NEW INDUSTRY WILL REDUCE CANNERY COST

Chemist Proposes to Extract from Pineapple Waste Sufficient Sugar for Canning

CHARLES ASH TO ERECT FACTORY IN FEW WEEKS

Enterprise Is Result of Experiments Successfully Made During Past Summer

Thousands of dollars probably will be saved the pineapple canneries of the territory as a result of a factory to be opened here within a short time for the extraction of a sugar syrup from the waste products of pineapples.

Charles Ash, one of the foremost commercial chemists of the country, is expected here within the next few weeks with plans to erect such a factory.

The syrup is to be used by the canning companies in place of sugar, and a giant saving is expected to be realized by them in this way, as it will do away with the use of sugar in preparing the sliced pines for canning.

Aside from the saving realized in this way, they will have an excellent and constant market for the waste products, the products which are now almost worthless, which occasion more expense than revenue.

Mr. Ash spent several months here last summer carrying out extensive experiments at the Hawaii Preserving Company. His purpose was to make a sugar or sugar syrup from the waste of sugar in canning the fruit. He announced before leaving that his experiments had succeeded.

Before he left for the mainland, contracts had been signed by several of the largest canneries agreeing to buy from him all the waste products.

It is his plan to open a factory soon as possible, and serve the canneries with the syrup.

This great saving which is now the industry comes at an extremely fortunate time. The cost of goods being reduced on the island has raised the important question of how the pines can be put out at a profit.

According to the information received from the mainland, Ash here with plans for the factory in four or six weeks.

UNEMPLOYED MATTER SOLVED FOR TWO WEEKS

This Is Opinion of Governor Following Conference with Supervisors and Bow

Judging from the sounds which emanated from the governor's office this morning it was a warm that the special committee of supervisors and W. S. Bowen held the territorial executive on the feet of the unemployed labor which Bowen put up to the supervisors and which, now, only, has been passed on to Governor Pinkham.

At the close of the conference, which lasted about an hour, Deputy Petrie and McClellan withdrew. Paehoko tarried half an hour in a heart-to-heart talk that evinced every bit as warm as the general discussion preceding it.

At its close Governor Pinkham declined to disclose the nature of the argument beyond the statement that the "unemployed" matter, he believed, had been disposed of satisfactorily for the next two weeks.

"On Mr. Bowen's figures of the no. of maintenance, there will be no starvation among his people for the length of time, anyhow," said the governor.

Owing to the lengthy conferences and many callers, which have kept the territorial chief executive busy the last few days, the detailed business of the administration has begun piling up in formidable heaps on his desk again. He was unable to touch a single item of this work this morning and when he left for luncheon at 1 o'clock this afternoon he threatened to violate the Sabbath law by indulging in some hard office work tomorrow, in a vigorous effort to dispose of some of the more important pending matters.

KEWALO BITTER; 'IMPROVING' IS SPOILING HOMES

When your home is spoiled, you aren't pleased about it, are you?

How would you feel, Mr. Resident of Punahou, if through some means that you have nothing to do with, the city were to ruin all your fine trees?

How would you feel, Mr. Resident of Manoa, if you had a beautiful lawn and the man next to you were to fill it over with sand?

How would you feel, Mr. Resident of Nuuanu, or College Hills, or Kaimuki, if you had carefully brought your property up to grade a few years ago and then were ordered to do it all over again—did it once more and then found that in spite of your pains all your garden and fruit-trees were killed?

You would feel mighty friendly toward the man or the government that was responsible for that, wouldn't you? Particularly when all the time you had been following orders and doing the best you knew how!

Homes Being Spoiled. Well, that is just what is happening through Kewalo. Dozens and dozens of homes down there are being spoiled because of the next lot, or the next one to that, the low ground is being filled in, and the salt water, cutting deep under the top soil and penetrating the coral base, is coming up and ruining most of the vegetation.

Right now it should be said that it isn't these Kewalo people who are applying for an injunction to stop the Lord-Young Engineering Company from doing the work. There is another group of complainants.

The Kewalo people with whom the Star-Bulletin representative talked yesterday aren't applying for an injunction—they are merely growing bitter and desperate and saying among themselves that it isn't a square deal.

About the Kewalo Folks. This part of the city of Honolulu isn't very well known to the man with an auto and a handsome home up in the "residence districts." But it, too, is a residence district. Plenty of good, kind-hearted, home-loving folks live here, their children grow up and go to school and they pay their taxes and live quietly and decently and are just as good American citizens as you or I. This part of the city is not far from "Magoonville" and the Kakaako section that figures in funny newspaper stories and politics.

But it's different from the tenements of Magoonville. It lies between Ward, Cooke, Victoria, and Queen streets. It's a section of many little homes, each a plot of perhaps 50x100 or 100x100 feet. The fathers and mothers are proud of their homes and their pretty gardens and growing fruit and shade-trees. That is, they were proud of them. Now most of the trees are dying and the yards are either filled up with mud or else soggy with salt water underneath.

Of course, Mr. Resident of Manoa or Kaimuki or Punahou, you say: "Well, all this is necessary in filling in these low-lands and making the district sanitary! It's Civic Improvement!"

Antone De Mello's Story. But calling it Civic Improvement doesn't help, for instance, Antone De Mello. His home is on Kawaiahao street, near Kamaani. He has a plot of ground 100 by 50 feet. Listen to Antone De Mello's story:

"I bought this place two years ago, and began fixing it up. We had a grade given us from the street in front (Kawaiahao). I worked night and day to fix up the garden, planting trees and flowers, and I didn't have much time day times so I used to work until late at night. My lot is now as high as it needs to be, but back of me there is a low lot and the other day they began filling that. The salt water has got under my lot now and all my trees and flowers and garden plants are dying.

"Three years ago they came down here during the campaign against the mosquitoes and cut down all my bananas. I didn't kick much then after they explained that they had to cut them down or we would have yellow fever. Now they are being killed again. Why? Because some fellow next to me has a low lot and won't fill it. My cement floor is all cracked from the water and in a few days my yard will be no good."

And to look at Antone's yard now you will readily believe what he says. That's one of almost countless stories told yesterday afternoon of similar cases. The Star-Bulletin collected three or four typical examples and here they are:

Kulia Kauhane's Case. Kulia Kauhane is an old Hawaiian woman on Kawaiahao street. She says: "I had the house raised three years ago, of my own accord, because I wanted a nice yard and to bring it up level with the street. It cost me $105 and they told me it was all right. I thought so until the water began coming up. Now the yard is full of mud."

Yes, it certainly is full of mud, and Julia wonders why.

Manuel Martin Thinks Law Strange. Manuel Martin, on Kawaiahao street near the corner of Kamaani, thinks the law is a strange thing. He has had his little place six years and by hard work and loving care he developed a veritable garden spot, with a pretty hedge, trees, flowers and garden truck growing nicely. In 1911 he spent $200 filling his property up to grade. He bought rich dirt at $1.25 a load, 100 loads of it—and then paid a man $2 a day to spread it over his lot. Early this year he got a notice that his land was below the new grade as proposed and that he would have to fill it up.

"I didn't have much time, but I got it filled up again before they began pumping water in here," he said through an interpreter, "but you see this land around me—it was low and they filled it up and now the mud and water are ruining my place."

Others, Too. M. M. Almeida, a clerk in an up-town store, lives at 513 Kamaani street. He was not at home yesterday, but neighbors told why his place is looking badly: "Two years ago he brought it up to the grade then fixed and four months ago he filled it up again, in accordance with the new territorial order. The lot next to him is being filled with the material pumped from the sea, and as a result his own yard is spoiled."

Victorine Machado six months ago built three new cottages on Ward and Kawaiahao streets, getting the grade at that time. But, of course, that grade is now too low and so he is threatened with the same thing as has come to the others. Luckily for him, he has no trees to be killed.

Losing Her Pretty Garden. Mrs. Alice Metcalf has perhaps as pretty a place as there is in the whole district, at Kamaani and Kawaiahao streets. Her large lot is above grade and by years of kindly care she has grown many beautiful trees and plants. In order to protect her property from damage, the Lord-Young Company dug a ditch on the Kawaiahao street side to carry away the salt water. But on the other side, toward the city, are low-lying lands and in filling those the salt water has partially inundated her property. She was in tears yesterday at the discovery that a great willow pear tree in the yard is dying and she is trying to resign herself to the thought of losing all of her pretty trees and shrubbery.

And these are only a few of the many cases. "We have tried to do our best, but the people who wouldn't fill their lands with good dirt are making us suffer and the government is damaging us because of them," they say.

What About It? The residents are not agreed on this. Some want the work stopped, but that doesn't look practicable, for the district is largely inundated with the coral mud now and the job should be finished. One suggestion is that the contractors cease pumping in the salt water, since that is doing the damage, but that doesn't look practicable either.

When the city of Honolulu was accused of the danger of yellow fever three years ago and went after the mosquito, banana trees were cut down right and left. It was a sanitary measure, absolutely demanded by the authorities. But the people who lost bananas were recompensed from government funds. Forty thousand dollars was for people with just claims. The people in Kewalo whose property is being damaged through no fault of their own, or because of their dim understanding they failed to do just what the law required, are just as deserving as the majority of those for whose sake the $40,000 was appropriated.

Political Influence Helps. Whether it's wise to indemnify them in this way is a question. It was also a question about the banana claims. In that case the matter got into politics, helped to swing an election, and thus got attention from the legislature—because there were a lot of voters affected. Down in Kewalo a large number of the complainants are voters, too, but in the aggregate they are comparatively few, they have no influence and hardly any way of voicing their claims.

It is because they feel so helpless at the hands of the government and the law that the Star-Bulletin thinks

KILAUEA SUGAR MEETING HELD IN SAN FRANCISCO

Alameda and Union Also in Session in Bay City—G. L. Payne Succeeds Irwin

(By Latest Mail) SAN FRANCISCO — At the annual meeting of the stockholders and the subsequent meeting of the directors of the Kilauea Sugar Plantation Company, the following directors and officers were elected: A. B. Spreckels, president; John D. Spreckels, vice-president; W. E. K. Gibson, treasurer; W. H. Thompson, secretary, and John D. Spreckels, Jr. The net proceeds from 5,424 1/2 tons of sugar at $7.53 per ton was $412,124.77. Assessments Nos. 6 and 7 produced $290,000, and other income brought the total receipts of the year 1913 to $512,943.59. The total expenses of the year, plus betterments, were $388,671.25, and plantation supplies and advances bring the total expended during 1913 to $299,012.32. The remainder, $113,931.27, was applied to the reduction of the overdraft. An overdraft of only $105,701.44 remained on December 31, 1913, after this payment.

Secretary Thomas has prepared the following table to show precisely how the new tariff has affected the sugar industry in dollars and cents:

Duty (foreign)—Present tariff, per lb. 1.685c; per ton, $33.70; tariff, Mar. 1, 1914, per lb. 1.256c; per ton, $25.12; 1.004c; per ton, $20.09. Reduction per lb. .429c; per ton, $8.58.

No financial statement was issued, but it is understood that the company has a considerable floating debt which will be discharged from the proceeds of another assessment soon to be levied on the stock. It has been decided not to operate the Alvarado plant and all the lands are under lease. It is said that the proceeds of these leases will take care of the $35,000 annual charges and leave a profit for the stock.

Moffitt, Charles H. Crocker, A. Haas, L. Harris. The directors elected P. C. Drescher president, E. R. Lillenthal 1st vice-president and Charles Sutro 2d vice-president.

It was decided to continue to operate the plant of the company for another year, until it can be determined how operations will result under the present price of sugar.

PAYNE SUCCEEDS IRWIN. At the annual stockholders' meeting of the Honolulu Plantation Company, held yesterday, George L. Payne was elected to fill the vacancy in the directorate created by the death of William G. Irwin. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: J. A. SUPERVISORS MAKE TEST WITH DIMMED HEADLIGHTS

Meeting to pass on the remaining section of the new traffic ordinance—the section relating to dimming headlights of automobiles—the supervisors conducted experiments with lights and their dimmers at Kakaako, last evening. E. E. Bodge of the von Hamming-Young Company made the demonstrations for the supervisors, using 21 candle power electric lights subdued by colored lenses. As far as the experiments with lights of this power go the tests were satisfactory. But it remains for tests of lights of other powers to be experimented with. This is to be done before the new proposed ordinance is introduced for passage. The other sections in it are all agreed upon.

BIRTHS

LIVINGSTON — In this city, March 7, 1914, to Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Livingston, a daughter.

it worth while to draw the attention of the people of Honolulu to their misfortune. To them the damage to their property is more serious than almost anything else in the world just now. Civic improvement is a good thing for the city, particularly the people up above King street who some day may want to take a sightseeing tour—by auto, of course—through Kewalo. But to the people of Kewalo it seems to work out in strange and unfair ways.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

The College Club will hold a meeting next Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Pleasanton. It is to be a musicale.

Bids will be opened in the office of the superintendent of public works at noon March 18 for furnishing and supplying material for the Makiki Heights road.

The members of Schofield Lodge, U. D. F. and A. M., will meet at their quarters at Leilehua at 7:30 o'clock this evening. There will be work in the second degree.

The members of the social club of the Young Men's Christian Association, entertained their ladies with a program of "stunts" in Cooke hall last night. After a session in the games hall, those present made strenuous use of the billiard tables. Refreshments were served in the music room.

An enjoyable time was spent at the M. E. church last night, when a burlesque debate, "Suffragettes vs. Mere Men," was staged with Jeff McCarrn in the role of judge. Those participating were J. Martin, as Mrs. Pankhurst; J. Hicks, as Miss Sylvia Pankhurst; Harry Trent as Mrs. Belmont, and D. T. Bblue, as Miss Lockwood. The "Mere Men" included J. McTaggard, E. A. Cooper, E. Tracy, P. Toah and E. B. Keefe, while J. Milton and R. A. Robbins essayed the role of constables and were kept busy keeping the suffragettes in the path of law and order.

Seeking to cancel a 3-year lease to George Chrones on the property just mauka of the Clarion clothing store on Fort street, which has been condemned by the building inspector and is now undergoing extensive improvement, Hugh and Dan McCriston have brought an action in circuit court, and yesterday succeeded in obtaining a temporary injunction from Judge Robinson which restrains Chrones and C. H. Merriam, assistant registrar in the court of land registration, from completing the registration of the lease. It is claimed the owners gave the lease December 1 last on the condition that if at any time the building should be destroyed or condemned by the sanitary inspector the lease should cease without prejudice to either party.

In an attempt to rescue his hat, Chin Lan, a Chinese, is reported to the police to have leaped from Rapid Transit car No. 19 as the vehicle was proceeding along King street yesterday afternoon. The man was taken to the hospital suffering from a deep cut on the back of the head.

When Rapid Transit car No. 47 failed to stop at the instant that Antone Pretel pressed an electric button, he is alleged to have jumped from the moving coach, falling to the ground near the Kalia terminal, and suffered a severe gash over the right eye. He was taken to the hospital for treatment.

Joseph Soares is an inmate of the Queen's hospital as a result of a fall from a carriage, drawn by a horse that is declared to have become frightened in passing along a highway leading into Palolo valley. The animal dashed into a ditch, throwing Soares to the ground, where he received three severe cuts about the head.

Johnson Dean attempted to take a short cut in returning to the business district by crossing Nuuanu river by the Rapid Transit railway bridge. In his haste to avoid meeting an electric car, he is reported to have missed his footing on the ties, and falling, suffered a sprained ankle. He was taken to the hospital for treatment. Dean belongs to Company 705 C. A. C.

James E. Perry, Albert R. Duff, W. H. Fitzgerald and M. C. Fikes were reported to the police to have attempted to enter the premises of several Porto Rican families living along Weller's lane, Palama, last night. A riot call brought several officers to the scene who took charge of the quartet and brought them to the police station where they were held for investigation. It is stated that the men were under the influence of liquor.

Mounted Police Officers J. F. Butler and L. C. Kealoha, who have been identified with the department for a number of years, were today called before Sheriff William Jarrett to face charges of conduct unbecoming officers. Pending an investigation of a series of complaints filed against the men, the sheriff ordered the suspension of Butler and Kealoha. Incidents that are alleged to have led up to the trouble occurred Wednesday evening.

Despite the statement made before District Magistrate Monsarrat by Charles Pringle this morning that he had been threatened with bodily harm by Samuel Stone, who bears a commission as a special police officer, Stone was discharged from custody with a reprimand. Pringle alleged that while he was seated in a carriage returning to his home in Palolo valley, he was accosted by Stone, who used insulting language, coupled with threats, Stone alleging that Pringle failed to observe the existing ordinances by driving at night without proper lights attached to the vehicle.

The Matson Navigation steamer Matsonia, sailing at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, will carry the next mail to the coast.

FINE STRAWBERRIES IN MARKET, GROWN ON THE BIG ISLAND

One man at least in Hawaii has demonstrated that there is good money in growing strawberries here, and also that they can be grown as successfully in the islands as on the mainland.

This grower is G. Kratzschmar, and his berry patch is at Olat, a few miles out from Hilo. This morning's Mauna Kea brought to the territorial marketing division two cases of very fine looking berries, which manager Longley states he has no trouble in disposing of at 25 cents a quart. For some time past this grower has been shipping berries down to Honolulu twice a week. They come in the refrigerator room of the Mauna Kea, and look as though freshly picked when they get here.

According to Mr. Longley who has visited Mr. Kratzschmar's place, this small farmer has at present about two acres planted to berries, and is planning about to double this area. He said that only a small part of the berries grown by Mr. Kratzschmar are shipped to Honolulu, inasmuch as there is a heavy demand for them in Hilo. It is probable that there are many favorable locations in the territory for strawberry culture than in Olat, thinks Mr. Longley, as the expense of this district sometimes makes it difficult to prevent the fruit from moulding before it can be marketed. As yet, however, there is no other person in the islands growing this delicious fruit on a commercial scale.

Strawberries cannot be successfully imported from the coast, as they do not stand the long trip, even with refrigeration.

THE FLORAL PARADE—ITS FUTURE

The Floral Parade as a part of Hawaii's annual Mid-Pacific Carnival is losing its hold on popular interest.

It is no spirit of "knocking" which prompts this statement. The statement has been heard very widely in the last two or three years. It does not mean that the Floral Parades have not been successful. But they have been successful only through increasingly exhausting efforts on the part of the director-general and his special committees in charge of this feature.

Last month the Floral Parade was a triumph of no small size for James S. McCandless and his assistants. They found, as every Floral Parade committee in recent years has found, a strange apathy on the part of ninety per cent of the auto-owners of Honolulu, an apathy that prevented a large entry list of decorated cars, an indifference that took the hardest kind of intelligent and persistent effort to overcome.

The truth is that repetition year after year of this feature is beginning to wear out its welcome. The public-spirited people who have decorated constantly deserve all praise, but it is not to be wondered if, on the part of local autoists at least, the event is losing its novelty and largely its attraction.

What can be substituted for the Floral Parade?

The Star-Bulletin suggests serious consideration of the idea of an historical pageant. For such a pageant there is a marvellous wealth of material upon which to draw, a strikingly interesting, coherent plan to carry out.

In California, Oregon and other states such processions have been tried with remarkable success. They are interesting alike to the old-timer and the newcomer. They are spectacular and instructive, picturesque and educational.

Hawaii could furnish forth a pageant of intense interest and permanent value to the people of the territory. Beginning with the olden times, before the coming of the first white man, the history of the islands would be made to pass before the spectators in a series of life-pictures of historic significance and accuracy. All the romance, all the primeval custom and tradition, all the development of Hawaii since the dim dawn of song and story would be graphically illustrated in a long procession representing the generations and centuries of growth and achievement. From the days when each island warred against every other, from the time of the first and the great Kamehameha, the story of Hawaii would be brought down year by year to 1915. The coming of the first white men, the arrival of the missionaries with the resultant annals of heroic effort in an isolated country, the era of the whaling fleet, the revolutions, the republic, the territory, and the various subdivisions of period and of industrial and social evolution—all these in vivid human pictures.

The possibilities are limitless. The procession could be made large or small, elaborate or simple—the material is at hand for any degree of effort.

There is no reason why such a pageant would interfere with the annual Hawaiian spectacle which in two years has won the right to be recognized as a fixture on the Carnival program. The Hawaiian spectacle is the development of some single striking episode in history, some tradition or story that lends itself happily to reproduction in the form practically of pantomime. An historical pageant would not detract from the interest of the annual spectacle.

Such a pageant would need considerable advance preparation and if determined upon should be begun several months before the Carnival. It is suggested that the schools of the territory should be given a prominent part in the preliminary work and in putting on the pageant for the great educational value to the school-children of such an undertaking.

THE NEW CHINA

An authoritative and important statement on conditions in China is that given today through an interview with Dr. Anos P. Wilder, late consul-general at Shanghai. By training and experience Dr. Wilder is preeminently qualified to speak of men and events in the young republic whose development is a matter of international interest. He sums up his statements with a note of strong optimism as to the future of China. What he says as to the possibility of another insurrection is particularly interesting to Hawaii, where drift many rumors from the Orient. It is noticeable also that he relies upon the influence of education, Christianity, an awakening and strengthening public press, and the stanch qualities of the Chinese themselves to mould a greater future for this potentially great country.

The Star-Bulletin counts itself fortunate in being able to present to the public Dr. Wilder's views as they are briefly expressed today.

WHITE SLAVE LAW UPHELD

The supreme court of the United States has made a decision on the "white slave" act that is of peculiar interest to Hawaii at this time. An Associated Press report gives the particulars as follows:

Washington, Feb. 24. — The constitutionality of the federal white slave law was again upheld today by the United States supreme court in the Wilson case from Chicago. The point whether the law is limited to commercial vice was not involved. Zoe and Charles Wilson, alias Willard, were found guilty December 16, 1911, in the United States district court here of transporting Flossie Bion and Frances Vance from Milwaukee to Chicago for immoral purposes. The Wilsons were sentenced to three years' penal servitude each. The case was fought on appeal up to the United States supreme court.

THE BENEFICIARIES

Dispatches from New York show that several sugar refineries have opened since March 1, when the first reduction in sugar tariff went into effect. The refiners know perfectly well the benefits they stand to derive under reduced rates and under free sugar and after a while some of the Washington statesmen will begin to realize that the refiners are the real beneficiaries of the Democratic tariff legislation. There is no question but that their sugar will be cheaper, but that isn't going to help the Common People—not so you can notice it.

Hilo correspondence says that the Gronna bill, for prohibition in Hawaii, is not meeting with a great deal of support in Congress. Ex-governor Frear was among those who appeared before the committee on Pacific islands and Porto Rico, and, according to the report from Hilo, which is probably based on a letter from Jack Desha, the former governor intimated that he favored allowing the voters of the territory to regulate island liquor problems. It is said to be the prevailing opinion in Washington that the matter should be left to home rule. This is slightly at variance with the correspondence of this paper from Washington, which is to the effect that Senator Shafroth, chairman of the committee, wishes to get the view of Governor Pinkham on the liquor question and that the governor will have virtually a determining voice so far as the report of the committee is concerned.

Let's hope some of the Democratic senators do make Hawaii a visit within a short time. They'll find that not all of us are equipped with horns and tail; there are a few people who are not sugar barons and a lot of people whose livelihood and prosperity depend upon a decent measure of protection for the chief industry.

A commission has been appointed by Carranza to investigate Benton's death. This looks like a plan to head off American inquiry as far as possible and is a comfortable way of disposing of the matter.

If that special committee over in Hawaii county can't agree to the report on the Hilo graft commission, there ought to be a committee to probe the committee named to probe the probes.

Glad to hear that the British press is now praising Mr. Wilson. This time his stand involves a matter of dollars and cents instead merely of lives.

Ready letter-writers should join the Democratic party, as its present membership is fast succumbing to writer's cramp.

For half a million dollars Villa ought to be able to get Huerta, Diaz, Zapata, Orozco and a dozen or so others.

The nomination of a Maui postmaster shows that at least part of the political Paia is being cut.

So far as Hawaii is concerned, "canal tolls" is perfectly correct—in the funeral sense.

Old Doc's Talk

LITTLE SISTER

I doubt, my son, if a boy ever realizes the worth of a sister younger than he is! She may be sweet and kissable, but she's often in the way, tags when boys are talking grown-up things, and wants to go camping every trip. Besides, dad and mother, give in too much to her, my boy, don't they?

She's such a tiny lass, they feel that the rules they enforced in regard to you should not hold for Sis. Then she's a girl for whom there are exemptions. And, my son, you suffer reproach on her account very often. "Don't be rude to little Sister," they say. "Take pains and show her." "Help her out with that kite, won't you?"

Yes, my son, a small sister's a nuisance for a boy of 18 who has things to do. She's only 10, what does she know about anything anyhow? Doll's dresses and baby-girl talk!

But she is loving, my boy, sweet and gentle. After all, home would be worse than it is a good deal without her. When she goes for a day the place seems like a deserted camp. What would it be if little sister never came back?

Tripping along with a skip and a jump; singing merrily like a bird; reading some of her stories or "poems"; reciting "Break, Break, Break" or "The Lamplighter"—no wonder dad calls her his "singing bird."

And, my son, as you grow older and appreciate real things more, little sister's value will increase. She'll become a necessity to you as she is to dad, a sort of divine presence.

And when your boy-friend says to you, "Ge! Jack, you're in luck to have a sister! Wish I'd one," you'll begin to think she is something besides a hindrance to you.

There's nothing like the value others place upon our possessions, my son, to give them credit in our own eyes.

Then some day, some day, when the right fellow comes along, and sister has become a young lady, he will claim her, much to your indignation, perhaps. Your little nuisance, my son, is wanted elsewhere, and after a while with the consent of all parties concerned, she goes to make somebody else happy. Home is never the same place, laddie, after she leaves it. But you'll begin to appreciate her then as you never did, my boy, bet your best necktie. She will loom up big in your horizon, not a star, but the sun itself.

Little Sister, dear little sister, be gentle to her, my boy; guard her now.

Letters OF TIMELY TOPICS

THANKS FROM KING'S DAUGHTERS

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin. Sir:—The officers and members of the King's Daughters Circle wish to thank the newspapers, the business houses, the Carnival committee, and the general public for their hearty cooperation in the recent efforts to raise funds for the Old Folks' Home. During the Carnival period $1157.55 was taken in through the sale of "Aloha" badges, the King's Daughters' own device, and leis and banners sold for the Carnival decoration committee on a 20-per-cent commission. After paying the decoration committee for about 3000 leis and 250 pennants sold, these energetic ladies were able to add the tidy little sum of $720 to the Circle exchequer. This money, together with all money received, will be used for the brightening of the sunset days of some of Honolulu's aged, who, but for the loving ministries of such a home as that provided by the King's Daughters, might know unhappiness and suffering. Inasmuch as this splendid work can be carried on only through the generous assistance of the public, it is only meet that thanks should be extended to all; and the King's Daughters do most sincerely thank everyone who had a part in their recent Carnival enterprise.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—TOM SHARP: The K. of P. golden jubilee celebration of tonight commences at 7 o'clock sharp and it is hoped that everyone will be on time.

—GEORGE LOWE (statistician road department): Any $60 per month clerk who can write a letter, and get the ear of the U. S. government, ought to have his pay raised to $250 per month.

—JEFF McCARN: It is not true that I am going back to Nashville to sell old Rose, the spotted cow. At least, that is not the primary purpose of my intended trip.

—JUDGE A. S. HUMPHREYS: And speaking of personal representatives, can it be possible that Soapbox Barron is going to Washington as the personal representative of the Bourbon party in Hawaii?

—WM. FOSTER (harbormaster): A number of people have become decidedly mixed in making inquiry concerning the British steamer Blister. They persist in referring to the vessel as the Bill Foster.

—A. E. LARIMER: I see by the morning paper that soon I am to leave for the mainland to deliver a series of lectures. Nothing doing. They have got my name mixed up with that of some other "Y" secretary.

—JAMES STEINER: I appreciate the new way the Star-Bulletin is now delivered by the carriers to out of town subscribers. The outside cover protects the paper from the wet lawn or muddy walk; besides the paper unrolls neat and straight. A decided change and contrast against the old bulged-up and twisted out of shape bundle of news that the carriers used to throw out.

—P. C. BEAMER (enterprising merchant of Hilo): The papers of Honolulu never made such a big mistake in their existence as when they published the birth of a girl baby in my immediate family. It was a boy. Some boy at that, and the picture of his daddy.

—A. L. C. ATKINSON: I have been besieged by a host of applicants for a bid to a big "bull-moose" luau, but for the present I have not decided upon the date. I am told that Atkinson park would prove an ideal place for the feast, which, when given, will be open only to those who apply to me in person for tickets. Three bullocks and four-score of pigs ought to be sufficient to feed the multitude. In the meantime the enrollment of Progressives moves along at a swift pace, especially along the waterfront.

MAUI CHURCH NOTES.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] WAILUKU, Maui, Mar. 6.—Word was received this week from Rev. Howard Harris, the new pastor of the Kahului church, that he and his wife will sail from San Francisco on the Manoa, which arrives in Honolulu on the 24th. Rev. and Mrs. Harris will probably come to Maui on the same boat, and he is expected to preach his first sermon at Kahului the last Sunday of the month. The Kahului church and people of the town are eagerly awaiting the arrival of the new pastor and his wife. All Maui will give the newcomers a most hearty welcome.

At the Wailuku Union church careful preparations are being made for an organ recital on Good Friday. The music will all be appropriate to the day. The church choir assisted by a few other voices will render "The Seven Last Words." The organ music and solo by Mrs. Jones will be in keeping with the occasion.

On April 18th the operetta "Little Red Riding Hood" will be presented by children under the direction of Mrs. Louise Chisholm Jones and the church choir of the Wailuku Union church. The practice for this presentation is going well, and the evening is being greatly anticipated by all who know the work, and Mrs. Jones' skill in amateur work on the stage.

into the discussion, it came to light that there have been many similar complaints from local people, who say that, aside from not being familiar with the many local points of interest, the taxicab drivers have but little knowledge of the English language. After much discussion, the promotionists appointed Albert Waterhouse a committee of one to take up the matter with the supervisors, with a view to having inserted in the present traffic ordinance a clause setting forth that the applicants for a driver's license—meaning a driver in the rent service—have a thorough knowledge of the English language.

It was reported that the committee has offered to furnish a number of slides to C. F. Loomis, secretary of the boys' department of the Y. M. C. A., who soon is to leave Honolulu for a tour of the states. Mr. Loomis intends delivering a series of lectures on the subject "Boy Life in Honolulu" during his absence, and will speak in such cities as Vancouver, Portland, Seattle, Chicago, Cleveland, Dayton, St. Louis, Kansas City, Los Angeles and San Francisco. A. L. Castle reported that he will endeavor to induce the Harvard Clubs of the United States to extend to Honolulu the trip which they are planning to make to San Francisco in 1915. Mr. Castle probably will go to San Francisco upon the arrival there of the party, in order to personally press his point.

OVER-NIGHT ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS

ROB PAYMASTER AND ESCAPE IN AUTO
 ST. LOUIS. — Two robbers, armed with revolvers and with their features hidden by masks, held up John Lucas, paymaster of the Brown Shoe Company, in daylight on the street here yesterday, robbed the paymaster of $14,000 which he carried in sacks in his automobile and then made their escape in the machine. The money was the payroll for the employees of the shoe company plant for the month and had been procured a few minutes before the robbery by Lucas from a bank. He drove quickly to the plant, but almost at the doors was halted by the two masked men, who compelled Lucas and his driver to descend the car while they mounted to the driver's seat and rode rapidly away. While no news as to the identity of the robbers has been obtained, it is believed they knew the custom of Lucas in obtaining the pay money from the bank and bringing with it to the shoe company plant.

THREATEN NAKED PARADES.
 ELSON, B. C. — The Doukhobor colony here, numbering about 6000 souls, yesterday sent a letter to the official governor, threatening to parade the streets of every city in British Columbia naked if the government attempts to enforce the law requiring the registration of births and deaths. The naked parade has been the favorite weapon of the Doukhobors since their coming to this country at the instance of Count Leo Tolstoy, and they have attempted to do it on several occasions, notably in Winnipeg, but have always been prevented in purpose by the police authorities. The refusal to register births or deaths comes from the refusal to depart from that section of the Doukhobor creed which forbids taking an oath. The police anticipate that they will be able to cope with the situation if the Doukhobors refuse to carry out their threat. The Doukhobors have been settling in western Canada for about 15 years and have grown strong in numbers.

MOVING THE UNEMPLOYED.
 SAN FRANCISCO. — The little town of Benicia has taken steps to rid itself of the small army of unemployed that has been encamped within its town confines for some time by transporting 1376 of the idle men to Sacramento yesterday, hiring special trains for the purpose and paying full fares for the men. Residents of Benicia say it is now up to the state capital to relay the men on to Ogden, Utah, where the men say they want to go.

OFFICIALS CHARGED WITH FRAUD
 ST. LOUIS. — Thirteen present and former officers of St. Louis county were accused of unlawfully appropriating $55,000 of the funds of the county and state in a report by State Auditor Gordon made public here yesterday. Auditor Gordon declares that the frauds have been practised since 1907. The charges created a great sensation as some of the best known and most popular officials of the county are involved.

 WASHINGTON, D. Fortunes In Food Products

The fortunes that have been made, the dividends paid and now being paid to the owners of food products and food product specialties would surprise the average mortal because of the lack of knowledge on his part regarding the very profitable nature of the business.

A few packages of a product sold monthly through only half of the grocery stores in America yields a profit to the owners little understood by the layman. Such a sale spells large and permanent profits to the shareholders.

"Grant's Hygienic Crackers" have been introduced on the Pacific Coast only and a profit-showing, dividend-paying business developed.

Although no effort has been made to sell goods in Honolulu several grocers already carry the crackers in stock and have been selling them for two years or more.

The manufacturers are now preparing for an active campaign in the East and to provide additional funds for the work have authorized the sale of $50,000 worth of six per cent Gold Notes with which we are temporarily giving a bonus of 25 per cent in the fully paid stock of the company.

The nature of the business is such that tariff changes, currency disturbance, labor troubles, hard times, etc., have no effect on the sale of the product.

The Gold Notes are sold in denominations of $100, upward, and a bonus of 25 shares of stock is given with each $100 worth sold. The company has been on a profit-showing basis for 50 months and with $50,000 additional money the profits for 1914 will be large.

The company is a going, growing enterprise having the emphatic endorsement of its home commercial bodies. It owns its real estate, plant and equipment free of debt. No floating indebtedness. No money due any bank. No borrowed capital. No large salaries to pay. No preferred stock.

The Gold Notes yield 6 per cent interest payable semi-annually, dating from day of issue. The bonus stock is the common stock and should, within five years, pay from $1. to $3. per share annually.

So safe and carefully managed is the enterprise that applications for the Gold Notes will be accepted by the

SOCIETY

(Main society section pages 12 and 13)

Society Personals

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the concert given by Mrs. Bruce McV. Mackail at the Odd Fellows' hall on Tuesday evening. Mrs. A. G. M. Robertson was the central figure of the evening, the concert really being in the nature of a debut for her. Her charming soprano voice proved a delightful surprise to those who had not already heard her, possessing, as it does, the qualities of sweetness and sympathy combined with rare power. The most pretentious of her numbers was a selection from "Mignon," enthusiastically appreciated by the several hundred or more society folk who made up the audience. A delightful number on the program was the violin solo by Mr. W. A. Love, accompanied by Mrs. D. H. Hitchcock. Baskets of flowers, leis and floral offerings of all kinds were sent in profusion to the performers, converting the stage into a veritable bower. At the conclusion of the concert, a number of suppers were given at the Rathskellar and University Club.

Among those to sail on the Matsonia next week are Mrs. C. B. Ripley of this city and her daughter, Miss Iwanali Ripley, who leave for San Francisco to spend several weeks visiting and shopping in that city before the marriage of the latter. This, by the way, will occur on April 18, her fiancé, Mr. Carl Edward Basler of Salt Lake City, coming to San Francisco to claim his bride. The wedding will be a quiet affair. Mrs. Robert O'Neil, a school mate of the bride's, will be matron of honor and Mr. Albert Roller, formerly of Honolulu, best man. The wedding trip will be through southern California and Colorado, visiting the Grand Canyon en route. After their honeymoon the young couple will make their home in Salt Lake City where Mr. Basler has business interests. Mrs. Ripley will remain several months in California before rejoining her husband in Honolulu.

The service set is lamenting deeply the departure tomorrow of Major and Mrs. Peter Marquart, who go to their new post in San Francisco. Major Marquart has been with the 2d Infantry for 24 years, and his detail to another regiment is naturally keenly regretted by everyone. Prior to their departure on tomorrow's transport, they are being extensively feted. Among those who gave dinners in their honor were Capt. and Mrs. A. Harris, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Demmer, Lieut. and Mrs. Frederick Cook and Lieut. and Mrs. A. Booth. A large reception was given for them on Tuesday by Capt. and Mrs. Robert McCleave and Capt. and Mrs. James E. Bell.

Mrs. William F. Hellbron was hostess at a most charmingly appointed luncheon at the Young Hotel, Thursday last. Her guests were Mrs. Buchly, Mrs. Dodge, and Miss Grace Layman, the latter a social favorite of the bay cities, who has been spending several weeks at the Moana hotel.

Miss Layman is a sister of Mrs. Henry Hellbron, Jr., of Sacramento, who will be remembered as Miss Hazel Layman.

The Hellbron families are among the best known people socially and financially in the state.

Mrs. Montgomery Macomb was the guest of honor at an attractive luncheon given yesterday by Mrs. William Wooten. Mrs. Macomb leaves next month for Washington, D. C. and prior to her departure, is being extensively entertained. Mrs. Wooten by the way leaves on the transport next week for a three or four months tour of China and Japan and the Philippines.

The officers of the 2d Infantry gave an enjoyable stag dinner on Tuesday evening at the Young Hotel, the occasion being the annual banquet of the regiment. Red, the infantry color, was introduced in the table decorations in the spicy red carnations which formed the centerpiece.

Mrs. John McClellan was the motif for a charmingly informal luncheon yesterday given by Mrs. Marnie Phillips at her home on Kewalo street. Bridge followed the dainty repast, interesting games of auction occupying the afternoon. Covers were laid for twelve.

Miss Ethel Bishop entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday night at the Courtland for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Cartwright, Miss Helen Girvin, Mr. Harry Hoffman and Mrs. Bishop. Yellow chrysanthemums made a very attractive centerpiece for the table.

The marriage of Mr. Edward C. Perry of Honolulu to Miss Helen E. Chase of New Haven, Conn., will take place on the 28th of this month at the home of the bride's parents in New Haven.

The Honolulu choral society will hold their concert the week after Easter. This is an event which is being greatly anticipated by music lovers on the island.

Miss Merced Walton, who has spent the past few months in Honolulu as the guest of Miss Sybil Robertson, returned to her home in California on the Sierra.

Captain and Mrs. Warren T. Hanum entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Col. and Mrs. T. H. Rees and their daughter, Miss Helen Rees. After dinner the party attended the officers' hop at Fort Shafter.

Among the prominent mainlanders who are visiting in Honolulu now are

Mrs. E. W. Hills of Washington, Mrs. Kitchings and her son of New York and Mrs. Porter of Spokane. They are being considerably entertained by townspeople, preferring to see Honolulu in that way rather than in the usual tourist fashion.

Mrs. Charles Bon leaves with her children next week for an extended sojourn in Switzerland and the old world.

Mrs. G. F. Humbert, who was operated on Monday for appendicitis, is getting along splendidly, her friends are glad to hear. They are hoping that another week will see her out of the Fort Shafter hospital and ensconced once more in her home at Fort Ruger.

Col. G. K. McGunagle is entertaining at a large dance on Tuesday evening at the Haleiwa hotel.

Miss Lila van Kirk, who has been in Honolulu at the Moana for the past few months, left on the Sierra this morning.

Lieut. Carl A. Hardigg was a dinner host last evening prior to the dance at Fort Shafter, his guests including Capt. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, Miss Mary O'Brien and Miss Helen Alexander.

Miss Ruth Riley who has spent the past few months in Honolulu as the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Riley, sailed on the Sierra this morning for her home in Portland.

Word was received this week of the birth of a little son to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lenore Smith of Boston. Mrs. Smith was formerly Miss Violet Stoeber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wichman.

Mrs. J. A. McCandless entertained at a very pretty tea yesterday afternoon complimentary to her niece, Miss Mary O'Brien, who leaves next month for her home in the states.

Mrs. J. A. Kennedy was hostess at a bridge luncheon on Wednesday at her home on Victoria street. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. Andrew Fuller entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon at her Nuuanu Valley home.

Miss Jessie Smith was hostess for the Manoa Bridge Club this afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. Phillip Frear, on Panahou street.

General Clarence Edwards is spending a week or more at Fort Shafter as the guest of Major H. O. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Love are entertaining this evening at their home at Kahala in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jones of New York.

Miss Margaret Waterhouse will be a passenger on the Matsonia next week for California, where she will spend the summer months.

Mrs. C. P. Morse was hostess on Thursday at an elaborate luncheon at her home in Manoa valley. Covers were laid for 12.

Mrs. C. M. Cooke and her daughter, Miss Alice Cooke, will sail in May for Europe, where they will remain a year or more.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dougherty were dinner hosts at the Country Club on Thursday, covers being laid for sixteen.

Mrs. George Angus entertained informally at tea on Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Agnes Vance of Oakland.

Mrs. Harold Lyon was a bridge hostess yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. B. Hyde of Spokane, Wash.

Captain and Mrs. William Matson entertained informally at dinner on Monday night at the Country Club.

Schofield Society

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, March 6. Mrs. Bullens, mother of Mrs. Beach, entertained at luncheon for Miss McDonald of St. Joseph, Mo., who is visiting Mrs. Douglas McCaskey in the cavalry fort. Other guests were Mesdames Beach, Menoher, Fair, Chitty, Pechet, McCaskey and the Misses Carpenter, Mason, Reichmann and Holcomb.

Major and Mrs. Ralph Harrison also entertained in honor of Miss McDonald on Monday evening, giving an auction party for Colonel and Mrs. Reichmann, Captain and Mrs. Scherer, Captain and Mrs. McCaskey, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gardenhire, Captain and Mrs. Winans, Miss McDonald, Captain and Mrs. Burnett, Mrs. Cheney and Dr. and Mrs. Baker who have recently joined the cavalry garrison from Fort Ruger. Captain and Mrs. Scherer, Mrs. McCaskey and Captain and Mrs. Burnett were the prize winners.

Miss Van Kirk's interesting travelogue on southern Italy on Tuesday evening proved a very successful as well as entertaining evening, as quite a generous sum was realized from the sale of tickets which is to go to the Army Relief Association. Mrs. Beach invited a few friends to her house after the lecture to meet Miss Van Kirk, which informal reception added its quota to a very pleasant evening.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Robert Offley gave a delightful afternoon to a number of auction lovers at her quarters at Castner. About 30 ladies enjoyed her hospitality. The prize winners were Mrs. Welk, who won a silver cold meat fork, Mrs. Kennon, who won an attractive box of stationary, and Mrs. Ladd, who was given the consolation.

Mrs. Holabird with niece, Miss Angus, are visiting Major and Mrs. Cruikshank for a few days. They will be at the Haleiwa hotel for a number of months.

Major and Mrs. Cruikshank will entertain in their honor at Haleiwa on Saturday evening with a moonlight picnic and dance.

Colonel and Mrs. Kennon gave a dinner on Thursday in honor of Colonel McGunagle. Other guests were Colonel and Mrs. Sturgis, Colonel and Mrs. Reichmann, Colonel Atkinson, Colonel and Mrs. Rees, Captain Childs, Lieutenant Watrous, Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Ayers of Honolulu.

Captain and Mrs. James Parker had as guests for dinner on Friday evening, Colonel and Mrs. Menoher, Captain and Mrs. Holbrook and Captain and Mrs. Fair.

On the same afternoon the Cavalry Artillery Auction Club held its meeting with Mrs. O'Shea in the cavalry post. Mrs. Short and Mrs. Baker were elected members.

Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Livingston, mother and aunt of Lieutenant Watrous, have arrived for a visit of some time.

Fort Shafter Society

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] FORT SHAFTER, Mar. 7.—Lieutenant and Mrs. Spencer with their pretty young daughter are recent additions to this garrison. Lieutenant Spencer was promoted to 1st Lieutenant, 2d Infantry, from the 1st Infantry. The quarters question for the Spencers was solved very fortunately by the fact that Major Marquart is leaving the post Sunday and thereby vacates the necessary set of quarters to accommodate the new arrivals. For the present, however, the Spencers are the guests of Captain and Mrs. Ralph B. Lister in Honolulu.

The quarters of Captain and Mrs. Robert McCleave were crowded with the many friends of Major and Mrs. Peter E. Marquart Thursday afternoon from 5 to 6, the occasion being a farewell reception tendered the Marquarts by Captain and Mrs. McCleave and Mrs. Bell. In addition to the hosts and guests of honor, Colonel and Mrs. French assisted in receiving the guests. Mrs. M. J. Lenihan poured tea and Mrs. O'Brien served the ices with the Misses Lenihan and Miss Rosenbaum as assistants. The rooms were decorated with natural flowers in abundance and were most attractive. The regimental orchestra played throughout the afternoon and the list of guests included the entire garrison, with keen interest and much gratification by her friends here, appeared with much success in several numbers. A large chorus added to the effect of the recital.

FALLING HAIR MEANS DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your Hair! Get a 25-cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—anytime—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—advertisement.

COMMITTEE PLANS MORE SPIRITED OBSERVANCE OF KAMEHAMEHA DAY

As the result of resolutions passed at an enthusiastic meeting in the Library of Hawaii last night of representatives of 24 local societies and five city schools, every fraternal organization, including clubs and educational institutions in Honolulu will be urged to join in making the 1914 Kamehameha day, which occurs June 11, a red letter occasion. The resolutions were introduced by Edgar Henriquez, acting in accordance with the sense of a meeting held last week at which time a movement was launched to secure a more spirited observance of the holiday.

The resolution was unanimously adopted and creates, thereby, a body henceforth to be known as the "Kamehameha day celebration committee," consisting of the chairman and secretary of the meeting and the presiding officers of each and every fraternal organization and association in Honolulu which this year will join in the celebration to be held June 11. This committee is vested with power to add to its membership and to formulate plans to successfully carry out the object of the meeting last evening, which, according to the resolution is "to revive the spirit of unanimity of purpose and of aloha, of hospitality and good fellowship that has prevailed and was enjoyed in the past by people of all races in Hawaii." The meeting was presided over by former Senator John C. Lane, Eli J. Crawford acting as secretary.

As guests of honor during the celebration, this year, the resolutions named: Her Majesty Liliuokalani, ex-queen of Hawaii; Prince Jonah Kūhū Kāʻanāʻoole, Hawaii's delegate to Congress; His Excellency L. E. Pinkham, governor of the territory; Hon. Joseph J. Fern, mayor of the city and county of Honolulu; Hon. A. G. M. Robertson, chief justice of the supreme court; Hon. E. A. Knudsen, president of the senate, and Hon. H. L. Holstein, speaker of the house of representatives of the legislature of Hawaii; the commanding general of the United States army in Hawaii, and the admiral of the United States naval station, residing in the territory of Hawaii, and the members of the consular corps located in Honolulu.

There was considerable discussion on the question of suitable events with which to celebrate the day, there being suggestions regarding land and aquatic sports. No decision was reached, the matter to be placed in the hands of a committee to be appointed at an early date. The following societies last night answered the roll call:

Kamehameha lodge, Andrew I. Bright and William Chung Hoon, Jr.; Hui Kaabumano, Miss L. K. Peabody and Mrs. Harry Webb; Hui o na Olui, S. C. Dwight and B. H. Kahalepuna; Hui Owi o na Wahine, Mrs. S. CANNED FRUIT OUTLOOK NOW IS FAVORABLE

As indicating something of the condition of the canned fruit trade and the outlook for the future, the following extracts from the annual report of the California Canneries Company is of general interest to the pineapple industry. It would seem to indicate that the outlook is favorable for a considerable expansion of pineapple sales for the coming year. The California Canneries Company is also interested in the local fruit packing business, its officers being the controlling factor in the Hawaiian Canneries Company which is preparing to erect a large plant in the Kapaia district, island of Kauai. The report says:

"The season of 1913 was an abnormal one in many respects, and generally the fruit-canning season of California was not particularly remunerative to the canners, owing to the fact that the fruit crop was not large and prices for the raw supply ruled comparatively high, and in consequence of the money stringency throughout the world the purchasing generally was on an extremely conservative basis—in fact, on the hand-to-mouth basis. If trade was as active as it had been in previous seasons undoubtedly prices of canned goods would have gone considerably higher, as would also have the prices of raw material.

"While the California Canneries Company made about its average total pack, the total output of the state of California canned fruits was considerably less than in previous seasons. It is estimated that the total falling off in the pack of California for 1913 was about 25 per cent below the previous season. It can, however, be definitely stated that stocks in packers' hands are the lightest known for many years, particularly in apricots, peaches and pears; and the same naturally prevails in the trade centers throughout the world. This would indicate a very heavy demand for 1914."

Officers elected were: Isidor Jacobs, president; Henry Jacobs, vice-president; Frederick W. Jacobs, secretary.

KAHUNA STONE WILL BE SOLD AT AUCTION; HAWAIIANS OMINOUS

Among the interesting relics of ancient Hawaiian days to be sold at auction next Monday morning at ten o'clock at the Waikiki residence of the late E. Kahuna Wilcox are a large number of fine old calabashes, hand-carved, a kahuna stone of antiquity, and a number of kahuna sticks. Mrs. Wilcox was the widow of Luther Wilcox, who had collected many Hawaiian curios and most of those going at auction have been in the family for many years.

Elmer L. Schwarzner, who is going to auction off the curios, was told last week by a Hawaiian woman that if he sold the kahuna stone he would die, but cheerfully faces the prospect and says if there any bidders the kahuna isn't going to worry him. The sale is under the auspices of James P. Morgan Co., Ltd.

The regular monthly meeting of the Kapahulu Improvement Club will be held tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon beginning 3 o'clock, at the residence of Isaac Arca, Campbell avenue near Diamond Head road. All residents and property-owners are invited to attend.

MRS. WINN'S ADVICE TO WOMEN

Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be Restored to Health.

Kansas City, Mo.—"The doctors told me I would never be a mother. Every month the pains were so bad that I could not bear my weight on one foot. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had not finished the first bottle when I felt greatly relieved and I took it until it made me sound and well, and I now have two fine baby girls. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound too highly for what it has done for me. I always speak a word in favor of your medicine to other women who suffer when I have an opportunity."—Mrs. H. T. WINN, 1225 Fremont Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Read What Another Woman says: "Cummer, Ga.—'I tell some suffering woman every day of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it has done for me. I could not eat or sleep, had a bad stomach and was in misery all the time. I could not do my household or walk any distance without suffering great pain. I tried doctors' medicines and different patent medicines but failed to get relief. My husband brought home your Vegetable Compound and in two weeks I could eat anything, could sleep like a healthy baby, and walk a long distance without feeling tired. I can highly recommend your Vegetable Compound to women who suffer as I did, and you are at liberty to use this letter.'"—Mrs. CHARLES BAKER, R. 3, Cumming, Ga.

H. GOODING FIELD ONLY ONE WHO WILL RECEIVE PRAISE, IS REPORT

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

HILO, March 6.—Failing to agree on the tentative report proposed at the first meeting, the county probe committee has not yet submitted the findings of its investigation of the Hawaii commissioners to the supervisors.

Several meetings have been held to consider the draft of the report which was prepared for their approval. The first meeting was held Wednesday evening, but there was some discussion because the report was not courteous enough, it is claimed, and it was not approved. The absence of G. H. Vicars was another reason given for the failure of the committee to agree on the report.

After his return from the volcano district yesterday morning a meeting for the middle of the day was called. This one proved as unsatisfactory as did the former and approval or disapproval of the report was passed to a meeting which was held last night.

Whether the report should censure and accuse the commissioners of extravagance seems to be one of the main points of contention. All are agreed that the committee recommend to the supervisors to not allow payment for services of the commissioners and their assistants performed before the commission came into being.

While all knowledge of the report as it was first framed could only be gained by street talk, as the meetings to consider it were not open to the public, it was learned that there was no probability of a minority and a majority report, it having been decided to postpone making a report to the supervisors until a unanimous decision could be reached. It was generally prophesied during yesterday that an agreement would be reached at the evening session and that the report would be made to the supervisors today.

So far as can be learned the committee will recommend that the supervisors refuse to pay the commissioners for any Sundays or holidays. There will also be a suggestion that the supervisors look to their legal advisors for advice as to the legality of certain acts to which the report will point.

Several items of mileage which, it is thought, were wrongly charged to the witness fee account, is causing some criticism. The report will contain a recommendation to the supervisors that they make an appropriation to employ H. Gooding Field to carry his audit of the county books up to December 31st, 1913, and not to March 31st, as he has contracted to do. As a member of the commission has explained, it is desired to give the county clean account balances up to the beginning of this year.

Field is the only one connected with the commissioners who will come in for any praise from the special committee, it is declared. One of the county committee members was asked if there was anything complimentary in the report for members of the commission.

"Not so far as you can notice," was the answer.

The committeemen are most critical about the minute book of the commissioners, which one of them sarcastically states, "is wonderful for its brevity."

The services at Kaunakapili church tomorrow evening, which begin at 7:30 o'clock, will be conducted by Rev. J. P. Erdman. Instrumental and vocal music will be furnished by the boys' glee club of Kamehameha preparatory school.

A social will be held in the parish house of Central Union church next Thursday evening by the members of the Woman's Society of that congregation. Mrs. W. D. Westervelt is arranging an interesting musical program, and a committee has been appointed to look after the refreshments. Members of the congregation, as well as visitors and strangers in the city, are cordially invited.

HE FOUND IT!

THE STRONGEST NERVE-RESTORER KNOWN

Some men seek for years to find a way to restore their health when it is right at their elbow.

A gentleman wrote us recently that he had tried an infinity of preparations without result before he tried Persian Nerve Essence and one box of our preparation has done him more good than anything else. He says "I am very pleased to inform you that I have taken one box of Persian Nerve Essence, which has done me so much good. I now have a good appetite, sleep perfectly well and feel sufficient energy to do any work, something that I could not obtain with the infinity of preparations that I had before taken; without doubt these tablets are the strongest health restorers up to now known, and will do much good to all sufferers of neurasthenia."

Don't experiment with "the infinity of preparations." At the first indication of nerve troubles try the wonderful oriental properties of Persian Nerve Essence, the strongest nerve restorer known.

Persian Nerve Essence is a dependable remedy for nervous prostration or exhaustion, debility or inactivity of the nerves. It has brought happiness, strength, vigour and vital power to young men prematurely aged and to the middle-aged and old who have suffered from a breakdown of mental and physical vigour.

The action of the oriental properties of Persian Nerve Essence is almost magical; the bright eye, the elastic step, the clear and active brain, the courage, strength and comfort they impart, are almost immediately apparent. Start today to regain your health—to be a complete and perfect man.

One box of Persian Nerve Essence is frequently sufficient; in obstinate cases it may be necessary to take a full treatment of six boxes to obtain the best results. It is absolutely guaranteed that the full treatment of six boxes will produce the most satisfactory results or the money will be refunded. Give Persian Nerve Essence a good fair trial. Don't delay—commence today.

The name of Persian Nerve Essence is now changed to Sensapersa for purposes of registration. The preparation has not been changed in any way, only the name. Sold by all druggists and by The Chambers Drug Co., Ltd.

BONINE MOVIES AT OPERA HOUSE WELL-RECEIVED

To an audience which comfortably filled the Opera House last evening R. K. Bonine presented an excellent motion picture show of typical Hawaiian scenes, depicting the principal and most interesting phases of life in the islands, especially to people from the mainland. Probably of chief interest was the reel showing the crater of Kilauea in action, both by day and by night, with its spouting lava geysers and turbulent waves as restless as the waters of the sea.

Military life at Schofield Barracks, the military parade and the beautiful floats in the recent Mid-Pacific Carnival passed in realistic review, every picture so clear that officers could be easily identified and the names on the floats could be read. The more spectacular events of the military display at Kapiolani Park were seen, such as the daring equestrian feats of the soldiers, the horse batteries in action, and the wall scaling contest.

The historic portion of the Carnival was depicted with great clarity. The "Wooing of Umi and Pilkea" was about as nearly perfect as it could be made. In addition and for good measure the incident of the landing of Kamehameha the Great, as staged at last year's carnival, was flashed on the screen, showing with as much picturesqueness and even greater action than the portrayal of the royal romance.

During intermissions and at many points throughout the performance Ernest Kaal's orchestra discoursed native melodies, making a fitting accompaniment to the pictures. Both the pictures and the music are to be repeated at the Opera House this evening, and undoubtedly will be witnessed by a crowded house.

EMPIRE THEATER

With a series of settings drawn from actual life in the Far Western states, G. W. Anderson, perhaps the most photographed moving picture actor in the United States, is featured in the presentation of a thrilling drama, "The Ranch Feud," one of the most striking stories produced in this city in many months. The picture requires two reels of film to present in its entirety.

Along the line of coming offerings, "Broncio Billy, or the Sheriff Kid," it is stated, will fill the bill at today's afternoon and evening performance at the Empire theater.

A carefully selected program of first run pictures is included for the week-end. "A Mississippi Tragedy" is a new production from one of the best companies on the mainland. "A Daylight Burglar" is a playlet with an absorbing plot.

The management announces an entirely new set of pictures at Ye Liberty theater, which is now devoted exclusively to the presentation of motion pictures.

BIJOU THEATER

Tango dancing, pretty girls, screams of laughter, and a host of catchy musical numbers are included in the week-end bill offered by the Spaulding Musical Comedy Company who are offering "The Bandits of Kilauea," a one-act western spectacle travesty for the last times at the Bijou theater this afternoon and evening.

Under the artistic touch of A. J. (Buck) Theall, one of the prettiest and most realistic sets of scenery ever prepared for a musical comedy sketch in the city is presented in the background which faithfully depicts the crater of Kilauea in active eruption. There are few details lacking to carry the spectator to the fiery pit. The musical numbers in "The Ban-

Packard Trucks are an asset. They are an investment, not a speculation.

Packard truck prices are the fair prices which will insure the quality you want, the service you must have and the stability necessary to protect your investment.

Packard maximum service qualities are your protection against the abnormal repair expense incident to the upkeep of so-termed "bargain trucks,"

George B. Curtis, who recently severed his connection with E. W. Jordan and Company after having served that concern for five years in the capacity of manager, displayed a remarkable degree of Ad Club spirit

Mr. Curtis said that he resigned from the position as manager of the E. W. Jordan Company upon his own initiative, saying that he has experienced nothing but the most friendly relations with the concern. He has made no definite plans for the future, he concluded.

HILO HEARS THAT MAGUIRE IS PARDONED

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, March 6.—Hilo was agog all day Wednesday with what seemed pleasurable excitement to some who had heard a rumor that Charles Maguire had made a second and final confession which promised to implicate prominent people in the Hawaii graft cases. So the rumor said the confession would be more sensational than was the report of the senate holdover committee, made just a year ago, which led to the conviction and sentencing of the former county auditor, now afflicted with an incurable disease.

Some of the rumorologists tried to be poetic or Shakespearean and whispered to friends whom they thought would be interested: "Look Out for the Ideas of March." Frantic rushes were made by some to the newspaper offices to obtain verification of the report, but without success. No one knows what was the source of the story.

Coupled with the rumor was the claim that for the confession Maguire had received a pardon and that he would return to Hilo on the Mauna Kea Thursday. The pardon or parole rumor is the only one that seems to have any basis of fact, it being true that an attempt was made last week to get Maguire released on account of the seriousness of his illness. MILLS SCHOOL TO ATTEND SERVICE AT C.U. CHURCH

Young people of Honolulu will find a program prepared especially for their tastes at Central Union church Sunday, continuing the series of students' evenings which have proved so successful. The Mid-Pacific Institute students will be guests of the evening, and very appropriately their principal, Rev. W. P. Ferguson, Ph.D., D.D., will preside. President A. F. Griffiths of Oahu College will give the address, and as this is the first time President Griffiths has spoken before these gatherings, many will wish to avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing him. The choruses of Mills School and Kawaiahao Seminary will be heard in the following program: Call to worship—"Now the Day is Over"..... Barnby

M. I. P. Chorus Anthem—"In Dreams I've Heard the Seraphs"..... Faure Kawaiahao Chorus Offertory Hymn—"Just for Today"..... Ambrose Kawaiahao Chorus Response—"O Thou Who Kindly Dost Provide"..... Kawaiahao Chorus

MANY OFFICERS WILL LEAVE ON THE TRANSPORT

The army transport Logan is due from Manila at 7:30 this evening, and will come alongside of the dock tonight. The troopship is scheduled to sail at noon Sunday, and when she clears Honolulu harbor a number of popular service people who have been identified with Oahu for several years past will see the last of Diamond Head, probably for a number of years. Major E. J. Timberlake, Mrs. Timberlake and their three children are among those to whom Honoluluans will say goodbye with deep regret. Major Timberlake has been here for almost four years, and under his command Fort Ruger has grown from a desolate spot of red rock and flimsy shacks into one of the crack posts of the army. The Timberlakes have been socially prominent ever since their coming here.

Major and Mrs. Peter E. Marquart, 12th infantry, are also booked for departure. Major Marquart has just been promoted out of the 2d infantry, in which regiment he served as an officer 23 years. The Marquarts will be sadly missed by a large circle of friends.

Other officers and ladies of the local service colony are going to the mainland for short periods of leave, and may be expected back within a few months. Lieutenant Seth W. Schofield, 1st infantry, goes to New York to attend to legal matters connected with the will of his late grandfather, in whose estate the local officer has a considerable interest.

The Logan carries 180 troop passengers from this port, nearly all being discharged soldiers:

Following is the list of passengers from Honolulu:

First cabin—Major E. J. Timberlake, C. A. C., Mrs. Timberlake and three children; Constantine Freaga, J. A. Hill, pay clerk Q. M. C., and Mrs. Hill; Mrs. Florence Demmer, Miss Frances M. Steele, Army Nurse Corps; Major P. E. Marquart, 12th infantry, and Mrs. Marquart; Assistant Civil Engineer Gaylor Church, U. S. N.; Lieutenant E. L. Hoffman, 2d infantry, and mother, Mrs. Hoffman; Lieutenant H. S. Malone 1st infantry; Lieutenant S. W. Schofield, 1st infantry; Mrs. Eleanor Sharp and son, Mrs. Joseph F. Yanda.

Second cabin—Q. M. Sergeant John Wikander and Mrs. Wikander; Sergeant 1st Class C. Herman, hospital corps, Mrs. Herman and son; Mrs. Bertha Owens and son; 1st Sergeant Kolb, 4th Cavalry, and Mrs. Kolb; Mrs. George L. Hyde; Mrs. Bessie Koehler and daughter; 1st Class Sergeant T. E. Hunt, signal corps; Gunner Sergeant J. F. Rath, marine corps.

PALAMA NURSES DO LARGE WORK IN THE SCHOOLS

Public school children to the number of 2377 received 22,825 treatments from the Palama Settlement nurses last month, according to the February report of the nursing department submitted to James A. Rath, headworker of the settlement, yesterday afternoon. The report shows that 995 new cases were handled in the 13 schools visited, six patients having been sent to doctors for treatment and one to a hospital.

The entire report follows: Number of patients, 476; visits, 338; social calls, 2326; patients treated in dispensaries, 353; total treatments, 2124; patients sent to doctors, 35; patients sent to hospitals, 5; recovered, 300; deaths, 4; still under treatment, 4; patients supplied with sick room necessities, 223.

Milk dispensary—Babies under care, 6; quarts of milk dispensed, 81; bottles of milk dispensed, 1244.

Kindergartens—Number of children under care, 299; treatments by nurses, 586; by assistants, 683; homes visited, 26; visits made, 36. School inspection—Schools visited, 13; number of children treated, 2277; new cases, 995; total number of treatments, 22,825; patients sent to doctors, 6; patients sent to hospitals, 1. Tuberculosis report.—Tuberculosis cases, new, 1 (37 old cases); patients at the Pa Ola day camp, 12; patients admitted to the camp during the month, 1; total attendance during the month, 175.

FIVE ADDITIONAL TRUE BILLS IN KEALOHA MATTER

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, March 7.—Returning no indictments against Representative Norman K. Lyman or William Ah Hip, and five more true bills against Supervisor John A. Kealoha, the grand jurors completed their work yesterday afternoon. These will likely be the last of the so-called "graft cases."

In a report returned with their indictments they highly commend Judge Parsons' recommendations for judicial reform and comment critically upon the practice of arming spies, by the police department, one of the indictments being of Kim Ok, a Korean informer, who wounded a countryman in a gambling raid at Honohina in January.

Information gained after the jurors were excused is to the effect that Norman Lyman convinced the investigators that he was not guilty of a criminal offense although perhaps of irregularities in the building of the Twenty-nine mile cottage road. He was called before the jurors and allowed to tell his story, blaming the mix-up over the alleged use of county material on the road contract to the looseness of the county system and intimating that it was done with the knowledge of other county officials as well as Marston Campbell, then superintendent of public works. This Campbell has denied. It is rumored that Lyman was freed of the charge against him by a big majority vote of the twenty-two jurors.

No bill was returned against Ah Hip, it is said, because he was able to assure enough of the jurymen that if he abstracted the ten dollars he was accused of taking from the district court funds it was through the bad system in use, or through forgetfulness. The vote on the Ah Hip case is reported to have been close, but sufficiently in his favor to save him from trial on a charge of embezzlement.

The following are the indictments returned: Braulio Ronquillo, manslaughter; Kurashima Yasuro alias Takahashi, murder first degree; Kim Mo No alias Kim Wnoh, burglary second degree, two bills; Kim Ok, assault and battery with a weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life; B. M. Castro, burglary first degree; Pedro Sanap, manslaughter; Sato Yosaburo, assault and battery with a weapon obviously and imminently dangerous to life; Manuelito Martinez, Ramon Martinez and Julio Reveira, burglary first degree; and five indictments of John Kealoha for forgery. Four other indictments were placed on the secret file and no bill was found against Balbino Moncal.

FEEL HEADACHY, DIZZY, BILIOUS? CLEAN YOUR LIVER! A DIME A BOX

Sick headaches! Always trace them to lazy liver, delayed, fermenting food in the bowels of a sick stomach. Poisonous, constipated matter, gases and bile generated in the bowels, instead of being carried out of the system, is reabsorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, sickening headache.

Cascarets will remove the caused by stimulating the liver, making the bile and constipation poison move on and out of the bowels. One taken tonight straightens you out by morning—a 10-cent box will keep your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and make you feel bright and cheerful for months. Children need Cascarets, too.

IMPORTED EGGS NOT BIG HIT IN LOCAL MARKET

Eggs Cheap Now.

This is the season when the hen is working overtime, and the result is that people who can't afford a nice fresh poached egg or two for breakfast at any other time of the year, are now making up for lost time. Extra island eggs are now dull at 30 cents wholesale, and are retailing at from 35 to 40 cents. Lower grades are bringing correspondingly less, and California eggs were offered this morning at $8 per case of 30 dozen, equivalent to 26 2-3 cents per dozen. These coast eggs were presumably fresh when shipped, but they are brought here in refrigeration. A week ago they were bringing in San Francisco from 19 to 22 cents per dozen. They are not likely to go much lower than this. With the advance in prices on the coast, prices for local eggs may be expected to advance also, since it is imported eggs that now are governing the market.

JUDGE FINES JUDGE FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILO, March 6.—Legal duties or alleged duties, of a district magistrate or grand jurymen are no excuse for not answering a circuit court summons, and if ignored, the jurymen or the magistrate are just as much in contempt of court as any other citizen. At least this is a ruling which can be read into the decision of Judge Parsons when he fined Judge Ferry and A. G. Serrao, a grand jurymen, for contempt of court Wednesday morning. There is a distinction, however, or seems to be, as Ferry was fined fifty dollars while Serrao got off with a fine of $5.

Ferry dramatically noted an appeal which added a bit of humor to the case as there is no appeal from a court's sentence for direct contempt. Shortly after Judge Parsons told Ferry that he must either pay the fine Thursday morning or he would be remanded to the sheriff's care until he did so.

But on Thursday morning while Ferry was attempting to file an application to have the contempt of court decision of the previous day vacated on technical grounds that Judge Parsons had no jurisdiction, he was declared guilty of contempt again for

CRUCIAL GAMES IN BALL SERIES NOW COMING UP

If Oahu Lose Today, Winner of Tomorrow's Game Will Have Clear Lead

Tomorrow's ball game between the All-Service and Asahi teams is probably the crucial one of the Inter-Island series, for victory for the latter will give the Japanese players four straight wins, leaving only the Oahu in the path of a clean sweep.

Lawson will be in the box for the soldiers tomorrow, and in the event of anything going wrong with his delivery, Willis will be available as a reserve.

This afternoon's game between the Puns and Oahu should be a good one to watch, and owing to the closeness of the race, the result will have a great bearing on the winning of the trophy.

INDOOR BALL TO BEGIN SCHEDULE AT 'Y' TONIGHT

The Club Indoor Baseball League which has just been organized at the Y. M. C. A. and begins its schedule this evening, will introduce some new blood into the life of the local indoor diamond.

Tonight's game will bring together the Hitites and XX teams, both of which have been practicing eagerly for the match.

Physical Director Lau has secured S. Bunn and Charles Barbosa for umpires and A. E. Larimer will act as scorer.

OAHU COLLEGE GIVES TEAM GREAT SEND-OFF

With speeches by the different members of the track team and by the coaches, and vigorous cheering all round the Oahu College students gave their track runners a hearty send-off yesterday morning.

Cosch Midkiff was given a rousing welcome when he made his appearance and his speech also pertained to the work that the track meant.

GOING TO TAKE A PLEASANT DIP IN DELAWARE RIVER

Samuel Richards, Jr., the South Boston aquatic star, has accepted the challenge sent him by Charles B. Durburrow of Philadelphia for the amateur long-distance swimming championship.

Richards declared Monday night that he would accept the challenge and that he would waive some of the rights which are his and permit Durburrow to handle the matter in his own way.

In a letter Durburrow announced that he would swim Richards over this course, and named two dates in the latter part of July.

However, as Richards hopes to swim in the New York harbor race, which is scheduled for the latter part of July, he asks that Durburrow agree to swim in the Delaware earlier in the same month.

BLUE RIBBONS DECORATE PREP. SCHOOL STARS

When the youngsters of the prep. gave three cheers for Miss Winne and all the blue ribbons had been presented to the winners by the same teacher, the Punahou Preparatory brought to a close its most successful school track meet held this year.

Track, to the boy of the prep., is about the most interesting and the most important sport that the schools of the grammar league have adopted.

Harold Harvey of the seventh grade left the field with five bright blue ribbons to his credit. Harvey was one of the smallest men running but nevertheless proved his prowess in track events when he won the 50 and 100 yard dashes, broad jump, and was on the winning relay team in class B.

His best performance was in the pole vault when he tied Fred Peterson, of those over a hundred, by clearing 8 ft. 6 in.

"Buzz" Smith was another man who surprised the spectators by his stellar running. It was in the 80-yard race and Peterson had a good thirty yard lead when he was within 200 yards of the finish.

To the winners the presenting of the ribbons was the biggest part of the meet. Miss Winne, one of the teachers of the school, honored the youngsters pinning the ribbons on the winners as they were announced.

FOUGHT ENTIRE NIGHT IN THE EASTERN WOODS

It was 26 years ago today that Ike Weil, "the all-night fighter," defended his title of featherweight champion of the world against George Siddons, "the all-day fighter."

Before he became a pugilist Siddons was a soldier in the United States army, and fought Indians in the wild and woolly West.

Besides Siddons, Joe Grim and Tim Collins were among the fighters who were popularly called "iron men."

The fast traveling ball team of Battery A, 1st Field Artillery, jumped into the first place in the inter-battery league series last Thursday by defeating E Battery by a score of 7 to 5.

Chicago Fighter, Who Whipped M'Carthy, Now After Smith

Jack Heinan, the new candidate for heavyweight fighting honors, is here shown in his training quarters at Jimmy DeForest's camp at Allenhurst, N. J. Heinan, who is hot on the trail of Gunboat Smith, is a remarkably fast man, both on his feet and with his mitts.

EDDIE COLLINS TALKS ON OUTGUSSING THE PITCHER

By EDDIE COLLINS. (Star second baseman of the Philadelphia Athletics). In a previous article I discussed some of the qualities that go to make what is known as a "good hitter."

One was a rifle-like shot of a drive in the third game of the Athletic-Cubs series in 1910. It skipped just once on the damp turf, struck Schulte on the shin, caromed off, and Sheppard relayed the ball in from left field, and the scorers gave the Cub right fielder an error on the play.

Certain situations in the game, such as a man on second and third base, will call for a batter to pursue a different course at bat.

Some twirlers have as complete mastery over their own curve or splitter as they possess over their fast one. A man like Bender is just as liable to hand up a curve when the count is three and two as a fast one.

Let us use Bender as an example. If he only used the judgment at bat that a man like Cobb does he would be the greatest hitter that ever lived. But Frank cannot seem to let the ball get by that is anyway near the plate.

Some one started a rumor around the league that "Bake" was bad on a slow ball. Pitchers tried it, and maybe for a couple of strikes made "Bake" look bad, but when they came back once more it was "good night."

That is why Hank is such a wonderful batter. You can fool him on a certain ball once or twice, but he is liable to knock the next one in the same place a mile. His only weak-ness is one he cannot reach. I believe I have already said that I think

MIDDLEWEIGHTS NOT ALL DUBS, BY ANY MEANS

"Too bad poor old Stanley Ketchel isn't with us to clean up this bunch of middleweights," is a common assertion at almost any boxing club after the staging of a middleweight bout.

In the past year there has been much activity in the ranks of the "middle" boys, until today but half a dozen, at the most, stand out as worthy hustlers for the title.

STAR-BULLETIN'S SUGGESTION NOW WELL SECONDED

Advertiser Also Urges International Swimming Races on June 11

The Advertiser this morning seconded the suggestion originally made by the Star-Bulletin for an international swimming meet on June 11, Kamehameha Day.

"BRING THE SWIMMERS HERE." "The plan to bring the three fastest swimmers in the world—Duke Kahanamoku, Bob Small and A. Wickham—together in Honolulu on Kamehameha Day, June 11, should by all means be carried out."

"It was after the great success of the last Kamehameha Day swimming races that the Star-Bulletin suggested the idea of bringing the coast swimmers here for the Mid-Pacific Carnival contests.

"Home people and tourists alike are aquatic enthusiasts. The big event proposed for June 11 would undoubtedly attract a record-breaking crowd. It would increase an already high interest in this clean sport.

"This morning the Advertiser said on the sporting page: "Forecasting it is the suggestion of the Advertiser that the swimming committee of the A. A. U. bentle themselves to bring together Perry McGillivray from Chicago, Robert Small from San Francisco, Harvey Wickham and W. Longworth from Australia and Duke P. Kahanamoku of Hawaii in a series of races on Kamehameha Day, June 11."

By all means the suggestions should be carried out. The June 11 swimming meet should be the greatest ever pulled off on the Pacific.

Tomorrow morning the P. A. G. Jrs. will play the Ala Jrs. at Athletic park. Both are good teams, and the rivalry between them will make the game a hummer.

On December 3rd, 4th and 5th Buick Motor Cars Dominated and won the 500-Mile New York Reliability Run--Conducted by the Motor Dealers' Contest Association. And the Only Perfect Scores Made by Any Cars. THE $1,985 BUICK SIX made the only perfect score made by a six-cylinder car. THE $1,050 BUICK, the lowest price touring car in the run, made the only other perfect score, defeating all Sixes and Fours of other makes. THE $1,235 BUICK RUNABOUT, made the shortest brake stops (both service and emergency). THE $350 BUICK RUNABOUT made the greatest mileage per gallon gasoline (average 13 miles per gallon for entire run). The five Buick Cars entered in the run averaged 15.77 miles per gallon for the entire 2,575 miles covered. All five Buick Cars made perfect road scores, perfect brake, clutch and gear-set tests. Buick Cars won both the large and small car classes. AN OFFICIAL RUN UNDER RIGID RULES. A WONDERFUL SHOWING, SAYS MAIL. The New York Evening Mail said in part: "Two Buicks capture Reliability Run Test with perfect scores. It was the most strenuous test from the standpoint of a technical examination to which automobiles have ever been subjected in this country. Everything was sealed up tight, so that there was no chance for adjustments or repairs without the knowledge of the observers or the technical committee. The entrants showed praiseworthy courage and confidence in their cars to submit them to such a test. Altogether the cars made a wonderful showing." WHAT THE RUN PROVED. The run was only another official demonstration of the correct design, good material, careful workmanship and economy of Buick Cars. Buick Cars are feared by every entrant in every contest in which they participate. PHENOMENAL DEMAND FOR BUICK CARS. Our business is the largest in our history. We have been behind in filling orders all the Fall, are building 30,000 Buicks for 1914. There will not be enough Buicks to supply the demand. If you wish to own and run one of these popular cars a demonstration now and an order placed will assure you of satisfactory date of delivery. ALL THE WORLD LOVES A WINNER. WEDNESDAY

OF COURSE it stands to reason that any affair given by Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney would be both artistic and beautiful, but the several hundred society folk who attended their silver wedding anniversary on Thursday evening were hardly prepared for the fairyland which greeted them both in the house and in the temporary pavilion erected on the lawn. Words are poor things when it comes to describing the exquisite blossoms and plants, the artful draperies, glistening lights—which, combined with the beautiful gowns of the fair sex, the soft melodies of two bands, made it the most brilliant affair of many years. To the many kamasinas present it brought back the olden days of the monarchy when the hospitality was of the same lavish limitless order. But we must begin at the beginning. In the house there was no set color scheme—silver was combined with all the tints of the rainbow reflected in the silky petals of fairylike blossoms. In the reception room orchids were used entirely. Exquisite French baskets linked with fluffy rainbows of tulle held long sprays of the lavender and white variety. Over the door was quirked a silvered Chinese basket-sifter through the trellis of which crept the larger blossoms of deep mauve. Every nook and cranny was filled with these exotic blooms—white, purple, delicate yellow, speckled, pink in bowls and baskets. One's nostrils were filled with their rare aroma. In the dining room were great bowls of white roses and lilies and superb baskets of maidenhair. American Beauty roses converted the hall into a fragrant pink bowen. They rose in tall pillars—hundreds of them, lifting their perfumed heads through veils of green maidenhair. In the music room were the many baskets of flowers sent in congratulation of the happy event. Such lovely flowers as they were—varieties that we seldom see here in Hawaii. There were beautiful clusters of white hyacinths, baskets of golden jonquils and violets, wonderful bowls of sweet peas and pansies—flowers that are as rare to us as our own tropical blooms are to northern climes. Perhaps the most charming bit of this modern fairyland was the pavilion adjoining the lawn where the younger folk danced. This was done in cherry blossoms and ferns and surrounded by palms. At one corner was the gnarled trunk and wide spreading branches of an old cherry tree heavily laden with pink blossoms. In other parts of the room were further branches augmented with baskets of begonias and misty knots of tulle. In the center were suspended great baskets of maidenhair from which in turn hung gray-green Hawaiian air plants linked with pink and green tulle. Mr. Ernest Parker and Miss Jessie Kennedy were responsible for the beauties of the pavilion while to Mrs. John Walker was the credit of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Tenney received in the drawing room with Mrs. Harriet Bodrero, who had been bridesmaid at their wedding twenty-five years ago, and Mr. E. Paxon Bishop, who had been best man. Mrs. Tenney was exquisitely gowned in white charmeuse over a foundation of shadow lace. The satin draperies were of the new, modish fashion, "hiked up" in back to show the lace at the bottom. There were huge side panniers of white tulle over the lace. The bodice was trimmed with passerette of seed pearls and opals. Mrs. Bodrero wore yellow charmeuse draped over a foundation of gold tulle and made with a single eccentric panner of gold tulle. The waist was of gold lace over yellow tulle. Most distinguished of Mr. and Mrs. Tenney's guests was Her Majesty Queen Liliuokalani, who had also been a guest at the wedding in 1859. She was gowned in rich black lace with beautiful diamond ornaments.

Playing many of the same old-fashioned refrains that it had at the original ceremony was the Royal Hawaiian band. A stringed orchestra played for the dancing. During the evening Miss Nora Swany gave an interpretation of Grieg's Anitra's Dance. Mrs. Elsa Howard playing the accompaniment. Miss Rose Herbert and Mr. Vernon Tenney, who have become experts in the new dance, gave a graceful exhibition of the Maurice tango. Mr. Paul Isenberg sang two songs very charmingly. Toward midnight a delicious supper was served, the guests being served at small tables under a huge marquee on the lawn.

One was impressed with the smartness and elegance of the gowns worn. All of fashion's latest whims and fancies were in evidence—the minaret skirt, the bustle, the apron front, bouffant hips, transparent bodices, medall collars, Bulgarian girlies, mango slippers and the thousand little novelties from Paris which make week by week the most studied of all magazine honors as charming. It was of white Charles B lace hemmed with rhinestones and draped with gold lace and yellow tulle. With it she wore a couple of baby roses in shades of yellow, blue and pink. Mrs. Robert Lewers looked handsome in a gown of black satin with silver embroidery. Miss Lurline Matson was one of the most stunningly gowned of the young er girls. Her costume was of emerald green charmeuse embossed in gold made panner style over an under drupe of coral colored brocade. Over this was a saucy little minaret skirt of black tulle. The bodice was trimmed with rhinestones and fastened at the back with a huge butterfly bow of black tulle. Mrs. C. B. Cooper wore a handsome gown of salmon pink satin embossed in gold and silver and silver bullion and trimmed with the selfsame tone of pink silk tulle. Mrs. John Walker was charmingly dressed in old rose charmeuse, the skirt made with one of these modish puff effects about the waist. Mrs. George Herbert was in yellow with shadow lace. Her daughter, Miss Rose Herbert, wore lavender charmeuse with a minaret skirt of shadow lace coming quite low in back. The bodice was trimmed with lace, and passerette with butterfly bows in front and back of lavender tulle, caught with rhinestone buckles. Mrs. Fred Macfarlane wore one of the Parisian in its combination of blues and black. The skirt was made from the waist to the knee of shaded chiffon from dark to light blue. From the bottom of this came a short draped skirt of black crepe meteor. Over this was a tunic like drupe of black net embroidered in gold bullion. The lower part of the bodice was of blue shaded chiffon covered with gold embroidery. The upper part was of white chiffon veiled with black tulle and trimmed with strings of large black beads. Mrs. Montgomery Macomb wore white satin with garnitures of rose point lace. Mrs. T. H. Petrie was in pale pink with flounces of white lace embroidered with rhinestones and a wide Bulgarian girdele of pink satin. Mrs. J. P. Cooke wore yellow charmeuse with a gold brocade overdress. For a corsage piece she wore a deep yellow rose. Mrs. Faxon Bishop was in white with an overdress of black net embroidered in silver. Miss Alice Hopper was charming in porcelain blue satin with an overdress of black lace. Mrs. C. G. Ballentyne wore a handsome gown of rose pink satin with flounces of black embroidered in silver and large panniers of black tulle. The bodice of pink was veiled with tulle and silver embroidery. Mrs. Gerrit Wilder was charming in yellow brocade with a bodice of shadow lace. Mrs. Arthur Brown was very strikingly gowned in flame colored charmeuse. This had a short overskirt of velvet brocade of the same color edged with fur and coming down in back in a queer little tail-like effect. The bodice was of shadow lace. Miss Violet Makee wore a beautiful gown of white lace over satin with touches of burnt orange velvet. Miss Margaret Peterson was in yellow with shadow lace. Mrs. J. R. Galt wore soft gray crepe meteor with self-toned trimming. Mrs. James McCandless wore a lovely frock of apple green moire with a bodice of cream colored lace. Mrs. Edward Carpenter was striking in a gown of white charmeuse embossed with burnt orange velvet. Mrs. Walter Macfarlane wore pink satin veiled with Alice blue chiffon. Miss Betty Case was in deep yellow satin, the skirt made with two minaret flounces of wide yellow embroidery, the waist of white tulle. Miss Thelma Murphy wore emerald green charmeuse with a minaret skirt of Bulgarian chiffon edged with fur. Mrs. Fritz Henshaw was most attractive in a frock of scarlet chiffon smartly made with lots of little puffs and ruffles. Mrs. Alfred Castle was another being softened with trimmings of point lace. Mrs. Fred Damon was charming in a frock of old rose charmeuse with a bodice of shadow lace. Mrs. M. E. Grossman wore an exquisite frock of filmy white chiffon with lace and rhinestone trimming. Mrs. Walter Dillingham wore white tulle over satin. Mrs. Arthur Rice was in blue with black lace. Miss Mary von Holt wore a charming frock of blue charmeuse with a bodice of shadow lace and a butterfly bow of black tulle.

General and Mrs. Macomb's tea.
 Admiral Huguet and the officers of the French cruiser Montcalm were the motif for a very charming tea on Monday given by General and Mrs. Montgomery Macomb. The affair was a delightful example of tropical entertainment. It was held under the huge banyan tree whose widely outstretched branches shaded the large lawn. Iced drinks, tea, coffee, punch, sandwiches and cake were placed at one's disposal on small tables. The infantry band played at the farther end of the lawn and one chatted and nibbled, listened and laughed and danced, just as the spirit prompted. Mrs. C. B. T. Moore received with Mrs. Macomb. Observed among the guests were Captain and Mrs. Edward Carpenter, General C. R. Edwards, Captain and Mrs. Francis Hinkle, Captain and Mrs. Charles Clark, Colonel W. C. Rafferty, Lieutenant Ellis Lando, Colonel and Mrs. J. B. McDonald, Miss Lila McDonald, Major and Mrs. D. B. Case, Miss Betty Case, Mrs. A. Hocking, E. M. Only the family and intimate friends of the young couple were present at the ceremony and wedding breakfast which followed. Lieutenant and Mrs. Martin will spend their honeymoon on the island. They will be at home after April 1 at Scheidele Barracks, where the former is stationed with his regiment.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren's Anniversary
 A very charming affair took place on Saturday last when Mr. and Mrs. John French and Warren celebrated the fifth anniversary of their marriage or their "wooden wedding." The idea of wood was of course carried out in all the details, even to the invitations which were inscribed on wooden cards. A pretty sentiment was introduced in the various remembrances of the original ceremony which were used—and the music, which was the same on both occasions.

When the guests arrived, the rooms were lighted only by candles—dozens of white tapers in brass sticks being placed about the rooms on plate rails and book shelves. During the evening the tall cathedral candles which were used in the church at the time of the wedding five years ago and are burned for a half hour at each succeeding anniversary were lighted and burned upon an improvised altar decorated with greenery and the white tulle ribbon which had been used to rope off the aisles on the wedding night.

In the living room masses of golden coreopsis combined with maidenhair ferns were used, while the window-edges and buffet in the dining room were banked with waxen petalled begonias in varying tones of pink. In the lanai, where the refreshment table was placed, a color motif in two shades of pink and deep cherry color was carried out, the lights being shaded in red. Brown baskets with pink or red hibiscus blossoms, the handles caught with bows of cherry or pink satin, were hung about the walls and corners. In the center of the table was a large French basket filled with long-stemmed Transvaal daisies and maidenhair ferns and tied with a French bow of deep hibiscus-colored satin. Surrounding this were 12 small baskets filled with maiden hair and begonias shading from white to deep coral color, a small red or pink candle being caught to the handle of each. Crystal candlesticks holding red candles with silken shades of red and pink lighted the table. Bows of pink moire ribbon and sprays of maiden hair laid among the lace doilies on the table, added to the pretty effect. The same color scheme of white, pink and deep red was carried out in the cakes, ices and confections. Appropriate to the event which the affair celebrated, the bon bons and small cakes were all in heart forms, while the ice cream and ices were garnished with small arrows, hearts and red and white Conids, each little love god holding a bridal bouquet. Four-leafed clovers and gilded wishbones were also used as symbols of good luck.

Partners for refreshments were found by comparing the numbers on tiny wooden shoes, each man being told to find his Cinderella by matching the size of her shoe to his. Each guest had been asked to represent a wood bearing tree and many very clever and original representations were made.

Prizes were awarded to those guessing the largest number of trees in this living forest. Mrs. Chester Hunn won the ladies' prize, a carved wood taboret for plants, and Mr. Frank Atherton the men's trophy, a desk pen holder made of wood from the koa tree.

In another guessing contest called "Love Set to Music," the answers given in musical terms, Mrs. Charles G. Heiser won the ladies' prize, a Japanese stencil mounted over yellow satin and framed in wood, for a service tray, while first honor was captured by Dr. Lyon, who was rewarded with a waste basket made from bamboo wood. Mrs. W. A. Bryan and Ernest Clark were given the consolation prizes.

Fruit punch was served throughout the evening from bowls placed in the dining room and lawn, while later light buffet refreshments were passed. The evening closed with informal dancing.

AGGREGATE BUSINESS FOR WEEK IS INCREASE OVER PREVIOUS ONE

The six-day period closing Friday has, in the point of proceeds from stock sales, been far better than the previous period. The proceeds from the stocks sold in that time amounted to $26,395.49, while in the previous week the sum was only $6,565.62.

There were several changes in prices in the six days notably in Fines and Hawaiian Commercial. One hundred and sixty shares of Pines were dealt in. At the opening of the period they sold at 36.50 and 36.62, and from that figure they dropped to 36.25, remaining there during the week.

Hawaiian Commercial first sold at 22.87, rose to 23, then went back to 22.87, for one deal, and settled at 22.75 for the remaining days of the week. Two hundred and five shares changed hands. Oahu lost a fraction. Of the 210 shares disposed of, the first 10 went at 1.25, the balance, in a deal made Friday, at 1.12.

COMMERCIAL ITEMS

The Humuila Sheep Station on Hawaii has been sold by Sam Parker, Jr., to William Williamson, trustee. The consideration is given at $110,000.

The Territorial Marketing Division has outgrown its first home and has now moved to the Red Front store on the northwest corner of Nuuanu and Queen street. It is in charge of A. T. Longley.

Onomea lost a half point. There were 180 shares sold, the first 50 at 18, and the balance at 17.50. Oahu Sugar gained a point over its last sale, which was made more than a week ago. Friday 375 shares went at 15.62. This was the only deal it figured in for the period. One sale of Brewery was made; it brought 19; 20 shares changed hands. One sale of Mutual Telephone was made; it brought 16.75; 49 shares sold.

Another decline was noted this week in sugar quotations showing the New York price of Hawaiian raws to be 3.01. Before this it was 3.0468. The decision of the attorney-general, by which Cubas will enjoy an additional 20 per cent reduction, is given as one of the causes of this drop. Cubas will now be able to reach market with a 20 per cent less tariff charge than any other imported sugar.

There were 1190 shares sold in the period. purchase of the plant of the Independent Steel Company of America from the receivers, with the intention of converting it into a glass brick manufacturing plant. The plant has been idle for two years.

It was announced yesterday that Alfred W. Carter, trustee for the Parker ranch, was the purchaser of the Humuila Sheep Station. The deal was made the middle of the week, but the name of the purchaser withheld temporarily. The price paid for the property was $110,000.

Queensland sugar business is on the boom according to Robert Philp, former premier of the state. There is a record sugar crop—240,000 tons—almost double the production of the previous twelve months in fact, with the aid of what is grown in New South Wales, there will be sufficient for the commonwealth requirements. The territorial land commission has agreed on a new policy in leasing government agricultural land to plantations. By this policy the land is to be let on short terms and at very reasonable rates. Because of the change in the sugar conditions, this change has been felt necessary.

The territorial land commission has agreed on a new policy in leasing government agricultural land to plantations. By this policy the land is to be let on short terms and at very reasonable rates. Because of the change in the sugar conditions, this change has been felt necessary.

Company, which is managed by E. W. Clark & Co., Philadelphia, was to increase the wages of employees and to arrange for the establishment of a cooperative beneficial association.

It became known this week that Libby, McNeill & Libby will erect a new $2,000,000 cannery, to be located at Kailua, at once. Bids for the construction of the cannery will be opened the first part of the week, it is said. It has been rumored for some time that the company planned to extend its pineapple canning operation, but this is the first definite news given out on the subject.

Practically all of annual meeting of the sugar plantations have been held now. Only a few of the smaller plantations are yet to call their meetings. The reports of the companies show the plantations to be in a very good condition, all things considered, and there is a ring of optimism in almost every one of them.

Banks are returning to the treasury $9,000,000 of crop-moving money placed with them last fall. This is about one quarter of the total, due for repayment the middle of this month. No bank is asking extension of time. By end of the week the treasury daily statement will take up the items for the various sub-treasuries.

A beautiful new residence in Nuuanu valley to cost in the neighborhood of $18,000 is to be built by the Annie S. Parke estate. The structure will be three stories high and modern in every way throughout. The plans for the structure with an application for a building permit were filed with the city and county building and plumbing inspector yesterday. Work on the building will begin at once.

Cane planters from Tavua to Nadi report that they have had a splendid harvest, and that the present season will be one of the best on record. The percentage of sugar in the cane has been high, and the tonnage yield per acre has exceeded the estimate in many instances. The Lautoka mill has so much cane still to put through the mill that the B. A. establishment is being asked to treat all the Lautoka cane on the north side of the mill.

One of the biggest deals in beach property consummated in many months was made this morning when C. W. Case Deering, who returned from the mainland on the steamer Matsonia Tuesday after an absence of three years, purchased the Waikiki residences of C. G. Bockus and W. D. Westervelt. The consideration is given as between $30,000 and $40,000. The deal was made by James F. Morgan & Company, acting as the agent of the grantors.

The announcement of financing by Southern Pacific through an issue of $55,000,000 20-year convertible 5 per cent bonds was not unexpected as the road has $20,000,000 5 per cent notes maturing in June. The bonds are to be convertible at any time within 10 years after the date of issue and are to be offered to stockholders at par to the extent of 20 per cent of their holdings. As Southern Pacific has at present $272,672,400 outstanding stock, this means that the exact amount of bonds to be issued would be $54,534,480. The company has asked for authority to issue $55,000,000 bonds.

At the annual meeting of the Haiku Fruit and Packing Company, Ltd., held at Haiku last Friday, it was unanimously voted to request the territorial authorities permission to amend the articles of association so as to permit the issuance of preferred shares. It can be authoritatively stated that it is the intention of the company to issue $150,000 par value of 8 per cent cumulative preferred stock with the privilege of conversion into common stock, at par, share for share, at any time within five years. The new stock will be offered to the shareholders in proportion to their present holdings.

With a view to making a personal investigation of the complaint recently brought against the Maui Telephone Company by Eugene Murphy, E. A. Mott-Smith, chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, left for the Valley Isle in the Claudine last night, and probably will return this evening by the same steamer.

PHILADELPHIA'S PROPOSED BOND ISSUE; INTEREST

[By Latest Mail]

PHILADELPHIA—If voters approve new city permanent loan of $12,900,000 at special election March 31 total of city bonds authorized to be issued will be $24,325,000, and whether the city should increase the rate above 4 per cent again will be given serious consideration. The idea was expressed in city hall that city bonds will continue to be a desirable investment at 4 per cent, even to such a large amount, because exempt from income tax.

In addition to proposed loan of $12,900,000 there is yet to be negotiated all the $8,600,000 loan approved at November election and $2,825,000 of the $7,000,000 loan authorized early last year.

Under recent act of assembly, it is not necessary for the city to float authorized loans all at one time, but bonds can be issued for permanent improvement items in loan ordinances as money is required. It is estimated the entire $24,325,000 will be needed within three years if projected improvements are carried out with promptness.

When all three loans have been floated annual interest and sinking fund charges will amount to $1,581,000. This will form a revenue problem for the city to solve. An increase in interest rate from 4 per cent to 4 1/2 per cent would mean an increase in fixed charges of $60,812.

Practically all of annual meeting of the sugar plantations have been held now. Only a few of the smaller plantations are yet to call their meetings.

The Hawaiian Canneries Company will lose no time in erecting its cannery at Kapaa is now practically assured. At a meeting of the land commission yesterday afternoon it was decided to allow the company to leave 19 acres of land at Kapaa for a cannery site. The rent is to be $100 per acre a year.

Studebaker "SIX"

If this car is honest, there isn't an automobile in existence that compares with it in value. That it is as honest inside as it is beautiful outside, the name Studebaker guarantees. The fact that it is MANUFACTURED to an extent exceeded by no other car of even higher price clinches the question of internal value. And despite its beauty, despite its internal excellence, despite its seven-passenger capacity, despite its electric starting and lighting system, it is THE LOWEST-PRICED "SIX" ON THE MARKET. In the face of such obvious and overwhelming evidence of value—how can you consistently pay a penny more for any other car than the price of this Studebaker SIX?

PROCLAMATION.

I, Thomas J. Carling, Supreme Chancellor of the order of Knights Pythias, do hereby call upon all lodges and upon all members of the order to join in celebrating our golden jubilee, and I do request and urge that every city, town, village and hamlet throughout the Supreme Domain, wherever our altars are established, the members and their friends shall assemble on Thursday evening, February 19, 1914, and hold such exercises as shall fittingly and appropriately commemorate the attainment of the Semi-Centennial of Pythian Knighthood. Given under my hand and attested by the Great Seal of the Supreme Lodge and the signature of the Supreme Keeper of Records and Seal, and dated at the city of Macon, Grand Domain of Georgia, this 1st day of January, 1914, Pythian Period L.

In keeping with the foregoing proclamation, issued by the supreme chancellor of the order, the Pythian Knights of Honolulu and their friends tonight will mark an epoch in Pythian history by celebrating a golden jubilee. The anniversary should have been observed on the evening of February 19, at which time all members of the order throughout the world met in their castle halls to render thanks to the Supreme Chancellor of the Universe on the altars of friendship, charity and benevolence for a glorious fruition attained by the order of Knights of Pythias during the past half-century.

The lodges in Honolulu, owing to the many events of the Mid-Pacific Carnival, thought it best that the beautiful ritualistic service, prepared especially for this celebration, would be more enjoyed and appreciated by postponing until this evening. The various committees which have been very active during the past week are confident that their labors will be rewarded and trust that all who attend the ceremony at the Castle Hall this evening will feel at home and enter into that spirit that Pythianism endeavors always to instill.

An excellent menu has been prepared for the dinner to which the knights and their ladies and friends will sit down in the early part of the evening. During the dinner, the following musical program will be rendered:

Selection by orchestra—Selected. Quartet—Selected. G. W. Dyson, H. E. Tinker, W. H. Hutton, W. E. Kerr. Baritone solo—"Let Me Like a Soldier Fall." W. H. Hutton. Instrumental trio—"Angels' Serenade." Miss Ruth Carter, piano; E. Langner, violin; J. Rosenstein, flute.

L. P. George, chairman arrangements committee.

Tenor solo—"For You Alone." G. W. Dyson. Vocal duet—"Star of My Life." Miss Ruth Carter, G. W. Dyson. Selection by orchestra—Selected.

At the close of the dinner, the beautiful ritualistic service, which has been prepared especially for the occasion, will be conducted by the officers of the lodge, with appropriate music by the orchestra. The officers are Bro. Thomas Sharp, D.D.S.C., chancellor commander; Bro. Dr. A. N. Sinclair, P.D.S.C., vice-chancellor; Bro. Ed Towse, P.D.S.C., prelate; Bro. A. B. Angus, P.C., master-at-arms; and Bro. E. A. Jacobson, master of exchequer.

The opening address of the evening will be delivered by Bro. Thomas Sharp, D.D.S.C., and following him Governor L. E. Pinkham will speak on the subject, "Our Flag." Jeff McCarran will address the gathering on the topic, "Fraternalism."

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the celebration is headed by L. P. George, the other committeemen being as follows: Publicity—L. P. George, O. F. Heine, J. M. McChesney, W. V. Kolb and L. P. Reeves. Ritualistic and Music—A. B. Angus, F. L. Davis, A. F. Gertz, A. H. Ahrens, C. S. Jackson and M. R. Roberts. Reception—H. A. Giles, E. H. F. Wolter and W. V. Kolb. Dinner—C. W. Ziegler, H. A. Giles, A. H. Ahrens, G. F. Gall and S. F. Nott. Decorations—A. C. Merrick, F. L. Davis, H. Meyer, M. T. Lutz, P. J. Levey. Ushers—A. F. Gertz, F. S. Davis, G. E. Gall and E. Bull.

Facts About the Order

The founder of the order of Knights of Pythias, Justus Henry Rathbone, was born in Deerfield, New York, his father being a distinguished jurist in Utica. His mother was a descendant of the famous divine, Jonathan Edwards. History points out the founder as being a manly man, a good father, an excellent husband and a citizen proud of the country of his birth and beloved of all with whom he came in contact. True, indeed, are the words quoted from him by Fred E. Wheaton, supreme keeper of the records and seal:

"The author of some great good, the genius of heart and mind who evolves an inspiration for the uplift of mankind, indeed is a benefactor of his race; and, as such, now and forevermore, Justus Henry Rathbone will be revered for his great gift to the humanity of the world."

Some one aptly has said that this is an age of fraternalism, and it is true that, throughout the world, there are many orders founded upon the theme "the Brotherhood of Man," all, no doubt, trying to elevate themselves to better thoughts, better deeds and the building up of character. But no other order, it often has been said, appeals more to the young man, the man full of life and love for his brother and his country, than the Knights of Pythias. One of the fundamentals of Pythianism is its demand of loyalty to the flag; for, if a young man be not true to the flag of that country in which he holds all that is dear to him, then indeed is his citizenship something that both his country and his friends need to apologize for.

The following excerpts will explain more fully:

"Pythian knighthood had its conception in exemplification of the life test of true friendship existing between Damon and Pythias.

"Friendship, or mutual confidence, being the strongest bond of friendship between man and man, and only existing where honor has an abiding place, is adopted as a fundamental principle.

"As the ideal knight of olden times was the personification of all the higher and nobler attributes of man's nature, the candidate for knighthood had to prove himself worthy of acceptance by those who, valued friendship, bravery, honor, justice and loyalty."

The order of the Knights of Pythias, founded on friendship, charity, and benevolence, which it proclaims as its cardinal principles, strives to gather into one mighty fraternity worthy men who appreciate the true meaning of friendship; who are cautious in word or act, who are brave in defending right, whose honor is untarnished, whose sense of justice will prevent to the best of their ability a personal act or word injurious to the worthy, whose loyalty to principle, to family, to friends, to their country and to the constituted authority under which they enjoy citizenship, is undoubted; and who at all times are prepared to do unto others as they would that others should do unto them.

One could hardly wish for a more excellent declaration of principles as set forth above, the words being quoted from the Golden Jubilee Ritual. This code never has caused a mother to weep for her son, a wife's heart to break for her husband, or a sister or a sweetheart to blush for her brother or lover.

To the lay mind the mysteries connected with fraternal orders appeal in many forms and fancies and some there are who imagine all kinds of weird and awful ceremonies. Orders of this kind there are, some instituted in good fellowship and some not worthy of consideration being of that class who imagine they have wrongs to right and bolster themselves up with a false courage by believing that the means justifies the end.

The Pythian order has little or no mystery in connection with its ritual. Friendship is the keynote of its principles and work.

The lodge has secrets, but they are few, and only for the protection of the worthy and a safeguard against the unscrupulous. The exemplification of the golden jubilee celebration in the castle hall this evening will show to the public the work and teachings of the order.

ELKS' LODGE NAMES OFFICERS FOR THE YEAR

At the annual meeting last night of Honolulu Lodge No. 616, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, L. Andrews was elected exalted ruler for the ensuing year. There was no other contest for the position. Andrews will succeed James L. Coke to the highest position in the gift of the lodge.

The other officers elected were:—Charles J. Spitzer, treasurer; Dr. Charles B. Cooper, trustee for two years; James L. Coke, delegate to the grand lodge; E. A. Douthitt, alternate.

The meeting was one of the most interesting in the history of the lodge, and the attendance was about 150 members. The lodge has of late been unusually active and has been increased in membership by the addition of some 150 new members. The total membership is now about 500.

Takekuwa & Company, which has taken over for the sum of $50,000 the wholesale and retail business of the Takekuwa Shoten at 923-928 Nuuanu street, has filed articles of association at the territorial treasurer's office, fixing its capitalization at $57,000. In the Realm of the Feminine

NEW THINGS FOR THE SMART YOUNG GIRL

There never was a time in the history of fashions when the very young girl was so absurdly catered to as at present. There is nothing nowadays but youthful styles; the "old person" has been eliminated from the sartorial world, and designers are reveling in models for the juvenile, as the French say.

Take neckwear, for instance. Could anything be more girlish, becoming and altogether lovelier than the fluffy frills of lace, chiffon and net which it to say that they appear on evening gowns, neckwear, hats—in fact, upon everything worn by womankind. In the cut are some of the very newest examples made of maline, silk and net.

To the uninitiated the mackinaw sounds more like a new species of bird than the latest kind of sports coat. The knitted silk or woolen jerseys in the brightest tints were rather overdone at last summer. Strictly intended for outdoor or sports wear, one saw people adorn pretty white throats. But let your mental gaze fix them upon a scrawny, lime-seared neck, and the result? Well, it is best to draw a line at the inevitable outcome. Needless to say, the result is all the favor of the debutante.

Then there are the "slouchy" styles of the moment; they only hang baggy and with an insouciant air upon the girl of "striking" proportions. So, taking one consideration with another, it's a poor season for fat, fat and forty.

One of the illustrations in the group shows a delightfully new piece of spring neckwear. It is a little vest attached to a chemise of net, and to this is added a frill of plaited net, an adorable bit of frivolity which any girl who takes a proper pride in her clothes would be charmed to own.

And the butterfly bows that are also pictured—their use is so many one almost hesitates to count where these butterflies may not be placed. Suffice with straight bands of the material. Some of the smartest have collars of seal musquash. They come below the hips, but no longer reach to the knees.

One very becoming sports coat of this kind is made in dark green suede cloth, cut single-breasted and fastened down the front with a row of ball-shaped buttons. The fullness of the back is held in position by a curious strapped shield-shaped piece of the material. Each spring a straight buckled tight fitting skirt is always a shock to the real sportswoman in spite of the idea fondly cherished by the wearer that she is ultra smart. So girls be careful in your selection of sports clothes in the future.

MUSINGS OF ELINOR HITE

CAN you keep still, girls? It does not sound like a very hard thing to do, and, yet, when you come to think of it and ask yourselves this question squarely, you may find it difficult to give an answer in the affirmative. I would like you to realize how important it is for your health and appearance to keep absolutely still each day for a few minutes.

The fact is often impressed upon us that we live in an age of rush and hurry, and we feel that we have to bustle along to keep pace with the times. This makes the need of greater tranquility even more important.

There is a charm in the mere sound of the word "repose." It seems to conjure up a vision of something delightfully soothing and refreshing. A girl with a reposeful manner is as refreshing as a shower of rain on a hot, dusty day. The lively, vivacious sister has her own charms, but she, too, should try to cultivate a certain amount of repose for her own sake and for the sake of others.

Even to those of us who most love gaiety and pleasure there come moments when mirth loudly expressed palls and we turn to the girl with the quiet voice and sweet smile.

This repose of manner is not a gift bestowed upon a chosen few. It is simply the result of a little care on the part of the would-be possessor. It resolves itself into a matter of "keeping still."

Try some time if you can keep perfectly still for a few minutes. Sit down in a comfortable chair or lie on a couch. Let your muscles relax so that no part of your body is held tense or hard. Let yourself be quite limp. Now empty your mind, do not think of anything in particular and, above all, do not worry.

For five minutes try not to move at all. Do not play with your watch or chain or touch your hair or drum with your fingers. Keep still. If every girl would allow herself five minutes of this repose every day she would keep young longer and would obtain that enviable charm—repose of manner.

At all times we should be on our guard about indulging in unnecessary movements. Lots of girls twitch their fingers, lock their hands together the entire time they are carrying on a conversation. I have seen another blink her eyes in a nervous fashion, and yet another girl tap the floor with her foot all the time she was having tea with me.

These peculiarities should not be laughed at. We should feel sorry for the poor girls who have allowed themselves to get into these habits.

A good plan is not to allow yourselves to make a movement or gesture which has no meaning. It is the only way to preserve that beautiful repose of manner which is so attractive.

NEWS FOR THE CHATELAINE

GOODNESS knows there were enough trifles on the chateleine to make it rattle like a decrepit motorcar, but another novelty has been invented and one which every girl believes is quite as necessary to her happiness as the vanity box, the smelling salts bottle, the memorandum tablets, the cigarette case or the bonbon box.

The late novelty is the hairpin box of such tiny proportions that it holds only a half dozen invisible wire hairpins with which to secure vagrant locks. About half the length of a cigar, of similar shape, but amazingly flat, the odd little box opens lengthwise—by pressing a jeweled clasp—and works on a single hinge.

If the chateleine outfit is in gold the hairpin box must match it, but the plated silver or in gun metal and often it is charmingly engraved or monogrammed. In enamel it is prettiest of all, but that material is too costly

A Japanese Dinner

THERE are few things people find so amusing as some attractive form of meal, and by a little thought and ingenious contriving the hostess can supply this diversion for her guests.

A Japanese dinner is both novel and practical. The first thing to be done is to go or send to a warehouse which carries Japanese goods and buy the articles intended to give the table and room its atmosphere.

The invitations should be written on sheets of rice paper, and if the guests are desired to come in Japanese costumes—which will add much to the beauty of the scene—it should be especially stated on the invitations.

Decorate the rooms with jars of chrysanthemums, cherry blossoms and iris, while rows of Japanese lanterns should take the place of gas or electric lighting.

The table decorations—a most important part of the dinner—can be easily arranged by placing in green vases of Japanese pottery sprays of wisteria and brown willow.

Fans, jade bracelets, carved ivory or rose jars, make suitable souvenirs for the guests.

All kinds of Japanese fare may be bought at Japanese importing houses. The following is an excellent menu:

Salted Plums	7
Chicken	10
Sushi, Kuri-Kinto	10
Preserved Fruit	10
Fancy Cakes	10
Tea	10

Sushi and kuri-kinto are not such dreadful complications as they sound. Sushi is composed of a cake made of boiled rice and preserved ginger and served with a strip of fish upon the top of it. Kuri-kinto is a mixture of boiled chestnuts and mashed potatoes.

SIMPLE SUNDAY NIGHT SUPPER

The woman who has accepted dinner invitations, but who cannot perhaps extend similar hospitality, can do her entertaining with little Sunday night suppers. A hostess need not entertain elaborately, but merely easily and happily, to gain a reputation of dispensing charming hospitality.

In many homes the Sunday night supper is the jolly event of the week. The hosts and guests enjoy it thoroughly as the preparations have not been intricate. For a Sunday supper the table can be just as attractive and the menu equally tempting as for an elaborate course dinner of great expense.

Half after 7 or 8 o'clock is a popular and practical hour to have supper, as the noon dinner has probably not been early. The maid in many homes arranges the table before going out, though frequently the hostess sees to it herself. Pretty monogrammed lunch cloths and napkins, or the flit lace runners or doilies are the things for the Sunday night supper. A formal heavy damask cloth is not "quite correct." Glass or silver coasters can be used for the protection of the polished table.

Flowers are always in keeping, but one should not have the same elaborate floral arrangement for a Sunday supper that would be used to deck the formal dinner board of many covers. In lieu of flowers, a high or low silver bowl of assorted fruits is effective, while a pretty and decorative receptacle filled with dried fruits and nuts can be used as a dessert could easily answer as a centerpiece.

There are numerous good menus to choose from for the Sunday supper. In many families there is the regulation meal always ready for the few extra who may drop in.

Every Sunday night in one home cold roast duck, apple sauce, grapefruit salad, cheese and nutbread sandwiches and chocolate constitute the repast.

Another young hostess makes a specialty of her potato salad. Not a plain dish is this salad, but a wonderful collection of good ingredients. With the cubes of potato and a generous supply of mayonnaise, she uses a can of French peas, chopped nut meats, grated hard boiled eggs and a garnish of pimento and lettuce. With this she serves cold tongue and tomato sauce or a small sugar-cured ham with an Indian relish, buttered slices of brown and white bread.

Cold chicken with a border of hard boiled eggs dipped in chopped pickle around the platter, escalloped potatoes, tomato salad, cottage cheese, jelly and hot buttered rolls make another good combination.

Weish rabbit, lobster a la Newburg or creamed chicken made in the chafing dish and served with assorted sandwiches is ample for a Sunday supper.

Something in the way of a surprise or an innovation adds decidedly to the charm of the informal supper. Friends who are used to French chefs and ceremonious service will enjoy the simple, novelty supper far more than a hostess realizes.

A Dutch supper with pretzels for napkin rings and salted nuts in various pots, or a menu composed of various national dishes, or an old-time New England feast of baked beans, hot brown bread, pickles, etc., might be tried.

WHAT WOMEN GOLFERS WEAR

The outing costumes of the woman golfer who is about to start for a southern resort should receive no little consideration. The importance of coats, sweaters, blazers, trim skirts and smart hats is frequently overlooked.

One is safe with a loose white sweater, a blue Norfolk coat or a black and white flannel blazer, worn with a white wash skirt, on any links. The matter of blouses is important when one is planning a successful golf wardrobe. Both silk and flannel blouses with the soft rolled turned over collars are the smartest. Some of the shirt materials, both of silk and wool, are white with the hair line of color, though white is always beyond reproach.

Little one-piece linen or crash one-piece frocks are much worn and they do certainly relieve one of the thought that waistband and skirt may be separating.

Nothing makes or mars the outing costume more conspicuously than the hats and neck fixings. The most satisfactory headgear for a tramp over the links is a soft white felt hat or a small Panama, but slightly trimmed with a band of heavy ribbon of white, though a dash of gay color is not unwelcome.

As a general thing the hat is discarded altogether and the unruly locks are comfortably tied down with a broad ribbon of black, red or green; never pink or lavender. Dainty ties are out of place on the links. Lace jabots and pale ribbons are far from smart when worn with a golfing blouse. The woman who knows how to dress effects mannish ties.

And a word to the young girls who play tennis wearing beads around their throats and bracelets encircling their arms. Bracelets are always in poor taste with outing clothes.

As to shoes and stockings, any kind will not do. Shoes betray the novice more surely than any other part of the attire. They should be good, sensible, low heeled, or without heels. They can be either high or low, as fancy dictates. White canvas or buckskin or the tan leather are considered smartest.

As sporting shoes are heavy, a thin stocking worn with them is out of place. The heavy ribbed silk stock-

COSTLY CAPRICES IN WATCHES

Appique motifs in diamonds, emeralds, sapphires and rubies on enameled grounds ornament the latest caprice in watches. Gems, gems and still more gems are added to the already handsome enameled cases, until the watch proper sinks to a mere trifle under its heavy load of jewels.

There are small square cases, and very narrow oblongs to be seen this season, slim watches and round ones that are thicker but extremely small. The square watches are dainty little affairs, hidden, most of them, behind gorgeous gems. Diamonds and platinum wire, in a checkered pattern, decorate one of these square-inch watches—they measure an inch, no more, on each edge. Another is a solid square inch of brilliants with a pearl added here and there to top them off.

Two new features in pendant watch designs will appeal strongly to those whose quest is ever for the novel in jewels. One is the addition of an openwork frame to the watch edge, and the other is the hanging gemmed festoons which are attached to the most extravagantly trimmed type among all the latest watches.

The open frames are made up of pierced platinum studded with gems and platinum wirework on which the gems are threaded, like beads, in closely strung rows or scattered as dewdrops on a cobweb. The gemmed borders reach out beyond the watches, sometimes as much as an inch, a half-inch frame being perhaps the favorite depth.

One watch measuring only an inch across has a frame half an inch in width. It is encrusted with diamonds of remarkable shapes, and in the frame are set seven large pearls that appear to be floating in space, so lightly and cleverly are they mounted.

The designs of these frames show many dainty patternings in scallops and flutings, following the shape of the watch or the inside but varying to suit the designer's fancy on the outer edges. A thin model round watch is finished with a square-edged frame; one frame is fluted so that there is a fascinating undulation in the platinum wirework, while another has a border with concave lines terminating in four points formed of clusters of diamonds.

Two unusual bordered shapes are the triangle and the hexagon. The frame on each of these follows the symmetrical contour of the watch it encloses, and the faces of the watches being round, small corners are left which are filled in with gems.

The festooned watch comes in an endless variety of designs.

An especially handsome pendant watch has a silver gray enameled case with an appique motif in diamonds in the center. This motif is repeated three times in the festoon work, a border of small diamonds finishes the enamel, and diamonds and pearls drop in little prisms for three inches below the watch case.

These watches make beautiful necklace pendants. The effect is enhanced by the sautoir chains on which they are hung. A sautoir is one of those neck chains with an extra, straight piece between the circle of chain and the pendant; generally there are matching plaque pendants attached.

The ornament on the sautoir which is placed at the junction of the straight strip and the neck circle matches the decoration on the watch case and the chain follows the color scheme of the watch. An example of such a jewel has an ornament of large diamonds on the sautoir copying the diamond motif on the watch. The sautoir chain is made up of three rows of gems, a row of emeralds between two rows of diamonds, carrying out the idea in the watch, for the case is completely encrusted with emeralds and trimmed by a fringe of flashing diamonds and emerald drops.

LOCAL CHURCHES APPROVE SCHEME OF ADVERTISING

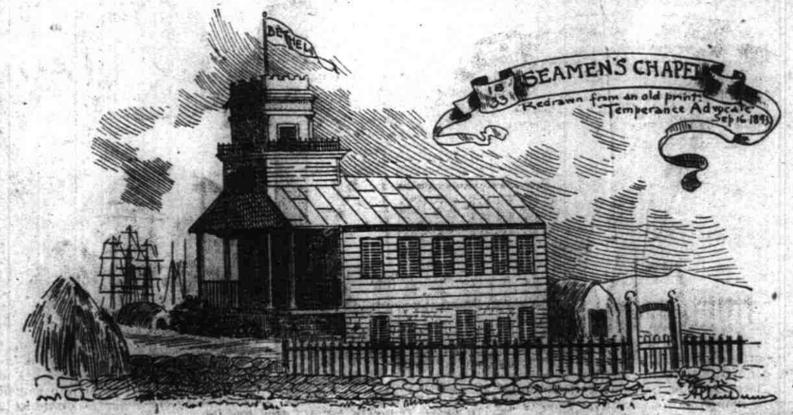

Plan to Continue Successful Campaign Through Medium of the Daily Press

The Inter-Church Federation voted at their meeting held a few days ago to continue the advertising being run in the daily papers. The council was of the unanimous opinion that the advertising had justified itself and that the churches should continue it throughout the year.

MANY MEN NOW ATTEND BIBLE CLASSES AT 'Y'

The report of the religious work committee of the Y. M. C. A. which was presented at the monthly meeting of that body Thursday afternoon, shows a gain in all branches of the work. The number of men in Bible classes has been steadily increasing until there are 165 now enrolled in 15 different classes.

HISTORY OF OLD BETHEL CHURCH

The Seamen's Chapel, later known as the Bethel Church.

With the coming to this city of Mrs. J. C. K. Reddington, a writer on current topics and travel, Honolulu is entertaining a descendant of one of the early missionaries to these islands. Mrs. Reddington claims the distinction of being the granddaughter of Rev. John Diel, who brought with him around the Horn from the Atlantic coast the lumber which was used in the construction of the Bethel church.

The United States, he died at sea and was buried in the Pacific. Mr. Diel was a great friend of Rev. B. W. Parker, father of the present pastor of Kawaiahao church.

The following version of the founding of the Seamen's chapel recently was contributed to The Friend, and through the kindness of The Friend the Star-Bulletin is able to publish the accompanying drawing of the chapel.

'GO TO CHURCH' ELECTRIC SIGN

The following article from the Rockford, Ill., Register-Gazette, tells of the novel method which may be adopted in the Eastern city for calling attention to the local church services, and is a plan which might be followed out to advantage in connection with the present Honolulu "Go-to-church" campaign.

The father and son banquet will be held in the gymnasium Friday evening, March 20.

An interesting figure comes from the cafe. The cafeteria served 93,415 meals during 1913 at an average cost to the customer of $2.27.

The finance report for the month of February shows that the association disbursed $4393.23 during the month and closed with a balance of $70.19.

W. H. Heinrichs and R. M. Cross have exchanged positions for the month of March to give Cross some special experience in the men's department and to familiarize Heinrichs with the work for employed boys.

A handball contest tournament is slated to begin Monday, March 23. Each contestant will play every other contestant one game of 50 points. The man winning the largest number of games will be the winner of the contest.

The message department in the basement has been taken over by the association. I. N. Bartholomew and Yen Chin will continue to give treatments and rub-downs, but the department henceforth will be owned and managed by the association.

The indoor track meet comes April 4. W. H. Heinrichs, formerly captain of the track team at Denison University, is in charge of the meet and is coaching the men for the events. The meet will be held in the games hall where the corners of the room are being especially banked for the running events.

The officers of the association are beginning to plan the annual meeting. It probably will be held Tuesday night, May 5, and will take the form of a big dinner in the games hall similar to the very successful quotation stockholders' meeting held in Cooke hall last year.

The officers of the local association were very much surprised on receiving the last issue of the British Y. M. C. A. Review, to find six pictures of the Honolulu work arranged under the title "An Association Story in Pictures." The pictures apparently had been sent to London by a friend of the secretary's in New York to whom they had been mailed some time ago.

The work for school boys, especially those at Punahou and Central Grammar, is stronger now than it has ever been since the days of Fred Young, 10 or 12 years ago. The exhibition given by Fred W. Lau after the mother and son banquet was an eye-opener to those who did not know what was being done.

The star course of the year, salesmanship, opens next Thursday night. The committee in charge expects this to be the most largely attended course the association has ever put on. The committee consists of E. A. Berndt, Edward Paris, H. F. Wichman, G. K. Stein and George B. Curtis. It will be taught by John T. Warren, assisted by special lecturers.

CHURCH GAINS FOR 1913

The note of depression that sounded last year after the publication of Dr. Carroll's annual statistics for the churches is changed to quite the opposite in the treatment of his tables for 1913. The gains revealed are most encouraging, observes Zion's Herald (Boston), while The Presbyterian Banner (Pittsburg) thinks they "eloquently and convincingly silence the contention that the church is declining." The Lutheran bodies show the most surprising advance in the increase of 1455 churches. The Methodists report 496, the Baptists 388, and in Catholics 375. A falling off of 742 is credited to the Disciples of Christ, but Dr. Carroll thinks this may in part be explained by incomplete returns. From the statistical standpoint, six new churches for every working day in the year must be regarded as an encouraging sign of progress, especially in a time when consolidation and church unity are preached as a remedy for the condition of gains is given in Dr. Carroll's Bulletin, sent out from Washington, and reported in many religious weeklies: "The net increase of communicants is widely distributed. The Methodist bodies get nearly 220,000 of it, the Methodist Episcopal church having the largest gain for many years; the Roman Catholic church comes next with 212,500, then the Baptists with 64,608, the Presbyterians fourth with 45,649, the Lutherans fifth with 36,120 and the Disciples of Christ sixth with 21,824.

"The net gain is, on the average, one and eight-tenths per cent, which is a fair increase. If only those denominations which report increase be included in the reckoning, the only fair method, the percentage would be considerably larger—approaching two per cent. As a matter of fact, 618,000 is reported as the net increase of bodies aggregating about 33,000,000." In the interpretation of these figures Dr. Carroll's words of explanation must be taken into consideration. Especially is this true of the Catholic church, whose statistics, owing to a method of computation differing from his, gives a considerably larger net result. The annual Catholic directory is not yet published, and thus statistical returns can not be published for several weeks. Dr. Carroll explains: "The territory covered is that of the United States only. Many denominations have ministers, churches, and communicants in foreign countries. These are not included in these tables. "Denominational official reports are used where there are such. Where there are no published reports the best denominational sources are sought for information, and where exact returns are not to be had approximate figures are furnished. In the few cases in which information is refused or can not be obtained, the census figures for 1906 are inserted. "Estimates are given in a very few cases for the increase of the year.

where denominational returns are not available until two or three months after the beginning of the year. "Most of the numerous Mennonite branches do not attempt to gather any statistics. Therefore the census returns of 1906 were used, except for the Mennonite Brethren in Christ. Now, the results of a thorough canvass of all branches made in 1911, by a co-operative effort of representatives of seven branches, are available, and the figures are all for 1911, except the Mennonite Brethren in Christ, which are for 1913. "A word of explanation concerning the figures for the Roman Catholic church in the column of communicants should be given. The 'official' Catholic directory gives only 'population,' which includes with communicants the unconfirmed baptized; that is, children who have not been admitted to their first communion. The rule adopted in the census of 1890, and followed in 1906, deducts 15 per cent from Catholic population and sets down the remaining 85 per cent as communicants. It should also be said that the figures for 'population' are, for a large number of the dioceses and archdioceses, estimates given in round numbers, as, for example, Baltimore, 260,000; Boston, 900,000; Cincinnati, 200,000; but every year sees an increase in the dioceses giving more exact returns, as Santa Fe, 140,573; New York, 1,219,920; Albany, 201,246. The editor of the Catholic directory believes that the total 'population' is understated by nearly two millions.

"The figures for Jewish members are misleading. The denomination furnishes no statistics. Nothing later than the census of 1906 is to be had. Even so, it is obvious that there must be more than 143,000 (the census figures are less than these) adults connected with Jewish congregations. But, technically, only the heads of families are counted as members. The Jewish Communal Directory for Greater New York for 1912 gives a list of 274 congregations in the greater city. Of these only 109 gave figures for members. Temple Emanuel has a membership of 150, with seating capacity of 2300; Temple Israel of Harlem reports 550 members and 1468 seating capacity. The Jewish population of Greater New York, carefully estimated by several methods, is set down by Dr. Joseph Jacobs at about 900,000. The Jewish population of the country is estimated by other authorities at about 2,000,000. The adults who are practically members of congregations should therefore be four or five times greater than 143,000. "No response has been received to repeated requests for information for 1912 from the Christian Science church or Christian Catholic church (Dowie). The figures of the former for ministers and churches are for 1912; for members are for 1907. "The statistics of the Church of the Latter-Day Saints are those of 1912, as furnished from the office of the presiding bishopric in Salt Lake City. "The table giving the denominations in detail is reproduced here in full:

Summary for 1913. Gains for 1913. Table with columns for Churches, Ministers, and Communicants for various denominations.

PRICE OF EGGS LOW, COMPLAIN CHICKEN FOLKS

A lot of people who have chickens are complaining, at the present time about low prices. Two months ago when their hens were on strike, eggs were selling in Honolulu for as much as 75 cents per dozen. Now grocers and other dealers are offering them for as low as 40 cents. The wholesale price is from 5 to 10 cents lower than this. Almost every old hen in Hawaii is laying eggs now, which explains the reduced prices, and there are also a lot of eggs coming in from California, which tend to hold down prices. These last are not storage eggs, but are brought down on the decks of steamers, and were fresh when they left the mainland. Of course they are inferior to new laid island eggs—that is to some island eggs.

On the outside islands eggs are a drug just now at 25 cents a dozen, and the same is true of some eggs produced here on Oahu. But the fault is more with the owners of the hens than with the market. Comparatively few understand their business, or know what constitutes a really good egg. Of course hens that are compelled to subsist on refuse, cannot produce a high grade product. The flavor of such eggs is always inferior and these are the eggs that the consumer soon tires of as a steady diet. But perhaps the greatest fault is to be found in the method of caring for the eggs before they are marketed.

Unless the poultry keeper has his hens separated from the cocks, he cannot keep an egg over three days in this climate and still have it fresh, and a week should put it past all possibility as human food. The reason is that the living germ in the egg will begin to develop during the heat of the day almost as soon as the egg is laid. At night the germ is chilled and dies, and putrefaction immediately sets in, and the egg is "stale." Eggs produced from hens kept apart from cocks are non-fertile and will keep, under like conditions, very much longer. In fact, the unfertile eggs which are tested out of the incubators after being held for six or seven days at a temperature of 102 or 103 degrees, are sometimes sold as fresh eggs by unscrupulous poultrymen, and except that the contents are unrunken to some extent by evaporation, can scarcely be distinguished from a fresh laid egg. In reality there is nothing really wrong with such eggs, and they could readily be used for cooking purposes. On the other hand, a fertile egg, under such circumstances, contains the embryo of a chick in well advanced stage, so that it may be easily seen through the shell, and it has some power of movement.

For highest quality, eggs should be collected from the nests at least once a day, and twice is better. They should be kept in as cool a place as possible, and should not be held over three or four days before marketing. Even then they should be in containers which will permit of their being turned over once each day, to prevent the yolk from settling to one side and perhaps sticking to the shell. The fresher the egg the more difficult it is to remove the shell when hard boiled—and vice versa. When the shell slips off practically whole, it is safe to say that the egg is some days old even though it may be perfectly good. Also the fresher the egg the easier it is to poach. It isn't an easy thing to poach a cold storage egg—in fact it is almost impossible to do so without breaking the yolk.

WOMEN'S SOCIETY TO MEET. The Women's Society of Central Union church will hold an evening social next Thursday. An interesting musical program under the direction of Mrs. Westervelt will be presented and refreshments served. All members of the church and congregation, newcomers and strangers in the city are especially invited to attend with their friends. Young people will be cordially welcomed.

for Infants and Children. Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium, or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse. It causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

The signature of Dr. H. Fletcher guarantees genuine Castoria. Physicians Recommend Castoria. I have used your Castoria in cases of colic in infants and have found it the best medicine of its kind on the market. J. A. STARBUCK, M. D., Chicago, Ill. "Castoria is good for children and I frequently prescribe it, and always obtain the desired result." F. GERRARD BLATTMAN, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y. "I have prescribed Castoria to families for several years. It is all right. Mothers like it, for children will take it without any trouble." C. A. WILSON, M. D., St. Louis, Mo. "Your Castoria is a splendid remedy for children, known the world over. I use it in my practice and have no hesitancy in recommending it for the complaints of infants and children." J. A. BOLLEMAN, M. D., Kansas City, Mo. "I have used your Castoria on various occasions suitable cases and have found it a palatable and efficient laxative, especially in the various diseases of childhood." CHAS. EDWARD GARDNER, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.
