Correspondence Between Masters' Association And Inter-Island is Made Public—Counsel For Men Makes Statement

"Members of the Masters and Mates Association of Honolulu will take no steps against President Kennedy or the Inter-Island Company, unless attacked. In other words we are not going to carry the fight to the company. We are trying to live up to the terms of the agreement entered into after the struggle we won last summer. We believe that Mr. Kennedy is trying to evade those terms, but we propose to wait until he has actually violated them before striking."—Statement of Judge Humphreys.

DEVELOPMENTS TODAY

Association of masters, mates and pilots stands ready to strike if Inter-Island discharges captains.
Correspondence between association and Inter-Island made public.
Inter-Island company declines to discuss situation.
Pivot of strike sentiment appears to be proposed discharge of Capt. W. F. Thompson and bringing here by company of steamboats from mainland.

"I went into a theatre, as sober as could be. They gave a drunk civilian room, but didn't room for me. They sent me to the gallery, or round the music table. But when it comes to fightin', Lord! they'll shove me in the stalls! For it's Tommy this, an' Tommy that, and Tommy, wait outside! But it's 'Special train for Atkins' when the trooper's on the tide."

"You talk o' better food for us, an' schools, an' fires, an' all! We'll wait for extra rations if you treat us rational. Don't mess about the cook-room slops, but prove it to our face. The soldier's uniform is not the soldier man's disgrace."

CROSSING THE LINE SOME CELEBRATION

Crossing the line was an event on board the steamship Cleveland on last Monday, that proved to be the most enjoyable of any of a long list of entertainments for weeks past. Everybody prepared for a good time on Antipodes Day, and judging from belated reports received with the arrival of the Cleveland at the port, few passengers there were who failed to respond to the call for participants in the big program of deck sports.

Antipodes Day games included the following events:
Potato race, Miss Goodrich and Miss Wallworth; thread and needle race, Mrs. Wolf and Mr. Berkofsky; individual tug-of-war, Mr. Grobe; three-legged race, Miss Buxton and Miss Bon; cock-fighting, Mr. Vaughan; egg-and-spoon race, Miss Frysinger; wheel-barrow race, Mr. Millican and Mr. Woodward; thread and biscuit contest, Miss Wallworth; nail driving contest, Mrs. Hileman; hair-dressing competition, Miss Buxton and Mr. Vaughan; spar pillow fight, Mr. M. Edey; tug-of-war, married men; tug-of-war, everybody.

DANCE AT THE WAIKIKI INN

By special request, the popular Waikiki Inn will give another dance this evening in honor of passengers on the Cleveland, tourists and townsfolk generally. Kaa's Quintet club will furnish music for this occasion. The public is invited to attend this beautiful moonlight dance.—advertisement.

Globe-girdling Tourists See The Beauties of Honolulu From Trolley Cars And Automobiles And Wind up at Waikiki For Elaborate Luncheon at Moana Hotel

Cleveland tourist news will be found today on pages 1, 3, 7 and 14.

Three hundred and seventy globe-girdling passengers of the steamship Cleveland sat down to luncheon at the Moana hotel shortly after noon today, and in the resplendent atmosphere of cooling breezes, well appointed and well decorated tables, and good viands, tried to segregate their kaleidoscopic impressions of Honolulu and environs, gained in a whirl of sightseeing from trolley cars and motors. Less than a score of the ship's passengers were absent from the noon repast arranged for by the Hamburg-American Co., to vary the routine of shipboard fare, and of these most of the absentees were lunching with friends in the city, or had elected to make a flying circuit of the island.

Before 8 o'clock this morning the big liner began to empty of passengers, many of whom boarded the special cars lined up to receive their loads of sightseers, and take them for a run over all the trackage of the company so that the tourists obtained a fair idea of the city, getting a sight of Nuuanu valley, Manoa valley, Puna

MEN AND RELIGION CAMPAIGN BEGINS

Leaders Strike Note of Vigorous Crusade from the Start

With addresses in various parts of the city by both leaders, and with the men's noon massmeeting in Cooke hall, Y. M. C. A. building, the Men and Religion Forward Movement campaign here was formally opened this morning by Fred B. Smith, of New York, and Raymond Robins, of Chicago, who, in company with the National Association quartet, arrived in Honolulu yesterday afternoon to conduct the week of work in this city.

From the moment of their landing the leaders in this movement have struck the note of a vigorous and practical crusade of religion in everyday life. Raymond Robins, the social service expert, has dealt with facts of commerce, industry and social clashing from the beginning, and the talks he is giving at the 'institutes' are along the civic betterment lines that Honolulu is trying to follow.

Fred B. Smith, heralded as America's greatest speaker to men, has gripped the imagination of local men from the time he stepped from the boat. A remarkable address at the Commercial club banquet last night was followed by remarkable talks today.

The mass meeting at noon was perhaps the most important event of the evening, and was attended by about forty of the leading business men of the city. Following a short song service, the quartet sang several selections, after which Mr. Smith was introduced by Secretary L. R. Killam. Be-

SOCIALIST HEAD ARRESTED BY UNCLE SAM

TERRE HAUTE, Indiana, Jan. 24.—Eugene V. Debs, candidate for the presidency of the United States on the Socialist ticket, was arrested here this morning by United States officers, charged with having obstructed justice. It is alleged by the government that Mr. Debs encouraged witnesses in the case against the Appeal to Reason, the Socialist paper printed in Kansas, to leave the jurisdiction of the court. The accused in the case are charged with having printed obscenities in the columns of the paper.

FEDERAL JUDGE DYING IN SAN FRANCISCO HOME

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—Judge DeHaven, for many years Federal judge of this circuit, was stricken with apoplexy this morning and is reported as dying by the physicians in attendance. Judge DeHaven is one of the best-known jurists on the coast, and has in the past been mentioned for even more prominent and important posts he now holds, but always declined to leave the bench.

ASSASSIN OF PASHA LAUDED

Enver Bey, Man Who Shot Down Nazim Elevated to Chief of Staff—Becomes Popular Idol—Constantinople in Hands of Rioters—Street Fighting General in Toured City

Associated Press Cable
CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 24.—War, pestilence and famine have taken their toll of Constantinople and now come street fighting of a deadly character, to add to the misery of the inhabitants. The city is in the hands of rioters. Murder is done openly on the main thoroughfares and no one lifts a hand to prevent. The man who yesterday shot down and killed Nazim Pasha, chief of staff, today occupies the place of the man he slew, and more than that, is a popular hero, whose appearance on the streets of the city is the signal for salutes of applause from the war crazed population.

Almost immediately after his murder of Nazim Pasha, whom he shot without warning, Enver Bey was sent for by the sultan and the grand council of the empire, and after a conference was offered the post of the man he killed, and whose body still lay in the hall where it fell. All of the powers of the dead man were placed in the hands of his murderer and the situation took on again the deadly peril to the peace of all Europe it lost for a time in the hands of Nazim Pasha.

In the Yildiz Kiosk, where the sultan has been living since the opening of the peace conference in London, the news of the murder of Nazim Pasha was received with marked approval, and it has been hinted that Enver Bey acted with the foreknowledge of his master, or at least with the knowledge of the grand council.

Upon his assumption of the authority of chief of staff he at once proceeded to enforce the police regulations and as a result several hundred arrests have been made and it is said that others may be expected at any time. The foreign residents of the city have been ordered to keep to their quarters and in the main this order has been obeyed. Reports received here this morning that the Great Powers have ordered warships rushed here as speedily as possible caused a fresh outbreak that was quelled with difficulty. So far no Europeans have been injured in the rioting.

It is regarded in well-informed circles here as certain that the Turkish delegates to the peace conference in London will be recalled at once and that the conference will be abandoned and preparations for war rushed forward with all possible haste.

ALLIES PREPARING

LONDON, Jan. 24.—Reports from Constantinople reaching here destroy all hope of immediate peace, and the delegates of the allies are already preparing for the recall they deem inevitable. With one accord they announced today that they expect an immediate resumption of hostilities within the week, if not before.

Dispatches from Germany tell of a panic on the Bourse, which is reported to have broken violently on receipt of dispatches from Constantinople this morning and last night.

Other dispatches from the different chancelleries announce the abandoning of all hope of peace and the acceptance of the inevitable war, with preparations to meet eventualities.

NEVADA WOMEN WIN FIRST ROUND OF SUFFRAGE FIGHT

CARSON, Nevada, Jan. 24.—The first round of the final fight for woman's suffrage was won by the women here today when the lower house of the state legislature passed a bill granting the right to vote to the women of the state. It is believed certain that the senate will concur and that the governor will sign the bill as soon as it comes before him.

The vessel will receive no sugar at the Hawaii port.

Community, and if a fight comes to us we shall be all the stronger for the backing of public opinion that we shall be certain to receive if we keep faith.

Speaking of the action of President Kennedy in bringing the newcomers down from the coast, Judge Humphreys said:

"Mr. Kennedy has acted in this matter, as he has done largely, because of pique. He returned from the coast last August to find that the captain had defeated the company.

He belongs unfortunately to that class, risen from the ranks, which forgets the source from which it sprung and spurns people belonging to the class."

upon wrote two lengthy letters to the Inter-Island, setting forth the position of the men fully and frankly.

It was stated last night that in the three weeks since then matters have been coming closer and closer to an open break between the Inter-Island and its men.

Very truly yours, (Signed) FRANK C. POOR, Secretary, Honolulu Harbor No. 54, Kennedy Standa Firm.

Dear Sirs: Your reply to our inquiry as to the cause of Captain W. F. Thompson's dismissal from the steamer Nihau has been duly received.

Mr. Kennedy is known to have remarked that he "intends to get" certain of our members, and it is a fact that personal animosity has been shown toward and discrimination practiced against particular members of the harbor by him.

Our records will show that our best efforts, and even our funds, have been used in behalf of the shipping interests of this territory, and we believe that your company has been the greatest beneficiary thereof.

We feel that a great injustice is being done to Captain Thompson through your listening to complaints from landmen, who in our opinion are not competent to judge of a licensed officer's ability, any more than a layman is capable of judging a doctor's ability.

In response to Mr. Kennedy's statement that "He couldn't do the work that he used to," he does not deny, for the reason that your steamers are not supplied with the quality of seamen, which they had in former years.

This is a common complaint in our Harbor, vessels of your company are not supplied with a thoroughly competent crew of seamen, a fact that we have called your attention to and one that will sooner or later result in further financial loss to your company.

We feel that masters are being blamed for incompetency, when in our opinion the blame should be placed elsewhere, namely, the system your company employs in supplying crews to your vessels.

It is commonly reported that all the good men, men that have been trained in the past to perform good work, have nearly all left your employ, so that now we are receiving in their places Japanese, Porto Ricans, in fact anything to make up our complement of a crew.

Such are the conditions under which each and every master in your employ is situated, but we assure you that if you furnish this harbor with some evidence of Captain Thompson's neglect, together with a copy of the complaints, as mentioned in your letter, we can earnestly hoping that you will read the matter its unbiased consideration and will appoint a committee of masters, competent to judge these matters.

Very truly yours, (Signed) FRANK C. POOR, Secretary, Honolulu Harbor No. 54, Kennedy Standa Firm.

Dear Sirs: We beg to notify you that the summary dismissal of Captain W. F. Thompson from the steamer Nihau has been brought to the attention of this harbor, and we desire to state that if you wish to dispatch that vessel today, Captain Thompson must take her out, as no other member will accept the position until just cause for Captain Thompson's discharge has been received.

It is a matter of sincere regret to us that Mr. Kennedy should initiate such a policy, as this harbor desires to have harmonious relations with your company. It is not our intention nor has it ever been, to offer protection or support to any of its members against any action of your company, founded on just cause, but that this harbor will not fail to use its every resource to protect its members from the slightest oppression, or any unjust discrimination.

We believe that the aims and objects of this Association have not been understood by you in the past, and that you have formed an erroneous impression of the same, based upon information furnished you by untrustworthy persons.

The services rendered by our members to your company have never been recognized by Mr. Kennedy, for only once during his incumbency has

"Antipodes Day" On The Cleveland—Women In Exciting Deck Race

hou district, Fort Shafter, and Moanua gardens, and of course Kapiolani Park and Waikiki Beach, which marked the finish of the trip. A number of the Cleveland's passengers, however, hired motor cars for themselves, and did their sightseeing as the spirit moved, regardless of schedule, while still others accepted the generous hospitality of the local Shriners, who formed a flying squadron of motors to entertain members of the order and their families. By 8:30 the Cleveland was deserted, for while practically every one of the passengers were ashore enjoying themselves, a large portion of the crew also secured liberty, for a "look see" at the city. As the trolley cars, comfortably filled but not crowded, rumbled off on their long circuit, a megaphone orator on each commenced a running description of the sights and landmarks that flashed by. Some of these amateur ballyhoos, many of whom had performed a similar service for the promotion committee during the last visit of the big round-the-world cruiser, had their line of talk down very fine, and their lectures were of considerable interest. Even the best posted, however, were stumped by some of the questions asked by inquisitive passengers. Luncheon Enjoyable. The first carloads of pleasure seekers arrived at the Moana shortly after 11:30, and soon after that the dining room of the hotel began to fill with hungry sightseers, who found that their half day ashore had only whetted the keen edge of their sea appetites. Five long tables, extending the entire length of the big room, provided for 320 guests at a sitting. Luncheon had been ordered for 370, but the fifty odd late comers took the places vacated by those who went into luncheon immediately on arrival. A menu containing many Hawaiian specialties was expertly served. The Moana chef outdid himself, and the force of stewards and waiters from the ship did the serving. The regular guests of the hotel took their luncheon in the drawing room and adjacent screen lanai, which was fitted up as a temporary dining room. Most of them enjoyed the change, and there was no inconvenience to regular patrons from the influx of transients. Following was the menu served to the Cleveland lunchers: Papaya cocktail, mullet in ti-leaves, paprika schnitzel, Hawaiian fruit salad, pineapple sherbert, served in whole pineapples scooped out. After lunch a number of the guests elected to go for a swim, and after a suitable digestive period, spent in keen enjoyment of just doing nothing for a time, tackled the surf, many of them experimenting with surf boards. Dinner to Captain. This evening at the Moana Hotel Mr. and Mrs. Hannan, of the great shoe manufacturing firm of that name, are to give a dinner in honor of Captain Kier of the Cleveland. The host and hostess are passengers on the voyage, and wish to show their appreciation of the pleasant cruise, and to cement friendships made aboard ship. Covers will be laid for eighty, and red will be the color scheme of the decorations. In fact, Manager Thiele of the Moana had almost cleaned the city of poinsettias and carnations in order to attractively decorate the hotel in honor of the visitors.

CLEVELANDERS SEE MACHINERY IN MOTION

Cleveland excursionists witnessed the giant engines in the liner at work during two days set aside for inspection, on the voyage from Yokohama to Honolulu. On Monday and Tuesday afternoons of this week, a general in-visitation was extended through Captain Kier and C. Vogelsang, the first opportunity that the four hundred passengers had of gaining admission to the engine room on the entire trip around the world. The occasion was one that brought out a general demand for the privilege.

The personally-conducted trips to the engine room were under the direction of Chief Engineer Chris Stehr and his able and courteous corps of assistants. From 2 to 4 each afternoon parties of twenty or more travelers were safely conducted through the labyrinth of clanging pistons and plunging steel. The host of details connected with the motive power in the Cleveland were clearly explained, with the result that a profitable afternoon was spent by those fortunate in accepting the invitation and hospitality of the engineering staff in the Cleveland.

As the tourists emerged from the engine room they were further entertained at an elaborate luncheon. These pleasurable tours over the ship are admirably arranged down to the slightest detail. Events of this sort are always looked forward to by the passengers with much eager anticipation.

CUPID HELD FORTH IN SHIP SHAFT ALLEY

There are few places on board the gigantic Cleveland considered sacred by Little Dan Cupid.

The little God of love was routed out in some of the most unexpected nooks and corners in the big liner.

It was while a party of travelers were being shown about the engine room in the bowery of the Cleveland that Chief Engineer Chris Stehr, and several of his assistants, came to that portion of the vessel, which harbors the heavy steel shaft, that causes the propeller to revolve on its mission of propulsion.

What is known as the "Shaft Alley" is a large covered passage, with ample room to permit the entrance of one or more persons whose business might be to effect clean and oil or repair the piece of machinery.

Chief Stehr had occasion to open one of the heavy iron doors, with a view of permitting inquisitive visitors a glimpse of the huge revolving piece of steel, when much to his astonishment he interrupted the love making of a youth and maid who throughout the latter portion of the voyage had begun to display alarming signs of becoming ensnared in Cupid's meshes.

The young people, were much chagrined at the disclosure of their hiding place. When questioned, they were forced to admit that for some time they had resorted to the unfrequented shaft alley as a desirable place to fill and too. In this declaration, however, the engineering staff failed to coincide, and following the discovery of the loving twain, an order was posted forbidding further clandestine meetings of passengers in that particular section of the Cleveland.

OFFICERS WILL VIEW VOLCANO

The volcano of Kilauea will prove a Mecca for some of the officers connected with the Cleveland. Secretary H. F. Wood of the Hawaii Promotion committee succeeded last evening in securing the promise that L. Welckum, a valued member of the publicity and advertising department of the Hamburg-American line, who accompanies the Cleveland parties on round-the-world tours, would stop over at Honolulu, with a view of taking passage in the Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmina this evening for Hilo and the volcano.

Mr. Welckum will represent General Representative C. Vogelsang in making the side trip to Hawaii and the natural wonder. While away Mr. Welckum is expected to make a careful investigation of transportation facilities offered on the big island, for the handling of a large party of excursionists. Mr. Welckum will be extended every courtesy by the promotion agent, Manager Wright, of the Volcano stables, who will see that the Hamburg-American representative has ample opportunity of viewing Kilauea at its best.

Representative Vogelsang was reluctant last evening to offer a definite announcement concerning the company's policy as regards diverting the Cleveland to Hilo, for the purpose of giving the round-the-world tourists a chance to view Pele's abode at close range. It is possible that following a conference between Messrs. Wood, Wright and Vogelsang, some arrangement may be perfected whereby the volcano will be included in the list of show-places of the globe, to be visited by Hamburg-American tourists.

The moving picture camera was brought into service throughout the tour. At all points of unusual interest on the one-hundred-day voyage, from leaving the familiar Atlantic to the more remote and inviting Mediterranean ports, coursing through the famous Suez canal, the passage of the Red sea with calls at ports rich in historical lore, the camera man is said to have never failed in his duty. Cleveland passengers enjoyed the delightful experience of later "seeing themselves as other see them," when Beaumont presented the finished pictures on a screen in the spacious saloon of the Cleveland. Specially interesting were the bits of animated presentation secured in historic Egypt, the trip by rail to Cairo, the inspection of the pyramids, teeming with interest and mystery. Today the pleasing prospect of the famous Waikiki beach has been made captive by the Cleveland official photographers. In company with local representatives, the Cleveland officers were given every opportunity of pursuing their labors under the most favorable conditions. Thousands of bits of scenery have been reproduced by aid of the photographer's art during the trip. In the grand saloon on board the Cleveland is a collection of several thousand pictures, which form a practical and highly enjoyable history of the tour from its inception.

FRIDAY JANUARY 24, 1913

The aids to noble life are all within.—Arnold.

NO FALSE PRETENSES

"We are not here with any cocksure method of evangelization; we are here to work with you, to show you, if we can, something of the definite method that has succeeded elsewhere in vitalizing men and religion in a community. We are not here to organize any new society. We are here to talk over with you your problems and to tell you of the new conception of a common meeting-ground for social work and for religious work."

Thus frankly Fred B. Smith sets forth the mission of the Men and Religion Forward Movement in Honolulu. The opening of the campaign last night, at an introductory dinner at the Commercial club, gave Honolulu an impression of Mr. Smith and Raymond Robins quite different from the shouting evangelists with which this city has been familiar. Honolulu has already seen and done a good deal along the line of social welfare work and of religion that touches the man in the factory as well as the man in the pew. Yet Messrs. Smith and Robins will find a tremendous task in their short week here. There is plenty of room for community extension work on the plantations.

And the men are here to do it.

KEEP UP THE WORK FOR PEACE

In the plan of organization proposed for the Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce there is one omission, which, we believe, needs but to be brought to the attention of those who are in charge of the preliminary work to be remedied. There is no committee on international peace and arbitration in the list as made public earlier in the week and published in this paper.

There is a committee on arbitration, but a reading of that part of the by-laws referring to the duties of the committees shows that the arbitration body provided is for the purpose of settling local disputes in trade and industry.

Now there is hardly a chamber of commerce in a city of any size on the mainland, it is safe to say, which has not a committee on international peace and arbitration. In fact, the increasing attention that commercial bodies are turning to this great subject is one of the features of chamber of commerce work nowadays. The success of the Lake Mohonk conferences attests that fact.

The present Honolulu Chamber of Commerce has an active and useful committee on precisely this subject. Last year the committee conducted a strong campaign by offering prizes to pupils in local schools for the best essays on international peace. Again this year the committee is offering prizes, the announcement of the 1913 contest having been made some two weeks ago.

The peace committee of the local chamber has developed its work through the youth and scholarship of Hawaii, and intelligent and broad-minded work it is. It would be a pity if the new chamber, founded on broad, progressive lines, should not recognize the importance of continuing its membership in the nation-wide cause of international peace by continuing its constructive work to enlighten the minds of men on the cost and waste of war and the possibility of settling international disputes by reason and judgment rather than by fire and the sword.

HAWAII AND THE LITERACY TEST

Hawaii is not very likely to secure an exception for this territory to the provisions of whatever immigration bill passes Congress at this session or the next. A cablegram from the Star-Bulletin's Washington correspondent last Friday brought the news that the Burnett bill had been reported out of conference and that Hawaii is not excepted from the operations of the "literacy test." There is a good prospect that the Burnett bill will pass Congress, since it has already passed the house and now has come out of conference.

Mail advices received yesterday indicate that there was little disagreement in the conference committee, and it is reasonable to suppose that the senate will accept the report and that the Burnett bill will be passed.

For nearly twenty years attempts have been made to incorporate a literacy test in the immigration law, and at various times both of the great national parties have declared themselves in favor of such a course. Moreover, the test is not a new proposition to Congress. In the Fifty-fourth Congress the house by a vote of 195 to 20 passed such a measure, the senate passed it by a vote of 52 to 10 and only the veto of President Cleveland prevented the measure from becoming a law. The Fifty-sixth senate passed a literacy-test law and the Fifty-seventh house took similar action. No literacy-test provision has ever been defeated in Congress. Usually the bills have not become law because of the interposition of more pressing legislation.

It is quite clear, then, that there is little hope of any blockade of the Burnett bill so far as sentiment in Congress is concerned. If there is time, the present Congress will probably perfect the Burnett bill, and if not, the Sixty-third Congress is practically sure to pass either this or another similar measure.

As for securing an exception for Hawaii, that is a matter of much doubt, according to the best information obtainable here. The Star-Bulletin is informed upon excellent authority that Congressman Burnett has expressed the opinion that Hawaii is not carrying on its territorial immigration plans in good faith. He believes, it is said, that the importation of Filipinos here by the planters is not good public policy and, while recognizing the board of immigration's efforts to secure Europeans, is considerably stirred by the simultaneous influx of Filipinos. There is no use looking to Burnett for help in getting Hawaii excepted from the provisions of his bill. Furthermore, now that the bill has been reported out of conference, the chances of any change are greatly diminished.

So Hawaii ought to be making up its mind to accept some kind of a literacy test and get immigrants here who can pass that test. According to the agreement reached in conference, the literacy clause approved is that of the Burnett bill, which requires ability to read but not to write. The Burnett bill does not differ materially from a provision in the Dillingham bill providing for an educational test, except that the Dillingham bill provides that the immigrant should be required to read not less than twenty nor more than twenty-five words of the constitution of the United States before being admitted, while the Burnett bill does not require the immigrant to read so many words of the constitution of the United States, with the terms, meaning, and expressions with which the immigrant is unfamiliar, but only requires that the immigrant read from thirty to forty words "in ordinary use printed in plain type" in some language or dialect which the immigrant himself has the right to select.

Hawaii has recently sent its commissioner of immigration, Dr. Victor S. Clark, on an extensive tour of Europe and he has collected considerable data bearing on the subject of literacy among various aliens who are available or will be available as immigrants to Hawaii. Instead of sitting down and bemoaning our fate, the territory should be getting ready to hunt immigrants who can pass the literacy test.

Senator Borah's attack on Secretary Fisher is quite easily understood. His fight is the fight between the aggressive westerners who wish to turn over to state control the national forests, water-power and other natural resources, and the more conservative middle westerners and easterners who insist that the federal government should take and keep these resources under its protecting wing. It is this fight which is now rending the ranks of the conservationists. Fisher insists on the paternal right of the federal government. Remembering the raids on water, timber and coal-lands by the great corporations which have operated in the past twenty years, we are rather inclined to think Fisher's right.

Rumor hath it that there is some dissatisfaction with the membership fees and dues involved in the Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce plan. If such is the case, the dissatisfied ones ought to let their feelings be known in no uncertain way. The time to remedy mistakes is before the organization is perfected. So far, the dissatisfaction has not been set forth.

The morning paper still insists on stirring up politics in the National Guard. What the guard needs most is a chance to develop its organization, and this chance will be given for the first time in many years when the new armory is completed.

Superintendent Bishop is a man the territory can ill-afford to lose from public service. That's one of the reasons why the government couldn't keep him.

The mountain went at last to Nazim.

WAS IT ROWDYISM?

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin:—There was a great outburst committed last night at the Alaka wharf, which, to say the least, was disgraceful. This disgraceful scene was brought about by a lot of men charging the people on the dock, manhandling them and pushing, pulling and shoving them about in a most brutal manner. This was done without any warning to move on, or to make a passage for the passengers of the Cleveland.

There was one well-dressed man in particular who seemed to single out old men and pushed them about in a most brutal and insulting manner. As these men were entirely out of the way it looked very much as if it was done for spite or malice or as an intended insult.

It is to be hoped that this disgraceful affair will be investigated, and that the management will in future either prevent so many people going on the dock, or prevent their employees treating people as if they were a lot of criminals. Yours truly, OBSERVER.

HINTS OF FIGHT AT MERCHANTS' ELECTION

Executive officers of the Merchants' Association have not yet been elected by the board of directors, and will not be until Monday afternoon. A meeting of the newly elected directors was held after the annual meeting of the association yesterday, R. H. Trent, chairman of the nominating committee, presiding. Two of the directors were absent.

A motion was made to proceed with the election of officers, but an amendment to defer the election until Monday, owing to the absence of the president, was carried by a vote of four to three. The meeting adjourned until three o'clock Monday afternoon.

This postponement would indicate a possibility of a contest over officers as keen as that over directors which yesterday necessitated three ballots to settle. If such should develop, though, it will probably be centered on the vice presidency, as the presidency appears to be a foregone conclusion for Charles Bon, both by right of promotion from the absence of the president and by the strong lead given him in the election of directors, in which he received an almost unanimous vote while most of the others only won by a close shave. It was indeed the recognition of the principle of promotion in his case which gave him the preponderating vote.

This principle being in the way of becoming established in the association this year, contradistinguished to the clean sweep made of the directorate with executive officers last year, the office of vice president becomes invested with more than casual importance, as involving the succession to the presidency as well as the function of presiding in the absence of the president.

Hence the interest in the election of officers which yesterday caused its postponement until a full meeting could be obtained.

CALIFENE DEMONSTRATION AT MAY & CO. TOMORROW

Starting at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning Mrs. West of San Francisco will demonstrate at the store of Henry May & Co., the Fort street grocers, the wonderful properties of "Califene", the new shortening. Henry May & Co. hope that all their patrons will call during Mrs. West's demonstration, for it will be of great interest, proving not only the economical value of "Califene" but its superiority in every way over all other shortenings. Mrs. West will show that in making cakes that would require 3-4 of a cup of butter, two tablespoonsful of "Califene" is all that is used, and the cakes are far more delicious than when made with butter. Mrs. West wants the ladies of Honolulu to taste her cakes and doughnuts, and she will gladly advise them regarding cooking where shortening is used. In her demonstrations Mrs. West uses a Perfection oil stove and also electricity.

ANOTHER BOND ISSUE LOOMS AHEAD

Building of Territorial Jail Must Wait Awhile, Says Gov. Frear

Another territorial bond issue may be floated next fall for further public improvements in the islands, and until the next issue is made, providing a new loan fund, the construction of the proposed new Oahu prison probably will be held in abeyance. Such was the statement of Governor Frear today.

In all, the new penitentiary is expected to cost approximately $150,000, one-half of this amount going toward the purchase of the ground needed as a part of the new site. This half is to be raised from the sale of the great central jail site. The other half has been authorized, an act of the legislature of two years ago providing an appropriation of $75,000 for the necessary new buildings.

The money for this appropriation must come from the loan fund. "The pressing needs of other public improvements, on this and the other islands, has practically exhausted the last loan fund," said the governor today, "and leaves nothing for the new prison. For that reason its construction probably will be held up until another bond issue is made. Of course, the walls and some of the smaller buildings may be built by prison labor, but the administration building probably will be constructed by contract. The land to be acquired is undergoing the process of condemnation now, and this matter may be settled some time next month.

"The final plans for the prison have been completed and were approved this morning at a conference between Superintendent H. K. Bishop, Architect Ripley and myself."

Asked if the construction of the prison is likely to be delayed indefinitely, the governor replied:

"Not indefinitely, except that the actual date for beginning work is not now determined. It will begin just as soon as the next bond issue is sold."

"How long is that likely to delay the work?"

"The bond issue may be floated next fall," he answered.

WHITTEMORE IS NOW TALKED OF

George F. Whittemore is being spoken of by prominent Democrats today as a man to be put forward for successor to Superintendent of Public Works H. K. Bishop, whose resignation was announced.

Mr. Whittemore was a candidate for city engineer, but the majority of the board of supervisors stood pat and retained L. M. Whitehouse. Mr. Whittemore has the active backing of G. J. As evidence of his qualifications for handling the larger territorial job, it is pointed out that not only is he a practical engineer with a lifetime of success in the work, but is also equipped with the necessary executive ability.

The talk of his candidacy this morning also brought in the possibility that if Mr. Waller were appointed governor

SAN FRANCISCO WOMEN START RECALL

Judge Weiler Object of Great Movement on Part of Outraged Citizenship

By ERNEST N. SMITH

Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Jan. 13.—The new power of women exercised in a way that women should exercise their power, has resulted in one of the most remarkable demonstrations in the United States. It has taken place in San Francisco and despite former possible objections, makes one glad the women can vote.

A little knot of women has set about reorganizing the police courts of the city, and cutting away all political sophistry, deaf to all appeals of the "system" have started a recall petition against police court judge Weiler. The city has responded to the call of the women, and the fight for virtue is on.

Out along the ocean rim from the Cliff House south are an innumerable number of road houses. In between live a few quiet citizens, while backing up on the highway are a great number of workingmen's homes.

For several years night has been made hideous by songs and revels. In vain the owners of little homes have protested to the police, to the District Attorney. Nothing ever came from protests.

In vain the pastor of a tiny church in that district stood his ground. The small spire was the one signal of decency in the neighborhood, but as for stemming the tide of vice it might be likened to a sagging pile in a harbor. The flood went around it, and on, engulfed it, submerged it, whacked it with a careless abandon.

Daughters of the families living along the ocean side were unable to go out nights. Those returning from work late had to be escorted from the carlines to their homes.

Abuses Continued.

Still the singing and revelry went on. Nothing could stop it seemingly. Parents were amazed. And worse still, the lights, the songs, the gaudy balls, the whirling autos, the richly dressed painted women, all had the effects on the growing girls of the neighborhood. Pretty girls from the homes thereabout were attracted by the life that everybody seemed to enjoy but themselves.

There came times when girls suddenly left their homes, and as though blown up in the darkness disappeared in the whirl of life, leaving broken hearts behind, and other heads a-very with horrible imaginings.

Many a night in answer to pitiful shrieking cries, people have rushed from their homes to the sand dunes and rescued young girls from the clutches of strange men.

Occasionally men were caught, rushed to jail and the good women of the neighborhood went to testify. To their chagrin the police court justices after hearing both sides, generally dismissed the cases, or named a nominal bail, which the offender forfeited and fled.

Then came the climax—recently, a married man with a family was arrested for luring two little girls into his machine and assaulting them. The case came before a police court judge who set a good bail. Immediately thereafter Judge Weiler, responding to the call of the "system" reduced the bail greatly—and the man fled.

The storm broke. The good citizens of the ocean district gathered in the little church. The women plainly cried out for justice so loud that the city awoke.

Greater influences came to their aid. Women all over the city learned the facts of the case, a larger church was secured for another meeting, was packed to overflowing, a still larger hall was taken, women's clubs were aroused, money came pouring in.

Recall is started. And on a case of decency started a recall against the judge who let the worst offenders against humanity demand and get a paltry bail.

The judge, stunned at the wave of reform, protested vainly. Not giving fair play to virtue, he demanded fair play for himself. He was downed by the fury of the women's onslaught against him. He tried to address a meeting. He left the hall a whipped cur.

The recall must go on say the women. Man cannot set his house in order.

Man-made laws are worse than nothing say these good women when virtue cannot be protected. They have waited in patience for man to do something. Man can't, evidently, so the women will.

The fight is on in San Francisco. Judge Weiler is only one human representing a rotten system. He may suffer, others in his position may suffer, too, but the women out by the ocean's rim are determined to live their lives out in a decent neighborhood.

SHIEL-M'ELDOWNEY NUPTIALS JAN. 15

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 14.—Miss Abie Shiel and Mr. George A. McEldowney will be married at Spokane, Wash., at the First Presbyterian Church, tomorrow, a reception at the home of the bride-elect's father, Mr. George Shiel, following the service. Mr. McEldowney is a son of Mrs. F. E. McEldowney of Burlingame. He is a graduate of the University of California. He is a civil engineer, now connected with the Board of Public Works in Honolulu.

The young couple will come here from Spokane to spend part of their wedding trip, calling for the island, the first week in February.—San Francisco Examiner.

UNUSUAL PICTURES IN GURREY'S WINDOW

A. R. Gurrey, Jr., whose panoramic views of the city and the harbor, published in yesterday's Star-Bulletin, were an unusual photographic contribution, has a window of unique views at his shop on Fort street now. Chief among them are the splendid surfing views. Duke Kahanamoku, the champion sprint swimmer of the world and hero of the Olympic games, is shown in a number of fine poses. The window was the center of attraction for many tourists this morning.

KAALI TO PERFORM AGAIN TONIGHT

ERNEST KAALI

For the entertainment of those who could not get into the Opera House last night Ernest Kaali, and his organization of Hawaiian troupe players will repeat the concert at the Empire Theatre tonight beginning at eight o'clock. Seats are now on sale at the rooms of the promotion committee and at the Lux office in the theater on Hotel street. The program in admittedly the best ever given by the organization and in spite of the fact that the Cleveland did not arrive, and the passengers were therefore debarred from hearing the music and witnessing the fascinating a-ula dance, the opera house was packed to capacity. The same program, omitting the play, will be presented tonight and it is safe to say no better form of entertainment will be afforded the visitors for they will have an opportunity to see Hawaiians as they really are "on their native heath." Admission will be 35, 50 and 75 cents.

THREE BALLOTS NEEDED TO DECIDE MERCHANTS' ELECTION

Charles Bon, M. M. Johnson, T. M. Church, George G. Guild, O. C. Swain, George A. Brown, J. F. Soper, O. A. Bierbach and J. D. Dougherty were elected directors of the Honolulu Merchants' association for the ensuing year at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon, being chosen by ballot from among eighteen candidates. It took three ballots to accomplish the result, the bylaws requiring a majority of all the votes cast to elect. With thirty-two voting, the following were legislation, having jointly employed C. R. Hemenway as attorney to draft measures.

Mr. Swift read a report he had previously given at a monthly meeting from the committee on trade and finance.

Secretary Lennox read a report from Mr. Unger, chairman of the downtown committee, relating its work in providing entertainments. Treasurer Johnson read a financial electd on the first ballot: Bon 29, Johnson 25, Church 22, Guild 22, Swain 20, Brown 15 and Soper 15. Bierbach and Farrington tied with 16 each, or one short of a majority. The rest of the field ran on the second ballot but only Bierbach was elected with a vote of 18. W. R. Farrington being next high man with 14. The latter with all the rest individually withdrew before the third ballot, but Dougherty and Farrington's declarations were not accepted, and Dougherty was elected with 18 votes.

Of those elected seven—Bon, Johnson, Church, Swain, Brown, Soper and Dougherty—were named by the nominating committee and only two—Guild and Bierbach—by other members, while Guild was on the original ticket of the committee but withdrew and was renominated by a member when it had been decided to receive additional names before the committee reported.

The parole board, consisting of the governor, attorney general and High Sheriff Henry, this week is considering the applications of eight prisoners who seek liberty on parole or pardon. The board's decision rests largely on the personal conduct of the convicts since the latter donned the striped garb and on their general character.

This is being investigated by the attorney general, who will report his findings to the governor. The latter possesses sole pardoning power.

To compel Frederick W. Carter, an administrator of the estate of Young Hoy, deceased, to give an accounting, Young Shun and Job Bachelor yesterday afternoon filed a motion in circuit court. Rents collected by Carter from certain lands at Moiliili are involved in a dispute between Young Shun and Pualelei Young Hoy, the widow. Bachelor was made receiver pending the settlement of the litigation and now action is sought to compel Carter to turn over these rentals.

Speaking of the unusually prosperous year the Hawaiian Sugar Companies have enjoyed, the San Francisco Journal of Commerce gives the following instances of five companies that distributed almost $3,000,000 in dividends:

Hawaiian Commercial & Sugar Co., $1,600,000; Hawaiian Sugar, $640,000; Hutchinson Sugar Plantation, $240,000; Onomea, $250,000 and Paauhau, $240,000; total, $2,910,000.

In conclusion the article in the Journal of Commerce says:

"In some quarters fears are expressed that the recent demoralization in price of the stock of American Beet Sugar may affect sugars generally. Those familiar with the situation scoff at any such effect. The executive officers declared dividends on American Beet in order to manipulate the stock in Wall street and at a time when the treasury of the company did not warrant such disbursements. The stock was gradually worked up to higher figures and a clean-up in profits made. When the time came to pay the regular dividend there were no funds on hand to meet this demand, beet sugar had fallen in price and the directors were obliged to pass the dividend. A big sag followed in the price of the stock in Wall street and ugly charges were made against the management. An investigation is threatened by members of congress and there the matter rests.

"The scandal focuses exclusively on American Beet Sugar and will have no effect on cane sugars, and especially on Hawaiian issues."

PRESENT SCHOOL LAW IS LIKED

No radical change in the new school law is anticipated during the coming legislative session. It has barely gone into effect and has had scarcely time for a fair trial. It is understood that Governor Frear intends recommending some alterations of the measure, but that these will be only of minor importance, merely strengthening it and making it more practical in some of the working details.

In one of two features it does not fit well with the tax law. One of these is its provision for the year, figured on the school year, which extends from September to June, whereas the tax law is based on the calendar year. The difference is not a serious one but is apt to lead to confusion in the distribution of the funds.

OAHU AND ONOMEA ARE VERY ACTIVE

Oahu and Onomea figure largely in today's stock-sheet, neither of them changed in price but with the asking a quarter-point over the sale price in each case. Reported sales of Oahu amount to 305 shares, with 5 shares additional sold on the board, all at 23.25. One block was of 100 and another of 125 shares. Of Onomea 80 shares in four unequal lots at $22.50 were reported. Thirty shares of Hawaiian Sugar sold on the board unchanged at 26.25. The only decline today is in Hilo Extension sixes, $2000 and $1000 at 24.25 or a quarter-point below the price that has ruled for these bonds for many months.

'CLEVELANDERS' DELIGHTED WITH THEIR RECEPTION AT HONOLULU

"Hawaii has got the right spirit. Throughout the entire voyage, we were never tendered a better reception than the one at Honolulu," was the statement made by hundreds of the Cleveland passengers last evening as a bevy of pretty Hawaiian girls clambered aboard the big liner from the promotion committee's lanai and decorated each of the three hundred and eighty-eight tourists with leis, the symbol of Hawaiian welcome.

With Mayor Fern at the wheel of the little launch, the promotion committee party left the wharf at the foot of Fort street as soon as the smoke of the world cruising liner was visible over quarantine island. On the roof of the cabin were piled nearly four hundred beautiful leis, the gift of the promotion committee to the tourists.

For nearly an hour the little boat cruised around the big liner before being discovered by the passengers, who immediately rushed to the rail eager to catch their first glimpse of what they expected, perhaps to be an outrigger canoe filled with Hawaiian girls dressed in grass skirts. Joyful greetings were exchanged back and forth, and then the girls broke into "Aloha Oe" and other Hawaiian melodies which brought bursts of applause from those who crowded the decks of the big liner.

When the signal was finally given that the Cleveland had withstood successfully the rigid inspection of the doctors and the custom house officials, the girls, headed by Mayor Fern, his secretary, H. P. Wood, and others of the party, clambered up the gang-plank armed with myriads of leis, and were received with shouts of welcome by the tourists as it luckily happened, the greater number of passengers retreated to the dining saloon immediately after inspection, and it was here that the Hawaiian girls passed around them, placing a beautiful lei around the neck of each.

"Are they made of real flowers?" asked one of the ladies, as she took the lei from around her neck and admired it as only one who is fond of flowers can. "It does not seem possible; are they all made of real flowers?" When she was informed that all of the real Hawaiian leis are made of genuine flowers, she immediately insisted on having a "real" carnation lei, which was given her. By good luck, the number of leis which had been brought out was sufficient to go more than around, and, of course, there were many who were eager to have more than one. When the girls had finished their distribution, they were heartily applauded and thanked by the passengers, and from that time on Honolulu commenced to gain even more favor in the minds of the tourists.

Mayor Fern was presented to the captain of the vessel and then to the passengers, as was Secretary Wood, of the promotion committee and the rest of the party. Following this, until the time the Cleveland docked at Alakea wharf, the party was entertained at dinner by the officers.

"The dining service on the Cleveland is certainly fine," said one of the party during the course of the dinner, "and I believe this is the best ice cream I have ever eaten."

"There is an interesting story connected with the ice cream," answered one of the officers. "You see, this ice cream is all made in New York, and we took this shipment aboard the day the steamer left there several months ago. We keep it in cold storage on the steamer and open it up as we need it."

This little story is only one of the hundreds of interesting facts which accompany the voyage. Thanksgiving at Bombay, India; the interesting German Christmas for the youngsters aboard the liner; the moonlight dances in the Orient; and a horde of other happenings which would fill a book.

When the Cleveland pulled up at Alakea wharf at about a quarter of nine o'clock, the passengers were greeted with the strains of the Star Spangled Banner, and hats went off and the loyal Americans cheered with all their might.

"It is just like getting back to American soil," said one of the passengers, "and we are proud of the fact that the United States has Hawaii as one of its possessions."

The German passengers were not forgotten, however, for although he is an American citizen, the remembrances of the Fatherland are strong in Herr Berger, and following the American national air, the Hawaiian band struck up "The Watch on the Rhine," and then it was that the German tourists contributed their share of the enthusiasm.

The promotion committee is to be complimented on the rousing success of the entire undertaking. That it was a great success may be judged by the opinions which the passengers had of the "welcome." The delegations of Shriners and Elks which went aboard did much toward making their brothers of the vessel have a joyous welcome to Hawaii. The Shriners had arranged for an automobile trip, which was made soon after the steamer had docked. From the statements made by the passengers, Honolulu gave the tourists a welcome that will never be forgotten, and many of them expressed themselves as already planning on taking a trip to Hawaii in the near future.

"I think that it was a great undertaking," said Secretary Wood, of the promotion committee. "There was not a passenger on board that was not enthusiastic over the welcome they received on their arrival at Honolulu. When the Cleveland again makes this port I think we shall have to plan even a greater reception."

The entire estate of the late White-law Reid, which amounts to between $10,000,000 and $20,000,000, has been left unconditionally to his widow, who is asked to make the necessary provision for the children.

ODD FELLOWSHIP PROGRESSES FAST

During the past month the officers in the various branches of Odd Fellowship have been installed by the District Deputy Grand Sire, Harry T. Hollman, P. G. P. C. P., accompanied by the district deputy grand officers.

The officers of the various lodges installed are:

Polynesian Encampment No. 1—Chief patriarch, R. A. Woodward; senior warden, M. W. Tschudi; junior warden, R. Cheatham; scribe, L. L. La Pierre; treasurer, E. W. Wood.

Excelsior Lodge No. 1—Noble grand, A. H. Myhre, vice grand, A. G. Horn; secretary, L. L. La Pierre, P. G.; treasurer, E. A. Jacobson, P. G.

Harmony Lodge No. 3—Noble grand, R. Cheatham; vice grand, C. H. Brown; secretary, P. Smith, P. G.; treasurer, J. Bicknell.

Pacific Rebekah Lodge No. 1—Noble grand, Lillie Chalmers; vice grand, Francis Richards; secretary, Edith Nichols; treasurer, Annie Bidinger, P. N. G.

Olive Rebekah Lodge No. 2—Noble grand, Janet Dewar; vice grand, Alice Samson; secretary, Susan Lando; treasurer, Rose Lando, P. N. G.

Odd Fellowship during the last year, as reported by the grand sire, has increased by 41,437 members; 5,809 have taken higher degrees as embodied in the encampment, while the Rebekah lodges gained 20,502 members. The total membership of the I. O. O. F. was 2,980,894. The total receipts for the year were $18,303,210.56; funds paid out for relief were $5,854,371.64; the I. O. O. F. have in invested funds $68,331,312.87.

The order in these islands is in a most flourishing condition. The two subordinate lodges, Excelsior No. 1 and Harmony No. 3, each have nearly 150 members, with receipts of about $2,500 each, while each has paid out nearly $1800 in sick benefits in the past year.

Pacific Rebekah Lodge No. 1 and Olive Rebekah No. 2 are each active lodges with a membership of 151 and 102 respectively; both lodges have a well organized, well drilled degree team which confers the degrees in a manner that will bear comparison to any Rebekah degree team in the order.

Mr. Robins, a noted social welfare worker and for many years one who has led the fight for better conditions in one of Chicago's worst slums, spoke briefly along the lines in which his work falls. He sketched the growth of the necessity for social control as well as individualistic control, declaring that the challenge of modern times is for a religion that will mean something to the man in the blast-furnace and the woman at the sweatshop sewing-machine as well as the man of the so-called upper classes.

GREAT RELIGIOUS CRUSADERS

FRED B. SMITH, of New York city, evangelist, organizer and leader.

RAYMOND ROBINS, of Chicago, social service expert of splendid ability and reputation

MEN AND RELIGION CAMPAIGN BEGINS

[Associated Press Cable] purpose of the Men and Religion campaign, telling of the great success, which it has met on the mainland, and also how 1564 cities, both large and small, took up the work and gave it their undivided attention. He went on to tell of the great plan which was formulated whereby the movement was to be carried to a wider field, including the Orient and other foreign countries, and also Honolulu.

In his address, Mr. Smith took as his subject "What Think You of Christ?" and spoke, in part, as follows:

"You will remember the incident which happened near the close of Jesus' life when he was burdened with the powers which were determined to destroy him. The people came from Rome and asked him questions with the intention of attempting to ensnare him so that the powers at Rome could then deal with him. They asked him questions concerning the taxes at the time, and he was asked whether or not the Jews should pay tribute to Caesar, and Christ asked them to bring him a coin. When he noticed that the inscription of the coin was that of the Caesars, he said: 'When under Caesar, pay tribute to Caesar, but when under God, pay tribute to God.'" The people went back to their city defeated and finally hired a lawyer, and Christ said to the lawyer: "What think you of Christ?" And the lawyer went away defeated. "This I consider as the most important question which any man will ever have to answer from the cradle to the grave. Any man that will come out and say like a man that his religion is declared that once he had adhered to the doctrine that the only way to save souls was the individual method, "to go out and save one man at a time, like taking a few people off a ship while the ship is sinking," as he succinctly put it. And then he told how religious leaders are beginning to realize that the work is greater than this method can accomplish, that social forces must be regulated, that churches must be vitalized, stirred up, fired by new enthusiasm and definite practical work.

Mr. Smith did not mince words in declaring that too many churches nowadays are the victims of dry-rot, that they need red blood and fire, and yet he stopped long enough to pay anything but a flattering tribute to what he calls "volcanic evangelization." He made it quite plain that he does not believe in the itinerant evangelists as the men who do the greatest work in saving souls.

At half-past eleven o'clock Mr. Robins, accompanied by the quartet, went to the O. R. and L. shops where a meeting was held for half an hour, during which time the quartet sang. The four o'clock institutes will begin this afternoon, the one by Mr. Smith on church problems will be held in the Odd Fellows' Hall, and the other, by Mr. Robins, on social service problems to be held in the makai pavilion of the Young Hotel. There will be no lectures taken at either of these institutes, and all the men of the city are invited to be present.

BIG LINER DISPLAYS DECORATIVE BUNTING

The Cleveland was "dressed" for the occasion this morning. As soon as dawn appeared, Captain Kier ordered out a general and lavish display of bunting, including flags and streamers of all nationalities.

The big steamship when moored at the Alakea wharf presented a gala appearance.

Last night as the fleet of launches bearing Federal quarantine, Customs and immigration officers to the big liner, approached the Cleveland, lights streamed from hundreds of port holes. The immense outline of the vessel was much admired by the party of

SOLDIERS BARRED

against the uniform of the United States, more flagrant even than the conditions which called forth Kipling's rhymed defense of the British soldier, "Tommy Atkins" has been reported to the army authorities in connection with the landing of the steamship Cleveland last night. Soldiers in uniform were shoved aside by the police on guard at the entrance of the Alakea dock, and denied admittance to the upper gallery leading to the steamer's side, while men in civilian clothes were allowed to pass freely and without question to and from the gangway to the street. No explanation was given by the police for this discrimination, although several soldiers tried more than once to pass up the stairway, to set friends whom they believed were on the ship.

Complaint of Long Standing

That soldiers in uniform—and both enlisted men and officers serving in Hawaii are denied the alternative of wearing civilian clothes at any time—are treated with scant courtesy in public places, no matter how exemplary their behavior, is a complaint that has been made so many times of late that it is believed army authorities will take it up for definite action. The situation here is likened to that which developed on the east coast several years ago, when sailors in uniform were excluded from public dance halls at Newport, R. I., and Admiral Higginson, backed by President Roosevelt, made an issue of the proper respect due to the uniform, and forced the proprietors of amusement places to accord sailors and soldiers the same privileges and courtesies extended to other well-behaved patrons.

local people representing the several fraternal and promotion organizations who were on hand to bid welcome to the hundreds of round the world travelers. Upon the brilliantly illuminated decks of the Cleveland gathered the tourists, vainly trying to gain some idea of the contour of Oahu and Honolulu from a distance of several miles.

Horne, of Kamehameha Schools, legal action on which the army of Oahu intends to take, promised interesting developments. If cases of actual discrimination between soldiers in uniform and men in civilian clothes can be substantiated, it is likely to go hard with the discriminators, say army men. In any fight of this kind the officers will be back of the rank and file to a man, for an insult to the uniform hits the commissioned personnel just as hard as the enlisted. The uniform is the uniform, according to service traditions, and a mere matter of insignia and ornaments does not put private and general in different classes in the broad general sense.

FIGHTER MADISON GOES LEAVING BILLS

Leaves on the Lurline Quietly Without Saying Good-by to Those Who Befriended Him on Settling Obligations—Has Money but Wife and Child in California Alleged to Be Starving

Eddie Madison prizefighter, who was treated by the Honolulu sporting fraternity as "white" as any itinerant pugilist could possibly expect, and who made friends first and money afterwards through them has made the meanest getaway imaginable. Like a cur, snapping at the hand that fed him, Madison, it is said, snuck on the Lurline just before sailing time last Tuesday evening, giving his best friends the double cross right at the gangway, with a stall to the effect that he was "seeing his girl off."

When the gangplank was taken in, Madison conveniently forgot to come ashore, and sailed away from Honolulu leaving his acquaintances without even a "so long" and incidentally leaving a number of small bills around town, and a liberal sprinkling of I. O. U.'s. It is said he is traveling with a woman.

Had Madison been broke when he left, his desire to slip away might be understood, but he had a good sized roll representing the proceeds of at least two remunerative fights, and could have settled his obligations, shaken lands all round, and gone away decently. What he did do was to quack his tail in Honolulu, and there is even talk of a cable to San Francisco, informing the authorities there to arrest Madison for violation of the "white slave" laws, so strong is the feeling here against him.

Tuesday night, a well known sport, the man whose name Madison has shared for the last few weeks, was seen walking towards the gangplank of the Lurline. The fighter carried a small package wrapped in paper in his hand. "Hello, what're you doing here?" he asked.

Madison shifted uneasily. "I think my girl is going away," he said. Looking round, the friend saw a girl that Madison had been traveling with for several months past, saluting towards the steamer trailed by a boy carrying two large suit cases.

"You think she's going away," he said, looking Madison squarely in the eye, and then walking away in disgust. When the friend returned home he found that his room mate had packed his belongings, with the exception of some sweaty worn out fighting clothes, which he dumped in a filthy bundle on the floor.

Madison was spending his money freely over the bars here, and traveling with the girl who left for San Francisco with him, it is alleged his wife and a three-year-old daughter were literally starving in Oakland. Shortly before the holidays District Attorney Breckons received a pathetic letter from a woman on the coast who said she was Madison's wife, that she and her child were in want, and that she understood her husband was making money here and wearing good clothes. Could the district attorney do something about it?

Breckons called Madison on the car and the latter made no denial. "If I send her money the kid won't get it. She'll go spend it on a hat or something," said he. Breckons explained that it wasn't to him or to Madison what she did with the money, provided it was sent, and that if he didn't make a remittance he, Breckons, would see that the fighter got sent over to the rock.

Two Teams That Could Bat 'em Out Of The Lot

When driving in runs is considered, teams composed of the timeliest hitters in the big leagues might put up a pretty game against each other. They would take the field as follows:

|-----------|----------------------|
| American. | National. |
| Gandil | First base Konetchy |
| Lajole | Second Base Doyle |
| Barry | Shortstop Wagner |
| Baker | Third base Zimmerman |
| Lewis | Left field Magee |
| Speaker | Center field Wilson |
| Crawford | Right field Murray |
| Stange | Catcher Meyers |
| Hall | Pitcher Alexander |

These American Leaguers batted in 758 runs last season, while the representatives of the National League brought 702 tallies across. Baker of Philadelphia drove in 325 runs, and Zimmerman of the Cubs 95. These men were the leaders of their leagues.

COACHING SYSTEM AT YALE MAY BE CHANGED

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—That the present Yale coaching system of inviting the present captain to come back and act as head coach for the year after his leadership of the team will be given up and that an experienced graduate who is also a close student of the game will come back as head coach and that Walter Camp will give more of his attention to the actual coaching of the eleven while he will not be an active coach himself was the topic of the graduate players and coaches who were invited here to attend the Yale coaching conference at the Hotel Taft.

Whatever the outcome of the conference, the word of Capt. Ketcham will be law for next year, and so will the word of all his successors. Graduates can converse and talk, but the word of the captain is law, and this will be continued in Yale football. Graduates are only advisers and the captain is always willing to listen to his advisers.

For the position of each head coach there are three names which stand out above all others, and each of the three has been available during the past few months and probably all are now. These are Frank Hinkley, two-time captain of the Yale team, an end on the All-American team for all time and an experienced coach; Pudge Heffelfinger, who in a published statement is considered by Walter Camp the greatest football player of all time, and Howard H. Jones, head coach of Capt. Coy's championship football team of the fall of 1909, the last that Yale men have seen, and who was also head coach of Syracuse.

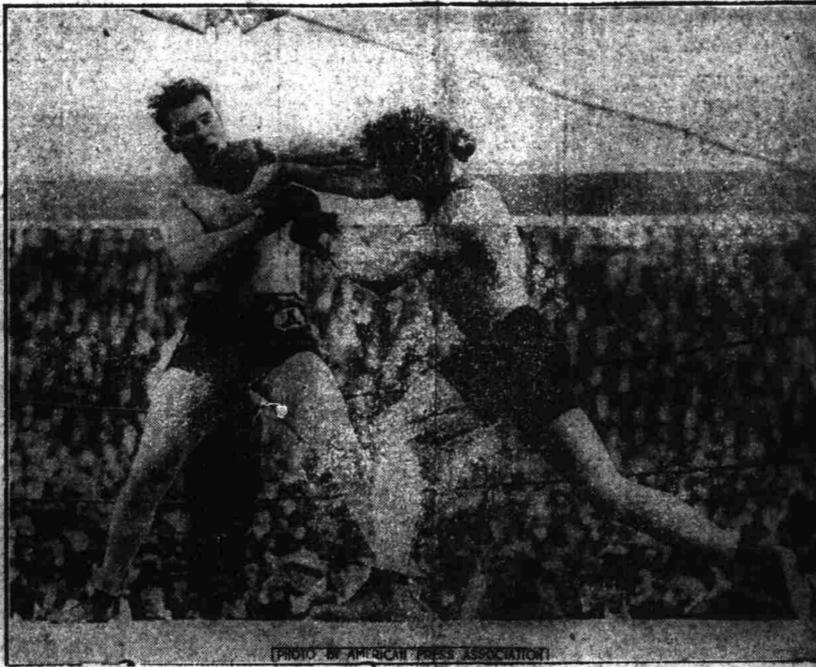

Some possibilities. The report has been spread among Yale graduates that Howard Jones would not accept the head coach position, but within a month Howard Jones has given assurance that he would. It is known that Heffelfinger would be willing to come back. He came East this fall and spent a week with the linemen, especially the guards and centers, but had to return to the West. Hinkley is in Kansas, and the only thing which could possibly keep him from coming back as head coach, if the call went to him, would be his health, which, however, it is understood, here has improved greatly during the past three years.

All three of the men are linemen. Heffelfinger played guard and center, while Jones and Hinkley played in the end position. It is pointed out that Heffelfinger graduated over twenty years ago. Hinkley over fifteen, but against this it is also urged that both have followed the game with a closeness which would be commendable even for a promising member of an active squad. Whenever Hinkley has been back, which has not occurred for the last two years, he has personally coached the men, while when Heffelfinger was here this fall he got down in the dirt and showed the candidates how to play their positions with all the fire of Shevlin.

Heffelfinger was formerly in business in the West and five years ago would not have accepted the position, but business reverses now make him a receptive candidate, though unwilling to urge his own qualities. It is not necessary that he should, however, for this is being done for him by John E. Owsley, head coach of Shevlin's team, and John W. Field, head coach of Daly's team. In this connection it is interesting to know that Field was urged as a good man for the position, but before the movement got very far he personally gave it a

FINAL BLOW OF BIG BATTLE

The photograph shows the last blow struck in the McCarthy-Palzer fight held in Los Angeles New Year's Day, which McCarthy won by a technical knockout in the eighteenth round. A short time before this picture was taken Palzer was reeling and stumbling about, practically helpless, and McCarthy, loath to put over the finishing punch in the battle with Palzer all in, motioned to the referee to interfere when it was apparent that Palzer had absolutely no chance to win. One of the peculiar features of the McCarthy-Palzer battle was that, although both are possessed of terrific punches, neither was able to score a knockdown. McCarthy battered Palzer unmercifully for seventeen rounds and landed some fierce swings and upper cuts in the eighteenth before the contest ended, but none of these blows served to flop Palzer to the mat. Once, in one of the early rounds, McCarthy slipped to the floor, but he was up almost before he landed. Palzer's advantage in size over McCarthy is strikingly illustrated in the above picture. Luther is a big fellow, but Palzer was a score or more pounds heavier. Man on right is McCarthy. Note Palzer's eyes are closed and his mouth wide open. The blow delivered is a right cross counter.

Pittsburg Best Club In The Last Twelve Years

Cubs Are Second, Having Won Four Pennants

THE PITTSBURG BASEBALL CLUB has made a better record during the past dozen years than has any other National League club. Awarded one point for first place, two for second place, etc., the team finishing eighth to be charged with eight points. According to the dope, the Pirates have scored only twenty-six points during twelve years, while Boston, generally tall-ender, has piled up eighty-one points. The figures follow:

SAINTS SWAMP M'KINLEY HIGH

Intercollegiate Soccer League. P. W. L. D. P. St. Louis 4 2 0 2 6 Kamehameha 3 2 0 1 5 High School 4 1 2 1 3 Mills' Institute 3 0 3 0 0 Soccer scores are being won high this season in school circles. Yesterday afternoon the hard playing St. Louis college team booted the leather safely into the net six times, while a depleted McKinley High School team was working unsuccessfully to prevent a shut out. A day or so ago the Saints defeated Mills 8 to 0, and with yesterday's big score the former team now leads in goals scored by a big margin, and in points is just one ahead of the Rams. Yesterday's game was almost a duplication of the one against Mills. The Saints took things very easily in the first half, feeling out their opposition by playing a purely defensive game. Only one goal was scored in this period, shortly before the whistle blew. In the second half the collegians opened up and made it a runaway. High appeared with only nine men and played shorthanded, or rather, shortfooted, throughout. The Twenty-fifth Infantry has some speedy soccer teams, and it is probable that there will be a critical audience on the side lines to see the game between the Healanis and Field Artillery to be played at the post Sunday. The Healanis are billed to meet the All-Stars and the Cubs to go against Fort Shafter in the "Y" Basketball League tomorrow evening.

CHINO-STUDENT GAME TOMORROW

The baseball game between All-Students and the All-Chinese tomorrow afternoon will start at 3:30 sharp, and not at 3 o'clock, as originally announced. But the game on Sunday will commence at 3 between the All-Picks and the Chinese. The line-up for tomorrow's game is as follows: All-Students—Schuman, Oahu college c.; Foster Robinson, St. Louis, p.; T. Moriama, St. Louis, 1b.; Bill Opunui, Kamehameha, 2b.; D. Markham, Oahu college (captain), 3b.; C. Moriama, St. Louis, ss.; I. Baldwin, Oahu college, cf.; Alex. Desha, Oahu college, lf. All-Chinese—Kan Yen, c.; Luck Yee or Apan Kau, p.; Albert Akana (captain), 1b.; A. Asau or Kuali, 2b.; Lai Tin, 3b.; V. Avau, ss.; Sing Hung, rf.; En Sue, cf.; L. Akana, lf. Subs: Ping Kong and Hoon Kl. Henry Chillingworth will umpire Saturday's game. Line-up of the All-Hawails, which will play on Sunday: Schuman, c.; Barney Joy, p.; Alex. Desha, 1b.; Franco, 2b.; Markham, 3b.; H. Chillingworth, ss.; Bill Desha, rf.; Bushnell, cf.; Hampton, lf. Strong and fast team, comprising two Stars, four J. A. C.'s, one P. A. C. and two Hawaiis. There will be only one game for Sunday, commencing at 3 o'clock sharp. I read it in the Star-Bulletin. It must be so.

Good News of Polo Ponies From Local Trainer, P. Hannon

Polo news of interest to everyone who is following the fortunes of the All-Hawaii team, which is to go after the Pacific polo championship at Coronado in March, arrived by the last mail from Trainer P. Hannon, who is in charge of the Hawaiian string of ponies, shipped from here Nov. 29 last. That the animals are in good shape is a great relief to players and enthusiasts alike, who feared that the long sea voyage and unaccustomed railroad journey might set them badly off. Hannon writes from Coronado to the sporting editor of the Star-Bulletin as follows:

"Just a line to let you know that we arrived here in December feeling fine. The horses were somewhat knocked out by the trip, but are now in first-class condition and will, I think, make a fairly good showing in the games." It is understood that Walter Billingham has purchased several ponies since his arrival on the Coast, and that Arthur Rice also has some good mounts in view, so that the string as played by the Hawaiians in the tournament will be considerably stronger than when it left here.

CHAMPION HEAVY-WEIGHT HAS HIS SAY

By LUTHER MCCARTY DENVER, Jan. 12.—"I think it is a pretty nice thing to be a champion. Quite a few people speak about a champion, you know, when he once gets up, as losing his interest and such as that, but that does not apply to me. I'll train for every bout in the States as hard as I have for every bout in the past. If I take care of myself and beat the simple life, I think that I ought to hold the championship for at least five years without much trouble."

"I am ready to fight any of the contenders for the title when the proper time comes. I am perfectly willing to fight Jess Willard, and feel confident that I can beat him. I figure, too, that it will be by the knockout route. "I think that Bombardier Wells is a very clever man, but I don't know anything about his durability as yet. He showed great cleverness and speed, but I won't know just how good he is until I see what he does with Al Palzer in their next fight. "I hope that neither Wells nor Willard will meet with defeat until I meet them, as that will give a clear title without an argument. "I like the fighting game fine. I just naturally fell into it. I was never a person to pick fights, but it seemed as if I always got into it. Once in a while I got trimmed and once in a while I didn't. "My hardest fight was with Joe Cox at Springfield. I went down on a train and substituted, and it was six rounds of continual slugging until I finally knocked Cox out. "My next hardest battle was with Jeff Clarke, the man who defeated Jeannette on Labor day. I fought him right after I met Cox, and broke my hand in the third round. It went ten rounds to no decision, and after the third I had to use my right altogether. "I expect to be ready to fight again around February 22, and if not then by March 17, positively. I will box then at Columbus with whomever they select. That will be the day I attain my majority, and I intend to celebrate it."

"In the meantime I expect to do some theatrical work, making some one-night stands first, then picking off week work in New York, Philadelphia and Boston. "The theatrical work doesn't appeal to me as much as the fighting, but it brings the coin and I think I am entitled to a short layoff. "In the last thirteen months I have been fighting I have had seventeen fights, from November 30, 1911, to January 1, 1913, and I think that shows that I am not skipping any of them, particularly as the last two fights with Flynn and Palzer were within three weeks of each other, the second deciding the championship. "Eventually I expect to make my home in Venice, Cal. I figure on buying a home there, as I like the town and they have treated me royally there. "That doesn't mean that I am going to do all my fighting out there, but it will be a sort of headquarters for me."

There's plenty of rivalry, but good feeling goes along with it. Cyril Hoogs had both high score and average, 196 and 178, for the Healanis. "Kid" White had high score and average for the winners, 188 and 179 respectively. The Rapid Transits play the Honolulu tonight.

CASTLE - HENOCH MATCH BEST TENNIS

Only One Set Played When Darkness Closes In and the Match Goes Over Until Today—Wall Cup Event Starts with Some Interesting Games

TODAY'S MATCHES. 4:30 p.m.—Guard vs. K. B. Barnes. Castle vs. Henoeh. 5:00 p.m.—W. Hoogs vs. Collins. Hurd vs. Isard. YESTERDAY'S RESULTS. C. Hoogs beat Dowsett, 5-0. G. J. H. Barnes beat Macaulay, 6-1, 6-4. Hurd beat Perkins, 6-3, 6-4. Castle beat Henoeh, 7-5, post-poned.

By LAURENCE REDINGTON The opening matches of the Wall Cup tournament on the Beretania courts yesterday afternoon brought out some first-class tennis. Doubt as to whether or not the weather would permit play kept most of the regular tennis fans away, and as a result the balls crossed the net in front of almost empty seats, which was a pity. The best play of the afternoon developed when Al Castle and C. Henoeh came together, the former being 15. This proved just about all the odds that Castle could concede, and he had to work hard to win the first set 7-5. When the last point was won and lost, both players decided that it would be too dark to play out another set and the match was consequently postponed until this afternoon.

Henoeh plays a pretty game, his most noticeable stroke being off the ground played with a full arm swing either back or forward. This is especially the German tennis form, developed almost to perfection of speed and accuracy by Gottsmoer, the crack tennis man of Götting, the French phenomenon, out of the running in the international hard court championships played at Paris last spring. Castle saw the match between the two, and likened Henoeh's style to Cienkroth in discussing the play yesterday. The German didn't win the championship, as he met with an auto accident which resulted in a broken wrist the very day he accounted for Götting, but it was generally conceded that had he played he would have won with ease.

Yesterday Henoeh played from the back line almost entirely, the courts, which had not been wet down, being extremely slippery, and throwing him off his balance when he attempted to come in to the net. He used his full-arm stroke to good effect in placing cross court shots to the forehand corner of his opponent's court, well out of reach. Castle negotiated the slippery court in better style, running in often for kills of short returns, usually resulting from backhand tries. The score on the last game of the set was 15-10 on Castle's service, but the latter made a fine brace and won out. A classy player makes his first tournament appearance here this afternoon, when Walter E. Isard takes the courts against Hurd. Isard, who recently arrived here for station as navy paymaster at Honolulu, is a player of considerable prominence, and when he gets thoroughly familiar with court conditions should stack up with the best of the local talent. He won the championship of Manila three years ago from E. S. Gee, well known here, and last summer at Newport lasted into the third round in the national, when he was put out by Washburn, the Harvard crack, after having two sets to his opponent's one, and having 5-9 in his favor. Isard has been rated as Class B in the Beretania event, but the committee may have to place him among the tennis elect before long. The present holder of the Wall cup is A. L. Castle, who beat the late R. Sinclair in the finals last February. The cup should be played for twice a year, but the mid-season tournament was passed over last summer, on account of the press of other events.

TRUE TEST OF MERIT. You judge a man not by what he promises to do, but by what he has done. That is the only true test. Chamberlain's Congit Remedy judged by this standard has no superior. WHIRR OF ARMY AEROPLANES MAY BE HEARD OVER OAHU BEFORE LONG

As more troops are rushed to Oahu, it becomes more likely that an aviation station will be established here, in accordance with the plan of signal corps higher-ups, news of which reached here by "underground wireless" some weeks ago. The army is mighty shy on aviation volunteers, and aside from the strategic advantages of a flying squadron for scouting purposes here, it seems likely that the army will avail itself of the offer of any officers in this department who wish to become aviators. It is understood that the Twenty-fifth Infantry and Fourth Cavalry have several junior officers who are ready to try their luck at flying, and this may hurry the dispatch of a detachment of signal troops for the permanent garrison of Oahu, and the purchase of aeroplanes for this station.

The necessity of securing army officers as expert military aviators is emphasized in the annual report of Brig.-gen. James Allen, chief signal officer of the army. Gen. Allen says the number of expert civilian aviators now available in the United States is not large enough to provide an adequate auxiliary and he does not believe that any marked advance will be made in the manufacture of aeroplanes in this country unless the manufacturers receive support from the government.

"Manufacturers all believe," says Gen. Allen, "that the construction of aeroplanes for exhibition work is practically at an end and the number so far purchased for purposes of amusement has not at all reached the figure that was expected. In case of emergency it does not seem probable that any considerable quantity of properly constructed machines adapted to the military service could be purchased abroad within a reasonable time.

"It is accepted that the aeroplane as it stands today, even if no marked improvements were made in it, is an essential military auxiliary, and up to this time it appears that the military and naval services are the only ones in which it is of special value. It would, therefore, seem that the securing of approximately 100 aviators and 100 machines and the establishment of aviation centers would not be an unreasonable provision for this government to make. With this number provided for the regular service, the art could be extended to the officers of the National Guard, on whom the government is to depend for the large number of aviators that would be required in case of an extended war."

The appropriation granted by Congress for the support of army aeroplanes seems niggardly when compared with the French aeronautical budget of $7,593,000 for 1913. The act of Congress appropriated $100,000 for "the purchase, maintenance, operation and repair of airships and other aerial machines."

"The French government is now planning to organize an aviation regiment of 1,000 aeroplanes. At this time about 1,200 pilots have been licensed in France, including officers and civilians. In the United States 178 have been so licensed.

AVERAGE PRICE RAW SUGAR TEN YEARS OVER FOUR CENTS

Willett & Gray, under date of December 26, give the following reviews of raw and refined sugar prices for 1912, from which it is seen that centrifugals 96 degrees test averaged 4.03 cents a pound for the past ten years: Raw Sugar Price Review, 1912.

The year opened with two sales of spot Centrifugals, 96 deg. test (the standard of raw sugar), one at 4.55c per lb. and one at 4.50c; average 4.525c. From this price the market declined to 4.30c at the end of January, advanced to 4.80c, February 16th, the highest point of the year; declined to 4.35c in March and to 3.85c in April, held about steady in May, declined to 3.53c in June and 3.77c on July 2nd, the lowest point of the year; advanced in July to 4.05c, and to 4.23c at end of August, reaching 4.35c September 4th, declined to 4.05c at end of October remaining steady without change till December 10th when 3.92c was quoted, and the year closed steady at 3.92c.

The opening was 4.525c, the highest 4.80c, the lowest 3.77c, the close 3.92c, and the average for the year 4.168c per lb. against 4.453c in 1911, 4.186c in 1910, 4.007c in 1909, 4.073c in 1908, 3.756c in 1907, 3.866c in 1906, 4.278c in 1905, 3.974c in 1904 and 3.720c in 1903.

The average price for Centrifugals for the past 10 years is 4.03c per lb. The cost and freight quotations for prompt shipment followed closely the parity of the spot quotations throughout the year. The quotations ruled below the parity of Hamburg during the year up to October 1st, from which date quotations were full up to the Hamburg parity for beet sugar until December 10th.

Refined Sugar Price Review, 1912. Fine Granulated (the standard for refined sugar), opened the year at 5.537c per lb., declined to 5.194c at end of January advanced to 5.634c at end of February, the high point of the year, declined to 5.341c in March, to 4.919 in April, to 4.90c in May, advanced to 5.096c early in June, to 4.815c late in June, advanced to 4.90c in July, touched 4.81c in August, and advanced to 4.98c at end of August, remained steady through September, declined to 4.802c October 7th, the lowest of the year, remaining steady and unchanged at 4.802c to the end of year.

The opening price was 5.537c, the highest 5.634c, the lowest 4.802c, and the close 4.802c, the average for the year 5.041c, against 5.345c in 1911, 4.972c in 1910, 4.765c in 1909, 4.97c in 1908, 4.549c in 1907, 4.513c in 1906, 4.256c in 1905, 4.772c in 1904 and 4.628c in 1903, all net cash quotations.

The average difference between raws and refined in 1912 was .878c per lb. against .892c in 1911; .784c in 1910; .758c in 1909; .884c in 1908; .893c in 1907; .829c in 1906; .997c in 1905; .795c in 1904 and .918c in 1903.

The average price for standard refined for ten years was 4.891c per lb. and the average difference between raws and refined for ten years was .861c per lb. Duties on sugar remained unchanged in 1912.

The highest price of raw sugar since 1897 was 5.965c in 1911 and the lowest price 3.25c in 1902.

The highest price for Granulated sugar since 1897 was 6.815c in 1911 and the lowest price 4.21c in 1902.

We predict that refined sugar will rule lower in 1913 than in 1912.

JAPANESE DIED; BURIED AT SEA

A Japanese steamer passenger in the Pacific Mail steamer China died from natural causes the second day out from San Francisco. The remains were buried at sea, the service being read by Bishop Barlow, who is returning to his station on the China missions.

Among the well-known passengers en route to the far east in the Pacific Mail boat are Consul and Mrs. Nagi of San Francisco, who are en route to Japan to spend some months on vacation leave.

Mrs. Claud King, wife of the traveling auditor for the Pacific Mail, is to join her husband, who is now at Hongkong.

The China now has a new chief steward, in the person of John Robertson, who has been identified with the Panama service. He is making his first trip in the trans-Pacific line. Other passengers who arrived were Bishop M. C. Harris of the Methodist Episcopal church, returning to his post at Tokio; F. L. Blake, assistant manager of the American Trading Company in Japan; Marshall Darrach, on a lecture tour, and Mrs. R. Isenberg and family of Honolulu.

Congressman Rodenberg of Illinois has introduced a bill in the house appropriating $2,000,000 for a United States government building at the Panama-Pacific exposition.

Rich philanthropists are to furnish the funds to back a national movement to reclaim victims of the white-slave traffic.

A Wall street syndicate is said to be backing Mrs. Grace Guggenheim in her fight against her former husband, William Guggenheim.

Frank Munsey's published suggestion that the Progressives and old line Republicans bury their differences, join hands and found a new "Liberal" party, does not meet with much favor with the leaders of both parties.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF, 25 CENT "DANDERINE"

Hair Coming Out?—If Dry, Brittle, Thin or Your Scalp Itches and Is Full of Dandruff—Use "Danderine"

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you surely can have is beautiful hair and lots of it. If you will just try a little Danderine—advertisement.

OUTRIGGER CLUB REPORTS A MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The annual meeting of the Outrigger club will be held at the Public Service rooms at one-thirty tomorrow afternoon. Every member is urged to be present and the few who have not sent in their dues for 1913 have been asked to do so before the meeting.

So far about two thousand dollars has found its way into the treasury from dues and there is a balance from last year, which was the most successful in the history of the club, about two thousand dollars worth of improvements having been made on the grounds. The club restaurant has proved a big and self-supporting success, that has brought the members together and is creating a club spirit. The three biggest canoes in the islands are now on their way to the club grounds. A swift racing canoe has been purchased by the club and a number of small canoes are being added. Canoe sheds are to be built in the near future and many improvements are being planned. The success of last year it is hoped will be repeated and everyone is requested to be at the meeting tomorrow afternoon at the Public Service rooms, 150 South King street.

A FAILURE

We told R. A. Crothers, Editor and Proprietor of the San Francisco Bulletin that to convince him Bright's Disease and Diabetes are curable if he would send us a case we would attempt a demonstration.

The result was that we were put in touch with a young physician who had Diabetes. He was so incredulous at first that he would not take the treatment, although there was no charge. When his case became extreme and he was in bed in a dark room he consented. Within four months from the date that Fulton's Diabetic Compound was sent him he called at our office in person to express his gratification and asked what we expected him to do. We replied that all we asked of him was to call on Editor Crothers of the Bulletin and declare the results. He did so. But it seems the disease was not entirely eliminated for about three years thereafter his death was reported.

We do not make strong claims in young cases and were prepared for failure. But who can measure the value of those three years added to the patient's life? Who will say it was not worth while?

If middle-aged or over we look for permanence in many cases. (There have been a number who have been cured for about three years.)

Fulton's Diabetic Compound can be had at Honolulu Drug Company, Fort J. Fulton Company, San Francisco. Ask for pamphlet or write to John Street—advertisement.

LOCAL CHINESE AWAIT NEWS OF ELECTION IN CHINA MARCH FIRST

Lively interest among the Chinese in Hawaii is manifested in the approaching national election in the new republic of China, when the citizens of that great nation select their president and the members of the country's first regularly constituted parliament. This election is to take place March 1.

Lou Sun, former editor of The Liberty News, in Honolulu, is to be a representative in the parliament, but the friends and supporters of Dr. Sun Yat Sen say the latter will not be a candidate for the presidency. They believe Yuan Shih Kai, a powerful man of stern qualities, will be re-elected, and that he is probably the best man for the present administrative job. Gen. Li Yuan Hung, the vice president, they do not regard as a likely candidate for the office of chief executive because, they assert, he is too mild, good-natured and yielding to deal with the present crisis.

It is understood here that one of the first moves which will be made following the receipt of the money from the $25,000,000 loan, given by the Six Powers to the new republic, will be to redeem the paper currency issued during the revolution, taking the paper back at par. The republic, it is stated, still has a year of grace in which to make good its promises of redemption of this currency.

The price of citrus fruits in New York has gone up with a leap as a result of the recent "freeze" in California.

Here is the Answer to that oft asked question: "What will Howard E. Coffin do when he builds a 'Six'?"

The "54" HUDSON answers the question everyone in motordom has been asking for years. All know Howard E. Coffin to be America's foremost engineer. His six famous four-cylinder cars gained a reputation for him which led all to expect a wonderful six from him. But sixes are not like fours, as many a designer has learned to his sorrow. Mr. Coffin realized that, and so, instead of attempting a six alone, he first secured as his associates the men who had already accomplished the most in six-cylinder designing. His men came from the leading factories of Europe and America. There are 48 in all—representing 97 leading motor car manufacturers. Combined, they know just about all that has been learned in motor car building. So the "54" HUDSON—Mr. Coffin's answer—is the composite of what the most successful builders, working together, have accomplished.

Electric Self-Cranking—Electrically Lighted

The Best Car They Know. It is smooth and flexible—the qualities for which sixes are really built, and which inexperienced men seem unable to obtain in the sixes they build. It is powerful—speedy, beautiful, safe and comfortable. Simplicity is a notable feature, and economy in operation is accomplished as it is in but few six-cylinder cars.

Not Just Two Cylinders Added to a "Four" Adding two cylinders to a good four won't even make a poor six. Fours and sixes are entirely different. That is why some sixes give less than 30% increased power when their weight, and fuel and oil consumption are 50% greater than the four of same size, to say nothing of the greater first cost.

Comfort—Speed—Completeness The cushions of the "54" HUDSON are Turkish type—12 inches deep. Backs are high, upholstery thick, springs flexible and the car is so nicely balanced that it will take the worst roads at speed and with little discomfort to passengers.

On the Indianapolis Speedway, a "54" fully equipped, carrying extra tires and four passengers, did 10 miles at 62 miles an hour. One year ago on the same course a $500 prize was forfeited because none of many of the best known four and sixes similarly equipped, driven by famous drivers, were able to do one mile in 60 seconds, flying start.

A "54" Hudson, with full equipment carrying four passengers, was driven from Detroit, Mich., to South Bend, Indiana—198 miles in 5 hours and 20 minutes. The trip was made between 6:30 and 11:50 A.M., July 4, 1912. Stops were made to change a tire and take on gasoline. The roads all the way are considered below the average in quality. The average speed was in excess of 37 miles an hour, without deducting stops.

Every detail of motor car comfort is included in the "54." It is electrically self-cranking, has electric lights, speedometer, clock, top, rain vision windshield, nickel-plated trimmings—21 coats paint and varnish body finish, mountable rims—36x1 1/2 tires, gasoline tank, with magnetic gauge on rear, robe rails, curtains and all the appointments that go with the highest type of car.

The price for either 5-passenger Touring Car, Torpedo or Roadster is $2450; 7-passenger Touring Car, $2600; Coupe, $2950; Limousine, $3750—f.o.b. Detroit.

The "37" built by the same 48 engineers as built the "54," and the masterpiece of all four-cylinder cars, is available with either 5-passenger Touring Car, Torpedo or Roadster, $1875—f.o.b. Detroit. In every detail of equipment, comfort and appointments, it is precisely like the Six.

SILENT CITY IS PHOTOGRAPHED TO CONVINCE THE MOST SCEPTICAL

VALDEZ—One of the best stories regarding a mirage is that told in Alaska concerning the appearance of a city in the sky. This "silent city" is said to have actually been photograph- ed, and though there are sceptics, enough people claim to have seen it to make the story interesting.

The first account of this "City of Sil-ence" was told by a prospector named Willoughby. He was a miner in Cal-ifornia, and went to Alaska, where he settled in the vicinity of Muir glacier. In fact, it was Willoughby who piloted Professor Muir when he ascended the immense ice field that now bears the scientist's name. Willoughby always told the story of this city which ap-peared in the sky with much earnest-ness and he carried a photograph which he said he took after several visits to the spot where the vision could be seen.

When Willoughby first went to Alaska natives told him that at cer-tain times of the year, when the days were longest and the atmospheric con- ditions right they saw suspended in the heavens a town with streets, houses and many different kinds of build- ings. So impressed was he that he engaged the Indians to take him to the place where the city could be seen and in their canoes travelled to the spot.

After several attempts Willoughby at length saw this "silent city," as the natives called it. He said that the atmosphere was so clear that moun- tains many miles away seemed near and that as he gazed the outlines of a city gradually assumed shape and building after building came to view. He distinctly saw tall office buildings,
