BUDGET SHOWS REVENUES FOR CITY CANNOT MEET THE NECESSARY EXPENSE

Auditor Prepares Figures Showing That Strict Economy Is Most Necessary — $218,746.95 Turned Over This Month Will Last But a Few Weeks According to Prerangement

What may be taken as a basis for several arguments, and what is of particular interest at this time when the supervisors are working on the budget for the coming semi-annual period, are figures secured yesterday afternoon from the city and county auditor. The figures cover, in approximate, the revenue the city and county will receive during the next six months and the disbursements necessary.

That the $218,746.95 turned over to the county this month will last but a few weeks and that there will be quite a lengthy period when it will be necessary to register warrants, are shown by the figures. There are two arguments being heard now against the conditions which make it necessary for the registration of warrants.

Three things have to be contended with in making up the budget—the uncertainty at all times of the actual assessed valuations upon which taxes are levied; the excessive amount, in proportion to the running expenses of the city and county that is required by law to be set aside for permanent improvements, and, finally, the amount required by recent statute to be set aside as a cash basis fund.

These two last requirements of the law involve a tying up of approximately $180,000 out of each year's taxes.

Valuation Problematic
The taxes for 1914 are sought to be collected upon the assessed valuations of 1913, but there cannot at this time be said with the slightest degree of certainty what the assessed valuations of 1914 will be. Taking it for granted that the 1913 valuations stand ($85,500,000) the city's share of taxes on such valuation would be one-half of one percent for current expenses for the year ($424,000) for the period ending June 30, and a similar amount for the period ending December 31. Of this $214,000 for the first period the city has to set aside twenty thousand dollars for the cash basis fund; this would leave all told $194,000 from taxes to carry on the city government for the first six months.

The city receipts from all sources including approximately a balance brought forward of $30,000, will amount to something like $130,000. So for the period ending June 30th, 1914, all the city and county can expect to receive for government maintenance only, the sum of approximately $334,000.

The conditions obtaining for the second half of the year are different. The $194,000 from taxes, some $100,000 for licenses, $22,500 for liquor licenses, $30,000 city receipts can be relied upon for maintenance of government and approximately $140,000 will be available for permanent improvements.

It is declared that though the revenue of the county has been very large, statutes which regulate the collection and disbursement of tax money produce the condition which requires the municipal government to borrow money to meet paydays. As the territory collects the taxes of the counties, turning over to them on the last legal day of each month about sixty per cent of the amount collected, it is argued by different officials that more economy could be practiced if the law were amended to give each county the power to get in its own taxes and turn over to the territory its part. That is argument No. 1.

But the second argument is nearer home, and perhaps the suggestion carried with it could be affected easier. It has to do with the permanent improvement fund. This fund is made up of one-quarter of all tax money received by the city and county, and the money thus set aside is used for road building, maintaining, bridge construction, repair, etc.

Of the money turned over to City and County Treasurer McCarthy by Territorial Treasurer Conkling on the last of the month, more than $50,000 of it went at once into the permanent improvement fund. Twenty thousand of the $218,746.95 was put in the revolving fund—a fund created by the last legislature, the purpose being to have a fund which may be drawn from at times when the county is in need of money. About $103,000 of the month's receipts went to pay off the registered warrants held by banks; $20,000 was used on the last payday, and warrants held by the auditor approximate $10,000. In other words, of the $218,746.95 received, about $213,000 is already disbursed if all the warrants are in.

Small Chance to Keep Even
With a quarter of the revenue going into the permanent improvement fund, it is pointed out, the county has only a fighting chance of keeping even. It is suggested that in place of this percentage of the revenue being disposed of in this way, a fixed sum be set aside for each semi-annual period, and that the bulk of the street improvements be accomplished under the frontage tax statutes. With such a policy enforced, a far greater amount of money would be available for general expenses of the municipal government.

A difference existing between the receipts and disbursements for December of only $5748 in favor of the former, it will not be long now before it is necessary to register warrants, and this seems to be true hardly without reference to what action the board supervisors do with the next budget. In the month of December, it is estimated, $90,000 more will be received from the territory on taxes, and $60,000 for county receipts. This is estimated, $90,000 more will be received from the territory on taxes, and $60,000 for county receipts. This

Pinkham Waits Because Wilson Is Ill in Bed

(Special Star-Bulletin Cable)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—Just when L. E. Pinkham will qualify as governor of Hawaii has not been determined, for the reason that his commission is awaiting the signature of President Wilson and the president is confined to his bed and is unable to sign the document.

The signature is expected soon, however, and Justice Joseph McKenna of the supreme court is prepared to administer the oath of office as soon as the commission is issued. Mr. Pinkham will then start west at once.

DECISION IN KELLETT CASE DUE TONIGHT

If Any Penalty Is Imposed It Will Be Specific, Thus Releasing Sheriff

Three men making up the civil service commission will give the decision this evening to the chamber of the supervisors which will bring to a close the charges against John R. Kellett, unless some unexpected action is taken by one side or the other in the case. The arguments ending the hearing on appeal of the charges having closed Wednesday evening, the commission has taken the case under consideration since that time. At 7:30 o'clock this evening the decision will be announced.

As seems natural with a trial of this kind, which has excited a great deal of public interest, there are many rumors afloat on what the ruling of the commission will be. Notwithstanding that many of them are said to be based on first-hand authority, the commissioners themselves say they are not discussing the case, much less their decision.

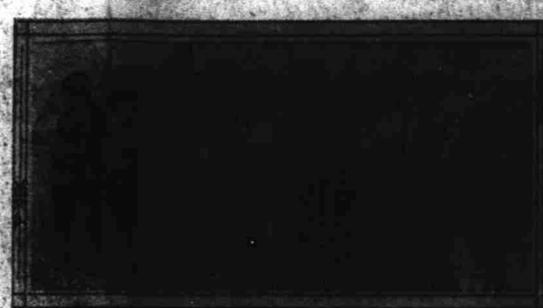

As near as Sen. A. J. Wirtz, chairman of the commission, would come this morning in discussing the matter was to say that if any penalty was imposed upon Kellett it would be specifically stated. This is taken to mean that the commissioners will meet the situation squarely and not attempt to deal with the matter to Sheriff Jarrett.

Another question which is interesting to those who have followed the hearing is the form in which the decision will be made. It will be a written decision, it is agreed, but whether it will deal with the charges, and the proofs adduced in an attempt to prove them, individually or collectively, is in doubt just now.

There may be good reason to doubt that the commission will handle them individually, if for no other reason than because E. C. Peters, attorney for Kellett, was not given an opportunity to be heard.

CONGRESSMAN MILLER RETURNING WITH KNOWLEDGE OF PHILIPPINES

Member of House Committee on Insular Affairs Has Made a Thorough Investigation and Will Report on Findings—Message to Filipinos—Is Noncommittal as to His Work

Bringing back with him an unusually broad and practical knowledge of the Philippines and the peoples which inhabit Uncle Sam's overseas possession, Congressman C. R. Miller of Minnesota is a returning passenger on the transport Thomas, which sailed for the mainland at noon today. He is the member of the house committee on insular affairs, on the Republican side, who was sent to the islands several months ago to make a careful investigation of actual existing conditions, so that he could be armed with facts and figures for his committee to consider in the ever-recurring debate on self-government for the Philippines brought up under the Democratic administration.

Congressman Miller is probably better posted on Philippine conditions, after his short stay in the islands, than most men who have lived there all their lives. He has a remarkably retentive memory, and going there with the express purpose of absorbing facts, he has succeeded in getting the atmosphere of the islands in a truly remarkable manner. Afforded the best possible facilities for observing conditions first hand, and furnished with all the statistical information desired, the Republican committee-man traveled from one end of the group to the other, mingling with the natives, talking with Filipino politicians, and assimilating a broad view of conditions.

Congressman Miller is noncommittal as to the trend of the report he will make to his committee. He has much in the way of impressions and statistical information to sift over before arriving at definite conclusions, but in general his conversation indicates that he is favorably impressed with the progress made by the Philippines, and that he is in favor of limited self-government, with absolute veto power in the hands of the governor-general. He believes that the watchword of the Filipinos should be "slow but sure," and that the great mass of the people, as well as a few brilliant leaders should be trained to the responsibilities of government.

DENVER IN GRIP OF SNOW; STREET-CARS AND AUTOS ABANDONED; FUEL SCANT

Winter's Storm Heaps City High with Drifts — Suburbs Are Isolated — People Kept Indoors—Restaurants Close Up, Unable to Keep Fires Going

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 5.—With an ow three feet deep on the level in Denver's streets and sixteen feet deep in the drifts, the city is in the grip of a winter storm. The snow fell so fast last night as to block the trolley cars and in some sections the cars with their crews and passengers were cut off in the night and marooned for hours, some all night.

Great white mounds all over the city mark abandoned automobiles, stalled in the deep drifts. All trains are stalled and the suburbs isolated from the main section of the city. Several restaurants, lacking coal, have had to suspend business.

Crew of American Schooner Add Tale to Pacific Romances

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—A romance of the sea as strange as fiction was learned today when the Australian liner Moana arrived with Captain Nelson and two sailors of the American schooner Eldorado. This vessel, which sailed from Astoria on April 1 bound for Antofagasta, Chile, became waterlogged and was abandoned in a sinking condition on June 15.

The crew of 14 sailed in an open boat for 11 days with scanty provisions. Finally they made Easter Island. Eleven took native wives and refused to leave the island. The remainder reprovisioned the boat after 105 days and sailed to Papeete in 25 days, touching at Mangaia on the sixteenth day.

Kaiser Orders Court-Martial Of Domineering Army Officers

BERLIN, Germany, Dec. 5.—As a sequel to the disorder in Zabern, Alsace, created by the imperial officers and garrison because of their domineering conduct, the Kaiser today ordered the instant removal of the officers and officers stationed there and a summary court-martial.

Rebels Surround Chihuahua And Will Occupy at Once

JUAREZ, Mex., Dec. 5.—Seven thousand Constitutionalist rebels surrounded Chihuahua City, lately evacuated by the Mexican forces, and are preparing to occupy it at once.

Mrs. Spreckels to Quit Jack

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—Mrs. John D. Spreckels, Jr., better known in California and eastern society as Mrs. "Jack" Spreckels, today brought suit for absolute divorce against her husband. Cruelty and neglect are the grounds on which the suit is brought, and Mrs. Spreckels asks for the custody of the three children, in addition to alimony and counsel's fees.

Mrs. Spreckels was the beautiful Miss Emily Huntington, granddaughter of the noted Col. P. Huntington. They have been married 11 years, but have not been living together for some time.

Mrs. Pankhurst on Hunger Strike

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 5.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, back in jail after her American tour and landing here, began a hunger strike today, declaring she will not eat until she is released from prison.

Mine Open; Search For Bandit

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Dec. 5.—The mine near Bingham in which Ralph Lopez, the Mexican bandit, was cornered last Saturday, was opened today and a posse will enter tonight, after the mine has been thoroughly ventilated of the poisonous fumes which have been pumped into it in an effort to asphyxiate the murderer and outlaw.

President Wilson Has Grip

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—President Wilson is ill in bed with the grippe.

Currency Talkers May Talk

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—Senator John Sharp Williams of Mississippi says the currency program now is to "make the talkers talk early, talk late and talk continuously until the talkers are talked out."

LONDON, Eng., Dec. 5.—Active measures to head off a rebellion in Ulster were taken by the government today when an order was issued forbidding the importation of arms or ammunition into Ireland.

PUBLIC DANCE WILL OPEN WITH THE NEXT FULL MOON

"Everything is now ready," declared Chairman Petrie, of the roads committee of the supervisors. "We are only waiting for the full moon."

When the moon becomes full Honolulu will see the opening of its first public dance pavilion. The building at the Kaplani park bath-house has been put in shape for such dances, and according to Supervisor Petrie it is now ready for them.

The Hawaiian band will be present to blow and beat the music for the dancing. And, under the ruling of the mayor, one may either dance the conservative two-step or act on his predilection for the rag. His Honor says the difference between a two-step and a rag is more speculative than real.

Success crowning this undertaking at the Kaplani park public bath-house, the supervisors propose to build a dancing pavilion at Alaia park. This first one is more of an experiment than anything else. If it succeeds, the supervisors will take it as a guarantee for their Alaia park project.

Dancing has presented itself to the supervisors in the form of a problem. The dance-hall evil has been called to their attention repeatedly and graphically. No harm in the dancing itself is pointed out. The harm is in the moral—or vice versa—atmosphere of such halls and the high cost of dancing, say the city fathers.

In order to do away with these two disagreeable features, the supervisors have undertaken to set up their own dance-shop. The first is at the bath-house. Alaia park may come later. There will be no charge for dancing, and a policeman or two will be present to keep strict order.

DOUBLE FOR GOVERNOR IS DISCOVERED BY CONKLING

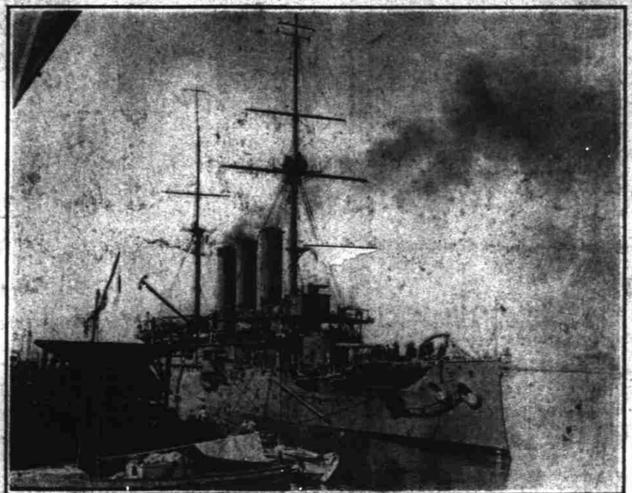

On a bright, early morning about six months ago Territorial Treasurer Conkling rushed down the lanai from his office at the capitol building and hurling himself directly into the center of a party of absolute strangers grasped and shook most effusively the hand of a plump little man he had never seen before.

It was not until he had "busted into" the party of tourists, lightsores and could not escape gracefully without some explanation that he learned his mistake. He had discovered the almost perfect double of Lucius E. Pinkham.

JAPANESE CRUISER IDZUMO HERE AT 5 P. M.

With a view of reaching the scene of revolution and disturbance in Mexico with the least possible delay, the Japanese armored cruiser Idzumo, reported to be due to arrive at Honolulu at 5 o'clock this afternoon from Japan and coming to a berth at wharf No. 2, will remain but a few days at this port before steaming for Manzanillo. It was first arranged that the cruiser should proceed to Salina Cruz after leaving here, but later advices ordered the Idzumo to remain at the Mexican port and after taking aboard Japanese residents along that portion of the coast to steam for Tehuantepec.

Japanese armored cruiser Idzumo

That the mission of the Idzumo is primarily intended for the protection of Japanese along the Mexican coast is questioned in Japan, according to a report brought to this city by the U. S. Transport Logan, that reached Honolulu last evening from Nagasaki, Japan. The doubt is expressed there whether the Japanese residents need protection since the Mexican insurgents are not unruly mobs, as was the case in China, nor are they influenced by anti-Japanese sentiment. But even supposing that protection is necessary, it is stated that one warship cannot discharge this duty as the Japanese are widely scattered, and, moreover, while most of them live in the northern districts of Mexico, the Idzumo is to anchor at a port about 2000 miles southward.

The Idzumo will remain here until Tuesday before steaming for the Mexican coast. Captain Moriyama was wired long that the cruiser will take on 1300 tons of coal during the stay at the port. There is a complement of 564 officers and men aboard the vessel.

The departure of the Idzumo from Japan was the occasion of much enthusiasm according to reports which have reached this city.

BEACHCOMBERS SLIP PORT ON S.S. NIAGARA

A number of beach-combers, who within the past few weeks have figured conspicuously on the Honolulu waterfront, are said to have looked with favor upon the big Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara, as a means of leaving the Paradise of the Pacific.

Two alleged deserters from the United States army are understood to have managed to steal aboard the ship during the night. A half-dozen men who have been haunting the shipping district with a view of gaining a free passage to any old port, were seen to board the Niagara, and then disappeared.

At noon today no deserters from the military service had been posted with the police, consequently no stops were taken to make a systematic search of the vessel.

The Niagara was delayed on the voyage from Vancouver because of very rough weather, Captain Morrisby stating last evening that after leaving the British Columbian coast exceptionally heavy weather was experienced. There was a marked improvement during the last three days of the trip.

An interesting program of entertainment and sports was participated in by a large number of passengers.

Six hundred passengers reached the port in the vessel of which number about 100 will remain in the islands. Before the Niagara sailed for Suva, Auckland and Sydney at 6:30 this morning, more than a thousand tons of fuel oil had been taken into the storage tanks.

Among the departures from the port yesterday afternoon was the Commercial-Pacific cable schooner Florence Ward, which vessel laden with supplies and Christmas gifts for the small company of operators and employees of the cable company, is expected to arrive at Midway Island before December 15th.

Beginning with the steamer Honolulu, all Matson Navigation vessels sailing at island ports and destined for the Pacific coast, will be supplied with sugar. The resumption of grinding at mills on Hawaii and Kaula insures sufficient product to keep the trans-Pacific fleet of sugar carriers busy for the season.

A Hawaiian fisherman, named Hebeia, is reported to have drowned at Kalaiki harbor on Wednesday evening while following his occupation at one of the small islands in the bay. The man is said to have left his boat heaving three women companions behind. His body was recovered yesterday afternoon by Manuel Green, who with the assistance of Alexander Smith and Hoopli brought the body ashore and the remains were turned over to the coroner.

The American Hawaiian freighter Antares from Salina Cruz by the way of San Francisco and Seattle is to take sugar at Honolulu, Kahului and Hilo. This vessel is to depart from the islands for the isthmus of Tehuantepec with a full cargo of product.

Captain H. C. Houdlette, master of the Oceanic steamer Sierra from San Francisco to Honolulu and 527 miles off the port at eight o'clock last night has been reported by wireless that he expects to bring his command into Honolulu harbor on time Monday morning.

LOGAN FILLED WITH ARMY FOLK

In steaming for San Francisco at noon today, the United States army transport Logan carried 1200 souls, including her large list of passengers in the several classes, as well as officers and members of the crew.

After leaving Nagasaki, Japan, the Logan met with the tail end of a typhoon, but while making it unpleasant for the travelers, did not do any particular damage to the vessel.

The Logan was berthed at Oceanic wharf shortly before 9 o'clock last night, a small amount of quartermaster cargo having been discharged. The Logan was supplied with a quantity of coal while at Japan.

One cabin and one second-class passenger were left here, while the list destined for San Francisco numbers 120 cabin, 39 second-class and 537 troop passengers.

Joining the Logan at Honolulu were 15 first cabin, 12 second-class and 235 troop passengers. Ninety enlisted men came from Fort Shafter.

While no band attended the sailing of the transport, the departure was an animated one, and a large delegation of local military folk gathered at the wharf. The vessel was supplied with a large mail.

For twenty minutes yesterday afternoon, following the berthing of the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara at Alakea wharf, a steady stream of people passed over the gangway and found their way up town. The Niagara arrived here with nearly six hundred passengers. The travelers were given an extended stay at the port.

With a quantity of supplies for Fanning island cable colony and also material for the copra estates on Washington island, where Armstrong & Armstrong have a force of Gilbert Islanders employed, the British steamer Keelra sailed for the South Sea last evening. The vessel will return to Honolulu within a few weeks, bringing a shipment of copra that will be forwarded to San Francisco.

quick-firing guns, 15 6-inch quick-firing guns, 12 12-pounders, seven smaller guns and four torpedoes. The 6-inch guns are in pairs in 6-inch barbettes and hoods, while 10 of the 6-inch guns are in 6-inch casemates and four protected by shields only. She has a coal capacity of 1300 tons.

The Izumo of the Japanese navy was formerly the famous Chilean flagship Esmeralda which figured prominently in the Chilean-Peruvian war of the early nineties. She is also a product of the Elswick yards and was purchased by the Japanese to augment their naval strength in the Chinese war. It was the Esmeralda which "Fighting Bob" Evans threatened to blow out of the water during the Chilean riots against American tars at Valparaiso in 1894.

During the recent Japanese-Russian war, the Izumo was a first-class armored cruiser belonging to that portion of the Japanese fleet on duty in the Japan sea and the coast of Korea, under command of Admiral Kaminura. This fleet was engaged in battle on many occasions, the principal encounter being in the Tushima Strait during the attack on Vladivostok and resulting in a decisive victory for the Nipponese fleet. Later, the Izumo took part in the battle of the Japan Sea, which was the last naval encounter of the war. The vessel has since been reduced to the rank of a battle cruiser, from the fact that during the past several years ships of greater tonnage have been constructed and have taken the first class rank.

Mrs. Eitaki, wife of Consul-general Eitaki, will be hostess at a reception at the new consular residence on Nuuanu street, between the hours of 3 and 5:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, to which all the officers of the Japanese cruiser Izumo have been invited. Between five and six hundred invitations have been issued for the affair.

Union welcome services for the officers and crew of the Izumo will be held at Central Union church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. T. Okumura will preside and the following program has been arranged. Organ prelude.

Hymn. Scripture Reading—Rev. J. W. Wadman, D. D. Prayer—Rev. G. Motokawa. A Song—Choir. Welcome Address—Rev. Doremus Scudder, D. D., Interpreter, Rev. T. Fukao. Doxology. Benediction—Rt. Rev. H. B. Restarick.

HARBOR NOTES

Had the Canadian-Australasian liner Niagara sailed for the colonies at a more convenient hour this morning it was the intention to secure the Royal Hawaiian band for a serenade.

The Oceanic liner Sierra from San Francisco and due to reach the port on Monday morning is reported as bringing a large number of passengers, many being tourists who will spend some weeks in the islands.

The Matson Navigation steamer Wilhelmina, enroute from Honolulu to the coast and 438 miles off the port at eight o'clock last night was reported through wireless as having met with favorable weather with all well on board.

With the receipt of several big cargoes from the Orient as well as from the mainland, Alakea wharf is piled high with an assortment of cargo. A vast quantity of rice, from Japan is stored there, pending its delivery to several local importers.

Police Notes

George Friedenber, a well-known Hawaiian, aged 24 years, was found dead at his lodgings in Dowsett lane, at an early hour this morning. The remains were turned over to Sheriff Jarrett, who in his capacity of coroner will conduct an inquest. In the room were found several partly filled bottles containing gin and water.

The jury waive hearing of Lui Lau and 21 others, accused of being present at a gambling game, was continued by Circuit Judge Robinson today to next Thursday, December 11, at 9 o'clock.

Circuit Judge Cooper today issued an order authorizing James W. Pratt, trustee for Susan Adelaide, James W. Jr., and Linton Torbert Pratt, to negotiate a loan of $3000, giving a mortgage on lots 12 and 13 in block 14, Kaimuki tract, as security.

The annual account of J. M. Dowsett, trustee of the estate of Mrs. Anna Green, was filed in circuit court today. It shows receipts of $6633.21 and expenditures of $6468.21.

FORMER GOVERNOR OF TENNESSEE NOW UNFALTERING FOE OF DRINK

Malcolm R. Patterson Makes Remarkable Speech, Calling People to End 'Curse'

"The saloon cannot produce one veracious witness in its favor as it stands indicted before the bar of public opinion. With this declaration, former Governor Malcolm R. Patterson of Tennessee has signalled his change from championing the rights of the liquor industry to championing prohibition in word and in deed. His stand was taken before the Anti-Saloon league convention in Columbus, Ohio, last month. A newspaper dispatch gives a graphic story of the event: COLUMBUS, OHIO, Nov. 12.—Changed from being a Saul to a Paul, Malcolm R. Patterson, former governor of Tennessee, stood before the Anti-Saloon league convention here today and delivered a dramatic speech saying he had seen a great light and whereas he was the champion of the 'wets,' he is now the unfaltering foe of liquor. Mr. Patterson's speech was the feature of governor's day at the league's national convention.

Commenting on one of his messages to the Tennessee legislature, in which he proposed further legislation to regulate the liquor traffic, Mr. Patterson said: "I say to you, fully conscious of the meaning and responsibility of the declaration, that if this message has encouraged lawlessness or ever has been sought as a refuge for violators of the law, if it had to stand as my last expression on the liquor question I would consume it in the living fires and erase it forever from the minds and memories of men.

"I have seen the trail of liquor in the criminal courts where I have prosecuted crime. I know and have been a participant in its paralyzing and corroding influence in the social and public life of our national capital. As the governor of Tennessee, I have seen it a veritable and raging center of storm around which gathered its defenders and assailants and from which sprang divisions in parties, disputes in families and dissensions in churches.

"Going through life I have seen it drag down many of the associates of my boyhood, blighting their hopes and consigning them to untimely graves. I have seen its forked lightning strike my first-born—the child of my young manhood—and I have borne with him the suffering and tried to help him in his brave but sometimes melancholy struggle for redemption. At last I have felt its foul and stealthy blow as it turned upon me in its deadly and shaming wrath—upon me, who had pleaded before the people for its very existence. He arose a Changed Man.

"When logic failed and reason gave no answer I cast aside all pride of opinion, all thought of what the world might say or think, and went to the throne of Almighty God. There, on bended knees, I asked for light and strength, and they came. The curtains of the night parted and the way was clear: I arose a changed man.

"The saloon cannot produce one veracious witness in its favor as it stands indicted before the bar of public opinion. It stands a convicted felon and must receive the sentence of the law. It must go, never to return, and with the going of the saloon, liquor itself should go. I favor prohibition in any form that will either reduce or destroy the liquor traffic. I favor it personal and statewide, statewide, nationwide and worldwide."

"Twice elected governor of Tennessee as a 'wet,' Mr. Patterson came to Columbus in a special car accompanied by Gov. Ben W. Hooper, who succeeded him as Tennessee's chief executive, to give his indorsement to a nationwide program that would have for its aim the elimination of the saloon.

To Elect Perley A. Baker Again. At a business session of the convention this afternoon it was expected that the Rev. Perley A. Baker of Columbus would be re-elected general superintendent of the league. Joshua Levering of Baltimore, long prominent in the councils of the prohibition party, was one of the principal speakers at the morning session. Mr. Levering predicted that the ban of prohibition would be placed against the manufacture and sale of alcoholic liquors before 1920.

"The country is aroused," said Mr. Levering, "and we can see the dawn of victory. Nothing can stem its progress."

TARO PATCHES IN THE CITY. Editor Honolulu Star Bulletin. Sir: I have read from time to time in the columns of your paper of the condition of the streets, the prevalence of the mosquito pest, and some of the ways suggested as a remedy, but I have never seen anything regarding the taro patches, right in the heart of the residence districts, and the conditions they have toward the promotion of the sanitary conditions of the city of Honolulu.

I have been in the city of Honolulu for some time, and have traveled some around the island of Oahu, and I have also had the misfortune of renting a house near a taro patch, not knowing what it was at the time. I find that it is a mud hole of stagnant water, and that the smell that arises from it is fearful, especially at night, and that it must be a breeding place for mosquitoes, from the fact that the water is stagnant, in fact to such an extent that a rotten green scum is formed all over the top of it.

KAKAAKO GANG MEMBERS DRAW LONG SENTENCES

With the intention of breaking up the famous Kakaako gang and putting an end to a series of depredations from a crowd of men and boys who have been in the habit of congregating at the several territorial wharves at the time of arrival and departure of transpacific steamers, District Magistrate Larnach this morning sentenced Henry Phillips to 60 days on the reef, while a companion named George Wallace drew a 30-day meal ticket at Hotel Asch.

At the instance of Capt. H. H. Rely, superintendent at Alakea wharf, Phillips and Wallace were placed under arrest following the sailing of the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria. Complaint had been made by several Oriental passengers that the defendants had attempted to extort money from them after forcibly taking possession of their baggage and other personal effects.

THIRD DEGREE OF AFFINITY BLOCKS CASE

Convincing the court that a "third degree of affinity" existed between Architect C. B. Ripley and W. H. Campbell, Attorney C. W. Ashford succeeded in having the latter excused from a jury in Circuit Judge Whitney's court this morning, creating a demand for a new venire and a postponement of the Ripley & Davis $1000 suit against the Kapiolani estate until next Monday morning.

After some close examination of the prospective juror, Attorney Ashford established the fact that Campbell's cousin is married to Ripley's daughter. This, said Ashford, is the "third degree of affinity," and persons thus related to parties in litigation are not entitled to sit in the case as jurors.

There were only 13 men on the regular panel when the case was called, and Morris Rosenbleit was excused for prejudice against the defendant, John F. Colburn. That left only 12, and when Campbell was excused later it became necessary to issue a call for a special venire of 13, made returnable next Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock.

The firm of Ripley & Davis is suing the Kapiolani Estate for $1000, alleged due for plans of an extra floor, which was proposed for the Kapiolani building, at King and Alakea streets but which has never been built. The special venire selected to appear Monday morning consists of Arthur C. Aubrey, John B. Searle, James D. Dole, Christian F. Jenkins, Will J. Cooper, George O. Jurensen, Harry A. Frankson, Gustave C. Holgaard, Percy M. Bakeman, Ben. Hollinger, John T. Warren, Anthony N. Gilman, Hugh H. Davis, William L. Harvey and John Nunes.

Those remaining on the jury at present are Oliver A. Walker, John A. Radway, Henry A. Giles, Archibald J. Smithies, Jason Andrade, Max H. Weisberg, George S. Wells, William Chung Hoon, C. M. V. Forster, W. W. Kirkland and H. B. Myhre.

STAMP TAX IN JAPAN IS ON THE INCREASE

(Special Cable to the Japanese Chronicle.) 'HOLIDAY-HOUR' PLAN FOR CITY STORES URGED

Manager Berndt Believes New Movement on Mainland Will Be Big Success Here

A steadily-growing movement in the important mercantile circles of the mainland against the practice of keeping stores and shops open at night for several weeks during the Christmas season has convinced at least one Honolulu merchant that it is time for Honolulu to join the "holiday-hour" movement.

Emil A. Berndt, manager of W. W. Dimond & Co., has already inaugurated the plan in his own store and believes that a general observance of it will greatly benefit not only the store and its employees, but the shopping public as well.

During the recent convention of the Dohrmann syndicate stores in California, the strong movement for the "holiday-hour" was endorsed and all the stores adopted the idea. "In the main, the plan is to keep the store open only three or four nights before Christmas but to double the working force during December and give the public every opportunity during the day to shop quickly, easily and economically as to time, patience and money," said Mr. Berndt this morning, discussing the situation here as well as on the mainland.

The great department stores of New York, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and other cities are all adopting the idea. They have found that it is beneficial both for themselves and the public. They provide a big working force during the holiday month, organize the employees intelligently and put them in a position to give splendid service. Thus the public can really get most of its shopping done without the necessity of going to the stores at night.

"On the last three or four nights, the store closes from 6 to 7:30 o'clock and opens again at 7:30 next morning with the full double force. The force is not tired out, it is wide awake and in a position to handle the large crowd of shoppers.

"The store is saved a large expense for employees at night, saved the cost of lights, which is considerable, and saved the use of overworked and tired employees.

"The plan is working splendidly everywhere it is tried. I believe it will work splendidly in Honolulu. Of course, it can only secure the best results by unanimity of action among the merchants. I believe that this can be secured."

CENTRAL AMERICA TO NEED RAILWAYS ON CANAL'S FINISH

Laborers Are Plentiful and the Road in Honduras Is Now Under Way

(By Latest Mail) PANAMA—Railroad construction in Central America will be benefited by the Panama Canal nearing its completion. At several points along the Canal Zone there is surplus amount of labor, and many of the negroes are now leaving for Puerto Cortes, Honduras, where they will be employed on the railroad being constructed there by H. M. Field.

Any general exodus from Bocas del Toro comes rather as a surprise, since it was understood that the United Fruit Company had arranged with the canal commission for taking over between 4000 and 5000 laborers to work on the company's banana plantations both at Bocas del Toro and on the plantations in Costa Rica. In the same connection it is reported that the recent strike in the Changuinola district did not benefit the men any, but that they all went back to work on the old basis.

CITY OF PANAMA TAKES CONTRACT TO CLEAN STREETS

ANCON, C. Z.—A provisional arrangement has been entered into between the Panama government and the canal commission, whereby the latter has taken over the work of street cleaning, garbage collecting and street sprinkling in the city of Panama. At the outset, and up to 1903, this work was performed gratuitously by the canal commission.

The Panama government served notice that it desired to take charge of the service, and the transfer took place on Sept. 1, 1908. Since that time, the work has been handled by the Panama government, the canal commission contributing the sum of $10,000 annually toward its cost.

Under the new arrangement, the canal commission will have complete jurisdiction over the work, and it will continue from year to year unless 60 days' notice is given by either party, previous to the termination of the contract year, of desire for cancellation. The agreement also stipulates that Panamanian citizens be given preference in the matter of employment.

GOVERNOR URGES MORE SELF RULE FOR PORTO RICO

Col. Colton Says People Want Not Independence but Own Legislative Body

(By Latest Mail) NEW YORK—Col. George R. Colton, governor of Porto Rico, who resigned, Nov. 5, says the Porto Ricans want and ought to have more of self-government. Colonel Colton went to the Spanish-American war in 1898 and arrived in the Philippines as lieutenant-colonel of the first Nebraska volunteers. He was detailed to the customs service, which he organized according to American ideas. After several years in the Philippines he was sent to Santo Domingo to organize the receivership of customs of that country. After two years and a half of this he went back to Manila as insular collector of customs and remained 18 months, preparing the new tariff for the Philippines.

"There is considerable loose talk about independence," said Governor Colton, "but as a matter of fact the Porto Rican people don't want to be separated from the United States. They realize it would reduce all values in the island. Its nearest neighbor is Santo Domingo, only a few hours' sail with the same climate, the same natural conditions. In Santo Domingo good agricultural land can be bought for $1 to $3 an acre. In Porto Rico no agricultural land can be obtained for less than $100 to $150 an acre, and sugar land is worth $500. The land in Santo Domingo is richer, too.

FRIDAY DECEMBER 5, 1913

There was more real democracy in President Wilson's sack coat at a reception than in any measure this Congress shall pass.—Editorial, Saturday Evening Post.

AUGURY OF SPLENDID SUCCESS

What the Merchants' Association thinks of the plan for one great commercial body in this city was shown yesterday afternoon. By a vote of 29 to 3, the merchants went on record in favor of amalgamation with the Chamber of Commerce.

Ninety per cent of the merchants who attended yesterday's meeting have spoken in favor of the merger plan. The postal-card referendum, which will be closed on December 31, will undoubtedly show almost or quite as large a proportion of the entire membership squarely behind the plan of a greater chamber for the greater chamber will be one factor in a Greater Honolulu and the businessmen of this city realize it.

The strength of the vote in favor of the merger is peculiarly gratifying to the Star-Bulletin. After the decisive vote of the Chamber of Commerce, there was a good deal of discussion as to the attitude of the Merchants' Association. This paper was informed by several members that the project was not likely to carry in the Association, or, in any event, would carry by so small a majority as to indicate a serious difference of opinion as to its merits.

The Star-Bulletin is the only paper that has fought for the merger of the two bodies, and it is gratifying indeed to know that the arguments presented almost daily in the news and editorial columns of this paper have been valid arguments and recognized as such by the overwhelming vote of yesterday.

The action of the Merchants' Association is a distinct encouragement in the territory-wide "get-together" movement.

It is augury of splendid success for the greater body, whatever the name and structure of that body shall be. It is proof that the business leaders of this community are convinced of the wisdom of united action, and convinced that unity of action rests on unity of organization.

There is still one thing for the members of the Merchants' Association to do this month: Get out a big vote on the postal-card referendum. Make that vote as decisive as was the vote of yesterday's meeting!

And then—on to the greater chamber and its work in the New Year!

STARVING HUERTA OUT

President Wilson is beginning to get action on his Mexican policy.

He blocked the channels of finance for Dictator Huerta, told Huerta to step out, and then sat calmly back and watched the general try to beat the game.

The president reasoned that an unpaid army—in Mexico—won't fight. He knew that many of the men who shouted for and fought for Huerta were hired mercenaries. He knew that with them it was "no pay, no fight." And even ordinary government needs take money. So the president began his blockade of the financial channels.

Dispatches yesterday and today show that the soldiers are deserting the Huerta standard by the thousand. They and many of their leaders know that so long as the United States declines to recognize Huerta, the dictator can borrow no money from foreign Powers. Wilson is starving Huerta out, and hunger is beginning to count.

If the president can secure his end without intervention, it will be a triumph of personality. Only the assurances of Wilson and Bryan that under no circumstances would the United States take any additional territory because of the Mexican imbroglio were responsible for the assurances in return that the Powers would support Uncle Sam's policy. It is reliably stated that the chief Powers which have large financial interests in Mexico have informed their bankers that it is against policy to lend money to the Huerta government.

Thus it is likely that Huerta will not be able to raise a loan in Paris. The French government is said to have made its own position plain to the large Paris bankers.

The London Times recently printed what is stated to be the outline of the Wilson program. It will be seen that this program looks even farther ahead than the immediate situation. It is thus given:

The United States will insist on the elimination of Huerta and all those closely associated with him from the control of public affairs, and to secure this end will spare no effort and invade Mexico if necessary.

"2—Every endeavor will be made to effect the elimination of Huerta's administration by financial pressure or, in other words, no steps will be taken to help his administration to avoid what seems to be inevitable bankruptcy. It will be made clear to foreign investors that obligations incurred by the present regime will not be recognized and must become worthless.

"3—If financial pressure proves insufficient to accomplish the end desired, the United States will resort to a blockade of Mexican ports, thus destroying customs revenues and preventing the importation of munitions of war. In the meantime the possibility that the American navy shall collect the Mexican customs, is being seriously considered.

"4—When the elimination of Huerta is obtained, efforts will be directed to inducing someone acceptable to both factions to assume the provisional presidency under the protection of the United States.

"5—President Wilson requires that a general election shall be held and a new congress and president elected.

"6—It is made clear to all foreign nations that nothing will induce the United States to acquire territory as the result of intervention."

From present prospects there will be no need for a blockade of Mexican ports. The blockade of Mexican loans will be sufficient—a triumph, as many papers already forecast, for "dollarless diplomacy."

THE NEWSPAPERS AND THE KELLETT CASE

The findings in the case of John R. Kellett, whose appeal from his discharge by Sheriff Jarrett has been heard at length before the civil service commission, will be made public tonight.

For reasons of propriety, the Star-Bulletin has preferred not to comment since the close of the hearing on the evidence before the commissioners upon the evidence offered in the Kellett case. After the findings are in, this paper will make some comment on the hearing and the facts brought out, for the charges involved matters of serious import to the police administration.

The attitude of this paper throughout both the McDuffie and Kellett cases has been an endeavor to be fair to both prosecution and defense, to be independent and impartial in presenting the news to the public and in treating the issues editorially. That this attitude found general appreciation has been emphasized again and again. The chairman of the commission in a signed statement declared that the Star-Bulletin accounts had been fair, accurate and thorough, and since the close of the hearing both attorneys have thanked this paper for its fair handling of the case.

Deputy Attorney-general Arthur G. Smith, after the hearing, volunteered the following statement:

"I appreciate the fairness with which the Star-Bulletin has treated, in its news columns and editorially, the investigation and the hearing of the charges against John R. Kellett."

What the Star-Bulletin has to say after the findings are made public will be said in the same spirit as its handling of the case during the trial. This paper is not influenced by any alliance with the police department and can speak the truth without fear or favor.

'MAKE GREATER CHAMBER TRULY GREAT'—FRAZIER

Urging that the strength and popularity of the Greater Chamber of Commerce will depend upon its membership at large, and that the chamber must be run by the membership and not solely by committees, Charles R. Frazier said this morning that he believes the tentative draft of the by-laws should be radically revised.

"I favor amalgamation of the Chamber of Commerce and the Honolulu Merchants' Association," he said, "but I am totally opposed to the method of government suggested in the proposed by-laws, and I am glad these by-laws are only tentative."

"I can see no reason why any such body should be governed by a board of directors as a circle inside the big circle and an executive committee as an inner circle inside the two others."

"If the proposed Greater Chamber of Commerce is to be a truly civic and representative body there is no reason I know of why its executive officers should not be elected by the general membership and the various committees selected from those who are most capable and willing to do the work. If this method is followed it puts the government of the chamber squarely up to the members at large; every individual member would have a responsibility and every member should have some work to do."

"I believe that the actual head of such an organization as proposed, whether he be president or a paid secretary, should make it his principal business to give every member that would accept it some job, and by keeping the members busy would keep them interested and by keeping them interested there would never be any lack of a quorum."

"To reiterate: If the proposed Greater Chamber is to be truly representative it must be governed by the membership at large and if the amalgamation is effected I propose to work to bring about this result."

In order to secure funds with which to replenish the coffers of the organization, the Kamehameha Athletic Association will give a benefit concert in Bishop Hall tomorrow evening beginning at 8 o'clock. E. G. Bartlett who is in charge of the affair, has arranged an attractive program. Hawaiian songs, both old and new, will be the feature of the evening, and there will also be instrumental selections, singing by quartets and quintets from both the boys' and the girls' school, and chorus work. The purchasing of equipment for the football team which the school put in the field this season took considerable money, and the funds from the concert will be used to replace this.

TUBERCULOSIS PATIENTS GIVEN HELP BY ASSN.

That the majority of persons receiving aid from the Associated Charities during the past month were sufferers from tuberculosis, is the gist of a report issued by Manager Mrs. Alice C. Jordan yesterday afternoon, which shows that four cases of this kind were dealt with. Three of the patients were sent to the Leahi Home while the other, who is living in Kaimuki, was furnished with food and sick-room necessities.

The first application was made by a Korean family, the father of which was suffering with the disease and unable to work. The man was sent to the Leahi Home and his wife offered to go to work to support herself and child. The charities is paying the rent of their small home. The second was that of a man who asked the charities to aid his wife and child, as he was afflicted with tuberculosis and unable to work. He was living apart from his family, he said, and had already been to the Leahi Home on two different occasions. He is receiving some assistance from a benefit society and this is now being furthered by the charities. The third case was that of a Hawaiian boy, who applied for help and was sent to the home. The rest of the report shows that the receipts for the month amounted to $193.30, and the disbursements to $213.45. There were seven applications for employment and $3 for assistance.

"I would like to call the public's attention to the fact that a man calling himself Frank Fellows is in no way in need of assistance," said Mrs. Jordan this morning. "He is the man, I understand, who was recently injured in the railroad yards to the extent that he lost both his legs. I have had people come to me on several occasions and tell me that he is in need of help, but I have every reason to believe that he is not."

EMPLOYMENT WORK OF Y. M. C. A. IS INCREASING NOW

The employment committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, composed of R. J. Pratt, chairman; E. O. White, J. M. Young, N. E. Geddes and Alexander Pratt, met at the association yesterday afternoon at which time a report covering the work accomplished during November was presented and discussed. The report showed the largest employment which the association has thus far handled. Interviews were held with 58 men, who were advised regarding securing positions, this number being an increase of four over October. There were 16 calls for men against four during the previous month, and of the men interviewed, several were furnished with temporary employment and 11 with a permanent position.

The organization of a Filipino employment bureau in the Masonic building under the direction of Vincente Liongson, has helped to solve one of the difficult employment problems now facing this city. The committee discussed the matter employment for Hawaiians, and a conclusion was reached to the effect that they are best adapted to the building trades, government positions and storekeeping, and an effort will be made to discover openings for them along these lines.

"The securing of labor for unskilled men and boys is becoming increasingly difficult," said A. E. Larimer, head of the association's employment work, this morning. "A large number of such are coming to the association and to the Salvation Army for assistance and unless we can learn of more openings, the community employment problem will soon become a serious proposition which will require careful handling."

tunity to present his defense. When the commission asked that concluding arguments be made, some felt that they had heard enough of the case to reach a decision that the charges were not well founded or supported by convincing evidence, and therefore wished the case to come speedily to an end with the concluding arguments.

This may or may not have been in the minds of the commissioners, but it seemed to be the general opinion of those present at the hearing that it was. Later when they asked for expressions of opinion from Peters and Smith on the question of modification of the action of the sheriff, a large number of persons jumped at the conclusion that the commission would reinstate the detective with either a reprimand or a suspension.

WIRELESS TRAIN CONTROL

Recent tests, which were carried out on the Bavarian state railway line between Nurnberg and Grafenberg, tend to prove that the wireless train control system of Prof. C. Wirth, of Nurnberg, possesses several advantages over other inventions of the same nature. In particular it involves no excessive outlay in cable laying. The receiving apparatus is connected with the telegraph and telephone wires running along the line, but this does not in any way interfere with their ordinary use. Several British railway representatives witnessed the recent tests and saw a train brought to a standstill in six seconds. The control of speed can be effected automatically, it is claimed, at places where a reduced speed is advisable.

COL. SAM PARKER DELIGHTS FRIENDS OF CALIFORNIA

Says the Oakland Tribune: "Col. Sam Parker, the picturesque Honolulu and the prince of entertainers of Hawaii, has been in town for the past few days. As was to be expected, the colonel has been much in the company of his old chum, Frank Unger, and the latter's set of gay old Bohemians in the club on Post street. Parker still likes to talk about and his club friends are fond as ever of hearing of his hobby of making fishing nets with the needle. In all verity, Parker is as clever with the needle and mesh as any of the light-fingered Italian fishermen down at Meiggs wharf. Advancing age has not dimmed his eye nor lessened his gustatory taste for the good things in the market or on the table for a small or large party, for the former gallant court official of old King Kalakaua and Queen Liliuokalani ranks with the best of San Francisco's epicures. In all but politics, things run merrily with Parker. Yet he cannot very well grumble at the turn of the political wheel. He really wanted Roosevelt as president the last time, and neither he nor the delegate to Congress, Prince Kalaniana'ole, are close to the present regime at Washington. Both are glad W. F. Frear is out of the governorship of Hawaii, but President Wilson's appointment of his successor, L. F. Pinkham, is not to their liking. Frear quit voluntarily. Otherwise Wilson might have retained him in office. He really eliminated himself, so Parker and the prince cannot claim any credit because he is out of office.

DID CHILD WAKE UP CROSS OR FEVERISH?

Look Mother! If tongue is coated give "California Syrup of Figs" to clean the bowels.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign, its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Counterfeits are being sold here. Don't be fooled!—advertisement.

AT THE THEATERS

EMPIRE THEATER

A production requiring two reels of film for its complete presentation, and possessing a decided south seas flavor, will be offered patrons of the Empire theater the last of the week in the great "Tale of Old Tahiti," a picture that has just been released by one of the big mainland studios and offered for the first time in this city.

There is a delightful thread of romance running through the several thousand feet of picture. "The Tale of Old Tahiti" is filled with much that should be familiar to dwellers in the Paradise of the Pacific.

Miss Dorothy Harris continues to please large audiences who gather to hear her rendition of late and popular songs. Miss Harris is closing her engagement as a singing comedienne.

The interesting drama, "The Treacherous Shot," is a new picture to be presented at the matinee and evening performance today. "The Captives of a King" is another photoplay of equal dramatic power.

The Empire program for today matinee and evening performance includes a collection of first-run pictures, from the best studios on the mainland. The list includes, "John Arthur's Trust," "The Mission of a Bullet," a drama; "The Peace Offering," a laughable and interesting comedy. "The Thirteenth Man" is a picture that has received much praise from coast critics. The program will close with "The Man He Might Have Been."

There will be a complete change of bill Saturday.

BIJOU THEATER

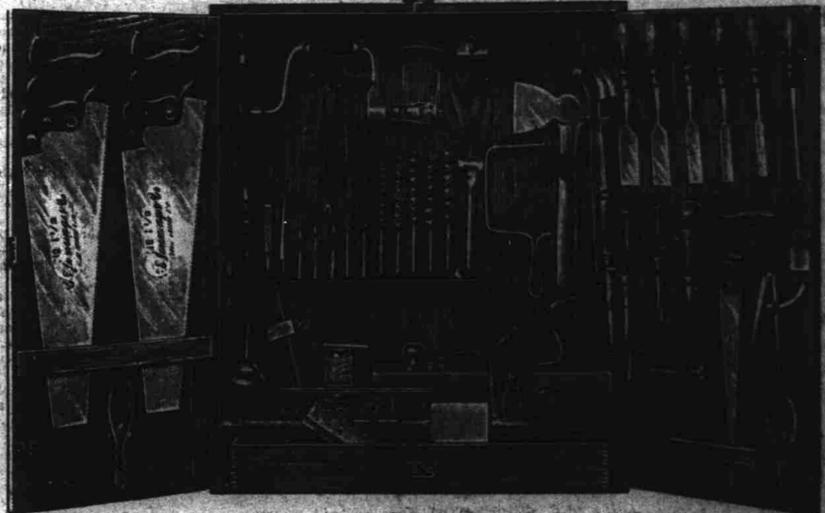

An elaborate and laughable cal comedy was presented last night at the Bijou theater by Monte Carter and his supporting cast of versatile performers. "New Year's Eve with Izzy in San Francisco" was the title of the bill and it proved to be a lively and pretentious show. It is laid in three scenes. Izzy and his German friends return home from a lark and tell that they have been on a hunting trip. When asked about their trip they lie profusely and tell tunny hunting and telling stories. They have a lively and troublesome time but finally wind up in the famous Midway Cafe on New Year's eve. The interior of this cafe is shown in detail and cafe life in the busy metropolis is depicted in a vivid manner. Excitement and fun reign supreme and the entire company takes part in introducing all the latest cabaret features.

During the show the following musical numbers were offered: George Archer sang "All That I Ask is Love" and he showed that the old songs are the best. Miss Dee Loretta sang a novel number with a surprise finish. "The Ragtime Regiment Band" was rendered by Frank Harrington and Chicks and they went through the audience at the finish.

Miss Del Estes was heard in two numbers "Uncle Joe Plays a Rag on His Old Banjo" and "Milk New York" with the Chicks. The Bijou trio again pleased with their medley selection and responded to encores. Tonight the chorus girls' contest will be held as usual.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSIONER MARBLE DIES IN WASHINGTON

News has been received here of the death of Interstate Commerce Commissioner John H. Marble in Washington a few days ago. Marble, who rose from a limotype operator in San Francisco to a member of the interstate commerce commission, died of acute indigestion. He was taken ill in Philadelphia and was taken to his home, where he succumbed.

Marble came to San Francisco several years ago from South Dakota, where he had been editor of a small paper. Here he obtained work as a limotype operator and, on account of his ability as a speaker and organizer, soon made himself felt in the councils of the Typographical Union.

Nothing is more annoying to a refined woman than offensive perspiration or body odors. Those who have used Tyree's Antiseptic Powder know it to be the one remedy which never disappoints. For general uses—dependable in all cases—it should be in every household. Unequaled as a douche. Recommended by physicians everywhere, as it contains no poisons. One 25c box makes two gallons standard solution. All druggists or write for booklet and free sample. J. S. Tyree, Chemist Washington, D. C.

Sachs for Dry Goods

While working at his trade he studied law, was admitted to the bar and entered the office of Franklin K. Lane, who later took him into partnership. When Lane was appointed a commerce commissioner, Marble was given the post of secretary to that board.

He was a large factor in the work of the commission and traveled over the country extensively, collecting statistics which were found invaluable.

When the senate committee investigated and ousted William Lorimer, Marble acted as its attorney and obtained nationwide prominence through his conduct of the case.

Marble was appointed to fill the vacancy in the commission left by Lane when he was made secretary of the interior, last March. His confirmation by the senate was unanimous.

Often those who have most to say upon a subject—and especially against it—are found least qualified to do so, if asked for facts. This seems to be peculiarly true with regard to Christian Science and hence many are led to misunderstand its teachings. It is therefore with keen gratitude that First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Honolulu, invites the public to be present to hear a free lecture upon this subject at the Hawaiian opera house on Sunday evening, December 7, at 8 o'clock, by William R. Rathvon, C. S. B., member of the Board of Lecturers of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Fit up your house with Westinghouse Mazda lamps, and without adding a cent to your lighting bill you'll get just three times as much light as ordinary incandescent lamps give you.
But don't wait till Christmas. Might as well have three times as much light all the time.
It will make the house so much more cheerful. Then you'll find it easier on the eyes than any other light you ever used. You'll be astonished at the great improvement and wonder why you put up with old fashioned lamps so long.

SPECIAL WORK FOR CHILDREN
IS RECOGNIZED

That 12 out of every 100 pupils at the threshold of the public schools are "mentally unusual" and need special treatment, if possible, apart from other children, is the conclusion reached by Dr. Arnold Gesell of Yale University, in a publication just issued by the United States Bureau of Education.

"Take an ordinary kindergarten and first grade, with a combined enrollment of 100 pupils," says Dr. Gesell. "Among this number we may expect to find at least one child feeble-minded; one child who stutters; two or three who seriously limp; another extremely anemic, a badly spoiled child, another babyish—a year or two retarded in mental or moral growth; and still another morally weak. There will be one 'negative' child—passive, colorless; one 'over-sensitive, nervous child; one super-ficially precocious child; another distinctly superior—eager, ardent, imaginative, sociable.

"For some of these children there is no better disposition than prompt assignment to a special class, the special class method having been put into successful operation for 13 different types of children. But even the special classes—particularly the so-called ungraded classes for backward children that have been established in our large cities—are greatly in need of inventory.

"The diversity of the ungraded class membership is often pathetically picturesque. Here is the roll call for one such class in a large eastern city: 24 boys, 16 girls; nationalities, Norwegian, French, Irish, Armenian, Italian, Austrian, American, Chinese; names range from James Moriarty and Ong Yung to Arcangelo Christiano and Nishan Kelehdorarian; ages range from 6 to 18; mentality, from giggling imbecility to ambitious intelligence; morality, from truancy, cigarette smoking, and thieving to good behavior; parentage, noted in special cases, includes a drunken mother, an insane father, and in three instances, gypsies; physical condition, from partial blindness and deafness, and spinal trouble and anemia, to vigorous physical health. Think of the problem before this teacher, who may not even have a working definition of feeble-mindedness in her consciousness to aid her in classification and instruction!"

In the opinion of Dr. Gesell, the time is coming when all our large municipal school systems, and perhaps county educational systems, as well, will have the equivalent of a department of child classification and special classes. "Child classification is the basis of child hygiene," he declares, "but it is more. The primary school may develop into a sociological clearing agency for the discovery and registration of all children who, when adults, may prove socially dependent, defective or dangerous. Child classification thus becomes a part of the task of social hygiene as well."

FIVE MINUTE CURE
IF STOMACH IS BAD

When "Pape's Dipepsin" reaches stomach all indigestion, Gas and Sourness disappear

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Dipepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eructations of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Dipepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.—advertisement.

HEALTH BOARD WOULD WATCH
SALE OF DRUGS

Dr. J. S. B. Pratt's "poison list" was presented to the territorial board of health yesterday afternoon and it probably will be approved at the next meeting a week hence. In passing on this list the board will be surrounding the future sales of poisons, dangerous drugs and chemicals with closer restrictions than heretofore.

The drugs under schedule A, which can be sold only by licensed pharmacists on prescriptions by licensed medical practitioners are cocaine, opium, morphine, codeine, heroin, alpha eucaine, beta eucaine, cannabis, India, chloral hydrate, acetanilide, antipyrin, phenacetin, or any of the salts, derivatives, compounds or preparations from these substances.

Schedule B, the chemicals of which may be sold by a licensed chemist to retail dealers or to private individuals on the recommendation of some responsible person, contains the following drugs: aconite, belladonna, strychnine, brucine, alkaloid of hemlock, hydrastin, corrosive sublimate, salts of mercury, arsenical preparations, sugar of lead, tartar emetic, muriatic acid, nitric acid, sulphuric acid, oxalic acid, hydrocyanic acid and its salts, carbolic acid, creosote, chloroform, oil of bitter almonds.

Schedule C, the items of which may be sold by grocers and other retail dealers without a pharmacist's license, but the sales of which must be kept in a book of records with the names of the purchasers are ant poison, rat poison, roach poison, Paris green, any arsenical preparations used in spraying. These substances must be sold in the original sealed, unbroken packages, if by dealers without the druggist's license and the seals must bear the word "poison" in large letters in both English and Hawaiian languages, with the emblematic death symbol of the skull, cross-bones and snake.

SALVATION ARMY
OPENS CHRISTMAS
CAMPAIGN

Lieut. Col. Blanche B. Cox, head of the local division of the Salvation Army, has issued the annual Christmas letter of the organization, asking donations and gifts in preparation for the holiday activities of the Army this year. The letter says:

"This land is so fair that it is not easy to remember that Christmas is close upon us, there will soon, however, be the claims of the poor for another expression of our goodwill toward men."

"Last Christmas, in Honolulu, we did large things, among them the big treat for poor children in the opera house, where 1500 little ones received toys and delights. This year it is our desire to do just a little better.

"There will be many Christmas trees to provide—in a hired building, the Manoa Home and at the various corps where our children gather regularly.

"There will be the distribution of well-filled baskets, to be taken to the homes of the poorest, so that the family may enjoy the meal together, and indeed make more than one meal of it. Last year the sight was a pathetic one as they gathered to receive the good things, while many a murmured 'God bless you' was the reward of the toilers and the giver."

"The children at the Manoa Home will look for the usual turkey and 'extras' on the Great Day.

"The inmates of the penitentiary and jail must be remembered with candy and fruit, to brighten the loneliness of their lives.
"Indeed there will be much to be done and given. We are uniting all efforts in one, and those whose hearts are made generous for a gift can designate to which especial cause you wish to contribute. We shall be able to do just as much as you make possible. Even if the year has brought some monetary losses, this may be one time when such can be forgotten, while we express to the Lord our gratitude for His goodness to us and our."

"Gifts of food, clothing, toys, etc., will be gladly called for. Notify by phone 3166."

MERCHANTS' ASSOCIATION FAVORS UNITED COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION

Spirited Fight Fails to Shake Belief of Members in the Idea of Unity

The organization of a united commercial body for Honolulu, formed by the consolidation of the Chamber of Commerce and the Merchants' Association, was practically assured yesterday afternoon when, at a well attended meeting of the latter body, a resolution to the effect that the meeting recommended to the members of the Merchants' Association their favorable consideration of the proposed merger was passed with but three dissenting votes. The resolution, which was presented by Emil A. Berndt, further provided that a postal card vote be taken among the members to decide for once and all their stand on the question.

The resolution, in full, follows: Whereas, the question of consolidating the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce and the Honolulu Merchants' Association into a "Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce" has been under general discussion in this city for several months; and Whereas, the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce has taken definite action favoring said consolidation; and Whereas, we believe that the time has come when the welfare of the city and county can be best served by a united commercial body; therefore

Be it resolved, That the president and directors be, and hereby are instructed to call for a postcard vote of the members, submitting the question to them substantially as follows: (A) I favor the consolidation of the Chamber of Commerce and Honolulu Merchants' Association. (B) I do not favor the consolidation of the Chamber of Commerce and the Honolulu Merchants' Association.

Be it further resolved, That the above call for a postcard vote be mailed to the members not later than December 9 and that the vote close December 31, 1913.

Be it further resolved, That in event of a majority of the members voting and recording a favorable vote the president shall appoint a committee of three or more, who, with a like committee to be selected by the chamber of commerce, shall prepare a constitution and by-laws for the Greater Chamber of Commerce.

Be it further resolved, That before consolidation is consummated a constitution and by-laws prepared by said joint committee must be submitted to and be approved by a majority of those members of the association voting.

And be it further resolved, That this meeting recommends to the members of the Honolulu Merchants' Association favorable consideration of the proposed consolidation with the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce for a Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce.

The meeting was perhaps the largest to be held by the Merchants' Association in several months, there being 35 members present at the beginning. President O. C. Swain presided and, following his brief announcement as to the purpose of the gathering, Emil A. Berndt presented the foregoing resolution. This called for argument on the part of two members, who set forth that more time and more consideration should be given to a matter of such importance. Other speakers, however, set forth that the matter had hung fire for several months and had, in fact, been the talk of the street for more than a year. The members of the association, they believed, were well acquainted with the facts surrounding the proposed merger, and that the time was ripe to take some definite action.

There were several amendments offered, but the only one being passed was that offered by W. R. Farrington to the effect that "this meeting recommends to the members of the Merchants' Association favorable consideration of the proposed merger with the Chamber of Commerce to form a Greater Honolulu Chamber of Commerce." Norman Watkins, W. R. Farrington, George W. Smith, Tom Church, Col. John Soper and Will McInerney spoke briefly in favor of the consolidation and of the post card vote method. Mr. Smith, in his talk, mentioned the Honolulu Ad Club, the Board of Supervisors, the Research Club and the various improvement clubs.

"What," he said, "has either the Chamber of Commerce or the Merchants' Association done for these organizations? I believe in the forming of a united commercial body; one that will be in a position to act in cooperation with all these organizations which are aiming toward the welfare of Honolulu." Hearty applause greeted his closing remarks, as well as those of the other affirmative speakers, showing that the spirit of the meeting leaned favorably toward the proposed merger.

But three members present opposed the consolidation; namely, Ed. Towse, R. R. Reidford and James McLean. Mr. Reidford and Mr. Towse both making talks to uphold their views. Mr. Towse took as an example the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, formed by absorbing numerous smaller bodies, and which today is reaching a membership of 3000. He read statements from a pamphlet entitled "What the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce is Doing" and took occasion to refute each one. Following his talk, the question came up as to whether or not this had any bearing on the matter now before the two commercial bodies. Rousing applause greeted a statement from Will McInerney who, as chairman of the association's committee appointed to investigate the feasibility of such a consolidation, reported that the committee was heartily in favor of the proposed merger.

A motion by R. R. Reidford that the resolution be tabled was voted out of order, the majority of the members voting their protest on account of the fact that, as the question had come to a head, they wished to see definite action taken. Following the discussion a motion was made to adopt the resolution, which was done by a vote of 29 to 3. T. M. Church then made a motion that a copy of the resolution be sent each member of the association, together with the postal card by which he will vote.

It is reported that 1500 Yaqui Indians are on the warpath along the Yaqui river in Arizona.

INTERESTING FIGURES BY CITY AUDITOR

with the $5,746 will give the county $101,746, against which are to be deducted the following: $22,500 for permanent improvements, $25,000 for two paydays, $7000 road labor payroll, and $20,000 for general bills. The total of these figures is $34,000. This would leave the county a balance of about $20,000 at the first of the year.

In January, the county will receive about $25,000, its disbursements being approximately $50,000. According to the figures, this will mean the beginning of the registered warrant season. In February the receipts will amount to only $5000; the disbursements are estimated at $50,000. The following month the receipts are the same, the disbursements being $35,000. By the end of that month the county will have spent, according to the estimates, $135,000, while the receipts, including the balance carried over from 1913, only total $35,000.

Taxes coming in the last of May are counted on to make up the shortage.

The supervisors, particularly Chairman McClellan of the ways and means committee, and Chairman Peattie of the roads committee, are giving a good deal of attention to financial problems of the board. They seem anxious to reach some plan which will do away with the obnoxious expedient of registering warrants.

"Annals of the Honolulu School for Boys" contains many articles and illustrations relating to the work and play of that institution, of which Leopold G. Blackman is president of trustees and principal. There are 97 students, of which 63 are boarding in residence.

The 500-pound cheese at May & Co.'s will be cut in their window at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. This will prove a very interesting event for downtown shoppers and no one should miss the sight.

The cheese has been sold in quantities of one pound upward to local folk. It was made in Wisconsin and is the third imported by May & Co.

JUNIORS WILL PLAY MORNING GAME SUNDAY

Fighting hard for the junior baseball championship, the Pawaas and the C. A. U. s will meet at Athletic park next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock for what should be the final game in the second series.

Arrangements for the two Junior League teams to play Sunday morning were completed early yesterday afternoon, thereby settling the controversy between the two leagues as to the double-header Tuesday afternoon.

When the details of next Sunday's game were discussed, there was a hitch somewhere over staging a double-header, and for a while the juniors seemed to be up against it.

Sunday at 3 o'clock the Hawaii and Portuguese will meet in the fourth game of the pennant race. The games now stand one and one, the second game being a tie.

The Portuguese have lost the services of Scott, the crack colored pitcher and outfielder who has been with the team for several months past, and who pitched a no-hit game against the Hawaii in the first game of the championship series.

Poster Robinson will do the twisting for the All-Chinese in tomorrow's game against the 25th Infantry. The last contest of this series to be played in Honolulu.

The 25th players, realizing that their prestige has been easily diminished by the poor brand of ball they have shown in the city, and the ease with which the Chinese have defeated them in two straight games, have been working like wild men for the past week, in an effort to round off the rough edges of team play, and get back to mid-season form.

Following is the line-up for tomorrow's game, which will be called at Athletic park at 3 o'clock. Chinese—Su Sue of, Ayan sa, Lai Tin, L. Akana H, Kah Yan 2b, Marjham c, A. Kiana 1b, Robinson p, Pinky H.

WRESTLERS ARE READY FOR MAT ENGAGEMENT

Indications point to a big house at the Asahi theater tomorrow night when Sedor Roberts and Arminang the German grappler, go to the mat. The advance sale at Grant's is brisk, and the fans are looking forward to some good sport.

Arrangements have been made by 1400 large German firms to exhibit their products at the Panama-Pacific exposition.

MARINES MEET DOUGHBOYS ON THE GRIDIRON

The football teams of Company B, 2nd Infantry, and the Marine Corps have been in training for the past two weeks, and when they meet on Alexander field at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon a first rate exhibition of the game should result.

The service as a whole has gone in for football much more extensively this year than last, and as a result the class of play has greatly improved. There are some experienced coaches at nearly every post, and the men have had the benefit of first-class instruction.

WALTER CAMP TO BE CARLISLE ADVISER

Carlisle, Pa.—The authorities of the Carlisle Indian school announce the affiliation with the school's athletic association of an advisory committee composed of the following:

Walter Camp, advisory coach to Yale; Judge Frank Irvine, dean Cornell University College of Law; Chancellor E. B. McCormick, University of Pittsburgh; President E. A. Noble, Dickinson College; James E. Sullivan, secretary-treasurer, Amateur Athletic Union.

TEACHING COSTS $2.92 A MONTH.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia.—The public schools of Pottawattamie county furnished instruction to 12,914 pupils during the past year at an average cost per student of approximately $2.92 each month.

The value of school buildings to house this great army of pupils amounts to $780,460, and the buildings contain apparatus valued at $25,546 more. In addition to this apparatus, school libraries contain a total of 18,441 volumes, the value of which would add materially to the above figures.

APPOINTED TO CONSTABULARY WITHOUT USUAL EXAMINATION

MANILA.—Colonel Harbord, the acting director of constabulary, has appointed to be third lieutenant in that organization Manuel A. Baja. Mr. Baja is graduate of the University of the Philippines, college of liberal arts, of the class of 1913, and is the first Filipino to receive a lieutenancy in the constabulary without examination under the recently inaugurated policy of that institution.

ASK CORRECTION OF TWO MISLEADING STATEMENTS

A member of the Coast Defense ball team asks this paper to correct an erroneous statement in the morning paper to the effect that the 25th Infantry and "All-Service" teams will play for the army championship. It is the 1st Coast Defense team of the Oahu League, not a picked nine, that Lieutenant O'Hara is captaining against the Schofield Barracks champions. The first game is scheduled for next Wednesday.

INTERNATIONAL POLO TEAM HAS LOST WHITNEY

Hawaiian polo enthusiasts who followed every move of the international matches last year, and a few of whom witnessed the games, will learn with regret and some consternation that Harry Payne Whitney, captain of the Big Four, will not take part in the international matches for the Westchester cup, which will be played at the Meadow Brook field next June.

Whitney has determined to retire from all active participation in matches for the trophy, not because of any lack of interest in the contests but because he is not willing to undergo a severe course of training such as is necessary to prepare a player for a polo match of great magnitude.

Much against his desire he took part in the game this year. He had trained faithfully for the matches, but long before the first game was scheduled to take place he realized that the strain of training had left its mark on him and that he was not physically able to do himself full justice.

A few days before the game a new team was formed with Foxhall P. Keene at the head. Then followed the accident to Keene and 48 hours before the first game took place the Big Four were again named to meet the challenge of the English players. Whitney had come to the rescue at the urgent request of the members of the Polo Association.

At the end of the second game, when the Big Four clinched the victory after a titanic struggle, Whitney was weak and exhausted from the strain of the contest and he had to be assisted into his automobile, in which he dropped on the verge of a collapse. This might be declared that he would never again take part in another international polo match.

It was Whitney's masterly handling of his teammates during the matches played here in 1911, to say nothing of his brilliant strategy in the games here this year, that caused the Americans to retain the trophy. Whitney is not powerful with the mallet, but he is a master at anticipating a play and guiding his men. With him out of the game the Big Four will lose its right bower.

Milburn will be able to make the team of cup defenders. He is a powerful athlete naturally and does not require many weeks of training to perfect his physical condition. The Waterbury brothers will play racquets and tennis this winter to groom themselves into shape. J. M. Waterbury was in poor physical condition early last spring and was not at his best when he played in the games. He lost his place on the team and his fingers were smashed by a blow from a mallet. The fingers are now in good shape, but unless he tunes up in practice to concert pitch he will be replaced by Malcolm Stevenson, one of the best of the young players. Stevenson, polo experts say, is the equal of Stoddard, who made good when he relieved Waterbury. Keene has been mentioned as a possible player, but if Stoddard, Milburn and the Waterburys show good form in the spring practice games they will make up the new four that will defend the cup.

ASK CORRECTION OF TWO MISLEADING STATEMENTS

A member of the Coast Defense ball team asks this paper to correct an erroneous statement in the morning paper to the effect that the 25th Infantry and "All-Service" teams will play for the army championship. It is the 1st Coast Defense team of the Oahu League, not a picked nine, that Lieutenant O'Hara is captaining against the Schofield Barracks champions. The first game is scheduled for next Wednesday.

Players who will take part in the Engineer-Battery F football game at Schofield Barracks next Sunday, wish it understood that they will play straight American football, not the Rugby article. A headline in this morning's paper reads: "Army rugger to meet on gridiron." Rugby football is not played on Oahu.

NEW CHALLENGE FOR AMERICA'S CUP PROMISED

LONDON.—Aboard the Cunard liner Lusitania which sailed Nov. 22, were Col. Sir Charles Allom, Miss Lind of Hageby, Sir Guy Granet, A. H. Stanley and Stevenson Taylor. Col. Allom, who is the owner of the noted yacht Itria, told The World correspondent that he is going to America to design the interior of the Widener memorial at Harvard.

So far as the forthcoming America Cup races are concerned, Sir Charles said his syndicate intended to give Sir Thomas Lipton a free run as challenger but if Lipton lost they might consider coming forward as challengers.

Sir Guy Granet, who is general manager of the Midland Railway, and Mr. Stanley, who is managing director of the London Traffic combine, comprising tubes, railways and omnibuses here representing more than $100,000,000 capital, travel together. Mr. Stanley told The World correspondent: "I will remain in America until the end of the year. I shall go as far in business and social life as Granet takes me."

Mr. Taylor has been here regarding an important new steamship line which the Midland Railway will soon inaugurate between Tilbury and Ostend.

Miss Lind is a noted anti-vivisectionist and is going to Washington to attend the anti-vivisection congress. The public here recently subscribed $50,000 to pay her expenses in a newspaper libel action which she brought, but lost.

BRISTOL, R. I.—Capt. Christian of New York will be the skipper of the new America's Cup defender to be built for the Vanderbilt syndicate at the Herreshoff yards here. This announcement was made here by Robert W. Emmons 2d of Boston, manager of the syndicate.

How the rest of us like to find fault with the rich!

RESERVE SOCCER SUGGESTED FOR LOCAL SCHOOLS

Captain George Quintal's call for Oahu College soccer men has resulted in a turn-out of about 20 enthusiastic beginners. Much promising material is on hand, and the captain is already picking out the best men for his initial team. If such large turn-outs continue, the younger fans are eager to form a reserve eleven, and are anxious to have the other schools put in second teams so that they may arrange a series also.

Among those who promise to make good so far are Austin and Brown. Both of these men have a powerful kick and will be able to occupy almost any place on a team. Brown has been working at full-back while Austin is playing forward. Roland and Ernest Gay will probably occupy the wings while Ralph Girler, who has played before and promises to be one of the most reliable men this year, will be center forward.

Others who are out are Harry Baldwin, Stevens, Yap, Inman, McInerney, John Goo, Fat Zane, Repton, O'Dowda, Clarence Baldwin, Mott-Smith, E. Baldwin and Fleischauer. A coach has been obtained in the person of Catton. Catton has played soccer in a number of places and is thoroughly acquainted with the rules and fine points of the game. He will teach the squad the rudiments of the game first, which include the proper kicking of the ball and other points about where each player should be on the field.

Her Discovery. "Oh, George, I've got splendid news for you." "That so?" "Yes, something that will save you a lot of money." "What is it?" "I've discovered that your last winter's overcoat will do again this year."
