Hits off Tesreau, 11 in six innings; off Crandall, 1 in three innings.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 8.—New York was beaten ingloriously on the Giants' home grounds today, and by a mere youngster in the major league ranks.

Bush, one of the first-year recruits that Connie Mack has been developing into a first-string twirler, held the hard-hitting New Yorkers to five hits and two runs today, while the Athletics fell upon "Big Jeff" Tesreau and hammered him from the box, and kept up their bombardment on Doc Crandall, who succeeded the spit-ball.

The batteries were Bush, pitcher; and Schang, catcher, for Philadelphia. For New York, Tesreau and Crandall, pitchers; McLean and Wilson, catchers.

Meanwhile the Athletics collected eight runs off their twelve safeties, smashing the ball in all directions on the Polo grounds.

Bush and Schang, the Philadelphia battery, did magnificent work, the two youngsters easily outclassing the Giant batteries. Schang steadied the young pitcher in the tight places, piloting him safely through several tense moments.

SCHANG GETS HOMERUN

Schlang further showed his worth by a terrific drive in the eighth inning that was good for a home-run. In fact, the youngster, even with the fine pitching of Bush and the wonderful all-around work of Eddie Collins at second base, was the outstanding star of the day, though the most sparkling plays were pulled off by Collins.

The batters who were helpless yesterday before Christy Mathewson, had no fear of Tesreau today. Their confidence, one of the big assets of the Mackian team, was not shaken by their experience of yesterday. They felt that but for hard luck they would have won the game yesterday in the ninth inning, and they went out to win before the ninth today, facing a great crowd of New York supporters for the second time during the series.

SMASH BALL HARD

The darling with which the Athletics went after Tesreau's offerings and hit without waiting for a base on balls was shown in the very first inning and characterized the Athletics' play throughout the game.

The Philadelphia team went into the game with instructions from Manager Connie Mack to play "wide-open" ball. They took chances in the field, at the bat and on bases. In the first inning three safe hits, coupled with fast base-running, gave them three runs and shook the confidence of the Giants before the game was hard started. Tesreau started with plenty of speed, but the Athletics stepped into the ball and hit hard. Their terrific batting gave them five runs in the first two innings.

Eleven hits were made off Tesreau in the six innings he stayed in the box. Eddie Collins got a triple and Schang a home run. Schang's homer came when there were no men on base, and when he romped home alone. Frank Baker, the big third baseman who has heretofore been the home-run king of the world's series, went out to meet his team mate and gravely shook hands with him.

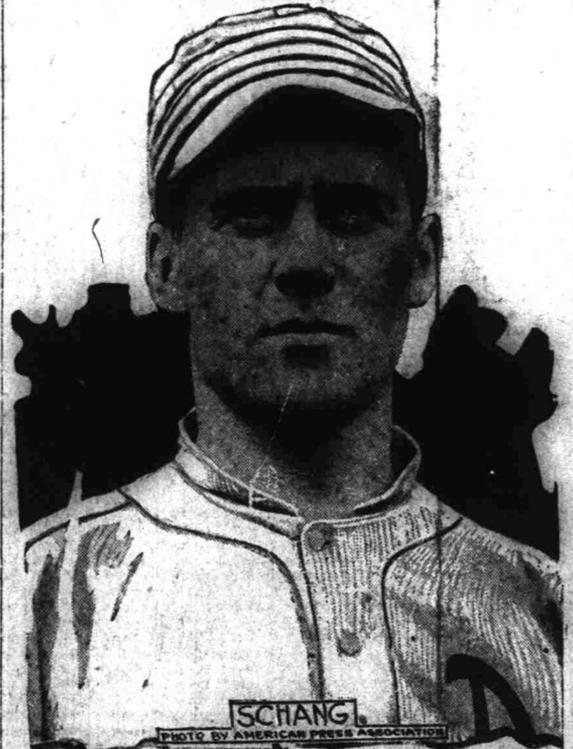

BUSH A SURPRISE TO THE FANS.
Young Bush, the lad sent out by Mack to pitch for the Athletics, was a genuine surprise. He has done good work during the season, but was not picked by the fans as likely to be used today. Shawkey, Brown and Houck, Mack's other youngsters, Mack's Youngsters-He Picks Winners!

Schlang is the man that Connie Mack says is "the best young catcher that ever broke into the major leagues." Mack's confidence has been justified by the great work of the youngster during the world's series. He has caught both winning games to date.

Here are the young pitchers from whose ranks Manager Connie Mack picked the nervy Bush to go against the mighty Giant, Jeff Tesreau. Bush is the first man on the left above, and those with him, reading to the right, are Houck, Brown and Shawkey. Any of these is ready to go in at the call of Mack.

MADAME PUAHI FAR REMOVED FROM PERMIT

Strict Building Laws Must Be Complied with Before License Is Issued for Hula House

The bridges which Madame Puahi must cross to get her proposed theatrical license for her hulahula seances are not few. More of them are daily becoming visible, and it now looks as if Madame Puahi will have something of a difficult time before her efforts are at an end.

While Sheriff Jarrett was listening yesterday to the objection of Kapahulu residents, who declare that the resort has a bad reputation and have asked the sheriff not to issue the woman a permit. Joseph J. Miehstein, building and plumbing inspector, called upon P. L. Weaver, first deputy city and county attorney. Miehstein stated following the conference that he would insist on Madame Puahi following out the requirements specified in an ordinance for theaters. This means that she must have the seats fixed to the floor, and arranged with aisles; she must have a fire-wall of brick or reinforced concrete above the proscenium arch; a ventilator shaft lined with fireproof material; at least two lines of 3-inch cast-iron or galvanized water pipe, leading directly from the street main; she must have not less than two exits on each side, and she also must have exits leading from the dressing-rooms.

At the beginning of the section of the ordinance relating to theaters, it says that the city and county treasurer shall not issue a license for any performance until a certificate in

RELATE STORY OF FEARFUL OCEAN VOYAGE

Crew of Robert Searles Tells Tale of Shipwreck and Disaster in South Seas

Performing a feat seldom equalled in the maritime world in completing a voyage of more than 2000 miles under jury rig from bowsprit to rudder blade, the schooner Robert Searles, a victim of a hurricane of intense fury, is now safely moored at Hackfield wharf, where the vessel will await a report from a survey board, and the decision of the owners regarding the extent of repairs necessary to place the schooner in seaworthy condition. Second Mate Carl Linholm and a little band of distressed seamen had a thrilling tale to relate when they stepped ashore early this morning and visited the Seaman's Union headquarters, where they were made welcome. Much of the credit for the remarkable performance of the badly damaged schooner is due to the ingenuity and able seamanship of Chief Mate H. Johansen, who immediately assumed command of the vessel following the death of Captain S. Sandberg.

Captain Met Tragic Death.

Mate Linholm gave a graphic description of the hurricane through which the schooner passed on the night of August 23rd and the morning of August 24th. While in latitude

FOOT TROOPS TAKE FIELD TOMORROW

Gen. Macomb's Brigade Will Go Into Maneuver Camp at Schofield—Field Inspection

For the first time since its formation at the time of the reorganization of the mobile army, the 1st Hawaiian Brigade, Brigadier General M. M. Macomb commanding, will take the field as a tactical unit. The 1st, 2nd and 25th regiments of infantry will concentrate at Schofield Barracks tomorrow, and will go under canvas on the Lihueua plain, between the Jones ranch house and Castner.

The two regiments at Schofield merely move a few hundred yards into a new field camp, but the 2nd foot has to hike from Shafter to join the rest of the brigade, the march being started this morning.

Saturday will be given over to an inspection of the camp by the brigade commander, inspection of the troops in full field equipment, and of the wagon train and other transportation. Sunday will be a day of rest, and Monday a series of brigade maneuvers will commence, various problems being worked out with the force divided against itself. It is the intention to give officers a chance to command larger units than their rank calls for, so that during the exercises captains will be in command of battalions and majors handling regiments. These brigade problems will take up the greater part of the week, umpires to decide the points of warfare being drawn from the organization itself. The first two days of the following week will be given over to reinforced brigade problems, cavalry and field artillery acting in conjunction with the foot soldiers. Then, during the latter part of the month, the entire mobile army of Oahu will come together for combined maneuvers, which will close the period of field inspection and exercises for the year.

Inspection Less Formal.

This year the field inspection will be conducted along absolutely new lines. The department inspector, Colonel J. G. Galbraith, will accompany all troops in the field, and will make careful observation of the general fitness of the troops for action, but there will be less formality connected with his inspections than heretofore. The department inspector, and his assistants, will keep their eyes very wide open, and embody what they see in their reports. Lieutenant Colonel Reichmann, 25th Infantry, will assist in inspecting the infantry, while Major Le Roy Lyon, field artillery, is coming from the mainland to inspect the wagon soldiers. Colonel Galbraith himself is a cavalryman, and will, of course, pass on the efficiency of the horse soldiers. General Macomb will establish field

BOOSTERS ARE PLANNING TRIP TO CANAL ZONE

H. P. Wood Will Secure Date for Excursion To Be Made Early in Coming Year

NEW ZEALAND MENTIONED AS THE SECOND CHOICE

Chamber of Commerce Behind This Move to Boost Hawaiian Islands Abroad

When H. P. Wood, secretary of the Promotion Committee and the Chamber of Commerce, arrives in San Francisco October 31 on matters of business relating largely to the part which these islands will play in the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915, one of his first undertakings will be to interview the various steamship companies and secure data regarding the possibilities of an all-Hawaiian excursion to Panama, which is being planned for early in 1914 under the auspices of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce.

The matter was to have been taken up at the meeting of the trustees of the chamber yesterday afternoon, but through some oversight, was not mentioned. The excursion project has been under consideration some time, and a large number of local people have already expressed themselves as being willing to partake in the "booster" project. The only difficulty which presents itself before those who are promoting the excursion is the securing of a suitable steamer, and Wood is to make an exhaustive investigation of this question immediately upon his arrival in the coast city. The Los Angeles people who recently made a trip to Panama, secured a fruit steamer for the passage, and nothing but praise was given for the quality of accommodations aboard. It may be possible that Hawaii may secure such a steamer if nothing better is available. In speaking of the proposed excursion this morning, Wood said: "The Chamber of Commerce is anxious to secure a big booster excursion to Panama and the Canal, but in case this cannot be arranged, an excursion

PANAMA CANAL OPENING TO BE SIGNAL FOR JOY

Honolulu Will Celebrate with Flags and Whistles as Gamboa Dike Is Removed

PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND ORGANIZATIONS IN PLAN

Four Long Blasts To Be Given by Hawaiian Electric Co. as Announcement

MAKE IT UNANIMOUS

Four long blasts, sounded tomorrow morning by the Hawaiian Electric Company's big whistles will announce to Honolulu the blowing up of the Gamboa dike in the Panama canal and the meeting of the waters of the Pacific and the Atlantic Territory, city and county, and commercial organizations will join in commemorating the event and the public is asked to join also. When the four whistles announce that the canal is opened, it is urged that flags be raised all over the city and that the shipping in the harbor join with blasts of the whistle.

Sometime tomorrow morning, probably between 11 o'clock and noon, tons of dynamite will blow up the great Gamboa dike, the last obstruction in the Panama canal between the Pacific and Atlantic oceans.

As the dike is blown up and the waters rush together, news of the event will be flashed around the world. And Honolulu in common with many other cities of the two oceans, will rejoice at the coming of a new commercial era, an era of greater trade and prosperity.

Arrangements were made this morning by the Star-Bulletin to give the public announcement of the canal opening. Simultaneously arrangements were also made through the cooperation of public officials and the com-

Oakland Maid Heroine of Adventure Nettie Stone Sobs Tale Through Tears

MISS NETTIE STONE, VICTIM OF UNEXPECTED VOYAGE.

Boards Marama in Error and Is Brought to Honolulu While Endeavoring to Reach San Francisco by Umatilla—S. S. Company Representatives Say Girl-Made Mistake

Pretty Miss Nettie Stone of Oakland, still in her school day years, is in Honolulu, with the first part of an adventure behind her, and the remaining parts of it still to be experienced. Like all real adventures, Miss Stone's came unexpectedly and uncalculated for, which fact may be evidenced by the tears which still redden her eyes.

Some day Miss Stone may sit down with pen in hand to write the story of a thrilling adventure, and no doubt she will then turn to her experience in that field of life, which began about a week ago when she set foot by mistake on the liner Marama at its dock in Victoria. Carried here in place of sailing by the Umatilla to San Francisco, as she had expected, and as her parents had expected her to, the girl is in Honolulu without money, and friendless, save for Mrs. Annie Poole, the police matron, who is caring for her.

It was a dark night in Victoria when the adventure had its beginning. Having ended her visit with friends on a ranch near Victoria, the latter brought the girl to the city, and an hour before the sailing time of the Umatilla the party proceeded to the wharf, where two steamers lay, one the Umatilla and the other the Marama. Mistaking the one for

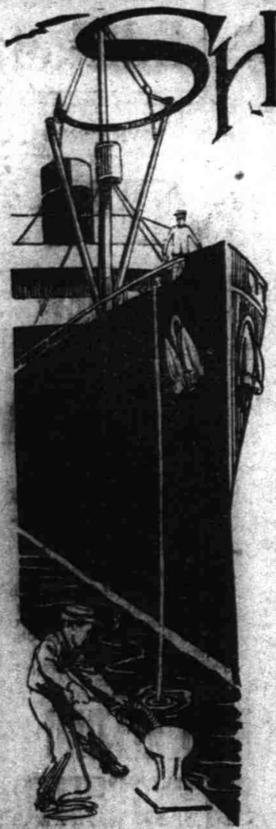

MILLER-ROUGIER CASE MAY GO TO JURY TOMORROW

Captain Frederick C. Miller's $50,000 suit against Father Emmanuel Rougier for commission fee for his alleged assistance in selling Washington and Fanning islands to a British syndicate may go to the jury tomorrow. The defense closed shortly after noon today, the court's instructions to the jury will be prepared this afternoon and the closing arguments to the jury will be taken up tomorrow morning.

Besides the French priest James L. McLean of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company and Captain Max Schlemmer were on the witness stand this morning for the defense. Several sharp tilts between Attorneys Thompson and Warren occurred but these were marked, in the main, by more or less good nature.

The court, counsel and jury today were kept in excellent good humor by the quiet comments made at frequent intervals by Father Rougier on various phases of the events leading up to the sale. At one point, asked if he or Captain Miller held much converse with J. W. Hayward during their trip of inspection to the islands in November, 1911, the father replied that he and Hayward were so much under the spell of the mal de mer that they had time to do little more than glance at each other occasionally throughout the length of the journey.

At another point, asked how Captain Miller employed his time when the trio were out in a launch taking soundings of the harbor at Fanning island for the expert who was to Shipping men expect the daily arrival of the French bark Bretagne, laden with European cargo, now 115 days out from Hamburg.

A mail from the mainland is due to arrive here on Monday in the United States army transport Logan, now on the way from San Francisco.

General cargo from the mainland is reported on the way to Mahukona in the schooner Annie Johnson. The windjammer left San Francisco yesterday.

Several hundred sailors are due to arrive at the port next week in the U. S. cruiser Albany, now steaming from the Asiatic station to the Pacific coast.

Sailing from Honolulu on Tuesday evening, September 20, the Matson Navigation steamer Lurline arrived at San Francisco at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

With passengers and freight from Maui ports, the steamer Claudine is an arrival today. This vessel will be dispatched for a return trip at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Sugar and other lines of island products, supplied the Matson steamer Enterprise at Hilo, reached San Francisco yesterday. That vessel left Hilo on September 27.

So far, a small number of intending travelers have booked passage to the coast in the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu, leaving Honolulu at 6 o'clock next Tuesday evening.

Hundreds of curious inclined gathered at the Hackfeld wharf today to view the disabled schooner Robert Searies, which plainly showed the ravages of a typhoon, encountered on August 24th.

The British freighter Harpalycy with coal from Newcastle, N. S. W., will be the next fuel laden steamer from Australia to arrive at the port. This vessel should reach destination about Oct. 28.

To discharge about five hundred tons of mainland freight, the Matson Navigation steamer Honolulu will sail for Kahului, Maui, this evening. The vessel is due to return to Honolulu with the last of the week.

There will be a lull in local shipping until the arrival of the Japanese liner Hongkong Maru, expected from the Orient on Saturday morning. This vessel is scheduled to sail for San Francisco in the evening.

Arrangements have been made to hasten the dispatch of the Pacific Mail liner Korea while at this port. The Korea, it is reported, will bring about a thousand tons of Oriental cargo and should arrive here on Monday morning.

To load lumber for a foreign port, the British freighter Strathgaird, which completed the discharge of coal brought from the east coast of the United States, consigned to the local naval station, arrived at Port Townsend yesterday.

Not counting officers or members of the crew, more than three hundred persons filed down the gangway leading from the British steamer Marama to Alakea wharf last evening. Passenger traffic between British Columbia and Australia is declared as exceedingly heavy at this season of the year.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The Japanese steamer Tenyo Maru, with a few layover passengers from San Francisco, is due to arrive here on Monday morning, according to the expectations of Castle & Cooke, the local agents.

Less than a score of passengers joined the Canadian-Australasian liner Makura at this port for British Columbia. The vessel sailed for Vancouver Tuesday evening, having remained at Honolulu throughout the day.

The membership committee of the Y. M. C. A. will hold a brief meeting at 12:45 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to discuss arrangements for soliciting those members whose time ran out during the summer and whose new memberships have not been secured.

Another Honolulu romance culminated last evening when Miss May Thomas became the wife of William Francis Gaynor at the residence of her parents on Punahou street, Rev. R. Elmer Smith performing the ceremony. Miss Beas Kentner acted as bridesmaid while William Thomas, a brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was given away by her father, and following the ceremony the large number of friends of the couple who were present sat down to supper. Mr. and Mrs. Gaynor will make their home in Honolulu.

Negotiations for the purchase of the Hilo watershed by the Territory have been re-opened and Assistant Attorney General A. G. Smith, who has charge of the deal for the government, announced today he expects the transfer to be made without resort to condemnation proceedings, as had been anticipated. When negotiations were first begun there was some misunderstanding between the authorities and the representatives of the Hawaiian Evangelical Board, the owners, concerning the amount of water on the tract. It appears this will now be agreed upon. The tract contains about 35 acres and is located mauka of the city of Hilo.

Red Cross Christmas seals to the number of 500,000 were received this morning by James A. Rath, headworker of the Palama Settlement, who has been appointed agent for the little emblems in the islands. If all are sold, the total receipts will amount to $5000, a part of which goes to the aid of the local Anti-Tuberculosis League.

At the recent convention of the civic and commercial bodies of the territory, the delegates passed a resolution pledging their support toward the sale of the stamps throughout Hawaii, and it is believed that a second lot of stamps will be necessary to supply the demand. The stamps will be placed on sale on all the islands about a month and a half before Christmas.

Morning on CHANGE

Oahu and Honolulu B. & M. were the two stocks dealt in this morning during the session of the exchange. A fractional gain was made in Honolulu B. & M. In two sales of five shares each it went at $137 1/2. Oahu remained at 12.25. Between the boards Onomea and Olaa were the stocks traded in. In bonds, 500 O. R. & L. 54 100, changed hands. Olaa stayed at 1.25; Onomea at 21.50.

The market for Honolulu Consolidated Oil is still strong. Little of the stock if any is offered at the prices offered for it now. It is bid around 1.60.

New Stevedores Await Freighter. General Manager Flood, representing the Golden Gate Transportation & Stevedoring Company, is an arrival at Honolulu, to await the appearance of the British freighters Strathgaird and Strathdon, with coal for the local naval station. Flood reached the city in the Pacific Mail liner Mongolia. He will assume charge of stevedoring operations at Pearl Harbor.

The two freighters will bring approximately 11,000 tons of coal, forwarded from the east coast of the United States. It is stated that the fuel will be discharged at Pearl Harbor naval station.

T. H. Davies & Company will represent the owners of the vessels during the stay of the Strathgaird and Strathdon in these islands.

Marama Made Hurried Call. There was little time lost in the dispatch of the Canadian-Australasian liner Marama at this port. Coming to a berth at Alakea wharf shortly before 8 o'clock last evening, the vessel was away for Australia at midnight. A small amount of cargo was left, while 50 tons of coal were placed aboard. Three hundred and twenty passengers in the several classes reached the port as through passengers. Captain Rolls stated that the delay in arrival here was mainly due to a poor quality of steaming coal supplied on the Sound.

FOOT TROOPS TAKE FIELD TOMORROW

headquarters tomorrow, his staff consisting of Major Julius Penn, brigade adjutant; Captain Martin Novak, 25th Infantry, brigade quartermaster, and Lieutenant Cary I. Crockett, 2nd Infantry, acting aide de camp. Field Bakery New.

A feature of the coming maneuvers is the field bakery, which has been established in Honolulu, on the Mahukua site, and which is being used here for the first time. Here a staff of expert army bakers is already turning out the special field bread which is used by troops in the field. The entire bakery is not in operation. Its full capacity is capable of supplying a division of 20,000 men. As only about one-third that number have to be taken care of here, the force is somewhat reduced. However, as the field ration of bread per day is usually made up in a single loaf, this means that 6000 or more loaves will be baked each day and shipped to the troops in the field.

Brigadier-General Funston, department commander, accompanied by members of his staff, expects to be present at the camp inspection of the 1st Hawaiian Brigade Saturday, but he will not take the field until later in the month.

The 2nd Infantry left Fort Shafter at 7:30 today enroute for Schofield Barracks. The regiment will camp tonight at Pearl City and reach its camp at Leihou by noon tomorrow. By a change in orders received from department headquarters, Company B was not left at Shafter as guard as intended originally. One non-commissioned officer and five privates from each of the 11 companies were substituted for B company for the guard duty during the absence of the regiment.

The transportation for the entire command on its march was sent here from Schofield Barracks in order that the Shafter mules and wagons might be available to transport the lumber for the new encampment. This lumber is due in Honolulu harbor today. The regiment was supplied with one "wagon company" of 27 wagons. Instead of the usual four-mile teams to each escort wagon, but two animals per vehicle were allowed. This necessitated reducing the loads to a minimum as regards supplies since special wall tents for the command were yesterday ordered to be transported for housing the men in the 11 companies and regimental detachment. This tentage is to be used until the 22nd, when the Second will unite with the other mobile troops for marches and maneuvers under war conditions and the larger tentage replaced by the shelter tent equipment.

During the three weeks that the troops now expect to be absent from this garrison, Lieutenant Barker, who has succeeded Captain Marquart as post quartermaster, will perform the duties of regimental quartermaster and commissary with the regiment in the field, while Lieut. F. P. Jackson will take over those duties at Shafter.

Police Notes

Attorney Straus, representing 22 Chinese charged with being present at a gambling game, behind barred doors, asked for a jury trial when the defendants were arraigned before Judge Monsarrat today.

Robert Campbell Estrella, eight years old, fell from a tree in the Waterhouse premises on Lewers road yesterday afternoon, necessitating the lad being sent to the hospital for treatment. He suffered internal injuries.

Albert Machado, driver of auto 224, while passing along Allen street, near the naval station last evening, is alleged to have backed into machine number 224, with the result that the former car was considerably damaged.

Yee Kyung Soo, a Korean, who was placed under arrest by Acting Captain of Detectives Kellett, charged with uttering several forged checks, when arraigned this morning, asked for more time in which to plead. His case will be called October 15.

The Chinese raided by Deputy Sheriff Rose at the Fook Chun Wo store some weeks ago, 48 in number, were arraigned before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning, and represented by Attorneys Rawlins and Straus, will be tried before a jury in the circuit court.

Frank Enos, Jas. Alohioka and T. Lovell alleged by the police to be implicated in the theft of several automobile tires from residential and down town garages, were arraigned in the District court this morning. The entered a plea of not guilty, and demanded a trial by jury.

Jacob Franz, an enlisted man with a military organization at Lellehua, is charged by the police as having thrown fruit and vegetables at a Chinese clerk at the Yee Hop market, as a result of an argument over the price of sausage, which the soldier had purchased. He was placed under arrest.

Robert Henderson, now on the police tabu list, appeared before the police court magistrate today to answer to a charge of drunkenness. He was sentenced to 10 days' imprisonment at the county jail. On the charge of violating the tabu regulation, Henderson was given an additional 15 days' jail sentence.

MILITANT AND BALLPLAYERS AD CLUB GUESTS

Opera House Will Be Live Place Next Monday Evening with 'Going Some' the Bill

That Miss Sylvia Fankhurst, daughter of England's premier militant suffrage leader and a strong adherent to her mother's ideas for securing the ballot for the women of England, will be the guest of the Honolulu Ad Club next Monday night is believed to be an assured fact. Miss Fankhurst, according to the information that has reached this city, is a passenger in the Korea, enroute to join her mother in New York City. A committee from the Ad Club, instructed to wireless an invitation to the young woman to address the membership of that organization and their friends at the Opera house next Monday night between the acts of "Going Some," thus far has received no reply to the message, but it is taken for granted that Miss Fankhurst, should she be a transpacific traveler, will welcome the opportunity of spreading the propaganda of the faith for which she, her mother and sister have served jail terms and instituted hunger strikes.

Besides entertaining this prominent English woman, the Ad Club plans to act as the welcoming host to the homecoming All-Chinese and all-Hawaiian baseball teams. George Curtis, on behalf of the Ad Club, this morning sent a wireless message to the Sierra in which the triumphant ball players are returning to Honolulu, extending an invitation for each team, enmasse, to attend the performance of "Going Some" next Monday night. Special arrangements will be made for the entertainment of the teams and boxes, handsomely decorated, will be placed at their disposal. The World's Fair Stock Company is extending itself to the utmost to make "Going Some" the best offering of the season, while the talented members of the Ad Club are planning stunts that are reported as being new and startling.

Tickets for this performance went on sale this morning and from every indication those desirous of taking in the best thing that has happened in Honolulu in a long time must get in line early. Tickets for "Going Some" are in great demand, the public realizing that the show is a good one and that the Ad Club is the organization that knows how to entertain.

seemed to have a better chance, but once more the wily Mack showed his generalship. Bush was in grand form. He showed sizzling speed and wide, sharp-breaking curves. His control was uncertain, but the wildness made him extremely hard to hit, and kept the opposing batters jumping. Bush gave four passes during the game, and hit one batter, but his wildness was not damaging, as he tightened in the pinches, and either struck the batters out or forced them to drive the ball where the Athletics could field it.

The fielding features of the day were furnished by Second Baseman Collins, who cut off several hard grounders and hit splendidly.

HAWAII MILITIA GETS MORE THAN $20,000

According to Col. J. W. Jones, adjutant general of the national guard of Hawaii, a statement printed in the morning paper yesterday, to the effect that the federal appropriation for the local militia had been cut from $14,000 to $8000 in round numbers, is incorrect.

War department circular No. 6, issued July 1 of this year, shows that Hawaii gets a total of $20,837.07. This sum comes in two separate allotments of $14,722.49, and $6,114.58, and the latter sum only has been used by the morning paper in its computation and comment.

CRUISER ALBANY NOW EN ROUTE TO HONOLULU

The United States third class cruiser Albany, for some years identified with the Asiatic fleet, where the vessel was a familiar figure at ports along the Philippine, China and Japan coasts, is now en route to Honolulu and California and Sound ports, and is expected to arrive here about Thursday, Oct. 16, according to advices received in local naval circles.

The Albany is understood to have left Shanghai about September 27, and was to steam for Honolulu, to take on fuel and other lines of supplies.

The Albany has been relieved from duty on the Asiatic station, the Galveston now here, and receiving stores, having been sent to take the place of the Albany in the fleet. A large number of time expired and over time men are said to be aboard the cruiser, destined for the coast, where they will be discharged.

The Albany carries 10 guns, is propelled by twin screws, and is a vessel of 7500 horse power. Commander Mark L. Bristol is reported to be commanding the vessel.

Sailors Grieve at Loss of Cat. "Big Tom," the pet of the Robert Searies' co'astie, and a familiar figure in local shipping, with the frequent trips that this vessel has made to the islands, was lost during the hurricane, sorrowfully declared the sailors this morning. The cat attempted to seek security in the lumber piled on the deck. When this was washed over the side, the feline, said to possess more than passing intelligence, soon found a place of safety on a plank. At daylight Tom was seen to try to clamber up the rudder stock, but a sudden lurch of the ship sent him into the water and he drowned before the men could reach the water.

Claudine Brought Few Passengers. Travel between Maui and Honolulu is light at the present time, the Inter-Island steamer Claudine returning from Kahului this morning with a few cabin and deck passengers. This vessel brought 36 head of cattle, 103 sacks of corn, 10 crates of chickens, 3 horses, 2 mules and 171 packages of sundries. The Claudine will sail for Maui at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Lansing at Kahului. The Union Oil Company tanker Lansing is at Kahului, where the remainder of a shipment of fuel is to be discharged before the vessel proceeds to the Pacific coast. The Lansing left 20,000 barrels of oil at Honolulu.

DIRECTORS OF Y. M. C. A. PLAN GROUP SYSTEM

The large growth of the membership of the Y. M. C. A. during the past year, reaching now a total of nearly 1600, has made it desirable that there be a much more extensive internal organization than the association previously has had. A type of work has been devised in the states called "groups and service," and at the meeting of the board of directors at noon today, the time was devoted largely to a presentation of the facts surrounding the working of this system by A. E. Larimer, secretary of the men's department.

Fundamentally, the scheme involves the relating of every man in the association to some group in which he is particularly interested; for instance, a debating club, a Bible class, a gymnasium group or some other phase of activity. The social life of the association would then center largely in these groups. A congenial group with a common interest would then become a feature. The board of directors discussed the matter at length; but it can be seen that it is not a plan which can go into effect at any one time, but that a complete system would require a matter of years to become perfect. The directors passed on the names of 42 boys and 64 men who have applied for membership to the association since the last meeting.

121 W. and longitude 18 S., as the vessel sped along on a course that was expected to eventually bring her to Valparaiso, with 350,000 feet of lumber supplied at Portland, Ore., a change in the weather was noted. The Robert Searles was in the midst of gales and squalls at 2 o'clock in the morning, which continued with increased severity until the hurricane reached its height at 6 o'clock. During the few hours, sails were blown from the bolt ropes and torn to ribbons, soon disappeared into the night. The noise of parting canvas and timber resembled a cannonading. An attempt was made to take in canvas and a few top sails were saved.

"The hurricane burst over the vessel with terrific fury at daybreak," said Mate Linholm this morning. "Captain Sandberg was standing near the wheel, giving directions to a helmsman, and was clinging to a davit, when without a sound of warning, a sea that appeared mountain high, swept over the vessel broadside, and the entire deckload of lumber was picked up like so many pieces of straw and washed to sea. With the timber was carried away the captain and all masts save a stump of the jigger mast.

The hold soon filled with water while the lumber placed there served to keep the vessel afloat. With daylight Mate Johansen got his men together and the work of clearing away the remaining wreckage was soon accomplished. An improvised steam pump soon had the water out of the hold, which was found not to leak to any extent. The water found there entered through the cabin and upper deck exposed when the masts had been ripped from their bases.

Helpless for Two Weeks.
The Robert Searles drifted helpless on fairly calm seas for two weeks, before the work of installing the jury rigging for sails and steering gear was completed.

Sails were spread from four masts made from timber found in the cargo. The rudder having been wrenched from the vessel through the impact of water caused the little band of eight men more concern than anything else connected with the disaster. After a series of failures, a jury rudder was suspended by means of wire cables, and this served to guide the dismantled schooner over the long voyage to Maui.

Provisions Ran Short.
During the storm, the after cabin was rendered a shambles. The store room was completely flooded and provisions placed there were rendered useless and in most cases were washed away. A few pounds of potatoes alone remained in the stores when the schooner reached Kahului. The officers and men managed to keep alive by applying themselves to fishing. They stated this morning that while on the way to the Hawaiian islands, many sharks were caught and used as food.

With possible relief in sight, the Robert Searles remained off the Hawaiian islands for several days before being picked up by the tug, Leslie Baldwin. While under the jury rig the vessel met with calm and favorable weather. Fortune favored the distressed seamen to an extent that they succeeded in saving a sextant and a chronometer. The officers as well as members of the crew lost practically all their personal effects. The men arrived here this morning possessing little save the clothes in which they stood.

Met Distressed Bark.
A bark rigged vessel, with topmast gone, and sails torn and tattered, was passed by the Robert Searles three days following the storm. The men in the Searles endeavored to attract the attention of those aboard the other vessel, but failed. They could not make out her name or flag.

Two weeks later, when the Searles was under way, a barkentine was sighted, well down on the horizon. Distress signals sent up were not heeded, say the men.

Captain J. A. Macaulay, pilot; Harbor-master Foster and E. J. Stone, constituting a board of survey, visited the distressed schooner Robert Searles this afternoon. It is expected that their report will be forthcoming in time to be sent to the mainland in the next mail. It is believed that it will require between ten and fifteen thousand dollars to put the vessel in first class condition. The Robert Searles before the disaster was rated as worth about $20,000.

MISS RUTH RAE RILEY, from Portland, Oregon, arrived in the last Scenoma, and will spend the winter with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Riley, 327 Vineyard street. MRS. JOHN GILES of Honolulu, accompanied by her three children, left for Australasia in the Marama this morning, where she will join her husband at Sydney, Australia. Giles was engaged in the "See Hawaii First" campaign, and recently left for the colonies, where he has accepted a position.

OAKLAND GIRL HEROINE OF ADVENTURE

the other, the girl boarded the Australian bound ship. Her ticket, she says, was examined by an officer at the gangplank, and she was directed to get aboard.

Elames Company Official.
"Not until the liner had steamed out of the harbor, says Miss Stone, did she realize the mistake. Too far out to be returned to the wharf, destined now to make a trip to the South Pacific, whether or no, the pretty girl fell to weeping. The tears she knew her parents would suffer when they did not find her among the passengers of the Umatilla forced sob after sob from her until the attention of the officers and passengers was attracted to her.

"The passengers and all the officers, except the purser, Mr. Ward, were very nice to me. The purser's manner toward me was always disagreeable. When I left the ship he came up and said: 'What are you going to give us for your passage?' I replied that I got aboard by mistake, and through the negligence of one of their men, and I therefore didn't propose to give him anything. That was all that he said.

"Mrs. Poole has been very nice to me. I don't know what I would do without her. She arranged this morning for me to get a room at the Y. W. C. A. I have wirelessly my parents today, and they will probably answer me. I feel that the company should return me to the coast."

Miss Stone was first taken to the Young hotel, and about midnight last night after the police had been communicated with, she was taken in charge by Mrs. Poole, who has done everything possible to make the girl's enforced sojourn here as pleasant as possible.

Sheriff to Aid Girl.
Early this morning Mrs. Poole and the girl left the former's little cottage on Smith's lane off Fort street. They called on Sheriff Jarrett, who promised to do all in his power to see that Miss Stone was returned to her home. As an officer of the steamship company is said to have passed on her ticket, it is believed there will be little difficulty in arranging with it to send her back to the coast.

Miss Stone sent a wireless to her parents, who live on west Twenty-sixth street, Oakland, this morning, informing them of her plight and whereabouts.

THURSDAY OCTOBER 9, 1913

Genius is always impatient of its harness. Its wild blood makes it hard to train.—Holmes.

HONOLULU AND THE CANAL OPENING

When the Gamboa dike flies skyward tomorrow at the explosion of tons of dynamite, and the waters of the Atlantic flow into the Panama canal to unite with the waters of the Pacific, there will be marked an epoch in a nation's progress.

It is a great achievement—that of sundering two continents to unite them and the world more closely together. It is likewise an achievement that means to Honolulu a future that no man can now measure.

Honolulu should rise to the occasion with some commemoration of the day and the event. The Star-Bulletin was able this morning to arrange for the announcement of the news to the public through the courtesy of the Hawaiian Electric Company, which will sound its big whistle four times. Territory, city and county, and commercial organizations endorse the plan for a general flag-raising when the whistle announces the opening of the great ship-canal.

All together tomorrow! Raise your flag and commemorate one of the great events in history, and one of the events that assures a Greater Honolulu!

The formal opening of the canal will come later and then there should be a more formal celebration in Honolulu. But tomorrow the colors should fly to mark the actual uniting of the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Honolulu is not getting ready for the commensurate of the future with speed enough. Nothing should be left undone to emphasize on the people of this city the necessity for preparedness.

KING BASEBALL

Honolulu takes more interest in baseball than in a presidential election. Judged by the daily queries for news of the world's series, politics takes second place with the great national game as an easy first. A good indication of public interest in a certain event is the number of inquiries received by the newspapers as to the results and this indication shows baseball's pre-eminence.

From 11 until 12:30 o'clock yesterday the Star-Bulletin received more than 300 inquiries for results of the game between New York and Philadelphia. One telephone alone carried an average of two calls to the minute. Both the editorial and business office forces were kept busy answering the queries from the hundreds of Honoluluans interested in the great diamond battle.

Baseball is far and away the most popular sport in the world today. It counts its thousands of enthusiasts to hundreds for any other sport. Men travel around the world each year for the big championship series. Considering the rather high admission prices, baseball draws larger crowds and draws them more consistently than any other sport.

Baseball is popular because it is clean, free of the baneful influence of the crook and the gambler, and because it has reached a marvelous point of efficiency without losing its character as a splendid game. A championship baseball team is an aggregation of experts working together as compactly as the cogs of a perfected machine. As a game, the sport is spectacular in the extreme. It takes into the open air hundreds of thousands of people, gives them an afternoon of pleasurable excitement at a small price. It has been of great benefit to the American people and is supplanting other sports in many foreign countries. Some day baseball will be the premier sport in every country.

THE SCHOOLS AND THE COLLEGE OF HAWAII

The recently-organized extension department of the College of Hawaii has sent out a statement on the aims and ideals and development of the institution that deserves wide publicity. It sets forth simply and briefly the status of the college and what it should mean for the territory.

The point is made that the College of Hawaii is the culmination of the free educational system of the territory. In the educational policy of the territory, the college sustains a similar relation to the high schools that the high schools sustain to the primary and grammar schools. As those who have passed through the grammar grades may freely avail themselves of the high schools, so those who have completed with credit a high school course may advance to the opportunities offered by the college. It is not expected that all pupils who complete the grammar grades will advance to the high school; nor is it expected that all who complete a high school course will go forward to the college. But the school system of the territory has been so arranged as to make the passage from one grade to another as easy and natural as possible, in order to afford every encouragement to higher education.

The territory through the college undertakes to furnish instruction in the various branches requisite for a liberal education, in the technical branches of engineering, agriculture, sugar technology and home economics. It also aims to encourage research work in all departments, to produce creative scholars, and so do its part in the enlargement of the domain of knowledge. Thus it is the general policy of the institution to foster the educational interests of the territory.

By prescribing a large number of studies during the first two years of undergraduate work, and by leaving a large part of the work of the last two years to the free selection of the student, under a definite system, the college endeavors to give a wise measure of direction, leaving at the same time sufficient room for choice to encourage individual adaptation and special development. The graduate work is, of course, wholly elective.

CORRECTLY QUOTED

Ex-Governor Carter need have no uncertainty as to whether or not Delegate Kuhio was correctly quoted by the Star-Bulletin of September 30 in saying:

Their claim that they wanted protected sugar so as to promote the Americanization of the islands made people laugh. That interview was carefully prepared, written out, and printed by the Star-Bulletin exactly as the delegate gave it.

Someone asked yesterday why the baseball returns from Philadelphia came later than those from New York. Anyone knowing Philadelphia need not ask.

President Wilson's anxiety to put the tariff bill through is now explained. He wanted to have this week free for the world's series.

This month's revolution in Santo Domingo is over and tourists are moving on to Honduras and Ecuador.

mercial bodies for Honolulu to join in a general commemoration of the epoch-marking event. Now it is up to the public and particularly to the business community. A general flag-raising, together with the sounding of whistles in the harbor and by factories and mills, will show that Honolulu is alive to the significance of this landmark in history.

The exact hour for the blowing up of the Gamboa dike is not known here, and it is not even definitely set at Panama, according to latest information. It is sometime tomorrow morning. Figuring on the difference in time, the news, relayed by the Associated Press over land and under the sea will probably arrive between 10 o'clock and noon.

Last Obstruction to be Removed. A few days ago the Miraflores dock, on the Pacific side of the great ship-canal, was blown up and the waters of the Pacific let into the immense ditch. The Gamboa dike is at the Atlantic end of the overland cut. When it is removed, the waters of the two oceans will unite, and then will remain only a small amount of dredging before the canal is opened to traffic.

A more formal celebration of the opening of the canal is planned some weeks from now for Honolulu. But until this morning no commemoration of the actual opening of the big ditch had been arranged. Now, with the co-operation of public officials and the commercial bodies, above all, of the public in raising flags when the whistle sounds four times, Honolulu will show herself alive to the importance of this occasion, an event of a century.

Other Cities to Celebrate. San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Los Angeles, San Diego and other cities are planning similar celebrations and general rejoicing. Mayor Rolph issued the following proclamation in San Francisco:

Whereas, on Friday, October 10, the United States government forces on the canal zone will remove the last obstruction that now restrains the waters from entering the canal, and

Whereas, on that memorable day, the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, which has been decreed by the Congress of the United States as America's official celebration of the completion of the Panama canal, has brought it both fitting and proper to observe this historic event with a formal celebration in Union square; Therefore, I, James Rolph, Jr., as mayor of the City and County of San Francisco, hereby request that the citizens of San Francisco manifest their patriotism on this memorable day, which means so much to the comity and commerce of the nations of the world, and particularly to the people of the Pacific coast, by flying flags, and when the aerial signal is fired from Union square, announcing that the dike has been removed, that whistles be blown and bells rung in general rejoicing.

JAMES ROLPH, JR., Mayor. San Francisco is planning a fitting program for the day. Honolulu has no special program prepared, but everyone is expected to "show the colors" when the opening of Uncle Sam's monumental ship canal is announced locally.

Honolulu asked to Cooperate. Territorial officials and heads of the civic and commercial bodies this morning joined in urging that Honolulu make the event of real local significance tomorrow. President Carter of the Chamber of Commerce, Acting President Guild of the Merchants' Association and President Farrington of the Honolulu Ad Club are taking the matter up with individual members of their organizations today and asking that business houses raise the flag when the signal whistles are sounded.

Here are expressions from the various officials: "I am heartily in favor of the plan for Honolulu to commemorate this event. It is a great thing for the city and the territory. So far as my official power lies, I shall see that the territory helps along in the plans by having the flags raised when the whistle is sounded."—Acting Governor E. A. Mott-Smith.

"The city and county of Honolulu will recognize this event by showing the colors at the city hall. It is too bad we have not more time for preparation, but we will do what we can."—Mayor J. J. Fern.

"By all means let Honolulu celebrate the occasion. It is a splendid idea to fly the flags and sound the will be planned to New Zealand, arriving there during the big annual exposition and fests. Both tours, whichever one would be made, would cover at least six weeks, and one to Panama to take in the canal and the principal points of interest along the western coast of South America. During my stay in San Francisco I will confer with the heads of the different steamship companies to see what can be secured in the way of a vessel. It is safe to say here that if a vessel is to be had, one of the two excursions is assured."

Those persons to be included in the passenger list would be residents of the territory; people who would be willing to make the trip and contribute their share toward boosting the islands. Those interested in the undertaking that it would be the biggest bit of promotion work ever handled locally. Already Wood has outlined plans for taking along promotion "apparatus," the features of which would be a huge collapsible kiosk containing Hawaiian views. At each city visited by the delegation, this kiosk would be placed in some conspicuous spot and surrounded by small tables containing literature pertaining to Hawaii. This kiosk, according to Wood's plans, would be 12 feet high and cost in the neighborhood of $700. Other methods of promotion and advertising would be devised to make the campaign a thorough one. It must be understood, however, that such a trip will be for the pleasure of those residents of the islands who wish to take advantage of the opportunity to make a trip to either New Zealand or Panama. Special rates would be secured in order to make the cost of the trip reasonable. Wood said that bookings would not be opened until the steamer is chartered and preliminary plans completed.

Besides going to the coast in the interest of the Hawaii Fair Commission, Wood will be the delegate of the Chamber of Commerce at the celebration marking the opening of the new Los Angeles aqueduct.

Fort Shafter Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) FORT SHAFTER, Oct. 9.—Lieut. John Edgerley, 2nd Infantry, has been detailed for a tour of duty not exceeding three months at the aviation school of the army at San Diego, Cal., by orders received at Fort Shafter in yesterday's official mail from the war department. Lieut. Edgerley is well equipped with a knowledge of motors for his new duty; and in addition has made a few flights as a passenger in the army hydroplane now at Pearl Harbor. The officer is a graduate of the naval academy and resigned from the navy about two years ago for the purpose of securing an appointment in the army, preferring land duty to naval service. He will leave by the first available liner for his new station and duties.

The board to calculate the results and determine the rating of the various whistles, and the Chamber of Commerce hopes that when the four signal whistles are sounded tomorrow, every flag in the city will be raised."

—President George R. Carter, of the Chamber of Commerce. "The Merchants' Association will send a cable of congratulation tomorrow to Col. Goethals. The directors of the association recommend to the business community that when the whistle is blown, flags be generally displayed. I want to commend the Star-Bulletin for making this move to secure general recognition."—Acting President George G. Guild of the Merchants' Association.

"I know every member of the Honolulu Ad Club will make himself a committee of one to help arouse the people of this town to the full realization of the fact that the Panama canal is an active being. Too many people think of the canal as something in the far distant future. It is right on top of us. It means great things for Honolulu and all Hawaii, provided, the people of Honolulu and all Hawaii will wake up. This city should by all means join with San Francisco and other cities of the Pacific in an expression that will stir all the people to a proper appreciation of the great events in full swing, all around us. Honolulu will be a dynamic center of the great circle—provided the people wake up."—W. R. Farrington, president Honolulu Ad Club.

EBEN P. LOW SEEKS DAMAGE FROM CITY FOR ABSENT BRIDGE

Eben P. Low has made a demand upon the city and county for $155, representing the amount of damage he claims was done his machine at the Waiuu stream crossing. The claim was filed this morning in the office of the city and county clerk.

In his demand, Low says: "For amount of repair to car damaged at Waiuu stream bridge crossing, Ewa, September 13, 1913, caused by removal of the bridge without providing proper notices and means for safe-guarding use of highway against injury, and in consequence of which car was damaged."

He gives the amount of the damage at $155. The claim will be taken up by the supervisors at their next meeting.

VENETIAN CARNIVAL WILL BE GAY AND PICTURESQUE EVENT

Benefit Fete for Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Association on Saturday Evening at Outrigger Club promises mirth and pleasure

The program of dances which has been arranged for the Venetian carnival on Saturday evening at the Outrigger Club, gives promise of being one of the most pleasing exhibitions of aesthetic dancing that have ever been held in Honolulu. There will be five Italian dances—the Tarantella, Shepherd's dance, Pavane, Pas a trois and Return of Spring, followed by a grand finale by all the chorus. The first dance, the Tarantella, is an Italian folk dance—very, very old, but still danced by the peasants of today. Second on the program is the dance of the Arcadian youths—shepherds clad in leopard skins and carrying lutes. The Pavane is a mediaeval court dance, greatly in vogue during the sixteenth century in Italy, Spain, France and all of the courtly countries. The Pas a trois is a fanciful little skit that can best be described by the saying "How happy I'd be with either, were t'other dear charmer away," and embodies the jealousy of two girls with a swain who loves them both. The Return of Spring is perhaps the most idyllic of all the dances, translating the "Spirit of Spring" written by Chaefer. It interprets the pushing away of winter, call to spring, the coming of the sunshine, murmuring of the brook, returning of birds and flowers, and ending with the joy of spring. It is an airy dance, full of grace and happy fancy. Those taking part in the program are as follows: Tarantella. Rosamund Swanzy and Philip Spalding.

Ruth Soper and Allan Renton. Margaret Center and Marston Campbell. Thelma Murphy and Robert Purvis. Emilie Eleanor Owens and Reynold McGrew. Marjorie Gilman and Percy Nottage. Catherine Lenihan and Ernest Raas. Eloise Wichman and Vernon Tenney. Marjory Freeth and Reginald Carter. Helen McLean and Warren Wood. Shepherd's Dance. Messrs. L. J. GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Try this! Hair gets thick, glossy wavy and beautiful at once—Stops falling out

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter—and just try it.—advertisement

SIXTH ANNIVERSARY OF RECEPTION TO DR. AND MRS. SCUDDER

Just six years ago, as evidenced by a notice on the church calendars for October, 1907, the Women's Society of this church cordially invited all members of the church and congregation to a reception in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Scudder. It now extends the same invitation with even greater warmth. It is hoped that all attendants of the church will avail themselves of the opportunity of greeting their pastor and his wife and that all other friends, particularly the newcomers to the city, also will be present.

While the prime object of this first social of the fall is to promote a closer acquaintance among those present, a musical program will also be given a part of the selections by musicians new to Honolulu audiences, the remainder by those who have already become popular in the city.

The announcement would not be complete without reference to the delectable refreshments which will be served as usual in the parish house. Let everybody come to the church parlors Thursday evening determined to make...is a genuine get-acquainted affair.

Atkins Cross Cut Saws

The teeth cut the wood instead of tearing it into "saw dust." Every stroke cuts out a clean, thin ribbon of wood. The blade is "segment-ground," tapering from tooth edge to the center of the back, and from the ends to the middle. So it makes room for itself and goes through the wood twice as easy as any other saw. Made of the very finest steel, and holds its edge longer than any other. Try a genuine Atkins, with our name on the blade. If it doesn't make good our claims, take it back to the dealer.

The tax appeals of the Hui of Kahana and the Waialeale Water Company were submitted to the supreme court yesterday afternoon, at the conclusion of the arguments by Assistant Attorney General A. G. Smith for the tax assessor, and A. A. Wilder for the taxpayers.

PROSPECT BRIGHT FOR INCREASE IN PAY

A delegation of U. S. Customs officials identified with the clerical and inspectors staff, now appear for duty, much elated over the bright prospect of a substantial increase in the monthly stipend, said upon what is considered as good authority, to be contemplated by the authorities connected with the treasury department at Washington.

Should the raise in pay finally go through, it will be looked upon by Collector Stackable's bright young men in the light of a distinct victory. The matter has been brought forward on several previous occasions, under the Taft administration, but something always appeared to block the movement.

What has led to the belief that something in the nature of just recognition of the faithful service of local customs men will soon be forthcoming is the declaration contained in advices received from San Francisco in which it is stated that Justice Wardell, the new surveyor of the port of San Francisco, would have the salaries of the force increased from time to time.

WOULD GIVE PROTECTION TO WORKMEN

In line with the legislation which has been passed by Congress and several states and cities of the mainland to better protect materialmen and laborers, who furnish their material or labor on government jobs let out on contract, P. L. Weaver, first deputy city and county attorney, probably will prepare an ordinance soon requiring contractors who take city and county work to give, what is in effect, a double surety bond.

With such an ordinance, materialmen or laborers, when not paid by the contractor the amount due them, may sue directly on the bond in the name of the city and county, making both the sureties and the contractors defendants in the action.

Weaver said this morning that he had conferred with several of the supervisors regarding such an ordinance and that they were strongly in favor of it.

In the 1911 session of the legislature an act was passed similar to the ordinance now proposed. It is said that it works very satisfactorily. There are statutes known as mechanic and materialmen lien laws but they cannot be operated as against the government. At present a laborer or materialman under a city and county contractor must look to the contractor alone for payment, unless he has an individual bond. By this proposed new ordinance, the contractor would give the city and county a bond which not only protects the city and county but also the other parties concerned in the contract.

APPEAL MADE FOR CLOTHING FOR CHINESE

Distress and suffering have followed in the wake of the recent uprising in Nanking, China, according to advices received in Honolulu by C. K. Ai, manager of the City Mill Company. Lack of clothing is reported to be placing the unfortunate residents of Nanking in a dreadful plight and Ai makes an appeal to the citizens of Honolulu to lend every aid possible in alleviating this intense suffering.

Any resident of Honolulu who is in a position to donate any articles of clothing will confer a favor upon the local Chinese and upon the unfortunates in the orient by communicating with the City Mill Company and leaving the address where the garments may be secured. The clothing will be called for immediately and forwarded as rapidly as possible to the needy sufferers.

The telephone number is 2478.

KAPIOLANI ESTATE WINS VICTORY OVER TERRITORY

The Kapiolani estate won a distinct victory from the territory in its appeal from the tax assessor and the tax appeal court, in the decision handed down yesterday by the supreme court. The estate appealed on the valuation set upon two tracts, one at Waikiki, known as Ulunui, and the other at Alakea and King streets, upon which the Kapiolani block is located.

The total figure set on the two tracts by the assessor was $175,590, the valuation returned upon them by the owners was $103,500, and the valuation set by the tax appeal court was $152,529.62. The final valuation by the supreme court yesterday for the two pieces of property is $115,000.

The court holds that the value of the Ulunui tract should be no more than that returned by the owners, or $50,000, while that of the Kapiolani block should be $65,000, upon which the owners made a return of $53,400.

PROMISED FOR THE PLAYHOUSES

OPERA HOUSE
What promises to be the greatest melodrama given here by Virginia Brissac and the World's Fair Stock Company this season is to be staged tonight when "The Deep Purple" is presented at the Hawaiian Opera house. Slum life in its lowest phase will be shown with just enough of the "good people" to make the play worth while. "Salvation Nell" depicted life in the Bowers but not to the extent as does "The Deep Purple," for in this production there is not a good angel endeavoring to rescue the fallen ones. Dramatic critics consider this play one of Paul Armstrong's greatest productions. It was given a most successful run in New York and Chicago and is still being presented in the West. It is one of the big royalty pieces for which Manager Wray has contracted to pay a big price.
The members of the World's Fair Stock Company are all given splendid opportunities in the drama. The leading roles are played by Virginia Brissac, Evelyn Hamby, James Dillon, John Wray and Ray Hanford. The innocent country girl who is persuaded to leave her home and go to New York is to be given by Evelyn Hamby. Miss Hamby has done the leading roles in one or two of the recent plays and has proven that she can handle almost any role assigned to her. Frisco Kate, a strong character in the slum life, will be rendered by Virginia Brissac. Miss Brissac has not been seen in such a role here but no one doubts her ability in handling the character. James Dillon will portray William Lake, the hero, who rescues the little country girl from the crooks and marries her. Both Wray and Hanford are tough characters. Wray plays the part of a murderer who spends the greater share of his life dodging the police and in the last act of the play kills Harry Leland (Hanford) and is sent to Algiers to escape the law. Hanford does the part of the villain, Harry Leland, and it is said that his type of the villain is the one that makes the gallery hiss and causes the audience to heave a sigh of relief when he is killed.
Seats for tonight's performance are selling rapidly and it is expected that the production will be well supported.

POPULAR THEATER
No man or woman who loves the memory of Edgar Allan Poe or looks with pleasure on a reading or re-reading of his famous works, should miss the two-reel feature film entitled, "The Raven," that was shown last night for the first time in Honolulu, and that will be again screened tonight.
It is a superbly acted photoplay that gives the main actor (he who impersonates Poe) a chance to show, in pantomime, all the emotions from the feel of poverty, up through the coming of the inspiration that caused "The Raven" to be written, to the actual emotions attending the writing itself, the sale of the MSS. and the resultant ability to purchase flowers and dainties for Lenore.
In the first reel are shown striking scenes from several of the more familiar stories of mystery that made Poe famous—though not until after he was dead. By all means go and enjoy the screening of this Eclair film—acted with sympathy and understanding.
Four other pictures—comedy, serio-comedy and drama—make up a very acceptable program.
Tomorrow night the main feature will be an Indian subject, "Big Rock's Last Stand." "The Raven" will again be shown on Saturday, at the "students' day" three shows, starting at 11:30 a. m.

BIJOU THEATER
In presenting "Izzy, the King," the new show at the Bijou theater tonight, Monte Carter will achieve a distinct feat in the offering of musical comedies here as this show is so far different from anything ever seen here. The plot has to do with the funny mix-up that Izzy gets into when he is taken for the King of Patagonia. Incidentally he swallows a dynamite pill and the ridiculous funny situations that follow.

QUICK RESULTS ASTONISH HONOLULU
There is astonishment in Honolulu at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple mixture drains such great amounts of foul matter from the body that a SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. The speedy action of Adler-ika is surprising. The Hollister Drug Company—advertisement.

YOU'RE BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED! LIVER IS SLUGGISH—DIME A BOX

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and constipated bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a will barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—in digestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascarets tonight will surely straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel cheerful and bully for months. Don't forget your children—they, like insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too, occasionally.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement.
Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU AND WATER RATES DISCUSSED BY CHAMBER

That the proposed social registration system and central employment bureau for Honolulu should be conducted jointly by the Associated Charities and the Young Men's Christian Association, but that it would be inadvisable to make it a municipal undertaking, was the decision of the trustees of the chamber of commerce when the plans for the new organization were presented to them and their approval asked at their meeting yesterday afternoon. The trustees expressed themselves as being heartily in favor of the project as far as local institutions were concerned, but the majority halted at the scheme to put it in the hands of the city and county.

Bertram von Damm, a member of the board of directors of the Associated Charities, was present at the meeting and a letter from the organization, setting forth the features of the new proposed organization, which appeared exclusively in the Star-Bulletin about two weeks ago, was read. Besides explaining the facts, a clause in the letter stated that such an organization should be supported by the municipality and it suggested that the City and County of Honolulu give at least $100 per month toward it. Von Damm then spoke at length upon the subject, saying that it was the desire of those in charge of the matter to eliminate all politics and make the institution one which would centralize all employment work. According to the present plans, the Y. M. C. A. is to handle the work for men and boys, while the Associated Charities will look after the women and girls. No financial aid was asked of the chamber, von Damm stating that the securing of its approval and co-operation was all that was desired. The trustees voted to approve the plan inasmuch as its being carried out by separate organizations working in unison was concerned, but not including its being conducted by the municipality. The matter was referred to the chamber's committee on legislation and public affairs for a report at the next meeting.

The circulation of a booklet containing a number of things which Seattle has to offer to the shipping of the Pacific ocean called forth some lively discussion, which was largely a criticism of the high water rates levied on steamers calling at Honolulu, and which resulted in the chamber's committee on harbors and shipping being authorized to prepare a report on the present local water situation from the standpoint of its affecting shipping. Discussion among the members showed that Honolulu's rates for pilotage, water and other items are higher than almost any other port in the world, and, when compared with Seattle and several other ports, the rates in these other cities were found to be exceedingly low.

An invitation was received by the committee to participate in the celebration relative to the opening of the Los Angeles aqueduct, which takes place November 5 to 6. Some member of the chamber, who intends visiting in California at that time, probably will be appointed as the chamber's delegate to the event. One of the last steps in the completion of the Panama Canal will be taken tomorrow when the last dike between the Culebra Cut and the great lake between it and the Gatun locks will be blown, and when the news is flashed over the world, the Chamber of Commerce will send a message of congratulations to Colonel Goethals, the army engineer in charge of the work. H. P. Wood, secretary of the chamber, and the organization authorized him to appoint someone to take his place during his absence. Wood suggested George Henshall, the local Associated Press man, and it is possible that he will be asked to fill the position temporarily.

EMPLOYMENT BUREAU PLANS NOT FIGURED ON POLITICAL CONTROL

That there is a slight misunderstanding in the plan of the Associated Charities to establish a central employment bureau in Honolulu, as presented to the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce by Bertram von Damm yesterday afternoon, is the opinion of Arthur E. Larimer, chairman of the special committee appointed by the board of directors of the charities to investigate the feasibility of the new project. "The present plans of the charities," said Larimer "this morning, are not so the effect that the bureau should be controlled by the municipality, but that it should receive financial aid from the City and County of Honolulu."

"The plan presented by the special committee and passed by the charities board looks toward a central employment bureau which would be partially self-supporting by the fees of those served, and through the help of the city and county. The idea was to have the bureau controlled by the Associated Charities, thus keeping it away from political control. It was recognized by the committee that the new project would be a success only when a trained employment worker, appointed by a body of local experts, could take complete charge of the work.

"The central employment bureau would receive municipal support on the same basis as does the Associated Charities and the Lehigh Home, the city and county being requested to appropriate a certain sum each month without having to become responsible for the conduct of the bureau. It is this plan can be carried out through the cooperation of the supervisors, no outside persons or organizations would be asked to financially aid the undertaking. The employment bureau, although controlled by the board of directors of the Associated Charities, would be operated under another name, such as 'The Employment Bu-

PHILADELPHIA.—There is a new fish in the school of "human pickerels." He's Gilbert E. Tomlinson, a young Philadelphian. He won his spurs—or would it be proper to say his scales?—when he defeated the great Bud Goodwin for the 880 yard A. U. championship swim at Traver's Island, New York.

HAWAIIAN RIFLE TEAM PRAISED IN MAGAZINE

AD CLUB TO WELCOME RETURNING BASEBALL TEAMS NEXT MONDAY

The All-Chinese and All-Hawaiian baseball teams are going to be given a rousing welcome home next Monday, when they return to Oahu after several months of play on the mainland. Playing games from one end of the continent to the other, and talking Hawaii on every possible occasion, these two aggregations have given the islands a world of publicity, and in recognition of their services, the returning ball players are to be the guests of the Honolulu Ad Club at the big show Monday night.

image with the Oahu College team on Alexander Field tonight. The Oahu College team plays its first game a week from Saturday, and is glad to get the practice of bucking up against the fast town aggregation. Punahele Football Notes.

A bucking machine has been obtained, and the linemen are given their turns on it daily. It is not much more than a sled with one perpendicular slide across which runs a wide board for the men to brace their hands. The boys line up opposite this object and at a given signal they charge at it and hit the board with their hands. This is weighted down with two or three men and the linemen have to push it for a few yards after they have charged.

The second team has shown a great improvement in the last week. Two or three men have added greatly to the weight of the team and Coach Midkiff has devoted more time than usual to the eleven.

Coach Midkiff still is unable to get around without crutches.

L. Bertelman, who received a kick in the head last week, is again out for football.

Parker Woods, the second team man, is still using crutches and is out of the game for the time being.

A third team is now being formed.

'Y' TENNIS TOURNAY PROGRESSING FAIRLY

Yesterday's results:

Pitts beat Graham, 6-1, 6-1; Larimer beat Zurbuchen, 6-0, 6-1; Edgcomb vs. Rieker match postponed on account of darkness, I set all. Today's Matches. 4:20 p. m.—Worrall vs. Horne. 4:45 p. m.—Purvis vs. Cross. 5:00 p. m.—Beardmore vs. Gear. Friday's Matches. ARTHUR DEVLIN TO MANAGE OAKS

[By Latest Mail] SAN FRANCISCO.—Arthur Devlin, former New York Giant third baseman and this season infielder with the Boston Nationals and Rochester clubs, will manage the Oakland team next season. President Frank W. Leavitt returned recently from a flying trip East, and made the announcement that he had closed with Boston for the season's infielder's release.

Devlin will arrive here soon to look over existing conditions, but he will not assume the management until after the close of the present season. The work of building up the tail-end club into a winning combination will be left to Devlin, who has been advised to go ahead and secure what players he wants.

The news of a new manager for the Oaks does not come as a distinct surprise. Leavitt's visit East was taken as a move in that direction, for Mitze has not been a success as a manager, and, furthermore, has tired of managerial worries and cares. Just what will be done with Mitze has not been settled as yet, for President Leavitt has not had an opportunity to talk over the situation.

When a young man tells a girl that he is not worthy of her she usually marries him for the purpose of proving to his own satisfaction that he told the truth.

Some men fail to meet their obligations because they are headed the other way.

Don't stint the living in order to head the other way.

FOUND! The Story of the Tracer of LOST ARTICLES

Of course a "lost" ad is unable to talk, yet it tells more than could any other medium in Honolulu that might be employed to search for a lost article.

In the present instance, when a lady lost her watch, see promptly telephoned a "lost" ad to The Star-Bulletin, thereby engaging the services of the column in The Star-Bulletin often referred to as the "Tracer of Lost Articles."

The man who found the watch, like all progressive merchants, is a Star-Bulletin reader. He turned to the "Lost and Found" column, read the ad reproduced above, and the lady's watch was returned—the simple, easy, safe and inexpensive way which you have of recovering lost articles—The Star-Bulletin want ad way.

OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS To the Advertiser

Condemning some features of the pending currency bill and praising others, Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank of New York today addressed the senate—banking and currency committee.

Speaking of the proposed 12 reserve banks, he said they should be only one bank, or as few as possible, and if there were more than one they should be so linked together as to form a central bank. He declared the note issue plan would fail to accomplish elasticity.

Vanderlip said that the bill as drawn would accomplish the mobilization of the reserves, which he declared was a very important desideratum. He said the period of transition between the present system and the proposed would be very trying.

Chairman Glass of the house banking and currency committee today openly defied the American Bankers' Association and its country bank members in their fight to force bankers' domination of the federal board of control proposed under the new banking system. He intimated that "graft" was behind the association's hostility to the Glass-Steagall bill; that the proposed fight to test the constitutionality of the bill if made a law was a bluff and that the administration and congress were determined that there shall be passed at this session of congress, reform currency legislation.

Mrs. Flora Drummond, known as "the general," and next to Mrs. Pankhurst the most aggressive leader of the militant suffragettes who has been at liberty under special license because of illness induced by a hunger strike, surrendered to the London Authorities to stand trial on a charge of conspiracy. She was admitted to bail and her case set for October 23.

Four thousand homeless and penniless refugees from Mexico were today huddled upon an unsheltered spot just outside of Eagle Pass, awaiting a decision by the United States immigration authorities regarding their disposition. A majority of the refugees are women and children and many are sick. Food supplies are scarce.

Governor Sam D. Felker has granted the request of William Travers Jerome, that decision of the extradition of Harry K. Thaw from New Hampshire be postponed until after the investigation now being conducted by the New York authorities is completed. Miss Mary C. Thaw joined her son at Concord tonight for an indefinite stay.

Beckwith Heavens, the aviator, and J. E. R. Verplanck, the millionaire sportsman, flew from Albany to New York in the latter's Curtis flying boat, establishing a record for this new type. The course followed was approximately 170 miles and the actual flying time 185 minutes.

President Wilson was only half a minute behind the players in today's world series game in New York. Throughout the contest between the Giants and the Athletics, bulletins were received in the White House telegraph room and rushed to the president's desk where they took precedence over official business.

According to a rumor around the New York police headquarters and the city hall today, Police Commissioner Waldo is about to resign. Waldo and Mayor Kline are at loggerheads as a result of the commissioner's refusal to appoint Joseph O'Connor, former police lieutenant, to a captaincy.

The section of the new tariff law providing for a five per cent discount in duty on imports in American bottoms will lie dormant until Attorney General McReynolds delivers an opinion on the clause according to an order, given by Secretary McAdoo today to all customs collectors.

H. G. C. Thofehel, radium expert of Paris, gave out the information today at Denver that Coleman Dupont, head of the powder manufacturing company which bears his name, has purchased properties at Central City, Colorado, and intends to erect a plant to produce radium.

Col. David Du B. Galliard of the engineer corps is in a precarious condition in Johns Hopkins hospital at Baltimore as the result of climatic conditions in the Panama Canal zone where he had charge of the excavation of the Culebra cut.

Except when in attendance upon army or navy functions, President Wilson hereafter will not be attended by the aides of his predecessor, Lieut. Com. J. W. Timmons, naval aide at the White House was today assigned to the battleship Texas.

Bishop David H. Greer today formally dedicated at New York the new synod house, the gift of the late J. P. Morgan and the late W. Bayard Cutting to the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

Several dozen American-made typewriters comprised an interesting freight shipment which left New York today billed for Rome. The bills were stenciled "His Holiness Pope Pius X, Rome."

STEUNENBERG TO TALK ABOUT PYRAMIDS

"Egypt and the Pyramids" will be the subject of the illustrated travogue by Captain George Steunenberg at the Young Men's Christian Association this evening.

As the author of the poems: "The Dogs of Snelling," "Cats of Leavenworth" and "Texas Weather," Captain Steunenberg has made famous these features of the army posts at which he has been stationed. While at Monterey, Cal., he wrote "Our Object Lesson," a satire on the inefficient, German-trained Turkish army, which caused not a little comment among army circles and came near subjecting him to an unofficial rebuke such as Admiral Coghlan received for his scathing "Hoch Der Kaiser."

It was while he was at Leavenworth that General Funston, then in command of that fort, issued a sweeping order calling for the extermination of the cats which infested the barracks and disturbed the otherwise peaceful Kansas nights by their serenades. Thus, the howling feline population was forced to evacuate and with their going Captain Steunenberg wrote the poem, which has caused their memory to live in Leavenworth and brought them fame in other posts. As an army officer he has traveled extensively and during this time made several visits to the land of the Sphinx. Using the photographs which he himself made there he has prepared a lecture on "Egypt and the Pyramids" which he will give in Cooke Hall tomorrow night.

FOUR NEW FOREST RESERVES CREATED

A public hearing on four proposed forest reserves was held by Acting Governor Mott-Smith and the board of agriculture and forestry yesterday and as no objections to the project developed the formulation of the proclamations for their creation were ordered by the acting governor. As soon as this detail is finished the chief executive will sign them and the reserves will become a reality.

The tracts included are Kohala mountain, containing 29,627 acres, of which 14,204 acres are government land; upper Olaa, containing 9280 acres and upper Waialea, containing 51,800 acres. These are all on the Big Island. In addition the Honolulu watershed, between Kailhi and Palolo Valley, including 6950 acres, of which 5000 acres are government land, will be set aside as forest reserve.

The board also authorized a slight modification in the boundary of the Mokuia reservation on Kaula.
