COMPANY IS FIRM STRIKE POSSIBLE

Inter-Island Officials And Special Com- mittee of the Har- bor Meet—"Result Get Out or Get Kicked Out", Says Captain Tullett- Corporation in Formal Letter Sounds Warning to "Trouble Makers"

Taking the stand that the company could not in justice to the public and its own stockholders grant the demand of the captains, the board of directors and officials of the company this morning informed a special committee of the harbor that it would stand resolute. In a formal letter addressed to the harbor the company says:

"Gentlemen:—Your letter of even date requesting a conference between a committee from your Harbor and a committee representing this company was received through your committee, and an immediate opportunity afforded your committee to present your views to a full meeting of the board of directors of this company.

"At that meeting, your committee and the board discussed the various questions raised by the committee. The request of the committee, as we construed it after this discussion, was that our company should not discharge any master or mate either because he was a member of your Harbor, or for any spite or personal ill-will against him, or for participation in any active way in the present difficulty.

"Has Aided Harbor in the Past
"It seems unnecessary for the company to say that no person in its employment will be discharged simply because he is a member of your Harbor. Without going into details at all, your records will show that not only has the company not opposed the Harbor as an organization, but has in every way, and at times financially, assisted you in upholding the legitimate objects of your organization. We therefore, unhesitatingly say that should any discharges be made, none of them will be attributable to membership in your Harbor.

"It would likewise appear unnecessary to say that neither employment nor discharge of men will in any manner depend on favoritism or prejudice. As outlined in our recent letter to you, the company owes duties to both the public and its stockholders. Its board of directors having this in view would at no time countenance a policy by which favoritism or prejudice would interfere with these duties. Blames Troublemakers.
"Regarding your last proposition concerning discharges on account of participation in the present difficulties, we would state that the trouble is by no means of recent origin. It, in our opinion, arises from agitations promoted by certain employees of the company whose objects, judged by their acts, appear to have been to embarrass the company in various ways. So far as they are concerned, the company reserves the right to either continue them in its employment or discharge them. Should they be discharged, it will be because their actions have been such as to tend to seriously interfere with the company in giving the service which the public primarily and the stockholders next have the right to demand. Should any of these gentlemen be discharged, neither membership in the Harbor, favoritism nor spite will enter into the matter.

"This letter must not be construed as a departure in any degree whatsoever from the stand of the company taken in its letter to you of January 29, 1913. First, last and always, the company reserves the right to employ and discharge men for any reason which to the company seems sufficient and just in any individual case.

"Yours respectfully,
"INTER-ISLAND STEAM NAVIGATION CO. LTD.
"By NORMAN P. GEDGE,
Secretary.

"It's walk out or get kicked out." Such was the statement of Captain Tullett, chairman of the special committee of the Harbor, after meeting the full board of directors and officials of the Inter-Island Company at eleven o'clock this morning. Captain Tullett added:

MAJOR TIMBERLAKE TO REMAIN FIRST IN COMMAND

A private letter from a high army official in Washington brings the definite announcement that Major E. J. Timberlake, commanding the Artillery District of Hawaii, will not be superseded in command by a field officer of higher rank, until his tour of duty in Hawaii is completed. This news means that the orders of Colonel Haines to proceed to Honolulu and take command of the district, have been countermanded.

Tullett, chairman of the special committee of the Harbor, after meeting the full board of directors and officials of the Inter-Island Company at eleven o'clock this morning. Captain Tullett added:

"The company stands pat, and refuses to budge from the position. We expected this. We wanted to make sure, however, that the directors did not think we were, have been, or would in the future attempt to dictate to the company whom it should discharge. All we wanted was to gain assurance that the spite of the president would not be allowed to oust good men and faithful employees from the service of the company because of any connection with our Harbor. This was refused us. Personally, it makes little difference to me who stands the harbor takes, as I am expecting to leave here within a few days for the Coast, where I am going to live. But for the sake of the skippers themselves I would have liked to see some sort of guarantee given that they would receive fair treatment."

Acting under instructions of the harbor, the special committee of captains met the officials of the company this morning in conference. Prior to the meeting Captain Tullett, chairman of the corporation, sent the president of the committee, the following letter:

Gentlemen:—At a meeting of Harbor 54 held yesterday for the purpose of considering the controversy now existing between this Harbor and your company, it was decided by unanimous vote to accept your invitation for a conference and herewith request that you appoint your committee, and name the hour for such meeting.

Harbor 54 convenes again at 3 p. m. today, at which time the committee has been instructed to report.

COMMITTEE.
Pending the result of the meeting, none of the committee would discuss the probable outcome, although Captain Tullett said that the reports of yesterday's had been incorrectly reported and that the vote of the harbor was simply one to give the public assurance that every effort was being used by the captains to bring about peace. "We are not freebooters seeking to force the company into paying us more money or give us shorter hours. All we want is the assurance that so long as we do our work we shall be treated like humans," he said in conclusion.

WILSON NOW PLANS TO PAY HAWAII VISIT

President Contemplates Trip Through to Philippines Next Fall

President Woodrow Wilson himself will visit Hawaii next fall, according to reports that have recently come from the mainland.

On January 26 a report was telegraphed from Washington that when President Wilson has the extra session of Congress off his hands he will visit Hawaii, the Philippines and Alaska. The extra session is expected to end early in September, and the Democratic president's trip would accordingly begin about September 15.

Under date of Jan. 26 the following telegraphed report was sent from Washington:

"President-elect Wilson plans to personally investigate conditions in the Philippines and Alaska, according to information obtained here today from one of the governor's closest congressional advisers and from other congressmen who have been to Trenton recently.

"The trip to the Philippines, according to the governor's present plan, is to be made soon after the extra session, which will begin about March 15th, has ended. This would make the date for the new president's voyage to the far east about the middle of next September.

"Wilson is reported to have fully decided to investigate conditions in the Philippines at first hand. This means that there will be no action by Congress on the Jones bill giving the Philippines independence in 1921 until after Wilson returns.

To Decide For Himself.
"The Jones measure therefore probably will not come up in Congress for more than a year from this date. A

Eames To Defense Of Pineapple Industry

Hawaii Man Given Hearing By House Ways and Means Committee

Declaring that the young pineapple industry in Hawaii would be demoralized by a reduction in the pineapple tariff without a reduction on tin and sugar, materials the manufacturers of W. Eames, who recently went to the mainland on behalf of local pineapple interests, made a strong statement before the house ways and means committee at a special hearing.

Reports of Mr. Eames' strong speech have been received. He declared to the congressmen:

Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the committee, I represent by request other growers and packers of pineapples of the Hawaiian Islands. The present law has worked quite satisfactorily, enabling us to compete on fairly equal terms with foreign producers, who have free trade and cheap labor.

The industry has grown in about 10 years from nothing to a pack last year of about 27,000,000 cans, of a valuation of about $4,000,000. The pack of 1913 was 32,000,000 cans.

The industry is many small growers and independent planters, and is doing much to diversify agriculture and increase small land holdings in the islands.

There are 10 independent canneries and another projected. There are many small producers that are homesteaders on government land, and pineapples is the only crop in the absence of water for irrigating that promises them any profit in growing.

Tourists Are Flocking Fast Into Honolulu

"Tourists are flocking thick and fast to Honolulu, and I believe that this will be the biggest year yet," said Secretary Wood, of the promotion committee this morning, after looking over the list of the large number of passengers which arrived on the Sierra. "We have been keeping track of the arrivals and the figures show that 1193 tourists have arrived since the first of the year."

In looking over the hotel registers, it has been found that, while many of the tourists are coming from Canada, the largest number are from the large eastern cities. Besides San Francisco, Denver, Colorado, is credited with any one city, and there is a good sized Denver colony in the city now and more are expected. The two reasons which are set forth as the cause of this amount of travel to Hawaii, are undoubtedly believed to be the extensive advertising of both Hawaii and the Mid-Winter Carnival, and Walter S. Smith's lectures. The hotels are rapidly filling up and already the promotion committee is advertising for rooms in private and public houses. The tent city, which was suggested some time ago, is likely to have to be resorted to.

In a cablegram received by the promotion committee from Walter G. Smith this morning, Mr. Smith is present in Omaha, Nebraska, where he is scheduled to deliver two lectures. Mr. Smith has met with great success since he entered the States from Canada, and he is now in his way farther west.

George Bury, vice-president of the western lines of the Canadian-Pacific Railroad, will pass through Honolulu en route to the coast on the Chiyo Maru, February 25. It is expected that during his short stay in Honolulu that the promotion committee will learn the opinion definitely of the proposed plans of the Canadian Pacific with regard to the two excursions to Honolulu which are scheduled to take place within the next month.

MOVEMENT TO FORM AN ARMY RESERVE HERE

Plans of General Staff to In- crease Strength of Oahu's Mobile Army Being Quietly Carried Out by Army Author- ities here—A U. S. Force

Plans of the War Department to increase the defensive strength of Oahu as much as possible, in the shortest possible time, are being quietly carried out by the Department of Hawaii. To guard against invasion of the island, and consequent capture of the great naval base at Pearl Harbor, a strong force of United States Reserves are being organized here, entirely independent of the territorial national guard, and already the army dragnet is out for discharged soldiers who will be willing to enlist in this new force.

An army will be provided by the United States government, drills will be held at regular intervals, and the whole organization will go into an instruction camp once a year. The officer in command will be a regular army officer, and the company officers will be appointed by examination. The organization is to be under the orders of the United States government alone. This is the plan for Hawaii, formed in accordance with the army appropriation act of last year, which provided for the enlistment in the army reserve for three years, of any honorably discharged soldier not over 45 years of age. However, the U. S. reserve for Oahu is to be a compact and well organized body of fighting men, drilled to the minute, and ready at all times to answer a call to the colors. It will not be merely a paper organization of former soldiers, who would have to be mobilized, equipped, and to a great extent drilled before they could take the field, but a first class military command that could be ordered out at a few hours' notice, and could fight side by side with the regu-

SQUADRON GETS OUT OF CLOSE QUARANTINE

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Feb. 3.—Tomorrow the 1st squadron, Fourth Cavalry, will move from the temporary camp which they have occupied since their arrival at Schofield Barracks, to quarters assigned to them on the north end of line of troop quarters, having been barred from quarters on account of the arrival of the recruit detachment at the post in advance of the troops upon disembarking from the transport January 13, when they were sent to the post for quarantine after the discovery of a case of spinal meningitis the day after docking at Honolulu.

This will be a welcome change to the members. It things that its share of the time in "rag houses" has elapsed, having been in camp on or near the Mexican border in the states for the past two years. Also the recruit detachment and non-commissioned officers therewith will be glad to be relieved from the close confinement of the past three weeks, and last, but not least, the guard detail will be diminished by some four non-commissioned officers and twenty-one privates. This has necessarily been placed around the barracks since arrival at the post.

The detachment has been carried as a separate organization since arrival at Fort Huachuca, Ariz., in December, but will now join the troops to which assigned and be quartered in the barracks with the respective troops. Promotion Board Called.

A board convened to examine officers for promotion will soon start work to determine the fitness for promotion of the following named officers of the Fourth Cavalry: Captain Louis C. Sherer and John O'Shea to Major, 1st Lieut. Jens E. Stedje, Wm. B. Renziehausen to Captain, 2nd Lieut. Robert M. Cheney and Robert C. Rodgers to 1st Lieut. On the board are the field officers of the 4th Cavalry, at present consisting of Col. Wm. D. Beach, Lt. Col. J. G. Galbraith and Maj. Letcher Hardeman with Captain Cullen as medical officer.

Quartermaster Sergeant Donaldson, Troop C, has been relieved and Sergeant Edward Stelt appointed in his place. Sergeant Donaldson was winner of the 100-yard dash in the preliminary tryouts on field day and is now showing the others how to do it over again, being one of the best short-

ALLIES PREPARED TO STRIKE HARD AT FOE

Bulgaria And Other Balkan States Ready to Attack Main Positions of the Turks- Ottoman Army Reported to be in Serious Revolt, Demanding Execution of the Murderers of Nazim Pasha- Young Turks Reported Terror Stricken And Leaving Constantinople

[Associated Press Cable]
SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 3.—With the armies of the allies prepared to strike hard and fast at the foe, it was announced here this morning that active warfare against the Turk will be resumed by all the Balkan states this evening, after a formal notification has been sent to the powers and to Constantinople.

The city is jubilant at the prospect and the streets are filled with shouting crowds. From roundabout sources comes news that the Turkish army is disorganized, and practically in a state of mutiny. Dispatches from Berlin announced that information there is to the effect that the Muslim forces are seething with revolt and that the Young Turk leaders are fleeing from Constantinople in fright. The army, or a large part of it, is demanding the arrest and execution of the murderers of Nazim Pasha, but the Sultan, completely in the hands of his advisors, has so far refused to take any step.

Income Tax Amendment Sure

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—It is now assured that the federal income tax amendment, which has been before the people of the United States for years, will be incorporated in the constitution. The last state needed to complete the three-fourths necessary has signified its approval of the principle involved. Today Washington, the power house of New Mexico and Colorado ratified the amendment within ten minutes of each other. It now is certain that at the present session of congress proper legislation will be passed to embody the amendment in the fundamental law of the land.

This is the first amendment to be passed by the people since the Civil War.

U. S. Loses Big Trust Suit

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—The supreme court of the United States today handed down a decision which is a severe blow to the government's anti-trust suits. The decision holds that the United Shoe Machinery Company is not a corporation in restraint of trade within the meaning of the Sherman act. This is the first reverse the attorney-general has sustained in the "trust-busting" fights of the past half dozen years.

Chinese Fight For Mongolia

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—The Chinese of America and Canada have started a subscription for a fund of $300,000 to be used in securing the restoration of Mongolia to the Chinese Republic. It is said that subscriptions are pouring in upon the local committees all over the country.

WILSON WILL TAKE HIS SECRETARY WITH HIM

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 3.—President-elect Wilson today announced that he will appoint Patrick Joseph Tumulty as his private secretary when he acceded to the presidential office. Tumulty has been Wilson's secretary since the latter became governor. He is a college man, who, like William F. McCombs, enlisted on the side of Wilson some years ago and has been with him through his recent political campaigns.

STANDARD OIL MELON CUT—TEN MILLIONS FOR INO. D.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Although Standard Oil is officially and legally dissolved, the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the parent corporation, has cut a melon in the shape of dividends of forty dollars per share. John D. Rockefeller, it is estimated, has ten millions added to his wealth by the process.

KING MENELIK IS AGAIN REPORTED DEAD

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 3.—King Menelik, of Abyssinia, is again reported dead. The rumor is unconfirmed, and as his demise has been reported several times previously, doubt exists as to its authenticity.

HAWAII SEPARATE
IS NEWS
An Associated Press cable from Washington carries the news that the plan of the general staff for re-organization of the army into six geographical departments has been adopted, and that Hawaii is to be an independent command, similar in its administrative functions to commands now known as divisions. The word division is to be done away with except as a tactical army unit, and the word department to take its place. This plan will make the army organization here the Hawaii department, independent unit, accountable only to the War Department, instead of the Department of Hawaii, a sub-division of the Western Division.

This plan was suggested last year in the report of the general staff, and a board of general officers, of which

CARGO AND CABIN

HOODOO HOVERS AT EQUATOR

The Oceanic liner Sonoma, sailing from Honolulu at noon Sunday, January 26, is reported by cable received at the agency of C. Brewer & Company, to have reached San Francisco at six o'clock yesterday evening, completing the voyage with but one screw in action, in a trifle over seven days.

The vessel left but two days, through the accident that caused the loss of her starboard propeller, is regarded in shipping circles in the light of a remarkable performance.

Officers in the Sierra that arrived from the coast this morning predicted that the Sonoma would sail from San Francisco for Honolulu, Pago Pago and Sydney on time. The vessel is due to return here on February 17, immediately following the disaster to the propeller, the ship was in touch through wireless and later by cable with the home office and all arrangements for the replacing of screw and shaft were completed before the vessel reached the coast. The company has been enabled to figure on the amount of attention the vessel will require at the hands of the machinists. A new shaft has been built and was ready to be fitted with the arrival of the Sonoma at San Francisco.

The Sonoma, however, has not been the only vessel in the south sea trade to suffer misfortune on recent voyages.

The Union Steamship Company's liner Aorangi, Captain W. Stevens, which arrived at San Francisco from Sydney via Rarotonga and Tahiti, had a touch of the hard luck that seems to have been roosting on the trans-Pacific trail.

Now comes the Aorangi, two days late with a record of having come to a full stop seven times on account of a recalcitrant crank pin.

The longest stop was for 13 hours, between Rarotonga and Tahiti. On top of these pauses came a week of strong head winds.

The passengers, however, had a good time and even the stops were welcomed, as they afforded an opportunity to fish for sharks. Several big manatees were caught, the biggest, 15 feet long, was captured by the boatswain.

The liner docked at the coast port just in time to enable a number of the passengers to connect with the early overland train which they had to catch in order to reach New York in time for the trans-Atlantic steamer, on which they had booked passage for Europe.

MARAMA MAY BE WATCHED

The Canadian-Australasian liner Marama from Vancouver and Victoria in steaming around Diamond Head early yesterday afternoon, is declared to have been visited by a swift moving serpent that was observed by a number of people as shooting out from a position between Koko Head and Diamond Head, taking a direct course for the British steamer, making a complete circle around the liner and then returning to the shore.

Opium was at once believed to be the motive for the rather unusual proceeding in which the fishing boat figured.

For some time past, the Canadian Australasian liners have not been subjected to the same rigid inspection and search as those vessels engaged in the trans-Pacific service between San Francisco and the Far East.

The statement was made this morning that it would be a comparatively easy thing for a large quantity of opium to be placed aboard the British steamers as they are in more or less direct touch at Sydney with liners that make regular trips between Australia and China and Japan.

CUPID'S SHAFTHITS OFFICER

With the retirement of William H. McNulty from the purser's office in the Oceanic liner Sonoma, that reached San Francisco last night, Walter Pray, who recently visited Honolulu in company with Sam Williams in the Sierra, will take over the duties of purser in the Australian liner, that is to return here en route to the colonies on February 17th.

The announcement made this morning with the arrival of the Sierra that Pray was to join forces with the Oceanic company, was received with much pleasure by his friends here.

One of the interesting changes noted in the personnel of officers on board the Sierra upon arrival here, was the absence of Dr. M. H. Schutz, who is reported as having figured in a delightful little romance connected with the round trip completed by Miss Mae Bennett, the successful candidate in a San Francisco newspaper beauty contest. Miss Bennett, while winning a distinguished string of suitors for her hand and heart, number several, drawn from the youth and flower of Honolulu, is said to have looked also with favor upon the opportunities of the handsome and dignified young medical officer in the Sierra.

The interesting tidings brought down by the Sierra this morning that Dr. Schutz tore himself away from a romantic and promising career of a steamship surgeon in order to be near the object of his affections, will be received here with mingled feelings of surprise and consternation by a select circle of eligible bachelors.

Dr. H. Mackenzie, an old-timer in the Pacific Mail service, who left the steamer Mongolia last April, is now looking after the health and attending happiness of Sierra travelers.

The Sierra sailed from San Francisco with but half a complement of cabin passengers. The vessel could have easily accommodated 25 passengers in the saloon had they applied for transportation to the islands. In the opinion of Oceanic officials, there is no unusual demand for passage to the Hawaiian islands that cannot be cared for by the steamers now in the trans-Pacific service. The Sierra arrived this morning with but 128 passengers in the cabin when the vessel's capacity can easily accommodate 250.

The vessel brought twenty-two passengers in the steerage. In the freight list were seven automobiles. The cargo for Honolulu amounts to 2,129 tons, mainly general merchandise and supplies for local importers. The steamer met with fine weather on the voyage.

While all was calm without, passengers who traveled to this paradise of the Pacific reported considerable storm within the confines of the ship, an unpleasant feature that developed a few evenings before the liner came in sight of the islands. An irate masculine traveler is said to have entered a vigorous protest concerning the alleged marked attention paid his wife by a fellow-traveler. High-pressure conversation on the upper decks soon led to an interchange of blows. One passenger was noticed wearing a somewhat damaged proboscis on stepping ashore this morning. A peace pact, however, has been framed up, following a challenge to fight a duel on a Honolulu greensward.

MOVEMENT FOR RESERVE

lars on an equal footing of training and experience.

Seeking for Reservists.

A circular has been issued by the Department of Hawaii, signed by the adjutant general, Lieut.-Col. Campbell, explaining the purposes of the reserve and asking former soldiers whether they would be willing to enlist.

To quote:

"It is desired to learn the number of honorably discharged soldiers in Oahu in order that a plan for forming a reserve here may be worked out if possible.

"This paper does not bind you in any way whatever and an expression of your views is desired for information only."

The recipient is asked to answer a number of questions as to past and present business, length of service and former rank, etc., and then follows the question:

"Would you enlist in a company of U. S. Reserves drilling six times a month, and going into camp one week each year, with an armory and full equipment provided by the U. S. Government, the company officers to be appointed by examination and the officer in command to be a regular officer. Such an organization, in case of war, or when called into service in the event of threatened war, not to be broken up, but to serve as a body, the men to receive the same bounty and pay as the rest of the reserve. The organization outlined would be under the orders of the U. S. Government alone."

Another question asked, is: "Would you join a company of the Hawaiian Guard, if composed largely of ex-regular soldiers?"

It is understood that these circulars have been sent out to more than a hundred former soldiers here, and that there is considerable enthusiasm manifested in the plan. The quick move on the part of army officials to organize the reserves here is considered by those "in the know" to be highly significant of the eagerness of Washington to "make Oahu impregnable" in as short order as possible.

FLOGGING FOR WIFE-BEATERS

SACRAMENTO, January 17.—Wife beaters are to be whipped in the jail yard by the Sheriff or his deputy of each county before an audience of at least twelve persons and a lash is to be laid on from five to thirty times, according to the sentence imposed by the Court. Such are the provisions of the bill introduced into the Senate today by Senator John Cassidy of San Francisco. The specifications of the whip to be used are:

To be made of six pieces of rawhide leather, one-eighth of an inch thick, one-half-inch wide and not less than thirty-inches long, this lash to be attached securely to a handle, at least twelve inches long. The twelve lashes are to be selected by the Sheriff.

Wife Beater Among 11 to be Whipped.

WILMINGTON, Del., Jan. 10.—Wife beaters will not be tolerated in this State. In the Newcastle County Court here today Joseph Smith was sentenced to twenty lashes and two months' imprisonment for the offense. It was his second.

Last September he was convicted of beating his wife, and was sentenced to ten lashes and one month in jail. Today, notwithstanding the jury recommended mercy, the former punishment was doubled. Judge Conrad, in imposing sentence through an interpreter, told the man "Not to come back again or you will not get off nearly so well."

The wife beater will be whipped tomorrow in the county workhouse along with ten other prisoners. The number of lashes to be in "total one hundred and thirty. All the men will be whipped on their bare backs in the open air.

About 500 feet of the north jetty at the entrance to Grays Harbor was destroyed by the last severe storm, entailing a loss in money from $5000 to $10,000.

As an example of the completeness of HUDSON cars, the upholstery is important. The cushions are Turkish type, 12 inches deep.

Compare HUDSON easy riding with other cars you may have thought of.

Comfort in automobiling comes from mechanical security—a car that keeps going as long as you want it to go, without halt or stop, and does not require any of the time-wasting, fussing delays of readjustment or tightening nuts or bolts that are irritating interferences with motor car satisfaction.

What more can you want?

What better assurance could be offered than that these men, who possess about all the knowledge that has thus far been gained in automobile building, have joined in saying "The New HUDSONS are the best we know."

The HUDSON "37" is their four-cylinder masterpiece. It sells at $1875, completely equipped with electric self-cranking device and electric lights, speedometer, clock, top, windshield and 12-inch upholstery. There is nothing more to buy.

The "34" HUDSON—Six, capable of doing 65 miles an hour and a speed of 58 miles in 30 seconds from a standing start, is offered as a car superior to any automobile on the market. It sells at $2490, completely finished and equipped as above. Price is f.o.b. Detroit.

I have not stopped to consider public sentiment in the present situation, because public sentiment in an affair of this sort is always selfish. ## Japanese Enter South Sea Service

In connection with the newly-opened South Sea service of steamers, Mr. Yukawa, director of the mercantile marine bureau, is quoted to the effect that the Hani-maru, which left for South Sea ports with merchandise, Formosan tea and coal on board, returned to Kobe. He has not as yet received any formal report, but according to information available, the ship was greatly benefited by the bad sugar crop in Formosa, and returned to Japan, carrying a large amount of Java sugar, and there can be no doubt that the voyage was more successful than was expected.

Y. M. C. A. TO CARRY ON BROAD EXTENSION WORK AT OAHU POSTS

If the present plans of the local Young Men's Christian Association are carried out, permanent associations will be established at the various military and naval posts on the island of Oahu for the benefit of the soldiers and sailors.

When interviewed this morning on what the Young Men's Christian Association would do to carry out the recommendation of Fred B. Smith and Raymond Robins, leaders of the Men and Religion Forward Movement, with regard to covering the needs of the soldiers and sailors in and about Honolulu, General Secretary Paul Super said:

"The army and navy work of the Young Men's Christian Association is under a separate department at the head of which is A. M. Sloane, the New York merchant, with John S. Tichenor as secretary. Any movement to organize local army and navy associations must come through this committee, and I have been working for some time stirring it up to realize the local needs. When in New York last May, I had an interview with Mr. Tichenor and laid out the matter before him in the best way I could, but it does not seem to have stirred him up very much since then. I have sent him several clippings from the local newspapers concerning the development of the army and navy on the island of Oahu, and still nothing happens.

"The members of the Men and Religion team have suggested that we take a stronger attitude toward the local needs of the soldiers and sailors and request that Mr. Tichenor come to Honolulu at once, make a study of the situation and then co-operate in securing the funds necessary for obtaining equipments and employed forces. Personally, I think that these recommendations will settle upon about three centers; first, a Y. M. C. A. equipment for Schofield Barracks, which Chaplain Scott tells me is now the largest military post in the world with regard to the number of men; second, provision for the erection of a naval association building at Pearl Harbor, and third, another building to be decided upon at a later date. The various military posts are scattered over Honolulu for a distance of seven miles from Fort Shafter to Fort Ruger, and it is not likely one building could serve the needs of all the men, as the effective work will have to be done at the post itself.

"In case Mr. Tichenor can be prevailed upon to pay a visit to the islands he will probably recommend the addition of a secretary to the force of the central association who would study the conditions here and eventually develop a work. The central association can hardly be a factor in the soldier and sailor problem. It was built to accommodate the young men and boys of the city and must remain a civilian building. While we have a number of soldiers as members of the association, long experience has proven that successful work for them in the khaki must be done near the post, where the men center largely. Although we have soldiers in the association we do not more than touch the finger of the military. In order to accomplish any kind of successful work, the buildings for the soldiers and the sailors must be located at or near the posts."

SPRIGHTLY NEWSPAPER TO CONTAIN ALL THE NEWS OF 'ROARING CAMP'

Although destined to live but a week, "The Roaring Camp Daily Howler," the official organ of the local Elks, which will make its initial appearance "the first" day of the Carnival week, promises to be one of the greatest feats of modern journalism ever attempted.

Already Editor Henshall, the well known press representative, has chosen for his reportorial staff a number of expert news writers who grind out the daily reading for thousands of local people, and Business Manager Doyle is scouting around for nothing less than full page advertisements. This new organ of public information will have the largest circulation of any newspaper in the world. In Greeley's day newspapers were judged by their editorials, but today they are judged largely by their style of headlines. The "Roaring Camp Daily Howler" will have both, for, aside from the twenty or thirty reporters, the paper has secured the services of a staff of expert editors, writers, copy readers, and copy butchers.

The office where this great metropolitan journal will be issued will contain the most perfect plant for the publication of a newspaper that has ever been seen anywhere. Fifteen linotype machines, two enormous Hoe presses, and two steamers of type metal are now on their way from the mainland on specially chartered steamers, and are expected to arrive at any moment.

Through the use of the wonderful Z-Rays, which came into prominence a short time ago with the departure of the Thetis to Midway, the Howler will be kept informed day and night of every important happening throughout the world. Two special correspondents are already on their way to the front of the Balkan war, and the latest news, together with photographs, which will also be conveyed by the marvelous Z-Rays, will pour into the office at all times. It is not known at present just how many pages of this paper will be printed each day, but each issue will contain no less than thirty.

For the benefit of the fair sex of the city, a prominent local society reporter is now on her way to London, where she will gather the latest news of the suffragette embroglio which is now running rampant in that part of the globe. A special staff of sporting writers will canvass the city and the complete returns of every game of marbles played during the week will be among the many things which will be reported. Thousands of newsboys have been engaged to sell the papers on the streets, and it is expected that the greatest part of the daily issue of ten thousand papers will be disposed of in this way.

Communications which escape the eyes of the trained corps of reporters will be gratefully received at the office between eight o'clock in the morning and seven o'clock in the evening. No anonymous communications will be printed. In order to save time in getting over their runs, a number of high-power automobiles have been placed at the disposal of the reporters, and in this way every news field will be rapidly covered.

There will probably be several editions of the paper each day on account of the great amount of news which will be in evidence during the Carnival week. That the paper will please its thousands of readers, is now an assured fact, and it is requested that all kicks, should there be any, be addressed to the editor of the football column.

month ago the bill was scheduled to be considered at this session, but the Democratic leaders side-tracked consideration, and it is now believed that action was delayed on the bill because of Wilson's intention, known at that time to a few of his advisers, to personally learn whether the Filipinos are capable of self-government.

"Since Wilson was elected there has been a steady stream of Congressional caucuses at Trenton, all talking principally on the Philippine situation. Some of these Senators told Wilson the Philippines should not be given independence, and others insisted on the passage of the Jones bill.

"Wilson has taken the only method to settle these conflicting statements by personally looking into the situation in the islands.

"Will Visit Alaska.

"Similarly the Governor intends to personally investigate the Alaskan situation, particularly in regard to the clamor on the Pacific Coast for the territory's vast coal lands to be opened to the public. It is expected that he will make the trip to Alaska soon after his return from the Philippines, and look into the coal situation thoroughly.

"The President-elect already has announced his trip to the Panama canal and with his Alaska and Philippine jaunts may start out to rival Taft's record as a Presidential traveler."

EAMES SPEAKS

This is proven by the large quantity of both canned and fresh pineapples that were imported this year into this country. Pineapples cost more to pack than peaches, pears or apricots, as they cut much more to waste and take more sugar, and consequently should sell higher in the market. They exhaust the soil so they will continually cost more to grow, requiring more fertilizer every year.

Industry Not Yet Entirely Established

As to the profits of the business, the oldest cannery in the islands has only paid one dividend. Two canneries in 1908 and 1909 failed—one went out of business, the other the stockholders lost all they put in it, but it has been recognized under another name and is running, but its dividends as yet have been in red ink.

"I think three companies have done quite a profitable business and it is possible one other has made a little money. But they all have hopes of doing better and are increasing their output.

"Your petitioner respectfully represents that he is engaged in the business of growing and packing pineapples in the Hawaiian Islands; that he appears before your committee on behalf of the growers and packers of the Hawaiian Islands, and in his own personal belief, to be heard on paragraph 274 of the present law, so far as it relates to canned pineapples.

Present Law Satisfactory.

"Your petitioners are satisfied with the present law and would prefer no change. Under its operation the industry of growing and packing pineapples in the Hawaiian Islands has increased from 329,000 cases produced in 1908, to 1,150,000 cases produced in 1912. The value of the production last year was approximately $4,000,000. There are ten canneries on different islands, all independent; many small producers who are homesteaders. Within a year the government has disposed of the large tracts of land under the island homestead law in small holdings of about fifty acres each for the growth of pineapples. No other crop, in the absence of necessary water for irrigating, can be grown by them for profit. The government has other tracts available for pineapple growing, which can not be profitably put to any other use, and these will be disposed of under the island homestead law in the near future if the industry continues to be profitable. It will thus be observed that the continued growth of the pineapple industry is a necessary factor in the development of the islands.

Bad Effects of Construction of Dingley Law.

At the time the present law was passed the pineapple industry in Hawaii was in a precarious condition. The production in 1908 was 329,000 cases—a little more than one-fourth of the production last year—and yet not half of the crop of 1908 could be marketed in the United States, at a profit. This was due to the fact that the market in the United States was fully occupied by importations from Singapore and the West Indies. This situation was created by a ruling made by customs officers construing the paragraph in the Dingley law governing the admission of canned pineapple packed in sugar. This decision operated to the benefit of importers and the foreign producer. This ruling practically nullified the clause in the Dingley law imposing a duty of 35 per cent and 1 cent per pound. The importations of pineapple under the Dingley law amounted to approximately 400,000 cases a year—more than the entire annual production of the Hawaiian Islands and three times as much as our producers were able to market in the United States. Fully half of this importation came from Singapore and was produced by cheap labor.

Beneficial Effect Present Law.

The Payne-Aldrich law gave the Hawaiian producers relief from this condition by rewriting the language imposing a duty on canned pineapple so that the duty of 35 per cent and 1 cent a pound on pineapple packed with added sugar was not open to misconstruction.

"The effect of this legislation was immediately to revive the industry and we were enabled to market our carryover of nearly 200,000 cases of the 1908 pack, and since then our pack has increased from 329,000 cases to 1,150,000 cases. If the same relative protection is maintained, the industry will continue to grow rapidly.

Probable Effect of Lowering Present Duties.

The effect on importations of lowering the present duty on canned pineapples can best be judged by what actually happened under the Dingley law.

At that time by a ruling construing the paragraph affecting pineapples packed with sugar added, as cited above which practically nullified the intent of the law and lowered the duty from 35 per cent, with 1 cent per pound added, to 25 per cent flat with the result as heretofore stated; that for example, in 1908, more than half of the Hawaiian production remained unmarketed.

Comparison of Wages and Conditions.

We can not compete for cheapness in production with Singapore, where the growers and canners are all Chinese with common labor at 8 to 10 cents a day and foremen and skilled labor 25 cents a day. While we pay in the Hawaiian Islands for labor in our fields and canneries from $1.10 to $1.35 for common male laborers and $2 to $3 a day for foremen and $5 to $8 a day for skilled labor and superintendents.

The wages of our labor have increased 35 per cent in the last ten years, and will continue to increase. In Singapore the wages are stationary. We make comparison of wage conditions with Singapore, because under the operation of the Dingley law, when the importations were heavy, about half the total amount imported came from Singapore.

Practically all the materials we use in the canning industry are protected by tariff duties, and for this reason in many instances cost us more than the same materials cost the producers of canned pineapples in foreign producing countries. Chief of these items is tin-plate, sugar and box shooks, hats, cutlery machinery, farm implements, rubber gloves, of which we use $7000 to $8000 per annum, and various other materials.

It would be manifestly unfair and unjust to reduce duties on our products and leave duties on the materials we are compelled to use.

While our industry is young and un-seasoned, still we do not ask any special privileges. We desire only to be on an equal with the foreign producer with his free materials and cheap labor.

If the duty on tin and sugar is reduced or removed, then the 35 per cent on pineapples may be correspondingly reduced without serious injury to our industry, but a duty of 1 cent a pound should be maintained, whether packed with sugar or in juice or water, to counterbalance the difference in labor cost.

Cool-Laden Wreck is Sighted. The bark Thora passed a dismasted vessel and reported the same to the shipping authorities at Sydney, N. S. W. The Thora was about 300 miles off Cape Farewell, N. Z., early on the morning of Dec. 25, when the crippled vessel was sighted. She was some distance off, but an examination of the aid of glasses showed that it was a large bark, apparently coming from Newcastle. Her foretopmast was gone, and the topmast also deranged. The main topmast had two ribs set, also a fore or topmast, and two main staysails, main upper and lower topmasts, mizzen staysails were also set, had all the appearance of having a severe buffeting.

The dismasted vessel, it is believed, met with heavy gales off the Zealand coast, the weather had been most tempestuous there for some time.

ON THE WAY TO HARMONY

A samer temper, a more reasonable spirit, is evident today in the Inter-Island and Masters' Association controversy. While conferences between the association and the company are still under way, it seems probable that there will be no strike or walk-out, and that the association will not insist on its demand that the Inter-Island arbitrate the dismissal of employees.

The Star-Bulletin regards the situation today not as a victory for the company or a defeat for the men, but as a distinct triumph for the rights of the public. Throughout this controversy the Star-Bulletin has insisted that the right of the public is paramount, and that every resource of conference and meeting should be exhausted before there would arise any necessity of resorting to a strike or walkout. This paper has seen justice and merit on each side of the controversy, as well as sincerity and determination. The third party, the public, has had no representative in the delicate negotiations except the almost intangible power of public sentiment.

The Star-Bulletin has endeavored to treat all parties fairly and honestly and to speak for the public of Hawaii. It is gratifying to note that both sides are paying heed to the interests of this third party, the public, and making attempts to avert an open break.

Mr. E. F. Bishop put the case well yesterday in an open letter emphasizing this public interest and urging, as the Star-Bulletin has been urging, that the offer of the Inter-Island to meet the association in conference be accepted.

There seems much hope that peace will come from the conferences now on. And now, as always, it is shown that neither corporation nor labor organization can afford to run counter to the body of public opinion.

ADROIT TARIFF ENEMIES

Hawaii came in for a good many sharp thrusts before the House ways and means committee when the sugar tariff was under consideration last month. Nor, so far as the records show, was there any vigorous attempt made to answer the repeated and often unfounded accusations made against the sugar industry here and the sugarmen here. It is true that a brief was filed by Judge Sidney M. Ballou, representing the Sugar Planters' Association, but Judge Ballou contented himself with a dignified statement on behalf of Hawaii's leading industry and his very short brief, prepared, of course, prior to the hearing, did not and could not answer the falsities and fallacies that may very well injure this territory in a critical situation such as the present.

The printed record of hearing before the House committee contains many pages of the testimony of Frank C. Lowry, secretary of the Committee of Wholesale Grocers. Mr. Lowry is in reality the lobbyist of the Federal Sugar Refining Company, and has previously been brought out as the active head of an organization that never held a meeting, had no adequate records and evidently was formed purely to fight the sugar tariff.

Now Mr. Lowry succeeded in getting into the record before the committee some sixty-one pages of testimony. Here is a sample, a part of the testimony taken before the senate finance committee months previous. It is not new matter, but Lowry recognized its value in his campaign:

In Hawaii, as in Porto Rico, the sugar industry is composed of nonresidents. If the committee is to be influenced by Mr. Fairchild, the sole Hawaiian representative, our concessions to these islands have been a detriment rather than a benefit. He testified that the average cost of landing a ton of sugar in New York for the six years preceding annexation was $43.11 or $2.15 per hundred pounds; whereas now it costs $65.96, or $3.29 per hundred pounds, an alleged difference of over $22 per cent. (see hearings, p. 579). (Note this is not stripped cost of production, freight and all other incidentals being added, as these protectionists, when in Washington, always make their cost appear as high as possible.) This increase is attempted to be explained from the necessity of "Occidentalizing" their Oriental labor on account of our attitude of "benevolent assimilation."

Hawaii is ideal for cane-sugar cultivation, and in favorable localities, surpasses Cuba. She, too, has reached the limit of her production and needs no further tariff stimulation. Planters refine part of their own product at San Francisco, turning over the balance to the trust, on most favorable terms. From plantations to the ports of San Francisco and New York these same sugar interests control all transportation, terminal and dockage facilities, and investigation will show that they employ these advantages to exact high rates for the performance of these various services, and so indirectly benefit from the tariff, at the same time making their cost, laid down in New York, appear abnormal as compared with Cuba. The Hawaiian planters are known to have made a profit of $20,000,000, or 38 per cent, out of a total crop value of $52,000,000 in 1910, by reason of their ability to take full advantage of the tariff. We find no justification here for continuing to heavily tax American consumers. As the majority of the committee seemed enthusiastic over the results of commercial expansion brought about by our attitude toward Porto Rico and Hawaii, why did they not extend it to the Philippines? Gen. Edwards maintained, under proper encouragement and development the Philippines could supply the world, and limitation to 300,000 tons (the "foker" in the bill of 1909) would both impede progress and retard the investment of capital. Why did the committee overlook these facts? By affirmative action they could put at rest all further anxiety about the danger of being "dependent upon 'foreign countries' for our supplies." Besides, development in the Philippines would terminate monopoly on the Pacific coast, where ordinarily the price of sugar is 30 to 50 points above the Atlantic, though all cane sugar is admitted free there and beet sugar manufactured cheaper than any other place in America. The limited supply of raw cane sugar from Hawaii and the Philippines, together with the arrangement by Hawaiian planters to furnish only the trust plant at San Francisco, conspire to reverse natural consequences.

It is interesting to note how adroitly Mr. Lowry takes advantage of the statement that Mr. Fairchild was the "sole Hawaiian representative" before the senate finance committee at a previous hearing, and how confidently Mr. Lowry presses the point home. Throughout his testimony are innuendoes, indirect accusations and ambiguous statements that ought to have been quickly and vigorously denied in some way.

Quite largely on the record of the hearings before this committee the next Congress will work. The Star-Bulletin has repeatedly urged that it would be a good move for some of Hawaii's leading sugarmen to go to Washington. That their presence would be a moral argument for the industry is quite evident from the manner in which the foes of the tariff have taken advantage of the absence of some of its friends.

The senate has passed the Culberson bill prohibiting corporations from making contributions to political conventions or primary elections, extending the 1907 law under which corporations were forbidden to contribute to general election expenses. The bill restricts contributions for the elections of senators and representatives, and while we are not familiar with the details of the measure, it certainly should make applicable the same restrictions in the case of delegates from territories. It might be suggested, however, that there is little danger of Delegate Kuhio receiving any large contributions from the big interests here should he feel it incumbent upon him to run for re-election in 1914!

Frank C. Lowry, referred to in an editorial comment above, will probably be shown up in his true light before the sugar-tariff fight is ended. The following dispatch from Washington is significant:

"Washington, Jan. 23.—Representative Broussard of Louisiana charged in the House today that the Federal Sugar Refining Company, through Frank C. Lowry, head of its sales department, was conducting a fight for free sugar under the disguise 'a wholesale grocers' committee,' and introduced a resolution for its investigation."

The supervisors went into office with considerable shouting about economy. They slashed salaries right and left. There was to be a notable reduction in the high cost of running the city. Three weeks passed. The city fathers have gained a reputation for trying to save the tax-payers' money. Up go the salaries. Only one member, Pacheco, stood out against the plan to put the figures back to just what they used to be. Is this economy? Verily, no.

Speaking of the irony of fate, here is a big rate war brewing on the Atlantic, in which steamer rates are likely to be reduced as low as $10, and great plans on foot for bringing immigrants through the canal,—all at a time when Congress is likely to put the soft pedal on Portuguese and Spanish immigration through the "literacy test."

Vigorous and intelligent work on the part of the board of liquor license commissioners, together with publicity, is driving "dago red" from its strongholds on this island. There will be less crime when this maddening drink is driven out altogether.

If President Wilson visits Hawaii next fall, we suggest as a special reception committee all these gentlemen who aspire to the office of governor of this territory.

Some people might be of the opinion that the "higher-ups" of the Turks are from Missouri.

Is Turkey to be up to date with a back-to-Asia slogan?

NOT FOR COLORED SOLDIERS ALONE.

Honolulu, Feb. 1, 1913.
Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin:
Sir.—In regard to my application for a saloon license for colored soldiers exclusively I beg to say I have been misquoted or misunderstood. I asked for a regular license, such as every saloon has, to sell to any and everybody who cared to patronize the place, and yet at the same time be a place where the soldiers could meet friend or comrade—a sort of headquarters, which they could term their city canten at all times. I know there is no exclusive laws or licenses for colored or white, and I would not have it considered that I applied for any such license in this territory. No, I solely meant a sort of headquarters for the soldiers when in town, and a drinking place for any person of any creed, color or nationality who paid the price.

Trusting you may help me convey my real meaning to the Honolulu public, I am, as ever,
Yours respectfully,
HEX WISE.

WADMAN DENIES BEEN ASKED TO LEAVE THE CITY

"I have never been asked to sever my connections with the Korean National Association, nor have I been asked to leave the islands," said Dr. John W. Wadman, head of the Korean and Japanese missionary work in Hawaii, this morning, speaking with regard to the alleged charges brought against him by members of the Korean colony for accepting money from the Japanese consulate for Korean charitable purposes.

The "charges" against Mr. Wadman, which are claimed to have aroused the ire of the members of the Korean colony, are to the effect that he collected the sum of two hundred dollars from the Japanese consulate for charitable purposes among the Koreans, and that in doing this he had committed a "sin." As a result of this a war broke out and the matter was taken by the United Korean News, the organ of the National Korean Association, and it was noised around that Dr. Wadman was called upon by a number of Koreans and asked to sever his connections with the Koreans of the city, and also to leave town. Mr. Wadman, however, denied this this morning.

"I am on the best of terms with the Korean associations," he went on to say, "and this morning Young Park, the president of the association paid me a personal call and expressed their surprise at the alleged action which is being taken against me by the Koreans. I explained to them that the money which I collected for the Korean charities came from another source and was merely turned over to me through the Japanese consulate. The matter has been straightened out both to the satisfaction of the association and myself. Not one unkind word has been spoken at any of our conferences though much regret was expressed at first because of the article which appeared in the Nippu Jiji, which article its editor kindly corrected and explained in a subsequent issue. Moreover, the Koreans were pleased to learn that the amount for their cause was contributed from funds officially placed in his hands by others, for educational and benevolent purposes in Hawaii."

PERSONALITIES

H. A. C. TRUMBULL, of Pittsburg, Penn., has written friends that he will visit the islands with a party of six shortly.

WILLIAM HENNING has resigned his position with the Pioneer Sugar Company after serving eighteen years. He is a member of the Maui board of supervisors.

LOUIS VON TEMPSKY returned from Honolulu on the steamer Honolulu. He went to the capital city to meet his sister, whom he had not seen for twenty-two years.—Maui News.

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT PELTON, passengers arriving on the Sierra this morning, are a honeymoon couple from California. Mrs. Pelton was Miss Olive Hardy of Oroville. When they return to the mainland they will make their home at Pasadena.

A. L. McPHERSON, a visitor to the islands, has just returned from a tour of Maui and has high praise for the climate enjoyed by the Valley Isle. McPheron is a lumberman from Toronto, Canada, and classes Hawaii as one of his best customers for building material.

I read it in the Star-Bulletin. It must be so.

USE 'WATER CURE' TO DRIVE OUT DEVILS

WAILUKU, Maui, February 2.—A story of Japanese seeking to "drive the devil" from an insane woman by giving her the water cure has come to the county attorney from the Maui district, and steps are now being taken to have the men implicated arrested and prosecuted, and the woman sent to an asylum. It is reported she nearly tore to which her tormentors subjected her.

The tale, as it comes to the officials is that the Japanese woman lost her mind worrying over her husband, because he was paying undue attention to a young girl. The husband, aided by several of his countryman laborers, sought to drive out the devil in her by throwing her in a deep tank of water. Each time she tried to climb out, they threw her back, until, tiring of this they tied her up and played a hose in her face until she became unconscious from the treatment. Then they desisted, believing the evil spirit had taken flight.

MANY SPORTS AT SCHOFIELD

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Feb. 3.—Saturday and Sunday were busy days for the baseball artists at the post and numerous games were played between organizations of the different regiments who are starting practice and getting a line of the material to be used when the regular season starts. No schedules are made at present, but this will be taken up later when it is hoped that each regiment will put teams in the field to play for the championship in each, then regimental teams for the post and finishing the season with a post team to compete with the other posts in the department. Progressive work as above should develop a strong team for the last of the season when all the talent will have been carefully looked over and a selection of a good team not hard to make.

Artillery Soccerites Win.

Sunday afternoon Company L, 25th Infantry, journeyed to the Artillery grounds, where they were trimmed at soccer by Battery D, 1st Field Artillery, 3 to 0. The score does not show the real strength of either team as the wind made accurate kicking impossible and seemingly favored the artillery. During the first half the play was nearly in the territory of the foot soldiers and but for the excellent defensive work of the 25th, the artillerymen should have cinched the game in this half, but the best they could do was to get one through, and this at a difficult angle. In the second session, L Company got their stride and made it more interesting, forcing the play to an extent that kept the wagon soldiers biting the turf at a faster pace than had been shown at any time, but with a rally at opposite times, two goals were made in quick succession which ended the game with the 25th receiving the short end of it. The game was clean and fast and lacking in any unnecessary roughness, although a few spills of the acrobatic order were witnessed.

SANDONA WORKS ON STRIKING CANVASES

It is evident that Matteo Sandona is a very successful portrait painter, for this is not only his third trip to Honolulu at the request of prominent people but for the past year has planned to come here and has had so many lovely faces to portray that his visit to the Paradise of the Pacific has been many times postponed. Mr. Sandona likes Honolulu and he says that it is the most beautiful place he has visited. He is well known in the islands, having made his first visit here at the age of twenty years. At that time he remained in Honolulu for six months and painted the portraits of the Princess Kawananakoa, the late Prince David, and one of the little children. He also made portraits of other members of the Campbell family and of Colonel Samuel Parker. Later he came here expressly to paint a picture of Judge Sanford B. Dole, which now hangs in Pauahi hall at Oahu College. Another picture of the Princess Kawananakoa was also done at that time, and one of the little child of Captain Coombs, U. S. N., who was in the city and recognized the excellence of Mr. Sandona's work.

Concerning the canvases he has been asked to do on this trip, Sandona will say nothing.

Some of the elect in Honolulu society will have canvases of themselves done by the talented young artist. Sandona may well be called the society artist, for he has been engaged for the greater part of his time doing portraits of society maids and matrons both in California and in New York, where he made his home up to two years ago.

"And about your leisure hours, Mr. Sandona, how do you spend them?" he was asked.

"When I am not at work I am enjoying the delightful waters at Waikiki. I think that swimming is one of the greatest attractions the islands offer and I spend as much time as I can spare swimming, and I am very much at home in the water."

The artist thinks that swimming is not only an enjoyable sport but a splendid exercise, and while he has visited the beaches and summer resorts along the California coast he favors the Honolulu waters because of their temperature.

Matteo Sandona is young and very modest. He is proud of his work because it is good. The artist has with him a number of photographs of portraits he has made recently and each one bears the finger-marks of the true artist; the natural expressions in the eyes that is so hard to obtain, Sandona has in every one of his paintings.

When asked if he comes from a family of artists he replied in the negative, saying that he is the "only black sheep among the Sandonas."

If being a clever artist makes one a black sheep it is a pity there are not more brunettes. He studied in Italy, his native country, and twelve years ago came to America and studied in the academies in New York. The big city he made his home up to the past few years. Lately California has been home to him, for he has had so much to do there that has occupied a great deal of time and as soon as his work is completed here he will return

MRS. RIVENBURGH HONORED GUEST IN WASHINGTON

Mrs. Bertram G. Rivenburgh of Honolulu was the guest of honor at a luncheon and theater party in Washington, D. C., on Saturday, Jan. 25, at which Miss Fanny Dixon of Alexandria, Virginia, entertained.

Luncheon was served in the palm room of the New Willard hotel, when covers were arranged for eight at a table beautified by spring blossoms. A gold basket filled with double purple violets and lilies of the valley, with favors of the same formed the floral appointments of the luncheon table.

Later, the hostess and her guests motored to the New National theater to witness the performance of "The Governor's Lady."

LAVA LEVEL SINKING, 'QUAKE SHOCKS FELT

TECHNOLOGY STATION, Jan. 28.—With fluctuations of one to two feet a day and with a total subsidence of about ten feet below the high level of the last fortnight the lava pool in Halemaumau crater has been comparatively inactive during the last week. The level at 8 o'clock this morning was 376 feet below the rim.

Three distinct earthquakes have been recorded during the week, though two were very feeble. The "volcano vibrations" have been quite strong at times during the week, with the usual very irregular waxing and waning in energy. Strong diurnal tilting occurred in the night hours of January 24-25.

ARCHITECT FOR BISHOP BLOCK HAS ARRIVED

After an absence of four years from Honolulu, which contains many monuments of his skill, O. G. Traphagen, architect, arrived in the Sierra this morning. He paid a visit to Senator A. F. Judd, one of the Bishop Estate trustees, in the forenoon. Mr. Traphagen comes to consult with the trustees, mentioned about a business block proposed to be erected on the premises opposite the Alexander Young Hotel, extending from King to Hotel streets on Bishop street. Owing to other engagements of some of the trustees, a meeting of the board with Mr. Traphagen could not be arranged for today. One will be held tomorrow. Mr. Traphagen is registered at the Young.

NOTED LECTURERS HERE FOR ENGAGEMENT

"Traveling in luxury on a steamer is far different from dragging one's self wearily over miles of desert land under a scorching sun," said Mrs. Edward Kemp who with her husband arrived on the Sierra today to fill an engagement at the Hawaiian Opera House where they will give three illustrated lectures.

Mr. and Mrs. Kemp are on the last leg of a world's tour, having taken their pictures of Indian life to nearly every large city on the globe.

"We spent four years with the Hopi Indians of the Arizona desert who are the descendants of the Cliff Dwellers and we lived their life as much as possible, endeavoring to learn all the details of an Indian's character," said Mrs. Kemp. "Our lectures are not of the technical kind and we make them as entertaining as possible, telling many amusing incidents and anecdotes of their lives. Every one should know the Indian as he really is and not as he has been pictured in fiction and some moving picture plays."

The Kemps will be here during the make some moving pictures of the floral carnival, and Mr. Kemp will make some pictures of features of the carnival. They are both pleased with the opportunity of visiting Hawaii, for like all others who have heard of the islands of the Pacific, they have always wanted to visit here and "see for themselves." The first lecture will be on the Indians of the Painted Desert and will be given Saturday, February 8 in the Hawaiian Opera House. Tickets are on sale at the Promotion Committee rooms.

The late Lawson Tait, of England, the great woman's doctor, said he never went to bed at night without thanking heaven he was not born a woman. No doctor ever knew better than he what women have to suffer at some times of their lives. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that has proved wonderfully successful in mitigating suffering and curing diseases of women. It has brought unspeakable relief to thousands of women who suffered from female ills.—advertisement.

Kauai's tax rate is advertised as $1.16 to the hundred.

According to the Maui News, the Kaiku extension of the Kahului railroad will be completed by the end of February.

Mr. Padgett, steam plow engineer of Makaweli, is reported by the Garden Island as entering into negotiations with a firm to place his case loader on the market at once.

Beef at wholesale was advanced half a cent to eleven cents a pound in Hilo on February 1. The reason is inability of the ranchers, on account of last year's droughts, to supply the demand for meat.

William Henning has resigned his position of chemist and sugar boiler with the Pioneer Mill Co. but will continue in office as a supervisor of the County of Maui. Mr. Henning has a residence at Kaimuki, Honolulu, where he spends portions of the year.

As soon as the demand for power and light justifies the expenditure, the Island Electric Light Co. will enlarge its plant and make improvements. Manager Bond promises that, if the people of Waiuku and Kahului support the company properly, there will be a reduction of rates.

Closing quotations for Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco on Saturday were the following: Hawaiian Commercial, 35.25 bid, 36 asked; Hawaiian Sugar, 35.75 bid; Honokaa, 7.75 bid; Hutchinson, 36.75 bid; Kilauea, 12 bid; Onomea, 32.75 bid; Pauhanu, 16.25 bid; Union, 28 bid, 32 asked; Honolulu Plantation, 31 asked.

Honolulu has a new hotel on the European plan in the Blaisdell, occupying the three upper floors of the Excelsior building, at Fort street and Chaplain line. It is conducted by Mrs. C. A. Blaisdell, who has had several years experience as proprietor of the Majestic lodging hotel in the Sachs building. The Blaisdell is modern, equipped and will be moderate in prices.

Stocks in general ruled low on the New York exchange on Saturday. Weakness in several influential stocks and admission by trade authorities of slowing up in general business caused a decline. Various influences on the market during the day turned the course upward, but the general list did little more than make up lost ground, at the close showing some irregularities. Bonds were irregular.

S. T. Starrett, marketing superintendent, is quoted by the Garden Island as saying there will be no trouble about allowing the Kapaa homesteaders eighty acres instead of sixty as originally planned, if they desire the larger area of land. There are 7000 acres to be homesteaded in the vicinity of the proposed cannery, which, at eighty acres to the farm, would mean a colony of more than 800 people, according to the Kaula paper. By families at the accepted rate of five each, it would certainly mean 437 settlers. Probably the cannery staff will make up the rest of the eight hundred. The cannery is expected to represent a value of $500,000.

Jacof Okolowich, a prominent Pole who accompanied Dr. Victor S. Clark on the latter's return from the east, spent last week in looking over the labor situation with a view of finding future homes on our plantations for several hundred of his countrymen, says the Garden Island. Mr. Okolowich expressed himself as highly pleased with conditions in general and the hospitality of the people in particular. He was the guest of Mr. Boreiko, bookkeeper for the Kalanea plantation on Friday night the two having met for the first time since Mr. Boreiko's last European tour a number of years ago. Market Superintendent Starrett accompanied the distinguished visitor on a tour of the plantations including Koloa, McBryde, Makaweli, Waimea and Kekaha.

DETAILS OF PAHOA FIRE SHOW DANGER TO THE FIRE-FIGHTERS

[Special Star-Bull. Co. Correspondence.]

HILO, Hawaii, Jan. 31.—The Pahoa lumber mill, with practically all the lumber on hand, with the exception of such ties as had been cut for immediate shipment, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night. Through the strenuous work of Col. Sam Johnson, the manager of the concern, the office, store and Pahoa depot, were saved as well as the manager's house. The entire town of Pahoa had a very narrow escape from the flames as the result of a shifting wind which threatened to sweep the flames towards the main street.

The total loss from the fire will be very heavy, reaching close to half a million dollars and there was no insurance whatever. The loss comes at a peculiarly unfortunate time, owing to the fact that the lumber company has just completed its contract for ohia flooring, was just being placed upon a sound financial footing and was, for the first time in its history, paying good returns over expenses. There were a large number of contracts on hand, the material for some of which was ready for shipment.

Much Lumber Lost
The main item of loss consist of two mills, one hundred thousand feet of koa, about 300,000 feet of finished ohia flooring for Los Angeles contracts and for the Punahou College in Honolulu, as well as about four million feet of lumber, which was stacked at various points in the lumber yard. The company is protected in its contracts by the usual clause releasing the company from obligation in case of fire, but the money loss in the material which was burned will be very heavy. The mill company's rolling stock, consisting of three locomotives and a number of flatcars was saved.

The fire was discovered shortly after midnight and when the alarm was given was blazing fiercely. Col. Johnson had been working over correspondence till about 10:30, then had gone to his house for about an hour and returned to the office, passing within a few feet of the spot where the flames first appeared, at about 11:30. His chauffeur also went past the spot but neither of them noticed anything wrong. A little after midnight the alarm was given by a watchman and then it appeared that the flames had a good start but still might be controlled.

Johnson in Charge
Col. Johnson took charge in person, the pumps which had been installed for fire protection were started and the fight against the flames commenced. The attempt was made to keep the blaze in the larger mill, where it had originated, but the flames reached the pumps in about half an hour and then the only source of supply was from the water tanks which gave but a small pressure.

The lumber which was piled around the mill commenced to catch and then came the fight to prevent a spread of the flames. The piles were divided by wide alleyways, over which bridges had been built connecting one pile to the other. To destroy these was part of the work and both Col. Johnson and his men ran great risks as they broke down the supports to prevent the flames from being given this easy manner of access to the further lumber stacks.

Moment of Danger.
One of the moments of greatest danger came when the big cast iron smokestack of the mill fell. With little or no warning it dropped with a crash upon a bridge which was occupied by Col. Johnson and four Japanese. In the crash that followed, the bridge, already weakened, gave way and the five men fell. Luckily no one was seriously hurt though one Japanese became so panic stricken that he started to run directly for the flames when Col. Johnson saw what he was doing and seized him.

Attempts were made to pull down the tall piles of lumber that they might not offer so inviting a display for the advancing fire and in this work a number of the men were slightly hurt, none of them being wounded in any serious manner. The work was well under way and it was just when a good chance of safety for the planing mill appeared, that the wind changed and the labor already done was practically thrown away. A second start was made and more lumber piles were torn down and an attack made from another quarter as it was impossible to accomplish any work save on the side from which the wind came. This work too was given for almost nothing as another change of wind came, driving the firefighters from their positions and forcing them to adopt still new methods of attack.

Finally, with the flames having almost complete control of everything on the lower side of the railroad track, with the exception of about a dozen stacks of lumber in the general vicinity of Col. Sam Johnson's house, the wind began to blow the flames back over the ground they had already covered. Then commenced a fight to save all possible lumber and the workmen formed lines, pulling the timbers from within a few feet of the flames and carrying them beyond to safer positions.

This work was hurried along as fast as possible and many thousand feet of ohia were actually snatched from the flames, the men working up to the very moment when the heat became so intense that they were forced to leave by the danger of the fire.

The Hilo chemical motor engine was sent out on Wednesday morning but was unable to accomplish very little. Chief Johnson also was on hand with his assistant and did what he could but there was little chance of rendering assistance. In the afternoon the steam fire engine was loaded on a flat car and sent out in the hope that some way might be found of using its stream, and more hose and a hundred buckets to help out also went on the train.

Col. Johnson, when seen at the fire, had little to say, as he was busy fighting the flames, and trying to save everything possible that had not already been destroyed. He was unable to explain the origin of the fire and said that he could hardly understand how it had obtained such headway in the short time that had elapsed between the time when he had gone through the yard and when the alarm had been sounded. He felt the catastrophe all the more severely on account of the fact that after years of hard work the financial rewards were just beginning to be in sight of the company. In the past twelve months the company has kept well on the proper side of the ledger, while the orders for ohia flooring, for which good prices were being obtained, were coming rapidly and the mill was having all it could do to keep up with the demand.

The dramatic occurrences of the night were of great number. At one time the mill boilers exploded with a loud report and for some time after that it was hard to get the men to enter the building to fight the flames. Some of the workmen who have been with the mill company ever since its start were completely dazed and cried like children when they saw the flames eating up the structure in which they had spent years of labor. One of the big tanks, which was high in the air over the mill, caught fire, the flames attacking the supports and gradually climbing till it fell with a crash, luckily, however, falling after Col. Johnson had seen the danger and driven out the men who were working in that vicinity.

10-YEAR CASE YIELDS

We copy the following from a letter from D. O. Robinson, Spartanburg, S. C.:

"I called on Mr. J. A. Thompson, who was afflicted ten years ago with chronic Bright's Disease. It gradually grew worse until two years ago he was bedridden. Son and family gave up hope. Tried the Renal Compound, using about a dozen. Now up and much improved. Is well known. You can use this item, as he gives this privilege. His son is a prominent dentist."

There is no question about this patient having the chronic and supposed incurable form of kidney disease. Some late writers declare the sixth month puts the disease over the dead line. Physicians declared the chronic stage in this case was established ten years ago. Also note that patient was bedfast for two years before taking the treatment. This makes up a hopeless case under the old regime.

We have declared over and over that there is some hope in even old and extreme cases, for some of them yield as in the above instance.

What excuse can be given for holding people who have chronic kidney disease to almost certain failure on Digitalis, Nitro-Glycerine and Balsam's Mixture when there is hope through the simple addition of this new blood and simple treatment. It does not conflict with physicians' prescriptions. Cases not serious enough to be in the hands of physicians often yield to Fenton's Renal Compound unaided. We desire to hear from and advise with cases not yielding.

Malthoid Roofing

Most roofing guarantees are a joke. Experience teaches the longer a roofing is guaranteed to last, the poorer it is.

Manufacturers inexperienced in making roofings—without knowledge as to their dependability—without responsibility as to their own financial standing, will very often guarantee their roofing for any number of years simply to get the order.

The roofing generally fails and so does the firm that makes it and they never live to make good their guarantee.

Malthoid Roofing is made to make good and while its manufacturers guarantee it, their guarantee is unnecessary because the roofing in itself is sufficient to do all that is claimed for it.

For twenty-six years, the makers of Malthoid Roofing have made and guaranteed their roofing and not one single purchaser can ever say that this Company has failed to make good a guarantee.

You can depend upon the responsibility of the makers of Malthoid Roofing, and you will never have to bother about guarantees if you use Malthoid Roofing.

HELEN DAVEY'S ROMANCE SAID TO BE SHATTERED IN 8 MONTHS

Mrs. Paul Engstrum, formerly Miss Helen Lillian Davey of Honolulu.

Mrs. Paul Engstrum, who was Miss Helen Lillian Davey, daughter of Frank Davey, the former Honolulu photographer, will shortly sue for divorce from her husband, Paul Engstrum of Los Angeles, according to news received by Mrs. Engstrum's friends here today. Furthermore, a San Francisco paper confirms the report, adding details concerning the marital troubles of the California man and his beautiful young wife. The San Francisco Examiner of January 28 says: Information that the beautiful Mrs. Paul Engstrum had separated from her wealthy husband and contemplated divorce proceedings came yesterday from Los Angeles, where their secret wedding last March followed a triangular tournament of hearts. Mrs. Engstrum, who was Miss Helen Lillian Davey, daughter of a photographer artist of San Francisco and San Jose, was reported to have been engaged to Max Goldsmith, a theatrical manager of New York, at the time of her marriage to Engstrum. Goldsmith regarded the engagement to be such an assured fact that he had taken out a marriage license here. Elope With Coed. Paul Engstrum is the son of F. O. Engstrum, wealthy contractor of Los Angeles. He is well known here for his romantic elopement and marriage with Miss Ruth Aubury, daughter of former State Mineralogist Aubury, while she was a student at the University of California. They were di-

SENSATIONAL IS SCANDAL ON MAUI

WAILUKU, Maui, Feb. 2.—Sensational charges of "white slavery," involving at least ten or less prominent business men of this city and at least half a dozen Hawaiian girls, most of these under fourteen years of age, are promised the next grand jury by Judge Kingsbury, who heard the confessions last week of two of the girls, who were arrested on a charge of stealing $70 from a Japanese. In the judge's chambers, it is said, these girls, little more than mere children, coolly told a long story of vice in which they incriminated the best-known men of the Wailuku district and related tales of orgies and low debauchery almost unbelievable. In detail they described numerous automobile rides and beach parties. The younger narrated a story of a motor car ride to Paia in company with a man from another island, during which she said she was assaulted. They said that one of their girl friends had been compelled by her mother to submit to a Chinaman. One said she had been forced by her mother to sell herself, the parent taking all the money she received. The deputy county attorney has been investigating the affair and is quoted as saying he will make several arrests within the next few days. The Chinaman whose name is linked with that of one of the girls is already in jail. Sensational developments are anticipated following the submission of the facts to the grand jury.

forced three years ago. Her husband's overweening fondness for the society of chorus girls is one of the reasons assigned by Mrs. Engstrum for separating from him. Private detectives and attorneys have been engaged by both Mrs. Engstrum and her husband and have been kept busy learning of the doings of the couple since they separated a week ago last Monday. Too Much Temperament. The same temperamental impulsiveness that prompted the hasty marriage of the Engstrums last March is said to be mainly responsible for their differences. Friends of Mrs. Engstrum say that if she tries to follow up a suit for maintenance now pending with divorce proceedings she will charge her husband with cruelty dating from the time of their honeymoon. Their marriage was opposed by the family of Engstrum, who had tried to use their influence to prevent it. Mrs. Engstrum is a striking looking young woman and had many admirers in her train before her marriage.

WILL URGE LIGHTING OF THOMAS SQUARE

Following a trip of inspection Saturday afternoon, Supervisor Pacheco announced this morning that he and W. L. Frazee, superintendent of the city electric light plant, will urge upon the board of supervisors several improvements, among the most important of which will be the lighting of Thomas Square, and Aala Park. It is proposed to light the square on all four sides with three-light ornamental poles, connected with underground wires. The scheme for lighting Aala Park, it is said is aimed at the "dago red" drunks, as much as toward lighting the park. These waifs, it is claimed made a rendezvous of the Ewa side of the park, but it is hoped that the electric, planned for that section of the park will drive them forth to some more secluded spot. A string of lights will be placed under the trees on the Ewa side and the river front will be lighted with 32 candle power lamps, mounted on ornamental poles. It has also been decided to re-commence the lighting of certain parts of Wilhelmina Rise as soon as possible.

CALIFORNIA PEOPLE COMING TO HAWAII

A large number of prominent people from Los Angeles, California, traveling under the auspices of the steamship department, German American Trust Savings Bank, are arriving in Honolulu by the S. S. Sierra and the S. S. Wilhelmina, for a visit to Honolulu and the Hawaiian islands, spending six weeks on the islands. On their visit, they will call at Hilo and take the trip to the volcano. Members of the party are: Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Harlan, Mr. and Mrs. Brown Higman, Mrs. Ida Blust, Miss E. Thompson, Miss Emma Schulte, Miss Amelia Schulte and others. It is thought that the United States Steel corporation will voluntarily segregate its companies and thus thwart the government proceedings.

TEAM OF EIGHT GLOOMS AND ONE JOY DEFEATED BY ALL-CHINESE

Celestians Take Their Eleventh Straight Victory in a Hollow Fashion from Team That Gave Them Such a Grand Battle the Previous Week—Game Won and Lost in the Second Inning—Sparks from the Diamond

BY LAURENCE REDINGTON.

Eleven in a row. Yesterday the All-Chinese accomplished the expected in taking the long end of the score from the All-Oahu, scoring their eleventh straight victory, but in another way the contest fell below expectations. After the hair-raising game of a week ago between the same teams, the fans looked for a whirlwind contest, and were mightily disappointed at the one-sided affair which resulted. Had they considered the laws of baseball chance, however, they would not have builded their hopes so high, for games like the first between the Chinese and Picks seldom occur in succession.

of his glove. Akana wound up on second and the ball was called fair. Kan Yen fanned. L. Akana walked, and Lai Tin put up a sacrifice fly to home.

The end of the game was welcomed with a snowstorm of cushions and a bombardment of fire crackers.

Bunts and Bounders

Duke Kahanamoku, Sr., had a narrow escape, when a "maneuvering foul" flew striking in his direction, barely missing his gold faced cap. Thousands sat powerless to move as he avoided the monster horseshoe by a masterly duck of the head.

Pitchers are being worn large this season. Notley has one of the most delicate voices of any umpire in the game today.

The Chinese had some of their reserves in the grandstand, instead of on the bench. Whenever a foul tip came into the covered section a Chinaman was John-on-the-spot to nail it and return it to the diamond.

Altogether over 3000 people saw the game yesterday, about 700 of whom were ladies. By actual count, 28 automobiles were inside and outside of the baseball park.

Barney Joy—"Did the Chinese win eleven straight? Well, they beat me three times. I was glad that they didn't send a ball to me at right field."

If Pitcher Apau's right foot hadn't slipped, on account of a hole in the slatster's box, the Chinese giant would have shut out the All-Oahu.

Clever base-sliding and brilliant pegging on the part of the Chinese players were the great features in yesterday's matinee.

R. Rawson, head of a group of tourists who occupied seats on the grandstand side, said: "If the Chinese should travel to the United States with that splendid outfit, take it from me, they would give Hawaii Territory the best kind of advertising."

En Sue was struck by three different pitchers in as many games. He is the one boy that goes in with a dare-and-die spirit.

Apau Kau's mother saw the great national game for the first time yesterday and enjoyed it thoroughly.

Kams Take Final Game From High Winning The Soccer Championship

The Kamehameha athletic field was the scene of the final contest of the Intercollegiate Soccer League last Saturday afternoon, when the McKinley High eleven went down to defeat before the speedy Kam team by a score of 3 to 0, retaining the latter team at the head of the list and giving them the championship, with St. Louis a close second.

The game, while not exciting, was well played on both sides, and it was a surprise to many on the side lines that the Highs turned out the team they did, for the Highs have not made much of an effort to play this season.

The real rivalry this season has been between the Kams and the Saints, and had the game Saturday been between these two teams it would no doubt have been the most exciting and best played of the season.

JACK TWIN SULLIVAN OUT

Jack (Twin) Sullivan, one of the cleverest of the middleweights for the past dozen years the ring has had, is through with the game. For over fifteen years Jack has been meeting all comers about the country, but when he tried to go the route with One Royal Davis at Buffalo, N. Y., the other night he found that the stamina was no longer with him and that the younger man was his master.

Jack was very much like Joe Choynski—that is, being unfortunate enough to be too heavy for the middleweight class and too light for the heavyweights. He could make 158 pounds at one time, but of late years he preferred the 162-pound mark.

Jack was always meeting men in the heavyweight division, as his battles with Tommy Burns, Jim Flynn, Bill Squires, Tony Ross, Jim Stewart, Porky Flynn and Joe Jeannette will attest. He started fighting in 1898 and has had over 140 ring battles since that time, many of them over the twenty-round route.

A member of the Canadian parliament speaking against a Canadian navy cited the United States and its difficulties in getting seamen and men for the army. He said our soldiers and sailors came from the lowest classes. Americans who heard him are indignant, are writing the newspapers, Washington, etc. etc. etc.

Local people are surprised at the quick results received from simple buckhorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, the German appendicitis remedy. The Hollister Drug Co. states that this simple remedy antiseptizes the digestive system and draws off the impurities so thoroughly that A SINGLE DOSE relieves sour stomach, gas on the stomach and constipation INSTANTLY.—advertisement.

LOCAL BRANCH OF A. A. U. TRIES CASES

Members of the Original Town Football Team Whitewashed on Charge of Professionalism While Oahu League Baseballers Don't Get a Hearing, It is Said—Individual Rulings

The exact standing of the men who play baseball with Oahu League teams, with the A. A. U., was not defined at the meeting of managers of the Hawaiian Athletic Association, held Saturday afternoon. This matter was to have been brought up by W. T. Rawlings, who had requested the presence of President Chillingworth and Manager Marcellino of the league, but Rawlings was ill and unable to appear, so nothing was done.

The footballers got away with a clean slate. It has been reported that the Original Town Team members had profited financially by the games against Panahou last season. Manager Henry Chillingworth and Captain F. M. Friesell were on the carpet Saturday, and the situation was explained. Chillingworth said that the receipts had never been out of his hands, that they had all been used for necessary expenses, and that there had been no individual profit. Players cleared.

Hyman Raphael's amateur standing was also investigated. Hyman received a salary for acting as athletic instructor at Kakaako last year. He told the managers of the H. A. A. that he had taken the position with the express assurance of Dr. Hand of the Y. M. C. A. that by so doing he would not jeopardize his amateur standing, and that as soon as any question of this sort arose he had resigned. He added that the money received had just about covered his expenses in connection with the work, and was given a clean bill of health.

Ben Clark, who teaches gymnastics at the Y. M. C. A., wanted to know whether this work disqualified him for amateur athletics. The local officials couldn't give him a ruling, and will write to the A. A. U. for one.

Good news came from the committee in charge of the annual track and field meet of the H. A. A., of which Bert Longley is chairman. The promotion committee had agreed to donate funds for the prizes, provided that the meeting was open to the public. March 1 is the date of this year's field day, the hour set being 2:30. The Grammar School Athletic League will hold its championship on the same day and at the same place, Alexander Field, commencing at 1 p. m., and the same officials will attend to both meetings.

HERE'S ONE ON UMPIRE EVANS

Perhaps no player of modern times has given the baseball fans of the country as many laughs as the irrepressible German Schaefer. Schaefer is continually cutting up on the ball field, and there isn't a "draggy moment" when he is putting on his comedy stuff. Assisted by Nick Altrock, the team of Altrock and Schaefer pulled so much comedy stuff last season that President Johnson informed them they were actors, not ball players, and should use the stage instead of the diamond for their horse play.

One of Panahou's Fastest Swimmers

FARRANT TURNER is one of the most promising of the newer crop of island swimmers. He has plenty of speed, and what is equally essential, knows how to take the best results from his exertions in the water. As a member of the Panahou team at the interscholastic swimming meet held here a week ago Saturday, Turner was the century, and was second in the 220. He also swam in the winning Oahu College relay team.

Besides the regular double header of the "Y" Basketball League last Saturday night, the extra game was played between the College of Hawaii and McKinley High School, which was won by the former 14 to 13. The winners seemed hopelessly outclassed in the first half, the score standing 9 to 2 against them, but in the second Melnecke, Sterratt, Marcellino and Cousens all got busy, and the pendulum swung the other way. Stone and Melin were the high stand-bys. The game was a trifle rough at times.

Port De Russy beat the Cubs by a single basket, the score being 14 to 13, the same score as the Hawaii-High contest. The Cubs have another game to play, but the engineers have made their last appearance.

The closing game was between the Myrtles and Fort Shafter, and the soldiers proved easy for the oceanmen, the score being 25 to 7. Shafter had many chances to score, but the goal throwing was very inaccurate.

SOCCER LEADERS BOTH WIN GAMES

Healanis and Mailes Keep the Same Relative Positions in League by Winning Games Saturday—These Two Teams Meet Next Saturday

Senior Soccer League. P. W. L. D. G.F.G.A.Pts. Healanis... 6 5 0 1 19 0 11 Mailes... 5 3 1 1 6 2 7 Panahou... 5 2 2 6 6 6 Camp Very... 7 2 4 1 6 13 5 High School... 6 0 5 1 12 1

Before the usual large number of interested spectators, two last games of soccer were played on Mollie's Hill last Saturday afternoon, the Healanis winning from the Camp Very eleven by a score of 5 to 0, and the Mailes from the Puns by a score of 1 to 0. As a result of these games, the Healanis head the list with a total of eleven points, with the Mailes a close second with seven points to their credit.

The first game of the afternoon that between the Mailes and the Healanis, commenced at a quarter past two o'clock. The Mailes won the toss and kicked off with the wind and the sun at their backs. The first goal for the Healanis was made after ten minutes of play, when a kick which was saved by Gibson was taken by Greig, who scored the first point of the afternoon. The Mailes then began active playing in the endeavor to tie the score, but luck seemed to be against them, and the Healanis, taking the full into their opponents' territory, permitted Anderson to score another goal. The half finished with the Healanis having scored two goals to the Mailes' nil.

After the first ten minutes of the second half, some good footwork on the part of the Healanis netted them two more goals a minute, Greig scoring the first one and Anderson the second. From that time on, the Mailes seemed to lose all interest in the game, and as a result of this the Healanis scored one more, giving them the ball in the net and adding the point to his team's score.

The second game of the afternoon, between the Mailes and the Puns, was the better of the two, as both teams went in determined to come out at the finish nearer the top of the list. The playing was close, and at the end of the first half no score had been made on either side. The second half started with seeming vigor, but after several changes near the net, Hoops finally succeeded in placing the ball in the net despite the defense of Gray and Bailey. No further scores were made in the game, and with the Mailes in the lead with one goal to the Puns' nothing.

Following the game between the Healanis and the Mailes, goalkeeper Rickard, of the former eleven, was severely censured because he did not do any work during the game, the paying of his side being such that throughout the second half he did not have one chance to lay his hands on the ball.

The two games were good, and that soccer is continually gaining favor may be seen by the ever increasing crowds which attend the games. Two more games are scheduled to take place next Saturday afternoon, the first being between the Mailes and the Healanis, and the second between the Highs and the Marines.

URGING FORMATION OF A TOOTHBRUSH BRIGADE AT SCHOOLS

The need of a "tooth brush brigade" in each of the public schools of Honolulu is being strongly advocated by the workers of the Faianua Settlement, who have been gathering data along this line for some time. It has been estimated by the workers of the settlement that only about one per cent of the pupils of the public schools of Honolulu have tooth brushes which they are in the habit of using, and the many cases of throat trouble which occur from time to time among the pupils of the schools are believed to be caused by the improper care of the teeth. Miss Craig, head nurse of the settlement, believes that good teeth is one of the vital needs of the school children at the present time, and although the settlement has as yet formed no definite plans for investigating the conditions which are said to exist, the workers intend to take the matter up at the earliest possible opportunity. The teachers in the various schools will be interested and through them it can be found out just how many of the pupils care for their teeth. "It is not only the school children who need education along this line," said W. S. Bowen this morning, "but the community as well, and especially the people living in the congested districts of the city."

STAR INSURANCE SALESMAN IN TOWN

It may be a tedious proposition to sell life insurance, but not so in Honolulu, for Arthur C. Jones, of the insurance department of the Hawaiian Trust Company, and special agent for the Prudential Life Insurance Company, has received a letter from the latter firm which states that during the past year he has sold a larger amount of life insurance than any other special agent of that company in America. Mr. Jones stated this morning that approximately his sales for the past year amounted to something over half a million dollars. In accordance with the rules which govern the appointing of officers for the 100,000 league, which is composed of all Prudential agents who sell $100,000 or more insurance a year, Mr. Jones has been informed that he is entitled to be one of the vice-presidents of the league for having accomplished a larger amount of business during the past year than any other special agent in America, and he was further requested to attend the convention of the league which is to be held in Quebec on June 25, 26 and 27 of this year. Mr. Jones said this morning that during the past year he has written over $500,000 worth of insurance for the Prudential alone. He also said that he is planning to attend the convention in Quebec.

"Pape's Diapepsin" Settles Sour, Upset Stomachs in Five Minutes

Do some foods you eat hit back-taste good, but work badly; ferment into stubborn lumps and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Dyspeptic get this down: Pape's Diapepsin digests everything, leaving nothing to sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is disordered you will get "happy relief" in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it strengthens and regulates your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear. Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. Diapepsin is quick, positive and puts your stomach in a healthy condition so the misery won't come back. You feel different as soon as Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine. Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large quantity of Pape's Diapepsin from your drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia or any stomach disorder—advertisement.

An indoor baseball team will be organized at the Homestead next Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock, and all those wishing to take up this form of recreation are asked to be present. The Kapiolani Home has already organized a team and some interesting matches are expected. A special class has been introduced by the association which meets every Friday evening at the Castle kindergarten for instruction in children's games and folk dances. Teachers of the city who are interested in this work are invited to attend the class which begins at half-past seven o'clock. It is believed that the Turks, owing to the looks of their warships by the Greek fleet, will be forced to evacuate Adrianople and thus come to terms with the allies. Poincare was elected president of France on the second ballot. The wildest confusion, increased by two challenges to desks, marked the voting. Poincare, who has been premier, was popular with the middle classes. Lieutenant Orizone, an Argentine aviator, fell with his machine while making a flight near Brandzen and was killed.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

Hundreds of celebrated society people, newspaper correspondents and others at Aiken, South Carolina, for the trial of "Beauty" Beach, which opens on Tuesday, battled for their lives and those of friends penned in the Pines Hotel, consumed by fire today.

Pathetic scenes and wonderful deeds of heroism were witnessed, when a number of invalids and cripples were found to be cut off in the upper stories, unable to leave their beds or wheel chairs. All were saved, according to late dispatches.

The Daughters of the American Revolution have begun a nation-wide campaign against the turkey trot, tango and other dances which are denounced as degrading to womanhood and the civilized ballroom, declaring that "good citizenship is menaced by anything subversive of morality." A resolution is being sent through the mails unreservedly condemning "lascivious" dances known as the "Bear," the "Bun-bug" and the "Turkey-trot" and begging concerted efforts to abandon them from all ballrooms patronized by the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Unless Turkey gives in tomorrow, an unexpected contingency, the Allies will immediately move on Adrianople and the Tchatalja lines.
Should no message be received from Constantinople before tomorrow night according absolutely to the final positions in diplomatic circles that the Turkish flag will pass from Europe within another week.

If the Allies can take Constantinople, the European ambassadors have agreed that a conference of Powers shall meet to decide a form of government for that city and the important surrounding territory, in which the Porte shall have no voice.

King Nicholas of Montenegro, on one side, and Crown Prince Constantine of Greece, on the other, are reported to have declared that they will take the fortresses of Scutari and Janina by storm or lose their lives in the attempt.

Another American has been kidnapped and is being held for ransom for the purpose of raising Mexican rebel war funds. The latest victim is Robert Ward, now a prisoner in a camp about 18 miles from Chihuahua City.

Consul Letcher in a report to the state department says Mr. Ward was seized by eight armed men at Parral and hurried into the mountains.

A ransom of $5000 in Mexican money is demanded for the release of Ward.

Attorney General and Mrs. Wickersham, with a distinguished party of friends, will shortly visit Honolulu.

As soon as he relinquishes office with the incoming of the Democratic administration, Mr. Wickersham will start with his wife, Frederick Moore of New York and Miss Martha Bowers and Miss Frances Noyes of Washington on a trip around the world. They will sail from San Francisco for Honolulu on March 13.

Long discussed plans for the reorganization of the army into six geographical departments have been adopted and are announced today. The present division system is done away with, and Hawaii is made a separate department to be commanded by General Frederick Funston.

General Funston is in command of the department of Luzon at the present time.

The schooner S. P. Blackburn was picked up this morning by the steamer Esperanto of the Ward line off Cape Hatteras, rolling in a heavy sea and without a living soul aboard.

Lamps were burning and the clock was still going in the cabin," says a wireless report, which adds: "The crew apparently deserted her last night."

With men sleeping on floors of saloons; gambling for big stakes, the money spread on the table before the players; with rough shafts thrown together hurriedly by carpenters working a dollar an hour and the hills reverberating with the thunder of blasts where the mountains are being torn asunder to reveal their mineral wealth, Rochester Gulch, Nevada presents today a scene of unusual and picturesque mining activity.

In the Gulch there are already two towns, with a third jingling up the gap between. It is predicted that a population of fully six or eight thousand people will be attained before June.

Emperor Wilhelm II. of Germany, has been officially invited by the German-American League, and the German-Honolulu Association to visit the Panama Exposition during German week in 1915.

If it is accepted, the Kaiser will come to San Francisco on the Imperial yacht Hohenzollern, accompanied by a squadron of warships and the path will lead through the Panama Canal.

Miss Ruth Hoppin Renton of Honolulu is one of the most popular Americans in Dresden this season. Last night she gave a dance following an enjoyable tea, and the big reception rooms at Bellevue were crowded by her guests, which included many of the most fashionable people of Berlin and Dresden. Quite a number came specially from Berlin for the affair.

In the debate Saturday in the senate on the proposed Work's constitutional amendment, which limits a President to a single six-year term, by proposing to permit voters to amend the constitution directly without previous election of congress, when "a substantial majority" wanted such a change, Senator Cummins de-

President Taft on Saturday signed the congressional resolution providing for the erection of a memorial to Lincoln in Potomac Park.

Suffering extremely from hunger and exhaustion, the crew of the steamer Ikaia were given government assistance on their arrival at Melbourne, Australia, today, after a terrible experience in crossing the Pacific from Astoria to Australia with lumber.

The vessel reached this port with coal and food gone and with only a few of the crew able to do any work.

Investigation proved that the oil fuel firing apparatus had failed early in the voyage, thus compelling the use of a small supply of coal and all the wooden fixtures of the steamer in order to make port. The vessel arrived many weeks overdue.

William S. Nelson, editor and owner of the Kansas City Star, this afternoon was fined for contempt of court by Judge Joseph A. Guthrie, of division one of the Jackson county circuit court.

The editor was sentenced to one day in the county jail. His attorneys immediately applied for a writ of habeas corpus.

Dispatches received by the minister of the colonies from Adrar, an oasis in the Sahara northwest of Timbuctoo reports that a French detachment was surprised by turbulent tribesmen near Adrar on January 10.

The troops made a heroic resistance but all their four officers were killed in the fighting. The other members of the detachment managed to cut their way through the tribesmen and reach Adrar.

Elenora and Jessie Wilson, daughters of the President-elect, have taken a hand in the New York garment workers' strike.

Last night they attended the women's court and watched the dispositions of the cases of girl strikers arrested for picketing.
