GEN. MURRAY TO COME FOR LOCAL MANEUVERS?

High Officers Ordered Here To View Execution of the Defense Plan

That the war game to be played by the army of Oahu next month is of more than ordinary importance, and that the maneuver campaign is expected to do its part toward solving the big problem of the island's defense, is made apparent by the news that the commanding general of the Western Division, Major-General Arthur Murray, will probably make a special trip to Hawaii to witness the mimic warfare. Word reached here yesterday afternoon that nine officers from the mainland, including two of General Murray's personal staff, would require accommodations on the November transport to the coast, and officers of this department take this to mean that the division commander, accompanied by his other aide, Captain Pratt, will probably travel by a liner.

But whether General Murray is here in person or not, the detailing of nine officers to attend the maneuvers is in itself significant. There will be no lack of umpires, with these outside observers on the ground, and with the cable to the depot quartermaster announcing their prospective arrival, the maneuver campaign immediately took on added importance.

Inspectors Coming.
Two inspectors general are to be among the visitors. They are Major Alonso Gray, and Major McManus, and their coming has caused a buzz of comment and speculation. Other officers who will act as observers and umpires are Major Fleming, Adjutant-General of the Department of the Columbia; Captain M. N. Smith, and H. J. Bruce, aides to General Murray; Captain W. E. McCaskey, 12th Infantry; Lieutenant Julian Dodge, 8th Infantry; Lieutenant F. T. Hurt, and James L. Thorn.

The general scheme of the maneuver campaign has been worked out by a board of officers appointed by General Macomb some months ago, but the plan is, of course, secret and nothing as to the general or special situations is to be made public. This is because it is aimed to make the maneuvers as similar to real war as possible, and the commanders of each force will be expected to find out for themselves the position and disposition of the enemy, through their scouts. Of course, the strength of the opposing force will be an easy problem in mental arithmetic for the commanders, as they will merely have to deduct the number of their own organizations from the total troops in the island to find the answer.

In fact, the make-up of the two armies will be known to everyone as soon as the troops march away from Schofield Barracks.
While the general plan of campaign is secret, and will not be known until the problem actually develops in the field, department officials have made a few definite announcements. The maneuvers will commence October 21, and will last until the 26th, when the "war" will come to an end. General Macomb is to be maneuver commander and chief umpire; the command of the opposing Red and Blue armies will probably be held by the two senior colonels of the department; the troops on the islands will be divided between the two armies as evenly as possible. In this last particular, as there is only one battalion of Field Artillery and one regiment of Cavalry, there is bound to be an unequal division of these organizations. Probably two squadrons of cavalry will be with one force, and one with the other, and to make up for this predominance, the army with the least cavalry will have the most artillery, probably three batteries, to one with the larger cavalry detachment. There are two infantry regiments available, and one will be with each army. The sanitary troops will be evenly divided. As there are no regular signal troops on the island, the signal detachment of the Fifth Cavalry, which has had considerable special training, will probably be split up between the Reds and the Blues to handle the field communication. Field wireless, and night signaling with one acetylene flash, will probably be paid.

A few weeks ago a board of army officers was detailed to the War Department to study the problems of defense here and to evolve a plan "to

KUHIO NAMED IN CONVENTION FOR DELEGATE

Pledges His Support to the Platform in Its Entirety

SHINGLE, CHAIRMAN OF CENTRAL COMMITTEE
Assembly Dissolves Peacefully After Harmonious Session

With mild cheering, resounding music and some yawning from tired delegates anxious to go home, Kuhio was nominated as Delegate to Congress to succeed himself, shortly after the Republican Territorial convention convened in session last night. There were, of course, no wild scenes of enthusiasm such as might have marked a contest, but everybody seemed happy save two delegates from Maui, who engaged in a fist fight on the steps of the Opera House after each had accused the other of double dealing. Peace was restored by members of the Kuhio committee, and the interested spectators of the battle straggled back into the convention hall to hear Kuhio express his surprise and gratification at the sudden and unexpected honor which had been so harmoniously thrust upon him.

Named by DeSha.
Kuhio was nominated by Stephen DeSha in a lengthy speech in Hawaiian, and the nomination was seconded by R. W. Breckons, who said that evils had crept into the Republican party and it was now proposed to remedy them. He said the party is on record as being always able to put forward a champion of principles equal to the occasion, and he declared it had not departed from its history in renominating Kuhio.

Cecil Brown moved that the nominations closed, and D. L. Withington and J. A. Maguire escorted the Prince

FISHER PARTY HAS FINE TRIP; SPENDING BUSY DAY ON KAUAI

(By Star-Bulletin's Staff Correspondent)

EEEEEE, Kauai, Sept. 18.—(Special to the Star-Bulletin)—The Fisher party arrived at Waimea by the Mauna Loa at seven o'clock this morning after a fine trip with a smooth sea. They took three autos for their trip around the island, stopping at Port Allen for breakfast with Walter McBride as host. Mr. Fisher had an informal discussion with McBride and H. H. Brodie on the homesteaded condition. The party left at ten o'clock for Kalahoe, where the homesteaded inspection will be held, and there will be a public hearing at Lihue shortly before noon.

In a statement made by McBride, he is in favor of the system of homesteading on corporation plantations, but he doubted the advisability of cutting up the cane land.

VICTIM OF KOOLAU BURIED WITH MILITARY HONORS

Soldier's Body Recovered from Mountain Wilds by Intrepid Search Party

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Sept. 18. The funeral services of the late Corporal Edward Hickey of Company A, Second Infantry, were held at the post chapel at 11 o'clock on the morning of the 17th inst., Chaplain J. F. Houlihan, Fifth Cavalry, conducting the services. Colonelis French and McGinnis, with the majority of the officers of the dead soldier's regiment, attended, and every enlisted man of the Second not on duty also paraded and followed the flag-covered coffin to the railway station, thus paying honor to their comrade who had given his life in his endeavor to carry out his orders among Koolau's gorges.

Lieut. Rose, who had been sent out with a detachment to recover Corporal Hickey's remains, returned on Monday evening from the successful performance of that duty. On his arrival at Haleiwa Hotel, where Private Steele awaited his coming, Lieut.

Rose found that Steele had been given every care by Mr. Kimball of the hotel when the soldier had reached there Sunday evening in a famished and exhausted condition. Notwithstanding Mr. Kimball's kindly efforts, Steele was in no condition to accompany the detachment, and Rose therefore led his party into the mountains, relying on his knowledge of the country gained on his expedition to attempt the finding of the party of teachers that were lost in the mountains some weeks ago.

Steele was able to recall some landmarks near the scene of the accident and with that meager knowledge Lieut. Rose's trip was a credit to his sense of country.

From the nearest practicable road it was over seven miles to where Hickey's body was found by the bank of the deep pool into which he had fallen and from which the courageous Steele had dragged him.

Lieut. Rose's little party were over four hours making their way out of the deep gorge and back to the waiting ambulance.
In addition to recovering Corporal Hickey's body, Rose also, by rare good fortune, encountered the missing men who had been reported lost from a company and led them out to safety. The two men had been in search of Hickey and Steele and not, as at first reported members of the original group to which these latter belonged. Lieut. Rose and his party have been warmly thanked for their energy and good mountaineering.

HILO MERCHANTS WOULD BANQUET FISHER

An invitation from the Board of Trade of Hilo asking Secretary of the Interior Fisher and his party to take dinner as the Board of Trade's guests in that city next Monday evening was received here this morning. Though no reply will be made until Fisher's return tomorrow morning the invitation likely will be accepted, as it will necessitate no alteration of the itinerary for the island of Hawaii and the Secretary desires to meet all the business men of the Territory that his time will permit.

The Maui Chamber of Commerce also has sent an invitation to the Secretary and his party to be the guests of the citizens of that island, and asking for information concerning the itinerary in that county. The information will be forwarded today by Territorial Secretary E. A. Mott-Smith, who has remained here to handle such matters in the absence of the Governor and the Secretary of the Interior.
It is not known yet whether another session of the inquiry will be held in Honolulu Friday, as the party is to leave at noon of that day. If a session is held it can be but a short one, at least.

POLICE SEEK PARENTS OF DIMINUTIVE JAPANESE LAD

There is a wee mite of a Japanese lad awaiting the appearance of his parents at central police station, who may have figured in an unsuccessful attempt at kidnapping.

Under detention, pending a further investigation of the case, is a middle aged Filipino woman who gave her name as Maxima Garcia, who was placed under arrest by Police Officer Sanders, the woman being found leading the child along Emma street, and conducting herself in a manner that led to inquiries being made as to her mental condition.

The Japanese youngster, is apparently well content with his surroundings at the station. He is in charge of a kindly disposed matron and his every want is supplied.

Dr. Emerson was called to make an examination of the mental condition of the woman now held under detention. The Filipino talked in rambling manner, and had much to say concerning an aching tooth. Her bodily ills received treatment, meanwhile the police department is making every effort to learn something concerning the youthful Japanese.
In the course of the morning several Japanese called at the station with a view of identifying the little fellow. So far the callers have been unable to give any light upon a matter that is nearing the border line of mystery.

The woman is said to live at Queen Emma Hall. Prior to taking up a residence there, she is said to have made her home in Kaakako. From what could be gathered by the officers in their round of investigation, the woman visited the scene of a former residence this morning, and while in Kaakako district, was seen to lead the little Japanese boy away.
No charge has as yet been preferred against the woman.

TWO SUGAR STOCKS DROP A QUARTER

Oahu was the only sugar stock on the board today, and that for but two blocks and 50 shares at 27.50, a decline of a quarter point. The same price was had for Oahu between boards to the extent of 35, 20, 100 and 5 shares. Hawaiian Commercial is the only other sugar stock reported on the day's list, 20 shares selling down a quarter point to 43.25.
Oahu Railway scored an advance of 1.50 in sales of 20 and 25 shares at 142.50. Everything else on the list is in bonds, namely: Hawaiian Irrigation sixes, $4000 at 101; Hilo Extension sixes, $4000 and $1000 at 95.75; Oiaa sixes, $5000 and $3000 at 97.50.

Rebels suffered heavy defeat in Nicaragua, and continued government successes have cleared the situation.

CHOLERA AND TYPHOON DELAY PERSIA EN ROUTE TO HONOLULU

An epidemic of cholera at Shanghai, deaths resulting from which are reported to have totaled as high as one hundred a day, served to detain the Pacific Mail liner Persia five days at Japan ports, on the voyage from Hongkong to Honolulu.

The malady is said to have spread over the native and foreign city and the adjacent country to an extent that many Europeans have died from the scourge. The police department of Shanghai has lost several members, many being in the hospital at the time the Persia called at Wusung, the port of entry for Shanghai.

The Persia called at the infected port to take on a quantity of raw silk. Upon arrival at Nagasaki, Japan, the Japanese health officers immediately placed the liner in quarantine. Following three days' detention at Nagasaki, the Persia was released, the quarantine officials permitting the vessel to proceed to Kobe.

A general order has been issued by the Japanese government which prohibits vessels coming from Shanghai to enter Nagasaki until the five days' quarantine has elapsed. On one Japanese steamer at Nagasaki, three genuine and nineteen suspected cases of cholera were found on board.

Officers in the Persia on arrival at Honolulu this morning stated that shipping trade at Moji is also badly affected by the cholera at Shanghai. The P. & O. steamer Oriental, the Wakamatsu-maru and Darjen-maru III, which arrived at Moji from Shanghai had to undergo rigorous medical inspection.

The Chuyetsu S. S. Co.'s steamer Kagamaru, bound for Wakamatsu, is being detained at Matsura Island, near Moji, owing to one of the crew suffering from cholera.

The Japanese Government has given the following instructions to vessels calling at Shanghai: No steamer calling at Shanghai must be supplied there with water, vegetables, fruit, fish or milk. No member of the crew is allowed to land at Shanghai except on urgent business.

Passengers are to be requested not to go ashore. Passengers embarking at Shanghai are to be subject to special medical inspection. Captain Hill met with a very heavy typhoon as the Persia steamed in the vicinity of Turabout Island, in the China sea. The wind was of intense velocity, though the little Pacific Mailer is said to have suffered no damage save the partial wrecking of one of her life boats. For some hours the Persia steamed in the central zone of the typhoon, where a dead calm prevailed. The officers declare that during this particular stage of the storm thousands of birds filled the air and hundreds sought a resting place on the deck of the liner. The same storm, which broke over the island of Formosa, resulted in much destruction of property and loss of life. Telegraph posts were blown down, a large number of houses were destroyed or badly damaged, while the crops are also damaged. Upwards of a thousand persons have been rendered homeless. The telegraph service between Formosa and Kyushu is partially interrupted.

With the arrival of the Persia comes the information that the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Shinyo Maru and the Pacific Mail steamship Korea, now in the Far East, will omit a call at Shanghai owing to the prevalence of cholera there.

The Persia arrived here with 8 cabin and 38 steerage passengers for Honolulu. Of the latter 10 are Filipinos recruited for island plantations. The through list of passengers includes 63 cabin, 6 second class and 237 Asiatic steerage.

Honolulu cargo amounts to 244 tons including a general assortment of Oriental produce and merchandise. The Persia is carrying over one million dollars' worth of raw silk besides other consignments of valuable freight.

The liner is listed for dispatch for San Francisco at five o'clock this evening, taking a few layover passengers and a later accumulation of mail for the mainland.

Mariposa Piled On Alaska Shore. Honoluluans will be interested in the fate of the former popular Oceanic liner Mariposa now one of the vessels in the Alaska Steamship northern fleet. Wireless messages received at San Francisco at the time of the departure of the Sierra for Honolulu was to the effect that the steamer Mariposa, of the Alaska Steamship company, is still ashore at Valdez. Attempts to float her were futile. The Mariposa, returning from a western Alaska voyage, crashed into the wharf at Galdes and then ran ashore, where she stuck in the mud. She has a heavy list to starboard, but is apparently uninjured and should be floated at the first high tide. The accident was due to a misunderstanding of signals on the part of the engineer.

Danish Warship for Panama. COPENHAGEN, Denmark, Aug. 24.—The Danish navy is to be well represented in the great fleet which is to assemble to commemorate the opening of the Panama canal. The big cruiser Valkyrien, one of the finest ships in the navy, has been chosen as the Danish representative.

It is planned to send as one of her officers a prince of the royal family—either Prince Valdemar or his son, Prince Axel, both of whom are naval officers. It is also known that Prince Gustav, brother of the king, would like to make the voyage.

The Valkyrien is best known in America as the Danish warship which rendered splendid relief service at the time of the Martinique earthquake. Some years ago, under the command of Vice Admiral Prince Valdemar, she made a trip to the East Indies.

Many Gathered At Honolulu Department. A crowd gathered at Hackfeld wharf as the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu steamed away from her berth for the open sea and San Francisco. The liner got under way shortly after ten o'clock this morning taking 137 cabin passengers, and a cargo including 2100 tons sugar, 25,000 cases preserved pineapples, 2500 bunches bananas, and a quantity of sundries.

A large mail destined for the mainland was given the Honolulu, as that vessel is expected will arrive at the coast port at an early hour Wednesday morning.

The Royal Hawaiian band was present at the sailing of the steamer and a program of melodies was much appreciated by passengers as well as the general public.

Hyades Will Land Much Lumber. A very large general cargo and a quantity of lumber are aboard the Matson Navigation freighter Hyades, which vessel has sailed from Seattle for Honolulu and should arrive here on or about September 27.

A cable received at the agency of Castle & Cooke is to the effect that the Hyades left the Sound with 2300 tons of merchandise and 300,000 feet of lumber for Honolulu. There are 300 tons of merchandise and 100,000 feet of lumber for Eleale. Kahului freight amounts to 1300 tons, with 16,000 feet of lumber for discharge there. At Kaunapali the vessel will discharge 60 tons of freight and 20,000 feet of lumber. The Hyades is scheduled to proceed to Hilo, where 300 tons of freight are to be left. The vessel will be supplied with a quantity of sugar and thousands of cases of preserved pineapples.

Windjammers Ready To Sail For The Coast. Several windjammers now at this port have been discharged of general cargo and lumber and are being made ready to sail for the coast. The S. U. Allen is destined for Fort Bragg, taking ballast only. This vessel is expected to get away tomorrow. The Bark R. P. Rithet has completed taking on six hundred tons sugar, and is to sail for San Francisco today or tomorrow. The last of the lumber brought down from the Sound is being discharged. The E. K. Wood is expected to get away for the north Pacific coast today.

Mauna Kea Carried Crew For Schooner. A new crew, recruited at Honolulu's waterfront, was shipped to Hilo in the Inter-Island steamer Mauna Kea yesterday, the men to take berth in the American schooner E. K. Wood, now at the Hawaii port, where the last of a consignment of lumber brought down from the Sound is being discharged. The E. K. Wood is expected to get away for the north Pacific coast today.

Another Line From Honolulu To Seattle. According to advices received at Honolulu this port is soon to be placed in touch with Seattle through the Harrison Direct Line of freighters. Balfour, Guthrie & Co., Coast agents for the Harrison Direct line, announce that the steamers in this service will in future extend their trips to Seattle after calling at Victoria and Vancouver. The steamer Colonial, leaving Liverpool at the end of this month, will be the first to make the new call.

Coast Line Boosts Rates. The August freight tariff sheets of the Alaska, Pacific Coast and Northland steamship companies quote a two-dollar per ton advance on freight from Seattle to points in southeastern Alaska, namely, a rate of $5, $6 and $7 per ton to Ketchikan, Juneau and Skagway respectively. The Humboldt Steamship Company's new tariff continues the old rates of $3, $4 and $5 per ton to these points.

Kinau Makes Special Trip To Kahului. The Interisland steamer Kinau has been placed on the boards to make a special trip to Kahului, the vessel to depart for the Maui port at 8:30 Saturday evening.

COURT-MARTIAL OF HAYNES ENDS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Sept. 18.—The closing scene of the trial of Veterinarian J. R. Haynes took place yesterday afternoon, the court prolonging its session until after retreat roll-call had been completed.

The evidence and arguments by Captain Hopkins and Lieutenant Wells, counsel and judge advocate respectively, were all closed up and in the hands of the court-martial by 4:30, and the deliberations of the body consumed nearly two hours. The principal witness of the afternoon was Colonel Wilder, commanding the Fifth Cavalry. The colonel testified as to his efforts to reduce the friction that had occurred between Drs. Vans Agnew and Haynes, and stated that he had caused Dr. Haynes to be warned as to any statements that the latter might make in a letter to be written in reply to one from Vans Agnew. It appeared that Haynes failed to heed his colonel's advice, since the reply brought the doctor before a court-martial for his indiscretions in language.

Dr. Willoughby, the only other witness of the afternoon, was called by the defense and testified that Haynes did not say to his superior, Vans Agnew, "I don't tell you," but "I'll tell you in the morning," when questioned as to what medicine or treatment had been given a horse.

The accused was sworn as a witness in his own behalf, as is permissible under army legal procedure, but testified only briefly. Captain Hopkins, in his address to the court, confined himself to a dispassionate statement to the effect that Dr. Haynes intended no wrong in any of his acts, and the captain expressed the hope that the tribunal would take into consideration the brief service of his client as an officer.

Lieutenant Wells, in his summing up, briefly recited the main points of the evidence and rested his case without oratory.

Inasmuch as the findings of the court are official secrets, nothing further will be known until General Murray, the division commander, has reviewed the proceedings.

The continuation of the Vans Agnew trial, it was announced, would begin on Monday next.

LAW BROKEN THROUGH FALL

A Japanese was taken to Queens' hospital this morning suffering from a fractured jaw and a bruised face and body, through a fall from a bicycle. The man was riding at moderate pace along Luso street, when it is claimed that the frame of the machine broke, letting the rider fall to the street.

The Japanese failed to arise, and residents became alarmed, and went to his assistance. The cyclist was found unconscious, and a hurry call was sent to police station.

By the time the officers arrived upon the scene the rider had partially recovered. He was ordered to the hospital for treatment.

AD CLUB POSTPONES.

The Thursday noon lunch of the Honolulu Ad Club will be postponed tomorrow on account of the Republican county convention. The paper on municipal advertising to be read by Mr. H. Gooding Field will be given at a later meeting of the club.

Bringing 750,000 feet lumber from Puget Sound ports, the American schooner Annie M. Campbell, twenty-six days from Tacoma, has arrived at the port. The vessel met with a fair passage.

man than Lane, but whether he can beat out Parker is a question.

For sheriff Oscar Cox is being considered and it is generally believed that he has better than a fighting chance.

Fate Tied to Petitions. Shingle's action in announcing that he would not be a candidate put an end to the circulation of a number of petitions, started this morning, in his interest and which were being enthusiastically signed by Republicans of every faction.

This morning Shingle was asked by a representative of the Star-Bulletin for an authoritative and final statement as to his position on the nomination, and in response he issued the reply appearing above. He was waited on during the morning by Kuhio and also by representatives of steering committees of the various precincts, and to all returned the same answer that after due consideration, he thought that it would be to the best interest of the party if he should withdraw as a candidate for nomination to any office.

The managers will be a valuable addition to this work, as they will solve with marching men some of the problems which the board worked out with map and scale. Altogether, the coming campaign looks bigger every day.

LIKES WOMEN IN BUSINESS WHY DO WE EAT?
The invasion of downtown offices by women has had at least one pleasant result. It has trained a type of woman peculiarly interesting and companionable to men of affairs. Less a romance illumines the life of the woman in business than that of her domestic sister, but more comprehension of the conditions under which livings must be earned. She has learned that this pursuit engrosses most of the waking hours of the man, and she therefore avoids placing the petty affairs of the day on a personal basis. In business transactions she is generally brisk, accurate and reliable. As a companion, she is able to converse of things which interest men, not from acquired information, as clever wives can learn to do, but from an experience often equivalent to the man's. And, rarest of all, she has outgrown forever the notion that every man who accords her a deferential civility is a possible suitor and a potential husband. Year tylist, your secretary, your bookkeeper, your professional woman—and professional women can nowadays complete their equipment as young as professional men—have had much of our old-fashioned sentimental folly educated out of them. Without being less womanly, they are not so womanish.—Boston Transcript.

SUNDAY SERVICE AT METHODIST CHURCH
The Sunday evening service at the Methodist Church was of especial interest. A large company of soldiers were present and joined heartily in the singing of the hymns. Rev. K. E. Smith, the pastor, preached from Psalms 118:8, "It is better to trust in the Lord than to put confidence in man."

The sermon was intensely practical throughout and was a manly plea for the life of trust in God. The music was greatly enjoyed by all. The choir rendered an anthem, "Now the Day is Over" and Mr. Arthur Hudson sang "O Galilee."

LAND TURNED OVER.
A. H. Dondoro on September 17 bought from Cornelia A. Bishop a piece of land at Kalawaha and Kolea, Honolulu, containing 747,000 acres, for $5000, and on the same day deeded the property to Loo Joe for $5750.

DR. NORGAARD REPORTS ON DOG QUARANTINES AND MILK TESTS

Urges New Station at Schofield—Local Equipment Sufficient

Following is the August report of Dr. Norgaard, veterinarian: Hon. W. M. Giffard, president and executive officer, and members of the Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry. I beg to report on the work of the Division of Animal Industry for the month of August, 1912.

The importation of dogs remains about the same number of animals, that is from 16 to 20, as was found to be present at the end of the first four months, or, in other words, about an equal number is coming in as is going out. Unless, therefore, an unexpectedly large importation should come again, such as might accompany a new regiment of soldiers, it may be concluded that the quarantine station as now established will serve all present requirements.

The fifteen dogs which have been kept in quarantine at Schofield Barracks were released a few days ago, all of them being found sound when last inspected on the 5th inst. The temporary kennels which were built for the accommodation of these dogs were, after four months' service, considerably the worse for wear, and if future importations of dogs belonging to the various arms of the military service are to be granted the same privileges, that is, are to be quarantined at Schofield Barracks, or on military reservations, it would seem well for this Board to insist on the construction of quarantine quarters of a more permanent nature than those hitherto provided.

From official reports received at this office, as well as from newspaper reports, it appears that rabies is spreading constantly, having now invaded the state of Oregon and caused the promulgation of a muzzling act in Portland, which requires all dogs to be either muzzled or kept in leash if brought into the streets of that city.

Certificated Dogs. By the S. S. Zealandia there arrived on the 10th inst. three dogs from New Zealand, the same being consigned to the Lanai ranch. These dogs were accompanied by a certificate signed by the director of the Division of Live Stock and Meat of the Department of Agriculture, Commerce and Tourists of the Dominion of New Zealand, to the effect that the disease of rabies does not exist in New Zealand and moreover has never been known to exist in that country.

While the importer has made no application to this Board for a permit of importation, it would seem that all other requirements of the rabies regulation have been complied with, and it is therefore recommended that the three dogs in question, which are detained at the local quarantine station pending the Board's decision, be allowed to proceed to their destination (Lanai) by the first available steamer, that is the Mikahala on September 17th.

Similarly, three other dogs are expected to arrive from Liverpool, England, within a few days. These dogs are also accompanied by certificates to the effect that rabies has not been known to exist in England for several years and the agents (Messrs. Schaef. er & Co.) are anxious that the dogs should be allowed entrance to the Territory upon arrival without quarantine.

This, I believe, can safely be granted if the steamer carrying the dogs has not docked at any infected port since leaving Liverpool, or if such was the case that proper precautions were taken to prevent contact with other dogs while in port.

The swimming tank at the quarantine station has been practically finished, the delay being due to the illness of the contractor, Mr. Oas, whose bid of $112 was accepted. The tank will undoubtedly add much to the welfare of the confined animals, many of whom are feeling the continued hot weather badly, and, it is hoped, will be able to find much relief by means of frequent immersions in the tank.

Tuberculin Testing. As will be seen from the appended report of the Assistant Territorial Veterinarian, the tuberculin testing of dairy cattle on this island may be considered finished for the present time, at least cannot be resumed until sufficient rain has fallen to allow of the handling of those range animals which have not yet been tested.

It might therefore, be well to consider now whether this work is to be extended to the other islands, as recommended in previous reports.

From letters received from the Deputy Territorial Veterinarians on both Hawaii and Maui it would seem that there is a certain demand for the extension of this work, if the cooperation of this Board can be secured, or to put it plainly, if the work of testing can be undertaken by this Board.

To do this properly would, in my opinion, require that either myself or my assistant take the actual charge of the work. It would, however, be necessary that the various counties where this is to be done should first pass a milk ordinance requiring the tuberculin testing of all dairy cattle from which milk is drawn for human consumption. It would also be ascertained what financial or other support can be expected from the counties enacting such an ordinance, especially as an automobile will be required for the use of the inspector and his assistant while the work is going on. The milk ordinance in effect in this county might, with a few alterations, be used as a basis for similar regulations elsewhere.

complished by a trip to Hilo during the beginning of August. The site is located on what is known as the Shipman Slaughter House pasture, near the entrance to Waialaka Mill. The plans are all prepared and ready for advertising as soon as the new manager of the Waialaka Sugar Company takes charge and approves of the arrangement.

In regard to the Maui Station there are several locations offered to the Board but a visit by myself to decide on which one to select will undoubtedly be advisable. The correspondence of Drs. Elliot and Fitzgerald both in regard to the respective stations as well as to tuberculin testing is herewith appended.

Leonard N. Case, assistant veterinarian, gives a tabulated list of dairies visited and animals tested, which shows that a total of 5265 animals were subjected to the test, of which number 5067 passed and 198 were condemned, giving a percentage of 3.76 of tuberculous animals on the island of Oahu. This is a gratifying improvement over last year's test, which showed a percentage of 5.36 of tuberculous animals.

PALAMA'S DISPENSARY IN NEW QUARTERS

The new building on the Palama Settlement grounds is rapidly nearing completion, and the dispensary has already been moved in.

The dispensary is located in the basement of the new building, which contains several large, well-lighted and well-ventilated rooms. The entrance leads into a long room to be used as a waiting room, and adjoining this is the dispensary proper, which is fitted up with all modern appliances to meet the demand of this particular line of work offered by the settlement.

The main building consists of two stories and will be used as a residence for J. A. Rath, head worker of the settlement, and his family, and will also contain rooms for the resident nurses connected with the settlement.

The new building is the result of a long-felt want in the way of a suitable place for the dispensary and of a residence for those directly connected with the settlement. On account of the increased amount of work which has been done by the old dispensary during the last six months, it was found necessary to run the work on a larger plan, and this in turn called for a larger amount of floor space.

The settlement is planning on erecting a new dispensary for the Punchbowl district on the grounds of the Royal School, and the work on this will be commenced soon. This building will take the place of the old Punchbowl dispensary, recently sold.

Circuit Judge Whitney today approved the accounts of J. M. Camara, special administrator of the estate of Jose Francisco Da Costa and discharged him from further responsibility in the matter.

Knowledge is of two kinds. We must know our subject ourselves, or we must know where we can find information upon it.—Boswell.

ON THE EVE OF CONVENTION

The territorial convention yesterday performed but a small part of the work that is before the Republican leaders of this territory. The selection of clean and efficient candidates on the county ticket is of vastly more importance to Hawaii than the territorial choice.

In Honolulu particularly the situation calls for sober thought and cool judgment. The Republican ticket here cannot be successful unless it stands for something besides political make-shift or personal pull.

On what are Republicans going to make their county campaign? On what basis are they going to appeal to the voters of Honolulu? What will be their arguments?

The time is past when campaign oratory and idle promises can win. The ticket must be a ticket of men whose past has meant something for the community. Honolulu is tired of candidates whose performance is all in the future. Honolulu is tired of empty claims of what is to be done.

Delegates to the convention, it is up to you to name men for whom there will be honest, hearty, sincere support! You will not be discharging your solemn duty to your party or your city if you name candidates for whom excuses must be made. Such men will be on the defensive from the moment they are named, and the party will be on the defensive. And that is not a winning position for any party.

A CITY FOR ITS PEOPLE

Grand Junction, Col., is making a bold and commendable bid for fame through plans to be the first "ideal commonwealth" in the world, and its ideal has been helped along by Secretary Fisher to the extent that he has set aside from entry 640 acres of coal land in the heart of the Book Cliff coal field, eight miles from Grand Junction, and before Christmas the enterprising municipality expects to start the first municipal coal mine in the United States.

But this coal mine is simply a start. Already Grand Junction owns and operates one of the largest and most successful water systems in the intermountain west, which cost over $600,000 and was entirely constructed by municipal officials without a day of contract labor upon it and completed at a saving of over $50,000 over the lowest bid submitted by contractors, says the Philadelphia North American.

Spurred by the success of the municipal water system, the commissioners of the city have served notice that in the next six months they will submit to the people of Grand Junction the proposition of purchasing or condemning, as their city charter and state laws permit, the now privately owned electric light, gas and ice plant. When this announcement was made public President Eugene Sunderlin, of the general public utilities syndicate of the city, came back with a counter-proposition that the city not only take over the electric light, gas and ice plant, but also purchase the Grand Junction street railway and the Grand Junction and Grand River Valley railroad, an electric interurban that extends eighteen miles westward to Fruita, near the Utah state line.

General negotiations are now in progress between the city and the company for the sale of the entire holdings of the company. If successful, and there is no reason to doubt that there will be, Grand Junction will be one of the first cities in the United States to own and operate a railroad.

TOTTERING PERSIA

Since the departure from Persia of that picturesque American, W. Morgan Shuster, the internal affairs of the troubled country have not figured much in the public press, but it appears that Great Britain must soon make some kind of a definite move or lose an international chess game to Russia. Reports that the northern part of Persia is falling rapidly under the dominion of the Russ are regarded in London as likely to precipitate action whereby the United Kingdom unwillingly, may be forced to accept its share of the spoils. British statesmen say that to obtain inaugurates a definite policy to maintain the integrity of the shaky government. The quarters are at plot-ridden Teheran, it will come to a cold parceling of Persia among the powers, with Russia and Great Britain naturally getting the largest slices.

Politically, economically and morally the conditions in Persia are bringing about a state of affairs when an independent Persia will be an impossibility. Unless the government in Downing street recognizes this, and is able to formulate a policy which will counteract the means by which the Russification of northern Persia is being brought about, Persia as a free nation will have ceased to exist in almost the immediate future, and the British government driven, however unwillingly, to accept its share of the spoil, will have sent its Sows into the British sphere just as the Cossacks have been sent into the northern sphere.

For a time the unoccupied gulf sphere will form an intervening no-mans-land, but even that is not likely long to continue. A state of things will be brought about which will have revolutionized British military tenure in the Indian empire.

Politically, the free government of Persia has been destroyed. In Teheran the word of an un-official Russian pro-consul is law, and as Teheran nominally gives orders to the whole kingdom, the Russian officer in Teheran claims to dispose of British interests in southern Persia.

Morally, the conditions are even worse; Prof. Edward Browne, writing from Cambridge, has told the lurid facts of the pacification of northern Persia, and told them by the incontrovertible evidence of the camera. When Tabriz fell and opened its gates to the Russians, though the defeated Shah had never been able to gain entrance, there came into the town a Persian officer, himself an ardent partizan of the ex-Shah. This officer proceeded to pacify the neighborhood by hanging and mutilating the Nationalist leaders.

BIG CROPS AND POLITICS

Good business prospects are seen in the latest letter from Henry Clews & Co., from which the following extract is taken:

At last the United States appears about ready to take its share of the world's commercial activity. One great offset to political disturbances is the unusually bountiful harvest now practically assured. This is the best diversion from politics that could have happened. In all parts of the country merchants are preparing for active business this autumn. Factories are already filled with orders to supply anticipated demands. The steel industry shows greater activity than ever, and is running close to full capacity at good prices with a big volume of orders still in sight. The demand comes chiefly from railroads and new building enterprises. Railroads are sure to be heavy buyers for a long period ahead, simply to satisfy imperative demands for better equipment and better facilities at terminal points. This condition also will compel the railroads to make large additional capital applications during the next few months. How they will succeed, considering the high rates which new capital now demands, remains to be seen.

The reports of big crops and their increased money values are already familiar. Conditions in consequence are ripening for a period of very active business in the United States. There is no reason, except politics, why 1913 should not prove a record-breaking year.

The advance tip on the Alameda crew was that it would be a hard one to beat, and since the Californians arrived here, critics who have watched them say the advance reports were really underdone. At any rate, next Saturday's races should be the greatest ever rowed in local waters, and there's plenty of sportsmanship to go round.

The Honolulu STAR-BULLETIN opposes the nomination of W. H. Hoogs for the office of supervisor, by the Republican county convention or any other convention. If Mr. Hoogs is nominated for Supervisor, the STAR-BULLETIN will not endorse his candidacy and will urge that he be defeated at the polls.

A. W. Carter seems to be of the opinion that transportation rates for cattle depend a good deal on whose ox is gored.

Thank goodness, we don't have to worry about the Democratic territorial convention now also.

Strange that nobody seems to be making a fuss over Bill Bryan's campaign fund for 1912!

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

ALEXANDER YOUNG — It looks as though Aviator Doi is going Doi't all right. Never mind the bouquets. Anyway, he had his engine going last evening and it could be heard all over the park.

NAVAL CIVIL ENGINEER E. R. GAYLER—Work on the drydock is going along splendidly now, and concrete is being poured every day. Machinery for the finished dock is on the way here too, for I have just received word that the four Alberger pumps which are motor driven and which will pump out the dock in about an hour and a quarter, have been shipped by steamer freight from New York.

SYMPATHY.

The school-bell tolls the knell of holiday. The groaning kids move slowly toward the school; Schoolward the teacher also plods her way. Reluctant to resume her tyrant role. As I'm the owner of a high-strung boy, I feel for you, dear teacher, most intense; We've had him through vacation. Oh, the joy! And surely know what you are up against.

—Merrill.

KUHIO NAMED

to the platform, where he was formally introduced by Chairman Holstein and pledged to support the platform. Kuhnle thanked the delegates for drawing up a platform according to his wishes. He believed the platform to be good for all classes and for the interests of the Territory. "Let us work along progressive lines," he said.

Shingle is Chairman. Following the nomination for Delegate to Congress, the chair called for the selections of new members of the Territorial central committee, and the following were named officers by the committee: R. W. Shingle, chairman; Cecil Brown, treasurer; Eli J. Crawford, secretary; Sol Fukamura, assistant secretary.

The members of the new committee are: First district—Stephen L. Desha, D. H. Kenoi, Evan da Silva, H. B. Kuroda. Second district—H. L. Holstein, J. A. Maguire, George Kawaha, Enoka Kaaua. Third district—E. F. Deinert, W. L. West, C. F. Farden, G. K. Kuama, W. A. Clark, E. van Lil. Fourth district—R. W. Shingle, J. H. S. Maunui, R. W. Breckons, J. H. S. Kaleo, Cecil Brown, A. V. Peters. Fifth district—George Kekauoha, E. B. Mikalemi, E. J. Crawford, S. Paulo Jr., Sol Fukamura, W. H. Crawford. Sixth district—Chas. A. Rice, Jas. K. Lota, R. P. Spalding, William Iona. Executive committee—First district, S. L. Desha; second district, H. L. Holstein; third district, E. F. Deinert; fourth district, to be named; fifth district, E. J. Crawford, W. H. Crawford; sixth district, Chas. A. Rice.

PLATFORM ADOPTED AT AFTERNOON SESSION

The Republican Territorial convention resumed its afternoon session at 3:41, the Hawaiian copies of the platform having arrived. Cecil Brown moved that the platform, as submitted by the committee, be considered section by section. D. L. Withington asked for information, if there is no objection to any of the planks, why the platform could not be adopted as a whole. Chairman Holstein answered that the adoption of the committee's report would adopt the platform. "I do not wish to deprive any delegate of the privilege of discussing any of the planks," Mr. Withington resumed. "For myself I have some qualms about the woman's suffrage plank, yet nevertheless I could swallow it. (Laughter.) I move that the report of the committee on platform be adopted."

R. W. Aylett moved the following amendment to the platform:

"The Republican party protests against any effort to secure an amendment to that part of the Organic Act which makes citizenship of the territory a necessary qualification of the governor. While realizing fully that corporate interests within the territory are far-reaching in their influence, yet the Territory possesses many men of high standing and integrity well and ably equipped to perform the duties of the office, possessed of the necessary moral courage to withstand all attempts, direct or indirect, to obtain gubernatorial support for special privileges of nature whatsoever, and in close touch and sympathy with all the people of the Territory, without distinction."

Mr. Breckons seconded the amendment and Mr. Aylett then delivered an eloquent address in Hawaiian in support of it.

Mr. Castro called attention to the principle of home rule in a plank already in the platform, saying he saw no necessity of the amendment. He was in thorough sympathy with the principle of the amendment, but if the mover would refer to the plank mentioned perhaps he would agree with him that there was no need of the additional plank.

Mr. Aylett replied that the proposed amendment would reinforce the home rule plank, besides giving the Delegate something to work on should an attempt be made to change the Organic Act in the way mentioned. There was nothing like being prepared.

The amendment was put and declared carried, against a faint volume of noes.

Mr. Kaleo wanted time to read the Hawaiian version before committing himself to existing planks or amendments.

Judge Mahaulu did not want it said of this convention that the steam roller was in operation in it. At least fifteen minutes should be allowed the Hawaiian delegates to read the platform.

Mr. Breckons moved that the platform be read in Hawaiian by the secretary, and after that the English version of the convention desired.

The chair without putting the motion, directed the reading of the Hawaiian version, which was done by Rev. S. L. Desha.

At the conclusion of the reading, Mr. Withington's motion to adopt the report of the platform committee was carried, unanimously.

Mr. Breckons moved that the convention take recess to 8 o'clock, when the hall should be set rolling for the campaign.

Mr. Kealoha thought the people from the country districts should be considered. There were too many recesses.

Mr. Shingle appointed himself a committee of one to have the band present at the evening session.

Mr. Breckons explained that the reason for delay was that Delegate Kuhnle was engaged with Secretary Fisher.

At 4:45 the convention took recess to 5 o'clock.

MAUI CHURCHES GIVE $1500 FOR NEW EDIFICE

[Special Star-Bulletin Aerogram] WAILUKU, Sept. 18.—The session of the churches of the Maui association at Kaunakakai finished yesterday. There was a large attendance and $1500 was pledged for the erection of a new church building at the leper settlement.

U. S. SUPREME COURT WILL HEAR HER PLEA

Tsuru Tomimatsu, the Japanese woman who was detained by the immigration officials some time ago after her return to the Territory from Japan, on the charge that she was an alien and was suffering from trachoma, a communicable disease, is to be freed, pending her appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States. The U. S. District Court yesterday issued a decision allowing the writ of habeas corpus on the order to show cause, and the woman will be released on filing a bond of $500.

SUICIDE ON OPERATING TABLE.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal. August 24.—Snatching scissors and scalpel from the hands of the surgeon in attendance, Joseph Ulrich stabbed himself to death today on the operating table at the Emergency Hospital. He had been placed on the table that a self-inflicted wound made early in the day might be dressed.

Brooding over the murder of one friend for which another friend was convicted is believed to have unbalanced his mind.

Even the man who doesn't lie never tells all the truth he knows.

WORK FOR IDLE HANDS

Though the majority of girls here are occupied in some way, there are still a goodly number so situated financially that they need not work; and therefore it is not necessary for them to rise before 9 or 10 o'clock. After completing a somewhat lengthy toilet they take a dainty bit of breakfast and then proceed to devote themselves to some self-gratifying pleasure. No doubt some of these have talents that might be developed, and they could, if it pleased them, go into the settlement work. The settlements are no doubt open to those who are interested in that sort of work; and it might be well if interest along these lines could be aroused in the idle young girls. But up to this time there has been little interest displayed by the younger generation in this sort of work. Probably it entails too much real work. Women who have lived here for many years say that this apparent idleness that is displayed by the young girls may be blamed to the climate. But when one has lived all of her life in the tropics and knows nothing of the cold climate, that answer to the question seems hardly suitable.

There are many things that might be done in the home in the early morning if the girls would be willing to rise in time to get the benefit of the fresh morning air. The majority of people here have servants to whom the larger part of the catering and marketing is left. Perhaps if some of the daughters of the house would be willing to take a share of the practical buying on her shoulders she would not only reduce the expense in the home, but would no doubt feel that she was accomplishing something; the amount saved by careful buying would furnish a goodly allowance for the girl herself.

At the present time one of the fads that exist among this class of girls is domestic science. They attend the classes when nothing else comes in the way, and perhaps do very well, but do they practise it at home? If after taking to cooking for a year, would it not be well to dispense with the services of the chefs and let the young women do the practical cooking themselves? In one of the domestic science classes in California the part of the work demanded by the teacher is that the girls go into homes to prepare and serve a meal. This does not mean that the girls go into the homes as servants, and they are never treated as such. If, however, such a thing were suggested, the lass, in a body, would rise up in rebellion.

The brides-to-be, of course, are busy sewing. Some at home, others belong to the sewing circles, the members of which are all coming brides. Other young women who have no particular occupation might organize similar clubs, despite the fact that they are not making trousseaux. These girls may make things for their "dower kees." Many bashful maidens hesitate before starting these, because they are not sure that they will ever need them. But whether a not a young woman experts to marry, she is almost sure to need linen and towels some day. These things come in very handy if one intends to travel or ever become a member of college sorority. The girls who are making these dower boxes spend the spare moments embroidering totes, initialing linen or making fancy pillows.

Embroidery, tennis, or most any such occupations are far more profitable than the reading of trashy novels and the eating of chocolates. So many of Nell Brinkley dainty Bettys are of this type and the most fascinating in print, but few such girls are appreciated when wed in real life.

JACKIE'S MCKERCHIEF.
It is not generally known that the bluejacket's black Mckerchief, a survival of the service uniform for Nelson, is the best British silk obtainable and the admiralty is very fastidious customer. Two to three man are issued annually, and thousands of these discarded scarfs have been subsequently worn by Jane femininity. A pair of them make an excellent blouse.

HOME RULERS NAME NOTLEY

Charles K. Notley, who has been standard-bearer of the Home Rule party for Delegate to Congress for many years, was again honored for the same position at the convention of the Home Rulers held last night in Notley Hall.

Notley is now ready to make his political tour of the islands, and, according to those who arrived from Kona, Hawaii, it is expected that he will receive better support there this time than he did two years ago.

VENERABLE SWINDLER FIGHTS TO DODGE JAIL

J. M. Mokuula, the elderly Hawaiian who was arrested some time ago at the behest of Attorney General Alex. Lindsay, on the charge of attempting to obtain money from Lindsay by presenting a bogus church petition on August 8, and who was sentenced to four months' imprisonment with costs, has appealed his case from the district to the circuit court.

Mokuula, at the time of his hearing, gave the unusual defense that he had presented the fraudulent petition to the attorney general merely to see if the latter would "bite," claiming he expected by this method to find out whether the official was his friend. He admitted the petition was a fake, but said he intended giving the money back if Lindsay offered it. Instead of offering the coin, however, Lindsay detained Mokuula and called the police. He knew the man as an old offender, whom he had had occasion to sentence while he (Lindsay) sat on the bench some years ago.

INGALLS-COLLAIS CONCERT TO DRAW MUSIC-LOVERS

The Honolulu music-loving public is soon to be given a treat in the form of a joint concert given by Mrs. Arthur B. Ingalls, violinist, and Miss Edith Rosslyn Collais, soprano. Mrs. Ingalls needs no introduction to the public, as she has already made a name for herself by the wonderful technique and beautiful tone that she derives from her instrument. Miss Collais is also well remembered by Honoluluans for her rich quality of tone and pleasing personality.

EXCAVATE FROG.

A large bullfrog, alive and well, was unearthed thirty feet underground by workmen employed in excavating for a building at Springfield, Mo. The frog was uncovered in a small cavity of an old well that had been filled for twenty-seven years. There was no outlet from its place of refuge.

If you would retain your friends, don't give them away.

October 25 has been set by Judge Whitney as the date on which he will hear the petition of the Hawaiian Trust Company, executor of the will and estate of the late William McCourt, in which it asks to be relieved of further responsibility. ## BURGLAR GETS STIFF SENTENCE

Sam Kahl, alleged by the police as an old offender, and who charged with having stolen sundry articles of adornment and wearing apparel, entered a plea of guilty, received a series of sentences from the District court bench this morning aggregating eighteen months' imprisonment.
Kahl, is charged with the robbery of a Japanese hotel in which several lodgers are said to have lost valuable articles including a gold watch and other trinkets.

The Hawaiian is also charged with having effected an entrance to premises on Desha Lane the dressing room for a company of base ball layers. In this raid Kahl is said to have made way with clothing, shoes, panama hats and a $30 lei.

As Schofield Barracks, Kahl's stay was short lived, and it was there that steps were taken to effect his arrest. The officers declare that pairs of leggings and a bicycle were removed by the Hawaiian.

The police record of Kahl shows that he has but recently served a two year sentence upon a charge of burglary, the man also being detained an additional two years because of breaking jail. Kahl also served time at the reformatory school.

Chief of Detectives McDuffie and his men believe that with the arrest of the Hawaiian they have cleared up the cause of a number of petty robberies about the city, which have occupied the attention of the police department for a number of months.

BANANA FIBER INDUSTRY.

The Ceylon Patriot of Jan. 30, 1912, deals with the possibility of the extraction of fiber from the banana plant after the fruit has been harvested. A stripping method using a wooden frame holding a blunt knife actuated by a bent bamboo pole or by steel springs, similar to the devices used for the hand stripping Manila hemp is described.

It is estimated that 1500 banana stocks will yield a ton of fiber; that a man and boy can strip 15 lbs. of fiber per day at a cost of 50 cents.

Thus the stripping cost Rs. 75 per ton. Baling, insurance, freight, commission &c. cost an additional Rs. 45, totaling Rs. 120.

The London price fluctuates, but is usually about Rs. 300 per ton, leaving a net profit of Rs. 180. The estimate is based on the assumption that the stocks cost nothing, having been grown for the fruit. An acre of ground ordinarily can be planted with 1500 plants from which fruit is gathered in 18 months. Fruit bunches selling at 40 cents yield Rs. 600 of which Rs. 250 should more than cover the cost leaving a net of Rs. 350 for the fruit, which better results are claimed.

Fibers are becoming so important in the world's industries that economical banana farming would seem to dictate that an effort should be made to utilize a fiber which nets one-half as much as the fruit.

SUPERVISORS TAKE ACTION ON VARIOUS MATTERS

Queen street will be thrown open to traffic with its bitulitic pavement on Saturday. The bridge and River street, between King and Queen streets, will be paved with the same material. J. A. Gilman made a proposal to the board of supervisors last night to pave the approaches to the Hackfield and the Railroad wharves. The bid of the Advertiser to furnish 1000 copies of the Municipal Record in pamphlet form for $12 was accepted.

Several measures passed third reading, including $3500 for Mauoa roads; $1500 for building additions to the Waipahu schoolhouse and $200 for storm drains there, and $1700 for repairing Sixth avenue, Kaimuki.

The board accepted the bid of $2998 made by John Fernandez to construct a storm drain through the Kamehameha School grounds. The board will purchase 250 feet of hose for flushing downtown streets in the vicinity of the fishmarket.

The auto police patrol wagon bought from the von Hamme-Young Company was accepted and paid for, and put into commission at once.

The petition of L. Ah Leong, on appeal from the decision of the building inspector permitting the building of a tenement near the junction of King and Liliha streets, was referred to the city attorney.

The board authorizes the purchase of ten dump wagons. The contract for the construction of a macadam road on the west side of Nuanuan street, given to M. Picanco, has been completed and the work accepted and paid for.

The sum of $250 was voted to construct a road at Kailua, Koolanapoko.

EXPRESS COMPANY BRANCHES OUT.

Lorrin K. Smith has assumed the management of the Hawaiian Express Co., and will conduct it along the latest methods. He has added a big auto truck which will meet all steamers and will make a specialty of looking after the baggage of tourists.

The new firm will branch out into the storage business with large storage accommodations at the corner of Nuanuan and Queen streets. Piano and furniture-moving carefully executed.

SPARROWS PLUCK PIGEON.

Its feet held fast in soft tar which had been melted by the sun on the roof of the supply house of the Board of Education, West Monroe street, Chicago, a pigeon was being shorn of its feathers by a flock of sparrows when it was sighted by policemen who were standing in front of the patrol wagon barn at the Desplantes street station. The sparrows had plucked feather after feather from the pigeon before the policemen realized what was taking place. Policemen Sullivan, Murphy and Crotty finally climbed to the roof of the building and liberated the pigeon.

EUROPE TO USE CANAL ANYWAY, SAYS BARRETT

Old World Countries Go Ahead Even Though Handicapped

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 29. — "While European countries are unanimous in expressing the belief that the Hay-Pauncefote treaty has been disregarded, they will not relax in their efforts to make use of the Panama canal," John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, said concerning the passage of the Panama canal bill on his arrival here from Europe. "The European countries will go ahead, even under unfavorable conditions, and trust to a new adjustment either through The Hague court or new legislation at the next session of Congress."

"A foreign influence against the bill has been a lack of popular knowledge and appreciation of the fact that coastwise shipping of the United States is limited to vessels flying the American flag and that foreign vessels, no matter what the tolls may be, could not engage in coast-to-coast business."

Advices from London say the new British battleships will have curved armored upper decks and funnel protection to resist attack by aeroplanes.

SMITH - ROBINS EVANGELISTIC TEAM WILL VISIT HONOLULU

Y. M. C. A. Is Informed that Famous Men and Religion Experts Will Visit Honolulu on World Tour—Noted Quartet Coming with Them—Date Arranged

The Y. M. C. A. received further advice yesterday concerning the Smith-Robins Men and Religion tour. In the middle of the summer the association received a letter from Fred B. Smith, one of the leaders of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, saying that a team of the experts of this movement were contemplating a tour of the world and wanted to know if Honolulu cared to be included in their itinerary. The association at once took the matter up with the Inter-Church Federation, which heartily endorsed the project and undertook the management of the Honolulu campaign.

Later in the summer, Harry B. Holmes, who is connected with the Y. M. C. A. in the state of California, was chosen as the organizing secretary to go in advance of the team and set up the campaign in each city to be visited.

Honolulu will be the first stop on the tour, after which the team will proceed to Japan, Korea, China, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand and Great Britain, taking in the whole English-speaking world. Smith's Record.

Of the team of F. B. Smith, head secretary of the religious work department of the Y. M. C. A. in North America, who is said to be without question the greatest evangelist for men and organizer of men's religious work in the world. Mr. Smith has been extensively written up in various American magazines since his great work with the Men and Religion Forward Movement, which is characterized by many as the greatest religious movement in America in recent years.

With Mr. Smith will be Raymond Robins, one of the most interesting and unique men on the platform today. Mr. Robins is a social service expert, standing with Charles Steacie in the leading social service movement on the mainland. Mr. Robins went to the Klondike in the early days as a gold miner and while in the snow fields had a remarkable experience which resulted in his conversion to Christianity. He made his stak and returned to the states and since that time has devoted his time to improving the less fortunate element of society. He gained great experience in Chicago as a social service expert, and of the scores of men who appeared on the American platform last year in connection with the Men and Religion Movement, none were acceptable or heard with greater interest than Raymond Robins.

Accompanying this team is J. E. Lathrop, secretary of the team in charge of managing details, and the International Male Quartet. The Quartet is composed of the following members:—Paul J. Gilbert, 1st. tenor. A man with a clear lyric voice, and who is considered the best of the four; P. H. Metcalf, 2nd. tenor, C. M. Keeler, baritone, and E. W. Peck, bass. This quartet has sung together on many occasions connected with Y. M. C. A. work throughout North America. During the Men and Religion campaign last year they received leave of absence from the relative positions, and gave much time to evangelistic singing.

The success of their work led to the request that they accompany Smith and Robins on their world tour. Harry Holmes, organizing secretary of the team, will arrive in Honolulu on October 15 and will spend one week here setting up the campaign before proceeding to Japan. A letter was received from Mr. Holmes yesterday containing the information that the team and quartet would arrive in Honolulu on January 23, 1913 and sail for Japan January 30, giving Honolulu eight days.

The Men and Religion Movement is a movement on the part of the Protestant churches of America to undertake the evangelization of the non-land on a businesslike and scientific basis. A Men and Religion campaign in any city differs from an ordinary evangelistic campaign. It is primarily an institute. It has three purposes:—first, the training of local workers in the study of their field; second, the religious work plan involving at least five years; third, the adoption of plans to carry out this five year plan. No religious movement in modern times has been so favorably received by the press, labor unions, clergy and the man on the street. It is undertaken in the spirit of business based on a scientific study and carried out with the strategy of trained leadership.

Bishop Restarick, president of the Inter-Church Federation of Honolulu, yesterday authorized a cable to be sent to Mr. Smith saying that the date submitted for Honolulu for the visit of the team was satisfactory.

BULLET STARTS PAHALA MYSTERY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence).
HILO, September 16.—Crashing through a window and burying itself in a bureau in a room in which C. L. Schmidt, chemist for the Hawaiian Agricultural company at Pahala sleeps, a bullet has made a fine start for a real Sherlock Holmes story.

It appears that Schmidt went over to the mill to look after some work and that when he came back he found splinters of wood lying round the floor. He could not account for it as he knew that he had not been cutting any wood.

Becoming suspicious he made a thorough search of the room and discovered the broken window and then the bullet embedded in the bureau from which it had knocked the splinters he had noticed on the floor when he first entered the room.

The question now arises as to whether someone fired the bullet with the intention to kill Schmidt, thinking that he was in the room at the time, or whether it was a stray bullet fired by someone out hunting.

The matter has been placed in the hands of Sheriff Pua and he is having it investigated.

HAIR STOPS FALLING, DANDRUFF DISAPPEARS—25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Save Your Hair! Beautify It! Invigorate Your Scalp! Danderine Grows Hair and We Can Prove It

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Danderine now will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

DIRECTOR LAU MAPS OUT PLANS

Fred W. Lau, new physical director of the Y. M. C. A., in conference with General Secretary Paul Super, has been mapping out his plans for work in the physical department of the association during the coming year, and now that they have been finally decided upon, the work will begin at once.

It has been decided to run four different classes—one for the business men, one for the seniors, one for the employed boys, and one for school boys; and a course has been outlined for each that will give the most benefits in the right way and at the right time.

The night school classes will commence on October 7 instead of September 31, as before announced. Students wishing to enroll may do so after September 24 at the association building.
