DEMOCRATS IN COMBINE AGAINST FREAR

Governor and Mott-Smith Are Slated for the Discard by Bourbon Senators
By C. S. ALBERT
(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31.—The nominations of Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith continue to be slated for the discard. Their situation was almost hopeless from the beginning. It has now grown worse. The Republicans can count themselves up and give the Democrats a good trouncing, but only if the fall of confirmation will not be the result of a good fight. But because the majority of the Senate will enable the minority to prevent final action.

FIREMEN COME TO DEFENSE OF CHIEF

The following letter was handed to the Star-Bulletin today:
Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin,
Sir:—Pertaining to the article in your paper yesterday relating to Chief Thurston and his working in politics, we, the undersigned firemen, would say this much:
"Why don't the newspapers tell all about the fire department?" asked Mr. Trent. They do. What Mr. Trent should have asked is this: "Why don't the newspapers tell what I want them to about the fire department?" We absolutely deny that Chief Thurston or any officer of the department pinned any Parker badges on a single one of us, and we defy Mr. Trent to prove that the chief used his position as a means to defeat Fern, and also to prove that he told any one of us for whom to vote.
As for the houses at Palama, what the chief said will be proved by the

BANKS, TRUST COMPANIES, ALL HAVE BIG YEAR

With the bumper crop of sugar and high prices for the commodity during the greater part of the year 1912, it is natural to suppose that a degree of general prosperity would prevail which would be reflected in the financial institutions. Statements of banks and trust company managers below leave no necessity for other elucidation of financial conditions here. Business on the Honolulu stock and bond exchange for a large part of the year was at record height, declining only in the last two or three months to a low plane for reasons which are fully set out in this paper.
"The year 1912 has been a very profitable one generally," said A. Lewis, Jr., manager of the Bank of Hawaii, to the Star-Bulletin. "The planting of the plantations of sugar and other crops interspersed with the holding of the land for freedom and power do things" that comes returning health.

LABOR BOARD CAN'T SEE HOW APPROVED

After reviewing and discussing correspondence between the Board and the Public Works Department concerning the plan for the harbor wharf at Kihikihi, the latter last April for the new wharf at Kihikihi, the board was unable to approve the plan. The board members expressed their dissatisfaction with the plan and their inability to see how it could be approved.

WILHELMINA STEALS AWAY

No blare of brazen instruments heralded the departure of the Matson liner Wilhelmina for San Francisco this morning.

The well known steamer silently cast off lines, and steamed away from Hackfeld wharf at ten o'clock, amid the mild manners demonstration of a small number of spectators, and those officials whose business made it imperative that they be on hand to speed the parting liner and its complement of passengers.

It was the morning after all right enough along the waterfront. Not a stone's throw from the entrance to the wharf, an alert group of gamblers indulged in a lively game of seven-come-eleven, while one of their number kept a keen lookout for police officers.

Society was somewhat represented at the wharf, while gathered at the after end of the vessel were a number of Portuguese and Spaniards, there to say farewell to departing countrymen.

The Wilhelmina sailed for San Francisco with sixty cabin and a score of steerage passengers. A fair sized cargo including sugar, preserved pineapples, bananas, coffee and sundries was stored below before the vessel pulled away from her berth.

The Wilhelmina is carrying a goodly assortment of mail destined for the mainland.

The vessel is due to arrive at the Coast port early Tuesday morning.

Alta Plays Return Engagement

The barkentine Alta, which for some years was known as the ship without a flag, is again on the coast to load a cargo of lumber for Australia. The windjammer made the run from Melbourne to the Sound in 78 days.

Originally sailing under the British flag, the Alta was placed under Chilean registry several years ago, and then sailed to Manila with the intention of securing registry under the American flag as soon as the islands were taken over by the United States and thus securing the country, which would ordinarily have been impossible to a vessel not built within its own waters. At that time and for long afterwards she was commanded by Captain W. Donaghy, well known here.

No secret was made of the fact that this was the scheme of the Alta's owners, and naturally objection was made to the granting of registry to her after the purchase of the islands from Spain. Meanwhile the barkentine having practically surrendered its Chilean registry by application to come in under the special arrangements made in the case of the shipping of the Philippines, had no flag and thus became famous in a sense.

Finally, however, the windjammer resumed the Chilean flag, and since then has plied in different Pacific ocean trades, coming frequently to the Golden Gate.

Maul a New Year Arrival

Bringing a small shipment of sundries and empty containers, the inter-island steamer Maul was an arrival this morning, her last port of call being Kona. The vessel returned with freight intended for discharge at Kona. Weather conditions at the latter port prevented this material being landed with any degree of safety. The vessel met with strong northeast winds and swell on the homeward voyage.

Hall Book From Kona.

Shipments of sugar, 20 sacks coconuts, crates of chickens and 28 packages of sundries were brought in the steamer W. G. Hall, that returned from regular ports of call along Kauai this morning. The vessel is reported to have encountered strong wind and seas.

Many Marvel at Guernsey's Shape

When the Norwegian freighter Guernsey sailed from Honolulu for the coast and arrived at Puget Sound, shipping men along the Sound are said to have marvelled much at the strange shape of the craft. The Guernsey is one of the few steamers seen here which have been built to dodge canal dues at Suez and other narrow. Her deck is a straight line on either side for almost her full length and is only half the width of the body of the ship, which has a tremendous "tumble home." While she is a freight in appearance, she carries almost as much freight as the average steamer of her size and has the advantage of a very small rating.

Jory is Some Decorator

Chief Officer J. W. Jory is sure some decorator. He is more or less responsible for the attractive appearance of the Matson Navigation liner on this morning, which vessel is being appropriately decorated in honor of the New Year.

Mr. Jory had much to do with the end of the harbor of colors.

WEATHER TODAY

present in Europe of Great Britain, where the market for disengaged tonnage is given careful attention with a view of purchasing another steamer of suitable passenger capacity and freight tonnage.

Although no announcement has been made of the intentions of the T. K. K. and Pacific Mail after the former's fleet is increased, it is believed that with two more ships in commission, a general change may be made in the trans-Pacific schedule. If the Pacific Mail places one more ship in commission, it will result in trans-Pacific liners sailing out of San Francisco at intervals of only six days.

Lost Deckload Off Japan

A cablegram received by Frank Waterhouse & Co. at Seattle is to the effect that the British steamship Ockley, which was carrying a cargo of flour, lumber and general freight from Portland for Hongkong and Manila, put in at Mororan, Japan in a disabled condition. The Ockley sailed from Seattle November 3. When she put in at Mororan her deckload of lumber was gone, four lifeboats had been crushed and the steam steering gear was damaged. Delay in the arrival of the freighter in the Orient had caused apprehension lest she had been lost at sea. The Ockley is the second vessel of the Waterhouse fleet to suffer damage in recent storms on the Pacific. The British steamship Lord Curzon arrived at Yokohama November 29 in a disabled condition, 16 days overdue.

On Deck at One Hundred and Four

In full possession of his faculties, taking a daily constitutional, and never tiring of telling of the number of times he has rounded Cape Horn, Captain David Jackson, who is described as "England's oldest seaman," celebrated his 104th birthday by entertaining at his home, Tooting, London, a party of 16 friends, all of whom were over three score and ten years of age. His sister, Mrs. Alice Smith, who is 72 years old, was one of the party, and enjoyed the aged skipper's birthday cake.

Heavy Freight in Steamer Columbian

Four thousand tons of freight from the east coast of the United States and transhipped into the American Hawaiian steamer Columbian at Salina Cruz, are destined for Honolulu. The big vessel is expected to arrive here on Saturday morning. In addition to the immense quantity of cargo from New York, the Columbian was also given much freight and supplies at Sound ports. It is now proposed to berth the vessel at Richard street wharf, there to leave the remainder of the freight.

Marama From the Colonies

The Canadian-Australian liner Marama, with a big through cargo is due to arrive off the port from the colonies about two o'clock today. The Marama is to be given a prompt dispatch for Vancouver and Victoria, according to the present intention of T. H. Davies and Company. A score of passengers have thus far been booked for the northwest ports.

Bark S. C. Allen Awaits Crew

Captain Mather, master of the American bark S. C. Allen awaits a crew to man his ship to the Sound. The Allen lies at anchor off the harbor, having been towed there last evening. It is expected that sufficient men will be secured following the resumption of business tomorrow. The vessel arrived here on December 11th with lumber for Allen and Robinson.

LUKE TO ENTER PROFITABLE TRADE

Alterations will be made in the machinery and the propeller in the schooner Luka, with a view of increasing the speed of that vessel, which is in all probability to enter into a more or less regular trade between Honolulu, Fanning and Washington Islands, with occasional trips to the Gilbert and other isles of the south seas.

The Luka is now moored near the foot of Fort street. Captain Piltz relates an interesting account of his wanderings from the time he left Honolulu along the last of July until his return late last evening. The Luka paid a call at the Gilbert Islands and brought off sixty-two strapping big islanders, who have been engaged to work on the Washington and Fanning island coconut plantations, now under the management of Father Emanuel Rougier, the "south sea island copra king."

MAGOON LUU WAS JOYOUS

Old Nineteen Hundred and Twelve was ushered into history, and a brand new year welcomed with much joyousness and amid a very pleasing and attractive setting, at the Kaalawai beach home of Mr. J. A. Magoon last night.

John Henry Magoon was host at a New Year's gathering the memory of which will speed down the corridors of time as one of the jolliest events of the holiday season.

One hundred and fifty invited guests enjoyed the hospitality offered at the beautiful beach home. Between ten o'clock last night and the wee small hours of this morning, a merry delegation of young people feasted and danced.

The grounds had been liberally decorated with variegated colored lights. The incandescents graced the trees in garlands and festoons, and the effect was altogether pleasing and picturesque.

Mr. Magoon provided an entertainment that easily will set the pace for similar affairs that may follow. A Hawaiian orchestra added much to the success of the evening.

Long tables, fairly groaning under a weight of good things to eat and drink, were liberally patronized through the evening. An informal program of dances in a large and well decorated pavilion and on the greenward served to hold the visitors to an early hour this morning.

HARBOR NOTES

The Mauna Loa has been hauled on the marine railway for cleaning and repainting.

Small dispatched for the Coast in the Matson Navigation steamer Lurline is reported to have arrived at San Francisco at three o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Having been ordered of a full shipment of lumber, destined for Pearl Harbor, the barkentine Mary Winkelman sailed for the Coast late yesterday afternoon.

The inter-island steamer Manua Kea was dispatched for Hilo by the way of Maui and Hawaii ports at ten o'clock, taking a fair list of passengers and a big cargo.

Three windjammers are now expected from the Coast. The Andrew Welch brings general cargo from San Francisco while the Scissors Helene and Alice Cooke are to arrive here with lumber from the Sound.

GOLF FIXTURES FOR THE YEAR ARE ANNOUNCED

Oahu Country Club's 1913 Schedule Promises Keen Competition and Plenty of Sport for Wielders of Iron and Driver - Sixteen Regular Events

The Oahu Country Club has announced its schedule of golf tournaments for the present year, on a hand-drawn engraved folder, which club members found today in their morning mail. There are fewer events scheduled this year than last, sixteen events being down for settlement, not including the president's trophy contests, which are played as formerly on the third Saturday and Sunday following of each month.

Following is the tournament schedule, together with the conditions governing the events and a resume of the special rules:

Golf Tournaments for 1913.
 Jan. 1—Wednesday.....Medal Play
 Jan. 4—Saturday (Ladies' Day).....
 Feb. 2—Sunday.....Mixed Foursome
 Mar. 3—Sunday.....Stewart Cup
 Entries Close March 1st.

 Dec. 14—Sunday.....Medal Play

TROPHIES TO BE PLAYED FOR DURING 1913.

A handsome prize presented by President H. H. Walker, to be played for monthly on either the third Saturday or on Sunday following. Medal play. Best net score in any one month during the year, wins. Manoa Cup.

Presented by the Manoa Golf Club for annual golf championship of Territory of Hawaii:
 Won in 1907-1908 by Austin C. White
 Won in 1909-1910-1911-1912 by Geo. H. Angus.

Qualification and final rounds 36 holes; medal play at scratch. Stewart Cup.

Presented by Mr. Chas. A. Stewart of San Francisco to be played for once a year; possession to be given player winning the cup three times. Match play, handicap.

Won in 1912 by F. H. Armstrong.
 Won in 1913 by John Gall.

Navy Cup.
 Presented in 1912 by the Officers of the U. S. Pacific Fleet. This cup is a perpetual trophy.

Won in 1912 by James I. B. Craig.

Entrance Fee: Fifty cents for each competitor, with the exception of the President's Trophy, for which no fee is required. Entries close at 10 o'clock a. m. date of competition, unless otherwise announced.

Club Handicaps are arranged by the Grounds Committee, who reserve the right to change a handicap at any time.

Local Ground Rules.
 A ball lying in any ditch may be lifted and dropped on the side farthest from the hole being played to, under the penalty of one stroke, except (1) approaching the 7th hole a ball lying in the ditch behind the green may be lifted and dropped on the fair green, but not nearer the hole, under the penalty of one stroke.

(2) The ditch approaching Hole No. 3 shall be played as an ordinary hazard.

Out of Bounds.
 A ball played over the fence behind the seventh hole shall be out of bounds.

Light and Telephone Poles and Wires.
 In approaching Hole No. 2 if a ball strikes telephone poles or wires the player may at his option replay the ball. A ball lying within a club's length of a telephone pole may be lifted and placed within a club's length of its lie, but not nearer the hole, without penalty.

General Rules.
 In all other matters the rules of the Western Golf Association shall govern and players are requested to familiarize themselves with the said rules.

Caddies.
 Fifteen cents for nine holes; twenty-five cents for eighteen holes.
 Ten cents for cleaning clubs.
 All unclaimed balls must be returned to Club-house. Members are particularly requested not to buy balls from caddies.

Woodrow Wilson still refuses to say a word about "who's who" in his cabinet.

U. S. Boxers Have More Initiative Than Englishmen

American fighters are much more aggressive than the English boxers, according to Jimmy Johnston, who acts as business agent for practically all the pugilists sent to the United States from Great Britain. American fighters have more action than their British counterparts across the big pond and their temperaments are vastly different, says Johnston.

"Americans are rough and ready. When told they are matched to fight they ask no questions, but go ahead and train. They will take a bout on the shortest kind of notice and go in the ring when they are going to knock out their opponent.

"Think of the first thing most of them say when they are advised of a match is, 'Well, I can hardly take it, y'know, I'm not feeling well. It will require some time for me to get into proper condition.'

"You have to pamper them to get results. They look upon their boxing as the most serious proposition in the world, and they themselves justify it. They get an idea into their head that they are not conditioned, just as they think they are, or if the environment is not suitable, they cannot put up their fight.

"They both about weight and trivial questions would not cause an American a moment's thought. And you can't change their style. If they bring over some that come down to them from a pugilist who used to fight a thousand years or so ago, it's like tearing a mountain to make them forget it.

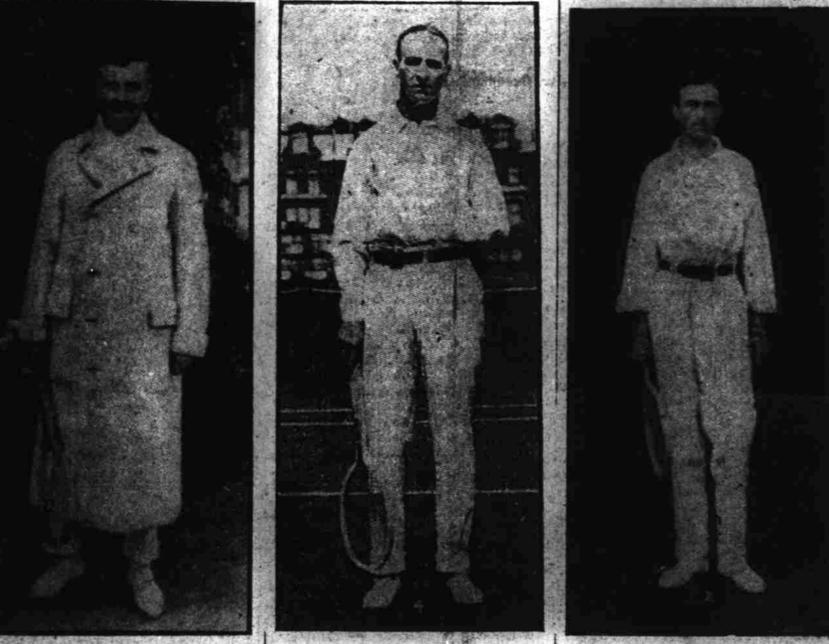

"Encouragement doesn't seem to help them much after a fight in which they have done excellent work, you extend your congratulations, the general style.

"I should have done better; really I should."

"Jim Driscoll, Owen Moran and Harry Thomas will have to place in another class, they are more on the American side, they are ready and eager. Moran, I think, was as tough as any Yankee I didn't care how much they were, but he would not fight him under any conditions. Driscoll uses good tactics, but in from six to ten weeks coming in for a contest Thomas is not up to shape. He'll tell you he is, he's a sly boy.

"On the whole, though, the Britons are a game race and make good fighters. But you have to know how to handle them."

HOW ENGLAND WON DAVIS CUP

C. P. DIXON (Capt.)

DAVIS CUP SCORES (First Day)
 J. C. Parke (British), beat N. E. Brookes (Aus.), 6-8, 6-7, 6-2; C. P. Dixon (British), beat R. Heath (Aus.), 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.

(Second Day)
 Brookes and Unlop (Aus.), beat Parke and Beamish (British), 6-4, 6-1, 7-5.

Third Day
 N. E. Brookes (Aus.), beat C. P. Dixon (British), 6-2, 6-4, 6-4; J. C. Parke (British), beat R. Heath (Aus.), 6-3, 6-4, 6-4.

MELBOURNE, Dec. 2.—The Davis Cup matches are over, and honors are with the British Isles.

On Saturday afternoon Australasia lost the trophy that it won in England in 1907, and has held ever since. The result was what nine people out of ten expected, after Brookes' sensational defeat by Parke in the opening tie. By their victory in the doubles on Friday the home side had given themselves a chance, if a forlorn one. Brookes further improved the position by defeating Dixon in the opening match Saturday afternoon. Everything then depended on Heath, and Heath was unequal to the task. It was no discredit to him. He had the misfortune to strike a player who is now at the top of his magnificent form, and who has a temperament that can maintain that form in the most trying crisis.

The honors of the contest are unquestionably with Parke, who returns to his native land covered with glory, and who may henceforth, if he so pleases, inscribe a Davis cup argon on the family coat of arms.

A Warm Afternoon.
 The Albert ground was again the scene of a splendid gathering. The stands commanding a view of the court were packed in every part. For the first time in the history of lawn tennis in Australasia, money had to be refused at the gate, owing to the accommodation provided for 7000 people being taxed before it was time for play to start. The booked seats accounted for £432, and the cash taken at the gates totaled £375, bringing the day's receipts to £807. It is estimated that the total receipts for the three days will be well over £3000. Of this amount, the Victorian Association receives 75 per cent, for the use and preparation of the ground, after deducting the cost of the stand, £332, and management expenses, the net profits will be divided between the two competing nations. All the seats were occupied, and in the halfpenny section, where standing room only was the rule, the people were packed like the proverbial sardines. The numbers were estimated at between 6000 and 7000. It was a warm afternoon, with just the suggestion of wind, but the spectators were too interested to bother about the climatic conditions. Those of them who stood in the sun showed no sign of impatience. When the last shot had been fired, and the cup was definitely lost, they cheered lustily, not quite with the fervor that would have been there had it been Heath's victory, instead of his defeat, but yet with abundant impartiality to see some first-class tennis; they had seen it, and to more than 50 per cent that was the main thing. Right through the contest the element of partisanship has been conspicuously and happily wanting, a fact that no one realizes more fully than the Englishmen themselves.

His Excellency the Governor-General and Lady Denman and the State Governor and Lady Fuller, and their staffs, were interested spectators of the afternoon's play.

Meeting of Brookes and Dixon.
 The scene was remarkably gay and being set a tremendous task. There was a general feeling of tenacity, although not only the 7000 people on the ground, but the whole tennis world, were watching the contestants, and so, in a sense, it was.

Of the two men, Parke seemed the more unconcerned, the smile on his round, tanned face, as he nodded to someone in the reserve, going to show that the international responsibility was not weighing too heavily on his shoulders. Heath was probably more anxious of the two. About the same height as the Irishman, though of a slighter build and less robust physique, he had had time to accustom himself to the limelight. He never played badly on Saturday, but he played often as though he knew that he was.

Australians Lacked Confidence.
 Heath began serving, and the game had not lasted more than five minutes before it was more than ever apparent that he was leading a forlorn hope. Parke, standing nonchalantly near the base line, returned his first three serves with his characteristic easy drive, and with just the same accuracy that he would have shown had nobody been watching him, and had nothing been at stake.

AMERICA'S CHANCES ARE BRIGHTER.

From the American viewpoint, the win of the British Isles over Australasia in the Davis cup matches, was keenly desired. It is figured in the United States that our players have a far better chance of beating the British experts than of lifting the cup from Australasia, when four attempts to do so have failed.

We have formed the habit of being beaten in the Antipodes, and where the long journey and local conditions militate against success. On the other hand, we have been regularly beating England in the elimination matches.

Also, American players stand less chance of going off their game during a visit to England. The United States will certainly challenge for the cup next year, and if Australia challenges also, the elimination matches will probably be played in the United States. If France, Belgium and Germany challenge also, then the elimination trials will probably take place in Europe.

SAWED OFF SHORT

A medal play handicap golf tournament is in progress over the Country Club course today. The conditions permit players to make the 18 holes at any time of the day, provided the play is continuous, and that it starts with the first round of the course made by the individual. Players may choose their own partners.

The Original Town Team and the Schofield Farracks football team will have another gridiron engagement next Saturday at Moiliili. A soccer game between the marines of Camp Very and the Healanis will be played as a curtain raiser.

Thanks to Jupiter Pluvius, any American league player who starts out next season with the intention of shattering Clyde Milan's base stealing record will only have to pitch 89 hassocks. If the weather man only had held off for half an hour on August 3 last Milan's record of home runs would have been 91, instead of 88. The speedy Senator had stolen three bases in the game with the Browns on the date mentioned, when Jupiter Pluvius arrived on the scene and made it necessary for the umpire to call the game in the third inning. The three bases Milan actually stole, for which he obtained no credit in either official or unofficial records, were gained, while Krichell was behind the bat.

GENERAL EXODUS OF HIGH-CLASS EQUINES

Europe Getting Best of Our Stock with Decadence of the Racing Game in This Country Grave Danger for Army

NEW YORK.—There will not be a horse of any value left in this country, for the army or any other purpose, if the same conditions continue for the next two years that have prevailed in the last two years.

Thus spoke Ed Tipton of the well known firm of Fasic, Tipton & Co., a firm which has sold thousands of horses for distribution in all parts of the world.

"In a year or two all our breeding stock will have been sold or will be worthless and aged, and European countries will have acquired the American thoroughbreds and trotters that it took this country 50 years to develop.

"The millions of dollars that have been expended to perfect the thoroughbred and trotter—and the latter type positively the best in the world—will avail nothing."

Quarters were arranged on the Atlantic transport steamship Algonquin for a good consignment of American thoroughbreds, sent from Kentucky, and they were shipped to Europe today. This shipment marks another important list of high class horses lost to this country through the decline of high class horse racing.

Foremost among the list is Peter Pan. He occupies the same quarters on the ship in which Rock Sand, the high class $150,000 stallion, went to Europe a few weeks ago. He has not been sold, as was reported, but his owner, J. J. Keene, has his own farm both France and England. Other horses of note in this shipment are Ort Wells, Oceanbound and Mountain, and the brood mare, Madam, Count Dresser, Pope Joan, Maggie Hill, Stopping Stone and Early and Often.

PUNAHOU TO PLAY BASKETBALL SOON

Shortly after the opening of the spring term, on January 6, athletics will be resumed at Punahou with increased interest, and the organization among the boys, of two basketball teams, a first and a reserve, will head the list. The girls' basketball team at Punahou this year met with such surprising success that the boys have decided to get together and put at least two teams in the field and endeavor to carry off the laurels as did the girls.

Already a number of the boys have handed in their names, with the result that the captains will have a lot of good material to choose from. Each year the boys' team has met with success on the basketball field and they are confident that this year they will be able to turn the trick once more, on any team they happen to go up against. R. Lee, who played on one of the champion fives on the mainland last year, has been engaged to coach the two teams, and he is a man who knows the game from start to finish and will be able to show the upholders of the Blue and Gold some of the fine points of the game.

As soon as school starts the candidates will turn out and commence practice and the election of the captains for the two teams will then take place. As yet, nothing has been said concerning the possibility of putting a third team in the field, but this will probably be done later.

Punahou has always been lucky in getting sufficient men for as many teams as are needed, and in case a third team is organized, it will no doubt be able to pick up enough games to make the organization worth while.

The High School will probably have one or two teams in the field this year as well as Kamehameha and the Honolulu School for Boys. Should these schools go in for sport, a number of interesting games could be arranged in such a way as to finally decide the championship.

HARD TO ATTEND FOOTBALL GAMES

The average person reads the newspapers and finds out that 40,000 cheerers, enthusiasts saw Harvard wallop Yale at one game, and how Yale got back at Princeton in another contest. Sometimes he wonders how that 40,000 got tickets to the Harvard Stadium or were able to work their way into the Yale field. Many is the man with plenty of money who hasn't even the privilege of buying a ticket. They are not on sale to outsiders.

You must be a student or a graduate to buy any ticket. You can't just walk up to the box office and say "Two, please," and plunk down a bill from your roll. These tickets to the great contests are sold by a system weeks in advance.

Every graduate of one of the big colleges is allowed to apply for so many tickets—and he applies in most cases. To a Yale-Princeton game he may apply for three tickets, enclosing his $6—It is $2 a seat—in a formally printed envelope which he must get beforehand. To a Yale-Harvard game he is allowed to buy but one ticket, but if he can get another graduate to apply with him and borrow the use of his name, he may be entitled to two. If there is a demand greater than the supply, then lots are drawn for those who are to be left out altogether.

Now, Yale with its small stand is going further. It proposes a great Coliseum, to be built by the graduates. Any college man found selling his tickets to any game is at once black-listed and can never apply again. Students are selected to approach all soccerists and catch the numbers on the tickets. These are traced back to the buyer and it is "Good night!" for him. One Yale graduate who did not apply to his Alma Mater for tickets this year received an envelope back enclosing the $6 he had never sent, with the apology that his name had not been in the drawing for tickets.

"When the man who forged my name comes around," he remarked to a fellow Yale man, "he can get his money. Come on; let's blow it!"

TOM DRISCOLL INTERATIONAL POLO RESPECT

Tom Driscoll is known to everyone who plays polo on the Pacific Coast, may be a chance on the American team to defend the international cup this summer. Driscoll has a lot of friends in Honolulu who will pull hard for his success.

The San Francisco Chronicle of recent date says:

The name of Thomas A. Driscoll, California's foremost polo player, is being frequently mentioned as a candidate for the American team which will defend the international polo cup against the leading Hurlingham team four this summer. Experts who have seen the local contingent in action declare that Driscoll ranks among the best players in the country and that he will compare favorably with men who have been selected by eastern clubs for places on the defending four.

Driscoll has been playing polo on the peninsula for the last ten years, and his work of the last two seasons has attracted the attention of pugilists from all parts of the country. He is a sure hitter, a fearless rider and has a profound knowledge of the game. Major Colin C. Ross of Calgary, who is an ardent student of the game, having followed it in parts of Europe and America, said in the tournament last year: "Driscoll can hold his own with any player. American, I think he is under-rated when only handicapped at six ft. He is really an eight-goal man."

Lord Tweedmouth declared that Driscoll is one of the most aggressive players he had ever seen in action, either American or foreign soil.

An advantage that Driscoll would enjoy over other candidates for the team is that he would be one of the best-mounted men in the competition. The local players who back him have attempted to secure a place on the American team, and he would play the entire string of these now quartered at the local hotels to be found. No better lot of mounts is to be found among the stringings owned by local players, who apply the best horses that are now being used in the east.

Taft has sent an ultimatum to Mexico which could not be any more direct than that which he has sent.

MARQUARD READY TO QUIT DIAMOND

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Rube Marquard says he will never play ball again.

"I'm tired of being the goat," is the way "Rube," the great, once dubbed the $11,000 lemon, puts it.

Rube looked like he meant exactly what he said, but the star southpaw of the New York Giants is in vande-ville. He is showing at a local theatre this week with Blossom Seeley.

"I've got the right hunch on this stage business," the Rube went on, beaming self-consciously. "You see, I don't take much acting seriously. I just jig it along. Why? Well, I know I can't sing nor I can't dance. But I don't try to fool 'em. See?"

Rube reflected a moment and then continued.

"I'm booked with Miss Seeley up to June 5 next, when we finish on the Pacific coast. I am through with big league baseball—sick and tired of being the goat."

"But—" began an interviewer.

Rube interposed, saying: "Oh, I tell you, I have had enough of McGraw's rough stuff, and I won't join the Giants. They say I'm holding out for $10,000, but I never said that. Maybe I am signed up for two more years, but that's all the good it will do the Giants and McGraw. Why, McGraw is telling his audience in vande-ville that he saw a $40,000 muff in a shop window. It's a pretty hard nut at Snodgrass. That's McGraw all over, though. Fred deserves better treatment from his manager."

Rube stopped short to get his breath. "I made good last year," he resumed. "I won two world's series games."

"Are you going to get married soon?" was the next question.

"Yes, on January 17."

"And the girl?"

"Miss Blossom Seeley. That's all I will say on that."

Marquard will go to Denver next week and then go to Winnipeg. His skit is entitled "Winning Nineteen Straight."

find a new heavyweight champion of the world. Promoter Tom McCarty of Los Angeles has hit upon another pugilistic scheme. He is figuring on starting an elimination "beef" contest. January 13th has been announced as the date, and the promoter is trying to sign Bull Young of McCarty's camp vs. Al McCuskey of Palzer's camp, and Bill Sloaie of McCarty's camp vs. Porky Flynn, who is at present in San Francisco.

The six boxers are big heavyweight and the idea is to eliminate the "beef" from the ro

M'CARTY DRAWS THE COLOR LINE

LOS ANGELES.—Luther McCarty has drawn the color line. He says that if he should win the heavyweight elimination tournament and the McCarty belt he will not consider a challenge from any negro. This expression was made by Dan McCarty, manager of Joe Jeanette and representative of Victor B. Beyer, a Paris promoter. McCarty said he was authorized to offer McCarty $60,000 for three fights in Paris if he should win his tournament, naming Jeanette, McVey and Bombardier Wells. McCarty turned down the offer. If he should win the belt, McCarty will make a European tour and meet all the white heavyweights across the big drink, including Wells.

The second zone embraces all postoffices Molokai except Kaunakakai; islands of Kaula, Maui, Nihoa, Kahoolawe and Mahukona only on island of Hawaii. For delivery to postoffices in third zone, which embraces all offices on the island of Hawaii, except Mahukona, 1 cent per ounce for four ounces, and 7 cents for five ounces to one pound; and for each additional pound or fraction of a pound, 5 cents. All parcels should bear parcels postage stamps only affixed and be presented at the postoffice for examination and weighing before being deposited in the mails. Parcels post stamps are not valid on other classes of mail. The rates of postage for parcels post mail from Hawaii to all points in the United States and territories and Philippine islands is 1 cent for each ounce for four ounces, and over four ounces the rate is 12 cents per pound or fraction of a pound. The foregoing applies to parcels post mail in the United States and territories, including Philippine islands and District of Columbia, and does not apply to parcels post mail to foreign countries, which remains the same heretofore, and such mail (foreign) must bear the usual ordinary postage stamps affixed at the rate of 12 cents per pound and not exceeding eleven pounds in weight.

JOSEPH G. PRATT, Postmaster.

Postmaster Pratt has issued instructions regarding the regulations for the sending of parcels through the post, according to the instructions received from the postmaster general some weeks ago. These instructions include the formalities that special stamps must be used in sending the mail matter through by the new system, as well as a list of rates. The installation of the system will make but little difference in the work of the local post office until after the ships begin bringing the packages through the mail, as until that time the postmaster of Honolulu confesses that he will be unable to make any arrangements. "We can't tell what to do until we face the actual conditions created by the new law," said Mr. Pratt this morning. "So far as the sending of the packages under the new law is concerned, there will be little need for increased facilities. It will be the receipts that make the difference, if any. "I want to explain to the people of Honolulu that the supply of parcels post stamps—which is the way that will be used on all packages—that we have on hand at present is limited. For this reason they will be sold only to purchasers actually desiring to send parcels through the mail at any given time. In other words, one will not be allowed to buy stamps for future use. We expect to get a large supply of stamps on the steamer arriving here Jan. 2, in which case this embargo will be discontinued. Information as to details of the matter of this class. Parcels post stamps will not be valid for payment of postage or postage due on matter of the first, second or third class. For 5 cents any parcels post package may be insured against loss to the amount of its actual value, not to exceed $25, and a receipt will be given the person mailing the package, and a stub showing such insurance is attached to the package upon which the consignee receipts for its delivery.

PARCELS POST RATE, EFFECTIVE TODAY.

Table with columns: Limit of Zone, miles; To Find Amt. Postage; Postage, per Parcel, No. Pounds. Rows include Local delivery, 1-8 miles, 1-8 miles, 1-10 miles, 1-15 miles, 1-20 miles, 1-30 miles, 1-50 miles, 1-100 miles, 1-150 miles, 1-200 miles, 1-300 miles, 1-500 miles, 1-1000 miles, 1-1500 miles, 1-2000 miles, 1-3000 miles, 1-5000 miles, 1-10000 miles.

Weight Limit. The weight limit on packages is 11 pounds, and the size of the package is limited to length and girth of six feet. This means that a piece of twine six feet in length and no longer, would be placed around the package lengthwise, and then around its girth.

Parcels weighing less than four ounces may be sent any distance at the rate of one cent an ounce, while packages weighing more than four ounces are considered at the pound rate, which brings into consideration a table of distances.

Parcels Post Rates. A comprehensive rate chart has been prepared by the postoffice, showing the exact rates for packages of different weights in each of the eight zones. These zones are measured in distances of 50, 150, 300, 600, 1,000, 1,500, 2,000 miles and more than 1,800. The rate of a one-pound package from Honolulu to any point on Oahu or other places within the 50-mile zone would be 5 cents. The same package sent to Hilo, which is outside the 150-mile zone and therefore would take the 300-mile rate, would be 7 cents. To San Francisco, outside the 1,800-mile zone, a one-pound package could be mailed for 12 cents. An 11-pound package could be sent from San Francisco for $1.32.

Special Stamps for Service. Under the new parcels post law matter dispatched must bear the distinctive postage stamps, a series of twelve denominations of which will be issued by the postoffice department. Five denominations of due stamps also will be issued for the service.

The parcels post stamps measure 1 1/2 inches between perforated lines. The color is red for all denominations. A curved line across the top, supported by a paneled perpendicular column at each end appears the words "U. S. Parcel Post" in Roman capital letters. Triangular ornaments occupy both upper corners. The denomination in large numerals is in each lower corner with the title of the subject and the word "cents" or "dollar" between. The subjects of the several denominations are: 1 cent, postoffice clerk; 2 cents, city carrier; 3 cents, railway postal clerk; 4 cents, rural carrier; 5 cents, mail train; 10 cents, steamship and mail tender; 15 cents, automobile service; 20 cents, aeroplane carrying mail; 25 cents, mail carrier; 50 cents, dairymaid; 75 cents, harvesting; and $1, fruit-growing.

Beginning tomorrow, when the parcels post law is effective, ordinary postage stamps will not be valid for payment of postage on mail matter of the fourth class, but will the regular postage due stamps be valid for the collection of postage or short paid amount of its actual value, not to exceed $25, and a receipt will be given the person mailing the package, and a stub showing such insurance is attached to the package upon which the consignee receipts for its delivery.

WANTED TO DIE LOOK CREOLINE

Hattie Kanono, a young woman, married and residing on a lower street, Kawaio, made an unsuccessful attempt to take her life this afternoon, but was prevented through the prompt intervention of the police, who rushed the woman to the hospital. She had drunk the contents of a partly filled bottle of creoline.

AL PALZER

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 1.—Al Palzer and Luther McCarthy have been hard at work preparing for their twenty round meeting to be held here today. Pugilistic experts here who have watched Palzer work are of the opinion that he will defeat McCarthy and have made him favorite in the betting. On the other hand, the adherents of McCarthy believe their choice will be returned the winner. For a year or more Palzer enjoyed the distinction of being hailed as the leader of the future greats, but since McCarthy defeated Earl Morris, Al Kaufman and Jim Flynn the Iowa farmer has had to give place to McCarthy, whose record eclipses that of any other white heavyweight in the ring at the present time. Both lack the polish of the class of men who were prominent ten years ago, but they compare favorably with the most rugged and determined of past ring warriors.

HAPPY CROWD AT RACES

Everyone is looking forward to the two auto races. These will furnish thrills and to spare, and probably the sun will be low in the west before they are decided.

Local Jock Wins. He's not much to look at, but when it comes to riding Dora D little Jockey Gilbert, of local fame, has it all over the others. He showed this in the feature race of today's program. Owing to their size Dora D and Dixie were ruled out of the pony race and their owners, J. J. Medeiros and Billy Lewis, got together and patched up a special match over a half-mile course

DOCTOR COOK TO TALK OF TRIP NORTH HERE

It is possible that the people of Honolulu will have an opportunity to hear Doctor Cook's claims to the honor of having discovered the North Pole set forward by that adventurer himself at the Opera House here, provided the plans for his appearance are pulled through. The manager of the opera house yesterday received from the agent for Doctor Cook, Wilbur E. Carlton, of Washington, an offer to present the Doctor-explorer here in March and at once replied. If the terms he suggested are satisfactory Doctor Cook will probably come down here in the latter part of February and give three lectures. His advance agent sends the following: "Doctor Cook will visit Honolulu on his return from the volcano where he will conduct a scientific investigation and will very likely attempt a descent into the crater, purely for scientific purposes.

"On the Doctor's return, March 8, he will give a series of lectures on 'His Conquest of the North Pole.' No controversy in history has perhaps equalled that concerning the discovery of the North Pole. This is undoubtedly the most momentous feat of our times. Every person living today should know both sides of the case. Mr. Peary has made charges against Dr. Cook. Dr. Cook offers his proofs openly to the public.

"Insofar as they were able to judge from all the data presented in the final books of both explorers the following explorers have given it as their opinion that Doctor Cook reached the Pole, and that Com. Peary's similar report coming later is supplementary proof of the first victory: Captain Rued Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole; General A. W. Greeley, U. S. A., commander of The Lady Franklin Bay Expedition; Rear Admiral W. S. Schley, U. S. N., commander of the Greeley Expedition; Captain E. B. Baldwin, commanding the Baldwin-Ziegler Expedition; Captain J. E. Bernier, commanding the Canadian Arctic Expedition and many others."

For $50. The owners were willing and Dixie was willing but Dora D balked and refused to break from the start. A much-touted Australian jockey, one Jack Wilson was up, and do what he could the mare refused to cross the line properly. For more than twenty minutes she snorted and cowered while the starter sent her away and recalled her again and again. Finally little Gilbert went to the judges, and told them he could get the mare going if they would let him up. They were willing and Medeiros was willing, so Gilbert jogged over to the half-mile post, mounted the mare, started her at the first break and brought her across the line an easy winner in one of the prettiest races of the day. Jockey Cabral rode Dixie.

The details of the races follow:

First Race. Entries: J. J. Medeiros' Dora D; A. McPhee's Indian Boy; W. Lucas' Dixie; G. Holt's Venus, and J. J. Medeiros' Strawberry.

Owing to some delay at the start the first race was not begun until 10:30 o'clock. At the beginning Athlone and Strawberry took the lead with Dora D. some distance in the rear. This was perhaps the closest race of the day, as the two first-named horses crossed the tape with Strawberry leading Athlone by a nose, with Dora D. a good forty yards in the rear. First: Strawberry; second, Athlone; third, Dora D. Time: 50 3-5.

Second Race. Five Furlongs, Free-For-All. Purse $200.

Entries: J. O'Rourke's Sonoma; F. Brughell's Miss Hyan, and G. Holt, Jr.'s Clare C.

Sonoma was the general favorite in the second race and in the get-away started last, but forged quickly to the front and won by a wide margin, with Miss Bryan second and Clare C. a close third. First, Sonoma; second, Miss Bryant; third, Clare C. Time: 1:5 4-5.

Third Race. Quarter-mile, free-for-all Cowboy race.

The three-eighths mile race for Japanese owned horses was called off and in its place a quarter-mile free-for-all cowboy race was run. There were five entries and no difficulty in starting. Forra won in 28 1-5.

Fourth Race. One mile, Gentlemen's Driving Race.

Entries: Charles Lucas' Naniwa, Chris. Holt's Venus, and an entry by Mr. Judd.

Naniwa took the lead at the start and after a short distance dropped back to second place, but on the home stretch forged to the front and won by a large margin with Venus a good second. First, Naniwa; second, Venus. Time, 2:59.

Fifth Extra Race. Two cowboys entered this contest with steeds which were named Slow Start and Steam Roller. After several attempts to get started they finally ran off the first round with the result that Steam Roller pulled Slow Start over the line in lightning time. The judges then announced that the contest would be the best two out of three, and they started on the second round, which resulted the same as the first. This contest afforded a good deal of amusement for the spectators and served to break the monotony which prevailed while the next race was prepared.

Half-mile, Hawaiian-bred ponies. Purse $100.

There were four entries in this race: A. McPhee's Indian Boy; W. Lucas' Dixie; G. Holt's Venus, and J. J. Medeiros' Dora D. It was announced by the judges that Indian Boy and Palama would constitute the first race and that following it a special race between Dora D and Dixie would be held. The first race resulted in Indian Boy galloping across the tape about fifty yards ahead of Palama, although some of the spectators seemed to be of the opinion that the latter had the better show. Time: 58 1-5.

Special Race. Half-mile, Hawaiian-bred ponies. Entries: J. J. Medeiros' Dora D. and W. Lucas' Dixie.

After about twenty minutes spent in trying to get Dora D. started, another jockey took the place of the one who rode her in the first race and, noting the change, she loped over the tape nearly a length ahead of Dixie. First: Dora D. Second, Dixie.

Following this race there was an intermission of an hour in order that the spectators might get their lunch.

VIOLINIST AT LIBERTY TONIGHT

Romanoff, the wizard of the violin and bow, will be the big feature at Ye Liberty theater tonight, where he will make his initial bow to a Honolulu audience. He is considered the greatest violinist on the vaudeville stage today and, according to the Australian papers, is the peer of all violinists. Romanoff will appeal strongly to the music-loving people of Honolulu, who showed by their attendance at the Maud Powell concerts that they stand ready to pay for first-class music.

Another big act for tonight is the Jourdain operatic quartet, who will be welcomed back by their numerous friends and admirers. They are too well known to need further mention. Suffice it to say they will appear in new songs and may sing one or two of the old favorites by request. A first-class picture program has been prepared for tonight, which will make the Liberty a very good place to spend the first of the year in.

Y. W. C. A. WORKS IN USUL FIELD

It was twelve years ago that a group of women to discuss the needs of a Young Women's Christian Association in Honolulu. Realizing the value of such an organization with its four-fold purpose - the development of the social, physical, intellectual and spiritual nature of the young women of Hawaii, and especially the welfare of the stranger girls who come to Hawaii, these few women voted to meet such an organization which would be "for women and by women."

Since its organization, the Young Women's Christian Association of Honolulu has pushed forward, increasing its prestige and broadening its scope. At the last annual meeting a more definite constitution was adopted, certain policies emphasized, so that now the place of having twelve women on the board of directors, there are eighteen, each with a social identity or as chairman of a special department.

This new constitution allows for seven standing committees which are: building, social and noon boarding house, and room, home, employment, membership, religious work, educational, library, social, hygiene and physical education, association extension, travel and a junior committee, a branch committee, a student committee and the executive committee. Of these committees, chairman have been appointed to some and the others will be named as the work progresses.

Membership Nearly 300

With a present membership of 295, and each month showing a gain in number, with an enrollment of 150 in all the classes including, French, German, Spanish, Hawaiian millinery, commercial, swimming, tennis, basketball, music, gymnastics, etc., as in contrast to the membership of 40 a year ago, with the increased social activities, visitor services, and enjoyment of residence at the Home-stead, marks a great increase in the need of a Young Women's Christian Association. A young lady who the other day made application at the association for a room at the Home-stead, said that, as being a stranger in the city, she felt safer in going to the Young Women's Christian Association, and also as she had heard of the "home-like times" the girls have there, she wished to have a part in it. As all the rooms at present are filled, this girl's name had to be put on the waiting list. In speaking of this condition of having no more room for applicants to the Home-stead, General Secretary Miss Esther Erickson said: "Should this be so in a city whose booming lines are continually being increased? Is it not time that the citizens of Honolulu make this their slogan: 'An adequate Y. W. C. A. in 1914?'"

The association has found in Miss Margaret Tupper, a well trained and capable physical director, who has gotten right after the work and now has large classes in tennis, gymnasium, swimming, basketball and other sports. These classes were formerly held in the Boston building, but they have so enlarged that a new place in which to hold them will be secured soon after the New Year. The educational classes which were started some time ago have already proved to be a popular feature, and many new classes will be introduced in January, at which time the new term will commence.

In the office in the Boston building, there is a continual demand for assistance from employers who wish stenographers and young women for other positions, and at the same time, there are many young ladies asking about the possibility of securing a position. And in this way the Young Women's Christian Association has established an employment bureau which has proved to be a most successful feature. Then, there is the noon rest hour, where the women may congregate at the association rooms, enjoy a simple lunch at a moderate cost and read awhile. Miss Erickson says that at present the association can accommodate only about sixty girls and young women during the noon hour, and also that if more space were available, she is sure that this number would be doubled.

Plans for New Building

For a long time it has been whispered here and there that plans are on foot for the erection of a handsome new Young Women's Christian Association building. This is probably true and those who have been connected and who are now connected with the present association are looking forward to the erection of a new building with ever increasing interest.

ASKS BUSINESSMEN TO HELP COLLECT TAX

The following letter calling attention to the tax regulations was written by Assessor Wilder this morning, explaining it as a business proposition in which all business men should be actively interested:

"To the business men of the territory.
"Has it ever occurred to you that it is to your personal advantage to comply with that portion of the tax law which directs that you furnish the assessor of your district with a complete list of all persons in your employ and liable to taxation on the first day of January, giving the full name, age, nationality and the amount paid to them if over $500?"

"The more tax payers the lighter the individual burden of tax, and if through your neglect, persons escape the payment of just income or poll tax, your individual tax must necessarily be proportionately higher.
"The requirements of the law in this respect are simple. Blank forms will be furnished at the tax office, upon application and if you will be particular to see that the directions thereon are closely followed you will materially aid the assessor, and in the end lessen your own tax."
CHAS. F. WILDER,
"Assessor First Taxation Division, Territory of Hawaii."

BUSINESS ITEMS

A new style of bottle for its product has been adopted by the Pinctar Sales Company for the new year.

By a typographical error in the commercial summary of the past year in yesterday's issue, the sugar crop for the past year was placed at 795,288 tons instead of 595,288 tons.

There was some improvement in the New York stock market the last day of the year, favorable conditions in the money market and a good tone of foreign markets helping prices.

Closing quotations for Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco yesterday were as follows: Hawaiian Commercial, 33.61 1/2 bid, 34.25 asked; Hawaiian Sugar, 35.25 bid; Honokaa, 7.50 bid, 9.50 asked; Hutchinson, 16.37 1/2 bid; Kilauea, 12 bid; Onomea, 31 bid, 31.25 asked; Paauhau, 48 bid; Union, 30 asked.

Reporting the stock exchange for the previous day, the San Francisco Chronicle of December 22 says: "The only stock to be traded in to any amount outside of Associated Oil, was Paauhau. Sales were made at a decline of 1/4 over the previous exchanges, but at the lower price some heavy orders were on the market, and all stocks offered were quickly taken up, with 1 1/2 bid at the close." The record of sales shows 320 shares of Paauhau at 17.75. On the same day 17 was bid for Paauhau in Honolulu.

"A sharp decline in both classes of Associated Oil securities followed the filing of the government's suit against the Southern Pacific Company and other defendants, among whom is included the Associated Oil Company," says the San Francisco Chronicle of December 22. It adds that the bonds were comparatively worse sufferers than the stock. There had been only one sale below par since the 9th, when $10,000 changed hands at par, but on the 21st the bonds sold as low as 98.25, closing, however, at 99 bid and 99.50 asked. The stock opened at the low point of the day, 4 1/2, some holders being apparently badly frightened and willing to get out at any sacrifice. After the first sale the market strengthened and advanced by easy stages to 43, but lost 1/4 before the close. In all, only 115 shares changed hands. In the East the issue showed little or no effect of the decision. The closing bid and ask were 42 1/2 and 47 1/2, respectively.

FEW ARRESTS LAST NIGHT

Sixty mounted and foot police were tolled off early last evening to take care of the traffic occasioned by a New Year's celebration.

Before the festivities had covered a period of several hours it was seen that fewer officers would be required than on Christmas eve.

Sheriff Jarrett gave positive instructions towards the checking of any lawlessness upon the part of the holiday merry-makers. In several instances those caught using prohibited material such as flour, pepper, and confetti gathered from the sidewalks were cautioned and a continued offense was followed by arrest.

Comparatively few cases of excessive joyousness caused by the stopping of the flowing bowl were recorded. A few drunks were given a place to sleep off the effects of too frequent purchases made in downtown fro-h parlor. Early this morning they were released, where no serious offense had been booked against their names.

BIG BALANCE ON HAND IN THE TREASURY

The territorial treasury finished the year 1912 yesterday with a cash balance on hand of somewhat more than $3,000,000. The actual figures were not determined until a few minutes before the close of yesterday's business, as drawn out in warrants today, but Treasurer Calkins' report at the close of business showed that he had on hand at that time the sum of $3,081,655.96.

He states that the story finishes the year's business in better condition financially than ever before; that while the expense in some cases, as for instance in the interest on the sinking fund, has been increased materially, the income has grown at a great rate, due largely to the bumper sugar and cane crop. He asserts that the prospects for the coming year are even better, as the same crop of 1912 was greater than that of 1911, and the 1912 taxes will not be collected until next year.

The funds of the treasury are not in such good condition, however, and most of them will be compelled to register their warms, virtually living on credit until the collection of the 1912 taxes begins. Then they will be placed on a solid footing again. The funds in the territorial treasury are distributed as follows at present: general fund, $742,443; loan fund, $1,366,172.03; water and sewer fund, $14,378; irrigation and conservation fund, $478,670; soil fund, $56,904; sinking fund, $42; miscellaneous funds, $128,670; sanitation fund, $253,684; assurance fund, $2,395; suspense cash, $2887.

A. W. EAMES IN NEW YORK HELPS ADVERTISE HAWAIIAN CHARMS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

NEW YORK, N. Y., Dec. 21.—Mr. A. W. Eames, president of the Hawaiian Packing Co., and his daughter, Miss Helen Janet Eames of Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands, are in New York and are at the Hotel Astor, Times Square, where they will be until after the Christmas holidays.

Miss Eames also came here to act as maid of honor to her friend, Miss Lillian Kreuter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kreuter of this city, who will be married December 21 to Dr. Carl Voegtlin of Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Md.

After the Christmas holidays Mr. and Miss Eames will return to Honolulu by way of San Francisco.

Mr. Eames is a grower and packer of pineapples and has an 800 acre pineapple ranch and ships and markets each year more than eleven thousand cases, which is about 25,000,000 cans of two and a half pounds each. Mr. Eames ships the fresh pineapple to the Pacific Coast and the canned product goes all over the United States and Europe.

Mr. Eames in an interview here says that the pineapple industry is second in importance in the Hawaiian Islands, sugar coming first. He also speaks in the highest terms of the climate of the islands and that it is very equable and that there are no great storms and no intense heat and in the thirteen years he formerly lived in the United States he has lived there he has found no other climate so agreeable. He said that the tourist travel has already set in quite heavy for this early in the season and that while he and his daughter were in California that the steamers were carrying a full complement of passengers to the islands. He says that there could be no more delightful place to pass the winter months.

Mr. Eames says that there are 10,000 white people in Honolulu and there are 1100 automobiles. He spoke of the great volcano, Kilauea, as the most wonderful in the world and that people watch at the edge of the crater all night to see its 20 acre surface in motion as it fights up the heavens. Travelers say that it is one of the grandest sights in the entire world.

OLD BOARD GIVES EXPIRING GASP

The present board of supervisors gave what is mighty nearly its last gasp yesterday noon. It opened bids for the construction of the Waikane wharf, over on the other side of Oahu, and then adjourned until Monday morning at ten o'clock, when it will wind up its affairs and turn the business of the government over to the incoming board.

M. Picano, who built the Nuuanu road, was the lowest bidder. His bid was $4725. This is above the appropriation of $2500, and the matter may have to be reconsidered or a new sum appropriated. J. K. Paoli bid $6500 for the job. The harbor commission also received a bid on this job yesterday. There were a number of bids for the Kalakaua avenue lighting plan. The bids were considerably involved. There is an appropriation of $3000 to cover this expense. The parkway is to be set with ornamental posts and standards.

1912 BUILDING UNDERSTATED

In the summary of building operations in the City and County of Honolulu for the year 1912 in yesterday's issue, the December permits are understated. Owing to the comparative slackness the first part of the month, the last ten days were discounted too heavily. Instead of $100,000 the cost of new construction for this month footed up $137,000 with the book not yet closed.

Hoffschlager & Co.'s store and office building, King street, costing $8800, was inadvertently omitted from the list of business structures, as was the laboratory of the board of agriculture, at the government nursery, costing $1682, from the list of public buildings.

With these corrections, the new construction of the past year will amount to nearer two and one-half million dollars than to two million two hundred and odd thousand dollars.

What made the last ten days of December jump the record of that month up are an extension to Catton, Neill Co's foundry costing $15,000 and an extension to Queen's Hospital costing $11,200.

MAKEE GOES TO MANILA

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Makee of Hanalei will be surprised to learn of their departure for the far east where Mr. Makee goes to be an assistant on one of the big plantations under the control of George Fritchid. "Charlie," as he is more familiarly known, is one of the pioneer plantation men in the territory, being a son of the founder of the Makee Sugar Company, and for years connected with the Kealia plantation. Retiring from active plantation life a number of years ago, he bought property in Hanalei.

Being a natural born hustler, he could not sit idly by, so as a pastime he engaged in the fishing business. However, the lure of the cane field proved too much for his constitution, and he is now more soundly "boots and saddles." While his host of friends regret to see him leave the island, he goes to his new home with the best wishes for happiness and prosperity—Garden Island.

WALTER G. SMITH QUILTS DOMINION

Walter G. Smith, commander of the local promotion committee's forces in the north, has completed his series of successful lectures in Canada and has commenced his invasion of the States.

Mr. Smith left Winnipeg about a week ago and from there went down into North Dakota and is now at Bismarck. From there he will journey to the principal cities in that state and then go on to Montana, where he will lecture at Butte, Helena, Billings and Missoula. Spokane will be his next stop and from there he will go direct to Salt Lake City, Denver, Omaha, and finally to Chicago, and will spend the rest of his time making the larger cities in the East. It is expected that his tour will be completed about the first of next March.

According to word just received by the promotion committee, it will be a lucky crowd of tourists who are fortunate enough to book on the Wilhelmnia on her fortieth voyage out of San Francisco, bringing her into Honolulu on the morning of February 18. Castle & Cooke have arranged for that vessel to leave Honolulu on Wednesday evening at five o'clock for Hilo and return again to Honolulu on February 22, in order that the passengers and tourists may take advantage of the trip to the volcano and at the same time return to Honolulu to witness the Floral Parade and the usual ceremonies which take place on February 22.

On the last mail, Secretary Wood received several letters from principal steamship and railway agents in the United States and Europe asking for literature of the Hawaiian Islands and also posters for the coming floral parade. Among those who have written are the agent of the Oceanic Steamship Company of London, the general passenger agent of the C. B. & Q. at St. Paul, and the manager of the Inter-State Tourist & Steamship Agency at Denver.

'SWAT THE FLY' CAMPAIGN HERE STARTS SOON

A campaign against the house fly in Honolulu is to begin in the very near future. Aroused by the report from the Harvard Medical School that after an exhaustive study of the subject the definite conclusion has been reached by the scientists connected with the institution that the house fly is the direct cause of all infantile paralysis, Arthur G. Smith, president of the Civic Federation, says he intends calling the attention of the federation to the subject.

He expects to urge organization for a campaign in this city against the pestiferous small insect, and believes it can be conducted with a certainty of success if mothers are convinced that the house fly's presence in their homes places their children directly in the way of such dangers as infantile paralysis, typhoid fever and the other "dirt" diseases to which the fly is the great contributing cause.

"Almost every city on the mainland has its fly-fighting crusade," said Mr. Smith, "but Honolulu so far has completely ignored the subject. Most of the mainland municipalities, of course, have their campaigns in the summertime, when the flies are most prevalent. Few of them are bothered by the pest more than a few months in the year, but Honolulu has the house fly the year round. A concerted effort to reduce the evil would therefore be just as practicable today as it will next July or August.

"The cause of the dread infantile paralysis has been a mystery to investigators for years, but the recent declaration from the Harvard Medical School is based on long, careful study. And it is enough to frighten every father and mother, bringing the realization that the fly in the house is an ever-present menace to the little folk."

Honolulu had its infantile paralysis scare a couple of years ago, when thirty-six cases of the malady were reported in the territory, sixteen in Honolulu, and with four deaths resulting. It reached its height in December, 1910, but since that time the number of cases has gradually diminished, until, during the fiscal year 1911-12 only ten cases were reported to the board of health, these all being outside Honolulu and none resulting fatally. There have been no cases reported during the last few months.

It is thought that better sanitary conditions has had much to do with this situation, yet the report from the medical authorities indicates that another outbreak may be anticipated at any time, so long as the housefly and his conspirator, the barn fly, has entrance to the kitchen, the dining room or the nursery.

DR. EMILY SINCLAIR IS VOCATIONAL SECRETARY OF OBERLIN COLLEGE

WAILUKU, Maui, Dec. 30.—Miss Emily Sinclair, Ph. D., Associate Professor of Mathematics in Oberlin College, known to Maui people through her visit during the summer of 1910, has been made Vocational Secretary who is to help women students learn about the professions they desire to take up. The Springfield Republican speaks about the new Oberlin idea and Miss Sinclair's work as follows:

"A recent important innovation by the Oberlin faculty was the appointment of Dr. Emily Sinclair, associate professor of mathematics, as vocational secretary for the young women of the college. Dr. Sinclair will make a special study of the opportunities other than teaching, which are now open to young women in business and professional life in America. As vocational secretary, Miss Sinclair will hold herself in readiness not to advise young women regarding the choice of their life work, but to furnish them with any information which they may request regarding a particular activity in which they may be interested. The office is not intended to influence the student's choice of studies or the planning of her course as a whole, but to have immediately available the essential facts relating to specific opportunities with which the majority of college women have no means of becoming acquainted during their undergraduate life."

PERCY HUNTER IS RECALLED FROM ENGLAND

Percy Hunter, who is well-known in Hawaii from his connection with the Hands-Around-The-Pacific club, is the subject of the following from the Sydney Telegraph:

"The government policy in regard to immigration has resulted in a decision to recall Mr. Percy Hunter from England. Mr. Hunter left Sydney in the early part of the present year commissioned by the Government to take charge of immigration matters for the State in the Old-country. It was anticipated at the time that he would be absent for only a few months, but already Mr. Hunter's trip has occupied nearly a year.

"The nature of Mr. Hunter's duties never seem to have been clearly defined, but it is generally understood that he has had control of immigration at the London end, and in addition he has been in various ways advertising the State. The decision of the Government to shut down on practically all immigration with the exception of 'dominated' wives or children of immigrants already out here has left Mr. Hunter with less to do than has been the case hitherto. It is stated that a recall message has now been sent to Mr. Hunter by the Government, calling him to this State."

HONOLULU DANCES UNDER OPEN SKY TO GREET THE NEW YEAR

Sidewalk Ball, with Mayor as Chef d'Oeuvre, Witnessed by Merrymaking Thousands

Honolulu danced the Old Year out and the New Year in last night, and the sidewalk of a business street was the ballroom, the open sky the only covering for the revelers.

There was music and feasting and frolicking all over the city, from the seaside hotels and inns to the outermost bounds of Kalia, and the hub of the joyous, joy-making city was at Bishop street. Just how many thousands of men, women and children gathered for the first New Year Open-Air Carnival nobody knows for nobody tried to count or thought of it. The number might have been five thousand or it might have been ten. There were five thousand kinds of merry-makers and ten thousand kinds of noises to salute the new-born year, and probably the new year was considerably surprised to see Honolulu greet its approach with such hilarity and gay abandon.

The city was garbed in a gala dress, and the faint mist of early evening fled before the tumultuous devotee of Carnival.

At seven o'clock, an hour before Mayor Fern was due to lead the grand march and set the ball a-rolling, Bishop street and most of Bishop park was crowded. All nations joined in the gaily, all colors, all classes and all degrees. China, moving her new year up in step with the New Year of Christendom, made notable merit. At midnight the Chinese outdid themselves in producing a volume of noise made up of everything from firecrackers to songs.

Bishop Square was ablaze with lights. Theodore Hoffman, engineer of the Young Hotel, had worked for two weeks to get the brilliant lighting effect of hundreds of many-hued incandescent bulbs across the front of the hotel building, in and out among the trees and over the bandstands in Bishop Park. The result was a beautiful combination of colors that gave to the surging sea of people below the changeful hues of the sea around Hawaii's coral shores.

All vantage spots were jammed with people waiting for the grand march to begin. The Schofield band and the Royal Hawaiian Band blared forth music in an almost continuous volume. Finally, at eight o'clock, Mayor Fern was seen breaking a way along the crowded pavement in front of the hotel, with about the same effect as a football tackle jamming through the opposing line. The mayor was attired for the occasion in a close-fitting suit of white and an eight-inch cigar, and his smile took up the width of the sidewalk. After a minute of bucking the line, the crowd realized that the mayor was trying to start the grand march and a way was made for Hizzoner. The mayor and Mrs. Fern led the march, followed by his secretary, W. E. Miles and Mrs. Miles and other members of the committee. The march went down Bishop street on one side and started up the other, but nobody knows whether or not it was ever completely finished. Nobody cared. The sidewalk on the Waikiki side of the street was cleared and W. E. Miles and John Anderson, armed with young megaphones, charged up and down the interstellar space inviting everybody to come along and dance. The crowd hung back a little. Mr. Miles thereupon gave an imitation of the well-remembered Duke Johnson doing his stage walk. "Everybody's doin' it," sang Mr. Miles through his megaphone and Mr. Anderson roared out a jolly invitation that no one could resist. Pretty soon one couple stepped out and whirled down the sidewalk. Then another and another, and in a few minutes the vacant space was well filled. It was the beginning of King Carnival's reign and lasted until well after midnight. When the dancing stopped as the new year came on there were fifty couples at a time whirling up and down the somewhat narrow space. The paving was rough, a hasty soap-stoning had done some good—but not much—and it was rather toilsome going the length of the block on the uphill route, but the crowd liked it.

Meanwhile thousands upon thousands surged through the street between the sidewalks, and there was a constant shower of confetti, a constant cannonading of noise, with a sharp rattle of musketry from smaller instruments of tumult. The noise increased hour after hour, coming to a climax at midnight.

The crowds were very orderly and the police details had practically nothing to do. It was an event for plenty of merriment and occasionally a roisterer was seen who had been celebrating not wisely but too well, but on the whole, there was no disorder and no accidents to speak of. This latter fact may be noted with thankfulness. Many autos went at a high rate of speed on crowded streets and turned busy corners with reckless disregard for pedestrians or other machines, and the goddess of luck must have smiled many times last night at narrow escapes from collisions. On King street, near the Alapai junction, an auto ran down a light express wagon, but on the whole the accidents were almost negligible.

Arrangements for the ball, which, as was suggested by the Star-Bulletin, has been officially named the Mayor's Inaugural Ball, and which will probably be made an annual event, were in charge of Julius Dinger, chairman of the Merchants' Association committee, Ed. Towse and a corps of assistants, including Miss Rose Davison, E. M. Cheatham, H. E. Murray, J. Walter Doyle, John C. Anderson, W. E. Miles, W. H. Bromley, W. T. Monsarrat, George H. Angus, Captain Paul Smith, Luther Evans, Lester Petrie and G. J. Boisse.

GRAFT CHARGES AGAIN FACING HILO'S POLICE

HILO, HAWAII, Dec. 30.—Fresh charges of graft, collected by police officers of this island have been made to the Sheriff, who is now investigating them. The charges come through the county attorney's office and the office of district magistrate Osodo, of North Hilo. Some of the statements on which Sheriff Pua is working follow:

"I was asleep and was awakened by the policeman who demanded that my door be opened. I opened the door, a Hawaiian entered the door, held a revolver to my face and demanded $5 or 50 cents, or I will shoot you. I then said I had none, and he asked me where I kept my money. I said I had some small money in my coat. He then searched my pockets and found $2.75 and put the money in his own pocket. He gave no receipt. I was then sent down below to room 5, where the gamblers were being held."

Another statement is: "I was awakened at midnight, December 14, by the policeman who held an electric light in my face and demanded $0.10 or $0.25, or as much as I had. He said: 'Or I will shoot you,' and held a revolver in my face. I was afraid and took from below my pillow $9.65. He said: 'Give me it all, and tore it away from my hands. I asked him for a receipt, and he said, 'G—d— you, Filipino, shut up and go down below to Room 3, where the gamblers are.'"

Other statements say: "I was awakened by the — boy holding a light and also a revolver in my face, shouting: 'Give me $0.50 or $0.25 or I will give you one shot.' I had to give him $1.75, all I had, as I heard him say: 'I want all the money the other men had.' I was sent down below. I got no receipt."

"I was afraid along with all the rest of the men, and when the policeman came to me they asked for $0.25 or 50 cents. I said I had no money. 'You Filipino —, no more money. Come on, or I will shoot you.' I gave him $6.35. I was afraid. He put all the money in his pocket and gave me no receipt. I was sent downstairs and held there along with the rest and placed in the gambling room."

It is stated that sixteen more Filipinos can lodge complaints on this same matter.

No Bail Receipts.
Statements are also furnished from the gamblers referred to. One says: "I was caught in Room 5 where the gambling is being carried on, and being arrested for gambling, I paid my bail, $2. On opening my purse to pay my bail, the policeman, —, saw more money in my possession and demanded every cent I had. He took $7 more from me. 'Suppose you don't give me that money, I give you some licks.' There was $45 on the table when it was taken by —, the policeman. He put that money away. The cards were left."

There are a lot of dead ones that are of no benefit to the undertaker.

GIRLS! GIRLS! SURELY TRY THIS! DOUBLES BEAUTY OF YOUR HAIR

All You Need is a 25 cent Bottle of "Danderine"—Hair Gets Lustrous, Fluffy and Abundant At Once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits, particularly those who have been careless, whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Easier beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use of Danderine, when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and his of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—advertisement.
