II DECISION INVOLVES MANY

Punahou Residences Endangered by Fight Now Going to U. S. Court

One of the most valuable blocks of improved property in the Punahou residence section is in peril of having its title upset by the decision of U. S. Judge Dole on the disposition of the $10,000 award to the John II Estate, Ltd., for land taken by condemnation for the Pearl Harbor naval station. If the decision be left standing as final, or if it be sustained by the United States Supreme Court in the event of an appeal on behalf of the II corporation, owners of homes in the locality mentioned will be liable to become defendants in ejectment suits—that is, unless some other legal mode of settlement with the remaindermen under Judge II's will can be made.

Among the properties involved in this situation of clouded title are the Pleasanton Hotel—originally the home of the late H. A. Iseberg, the residence of G. F. Wilder, part of the premises of R. C. Scott and part of the premises of Richard Ivers. The area in question is north of Wilder avenue and west of Punahou street. It was sold in 1879 by the late A. F. Judd, as guardian of Irene II, then a minor, under the presumption that a fee simple title vested in her for the property. Judge Dole's decision, as already reported, is to the effect that Irene II (now Holloway), owned only a life estate in the property enjoyed by her under her father's last will and testament. In the meantime the Punahou property mentioned has increased in value through improvements and otherwise probably from 50 to 100 per cent.

Possibly Mrs. Holloway may herself make a settlement—having ample means—with the other heirs of the estate which will protect the innocent grantees of her guardian of thirty-three years ago and their successors in possession, as well as the settlement that she will be required to make, if the Dole decision is maintained, on her own behalf for what benefits have accrued to her from the sale.

HAWAII'S RUBBER INDUSTRY IS RECOGNIZED

Hawaii was well represented at the World's Rubber Exposition just held in New York, both in the personality of its delegate and in the exhibit. Wilbur A. Anderson, the delegate in attendance from the Hawaiian Rubber Growers' Association, is manager of the Nahiku Rubber Co. and the American-Hawaiian Rubber Co., and one of the leading pioneers of the industry in Hawaii. As to the exhibit from this Territory, the following extract from a report in the New York World indicates that it was a worthy one: "This exhibition is the first of its kind to be held in this country, and in some respects is the most complete ever put together in the world. The value of the crude rubber alone on exhibition is given as $875,000. The two leading exhibits, as to size and completeness, come from Brazil and from the British possessions. In the Far East, but Hawaii and the Philippines are not far behind."

According to the New York Press, the exhibit was seven times as big as the World states. The World report was printed before the exposition opened. Beginning its report of the show the day after the opening, the Press said: "With 3000 tons of rubber, valued at $6,000,000, and with scores of mechanical and agricultural products on display, the third annual

OAHU WATER LEASE PLANS ASSURE WORK

Land Board at Special Meeting Decides on Details of Important License

30-YEAR TERM WITH RENEWAL PROVISION

Plantation Arranging to Proceed with Construction of the Great Tunnel

Governor Frear and the board of land commissioners this morning reached a definite final decision on the matter of the Waiahole water license, after a lengthy conference in the senate chamber at the government building with Attorney Frank Thompson, representing the Oahu Sugar plantation.

As a result the Oahu Plantation or whatever company is formed to handle the undertaking agrees to begin actual construction of the long tunnel through the Koolau mountain range within the next six months. The land board has fixed the upset price that shall be paid the territory for the use of the Waiahole water sources at $15,000 per annum, a flat rate; for which in return the purchasers are to receive license to the entire water supply for thirty years, with the privilege of renewal for three 10-year periods at the expiration of that time.

At the end of the thirty years the Territory shall be entitled to take 4,000,000 gallons daily from the stream at the leeward side of the island, which it may sell to other consumers provided the 4,000,000 gallons do not go to concerns which may compete with the owners of the big ditch.

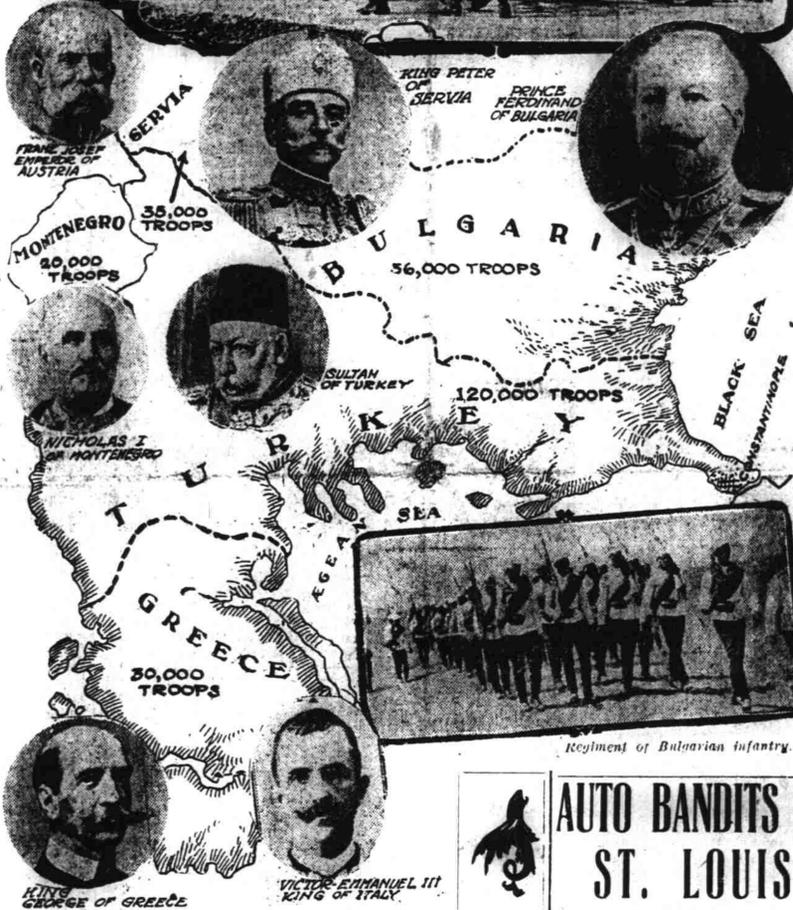

Should the license be renewed at the end of the first 10-year period, the territory may take a still larger amount daily from the ditch, and at the end of sixty years from the date of the original purchase of the license all rights to the use of the tunnel and ditch shall revert to the territory.

Of course these details have been worked out in conference with the Oahu Sugar plantation's representatives, as that is the only corporation in a position to construct the long tunnel. The form of the contract arranged this morning is understood to be satisfactory to that concern.

To make the sale of the water license perfectly proper it will be offered at public auction, and the advertisement of this sale is to be prepared and made very shortly. The Oahu Plantation will be the only bidder, however.

HARBOR BOARD MEMBERS URGE RATE-FIXING POWER

Hope the Next Legislature Will Amend Law Held Insufficient by Lindsay

Harbor Commissioners James Wakefield and C. J. McCarty believe that the body of which they are members should be given power by the next legislature to regulate the dockage charges made by privately owned wharves in the Territory. Marston Campbell, chairman of the commission, having not considered the matter fully, declines to express an opinion though he does say, emphatically, that Hawaii ought to have a public utilities commission.

These commissioners gave their expressions today in response to queries by the Star-Bulletin, as to whether they thought the control of private wharves should be given to the board of harbor commissioners or should be handed over to a public utilities commission, which many believe will be established here in the very near future.

"I certainly do think a public utilities commission should be formed," declared Campbell, "but whether that body should be given the business of regulating the commerce of privately-owned wharves is a question I have not given consideration at the present time."

"I am inclined to think it will be a somewhat delicate problem to determine just where the line of demarcation shall be drawn, specifying where the duties of the harbor commission

CAMPBELL VS. STACKABLE; "COURTEOUS" ROW, HE SAYS

Slight Misunderstanding Over Uncle Sam's Rights on Public Streets

"A courteous difference of opinion," as Marston Campbell expresses it, has arisen between the superintendent of public works and E. R. Stackable, collector of customs at this port, with the result that Campbell has issued an "ultimatum" and informed the collector that he can carry the matter to court if he wants satisfaction.

The "courteous difference" developed yesterday when Engineer Fred G. Kirchoff of the department of public works went to Superintendent Campbell with the information that Collector Stackable had told him the department must obtain permission from the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States before it could lay the fuel oil pipe line along Fort street in front of the customs building.

Rumor In Vienna Many Villages Of Albania Pillaged And Fired By Ruthless Ottomans

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 10.—The fear here in high quarters that there is great danger of a general European conflagration is increasing. The gravity of the situation is recognized in the utterances of leading British statesmen.

VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 10.—Austria's minister of foreign affairs announced today that Austria has important interests in the Balkans which she is prepared to guard at any cost. This is taken to mean the possibility of Austria becoming actively involved in the war.

VIENNA, Austria, Oct. 10.—The troops of Turkey have begun their work of pillage and destruction, according to the stories reaching here from the troubled Balkan regions.

It is reported that many Albanian villages are flaming as the Turkish forces move forward, carrying fire and sword into the remote districts not yet protected.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 10.—It is reported here that a large force of Turks have met a force of about 1,000 Greeks and have defeated them overwhelmingly, the Greeks suffering heavy losses.

TAFT ELECTORS IN CALIFORNIA SHUT OFF BALLOT

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 10.—Acting Governor Wallace, it is believed at the order of Governor Johnson, has refused to call an extra session of the State Legislature to amend the primary law so as to entitle the Taft electors to a place on the official ballot, the Roosevelt electors having been declared by the court entitled to the Republican place.

STRIKEBREAKERS WIN ACCESS TO MINES BY RUSE

BINGHAM, Utah, Oct. 10.—Using a ruse to get the men into the territory guarded by strikers, the employers have succeeded in getting 100 strikebreakers from New York to the mines and work has been partially resumed.

MARQUARD IS STAR IN VICTORY FOR NEW YORK

[Associated Press Cable]

BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 10.—Rube Marquard, once Manager McGraw's $11,000 leon, and his teammate, Myers, who formed the other half of the famous $18,000 battery New York secured from Indianapolis, today evened up the score in the world's series by defeating the Boston Red Sox by a score of 2 to 1.

It was the play-off of yesterday's tie game and an immense crowd saw the great Giant left-hander mow down the heavy hitters of the team from Beantown. Marquard was staidier than he has been for months and he kept the seven hits well scattered. The New York infield braced splendidly and but one error was counted against the National leaguers. Manager Jake Stahl of the Boston Americans, sent his prize spitball pitcher, O'Brien, to the box, but O'Brien was unsteady at critical moments and Bedient was sent in to succeed him. Carrigan started to catch and was replaced by Cady, who is more used to handling Bedient. The Bos-

LILIOKALANI SCHOOL FLAG-RAISING TOMORROW

Every resident of the Kaimuki section who owns a national flag, or can procure one in time, is expected to hoist it tomorrow in honor of the flag-raising at Liliokalani school at 1:45 p. m. Held under the auspices of Wai'alea, Kaimuki and Palolo Improvement Club, the ceremony will be conducted by Gen. W. DeLoon Post, G. A. R., the beautiful ritual of that organization for such an occasion to be used. Children of the school, under the direction of Miss Needham, principal, will take part in the accompanying exercises. Charles A. Cottrill will deliver a short oration. The Hawaiian Band and two buglers from Fort Ruger will be in attendance. Seats will be provided for several hundred guests, and everybody is invited by the club.

NEW YORK SUGAR MARKET.

COAL FROM JAPAN AND AUSTRALIA IS NOW EN ROUTE TO HONOLULU

Coal from Newcastle, N. S. W., and also from two Japanese ports is en route to the Hawaiian Islands, the entire output to be landed at the port of Honolulu.

The United States army transport Dix is on the way from Nagasaki, Japan to Honolulu and is believed will arrive not later than Sunday evening. Before the Dix departed from the Japanese port, between six and seven thousand tons of fuel were taken on board. The Dix is understood will be discharged of about five thousand tons coal, the fuel to be transferred to the quartermaster department piles. The Dix will probably remain at the port of Honolulu for about ten days pending the discharge of the Japanese coal.

The Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company has been advised that the Unkai Maru, a Japanese vessel of fair tonnage, is to depart from Moji, Japan, on or about October 25th, with destination as Honolulu. By this vessel should arrive five thousand tons of fuel. This coal will go into the big coaling plant at the Inter-Island slipway.

The British freighter Guernsey sailed from Newcastle, N. S. W., on Oct. 3rd, with between five and six thousand tons Australian fuel consigned to the Inter-Island. The Guernsey should arrive here on or about October 24th.

Steamer Rosecrans To Again Go Into Service.
The American oil tanker Rosecrans which has figured in more than one sensational episode in Honolulu harbor may yet play a return engagement here in carrying fuel from the coast to the local plant of the Associated Oil Company.

The tanker which was swept by fire and torn by explosions at Gaviota some time ago, is now undergoing repairs at San Francisco. The explosions which started the fire were considered to have been due to an accumulation of gas in the vessel's holds. It is said $75,000 will cover the loss.

The Rosecrans was built in Glasgow in 1883 and launched as the Methven Castle. It was later purchased by the United States government rechristened the General Rosecrans and used as a troopship during the Spanish-American war. One of the Phoenix park murderers, Carey the informer, who gave up to justice his confederates in the murder in Dublin of Lord Charles Frederick Cavendish and Thomas F. Burke, was killed on the Methven Castle near Capetown within a few years after the launching of the vessel.

For several years the Rosecrans was operated by the Associated Oil company as a tank ship, being chartered lately to the Union Oil company. In a heavy gale at Gaviota, just previous to the recent disaster which overtook the vessel, the Rosecrans dragged its anchors and went ashore, two of the crew being lost in the heavy surf. When at Honolulu 2 years ago the chief engineer was murdered by a drunken fireman, who was condemned to die. The sentence was later commuted and he is now serving a life sentence in Fort Leavenworth penitentiary.

Kilauea Arrived at Coast.
The Inter-Island steamer Kilauea with a small amount of general cargo, arrived at San Francisco early this morning, the distance being covered in eight and one-half days.

The Kilauea left her home port to receive general repairs at the coast shipyards. Some months ago the vessel scraped the rocks near Kailua and as a result several plates were dented. To replace these the vessel was obliged to return to the Union Iron Works. The Kilauea was given a liberal supply of oil as fuel before starting on the trans-Pacific voyage. The time made by the little liner occasioned considerable surprise among local shipping men today.

The Kilauea is to remain at San Francisco for about ten days before starting home. The vessel may be given a general cargo to serve as ballast.

Liners Meet With Fine Weather.
Fine weather is the rule as liners steam between San Francisco and Honolulu according to wireless reports received at this city. The following vessels have been heard from.

M. N. S. S. Wilhelmina, enroute to San Francisco from Honolulu, October 9, 8 p. m.—136 miles; Light East wind; sea smooth; weather fine and all well.
P. M. S. S. Persia, enroute from San Francisco to Honolulu, October 9, 8 p. m.—646 miles. Will arrive Friday afternoon.

Taylor Back on the Job.
Roger Taylor, deputy collector of customs, and boarding officer for the port of Honolulu, is back on the job after a pleasant vacation on windward Oahu. Deputy Collector Taylor conducted extensive archaeological researches, in which numerous caves were visited, and bones of early Hawaiians were discovered, together with many implements, both domestic and warlike.

"The bones and skeletons of natives in good condition were found in some of the caves near Kahana. They are believed to be the remains of those who died in the ancient epidemics which raged throughout the island. The tapas and other articles in the caves are in a remarkable state of preservation," declared Taylor.
Deputy Taylor's dip into anthropology, he states, proved both instructive and highly interesting.

Sophie Christensen Awaits Repairs.
The American schooner Sophie Christensen, which came into port on October 3 in a leaking condition, after a 27-day voyage from Tahiti, is still awaiting a turn on the local marine railway. The Sophie Christensen will receive general repairs, including recaulking and repainting. The vessel is reported to be making but little water following the removal of the cargo.
The American schooner Fearless will probably follow the Sophie Christensen on the marine railway, the latter vessel being in need of a cleaning and repainting.

Eudora Awaits Men to Man Ship.
Captain Atkinson, master of the British bark Eudora, is awaiting several seamen before proceeding to Tacoma, there to load grain for the United Kingdom or the Continent. The Eudora arrived here on September 12th with nitrates from a South American port. The vessel secured a very favorable charter to load on the Pacific Coast. Just before the time of departure several men were said to have jumped the ship. The Eudora now rides outside the harbor entrance, until the skipper secures a line on his men or signs on new seamen for the trip.

Mechanics Arrive for Pearl Harbor.
A dozen skilled mechanics to be employed in the construction of the floating crane intended for Pearl Harbor arrived as passengers in the Canadian-Australian liner Zealandia this morning.

The force of men to take up work at Pearl Harbor hall from a large manufacturing, the Wellman-Seaver Co., located at Cleveland, O.
Active operations in the assembly of material for the cranes will now go forward without delay.

Away for Kahului Tomorrow Night.
The Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu is away for Kahului tomorrow night, where some four hundred tons freight will be discharged. The vessel may receive shipments of preserved pineapples before returning to Honolulu. The Honolulu is due back at the home port early Sunday morning. It's a large consignment of freight that is being discharged from this vessel now at the Hackfeld wharf.

Persia to Take Coal Here.
The Pacific Mail liner Persia, due to arrive at Honolulu on Friday afternoon, will be supplied with five hundred tons coal before being dispatched to the far East. The Persia is expected will bring a later mail from the mainland and a few layover passengers. H. Hackfeld & Company, local representatives for the Persia, expect to dispatch the vessel for Japan and China ports on Saturday.

Mohigan Is High and Dry.
The venerable Mohigan, the dean of "rotten row" at Honolulu harbor, is high and dry on the marine railway, the craft to be given a general overhauling before going into the water again. The Mohigan is the Matson Navigation storage hulk at this port. The vessel has been lying at the anchorage and during her long period of inactivity much seaweed and barnacles have accumulated on the bottom of the hulk. The Mohigan will be cleaned and some of her copper plates will be renewed.

Marion Chilcott an Arrival With Oil.
Oil consigned to the local branch of the Associated Oil Company to the amount of 16,000 barrels arrived this morning in the American ship Marion Chilcott. The vessel was nineteen days from Gaviota and also brought 800 drums of distillate. The Marion Chilcott met with fair weather on the voyage, according to the report of Captain Anderson, master of the windjammer. The vessel was brought to a berth at railway wharf.

Logan May Make Short stay.
Many Philippine constabulary officers are reported as en route from San Francisco to Manila in the United States army transport Logan, expected to reach Honolulu on Saturday or Sunday. This vessel, it is believed, will take a berth at Alakea wharf, where a small amount of quartermaster cargo will be discharged. The Logan is expected to be given quick dispatch for Manila by way of Guam.

Cattle from Hawaii Ranges.
Seventy-five head of cattle were received this morning with the arrival of the Inter-Island steamer Helene. The vessel took on the animals at Kawaihewa. The Helene also brought some parts of sugar mill machinery and sundries and hides made up the list of freight. The vessel met with light winds and fair seas on the homeward voyage.

Hilonian Due From the Sound.
A large general cargo and several hundred thousand feet of lumber are due to arrive here on Saturday or Sunday in the Matson Navigation S. S. Hilonian. This vessel is now en route from San Francisco by way of Puget Sound. The vessel will come to the agency of Castle & Cooke.

HARBOR NOTES

The escape of a sailor in the British bark Eudora yesterday may cause some delay in the sailing of that vessel.

The American schooner Kona, now at Hana, Maui, taking on sugar, will be given a quick dispatch for San Francisco.

A number of passengers have been booked for departure for Kona and Kau in the Mauna Loa to sail at noon tomorrow.

The Canadian-Australian liner Zealandia is sailing for Sydney by the way of Suva and Auckland at three o'clock this afternoon.

The United States army transport Logan, to arrive from San Francisco on Saturday, may berth at the Ewa side of Alakea wharf.

Mail forwarded to the coast in the Matson Navigation steamer Lurline is reported to have reached the coast at 5:30 yesterday morning.

A general cargo and a few passengers will depart for Kauai ports in the steamer W. G. Hall, sailing at five o'clock this afternoon.

Japanese coal will be received with the arrival of the United States army transport Dix, which vessel is due to arrive on Sunday morning.

The Pacific Mail liner China to call here on October 15th from Oriental ports and enroute to San Francisco will be supplied with five hundred tons coal.

Shipments of lumber, fertilizer and general cargo are going into the Inter-Island steamer Claudine preparatory to the sailing of the steamer for Maui and Hawaii ports at five o'clock tomorrow morning.

The schooner Repeat made a slow trip to the Sound, the vessel arriving at Willapa Harbor on Tuesday. The schooner sailed from Honolulu on September 7th, after having been discharged of a shipment of lumber.

A late wireless received at the agency of H. Hackfeld & Company from the Pacific Mail liner Persia announces that the vessel will arrive here on Friday afternoon if all goes well. The vessel is listed for dispatch for the Far East Saturday morning.

COMING TO HONOLULU

MARE ISLAND, Sept. 28. — Chief Carpenter John P. Hand, U. S. N., retired, left this afternoon for San Francisco, and after a short stay in the metropolis will leave for Honolulu in company with his wife, where they will make their home in the future. Carpenter Hand was formerly attached to the cruiser Maryland, but was forced to retire from active service when his eyesight became impaired.

Y. M. C. A. ELECTS 112 MEMBERS

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian Association met at noon today in the board rooms in the Association building. Those present were: R. H. Trent, F. C. Atherton, W. T. Pope, C. H. Atherton, Judge Lind say, Ed. Towse, R. B. Anderson, W. A. Love, and R. J. Pratt. One hundred and twelve new members were elected to the association, making the total membership of the central association 1124.

A report of the finance committee regarding the provision of the necessary funds to carry the association for the year was presented and accepted. The report involved the raising of $1000, which, with the income of the association from the various sources, will carry the association until May 1. It was recommended that this amount be reported by the first of November.

Reports from all the different departments were read covering the work for the month of September, which showed the association's affairs to be in a wholesome and a growing condition.

The next convention of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at Los Angeles next May. The board took up the matter this long in advance to insure a good representation of the local association at the convention. W. A. Bowen represented the association at the convention in Toronto last year and Governor Frear at the previous one at Washington. The directors hope to have at least two or three delegates at Los Angeles.

President Trent appointed a commission to study the question of vocational guidance for boys. The committee consists of J. C. Davis, Edgar Wood, J. N. Cox, Elijah Mackenzie, W. S. Bowen and W. T. Howard. The commission will act in conjunction with the educational committee of which W. T. Pope is chairman.

ACHI MAKES LAND DEALS

It's W. C. Achi, agent for the Kailua Taro and Land Co. more than anybody else in the real estate line, who is furnishing concrete evidence about this time of the aptness of the proverbial phrase, "doing a land office business," in illustrating brisk affairs.

Mr. Achi has just put through three pretty good-sized deals in city property. He has sold to Dr. K. Haida, a well-known Japanese physician, $38-100 acres of unimproved land at Kailua, near the fertilizer works, for the sum of $3200.

Judge Philip L. Weaver has purchased from Mr. Achi 1-4 acres of land at Puunui, on the extension of Liliha street, for $2750.

Mr. Achi, in giving the foregoing information in reply to a question on the reported sale to Dr. Haida, added that he had also virtually sold nineteen lots in the Waterhouse tract, Kailua, at an average price of $400 a lot.

IRISH POAL GOES FREE

Irish Poal is a free man as a result of the deliberations of six true and tried men who served as a coroner's jury and listened to the testimony in the case wherein Irish Poal, a Hawaiian, was charged with the accidental shooting and death of a young lad named Matthias P. B. K. Chapman.

The shooting was done with a shotgun alleged to have been handled by Poal. A party of boys, including the Chapman lad, was hunting birds along the beach road, when the accident that caused the instant death of Chapman occurred.

The jury examined a number of witnesses yesterday afternoon before coming forward with a verdict to the effect that the death of the boy resulted from the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of Irish Poal. The Hawaiian was not held for manslaughter, as first predicted.

A motorcycle driven by a Japanese collided with a light delivery wagon on lower Nuuanu street this afternoon. No damage resulted; at least both parties hurried away before the police arrived on the scene.

The Pullman Palace Car Company has begun, through Frank Kellogg, the "trust buster," its fight against the corporation tax law of 1910 as an amendment to the constitution.

Fire destroyed the largest haystack in the world near Hanford, Cal. The stack contained nearly 2000 tons of baled hay and was valued at $25,000.

A large number of Donkhabours from Russia who settled in Canada have decided to move to the United States to escape the laws of the western Canadian provinces.

J. Pierpont Morgan and his family are planning to spend the winter in Santa Barbara, Cal., having written to reserve one of the best furnished Montecito homes.

A graded school is to be established in Folsom State prison, near Sacramento, and the convicts are to become students.

HOWELL FOR CAMPBELL'S SUCCESSOR?

Name of Maui Engineer Urged as Next Superintendent of Public Works

Hugh Howell, former county engineer of Maui, was prominently mentioned today and yesterday as one of the best men that Governor Frear could possibly pick out as a successor to Superintendent of Public Works Marston Campbell, whose resignation ought to have taken effect some months ago.

Howell's name is unofficially endorsed by several prominent engineers and contractors. Although there is an engineering association, it has made no indorsement of a man to succeed Campbell, it was said today, but there is talk that a meeting for this purpose may shortly be called unless Governor Frear should in the meantime make an appointment.

"Howell is the right man for the place," said a leading engineer today. "He is a good engineer and a good executive. I feel sure that all of the engineers and contractors of the Territory would 'koku' the suggestion that he be named."

Engineer Howell has been in the islands for many years and has both the experience and the training, say his admirers, to fit him for the position.

In some quarters there is a disposition to believe that the Governor would like to get H. K. Bishop, engineer of the Hawaii loan fund commission, for the place.

GRAND JURY DOESN'T MENTION IWILEI PROBE

Returning four indictments of minor importance, completing its work, but making no mention of the investigation conducted by its committee headed by Foreman James Rath into affairs at Iwilei, the federal grand jury submitted its final report to the U. S. district court this morning and was discharged from further duty.

The four indictments find true bills against Saiki, a Japanese accused of selling liquor at retail without paying the special government tax; Thomas Onokea, for adultery; Joseph Francis, for selling opium, and Robert A. Morton, on the charge of bigamy. All of the accused were arrested some time ago by U. S. Marshal on warrants issued by U. S. District Attorney Breckons, and the indictments are largely a matter of legal formality following the apprehensions.

Saiki will be arraigned next Saturday. Onokea and Francis both have entered a plea of guilty and will receive their sentence Saturday, while Morton has pleaded not guilty and has been given until Monday to obtain counsel. A statutory charge is contained in a secret indictment returned this morning. This will be put on the secret file until the accused person is placed under arrest.

The report of the committee which investigated conditions at Iwilei, with regard to the employees of the pineapple canneries in that section, was submitted to the grand jury, but apparently the revelations were not considered of sufficient importance to warrant official action.

SAHARA VIEWS MAKE A HIT

The great Sahara desert, as well as interesting portions of Egypt were brought to Honolulu with the release and presentation of two of the finest pictorial films received here in months.

The Hawaii Theatre offered for the first time in the islands the thrilling two-reef drama, "The Tragedy in the Desert." Standing room only was the condition of the playhouse during the greater part of the evening during the display of pictures.

The films depict sights and scenes along the river Nile which are incomparable. There is sufficient action in the photo play to satisfy the most jaded.

Love, intrigue, romance and death on desert fastnesses are features interwoven with scenes where several thousand years ago was a center of world civilization.

"The Tragedy in the Desert" will be presented again this evening.

STRIKE DELAYED THE ZEALANDIA

The Canadian-Pacific Railway Company, practically a rival to the Canadian-Australian line in certain lines of business, came to the rescue of the latter steamship company with an offer to supply the necessary fuel to enable the liner to proceed from Vancouver to Honolulu, Suva, Auckland and Sydney.

As it was, the Zealandia arrived with forty-five passengers from the British Columbian coast, just one day behind her regular schedule.

A strike of no mean proportions prevails in British Columbian coal mines. The labor trouble has spread to such extent that the Canadian-Australian line was unable to secure coal to fill the bunkers in the Zealandia. To send the vessel to an American port would have been out of the question on such short notice. Following a series of negotiations, the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, which also operates a fleet of fast passenger and freight steamers across the Pacific, came to the rescue of the Australia line.

The Zealandia is making a brief stay at Honolulu, it being the intention to dispatch the vessel for Fiji, New Zealand and Australian ports at three o'clock this afternoon. Several lay-over passengers will join the vessel at Honolulu for various ports in the South Seas.

The Zealandia failed to call at Victoria in leaving the North Pacific coast, owing to the delay occasioned by a lack of coal. The liner is well filled with both passengers and freight. From the time of leaving the straits of Fuca the Zealandia met fresh northerly winds and moderate seas.

An active sports committee is included in the personnel of passengers enroute to the Antipodes. Deck sports have been the rule during the day, while the officers have arranged pleasing entertainments for the evening, including dances and concerts.

The Zealandia arrived here this morning with 314 passengers in transit to the South Seas.

A very small amount of general cargo was left here.

INDEPENDENT REPRESENTING CANDIDATE THE FOR COMMON SENATOR PEOPLE

NOT CONTROLLED BY THE BIG INTERESTS TO THE PEOPLE:

This space has been engaged by me from now until the night of election and in it I shall from day to day give my views in reference to the questions of interest that may appeal to the voter during the present campaign.

I have no political organization back of me, neither have I a fund collected from any interest whatsoever to assist my campaign.

I have no means of organizing monster mass meetings or luau at which to address the voters, so I take this method as a means of making my appeal direct to the people and hope to receive the support of those who feel with me that the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii should not be absolutely controlled by the BIG INTERESTS.

The STAR-BULLETIN is not responsible for what appears in this space. I alone am accountable, as everything here is over my signature and paid for at regular advertising rates.

I shall endeavor, however, not to be personal in my attacks, or create any disgraceful controversy.

I SHALL TELL THINGS AS I SEE THEM AND SPEAK UP EXACTLY AS I FEEL.

HENRIQUES FACES CHINESE FROM COLLEGES MAKE JURY FOR MURDER ADDRESSES HERE

Charged with murder in the first degree, Henriquez today faces a jury in Circuit Judge Whiteley's court. A trial has been brought more than a dozen witnesses from South Kona, Hawaii, to Honolulu and probably will continue for the next fortnight before it is finally submitted to the jury for a verdict.

The alleged murder, which occurred at South Kona on November 14, 1911, was the result of a quarrel of a feud between the Henriquez family and some Japanese, whom the Henriquez had accused of stealing lumber. In an attempt to drive the Japanese away from a pile of lumber, young Henriquez is said to have used a shotgun, firing into the crowd of Japanese as he and his father, J. J. Henriquez, approached the lumber pile.

Immediately after this shot, which took fatal effect on Aoyama, some witnesses assert one of the crowd rushed toward the two white men shouting "Paul Paul" and that young Henriquez again fired, wounding the Japanese who sought to stop the trouble.

Half a dozen witnesses for the prosecution were present from Kona when the hearing began this morning, and wireless summons has been sent to the Big Island for nearly a dozen more. The first witness called today was Dr. H. L. Koss, who appeared on the scene of the shooting shortly after it occurred, and gave medical attention to Aoyama.

Deputy County Attorney William H. Heen of Hawaii is prosecuting the case, with Attorneys C. W. Ashford and J. B. Lightfoot appearing for the defense.

Yesterday afternoon four of the Chinese graduates who recently returned from mainland universities were guests at luncheon of President Myrick at the Mid-Pacific Institute and Mrs. F. W. Damon at Manoa valley. At table they supplied the humor and chatted with the faculty of the institution.

After lunch, it was decided to hold a convocation at the chapel, for very seldom do the Mills boys have an opportunity to listen to such a galaxy of oratorical lights. The sessions in Chinese were suspended for an hour and a half. Though unprepared for any formal addresses, the college men seemed to be thoroughly at home on the platform. They spoke so earnestly and powerfully that the students listened to them with deep interest. The speakers paid a high tribute to Mr. F. W. Damon, who, on account of illness due to overwork, is now recuperating in California.

The speakers of the afternoon, H. S. Chuck, Cornell; Kim Tong Ho, Wisconsin; H. Y. Ching, California; and Charles A. Wong, Harvard, were introduced by Principal Myrick.

After the speeches were concluded one of the older boys of the school remarked: "It is nothing like listening to some who know. These gentlemen certainly have hit the nail on the head and I intend to follow their example."

HAWAII'S RUBBER

Rubber and Allied Trades Exhibition was opened formally at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the New Grand Central Palace, Lexington avenue and Forty-sixth street. Three floors are used to display the exhibits, and experts are on hand in the various booths to explain the rubber industry from the gathering of the milk or sap from the trees to the production of the finished article.

In bringing out the picturesque features of the exhibition, the report of the New York Telegraph is the best that has come to hand. This was in the Telegraph of September 22, the day before the opening, and is as follows:

"The world's rubber exposition at the Grand Central Palace will be formally opened tomorrow by Mayor Gaynor and will continue for ten days. At this exposition every rubber-producing country will be represented by delegates.

"The exposition will occupy three floors of the Grand Central Palace. On one floor the different countries will show their part in the rubber world. Each country will have a different exhibit and a staff to explain it to visitors.

"The largest exhibit will be from Brazil, which is the largest rubber-producing country in the world, and will be in charge of a large staff of experts. Other countries to have exhibits are Mexico, Ceylon, British Malaya, Java, British Guiana, Trinidad, Belgium and Belgium Congo, Madagascar, Indo-China, Equatorial Africa, Occidental Africa, the Hawaiian Islands, Portugal, Peru and other small countries.

"The entire floor will represent a tropical forest with huts and costumes. How rubber is grown in the Straits Settlements under British rule will be shown at the exhibition, which is in charge of Imperial Commissioner Leonard Wray. Malay rubber gatherers in their picturesque costume will live during the exposition in native huts brought from their settlements.

"Ceylon's exhibit will be set in the center of a plantation crowded with spice trees. F. Crosbie Roles, commissioner for Ceylon, has brought a score or more of picturesquely garbed Singhalese rubber workers to New York for the show, and with them a few Tamils from Southern India, who work on the Ceylonese rubber farms as indentured laborers. On another floor will be a collection of exhibits from the Imperial Institute of London. Lectures on rubber will be delivered daily, and motion pictures will show scenes in rubber-producing countries and in large factories.

"Mr. Anderson sent clippings from different papers containing reports of the exposition to Guy H. Buttolph, of Williamson & Buttolph, to whom the Star-Bulletin is indebted for their use. In a note to Mr. Buttolph accompanying the clippings, Mr. Anderson says, "Busy as the deuce from 9 a. m. till 10:30 p. m." "Rubber in all shades, forms and conditions, including sheets from the mill, were sent to the exhibition from Hawaii," said Mr. Buttolph this afternoon. "Mr. Anderson also took on some of the new gum found in Robert Hind's woods on Hawaii. He was furnished besides with a large supply of literature by the Hawaiian Promotion Committee, and the Hawaiian booth was therefore in part a promotion agency.

"The expenses of Mr. Anderson and the Hawaiian exhibit were contributed by the Promotion Committee, the individual rubber planting companies and Alexander & Baldwin.

"Rubber from the Hawaiian Islands commands within a few cents of the highest price of rubber from any other part of the world. "Mr. Anderson will be back here on November 8 in the steamer Sonoma."

AHIA IS RUNNING FOR SUPERVISOR

William Ahia, who was a member of the first Board of Supervisors of the municipality, is running as an independent candidate for the same office this year. He failed to secure the nomination at the Republican convention, although assured in advance of a large amount of support, as he had also failed in the convention of two years ago. Since the late convention, however, Ahia has been busy drumming up support to run on his own account, and now his nomination paper is ready to be filed with nearly double the number of signatures of voters required. His appearance in the arena is liable to cause a loss of votes to some of the regular Republican candidates, as he has many friends and on the whole made a good record while on the board.

HITS STREETCAR; FILIPINO HURT

Lou M. Whitehouse, city and county engineer driving municipal automobile No. 689, hit a Hotel and Kaimuki electric car No. 38 last evening, with the result that in addition to doing considerable damage to the coach, a Filipino passenger sitting on the front platform was injured. City and County Engineer Whitehouse is alleged by the police as having been proceeding toward town at a fast rate. The electric car was going eastward and was well crowded with passengers. The collision took place near the new girls' industrial school building at a time, so the officers state, when the car was standing still. Through the collision the running board on the street car was partially demolished, while several stanchions or hand rails were torn from their moorings.

The Filipino, while complaining of his injuries, declined to go to the hospital for treatment. Engineer Whitehouse said today he was trying to evade the car but could not get his machine off the track in time. He said there was no other road he could take.

POLITICAL NOTES

There is an important meeting of all Republican candidates at headquarters at 3 p. m. today. At 5 p. m. a meeting of all delegates from the Fourth District. At 7:30 a luncheon at Captain Parker's residence, Liliha street, given by the Eleventh Precinct Club. This will be a love feast and discussion of plans for the coming campaign by all delegates from the Fifth District.

Seventeen Japanese put up a hard fight against paying a fine upon a charge of gambling, but at the conclusion of a hearing of testimony at District Court this morning, Judge Larnach decided the case in favor of the prosecution.

The Japanese were alleged by the police to have indulged in a quiet game of seven-come-eleven in a room on King street not far from the railway station. Detectives Kellett, Apana and others entered the premises, and upon the stand this morning these officers declared that they caught the Japanese red-handed in the game.

The bunch were given fines ranging from six to ten dollars. In several instances the defendants were rated as old offenders. The trial produced one interesting feature in that Chief of Detectives McDuffie gave a learned dissertation on the difference existing between jo-ban and seven-come-eleven, which explanation was made for the courts enlightenment.

UNLUCKY DEMOCRAT GETS BACK $25 FEE

S. K. Aoleinoa of Maui, who is no longer Democratic Senatorial aspirant from that island because his nomination papers did not reach Secretary Mott-Smith in time, will get his $25 deposit fee back, or the individual who paid it for him will recover it. This was determined by the Territorial Secretary this morning after a talk with the attorney general, who finally decided that as the nomination was not received the deposit fee could not be recognized and accepted.

DEMOCRATS AND THE MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN

One of the curiosities of the present political campaign in Hawaii is the attitude of the Democratic candidates on the mosquito crusade carried on a few months ago. The Republican party had about as much to do with that crusade as the man in the moon. The policy of cutting down the banana trees in order to wage war against the yellow-fever mosquito was suggested, adopted, initiated and carried out by the volunteer citizens' committee, a body of excellent men who did sterling work at a critical period in the city's history. The courts declared that the board of health had no power to cut down the banana trees. But medical experts had given their honest opinion that the action was a measure toward safety, and the work was honestly carried out.

It was not a Republican policy; it was not primarily the action of the board of supervisors, of the board of health, of any city, county or territorial official or set of officials. But a cry against the cutting of the banana trees makes good campaign material, and the Democrats have seized eagerly upon the issue. Some of the Democratic candidates very likely are not aware of the facts, but the party leaders and the leading candidates know better, and if they wish to be entirely honest with the voters, they will not lend their indorsement to such silly and prejudiced untruths.

"HEARST'S FORGERIES"

Collier's Weekly in its latest issue does what in sporting parlance is described as "taking a fall out of" William R. Hearst, who, by the way, is one of Collier's pet enemies.

The enterprising weekly has delved into Mr. Hearst's recent "exposures" of Standard Oil letters, which have figured conspicuously in the campaign fund investigations. These letters were published and photographic fac similes given in Hearst's Magazine and, it was declared, showed a direct and probably corrupt connection between John D. Archbold, president of Standard Oil, Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, C. H. Grosvenor, the late Mark Hanna and other prominent Republicans.

Now Collier's declares these published letters are forgeries and proceeds to prove it in a most businesslike and unanswerable way. The basis of the proof is that the letters were written on a peculiar make of typewriter that was not manufactured until some years after 1904, the date of most of the letters. Hence the letters are not bona fide. It is a well-known fact that every typewriter and every make of typewriter has easily-detected peculiarities of writing, and Collier's has secured plenty of evidence to prove the letters forgeries, and says so in a way that invites libel suits were it not the truth.

The queerest part of the exposure is, however, that Collier's declares Mr. Hearst has in his possession real letters and records just as incriminating as those he has faked, and the question naturally arises, Why has he tried to palm off forgeries when he could have produced documents just as sensational and far more able to stand the limelight?

SANE TREATMENT FOR THE INSANE

One of the most important subjects that has been taken up at the International Congress of Hygiene and Demography, at Washington, which Dr. J. S. B. Pratt and other Hawaiian medical experts are attending, has been that of treatment of the insane. According to the figures presented there were 184,712 insane patients in American hospitals last year, and they cost the people of the United States $32,000,000 in twelve months. More than half of this insanity is preventable, it is contended, and the congress discussed means to prevent it.

The cost of maintenance for the unfortunate inmates of institutions for the insane exacts a tax of slightly less than one dollar for every adult male in the United States.

"Non-restraint" is the slogan of the committee on insanity which has established branches or state committees in more than half the states. It is the newest propaganda in all medicine, say its promoters. The movement is less than five years old.

A fight against the superstition and mystery of mental ailments and the treatment of the patients for the purely mental disorders exactly as though they were sane and by a process of induction drawing the wandering intellect back to saner channels is the wholesome story of modern psychopathic science.

The exhibit includes a vast quantity of discarded restraint apparatus, straightjackets, camisoles, bolts, bars, shackles and cages, "instruments of torture" every one of them, according to the latest accepted thought among the psychopathists.

DISGORGING DIX

In the nomination of William Sulzer for governor of New York by the Democratic convention recently there is food for political thought.

Murphy influences New York Democracy still, and Murphy undoubtedly preferred Dix, the present governor. Some months ago Murphy let it be known that he intended to see that Dix was renominated.

But the people of New York have rebelled against the "slick boss" and the New York Democrats refused to do his bidding on the governorship. They believed that Dix had been his pliant tool, and the recent police exposures in New York city strengthened that belief. Dix's failure to force an investigation could have resulted from nothing else but the knowledge that an investigation would trace the dirty trail of graft right back to the doors of Tammany Hall and to Murphy, who sits enthroned therein.

So Murphy threw Dix over. The storm of public indignation alarmed the astute manipulator of men and measures. Whether Murphy could have controlled the convention to the extent of forcing Dix on New York again is doubtful. Sulzer was named, at any rate.

The power of the bosses is passing the country over. The people are learning. They are learning from sad experience that to swallow candidates simply because their nomination has been dictated by the party bosses invites a nausea of decent stomachs to the point of disgorging.

One of the pledges that every legislative candidate in Hawaii may well give the people is that he will support an act giving Honolulu the right to assess abutting property for municipal improvements. The Republican convention did not wish to incorporate this plank in the platform and it missed being presented to the Democratic convention, but it is clearly needed, it is the logical way of getting public improvements, and it affords the board of supervisors a direct way of getting improvements put through.

President Taft exemplifies the national love of baseball. While the Chicago convention was at its raging height, he was out at the Washington ball-park watching the Senators lick all comers. Now that the campaign grows hot, he is rooting for Boston to win the world's series from the New York Giants.

No one hears of Roosevelt going to a ball game. Nothing less than a Roman arena and a battle of gladiators would satisfy the Spartacus of Oyster Bay.

Charley Taft got back some of the money he put up for Bill's campaign. Lucky man! Nobody who put up for Teddy appears to have got anything back.

Judge Wilder's remarks at the Democratic mass-meeting last night would have been pretty good material for a small sensation while Secretary Fisher was here.

After fighting a couple of battles, Bulgaria has decided to give notice of severing diplomatic relations with Turkey. How thoughtful!

Russell Sage is about the only man they haven't mentioned in connection with these campaign fund contributions.

Keeps a man busy these days trying to remember whether it's the Shah or the Sultan that's in trouble.

Andrew Carnegie's gift to the Progressive campaign is probably a library full of Teddy's books.

Few of us are as lucky as the hand-boys. They get a vacation while politics is at its height.

Don't forget to register.

"SOLDIER" KING—I was never in better condition in my life. I am ready to take those numbers out at the bar racks on any time.

PAUL SUPER—I see from a recent report that the average consumption of liquor in the state of Kansas is $1.48 per capita, and in Missouri it is $2.4. That goes to show whether or not prohibition in Kansas is a success.

should cease and those of the utilities commission should begin. When the plans for the new organization assume definite form later this matter will doubtless be taken up and discussed in detail by the harbor commission, and recommendations may then be made by us.

Favor More Control. Commissioners Wakefield and McCarthy expressed views decidedly in favor of the harbor commission's control of the private wharves.

"We already regulate the charges at the public wharves, and to a certain extent, those at certain private wharves," said Mr. Wakefield. "This is in line with our regular duty, and if a public utilities commission is formed, it will not and in natural reason should not take this responsibility from the harbor commission."

"As we are in close touch with these matters we would be better able, because of our acquaintance with conditions, to attend to all wharfage regulations. I am certain the coming Legislature will be asked to give the board of harbor commissioners this power, and there is little doubt that that body will accede to such request."

Commissioner Wakefield, requested, recently by the harbor commission to prepare figures showing the wharf situation in the Territory, has prepared his report in part, and it contains some interesting figures.

One of the most important of these is that the Territory owns wharves now worth approximately $200,000, that it is paying out about $18,000 annually for repairs, upkeep and interest alone, and that the income derived from wharfage charges at these does not make them anywhere near self-supporting.

Advocates Higher Rates. As a result, Mr. Wakefield intends recommending shortly that wharfage rates at the public piers be raised materially, so that the Territory will not be continually losing money on the proposition.

Lindsay's Opinion. The opinion of Attorney General Alex Lindsay, submitted to the board of harbor commissioners yesterday, in which he decides that under the present Territorial law that body has no power to control rates charged the public at private wharves, is published in full below:

"In re the question submitted for my opinion on October 3rd, viz: 'as to the authority of the Board, if any, over all landings (both public and private) and further, as to the rights of the Board to fix rates of dockage, wharfage and other rates upon all public and private wharves and landings in the Territory of Hawaii,' I beg to say:

"There can be no doubt that the Board of Harbor Commissioners has authority over all public landings in the Territory and may fix rates of dockage, wharfage and other rates upon same, for such authority is expressly granted by Act 163, Session Laws 1911. The question, however, that I apprehend most interests the Board is whether the Board has an thority to fix or regulate rates of dockage, wharfage and other rates upon wharves and landings which are privately owned.

"The business of maintaining and operating a wharf for gain is such a quasi-public employment that the property used for such purpose may be said to be 'affected with a public interest' and thereby brought under that general power or control which the State possesses in the case of other public employments."

"In Munn v. 111, 94 U. S. 113, which is the leading case on the subject, the court said:

"Under these powers the government regulates the conduct of its citizens one toward another, and the manner in which each shall use his own property, when such regulation becomes necessary for the public good. In their exercise it has been customary in England from time immemorial and in this country from its first colonization, to regulate ferries, common carriers, hackmen, bakers, millers, wharfingers, etc., and in so doing to fix a maximum charge to be made for services rendered."

"It would seem under the authorities that where a person uses his property, e.g., a wharf, in such manner as to affect the public interest, the Legislature may to a reasonable extent regulate the charges."

"At present, however, I am of the opinion that the Legislature has not authorized the Board of Harbor Commissioners to fix or regulate charges made by owners of private wharves or landings which are used in business of a quasi-public nature. The power given the board by the Legislature in section 4 of Act 163, Session Laws 1911, to make, alter and amend rules respecting charges, fees and compensation for the storage of, and the duties and powers of carriers, shippers and consignees in and to any such freight, goods, wares and merchandise in and upon any landing, dock or public wharf within the Territory is not, in my opinion, broad enough to include privately-owned wharves."

CAMPBELL VS. STACKABLE

Campbell says he immediately called up Stackable by phone and asked him by what law, regulation or any other provision the United States had the right to say whether or not any pipe line, street car line or other public utility should be laid along the public thoroughfares of Honolulu, even though they do happen to pass in front of a Federal building. He asserts the collector of customs did not cite any regulation bearing on the matter, but did cite the case of the Rapid Transit Company, which, he said, sought the permission of the Secretary of the Treasury before laying its line of tracks on Fort street.

Superintendent Campbell then told the customs official that the department would proceed to lay the oil pipe line, and if he, Stackable, did not deem it proper, he might bring the matter to the attention of the U. S. district attorney and take such action in law as seems to fit the case.

U. S. District Attorney Breckons, asked about the affair today, said he had not heard of it before, but could not recall any Federal law covering the situation.

II DECISION INVOLVES

As was stated in this paper, reporting the affirmation of Judge Dole's decision by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco, the II estate, valued at $500,000, for the purposes of the condemnation suit, when the decision was given in 1910, is now estimated to be worth $1,000,000. There is therefore no saying what extensive complications may develop, in addition to the Punahou matter, before the John II Estate, Ltd., and all concerned in it know their legal standing.

AD CLUB TALKS ON MUNICIPAL PUBLICITY

Members of the Honolulu Ad Club held a live-wire session today at the Palm Cafe restaurant, where Manager Junglauss made special preparation for the club's Thursday luncheon.

H. Gooding Field read a paper on "Municipal Publicity," which will be published by the Star-Bulletin in a later issue. This paper was followed by a discussion of the municipal journal proposed by the present Board of Supervisors, which Mr. Field stated he did not consider at all necessary to efficient publicity in the affairs of this city.

J. C. Cohen, who is one of the charter members of the club, stated that he intends to prove what advertising will do in promoting a political campaign. He believes in advertising and intends to use both newspaper space and circulars very freely in the campaign he is conducting.

IN THE WOMAN'S WORLD

GLEANERS HOLD MEETING AND HEAR TALK FROM MRS. WICKES

TAKE CARE OF YOUR LOOKS

The Gleaners of Central Union Church met yesterday afternoon at three-thirty o'clock at the home of Mrs. John Waterhouse, on Wyllie street. This organization was formed by a woman missionary in Micronesia in 1894, with the thought that the young girls who then belonged to it would later become active members of the Woman's Board of Missions. From the time of organization the Gleaners have raised twelve thousand dollars, and there have been six hundred live members. When one stops to consider that the members are many of them children, the sum they have raised is not a small one.

The Gleaners cannot be called a social organization, for although the members look forward to the meetings, which are always enjoyable, the time is devoted to sewing for the poor children. At the present time they are making rag carpets. That is, they prepare the rags, but the actual weaving is done at the Industrial school. These carpets are sold and the proceeds go toward meeting the many financial demands that are made upon the Gleaners.

At present the Gleaners are supporting three girls at Kawaiahau Seminary. They give money to the Free Kindergarten, send money to Tokio, support two Hawaiian Bible readers in Honolulu and each year make a donation to the Woman's Board of Missions. They also send some money to Micronesia. Each year their disbursements amount to something over three hundred and twelve dollars. The money is gathered from membership fees and contributions. When there is not enough in the treasury more is raised by means of delicatessen sales or in some similar manner.

Previously the meetings of the organization were held at the homes of the officers, but a new plan has been adopted and the meetings, with a very few exceptions, are held at the Central Union Church. Yesterday's meeting was one of these exceptions, and was more of a social gathering, thus giving the young girls an opportunity of meeting Mrs. Dean Rockwell Wickes. There were fifty members present, their years ranging from ten to twenty or more.

When Mrs. Wickes was asked to talk to the girls she told them that as she had never been in China she could not give them any actual experiences. But she did tell them of the customs of the Chinese as she had studied them. She told them of the work she had prepared to do, and that she hoped that she would find similar work in China. From the time that Mr. and Mrs. Wickes were appointed to the position in the Orient the people who are sending them there have been confident that they would be able to meet the many demands made upon them, but since the young couple have come to Honolulu, and the people responsible for their appointment have had the opportunity of meeting them, they are even better satisfied with their choice. Mr. and Mrs. Wickes are fortunate, too, in that they are going to China just at the beginning of its awakening, and the Chinese will no doubt be quite ready to accept the many new ideas which they are taking with them. At the conclusion of her remarks yesterday, the Gleaners asked that Mrs. Wickes write to them if she should need such help as they might be able to give her.

Though the meeting was rather in the nature of a social gathering, the scriptural selection was read and the usual collection taken.

The officers of the Gleaners for this year are: President, Mrs. E. A. Jones; Vice-President, Miss Ramona Morgan; Secretary, Miss Helen Jones; Corresponding Secretary, Miss Laura Atherton; Treasurer, Miss Marian Brown; Assistant Secretary, Miss Helen Colburn.

It is believed that the baby drowned and then abandoned in the washroom of an insurance building, Los Angeles, is the child of wealthy society people, murdered from jealousy. The detectives have not made public thus giving the young girls an oppor-

One reason why so many women begin to "go on" in their looks after thirty or even earlier, is a growing habit of carelessness about their appearance in particular, the woman that marries and has children is very likely to fall into the notion that "it doesn't matter how mother looks." Indeed, I have known women who seem to consider it a part of their duty to their families to get old and ugly as soon as possible.

No woman can make a more fatal mistake. A woman wants to be proud of her children, and her children have an equal right to be proud of her. A woman who has become a wrinkled, faded, humped-up, dowdy "backnumber" at forty may get a certain forbidding affection and perfunctory gratitude from her family, but she can never inspire the admiration and respect and willing obedience that every child should be able to render to his mother.

Depend upon it, excellent wife and devoted mother, if you find yourself too busy to take a daily bath, too busy to keep your scalp clean and your hair brushed, too busy to go to a dentist at the first sign of decaying teeth, too busy to massage the blackheads out of your skin and manœuvre your nails and provide yourself with suitable becoming clothes, then you are absolutely too busy. You are either being imposed upon by some shirker, or else you are voluntarily sacrificing a more important to a less important consumption.

If it comes right down to a choice, madam, I think your husband would take more pleasure in your clean complexion than in a clean pair of attic slippers, and I am quite sure that it is better to provide your children with a neat, trim, well-groomed mother to look at at table than to harass their little stomachs with some elaborate and indigestible "made dish."—Mme. Jeanne La Place in Woman's World for October.

NEWS FROM THE Y. W. C. A.

Miss Esther Anderson, who was for five years general secretary of the Young Woman's Christian Association of America, will give a short talk at the vespers services held by the local association at the Homestead next Sunday afternoon. Miss Anderson is on her way to the States from Australia, where she has been in the association work for some time. All girls are invited to attend whether members of the association or not.

The French class met last Tuesday with an enrollment of six. This class is under the instruction of Miss Laura Baker, graduate of one of the Paris colleges. The lessons consist of French conversation and grammar.

As there have been several applications for a Spanish class, arrangements have been made for one which will meet Tuesday afternoons from four to five, immediately following the French class.

Yesterday afternoon a most enthusiastic class of girls were given instruction in tennis at the association courts next to the Homestead, under the direction of Miss Tupper, physical director of the association.

This afternoon from three o'clock on the class in basketball will meet for its first lesson in that game.

At the last meeting of the board of directors of the association it was decided to engage a domestic science teacher from the mainland to take charge of that branch of the work. There have been many applications by the members for a class of this kind, and as a suitable teacher could not be found in the city it was found necessary to engage the services of one from the coast.

SPECIAL MUSICAL PROGRAM TO MARK LADIES' NIGHT AT Y. M. C. A.

Ladies' night will be observed at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow night in celebration of the first anniversary of the dedication of the new building on Hotel and Alakea streets. The building will be thrown open to both men and women and it will be the largest social event in the history of the association here. The committee on social privileges, of which A. T. Wisdom is secretary, is preparing for the entertainment of at least two thousand guests, and no pains are being spared by this committee as well as other departments of the association to make the event one to be long remembered.

The entire building will be open to inspection, and the visitors will have a chance to see all the features of the association in action. The ladies will have the exclusive use of the billiard room, but on account of repairs now being made in the bowling alleys, that feature will not be running. Among other features will be stunts in the gymnasium and a concert in the games hall. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Anderson's orchestra.

A musical program has been arranged for the occasion by Lloyd R. Kilham, assistant general secretary, and will be rendered by some of the leading singers and musicians of the city. The program will be as follows:

Should the teacher that the board has in mind except their invitation to take the position here, a domestic science class will be organized with an assured large enrollment and will become one of the leading features of the association's work.

RECREATIONS

BURLESQUE 'MOVIE' IS EMPIRE ATTRACTION

Three comedies, and one good old melodramatic subject, is the picture offering at the Empire Theater for tonight, while Doyle and White, the singing duo, and Martyn and Florence, comedy jugglers, comprise the vaudeville portion of the program. Of the pictures, one entitled "The Stuff Dreams Are Made Of" is about as novel a comedy picture as has ever been manufactured, it being a burlesque drama, with the "villainous" villain and "heroist" hero it is possible to imagine, with most impossible escapes and rescues, and all done in a genuinely artistic burlesque style, making the subject most ludicrous. A particularly interesting event in connection with this picture is the attitude taken by the Oriental patrons, the majority, being unaccustomed to burlesque, believing the picture an attempt at genuineness. They loud in their exclamations of disgust when the hero beats the prison door and the scenery falls, and when the villainess locks the heroine in a mammoth safe and without effort tosses the safe through the window, only to be caught in the waiting arms of the hero as the safe reaches the ground. These things are not grasped by the average Oriental, and their comments on the picture are a good part of the performance.

LIVING ART STUDIES TO REPRODUCE PAINTINGS

Patterson's Art Studios will present their first change of act at tonight's performances at the Liberty Theater, it being an entirely new departure in the posing line. Reproductions of famous paintings, in colors, will be the nature of the change from last week's reproductions of famous statuary, and tonight's turn is said to be even more artistic and interesting than the initial offering of Patterson's aggregation.

The Lancaster operatic seven are on the last week of their local engagement and continue to please with their excellent singing, and these turns, in addition to a very good program of moving pictures, make up a very good evening's entertainment.

AT THE HAWAII.

That "thrill" promised by the management to the "cool, cozy and comfortable" Hawaii Theater, must have been felt by the large audience last night. S.R.O. tickets were sold at both shows and then everyone couldn't get in who wanted to. As a story of piveval passions worked out in gestures and actions, instead of words, in "Tragedy of the Desert" is a blue-ribbon winner. The scenes fairly transport one away from the conventionalities, and the smell and burning glare of the desert sands pervade everything. Two other reels, a western drama and a good comedy, rest the patrons after the tenseness of "The Tragedy." The same bill repeats tonight and gives the ones who missed it last night another chance.

Frank West, alias Walter Stacy, alleged safe-blower, now under arrest in St. Louis, is said to be the man responsible for a bank robbery over a year ago in New Westminster, B. C. It is reported that the Rock Island system and the Moffit line of Colorado are making efforts to enter California.

WINDS MAKE VIRILE MEN
 American Professor Says Canadians and Americans Will Be Supreme
 LONDON, England, Sept. 15.—Professor Willis Moore, chief of the United States weather bureau, declared recently in London that climatic conditions on the North American continent would ultimately produce a race that in mental and physical energy will outstrip the nations of the past. Professor Moore bases his theory on the fact that the northwest winds of the American continent, blowing with great velocity from an extreme altitude of vast electrical potentiality, creates more ozone in the proper state for human breathing than in any other place in the world.
 The continental climate of America differs from the marine climates of Europe in that most of the winds originate over land areas and that they carry oxygen which is really transmitted into ozone by electricity, whereas the marine winds of the British Isles and the European continent are lacking in the means for releasing this virile element. Consequently, Prof. Moore maintains that the American race can no more control that nervous energy which is his peculiar characteristic than he can stop his own breathing.
 According to Professor Moore, race efficiency depends upon the following meteorological formula: The higher the wind velocity the greater the downward component of motion whereby six molecules of oxygen of two atoms each are changed into three molecules of ozone of three atoms each, in which form they enter the human lungs and drive the physical and mental engines at the maximum rate.
 This is what the northwest winds are doing for Canada and most of the United States, which need fear no competition from the rest of the world as long as the winds continue to blow.
 Professor Moore also accounts for the successful assimilation by America of so many foreigners by this theory, and on its account he predicts that the North American type will become more and more pronounced in the future.

GIRLS' PAPER.
 The Gwinnett Journal, published at Lawrenceville, Ga., asserts that it is the only newspaper in the United States which is got out exclusively by girls. Miss Carrie Gauge operates a linotype machine and sets up the paper. Her sister, Miss Eva Gauge, is foreman of the job office and turns out the display advertising matter and the job printing. The young women get the news, make up the forms, run the engine and operate the folder and the mailing machine. They support a widowed mother and several young brothers and sisters.

PEARL HARBOR LINE WILL BE HASTENED

After the annual meeting and election of officers of the Pearl Harbor Traction company, reported in yesterday's Star-Bulletin, President L. J. Tenney Peck lost no time in getting things going. As mentioned yesterday and previously, the necessary contract between the company and the superintendent of public works had been long in abeyance. Mr. Peck took this matter up first, and after a conference of two hours with Governor Frear came away with the document in his pocket.

The governor had made a few modifications of the instrument, and it will now be submitted to the directors of the company for acceptance. Mr. Peck said this morning that a meeting of the directors would be held within a day or two, adding, "We want to get to work on construction as soon as possible."

HAWAIIAN MUSICIANS BUSY IN CALIFORNIA

The following items are from the Woodland, Cal., Democrat of Sept 24. Manager Hayes of the Dreamland has booked the Hawaiian singers for Colusa and Oroville. He will accompany them to Oroville, where they will appear on the last three nights of this week. Mr. Hayes will give the patients at the sanitarium an opportunity of hearing them Wednesday.

The popular Hawaiian musicians who are visiting Woodland this week have consented to render a musical program in the Julian restaurant this evening at the dinner hour, between 5:30 and 6:30. Their concert will not interfere in any way with their theatrical engagement, and will be in the nature of a treat to the patrons of the Julian restaurant, now under the management of F. M. Silvey.

GIANTS' GREAT SHOWING FAILS TO SHAKE FAITH IN RED SOX

Local Fans Giving as Good as 10 to 6 That Boston Will Win the World's Series—Spectators Had Every License to Become Maniacs Over Such a Game as Was Played in Old Beanville Yesterday

What a battle it must have been between the Giants and Red Sox yesterday! Eleven innings of a slugging, run-getting game, with first one team in the lead and then the other, and the spectators turned into raving maniacs when New York broke the tie in the tenth and Boston came right back in the second half and sewed the game up again. No wonder the crowd went wild. No wonder that the press dispatches say that such a game was never before seen.

Honolulu fans are working up a lot of excitement over the series, although even the bloc scores are denied us at this long range. In spite of the Giants' great showing on the Boston lot, public opinion here still makes the Red Sox strong favorites, and with one game tucked away several bets were made at 10 to 6 that they would win the series.

The following account of yesterday's game is by wireless to the Advertiser: BOSTON, Massachusetts, October 9.—For eleven full innings here this afternoon, the Boston Red Sox and the New York Giants treated 30,000 persons in this park and millions more throughout the country to one of the greatest and most sensational contests ever played in the history of the world's series.

The score at the end of the eleventh inning was six to six, and the game was called on account of darkness. It was a battle such as has never been seen before. The huge crowd, the dramatic incidents and heart-rending features made maniacs of every man, woman and child that had crowded into the great baseball inclosure.

This leaves the world's series so far playing in Boston's favor, they having won the first game yesterday in New York. The second game will be played on the Boston field tomorrow. Christy Mathewson started the twirling for the National Leaguers. He pitched sterling ball, but the Red Sox sluggers found him often enough in so three runs in the first, one in the fifth and another in the eighth. The visitors were almost powerless for a time before Collins, but they fought like bulldogs and at the end of the first half of the eighth inning had one run lead.

The Bostonians then tied it in their half, as the thousands yelled. Collins was yanked out in the eighth and went to the bench in tears, while Hall went in his place. Hall pitched until the tenth, when he was fanned out of the game too, Bedient replacing him. In the tenth inning New York scored on Nerkle's triple and a sacrifice fly by McCormack, who batted for Fletcher. Boston came right back in their half and tied the score on Tris Speaker's hit through Schaefer, which went for three bases, and Duffy Lewis' clean double.

The Red Sox went into today's game with a distinct advantage over their New York opponents, gained in their stirring victory in the first game of the series, played on the Polo Grounds in New York yesterday. This advantage came not only from the great moral support resulting from their hard-fought victory in the initial test.

Weather conditions for the second game were almost as good as those which prevailed in New York yesterday. The following was the lineup: Boston—Hooper, rf., Yerkes, 2b., Speaker, cf., Lewis, lf., Garner, 3b., Stahl, 1b., Wagner, ss., Carrigan, c., Collins, p., Hall, p., Bedient, p. New York—Snodgrass, lf., Dove, 2b., Becker, cf., Murray, rf., Markle, 1b., Herzog, 3b., Meyers, c., Fletcher, ss., Mathewson, p., Wilson, c.

Umpires—Klem, Evans, Rigler and O'Loughlin.

Score by innings
New York . . . 0 1 0 0 0 0 3 1 0 1 0—6
Boston . . . 3 0 0 0 1 0 0 1 0 1 0—6
Summary—Stolen bases, Hooper, Herzog, Stahl, Snodgrass. Three-base hits, Herzog, Murray, Yerkes, Merkle, Speaker. Two-base hits, Snodgrass, Hooper, Murray, Herzog, Lewis. (2). Sacrifice hit, Gardner. Sacrifice flies, Herzog, McCormack. Struck out, by Collins, 4; by Bedient, 1; by Mathewson, 4. First base on balls, off Herzog, 4; by Bedient, 1. Pitchers' records, 5 hits, 3 runs off Collins in 7 1-3 innings; 3 hits, 1 run off Hall in 2 2-3 innings. Hit by pitched ball, Snodgrass, by Bedient. Double play, Fletcher to Herzog.

YOUNG JACK O'BRIEN IS A SPEED MARVEL

GENTLEMEN, we have with us this evening Young Philadelphia Jack O'Brien. This young lightweight from the unconscious city is a brother of the famous "Phil Jawn," who a few years ago won the light heavyweight championship by stopping Bob Fitzsimmons in Frisco. But, back to the biscuits. This O'Brien is the ORIGINAL Jack of the family. His big "brother Jawn" was merely nicknamed with that monicker, his right name being Joseph. Young John is really the surprise of the wear in fistuicuff. Do you know of another lad 17 years of age who has fought all the champions of his class, figured in over thirty battles and was knocked down but once and has never lost a decision? That's the record of this youngster. And just remember that the same steady, industrious work done by this youngster in any honorable line of endeavor would have made a much greater man of him.

George Cohan. There was a roar of laughter as the crowd read it. Mr. Foy failed to show, and O'Brien a bit up in the air, called upon his kid brother to fill in. He did. That was his first professional appearance, and he won hands down. After that Jawn, thinking he had a new champ in the family, sent the kid out, an din seven months he fought thirty battles, including six and ten-round bouts with Tommy Carey, Tommy Langdon, Young Brown, Leach Cross, Knockout Brown, Young Erne and Ad Wolgaast. The latter was the only opponent able to score a knockdown. When we stop to think of what other great fighters were doing at the age of 18 we pull in a long breath. Joe Gans was opening oysters and boxing "prelims" at night; Fitzsimmons was hooping a blacksmith; Bat Nelson was a waiter by day and doing "prelims" at night; Jack Johnson was a painter in Galveston and inspecting chicken coops by moonlight. This O'Brien boy is meeting champions.

BONEHEAD PLAYS TOLD FIRSTHAND

A feature baseball series captioned "My Worst Blunder" in which big leaguers describe first hand the famous bonehead plays of history is running in several of the eastern papers now. Jimmie Lavender, who jumped into fame by breaking Rube Marquara's winning streak, thinks the worst blunder that can be made is to disobey instruction from the bench. This is his story:

The worst mistake that I recall since I have been playing professional ball was in thinking that the manager's order didn't go when there was a chance to make a play. You know, a lot of times a young player disobeys orders when he doesn't mean to do it at all, but makes the break because he believes the manager would want him to change the play under the new circumstances. It was that way with me. It was a simple little play and one that passed almost unnoticed—except by the manager. It happened this way. There were men on first and second bases, and no one out, and I was pitching to Providence. We all expected a sacrifice, and as we were two runs to the good I figured on hitting the bunt to third base. The manager came to me and said, "If he bunts to you, shoot to first." I thought he was afraid of me making a bad play to third. The ball was bunted toward third base. I was on it in a second and shot to third, forcing the runner there. I thought it was a swell play. The batter who came up hit a three-bagger and tied the score. Some one hit him home, or he got there on an error, and we were beaten. The manager called me for making the play to third. I argued that the play was right. Then he explained that the latter who made the three-base hit was the man he feared most, as he was a clean up hitter. He wanted me to throw to first, make sure of retiring the batter on the sacrifice, and then pass the long hitter, believing that the batter play. When I threw the runner out at third he figured on taking a

PRESIDENT ELIOT URGES MARRIAGE WHILE YOUNG

In Address He Advises Freshmen to Look Forward to Being Grandfathers

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.), Sept. 26.—President Eliot of Harvard is an advocate of early marriage, and in addressing members of the Harvard freshman class today on "Looking Ahead," admitted it. He also commended late marriage as the great evil of modern times.

"Look ahead to marriage," Dr. Eliot advised, "and I should say the sooner the better. Late marriage is an evil and in the life of educated men it has become far more serious than in the life of the laboring man. Postponed marriage is the great evil of modern life. It is not a valid excuse to say that you wish to give the girl you are to marry as much luxury as she had in the home of her parents. If the girl has been brought up in too much luxury the sooner she is given a chance to live differently the better. You should look forward to being a father. Then, when you are 30 to

BIKE RACING CLUB TO BE STARTED HERE

Besides being something of a runner, Soldier King is a speedy wheelman, and since his return from the Coast he has been talking of getting the sport back on a solid footing here. King is ready to launch a club, or rather two clubs, for he has stirred up enthusiasm in both the white and the Japanese sporting community. The idea is to bank the turns at Athletic Park with portable plank "saucers" and run off sprints and relays. The plan is expected to take definite shape within a few days.

DUKE TO START TRIP NEXT THURSDAY

Duke Kahanamoku and W. T. Rawlins expect to leave next Tuesday for a trip to Maui and Hawaii that will give the good sports of those islands a chance to see the champion in action. Some of the out-of-town sportsmen who contributed liberally to the fund that enabled Duke to go out and win fame for himself and Hawaii have never laid eyes on him and they are certainly entitled to a look for their money. Duke is looking forward to the chance of meeting old and new friends, and was delighted when the proposition of making a swing round the group was first suggested.

Duke and Rawlins will go to Puenene, Lahaina, Kahului and Hana on Maui, and to Hilo on Hawaii. They are particularly anxious to visit Hana, as one of the very first subscriptions to the Duke fund came from there. Possibly other points will be taken on the trip, and at each and every place Duke will give a swimming exhibition, and give his friends a chance to give up his strokes and styles. W. L. Stevenson has already been reached by letter, and he will soon after the start of the trip. Duke on the Valley Island and the Big Island the champion's visit is being looked forward to with the keenest anticipation.

CHICAGO LIKES CHINESE TEAM

Though defeated, the All-Chinese put up a stiff argument against the Chicago team of the United States League in the Windy City September 22. The team on the home ground yesterday is evidently playing great ball, and the Chicago papers spoke highly on the work of the Honolulu players.

The following is from the Chicago Record-Herald: China's flag was lowered at Gunter Park yesterday when the Hawaiian team of Orientals lost to the local United States Leaguers, 8 to 6 in a game that uncovered some brilliant fielding by the visitors. The Chinese made a brilliant rally in their half of the ninth which netted two runs, three clean hits in a row off Joe Bradshaw threatening to topple that popular flinger from his perch. The rally ended when Daly snagged a passed third strike on Sing Hung and threw him out at first.

Two passes and a fielder's choice gave the Honolulu players the first count of the game and they breezed along until the third, when an error and two doubles by Schall and Jantzen came together for a pair of runs. Three hits and a pass in the fifth gave the Sams a commanding lead and they added two more in the eighth.

The Chinese players put up a stiff argument, although they started out poorly. Kan yen, the backstop of the Orientals, proved a wonder at cutting down men on bases, while the chinks skimmed the sacks like birds. The same clubs will hook up again today the scene of battle shifting to Comiskey Park. Bert Seeley, the former Washington pitcher, and Jim McDonough, will be in the points for the locals, while Luck Yee and Kan yen will be the Chinese battery.

40 years old you should look forward to serving your country. The time will come when you will be 50 or 60 years of age. Then it will be time for you to be a grandfather. That is a thing to look forward to, and you had better begin looking forward to it now. Postponed marriage has the great disadvantage that a man cannot begin to have grandchildren until he is too old to enjoy them.

ST. LOUIS HAS A FINE SOCCER SQUAD

Catholic College Will Be Formidable Factor in Association Football This Season—Brother Elmer Confident

St. Louis College expects a championship soccer team this year and from the looks of their material they stand an excellent chance of having one.

Last year the championship game between St. Louis and Kamehameha ended in a draw with the honors equally divided, but St. Louis hopes to capture all the honors this year. When Brother Elmer, who is coaching the team, called for the soccer players of the college, the response was a splendid turnout of twenty-five boys; ten last year's players and the rest new material.

The men who will compose the first team have not yet been definitely chosen, but the ones who look like first team men are: Foster Robinson, captain and star player last year who will probably be re-elected captain this year; Manuel Lopes, former forward, will probably hold the same position this year; Chinito and Moriyama, forwards last year, very likely the same this year; Honium, probably forward this year; George Fendó, new man, trying out for forward in the left wing; Henry Hickey, new man, trying out for center halfback; Abraham Akau, last year's man, will probably be right halfback; Cockett, a new man, is trying for left halfback. The fullbacks will probably be Frank Marciel and Thomas Hore, both last year's men. Hore is a splendid kicker. E. E. Lovell will very likely play goal.

With such a lineup it is no wonder that St. Louis is confident. Play Kam and High. This team will play a series with the Kamehameha school team, and the first game will probably come off in the latter part of November or the first part of December. It is the intention of the coach to have this series completed before the holidays, if possible. Another series will be played with a McKinley team, but will not come off until after the holidays, as McKinley intends to play her football series before she begins the soccer.

The second team is at present arranging a schedule of games to be played with grammar school soccer teams. Last year was the first year St. Louis ever put out a soccer team and to have an entirely new team play a championship game to a draw is quite a record and one that any school might be proud of. Three of the boys who played on that team are no longer at St. Louis. They are Richard Swan, star halfback of last year; C. Kuhlmann, a forward; and William Hollinger, forward in the left wing.

The loss of these men left quite a hole in the team but Brother Elmer is confident that he has men who can fill their positions very successfully. Brother Elmer is a soccer enthusiast and greatly prefers that game to football. In speaking of his preference he remarked: "Soccer is a great game. It does not involve the danger that football does, and yet it gives as much, or more, exercise. Of course some of the players get a crack on the shins once in awhile, but that cannot be compared to broken legs or arms. I like soccer."

IDAHO WOMEN OPPOSE TEDDY

BOISE, Id., Sept. 20.—The expected call for a woman's Republican state convention to nominate a state, county and congressional ticket composed entirely of women was not made today. The women, however, still are firm in their declaration to separate from the men, and their plans are expected to take definite form in the next few days. It developed today that the action of the women in planning to nominate a straight women's Republican ticket was brought about primarily because certain nominees expressed themselves in favor of Roosevelt, after they had been nominated on the regular Republican ticket.

SPECIAL RULES THAT GOVERN PLAY FOR BASEBALL TITLE

Yesterday's tie game between the Giants and Red Sox has brought many queries from local fans as to the rulings in the case of tie and postponed games, and other special legislation in regard to the world's series. For the information of close students of the game, who wish to understand the ins and outs of the banner baseball event of the year, the ruling of the National Commission in regard to the title games, as contained in a special bulletin issued September 29, are herewith printed:

The public is cautioned against paying higher prices for admission than those fixed by the commission, which has hearty cooperation from the municipal authorities in each city in the suppression of ticket scalping.

Play will begin on each grounds at 2 p. m.

A rain check coupon will be attached to every ticket placed on sale.

The official ball of the National League will be used on the National League grounds and the official ball of the American League on the American League grounds.

The revised rules of the commission for the conduct of the series are as follows:

A scheduled game postponed for legal cause, called before it becomes a regulation game or terminating with the score tied, shall, unless the schedule explicitly provides to the contrary, be played off on the grounds for which it is scheduled before the succeeding game for the other city shall be contested, and the dates assigned for subsequent games shall thereupon be moved forward.

Before the commencement of the sixth game the commission shall determine by lot when and where the seventh game shall be played in the event that an additional game be required to decide the winner of the series.

The secretary of the commission, as required by section 7 of the regulations, jointly enacted for the government of the world's series by the National and American leagues, shall notify all eligible players as soon as it is definitely ascertained which teams will compete that they will be held

Interested Fan: "Well, how's the team doing? What's their batting average?"

Tired Manager: "A lot better than you. I've pulled it down to three nights a week."

Neither of the contesting clubs shall give or pay any bonus or prize in or all of its players before or after the completion of the series, and a player released by a club to another club in the same league shall not participate in the proceeds of such series as a present or reward from his former teammates, the releasing club or any of its officials.

The official scorers appointed by the commission are Francis C. Richter of Philadelphia and T. Taylor Spink of St. Louis.

MAUI NOTES

The gymnasium committee of the Alexander House Gymnasium has decided upon the inter-city dance of the fall and winter season. The dances at the gymnasium have been most popular in the past, and it is expected that this one will be one of the best ever given. The price will be only 50 cents for the gentlemen. Ladies will be admitted without charge.

The improvements in the road between Wailuku and Lahaina are making this highway much more acceptable to travelers. Hugh Howell has the contract and Frank Sommerfeld is the foreman on the job. The sharp turns just beyond McGregor's Landing, on the way to Lahaina, are being taken out, the gulches filled up, with the result that soon there will be a fine piece of straight road where formerly there were six or seven very abrupt turns and an exceedingly narrow wagon track. The other bad corners toward Lahaina have been somewhat rounded off, with the result that three automobiles could pass on many of these turns now. The expectations of the Maui public are that in a comparatively short time the road from Lahaina to Paia will be all macadam and one of the best roads in Hawaii. There are unusual possibilities for scenic beauty along this road, and Maui hopes to have it an attraction to travelers.

Miss Sue Starkweather will be one of the teachers in the Wailuku Union Sunday school from the middle of this month. She is an excellent kindergarten teacher, and the Sunday school is fortunate to have her on its roll of teachers. Mrs. O. J. Whitehead is the superintendent. She has had years of training for this work and is a highly successful teacher. Miss Caroline Scholtz, another teacher of excellent experience, is enrolled among the teaching force of the school this fall. Miss Clara Townsend of the Baldwin House, Lahaina, was a Wailuku visitor over Sunday. She was a guest of the Alexander House ladies.

The ladies of the Women's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold their annual bazaar on the 18th of November at the Alexander House Gymnasium. This affair that the ladies of the Wailuku Episcopal church give is always a great event on Maui. People attend from all over the island. Large sums of money are always raised, which are devoted to the work of the church.

Miss Louise Pratt, who was so seriously hurt last week while going to Keahua to her work in the public school, is somewhat improved. She completely regained consciousness on Sunday, but was not allowed to hold conversation with anyone because of her weak condition. On Monday she began to get her strength back, and the improvement has been steady throughout today. The fear that her friends had concerning her permanent recovery is now past. There seem to be no very serious injuries.

The improvements on the premises of the Wailuku school yard have been far greater than were anticipated when the work was first begun. The grade is now pretty well established, and it corresponds with the grade that Supervisor W. F. Pogue established for his own residence lot. This same grade the Union church adopted. Last week Dan H. Case finished grading his land to conform, and now the school premises are well under way of being completed, so that the whole will be a remarkably beautiful stretch of excellent lawn. There is hardly a piece in the whole of Hawaii covering four separate lots that for extent and beauty can be found to equal this stretch in Wailuku. This single improvement did much to win for Wailuku the name it has of being one of the prettiest towns in the Territory. Public spirit and a working together will still further enhance the beauty of the county seat of Maui.

MONTENEGRINS ROUT TURKS

[Associated Press Cable] PODGORITZA, Montenegro, Oct. 9.—After desperate fighting near here on the border the Turkish army has been routed today and is retreating down the shores of Lake Scutari.

Prince Peter, in command of the Montenegrin army, opened the battle and attacked the enemy, taking the initiative. The Montenegrin army has followed the Turks and a series of battles is now in progress with the Turkish troops making ineffectual efforts to withstand the victorious Christians.

Over-Night FEDERAL Wireless To the Advertiser

Confirmation of the rupture of diplomatic relations with Turkey or both Bulgaria and Serbia has been received in Paris, according to a news agency dispatch from that city. A Bulgarian force is reported to have crossed the Turkish frontier, and King Ferdinand is said to be hurrying southward to take command of the Allied Balkan troops.

Miss Anna Klumpke, the celebrated artist and pupil of Rosa Bonheur, returned to San Francisco on the steamship Lurline this morning, after a month's sojourn in Honolulu, to be present at the reception to be given in her honor next week by the Laurel Hill Club and the Pacific Coast Woman's Press Association.

A strong rumor was current in Paris this morning that Bulgaria had declared war on Turkey, but neither the Ottoman Empire embassy nor the Bulgarian embassy has received any confirmation.

First Lieut. William G. Ball, Second Infantry, stationed at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii, registered in division headquarters, San Francisco, today. He is on leave of absence.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

What glasses are to weak eyes, Cascarets are to weak bowels—a 10-cent box will truly amaze you.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.

WALTER G. SMITH LECTURING IN SEATTLE

Seattle Post-Intelligencer, Sept. 26.—Walter Gifford Smith, of Honolulu who has returned to the states to deliver a series of lectures on the islands, is at the Rainier-Grand. A product of the United States, he has been actively engaged on newspaper work in the islands for several years.

Seattle (Wash.) Times, Sept. 26.—Walter Gifford Smith, editor of a Honolulu publication and a publicity agent of Hawaii, will lecture at the New Chamber of Commerce tomorrow evening on "The Hawaiian Wonderland." This is the first of a series of free lectures which Mr. Smith will give in Seattle.

Accompanying the lecture tomorrow evening 120 stereopticon slides will be shown and a 3000-foot moving picture film, showing views of Kilanea volcano in action and other interesting sights. The volcano picture was taken on the shores of the boiling lava lake. Moving pictures will also be shown of the annual winter carnival, surf riding at the beach of Waikiki, shark fishing outside the reef, scenes in the pineapple fields and the opening of Pearl Harbor by the United States armored cruiser California.

LIFE IN HAWAII AT THE PANTAGES

S. E. Call, Sept. 26.—The Pantages program for next week will be led off by an act depicting life in Hawaii. It is called "An Evening in Hawaii" and is participated in by Hawaiian vocalists, instrumental dancers, and comedians. Lloyd Childs has produced the piece and provides a reel of motion pictures taken in the islands.

RHEUMATIC SUFFERERS RELIEVED.

Rheumatic pains are aggravated by cold, damp weather and man-handling. Middle-aged people are made miserable during much of the winter and spring months because of this. Their suffering may very much be relieved, and in many cases permanently, by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm and massaging it parts with the palm of the hand each application. This relieves the pain and makes sleep and rest possible. For sale by all dealers. Benson-Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

SHE SUFFERED TEN MONTHS

Mrs. Blankenship Tells of Her Restoration to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elliston, Va.—"I feel it my duty to express my thanks for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I was a sufferer from female troubles and had been confined in bed over one third of my time for ten months. I could not do my housework and had fainting spells so that my husband could not leave me alone for five minutes at a time. "Now I have been restored to health and it has come from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Whenever I see a suffering woman I want to tell her what this medicine has done for me and I will always speak a good word for it."—Mrs. ROBERT BLANKENSHIP, Elliston, Va., Montgomery Co.

Was Helpless—Now Well. Trenton, Mo.—"About two years ago I had female trouble and inflammation so bad that I was literally helpless and had to be tended like a baby. I could not move my body or lift my foot for such severe pains that I had to scream. I was very nervous and had a weakness. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped me to such an extent that I think there is no medicine like it for female troubles. I am up and able to do my work again and I give you full permission to publish my letter for the sake of other suffering women."—Mrs. W. T. PURNELL, 320-10th St., Trenton, Mo.

CHAMBER SHIES AT CHANGING CANAL NAME

Honolulu business men are as canny as Scots when a new fancy is flashed at them, and so it happened that the Chamber of Commerce yesterday shied at the request of the Spokane chamber to endorse its recommendation that the name of the Panama Canal be changed to "American" Canal.

Past President E. I. Spalding said, when the Spokane letter and resolution were read, that he saw no objection to the name Panama. The canal crossed the Isthmus of Panama, hence the name seemed quite appropriate. "We should be cautious," said Mr. Spalding, "until we know what other chambers of commerce on the Pacific Coast think about it."

C. H. Cooke then moved that the secretary write to the chambers of San Francisco, Los Angeles and other Coast cities, and ascertain what they think of the proposal. This was carried unanimously.

Vice President Frank C. Atherton, presiding, spoke briefly of the recent conference at Hilo, saying the full reports in the newspapers made it unnecessary to go into details. "A very good spirit of cooperation was evident there," Mr. Atherton said. "It was a good get-together meeting. A proposal was made to organize a Territorial chamber of commerce, which was referred to the different commercial bodies represented. An invitation will be issued by the trustees of this chamber for the conference of next year, which is to be held in Honolulu the last week in September, Regatta week. The secretary has suggested that a special committee on the conference should be appointed."

It was agreed that it was too soon to appoint the committee now, but that the matter should be kept in mind. An invitation to members to attend the flag-raising at Liliuokalani school, Kaimuki, on Friday afternoon next, was received and filed.

W. H. Hoogs resigned from membership. Those attending were F. C. Atherton, E. I. Spalding, E. H. Wodehouse, C. H. Cooke, E. E. Paxton, J. D. Dole, F. Klamp and H. P. Wood, secretary.

I. W. W. THREATEN TO INVADE HONOLULU NOW

Coming to join in the political campaign and speak on the street corners, the Industrial Workers of the World are going to invade Honolulu, according to their "advance agent" who arrived here a few days ago. This "leader," as he calls himself, caused considerable trouble in San Diego recently by announcing that he and other members of the aggregation were going to speak on the streets in a campaign to further their purpose. And now he comes to Honolulu looking over the lay of the land with the object of stirring up something here. He said that Sheriff Jarrett should be expected a visit from him when he informed that the bunch of trouble makers could be expected here soon to dispense political music and do the soap box act on the street corners. According to Jarrett, the one way to handle a gang like this is to let them talk all they want to, and he believes that if they were given this privilege they would soon forget all about it. The last place in the world where the "I Won't Workers" would be able to get a footing would be in Honolulu.

DEFAULT, NOTED TENOR, REVELS AT WAIKIKI

M. Paul Dufault, the tenor, who will appear with Countess de Cisneros and James Liebling tomorrow night at the Hawaiian Opera House, is an excellent swimmer and has been reveling in the excellent sea bathing at the beach.

After several months spent in New Zealand and Australia, where it was either too hot or too cold to swim, Dufault received the news with joy that he could swim to his heart's content here and not endanger his health or voice.

The surboard has its fascination for him, but he has not tried to ride a breaker yet, although he declares he will before he leaves the islands. He thinks it is best to postpone the adventure until his concert engagement is over, in case he should have bad luck, as many other new beginners do, it will not interfere with his appearance Friday and Monday evenings.

Tickets are on sale at the Hawaii Promotion Committee rooms.

DOLL BRIDE WILL BE WELL ATTENDED

Mary Ellen, the doll bride, will be attended by one hundred bridesmaids and flower girls. This will probably be the largest bridal party which has ever been witnessed in the islands, and especially so in a girl-land. When one comes to think about it, one hundred pretty girls at a wedding would cause quite a sensation, and just what one hundred daintily-dressed dolls can do will be known Saturday, when the King's Daughters hold their sale at the Duke Kahanamoku's wedding suit is progressing nicely, and he has quite recovered from the shock of yesterday, for it would certainly be disastrous to be married in bathing trunks.

LESS BOWEL TROUBLE IN HONOLULU

Honolulu people have found out that A SINGLE DOSE of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as compounded in Adler-Ka, the German appendicitis remedy, relieves constipation, sour stomach, or gas on the stomach INSTANTLY. This simple mixture antiseptizes the digestive organs and draws off the impurities, and it is surprising how QUICKLY it helps. The Hollister Drug Co.

MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN FIGURES LARGELY IN DEMOCRATIC TALK

Bourbons Open Campaign to Large Crowd at Aala Park

Eulogizing Democracy and predicting overwhelming victory of the Democrats this year, not only on the mainland, but also in Hawaii, Democratic nominees on legislative and county tickets addressed a mass meeting held last night in Aala Park. Bertram G. Rivenburgh, mayor's secretary, conducted the meeting, which formally opened the Bourbon campaign.

All the candidates who were introduced to the assembly predicted Democratic victory in November. They were emphatic in denouncing the Republican administration.

The banana and mosquito campaign, together with the ousting of the Portuguese settlers on Punchbowl by alleged order of the Territorial authorities, were prominently mentioned to the voters, who were asked to defeat the Republican candidates and vote the straight Democratic ticket.

Colonel C. J. McCarthy, candidate for treasurer, spoke briefly of the candidacy of the Democratic nominees. One by one he pointed out to the voters the splendid qualifications of the regular Democratic nominees who are seeking the support of the voters.

He said that a new battleship named Honolulu, representing the voters of Hawaii, Maui, Oahu and Kauai, was now ready for a battle, with Link McCandless as the commander-in-chief. He remarked that McCandless, if favored with election in November, will not desert his position in Washington, but that he will stay by his guns, protecting the interests of Hawaii and its people.

Judge A. A. Wilder said that most of the Republican nominees were his friends. He thought, however, that they will not do what's right for the people after they are elected in November. He predicted Governor Woodrow Wilson's election this year, and added that Hawaii will go Democratic, too. He concluded by saying that District Attorney Breckons, one of his intimate friends, should be removed because of his pernicious activity in local politics.

Rose and the Bananas.
Deputy Sheriff Rose said that during the banana campaign he, as a citizen, strongly opposed the wholesale destruction of his bananas in Manoa. That on that account, he added, his bananas were finally left undisturbed. He invited the luan managers to call on him for bananas.

A. J. Wirtz, candidate for the Senate, made his maiden speech last night. He praised the Democratic doctrine of freedom of speech and freedom of the press. He added that it was the Democratic party that first advocated the primary election. He denounced the Republicans assembled in the Chicago convention. Wirtz was decorated with a ginger lei.

J. M. Peopoe told the people that the Republicans brought the mosquitoes into the Territory, and that if they were elected again in November they will bring in some more insects which will be detrimental to the people.

Colonel C. P. Iaukea denounced the Republican administration for ousting the Portuguese settlers on Punchbowl, who, he said, had preferential rights to live on the land.

S. S. Paxon was introduced as a "sewing machine man." He spoke briefly on woman's suffrage, school buildings, and said that the present superintendent on public instruction should be replaced by a man who is more competent and accurate in making estimates for school purposes.

B. N. Kahalepuna promised to discharge faithfully the duties of the office of county clerk if elected in November.

"Mau No Ka Oi."
J. L. Coke, a former Mauian, was greeted with a song of "Mau No Ka Oi." Early in the evening he was decorated with a beautiful lei of roses. His speech, in Hawaiian, declared that, though he is white, his aloha is for the Hawaiians.

J. Asch promised, if elected, to work for the establishment of more public hospitals with modern equipment.

Supervisor McClellan thanked the voters for their support and election in the past.

M. C. Pacheco said that if elected a supervisor he will try his best to prevent extravagance in public office by the board of supervisors. He condemned the present board for inefficiency.

E. H. F. Wolters, candidate for supervisor, denounced the Republican administration for the heavy taxation now placed on the poor people. He said that the present board of supervisors has been spending public money in a "hoodlum" way.

H. M. Kaniho, nominee for representative, said as follows: "I now belong to a Democratic regiment which can make the Republicans 'sneeze' at night." He said that the Republican administration spent $70,000 foolishly in the banana and mosquito campaign and that as soon as the fund was paid, he proclaimed, the mosquitoes disappeared.

"You Republicans who are locking at me now, vote for me!" he shouted. "Last time the Republicans told you nothing about appropriating money for the extermination of the mosquito, but after their election they did things to suit themselves. In doing so, however, you suffered considerably. I advise you to vote for me and the Democratic ticket." He said that he will work hard for Link McCandless.

Lester Petrie asked for support on election day. D. Kupieha promised to be a "watchdog" in the legislature if elected in November.
Bill Jarrett, candidate for sheriff, as usual, said very little. He thanked the voters and asked them to support the Democratic candidate, so that the general public will receive benefit.

Mayor Fern said, "I was very much in doubt as to whether I would win in November, had my friends Ebon P. Low," pointed at him, "been nominated as a Republican for mayor." He said that as a public servant he wanted all his political mates on the same ticket elected in November. He asked the voters to vote for Link McCandless and the entire ticket of the Democratic party.

SEVERE LAW PROPOSED AGAINST FRUIT FLY

San Francisco Examiner, Sept. 26: Special legislation will have to be enacted by Congress if the Mediterranean fruit fly is to be kept out of California, according to Dr. C. L. Marlatt, chief entomologist of the Department of Agriculture, who arrived from Honolulu on the liner Sierra yesterday.

Dr. Marlatt, who was accompanied by his family, was sent to Hawaii more than a month ago by Secretary Wilson following an appropriation of $20,000 by Congress to assist in keeping the fruit fly out of the Pacific Coast States.

As Hawaii is a Territory the Federal Government has the right to take any steps deemed advisable to keep the pest from the mainland.

It is expected that any legislation which Congress may devise next winter will be based largely on a report which Dr. Marlatt has already sent to Washington.

This report will recommend that all persons who even attempt to ship restricted fruits out of Hawaii be fined and imprisoned. It is proposed that this law apply also to any person who attempts to carry any of this kind of fruit on board a vessel sailing from a Hawaiian port.

"The menace of the fruit fly is so great," Dr. Marlatt said, "and the damage to California and other States would be so enormous that it is now necessary to keep any infested fruit from even arriving at one of our docks.

"Shipments are now easily regulated, but it is not so easy to keep travelers and others from taking infested fruit to this and other ports.

"To make the quarantine effective it will be necessary for State and Federal officials to cooperate. This will be done."
