou.

On motion of Mr. Fleming, the chairman was authorized to take up the matter of a site for the teachers' cottage at Kealahou school lot and arrange for an exchange of property if necessary.

Mr. Fleming moved that the board go on record as criticizing very severely the Wailuku fire department and to insist that a competent man be placed in charge of the fire apparatus.

Maui Boys Enjoy Camp Life On Oahu

News from Camp Liliuokalani, Oahu, bears the information that the Maui boys are comfortably quartered and everything is moving finely although the work is quite strenuous. The program published recently in this paper is being carried out.

All of the elements encamped there have their musical aggregations and at leisure times there are all kinds of good music. The Maui boys are well to the front in this regard.

The supposition down there is that the Maui companies will arrive home about the 30th, depending somewhat upon transportation. So far there has been no sickness in the battalion amounting to anything—even though the Filipino guardsmen did lose their long hair.

So far, the Maui boys are enjoying themselves immensely, although it is expected that hard work will wear away the pleasure of the novelty quite soon.

ONE HERO KNOWN HERE

Lester T. Smith, mentioned in last night's despatches as having been killed or wounded in France, was a sergeant in Troop K, 5th Cavalry, stationed at Schofield, Oahu, and well known in the Islands. Among his friends on Maui is Attorney Eugene Murphy. He was born at Appleton, Wis., and was known at Honolulu as "Ikey" Smith.

Grand Hotel Has New Management

F. K. McDonald, who for sometime had been manager of the Grand Hotel in Wailuku, left in the Claudine Saturday night for Honolulu and the Coast, not to return. Mrs. McDonald preceded her husband a week or so. It is understood that they will re-enter the hotel business in California.

Louis Distelli succeeds McDonald as receiver and becomes manager of the Grand. He is an expert in the culinary department and understands the general hotel business well. It is the new manager's intention to keep the Grand up to a first-class standard.

A NEW LAWYER

Antolino Garcia, clerk in the water works department, Wailuku, has passed the examination and been admitted to practice law in the district courts of the Territory. His first case was a garnishee matter, on Tuesday.

Dr. Roberts, an optician of Seattle, is spending three weeks on Maui.

Chicken Thief Arrested

For sometime complaints have been made regarding a very industrious chicken thief operating in central Maui. Wednesday the police succeeded in nabbing a Chinaman named Ah Sing, and think they are in a fair way to unravel the mystery. The man has confessed to one theft the night before his arrest. On that occasion he visited the camp at Waikapu, took 12 chickens, went through the sandhills to Puunene and sold them in the camp there for $7.50.

Ah Sing was arraigned in the Wailuku district court this morning on the charge of larceny (stealing chickens), entered a plea of guilty and sentenced to imprisonment for six months.

The Heir Apparent

The public has become so used to thinking of Prince Kuhio Kalaniano'le as heir apparent to the departed throne of Hawaii that it will be a sort of awakening to recall that such is not the case. Prince David Kawana'akoa followed Kaulani as heir apparent and upon the death of the former, the title passed on to his son, Prince David Kalakaua Kawanana'akoa, and will pass down the line in that way.

A Warm Contest In Tennis Doubles

In the semi-finals of the mixed double tennis tournament played last Saturday afternoon on the courts of the Puunene Athletic Club, Engle-Couch beat Sawyer-Chillingworth, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 7-9, 6-4. Engle-Couch had been picked for winners and they started in by taking the first set in good style. The second set went to Sawyer-Chillingworth, with Engle-Couch taking the third set. Then started the hard grind for the fourth set. Although Engle-Couch at several periods of the game had the advantage over their opponents, they were unable to win the game that would give the set, which finally went to Sawyer-Chillingworth, after playing some of the best tennis that has ever been seen on any of the local courts. At this period it was so dark that it was necessary to turn on the electric lights. Engle-Couch started the fifth set by taking four straight games. The fifth game went to Engle-Couch, with the sixth game to the winners. Sawyer-Chillingworth then took the next three games in succession, making the score 5-4, with the final game going to Engle-Couch.

Charles Cowan umpired the match and his work was up to his usual standard, which is always excellent. Alf. Hansen and Kenneth Smith were the linesmen.

In the ladies singles for the Burns Cup the following matches were played during the week: Hart beat Foster, 6-3, 6-1; Campbell beat Baldwin, 6-1, 6-0, and Rosecrans beat Zabriske, 6-4, 6-1.

D. L. Austin, of Davies & Co., is spending a few days here on business.

TODAY'S AND LATEST NEWS BY WIRELESS

Honolulu—Commissioner Ishii and party visited Kawaiahao church yesterday afternoon, laid wreath on the bier of the late Queen and remain seated for five minutes. The scene at the time was quite impressive. The emblem of the Order of the Rising Sun, given by the former Emperor of Japan, was on the bier and was noticed. Ishii walked to the church, accompanied by army and navy officials.

COLLAPSE OF SUBMARINE CAMPAIGN

New York—Arthur Pallen, British war expert, in a statement says that if there be anything unsatisfactory in the military and political situation in Europe it is more than compensated for by the extraordinary news of the collapse of the German submarine campaign, which appears to have broken down altogether. This, to his mind, is the momentous news since the entry of the United States into the war. It means that German defeat on the sea is final, universal and permanent, while land successes are merely local, casual and temporary. German defeat on the sea means that the American share in the war will decide it.

MUST SPEED UP SHIPS

Philadelphia—Admiral Bowles, speaking before the Chamber of Commerce, said the United States must act with speed in ship-building program or lose the war, and all dependent upon it must be regarded as a primal patriotic duty.

ITALIANS CHECKING GERMANS

New York—The Italians are checking the enemy everywhere except on the Astige Plateau, where the invaders have gained. The Germans are strengthening their attacks and hope to drive through the Venetian plains before the Allied forces arrive. Reports that trainloads of British and French are passing given points constantly for the Italian front. General Sayoll will command the French in Italy. Four hundred thousand refugees have come in from the invaded country.

TROUBLE IN ECUADOR

Santiago, Chile—Advices from Lima state that a revolution has broken out in Ecuador and several localities are reported to be in the hands of the revolutionists.

TABU ON UNESSENTIAL FREIGHT

New York—The railroad war board denies transportation to 500 commodities which are regarded as not essential to the successful prosecution of the war. It is claimed that railroads will be unable to meet the full demands in the winter and unessentials must be cut out.

Benefit Entertainment

If you were a war widow, with the alternative of work or starvation confronting you, and you had a baby to care for which made it impossible to work away from home, wouldn't you be grateful if somebody should start a day nursery where your baby would be safe and comfortable all day while you were at work? That is what is being done in Belgium and that is why the children here on Maui are going to present "The Birds' Christmas Carol" to raise money to help the good cause along.

If you are at all interested in relief work for the war sufferers you should be especially interested in any work undertaken for the benefit of the children—the most innocent of all the victims of this cruel war. It is hoped that these day nurseries may be established in all of the principal towns and thereby help the Belgian mothers to help themselves, which is all they ask.

The performance is to be given on the evening of December 14th, at the Valley Isle Theater.—Adv't.

hospital detachment: 61 men and one officer of Company G, Puunene, and the battalion commander.

The remainder of the Puunene company and the Paia company reached Kahului shortly before noon, stacked arms and waited the rest of the day. In the afternoon the Puunene band appeared and rendered the special military program previously prepared. About 5 o'clock the Claudine was sighted. In the evening a big crowd of people assembled on the wharf to see the soldier boys off. The band reappeared and discoursed patriotic airs until near the sailing of the steamer, which was at 10 o'clock.

The troops sailing by the Mauna Loa reached Honolulu in the late afternoon of Sunday and camped that night on the Capitol grounds. They went by an early train the next morning to Camp Liliuokalani. The Claudine reached the city at sunrise Monday; the men breakfasted in town and then marched to the train for the camp.

The Advertiser the next morning said: "When the Maui companies arrived in camp, every Filipino whose hair was long enough to wave in the breeze got a military clipping much shorter than Samson's. Ice cream cones made their fast disappearance and infantry drill set in severely during the entire day. Taken as a whole it was a fair sample of what days in camp are going to mean for the next two weeks."

atus, otherwise it would be absolutely necessary to take the entire fire engine business out of the hands of the fire department and put it into the hands of someone who would render the county efficient services for the money received. This motion was seconded by Mr. Drummond and carried. The clerk was instructed to inform the fire department of the action of the board.

The ordinance prohibiting the peddling of fish and other marine products and vegetables within a radius of one mile from the Wailuku market, passed first reading.

The resolution relative to the turning over to the county for use as a recreation ground the Mokuhinia swamp, at Lahaina, was adopted.

Mr. Fleming moved that the county auditor, treasurer and attorney enter into negotiations with the Territory for the purchase of $35,500 of loan fund bonds for the construction and lining of the Olinda reservoir. Motion seconded by Mr. Cockett and passed.

Mr. Drummond was delegated to take up with the high sheriff, when in Honolulu, the matter of a jailor at the Kula lockup.

The clerk was instructed to write to each district overseer instructing them to deduct poll taxes from each road laborer and make remittance to the county auditor.

The district overseer of Makawao was instructed to construct a parapet wall on the old retaining wall at Waiohuli.

Mr. West appeared before the board to ascertain why his bill of $550 for expert services rendered in testing scales in 1914 had not been paid. Sheriff Crowell and John Garcia were called before the board in this matter and there was considerable discussion, but no definite action taken. Meeting adjourned at 5:30, subject to the call of the chair.

time to turn around and start back. Then the engine died. Thomas thereupon jumped into the water and swam to the relief of his relative, but before he reached the place Charles sank and was not seen again, although the boat cruised around and over the spot for sometime.

This was about 3 o'clock, and the accident was reported to the police about 7 that night. Early Sunday morning Police Officer Wilson, Oyangi, sampan owner, and a crew of Japanese, together with other volunteer sampans, cruised around the place for an hour and a half but could find nothing. About 9 o'clock, after the main sampan had returned, the searchers saw two large sharks near the spot of the drowning, moving toward Kihei, and the belief was that they had devoured the body. The same crews returned Sunday afternoon and made a further search, but without result.

Statements taken by the Sheriff indicate that the drowning was accidental, there being no indications of foul play.

A Dancing Class

Mr. Arthur Snyder, of Kahului, will instruct a dancing class at the Maui Hotel, beginning Friday, November 23, at 8:15 o'clock. There will be four lessons on successive Fridays. Further information may be had of Mr. Field, at the hotel, or of Mr. Snyder, at Kahului.

MR. BOWDISH'S SERMON

"Our Skyline" was the sermon topic at the Makawao Union Church on Sunday morning. The Rev. A. Craig Bowdish referred to Peter's vision at Joppa before he was called to confer with Cornelius. Peter realized as never before that "God is no respecter of person", but He is of character and the christian spirit. Here Peter pushed back the horizon of his life until he could see the good in a Roman if he was a man of real worth. On the basis of this faith in the worth of each individual we have our conception of democracy.

The conflict today between democracy and autocracy is a world conflict as to which idea shall be supreme.

Today there is a far reaching realignment in relationship between individuals, families, races and nations over this question. Each man and woman needs to push back his horizon until his view of life corresponds with Christianity's vision.

The evening Vespers was given over to the singing of familiar hymns and responsive readings. The pastor gave a short talk on the efficient mind and spirit which require concentration, or the close look; breadth, liberality, or the wide look; knowledge of consequences, or the far look, and the high look which steadies and inspires through the knowledge and association of God.

Mrs. George Steele was at the organ.

Announcements Of Death Of The Queen

The following formal announcement of the death of Queen Liliuokalani was issued on Sunday:

It becomes my melancholy duty to announce the death of Her Majesty, Liliuokalani, of Hawaii, which sad event occurred at Washington Place, Honolulu, on the morning of November 11, 1917, at 8:30 o'clock.

The body will lie in state at Kawaiahao Church until Saturday night when it will be removed to the Throne Room of the Capitol, where the obsequies will be held on Sunday, November 18, 1917.

CURTIS P. LAUKEA,
Her Majesty's Private Secretary.

Governor Expresses Sorrow

It is with profound sadness the Governor of Hawaii announces the death of Her Majesty, Ex-Queen Liliuokalani, the last reigning monarch of the Hawaiian Islands.

I have been a witness of some of her sorrows. I have found her tender and kind to her own race, thoughtful and helpful to others and a valued and appreciative friend. Her last days had been devoted to aiding the Red Cross work with marked sympathy and liberal financial assistance.

Her Majesty has linked more strongly than ever, the Hawaiian and American races, who will join each other in paying their respects in this her final rest.

May all the people of Hawaii join in these last ceremonies.
The Hawaiian and American flags on public buildings will be at half-mast during the time of the lying in state and proper military guards will perform their duty.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of Hawaii,
Honolulu, November 11, 1917.

The Government Issues An Appeal To Stenographers

Good Chances For Typists To Do Their Bit And Make Money At Same Time

INFORMATION OF POSTMASTERS

The United States Civil Service Commission has sent out to the postmasters of the country an urgent appeal for typewriter operators and stenographers to enter the government service at once. Postmasters of Maui have received copies of this appeal, with full information to prospective applicants, and the MAUI NEWS has been requested to give the matter fullest publicity, urging stenographers or typewriters, or both combined, to apply to the postmasters for further particulars and to take the examinations shortly to be held in Honolulu. The letter to postmasters is as follows:

United States Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.

The Postmaster:

One of the serious war problems with which this Commission is engaged is that of supplying a sufficient number of typewriter operators and stenographers to meet the unusual demands of the departments at Washington, D. C.

In connection with a nation-wide campaign to secure applicants for these positions, the Commission has arranged with exhibitors of motion pictures throughout the country to show on their screens a lantern slide announcing this need of the Government. The announcement directs persons who are interested to apply to the representative of the U. S. Civil Service Commission at the local post office. The Commission has a board of examiners in each city which has a first or second class post office, but some of the motion picture theaters are located in towns having third class post offices. In case inquiry should be made at your office concerning stenographer and typewriter positions in the civil service, or any other classified positions, it is requested that the inquiries be informed that full information and instructions may be had by writing to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., or to the Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service Board at Boston, Mass., New York, N. Y., Philadelphia, Pa., Atlanta, Ga., Cincinnati, Ohio, Chicago, Ill., St. Paul, Minn., St. Louis, Mo., New Orleans, La., Seattle, Wash., or San Francisco, Cal.

This need of the Government is a vital one; the successful prosecution of America's greatest undertaking depends upon an efficient civil service no less than upon the armed forces. Literally thousands of stenographers and typewriters are required. Those who have not the necessary training are urged to undergo instruction at once, for the need will continue indefinitely. Women especially are thus offered an opportunity to help the Government. Men also are needed, of course. Examinations are held every Tuesday in the 450 cities named in the enclosed announcement. The entrance salaries range from $1,000 to $1,200 a year. Promotion is reasonably rapid for those whose services prove satisfactory.

If you can spare the time to interest residents of your community in this matter you will help America to win the war. It is desired that publishers of newspapers be asked to insert a notice from time to time free of charge; that individuals be approached when there is opportunity for personal appeal; that the matter be brought to the attention of the public in every proper manner that is available without expense to the Commission. Please display the enclosed blue poster in your office and keep the other announcement for the information of the public.

The Commission will appreciate your co-operation.

By direction of the Commission:
Very respectfully,
JOHN A. McILHENNY,
President.

A Coaxer

The latest American church device for "raising the wind" is what a religious paper describes as "some collection-box." The inventor hails from Oklahoma. If a member of the congregation drops in a twenty-five cent piece or a coin of larger value, there is silence. If it is a ten-cent piece a bell rings, a five-cent piece sounds a whistle, and a cent fires a blank cartridge. If any one pretends to be asleep when the box passes, it awakens him with a watchman's rattle, and a kodak takes his portrait.—London Christian World.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

The president of the United States having appointed Thursday, the twenty-ninth day of this month of November as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, I recommend that the people of this territory join in the observance of that day in a profoundly sincere manner.

The greatest gift of the people of Hawaii has not been the extraordinary financial prosperity of the year or their wonderful liberality in Red Cross work and the financial support of the national government, but that the conviction is gradually permeating the body politic that true manhood and true womanhood are the foundations on which human society in this territory rests and that wealth or the pride of wealth cannot buy the virtues that go to make up a nation.

We cannot forecast the future with a world so frightfully involved, but we can thank Almighty God that we have in Hawaii such numbers of all nationalities eager to sacrifice, that the nation may live true to the principles on which it is founded.

Let us with deep appreciation thank the National Guard of Hawaii, that they of all voluntary organizations in the Union led in time and relative numbers and urge their desire for service may be granted.

Pray not only for the spirit but the strong arm of righteousness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol in Honolulu, this 10th day of November, A. D. 1917.

(Seal)
LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of Hawaii.

By the Governor,
(Signed)
Curtis P. Isaaka, Secretary of Hawaii.

Mrs. Richards Tells Of Her Maui Tour

Quite an interesting article appeared in the last issue of The Friend concerning the recent visit of Mrs. Theo. Richards, commissioner of education, to Hawaii and Maui. With regard to the tour of this island the article says:

"On Maui a most illuminating day was spent with Commissioner D. C. Lindsay. Mr. Lindsay proved to be remarkably well acquainted with the schools under his jurisdiction, addressed all the teachers by name and was everywhere greeted with enthusiasm.

"Mr. A. C. MacDonald, the well-known principal of Lahainaluna, showed the visitors over a well equipped plant.

"Mr. Benjamin Wist, the able principal of the Kamehameha III School at Lahaina, also greeted the party. This school building is delightfully situated near the shore and is attractive in a number of respects. It has a particularly well equipped kitchen and domestic science department.

"At Otowalu they found Miss Maria Pitko, for long successful teacher at the Royal School, carrying the same enthusiasm and successful methods into the small school over which she now presides.

"A busy morning was spent visiting Maunaloa Seminary, Hamakua, Maui High, Paia, Spreckelsville, Puunene and Kahului, all in the company of Mr. Lindsay.

"Nothing was seen of the supervising principals, they, apparently, just missing the party at a number of places. The schools on both islands, however, showed no lack of careful supervision."

SCHOOL COTTAGE FURNITURE

Into school cottages, where reported to be needed, a number of pieces of simple furniture have been placed within the past two weeks and there will soon be more to go.

The materials were furnished by the county and the school shops turned out the work.

The furniture placed includes sixteen tables four feet square and suitable for dining tables; twenty seven tables, eighteen by twenty-four inches suitable for dressing or study tables.

Fifteen food safes have been made and a few placed. Sixty chairs formerly used by the Paia School have been taken to school cottages. Those of course were not made in the school shops.

In course of construction now are twenty-eight semi-dressers (having shelves but no drawers or mirror), and twenty supports for standard bed springs.

From what extra pieces were left at the different schools, enough was collected together to very nicely fit up a cottage at Camp 1 for the teachers of the Spreckelsville School.

RED CROSS ITEMS

As the winter is really on in Europe and appeals are coming from Washington for knitted wear the local workers are asked to send in their finished work as soon as possible. Lahaina, Waialuku, Puunene, and Kahului ladies should send finished knitting to Mrs. James Thomson, Kahului, other districts to Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, Paia, or Mrs. J. E. Foster, Hamakua-poko. As soon as enough articles are received a box can be sent. All knitters are asked to note the following directions:

Knitting Directions
Because of a difference in knitting needle sizes in the United States—there being three manufacturers' gauges which, unfortunately, do not correspond—the Pacific Division of the American Red Cross ask that the women follow the printed directions as near as possible, but try out their needles and yarn to see just what measurement a definite number of stitches gives them.

Following are the sizes the articles should be:

- Sleeveless Sweaters—Length, 25 inches; width across chest, from 16 to 20 inches, preferably 18 inches.
- Muffler—11 inches wide; 68 inches long (3 yards, even more acceptable).
- Mittens, or Long Wristlets—12 inches long. Opening should be 3 inches from top.
- Socks—Length should be 11 inches from top of leg to division of heel. Width of leg and of foot, 4 inches. Foot 10 1/2 inches to 12 inches. (11 and 11 1/2 inches average length).

THE PASSING OF HAWAII'S QUEEN

The news of the death of Queen Liliuokalani at Honolulu last Sunday, while not unexpected, was a shock to many on Maui and was received with feelings and expressions of deepest regret. To old-timers it was not only the snapping of the main link between the regal past and the democratic present in Hawaii, but it meant the closing of a life which had passed through the fires of the bitterest antagonism into a career of dignified womanhood and usefulness, and, finally, into a sunset of sincerest respect and love. The younger generation had personally known only of the latter, and to such the death of Hawaii's Queen has possibly been equally impressive.

Many there are who remember the bitterness of the years following the overthrow of the monarchy, in which the Queen was a central figure; the soldiers, the sandbags around the capitol building, the gleaming field pieces, the intrigues, the attempt at restoration in 1895 and the uneasiness until the American flag went up on August 12, 1898. But likewise will they remember the final dignified acquiescence of Liliuokalani in the inevitable and the unfolding of her true character in the manifestation of genuine patriotism and love for all people, friends and former foes, which increased as the passing years drew her career toward life's evening shadows.

Some of those whose lives paralleled the more active years of the late Queen quite possibly remember much to criticize; but in the light of more recent events one is moved to wonder if, after all, her mistakes of the long ago were not inspired entirely by unwise advisers. The future historian and the student yet farther removed from the bitterness of the time will probably so rule; and it is but Christian for us to meet this ultimate conclusion half way. Let us close the veil, so far as is possible, upon these errors of the mind and remember Liliuokalani for what she has been to us for so many years—a good, Christian Queen.

RENEWED ENTHUSIASM NEEDED

We much deplore the necessity of complaining about the waning interest of the ladies of Maui in Red Cross work. A while back there was great enthusiasm and earnestness, but, somehow, of late, there has been a disappointing slackness, both as to attendance upon meetings and as to general results. For instance, at the last meeting in Wailuku, there were only twelve ladies present, while there should have been thirty-five or forty. Numerous other instances, suggesting a weakening of interest, might be recited. This, following a season of the most commendable activity, is the more surprising for the reason that, with the rush of troops to France, the need of the handiwork of the ladies, through the Red Cross, is far more urgent than ever before.

It is hoped that the ladies of Maui will re-muster their enthusiasm in this vitally important work. Please get in touch again with the pressing need; attend the meetings, and help bear the burden of "those who cannot fight."

THE AMERICAN OF FOREIGN DESCENT

A gentleman of a Maui town has handed us a copy of a speech recently delivered by Mr. Otto H. Kahn, of the great banking house of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, German-American, that so clearly defines the true position of foreign-born citizens of this country that we feel called upon to reprint extracts therefrom, as of undoubted interest to our readers. Mr. Kahn, himself German born, said:

"The difference in the degree of guilt as between the German people and their Prussian or Prussianized rulers and leaders for the monstrous crime of this war and the atrocious barbarism of its conduct, is the difference between the man who, acting under the influence of a poisonous drug, runs amuck in mad frenzy and the unspeakable malefactor who administered that drug, well knowing and fully intending the ghastly consequences which were bound to follow.

"The world fervently longs for peace. But there can be no peace answering to the true meaning of the world, no peace permitting the nations of the earth, great and small, to walk unarmed and unafraid, until the teaching and the leadership of the apostles of an outlaw creed shall have become discredited and hateful in the sight of the German people, until that people shall have awakened to a consciousness of the unfathomable guilt of those whom they have followed into calamity and shame, until a mood of penitence and of decent respect for the opinions of mankind shall have supplanted the sway of what President Wilson has so trenchantly termed 'treacherous treachery.'

"When the war commenced," said Mr. Kahn, "I believed that this was no ordinary war between peoples for a question of national interest or even national honor, but a conflict between fundamental principles and ideas; and so believing, I was bound to feel that the natural lines of race, blood and kinship could not be the determining lines for one's attitude and alignment; but that each man, whatever his origin, had to decide according to his judgment and conscience on which side was the right and on which was the wrong and take his stand accordingly, whatever the wrench and anguish of the decision. And thus I took my stand three years ago.

"For we Americans of foreign antecedents are here not by the accidental right of birth, but by our own free choice for better or for worse. We are your fellow citizens because you accepted our oath of allegiance as given in good faith, and because you have opened to us in generous trust the portals of American opportunity and freedom, and have admitted us to membership in the family of Americans, giving us equal rights in the great inheritance which has been created by the blood and the toil of your ancestors, asking nothing from us in return but decent citizenship and adherence to those ideals and principles which are symbolized by the glorious flag of America.

"As Washington led Americans of British blood to fight against Great Britain, as Lincoln called upon Americans of the North to fight their very brothers of the South, so Americans of German descent are now summoned to join in our country's righteous struggle against a people of their own blood which, under the evil spell of a dreadful obsession, and, Heaven knows, through no fault of ours, has made itself the enemy of this peace-loving nation, as it is the enemy of peace and right and freedom throughout the world.

"To gain America's independence, to defeat oppression and tyranny, was indeed to gain a great cause. To preserve the union, to eradicate slavery, was perhaps a greater still. To defend the very foundations of liberty and humanity, the very groundwork of fair dealing between nations, the very basis of peaceably living together among the peoples of the earth against the fierce and brutal onslaught of ruthless, lawless, faithless might; to spend the lives and the fortunes of this generation so that our descendants may be freed from the dreadful calamity of war and the fear of war, so that the energies and millions and billions of treasure now devoted to plans and instruments of destruction, may be given henceforth to fruitful works of peace and progress and to the betterment of the conditions of the people—that is the highest cause for which any people ever unsheathed its sword.

"He who shrinks the full measure of his duty and allegiance in that noblest of causes, be he German-American, Irish-American, or any other hyphenated American, be he I. W. W. or socialist or whatever the appellation, does not deserve to stand amongst Americans or indeed amongst free men anywhere.

"He who, secretly or overtly, tries to thwart the declared will and aim of the nation in this holy war, is a traitor, and a traitor's fate should be his."

WAR SITUATION CHANGED AGAIN

The pendulum of success, which has swung so frequently to one side or the other during the war, seems this week to be again on the side of the Allies, although a week ago it was the other way. With the Italians on the run at the south and Kerensky's government overthrown at Petrograd, the situation a few days ago was not satisfactory. But, now, it is different. The Italians are making a stand, and French and English reinforcements are rushing to their assistance, while the long arm of Uncle Sam is reaching around into the Mediterranean with the "wherewithal". Kerensky, far from being beaten, is asserting his power in such way as promises to bring order out of chaos in the near future, which, while it may not be of material advantage to the Allies in man power, will, at least, prevent the liberation of some 600,000 German prisoners in Russia, the services of whom are now so much needed by the Huns.

A feature of the week's news was to be noted in the small number of vessels torpedoed. The approach of winter may have had something to do with this, but the indication certainly was and is that the submarine campaign is weakening.

Taken altogether, the week has been a very satisfactory one, despite the loss of a few of our own men at the western front.

The December number of the Paradise Of The Pacific indicates in its one hundred pages of valuable reading matter and beautiful illustrations a most ambitious effort. In its riot of coloring and metropolitan adjustment it encroaches closely upon the achievements of greater enterprises of the mainland; and Honolulu and the Islands may quite consistently feel proud of it.

The news in last night's wireless which indicated that the United States had been, or was, shipping sugar to Russia doubtless caused a lifting of eyebrows throughout the land. If it has come to the point where America is called upon to supply a heavy sugar producing country with the commodity, it is little wonder that sugar is unusually high. The circumstance also suggests that Russia is even farther down and out than reports have indicated.

THE RED FISH INVASION

The ancient superstition that visits of red fish in large numbers to the Islands portend the death of some member of the royal family, absurd as it may be, has just had what may be considered by many a remarkable substantiation. A few months ago there started running into and around the harbors of the Islands such schools of alalaua as had not been seen before in five years or more, if not in many years prior to that; and the schools of aweoweo, or grown alalaua, are still here. When the little red fish first started coming in months ago, the older natives shook their heads and declared that one of their aliis must go. It has so turned out. Of course the supposition that there is, or can be, any connection between the two circumstances is ridiculous, but the singular thing to anybody is that the two incidents should have happened together so many times in history, as to create a more or less fixed superstition.

Maui is greatly disappointed that none of the Congressmen are to visit this island, but under the extraordinary circumstances, it is well. We hope that they will remember, when going away, that they missed seeing an important and interesting section of the Territory of Hawaii, and that that may prove an incentive to another visit to the Islands ere long.

Alfred W. Carter says he made a mistake in his first letter and that the price of beef would be raised two cents, in place of one cent, a pound. The thought struck us, originally, that the beef trust was becoming rather liberal in its allowance to the public.

The policy of the Maui board of supervisors not to insure school property is unwise. The money lost on the teachers' cottage at Puunene last week would have paid the insurance on the cottages of the entire island for several years.

The Maui Chamber of Commerce and the Racing Association are both to be congratulated on securing a real home of their own. It is a progressive move.

It was heartless of Oahu to shear the Samsonian locks of our Filipino guardsmen.

Maui's horse is ready for that Hilo marathon, but we have not heard how the others of Mr. Wadsworth's team are coming along.

Queen Liliuokalani's life was a stormy one, and it appears that, even after she is gone, the tempests are to rage about her estate.

Will Electrify Maui Sugar Mill

Now the sugar mill of the Maui Agricultural Co., is to be electrified as a result of the splendid results obtained in the Hawaiian Commercial Mill. The contract for the Maui mill was let yesterday with Catton, Neill & Co., the Honolulu agents of the General Electric Co. This company has recently received orders also for the electrification of the mill of the Oahu Sugar Co., and the one at Ewa.

The order placed yesterday with Catton, Neill & Co., as well as that for the Ewa Company, contracts for the furnishing of 750 kilowatt power plants for their respective mills. Their plans are to replace numerous steam-driven pumps with motor-driven centrifugal pumps. Miscellaneous motors will drive auxiliaries and lights will be furnished the main camps.

The power unit is to be a 750 kilowatt Curtis steam turbogenerator, 440 volts, three phase, designed for non-condensing operation during the grinding season when the exhaust steam will be used in the boiling house. During the off-season the station will be run condensing in order to obtain the highest fuel economy. An induction motor-driven exciter will be used. The switchboard is to be an eight panel board of the latest design. Meters on the board will give readings of the amount of power sent to every portion of the mill.

One feature of the plant is to be the installation of a general electric indicating, recording and integrating steam flow meter.—Star Bulletin.

present, they representing the President officially at the obsequies.

Queen Liliuokalani (Lydia Kamakaha Liliuokalani) was born in Honolulu on September 2, 1838, the descendant of a line of Hawaiian chiefs. In conformity with Hawaiian custom, she was given away in infancy to another chiefly couple, her foster parents placing her in the Royal School where she received an excellent English education. As she grew up she became active in the evangelical church work and was leader of the Kawalahao church choir, and wrote music, among her compositions being "Aloha Oe". While attending school Liliuokalani fell in love with John O. Dominis, son of an American sea captain, who was attending a neighboring school, whom she married in 1862.

Upon his accession to the throne in 1874, Kalakaua named Liliuokalani as his heiress apparent, and twice after that she was Princess Regent, once when the King toured the world and later when he went to San Francisco to be brought back in the U. S. S. Charleston a corpse.

In 1887 Queen Kapiolani and the Princess Liliuokalani visited England to attend the jubilee of Queen Victoria.

Liliuokalani was proclaimed Queen of Hawaii on January 29, 1891, and, after a stormy period of slightly less than two years, abdicated on January 17, 1893, yielding, as she put it, "to the superior forces of the United States".

In 1895 the Queen was tried and convicted of treason in connection with the attempted revolution in January of that year, and sentenced to imprisonment for five years and to pay a fine of $5,000. After being kept for several months a prisoner on the second floor of the present capitol building at Honolulu, she was pardoned by President Dole, of the Republic of Hawaii.

After that Queen Liliuokalani visited Washington several times to press a claim for $250,000 for the Crown lands, which had been taken over by the Republic of Hawaii. The Legislature afterward made a permanent settlement upon the Queen of $1,000 a month, still later increasing the amount to $1200 a month. This, with her own income from private properties, enabled her to live in comparative comfort.

Since her acceptance of the situation, she has lived at Washington Place, her old home, maintaining there more or less of a court, with retainers and loyal friends about her. She took a live interest in public events and also in religious enterprises. For several months she had been very feeble, although she received callers on the occasion of her 79th birthday, on September 2, last.

Teachers Will Sing "Canning The Kaiser"

At their convention to be held in the Pala school building on November 30 the teachers of Maui will sing the new song "Canning The Kaiser", written by Upton Sinclair and sung to the tune of "Marching Through Georgia." It has been predicted that this song will take an advance position over "Tipperary" and that it will prove the hit of the year. Following are the words of "Canning The Kaiser":

Bring the good old bugle, boys, we'll sing another song,
Sing it with a spirit that will move the world along,
Sing it as we need to sing it, half a million strong—
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Chorus—
Oh, Bill! oh, Bill! We're on the job today!
Oh, Bill! oh, Bill! We'll seal you so you'll stay!

We'll put you up with ginger in the good old Yankee way—
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Hear the song we're singing on the shining roads of France;
Hear the Tommies cheering, and see the Pollus prance;
Afr'anders and Kanucks and Scots without their pants—
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Bring the guns from Bethlehem, by way of old New York;
Bring the beans from Boston, and don't leave out the pork;
Bring a load of soda-pop, and pull the grape-juice cork—
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Come, you men from Dixieland, you lumber-jacks of Maine;
Come, you Texas cowboys and you farmers of the plain;
From Florida to Oregon, we boast the Yankee strain—
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Now we've started on the job, we mean to put it through;
Ship the kings and kaisers, and make the world anew;
Clear the way for common folk, for men like me and you—
While we are canning the Kaiser.

Paying His Way

In a rural court the old squire had made a ruling so unfair that three young lawyers at once protested against such a miscarriage of justice. The squire immediately fined each of the lawyers $5 for contempt of court.

There was silence, and then an older lawyer walked slowly to the front of the room and deposited a $10 bill with the clerk. He then address the judge as follows:

"Your Honor, I wish to state that I have twice as much contempt for this court as any man in the room."—Youth's Companion.

Our Island Contemporaries

Lucky Hawaii

Hawaii has well been termed "The Isles of the Blest" and in these times when other parts of the world are torn and damned by the horrors of war and when everything is so upset that there does not seem to be any happiness possible anywhere it is good to look at our own happy land and sum up how well we are off.

These islands present the best possible picture of wealth and general prosperity. Everybody is happy and even the plantation laborers, who hail from about every country in the world are better off than they or any of their ancestors ever were. In addition to their wages, which are much higher than they could have obtained in any other country in the world, they receive a bonus that amounts to just about three-quarters of their monthly pay. Just imagine that—three-quarters of their regular salary as a bonus!

Plantation employees in Hawaii are indeed a very favored class of workers. In no other part of the world could field laborers possibly obtain such pay. And, this bonus system has prevailed for five years or so in the past. There is no other class of labor in the world which has been treated so well, and it all goes to prove that Hawaii nei is the best place on earth.—Hawaii Herald.

A Wise And Safe Suggestion

The suggestion that the condemned man who has confessed to the murder and there asked to identify matters in connection with the killing before another who stands accused is turned loose, is by most people, considered a wise one. That knowing he was to die under any circumstances, he might have made the confession for the purpose of saving a countryman, is so feasible that it is sound reason to feel that he should be given an opportunity to definitely demonstrate particulars pertaining to the murder to which he is said to have confessed.—Hawaii Post.

The American press has noted with enthusiasm that Mexico has been putting her house in order. With characteristic generosity, it has given the credit to Senor Carranza; he is proving more of a statesman than his early labors at that business indicated as possible.

But there is a hint in an article by Carl Ackermann in the Saturday Evening Post that there is another reason for the cessation of civil war in our neighbor's household. The Mexicans are running out of ammunition. What they get is by smuggling, and that is in dribbles. It takes a lot of cartridges to keep wholesale murder going. Lacking cartridges, our olive-headed friends turn sadly to the gray ways of peace.

Whatever really has come over the spirit of Mexico, the pronouncements of the First Chief or a shortage in gunpowder, may the good work continue. Mexicans with their caeti smoothed out seem a quite different family of the animal kingdom than those who, but a little while ago, were slinking along the international border with German-made knives between their teeth.—The Service.

Lahaina Items

Rev. and Mrs. Willis B. Coale, returned on Friday night's Mauna Kea from Kohala.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosecrans and Miss Rosecrans spent Sunday with friends in Lahaina.

Mrs. William Nicoll, of Hamakua-poko, spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fleming at Honouli.

Mr. and Mrs. Westley, of Hamakua, Hawaii, were in Lahaina on Wednesday and Thursday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Decoto.

Mrs. W. H. Hindle, representing Jeff's Fashion Company, was at the Pioneer Hotel on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

A number of Lahaina folks, on Sunday last, motored over to Iao Valley, where they had a picnic and a very pleasant outing. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Decoto, Mr. and Mrs. Keeney, Doctor and Mr. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Wist, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Cockroff, Miss Merriman, Miss Amy, Miss Wolfe, Mrs. Gossine and Mr. Lufkin.

Conservation and Economic Efficiency

By Mrs. D. H. CASE

Mr. Hoover urges the women of America to eliminate waste and preach the gospel of the clean plate. He might supplement this appeal with one to the men of America to eliminate a few cocktails and cigarettes and preach the gospel of the clean life, which would add marvelously to their own and their brothers' efficiency. In a talk to the Mills Club, of San Francisco, Mrs. Robert Burdette said she would take as her subject the 11th Commandment—"Thou shalt not be inefficient." I should like to add a twelfth commandment—"Thou shalt not make thy brother inefficient." If the women of America have a work to do, so likewise have the men of America, in helping to eliminate this needless extravagance of wasted vitality, of degraded womanhood and lowered ideals. We would not exhaust a storage battery by constant drainage and expect to continue giving efficient service; why then, do we not realize the more important fact that if we recklessly and wantonly use up our own vitality, each succeeding generation must necessarily be weakened in physical, mental and moral stamina. Let us stop coquetting with one of the worst enemies our country can ever know! Let us awaken from the self hypnosis of belief that of all the animals man alone has more imperative physical needs, and save our girls as well as our boys. If present social conditions continue, there must be a supply of women to meet the demand, and from whose homes shall they come—from yours and mine? Last year in the States alone over 5,000 young girls disappeared, no trace of them being found by their friends. Add to this five thousand the many thousands of others, who, through various means, are tempted into a life that is worse for them than death—for we are not content with tempted womanhood—and we get another phase of extravagant waste. Are these the boasted ideals for which we are today offering the lives of our young manhood?

"In all the European armies now at war the ravages of vice up to the present time have been very great. For more than the first year of the war one of the great Powers had more men incapacitated for service by venereal disease than in the fighting at the front. Last year there were 17,000 cases concentrated in a single hospital camp.

"When in addition to this direct wastage of military strength we consider the number of men and the expense required in caring for these, we get some idea of the seriousness of the problem from a military point of view alone. It may easily spell the difference between victory or defeat.

"On the Mexican border, vice in its most flagrant forms flourished extensively in the environment of the military camps. The vice-districts became virtually the playground of the arm."

Dr. Esner of the educational bureau of the National Y. M. C. A. in making the above report to the government says:

"Thousands of fine fellows who came to the border clean in their lives, and with fair promises to keep their manhood untainted fell victims to the allurements of commercialized vice and returned home if not injured in health, certainly demoralized in the finest qualities of their manhood.

"We have in the past looked too exclusively on the military side of this problem. The most serious consequences are social consequences. A vast amount of disease necessarily remaining uncured, and brought back into society, extends its ravages to many generations. The shattered ideals, sensualized minds, and perverse practices, affecting so largely the best young manhood of the nation, permeates the whole life of society and sets it back in those spiritual values which mark the real level of a nation's life."

"Our soldier boys in France and in our own American camps need safety from those insidious dangers which infest our cities and towns and, terribly reinforced by the circumstances of military life, are waiting to taunt body and soul. The moral atmosphere of the encampments where a million young men will soon be preparing themselves for war is the most critical element in a situation already full enough of anxiety and unhappiness for those who are left at home.

"When war was declared on April 5, 1917, the Government realized that aside from definite military preparations it was absolutely necessary to take effective steps toward the repression of alcohol and its twin sister, vice.

"There were stern facts to face, and theories were out of place. The Government was determined that vice should not imperil the efficiency of the millions of young men who may eventually be called to the colors. So far as possible, proposes to follow its soldiers aboard to aid them in this time of special trial."

The secretary of war has created a commission on training camp activities for the purpose of counteracting harmful influences by a constructive plan of social activities. Through the international committee of the Y. M. C. A. and various other boards, committees and councils, the moral safeguard of the men is assured, with the co-operation of the men themselves. Twelve hundred young men in training in San Francisco have taken the following pledge:

"Aware of the temptations incidental to camp life and the moral and social wreckage involved, we convenant together to live the clean life and to seek to establish the American uniform as a symbol and guarantee of real manhood.

"We pledge our example and our influence to make these ideals dominant in the American army."

Is not the present time a golden opportunity to get behind the young manhood that is offering itself on the altar of American ideals and help them reconstruct some of those ideals that their sacrifice may not be in vain?

Mr. Hilton Ralley, writing in the Independent, says: "It has hitherto been the lot of the mothers, in times of national crises, to bear the brunt of the subsequent discord and inharmonious; to give their all and suffer amid the silent ruins of their hearts."

Now is the time when that home firm of Father, Mother & Co., can work together in aiding the government not only in making this war as free from pain and sorrow and disease and regret as possible, but in assuring to that Company and to future generations an America of safety in every vital sense of the word.

Maui Agricultural Notes

Comparative Test Of Lima Beans

At the Haiku Sub-Station there has been completed a comparative test of ten varieties Lima beans. The seed was planted February 26, 1917. All the bush varieties had produced eatable green beans by May 15. The pole varieties were about a month later in producing the first eatable green beans. Notwithstanding the exceptionally dry summer the pole varieties continued to bear profusely up to the last week in October at which time the remaining pods had ripened and were harvested for seed. The dwarf or bush type ceased producing pods about the middle of August, hence the bush varieties produced eatable beans for about four and a half months during an exceptionally dry season. Roughly speaking the pole Limas produced fully two to three times as many beans as the bush form. The main advantage of the bush type is their earlier maturity and self-supporting character; likewise do they require less room. Emphasis should be placed on the fact that long continuity of fruiting is greatly encouraged by clean picking of the pods as they reach the eatable stage. If left to mature the growing season is much shortened. Below is list of the varieties under test. The varieties are placed in the order of their general merit.

- Bush Type
- Large Seeded
1. Burpee's Fordhook Bush.
 2. Burpee's Bush Lima.
 3. Henderson's Improved Bush.
 4. Los Angeles Wonder.
 5. Burpee's Improved Bush.
- Pole Type
1. Moushous Semi-Climbing.
 2. Skilman Semi-Climbing.
 3. Lewis.
 4. Burpee's Giant Poddid.
 5. Dreeer's Improved Character.
- No type of beans are more prolific or nutritious as well as palatable as the Limas.—F. G. K.

Holiday Declared

In honor of her late Majesty Liliuokalani, the afternoon of Friday, November 16, 1917, is hereby declared a holiday for the public schools and the public departments of the Territory of Hawaii.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM, Governor.

BY AUTHORITY

PUBLIC LANDS FOR HOMESTEADS

Opening of Public Lands for Homesteads on the Island of Maui.

Notice is hereby given that the public land hereinafter described will be opened for homesteading as follows, in accordance with law and subject to withdrawal before their selection:

1. LOCATION OF LAND. The land to be opened is on the Island of Maui, and is known as the Haleakala Homesteads, in the District of Makawao.

2. CHARACTER OF LAND. The land in this tract is agricultural-pastoral land.

3. TERMS AND METHODS OF DISPOSITION. The persons entitled to take up said land will be determined by drawing or allotment. Either husband or wife, but not both, may make application to participate in the drawing.

Each person may take one lot. These lots may be taken only by Right of Purchase Lease, conditions of lease to be such as imposed by law. Possession will be given at once. Exceptions and reservations will be made for existing flumes, ditches, reservoirs, streams, wire and pipe lines, trails and railroads. No lot will be sold as wet lands with appurtenant water rights. All waters are reserved for the public or common use and benefit.

4. APPLICATION FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE DRAWING. All persons qualified to take homesteads may, on or before Monday, January 14th, 1918, at 4 o'clock P. M., but not thereafter, present to the Commissioner of Public Lands, Honolulu, by ordinary mail, but not in person or by registered mail, or otherwise, sealed envelopes containing their applications for participation in the drawing herein provided for; but no envelope shall contain more than one application or any other paper than the application and no person shall present more than one application for this drawing.

All such applications must be made on blank forms furnished by the Commissioner of Public Lands or his agent, and must show the full name, mail address, age, height, weight and sex of the applicant, and whether he or she is single or married, and be sworn to by him or her before a sub-agent of public lands, notary public, judge or other officer authorized to administer oaths, and must be mailed in envelopes furnished by the Commissioner or any such agent.

All such envelopes shall have printed upon them the Commissioner's address and the words "Application, Drawing for District of," the blank in which quotation must be filled in with the district in which the land desired is situated; and no such envelope shall indicate the person by whom it was presented or mailed or bear any mark of identification. All envelopes must be securely sealed and should have the requisite stamps attached thereto before they are placed in the mail.

Any person who presents more than one application for this land drawing, or any application in any other than his true name, shall not be permitted to participate in such drawing.

All envelopes which indicate by whom they are presented or mailed will be opened as soon as received and the application therein will forthwith be returned to the applicant.

5. DRAWING AND ASSIGNMENT OF ORDER OF SELECTION. Upon receiving any such envelope properly addressed and properly endorsed as above required, the Commissioner will deposit it in a suitable container, into which will be deposited only and all such envelopes as are properly endorsed for the drawing, and such container will be so constructed and so kept as to prevent envelopes deposited therein from being removed therefrom without detection until they are publicly opened on the day when the drawing and assignment are made.

At 9 o'clock A. M., at the Capitol Building, Honolulu, on Tuesday, January 15th, 1918, or as soon thereafter as may be, the container for such land drawing will be publicly opened and all the envelopes therein will be thoroughly mixed, and will then be taken, one at a time, impartially and indiscriminately, from such container and the applications contained in such envelopes when correct in form and execution, will be numbered serially in the order in which they are taken, beginning with number one, and the numbers thus assigned shall determine the order in which the persons named therein may select and take lots.

A list of the applicants to whom numbers are assigned showing the number assigned to each of them, will be conspicuously posted, and furnished to the papers for publication as a matter of news and notice of the number assigned and the time and place he must appear to make his selection will be promptly mailed to the address set forth in the application of each person to whom a number is assigned.

All applications which are not correct in form and execution will be marked "Rejected, imperfectly executed," and filed in the order in which they are rejected, and notice thereof will be sent to the persons who presented such applications.

6. SELECTION OF LOTS. Beginning at 12 o'clock, noon, on Saturday, February 2nd, 1918, at the Court House, Wailuku, Maui.

Any persons holding numbers assigned to them for any such land drawing may make their selection of the lots that are open to selection and desired by them in the order in which their applications for participation are numbered.

other applicants assigned have been disposed of, when his name will be called again, and if he then fails to appear and make his selection, he will be deemed to have abandoned his right to select.

7. PROOF AT TIME OF SELECTION. At the time he appears to make his selection, each applicant must be prepared to show his qualifications to take a homestead by affidavit in the form prescribed by the Commissioner, and otherwise. If any applicant is not a citizen of the United States by birth, he must present at the same time either the original of a certified copy of his declaration of intention to become a citizen, or of the order of the court admitting him to citizenship; and if an applicant who is not born in the United States claims citizenship through his father's naturalization while he was under twenty-one years of age, he must present a certified copy of the order of the court admitting his father to citizenship.

No person who appears to be disqualified to take a homestead will be permitted to make a selection, or in case he has made a selection, to receive the necessary papers or take or retain possession of the lot selected.

8. FORMS, MAPS, INFORMATION. Blank forms of applications, addressed envelopes for applications, blank forms of affidavits of qualifications, other necessary forms and information in regard to the lands to be opened and the terms under which they may be taken, may be obtained from the Commissioner of Public Lands at Honolulu, or from Sub Agent W. O. Aiken, Paia, Maui.

TERRITORY OF HAWAII
BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF AGRICULTURE AND FORESTRY
RULE XIII
DIVISION OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY.

Rule and Regulation of the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry concerning the Keeping and Breeding of Rabbits.

The Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry of the Territory of Hawaii hereby makes the following rule and regulation pertaining to the keeping and breeding of rabbits in the Territory of Hawaii in accordance with Act 50 of the Session Laws of Hawaii of 1917.

Section 1. Every keeper or breeder of rabbits or hares, whether the same are kept singly, as pets or in numbers for their meat, skins, or other purposes, must obtain from the Board of Agriculture and Forestry a permit to keep or breed rabbits.

Section 2. In order to obtain such permit it is necessary for the applicant to submit to the Board of Agriculture and Forestry an affirmed statement to the effect that he will use due diligence and take every possible precaution to the end that such rabbits, for whatsoever purpose kept, remain confined.

Section 3. Applicants for permits must obtain from the said Board or its local representative an application blank to be filled in and returned.

This rule shall take effect upon its approval by the Governor of Hawaii.

Approved this 30th day of October, 1917.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM, Governor of Hawaii, Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii.

- TOMATOES
- 1. Broiled Tomatoes
Cut large tomatoes in half, sprinkle with salt, pepper and fine bread crumbs and broil 5 minutes. Slip on to hot platter, dot with butter, place in oven 5 minutes and serve hot.
 - 2. Sautéed Tomatoes
Slice, season with salt and pepper, dip in crumbs and egg, saute in a little fat in frying pan and serve on hot toast.
 - 3. Escalloped Tomatoes
These may be made by alternating layers of sliced tomatoes with either bread crumbs, cold boiled rice, or macaroni, sprinkled with salt and pepper, dot with butter or peanut butter for variety, cover with milk and bake till done. May add a tbl. finely chopped onion and a clove also for seasoning.
 - 4. Stuffed Tomatoes
Scoop out pulp of large tomatoes and mix pulp with cold rice, or macaroni, or bread crumbs, or cold creamed fish, add seasoning of salt, pepper, a little onion juice and a little grated cheese. Bake in oven till well heated through.
 - 5. Spiced Tomato Sauce for cold meats, etc.
1 qt. tomato (cooked or raw) - finely chopped onion, 1 small red pepper, or 1/2 ts. cayenne, 1 ts. salt, 2 ts. sugar, 1 ts. mixed ground spices, (mace, cloves, allspice and cinnamon), and 1 cup cider vinegar. Boil for 3 hours slowly. 1 tbl. Worcestershire and a clove of garlic add a pleasant flavor.
 - 6. Tomato Jelly Salad
1 1/2 pts. cooked tomato pulp and juice, 1/2 box gelatine, 2 ts. cold water, 1 ts. sugar, 1/2 ts. salt. Soak gelatine in water until dissolved. Heat tomato to boiling point, add gelatine, sugar and salt, strain and set in mould to harden.
 - 7. Wild Tomato Jam. (Mrs. W. S. N.)
Boil 3 cups brown sugar, and 2 cups water with 1/2 doz. whole cloves and a small piece of stick cinnamon until it threads. Pour over 2 cups small tomatoes that have been peeled by scalding and boil gently until syrup becomes jelly like. Do not allow tomatoes to break up. Is improved by adding a slice of lemon while cooking.
 - 8. Green Tomato Pickle
Slice 2 qts. green tomatoes, cover with 1 cup salt, dissolved in 1 qt. cold water, and drain after 2 hours. Add to tomatoes, 1 qt. pure cider vinegar, 1 lb. brown sugar, and 1 level ts. each allspice, mustard, cinnamon, and 1 level ts. each pepper, cloves, and celery seed. Boil for 1/2 hour, then let simmer 2 hours.
 - 9. Tomato Marmalade
Peel and measure fruit on hand.

- Allow 1 lb. sugar to 1 lb. tomato. To every 7 lbs. use the juice of 6 oranges and of 3 lemons. Add the grated rind of 3 oranges and of 1 lemon and boil down to a thick marmalade. Stir often. Seal in jars.
 - 10. Peanut Tomato Soup
To 2 cups hot strained tomato pulp, add 1 level ts. soda, 1 cup water, 1/2 cup peanut butter, 1 tbl. grated onion, 1 qt. milk, seasoning to taste. Heat in double boiler, thicken with 1/2 ts. cornstarch.
 - 11. Oatmeal Tomato Soup
1 cup canned tomato, 1 cup water, 3 tbl. rolled oats 1/2 tbl. sugar, 1/4 tbl. chopped onion, salt and pepper to taste. Simmer all together for 1/2 hour, sieve, reheat and serve hot.
 - 12. Green Tomato Mince-meat
1 cup suet chopped with 4 green tomatoes and 4 sour apples. Add 1 cup brown sugar, 1/3 cup vinegar, 1/3 lb. raisins, 1 tbl. flour, 1/3 tbl. each of cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves, and salt. Cook 20 minutes and seal. Makes 2 qts.
- BUGLE CALL FOR CHILDREN
Mrs. A. C. Alexander has sent the following notice from Honolulu with the request that it be published, as this is the work the ladies of Maui are trying to do in the schools:
The Women's Committee of the Territorial Food Commission presents publicly to school children the necessity of food conservation, and recommends to them and their parents.
First—That it is patriotic to waste no bread or other kind of food. The Committee realizes that probably 70% of the children have no food to waste, and this advice is directed to the other 30%.
Second—That it is patriotic to eat less white bread, and to learn to like substitutes. The Committee counts as "Obstructionists" those who misinterpret this teaching as taking food from children.
Third—The Committee endorses garden planting and the use of home products.
Outlined in stronger terms the Committee feels that the sooner every man, woman, and child in Hawaii has a realizing sense that America is fighting, and that each has a part in the fight, the sooner the fighting will be over.
The Committee believes that only German policy would hide even from children the destructive fact that America is fighting a barbarous enemy, and fights to win.

AT THE THEATERS

"Freckles"
Briefly, the story of "Freckles" is the tale of a one-armed orphan who becomes so highly incensed and is so severely wounded by the gibes and taunts of his fellow inmates of the home that he runs away. Despite the one arm, he is absolutely fearless and soon makes his mark in the MacLean lumber camp by whipping the camp bully. He is given a job as a watchman in the treacherous and snake-infested L'amberlost where his courage and devotion to duty nearly cost him his life.
In the cast supporting Miss Huff and Jack Pickford are such notables as Lillian Leighton, Hobart Bosworth, Billie Elmer, E. H. Martin, Jane Wolf and Ernest Joy.
"Unconquered"
In this play Fannie Ward is Mrs. Jackson, the wife of a millionaire, whom she married when she was too young to know of his cruel nature. Her whole thought and life are devoted to her little son Billy. Mrs. Lenning, a designing widow, gives Jackson the idea that his wife is trying to distract Billy's affection from him and he tries to buy the boy's love with candy and toys. Jackson commands his wife to extend an invitation to Mrs. Lenning to call upon them at their Florida home, threatening to take Billy with him if she refuses. Richard Darcier, a writer, is ordered to Florida by his physician and he and Billy become fast friends. Richard's caretaker, Jake, half crazed negro, who is frightened into making a sacrifice to the Voodoo, is about to kill little Billy, when Richard and Mrs. Jackson rescue him, but the negro stabs Richard before they take him to an asylum. During Richard's illness a wonderful friendship is formed between him, little Billy and Mrs. Jackson, while on the other hand Mrs. Lenning is gradually succeeding in influencing Jackson to get a divorce from his wife. To further their desires they purposely allow Mrs. Jackson to overhear a conversation which will induce her to run away with Billy. She does and they surprise her in Richard's home. Jackson secures a divorce and the boy. One day while Billy is out with his nurse, Mrs. Jackson kidnaps him and places him in a cave while she goes for food. While she is gone, Jake, the half-crazed negro, who has escaped from the asylum, steals in the cave. The nurse gives the alarm just as Jackson is married to Mrs. Lenning. Jackson and his men rush to the Darcier home and Mrs. Jackson goes back to the cave. Almost simultaneously word comes that Jake has escaped and Richard realizing the danger, takes Jackson with him and goes at once to the cave. He reaches there just as the mother is about to sacrifice her life for the boy. On witnessing this scene, Jackson realizes her love for the child and gives him to her. She is made doubly happy by his possession and her new found love in Richard.
"Sister Against Sister"
Virginia Pearson in "Sister Against Sister."
The parents of Katherine and Anne separate. Katherine goes with her father and is brought up among the slums. She becomes a social culture. Anne is brought up by her mother. She saves Dunsmore from Huxley's frame-up. He falls in love with her. Huxley has Katherine lure Dunsmore to an apartment. He thinks she is Anne. The men fight and Katherine kills Huxley. Dunsmore, thinking her Anne lets her escape. At the trial he hides the woman's name. To save Dunsmore, Anne says she is the murderer. Katherine rushes into the court and confesses.
"The Americano"
"The Americano", which opens next week on Maui is a mirthful story which has its setting in Central America, and the chief figures in the picture is Douglas Fairbanks, who needs little introduction to Maui theater-goers.
In his new role Fairbanks is an American mining engineer and the character is one that combines many qualities, all of them laugh provoking. The fun reaches its height when Fairbanks, as the breezy engineer, becomes commander-in-chief of the army as an incident of a revolution in the southern republic. His exploits and achievements keep all spectators on edge. The role is a departure from those of other pictures in which he has been seen here, but he wins his audience in just the same fashion he did in "The Half Breed," "The Good Bad Man" and "His Picture in the Papers," all well remembered screen offerings here.

Hawaii Post Buys Out Hawaii Herald
By a deal that was consummated on Wednesday last, the Hawaii Herald became merged in the Hawaii Post and the interests in the former company were purchased by the men who control the Post.
It is planned to issue a modern daily newspaper under a title that will be announced later on. Today's News will be dropped, as will the present Hawaii Daily Post and the new paper will take the place of those two dailies. A weekly paper will also be issued by the new company and it will carry all the news of the county and elsewhere.
The business will be conducted at the present location of The Hawaii Herald and extensive alterations and additions will be made to the building. The mechanical plant will be greatly enlarged and an up-to-date printing plant will be installed.
The new paper will carry all the cable and wireless news of the world and also, of course, the local happenings which will be gathered and written up by first-class men who know the newspaper game from start to finish.
As a first-class afternoon paper, the new journal should prove to be popular with readers and advertisers. The management is determined to give the best possible news service of experts in every department pertaining to an up-to-date newspaper and job printing establishment.
Announcement of the date of the appearance of the new paper, its name and all full details of everything in connection with the matter, will be made in the near future.—Hawaii Herald.

Endorse Pledge For Conservation
The Sixth Civic Convention, held at Honolulu in September, passed a resolution that each organization represented secure from each of its members a pledge looking to conservation of food by certain economies in the matter of the use of bread. Tuesday afternoon the trustees of the Maui Chamber of Commerce took up the matter, approved the resolution and decided to send copies to the members for their guidance. The resolution was as follows:
Be it resolved that each organization represented at this Sixth Annual Civic Convention obtain from each of its individual members a pledge reading as follows:
"I hereby pledge that for the duration of the war I will endeavor that the following rules will be observed in my household:
"1. That one meal each day shall be served without wheat-food other than bread.
"2. That one meal each day shall be served without meats.
"3. That bread shall be sliced during each meal only as required for immediate consumption.
"4. That at three meals each week at least one dish shall be served prepared from food unconsumed at previous meals."
And be it further resolved that all members of said organizations be urged to encourage the obtaining of a similar pledge from members of fraternal or other organizations to which they belong.

New Concrete Flumes On Wailuku Plantation

The work of walling the ditches with concrete slabs on the upper reaches of the Wa'luku section of the Wailuku plantation is proceeding rapidly, a stretch of between two and three hundred yards being already finished. This work on the ditches was preceded by the establishment of concrete flumes across gulches in the neighborhood of immediate activities. The intention is to bring the concrete fluming down for a distance of about two miles, to the Waikapu section of the plantation.

The concrete slabs used in the work are four inches thick and set lengthwise with the ditch, with tongue and groove connections, and cemented.

They are made on the ground, in wooden molds. A completed section is, therefore, a solid cement wall rising two to three feet above the water, permanent, and having the effect of greatly accelerating the speed of the water to the lower lands.

The use of concrete for lining plantation ditches is quite common, but its use in the particular form and manner now being employed at Wailuku is an innovation, so much so that Manager Penhallow has applied for a patent on the idea and will undoubtedly get it.

The cost of the entire system of new fluming will run in the neighborhood of $25,000, but will amply justify itself, perforce of its permanent character and the rapidity with which it will deliver water.

The big, new sugar warehouse at Wailuku mill is nearing completion and will be ready for use in about two weeks—well ahead of the coming grinding season.

Frederick G. Hummel, manager, and John M. Peirce, assistant, of the Mutual Telephone Company, Honolulu, were guests at Field's Maui Hotel from Saturday morning to Monday night. They came here for the purpose of looking thoroughly over the system of the Maui Telephone Company and assembling information to be used in determining equitable rates of exchange of stock in the amalgamation proposition. They completed a very thorough inspection of the entire equipment.

Mr. Hummel is quoted as speaking in very flattering terms of the local telephone system, which he considered up-to-date, the working material being of best quality and in excellent condition, and the service good.

It is assumed that, following the report of Mr. Hummel to the head office, the next and, possibly, final, steps looking to amalgamation will be taken up.

The Fish Combine To Include Maui

Information has been received that one of the big fishing combinations of Honolulu has effected a deal with the fishermen of Maui which will result in at least half of the catch of aku around this island being diverted to and sold in Honolulu. Strenuous efforts are being made to get all of the Maui fishermen in on the deal, and indications now are that success will be met with.

The effect of the deal between the Oahu combination and the Maui fishermen will be a greatly increased supply of fish for Honolulu, but may be serious in its local consequences. Certain it is that there will be fish shortages right along, and it is freely predicted that there will be a considerable advance in fish prices on Maui after December 1.

There is talk, however, of certain prominent white men coming to the rescue, putting on a fleet of sampans and entering the fishing business on a large scale. But at best it would be sometime before they would be ready to operate, and in the meanwhile fish promise to be fish.

Tax Collections Heavy

Tax collections in Wailuku this November, to date, have exceeded those of last November by $16,000 and will be more still when the "slackers" have been rounded up. It is believed at this writing that collections in the other districts of the island will show a similar increase.

Soldiers Boys Have Luau And Then Dance

The Kahului boys in the National Guard gave a luau in the camp at Kahului Saturday evening, last. A pavilion was erected and beautifully decorated with greens and about six o'clock the boys in their uniforms gathered with their friends to enjoy a feast in good Hawaiian style. The food was excellently prepared and the luau was a decided success.

About 8 o'clock all repaired to the Community House where dancing was enjoyed until twelve o'clock. After the last dance all joined in singing "Aloha Oe" and departed for their homes. The dance was a very pleasant affair and much enjoyed by all present.

Congressmen Not To Visit Maui After All

crowded with passengers, going down for the funeral of the late Queen Liliuokalani.

Yesterday another wireless came, in reply, stating that Senators Miles Poindexter, of Washington, and W. H. Thompson, of Kansas, would like to stop over if it could be guaranteed that they would be able to get away on the Wilhelmina; and that at least four Representatives would also like to stop over. Of course it was not possible to make any such guarantee. Mr. Baldwin so stated the situation by wireless.

Last night a wireless message came from W. R. Farrington to Mr. Baldwin, stating that the Maui call was "all off", meaning that the entire party would return direct to Honolulu.

There is a remote possibility that some of the visitors may come to Maui after the tour of Kauai, but this is so extremely doubtful as to be hardly worth thinking about.

PUNISHED FOR STEALING

Simon Martin, Spaniard, was arraigned in Wailuku district court this morning on a charge of larceny. He was accused of stealing horse feed from the Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co., yesterday, entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to pay a fine of $10, the punishment being made light on account of the man having a dependent family.

ENTERTAIN TEACHERS

Commissioner D. C. Lindsay has extended an invitation to all of the teachers attending the annual convention at Paia school next Friday to have luncheon at his home, and, as far as can be learned, no "regrets" will be sent in.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Doctor and Mrs. James Harvey Raymond announce the engagement of their niece, Mary Sophia Schrader, to Robert Gordon von Tempsky of Maui.

Queen Honored Here On Separate Days

When notice was received from Honolulu that the Governor had proclaimed a half holiday for Friday in the schools of the Territory, out of respect to the memory of the late Queen Liliuokalani, a request was rushed to Honolulu that insofar as this island was concerned, Monday was preferable and that the entire day be allowed, in order that teachers might go to Honolulu tonight or tomorrow night, take in the funeral and be back at work Tuesday morning.

The results were disappointing, however. Yesterday a wireless was received by Commissioner D. C. Lindsay informing him that a change could not now be made.

Insofar as Maui county is concerned, however, a different arrangement from either of these has been made, for Saturday will be all holiday. All county business will be suspended tomorrow and road and other public workers will have the entire day off. This notice had been sent out prior to the receipt of the Governor's proclamation in respect to Territorial offices and will not be changed. THE MAUI NEWS will follow the lead of the county, and, after the Daily Wireless has been issued tomorrow morning, all employees will be given the balance of the day off.

It is reported around that the Claudine, leaving for the city tomorrow afternoon, will be crowded to the guardrails with Hawaiians and others, going down to attend the funeral of the late Queen. Tonight's steamer from Lahaina will also take a large number.

Jerry Broderick, Horseman Is Dead

Jerry Broderick, one of the oldest and best-known horse trainers in the Islands, died at the Mahulani hospital, Wailuku, at 11:35 yesterday morning. The funeral took place from the Catholic church, Wailuku, at 9 o'clock this morning and interment was in the Wailuku cemetery.

Broderick came to the Islands many years ago and trained horses for several days, being longest and best known in connection with the string of H. A. Baldwin. Afterward he was at the Parker Ranch, on Hawaii, handling horses for Manager A. W. Carter.

Last Friday something akin to bloodpoisoning developed from a scratch on the head of the old trainer and the next day it was found necessary to remove him to the hospital, where he died, as above stated.

Vaterland In Service

Attorney Eugene Murphy, of Wailuku, received a letter this week from his sister in New York, in which is contained the following interesting reference: "We are all watching the great 'Vaterland,' which has been repaired and renamed the 'Leviathan'. She is to carry 10,000 men to France and the Germans are determined to get her. She is at the Hamburg-American docks, just alongside the Lakawanna ferries. Last week some of the transports were receiving their loads of Khaki-clad boys as I was returning from school. They were crowded. The next morning they were gone. Our parish of about 3,000 souls had contributed 175 to the draft before the third quota was called."

Kahului Shipping

The feature at Kahului wharf at the beginning of the week was the arrival of the two steamers on special trips to take the National Guard to Honolulu. The Mauna Loa got away Sunday morning and the Claudine Sunday night.

The Mauna steamship Wilhelmina arrived this morning from Honolulu, bringing one day later mail and 1300 tons of cargo. She will sail again tomorrow afternoon for Honolulu.

The Larline will arrive at Kahului toward the last of next week, the exact date not yet known.

Program Mapped Out But To No Purpose

The committee on entertainment of the visiting Congressmen met at the Baldwin Bank, in Kahului, at 10 o'clock, Monday morning and between then and noon mapped out a very attractive program for the pleasure of the visitors.

However: Two hours later came the wireless information that the party would not stop here at all on the way back from Hawaii, but would go straight on to Honolulu in order to attend the funeral of the late Queen Liliuokalani.

GETTING READY FOR RACE

Preparations are being rapidly completed for the horse race program to be pulled off at Kahului race track on the afternoon of Saturday, December 1. Six horses are now at the track. Mr. von Tempsky has three there. Fitzgerald's Copra is also there. McPhee has his Mary J. and a two-year old in training.

HONOLULU NEWS NOTES

The opportunity afforded the public to view the body of the late Queen yesterday proved so popular that many could not get in at all. Mayor Joe Fern was much affected and was seen to weep copiously. A. P. Taylor took a prominent part as head usher.

FRED B. SMITH

At last Mr. Smith has come to Honolulu. His steamer the Wilhelmina was a day late and he was consequently unable to appear at two advertised meetings on Tuesday. The meetings could not be called off and were held without him.

At the Ad. Club today he remarked to the audience that he sold asbestos (H. W. Johns-Manville Co.) week days and talked ethics, religion and the hereafter nights and Sundays.

He will speak at two men's mass meetings at the Bijou Sundays Nos. 18 and 25, probably going to the Volcano between those two dates. His limited time will not allow him to visit Maui, unfortunately.

His first request on landing was, "show me a voice blacksmith;" he was suffering slightly from hoarseness, apparently as the result of speaking on ship board.

Roughest trip in his experience, and he's had lots of experience.

ROTARY CLUB

The Rotary pilgrimage to the trenches at Schofield a short time ago proved interesting and instructive.

Rainfall For Week Shows Improvement

The average rainfall last week by Islands was as follows: Hawaii, 3.35 inches; Maui, 0.62; Oahu, 2.48; Kauai, 0.66. The fall on Maui was as follows: Kaanapali, Lahaina, 0.18; Wailuku, 0.28; Haiku Exp. Station, 1.41. It rained on three days at Kaanapali and Wailuku and six days out of the seven at Haiku.

Some idea of the volume of precipitation may be gained from a comparison of last week's rainfall and the total fall for the previous four weeks, the latter being as follows: Kaanapali, 0.16; Wailuku, 0.36; Haiku, 1.90. The totals for the four months from July to October were as follows: Kaanapali, 0.77; Wailuku, 1.41; Haiku 7.46, which is less than a half of normal.

Hawaii island had good rains during the week, in fact the precipitation in many places was greater than in the entire preceding month, indicating that the drought has been completely broken. Maui, perhaps, has reason for good hopes from the favorable conditions on the neighboring island.

Organizations To Have Joint Home

The Maui Chamber of Commerce and Maui County Fair & Racing Association have finally decided definitely to rent the offices recently occupied by the Hugh Howell Engineering Co., on High street, for joint office purposes.

Heretofore both organizations have been without established headquarters and the need of such has frequently appeared pressing.

The rooms will be fitted up at once and will soon be occupied, being use for the general business and meetings of directors of both the Association and the Chamber.

In Lahaina Court

In Lahaina Saturday night twelve Filipino and Japanese gamblers were rounded up. All failed to appear in court, forfeiting bail.

A Japanese named Murakami was fined $5 for having in his possession an unregistered 22-calibre parlor rifle.

Another Japanese named Oichi was fined $5 for tying his horse out to grass on the court house lot, violating Ordinance No. 9, which prohibits grazing animals on school or other government grounds.

Other matters on the calendar were settled out of court.

The captain of police in Lahaina, Wm. Kalukini, is commander of the National Guard company at that place and is in the encampment on Oahu.

CASTLES VISITING MAUI

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Castle, of Honolulu, arrived in the Wilhelmina this morning and are guests at Field's Maui Hotel. They will spend several days here, visiting points of interest and greeting old friends—of which there are many on Maui.

DANCE POSTPONED

The dance announced by the finance committee of the Maui Women's Conservation Committee for Saturday evening has been postponed to Saturday evening, December 3, on account of the death of the Queen.

MR. RICE TO HAWAII

Harold Rice left in the steamer Wednesday night for the island of Hawaii, and it is understood that while there he will interview the Parker Ranch people on the subject of important additions to his herd of cattle here, with some view of coming to the relief of Honolulu in the matter of beef.

Pertinent Paragraphs

J. P. Foster, chemist of the M. A. Co., was on Tuesday elected a member of the Maui Chamber of Commerce.

Marriage licenses for the week in Wailuku: Sabura Tamura, Japanese, 25; Sade Matsushita, Japanese, 24. Both of Puunene.

The rummage sale given by the Ladies' Aid, of Kahului, in the Community House there last Saturday was very satisfactory, a neat sum being realized for worthy purposes.

"The Birds' Christmas Carol," dramatized by Kate Douglas Wiggin, will be presented in the Valley Isle theater on the evening of December 14, the proceeds to go toward a fund for day nurseries of Belgian children.

The dance announced by the finance committee of the Maui Women's Food Conservation Commission to take place at the Puunene Club House tomorrow evening has been postponed to a later date.

There will be no drafting under the selective system on Maui until the new regulations are received, which will be in not less than a month or six weeks. Those anxious to combat the enemy will, therefore, have to be patient.

The funeral of Miss Julia Toomey, who died at the Kula Sanitarium, will take place from the Kaahumanu church at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The deceased was a sister of Samuel K. Toomey, principal of the Kona-Waena school.

Han Lung Young (Hong Chee Pung), mentioned last week as having robbed a friend at Hana, entered a plea of guilty to larceny in the second degree, in the Wailuku district court, on Saturday, and was sentenced to imprisonment for two months.

The lands to be reclaimed probably formed the oldest established sugar plantation in the Islands. It was started by L. L. Torbert very far back and was afterward purchased by Captain James Makee, Colonel Spalding, of Kauai, was associated with Captain Makee there in the very early days, afterward going to Kealia. According to an old book written in 1849 the first sugar in the Islands was discovered there. The natives had known it for many years, growing wild, before sugar plantations were thought of. The land is reputed to be excellent and if it can be successfully reclaimed, as now seems certain, will prove an immense help to the ranching business there.

WORSER THAN WE THOUGHT

A Hilo paper prints the following: J. T. Osorio has returned from a vacation of two months spent in Honolulu, Kauai, and Maui. He reports Maui very dry and that a lighted match would start a fire that would reach across the island. Mr. Osorio ascended to the top of Haleakala and says it is well worth any one's time to make the trip.

NOTICE OF MEETING

The monthly meeting of the Industrial Accident Board for the County of Maui will be held in the Wailuku District Court Room, Wailuku, next Tuesday morning, November 20th at 10:30 o'clock. All persons having business with the Board are asked to be present.

W. A. McKAY, Chairman.

Meeting Of Ministers In Lahaina Yesterday

Over twenty ministers and Christian workers attended the monthly ministers' meeting that was held yesterday at Hale Aloha, in Lahaina. The session opened with a devotional service led by Rev. E. E. Pleasant, of Kahului. Prayers were offered with particular mention of the sorrow that Hawaii is now passing through in the loss of the Queen.

Rev. Willis B. Coale, missionary of the Hawaiian Board, was present at this, his last, session with the Maui ministers before leaving for the parish of the Kailhi Union Church, of Honolulu. He spoke upon the Old Testament character of King Solomon, pointing out the follies of the king, and his bad influence over his people.

Miss Gertrude B. Judd delivered her second lecture upon Educational Psychology, for which outlines had been prepared for the whole of the class. Questions were asked at the close of the lecture upon the work of the last meeting.

Rev. R. B. Dodge conducted a questionnaire in Systematic Theology, in which there was a large amount of discussion, with careful assignments upon the topics discussed. Written papers will be expected for the next meeting.

Rev. Mr. Pleasant closed the morning's work with an energetic discussion of the first verses of the third chapter of Galatians.

The people of the Wainee church and Rev. D. W. K. White prepared luncheon at one of the restaurants of Lahaina. The next meeting of the ministers will probably be in Wailuku.

Resolutions On Death Of Queen

At a meeting of the directors of the Maui Chamber of Commerce held at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon the following resolutions respecting the death of Queen Liliuokalani were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS

"Whereas, Liliuokalani, the last of Hawaii's ruling sovereigns, has passed into the life beyond; and

"Whereas, in the death of Liliuokalani, we recognize the loss to Hawaii of a woman possessed of many good and noble qualities; one who, as the years came upon her, because of her unassuming dignity, unfailing courtesy, and many charitable deeds, won the respect and admiration of all, and whose loss is to be deeply mourned by the people of Hawaii Nei.

"Resolved, therefore: That the Maui Chamber of Commerce hereby gives expression to its sentiment of profound respect for the memory of Liliuokalani; and extends to the bereaved relatives its sympathy in this their hour of trial; and

"Resolved, further, that this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this organization, and a copy forwarded to the Honorable J. Kuhio Kalaniano'ole."

Thief Breaks Into Explosives House

The powder house of the Wailuku Sugar Company, at Walehu, was broken into sometime Sunday night and the following articles stolen: About half a box of dynamite sticks, 200 feet of fuse and two tins of caps.

This is the first theft of the kind on Maui in a very long time, and it is doubtful if ever a powder house was broken into before.
