COKE ASKS W. O. SMITH RETRACT

Bar Association 'Politics' Has Aftermath in Letter Objecting to Interview

"Being conscious of no disgraceful nor discreditable conduct at the meeting of the Bar Association referred to, your failure to retract the statements accredited to you by the Star-Bulletin, if you are correctly reported, will compel me to ask the appointment of a committee of the Bar Association to investigate the charges which you have made and ascertain whether I am guilty of disgraceful conduct, or whether you are guilty of unjustly accusing me thereof."—Letter from James L. Coke to W. O. Smith.

"The term 'disgraceful' which I used is perhaps too harsh to be applied to those Democratic members who did not directly participate in the intemperate exhibition of party politics, and respecting these I merely regret their failure to disapprove it. Only to this extent were my remarks intended to include Mr. Coke."—In letter from W. O. Smith to the Star-Bulletin.

Public retraction of statements by W. O. Smith regarding the meeting of the Bar Association last Monday afternoon has been asked by Attorney James L. Coke, in a letter written to Mr. Smith under date of December 17. Mr. Smith characterized the conduct of the Democratic members of the Bar Association at the meeting as "disgraceful" and in his letter Mr. Coke takes strong exception to being included in the characterization.

The letter was made public today shortly before noon, at which time Mr. Coke had had no answer to the letter to Mr. Smith written on Tuesday.

Later in the day the Star-Bulletin received a communication from Mr. Smith on the subject. Both letters are published in full below.

The warmth of feeling stirred up during and after the bar association meeting has shown no signs of subsiding. On the contrary, local attorneys today are discussing with great emphasis and freedom the alleged injection of politics into the meeting. Republican and Democratic members each charging the other party with responsibility.

2 COMPANIES OF COAST ARTILLERY ON JANUARY BOAT

Tenth and Sixty-eighth Will Be Stationed on Oahu Within a Month—War Secretary Emphasizes Importance of Pearl Harbor

"The base at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, is of greater strategic importance for the protection of the entire Pacific coast from attack than any of the positions on that coast now so strongly fortified. No naval enemy could make a serious effective attack upon any portion of the American Pacific coast unless it had first reduced the position at Oahu, threatening its flank. Quarters for the men who are to protect the great stores, naval material and seacoast guns from falling into the hands of land-attackers should be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible."—Extract from annual report of Secretary of War Stimson.

The 10th and 68th companies of coast artillery have been ordered to Honolulu and will arrive here on the January transport. This information is published in the San Francisco Examiner of Dec. 13, and as orders had already been issued when the news was chronicled, it is considered authentic at headquarters of this department, although no official word has been received as to the coming of additional troops.

News that two more companies of coast artillery are to be rushed here in less than a month has created quite a stir in military circles. Their coming, however, is in line with recommendations of the department commander and the recent defense board, that the big guns at Fort Kamehameha and the battery and mine station at Fort Armstrong, be immediately manned, and the only surprise expressed is that no official notice of the orders has been received.

The department faces a serious problem, however, in the quartering of these two companies in the immediate future. There is good camping ground at Fort Kamehameha, but the water supply is short, the small detachment now stationed there depending on a 4-inch pipe line owned by the Hawaiian Dredging Co. for its needs. It is thought that there is not enough water for two full companies under the existing arrangement. Fort Armstrong is almost too small for a camping ground, so it looks as though the newcomers would be put under canvas at Fort De Russy for the time being.

The question of tentage is also a stickler. The coast artillery has no regular issue of canvas, unless ordered into the field, and unless the two companies are provided with tents before sailing, they will have to make their own.

W. W. HARRIS IN LINE FOR JOB WITH DEMOCRATS

W. W. Harris, whose defection from Republican ranks was one of the day's sensations during the height of the last political campaign, is to be handed a fairly fat job with the Democrats, according to information that was given the Star-Bulletin today on Democratic authority.

According to this report, Harris is slated for the job of chief clerk in the road department. It is stated that the road department is due for a big shake-up, that Caldwell, the present overseer, is to be retired and other Republican employees will also feel the axe. Harris is said to be one of those who will probably be put in with the new administration after the first of the year.

While the campaign was at its height a few weeks ago, Harris mounted the soap-box at Bethel and King streets and harangued the crowd, denouncing Gov. Frear, alleged domination of "big interests," and making in particular a bitter attack on the appointment of H. K. Bishop as superintendent of public works.

KINGSBURY IS PRESIDENT'S MAN FOR JUDGESHIP

Name of Mau' Jurist Sent to Senate for Confirmation—Mauites Ticked by Taft's Move

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—President Taft this morning sent to the Senate the name of Judge Selden B. Kingsbury, to be judge of the Second Circuit in the Territory of Hawaii. A significant feature of this action by the President is that Judge Kingsbury's term of office does not expire until after that of others, whose names have not yet been submitted to the confirming body.

C. S. ALBERT.

News of the nomination of Judge Kingsbury was received with a great deal of pleasure and not a few smiles, by attorneys and businessmen of Honolulu this morning. The fact that his nomination was sent to the senate prior to that of Judge Parsons was generally taken to mean that "some one is getting mighty busy back on the mainland," as one lawyer put it. It is generally believed that the opposition to Judge Kingsbury's appointment will end with his nomination by the president, but several members of the bar association pointed out this morning that the Democrats in Washington have asserted their intention of "holding up all nominations sent in by Mr. Taft," and the fear is expressed that messages will be sent from this city to the national capital, urging this policy in regard to Kingsbury.

"Well, well," said Judge A. A. Wilder, when told this morning of the president's action in sending Judge Kingsbury's name to the senate, "that's just about what I expected. As a matter of fact, if they had had an open ballot the other day at the bar association meeting a good many of the men who were yelling for Kingsbury would have had to stand by their words instead of talking one way and voting another, as a lot of them did. An open ballot would have assured the endorsement of Kingsbury, as I said at the time.

Whether the so-called South Carolina gang will keep up the fight against the Judge, now that his nomination has gone to the senate, I cannot say. I should be inclined to believe not, but that is outside my ken.

MILVERTON RAPS FOES OF LATEST PLUMBING LAW

Deputy City and County Attorney Milverton this morning wrote an indignant letter to the board of supervisors, anent the remarks credited to Attorney J. A. Maxon, regarding the proposed plumbing ordinance, which passed the third reading of the board at the noon session held yesterday.

To the Honorable Mayor and Board of Supervisors of the City and County of Honolulu, Gentlemen: In this morning's Pacific Commercial Advertiser appears a report which I assume to be correct of the proceedings had at the meeting of the board of supervisors held yesterday noon. From that report it appears that Mr. J. Alfred Maxon, who appeared to oppose the new plumbing ordinance, made several statements relative to the old law which is to be superseded, that calls for some reply. According to the report, Mr. Maxon stated that the old plumbing ordinance was drawn by me

RAIN FAILS TO SPOIL OPENING CELEBRATION OF THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FAMOUS SCHOOLS—QUEEN TOO ILL TO ATTEND

Ancient songs of Hawaii-neh and chants once the delight of Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop were sung by the boys and girls of the Kamehameha schools this morning in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of their school. The memorial exercises were held in the Nuuanu Mausoleum. The crowds of students and friends of the institution, stood with bared heads while the songs were sung and the ceremonies rendered dear by the custom of a quarter of a century, were observed. The Queen was reported too ill to attend.

About five hundred people, including students and former students of the three schools, and their friends were there to honor their Aii. The singing of the students was under the direction of their teachers.

Promptly at 10 o'clock the cadets from the manual department, in their uniforms with white gloves, stationed themselves before the main gate of the burial grounds. The girls in white, led the marching line into the grounds under the strain of a funeral march, played by the Hawaiian band. The Preparatory boys, in white and blue caps, followed. Then came the cadets from the manual department. Lieutenant Turney, military instructor of the schools, with Cadet Major Kama, leading the school battalion, entered the grounds. As soon as the cadets had taken their positions, signals were given by Musical Director Anders to sing the famous song of Pahuhi.

Before the students arrived at the gate, it was thought that the exercises would be halted by the rain. But, contrary to expectations the weather cleared up as the students entered the grounds.

TONNAGE TAX PLAN REFERRED TO BUSINESSMEN

James Wakefield's recommendation that a tonnage tax system be devised whereby the territorial warves and landings be made self-sustaining was approved unanimously by the board of harbor commissioners yesterday afternoon.

His report, as a committee of one to investigate this question, was adopted and the commission voted to carry out his recommendations, which are briefly as follows:

"That the whole available data on the subject of wharf income, wharf expenses, and wharf construction, be submitted to the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Association, the Hilo Board of Trade, the Main Chamber of Commerce, the Kohala Civic League, the Kona Improvement Club and the other business organizations throughout the territory, with a request that they present to the board of harbor commissioners suggestions

IMMIGRATION BOARD WORRIES OVER CHARTER

Uncertain Whether Bill Will Alter Arrangements for Next Shipload from Southern Europe

Wireless news that the Burnett-Dillingham immigration bill had passed the House, coupled with mail news that Hawaii is not exempted from the literacy test for immigrants, has caused prompt action on the part of the territorial board of immigration.

"The board has cabled to Washington to ask if the Willesden charter would be affected by the bill," said Ernest H. Wedehouse, president of the board of immigration, in answer to a question regarding the telegraphic news.

"Of course we hope that the law, if it passes, will not affect the immigration of Europeans to Hawaii already under way. It will take some time for the bill to pass succeeding stages and receive the approval of the President.

"Still, it is a serious condition that confronts us, with the charter concluded and part of the charter money paid. A hundred and thirty-seven thousand dollars is a good deal of money to risk.

"The boat will not sail until some time in February, and consequently will not be here until some time in April. Perhaps the date fixed for the law to come into effect will be far enough along to save us from any trouble relative to the Willesden people."

FIVE DESERT TOKAI MARU

Five sailors, all Japanese, made a spectacular attempt to desert their post of duty in the freighter Tokai Maru last evening with the result that four are at the present time inmates of the steel-bound brig in the steamer, while one continues to wander at liberty.

BANKS CAN NOT CONTROL MONEY ASSERTS MORGAN

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—J. P. Morgan, the New York banker and financier, was again before the public committee investigating the so-called money trust this morning. In answer to questions he declared that all the "banks in the world could not control the movements of money."

TAFT URGES BIG U. S. BUILDING FOR THE FAIR

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—President Taft in a message to Congress today urged the appropriation of $2,000,000 to be expended upon the Federal building at the world's fair in San Francisco, in 1915. It is believed that this suggestion will be favorably acted upon by Congress.

PRESIDENT TO LEAVE TONIGHT FOR THE CANAL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—President Taft and his suite will leave Washington tonight for the south, where he will go aboard a battleship for the Panama canal, which he desires to inspect once more before going out of office. He believes that the work is now sufficiently well advanced to give him a good idea of just what the canal will look like when finished.

FIND BODY OF NEWSPAPERMAN

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 19.—The body of Chester Lawrence, the newspaper man and former sporting writer for the Los Angeles Examiner, was picked up at sea today. Lawrence was detailed to accompany Aviator Kearney in the latter's attempt to fly from this city to San Francisco, over the ocean. The hydro-aeroplane was wrecked in some manner, and part of it recovered by a tug. The body of the aviator has not been recovered.

Secret Service Men In The Colorado City Unearth Gigantic Conspiracy In Nick Of Time—No Arrests Made As Yet—Would Be Bandits Unknown To Police

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 19.—Just in the nick of time United States Secret Service men, stationed here, today unearthed a plot to destroy the Government mint here, with dynamite, and get away with a large part of the five hundred millions of money that is stored temporarily in the vaults of the building.

AVIATOR DROPS EXPLOSIVES ON BESIEGED CITY

ATHENS, Greece, Dec. 19.—Dispatches from the Greek army besieging the city of Janina, announce that a Greek aviator has been successful in dropping bombs within the city. The reports state that the town is terrorized by the impossibility of resisting this form of attack and that the damage done has been immense. Several of the more important buildings are reported to have been practically destroyed, and fires started that swept large tracts of the city clear of houses. It is believed that one of the results of this attack will be to hasten the surrender of the town and the effect upon the peace negotiations in London, it is stated, will be great.

TURKS' ANSWER COMING

LONDON, Dec. 19.—When the plenipotentiaries met this morning it was announced that information had been received by the Turkish envoys that the answer of the Porte to their request for additional instructions regarding the admission of Greece to the conference, is now on the way and will reach here probably tomorrow. The meeting lasted half an hour and the envoys then adjourned.

AVIATOR FLIES FROM TUNIS BAY TO SICILY ISLE

TRAPANI, Sicily, Dec. 19.—One hundred and sixty miles over seas from the Bay of Tunis on the north coast of Africa, to a point near here, on the coast of Sicily is the record established by Garros, the aviator, today. The birdman started early this morning from Tunis, and made his flight without engine or other trouble. The weather was ideal for the attempt, in spite of which the strain left Garros almost prostrated, when he was taken from his machine.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Congress adjourned today for the Christmas holidays. Many of the Congressmen and their families will remain here over the holidays, however, as there is a great amount of committee work to be done.

FINAL ACT IN THRILLING TRAGEDY STAGED ON HONOLULU WATERFRONT

A woman's aged appeal to save a beautiful five-year-old child from a cruel and bullying wretch, who was in the act of kidnapping the little one, the ray of sunshine of a once happy home, apparently failed to awaken a responsive chord in the sympathies of perhaps a half hundred bystanders who gathered along the lower portion of the city, at a time the big Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner came to a berth at the Alakea wharf.

A well dressed woman made several frantic attempts to leave the vessel, but on one or more occasions was frustrated through the apparent brutal interference from one of two men who again and again would the child with upturned and tear-stained face appeal for release from bondage.

At last resort the frenzied woman turned to an officer, but in this direction her entreaty for assistance proved fruitless. With arms pinioned, and mouth muffled, the woman was dragged back to the deck of the Toyo Maru, and the child carried off by several men before the gaping crowd could comprehend what had really happened.

Honolulu's picturesque waterfront with its cosmopolitan crowd gathered at Alakea wharf will be perpetuated in yards of spinning film that is to serve in the presentation of a stirring drama abounding in love, pathos and winding up by a joyous home-coming.

The Vitagraph of America, represented by a company of a dozen artists, men and women, young and elderly, staged the finale of a photo play, with the giant liner Toyo Maru and the big Alakea wharf figuring conspicuously in several of the scenes. A romantic background was found in the nodding cocoanut palms that peeped over the horizon of shipping and buildings, as the camera installed from a considerable height recorded the pantomime of an arriving trans-Pacific liner at tropical Honolulu.

Perhaps one of the most photographed men in the business is M. Costello, who was easily recognized by the delegation of port officials who awaited the arrival of the Toyo Maru from San Francisco this morning.

With a view of adding a dramatic finish to the hundreds of yards of film that had been exposed during the six day voyage from San Francisco to the islands, special preparation was made for the final setting.

The Vitagraph people were accorded many privileges in the arrangement of subtle and vivid setting for their series of "canon dramas." The company will continue the trip to the East in the liner sailing at five o'clock this evening. It is believed that on the return trip inducements may be offered for a considerable stay at the islands.

A series of moving pictures were made as the big Japanese vessel pulled away from the San Francisco wharf. Later during the progress of the Teyo in the direction of Honolulu a thriller was staged wherein the "agonized" mother is depicted heart-broken and driven to the verge of a raving maniac, over the loss of her only child, who is supposed to have fallen into the angry sea.

For the first four days out from the Golden Gate, Old Neptune assisted in making an animated background for the moving picture dramatists. The Japanese liner ploughed her way through some rough seas and the first part of the trip was anything but a pleasant one.

As the Teyo neared the islands, a change for the better was noted. Captain Ernest Bent is back on the bridge after a delightful vacation spent on the mainland.

The Teyo brought seven cabin passengers who will remain over at Honolulu for some weeks. The through list includes 71 cabin, 107 second class and 356 Asiatic steerage passengers.

One hundred and fifty railway freight cars filled with cotton contributed a considerable portion of the cargo that is now serving to settle the Teyo Maru down to her water marks. The liner is carrying nearly seven thousand tons freight to Oriental ports.

A considerable quantity of oil is being pumped into the vessel during her brief stay at the port.

Hindoo, Chinese and Japanese made up the variegated and cosmopolitan collection of Orientals now returning to their native land, all apparently supplied with money.

Honolulu drew more Christmas mail the consignment amounting to 252 sacks.

The Teyo Maru is scheduled to sail for Japan ports, Shanghai and Hongkong at five o'clock this evening.

At the agency of Castle & Cooke one hundred additional Asiatic passengers have been booked for the steamer.

with the arrival of the Pacific Mail liner Persia at San Francisco. The woman is being deported to China, according to the officers in the Teyo Maru. She will be remembered as having created considerable stir at Honolulu on the occasion of her last visit through a violation of the regulation prohibiting smoking on terraces and wharves. According to the coast immigration officials, while the woman claims to have been born in the states she is considered as an alien in that she is said to have been married to a Frenchman.

Some Toyo Kisen Kaisha Changes.
With the arrival of the Teyo Maru from the coast this morning comes word that several changes in the official staff are pending.

Henry Lefman, chief steward of the Nippon, will leave the ship at Kobe and take over the same position on the liner Chiyo Maru. Al Evans of the Chiyo will return in charge of the steward's department of the Nippon. Dr. Spaulding will also leave his position as ship's surgeon of the Nippon. K. Koke and succeed Dr. Howard on the big liner Shinyo Maru. Howard will return on the Nippon. Spaulding was for years associated with the Emergency Hospital service of San Francisco and is one of the most efficient doctors in the employ of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha.

Filmer Will Take Command Of Chiyo.
Captain W. C. T. Filmer the commander of the fleet of vessels flying the T. K. K. house flag, was not on the bridge of the Teyo Maru when that vessel arrived at the port this morning.

Captain Filmer is to remain at San Francisco, to wait the return of the Chiyo Maru. He will take that vessel out for one round trip during the time that Captain W. Woodus Green goes on vacation.

Captain Ernest Bent is back from a pleasantly spent vacation. As commander of the Teyo Maru he was given a hearty greeting this morning.

Saint Kilda Away for Lumber.
To take on a shipment of lumber, the British steamship Saint Kilda is expected to sail late this afternoon for Eureka, Calif., where cargo is to be loaded destined for Australian ports. The Saint Kilda arrived here on December 11th with a full shipment of coal consigned to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company.

Defender Given Prompt Dispatch.
The American schooner Defender was given a prompt dispatch from the port of Hana, on Maui, the vessel sailing for the sound yesterday afternoon according to report received here today with the arrival of the Inter-Island steamer Claudine. The Defender arrived at the Valley Island port on December 10th with a full shipment of lumber.

Repeat Sailed with Complete Crew.
But one additional sailor was signed on the articles of the schooner Repeat that sailed for Gray's Harbor lots yesterday afternoon. The Repeat was discharged of a consignment of lumber. The vessel arrived here on December 5th.

ARTILLERYMEN TAKE THE JUMPS
The officers of the First Artillery completed the now famous Russian Race, which must be taken by all officers of the mounted service, yesterday. This was two days ahead of schedule time, but weather and ground conditions were so favorable that the chance was made.

All the officers completed the race without accident or incident. The artillerymen did not use the long cross country course ridden by the cavalry, but took the test on a one-mile track of their own, making the circuit three times.

NOCTURNAL HOODLUMISM
Complaint is made by people living around the intersection of School and Liliha streets about the nightly revels of a gang of boys. They roam the streets, yelling and singing the greater part of the night, so that sleep is denied to the people of the locality. An occasional visit from a patrolman to the place would likely restore peace and quietness to the distressed neighborhood.

BUFFUM, WHO ONCE CRUISED KILAUEA'S LAKE, IS HERE AGAIN

It's a far cry from a cruise on a lake of molten lava to a friendly call at a military reservation during the piping times of peace.

All this falls to the experience of Jesse H. Buffum, a passenger in the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Teyo Maru, who three years ago achieved eternal fame in these islands, by his climb to have floated for hours across Kilauea's brimming and fiery crater on a hardened cake of lava, while all around him, flames shot high into the air, and generated noxious gases that all but suffocated the daring traveler.

Buffum has recently gained much notoriety as well as publicity in the illustrated Sunday supplements through his spectacular pedestrian stunts, on a purely vegetarian diet. In company with a brother who agreed to adhere strictly to the flesh of animals, the pair started on a bike across the country.

Buffum is now taking life easy. He is en route to the Philippines where he hopes to be on the spot with a trusty moving picture camera and then there secure material that may later be incorporated in a series of war "meller-dramas," that so delight the fancy of the youth of the land.

Buffum's spectacular story of his voyaging the hot lava will go down into history as a masterpiece in the annals of literature in Hawaii.

Buffum who first came here to represent a string of publications along the safe, sane and conservative order as the Louisiana Sugar Planters, The Drygoods Review, the Wool Reporter and trade papers of like ilk, sent out a story from the Island of Hawaii, that some three years ago served to make "copy" that fairly made the ears of local newspapermen wriggle with joy.

While the fine art of faking may not have been exactly in his infancy at that particular time, Buffum went the acknowledged leaders in the profession several lines better in his efforts to extract a thrill from the rank and file of lay readers.

Poor old Halemaunau may have been written and pictured by good, bad and indifferent scribblers, yet it lay with Buffum to add the finishing touch to Kilauea's train of literature. Indeed, the modest and retiring appearing young man who is today playing a return engagement to Honolulu, once recounted a story of slipping down the glazed slopes of Kilauea crater until his feet were well nigh bathed in the limpid lava.

Buffum failed to make mention of his rising temperature, which Professor Jagger recently records as nearing the 250 mark on ordinary days. Finding his ascent of the crater barred from where he fell, Buffum then sought a new avenue of escape by stepping on a passing cake of lava float in a lake of liquid fire. His narrative depicted his adventures on Kilauea's tumultuous bosom, pale into insignificance the best efforts of the bright young men who once each week fall into trances and contribute stories to the Sunday sheets on the prehistoric monsters that once were believed to inhabit the mundane.

The same Buffum who has hopes of catching animated resentments of Uncle Sam's army in the Philippines, did, according to his tale cruise about the fiery lake, making careful note of the spectacular scenes presented as he slowly drifted through lanes of living fire.

Through some superhuman effort, Buffum reached a ledge in the crater, by which he gained the top, to a cooler atmosphere. Gathering a sheaf of "copy paper" Buffum did not lose an ytime in setting forth his experience in a vicinity that heretofore was believed hot enough to dissolve the features of a brass monkey.

The tale appeared in the local prints and at the time proved a seven day sensation, that succeeded in crowding factional political rows, society scandals and personal quarrels between rival newspapers into a dim and misty background.

Jesse H. Buffum while declaring himself a hero on the fiery seas of Kilauea Java lake was rated as a pretty safe man as a passenger in the Teyo Maru.

Buffum was booked to lay over at Honolulu. He was also expected to be on the job with the camera as the Japanese liner coarsed through the tempest tossed Pacific. But not for him. He remained a victim to mal de mer for the greater part of the voyage.

MRS. GOSLING DEAD
An esteemed resident has passed away in the death of Mrs. Ellen Gosling, wife of Robert Gosling, who passed away yesterday evening at the family home, 1709 Punchbowl street, after a long illness. Besides her husband, she leaves four daughters and one son—Elizabeth, Nellie, Annie, Evelyn and Richard Gosling. Mrs. Gosling was a native of Lesbury, Northumberland, England, and was in the fifty-second year of her age. The funeral took place this afternoon, interment being private.

WALKERS MEET TONIGHT
Heel and toe artists who intend to compete in the annual Kalauea Avenue walking race, December 22, and those who expect to enter the bike races over the same course, are to meet at the office of Charles Childingworth this evening, at 7:30, to decide on the apportionment of the long prize list. Joe Smith, of Wailuku, has accepted Soldier King's challenge for a five-mile race, Christmas Day, and King or his representative is also requested to be on hand tonight, so that the 250 side bet can be fully posted.

A long passage is credited the American ship Marion Cabot, which has just arrived at a wharf after having been disorganized of a shipment of fuel oil at Honolulu.

HARBOR NOTES

A fair list of island products arrived from Maui ports in the Inter-Island steamer Claudine this morning. The Matson Navigation freighter Hyades should reach port late this afternoon with a large general cargo from San Francisco by the way of Puget Sound.

Taking a few passengers, the steamer W. G. Hall is listed for dispatch for Kaula ports at 5 o'clock this evening.

One hundred Asiatic passengers have been booked for the steamer in the Japanese liner Teyo Maru that is scheduled to depart for the Far East this evening.

Lumber, fertilizer and sundries will be included in the freight destined for Hawaii ports in the steamer Helene that is scheduled to sail at 5 o'clock this evening.

According to cables, the barkentine S. N. Castle is reported to have arrived at Grays Harbor on last Sunday.

Lumber for Lewers & Cooke is aboard the schooner Alice Cooke that is reported to have sailed from Port Gamble yesterday for Honolulu.

WALKERS MEET TONIGHT
Heel and toe artists who intend to compete in the annual Kalauea Avenue walking race, December 22, and those who expect to enter the bike races over the same course, are to meet at the office of Charles Childingworth this evening, at 7:30, to decide on the apportionment of the long prize list. Joe Smith, of Wailuku, has accepted Soldier King's challenge for a five-mile race, Christmas Day, and King or his representative is also requested to be on hand tonight, so that the 250 side bet can be fully posted.

A long passage is credited the American ship Marion Cabot, which has just arrived at a wharf after having been disorganized of a shipment of fuel oil at Honolulu.

MAY WE be permitted to suggest that good portraits are most happy reminders to relatives and friends at Christmas and New Year's time.

The good portrait carries with it a work of good thoughts. It is the always welcome and highly prized gift.

We want to assure you that we are prepared to give you the best work in the latest approved designs, and that your early order for portraits will insure you the perfection of careful detail.

Will you kindly phone or write a time for a sitting?

Respectfully,

measure on general grounds. "There never was a time better than the present for getting into this Territory just the kind of immigrants we want. The best of these are the Portuguese. They are worth double to us the immigrants from other countries. They are honest, clean, steady, reliable, and we manage to keep a very fair proportion of them as laborers."

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

JAMES STEINER—Probably there would be less talk of backwardness on the part of auto owners in entering the Floral Parade if the restriction on advertising was abated. Everybody last year raved over the Japanese parade and the way the Japanese merchants and draymen contributed floats and outfits. The reason was simply that the owners of the vehicles were allowed to put their names on the turnouts. Being in Japanese characters the rest of the public did not notice the inscriptions. Let the owners of autos and floats in the parade put their names on their contributions, and there will be no more occasion for bewailing lack of interest in the event on the part of the business men. What harm will it do anyway?

Carter was given a tip that a Japanese was seen hovering about the school grounds and by the time that he arrived there the sailors had prepared to take to the mountains. He claims that his companions party company with him soon after leaving the vessel and refused to give any clue as to his whereabouts. The Tokai Maru is to sail for Makatea island this afternoon, there to take on a shipment of phosphate rock destined for a port in Australia.

THE FUTURE OF NATIONAL REPUBLICANISM

Reorganization of the national Republican party is proceeding slowly, and no active steps will be taken for at least a year, it is apparent from mainland advices.

This does not mean that the Republicans of the Borah, McGovern and Hadley type are discouraged over the defeat of Mr. Taft. They must have known almost from the beginning of the campaign that he was leading a forlorn hope. The present quiet in Republican ranks is not the sign of defeat but the maturing of plans evolved from long consideration of the situation.

The recent conference of Republican governors betrayed no uneasiness as to the ultimate reorganization of the party, but it is admitted that the party must be reconstructed, if not from the bottom up, certainly from the top down. The foundations of the party are as secure as ever, the great mass of American voters are still Republicans, as was shown even in the last election, at the great mass of voters were not given an opportunity to show their Republicanism in a way that appealed to them as right and consistent.

In the reconstruction of the party such men as Murray Crane, Root, Penrose, Barnes of New York—in short, the "big interest" men,—must inevitably be cast aside. Rightly or not, they have earned the reputation of serving a master other than the people. Their leadership is passing. Instead, the Republican standard has been seized and will be carried forward by men of the Borah and Hadley type, young men, active men, talwarts burning with the desire to distinguish themselves as servants of the people. They are ambitious, of course, personally ambitious, too, but Borah at least has often put his own ambitions aside to champion the rights of the people.

Two or three practical suggestions for reconstructing the party seem likely to be carried out. One is a re-draft of the party rules before the next national convention to provide for a convention so chosen that there can be no question raised of its "representative character." The Chicago convention of last June probably never will be repeated. The stigma of some of the things done in that convention in the name of Republicanism was more potent in the last campaign than any vivid Rooseveltian epigram or impassionate Wilsonian analysis. As can be told by some of the Hawaii delegates who attended that gathering, there was an adherence to technicality, in order to secure the necessary Taft majority, which defeated the will of the people that sent some of the delegates to Chicago.

It is not unlikely that the Republican party rules will be redrafted to provide for the adoption of primary systems for the selection of delegates to the national convention. Should this be the case, Hawaii may have no more territorial conventions of the sort that upset the Republican party here last April. The bitterness of that convention was partly responsible for Republican defeat in Oahu in November.

The Republican party is not doomed to pass out of existence, in spite of the dire prophecy of the Bull Moose. It must undergo reconstruction, of course; it must be moulded to the will of the people, for a party not responsive to popular will cannot endure.

The point to remember is that the basic principles of Republicanism are as cogent as ever, as applicable to conditions now as ever they were, but that some of the party's later methods need change. The "steam-roller" in the convention should be impossible, and it should be impossible for a president to control his own re-nomination merely through his control of federal patronage and a machine built up thereby. The election of delegates through the direct primary will largely eliminate this.

Instead of regarding the party with a sense of disappointment, because it was not successful in the national election, Republicans should rejoice that there are ready at hand hundreds of thousands of brilliant and earnest young men to carry through a reorganization of party methods that will reaffirm the aim of Republicanism to be the will of the people.

PHILIPPINE INDEPENDENCE

Democrats in Congress are apparently going steadily ahead with their program of independence for the Philippines. According to a news dispatch, despite President Taft's vigorous disapproval in his message to Congress of the pending bill proposing immediate autonomy for the Philippines, and absolute independence in eight years, several prominent Democrats are preparing for its consideration in the House.

Chairman Jones of the House insular affairs committee, framer of the bill, says Speaker Clark and Democratic Leader Underwood have assured him of their co-operation, and that Chairman Henry of the rules committee has promised a special rule for its early expeditious consideration. Some of the House Democrats suggest awaiting a conference with President-elect Wilson before taking action.

There seems to be considerable doubt as to whether Wilson will favor the Democratic plan, and it is not unlikely that the party leaders are counting on him to save the party from making a mistake purely to redeem a political pledge.

Ex-Governor John Osborne, of Wyoming, mentioned as seeking support from the Hawaii Democrats for the position of secretary of the interior in the Wilson cabinet, visited Honolulu a number of years ago as the guest of Dr. W. J. Galbraith, formerly physician for the Union Pacific railway, who practised in this city for a number of months and left here to go to Mexico. Dr. Osborne was at that time a very intimate friend of W. J. Bryan and his friends had expected him to be Bryan's choice for secretary of state in the event of the success of the Nebraskan in his first campaign. Dr. Osborne is a very quiet and unassuming man. He came here for a rest. Aside from the Wyoming men and the intimate friends of Dr. Galbraith, he did not make many acquaintances, but looked around and was much interested in the city.

HERBERT HELLIS, representing the Philippine Vegetable Oil company, a concern that has to do with the manufacture of coconut by-products, is returning to Manila in the Tenyo Maru after a brief stay on the mainland.

CAPT. BENJAMIN H. WATKINS, Second Infantry, Fort Shafter, having been relieved from duty as quartermaster, Schofield Barracks, and assigned to duty with Company M, Second Infantry, is granted leave of absence for one month, effective December 15, 1912.

JESSE H. BUFFUM, who some years ago was engaged in newspaper work in this city, during which time he made a memorable journey to the crater of Kilauea, is a passenger in the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru. Buffum now represents a moving picture syndicate and may continue the voyage to the Far East in search of material for photo plays.

M. COSTELLO, probably one of the most conspicuous men before the public in the role of heroine or villain in moving picture plays, is a visitor at Honolulu today. Costello is one of twelve people with the Vitagraph Company of America, which company is to make an extended tour of the Orient. A staff of photographers as well as actors and actresses are included in the party.

Clinton J. Hutchins appears to be harboring the gubernatorial bee as steady company. The former Honolulu man has written from San Francisco to a friend here that while he realizes he is ineligible to succeed Gov. Frear on account of the Organic Act provision against a non-resident of the territory, he expects to re-establish his residence here before another four years has passed. C. J. is what you might call a farseeing and pertinacious individual.

Attorney Harry Irwin of Hilo, indorsed by a precinct club for United States district attorney, answers that what he wants is the attorney-generalship. It may be remarked that not even a Republican dog-catchership—if there is such a job—is vacant yet.

The money trust committee has waited vainly for four months for papers to be served on Rockefeller. Waiting four months to be served would tire out almost anybody.

We don't seem to care much about the ultimate division of Europe among the Powers. What we want to know is, Who licked in the big naval battle?

"Sugar Bills Are Held Up", according to newspaper headlines, but the meat bill and the grocery bill will be around the first of the month as usual.

Supervisor Low charges that there is a plumbing trust in Honolulu. Maybe so, but we never heard of a plumber here trusting anybody.

J. Pierpont Morgan, the man who controls twenty-six billions, is not a bit happier than if he controlled only twenty-five.

From the detailed denials issued from St. Petersburg it is apparent that the Czarevitch's illness is really serious.

One of the things wrong with the plumbing ordinance appears to be that it has leaky joints.

Four more shopping days before Christmas!

PERSONALITIES

CAPT. V. HEDDT, well known in Honolulu, has been assigned to duty with the First Infantry.

MR. AND MRS. W. H. THAYER of Los Angeles are through passengers for the Orient in the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru.

COMMISSIONER OF IMMIGRATION VICTOR S. CLARK is due to arrive here from his round-the-world trip on January 2.

C. W. SMITH-MARRIOTT, a capitalist from Victoria, B. C., is proceeding to the Far East as a passenger in the Japanese liner, Tenyo Maru.

EGON VON PARPART, Niverville, Winnipeg, W. C. McHenry, Honolulu, and Walter Duseenberg, San Francisco, are registered at the Pleasanton Hotel.

F. A. SCRANTON, who is identified with one of the largest importing houses in New York, is a through passenger in the Tenyo Maru, en route to the Far East.

MR. AND MRS. S. AWOKI are through passengers in the Tenyo Maru and will leave the vessel at Yokohama. Mr. Awoki is manager of the San Francisco branch of the Yokohama Specie Bank.

J. NISHI, a member of the Japanese tea commission, having completed his duties on the mainland, where he attended a series of important conferences, is returning to Japan as a through passenger in the Tenyo Maru.

MISS HELEN CALDWELL, a passenger in the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru, is to leave that vessel at Shanghai, where it is said she will become the bride of an officer in the American fleet stationed at the north China coast.

HERBERT HELLIS, representing the Philippine Vegetable Oil company, a concern that has to do with the manufacture of coconut by-products, is returning to Manila in the Tenyo Maru after a brief stay on the mainland.

CAPT. BENJAMIN H. WATKINS, Second Infantry, Fort Shafter, having been relieved from duty as quartermaster, Schofield Barracks, and assigned to duty with Company M, Second Infantry, is granted leave of absence for one month, effective December 15, 1912.

JESSE H. BUFFUM, who some years ago was engaged in newspaper work in this city, during which time he made a memorable journey to the crater of Kilauea, is a passenger in the Japanese liner Tenyo Maru. Buffum now represents a moving picture syndicate and may continue the voyage to the Far East in search of material for photo plays.

M. COSTELLO, probably one of the most conspicuous men before the public in the role of heroine or villain in moving picture plays, is a visitor at Honolulu today. Costello is one of twelve people with the Vitagraph Company of America, which company is to make an extended tour of the Orient. A staff of photographers as well as actors and actresses are included in the party.

Feeling that your statement casts an unjust aspersion upon myself, as well as upon other Democrats present, among whom I would mention Attorney General Thayer, Mr. E. M. Watson and Mr. C. W. Ashford, I would ask you to either substantiate your statement and point out wherein our conduct was disgraceful, or publicly retract the statement which you have wrongfully made against us.

Referring to another part of your interview contained in the issue of the same paper, wherein you infer that the Democrats brought about the endorsement of Judge Edings in place of Judge Kingsbury, I desire to call your attention to the fact that Judge Edings' name was presented as a candidate before the bar association against Judge Kingsbury by a Republican, his nomination was seconded by a Republican, and out of the thirty-four members of the bar present there were only five Democrats, and conceding that all of the Democrats present voted for Judge Edings (which I believe not to be a fact), what have you to say of the thirteen Republicans who must have voted for him?

Concerning my own application before the bar association for endorsement, I am aware of nothing disgraceful or of disgraceful in my asking the bar association's endorsement, it being understood that the appointment would not in all probability be made until after the work of the coming session of the legislature was finished, in that case, I could gracefully resign the office of senator and accept the appointment. At any rate, I had not expected the question to assume a political phase before the bar association, and if you will remember at the meeting yesterday Judge Davis, a Republican, first moved my endorsement, and it was Judge Wilder, a Democrat, who most obdurately opposed the same.

I must confess that I am deeply grieved at the intemperate language used by you in your interview, providing, of course, you are correctly reported in The Star-Bulletin. Being conscious of no disgraceful nor discreditable conduct at the meeting of the bar association referred to, your failure to retract the statements accredited to you by The Star-Bulletin, if you are correctly reported, will compel me to ask the appointment of a committee of the bar association to investigate the charges which you have made and ascertain whether I am guilty of disgraceful conduct, or whether you are guilty of unjustly accusing me thereof. I am, yours very respectfully, JAMES L. COKE.

Smith's Letter Affirms Attitude. Mr. Smith's letter to The Star-Bulletin says: Honolulu, December 18, 1912. Editor Star-Bulletin, Honolulu. Dear Sir: Referring to the article which appeared in your issue of the 17th inst., respecting an expression of my opinion upon the subject of the proceedings at the meeting of the bar association on Monday afternoon, and in response to a protest made to me by Mr. James L. Coke, who feels that my remarks were broad enough to include him and do him injustice, I wish to say that my criticism was and remains directed against the manifestly and avowedly Democratic campaign to secure judicial office for a certain Democratic candidate, apparently irrespective of other considerations. No Democrat present thought fit to raise his voice to protest against it in this respect. Even the influence of absent Democrats and threats of outside Democratic control were called into play.

The term "disgraceful" which I used is perhaps too harsh to be applied to those Democratic members who did not directly participate in the intemperate exhibition of party politics, and respecting these I merely regret their failure to disapprove it. Only to this extent were my remarks intended to include Mr. Coke. Very truly yours, W. O. SMITH.

BENEFIT PLAY TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW NIGHT. With the promise of Carlos Caceres, the talented young musician, to supply the necessary music for the performance to be given tomorrow evening in the Opera House by the students of the College of Hawaii, the program is complete. The collegians are to repeat their very successful play, "The Revolving Wedge," in which they scored recently in Charles R. Bishop Hall, while Ernest Kaai, Honolulu's best known Hawaiian musician, and a picked company of Boy Scouts will assist.

"The Revolving Wedge," as put on by the collegians, is probably the best amateur production Honolulu has seen in years, two or three members of the cast showing themselves comedians quite up to to the best professional standards, while the whole company has been thoroughly drilled in lines and acting. The play is of one act only, but of a duration sufficient for the development of a very clever plot. Tickets for this benefit, of which the Mailehi Christmas Tree fund will receive all the receipts, are now being sold at the rooms of the promotion committee, Young Hotel building, at fifty cents. General admission will be twenty-five cents. The performance will be good; the cause is a good one, and the attendance should be the house's capacity.

EMPLOYMENT COMMISSION WILL MEET TOMORROW. The employment commission, which was appointed some time ago by R. H. Trent, president of the Young Men's Christian Association, will meet at half-past three o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the association, at which time several of the members of the commission will read reports on the vocational guidance investigation. Reports will be given by Elijah Mackenzie, who will talk on the opportunities for young men and boys in securing positions in the various trades, and A. E. Larimer will give an outline of the government positions. A general plan for the establishment of a vocational guidance bureau in Honolulu will be discussed, all of which will be in preparation for the final report which is being prepared by the secretary of the commission, R. M. Cross, to be submitted to President Trent.

A shipment of raw silk valued at $2,075,000, and said to be the largest shipment to cross the Pacific, is en route from Yokohama to New York via Tacoma. A special train of 16 cars awaits it at Tacoma.

Eggs Cost You 75c A Dozen

UNLESS YOU RAISE YOUR OWN CHICKENS.

You old kamaainas, who have lived in Honolulu for years, will remember the box of fresh eggs at Nolte's. This box of fresh eggs is from the Bellina ranch. Thirty minutes from the center of the city, we have a few acres left adjoining the Bellina ranch, suitable in every way for raising chickens. Surplus eggs are just like money in the bank. A very small cash payment will pay for one of these acre-lots. If you are in doubt or if you are skeptical in regard to the chicken-raising business in this locality, interview Mr. Williamson of 6th Avenue. In addition to this acre property, we have the following residence property:

THE CHRISTMAS TREE AND HOW TO MAKE THE MOST OUT OF IT

A Christmas tree is not complete in the minds of many children. Still the trimmings and the tree are so expensive that a good many parents cannot afford to have one.

Then, too, many families have had Christmas trees for so many years that the novelty has worn off and the children no longer appreciate their glamour. And the novelty of having Santa Claus take the presents off each year has become so common that the young folks fail to appreciate the work that parents have done.

When children are completely surprised Christmas is the happiest. This cannot always be done with the many little peeping eyes ever about, but when the little folks are kept in ignorance of what is being prepared for them, the utter surprise is worth all of the trouble.

There are many ways of giving the youngsters their presents besides hanging them on a Christmas tree. One of the easiest ways is to have them arranged on chairs, or tables. Of course, this might not please the tiniest one of the family, but the older ones will be just as well satisfied. One of the ways which offers the most amusement is to have a fish-pond. Santa Claus, appropriately garbed, should stand back of a large dark curtain and the children should be given fishing rods with the hook and line attached to them. Then, as they fling the line into the pond some gift is attached to it. When this is done for the first time there is much fun made over it, but if done two or three years in succession the newness naturally wears off.

The little ones are afforded much enjoyment, too, when the Christmas gifts are hidden. They may be placed in all out of the way corners in the house and a most enjoyable morning may be spent in searching for them. If this is done the children should be given a certain time in which to find the presents and at the end of the time, if all are not found, mother must come to the rescue. A prize may be offered to the one who first finds all of his gifts.

Another way in which the gifts may be given to the little children is to have them hidden in some part of the house and then take as many pieces of twine as there are children and wind and inter-wind them in and out of the house. As each child comes to the end of his piece of twine he will come upon his presents neatly arranged on a chair.

Few homes in Honolulu have fish-places and chimneys where Santa Claus may come down, so the old man has to come through a window of a door. So when the stockings are filled they have to be hung upon chair backs. Many little children hang up their stockings on Christmas eve and mother has to fill them. This old custom is a pretty one and when the little folks want to hang up their stockings no forbidding word should come from parents.

There is no reason why parents should feel badly because they can have no Christmas tree this year, even if they have had them on previous years. The majority of children belong to Sunday schools and are accustomed to the Christmas tree at the church. Then if the home celebration is a little different there is no reason why it should not be appreciated and enjoyable.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—It is the belief of Dr. Lewis B. Fisher of the University of Chicago that smoking soldiers are no good for war. Addressing the Chicago Political Equality League, he said: "In a time of war I believe there are enough gymnasium, athletic trained girls in this country to outstrip cigarette smoking boys."

RECREATIONS MAUD POWELL IS A REAL ARTISTE

It has truly been said, "Maud Powell is the power and the fascination of an almost disembodied artist." There is the music, the violin and the transporting pleasure. Perhaps the thing that makes this most possible is her freedom from any sort of mannerisms. She is not a violinist doing "stunts" for an admiring audience, but she is a musician rhapsodizing in the pure exhilaration of the mastery of her instrument as mood and fancy come changeably to her and to flow out like rapturous exhilaration to her hearers. Her tone is beautiful. But perhaps we should not say her tone, for she has not one tone, but many, and always the tone that the distinguishing traits of the particular music bid. It is of clear and glinting brilliancy; of sonorous depth, breadth and eloquence; of sunny vivacity; of light and flowing charm; of feathery lightness; of songful intensity. She plays with the strength and tenderness of a usually peculiar to masculine violin players and combined with this there is all the delicacy and tenderness of a very womanly woman. She seems to know no limitation. Like the old masters, she loses sight and thought of everything but her violin. Not only does she understand, but she manifests an entire sympathy and accord with the thought expressed in the selection rendered. She has been unremitting in her toil and effort for perfection. Even after applauding audiences have said "perfection," she has continued her own severest critic. Today success is her reward—an assured place among the world's greatest musicians.

Madame Powell will appear here on Friday, Dec. 27, at the Royal Hawaiian Opera House. Tickets will be on sale at the Hawaii Promotion rooms tomorrow morning.

What is claimed by the management as being the most artistically acted photo-play, and at the same time as interesting a story as has ever been projected at the Empire Theater is advertised for tonight, it being a dramatization, in moving pictures of Charles Dickens' weird, masterful "Martin Chuzzlewit."

This picture was shown last night and those who witnessed it, claim it to be a marvelous piece of photography and a close interpretation of the famous writer's wonderful story. The picture is in three reels and is, perhaps, the most pretentious picture ever seen here.

The story is enacted with several footlight celebrities in the cast and is well worth going to see.

HEAVY DECLINE IN EWA STOCK

A drop of a point in Ewa at any other time than one like the present, when an epidemic of cold feet prevails, would be sensational. With such a drop to 25, a sale of 200 shares of Ewa took place on the board today. Hawaiian Commercial registered a fall of three-quarters of a point to 32 for 5 shares reported. Olaa remained unchanged at 4 for 25 and 50 shares at the session. Pahang Rubber is unchanged in a sale of 50 shares at 19. Oahu Railway five are at the previous rate of 101 for $500.

Application blanks may be obtained on applying to the office of the Lighthouse Inspector, 311 McCandless building, Honolulu, T. H.

Mr. Board of Supervisors: The State Capitol at Albany, New York, burned last summer. The financial loss was six million dollars. The loss of documents and records is priceless. Here are the exact words of a man who was in the building when the fire started: "THE FIRE AT THIS TIME COULD HAVE BEEN EASILY PUT OUT WITH A PAIR OF TWO OF WATER. WE SEARCHED IN VAIN FOR ANYTHING TO SERVE THE PURPOSE. THE NIGHT WATCHMAN RAN DOWN STAIRS TO SOUND THE ALARM. THERE BEING NO ALARMS IN THE BUILDING. WHILE WE WAITED FOR THE DEPARTMENT—THIS BUILDING AT ALBANY COST TWENTY-SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS, AND WAS NOT EQUIPPED WITH FIRE ALARMS, OR EVEN PAILS OF WATER, AND WE HAVE THE TESTIMONY OF AN EYE WITNESS THAT THIS FIRE WAS A SMALL BLAZE WHEN IT STARTED."

BUSINESS ITEMS

Hawaiian stocks closed in San Francisco yesterday as follows: Hawaiian Commercial, 32 bid, 32 1/2 asked; Hawaiian Sugar, 34 bid, Honolulu, 7 1/2 bid, 7 1/2 asked; Hui, 14 bid, 14 1/2 asked; Liliuokalani, 12 bid, Onomea, 25 1/2 bid, Pauhanu, 17 1/2 bid; Union, 32 bid.

Yesterday the New York stock market was exceedingly dull, not even the operations of the bears causing any selling movement. The indifference of the public produced a severe recession, and although call money went down to 7 1/2, it did not help the stock market.

During its engagement at the Bion theater the World's Fair Stock Company will obtain moving picture views of Hawaiian scenery. These will be used as scenarios for dramas acted for picture show films. For this purpose there are two camera men with the company. They brought letters to Promotion Secretary Wood from Louis Levy, chief of publicity for the San Francisco exposition. Mr. Wood believes the islands will get some effective advertising from the appearance of its scenery in motion picture plays.

Local stockholders of Lakeview No. 2 Oil Co. have received notice of an assessment of two cents a share to raise money for completing two wells, both of which have struck the oil sands. In a property taken over from another company, lately oil is oozing through a "bidgee" at the rate of about 50 gallons a day, samples of which have proved on analysis to be 212 gravity, which is high grade oil worth 55 cents a barrel at the well. Experts including public officials predict early production of this well, and with the proceeds therefrom the company will further develop one of its original wells in which enormous gas pressure has been overcome after a year's hard work at great expense. It is stated in the letter of the company, accompanying the assessment notice, that they expect, in a short time, comparatively to be able to pay dividends and at the same time carry on the development work contracted for with the company whose holding they have just taken over.

NEW SHOP HAS MAINLAND FEATURES
The "Fleur De Lis," a shaving and manicuring establishment that compares favorably with any on the Pacific Coast, opened its doors in the Excelsior building, corner Fort street and Chaplain lane, Tuesday morning and commenced business with a rush. The barber shop, which is the prettiest in the city, is finished entirely in white, from the barbers who appear in natty white suits and shoes, to the hat-rack. The four white enameled chairs are of the latest make and as comfortable as a lounge.

A glance over the establishment reveals a number of things new to Honolulu. The cup rack is replaced by a number of individual drawers large enough to hold a mug, comb, brush, powder and tonic. These drawers are kept closed, thereby preventing dust from getting in.

A very important feature of the new place is a hot towel steam sterilizer,—the only one of its kind here,—which insures hot towels at a moment's notice. Whilst the barbers are working on your face, lady manicurists are at your service. Children's haircutting is made a specialty.

In conjunction with the barber shop is a ladies' hairdressing, shoe-shining and manicuring parlor, with entrance on Chaplain lane.

Mainland prices will prevail—for instance, a shave and a shine cost 25c, haircutting and face massaging 25c each, manicuring 50c for gents and 35c for ladies. With these prices, the Fleur De Lis will shortly be the most popular shop in town.—advertisement.

WAYSON ACTS; QUICK CLEAN-UP

Several wagonloads of debris, rubbish and several dozen chickens were removed by employees of the board of health yesterday afternoon from the rear of the old armory building, on Hotel street after formal appeals had been made by City and County Physician J. T. Wayson to the acting governor, the attorney general and, finally, to the health inspectors.

Inasmuch as the debris, rubbish and poultry all belonged to Janitor Kepuno, in charge of the armory, Col. John W. Jones explained feelingly afterward that so much red tape was unnecessary to accomplish the cleaning, as the board of health had known the condition all the time and besides, he personally would have had it attended to had he been told the neighbors didn't like it. But the improvement was finally made, anyhow.

Dr. Wayson, who lives nearby, explained that the poultry and rubbish made a stench he and his could not appreciate. The Kepuno family has resided in the rear of the armory for years, a portion of their home being a shack once used as a voting booth; it was unoccupied with toilet, running water or other sanitary conveniences. Col. Jones says this condition was due to the fact that the building was on federal property and the territory, therefore, would provide no funds for its upkeep. The little bonus was thoroughly cleaned yesterday, and it is now under tool that a new one is to be provided shortly in that portion of the armory recently moved back to back way for the proposed big concrete national guard structure on Hotel street.

COL. PARKER COMMISERATES WITH MR. TAFT
By C. S. ALBERT
Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., December 8.—Secretary Jack Desha, who succeeded Mr. McClellan as assistant to Delegate Kahanaloa, arrived here with the convening of Congress. He opened up the Delegate's office and has been looking after Territorial matters. He is a young Harvard man, graduated last June. The Delegate was detained enroute and did not arrive as soon as expected.

Col. Samuel Parker dropped into this city with the assembling of Congress. He visited all his old friends in the Senate and House. He also made a call at the White House and paid his respects to President Taft, commiserating with him on the general overturning of the Republican party.

PERSONALITIES
J. BATALHA DE FREITAS, Portuguese minister to China, is numbered among the passengers to arrive this morning in the liner Tenyo Maru.

CHARLES G. BOOKER is an outgoing passenger on the Tenyo Maru this afternoon en route to the United States and the Philippines. He is going to the Philippines to investigate business possibilities there. "I am going out of the country because I want to, not because I have to," said Mr. Booker this morning.

Because of his duties as governor, Woodrow Wilson has declined the offer of President Taft to make a trip to the Panama Canal on one of the big battleships.

The Association of the Police of Paris has presented J. Pierpont Morgan with a bronze medal in recognition of his benefactions.

SOLDIERS LEAD IN SUICIDES

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 9.—More soldiers and more nurses committed suicide in California than persons in any of the other occupations, according to a report issued today by the Board of Health from data prepared by Statistician George Leslie.

Soldiers lead the men with 7.9 per cent, while nurses lead the women with 5.5 per cent. For men, bookkeepers and clerks are lowest, with 4.0 per cent, and women servants are lowest, with 3.5 per cent.

Plumbers, 7.3 per cent; composers, 6.4 per cent; physicians, 5.6 per cent; waiters, 5.6 per cent; railroad men, 5.5 per cent; peddlers, 5.4 per cent; liquor dealers, 5.1 per cent; gardeners, 4.9 per cent; collectors, 4.4 per cent; boot and shoe makers, 4.1 per cent.

vacation of two weeks in Honolulu. Advertisement for bids for the construction of the Kaimuki wharf, for which an appropriation of $7,500 has been provided, will begin tomorrow. Tenders for the contract will be opened in the office of the superintendent of public works December 31.

A special meeting of the Honolulu Scottish Thistle Club will be held in the Club Rooms, Alexander Young building, at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening, to discuss important business and also to decide the form in which Burns' anniversary shall be celebrated.

An Hong Hing, appeared in the U. S. district court this morning and explained his failure to appear in the bankruptcy case called there yesterday by asserting he had forgotten the date of the hearing. He was excused, after being ordered to pay the extra expense entailed by the delay his absence had caused.

The membership committee of the Young Men's Christian Association will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon to consider plans for enlarging the membership of the association during the month of January. All active work along this line will be started some time during the first week of January, and it is expected that a large number of men and boys will be added to the membership list.

Acting on an opinion given by the attorney general which authorizes the board to repair the new Mahukoua wharf from the general maintenance fund for territorial wharves, the board of harbor commissioners yesterday ordered a concrete slab covering for the pier at that place. The advertisement of bids for the job of connecting the Honolulu wharves with the fuel oil pipe line was also authorized by the board.

LOCAL AND GENERAL
Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Oshay of Chicago, who separated three years ago, have been reunited through the love of their children.

WORLD'S FAIR STOCK COMPANY PREPARES FOR UNIQUE SEASON

MISS VIRGINIA BRISSAC

This clever actress, leading lady with the World's Fair Stock Company, has played in "The Bird of Paradise." She has a splendidly-drawn role in "Brewster's Millions," which is the opening offering of the big company at the Bijou next Saturday night.

Among the passengers on the Lurline, which leaves for Maui tomorrow will be Mr. F. Richards, scene artist of the Universal Film company, who, after looking over the possibilities of the Garden Isle regarding backgrounds for moving picture dramas, will journey to Hawaii where he will prepare sketches and models of the volcano necessary for the production of "The Bird of Paradise" which will be presented by the World's Fair Stock company at the Bijou theater as soon as the production can be prepared.

This play, which is the first success for drama ever staged with the principal characters and scenes all Hawaiian, has been played by Miss Brissac and her present roster of players, but as she herself explains it "Although the Bird of Paradise is a gem, so far as the literature and situations of the play are concerned, and the native scenery and costumes we used in Los Angeles were greatly admired, there, before offering the piece in its home, it is here, I prefer to have the com-

BEET SUGAR FUTURES UP

Willett & Gray's Journal for December 5 tells of a shortage on estimates of the Louisiana crop of sugar, as well as of a stiffening in the prices of European beet for futures. On these matters the Journal says:

"The Louisiana crop estimate is reduced 40,000 tons to a total of only 160,000 tons, thus reducing the immediate supplies which refiners thought to have secured under their contracts with the planters. In instances sellers of fixed amount contracts have paid in open market at New Orleans 3c. per 100 lbs. advance (3.87c.) to fulfill part of their contracts to refiners.

European markets have advanced in November from 9s. 3/4d. (4.94c.) to 9s. 6 1/2d. (4.96c.) and futures for May from 10s. to 10s. 0 1/2d. Cane Javay unchanged at 11s.

Crop reports are mostly favorable in Europe.

"The first arrivals of new crop Hawaiian sugars are due here January 20th, to be followed by a total of something less than last year."

It is also pointed out that Porto Rico is going to be an important factor in the market, the Journal saying:

"Porto Rico has not yet entered the market as producer or seller but must do so soon. This is the crop that is to largely influence prices during the first half of 1913.

The planters and manufacturers have knowledge as they believe that a very considerable reduction of duties, possibly 3c. per lb., will be made by the Democratic Congress to take effect before their crop season is over, and hence as their sugars pay no duties now and yet they receive pay for them just as if they did pay $1.348 per 100 lbs it is good judgment to begin and continue sales from Porto Rico as early and as rapidly as possible. Porto Rico therefore will to a large extent fix the prices for Cuba sugars and naturally the present basis of 2 1/2c. c. & f. for January sugar will give place to a possible 2c. c. & f. market, and equivalent price of 3.36c. per lb. for Porto Rico 96% test with a 50c. per 100 lbs. reduction in duties on Cuba sugar.

"January to June therefore, which covers the making of these crops most rapidly, will likely see much competition between these sellers, although Cuba will no doubt benefit somewhat by whatever reduction is made in the duties that does not go to the consumer."

THINGS MADE IN HONOLULU

To be able to sleep the sleep of the just is an aspiration of every right-thinking man, but it has long been known in Honolulu that a man may lean over in his uprightness and yet, when he lies down, cannot get a decent night's sleep unless one of Bailey's woven wire mattresses is under him.

Bailey's store at King and Alakā street is doing such an increasing business right along, in selling the mattresses and furniture made in the Bailey factory, that Mr. Bailey does not seem to care much whether Christmas keeps or not. Still, with a little prodding from a Star-Bulletin man this morning, he managed to mention quite a nice run of appropriate gifts for the joyous season which are on view in the store.

"We are making things like this right along," said Mr. Bailey, "these China closets. Many people prefer them unfinished in varnish, just plainly stained work. Then we have dressers desks and rockers, and China closets and bookcases—all made especially for the youngsters. Here are cheap boxes for people of moderate circumstances, and just as serviceable as some of the expensive imported article.

"We have been making a lot of improvements in the factory this year. A new engine has just been installed, also there are new lathes and drills. We have a new machine that automatically stuffs mattresses just like a sausage machine does its work. I made it myself from one I saw in San Francisco. There are none on the market. The original one was burnt in the San Francisco fire, along with its owner and his entire plant—at least nothing was ever seen or heard of him after the catastrophe.

"We manufacture two-thirds of our

WHERE MEN ARE TOGGED

If you want to be toggged out like a gentleman, you go to a toggery just the same as you go to a bakery for the staff of life. There is none better in Honolulu, where the best goods from the world's leading markets of fashion are found, than Silva's Toggery on King street near Fort. Its steadily increasing business is evidence of the truth of this statement. An inspection of the goods, though, will be more satisfying than any allegation.

"Conditions are very good this season, and people are going in for high-class articles," said A. C. Silva, president and manager of the company, when asked how the holiday trade was faring with him. "A heavier quality of full dress and other clothing is being sought than last year, and we have a much larger assortment in all lines of men's apparel than ever before.

"In silk neckwear and pajamas, in their goods, etc., we are well stocked and have a satisfactory run. One of our leading specialties is imported silk hosiery. English and French makes of the highest class. We have a splendid line of full dress shirts with pique fronts, something entirely new.

"Our line of auto wear is complete, in gloves, topcoats, raincoats, mutters, etc. Here also are umbrellas of high grades, and a fine line of Panama hats ranging from $7.50 to $20.

"The juvenile department has been very successful this year, having a good run on high grade lines of children's wear. In all departments business has been better each month, except that November was a trifle slack although equal to the same month last year. The store is open right along every night until Christmas."

BOXING AT SCHOFIELD ATTRACTS LARGE CROWD

The Second Infantry amusement hall, at Schofield Barracks, was the scene last night of some classy boxing bouts, the card going off without a hitch, and to the satisfaction of all.

Following were the results: Allen, First Field Artillery, and Gilmer, First Infantry, draw, 12 rounds; Donovan, Second Infantry, knocked out Kibbey, Fifth Cavalry, in fourth round of scheduled 8-round fight; Mullins, Fifth Cavalry, won decision from Hooper, same regiment, in six rounds; Carlin, artillery, knocked out Arrelanes, cavalry, in fourth of 6-round bout.

Color Sergeant Maher, Second Infantry, refereed all the bouts in a satisfactory manner.

The trophies brought from Africa by Colonel Roosevelt and previously installed in the main rotunda of the National Museum at Washington, have been relegated to a side room. The rotunda is to be used for the Hall of Fame.

stock of furniture. Our woven wire mattresses are now made with all steel bottoms, greatly increasing their durability and cleanliness. Meat safes we make by the hundreds where the Chinese used to make all of them. They are of perforated zinc walls and are much more substantial than the old kind. Being fitted with movable shelves they are easily cleaned.

BRUNETTES FOR MOVING PICTURES.

To get a berth with a moving-picture company you've got to have just the right kind of face. You've got to have a picture face, a face that tells the story by its expression, since one cannot tell the story in words. And brunettes are wanted, girls; and blondes are not wanted. Black eyes and black hair show up best on the screen.

Then, of course, you've got to do certain more or less dangerous stunts not called for on Broadway. Howard Missner of the Essanay Company had to permit himself to be thrown through a skylight and land in a bathtub full of water. G. M. Anderson, one of the owners of the Essanay, and also one of the best-known actors on the silent stage, while fighting with the villain in "Broncho Billy's Bible," on the edge of a precipice, lost his footing and fell. The other actors cried out in horror, rushed to the edge of the precipice, and found Anderson hanging, in midair, to the branches of a tree that had grown out over the yawning chasm.

Patented December 12, 1911

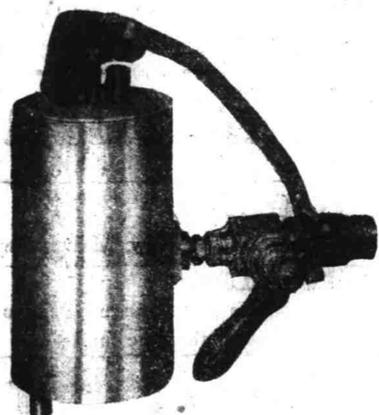

ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED

HONOLULU BRANCH

National Supplies Co.,

Telephone 4385.

Hotel and Union Streets.

For many years you and I have waited for our little friend—"K. D." and now he has arrived, spic and span, ready for business.

"K. D." is the greatest, cleanest, neatest little electric water heater in the whole wide world. The product of electric science. Made to fit in any house, place of business, office, hospital, home, sick room, barber shop, soda fountain, bar, bedroom, in fact anywhere that there is the least chance that hot water—fresh running hot water—is required quickly.

WHEN BABY GETS THE COLIC IN THE NIGHT

You just jump out of bed, take a towel, fold it, lay it right under little "K. D." and let the hot water run, then wring the towel free of surplus hot water, and that the towel is not too hot for the tender skin of baby, ready that warm or hot towel to the little "Tummy" and see baby smile at you. Relief for baby, peace for Papa, happiness for the whole family, and "K. D." does the trick.

WHEN YOU WANT A BATH

You don't want to fool around firing up the furnace or range to get water enough to take a nice warm bath in. In the first place it's a dirty job; it heats up the whole house and it costs about ten times more than simply shaking hands with your little friend "K. D." and letting him do all that for you in ten seconds' time.

A GIFT

that every home-lover would appreciate, as it is both artistic and useful.

Mahogany & Oak Electric Lamps

We are showing something decidedly new in Piano, Banquet, Table and Domes, constructed of rich mahogany, quartered oak, with art glass and silk shades.

The designs are on classical lines, and the figures and bust are carved from solid wood-making pieces, that have true value and merit beyond the usual cast and plated bases.

The effect produced by harmonizing the design and finish of furniture and trim of a home with illuminating devices is novel, producing an interior that is soft, rich and pleasing.

Prices range from $6.50 to $65.00

FOUNDER'S DAY

decorated with the lilies of the valley and other flowers, was staked a "tabu" stick, symbolic of the royalty of the Alii, who made it possible for the succeeding generation of her own race the benefits of Kamehameha.

The trustees and the entire faculty of the schools were present.

But few of the old students were present. Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who usually attends these exercises was not there. It was reported this morning that she was not well enough to leave home.

Tomorrow night, the Kamehamehas will hear Chas. A. Cottrill, collector of internal revenue. He will speak at a luncheon to be given at seven o'clock in the dining room of the manual department. His subject will be "Privileges and enjoyments of an academic education." It is expected that a large delegation of the old students will be there to hear him.

Many Present

Among those present at the mausoleum this morning, beside President Horne of the schools and the faculty, were Hon. W. O. Smith, and Hon. A. F. Judd, of the board of trustees; Rev. Wm. B. Oleson, pioneer principal; Theodore Richards, Joseph Emerson, Rev. Akaiho Akana, Rev. Henry Poepoe, G. K. Poepoe, Hon. Fred. K. Beckley, Mrs. C. S. Halloway, Mrs. L. Auld, Miss Lucy Peabody, Mrs. Henrice and several of the older students of the three schools. The attendance this year, however, was not as large as that of last year.

Proof To Many

Twenty-five years ago today, the Kamehameha Schools were founded under the express will of the late Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop, the founder, in whose memory all sons and daughters of Kamehameha held appropriate exercises over her grave at Nuuanu this morning. The dedication of the senior cottage of the Girls' School will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Old Students Coming

A number of the island Kamehame-

has come in from Kauai today to attend the celebration. Tomorrow morning, the students from Hawaii will arrive in the Kilauea. C. E. King, class of 1891, accompanied by a delegation of the "Kona nightingales," all Kamehamehas, will also be passengers in the Kona-Kau liner. It is expected that they will sing the latest Hawaiian music, which never before has been sung in public.

According to the faculty of the schools, the boys, during their Christmas vacation which began today will conduct military camps, fight sham battles and carry out regular campaigns on a small scale, under the direction of Lieutenant Turner, military instructor of the schools. They will begin their school year again January 2.

The program as arranged for the celebration of the Founder's Day of the Kamehameha Schools, follows: Mausoleum exercises—This morning at ten o'clock.

Dedication of senior cottage, school for girls—This afternoon at four o'clock.

Chapel Service—Sunday, December 22, 11 a. m.

Rev. Akaiho Akana, class of 1903, will deliver the Sunday address.

After the dedication of the senior cottage, the building will be open for inspection.

Athletic contests will be held today and tomorrow afternoon.

At the luau, only former members of Kamehameha, with wife or husband, are invited. No children.

Today's program at the Mausoleum at 10 a. m. is as follows:

Song—"He Inoa No Pauahi," by all.

Decoration of Mrs. Bishop's grave by students, in charge of Miss Burgner.

Song—"Pauahi Ke Alii," by all.

Song—"Pauahi o Kalani," preparatory and Manual boys.

Brief ritual service by K. B. S. P. D.

Brief ritual service by K. G. S.

Brief ritual service by K. B. S. M.

Song—"Only Remembered," by all.

Girls' School call—K. G. S.

The public are cordially invited. All former students are urged to come to honor to the memory of the loved Alii.

The program for the dedication of the senior cottage at 4 p. m. tomorrow is:

Presiding—President Perley L. Horne.

Song—"A Lonely Rose," (Mermes), girls' senior class.

Address—Hon. W. O. Smith, president, board of trustees.

Song—"Mother Love" (Voght), Boys' Glee Club.

Acceptance of building for the girls—Miss Ida M. Pope, principal.

Song—"The Rosary," (Nevin), girls' senior class.

Inspection of the new building will follow the exercises.

and their views of the best method of meeting the present financial obligations of the Territory occasioned by the wharf system of the Territory, and for properly covering and providing for the large expenditures of public funds that will be necessary to use in the immediate future to provide for the development of the commerce of the Territory.

As yet, however, no estimate has been made of the running expense of the territorial wharves, affording a definite basis from which the rate of taxation might be figured. The figures at present compiled show merely the total cost of the various piers, with the revenue derived from those in Honolulu during the year from October 1, 1911, to September 30, 1912.

The total cost of all the territorial wharves, in Honolulu and elsewhere, is $1,397,001.59. The total revenue derived during the past year by the territory from them was $44,691.18, all coming from those in Honolulu. The cost of the wharves on the other islands is $149,300, and of those in Honolulu, $1,247,701.59.

Itemized, the figures are as follows:

to walk the streets to keep warm, as there is no tentage to spare here.

Major E. J. Timberlake, commanding the artillery district, is not inclined to accept the newspaper statement as authentic, believing that he would have been informed of any such orders. Officers at department headquarters, however, credit the news, and are busy figuring out the disposition of the companies. This morning Adjutant General Campbell took the matter up with Chief Quartermaster Cheatham, and the latter will probably cable to division headquarters regarding tentage.

The officers who will come with the 10th company are Captain Staton, Lieutenant O'Hara and Lieutenant Harrison. Captain Wm. H. Peck has been assigned to the 68th within the last few weeks, the other officers of the company, according to the last army directory, being Lieutenants Pepin and Barr. The 10th company has been at Fort Barry, and the 68th at Fort Winfield Scott, both on San Francisco bay. Neither is a mine company, however, which eliminates Fort Armstrong as a permanent station for either.

BOARD WRESTLES WITH SCHOOL MONIES

With Treasurer Conkling present to explain the intent of the framers of the new tax law, and Acting Attorney General A. C. Smith in attendance to figure out the nice legal points involved, the Territorial board of school estimates met in the Senate chamber this morning and held a discussion that proved highly interesting to the members themselves but would have been as highly exciting as a game of tiddledewinks to the average citizen.

The new tax and school laws were explained in detail and that portion of the new biennial school budget recently prepared by the school commission, which may be revised by the board of estimates, was worked out carefully, only one or two revisions being made at the morning session, however. Further changes may be made this afternoon, and the board may conclude the extremely technical job today.

Does janitors' services, as provided for in the new budget, mean merely "service," or does it include the janitors' supplies? This is an important item in the budget, and the question proved a tartar to the members of the newly-organized board. It was, however, only one of a number of similar problems the members were called upon to solve, and which they eventually were compelled to refer to the attorney general for a legal opinion. If janitors' supplies are not included, by law, under the head of janitors' service, should it come under the head of maintenance, or school supplies? Should it be under the general or the special fund? If it is under the one, the Territory must pay for the janitors' supplies, and will materially affect the tax rate; if under the other the counties must pay for it.

D. L. Conkling appeared before the board today as chairman of the school committee of the Kailih Improvement Club and persuaded the board to insert an appropriation of $3200 for the erection of a four-room bungalow school for the Kailiwaena school. His request was for an appropriation of $70,000 for a fourteen-room building, but the board ruthlessly pared it down to the much smaller figure. Mott-Smith is chairman of the board.

JEWELS GLEAM AMID FLOWERS

"I like your beautiful shop and your jewels are wonderful, but the most wonderful thing to me is the flowers," is the remark that a visitor at Wall & Dougherty's made one night this week. It was early in the evening and the big shop on Bishop street was filled with Christmas buyers. And all around, in among the gleaming showcases, high on the wall-stands and in and around the handsome furnishings of this new jewelry store were masses and masses of flowers and not cut flowers, but flowers in pots. The scarlet poinsettia was particularly in evidence. Some of the visitors spent almost as much time admiring the flowers as the jewelry, cut-glass or other ware.

"This Christmas season is a splendid one for us," said Arthur P. Wall, commenting on the prevailing spirit of good cheer and happiness in buying that seems typical of the brightly-lighted shop. "We have, as you know, been in business but a short time and our opening stock was very large, so that with what we ordered especially for the holiday season, we have carried an unusually large line of goods that appeal to the holiday shopper. Yet the demand has been great. The Christmas season in Honolulu has certainly been something for the merchants to wonder at."

"There is, of course, always a demand for jewels at Christmas. We find also that such pretty, delicate and tasteful gifts as gold and silver mesh bags, platinum wrist watches and the like are very popular. There is a large demand for leather goods this year, and we are glad to say that our line is not to be surpassed."

"One indication of the trade we have been doing is the fact that our engravers are simply overwhelmed with work. I thought that one engraver could do the work, but the season opened up so briskly that I had to secure another." Typical of the taste and aptness that characterize the offerings of this shop is the finely engraved Christmas greeting that the firm is sending out. And here is the appropriate sentiment within:

"Her emerald sea, her turquoise sky. Her opal rainbow arched on high. Her liquid sunshine, diamonds rare. Are priceless to Hawaii fair. These pearls of thought we scatter wide. To give out joy for Christmastide."

and that I gave an opinion as to its validity. The report also intimates, and I have learned from other sources that Mr. Magoon also claims that he "knocked out" the old plumbing ordinance in the supreme court of the territory. Mr. Magoon made these statements during my absence from the board and they were not repeated at the time I was in attendance on the board yesterday, so that I had no opportunity to state the facts. For the information of the board I will state that the old plumbing ordinance was not drawn by me or by any one in this department, and was never referred by the board to me or to any one in this department for an opinion as to its validity. Although the ordinance was hurriedly passed by the board to meet what was considered an emergency, it is remarkably free from defects and has never been "knocked out." While having due regard for Mr. Magoon's legal ability, I fail to understand why he repeatedly announces that the ordinance has been declared invalid by the court. The only attack ever made on the ordinance was made by Mr. Magoon in the case of Territory vs. Furulayashi. That case was decided by the supreme court of the Territory on the 26th day of June, 1911. The decision did not declare the ordinance invalid. It did not even make a dent in it, and since that time the plumbing ordinance has been in full operation. Under the decision, a small portion of the ordinance covering mere matters of convenience and not essential in any manner to its operation, were held to be without effect. So little bearing did this attack on the ordinance have upon the material and vital portions of it, that I advised the board that it was not even necessary to amend the ordinance. Mr. Magoon may of course feel proud of this "victory," but it hardly calls for continuous self-laudation.

Bulletin for publication. Very truly yours, FRED W. MILVERTON, First Deputy City and County Attorney.

JAPANESE GAMBLERS CAUGHT BY KELLET

A half dozen Japanese were caught by Deputy Kellett and a squad of secret service men last evening and when arraigned at District court this morning were assessed fines ranging from five to nine dollars with the costs of prosecution added thereto. The raid was made at a time when it was believed that a large delegation of orientals would be present. The officers appeared a trifle too early upon the scene with a result that the bigger portion of the fraternity who might have over the boards where money is won or lost, were tipped off in time to beat a retreat.

At the conference of the National Unionist association in London, Lord Lansdowne was chosen to make the announcements regarding the party policy, which makes him the acknowledged head of the party in place of Bonar Law.

It is believed that the renewal of the Dreibund, six months before its expiration, has reference to the Balkan situation.
