COURT ATTACK ON BIG SANITARY PLANS

SUIT HALTS KEWALO SCHEME

Cecil Brown Attacks Legality of Revolving Fund; Asks Injunction

Checked abruptly by an injunction suit brought by Cecil Brown, president of the First National Bank of Hawaii, the Kewalo reclamation project has encountered a stumbling block that now promises to delay active work in the district for an indefinite period of time.

Petition for an injunction against Territorial Auditor Fisher, Marston Campbell and the Lord-Young Engineering Company was filed in the Circuit Court this morning by Attorney A. A. Wilder, who represents Cecil Brown, trustee under the will of Kaleipua, owner of a piece of land 3500 feet in area on the southeast side of Kanoa lane, which would be assessed for the proposed improvement.

Briefly, the situation is that the owner questions the right of the Territory to compel the improvement, also the constitutionality of Chapter 83 of the Revised Laws of the Territory, under which provision for the reclamation was made by the Legislature.

Lord-Young Interested.

Incidentally, it is stated, the Lord-Young Engineering Company, which obtained the contract for filling in the immense area included in the project, desires assurance of the law's constitutionality as protection before it proceeds to invest about $50,000 in the construction of special machinery for the work.

Though the suit is declared by the plaintiff to be a friendly test case, which will be rushed through the lower court and up to the Supreme Court for an early decision, to enable work to begin at the earliest possible moment, the fact remains that the filing of the petition for the restraining order comes as a complete surprise to the attorney general's office.

Attorney Wilder says he informed Marston Campbell, superintendent of public works, some days ago that the suit was to be filed. Attorney General Alex Lindsay Jr. has been out of the city for some time, and First Assistant Attorney General A. G. Smith said this morning that no word of the action had reached him.

Part of Vast Project.

The improvement in the Kewalo district is intended as a part of a vast project in various parts of the city, for which the Territory set aside a revolving fund of $250,000. The filling in of lowlands was to be let in large contracts, and it was planned that owners of individual pieces affected should pay their pro rata; but in case they refused, the cost was to be assessed against the property. Thus the owners would be compelled to pay for the improvement, while the revolving fund, paid out in bulk for the active work, would be gradually returned as the owners paid up. This sum could then be used in a similar manner to improve other tracts.

Held Unconstitutional.

The allegations set forth in Brown's petition in part follow:

"That said defendant Lord-Young Engineering Company, Limited, is about to commence work under said contract, and said defendant Marston Campbell, Superintendent of Public Works, is about to incur obligations thereunder in the name of the Territory of Hawaii and intends to pay out large sums of money as said work pro-

WOULD BRING 800 GAS MEN HERE IN 1915

H. L. Strange Has a Definite Plan for Bringing Visitors to Island

EXPECTS TO FLOOD U. S. WITH LITERATURE

Will Carry on Campaign by Corresponding With Gas Men of Country

Aiming, three years in advance, to get seven or eight hundred gas men to come to Honolulu in a chartered ship in 1915, is the optimistic intention—but definite plan—of H. L. Strange, manager of the Honolulu Gas Co. This is not "the dream of a day," to this ardent promotionist, but something to which he has already devoted considerable thought and time and to which he expects to devote much more during the next three years.

According to statements made to a Star-Bulletin representative this morning by Mr. Strange, more than twenty gas associations will hold a joint convention in San Francisco during the Pan-Pacific Exposition at which an attendance of 3000 to 4000 gas men is expected. All arrangements have been made for this joint convention except deciding the month in which it is to be held, but this will probably be September.

The American Gas Institute, formed in 1906 with a roll of 1400, is the largest of these associations, the membership being restricted to prominent gas engineers and managers of the country. H. L. Strange is a member of the country.

Strange a Member.

H. L. Strange is a member of this association. There are about twenty-four other associations of gas men in different sections of the United States. Through the efforts of the Pacific Coast Gas Association, these various organizations were induced to hold a joint convention in San Francisco in 1915.

Between now and the 1915 convention every association will hold three annual conventions. Mr. Strange intends to deluge these conventions with promotion literature in an attempt to create a desire among the members to visit Honolulu. And from now on, at all times, he will carry on a constant campaign by corresponding with the gas men of the United States, in his effort to get them to come to Honolulu.

"I believe that the fact, that there are three years in which to carry on this campaign will result in the success of my plan," says Mr. Strange.

Leis Create Interest.

"I sent two hundred leis to a gas association meeting last year, and the interest created, caused me to make plans to get the gas men to come here in 1915. And I am crtain of success. It is easy to persuade people to visit Hawaii when the facts are placed before them. While on the coast the last time I met about a dozen gas men and four of them have already come to Honolulu during their vacation.

"In just this proportion I expect to get results in 1915. From the 3000 or 4000 gas men who will be in San

KAU DITCH BILL GOES TO HOUSE

Thompson, Wilder, Watson & Lymer received the following cablegram from E. M. Watson, Washington, this morning:

"Kau bill passed Senate again amended. House will not amend. Probably pass House next week."

Mr. Thompson takes it that the amending again done by the Senate was to strike out the undesired amendment introduced by Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota, limiting the issue of stock and bonds to $3,500,000 of each. As stated by Mr. McCrosson in a Star-Bulletin interview, this amendment would give the company power to water its intended capital 100 per cent., and was, in fact, an unfriendly proposal intended to hold up the measure. Mr. Thompson's interpretation agrees with the Star-Bulletin's special cablegram of yesterday which indicated that the only restriction on the company's financing, in the bill as it passed the Senate, was what existing laws imposed.

Probably, however, some other amendment, by way of perfecting the bill, was made by the Senate, for, had it passed the second chamber as it came from the House, it would not have to go back to the latter body.

CONTRACTORS FOR DRYDOCK RESUME WORK

Navy Engineers Approve New Concrete Mixture To Be Used

NECESSARY TESTS CAUSED LONG DELAY

Board to Discuss Compensation When Rear Admiral Arrives

Tomorrow, after a delay of many weeks, in which the navy engineers and the drydock contractors have been making test after test, and disproving theory after theory, by putting it to tedious practice, concrete pouring in the big drydock at Pearl Harbor has started again. At last a mixture which will fulfill every one of the requirements and which will withstand the unusual conditions found at the naval reservation, has been arrived at, and tomorrow the big Tremie sets will continue the work of spreading the concrete in the middle "pocket" of Section 2, laying the foundations under nearly 40 feet of water.

While the engineers are sure that they have a concrete that will harden properly under water, they are by no means sure that a cheaper one can not be found, and while the long-delayed work progresses, experiments with different mixtures will be kept up. The latest mixture uses Puget Sound Sand, and it is hoped that Waianae crusher dust can be substituted, if not in full, at least in part, greatly reducing the cost of the concrete.

In any event, work will be continued from now on, and if a change in the mixture is thought advisable, it will be made later, without a stoppage of work.

With the arrival next week of Rear Admiral Homer R. Stanford, chief of the Bureau of Yards and Docks, a board of navy officers will convene to adjust the increased compensation that should be given the drydock contractors for the changes in specifications of the concrete, and to take up several other points in connection with future construction and improvement at the new yard.

As Pearl Harbor is to be the real naval kep to the Pacific, and probably the most important base owned by the United States, every more here is being watched with the closest interest in Washington, and Honolulu is rapidly laying the lines for future naval history. The visit of Admiral Stanford is very significant, and the fact that he comes at almost the same time that the Army board meets to consider the problem of defending Oahu, may result in important joint recommendations.

Admiral Stanford assumed the duties as bureau chief, with the rank of rear admiral, very recently. He is one o the ablest and most progressive civil engineers in the navy, and ranked as commander when put at the head of "Y and D."

Two federal court cases set for this morning were continued by Judge Dole because Clemons, the trial judge lies ill at his home and was unable to be present in court. It is understood the illness is not serious however, and he is expected to be able to resume his court duties within the next day or two.

Le Wah Chong, who pleaded guilty some time ago to an opium smuggling charge was to be sentenced; this was continued to tomorrow morning. The further hearing of the bankruptcy case of the Francis Levy Outfitting Company was continued to Monday.

GERMAN COLONY TO HONOR CHRISTIAN MENKE

In honor of Mr. Christian Menke, the teacher at the German school who will sail for the Fatherland, July 27 going by way of the Orient, the German colony of Honolulu will give a farewell reception and dance at the Mochizuki Club tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. All arangements have been made to make the event out of the ordinary. An admission fee will be charged.

It developed that Mrs. Von Philip, killed in a railroad wreck in Sweden, was to visit America to aid the sales of books by her father, Auguste Strindberg, the novelist.

PROGRESSIVES PLAN TO SEND ATKINSON ON

Will Fight To Get Hawaii Represented in August Convention

PROVISIONAL COMMITTEE PLANS LOCAL CAMPAIGN

Much Work To Be Done in Booming "Principles, Not Personalities"

A. L. C. Atkinson will be sent to Chicago to make a fight for representation for Hawaii in the Progressive convention next August, and to act as delegate for Hawaii in case this fight is won, if plans discussed yesterday and today by local Progressives are carried out. There is every prospect that they will be. Atkinson would also become national committeeman for the new party.

With Atkinson's office in the Judd building as headquarters, a dozen men met yesterday and five this morning to talk over the plans for Progressivism in Hawaii. The result is the formation of a provisional executive, composed of Former Gov. George R. Carter, chairman, A. L. C. Atkinson, C. G. Heiser, George P. Thielen and Prof. Ballou, secretary. The committee will meet tomorrow at noon and probably again next Monday. If Atkinson is sent to Chicago, he will leave Tuesday on the Siberia for San Francisco.

"Our representative will go to Chicago," said Chairman Carter after the meeting today, "to fight for representation for the only portion of the United States that is a real territory, and therefore in line for statehood. If the precedent is established that Hawaii is not entitled to representation, it may be hard to get it later.

"Great issues, not personalities, are the vital things," continued Mr. Carter.

He was asked is the Progressives would take an active part in local affairs and answered that most assuredly they would.

Mr. Atkinson expressed himself as personally favoring, as one vital issue, the speedy enactment of a direct primary law. He favors, as he has stated in the past, a special session of the legislature soon so that a primary law may be made effective for the next elections.

Both Mr. Carter and Mr. Atkinson were asked to give the names of the twelve men who were present at the meeting yesterday and both stated that they thought it would be unwise to do so, as "principles, not personalities, are the things we stand for," quote Mr. Atkinson.

ALLEGED SLAVER IS ARRESTED AT BRECKONS' ORDER

Recent Arrival from Mainland Held; Woman in Case Is Missing

Accused of violating the "white slave" law a young man giving the name of Gordon Roberts, was placed under arrest by the United States marshal, on a warrant sworn to by U. S. District Attorney R. W. Breckons. A warrant for the woman in the case, who is wanted as witness, also has been issued, but up to a late hour today she had not been located. The evidence will be presented to the federal grand jury this afternoon.

Roberts and the woman are said to have arrived in Honolulu from San Francisco on the Wilhelmina, which reached this port July 5. They took passage as man and wife, and following their arrival resided together at the Metropole hotel several days. The U. S. district attorney asserts however, that Roberts rented a house at Iwilei several days ago and that the woman, since taking up her residence in that district, has been using the name of Frances Jones.

Now Watch The Duke Kahanamoku Fund as it Grows

W. T. RAWLINS,
Chairman of Duke Kahanamoku Fund Committee.

Subscription lists will be sent all over the territory, but not one donation will be begged.

This was the decision yesterday afternoon of the committee named to handle the Duke Kahanamoku fund. The committee held its first meeting in the offices of W. T. Rawlins, chairman, Judd building, and A. L. C. Atkinson was named secretary and treasurer.

The committee realizing that the movement to present the world's champion swimmer with a house and lot on his victorious return from Stockholm, is a public and popular movement in every sense of the word, feel that no appeals for subscriptions should be necessary. The subscription blanks will be sent out to facilitate the sending of the funds as well as to let people who haven't heard of it before know that the fund is being raised.

Word was received that dozens of volunteer lists are being circulated, and the committee wishes to get in touch with these as soon as possible.

The matter of a big celebration on the day Duke lands was taken up, and also there was a discussion as to the lot that should be bought. This will be looked into by the committee. It is intended to get him a home near the beach.

This morning employes of the Territorial Board of Health came through with the splendid subscription of $62, the largest yet given. The employes got the list up purely voluntarily and their contributions were very generous. The list is as follows:

U. S. FLAG WILL FLY ON BELGIAN HOLIDAYS

The United States flag will flutter to the breeze at the top of the Territorial flagstaff for three days, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, in honor of three national holidays of Belgium. The observance will be made at the request of R. F. Lange, the Belgian vice consul, whose communication reached the Governor this morning.

Fully a dozen indictments are anticipated by the Territorial grand jury, which is expected to make its report to Circuit Judge Robinson late this afternoon. The nature of the cases and the persons involved is not disclosed.

The Pennsylvania, St. Paul, Burlington and Alton Railroads have purchased a $2,000,000 site in Chicago upon which will be built a passenger station for their joint use.

STEFFENS CLAIMS HE'S ANARCHIST

Man Who Says He Effected McNamara Compromise Airs "Social Revolutionary" Views In Los Angeles Court

[Associated Press Cable]

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 19.—Lincoln Steffens, author and reformer, was cross-questioned today in the Darrow bribery case by the prosecution. Steffens is a witness for the deense. Under the queries of the prosecution, he said today that he had tried to free McNamara because crime was "social revolutionary, not legal."

He said that he himself was an anarchist and went on to declare that he is even more radical in his religious beliefs, claiming that he is a better Christian for them.

Hounded by Horde of Ducks He Effaces New Industry

Hounded by a horde of ducks which pursued him about the grounds of the territorial immigration station with indignant, reproachful and caressing quacks, Secretary Kearns this morning issued an altimatum wiping out the duck farm which had been instituted by Assistant Secretary R. D. Wall of the Market Division with fifty waddling bipeds consigned to him for sale.

The ducks arrived three days ago and were released from the shipping coops in order that they might stretch their legs and necks. Major Domo Collins created a small puddle for them with a hose and the birds after a bath went on individual exploring expeditions about the grounds.

All went well until this morning when Secretary Kearns wearing an immaculate pair of white trousers appeared on th grounds to gather data from the Russian immigrants thereon assembled. Evidently the ducks had been used to being fed by someone in white raiment for a drake sent out a cry of welcome and in a moment Kearns was surrounded by the flock all quacking for food. Kearns attempted to walk away but the birds got under his feet and would not permit their shepherd to leave them.

Then it was that he issued his ultimatum. "Collins," he said.

"I would like to know whether this is a territorial duck farm or an immigrant station. Gather up those infernal birds, tie their bally beaks or sew them and replace them in the coops—immediately!"

With the assistance of forty Russians, men, women and children, Collins garnered the duck crop and Assistant Superintendent Wall secured a purchaser for them.

BOND GUARANTEE NOT NECESSARY, SAYS W. A. WALL

"The bill is beore Congress now, but we are paying no regard to it at all," said William A. Wall this afternoon with reference to the measure that passed the 1911 Legislature authorizing the Territory to guarantee the bonds of any railway that would open up undeveloped territory—or something to that effect.

Mr. Wall was speaking for the Kona Railroad and Land Company, of which he is the first-named among the promoters in its franchise. While he spoke as if the bond guarantee would be a good thing for the company, he intimated plainly that it was not necessary to the starting of operations for building the road.

The company has a franchise and is incorporated under it, and all it has to do is to go ahead and build—that is, providing the enterprise can be financed.

Mr. Wall was being questioned by a Star-Bulletin with regard to a statement in the morning paper that J. McLaughlin, a promoter o Springfield, Illinois, was here and yesterday secured an option on a controlling interest of the capital stock of the railroad company just mentioned.

Met McLaughlin Once.

"I have only met Mr. McLaughlin once, when I was introduced to him," said Mr. Wall, "but had no conversation what ever with him about the Kona railroad. If he has the controlling interest, as perhaps he has, he must have secured the option from some of the other stockholders. I must refer you to Mr. McLaughlin himself on that question and on his plans with regard to the enterprise."

Mr. Wall said the road would be a standard-gauge steam railroad, the same as the Hilo railroad. It would not take in the Kona plantation railroad, as he was informed some people supposed.

To Be 76 Miles Long.

The line will be seventy-six miles in length, traversing the North and South Kona coast and having a maritime outlet at Kealakekua Bay. Mr. McLoughlin is quoted as saying that, according to estimates of engineers, the permanent way complete with rails can be built at an average cost of $10,000 a mile, against from $60,000 to $170,000 a mile that the Hilo railroad extension is costing.

It will develop much agricultural land, the area of which, within its traffic sphere, will be greatly increased with the opening of the Kau irrigation ditch. There is also a great deal of marketable timber along the route.

Mr. McLaughlin is further quoted as entertaining hopes of having the projected line of steamers between San Francisco and Manila made Kealakekua its calling port in these islands of the road be contructed. He is also said to have fixed on the first of January next for having locomotives running upon the track, his purpose being to secure forthwith the requisite capital for construction in New York.

Shipping

SISTER SHIP TO W. F. HERRIN TO FOLLOW BIG DEMAND FOR FUEL OIL

A sister ship to the big American oil tanker W. F. Herrin, which sailed out of Hopolulu harbor yesterday, enroute to Gaviota, is to follow upon the increased demand for fuel oil at ports along the Pacific Coast and in the Hawaiian Islands.

That a new tanker, similar in size and capacity to the big W. F. Herrin, is a necessity, was verified by officers in the tanker, who predicted before taking a departure for the coast yesterday that the new vessel to fly the house flag of the Associated Oil Company would be built at Newport News, Va.

The J. A. Chanslor, which has made several trips between the coast oil ports and the Hawaiian Islands, is also a tanker after which the new boat will be patterned.

The Associated Oil Company steamers of late construction are capable of carrying fifty thousand barrels of fuel oil.

From statements made yesterday it is inferred that the new tanker will be ready for launching along the first of next June.

With her added capacity, the Associated Oil Company will have five big cargo carriers in regular commission between coast ports and the islands.

Bark Nuuanu out for Consolation prize.

The bark Nuuanu now three hundred and forty-two days from New York by the way of Falkland Islands, and enroute to Honolulu is believed to be out for the consolation prize for a long distance passage.

The Nuuanu has been on the list of an expected daily arrival for the past three weeks.

The vessel is bringing general cargo from the East coast of the United States consigned to the agency of T. H Davies and Company. Captain Josslyn, the well known navigator possesses a wide circle of friends at this port, who will rejoice when the familiar outlines of his gallant command again appear off the harbor.

The Nuuanu wil be remembered as having met with a hurricane which caused damage, and compelled the skipper to put into the Falklands in distress. Extensive repairs were made before the voyage to the Hawaiian islands was resumed.

Eric Making Long Passage.

The American schooner Eric is making a rather long passage from Tocopilla to Honolulu, the windjammer now being fortyeight days from the nitrate port.

This vessel is bringing fertilizer material for discharge here.

Politician Due Within the Week.

The Fred. Waldron Company, agents for the Harrison Direct Line freighter Politician, expects the arrival of that vessel within a week, according to advices received yesterday from the Coast.

The Politician is one of the newer steamers in the Harrison Direct service between Europe and the west coast of the United States. The steamer is reported to have called at several South American ports there to discharge and take on shipments of coffee and other commodities. The Politician is said to have several thousand tons freight for Honolulu, including a large quantity of fertilizer and hardware. The vessel is to proceed to San Pedro, San Francisco and Puget Sound ports after completing discharge of cargo at Honolulu.

Scarcity of tonnage in the Far East.

According to advices brought by the Shinyo Maru there is the greatest kind of activity in Japanese shipping, and compared with last year the number of vessels under charter has almost doubled, with the supply of vessels to handle tonnage inadequate to fill the demand. The vessels most recently chartered have been taken up for terms of six months or a year and represent a tonnage of 48,000 tons. There is still a demand for vessels and the charter rates have advanced amazingly, it is said. Several of the steamers are getting $5,000 and $6,000 a month.

Skippers Meet Menace in Drifting Logs.

Masters of coasting vessels report many log drifts along the coast between San Pedro and Gray's Harbor. The logs are a serious menace to navigation, and as a result skippers of coastwise craft have been notified to keep a sharp lookout.

T. K. K. May Adopt Hongkong-Built Lifeboats.

The Toyo Kisen Kaisha, which operates the big Tenyo, Shinyo and Chiyo Marus, is said on what appears to be good authority to have looked into the merits of the new semi-collapsible lifeboat that has of late been turned out in large quantities from the plant of the Taikoo Dockyard and Engineering Co., at Hongkong, China. It is stated that there is a possibility of a number of these craft being installed on the Tenyo on the occasion of her next visit to the China port. The manufacturers of the lifeboat have but recently shipped a second consignment of a large order for semi-collapsible boats and life rafts, which have been constructed to the order of the Norddeutscher Lloyd for use on their Atlantic liners. When tested in the water, with an excess of the complement of men on board, the boats and rafts showed a high freeboard and have a very serviceable appearance. Working night and day, the dockyard turned out the boats at the rate of one a day and the rafts two per day.

Japanese Favor Own Ships.

LONDON, June 21.—The new Japanese coastwise law and the Chinese-Indian opium situation were discussed in the House of Commons today on a question submitted by Member Rees. Francis D. Acland, parliamentary under-secretary for the foreign office, spoke for the government and said that the British government was at present considering representations on the exclusion of British vessels from the Japanese coasting trade. He would not say what the government proposed to do.

Reese suggested that in view of the inability of the Chinese government to enforce the anti-opium regulations in the provinces, it would be but just to the Indian taxpayer to suspend the provisions of the treaty until China could carry out its engagements.

E. S. Montagu, under-secretary for the Indian office, replied that he was unable to see how a dislocation of the treaty in temporary circumstances would benefit the Indian taxpayer.

Sparks from the Wireless.

Aerograms received from incoming and outgoing liners last evening included the following:

M. N. S. S. Wilhelmina, en route Honolulu to San Francisco, July 18, 8 p. m.—491 miles out.

C.-A. S. S. Zealandia, en route from Honolulu to Auckland and Sydney, via Suva, July 18, 1912, 8 p. m.—700 miles off.

M. N. S. S. Hilonian, en route to Honolulu from San Francisco, July 18, 1912, 8 p. m.—796 miles off.

P. M. S. S. Siberia, enroute from Yokohama to San Francisco, via Honolulu, July 18, 1912, 8 p. m.—1300 miles off port.

Noted Windjammer Becomes Water Barge.

The Mary Dodge, according to report, has become chartered by the Alaska Investment Company, represented by Louis E. Rider of Pasadena, to carry water to Nome from El Dorado River. The purpose of the company is the sale of water to the mining companies in the North.

Mad Dash for Harbor Saves Cargo.

While the Japanese liner Shinyo Maru, that passed through Honolulu on Tuesday, called at Moji, the Russian steamship Konsulsosol dashed into the harbor in distressed condition, the vessel being on fire, and threatened with a total destruction of her entire cargo.

The Russian steamer was passing between the islands of Iki and Tushima, which are situated outside Shimonoseki, when fire was discovered in the coal storing bunkers. The harbor police at Moji were signaled and informed of the mishap, and went toward the approaching steamship with the harbor fire apparatus.

The vessel, however, was believed to be in serious shape, and the skipper decided to run for it to Moji, in hopes of reaching a mooring in time to save his cargo. She arrived with the fire burning hard, but it was possible to get virtually all of the cargo off. The loss is not expected to be heavy.

German Tramp Meets Disaster in Asiatic Waters.

HONGKONG, June 25.—The German steamer Quinta is ashore on The Paracels and in a perilous position. The vessel was bound from Bangkok to Swatow with a large number of passengers, including 500 coolies, and 20,000 piculs of rice. It was decided to dispatch a small boat to Hoihow for relief and accordingly two officers and four seamen undertook the trip.

Meantime the French mail liner Nera arrived on the scene and taking off 539 passengers and the crew, landed them at Saigon. The Quinta's boat made the journey to Hoihow in safety and a dispatch was sent here asking for aid. A salvage tug has started for the wreck but is doubted that the vessel can be saved.

Wireless Flash from Tahiti to 'Frisco.

The British steamer Tahiti, which sailed from San Francisco on June 26 for Australian ports, will endeavor to establish wireless communication between Papeete and the Golden Gate, relaying her messages, if possible, through the Union Company's steamer Manuka which will be about midway between the South Pacific and San Francisco when the Tahiti is at Papeete.

New British Liner a Dandy.

The latest acquisition to the fleet of the Union Steamship Company, of New Zealand, is now nearing completion on the Clyde, and will reach Australia in November. The new vessel is of 13,278 tons register, 550 feet long, 68 feet beam, and has two stacks. She is triple-screw and is fitted to burn either coal or oil. She will be placed on the run between Australia and Vancouver, B. C., but may be transferred to the San Francisco run upon the opening of the canal.

Likelike Back with Sugar.

A cargo of sugar from Kauai ports has arrived in the Inter-Island steamer Likelike. According to purser's report, the steamer Noeau was passed, discharging cargo at Hanalei, and the steamer Niihau discharging coal at Kealia. The Kinau is due to return to Honolulu on Sunday morning, bringing a full cargo of sugar. The Likelike met with fine weather on the trip to the Garden Isle.

Claudine Returned with delegates.

Delegates and visitors who attended the sessions of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association at Lihue, returned late last evening as passengers in the steamer Claudine. The Claudine was dispatched to the Garden Island on a special trip and brought 146 cabin and 6 deck passengers. The vessel encountered fine weather on the voyage.

European Cargo Enroute to Islands.

European cargo, including fertilizer and general merchandise, is on the way to the islands from Bremen, in the Russian bark Professor Koch, according to advices received here. This vessel left the German port thirty-nine days ago and is consigned to the agency of Hackfeld & Company.

Lumber-Laden Schooners Expected Daily.

The American schooner Prosper, from Columbia river ports, and fourteen days out with a full shipment of lumber, is expected daily.

The schooner Melrose, also carrying a big shipment of lumber destined for Hilo, sailed from Everett, Washington, eighteen days ago and her arrival at Crescent City should be reported at any day.

FAITHFUL DOG SAVES MISTRESS

Canine Drags Unconscious Owner From Fast Burning House

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 6. — Omega, a collie, saved today the life of his mistress by dragging her unconscious body from a burning bungalow. Mrs. W. B. West, owner of the dog, was in her rooms when the collie came dashing in and began tugging at her dress. She followed and reaching the lower hall found the house in flames. She ran up to her room again to save some jewelry and was overcome by the heat and flames.

When his mistress did not reappear, Omega dashed into the house and dragged the unconscious woman to the yard, where she was revived by neighbors who had been attracted by the flames. Both the woman and the dog were burned slightly.

ODDS AND ENDS AT THE PORT

The T. K. K. liner Tenyo Maru, sailing for Japan and China ports last evening, will call at Manila on her next trip to the Far East.

Fuel oil is enroute to Honolulu in the American steamer Maverick, which left San Francisco on Wednesday with products destined for the local branch of the Standard Oil Company.

Two hundred and thirty Oriental steerage passengers left for the Far East last evening in the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Tenyo Maru. For the most part the passengers were Japanese.

A large crowd of local Japanese gathered at Alakea wharf last evening to witness the sailing of the Tenyo Maru for Japan and China ports. The Royal Hawaiian band was present and rendered a pleasing program of melodies.

With twelve thousand tons sugar, and shipments of preserved pineapples and other lines of island products, the American Hawaiian freighter Columbian is reported to have sailed from Hilo for Salina Cruz yesterday. The Columbian gathered sugar at several Hawaiian Island ports.

FAMOUS CHOPHOUSE OF YALE CLOSES DOORS

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 8.—"Mory's", a chophouse and students' meeting-place, famous in Yale song and story, has at last formally closed its doors, and the little old frame building at the corner of the college will be torn down at once to make room for a business block.

Yale men have met at Mory's for more than half a century and the place has grown to be almost a part of the college.

SHINGLE URGES PARTY HARMONY

Will Not Run Against Delegate but Hopes Controversy May Be Settled

Urged to become a candidate for delegate, R. W. Shingle in a statement issued last night, declines to do so, confirming definitely the information of the Star-Bulletin last week, when the news was first published that Republican leaders had asked him to consider the candidacy.

"Mr. Shingle's statement says:

To the Republican Party of Hawaii:

In order to afford ample opportunity and time for the Republican leaders either to effect a compromise with Prince Kuhio and his supporters or to find some person who can unite the forces of the Republican party in these Islands, I am compelled, somewhat reluctantly, to make this public announcement:

I have been urged by some of the more prominent leaders of the party to permit my name to be presented to the Republican convention as a candidate for Delegate to Congress from this Territory, I have given the matter serious consideration and for personal reasons I will not oppose Kuhio. Our friendship has been a long one and I hope it will continue. While I would refuse to support him should he bolt the Republican party—which in my opinion he will never do—I would not be a candidate against him

What seems to be best at this critical time is the uniting of the forces of the Republican party. No Republican should be expected to accept the nomination at the hands of a divided party. Every means should be exhausted by the leaders of the different factions to unite before any attempt should be made to supplant Prince Kuhio, the present Delegate. It must be borne in mind that for ten years he has lead the Republican forces in these Islands to victory, and that he has at all times, in Congress, worked diligently for the advancement of the business interests of Hawaii, and has supported every measure looking for the general welfare of th people. His services thus rendered must appal to all factions of the party, and if he has made any mistakes in a political sense, every effort should be made to overlook them by the party leaders and managers.

The present controversy between the Delegate and the Governor has caused a serious division in the ranks of the Republican party in this Territory, and every thinking man must admit that the decision of the President of the United States after full investigation as to whether or not Governor Frear should be reappointed, should be final, and conclusive. So far as the Delegate the Governor and the party are concerned, power must be lodged somewhere and in this case the final arbiter is the President. I do not believe that the fight should be carried on—either within or without the party by Republicans—after the decision of the President is announced, and thus far I cannot agree with the Delegate.

A nomination from the Republican party as a candidate or Delegate to Congress is the highest political honor that can be offered to any citizen of this Territory, and I fully appreciate the consideration that has been shown in requesting me to become a candidate for selection by the coming Republican convention. But I feel that at this stage of the fight it would be not only unwise, but detrimental to the best intests of the party, for a nyone, no matter who he might be, to step forward as a candidate for the Delegateship.

A policy which is advocated by some prominent Republicans opposed to Prince Kuhio, of remaining inactive in the Republican Territorial and county conventions, and supporting Mr. McCandless, the Democratic nominee for Delegate, is unwise, in my opinion, for the following reason:

The Republican party in its national platform says: "We hold that the import duties should be high enough, while yielding a sufficient revenue, to protect adequately American industries and wages."

The Democratic platform pledges that party to adopt a tariff for revenue only.

From a commercial standpoint, and for the future prosperity of these Islands, there can be no question with either faction of the Republican party as to whom they should support.

The protective tariff policy of the great Republican party has been so potent in prosperity for us, that the good, sober sence of the electorate in the Islands will lead it to reject by a large majority the Democratic nominee for Congress.

I am a Republican, and, insofar as I am able to do so, will endeavor to bring about the success of that party in the election of its Territorial legislative and municipal tickets. The party is greater than any interest or individual. It is capable of meeting problems and solving them correctly. I shall not be of those who sulk in their tents because their ideals are not carried out. I think the party bigger than I am, and will take its judgment in all matters.

In conclusion, I most respectfully urge the leaders of the different factions to meet and have some action taken, so that every means that is fair and honorable may be exhausted before we sacrifice our party and our interests over the gubernatorial controversy.

I have the honor to be now, as ever, a true Republican.

"R. W. SHINGLE.

A.-H. PURCHASES MORE TONNAGE

The American-Hawaiian line has need for more tonnage, and has purchased a steamer which is to be added to the present fleet of five vessels now engaged in the Pacific Coast trade, between Puget Sound and Mexican ports.

The American steamer Windber, a vessel of 1570 tons, that some years ago was known in the Atlantic coasting trade as the steamship Daventry, has been acquired by the American line, according to a report that was received at the local agency with the arrival of the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru yesterday.

The steamer was stationed on the East coast of the United States when taken over by the American-Hawaiian. The vessel is said will soon be dispatched from New York for San Francisco. It is intended that the steamer will supplement the American-Hawaiian coastwise service between the Golden Gate, the Sound and Salina Cruz. It will be remembered that the big steamship company relinquished a charter on the steamer Falcon some months ago. The Falcon was at the time engaged on a regular run between San Francisco and Portland, Ore.

LEPROSARIUM AT MOLOKAI RE-OPENED

After being closed for several years the United States government leprosarium in Molokai settlement has been reopened with Dr. George W. McCoy of the federal marine hospital and public health service in charge. Dr McCoy is carrying on the same work there that he formerly conducted at the Kalihi receiving station. Mrs. McCoy and their little son are with him at the settlement.

PERSONALITIES

ATTORNEY GENERAL Alex Lindsay Jr. is expected to return home Sunday from Molokai, where he has been on a week's vacation.

DR. PRATT, president of the Board of Health, leaves today for Lahaina, Maui, where he will meet Dr. McCoy and tour the island on a general health and sanitation inspection. They expect to devote a week to the investigation.

SEA LION SUPPLANTS CROCKER'S WATCH DOG

Monster of the Deep Installs Himself at Gateway of Mansion

HILSLBORO, July 6.—A weird story to the effect that a real live sea lion had found its way from the ocean beach to Uplands, the Hillsboro home of Charles Templeton Crocker, has been going the rounds in San Mateo county. Up till last night the report was received with considerable skepticism, albeit many motorists are said to have steered clear of the Crocker gateway, at which the new "watchdog" was supposed to have installed himself. The monster of the deep may have departed for regions where there is more congenial society than that of Hillsboro millionaires, but that he was there in spirit and in truth, even if more in spirit than in truth, is no longer doubted. What greater confirmation of the report is needed than that he was alleged to have been seen by members of a jovial stag party returning in the cold, gray dawn from a midnight revel at a polo club? As a rule poloists do not run to sea lions, but they are a pleasing variation of vision of pink crocodiles and blue lizards.

DISTRIBUTING WEALTH.

The late Sir Julius Wernher, of South Africa, after placing in trust $16,250,000 of his $25,000,000 estate for the benefit of Lady Wernher and his three sons, gave $1,250,000 to the Union of South Africa, to assist in building a university at Groote Schuur, near Cape Town (the home of the late Cecil Rhodes); $500,000 to the Imperial College of Science and Technology, South Kensington, and about $500,000 more to London and South African hospitals.

Instead of an expected deficit, earnings under three-cent fares for May by the Cleveland Railroad Company were the highest in its history and showed a surplus of $32,000.

"FULL MOON" IN ECLIPSE

"It's rheumatism, Your Honor, that brings me here."

This is why a "Full Moon" has gone into a temporary eclipse. It's not really Fair Luna — alleged to make plain the pathway for loving swain — that has been put out of commission. Her silvery rays continue to do a successful business at the old stand.

Police Magistrate Monsarrat this morning sat in judgment over John "Full Moon," a well-known local character who was persuaded to cease his distribution of eloquence upon the public thoroughfares.

Therefore "Full Moon" now languishes at the Jarrett sanitarium, where, in lieu of the requisite coin of the realm, he will remain until such time as the "closed season" on Fourth of July celebrations or the christening ceremonies of Third Party organizations are declared off.

"Full Moon" was found much under the weather. "I resorted to the common garden variety of alcohol in the hope that it would drive rheumatism away," he vouchsafed when called on for remarks.

John was advised that alcohol employed as an outward application may have proved beneficial, but taken internally it served as his undoing.

TO SETTLE VALUE OF E. O. HALL SITE

Within the next few days a statement of value of the E. O. Hall site may be submitted to Attorney General Wickersham and the Secretary of the Treasury through U. S. District Attorney Breckons, and it is considered likely that the long-winded, expensive condemnation suit to determine the value of that particular tract may be eliminated.

It is now understood that conferences tending toward this settlement out of court have been in progress for some time, and a statement from E. O. Hall & Son was expected yesterday, though it was not presented to Breckons. If the case must proceed through the ordinary channel of the courts it will be called some time next month.

YOUNG ASTOR NOW HAS BODYGUARD

Threatening Letters Cause the Millionaire to Carry a Revolver

NEW YORK, July 6.—Deluged with threatening letters warning of danger and demands for money, William Vincent Astor, the youthful head of the Astor family, has armed himself with a revolver, stationed guards about his homes on Fifth avenue and at Rhinebeck, and is constantly trailed by an armed guard when he goes about the city or to the country.

Ever since the drowning of his father, Colonel John Jacob Astor, in the sinking of the Titanic and the settlement of the estate by which the young man became possessed of wealth amounting to more than $100,000,000 he has been hounded, besieged and overwhelmed by letter writers.

His correspondents at first were content to invite Mr. Astor to divide his fortune or to scatter a few thousands in such ways as they might indicate. When they found that Astor did not act upon their suggestions, the letters became threatening and warnings of penalties to be inflicted unless money was fortbcoming encumbered the mails.

LONDON, Eng., July 9.—The engagement of Prince Arthur of Connaught, son of the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada, and the Princess Alexander, niece of the Czar of Russia, is reported in a semi-official announcement from St. Petersburg. The report adds that the King of England will visit the Czar shortly to arrange for the nuptials. Prince Arthur, next to the prince of Wales, is the most popular younger member of the royal family.

PHONE TALKS GOOD EVIDENCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 10.—Telephone conversation, if otherwise admissible, may be admitted as evidence in California courts as a result of a decision handed down by the State Supreme Court yesterday reversing a nonsuit granted the Western Union Telegraph Company by the lower court in an action brought against it by the Union Construction Company for damages arising from the alleged negligence of the company in failing to deliver telegrams to the plaintiff.

In laying down this rule, the court referred to the vast volume of business transacted by means of the telephone, and in this particular case, where the agents of the plaintiff called up the telegraph company to inquire if telegrams for them had been received and were answered in the negative, there was sufficient circumstantial evidence to make a prima facie case of identity and authority.

Rule for Phone Talks.

"The general rule from the decisions in other States," said the decision, "is that where it is known that the witness called up the other party at his place of business, through the central station with which both were connected, and received response as in the usual course of business over the telephone, this is sufficient prima facie identification of the speaker at the other end of the line as the party called, or his authorized agent, and that, upon such proof, the ensuing conversation, if otherwise admissible, may be testified to by the witness. It is proper to add that the weight of such evidence depends largely upon the circumstances of each case and is always a question for the trial court or jury."

According to the Supreme Court, the lower court erred in excluding the evidence of two agents of the construction company relating to telephone conversation with the San Francisco office of the telegraph company. In the case in question the plaintiff had an option with the Risdon Iron Works for a contract for pipe line on the Stanislaus river for $143,000.

Time Limit on Deal.

The night on which the option expired, January 8, 1907, the company's engineers wired the San Francisco agent of the company and also the manager in Tuolumne county to close the deal.

The manager was in San Francisco, and accordingly notice was forwarded by wire to him. Both telegrams were received in the evening at the San Francisco office, but were not delivered until after 9 o'clock the following morning, by which time the Risdon Iron Works had raised the price $21,000. Telephone inquiry at the telegraph office elicited the response that there was no telegram there, this being subsequently disproved.

SULTAN OF MUSCAT ADOPTING PLAN TO END ARMS TRAFFIC

LONDON, June 25.—It is understood that the regulation of the arms traffic in his territory by the Sultan of Muscat, which was foreshadowed some months ago in the Monitor, has now been instituted on a regular basis.

According to Reuters Agency a notification has been issued by the Sultan in which the present system of keeping large stocks of arms and ammunition stored without proper control in private buildings in the town of Muscat is condemned and the announcement is made that, in order to do away with this condition of affairs, his highness has arranged to establish a warehouse in which arms and ammunition will be stored under proper precautions.

On and after Sept. 1 next all arms dealers in the territory of the Sultan will be required to deposit in the warehouse any stocks remaining in their hands on that date. No arms will be permitted to leave the warehouse without a license nor until duty has been paid on them in the usual way, and licenses will only be issued on the production of satisfactory proof that the destination of the arms and ammunition is open to no objection. It is further notified that all arms leaving the warehouse will be marked.

DREADNOUGHT OF AUSTRIA A FAILURE

DREADNAUGHT ... ...

VIENNA, July 11.—Despite official denials, reports are persistent in circulation that the construction of the first Austrian dreadnaught, the $12,000,000 Viribus Unitius, has proved a complete failure. The warship is top-heavy, and all efforts to lighten her so far have proved unsatisfactory. Massive portions of iron and steel turrets have been scaled down to such a degree that certain parts have buckled and have had to be re-enforced with iron plates.

Steel rollers for raising and lowering heavy guns have been drilled out, thereby reducing their weight, but at the same time lessening their power of resistance to such an extent that in the event of the rapid firing of the guns the rollers will collapse and render the guns useless.

INSURGENTS WIN IN HARD FIGHT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 11.—After a day of almost constant wrangling, interspersed now and then with hymns and prayers, the National Prohibition Convention tonight overthrew the existing administraton and elected G. Hinshaw of Portland, Ore., as national charman of the party.

The convention voted down a proposed plank in the platform demanding that the separation of church and state be perpetual and that no public money be appropriated to sectarian churches and schools.

Adjournment then was taken until tomorrow, when candidates for President and Vice President will be named.

The insurgents early in the day won their fight to have the chairman elected by the convention instead of appointed by the national committee. Hinshaw's selection came on the fifth ballot. Between ballots on the national chairmanship the convention devoted its time to the adoption of a platform.

The delegates were in turmoil most of the time. Several times when the disorder was at its height the chairman brought about tranquillity by starting a song or by having someone start a prayer.

The platform, as originally presented by the resolutions committee, was changed in several particulars. Some of the delegates contended there was not enough prohibition in the document, so strong phrases were added on that subject.

Dr. Silas Swallow of Pennsylvania sought to add a declaration against the wearing of clerical garb in schools. Father George Zurcher of Buffalo, a Catholic priest and delegate, declared this would be interpreted as an affront to Catholics. A vote was taken on the plank, and it was lost.

Hinshaw, the new chairman of the party, is an attorney in Portland and is president of the Intercollegiate Prohibition Association.

Taft and Roosevelt Both Denounced.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 10.—The eleventh national Prohibition convention got under way here today, but at three sessions progressed little beyond the preliminaries of organization. There were developments enough, however, to indicate a strong undercurrent of "insurgency" in the party and to forecast a fight for a more progressive and aggressive attitude in the coming campaign.

The feature of the day was the address of the temporary chairman of the convention, Clinton N. Howard of Rochester, N. Y., known as the "little giant." Howard aroused the delegates to a high pitch of enthusiasm by roundly denouncing President Taft, Colonel Roosevelt and the Republican and Democratic parties in general.

"We already have two whisky parties and don't need another," he shouted. The delegates caught up and cheered the sentiments of the chairman. When he characterized President Taft as a "wet nurse to the saloon," there were shouts of "Amen," from all corners of the convention hall.

When he denounced Colonel Roosevelt as the "least desirable of all the candidates" there was a prolonged demonstration of approval. Governor Woodrow Wilson he disposed of with this faint praise: "A good man, perhaps, but we have had 'good men' in the White House before and they have gone out with the country more saturated with rum than it was when they went in."

So enthusiastic were the delegates over Chairman Howard's address that they ordered it printed as a campaign text-book and started a boom for Mr. Howard for President.

EFFECT OF PANAMA CANAL UPON BRITISH EMPIRE DISCUSSED

LONDON, Eng., June 25.—A paper was read recently by Dr. Vaughan Cornish on "The Panama Canal and Its Relation to the British Empire" at the Whitehall rooms.

The chair was taken by Lord Brassey, who opened the meeting with a short address. He was followed by Dr. Cornish, who referred to the Hay Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain. He said that by this treaty the United States undertook that the canal should be opened on terms of entire equality to ships of all nations, whether merchant ships or ships of war, during times of peace or during hostilities.

The effect of the Panama canal on the British empire would lie to a great extent on the enormous reduction of sea distances. The future would witness the establishment by British and European companies of services from European waters to New York and San Francisco, via the canal, and on to Asia, connecting with other ships of the same line at Hong Kong.

The British West Indies would become, at the opening of the canal, of first-rate importance, both from a strategic and a commercial point of view, for they would no longer be at the entrance of a cul de sac but on a great highway of commerce.

BERLIN, June 25.—The disappearance of Finland as an autonomous state has brought the Russian empire to the very frontiers of Sweden, and the building of the railways from Helsingfors to Tornea and from Viborg right across the grand duchy is regarded with some apprehension in that country.

In this connection some articles which have appeared lately in the Reichsbote, a Luthern Conservative organ, are of interest. The journal advocates the formation of an agreement or league between Germany and the Scandinavian states, having for object mutual aid and protection in the event of war with Russia. It also points out the economic and defensive advantages of such a union, as well as the political importance which it would lend to the northern states.

CHAMP CLARK'S FOOLISH TALK

Champ Clark, who came so near getting the nomination at the Democratic convention, is credited with saying that he hoped to live to see every vestige of a custom house disappear from this country, and he has not changed his view one particle, says an exchange. Mr. Clark has, however, been a little more discreet about his utterances since he became Speaker, and since his entry into the race for the presidential nomination. But he is as radical follower of Bryan now as in the past.

In a recent speech at Frankfort, Kentucky, he declared that the "Protective Tariff costs the people of this country a billion and a half dollars yearly," and that "it is a gross outrage and cruelty upon the taxpayers."

Taking as his basis $330,000,000 paid into the treasury as revenue, he assumes that five times that amount, or considerably more than a billion and a half dollars, is paid by the people to swell the profits of American manufacturers. This is, of course, a ridiculous assertion. It conveys the inference that the selling price of pretty much the whole volume of domestic merchandise has been increased to the extent and because of the tariff on competitive imports. If this were true, the increased prices paid on the entire volue of $21,000,000,000 worth of domestic manufactures would amount to about $8,000,000,000 instead of the $1,500,000,000 named by Clarg. Of course, it is not true either as to the $8,000,000,000 or the $1,500,000,000. It is not true as to our $750,000,000 of dutiable imports, for in most cases the foreign producer pays the American tariff in cutting down his prices so as to enable him to pay our tariff and still get into our market.

One of the invariable results of the American Protective Tariff has been to cut down foreign prices. Our tariff on steel rails was at one time $28 a ton, and the price of rails was $100 a ton. Now the tariff is $3.50 per ton, and the price is $28 a ton. The European price being practically the same, the American price, tariff added, should be $31.50 a ton. But it is not. It is $28. The price of tin plate, prior to 1890, was $5 per hundred pounds. McKinley put a tariff on tin plate to encourage its manufacture in this country, and in a short time the British makers were selling their tin plate in our markets, duty paid, at $3. According to Champ Clark's theory tin plate should have sold here at $7 after the tariff had been put on. But it did not; it sold at $3. The tariff did not add to the price; it reduced the price from $5 to $3. What the Tariff did, and what it has unfailingly done, was to establish the industry in the United States. American enterprise, assured by a Protective Tariff of the opportunity to do business, and American competition, which no tariff has ever checked or stifled, conjoined to break down the high prices previously extorted by the British tin plate makers when we had no tin plate mills of our own and our market was at the mercy of foreign producers. So it has been in all lines of industrial productions. The American Protective Tariff has never cost the American one dollar by reason of raising prices to the American producer. On the contrary, it has so lowered prices that it has saved to American consumers many billions of dollars.

EASTERNERS OUT FOR PAN-AMERICAN TRADE

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 3.—To promote and conserve reciprocal trade relations between the United States and the other American countries is the purpose of the Pan-American States Association, which has just been organized here by leaders in the South and Central American export trade. Its permanent headquarters include four floors of a big office building. The president of the association is F. A. Wurzbacker, a New York banker. His associates include Judge Alton B. Parker, Hiram Maxim, Simon Patino, a South American millionaire, and Heriberto Barron, a Mexican lawyer. The list of vice-presidents includes Admiral George Dewey, Judge George Gray, Colonel George Harvey, Major General Leonard Wood and Colonel Henry Watterson.

The governors of 23 of the States of the Union and Governor George R. Cotton of Porto Rico compose a governors' board.

The principal work of the association for the present will be the maintenance of a permanent exhibit of Pan-American products in New York.

The promoters of the organization believe that it will be instrumental in bringing to the United States the cream of the commercial advantage to accrue from the Panama Canal.

The soul can use a fine body more effectively than it can a poor body, but it can do wonders through an inadequate body.—Charles W. Eliot.

A PLAIN ROAD TO HARMONY

Out of the bitter controversy over the governorship are emerging certain facts in a stronger and stronger light,—facts that cannot and must not be forgotten, facts that must be weighed now.

Greatest of all is the fact that Hawaii cannot afford to carry the fight over the governorship into the fall campaign.

The vital issue in Hawaii is to get clean, capable men for the senate, the legislature, the boards of supervisors. In Honolulu municipal offices must be filled by men in every sense of the word.

The Star-Bulletin has good reason to affirm that if Delegate Kuhio will eliminate—and he can eliminate—the Frear controversy from the fall campaign, this vital issue of capable men for local government can be carried forward to success.

If party leaders, men of responsibility, on both sides of the controversy, will step from under the cloud of personal animosities, and will take a stand for a territorial platform that shall contain no reference to the controversy, and nothing to keep that controversy alive, then the basis of harmony, of progress, of political justice, moral right and territorial welfare is reached.

The delegate's services in the past, his record in the Republican party, his knowledge of Washington affairs, his strength with the voters, his sincerity, his ability as a fighter, entitle him to consideration from the territory. He is entitled to support if this controversy is eliminated, in good faith and thoroughly, from the fall campaign and from the territorial platform.

Free the platform from this disastrous fight; spend the party's strength and energy on nominating and electing men of character and brains; leave the personal issue, the Frear-Kuhio issue, to the investigation that the president has promised and that Secretary Fisher will carry out!

R. W. Shingle's statement today ought to meet with general approval. It is open-minded and fair. The danger to Hawaii cannot be met by inaction, nor can the prosperity of this territory be served by Republicans who are quitters, who are willing to throw up their hands and let the broil of party affairs drift into worse things.

Here is a definite basis for harmony: drop the governorship fight from the campaign, eliminate any reference to this issue from the platform, unite then for men who will give the good local government that both sides know is the greatest issue in Hawaii.

CANAL POLITICS THE DANGER

Another landslide has slid into the Culebra cut, but that isn't worrying the Panama Canal engineers. They have plenty of time to finish the canal as promised, even with the landslide to contend with.

What worries the men who are spending millions in preparation for the canal opening in 1913 is that the house committee on appropriations cut the allowance for canal work almost in half, lopping off $16,780,000. and leaving but $18,780,000. The senate is trying to repair this damage, according to late reports, but the menace is in the expressed attitude of the house.

It's a Democratic house, of course, and the American people are patient under political acts that no other civilized country would endure. The slash in the canal appropriation was purely political; the Democrats made a fake pretense of economizing; they wished to discredit the Republican administration, and they did it so blunderingly that were it not for the seriousness of their blunder it would be laughable.

The spectacle of the Democratic house holding back so important an improvement as the Panama canal ought to be the political deathblow for most of the Democrats who are running the house. But it won't. Of course the senate is repairing the break, and the canal work will not be hampered as much as the Democrats would hamper it. This is a sample of the "constructive statesmanship" that the baldeagle orators of Democracy are praising from every stump they can mount with their irresponsible feet.

CAPITALIZING THE AIR

Americans are so accustomed to reading of aviation only as the cause of terrible accidents that it is rather staggering to learn what strides toward the utilitarian the art of flying has reached in other lands.

Count Zeppelin, abandoning the field of speed-contests for the less picturesque but far safer field of sober industry, has steadily progressed with the dirigible balloon until recently the airship service from Frankfort to Dusseldorf has become as well-regulated as any steamer- or train-service. It is surprising to read in the Scientific American an account of a journey by one of these dirigibles, and to hear of passengers coming aboard with heavy coats and satchels, equipped for a long journey. The large dirigibles are now carrying wireless equipment. The cabins are finished in handsome woods, and we read that the interior much resembles that of some palatial steamer, while the steady movement of the vessel, now and then buffeted by gusts of wind, is more than anything else reminiscent of a voyage at sea.

The morning paper is no stranger to distortion of facts, but the limit was reached this morning when under headlines "Shingle Breaks with Cupid," it published Mr. Shingle's carefully-drawn statement in which he affirms his personal friendship and his admiration for the delegates and in which he definitely refuses to become a candidate against him. That he, Mr. Shingle, would decline to support the delegate should the latter bolt the party is the fact upon which the morning paper has based its declaration of a "break."

An international conference of fire-fighters and an exhibit of fire-fighting apparatus from all over the world is to be held in New York next October. Advance reports, commenting on the character of the engines to be shown, make the prophecy that not a piece of horse-drawn apparatus will be seen in the exhibit. It is the age of motorization.

Private capital would have no more worthy investment in Honolulu than the erection of the proposed commercial building, now that the plan cannot be financed publicly. It ought to be carried through, and the indications are that it will be.

Kauai's progress in sanitation is another instance of the progressiveness of the Garden Island. Good roads, cleanliness and political and industrial harmony make a winning combination.

Mayor Fern has borrowed the city automobile for a three weeks' vacation trip on Hawaii. The mayor has kindly consented to pay for the gasoline.

Now it's the railroads that are back of the Panama canal controversy. This leaves only the airship trust and the suffragettes unmentioned.

There's no occasion for the holders of sugar stocks to get panicky simply because the senate is going to take up consideration of the sugar bill.

Roosevelt's denial of steam-roller methods sounds like a chauffeur trying to convince the police judge he didn't exceed the speed-limit.

The handcuffs used by an illusion king at one of the local theaters are not the decorations of royalty referred to in the press notices.

Congress is determined to make a good job of the Pearl Harbor drydock.

Why not nominate Lincoln Steffens at the Progressive convention?

"Blast the coral" hereafter will not be simply a beach expletive.

Has anybody seen Cipriano Castro, late of Venezuela?

LETTERS ON TIMELY TOPICS

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin, Sir:

It is a most welcome piece of news to hear that the armory is to be built right away, for not only is this building badly needed for military purposes, but some such building has long been needed for many other purposes.

Mr. Marston Campbell had this want in view when he planned the structure, and it was his idea to make it large enough to be used, not only for military purposes, but for great social functions, concerts, etc.

His plan was to have a building that would not only be useful, but ornamental as well, and that it should have galleries, hardwood floor and a seating capacity of not less than for the accommodation of 2500 people.

This plan, it is the consensus of opinion, should be adhered to, even if it can not all be undertaken at the present time.

No one can doubt that such a structure is needed in Honolulu and will sooner or later have to be built, and in this way two birds would be killed with one stone. Very truly,

GEO. OSBORNE.

HEARST NOW PREDICTS DEMOCRATIC DEFEAT

BALTIMORE, Md., July 1. — In a statement William Randolph Hearst predicts the defeat of the Democratic presidential candidate this year. He declares the Democratic convention will be "more odious" in the eyes of the people than the convention recently held in Chicago by the Republicans. Part of the statement reads as follows:

"I came to this convention not as a delegate, but as a Democrat. I came to give the Democratic party and the Democratic candidate the same loyal support that I gave the party and the candidate in 1896 and 1900.

"I came to this convention in Baltimore to support progressive principles and a progressive candidate and to oppose the political bosses and the privileged interests, as I have always done and always will do.

"I came here to support the Democratic candidate even though it were William Jennings Bryan, although I and every other friend of Mr. Bryan have come to know that he is never grateful for a service nor loyal to a friend.

"I had no personal or selfish interest in this contest and my preference for Mr. Clark was only because I believed he had demonstrated the genuineness of his progressive principles, not merely by empty professions, but by actual performances.

"I had refused to allow my friends in my own State to name me as their candidate for the nomination and I was determined to sacrifice every selfish ambition or personal interest to secure a platform of progressive principles carried to success by a united Democracy. The spirit which I felt seemed to me to be shared by nearly every Democrat that I met at this convention, and this convention opened with Democratic prospects brighter than I have ever seen them before.

"From the moment, however, that Mr. Bryan injected his selfish ambitions and ruthless methods into this convention Democratic prospects have diminished until today I feel, and every reasoning human being must feel, that a nomination delivered to any Democrat by this convention would be of but little value."

ARGENTINES START PROJECT FOR FLEET OF MILITARY AIRSHIPS

BUENOS AIRES, A. R., June 20.—Aerial navigation is arousing greater enthusiasm every day. It is now proposed by the Aero Club Argentino to raise large sums of money for the purchase of an entire aerial fleet to be turned over to the national army. With this object the club recently appointed a commission to meet the Argentine Sporting Society — Sociedad Sportiva Argentina — for the two to cooperate in the undertaking.

Both institutions are pledged for an extensive and active propaganda and it is expected that large interests in this capital and elsewhere will give their support. Thus the Ateneo theater has offered the aero club to give a special performance for the benefit of the aerial fleet, and the personnel of the theater will help in the interest of the propaganda.

The students are taking the matter up with the greatest enthusiasm and a commission has approached the ministry of public instruction to authorize a general subscription in all the normal schools and national colleges for the aerial fleet.

It is remarked that a prominent Uruguayan citizen resident here has written to the president of the Paraguayan veterans urging him to cooperate in the furtherance of this Argentine project.

CHECKS ABUSE OF BASEBALL UMPIRE

Walla Walla Mayor Causes Protests To Be Whispered Only

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 6. — Banishment from the game, exile to the clubhouse or occasional fines do not appeal to Mayor A. J. Gillis of Walla Walla as the most effective methods of making umpire baiting a lost art, and he has taken steps of his own which he believes will obviate all protests in games played here.

Mayor Gillis attended the game between Pendleton and Walla Walla of the Western Tri-State League yesterday. The kicks, yelps, jeers and protests of the players over the work of Umpire Breed did not please him, and he instructed Chief of Police Davis today to arrest any player who protested a decision on a charge of disturbing the peace.

A keen-eared officer was stationed before the grandstand at today's game and if there were any protests they were no louder than a whisper.

Francisco, I am sure of getting seven or eight hundred to come to Honolulu in a chartered ship after the joint convention.

"Various associations of professional men meet in San Francisco in 1915. If every one would try and induce them to come to Honolulu after their convention, a ship could be kept busy throughout that year carrying excursionists to Hawaii. You can count on it the gas men will come. They are good spenders and will be out for a good time—and it is now only a matter of making them want to come to Honolulu rather than to go some other place. I think I can do it."

PECULIAR ACCIDENT IN FLIGHT OF AEROPLANE

One Machine's Wind Causes Another To Be Dashed to the Earth

PARIS, Fr., July 6.—An army aeroplane accident, showing the great danger of machines passing too near each other while flying, occurred today at Villacoublay, near Paris. Lieutenants Briez and Burlez of the French army started on a flight from the aerodrome in separate monoplanes, their destination being Belfort.

Lieutenant Briez had attained an altitude of 600 feet, when Burlez, passing him at greater speed 100 feet higher in the air, forced a pocket of air downward and caused the machine driven by Briez to lose its equilibrium. The monoplane crashed to the ground and both Lieutenant Briez's legs were broken, while his jaw was fractured and his breast also was injured. The doctors in attendance, however, say he will live.

THE Pickwick Club had finally dissolved and Mr. Pickwick had made a choice of a home. Everything was so beautiful! The lawn in front, the garden behind, the miniature conservatory, the dining-room, the drawing-room, the bed-rooms, the smoking-room, and, above all, the study, with its pictures and easy-chairs, and odd cabinets and queer tables, and books out of number, with a large, cheerful window, opening upon a pleasant lawn, and commanding a pretty landscape, just dotted here and there with little houses, almost hidden by the trees; and then the curtains, and the carpets, and the chairs, and the sofas! Everything was so beautiful, so compact, so neat, and in such exquisite taste, said everybody, that there really was no deciding what to admire most.
We have just such a home in Manoa Valley all ready for you—or we can build you a home after your own plans in Beautiful Kaimuki.

IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE AND ITS RELATION TO HOME PROBLEMS

FROM A HONOLULU WOMAN'S POINT OF VIEW

The demand for homes for persons of moderate income is being supplied to a great extent by men of means who are willing to accept something less than the usual Hawaiian returns on their investments. With the construction of small houses it would appear that the tenements will be fewer, for who wants a tenement when a home to one's self is possible? Work must be plentiful in Honolulu, for there is nearly always a need for even unskilled labor. At least that is the impression a day's news in the press would convey to the casual observer, and it is unskilled labor that is the food for the tenement owners.

A trip through the region of the fishmarket as the center of the radius will show pretty quickly how the poor are made poorer and why some can afford automobiles and why pedestrians who go to the fishmarket after four o'clock on Saturday are compelled to take to the middle of the street instead of the sidewalk. It will show also why the protest of the anti-saloon people against the saloons in that district should be heard and given consideration. It must occur to every white woman passing along King street between Nuuanu and the railway depot on Saturday that the policemen might better earn their salaries by keeping the streets clear of intoxicated men than by joining the groups and talking politics, as it is known that they do, to the cost and comfort of the citizens.

Real suffragettes could do much to better the condition of the Hawaiian women of Honolulu. Political suffragettes such as Hawaii has had for generations may not be exactly what is needed, but the real ones could establish woman's suffrage in the home and benefit the domestic conditions. It is often remarked that the demand for finery by the Hawaiian woman results in the depletion of the privacy of the household. Probably that is true, for the Hawaiian women, like the women of any other race, like finery; but those men who complain seem to overlook the amount they spend in liquid refreshments, for cigars and for other pleasures which their wives are not allowed to enjoy. Summing it up, the men are just as responsible for the small bank account, or none at all, as the women. There are exceptions to this rule, of course. There never was a rule that did not have its exceptions.

Suffragettes of the right kind might be a Godsend to many of the children in Honolulu who go hungry to bed. Many of the children who are sent to the industrial schools and the homes for little ones who are neglected by their parents, might be kept at home, for surely it is much more natural to enter a home and be greeted by a real, that a foster mother.

DECIDES COST OF WOMEN'S HATS IS HIGH ENOUGH

WASHINGTON, June 29. — The rights of women are secure in the Treasury Department. So spoke Assistant Secretary Curtis today in wiping out a big discrimination against women's hats in the interpretation of the tariff acts.

Hatters' plush—used exclusively in the manufacture of men's silk hats—has been admitted to the United States at 10 per cent duty. Other such plush has paid 45 per cent. Of late hundreds of thousands of women's hats by fashion's decree have been made out of hatters' plush. Because of the peculiar wording of the tariff act some collectors of customs, in cases where the plush was used for women's hats, have been assessing 45 per cent, while that used for the dress hat of any American gentleman paid only 10 per cent.

The cost of women's hats is high enough, said Curtis, in deciding that the quality of the plush should be the basis of assessment, whether it went to man or woman.

Christening an Hawaiian Princess in an Alien Land

WHAT VANCOUVER, B. C., READ WHEN DAUGHTER OF ATCHERLEYS WAS NAMED FOR KAIULANI

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 6.—Royalties are no novelty in Vancouver. First and last they have come and gone by dozens. Every royalty and semi-royalty who come to America ultimately lands in Vancouver.

Ultimately—but not primarily. Only one has so far "seen Vancouver first" and that quite literally. And she, indeed, has not seen any place else. She is a princess, albeit a very little princess, high Princess Victoria Elizabeth Kaiulani, three right royal names, and she was so christened yesterday evening at six o'clock in the baptismal font at Christ Church, Rev. C. C. Owen giving her her first churching.

She was born in Vancouver some few weeks ago, this little descendent of the kings and queens of sunny Hawaii, and she is the daughter of Dr. Atcherley and Mrs. Mary Haarheo Atcherley. Mrs. Atcherley is the ward of ex-Queen Liliuokalani, daughter of the fosterbrother of King Kalakaua, and a lineal descendant also of King Kamehameha, who occupied the throne of Hawaii to the time of his death in 1872.

Named for Kaiulani.

As according to ancient Hawaiian usage ,titles and honors, as well as more material benefits, descend through the female line, Victoria Elizabeth Kaiulani is indeed a princess, though of a dethroned line. She is named for Queen Kaiulani, wife of King Kalakaua, and ex-Queen Liliuokalani is her grandmother. But since the ex-queen could not be present in Vancouver for the christening, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Edwards acted as substitute sponsors in her stead, and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Douglas also stood as god-parents to the little princess.

Princess a Sunny Mite.

The princess went through her first public function very creditably, cooing a little once in a while, but refusing to cry at all. She is the sunniest-looking mite imaginable, with deep brown eyes and thick hair of the rich shade and silkiness of seal fur.

After the christening, the proud parents gave a Hawaiian dinner, at their residence on Nineteenth avenue, in honor of the occasion, which was one of the most novel and pleasant social afairs ever held in the city. Some score of guests were seated at a long L-shaped table, spread with ferns and orange-colored tissue over the white damask, and with knives and forks carefully concealed beneath the ferns. There were for such guests as found themselves unabl to help themselves in Hawaiian style—with the fingers. A poi calabash, filled with fruit, centered the table.

Hawaiian Flowers and Music.

The diner' places were marked by cards attached to long orange-colored garlands, or leis, of crepe paper, in lieu to Hawaiian flowers, which were not obtainable. On taking their seats, the guests slung these leis about their necks, in proper Hawaiian fashion. The dinner had but one course, although the viands were many. Bowls of various sizes held poi, the native substitute for bread and porridge, a curious greyish, pasty-looking substance of an indeschibable sour flavor, which the courageous dipped up on two fingers and ate. Dr. Atcherley demonstrated the method first. Taro, which is not unlike a sweet potato; boiled or roast pork, euphoniously called "pig" by the host and hostess; some sort of fish, apparently rolled and cooked in corn husks; bananas cooked in their skins; chicken boiled with spinach, and one or two d'shes which defied analysis, but were not unpleasing to the palate, were all on the table at once.

The guests took up the unequal struggle dauntlessly. Soon they were conveying food in their fingers with an air of nonchalance that denied the very existence of forks. One hardy guest, when the final round, consisting of ice cream, was brought on, scorned the proffered spoon, and tossed the frozen dainty down with his fingers as if childlains had never been heard of.

Once a fork crept coyly from beneath a fern; a guest was, Darwinically speaking, "reverting to type."

"Coward" hissed a fellow guest from across the table, pointing the literal finger of scorn. The brandisher of the fork dropped it, abashed.

During the dinner Hawaiian airs were played, and the strains of the "Hula Hula" accompanied the exodus to the drawing-room. The little princess, Mrs. Atcherley and Dr. Atcherley were all toasted by the guests, Mrs. Atcherley responding in her native tongue.

Mrs. Atcherley's two eldest daughters, pretty dark-eyed girls, who will soon be danty debutantes, assisted her in welcoming her guests. Mrs. Atcherley was gowned in pink sation, with garniture of black lace and jet. In the drawing-room portraits of ex-Queen Lilioukalani, King Kalakaua and Queen Kaiulani, presented to Mrs. Atcherley as wedding gifts, were noticed.

Won Lawsuit and Fortune.

Mrs. Atcherley has just successfully concluded a lawsuit, which has been pending for eleven years, for a half million dollar estate in Hawaii. The Supreme Court of the United States has finally decided in her favor and she has only lately returned from her native land from a trip connected with the settlement of the litigation. Mr. and Mrs. Atcherley are living in Canada because their connection with the deposed dynasty of Hawaii has brought them under suspicion in that flowery island, and their life there was too often rendered uncomfortable.

Covers were laid at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Douglas, Mr George Macdonald, Mr. J. F. Langan, Mrs. Creighton, Miss Ogden, Miss McLaren, Miss Hettie Franklin, Miss A. K. Franklin, Miss James, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hudson, Dr. and Mrs. Castleman, Mr. and Mrs. Walmsley, Dr. La Chapelle, Mr. and Mrs. Armishaw, Mrs. Sophie Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Johnson, Mrs. H. C. Boak, the Misses Boak, Miss Willard and Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain.

POLLARD'S JUVENILES WILL OPEN AT BIJOU

On Monday evening the famous Pollard Juvenile Opera Company will open at the Bijou in Frank Daniels' great musical success, "Sergeant Brue," an opera full of bright music and comedy.

The Pollard Juvenile Opera Company needs no introduction to Honolulu theater-goers, as its previous engagements here have been a great success and their friends are many.

Mrs. Chester has selected for this tour only those who possess marked ability, and the chorus has received special attention.

The oldtime favorites, Willie Pollard, Teddy McNamara and Lester Donohue, will be seen to great advantage in the coming production.

The prices for the Pollard engagement will be 15c, 20c and 30c and reserved seats 50c. The ticket sale is on daily at the Bijou, and the telephone number 2660.

Those who are fortunate enough to secure seats for Monday night's performance will be assured of a real musical treat.

SISTER OF ASTOR'S WIDOW TO BE BRIDE

Young Brooklyn Broker Said to Be Fortunate Suitor

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 9.—Miss Katherine Force, the fascinating 19-year-old sister of Mrs. John Jacob Astor, is soon to wed, according to a report in society. The fortunate young suitor is said by intimate friends to be Henri C. Harnickell of Brooklyn, a young broker, with enthusiastic prospects.

Owing to the fact that both families are in mourning the plans for the wedding are not revealed. A few intimate friends have been told of the engagement and these friends believe that the couple will be quietly married shortly after Mrs. Astor becomes a mother. They do not expect an elaborate wedding.

CRUEL PAPER WAR OVER, SAYS U. S. WAR DEPARTMENT ORDER

Officers Informed Dove of Peace Hovers Over Mexico and Cuba and They May Unpack Their Kits and Prepare to Stay a While.—Fifth Cavalry Gets Notice to Move.

The near-war between the United States and Mexico and Cuba is at an end. Not many people knew that any sort of war, either near or far, existed, but such must have been the case, for a War Department order has just come along bringing the joyful tidings that the Dove of Peace is once more flitting with immunity over the border.

So far as Hawaii is concerned, the "state of immediate readiness" mentioned in the order has amounted only to the officers having their field kit packed ready for shipment whenever they went on leave, and to a mild flutter among some of the recruits. There wasn't much chance of the Oahu troops betting in on any fun that might break out in either Mexico or Cuba.

Following is the text of the order which ends this cruel and bloody paper conflict:

"Referring to instructions, concerning the holding of troops in readiness for immediate field service in Cuba and Mexico, the Secretary of War directs that you be advised that, the emergency having passed, it is no longer necessary to keep the troops, and the equipment and property that would accompany them into the field, in the state of immediate readiness contemplated in those instructions."

That long-expected order for the relief of the Fifth Horse has finally arrived in official form, but after reading it, Cavalry officers here are no wiser than before as to their future station. The order tells what's going to happen to the Fourth, which is coming here, but the Fifth is left in suspense.

Following is the text: The Fourth Cavalry is designated for service in Hawaii Territory, will be relieved from duty at the present stations, and will proceed to San Francisco, Cal., in time to embark for Honolulu on the transport sailing from San Francisco on or about January 5, 1913, to relieve the Fifth Cavalry, which, upon being thus relieved, will embark for San Francisco on the transport leaving Manila on or about January 15, 1913; the station of the Fifth Cavalry to be designated later.

First Lieutenant Truby C. Martin, recently promoted from the 5th Field Artillery, has been assigned to the 1st Field Artillery and will probably be assigned to the battalion at Schofield Barracks.

Major Penn, infantry unassigned, has been assigned to the First Infantry, completing a "paper transfer" with Major Moore, of that regiment, now on detached duty.

The ladies of the Schofield Barracks Branch of the Army Relief Society desire to extend their thanks to all those among the civilians of Honolulu, and of the Army and Navy who lent their support to the evtertainment given at Schofield June 29th.

The barn dance and supper was a great success both socially and financially. More than $400 was cleared for this worthy charity.

CHICAGO SUBSCRIBER "DEE-LIGHTED" ANYHOW

CHICAGO, June 24.—Subscribers to the fund to bring the Republican National convention to Chicago have an unusual surprise in store for them, in that they will get back 20 per cent of the amount advanced.

Frederick Upham, chairman of the committee that was successful in bringing the meeting here, said that the $100,000 subscribed was in excess of the cost by $20,000.

The largest single item to be paid is $25,000 to the Coliseum Company for rentals and equipment.

DRYS HAVE REAL STEAM ROLLER

ATLANTIC CITY (N. J.), July 8.—A well oiled "steam roller" ran over an insurgent movement in the Prohibition party tonight at a meeting of the National Committee of that party preliminary to the National Convention which meets Wednesday and at the climax of a spirited session a minister of the gospel challenged as to business integrity, invited a leading insurgent "to come out doors."

Trouble started the moment Charles B. Jones, chairman of the National Committee, called the meeting to order. Insurgents who have made no secret of their intentions to oust Jones, at once raised the point of no quorum. It developed that there was none, but after several hours of maneuvering, a quorum was declared by Chairman Jones after his followers, who were in the majority, had vacated four places on the committee and brought the total membership down to a point where the actual number present constituted a quorum.

During the debate, when the committee had before it several motions to adjourn, it was reported that Committeeman George J. Haven of New Jersey had resigned, and that Rev. Robert A. Ellwood, pastor of the Boardwalk Church of Atlantic City, was prepared to make a statement regarding Haven's status. Stewart of Illinois, H. P. Harris of Missouri and other leaders objected to the committee taking action on such a statement and declaring Haven's place vacant.

"We have only this man's word that he had a telephone conversation," said Stewart.

"Does the gentleman doubt my word?" indignantly demanded Rev. Mr. Ellwood, rising to his feet.

"Yes, I do," Stewart quickly replied.

"Well," the minister retorted, "come outside and we'll settle it."

While friends interfered and explanations followed, Chairman Jones put a motion declaring Haven's place vacant, and it was carried.

The committee then proceeded to perfect arrangements for the convention.

Of this number there were ninety-eight copies left over for office sales, files and copies for the office staff.

We are getting settled down to a bed-rock basis of circulation. The duplications of subscribers to the two former evening papers are practically eliminated, and the circulation of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin is holding to a figure far above the original guarantee.

A circulation of Five Thousand or more, and an advertising rate of Fifteen Cents an Inch is an offering of value to advertisers that cannot be equaled for value in any other city of the United States.

It is proof that the Honolulu Star-Bulletin is giving the best advertising medium with the lowest relative rate per inch.

Everyone admits we supply the people with the best news medium Hawaii has ever known. The good work will be continued.

The happiness of the whole family depends greatly on the health and strength of the housewife. RECENT RUSSIAN ARRIVALS GOING TO PLANTATIONS

The territorial immigrant station is again inhabited, for it now houses some forty-odd Russians who arrived from Dalny on the steamer Shinyo Maru. These Russians are a part of those who had gathered at Dalny with the view of coming to Hawaii to join friends and relatives here. Commissioner Clark found them there on his arrival in Manchuria and after investigation decided that they would make good citizens and arranged for their transportation here.

In view of the action of the Sugar Planters' Association in deciding that its members would not use Russians, the party at the station is likely to be the last to arrive here for some time to come.

Commissioner Clark has been ordered to finish his investigations in Manchuria and sail for home and it is supposed that he is on the way.

Places have been found on plantations for all of the recent arrivals save eight unmarried men who elected to remain in Honolulu.

COAL MAY COME FROM CANADA

Coal to replenish the bunkers of United States army transports that call at the port of Honolulu each month may be brought here from British Columbia, according to a well-founded report current in local shipping circles.

The United States government has requested bids for supplying coal to the United States army transport service, from Northern mine operators, and two hundred collieries situated in the Dominion of Canada will offer tenders to furnish the large amount of fuel required.

For some time past the great bulk of coal brought to the Hawaiian Islands and consigned to the local quartermaster's department has come from Japanese sources.

Nagasaki, Japan, has been the regularly-appointed coaling port for the transports Thomas, Sheridan, Sherman and Logan, these vessels remaining at Nagasaki for between two and three days, during which time a large quantity of fuel was placed on board by a host of Japanese coolies, many being women and children.

The supply of coal belonging to the quartermaster's department at Honolulu has become practically exhausted, and for the past several calls of army transports en route from San Francisco to the Philippines, the coal furnished the vessels has been purchased from local importers.

The big cargo-carrying transport Dix will, it is said, go into immediate commisson at Seattle and proceed to Japan and the Philippines. The return of the Dix to Honolulu will also insure the receipt of several thousand tons of Japanese coal for the Honolulu station.

HONOR TO JOS. RICHARDS.

Newspaperdom in its issue of June 27 publishes a photograph of Jos. A. Richards, brother of Theodore Richards of this city, with the following statement: "Jos. A. Richards, who established probably the first advertising agency in New York City to be run as a 'service agency,' was called to Middletown, Conn., last week, where he received the degree of Master of Arts from Wesleyan University. It was conferred, in Mr. Richards' case, as a purely honorary degree, which is not a common practise of Wesleyan."

Mr. Richards will be remembered by many Honolulu people, he having visited the city some years ago before taking up the management of the pineapple advertising campaign. The Richards family have been loyal Wesleyan men and they have reflected honor on their alma mater. Atherton Richards, who is now home for the vacation, is a student at Wesleyan, having completed his freshman year.

John P. Warren of Mansfield, who has served 53 years in the state prison will leave for home shortly.

CORRESPONDENCE OF JULY 11 AND 12

(Correspondence of July 11 and 12.)

Six people have been indicted in Chicago for connection with a conspiracy to defame the name of Clarence Funk, manager of the International Harvester Trust, who first made public the "jack pot" in the Senator Lorimer case. That attempt to defame Funk resulted from the Lorimer dispute.

A telephone girl in Vancouver, who was sworn at by a subscriber for being given a wrong number, brooded over the insult for several days and then committed suicide.

It is said that the engineer of the express train that hit the rear of a D. L. & W. passenger train near Corning, New York, was intoxicated a few hours before he went on his run, and did not inspect his engine.

At the monthly meeting of the directors of the Rapid Transit Company yesterday, the letter of Manager Ballentyne to the Board of Supervisors offering to lay stone or wood blocks on the company's portion of streets on which the company lays or has laid permanent pavement, was confirmed. Now the company is waiting for the Board's answer.

Nothing could be done toward hastening the start of construction of the extension to Pearl Harbor naval station, pending action by Congress on the bill to give the line a right of way across Fort Shafter reservation. Owing to the probability of an early adjournment, it is felt that the company will be lucky if the bill, although it has no opposition, receives final attention at the present session.

It was voted to procure from the Government Printing Office, Washington, a fresh supply of the Hawaiian fish plates depicting in natural colors the beautiful fishes of these waters such as are to be seen at the Aquarium.

STOCK BOARD DULL TODAY

Another recess sale of Hutchinson was of 10 shares at the last previous figure of 21. Onomea had 20 shares reported and 10 on the board unchanged at 55.50. Ewa showed no change, sales of 100, 10, 15 and 5 shares at 32.25 being reported.

PARIS DOWN TO LAST HORSE CAR

Students Resent Banishment of the Slow Old Vehicles

PARIS, Fr., July 6.—Paris is down to her last horse car. The coming of the autobus in the past year has nearly exterminated the slower means of travel. As a consequence the students of the Latin quarter are up in arms. The Pantheon-Odeon horse 'bus, with its seats "upstairs," took its last trip a few weeks ago, and the students, hearing of the change that was about to take place, made it the occasion for a characteristic demonstration of disapproval.

At the Pantheon, the starting point, a battalion of students were in waiting. Like a swarm of angry bees they filled the seats and every inch of standing room. Amid yells and songs they rode over the course. In any other city the police would have interfered, but in Paris the student is a law and a power unto himself.

And now the march of progress threatens the last horse tramway—the Auteuil-St. Sulpice. While not in the Latin quarter, still it is near by, and it is one much used by the students. Time has no monetary value to the student, and, one might say with truth, to the average Parisian. A quick expedition to their place of destination does not appeal strongly to their senses. The horse 'bus and the horse tram had become a habit, and the "quarter" resents having a habit disturbed. When the Auteuil-St. Sulpice horse tram is called upon the make way for its speedier brother, the autobus, there is danger of a miniature revolution.

As a monument to Hugo Kruse, a sailor of Corona, L. I., who was killed on board the Maine, a 1000-pound shell will be planted on a granite base in that city.

HUBBY'S LOCKS WERE UPROOTED

With John Alina, the elevator man in the McCandless building, it might be safely said that he has had more than his share of ups and downs.

Alina, withal a Hawaiian-Chinese of small stature, presented a picture of woe as he sat in the witness box at Judge Monsarrat's court this morning and told of a strenuous invasion of his premises by a buxom Hawaiian woman, three times his fighting weight, who lays claim to at one time having borne the title of Mrs. Alina.

From the tale unfolded between furtive glances in the direction of an irate helpmeet, Alina might have fared far better after an encounter with a 60-mile-an-hour automobile or have entered the lists as a center rush in a football team.

He declared that for twenty minutes the woman had him by the hair and that great bunches of hirsute were sacrificed in the encounter.

"Not satisfied with hauling me over the floor of the bungalow by the scalp lock, I was beaten and battered with all sorts of household utensils and bric a brac, in which a lantern, a flower vase, a five-pound lead weight, a water pitcher and chair were used with distressing and reckless freedom.

"And," added Alina, who has braved insistent demands for passage in the downtown office building elevator, "my cries for help fell upon deaf ears."

"As your brother-in-law was living in the same house, why did you not call upon him for reinforcements?" was asked by the prosecution.

"As the woman battered down the door and entered, my brother beat it through the rear window," was the sad rejoinder.

Alina had been brought to book with a charge of assault and battery affixed to his name.

"I believe that the shoe is on the other foot," mused the court. "I will declare Alina not guilty. The charge should have been brought against the complainant instead, judging from all testimony given here.

Alina went his way, chastened but victorious.

OPEN LETTER TO PHYSICIANS

You will agree that the following presents an incurable case so far as Digitalis, Nitro Glycerine, Basham's Mixture, etc., are concerned:

Chronic Bright's Disease of the kidneys, patient in convulsions nearly every day for three weeks, twenty pounds of the patient's weight being dropsy.

Patient—W. E. Strickland, address 45 Verona Place, San Francisco.

Patient's physician, Dr. Kelley, told him there was no hope.

E. L. Baldwin, President of the Ferry Drug Store, No. 20 Market Street, was instrumental in having Fulton's Renal Compound put to the test in this case. There was gradual improvement thereafter and final recovery. That it was complete may be known from the fact that this was about seven years ago and he was well at last advices a few months ago.

The motive of Fulton's Renal Compound (a mild infusion) is to stop the degeneration in renal tissues and gradually relax the obstructed kidney. Then the usual heart, eliminative and tonic treatment is helpful (there is no conflict) and the prognosis changes from despair to hope. (When not extreme many cases recover under the Renal Compound alone.)

The substance of the formula surrounds each bottle.

Honolulu Drug Co., will fill prescriptions and supply pamphlets.

J. A. C. TEAM IS AFTER NEW RULING

League Meeting Called for Tonight to Consider Barney Joy's Delivery

The J. A. C.s don't like that half balk motion of Barney Joy's, which caught several of them napping off the initial sack in the first game of the play-off series last Sunday, and they have asked for a league meeting to have the rule construed and the umpires properly instructed. In fact, they consider that Barney's gyrations in the box constituted a sure-enough balk, and they don't intend to let him get away with it in the next game, if there is any way of stopping him.

Joy did great work in nabbing runners at the first corner, and they weren't all sleepers by any means. Some of them were on the lookout for him, but couldn't get back in time, and were mightily disgusted in consequence.

Section 8 of rule 34 says: "That a balk shall be—Making any motion of the arm, shoulder, hip or body the pitcher habitually makes in his method of delivery, without immediately delivering the ball to the bat."

If this is interpreted literally, Barney's motions Sunday were surely a balk, but, as a matter of fact, calling balks is largely left to the umpire's discretion, for were the above rule followed to the letter, it would be impossible for a pitcher to throw to first at all, while standing in his box.

In last Sunday's game Medeiros caught a couple of men on throws that were identical with Joy's, only the latter got away with it oftener. It might be that this latest move on the J. A. C.'s part is another attempt at goat-getting, and that the protest is aimed more to make Barney nervous in the box and to bluff him out of throwing to first, than in any real hope of having a ruling given.

The league meeting has been called by Secretary Raposo for this evening at 7:30, in the office of President Charles Chillingworth.

SAWED OFF SHORT

There will be a cricket match tomorrow afternoon between the combined teams of Davies & Co. and Bishop & Co. and "The Rest." The game will be played on the Makiki grounds, commencing at 2:15 sharp.

Tennis and polo will have to divide honors next week, but the courtesy and far-sightedness of the tennis tournament committee in canceling its games on the coming Wednesday and Saturday, has been much appreciated all round.

Young Gans says he will fight Moriarity if the latter will make 124 pounds ringside for him. If the soldier can do it, it should be easy picking for him.

Eddie Madison and Johnny McCarthy have started training for their August 3 bout. To date the coming mill hasn't created much excitement, but the fans will probably warm up to it as the time approaches.

The Vineyard Athletic Club's team wants a crack at the Eagles, but the latter's acceptance of the Liberties' challenge reached the sporting desk first.

DEALERS AND DRIVERS LIKE AUTO MEETING

The automobile gymkhana, planned for next month at Kapiolani Park, seems to have hit the popular fancy, and there is a lot of talk and good-natured rivalry over the proposed afternoon of sport. Those interested in motoring believe that it will do the game permanent good, and hope that the coming meeting will lead to the organization of a strong auto club here.

The committee which is making arrangements and hustling prizes reports good success. Already there have been a number of entries, and the merchants and business men of the city, especially those interested in the trade, have shown a willingness to come through with cups and supplies as prizes.

With a record of sixty hours' continuous piano playing, Charles Ryan won an endurance contest in Brooklyn from Harry W. Richards, when a physician made Richards quit.

CHICAGO, July 11. — "Quite auspishous," remarked Jack Johnson before he took his daily ride to court this morning, as he glanced over the cash register, showing the receipts and sales of the opening night at his $30,000 Cafe de Champion.

Dark clouds of humanity wandered away through the narrow streets of darktown last night and paid greenback homage to their champion. The opening was scheduled for 9 o'clock, but two hours before there were 5,000 negroes before the door tossing their hats into the ring of King Jack. If any man remained sober this morning it was more of a tribute to capacity than virtue.

"Quantitative speaking, mo' beer was served than the finer wines," Jack informed the reporters today. "But mah friends suttingly did me proud. It was a lesson to the restaurateurs of Broadway in an opening. The strain of 'La Paloma' jest flittered through a maze of zeegar smoke and the fumes of vintage of 1912 and the brewage of 1912 until mah friends did a turkey trot down the glittering aisles of mah palace of revelries.

"There was only one drawback. I put a big apple pie away in a locker for mah own breakfast. A waiter, not realizing the importance of that pie's prospective finish, done sold a quarter of it to a yellow coon from Mobile for 10 cents, and I lost mah appetite soon as I saw that niggah sink his ivories into the crust.

"But it was a great opening, and mah future and fortune is assured," he remarked in closing.

WORLD'S BEST CLUB-SWINGER IN HONOLULU

To swing Indian clubs at all is quite a trick, but to whirl them continuously for 98 hours and 50 minutes is a feat that only one man in the world can perform. That man is Tom Burrows, who calls himself "The King of Clubs" and he has just arrived in Honolulu from Australia.

Few athletes have had so interesting a career as Tom Burrows, and during a call at this office yesterday, he gave some particulars regarding his connection with athletics. An enthusiast in athletics from early years, the "King of Clubs" first started on his career as a professional in 1891, when in Melbourne he won the big open championship for fancy club swinging against 15 competitors. Since then his career has been one of uninterrupted success, culminating in his brilliant achievement in Tamworth (N. S. W.), lately when he swung clubs continuously for 98 hours 50 minutes.

Much Travelled.

Burrows, whose careful mode of living is largely responsible for his athletic performances, has a magnificent collection of trophies and medals won in different parts of the world. In 1892 he journeyed to England as the lightweight champion boxer of Australia, who was invited to London by the National Sporting Club. He had not been long in England before his prowess as an all-round athlete became known, and in March, 1893, at the Royal Military Gymnasium, Aldershot, he put up the first endurance record attempted, namely, 8 hours 15 minutes.

From that time on he began raising the record for endurance club swinging, giving exhibitions and breaking his own records in Egypt, Germany and England. When the South African war broke out Burrows dropped exhibition athletics, and went in for strenuous active service, as a sergeant in the Imperial Yeomanry. He couldn't keep away from the whirling clubs entirely, though, and put up a 36-hour record at Capetown to occupy his time between battles.

Appearance Before Royalty.

During his career, Burrows has appeared before the late Queen Victoria and the late King Edward VII, while he gave a special exhibition of boxing for the German Emperor. He has also given fencing and club swinging displays before King George and Queen Mary. On one occasion whilst participating in a boxing bout before the King and Queen a rather distressing incident occurred. Every precaution had been taken to make the bout a refined display of boxing, but unfortunately Burrows' head during a clinch came into contact with his opponent's forehead, the result being that before the end of the round both men presented a very blood-stained appearance. The Queen, however, quickly took in the situation, and placed the contestants more at ease by remaining until the finish of the bout.

OAHU SEEMS TO HAVE A SHADE THE ADVANTAGE OVER MAUI IN INITIAL GAME OF THE TOURNEY

By LAURENCE REDINGTON.

OAHU and Maui meet tomorrow afternoon in the opening game of the interisland polo championships of 1912. There are three teams in the field for honors this year, the Fifth Cavalry being the other contender, and "just before the battle mother" it looks like a grand fight for the blue ribbon. This is the last chance that the gallant Fifth will have at the cup, and the team is out to win by any fair means known to the game. Oahu is equally determined to win back the laurels lost to the Cavalry last year, while Maui, which didn't take part in the 1911 tournament, is quietly confident of annexing the cup.

Looking at the Oahu-Maui game from a critical standpoint, I believe that the former team has a little the better of the argument, and expect to see the local four win by a score of something like 11 to 7.

This forecast is based on a close study of the Oahu players and ponies during the past two months, an analysis of the Maui mounts, the form shown by three of the players in the practise gallop Wednesday, and a careful study of the polo records of the four men who will carry the colors of the Valley Isle. Polo is a difficult game to "dope," as was shown in the international matches of 1911, when all the Eastern experts conceded the American team an easy victory in the first game, and when, in reality, they barely managed to beat out the Englishmen in a game that was fought right up to the last gong. However, there is enough to go on in the present instance to figure the performances with some certainty.

Oahu Well Balanced.

Taking Oahu as a team, it is a well-developed and evenly-balanced scoring and defensive machine. Taking the team individually, it is composed of veteran players who, with a single exception, are sure to put up their very best article of polo in a match game. That exception is Harold Castle, probably the most brilliant player on the team, who, however, sometimes has off days, when he is a shade below his regular form. This does not mean that he is ever very far off, merely that he is just as apt to strike twelve in some unimportant practise match, for the edification of half a dozen spectators and stable boys, as to reach the polo pinnacle in a championship match. Castle, then, is the X of the local four, in that he will either play good polo or magnificent polo. It should be remembered that in the last match of the spring series against the Cavalry he was the star of the day, which may show that he, too, is developing the top-form-in-tournament habit. Castle is probably the best-mounted man on the team.

Players Reliable.

In Sam Baldwin Oahu has a No. 1 who seems to be getting better all the time. Of late his principal improvement has been in increased aggressiveness in riding off, and in generally clearing the way for his Nos. 2 and 3. Baldwin is a good goal hitter, but he is a fast thinker, and often drops the ball to take his man when, to the uninitiated, it looks as though he had a good chance to score. He also is well mounted.

In Walter Dillingham Oahu has, to my mind, the best all-round polo player in the Islands. He is a cool customer at all times, and has the tournament experience to back skill and judgment. Dillingham's weight makes it hard for him to be properly mounted, but this year, besides his own ponies, he will ride Dr. Baldwin's splendid horse Carry the News, which assures him two periods of first-class polo. Dillingham plays No. 3 and captains the locals, and both he and Castle have an exact understanding of interchanging players.

Arthur Rice at No. 4 is a windfall for Oahu this year. Had he not moved to this island some months ago and started to play with the locals, they would have been up against it for a good back this season. Rice hits the ball hard, and he has improved a lot on his backhanders since the spring Cavalry series. He is a good defensive player, but when he gets started with the ball he isn't afraid to carry it right through, as he and Walter Dillingham understand swapping positions without any confusion or shouting.

Maui Offensive Team.

It is unfair to judge the Maui team on the game which three members put up the other day, with a volunteer No. 2 from the local ranks, but, just the same, the game gave some line on individual ability, and a glimpse of the general scheme of team play. It may be a guess, but I am inclined to believe that Maui is a better offensive than defensive combination. This, judged not so much on the play of the team as on the styles of the individual players. Maui may score, but I don't think it can keep the other fellows from scoring also.

The Maui ponies are generally conceded to be the best string of the three, but they seemed the other day to be as was very natural after their journey, too much up in the air. Road work will take some of the foolishness out of them, but polo is the very best medicine that can be given them, and this, unfortunately, is barred, as there will be no practise on the field for the two days preceding the match. Undoubtedly the Maui mounts have all the foot that is needed, and I look to see such ponies as Collins' Little Arthur, Frank Baldwin's Dandy and Fleming's Jet get away from even Oahu's best, in short brushes for the ball.

Collins Valuable.

Of the players themselves, Arthur Collins is comparatively new to tournament play, but the others have all had plenty of experience in interisland matches. Collins showed the other day that he can collar his man and give him a hustling ride-off. Whether he can put a player like Arthur Rice, who is some hustler himself, out of the game, remains to be seen. I do not believe that he will seriously bother the local back. Collins is to be reckoned with as a goal-getter, though, as he is said to be the surest shot on the team.

David Fleming is one of those players who can always turn on his best when it's most needed, and he can be counted on to keep the ball moving toward the Oahu goal a lot of the time. Frank Baldwin is the slugger of the aggregation, and on his play the uphill goal and the wind have less effect than on most of the hitters. He is very clever at centering the ball, and greatly increases his team's chances to score by this accurate and timely hitting.

Harold Rice, Maui's No. 2, is under the big disadvantage of stepping off the steamer tomorrow morning, and going onto the field without any previous practise on it. This may or may not affect his game. It's a lottery that depends on whether he has a smooth trip and a good night's rest or the reverse.

From present indications the picturesque Moanalua field will be ringed with autos tomorrow, and there will be a large crowd out to see the game, which is scheduled to start at 3 o'clock. Tickets are now on sale at E. O. Hall & Son's.

FOUR LEFT IN "Y" TOURNEY

Guard, Marshall, Hoogs and Baldwin survived the second round of the Y. M. C. A. tennis tournament, and will contest the semi-finals. The Guard-Baldwin match will be played at 5 o'clock this afternoon, and should result in a victory for the former, while Cyril Hoogs will likely account for Marshall on Saturday at 1:30. Owing to the polo match the finals will be postponed until next week.

The tournament has been a rather one-sided affair, with Guard a strong favorite from the first. Hoogs has a chance, but he will have to play better tennis than he did yesterday to accept it. The unknown quantity was Axelrod, who has been a player of ability, but who is badly out of practice. Guard put him out the other day, and thereby cleared the largest obstacle off the path to success.

Yesterday afternoon's matches provided a poor exhibition of the game. Hoogs beat Larimer 6-2, 6-3, and Marshall accounted for Redington 6-2, 6-1. Neither match was in doubt after the first couple of games.

INDOOR BALL FOR TONIGHT

An indoor baseball game is scheduled for tonight at the Y. M. C. A. between the Come Backs and the Ilimas, and as this game will settle the championship it will be hotly contested. The galleries will be thrown open to the public and the women are particularly invited to attend and root for their favorite teams. Ben Clarke will hold the indicator.

The line of the teams will be as follows:

Come Backs—Louis, c; Bechert, p; Clarke, 1b; Dwight, 2b; McGuire, ss; Lemon, 3b; Raseman, rf; Gilliland, cf; Marcallino, lf.

Ilimas—Klemme, c; Cannon, p; O'Sullivan, 1b; Nott, 2b; N. McGuire, 3b; Marino, ss; Yap, rf; Tinker, cf; Bunn, lf.

The Eagles' ball team has taken up the defi of the Liberties for a game to be played at Kapiolani Park Sunday afternoon. The Eagles have a strong line-up to tackle a Junior aggregation, but Captain Crowell of the Liberties says it's all the same to his men.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE OLYMPIC GAMES CULLED FROM THE FILES

While a lengthy recapitulation of the Olympic games would require columns of type, there are certain points in connection with the Stockholm athletic festival that can not fail to be of interest to every follower of track, field and swimming in Hawaii. America's great victory, and the part that Duke Kahanamoku played in it, are still the all-absorbing topic of conversation in sporting circles here.

Following are some random shots at the Olympic target fired by the Coast papers up to Friday, July 12. It will be noted that neither the 800 meter relay swim nor the marathon had been contested to that date.

In the 800-meter run, one of the most coveted events on the program, James E. Meredith, Mercerburg Academy, won, with Melvin W. Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., and Ira N. Davenport, University of Chicago, tied for second place in the final heat, and each broke the world's record in the hottest race veterans in the Stadium remembered.

Meredith lowered the time to 1 minute 51 9-10 seconds. He continued on to the half mile, which was officially recorded at 1 minute 52 1-2 seconds. Sheppard and Davenport were only inches behind. Six of the eight runners in this event were Americans. Braun, the German runner, made a splendid fight, but collapsed within reach of the tape. Melvin Sheppard, whose remarkable work at the London Olympiad when he won the 800 meters in the record time of 1:52 1-5, made him the favorite in that event today, but he was obliged to take second place to a younger man. His rival of four years ago, the Italian Lunghi, had also passed the zenith of his power and was unable to make the final.

Winning the pentathlon brought particular joy to Commissioner Sull van. He said:

"Taking this event disproves the charge that Americans are specialists instead of all round athletes, for pentathlon means a running broad jump, a javelin throw, a 200 meter run, a discus throw and a 1500 meter run and Thorpe averaged best in all of them, winning the last round of the 1500 meters sensationally.

"I am particularly glad it was Thorpe who won, because he's a real American Indian, not Irish or Italian American, which has often been the basis for criticism, I believe the pentathlon was put in the list to give advantage to foreigners; so it is a keen satisfaction to capture it."

In the final running high jump, Almen W. Richards of America, with 193 centimeters (a little more than six feet four inches), beat the Olympic record of six feet three inches, made by Porter, American, at London in 1908. Liesche, Germany, and George L. Horine, Leland Stanford University, with 191 centimeters, also beat the record. Richards is twenty-one years of age. He was born in Utah and has been a student at the Brigham Young University here for four years. Two years ago he failed to make a win at the track meet. The following spring he won every event he entered.

That they held their old places in walking was the only consolation the day afforded the Britishers. England was not represented in the final of the 800-meters while the Englishmen were the first to drop out in the 10,000-meter run and the high jump. The climax came when the giants of the Stockholm police force pulled over the supposedly invincible London bobbies in the tug of war. Most of the men who composed the British team were included in the squad that pulled America's heavyweights so easily in London four years ago. The British team complained that the Swedes sat on the ground while they were pulling.

The Swedish papers all pay editorial tributes to the American team this morning, one saying:

"The records made here silence all doubt about the records created in the United States. These men all live up to their reputations."

Another paper jokingly says:

"The American team is almost a trust—we believe America is where the trusts come from."

The officials of the British team predict that this meeting will cause a revolution in British athletic methods. British followers of the Olympic games declare that the team lacks discipline and that some of the men, including the university athletes, have broken their training, as they were unable to resist the attractions of Stockholm. Rev. de Courcy Laffan, a former leading athlete in England, thinks the English should send their trainers to study American methods.

Yesterday's decision disqualifying the United States relay team in the 400 meted race caused considerable grumbling. Some of the American officials and spectators assert that both the Swedish and British runners in that race committed the same foul, but the Americans alone were selected for punishment.

Lippincot of the University of Pennsylvania broke the Olympian games' record for the 100-meters, running the distance in 10 3-5 seconds. The previous record was 10 4-5 seconds, held jointly by Walker of South Africa and Jarvis of the United States. Walker made his record at London in 1908, and Jarvis at Paris in 1900.

The opening day of the Olympic track and field events was perfect from a weather standpoint. The day was clear with a cloudless sky overhead.

Two dark-skinned delegates from the Orient got an ovation, but found themselves far outclassed by their European and America brethren. A Turk, conspicuous in a flaming scarlet jersey, brought the crescent badge to the front in the 800 meters for a brave but brief moment. Then he faded into the background. A tall Japanese trailed far behind throughout the 100 meters.

The contingents of the northern nations, which had the javelin all to themselves, were immensely excited when the Finns won that event in one, two, three order. Not only did the Finns have the satisfaction of being the only persons except the American so far to fly their colors for a triple victory, but they broke two world's records.

BRITISHER WINS A GREAT 1500-METER RACE

STOCKHOLM, July 10.—The 1,500-meter run, which, excepting the Marathon, is the blue-ribbon event of the Olympiad, was lost this afternoon to America by such a narrow margin that the day will always be remembered as one of disaster in our athletic annals.

To Arnold Jackson of Oxford belongs the distinction of beating the four Americans—Mel Sheppard, Norman Aaber, Abel Kiviat and John Paul Jones, known as the fastest milers in the world, the last-named being the world's record-holder. Although a green youth, this being his first season in racing, Jackson alone has succeeded in saving the English team from the disgrace which threatened it at the hands of the American team.

It's what we call a blanket finish, for a very small blanket could have covered all three leaders at the tape.

Indeed, it took fifteen minutes to know who got second place, Kiviat or Taber. The camera was the deciding factor. This instrument, used for the first time in these games, was a very small affair, placed on a pedestal at the line. The pistol that starts the race automatically sets the plate, and the breaking of the tape flashes the shutter in the same fashion. The picture is accepted as an official record.

At the finish of the race Jackson was so exhausted eh had to be helped off the field and fainted in the dressing-room. He afterward said:

"I really did not expect to win, for I have known all about your wonderful American milers. That's why I lagged behind, letting them fight it out with one another. It seemed all along they were so anxious to beat each other, that they paid no attention to me and wore out their reserve, I knew I was good for a strong finish, but it took all I had to keep ahead of Kiviat. At the tape I was so dazed I hardly saw the hands of the American runners held out in congratulation. I can scarcely realize now that it was I who broke the tape."

Another exciting race today was the five-thousand meters final, won by the great Kohlemainen of Finland in a terrific finish with Bouin of France in record time. On semi-final form the Frenchman was the favorite, but the Finn simply broke his heart in the last sprint.

UNIQUE ARGUMENT FOR FREE LUNCH

Is Crime Preventive, Says Los Angeles Saloonman

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 5.—Members of the W. C. T. U. and a delegation of saloonkeepers appeared before the city council today to argue for and against the passage of the proposed ordinance to prohibit free lunches in saloons.

The women of the W. C. T. U. took the ground that the elimination of the free lunch would advance the cause of temperance. The saloonmen on the other hand asserted that the presence of the free lunch was a valuable aid to temperance.

"Many men go to the saloons at noon to get lunch and of course they have to drink," said the leader of the W. C. T. U.

"Yes, and after he eats he drinks less than he did before," replied the spokesman for the saloonmen. "A man always gets drunk quicker and wants drink more when his stomach is empty."

"Another fact you seem to have overlooked," continued the saloonman, "is that free lunches prevent many crimes. A man in the 'down and out' club, hungry and desperate, will go into a saloon, eat a free lunch, satisfy his hunger and with this satisfaction disappears all incentive of going out and holding up someone which, in many cases, results in murder."

These alleged psychological facts caused the council to delay action for a week in order to investigate further.

HAWAII CANNOT SEND DELEGATES TO TEDDY PARTY

Senator Dixon Thinks Territories Properly Excluded from Voting

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Hawaii will neither have the pleasure nor privilege of sending delegates to the "Bull Moose" convention which Col. Roosevelt has called for August 5, in Chicago. No matter how progressive the people of the islands may be they must worry along in the best possible way without being permitted to assist in settling the destinies of the Nation. The Philippines, Porto Rico and Alaska are in the same denaturalized condition. In fact, all the Territories have been snubbed by the Colonel, who believes he can get along without them.

Senator Dixon, the political manager of Col. Roosevelt during the preconvention campaign, when he was trying to beat out Mr. Taft and secure the nomination for a third term from the regular Republican convention, thinks the Territories are properly excluded. In speaking on this subject, and relative to the eight States not included in the call, Senator Dixon said:

The territoriel have no place in a national convention, and will not be considered. As for the missing eight States, the most of them probably will send delegates, although they have not taken part in the call. Maine, for instance, postponed any definite action because there is now a strong fight on in the primaries, with the sympathies running in favor of the progressive movement. Delaware, North Carolina, Arkansas, and Nevada probably will take part in the convention. Mississippi and South Carolina may possibly be unrepresented.

"The call lays down no lines as to the way of choosing delegates, and each State will be expected to select its delegates by its own paraphernalia. The representation will be cut down to just one-half that of the previous conventions. This was considered advisable since this convention is to be notably a deliberative body, and will certainly be composed of a class of men altogether different from those who usually attend conventions.

"In all probability the convention will adopt the name 'National Progressive' for the new party, but I cannot say definitely what will be done. Thus far no issues have been authoritatively stated, and, of course, the platform itself will have to be decided upon by the delegates.

"The Republicans and Democrats have been having rough fun over Colonel Roosevelt's search for an issue that will give his party movement a distinctive standing in the campaign. His final determination to settle on the high cost of living and promise the poor cheaper food and clothing in the event of his election, has added to the merriment.

The "Bull Moose" Joke.

The "Bull Moose" movement in many respects is a joke, but neither of the contesting parties regards it in that light. The serious aspect arises from the question as to whether Colonel Roosevelt will draw the more strength from the Republicans or Democrats. Whichever party is the less weakened by these defections will stand the better chance of pulling through in November.

It is admitted that the Democrats stand to lose more than the Republicans. Since the smoke of the two big conventions has cleared away the Republicans are designated as conservatives, or reactionaries, and the Democrats as liberals, or progressives. As Colonel Roosevelt poses as a progressive pure and simple, he stands to wean away more support from the liberal Democrats than from the conservative Republicans. In such an event Mr. Taft would hold the best chance of winning out in November as between the three factions. This tendency worries the Democrats and makes them feel somewhat blue even in the hour of prospective victory.

August 7 was fixed as the date for notifying Governor Wilson of his Presidential nomination. The Democrats are now troubled because of that fact. The date will probably be the big day of the "Bull Moose" convention at Chicago and Colonel Roosevelt will be holding the center of the stage to the exclusion of other topics. As an obtainer of publicity the Colonel has no rival in any political faction, and he will segregate to himself all the newspaper space that is loose on August 7.

GIGANTIC SLIDE MENACE TO CANAL

COLON, July 9.—Another great earth slide has started in Culebra cut of the Panama canal. Already several million cubic yards of earth have moved and the shifting soil gives promise of worse to come. Grave danger lies in the possibility of the cut itself being flooded, a disaster which would delay the opening of the Panama canal.

It is estimated by the Canal Commission that it will take one steam shovel working steadily, at least a year to clear away the present movement of the earth. The alarming fact, however, is that the slide extends back into the hill to within a hundred feet of the east diversion, which is the channel designed to keep streams out of the cut. If the break should reach the diversion, the cut would be flooded and all operations would be stopped temporarily.

TEDDY DENIES UNFAIR MEANS

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 18.—Colonel Roosevelt, through the columns of the Outlook today answered his critics, and denied that steam roller methods were used in the Republican national convention in 1900 or in 1908. He declares that to attempt to compare the methods put into operation by the Taft forces in 1912 with those used in previous conventions is absurd.

This year, he adds, methods were used which were far worse than anything ever done before. He declares that for the future the people will compel the nominations of the officials they may wish, and will not permit the interference of any bosses.

Continuing, the Colonel asserts that he is persuaded that the Democratic gathering in Baltimore nominated Woodrow Wilson at the behest of the bosses of that party.

PERFORATED NICKEL COINS TO BE ISSUED QUICKLY IN FRANCE

PARIS, June 20.—The abolition of the copper coinage of France has just been decreed by the government. All the 10 and five centime pieces are to be replaced by perforated nickel pieces and the issue of the new currency is to be effected as quickly as possible.

It appears from the report of M. Klotz, the minister of finances, that the present copper coins were condemned some years ago as the result of an official investigation, objection being made on the grounds of their lack of cleanliness, heavy weight and facility of oxidation. At a subsequent date a special commission considered the practicibility of replacing the copper coins with aluminum but these latter were reported upon unfavorably.

In June 1911 the ten minister of finances appointed a further commission which after a prolonged investigation made a report that was not considered satisfactory, whereupon M. Rene Besnard, the under-secretary of state for finances, took the matter up. Various experts and others interested were consulted and the use of perforated nickel pieces instead of coins with a single hole in the center was advised on the grounds of the prejudice of the French public to the latter.

It is estimated that some 80,000,000 of francs worth of new nickel coins will shortly be issued of the value of 5, 10 and 25 centimes each, the old copper coins being withdrawn as fast as the old issue consists of 77,000,000 of francs worth of copper coins and 10,000,000 francs worth of 25 centime pieces in nickel.

Allowing for the usual loss of 20 per cent, it is estimated that some 59,000,000 francs worth of copper pieces will find their way back to the mint in exchange for the new issue. There will be used for the making of one centime pieces and for copper currency in the French colonies, as well as for filling the many foreign orders received for copper coins.

MEDIUM FOR AIDING FARMERS IS PRAISED IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA

ADELIADE, S. Aus., June 25.—One of the main factors in raising the price of agriculture in South Australia to its admittedly high standards is the operations of the agricultural bureau—an organization which has branches throughout the state.

The members of the bureau consist for the most part of primary producers, who at their respective centers, meet together to discuss the various problems which confront the "man on the land" and exchange their experiences. Through the agency of the agricultural department the government assists the bureau in a variety of directions, and the value of the institution in helping forward the agricultural industry is freely acknowledged.

The minister of agriculture, Hon. T. Pascoe, M. L. C., himself a practical farmer, has been an active member of the bureau for a number of years. At a recent meeting held in his honor, the minister bore testimony to the benefits conferred by the branches of the organization.

"Apart," he said, "from the additional knowledge with which they furnished the members in relation to their occupations, thus assisting to make them better farmers—for they were farmers, and the farming was better as a result of their existence—they were of material advantage to the state. There was no doubt that the organization has done an immense amount of lasting good, and he hoped they would long continue to advance."

MISLEADING SYMPTOMS

Stomach Trouble Often Leads to Fear of Many Other Diseases.

If your digestion is out of order you may have symptoms that will mislead you into thinking you have heart disease, kidney trouble, some nervous disease or blood disorder. Better look to the stomach first. It is here that the blood gets its nourishment. If the digestion is disordered, the blood will be out of order. Poor digestion fills the blood with poisons. This impure blood poisons every tissue of the body. The dyspeptic awakes in the morning with a dull, heavy head and is irritable, melancholy, and dizzy because the brain nerves and muscles have been poisoned from the stomach.

Mrs. John Knuth, of R. F. D. No. 4, St. Joseph, Mo., makes the following statement: "I was an invalid with stomach trouble for seven years and spent hundreds of dollars with physicians without receiving any benefit. For two years I lived on milk alone. My stomach would not retain any solid food. I had gas on the stomach and vomited a great deal. I was troubled with dizzy spells and thought I would never live through them. My hands and feet were ice cold and seemed to have no circulation at all. My heart fluttered and I would have smothering sensations. My weight was greatly reduced. I was frequently confined to bed for days and at one time was in the hospital for seven weeks and my friends did not expect I would get well. After I gave up the doctors I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. A few boxes helped me so much that I could retain a little food on my stomach. Each day I grew stronger and took the pills until completely cured. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the cause of my being a healthy woman today and I gladly recommend them."

A new edition of the booklet, "What to Eat and How to Eat," is free on request. Send a postal for it to day and begin to cure yourself by following the directions it contains.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a digestive tonic and give new strength by enabling the blood to take up and profit by the food we eat. They double the value of the food, increase the appetite, energy and vigor.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

FIRES OF REVOLT IN PORTUGAL

LISBON, July 4.—All Portugal at the present moment is a seething volcano of political corruption, petty tyranny, monarchical conspiracies, and active preparations for an early revolt against republican government, which, it is conceded by many of its erstwhile supporters, has utterly failed in its purpose.

Every promise made by the Republican leaders as justification for the change from the old regime has either been broken or ignored. Instead of reduced taxation and better conditions generally, the Portuguese people find that taxes have been practically doubled, with a consequent increase in the cost of living, while personal liberty is dependent upon the personal prowess of the subject.

The revenues raised by the Republican government have been spent chiefly in establishing a more or less disguised form of military rule, with large detachments of troops stationed at every point where opposition is even suspected. Many of the wise ones in Lisbon do not hesitate to say that a goodly share of the money wrung from the people by extra taxation has found its way into the pockets of some of the political leaders, especially those connected with the Carbonaria, a secret organization that has brought about a veritable reign of terror, the tyranny of which is most keenly felt in the country districts, where the protection of life and property has little, if any, government aid.

ARE PLANNING TRIP TO TREASURE ISLAND

German Syndicate Trying to Charter Victoria Schooner for Cocos Cache

Arrangements are under way to start another vessel from Victoria in search of the far-famed Cocos Islands treasure, which has been sought for many years by treasure huntes from all paras of the world says the Vancouver Sun. Negotiations are being carried on with Captain J. W. Peppett, owner of the sealing schooner Pescawha, by a German syndicate to search for the gold and jewels said to have been cached on the island by the Nova Scotia bark Mary Dier. The owner of the Pescawha has been endeavoring to sell his vessel, but if the deal is not put through he considers it likely that he will charter her for the treasure hunt.

If the negotiations to secure the Pescawha for the voyage to Cocos Island are successful, the schooner will be the sixth vessel that has gone from this port on a similar errand, among them being two of H. M. warships, the cruiser Imperieuse and Amphion. The sealing schooner Aurora, one of the fleet offered for sale on Wednesday, was another, and the brigantine Blakeley went from here. The sailing of the Imperieuse and Amphion was incident to a South Sea cruise made by the Esquimalt vessel soon after the arrival o the Aurora. Among those who came from Cocos island on the schooner was Mr. Hartford, who had been seeking the buried millions, and his tale fired the late Admiral Palliser with the desire to search so much that when his vessels were ordered south he went to the island and landed Lieutenant Lee and 100 men from the Amphion to delve for the treasure. He left the navy afterward and organized an expedition from Great Britain, headed by EAarl Fitzwilliam, in the steamer Veronique.

The treasure for which so many expeditions have sought is said to consist of gold and silver and jewels, the treasure placed on board the Nova Scotia barque Mary Dier at Lima, Peru, when investment of that city was imminent by the Chilians during the war between Chili and Peru. The treasure included same large golden statues from the Lima cathedral. The barque, in command of Captain Thompson, is stated to have sailed away with the treasure and buried it on Cocos island.

HEAR THE LIGHT.

Acording to an exchange, Fournier Dalbe, a French inventor, declares he can make light audible. He has inventer what he calls an otophone. A London newspaperman who was invited to test the insrument., says he could distinctly hear through its highly sensitive receivers a rasping sound made by an electric light. Mr. Dalbe declares that the moon is quite audible and that the sun roars like a cataract.

HIGHER PRICES NOT PROBABLE

Willett & Gray See No Indication of Material Recovery in Raw Sugar

Willett & Gray's review of the sugar market under date of July 3 is as follows:

Last week closed with Centrifugals, 96° test, quoted at 2 15-32c. c. & f. or 3.83c. landed, since which time pressure of offerings resulted in sales of some 300,000 bags at reduced prices, for the most part at 2 7-16c. c. & f. (3.80c.) for July and August shipment Cubas, and, towards the close, at 3.77c. for prompt and July Porto Ricos and Cubas.

Refiners' purchases during the last three weeks amount to more than 200,000 tons, which, with present holdings and previous engagements, cover their wants for two months, consequently they show little interest in nearby sugar. All of the remaining available "privileged" sugars will be in demand sooner or later this year, however, and, in order to obtain full value for them, they should be held until wanted.

The weakness which has developed in the market is due to the improved prospects of ample future supplies throughout the world, and to the continued increase in the present Cuba crop, with the desire to dispose of the greater part of the stock in Cuba before it deteriorates in quality by being held there in the rainy season.

Our cable from Cuba reports entire Island receipts for the week of 20,000 tons and 22 Centrals grinding against 12,000 tons and 5 Centrals at same time in 1910. If receipts continue so comparatively heavy much longer, the crop outturn may reach 1,900,000 tons and may obviate the necessity of importing any considerable quantity of Beet, Javas or other full-duty sugars this calendar year.

Present prices seem low, especially after experiencing the extraordinarily high prices during the last twelve months, which were due to the failure of the European beet crop, but prospects are now entirely different. Prices here are closer to the cost of actual sugars in England than have recently been realised. Scarcity of beet sugars this year compelled English refiners to use cane sugars, which were abundant, and Javas are quoted today at 11s. 6d.; "floating-landing" equal to 11s net per cwt., or 2.40c. per pound c. & f. for prompt delivery, against Cubas at 2.44c. per pound c & f. to New York, or 2.49c. per pound c. & f. to London, showing that our market is now .09c. above the parity of the London market for cane sugars for actual use by the English refiners.

Foreign cane sugars for use by American refiners, however, are above the parity of New York market because of the Cuban preferential duty, Javas for July shipment (September arrival) being quoted at 10s. 6d. c. & f. to New York, equal to 4.01c. landed duty paid, against Cubas for August-September arrival selling at 2 7-16c. c. & f., or 3.80c. landed, or .21c less roa Cubas. Thus Cuba is receiving .127c. of the .337c. concession here in duty granted by the Reciprocity Treaty.

The decline here has been going on since February, when Centrifugals were quoted at 4.80c., and are now 3.77c., a reduction of 1.03c., which has caused loss to procucers, refiners, grocers and others dealing in sugar. Prices now appear to be close to botton for the season, but we see no indication of any material recovery for the present, and little desire to speculate.

European markets for Beet Sugars are rather higher on buying by "shorts" taking profits, and special demand from German refiners, the net advance for the week being 2¼d.

F. O. Licht cables us that the weather favors the growing beet crop for Europe.

Cuba cables report continued rains, but not sufficient to cause all centrals to cease operations. Official advices received in Washington are that one of the leaders in the negro insurrection has been killed, and that there are now good reasons for expecting that there will be no further interruption to such grinding, as the weather will permit. It would be premature to say, however, that the political troubles of Cuba are ended.

Congress will doubtless soon resume the discussion of the Sugar Tariff, now that both the Republican and Democratic Conventions have adjourned.

"ROPE" HORSESHOES PREVENT SLIPPING

WASHINGTON, June 29.—"Owing to the rapid increase in the mileage of streets paved with asphalt and wood blocks," says U. S. Consular Assistant Dreyfus Jr., who is stationed in Berlin, "and to the congestion of traffic in large cities, it was found necessary to afford greater safety to horses to prevent their slipping and to enable them to come to a quick stop. This has been accomplished by fitting them with 'rope' horseshoe.

"Various forms and shapes of shoes are used. Some are open in the back, like the ordinary horseshoes. Others are closed; and very often, besides being closed, there is a bridge or crosspiece joining the two sides. When this is the case the bridge is constructed like the rest of the shoe, inclusing a tarred rope. The latest novelty, which has been adopted by the royal stables, is the insertion at the back of the shoe of a block of wood into which stiff bristless have been driven. This is an additional preventative against slipping. When the ground is covered with snow, a special ice plate is inserted in its stead."
