THAYER AND QUARLES ARE CONFIRMED BY THE SENATE

TERRITORIAL SECRETARY AND JUDGE, NOMINATED BY PRESIDENT, SATISFACTORY

[Special Star-Bulletin Cable]

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—Wade Warren Thayer was confirmed by the senate as secretary of the territory of Hawaii this afternoon and at the same time the nomination of Ralph P. Quarles, for associate justice of the territorial supreme court, was confirmed. C. S. ALBERT.

NEWS WELL RECEIVED LOCALLY; NOMINATED BY WILSON ON 12TH

The names of Wade Warren Thayer and Ralph P. Quarles, for the office of territorial secretary and supreme court justice, respectively, were sent in by President Wilson on March 12, the former, only after E. A. Mott-Smith had made a number of efforts to resign and had, as an extreme measure, submitted an ultimatum, insisting that he must be relieved of the duties of his office not later than March 15.

News of the confirmation of Mr. Thayer and Mr. Quarles was well received in Honolulu, office holders and business men alike being of the opinion that the confirmation of Mr. Thayer, especially, would prove a boon to Hawaii. When Mr. Thayer is enabled to take up his new duties, considerable of the routine business of the office will be removed from the shoulders of the governor, who will be given more time to attend to the multitudinous duties of his office.

It is believed Judge Quarles and Mr. Thayer may take the oath of office before their commissions arrive in Honolulu. The same plan as that followed in the case of Judge E. M. Watson, it is anticipated, will hold good in these cases.

New Secretary a Busy Man.

When informed of the news, Attorney-general Thayer accepted it in a matter-of-fact way, adding: "There is so much work in the attorney-general's department remaining unfinished that I'll need at least two weeks more to clean up those matters. By that time my commission as territorial secretary probably will arrive and I hope to be ready then to formally take hold of that office. I shall not attempt to take over its affairs until the commission does come."

Judge Quarles Pleased. "Of course, I am very much pleased," said Judge R. P. Quarles when informed by the Star-Bulletin of the confirmation of his appointment, "but I have no statement to make at this time."

Governor Appears Satisfied. Governor Pinkham was told the news as he was sitting at the Ad Club luncheon table today. Though he had no comment to make he appeared well satisfied.

MURDER AT CANNERY ON WINDWARD OAHU, SAYS A.L.C. ATKINSON

News of a Japanese murder near the pineapple cannery at Kahala, on windward Oahu last Sunday is brought to Honolulu by Attorney A. L. C. Atkinson, who heard of it during a visit to the community Monday.

The story related by him is that two Japanese, Koochi and Karada, became involved in a fight over a gambling game at that place Sunday. Koochi, assaulting Karada with a hammer and the latter retaliating with a knife, with which he is said to have stabbed his adversary. Koochi died shortly thereafter and Karada is held in custody by Deputy Sheriff R. W. Davis, who now is engaged in conducting a coroner's inquest.

It is understood Koochi leaves a widow and three small children.

Circuit Judge Whitney today gave a decision ordering the cancellation of a deed to a piece of property on Maui held by David Kanaha. The deed was obtained from S. Halama, and Kull Halama brought suit against Kanaha on the ground that he held a prior claim, having purchased the land before Kanaha made his overtures to S. Halama but being unable to file it with the registrar of conveyances. The court says the evidence tended to show that Kanaha knew of the prior sale at the time he negotiated for the purchase, and that after getting S. Halama's signature to the deed he rushed it to the registrar's office before Kull Halama had been able to place his prior deed on file.

AGENT-GENERAL OF AUSTRALIA AD CLUB GUEST

Lieut.-Col. Hon. Sir Newton J. Moore, K.C.M.G., and Party En Route to Coast

Lieut.-col. Hon. Sir Newton J. Moore, K. C. M. G. (Knight Commander of St. Michael and St. George), agent general of Western Australia, and a party of three were guests of the Honolulu Ad Club for the few hours today that they concur. Arriving in the Canadian-Australian steamer Makura, they were met by an Ad Club delegation, escorted over the city and suburbs and entertained at the luncheon of the club at the Young hotel.

Another honored guest at the luncheon today was Chairman H. P. Wood of the Hawaii fair commission, who returned yesterday from a trip to San Francisco, where he secured a splendid site for Hawaii's building.

Speeches from the guests, rapid-fire Ad Club business and special attention to the coming Ad Club excursion to Kauai made the luncheon an unusually interesting one. The attendance was large.

With Sir Newton today was a party consisting of Mr. Frank Whittemore, Mrs. Craven and Miss Craven, also travellers on the Makura. Among those present at the luncheon were

BARRISTER FROM DUBLIN OPPOSES HOME RULE MOVE

Robert Rice Says Grave Doubt About Majority Being in Favor of 'Liberty'

MANY THOUSANDS WITH ULSTER, HE MAINTAINS

Ireland Dependent on England, Unionists Would Bind Links Joining Little Isles

Robert Rice, barrister of Dublin, Ireland, a through passenger in the S. S. Siberia who spent several pleasant hours in Honolulu early this week, stated that "all the wealth, all the intelligence, all that is good in Ireland is against home rule." "There are," he said, "tens of thousands outside of Ulster who will fight to preserve her independence." While en route to Honolulu Mr. Rice prepared the following article on the burning question of the hour in Great Britain:

"It was John Bright, the great English liberal, who said that 'if Ireland could only unmoor her fastenings in the deep and sail away westwards no one would look on with more complacency than England,' but that can not be—because, as another great Englishman has said, 'She is one with her by the great ground plan of nature,' and one of the most difficult things in the world is to persuade an Englishman or an American why Ireland should not have home rule when the majority of her people are in favor of it. Why not get rid of the eternal Irish question at once and give them this home rule they want?"

"But are the majority in favor of it? It must not be forgotten when we speak of the majority being in favor of home rule that there are very grave doubts about even most people in Ireland wanting the thing at all. But it is to the people of Great Britain and Ireland, that the appeal should be made—and this is what the unionist party is clamoring for at present and which no government dare refuse. Mr. Asquith and his followers reiterate without ceasing that they have already got a clear mandate from the country. Never was there a more daring falsehood attempted to be run down the throats of any electorate and to the writer who is writing this article as he approaches Honolulu on his way to San Francisco the news which has come by wireless that Sir Edward Car-

MARSHALL CASE GOES TO JURY IN MORNING

Accused Man Proves Good Witness in Own Behalf—Recites Believable Story

The case of John William Marshall, accused of the murder of Charles R. Guertler, will go to the jury tomorrow, probably before noon. Beginning at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning City and County Attorney John W. Cathcart, for the prosecution, will address the jury. He will be followed by counsel for the defense, in their final plea for an acquittal, and Attorney Cathcart will deliver his closing address. The court will read its instructions to the jury and that body will retire to deliberate upon a verdict.

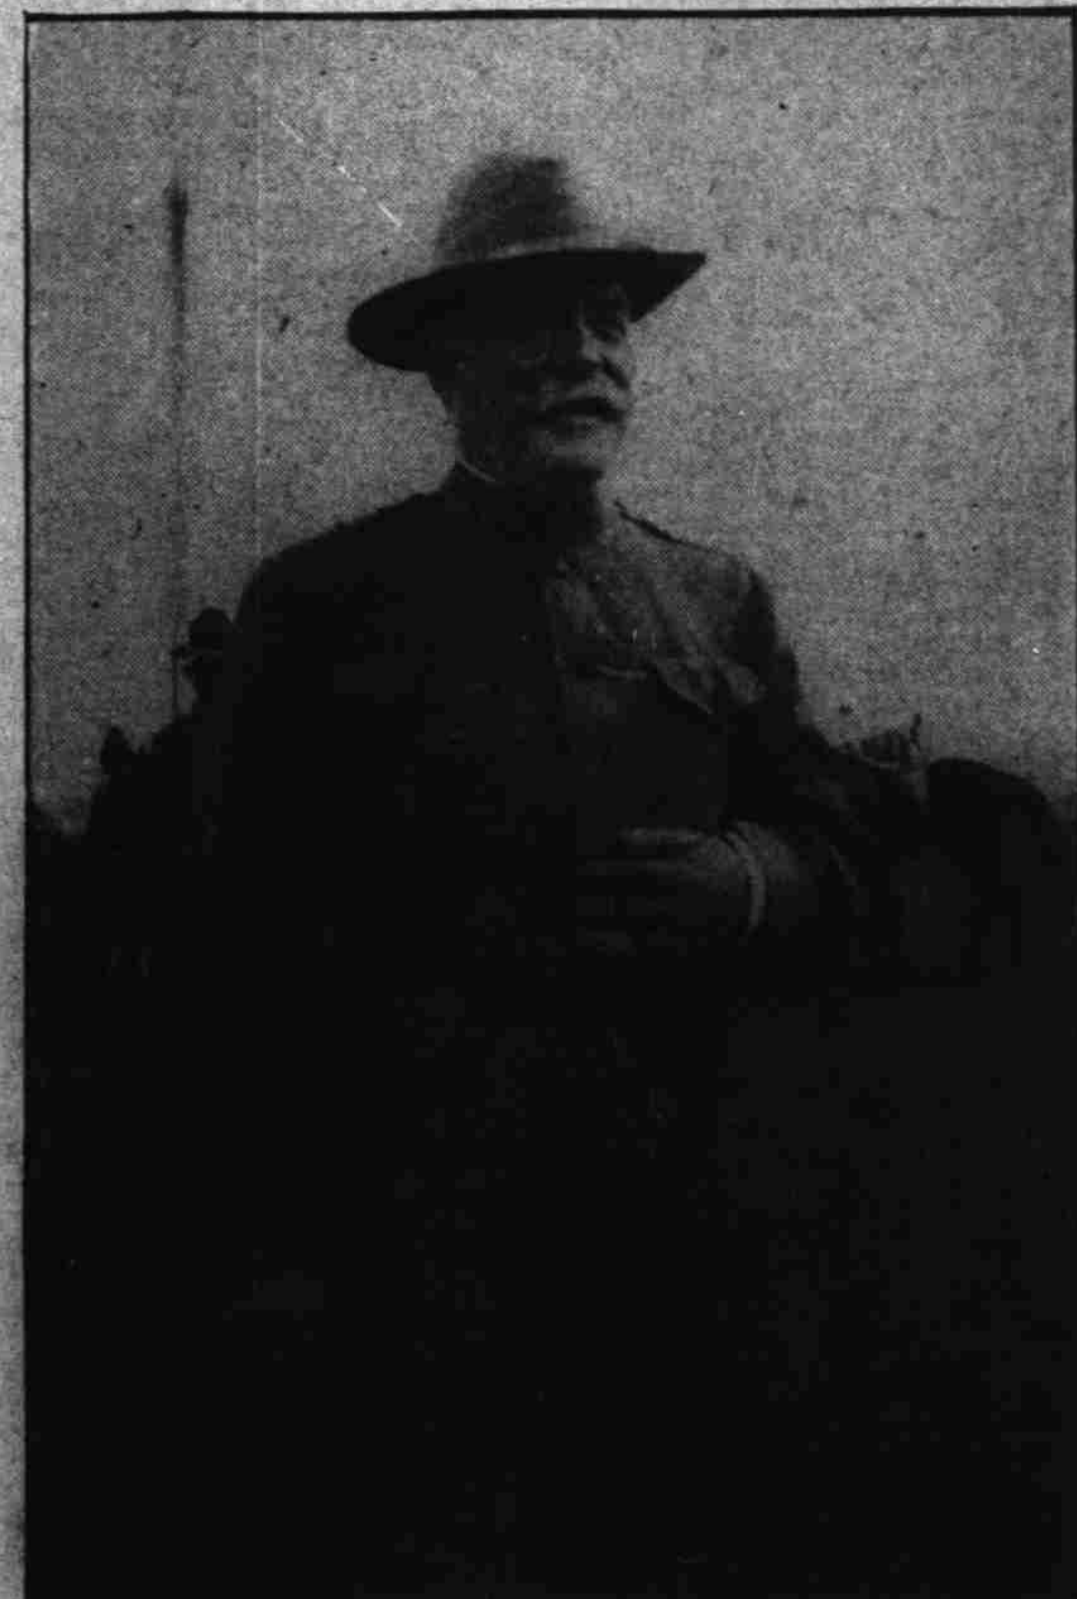

Attorney Frank E. Thompson, chief counsel for the defense, stated today that not more than two men will address the jurors in Marshall's behalf and it is presumed that if another than Thompson speaks it will be Attorney W. C. McKean, the Pennsylvania lawyer who has actively aided the defense throughout the two weeks' trial.

The cross-examination of Marshall was finished at 9:30 o'clock this morning, after William Howe, United States inspector of hulls for this district, had testified briefly concerning some measurements made at the Puahi hula resort by him yesterday. The defense closed its case and County Attorney Cathcart announced the prosecution was done, no evidence being introduced by way of rebuttal. At the request of the jury that body was then escorted to the scene of the killing for a second inspection of the premises, after which the jurors were excused until tomorrow, opposing counsel meanwhile taking up with the court, in the jury's absence, the discussion of the instructions which are to be given the "12 good men and true" for their guidance in arriving at a verdict.

GENERAL AND MRS. MACOMB GIVEN BIG ALOHA BY LARGE CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

Brigadier-general Montgomery M. Macomb, who was showered with well-wishes by his host of friends, military and civil, upon his departure for the mainland this morning.

Service and Civilian Society Bid Bon Voyage to Departing Army Officer

Brigadier-general Montgomery M. Macomb and Mrs. Macomb sailed away from Honolulu on the liner Wilhelmina this morning. Service and civilian society turned out en masse to shower good wishes and alohas on the departing army officer and his charming wife, who for more than three years have made Honolulu their home, and Honolulu people their friends.

Full military honors were accorded General Macomb, who made his way from army headquarters in the Young hotel to his waiting motor car, followed by a line of about 15 automobiles, containing many high ranking army and navy officers and a number of civilian intimates of the general. Arrived at the Matsun dock, the double line of sentinels was again formed, being from the entrance to the Wilhelmina's gangplank, and the battalion formed in line and brought to the present, as the general's car passed.

Colonel William C. Rafferty, commanding the Coast Defense of Oahu, was with General Macomb in the first motor car following the troops, followed by a line of about 15 automobiles, containing many high ranking army and navy officers and a number of civilian intimates of the general. Arrived at the Matsun dock, the double line of sentinels was again formed, being from the entrance to the Wilhelmina's gangplank, and the battalion formed in line and brought to the present, as the general's car passed.

Both at the Young hotel before starting for the dock, and on the steamer's deck, General and Mrs. Macomb were the center of an ever-changing circle of friends, who came freighted with good wishes and leis. "I have been here a good while, and

JUDGE CLEMONS SAYS LEGISLATION FOR CHANGE OF SITES NOT HARD

Jurist Points Out That Congressional Action Will Be Simple and Expeditious

That whatever legislation is needed to secure a change of federal building sites will be comparatively easy to get is the firm belief of Federal Judge Charles F. Clemons, expressed in an interview with the Star-Bulletin this morning. Judge Clemons is an advocate of the Irwin site for the federal building.

Judge Clemons says: "The dominant note of Monday's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce

BRITISH CABINET SHAKEN; WAR SECRETARY RESIGNS AND STARTLING LETTERS REVEALED

Col. Seely Lays Before Parliament Correspondence with Army Officers at Ulster Showing They Were Told They Needn't Shoot Even Under Orders Unless Circumstances Seemed Proper—Asquith Warmly Defends Government's Right to Require Loyalty—Statesmen Predict Fall of Ministry

LONDON, Eng., Mar. 25.—Hourly sensations occasioned by the Home Rule controversy and the firm stand of Ulster are starting the United Kingdom. Today Col. J. E. B. Seely, secretary of state for war, suddenly resigned from the ministry.

Col. Seely has been the subject of severe criticism, together with Premier Asquith, because of his attitude in connection with the resignations of British army officers unwilling to participate in a movement on Ulster. Col. Seely professed his resignation to day by giving parliament the full correspondence relating to the officers' resignations.

Premier Asquith has refused to accept the resignation. The correspondence shows that the government gave the officers written guarantees that they would not be required to shoot unless "the order was reasonable under the circumstances."

LONDON, Eng., March 25.—The correspondence furnished parliament today by Colonel Seely, the war secretary, has astounded the nation.

Many statesmen openly make the prediction that the resignation of the entire cabinet will follow the revelation of the policy given to the officers.

Colonel Seely in a vigorous speech in laying the letters before parliament, warmly defends his course, maintaining that it was necessary to disabuse the minds of the officers of the belief that the government has intended "coercive and repressive measures."

He categorically denied that the king has taken any initiative in connection with any of the matters under discussion.

ASQUITH ASSERTS GOVERNMENT'S RIGHT. Premier Asquith followed Col. Seely. He made a strong speech asserting the government's unqualified right to demand of its officers unquestioning loyalty without first answering hypothetical inquiries.

The letters made public today are to officers garrisoned in Ulster with the resulting replies.

Rowdy Pugilist and Trainer Are Given Novel Sentences

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Mar. 25.—Jimmy Clabby, the well-known middle-weight pugilist, and his trainer, Arthur McQueen, got off rather easily today from the consequences of the terrific beating they gave a policeman some weeks ago. They were given suspended sentences of three years and fined each $500. The judge further required that they must not enter a saloon or engage in any controversy for three years or the full sentence will be immediately operative in case they are detected breaking orders. The judge was merciful because Clabby had paid the officer $1,000, covering all the hospital charges.

Villa's Rebel Forces Meet Resistance at Torreon Strong

BERMEJILLO, Mex., March 25.—Torreon is not being taken without a desperate resistance on the part of the federals and General Villa's plans to take the stronghold in a few days have so far been frustrated. Wounded rebels are now streaming back from Palacio Gomez, where the fighting has centered for a day and a night. The strength of the federal attack is unexpected. There are some rumors that the rebels have received a severe repulse.

Big Shake-up in Japanese Navy Follows Charges and Scandals

TOKIO, Japan, March 25.—As a result of the charges and scandals surrounding the Japanese naval contracts and the opposition to the budget, a big naval shake-up is in progress in the navy department. Many officers are being transferred.

Chinese Bandit Grows Bolder

PEKING, China, Mar. 25.—The ruthless bandit, known as "White Wolf," having succeeded in eluding or defeating the government troops sent to kill or capture him, is growing bolder. He has now invaded the province of Shensi, and recent reports prove that he has captured the town of Lun-chuchai, killing no less than 250 people and wounding and capturing hundreds more.

Oregon Senator Roasts Carnegie

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, speaking in the senate today in sharp criticism of Andrew Carnegie's peace foundation, declared that were Carnegie a citizen of any other nation than the United States he would long ago have been charged with treason.

Honolulan Now on New Service

SEATTLE, Wash., March 25.—The American-Hawaiian liner Honolulan, chartered by the Matsun Navigation Company, sailed today as the inauguration of the new service between this port and the Hawaiian islands.

COMMERCIAL CLUB FAVORABLE TO ADDITION TO PRESENT QUARTERS

At a meeting of the board of governors of the Commercial Club this noon, it was voted to accept the plans presented by the McCandless Brothers for the erection of an additional story to the building now occupied by the club, and to turn the additional space over to the club, at once was taken up for consideration. In the beginning there was considerable discussion whether the club should move into more spacious quarters or remain in the old ones in view of their enlargement. It was pointed out by the majority of the members that the present location, being in the center of Honolulu, was best adapted for the purposes of the organization, and the Club has experienced a marked increase during the past year or two.

The membership of the Commercial Club has experienced a marked increase during the past year or two.

FIJIS ARE SWEEP BY DISASTROUS HURRICANE

Carrying before it many dwellings and coconut groves, a disastrous hurricane swept several of the outlying islands in the Fijis, although doing no great amount of damage at Suva, a port touched at by the Canadian-Australian liner Makura which arrived at Honolulu this morning, following a rather uneventful passage from the south sea.

The gale was followed by a down-pour of 10 inches of rain, that soon inundated a wide area of country, resulting in the death of much stock and wrecking property, an approximate estimate of the loss not having been reached at the time the Makura sailed for Honolulu.

Suva was in the path of the storm, stated officers on board the British steamer today. The glass fell steadily and preparations were made for weathering a hard blow. The hurricane was apparently diverted, the greatest force of the gale being felt at Tavuni and the Lau group. Coconut groves and the latter islands were uprooted and leveled to the ground. Many natives barely escaped with their lives. The hurricane howled through the sparsely settled districts and villages in the direct route followed by the storm were practically wiped off the landscape. At Lomaloma, the majority of the more substantial structures were blown down or damaged to an extent that they must be rebuilt.

Coconut planters in returning to Suva reported that their business has been set back for at least 18 months as a result of the storm. Owing to the absence of reports from some of the more isolated islands in the group, grave fears now exist for the safety of a number of Europeans at the trading stations. Inter-island shipping was obliged to seek safety at protected bays and inlets. The Makura sailed before a number of smaller steamers and sailing craft had been reported at Suva. A relief boat was dispatched at the time the Makura left, its mission being to call at all points through the Fijis where a possibility of relieving distress might exist.

Capt. J. D. S. Phillips, master of the Makura, reported smooth to moderate seas in steaming from Auckland to Suva, the British vessel having escaped the worst of the hurricane. The Makura was not so well favored after departing from the Fijis for a strong northeasterly wind was met which caused a heavy sea that continued until Monday morning. As the liner neared the Hawaiian islands better weather was the rule.

A score of passengers were landed at Honolulu this morning. Proceeding through to Vancouver and Victoria are 269 passengers in the several classes.

The Makura was berthed at Pier 7, where about 50 tons of refrigerated meat and provisions were discharged. A quantity of coal is to be loaded into the vessel's bunkers before the sailing hour, now fixed at 5 o'clock this evening.

The Makura, it is predicted, will be filled to capacity with passengers in sailing for the British Columbian coast.

New Laws Favor Seamen. All steamers arriving at and departing from Argentine ports with fifty or more souls on board containing crew and passengers (if any) must be fitted with wireless telegraphy. The law also requires that there be a competent operator on board, and that the installation be capable of transmitting messages 300 miles at sea. This regulation will not affect tramp steamers, unless when carrying cattle.

Hull a Kaula Arrival. Five thousand sacks of sugar made up the bulk of the cargo brought from Lualaba this morning in the inter-island steamer W. G. Hall. Other items in the freight list were crates of onions, empty drums, hogs, chickens and horses. The Hall met with fine weather on the trip. The vessel has been placed on the berth to sail for the Garden Island at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Why Have an Engine at All? E. M. Woodworth of Tacoma has invented a unique propeller suitable to be fitted to any sized vessel from a rowboat to the largest ocean liner and hopes soon to demonstrate his invention in a speed test between Tacoma and Seattle. Ships fitted with the Woodworth propeller, it is claimed, would be much faster and more economical in operation. That is, with the same engines that give a present-time propeller 500 horsepower the inventor claims his propeller will develop 2100 horsepower.

Taking freight and mails only the inter-island steamer Helene was dispatched for Mahukona, Kawahine, Lau paluhoehoe and Hilo at noon today.

HARBOR NOTES

The next mail for the mainland will be dispatched in the Japanese liner Chiyu Maru, sailing from Honolulu on Friday evening.

A shipment of sugar and a number of head of island cattle are expected to be brought to the port with the return of the steamer Helene from Hawaii.

The prediction is made that the Oceanic liner Sierra, sailing from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, will arrive here Monday morning with a large list of tourists.

A number of Asiatic steamer passengers have been booked for Japan and China in the Pacific Mail liner Persia, scheduled to sail for the Far East Friday morning.

Taking passengers and mails from Honolulu, the Pacific Mail liner Korea, sailing from this port March 17, is reported to have arrived at San Francisco at an early hour Monday morning.

The discharge of a quantity of refrigerated meat from Australia has been hastened with a view of dispatching the British steamer Makura for Vancouver and Victoria at 5 o'clock this evening.

Taking passengers destined for several ports along the coast of Maui and Hawaii, the inter-island steamer Mauna Kea sailed at 10 o'clock this morning. The vessel carried a number of tourists bent on a visit to the volcano.

A thousand or more tons of Orient cargo landed at Pier 7 are being removed as rapidly as possible to permit the discharge of a large amount of freight from China and Japan ports, expected to arrive in the Chiyu Maru.

Castle & Cooke, agents for the Japanese liner Chiyu Maru, have been advised by wireless that the vessel is due to arrive from China and Japan ports about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. The vessel will berth at Pier 7.

The steamer W. G. Hall, an arrival from Kaula ports this morning, will be dispatched for Ahukini and Niihau at 5 o'clock tomorrow evening. Passengers, freight and mails for the Garden Island will be forwarded in this vessel.

Steamer Maui Heavily Laden. One of the largest shipments of sugar from the island of Hawaii to arrive in the steamer Maui in many weeks was received this morning in the consignment of 11,300 sacks of the product from Kawaihae and Mahukona. In addition to sugar the Maui brought 60 head of cattle and a small quantity of sundries. Favorable weather was met on the homeward voyage.

Kaula Reports Much Sugar. Sugar is piling up at the various plantation warehouses along the coast of Kaula according to report brought to this city with the return of the steamer W. G. Hall this morning. The list includes: Kilauea 8000, Kealea 33,500, L. P. 13,000, G. F. 3478, K. S. M. 2890, V. K. 1727, G. & R. 6884, K. P. 5738, M.C.B. 35,923, H. S. 7354 sacks.

Columbian Brings Big Cargo. From Salina Cruz by the way of San Francisco and Seattle and Tacoma, the American-Hawaiian freighter Columbian, with 2200 tons of general cargo from the east and west coast of the United States is an arrival at the port today. The vessel is to take on a quantity of sugar at Honolulu before departing for island ports. C. P. Morse has been advised that the vessel will receive about 12,000 tons of sugar before departing for the isthmus of Tehuantepec.

Many Sail in Wilhelmina. Spanish and Portuguese immigrants to the number of about 75 made up the steamer passenger list carried by the Matson Navigation liner Wilhelmina that hailed away from Pier 15 at 10 o'clock this morning. In the cabin, more than 100 travelers took passage to San Francisco. The Royal Hawaiian band and an organization from the United States army served to enliven the departure of the steamer by a pleasing and impromptu program of melodies.

The Wilhelmina sailed with a full cargo of sugar. Several consignments of preserved pines, coffee and bananas made up the remainder of the island products shipped to the coast in this vessel.

NO FREE SUGAR, GROWING BELIEF IN CAPITAL CITY

The belief is growing in Washington that there will ultimately be no free sugar in so far as the tariff is concerned, says the S. F. Daily Commercial News. It is pointed out that events are so shaping themselves as to make a continuation of a duty on sugar imperative.

The country is beginning to need the sugar revenue. Matters in the United States treasury are not shaping themselves to the liking of the Democrats, who had expected other results. So far the new tariff duties are showing heavy monthly deficits, much greater than the Democrats had at all expected and confounding even the treasury "experts" and doubts are beginning to arise regarding the fullness of the returns from the income tax.

That the Democrats should have thrown away so large a source of revenue as the sugar receipts, that amount to $60,000,000 a year, has been a marvel. It was done by President Wilson. The leaders, including Oscar Underwood, have been opposed to it.

Although there is a slight reduction in the wholesale price of sugar now on account of the partial reduction in duties, this reduction, it is claimed, has not made itself felt to the consumer. The middleman and the refiner are pocketing the proceeds of the reduction. So ultimately, it is declared, it will be the refiner and the middleman who will receive the $60,000,000 the United States government has refused longer to take at its ports of entry.

This, then, while a substantial loss to the government and so to the people, will mean handsome dividends to men whom Congress, furthermore, would expressly legislate against—the refiners. Hides were not made cheaper to the people. Somebody garnered the $10,000,000 in revenue the government yielded.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED, PROVES BIG SURPRISE TO HOST OF FRIENDS. An announcement, which created no little surprise among their many friends, was made this morning of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Wickes and August Haneberg, both well-known residents of Honolulu. The wedding ceremony will be held April 3, shortly after which the couple will leave on their honeymoon, which is reported will include an extensive tour of Europe.

Miss Wickes was born in Honolulu and has a host of friends residing throughout the islands. Mr. Haneberg, who is a retired sugar planter, first came to Hawaii in May, 1870, and became prominent in local business circles. Since his retirement from business some years ago, he has made his home in Oahala, Cal., and in Honolulu, and is the possessor of a beautiful home in the former city. He is a native of Germany and plans to visit his old home with his bride during their honeymoon. The couple are undecided as to whether they will make their home in Honolulu or on the mainland.

Herbert Myhre, formerly of Kaula, died at his home in Honolulu this morning, aged 39 years. The funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from Williams' undertaking establishment. Deceased is survived by his father, C. G. Myhre, who is a resident of this city, and by two brothers.

Slow Passage for Griffiths. From San Francisco, requiring 30 days to complete the passage with a shipment totalling 670,000 feet of lumber, the schooner J. M. Griffiths was towed into the harbor at noon today. Captain Ottman stated that light and contrary winds were responsible for the length of time consumed on the voyage. The vessel will receive a prompt dispatch for the Sound. The schooner brings material consigned to the United States quartermaster department.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Honolulu residents who are graduates of Cornell University will gather at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan MacCaughy, Manoa, Saturday evening for an informal social.

Circuit Judge Whitney today appointed E. M. Wood as administrator of the estate of Arthur W. Wagner, to serve under $300 bond. Wagner killed a woman at the Seaside Hotel several weeks ago and then committed suicide.

MAN WILLING TO WORK IS LOOKING FOR A JOB

Is there any firm or person in Honolulu who has a position for a Portuguese man about 30 years old, with a wife and four small children dependent upon him, who is willing to work but who, on account of sickness, has been unable to work for the past six months? Spencer Bowen, manager of the Associated Charities, asks the question, in hope that the man may be given assistance. Mr. Bowen said this morning that, prior to his taking sick, the man in question had a position in town, but was forced to leave it on account of his illness. Now that he is well, says the manager, and willing to go to work in the endeavor to support his family, he can find no employment and has solicited the aid of the charities.

The case was called to the attention of the charities about two weeks ago, at which time temporary assistance was given by the organization. The charities secured a position for the man as night watchman, but the night work threatened to bring back his illness and he had to abandon the position. Mr. Bowen says that the man is willing to go to work and that he appears capable, and now is endeavoring to secure him a position where he could work during the day, possibly at driving a delivery wagon or some other form of outside employment.

Lifting Up Russian Peasant

From time immemorial, until M. Stolypin's revolution of the Russian system of peasant culture, the prevailing method of distributing peasants' holdings was this: The land of the village was divided into long strips, so narrow that often—especially in Poland—there was not room to turn a plow around. They would be, perhaps, half a mile, or even a mile long, and a chain wide, or less, set side by side, and each cultivated by one peasant family. These strips would be grouped, perhaps, on three sides of the village. Some, however, were as much as seven miles away from the occupier's dwelling.

A peasant with the everage holding of 30 acres would have several of these strips in various parts of the village territory. His method of cultivation, in these circumstances, was such as might be summed up in the classic phrase, "When father turns, we all turn." The crop decided on by the senior man of the village would have to be sown by all. Needless to say, the sowing and reaping by individuals of long narrow patches—a feudal relic, traces of which are still to be found in England—was about as inconvenient a way as could be found.

There arose reformers, who said: "Why not cultivate all the holdings as one and pool the profits? M. Stolypin, scenting socialism where we should only scent co-operation, determined to nip this purpose in the bud, and promptly amended the laws, and customs of the village holdings, consolidating each peasant's series of strips into one acre of rectangular or other convenient shape. This change, which obviously gave the more up-to-date of the Russian peasants some scope for initiative, also, by reducing the amount of toll, made it possible for the smaller farmer to cultivate his land with more care. The result will certainly be that the yield per acre of Russian cereals, which for years was lower than it should be, will rise considerably. This is shown by the fact that in the Baltic province, where the strip system never existed, where the standard of education and technique is higher, and where longer periods of crop rotation obtain, the yield per acre is far larger than in the "Black Land," in the center, the richest land in the world.

POLICE SITTINGS

George Nabiau, has been sent to the reef to spend three months at Hotel Asch, having been found guilty of assault with a weapon upon two Chinese.

Found guilty of taking a quantity of grain sacks, W. Morris, colored, arrested by Captain of Detectives McDuffie, has been sentenced to serve one year at the city and county jail.

Before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning seven Chinese entered a plea of having been present at a gambling game last evening.

Nine Chinese placed under arrest by officers connected with the detective department last Monday evening, charged with gambling, were released with a nolle prosequi when arraigned before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning.

Humalai, declared to have succeeded in making his escape from the territorial insane asylum, was placed under arrest by police officers last evening as he was attempting to board the Interisland steamer 'Mikahala' for Maui, Molokai and Lanai ports.

Removing the putty from a glass window at a store near the corner of Wai'alae road and Fifth avenue at an early hour this morning, burglars are reported to have entered the premises conducted by See Chong as a general store, removing a quantity of canned fruit and provisions, which later were recovered about 50 yards distant by police officers.

dozen character witnesses, prominent men of Fayette county, Pennsylvania, Marshall's home, which were obtained some months ago for the defense were not offered in evidence and thus have proven useless.

It is generally conceded by those who followed the trial and heard Marshall's testimony that he created a strong favorable impression, which may have much weight with the jury.

Throughout the cross-examination by the city and county attorney the defendant maintained this admirable poise, responding directly and without hesitation to every question, making no contradictory statements.

Throughout the trial much stress has been laid on the positions of different actors in the hula house during the tragic events of the night of August 9 last, many measurements have been taken, introduced in court and discussed at length.

Though the purpose of the jurors in desiring to inspect the hula resort a second time was not made known, of course, it is thought they sought to ascertain by observation, whether it had been actually possible for Marshall to escape through this doorway.

In his final cross-examination at the hands of the prosecutor, the defendant persisted in his story that while he was sparring with Dick someone jumped upon him from behind, and that he did not know who it was.

He declared that just before he jumped into his car, while Guertler was pursuing him the latter shouted with an oath:

When he obtained Drew's gun at Cassidy's that night Marshall said he took it from its holster and put it in his pocket without examining it, and didn't know whether it was loaded.

COUNSEL CLASH IN TRIAL OF BERT BOWER

Very slow progress was made in the George A. (Bert) Bower trial in the U. S. District Court this morning, although at noon, when recess was taken, District Attorney McCarr stated that the prosecution had probably finished its testimony.

The only witness examined was Violet Spreen of the Industrial School, who proved to be an exceedingly difficult one, apparently having much difficulty in understanding the questions put to her.

On another occasion the Spreen girl was one of an auto party in which were Bower, Victoria Mortensen, a younger Spreen girl, and two men designated by the witness as "Frazier" and "Max."

The court session was marked by an almost continual clash between counsel regarding the admission of testimony, and twice the jury was sent out while technical details were thrashed out, and on another occasion Judge Clemons and the attorneys retired for some little time for the same purpose.

The Spreen girl occasioned some mirth by vehemently declaring at one point that she did not understand the meaning of the terms "mauka" and "makai," although she is part Hawaiian and admitted that she speaks the language.

He denied the story told by Dick that the latter arose from the bench at the further end of the room after Guertler, and that Dick proceeded standing nearer Marshall when the latter fired the fatal shot than did the man who was wounded.

ARMY NOTES

Infantry lieutenants and captains are not enthusiastic over the idea of taking the Porto Rico regiment of infantry into the regular establishment by transferring all the officers to the infantry branch of the army.

That the present captains and lieutenants of the Porto Rico regiment of infantry shall be recommissioned as captains and lieutenants of infantry, in their present respective grades, to take rank on the lineal list of officers of infantry immediately after officers of the same grade whose total commissioned service is equal to or exceeds theirs.

Provided further, that the status of all officers of the Porto Rican regiment of infantry recommissioned in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section shall be in every respect that of all other officers of infantry of like grades, and that all laws and parts of laws inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed, and that nothing in these provisions shall be so construed as to increase the total number of officers now authorized by law.

Col. John T. Van Orsdale, 17th Infantry, who has just gone on the retired list for age, has the distinction of being one of the few officers in active service holding a brevet for distinguished service in Indian wars. He was graduated from West Point in June, 1872, and was assigned as a 2d lieutenant in the 7th Infantry, remaining with that command through the Indian campaigns and the Spanish-American war.

Van Orsdale saw frontier service in Montana, Washington, Minnesota, Dakota and Wyoming. He won the brevet of 1st lieutenant in 1877 for gallant service in action against Chief Joseph.

The president has accepted the resignation from the service of 1st Lieut. Wyatt O. Selkirk, coast artillery corps, who was commissioned a 2d lieutenant from civil life June 10, 1907, promoted to 1st lieutenant in the same year, both appointment and promotion being in the field artillery.

War department orders that reached the headquarters of the Hawaii department today announce the promotions to 1st lieutenant of five 2d lieutenants of cavalry. The officers are: Hayden W. Wagner, 3d Cavalry, to remain in that same command; Fred H. Coleman, 2d Cavalry, to remain in the 2d Cavalry; Emil P. Mason, 14th Cavalry, to be transferred to the 7th Cavalry; Richard M. Kibball, 11th Cavalry, to stay with that command, as also is the case with Abbott Boone, 3d Cavalry.

The preliminary hearings before the U. S. Commission of the 23 alleged violators of the internal revenue laws, who were arrested on Hawaii Sunday and brought here Tuesday, have been disposed of, with the exception of five cases, where continuances have been allowed. The others have been committed and are awaiting trial before the U. S. circuit court.

Wise men have but few confidants, and cunning ones none.—H. W. Shaw.

SORRY TO LOSE HIM

General Montgomery M. Macomb has been not only a popular officer and efficient commander during his term in Hawaii, but a good citizen. Honolulu and the territory are correspondingly sorry that he is leaving the islands.

One of the strongest, sincerest, most illuminative speeches made at any public event here within the last three years was that by General Macomb at the University Club on the occasion of the first "get-together" meeting in preparation for the Greater Chamber of Commerce. It is now a good many months ago, but his words are still clear in memory. He spoke of the earnest desire on the part of the military arm of the government on Oahu to cooperate with the territory and the city and county in all things for the public good; emphasized better sanitation in certain sections of the city, the beautification of streets and boulevards, and closed with the statement that he and those stationed on Oahu with him, in common with the people whose permanent homes and businesses are here, are desirous of giving their best efforts "for the love of Honolulu." He has been a good citizen of this city and has helped immeasurably to promote cordial relations between the army and the civilian elements.

The esteem in which General Macomb is held was amply attested this morning by the really remarkable gathering of leading citizens who bade him farewell at army headquarters and at the dock before his steamer sailed. Hawaii may not see him again while he remains in active duty, but certainly we shall hope that he may return here some day if only for a brief visit.

KAUAI TO WELCOME AD CLUB

Who is it says that Kauai doesn't welcome the visitor?

That isn't the spirit of the Garden Island or of the Kauai people who are planning to welcome the Ad Club excursion next Saturday morning.

Editor L. D. Timmons devotes most of this week's issue of the Garden Island to the Ad Club trip. The issue is very neatly gotten up and contains much information about Kauai that will be valuable to the Ad Club members on their trip. It is abundantly illustrated with pictures of the Ad Club leaders.

Editorially the paper says:

"To the Ad Club we would say: 'Gentlemen, you are three welcome. Enjoy yourselves. Tell us what you are—what you are seeking to accomplish; what good may come to the people of Kauai as a result of the adoption of your ideas, and what you term 'the Ad Club spirit.' We are ready to learn—to be shown, if you will. While doing all this, remember that we have much for you to see on the Garden Island. Keep your eyes and ears on the alert, and endeavor to glean in your more or less rapid tour correct impressions of our scenery, our individual efforts and accomplishments, our roads, our schools and our people. Do this, and your visit, we feel sure, will be long and favorably remembered on both sides of the channel between us.'"

FRIENDS OF HAWAII AT WORK

A good deal of quiet but none the less significant work on behalf of Hawaii's sugar is being done by chance visitors to the islands who from first-hand observation learn that the free-sugar policy is ruinous to this territory.

An example of this is found in an article in the Sacramento News by Dr. F. L. Atkinson, who in the course of a world-tour stopped off here with friends. An appreciative letter on the charms of Hawaii contains the following comment:

"Gems of the Pacific" these islands are called, but as a white man's land they must be planted. Sugar is the great crop and probably always will be while the islands are swayed by whites. But I am sorry to find that the white man here is much distressed over the tariff being taken off of sugar, leaving him to compete with the world in the production of this staple. So far as soil is concerned, he could do that successfully but the question of labor and wages cuts a great figure here. In these islands the planters have to pay approximately a dollar a day for farm labor against a price of 14 cents a day in Java and the Philippines. This bad national policy of free sugar threatens the life of the islands so far as the white population is concerned, sugar being the one great crop.

Should the wage question cause its discontinuance, as it is likely to do, the islands will naturally fall back into the hands of Asiatics. It seems foolish Democracy to ruin so fair and fertile a land. Already I hear that many are pointing to the Pacific Coast as a place of future residence. Depression in stocks and bonds is very marked and gloom prevails in Honolulu and apprehension is felt for the future of the islands.

The policy of administration at Washington is certainly inimical to the good interest and future of Hawaii. Democratic politics will certainly be the ruination of these fair islands unless some change is made in carrying out the free sugar schedule of the late tariff bill.

I am sure that not a sane citizen of the U. S. A., were he aware of the real conditions in regard to sugar in the islands but would quickly spurn to receive his estimate of 58 cents annual saving on sugar brought about by the new tariff.

Through the good offices of such visitors as Dr. Atkinson thousands of people on the mainland will begin to realize that the Democratic administration is making a mistake in forcing through a free-sugar policy. Publicity is bound to help Hawaii's cause, though the process may be slow.

THE TIMES SEES A REAL PERIL

Civil war in Ireland seems impossible to most of the rest of the world, but the London Times takes the gravely alarming view that if the government persists in its firm intention to put through the home rule bill in its present form civil war is inevitable.

Commenting on the refusal of Britons generally to place any credence in Ulster's threats to fight, the famous organ says:

"This feeling of security, which rests entirely on habit, and has no basis in reason, is quite worthless. People would not believe in the Balkan war the other day till it happened. They did not believe in the Spanish-American war or the Russo-Japanese war. If anyone had foretold the foundering of the Titanic on her maiden voyage it would have been laughed aside as an impossibility. Two years ago people would not believe that the coal strike would ever take place, even when it had become plainly inevitable to those who could see what was going on. The present danger of civil war is very similar. If the government continue on the present course, as some of their followers are urging them, civil war is absolutely inevitable. The failure of any section of the public to understand it or believe it is worth no more than their failure to anticipate the coal strike. It is due to a silly confidence that nothing so disagreeable can happen to us, whatever may be the case in Mexico. All serious students of Home Rule and Ireland now know better. To insist upon the imminence of this great national peril, which only the government can avert, is the prime duty of the opposition in the session which now enters on the business of the nation."

Vice-president Marshall celebrated his sixtieth birthday recently and incidentally remarked that the man who never thinks of the passing years needn't grow old. Evidently Indiana fiction is still convincing.

Mayor Fern is unruffled at the prospect of many candidates for his office. He probably goes on the theory that the more there are, the worse they'll fight among themselves.

Louisiana's attorney-general, now fighting on behalf of the state's sugar industry, is named Ruffin Pleasant. He'll have an appropriate name for use whether he wins or loses.

Why not suggest to Secretary McAdoo that he might come to Hawaii and look over the federal building site as a honeymoon trip?

Premier Asquith having explained, it now becomes his painful duty to stop and listen to what's being said about him.

After the Chicago convention it will take more than a few South American rapids to put the Colonel out of business.

The federal building site—wherever it is—will be a good place to bury the hatchet.

Maybe O'Shaughnessy is resigning to get nearer that little controversy in Ulster.

Ambassador Page must have turned a new leaf.

Governor Pinkham, British Consul E. S. Gordon, Federal Judge Dole, former Governor George R. Carter, F. M. Swany, Territorial Treasurer D. L. Conkling and Dr. R. J. Hodel, a distinguished travelling correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung, the German newspaper.

Premier Newton made a brief and graceful speech in response to the ovation given him by the club. He spoke of the cordial relations between the countries of the Pacific and endorsed the promotion of tourist traffic.

Chairman Wood of the fair commission read a very interesting and exceedingly comprehensive address on the progress of the exposition work to date, showing that it is far advanced and that the 1915 fair will be on a tremendous scale and well carried out in detail.

The Kaula trip was reported on by Henry A. Giles, the energetic chairman of the committee, and arrangements talked over.

Chairman Riggs of the committee on membership came through with a report that brings the total membership up to a little over 520.

Gen. J. H. Soper reported for the roads committee that the supervisors are doing their best to improve roads on the windward side and urged cooperation with them. The club endorsed this attitude by a rousing vote and Mayor Fern, called on to speak, said, "Gentlemen, if you will all cooperate and work with the mayor and supervisors, why, we'll get good roads in the near future."

The club formally extended a vote of thanks to the Hawaiian band and Capt. Berger for its faithful services, past and prospective.

Reception at Wharf.

The reception to Sir Newton really began before the Canadian-Australian liner Maikura arrived at the dock. A little after 9 o'clock this morning, for the reception committee of the Ad Club, composed of W. R. Farrington, H. L. Strange, William Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Frazier and Mrs. Ernest B. Clark met the vessel off port and breakfasted with Sir Newton and his party aboard.

When Sir Newton appeared on the gangplank of the ship to be taken on a whirlwind sight-seeing trip, and to two morning receptions—one at the home of Queen Liliuokalani where he met the queen, and the other at the capital where he met Governor Pinkham—he was encircled with leis furnished by the reception committee.

It was 10 o'clock when the party arrived at the queen's home. Before this Sir Newton had been taken to the Aquarium, around Diamond Head, and back through some of the main streets of the city. With Queen Liliuokalani was Senator Curtis P. Iaukea; the guest of the day was presented to them by Mr. Farrington, president of the club. For several minutes they chatted together, and then the party left for the capitol, where Governor Pinkham was met.

Half hour later, once more in automobiles, furnished for the occasion by Charles R. Frazier, Robert W. Shingle and George R. Carter, Sir Newton was taken to the Pal. He was highly pleased with the wonderful ride there and the remarkable view of the island from that point. Returning they visited the Country Club for a few minutes, and from there the party returned to the Alexander Young hotel.

It was arranged before the luncheon at the Young that Sir Newton should be taken to the Outrigger Club at 2 o'clock. George D. Center of the club arranged an interesting entertainment there. It proved a splendid day for surf sports, canoeing and surf board riding. A lever of all forms of athletics and particularly outdoor sports, Sir Newton was keenly interested and pleased with the exhibition.

At 4 o'clock tea is to be served to the party at the Moana hotel. As the sailing time of the Makura is set at 5 o'clock, the party will speed from the Moana to the steamer which is docked at Alakea wharf, Pier 7.

'MODERN ARTILLERY' SUBJECT OF ADDRESS AT Y.M.C.A. THURSDAY

"Modern Artillery" will be the subject of an address by Capt. John S. Johnston of Fort Ruger at the Young Men's Christian Association on Thursday evening. Captain Johnston is the artillery engineer connected with the coast defense staff and has under his charge the construction of the big rifles and mortars. His address will be of unusual interest to non-military people who are interested in the big guns. The Thursday night lectures are held in Cooke hall. They commence at 8 o'clock and are free to members of the association and their men friends.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—MAYOR FERN: Politics never tells. It is politicians who tell.

ED TOWSE: If that "Come Week in Hawaii" plan works out all right, at least 15,000 tourists should visit Hawaii in 1915.

WILLIAM M. ALEXANDER is reported as numbered with the returning passengers from the coast in the steamer Matsonia.

C. G. HEISER, who has been away on the mainland on a business and pleasure trip, is expected back in the steamer Matsonia.

—CHARLES FRAZIER: Sir Newton Moore's first glimpse of Honolulu delighted him. He says he is enjoying every minute here.

MISS E. STRICKLAND is expected to return from a visit to the coast as a passenger in the Matson steamer Matsonia, due at Honolulu March 31.

—JEFF McCARN: I am glad to see that after seven years of warring there is peace, or at least a truce, between the federal site factions of Honolulu. You see there is a moral side to the question.

—PAUL SUPER: Several notable personages will visit Honolulu within the next two months. Among them will be the general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Chicago and the dean of the school of Journalism of the University of Missouri.

—W. S. BOWEN: I notice a slight betterment in the labor condition in Honolulu. We secured work for 17 men the other day, which is very encouraging. There is no set-up in the number of daily visits to the Associated Charities office, however.

—E. A. MOTT-SMITH: If the new chairman of the public utilities commission ever needs any assistance I will be pleased to give it to him. Then I would have a chance to drop into the office occasionally and see how that library is progressing.

JAMES A. RATH: Although the Palama Settlement playground will be opened April 1, we are planning a grand opening in June to take place about the time when the schools close for the summer. The children of the settlement are anxiously awaiting the event.

—GOVERNOR PINKHAM: The conference between Fair Commissioner H. P. Wood and myself yesterday morning was highly satisfactory. The progress which the Hawaii Fair Commission has made spells success for the part which these islands will play at the exposition.

—"SOAPBOX" BARRON (whispered from Washington, D. C.): Heavens! I thought I had competition in Honolulu, but I never dreamed there were so many office seekers in the wild world as I've found here. I still have hope of meeting some public official of importance, however.

Personal Mention

J. W. FRANCIS, a civil war veteran and well-known in Honolulu, is seriously ill at his home in Kaimuki.

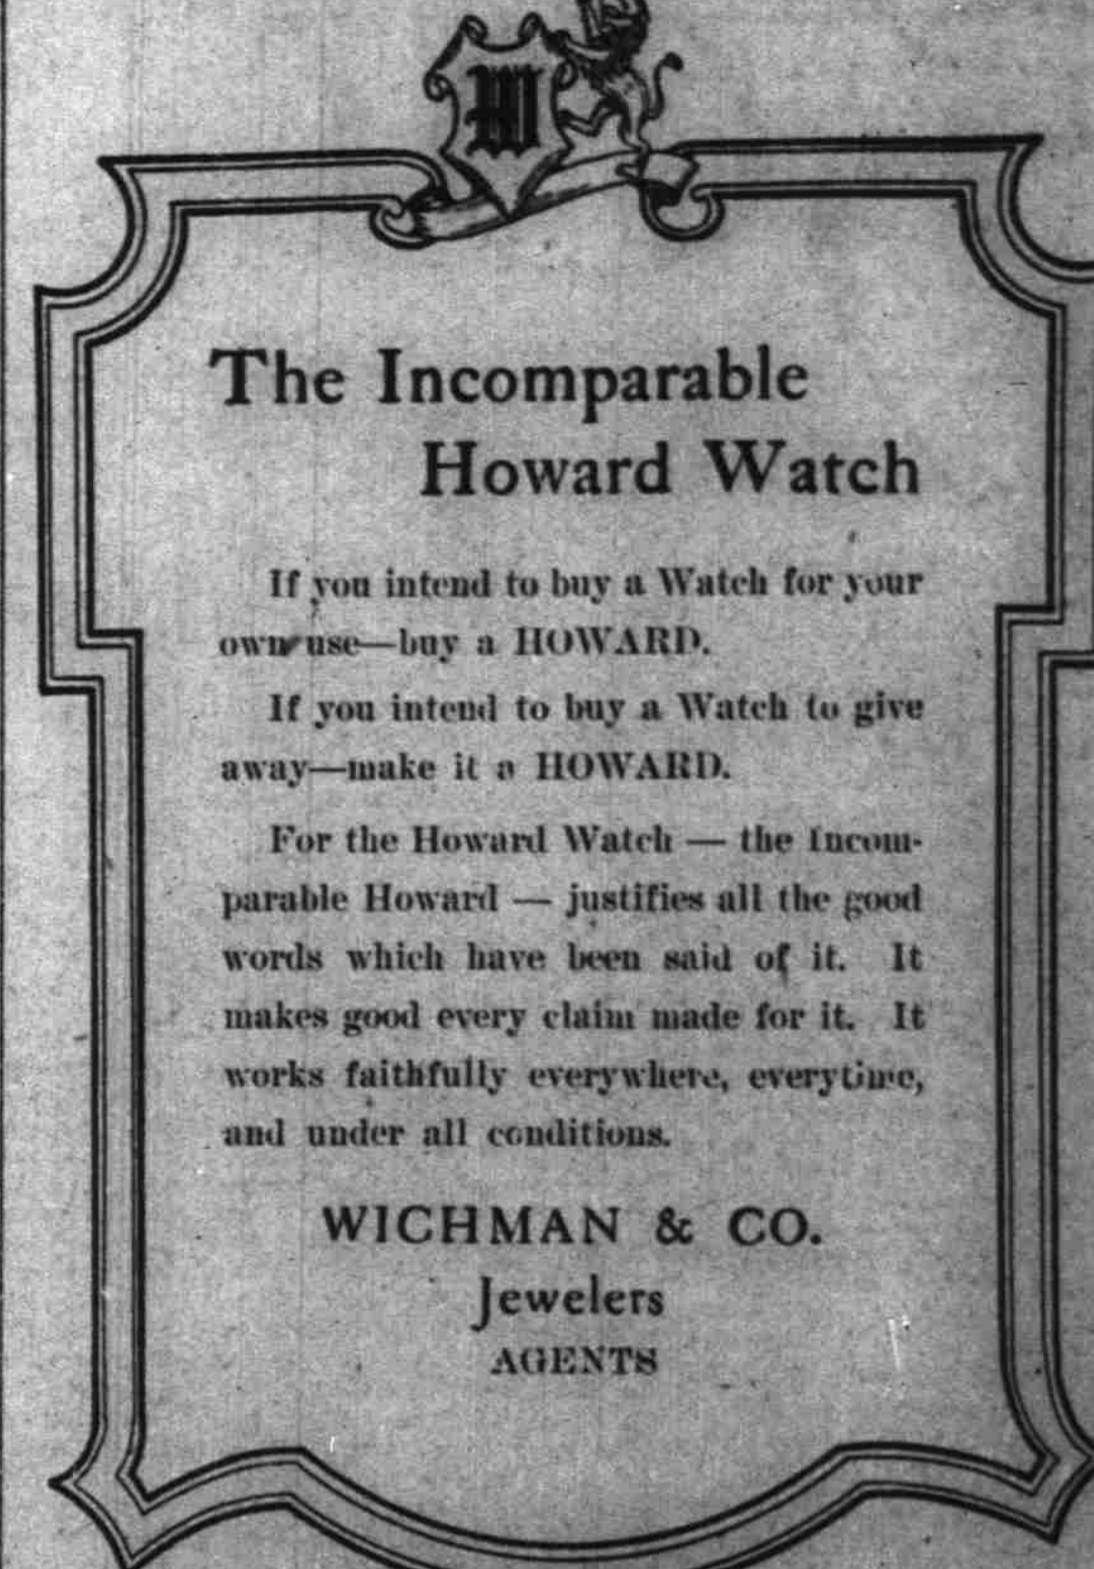

JAMES A. RATH, headworker of the Palama Settlement, will leave for Maui tomorrow and will spend a month on that island. Mr. Rath has been in ill-health for some time, and his physician has ordered a brief change of residence.

GENERAL MACOMB IS BIDDEN FAREWELL AT THE UNIVERSITY CLUB

Last night the University Club was the scene of a brilliant farewell reception and dinner to General Macomb, about 100 members sitting down to the meal, while practically every officer in Honolulu and the nearby posts, and many from Schofield Barracks, came in during the course of the evening to say good-by to the former department and brigade commander.

There were toasts and songs and generally a judicious mixture of things serious and frivolous that made the evening a big success, and helped to lighten the regrets of saying good-by.

President Judd of the University Club acted as toastmaster at the banquet, and seated at the head table with him were the guest of honor,

Dance at Manoa

Last Saturday night there was a most delightful dance at the Hotel Aubrey, Manoa, on the windward side. Those attending came from the various plantations and settlements in the vicinity, and made quite a nice little gathering, which was added to by the guests of the house. Many of those who came to attend the dance had dinner at the hotel, after which the dining-room was cleared of the tables and the dance was on.

The music was furnished by the late quintet club, the delightful and charming strains of the two-steps and waltzes floating away through the trees and mingling with the beat of the surf on the beach. Among those attending were: Mrs. M. E. Kelso, Miss F. H. Foster, Mrs. R. T. Christoffersen, Miss D. Mutch, Miss L. Mutch, Miss E. K. Rowell, Mrs. Estelle Elmes, Mrs. Margaret Carson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hawaiian Islands Are Discussed by Club Women in Stockton.

Mrs. Philip B. Fraser, acting chairman of the history section of the Philomathean Club, presented an unusually interesting program yesterday afternoon for the pleasure of the members of the club. Mrs. Fraser introduced the subject of the day, "The Hawaiian Islands," with a short history of the early rulers of the islands. Mrs. Ralph Todd Stone read two poems, "Hawaii" (Henshaw) and "King Kalakaua" (Robert Louis Stevenson), and Mrs. A. H. Cook read a paper, "King Kalakaua," prepared by Mrs. C. P. Berthoff. Mrs. Berthoff was ill and unable to attend the meeting. "Queen Liliuokalani and Princess Kaiulani" was the subject discussed by Mrs. W. R. Treasurer. She gave an excellent history of the last ruler of the Hawaiian Islands and told of the conditions which brought about the annexation of the islands by the United States which became part of our possessions on August 12, 1898. Mrs. Irma Ridley Totten, accompanied by Miss Jane D. Fanning, sang in her usual fine style a group of Hawaiian songs, "Hawaii Pono!" (the national hymn composed by King Kalakaua) and "Wreath of Carnations."—Stockton Independent.

Mrs. Alexander's pol Luncheon.

A very delightful affair of last week was the pol luncheon given on Friday by Mrs. Arthur Alexander in honor of Mrs. E. Arthur, mother of Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, who has been visiting her daughter for the past few months. The guests were seated at two tables which, besides being heaped with ferns—Hawaiian style—were gaily adorned, the one with orange-colored nasturtiums, and the other with scarlet carnations. Tropical fruits, water lemons and native shrubbery added to the festive appearance. After a luncheon of delicious Hawaiian "goodies," the guests repaired to the lawn, where a post script course of ice cream and American confectionery was served. Among Mrs. Alexander's guests were Mrs. E. Arthur, Mrs. J. B. Atherton, Mrs. Austin, Mrs. A. Judd, Mrs. Sara Cousins, Mrs. C. H. Dickey, Mrs. A. F. Cooke, Mrs. J. S. Emerson, Mrs. Zabriski, Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, Mrs. Theodore Richards, Mrs. David Olsen, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. Arthur L. Andrews and Miss Agnes Judd.

Mrs. William Guy Witter and her daughter, Miss Margaret Witter, who are mentioned in the following account, spent the summer in the islands three years ago and were extensively entertained by local society folk. Several of the other names mentioned are familiar to us in Hawaii from their numerous visits here, including Miss Margaret Hazeltine, Miss Grace Weeks, Miss Lella McKibben and Miss Mildred Porter. These were among the Kappa Kappa Gamma girls who spent the summer of 1911 at the Moana with Mrs. Witter chaperoning. The account says:

"Quite the most brilliant social function of the month was the tea given this afternoon by Mrs. William Guy Witter and her daughter, Miss Margaret Witter, at their home on Durant avenue, Berkeley. Several hundred of the smart set from both sides of the bay were bidden to the affair, which was planned as a compliment to Mrs. Stubbs, wife of Chancellor Stubbs of the University of Nevada. Miss Ruth Stubbs and Mrs. Max Smith, who was Miss Beryl Burch until her marriage a few weeks ago.

"The Witter home was beautifully decorated with quantities of spring blossoms and feathery ferns and furnished a most effective setting for the elaborate gathering. The affair this afternoon was the first given by Mrs. Witter and her charming daughter since their return from Europe.

"In the receiving line with the hostess and her daughter were Mrs. Albert Burch, Mrs. Robert Sterling, Mrs. Perry Tompkins, Mrs. Ida Stewart, Miss Lucia Gore, Mrs. Rufus Jennings, Miss Louise Burch, Miss Mildred Ahis, Miss Jeanette Miller, Miss Mildred Porter, Miss Lella McKibben, Miss Margaret Hazeltine, Miss Helen Weston, Mrs. Benjamin Weston, Mrs. Roy Shurtleff, Miss Alice Helatand, Miss Grace Griffith and Miss Grace Weeks."

A very pretty ovation was tendered Mrs. Montgomery Macomb when she sailed on the Wilhelmina this morning. The society ladies of town—not to be outdone by the army folk who escorted General Macomb to the boat with all due eclat—gathered en masse at the dock, each one armed with a pink or white lei. As Mrs. Macomb started up the gangway, they formed a triumphal arch of the leis beneath which she laughingly passed. Later a number of the leis were hung about her neck and she was further laden with exquisite bouquets of roses, orchids and sweetpeas. Mrs. Macomb, who is an unusually beautiful woman, was lovelier than ever as she stood at the Wilhelmina's rail in her natty traveling suit, with her arms full of gaily-tinted flowers. Both she and General Macomb will be greatly missed in Honolulu, not only by the service set, but by the society folk of town as well. For the past three years they have taken an active part in the doings of the smart set, entertaining their friends in a most lavish and hospitable manner.

The Siberia sailing on Monday for the states carried a number of well-known people away with it bound for homes on the mainland. Dr. and Mrs. A. Erdman, who have spent the past few months with their son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. John Erdman, were among the passengers. Mrs. Thomas Ahearn and her niece, Miss Gwendolen Darling, guests during the winter in Honolulu, returned to their home in Ottawa, Canada. While in Honolulu they were extensively entertained, among those giving affairs in their honor being Mrs. C. G. Barentyns, Mrs. Edward Derum and Mrs. E. M. Watson. Mr. J. H. Neustadt and his daughter, Miss Genevieve Neustadt, sailed after six or eight months in the islands. Miss Neustadt was very popular with the younger set and took a prominent part in their social activities.

Laden with flowers and bon voyage gifts, encircled to the last with throngs of friends and well-wishers, British consul and Mrs. J. B. Rentlers sailed on Monday evening on the Hongkong Maru for their future station in Manila. Selcom has the departure of anyone been so keenly regretted by society folk as that of the Rentlers, who, although they have been here only a year, have been inordinately liked and sought after. In return they entertained extensively, their affairs always being most delightful and invitations greatly prized.

Mrs. Williams, widow of Colonel Charles F. Williams, U. S. Marine Corps, who has been visiting her granddaughter, the wife of Lieutenant Ross S. Kingsbury, U. S. Marine Corps, at marine barracks, Charleston, S. C., has gone to Pensacola navy yard, Lieutenant Kingsbury having been ordered to marine barracks, Pensacola, Fla. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Kingsbury left Charleston for Pensacola March 1.—Exchange.

The Misses Sherman, Wilson and Bull of San Francisco, who have been spending the past few weeks in Honolulu, sailed on the Mauna Kea for Hawaii today, planning an extensive "look-see" at the volcano.

Mrs. Frederick C. Lyser was a departing passenger on the Wilhelmina this morning for San Francisco to be absent for six months. Prior to her departure, Mrs. Lyser has been the guest of honor at a number of luncheons and bridge parties, given by the ladies of Manoa.

Mrs. S. W. Tay sailed for her home in San Francisco this morning after several months in Hawaii. Mrs. Tay is a frequent visitor to the islands, and, in fact, formerly lived here.

A recent arrival in Honolulu from California is Mr. George Q. Gill of Tulare. Mr. Gill will spend a month or so traveling over the islands and seeing the points of interest, after which he will return to Tulare accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lulu Gill, who has been teaching in Honolulu for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bierbach entertained informally at dinner on Saturday night at the Rathauskeller. After the repast, the party adjourned to the Bierbach home in Manoa valley and devoted the remainder of the evening to bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gallard Smart have left San Mateo, where they have been visiting for the past month, and gone East on the second lap of their journey. The Smarts will later sail for Europe, where they expect to remain indefinitely.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Wood—the latter a sister of Mr. Harold Dillingham—have closed their attractive apartment in San Francisco and gone to Del Monte for an indefinite period.

Announcement was made this morning of the engagement of Miss Alide Dorothy Hartwell, daughter of the late Judge Hartwell, and Dr. Ferdinand Hedemann.

The Princess Kalaniana'ole arrived in San Francisco last week and is at the Stewart. She was met there by Prince Kalaniana'ole, who came up from Paso Robles.

Mr. George S. Dearborn of Chicago, president of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company, arrived in San Francisco last week and is staying at the St. Francis.

Rear-admiral and Mrs. Uriel Sebree have left their home in Southern California and are spending a few weeks in San Francisco at the Fairmont.

Recent visitors in Honolulu are Mr. and Mrs. Dryfus Barney of Washington, D. C., who are spending several weeks here en route to the Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wood returned on the Manoa yesterday from San Francisco, where they spent several weeks at the Palace hotel.

The Palolo Social club meets this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Merrill at 5th Ave., Kaimuki.

ONIONS NOT SO STRONG LOCALLY; LOW ON COAST

Yesterday's mail brought to the territorial marketing division detailed reports concerning the sample shipment of 30 crates of Bermuda onions recently sent to San Francisco. The shipment brought $3 per crate, or 6 cents per pound, wholesale. A commission of 10 per cent was charged by the California firm handling the consignment, and this with freight deducted left the grower about $2.55 per crate, or a trifle more than the local market is paying.

It is not probable that it will pay to ship more onions to the coast this year, says Marketing Director Longley, for the reason that the Texas and Imperial onion crops are earlier than usual this season, and will begin to reach the coast markets about April 1st.

Hawaiian onions are at present bringing $4.60 bags, and $5.00 crates, in the local markets, the slight falling off in price being due to the arrival here last week of 44 tons of Australian onions.

May Shua Charcoal
 Provided satisfactory freight rates can be obtained from the steamship companies, it is likely that a good market for Hawaiian guava charcoal can be secured on the mainland. The marketing division has inquiries from Coast chemical firms concerning the local product, but under the regular freight rates it will be impossible to ship it at a profit. The Inter-island company gives a half rate on this product, and if the transpacific steamers will do the same, it will be possible to ship a good deal from here, as the production at present is considerably more than the local trade can absorb.

A shipment of red Kula beans to San Francisco sold for 3 1/2 cents per pound, against 2 cents or less offered in the local market.

Eggs Strengthening
 Egg prices are showing a firmer tone during the past few days, 33 cents being the present minimum price for the island product. It is believed that the bottom has been reached in the spring slump on the Coast, which will be reflected here. No more shipments of Japanese eggs have yet come to hand.

NEW GUIDE BOOK TO JAPAN OF MUCH VALUE, ESPECIALLY IN HAWAII

Particularly timely to Hawaii people in view of the current interest in trips to Japan is a comprehensive and exceedingly convenient guide-book that has just been issued by Houghton Mifflin Company of Boston and New York.

The book is "Terry's Japanese Empire," and contains 1150 pages with eight specially drawn maps and 21 plans. Yet in spite of the amount of information contained in the volume, the book is so compact that it can be slipped into a coat-pocket.

Japan, Korea and Formosa are told about and there are chapters on Manchuria, the transiberian railway and the chief ocean routes to Japan. The volume is pre-eminently a guidebook for travelers but contains such a wealth of information that it also serves a very useful purpose for students of Far Eastern affairs. Rates of rail fare, steamships and hotels are accurately quoted and complete. The variety of information is really astonishing. There is even a Japanese vocabulary and a chapter on the Japanese language and the vernacular equivalents of many English words.

Altogether the book is of wide interest, definitely valuable from the standpoint of accurate information on the thousand and one points that come up to a traveler in a foreign country, and well worth the $5 which is the price. For Hawaii the book is particularly valuable. It should be mentioned that Honolulu is shown to be on the chief route of travel from Occident to Orient or vice versa.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS

Jay A. Urice, secretary of the educational department of the Young Men's Christian Association, pointed out in his report to General Secretary Paul Super this morning that the enrollment in the several educational classes of the association's night school now has reached the 415 mark. When the secretaries planned the work for the present fiscal year, it was decided to endeavor to enlist 400 men and boys in the educational classes by March 31, the end of the fiscal year.

When the records were checked up this morning, however, they showed that 117 students were enrolled in the summer school and 293 in the night school classes. In special courses, such as commercial law and salesmanship, 44 more were added. The educational clubs added 83. Subtracting from this number whenever a student was in two or more classes, a total enrollment of 415 is shown.

THOMPSON LOSES CASE

Tai Loy, a Chinese, placed under arrest by Captain of Detectives McDuffie, charged with maintaining a disorderly house near the intersection of King and Beretania streets, and represented at district court by Attorney J. W. Thompson, acting Assistant U. S. district attorney, was found guilty and sentenced by District Magistrate Monsarrat to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

Attorney Thompson conducted a hard fight for his client but was unable to put over a strong defense in the light of a mass of testimony brought into the case by the detective and police department. It was alleged by the officers that the Chinese is proprietor of a lodging house that harbored a number of disreputable male and female inmates. In the raid that followed, several arrests were made.

Latest advices at the agency of H. Hacksfeld & Company, announce the expected arrival of the Pacific Mail liner Perala, from San Francisco about 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and prepared for departure for the Orient on Friday morning.

son, a man beloved and honored by the unionists of Ireland quite as much as Parnell was by the last generation of nationalists, has stated that he is willing to leave the question to a referendum of the electors is particularly interesting. Will Asquith agree? If he has got the mandate there is nothing to fear, therefore why not adopt this means of settling the matter once and for all. The writer fought through the last three general elections in the very forefront of the battle and no one could, even with the smallest schill of truth, maintain for one moment that the question ever seriously agitated the English mind.

Challenges Contradiction
The House of Lords, tariff reform, Lloyd George's famous—or rather infamous—budget, education, Welsh church disestablishment, the insurance act, questions like these, anything but home rule, and we unionists who still believe in union and empire maintain with a sure and certain hope that if the verdict of the country were taken the result would be the same as in 1856 and 1895 when Gladstone was hurled from office.

"I say here deliberately as an Irishman who has lived in Ireland for over 30 years and who knows the pulse of the country, and I challenge contradiction, that all the wealth, all the intelligence, all the trade, all the commerce, all that is any good in Ireland is against home rule. Ireland today is, comparatively speaking, the most prosperous and best off country in the world. She enjoys privileges denied to any other country on the face of the globe and looking back any for the last quarter of a century, we can claim we were right in the old fight and therefore also in the present fight for under the imperial parliament Ireland's material progress has surpassed all expectations. The writer knows of no grievance existing in Ireland today except some one mentions private bill legislation which no one seems to take the trouble to remedy which would be the easiest thing in the world. Well does he remember the cry in the old days of Parnell and Davitt, 'the land for the people. Give us the land and to h— with the landlords and we shall be all right.' Since then land acts have been passed giving over £150,000,000 ($750,000,000) to the Irish farmer to buy out his land and become his own landlord.

"I can not say how many more millions have been advanced by England for laborers' cottages, old age pensions, educational grants, and so on. Landlordism is practically abolished, the farmers have to a large extent purchased their holdings and more money is wanted, the Irish Protestant church has been disestablished and every blessed grievance has been removed and it surpasses the wit of man why a comparatively poor country like Ireland should want a divorce from wealthy England. But not the greedy agitator feeds hugely on his profits, and stirs up in the breast of the ignorant peasant, eye and Irish-American, too, who supports the movement with his hard earned dollars and who returns to the question again and again like the moths to the candle—a sentimental cry for home rule for 'poor distressed Ireland,' like a child crying for the moon and not knowing what to do when he gets it. We believe from their record that nothing could content the Irish nationalist short of overthrowing the English rule. Parnell has said it, John Redmond has said it and quoting from memory the words of the latter were: 'Ireland would never be content till she had broken the last link of the chain that binds her to England.'

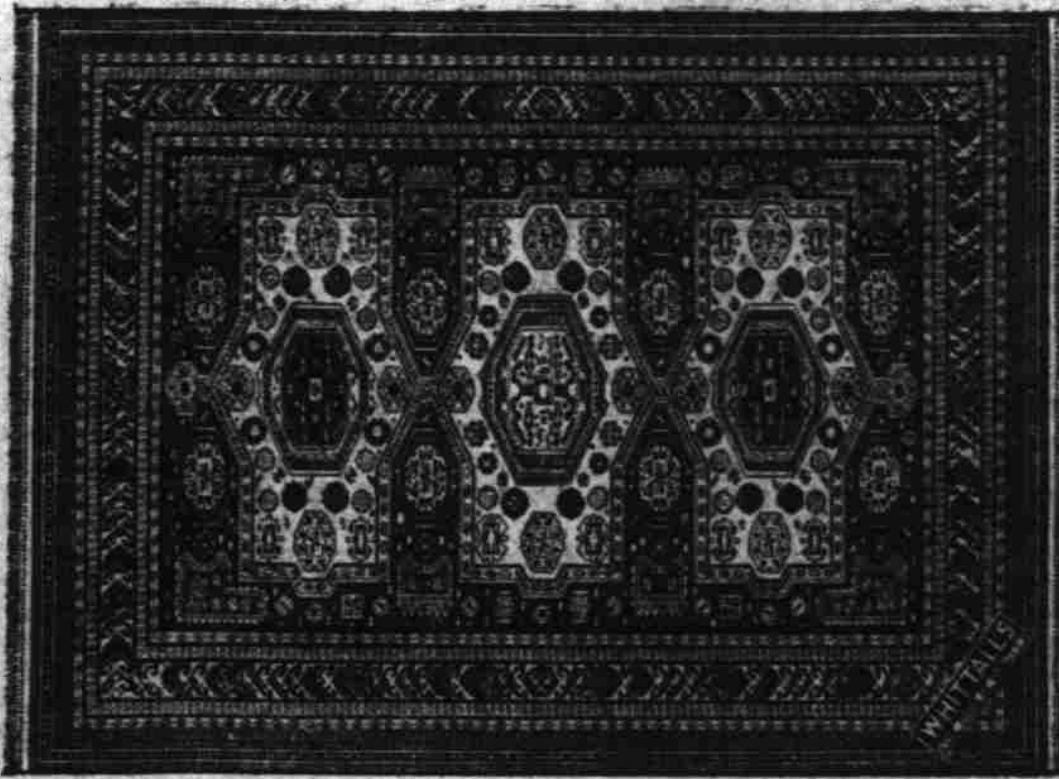

"Home Rule a Curse"
Unfortunately the present generation of Irish-Americans has been nursed and cultivated by such dangerous advisers as O'Donovan, Rossa and Patrick Ford, in reality criminals in the true sense of the word—and its vision blurred and weakened by their pernicious teaching, so that they can not see that home rule instead of being a blessing to their country is really a curse and spells in large, huge letters financial ruin.

"Why, I ask, and let the Irish-American ask himself, too, do stocks and shares at home fall considerably at the very mention of Home Rule? By their fruits ye shall know them. You cannot gather grapes off thorns or figs off thistles," and whenever I tell an Englishman or a Colonial that frequently placards are posted throughout the country in Ireland warning the young men against joining the British army or navy—aye, even hoping that Germany may some day defeat England—and when I tell them that during the late South African war while the Nationalists of Ireland were glorying and boasting in every defeat that befell the British arms, we, the Loyalists, were proud to know that the Dublin Fusiliers stormed the heights, I am coolly asked, 'Is that really so?'

"It is a matter of common history that John Redmond and his crew stood up and cheered in the House of Commons when the news—happily false—came that Ladysmith had fallen! Surely to a Canadian or other Colonial who is proud of and knows the meaning of the word empire these facts are enough to make his blood boil. And when we hear glib talk of the downfall of England, is it a wise thing to start disrupting it at home? We are partners in the greatest and richest firm in the world. Are we going to dissolve that partnership and set up by ourselves in a back street, where we will get no custom and no credit! John Redmond is continually serving up for

Now Buy a Whittall Rug

The test we gave that Whittall Anglo-Persian Rug last week should satisfy everybody as to the wearing qualities of this famous make. That 9x12 rug lay on our sidewalk for six days, during which time it was exposed to sun, rain, wind, and was walked on by over 20,000 people who tracked dirt, dust and mud into its lovely pile. Yet the rug now looks as if it had only seen a few month's service in some private home.

A Whittall Rug costs from $4 to $65, according to size and grade. We believe the Whittall Rug to be the best machine-woven rug in the world, and for that reason secured the exclusive agency for this Territory. We add our recommendation to that of the maker. For floor coverings for that new home of yours, or for something to replace the worn carpets, matting or rugs you are taking out, you can't invest money to better advantage than in buying Whittall Rugs.

Make your choice from these royal members of the Whittall family:

Anglo Persian A rug which faithfully reproduces the beautiful weaves, designs and colorings of costly Oriental rugs. Very artistic and wonderfully curable. There are Kashan, Kurdistan, Tabriz, Saraband, Soumak, Saruk, Gorevan and other patterns. (This was the rug chosen to carpet the Representatives' Building in Washington, D. C.) The 27-in.x54-in. Anglo-Persian rug sells for $7; from that size and price you can choose various sizes up to the 9x12 at..... $65.00

Royal Worcester This Wilton Rug is especially made for places where much wear is natural, such as offices, public buildings, etc., and therefore is especially desirable for reception rooms for doctors, dentists and the like. The material is every bit as good as in the Anglo-Persian Rug. In the Royal Worcester rugs there are three patterns, Bokhara, Saruk and Kermenshah. We have three sizes: 27-in.x54-in. at $6, 36-in.x63-in. at $52.00, and the largest, 9x14, at.....

Peerless This is a Body Brussels rug and is much used by those who do not care to spend quite as much as the other two grades cost, yet desire a rug which, though a little cheaper, has all the wearing qualities of the better rugs, but is a little less heavy, a little less intricate in pattern, and perhaps not quite so rich looking as the Anglo-Persian grade. Splendid value for the money. Three sizes. The largest, 9x12 ft., costs $35.00

At this time of the year, when Spring Cleaning is going on, you are sure to find that many articles about the house need replacing. If these needs are in the line of Rugs, Carpets, Matting, Draperies, Window Shades, Furniture—let us quote you our prices and terms. You'll find that a few dollars go a long way at our store in purchasing those things that help make the home happy, comfortable and cheery.

Kurdistan pattern in Whittall Rugs. Other Oriental designs equally good. Patterns to harmonize with any decorative scheme.

Floor Coverings
Wild's Printed Linoleum, 75 and 85 cents the square yard; Plain Linoleum, 85c and $1.10; Granite Linoleum, $1.35; Inlaid Linoleums, $1.75 and $1.85.
Cork Carpet, $1.50 the square yard.
Hall and Stair Carpeting, 27-in. wide and 33-in. wide. In Tapestry, Velvet and Wilton grades, $1.00 to $2.50 the yard.
Crew runners, plain and figured.
Cocoa ztating, plain and striped.
Corrugated rubber for runners or stair treads, 25c the pound.
Cocoa Door Mats, all sizes, $1.00 to $5.00.
Japanese and Chinese Matting, 25c to 60c the yard.
Rugs: Besides Whittall Rugs, we have Tapestry Rugs, Axminster, Bigelow's Body Brussels, Bigelow's Wilton's, Velvets, Rag Rugs, plain and figured Grass Rugs, Matting Rugs, and Porch Rugs.
N. B.—Orders taken for Rugs of any special size. Estimates cheerfully given. Let us measure your rooms and estimate the cost. Let us show rugs and carpets, and explain the difference in quality. We can furnish experienced and careful workmen to lay linoleums, etc.

Draperies and Shades
We can supply every need in Draperies and Window Shades. In Draperies we have Scrims, Voiles, Marquisettes, Fillet and Cable and Nottingham Nets, Cretonnes, Linens, Homespun, Monks-Cloth, Sunfast Fabrics (light-weight and heavy-weight), Damasks, Repp, Poplins, Tapestries, Brocades, Velvets, Velours, etc., etc., etc.
In fact, we have everything necessary to carry out any idea or scheme for the decoration of the Home.
We have experienced workmen to execute any kind of drapery or upholstery work.
In window shades: all the reliable kinds made to order in any size from 18-in. to 144-in. Four materials to select from. Many colors, or combination colors, to select from. Let us measure your windows and give an estimate of cost.
What will you give us for that $65 rug that so well stood the test last week? Mail us an offer this week. Next Monday the offers will be opened and the rug delivered to party offering the largest price. The rug is on exhibition at our store.

WILD'S PARQUET INLAID LINOLEUM
Looks like hardwood—is less expensive, and much more desirable.
Made of the celebrated WILD'S INLAID LINOLEUM. Patterns are inlaid and cannot wear off. Does not crack or chip—has no joints to collect dirt—is noiseless, elastic and presents a safe stepping surface—being impervious to water and grease, is not readily stained—is cleaned with soap and water—is almost as wear-resisting as concrete.
Ideal for homes, offices, stores, public buildings, etc.
Parquet Inlaid, $1.85 sq. yd. Tile inlaid, $1.75 sq. yd.

The test rug, last week, was cleaned daily with a Bissel Vacuum Cleaner, kindly loaned by W. W. Dimond Co. Over 24 pounds of dirt were removed, in the six days, with this efficient cleaner.

foreign consumption the argument, Why not grant Home Rule to Ireland when it has worked so well in Australia, South Africa, Canada, etc.? Why, the idea is absurd, and the writer who has lately visited the two former countries, has seen that instead of having separate states in South Africa, they are all clamoring for union and federation, and the same in Australia, and Ireland's demand for Home Rule is just as if Tasmania were to try tomorrow to secede from the rest of Australia, and at the same time get the mother country to support her. We hear the old cries, 'Ireland's independence,' 'Ireland a nation.' They are mean cries.

Two Factions in Ireland
Ireland never was independent and never can be. She is dependent on England and is supported by her, and the Unionists of Ireland practice the patriotism of binding stronger the link that joins them to their sister isle, in sharing in her laws, partaking of her wealth and helping her directly to uphold the sceptre of the greatest empire the world has ever known. But again we are told that it is only Ulster blocks the way. Nothing of the kind. There are tens of thousands of Unionists outside Ulster, men who represent the views and opinions of the whole business community of the country upon which this bill is sought to be imposed. How was Belfast built up? How has she become one of the most prosperous cities in the United Kingdom? She has done so under the Union Jack and she means to remain true. 'People ask will there be civil war?' 'The plain truth is, and the writer has seen it with his own eyes, that the whole manhood of Ulster are armed and trained, determined to resist to the end any laws or decrees passed by an Irish parliament, because they know they must be taxed out of existence to fill John Redmond's exchequer. Are they right to fight? Is a man justified in defending everything that is dear to him against the attacks of the robber? Is it a crime to wish to continue under the old flag? Dare any government order its troops to shoot them down for this? And will the British officers 'obey'? These are some of the problems Mr. Asquith has to face and he is going to transform a peaceful and contented country into one torn asunder by civil wars and dissensions? The real trouble is that there are two factions in Ireland, and the only possible solution for the government of Ireland is that which has an arbitrator between the parties to prevent the ascendancy of one over the other. That was the reason the Union was passed. William Pitt found domestic dissensions on all sides, rebellions ripe and bankruptcy staring Ireland in the face. These were the reasons for a consolidated United Kingdom. Why disrupt it to satisfy the fond and foolish cries of an ignorant peasantry led astray by designing and deceitful politicians?"

ATHLETES MADE FINE SHOWING IN AUSTRALIA
Fresh from triumphs overseas, but very glad to be on their way home, and to come under the domination of the Stars and Stripes once more, the four American athletes and their manager who have been touring Australia, landed from the Makura this morning. Two hours and a half later they boarded the Wilhelmina, for the last leg of the journey home.
The men who visited the Antipodes to try conclusions with the track and field men of the southland, are E. Peixotto, manager, J. Power, R. Caughey, R. Templeton and G. Parker, all well-known in their respective lines of amateur athletics. They made a splendid record in Australia and New Zealand, carrying off most of the prizes in the various meets in which they competed.

This morning a delegation from the Hui Nani met the travelers at the dock, and under the guidance of Newton Cottrell the athletes saw what could be seen of Honolulu in so short a time. The men expressed regret at the Marama's delayed passage, for had the steamer been in on schedule time, they would have had at least 24 hours in Honolulu, and might have arranged a meeting with some of the local athletic talent.
In the recent championships at Sydney, the Americans set some splendid marks. Parker ran the hundred in 10 flat, the 230 in 22 2-5 and the 440 in 50 1-5. The mile was won by Power, in the fast time of 4:25. Caughey captured the shot-put with 42 feet 6 1/2 inches, and Templeton took the pole vault, clearing the bar at 11 feet 3 inches. Templeton was also second in the high jump, with 5 feet 11 inches.
Proceedings for divorce were instituted yesterday in the circuit court by Judge James M. Monsarrat through his attorney, E. C. Peters. The petition is well-aid at this time, but it is stated on good authority that despatch is the ground upon which the suit is brought.

"ARTILLERY-AVIATING" COLLIE ONCE AGAIN IS CLAIMING SPOT-LIGHT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

FORT SHAFTER, Mar. 25.—Captain and Mrs. George Apple of the 1st Field Artillery were visitors in the post on Sunday last, having come down to make a call on friends in the hospital. An amusing incident in which Mrs. Apple's handsome collie figured almost exclusively occurred during their visit. The dog had been left in the car and decided to make some small visits on his own account in the near vicinity. Almost directly across the street from the hospital is the bachelors' mess building in which, owing to preference, three of the married officers and one bachelor have selected quarters and are living. The collie was inclined to investigate the upper story of this building and proceed to do so. He had gained the upper floor and had wandered out on the gallery that runs around the front and sides of the quarters when he espied Captain Apple, who had emerged from the hospital directly across the street. With joy and little yelps to indicate the same, the dog went by the most direct line to join his master. That line led the eager beast over the second story railing with a 20-foot jump to the ground.

Disaster seemed imminent for the affectionate animal; but, as he cleared the balcony rail, he was caught in the ornamental vines that screen the gallery; and, dropping by easy and harmless stages, reached the ground without injury. In the meantime, Captain Apple had been busy with his motor and had not observed the collie's leap, but only looked up in time to see his faithful dog in the act of falling through the leafy screen of vines. Positive that some of the occupants of the quarters had encountered the collie on the gallery and had taken a quick method of disposing of a strange visitor by throwing him bodily over the rail, the Captain proceeded with all haste to find out who was responsible. His initial inquiry was addressed to the first person met and that proved to be Captain Gibson. This officer was naturally ignorant of all details of interest. Indeed, he did not know what Captain Apple was talking about, although he was easily of the opinion that, whatever the subject, Captain Apple was interested in it to a degree.

Captain Culler was likewise no fountain of knowledge; nor did Captain Bell manage to enlighten Captain Apple as to whom it was that had violated all the rules laid down by the S. P. C. A. by throwing one collie dog around in an unseemly and violent manner; and this because Captain Bell, in common with the other two officers, was all at sea as to the matter under inquiry. Then it must have been the only other man living in the building and that gentleman proved to be Lieutenant Campanole. This last suspect was interviewed only with difficulty, inasmuch as he was in his bath and all that could be learned from him was that he not only had not committed the dastardly deed but did not know who, if anyone, had done it. He also stated, amid much splashing and gurgling, that he was really very fond of dogs, and especially of the collie breed, and besides, he entertained the very highest regard for Captain Apple.

Just at this juncture in the mystery a soldier appeared and stated that the dog's predicament was due entirely to his own (the dog's) affection and zealous efforts to rejoin his master by the shortest direct route in accordance with the army regulation covering journeys. All concerned shook hands in friendly understanding, and, as the diplomats say, the incident was considered closed. This is not the first time the collie has made a public character of himself, as he figured in a late court martial at Schofield Barracks, being none other than the "artillery dog" in a trial at that post; but it was not known at that time that he was other than a canine of unusual breeding. Certainly it was not suspected that he was a pup of the aviator type or species. The dog was not hurt and Lieutenant Campanole is firmly established in the minds of his friends as being a very gallant gentleman who would go through water, if not fire, to assure his friends of his regard for them and all things touching on or appertaining thereto—especially of the "collie-artillery-aviating" type.

000 to make the original Mahuka site possible (or at least acceptable to the government at Washington) by securing the extension of Bishop street along one side of the original site, this desire for a square deal being coupled with a fear that unless the original site is now used, the equities of those whose contribution of $35,000 made that original site possible (or acceptable to the government) would be lost sight of, and also a fear that the legislation required to straighten the whole matter out so as to secure a change of sites and an equitable adjustment would be so difficult and complicated a matter to get through Congress as to be beyond any hope of accomplishment.

Everything to Gain. "But there is nothing to lose and everything to gain; and there needs to be further legislation, anyway, for the amounts appropriated for the building are only a fraction of the total amount necessary. This necessary legislation can easily enough embody a provision for the disposition of the acquired original Mahuka site and the acquisition of a new site; and reimbursement for the $35,000 contribution. And if an attempt to secure such legislation fails, then nothing is lost so far as concerns the original Mahuka site, which we would still have."

"And if the federal government should not be disposed to make whole the givers of the $35,000 for the extension of Bishop street, then those givers would still have their entirely worthy, moral claim against the territory for this extended highway which no one will dispute that the territory needed anyway and which the territory has had the benefit of. (And you may substitute city and county for territory, if you wish, although the chapter of the revised laws providing for opening of streets has never been amended and leaves the jurisdiction and authority with the territory and the superintendent of public works.)

Legislation Would Be Simple. "The necessary congressional legislation is very simple, a short paragraph in the appropriation bill being all that is required, and the bill could, also, include an adjustment of any equities claimed by the respondents in the Fort street condemnation suits.

"It is not uncommon to have legislation for change of site, embodied in an appropriation bill. For instance the act of June 30, 1906, appropriating $150,000 for the Honolulu building, has a provision—section 10, page 784—for the sale of a federal mint building and site at Denver and the application of the proceeds toward a new mint building; and section 11, page 785, has a provision for the sale of the old federal building site in Los Angeles and the application of the proceeds toward a new federal building on another site. And in the act making appropriation for the Mahuka site a general proviso regarding all the sites for all buildings for which appropriations are made, is noteworthy: 'In acquiring sites, the secretary . . . shall take into consideration the present needs of the government and the future growth of the cities . . . and in no case . . . acquire a site unless the dimensions thereof are of sufficient size for a building that will accommodate all the government offices now located or likely in the future to be located in said cities.'

"As I said at the meeting of Monday, I firmly believe that the delay in the matter of a federal building has been a blessing, for it permits of a better site being chosen than either the original or even the enlarged Mahuka sites; and I also believe, as I then tried to emphasize, that the fact that we have never had any action toward starting a building on the original Mahuka site is because the objections to that site were well founded. And they are all the more valid now. 'No question is settled, until it is settled right.'"

C. U. CHURCH TO PASS ON NEW FAITH TONIGHT

A special meeting of the members of the congregation of Central Union church has been called for 7:30 o'clock this evening at the church, to take what is believed will be final action on the recommendations of the standing committee concerning the acceptance by the members of a simplified form of confession of faith and service of admission to the church.

At a meeting of the congregation held last month the standing committee presented a confession of faith and service of admission in simplified form, printed copies of which were sent to each resident member of the church. At the same time, the date for another meeting was set for this evening. It is expected that the simplified confession of faith will be accepted. It reads as follows:

"You do now confess your faith in God your Father, and your purpose to love and obey Him; with the Bible as your guide you will follow Jesus Christ, His Son, your Lord and Saviour; you accept the leadership of the Holy Spirit in your life; and you dedicate yourself to the service of your fellow men."

Following is the covenant: "You do now covenant to work together with us your fellow Christians for the progress of God's Kingdom throughout the world. To this end you will help to promote the welfare and efficiency of this church, seek its unity, purity, and increase."

Janssen's Accident Sad Blow to Saints

William Janssen of St. Louis College, prominent in the pole-vault and high jump.

The fact that William Janssen, one of the crack athletes of St. Louis College, spiked himself while engaged in the high jump during the intercollegiate track and field meet at Alexander Field last Saturday afternoon, proved a keen disappointment to his team-mates. The collegians uphold that the accident had not occurred, Janssen would have established a new record in this event.

CHINA AWAKES TO ENDEAVOR IN ATHLETICS

Eleven clubs in Eastern China have joined the Feds. This is not a baseball scoop, but a new organization to add to the list of 18 amateur federations, patterned after the original Cook County A. F. organized Dec. 16, 1908, in Chicago. The 11 clubs in Eastern China are colleges, Y. M. C. A. centers and public schools, and they have formed the nineteenth federation, known as the East China Amateur Athletic Federation.

The new organization is being fathered by an American and a Canadian—A. H. Swan, former director of the West Side Y. M. C. A. in Chicago, and a student at the University of Chicago, and J. H. Crocker, who managed the Canadian Olympic team for the games in 1908 at London. Worked Long Time on Plan Swan is physical director and Crocker is secretary of the Shanghai Y. M. C. A., and they have been working for some time on the plan that has finally taken root in the Chinese republic. Associated with the two Y. M. C. A. men are R. D. Smart of the Soochow university, an American; L. C. Healy of the Chinese public school of Shanghai, an American; H. A. Vanderbeek, English leader of the Nanyang college, and Y. S. Dey of the National Recreation Club of Shanghai, an Englishman. The clubs in the new association are the St. John's College, Nanyang College, National Recreation Club, the Shanghai Chinese public school and the Shanghai Anglo-Chinese public school, the Ellis Kadoorie school, the Shanghai Y. M. C. A., the Soochow university, the University of Nanking, the Shanghai Baptist College and the government Institute of Technology of Shanghai. Will Stage Meet at Shanghai Associated with these clubs is a delegate of the Far Eastern Olympic Games Association, which was organized two years ago by the Manila, P. I., federation, and has been conducting yearly games series in the East on the pattern of the Olympic games held every four years by Occidental athletic managers. The Far Eastern games will be held next year in Shanghai, and the new federation is one of the movements toward bettering teams for that tourney. Track and field athletics are taking a strong hold in the Orient, as has been shown in the Far Eastern Olympics, where Chinese athletes were considered among the best in the world. The Y. M. C. A. organizations in China have done great work in the last few years, according to Director Swan in a letter to Chicago federation men, and the federation organization is just another step toward athletic supremacy there.

How to Care for Teeth

Good teeth are not accidental. They are our birthright. If by reason of lack of early training we failed to preserve our birthright, for the sake of our children let's not let the coming generation have poor teeth. Let's teach them habits of cleanliness as regards their teeth. They will thank us for it later.

Teeth kept perfectly clean cannot decay. Decay is caused by bacteria which find lodgment in protected places on tooth surfaces and by breaking down the sweets and starches of food remnants produce an acid that demolishes the tooth substances. It is regarded as impossible to avoid all decay without constant attention for the purpose of keeping all tooth surfaces absolutely clean, but with such care as can be given by proper brushing and rinsing the teeth and mouth three times a day and the use of silk floss once a day it is probable that 75 per cent of the decay in children's teeth may be avoided.

It is highly important to protect the teeth of children, for with decayed teeth food cannot be properly chewed and improperly chewed food cannot be properly digested. As a consequence proper body development is impaired, progress in studies is retarded and resistance to disease is rendered below par. Constant swallowing of the foul products of decay, combined with the lack of proper assimilation of food, produces anemia, tonsillar disease, rheumatism and a number of ailments classed as "school diseases." If "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," it is manifestly worth while to avoid these conditions by remedying the defects of teeth which so commonly cause them.

To properly brush the teeth and accomplish the most good, select a medium stiff brush with tufted bristles, and in brushing place the brush, with bristles up, beside the upper teeth and rotate, so that the bristles will cleanse both gums and teeth. Brush the opposite way when cleansing the lower teeth. To cleanse the inner surfaces of the teeth use the end of the brush. Also, use the brush on the tongue and palate and finally rinse the mouth thoroughly, forcing the water between the teeth. The most important tooth in the mouth, and the one most frequently lost through decay, is the first permanent molar. The "baby molar" should not be lost until the ninth year of life, but the first permanent molar, which comes in at 6 years of age should not be lost at all—New York Sun.

MATTY TALKS ON BIG OFFER MADE BY FEDS

By CHRISTY MATHEWSON.

Until I had definitely signed with the Giants again, I made no comment on the Federal league or the offer of that organization to me. In fact, there was nothing definite in the way of an offer until I received a telegram from President Gilmore a few hours after putting my signature to the National league contract. But even if this offer, which has been published in the papers, had been made a few hours before signing it would not have influenced me.

The proposition came out of a clear sky and was unexpected. I have learned since that the Federals believed I was signed all winter and that it was not until a New York newspaper man happened to mention the fact to Gilmore in the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York late one night that I was unsigned that any action was taken. My information comes from New York correspondents who are here with the team in Marlborough and who were present when Mr. Gilmore made his discovery. According to these men, the incident developed through a fanning bee in the Waldorf. Here is the story as told to me by a New York reporter now with the Giants in Marlborough.

Thought Matty Was Signed. "We were all sitting around the Waldorf late one night, fanning and discussing the Federal league when one of the boys said to Gilmore: "Why don't you make Matty an offer?"

"He's signed, isn't he?" asked Mr. Gilmore. "No more than I am. His contract expired last season, and he has not signed the new one yet."

"Gilmore at once left the party and sent a telegram to you. Then he announced his action to us newspaper men, and the story appeared in the papers the next day." As a matter of fact, I never considered going to the Federals and did not answer the telegram, which did not make any definite statement of terms. It merely asked me whether I would consider an offer to go with the new league as a manager. When the Los Angeles reporters inquired about the possibility, I told them the only thing there was to say—that I would consider the offer. But all the time I knew I would not desert the New York club, which had practically made me in baseball.

In saying this, I am not attempting to belittle the Federal league in any way. I saw several reports in the newspapers during the winter and early spring months that I was the agent of organized baseball on the coast and that I had been busy counterbalancing the bids of Federal league agents for the players spending the winter there. I kept clear of both baseball on the diamond and the politics of baseball last winter because I did not care to have it on my mind. I was having too much fun playing golf, and it is not in my province as merely a player to try to influence others to take certain steps which some day they might regret and then blame me for their mistakes.

Wilson Eager for Work. For instance, Arthur Wilson, the New York catcher, received a big offer to go with the Federals with the promise of a large piece of advance money. Wilson has been pining for the chance to work regularly with a big league club for two or three years now and was weary of sitting on the bench, absorbing information in this position about how it is done in the majors. As I said in a previous article, Wilson even asked McGraw to transfer him to a minor league team for this season so that he could have an opportunity to work daily. Now, if the Federal league turns out to be a big success, and if I had advised Wilson to refuse its offer and stick with the Giants, he might have said to me some day: "Well, I took your advice and am still sitting on the bench. If I had gone with the Feds I might have been a star now."

Without occupying any more exalted position than a pitcher on the staff of the New York club, I don't want to meddle in baseball politics or endeavor to influence other men in the game. Whether Wilson made a mistake, in my opinion, I don't care to say. And I want to add that I consider the Federal league offer to me a compliment.

Counsel—I'm sorry I couldn't do more for you. Convicted. Client—Don't mention it. Guilty; ain't five years enough?—London Opinion.

Able Big League Twirler, Who Is Developing An Upshoot

HARRY HARPER IN ACTION.

The brilliant young pitcher of the Washington American baseball team, Harry Harper, hails from Hackensack, N. J., where he rose to fame as an amateur. Harper, who is a southpaw, is developing an underhanded upshoot which he hopes will prove very bewildering. "ANGEL" OF BRITISH POLO TEAM IS OF NOTED FAMILY

[By Latest Mail]

LONDON.—Truly a remarkable family is the lordly one of Guest, which, owing to the death of its venerable former head, Lord Wimborne, has a new one in the person of the erstwhile Lord Ashby St. Ledgers, peer, privy-councillor, polo player, politician, and at present paymaster-general to his majesty's forces.

In the third of these capacities the new Lord Wimborne's chief ambition at present is to recapture for Great Britain the international polo cup now held by the United States, with which aim he will take a team across the Atlantic next summer. This team, by the way, will practice near Madrid, the Spanish capital, where its members already are assembling. With the personality and record of the new Lord Wimborne, Americans are already passably familiar. He is now 41, and besides being a fair all-round sportsman, has seen warfare, having served in the South African campaign. He first entered parliament as a unionist in 1900, but later turned his political coat over the question of tariff reform, and eventually became paymaster-general under the liberal government in 1910. More than once, by the bye, he has been spoken of as successor to the present lord lieutenant of Ireland, whenever the venerable Lord Aberdeen vacates that post, an event which is not likely to be long delayed.

Overshadowed by Mother. Lord Wimborne's remarkable mother, however, more or less overshadows him, just as she completely overshadowed her late husband, who, for the last years of his life lived practically in retirement at his country seat in Dorsetshire, while his brilliant and energetic spouse did the honors of Wimborne house, Arlington street, which is one of the finest residences in London, and for many years has been a center of political activity. CHINESE TEAM TO MAKE ITS INITIAL BOW

The Chinese Athletic Union's recently organized All-Chinese team is now practicing daily at Athletic park for its game next Sunday afternoon against the Portuguese A. C. Captain Lal Tin is very confident of victory, and the Chinese community will undoubtedly be out in force to greet this new aggregation.

"Handsome" Luck Yee will make his initial appearance here since his last trip to the mainland with the All-Chinese team. He has plenty of speed and he ought to keep the Portuguese guessing. Luck was one of the star twirlers of the original All-Chinese team, and is a great favorite among the Chinese fans. The Chinese line-up as given out by Captain Lal Tin, so far, includes the following men: Ah Toon, c; Luck Yee and Hoon Kl, p; Ah Lee, 2d base; Alex. Asam, 3rd base; Lal Tin, s.s.; Lang Akana, l.f.; Kam Fat, c.f.; Yen Chin, r.f.; Akai Luke, J. Amoy and Tin Yen, substitutes.

Manager Pareza has not yet decided upon his list of players, but Pareza will undoubtedly have his best men up. The Portuguese team is trying out several new men and until Pareza can have a good opportunity to look them over, he is yet undecided as to who his men will be.

The Chinese management wish it to be known that there is no friction among them, notwithstanding rumors to this effect. The players are all in harmony and as soon as they can get together, an election will be held for officers.

Fort Shafter Notes

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] FORT SHAFTER, Mar. 24.—Mrs. Charles S. Lincoln of the garrison has been a patient in the department hospital during the past week and is not yet sufficiently convalescent to return to her quarters. Mrs. Lincoln was a surgical patient of Captain Owen and while the operation performed was one of a major character, none of her many friends were alarmed as to the ultimate outcome. She has progressed most favorably in every respect and will shortly be able to receive visits from her friends who have been constant in inquiry and solicitude during her illness. Mrs. Lincoln has been beautifully remembered in her stay at the hospital by an amazingly large number of flowers given from the large circle that counts itself as her friends and these remembrances have done much to solace the sufferer during her illness and recuperation.

Three of the proposed 10 sets of non-commissioned officers' quarters in the cantonment have been completed by Captain Watkins and are ready for assignment to the seniors of the grade that is to occupy the comfortable little habitations. These quarters are of the cantonment type and while not nearly of the class and construction of the buildings in the main post that were built for the non-commissioned officers and that are now in use as quarters for officers are still habitable and fairly comfortable in size. At all events the houses in question are a decided improvement over the makeshift tent quarters that the non-coms have been living in since the large increase of the Fort Shafter garrison occurred.

The quarters as built are of three rooms and bath and are finished in exactly the same manner as are the slightly more roomy quarters that have been provided for the commissioned officers who are quartered in the cantonment. Work on the remaining sets to supply the complement required for the married soldiers of the non-commissioned grade will be pushed to completion and at an early date so that those men may be enabled to get their families settled in permanent homes before the long season of field instruction with its required absences from the garrison will have come on.

The usual upset of the wise ones in baseball took place yesterday when E of the Signal Corps cowed D of the 2d Infantry in a hot and well played game by the score of 2 to 1. A big crowd was out to see the game, which was the second of a double header and as both teams were well supported by rooters the interest was not allowed to abate at any time during the seven innings that constitute a game in the post league. Of the several hundred spectators of the game, it is safe to say that not a dozen would have hazarded the prediction that D would lose to the wigwaggers; and yet it really happened and the losers were not outlucked either. Captain Gibbs' crew was there with the stick and though Peed for D was pitching good ball, and receiving splendid support from Lieutenant Lyman back of the rubber, the hits would come and at just the right time, and in the proper sequence to push the runner around to home.

Had Captain Chamberlain's men pulled out winners in the game the big cup would now have an owner. As it is, Lieutenant Lyman and his men will have to go on for at least one round before that ownership will be definitely settled. D still has to play

EIGHT LEFT IN THE CASTLE CUP TENNIS TOURNAMENT

At Beretania: 4:15 p. m.—Hoogs (B) vs. Graham (D); Guard (C) vs. Barnes (D).

5 p. m.—Baldwin (D) vs. Davis (D); Warren (C) vs. Ricker (E). With the preliminary and first round matches run off in two days, due to excellent management and the use of three club grounds, the second round matches of the Castle cup tournament will be started this afternoon. Eight players remain to fight for the trophy, and the luck of the draw has distributed the talent pretty evenly between the upper and lower halves.

W. Hoogs, Class B, is undoubtedly the class of the upper half, but the handicaps are well arranged, and to date have brought the players on a very even footing, and made close matches. Hoogs plays Graham, a Class D man, and if he wins he will meet either Baldwin or Davis for a place in the finals. Both the latter are Class D.

Jack Guard and W. L. Warren are the highest ranking men in the lower half. C. If both win their matches in the next round they will meet in the semi-finals. There were some interesting matches yesterday, with many dense sets. In several matches the result was in doubt, up to the very last point, and the players were keyed up to a high pitch of interest and endeavor.

Following were the results of yesterday's first-round matches:

Beretania courts—Davis (D) beat Howland (E), 1-6, 6-4, 6-1; Graham (D) beat Pratt (D), 5-7, 7-5, 6-3; Warren (C) beat O'Dowda (C), 6-4, 6-4; Guard (C) beat Henoch (B), 6-3, 7-5.

Pacific courts—Hoogs (B) beat FMs (D), 6-4, 9-7; Baldwin (D) beat Pflugar (C), 6-3, 6-3.

Manoa courts—Ricker (E) beat Steere (D), 6-1, 10-8; Barnes (D) beat Rice (E), by default.

EXERTION FATIGUED HIS BRAIN

Thought It Was Impossible to Overcome Premature Old Age.

A friend's advice may be cheap, but it does not pay to ignore it, particularly when your nerve power is impaired.

Anyone suffering from premature old age will take hope from the words of a gentleman, who says "Some months ago, I was recommended to try Persian Nerve Essence by a friend. I was at first doubtful, for I thought it impossible to find any remedy which would give real results; but today, I wish to give my most grateful congratulations."

I was in a state of mental debility. Any exertion made in matters of mercantile calculation fatigued my brain, my memory nor my heavy and slow walk which I had at that time, not corresponding to my age. Today I find myself entirely recovered after taking only two boxes of so useful a preparation, and therefore it is a great pleasure to write you this letter, as it is only just to your medical preparation which produces so much good."

Persian Nerve Essence is a dependable remedy for nervous prostration or exhaustion, debility or inactivity of the nerves. It has brought happiness, strength, vigor, and vital power to young men prematurely aged and to the middle-aged and old who have suffered from a breakdown of mental and physical vigor.

The action of the oriental properties of Persian Nerve Essence is almost magical; the bright eye, the elastic step, the clear and active brain, the courage, strength and comfort they impart, are almost immediately apparent. The way has been shown to you—start today to regain your health.

One box of Persian Nerve Essence is frequently sufficient; in obstinate cases it may be necessary to take a full treatment of six boxes to obtain the best results. It is absolutely guaranteed that the full treatment of six boxes will produce the most satisfactory results or the money will be refunded. Give Persian Nerve Essence a good fair trial, commence now—today—and be a well man.

The name of Persian Nerve Essence is now changed to Sensapersa for purposes of registration. The preparation has not been changed in any way, only the name. Sold by all druggists and by The Chambers Drug Co., Ltd. THE BROWN EXPORT CO., 74 Cortlandt St., New York, N.Y., U.S.A.

BIJOU THEATER

Responding to suggestions from local theater-goers, the Spaulding Musical Comedy Company, including the full cast of musical and dancing specialists, will take up vaudeville for the remainder of its engagement in Honolulu, making its initial bow to patrons of the Bijou theater with the performance given this evening. The versatility of the various members of the aggregation it is predicted will be readily demonstrated with the change of program. New and first class turns are to be introduced. The bill includes a 20-minute sketch in which George Spaulding, James Guilfoyle and Miss Wood participate. It is entitled "The Outlaw." The De Von sisters are on the boards for several pleasing numbers. These artists will be heard in catchy songs and seen in intricate steps. Miss Hattie De Von's song, "The White-poor-will," with the assistance of the chorus will please. Margaret De Von will sing "Silver Moon." "Oh, You Grizzly Bear," is declared an original vehicle in which the sisters will again be heard to advantage. Paisley Noon will offer "The Valley of the Moon," a song adapted from Jack London's latest novel. The promise is given that the bill at the Bijou for the remainder of the week will be a diversified one. Two performances will be given nightly. In addition to the regular vaudeville two more games in the series, and a win of one of the two games will be all sufficient.

JUDGE SELDEN B. KINGSBURY DEFINES AT LENGTH DUTIES OF GRAND JURORS

In his recent address to the grand jury of Maui, Judge Selden B. Kingsbury outlined at considerable length the duties of the inquisitorial body, complimented the county on the absence of crime and referred at some length to the recent charge of Judge Parsons of Hilo, in which the latter scored the present system of court procedure. The charge of Judge Kingsbury follows:

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury:

By operation of law and action of court, you have been drawn as a grand jury for this term of this court. You are a quasi-judicial tribunal. In a very large and important sense, you have to do with the condition of Maui county so far as criminal matters are concerned. Under our law, no person can be prosecuted for crime until he has been indicted by a grand jury. Hence, all criminal proceedings started in this court must be initiated and set in motion by a grand jury. Hence, it becomes your duty to inquire into all matters presented to you that seem to demand a criminal prosecution; and, further, if you know of cases of your own knowledge, you should bring them before the grand jury while in session for its examination and action.

Your duties are not only the exercise of power directed by intelligence and education, but also the exercise of your moral powers commonly called the conscience.

You will serve your county and this territory by closing your minds against every consideration except that of justice which you will promote by doing just what the truth requires.

You will indict no man because of any feeling of animosity or dislike, and you must not fail to indict any man on account of fear, bias, friendship or favor. You should also remember that the proceedings in the grand jury room must be kept secret as this is the law and seems to be required by your oath and by public policy.

No person can be in your grand jury room while you are voting on the question of indicting or not, and no person can rightfully and legally advise you as to whether you should in any case return an indictment or not.

While you are taking testimony, the attorney-general or his deputy, the county attorney, can be in your room for the purpose of assisting you in obtaining a knowledge of the facts by the testimony. When examining into a case where you have to take the testimony of persons who can not speak the English language, you may have an interpreter to assist you in getting the testimony. Should you find any true bills, the indictment then will be drawn for you by the attorney-general or his deputy, the county attorney, and such officer will endorse your bills of indictment which must also be signed by your foreman.

Few cases for investigation. By inquiry, I have learned from the county attorney and the sheriff that so far as they knew there are very few cases now needing prosecution for a criminal offense and that what few there are are for minor offenses. Thus your session will undoubtedly be very short as you will very quickly dispose of the few cases. I congratulate you upon this condition, and I congratulate the people of Maui especially that such a state of affairs exists in this county.

I was somewhat amused some time ago by hearing a lawyer criticize legal matters in Maui by saying that they did not have anything to do and he remarked that if he had the running of the county attorney's office he could very easily manage to have at least $1500 more fees for the attorneys.

I regard attorney's fees as a good thing and I must admit that I have so regarded them for a great many years. But they are not an unmixed blessing for a community.

Of course, it is better that this country should have long terms of court and a great deal of court business and an immense amount of court expenses than that crime be allowed to go unpunished. Punish when and where necessary, not for the sake of punishment, but for the sake of deterring men from committing crime and needing punishment.

In my opinion, Maui is remarkably free from the disease of crime. It is a healthy, body-politic. We have no criminal class in this county. Maui county is entirely without beggars and is nearly free from criminals.

I have been upon this bench for over five years, during which time I have so had the assistance of the sheriffs of Maui and their deputies, of the county attorneys and their assistants, of the district judges, and of the officers of the county generally, that the result is such, I think, that I am warranted in saying a vast improvement has been made so that now the criminal matters can be just as thoroughly attended to with half the prosecutions and half the expense as was the case a few years ago. This has been most largely due to the moral improvement in public opinion which in the final analysis is the supreme law of our land. Public opinion has been improved very largely by the action of our juries.

Shakespeare Rough on Lawyers
Other juries have so acted that good men repose confidence in them, while bad men stand in fear of them, and it has been discovered that you can not fool all the juries all the time. The court has also been assisted very materially by the attorneys of law who have appeared here. Some of them, and perhaps, I may say more and more of them in these times are coming to learn that they are "as priests at the altar of justice" and that they do not exist and are not expected to practice their profession simply for the fees which they will receive. They are coming to realize more and more that justice should be their object and that the fee is a mere incident—an honorarium in consideration and in recognition of their services. Such was the position of ancient Roman lawyers, while the Jewish and early English lawyers indulged in some modern practices.

No profession does so much to keep us from physical pain and suffering as does that of the physician; yet, it has been said, that in some cases their services were so over-done and the profession abused that many wise men have exclaimed: "Throw physic to the dogs."

In like manner, there is no profession that has done so much and can do so much to promote justice, establish equity under good laws, good rules of conduct, and to render the public safe and happy as the profession of law. Yet, it is a profession of such power and such advantage that He in whom all law and light and life centers exclaimed against the lawyers, saying: "Woe unto you, also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne and ye yourselves touch not, the burdens with one of your fingers." Woe unto you lawyers, for ye have taken away the key of knowledge, and ye entered not in yourself; and they that were entering in, ye hindered." This is a simple, clear, concise statement of the conduct of such lawyers as delay trials, pile up public expense, encourage crime and deceive juries and judges. And we find one of the characters of Shakespeare saying: "First, let us kill all the lawyers." These radical measures are not called for, but radical changes in the profession, in the hearts, minds and souls of many lawyers are demanded. And, too, such changes are taking place in obedience to the law of public opinion.

In his recent charge to the grand jury, Judge Parsons of Hilo says that "the present system of court procedure—coddles criminals and hampers inquiry into essential facts." Men of understanding see this and honest men condemn it.

Ohio Attorney's Oath
The state of Ohio has adopted the following oath which every attorney of that state must subscribe to: "I do solemnly swear: I will support the constitution of the state of Ohio. I will maintain the respect due to courts of justice and judicial officers. I will not counsel or maintain any suit or proceedings which shall appear to me to be unjust, nor any defense except such as I believe to be honestly debatable under the law of the land. I will employ for the purpose of maintaining the cause confided to me such means only as are consistent with truth and honor and will never seek to mislead the judge or jury by any artifice or false statement of fact or law. I will maintain the confidence and preserve inviolate the secrets of my clients, and will accept no compensation in connection with his business, except from him or with his knowledge and approval. I will abstain from all personalities, and advance no fact prejudicial to the honor or reputation of a party or witness, unless required by the justice of the cause with which I am charged. I will never reject, from any consideration personal to myself, the cause of the defenseless or oppressed or delay any man's cause for lucre or malice. So help me God."

A similar oath has been prescribed by the American Bar Association, and it has been very apparent during the last few years that the people of the United States and especially the eminent lawyers and judges are giving attention to court procedure and are condemning many things therein that allow delays, the making of great expense and the miscarriage of justice. These things are (many of them) relics of ancient times when the courts were not of the people but were instruments in the hands of the king. These relics should be relegated to a state of "innocuous desuetude" as un-called-for in a benevolent self-government where the people themselves are the governors and themselves exercise the highest function of government, the judicial, through their juries.

European Courts Superior
Judge Lawson, after visiting the courts of Europe and observing procedure in those courts, contrasts them with our own, much to the disadvantage of the latter. He calls attention to the fact that in criminal cases in the United States a very small percentage of the guilty are punished and that in all cases great delay and expense are caused by what is permitted in our courts in the way of interfering with and blocking the wheels of justice. For this, Judge Lawson blames most largely the lawyers, and his article, cabled across the ocean, is headed "Curb the Lawyers."

Advance may be made somewhat by the judges, but they can do little until our statutes and rules of procedure governing the matter are changed. These will be changed when and only when a powerful public opinion demands it. Every grand jury, every trial jury, by showing that it appreciates the truth, that it can detect falsehood and see through trickery, is doing much to strengthen the law of public opinion.

When the body of this county from which you are taken and from which all our trial jurors are taken shows that it despises subterfuge and has no respect for the attorney who resorts to dishonest practices in order to win his case, then attorneys will not resort to such practices.

If Maui county has less litigation, has less crime, has less falsehood and folly in dealing with criminals, it is because of a healthy, growing public opinion. Appreciate the lawyers for their assistance and good work and show that you do so; while you also show that you despise the shyster who regards only the fee. Then we may have fewer lawyers, but they will be able and better. Bad men will not be encouraged to violate our just laws by seeing that punishment for crime can be avoided by trickery. The criticism of the lawyer who thought that we did not have enough lawsuits on Maui is very grateful to me and is high praise for our county. What a sad thing it would be if we did not have any grand juries at all—or any trial juries! Perhaps we should go on improving until there would be no need of all this expensive machinery for punishing crime, so that every attorney who visits Maui will come here for the purpose of going up Haleakala to contemplate the greatest physical crater showing signs of an ancient Sheel and returning to a Happy Valley to contemplate when viewing society another extinct crater showing only sulphur shores of an ancient social sinful eruption.

Important Duty to Perform
However, unfortunately, the most we can say is that we hope we are on the road to such a consummation; but to keep on the road and keep progressing we must continue to deter crime by the object-lesson of certain punishment of the criminal.

You have this important service before you of acting as grand jurors for this term of court. It is important—it is a sacred duty. It is the highest function of self-government and it is demanded by the needs of the governed.

I doubt not that you will well perform your present service, but I also remind you that it is only a part of a great and constant service and duty which you owe to your country and to yourselves every day of your lives, a duty which is best performed by helping to establish a right, healthy, vigorous public opinion.

You can also directly act upon a certain class of attorneys by showing them that you do not honor them when they resort to subterfuge and trickery. For example: See if, when a criminal case is called, the attorney for the defendant, after exhausting all his challenges for cause, begins his peremptory challenges, and exhausts them all by challenging the very best men of the county and if his action shows that with him it is not sufficient that they know nothing of the parties, that they have no prejudice against the defendant or his race, that they are absolutely unbiased and not prejudiced in any respect and are in every way and manner qualified to act as fair, impartial jurors, and if he shows that such men he challenges because they are men of high moral character, of learning and of intelligence and are not corruptible, and shows that he challenges them and thus rejects as far as he can the very best men of the county and the best men on the jury panel—then show your disapproval. He can do this under our law, but let every candid man, let every intelligent man so judge of the lawyer and of his motive as he deserves to be judged, and let it be known and spoken of until such lawyers hear it and feel it; let it be said of them that what they want is not an honest jury of candid and able and competent men, but that they want that advantage which ignorance, prejudice or dishonesty gives to the criminal. When such lawyers see their reputation dwindling they will begin the work of reformation of their part from self-interest.

Do all you can to create a healthy public opinion of condemnation of lawyers who so act. Do all you can to destroy the practice of such lawyers. Then when they are thus taught, their own self-interest will aid you to enforce them to become honest lawyers. There are many able and honest lawyers. Give them praise and support. Of all professions the law is the noblest—its power and responsibilities greatest. We have a right to demand more of lawyers than of other men. If a minister breaks the moral law, we blame him more than others and rightfully so. If a lawyer regards not truth and justice, he is more to be blamed than others, for it is against all the precepts of the law and against his oath of office. The license to practice law is not a license to lie or to deceive, he is to be bound by the truth and to work for the justice in the light of it. An honest lawyer is the noblest work of God nor will I admit it is the rarest. There are more reliable, truthful, honest men who are eminent lawyers than proportionally in any other profession. Indeed I might say it is the rule that all eminent and able lawyers are honest.

An ignorant, weak, incompetent lawyer is subject to temptations that a learned, able lawyer never has. Remember that trickery, dishonesty and falsehood are signs of a poor lawyer—poor in every sense. Do not sympathize with crime or with criminals. Pity the criminal but despise and punish the crime. Such a public opinion will do more than the penal statutes or any court proceedings to stamp out evil-doing.

If at any time during your session, you desire further instruction on any legal matters, you can report into this court-room for such aid. At the end of your service, you will make a final report of your action and report it to this court. You pertain to this court and are acting as a part thereof.

When you retire to your jury-room, you may select a ready writer from one of your number who will be your secretary and keep the minutes of your proceedings which must also be filed in this court. The court appoints A. W. Collins to be and act as your foreman, preside during your sessions, regulate the conduct of your business, sign all true bills, and, in general, act as

CORPORATIONS UNDER JURISDICTION OF PUBLIC UTILITIES, DETAILS OF REPORTS OF BOARD

The following tabulation, compiled by E. A. Mott-Smith, chairman of the public utilities commission, shows at a glance the various utility corporations existing in the territory which come under the jurisdiction of the commission, are subject to investigation by it, and which are required by the utility law to pay each year to it fees amounting to one-fiftieth of one per cent of their capital stock outstanding at the end of each year, as well as one-twentieth of one per cent of their gross income during each year.

The tabulation shows the capital stock and gross income of each company for the years 1912 and 1913, together with the increase or decrease in each case. In connection with this is shown the amount of the fees which each company this month pays to the commission, and the increase or decrease in fees paid last year. As will be seen from the totals, the fees payable this month are an increase of $933.90 over 1912, and a $103.89 decrease from 1912. It is interesting to note that, to date, the majority of the above-named companies have paid their fees to the commission, there having been no serious complaints. At a meeting of the commissioners Tuesday, the tabulation was presented by the chairman and approved. It has been gotten up in a highly simplified form, is easy to understand, and forms a concise model for the commission to follow in future.

ARMY NOTES

The State Department has received an appeal from the Famine Relief Society, composed of religious workers at Hachinohe Aomori-ken, Japan, asking that publicity be given to the needs of famine relief in northeastern Japan.

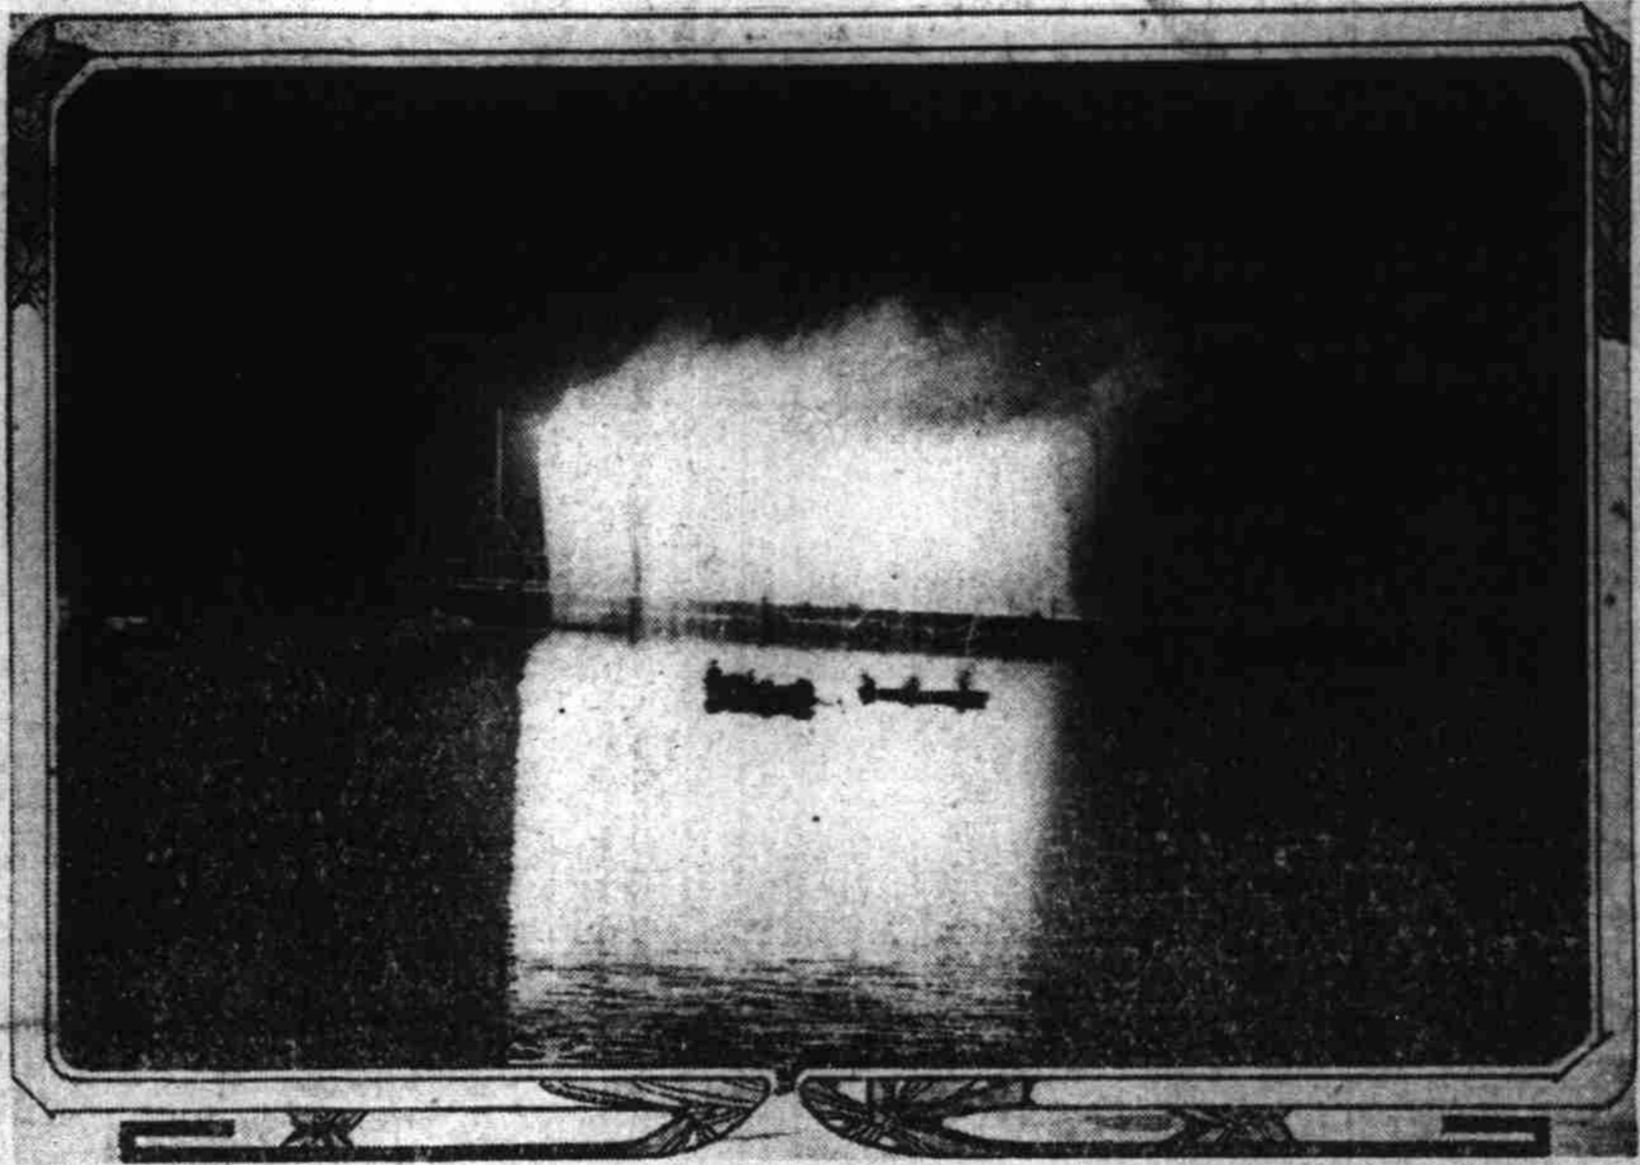

"This year's unseasonable weather," says the society's appeal, made public today, "caused the failure of the rice crop, and as a result many people are without food, money and the means of making a living. The misery worked by the famine in northeastern districts is even greater than reported and in Sanho county conditions are especially critical."

The Red Cross has already sent $5,000 each to famine and earthquake sufferers in Japan, to be expended through a special Japanese committee organized to carry on relief work among the victims of both calamities.

What can't be cured must be endured, but there is no use of enduring the torture of headaches. "Shac" gives relief in a very few minutes. Persons who suffer in this way should always have a box of it at hand. Insist on "Shac."—advertisement.

PERKINS' PHOTO WINS FIRST PRIZE

The photograph reproduced above, taken by R. W. Perkins, was awarded the first prize of $25, for the best photograph taken of the pyrotechnic display made by the Willson Fireworks Company during the recent Mid-Pacific Carnival. The Willson company offered prizes for the best photographic work of all their displays, with the result that Mr. Perkins finished number one. Much of the detail of the photograph is lost in reproduction, the original work being declared by Mr. Willson to be one of the finest pieces of pyrotechnic-photography he has ever seen.

JUDGE DEFINES DUTIES OF THE GRAND JURORS

chairman or moderator and as foreman of a jury does act. Gentlemen, I have done with charging you as to your present service in the sacred office of grand jurymen. I am most impressed with the office you hold as electors and as men, and am reminded that the supposed special obligation you are now under is to initiate trials, for punishment that will help to stamp out crime. But, I am also reminded that in the school of the jury system and service men acquire correct views of life and of public duty. To stamp out crime is to clean a place on which to build a beautiful city—while to create a public opinion founded upon high moral sentiments and correct views of the moral obligations of citizens is to lay the foundation of a great state. You may retire to your grand jury room.

SEE IF THE CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

Mother! Don't hesitate! If cross, feverish, constipated, give "California Syrup of Figs."

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little ones' stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad; has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food, and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels, without griping, and you have a well, playful child again. You needn't coax children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages, and for grown-ups, plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—advertisement.

A contemporary has estimated that the average length of a railroad journey in this country is 34 miles, and a passenger with only one chance of being killed, it would take him, at two trips per day, 3,792 years to run a full gamut of risk. That is to say, if the one fatal accident happened to him in the present year, it would have been necessary for him to start his railroad traveling at two trips per day, in the year 1879 B. C. It must be borne in mind, however, that he might be killed on his very first trip.—Springfield Republican.

FANNY CROSBY IS REMEMBERED ON 94TH BIRTHDAY

A mystical and literary program, including two interesting biographical addresses, was given at the Kawaiahao Seminary, last evening in observance of the 94th anniversary of the birth of Fanny Crosby, who acquired nation-wide fame as a writer of hymns. The speakers of the evening were John Martin and Dr. Wilbur P. Ferguson, principal of Mills School, the latter having been acquainted with the author. Mr. Martin spoke on the life of Fanny Crosby and her work as a hymn writer, while Professor Ferguson spoke along similar lines, paying many appropriate tributes and laying stress on the great good which has been accomplished through her many hymns. Professor Ferguson closed his address with an interesting talk in reference to the present system of education for the blind. The program was as follows:

"Blessed Assurance" in languages—one was in English, one in Chinese, one in Japanese. "Safe in the Arms of Jesus"—Solo by Miss Kemp of Kawaiahao Seminary. Devotional exercises by Rev. Dr. Burkhalter of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. "Pass Me Not, O Gentle Saviour"—sung in Chinese and Japanese. "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me"—in Hawaiian, by Kawaiahao selected chorus. "I Shall See Him Face to Face"—Solo by Miss Jones of Mills School. Reading of a letter to Mr. John Martin from Fanny Crosby. Address by Rev. Dr. W. P. Ferguson, principal of Mills School. "Rescue the Perishing"—by Mills and Kawaiahao Schools and the audience. James Calway of Skowhegan, Me., has finished, after six years' work, a clock seven feet 10 inches in height, by hand, from many different kinds of wood. More than 20,000 pieces go to make up its construction, which includes mechanical figures that march and go through evolutions at certain hours.

JUSTICE IN AUSTRALIAN BUSH
Near by this town, long ago, a savage tribe had murdered a family of settlers in the night, save one lad, who escaped death by opportunely tumbling to the floor between the bed and the wall, himself wounded, unconscious and left for dead. What the provocation was nobody knows. It is probable that there was no specific provocation. It had doubtless been a wanton thing—a childish mischief—undertaken upon savage impulse and accomplished for nothing more than the momentary pleasure of dealing death to some living creature. This was the inspiration of many similar deeds—neither vengeance nor spoil, but, as swift, bestial, wanton bloodlust, indulged, celebrated, laughed over for the time, and forgotten; and therein lies a sufficient explanation of the terrible character of the retaliation. Whatever the case, the boy, having thus narrowly survived, made his way to Brisbane, where he related his story to the authorities, and to such good purpose, as it turned out, that he was given a rifle and free leave to return to his district and shoot as many black fellows as he could manage, being heartily assured that the law would not molest him.

"You see," said our fellow-traveler, "he was regularly licensed."

"By the department of game and fisheries?" I scoffed.

"Ah, come now!" he replied. "I am not joking. I do not mean to say," he went on, "that the authorities gave this boy an engraved license, suitable for framing, but I do assert that they commissioned him to kill black fellows, and that his commission was not altogether singular, but one of a good many. And he did kill black fellows—hundreds of them, possibly. He killed them where he could find them, running the bush or employed on the stations, not even hesitating in the presence of their white masters. And by and by the thing became a nuisance. It was awkward for the station owners to have their black boys disposed of in this way. There were complaints. I recall that one station owner had his best black servant shot from the saddle on the road. He was very angry, but the boy flourished his commission and the station owner could do nothing about it."—Norman Duncan in Harper's Magazine.

NEWSPAPERMEN 'STAND PAT' IN FACE OF PARDON

[By Latest Mail]

NEW YORK—Whether or not newspaper reporters and editors can be forced to divulge the sources of their information by the federal government is to be tested in the United States courts.

The test case—which will be carried to the United States supreme court if necessary—has arisen through the publication in a morning paper in the Alexander-Helmeyer and the Littauer brothers smuggling cases.

George Burdick, formerly city editor of the Tribune, and William I. Curtin, a Ship News reporter, are the ones who have stood pat on their right to protect sources of information to such an extent that they may be cited for contempt of court.

When the Alexander-Helmeyer case was published United States Attorney Snowden Marshall was much put out and started an investigation. There was no question as to the accuracy of the publication, but Mr. Marshall wanted to know where the "leak" was through, which the information could have been made public. Refused to Tell Grand Jury.

Burdick and Curtin were called before the federal grand jury and questioned. It was explained to them that the only object of the inquiry was to enable the federal authorities to ascertain who in the customs or other branches of the service had furnished the information. Burdick and Curtin gave excellent imitations of the Sphinx.

In order to coax the information out of them, however, the United States attorney had communicated with Washington and had obtained pardons in advance for the newspaper men, signed by President Wilson, which pardons would have protected them from all liability to punishment. They had refused on the constitutional ground that to answer questions by the grand jury might tend to incriminate or degrade them.

The pardons signed by the president overcame that point, but Burdick and Curtin, by advice of their counsel, former United States Attorney Henry A. Wise, continued to keep silent when an effort was made to get them to tell how the information was obtained.

Assistant District Attorney Frank R. Carstarphen told Judge Hand yesterday that the federal grand jury already had prepared informal presentments against Burdick and Curtin on the ground that they were not acting in good faith in asserting their constitutional right, but were, in fact, merely trying to shield some government official from whom the information had been obtained.

Prosecutor Cites Previous Case. Mr. Carstarphen pointed out that in a previous case, when Mr. Wise was the federal prosecutor, he had said that a pardon in advance, similar to those issued by the president in the present case, "had seemed to establish an interesting and important principle of constitutional law."

"Mabel, I'm drawn on the grand jury," "So am I, Gertrude." "Our responsibilities will be heavy." "I realize that. What shall we wear?"

OVER-NIGHT ASSOCIATED PRESS NEWS

PREPARING FOR WAR ON CANAL TOLL MEASURE
WASHINGTON, D. C. — Determined to begin the fight in earnest for the repeal of the free tolls law in the house Thursday, the administration forces kept the house in session until late last evening.
Representative Ainey's resolution calling on the president for information regarding the protection being accorded the lives and property of foreigners in Mexico will probably come up in the house and be the one question discussed by that body in its session today.
In the meantime all plans were completed yesterday for the house to take up the Slims bill repealing the free toll clause in the Panama canal toll law.

DID NOT EXPECT TO DO ANY FIGHTING
LONDON — Westminster continues to be a seething caldron over what the liberals now denounce as a "mutiny of army aristocrats" against a democratic government. The fact has been established that from all the evidence obtainable General Gough and other officials of the 3d Cavalry demanded and obtained written assurances that they would not be ordered to fight Carson's "lister" volunteers and that these assurances were obtained largely through the personal intervention of King George.

REBELS REPORT KILLING MANY FEDERALS
CHIHUAHUA, Mex. — It was reported here last night that there is still fierce fighting between Villa's rebels and Velasco's federals at Gomez Palacio. The rebels are said to have captured a stone railroad roundhouse near the central part of the fight and are battling from it. The rebels claim the federal dead is several hundred but will not make public their own losses. It is learned, however, that the rebels have at least 50 wounded.

DID NOT INTEND TO KILL CALMETTE
PARIS. — "I never intended to kill M. Gaston Calmette," was the assertion made yesterday by Madame Calmette, as a climax to her dramatic recital of the story and the events preceding the shooting of the Figaro editor. The woman was being arraigned for the murder of Calmette. The courtroom was crowded, but not demonstrative. Special guards were stationed about the place to preserve order in the event of a demonstration.

CARRANZA DEPORTS 600 CITIZENS
NOGALES, Ariz. — Six hundred citizens of the state of Sonora, suspected of being in sympathy with President Huerta and the federal cause, have been ordered deported by General Carranza of the Constitutionalists. Twenty-five reached here today from Hermosillo. All their property has been confiscated and they were ordered to leave on penalty of death.

INJURED IN RIOT
BELFAST, Ireland. — A party riot occurred in Oranac Square last night. Stones and missiles were thrown, clubs were used and shots were fired. A number of persons were injured and several arrests were made.

KNOWLEDGE THAT IS NOT IN BOOKS

'Howlers' About Gongs, Cows, Monks, et al. By British Schoolboys
LONDON. — Huddled knowledge among school boys has seldom reached such delicious pitch as in a "howler" quoted in the University Correspondent. It is as follows:
Gong is the masculine of belle and vicar of vixen.
Echoes of Sunday school treats are seen in:
The mineral wealth of a country is ginger beer and lemonade.
And a smattering of modern topics had evidently been acquired by the young hopefuls who wrote:
An appendix is a portion of a book which nobody has yet discovered to be of any use.
The flannelette peril means petty-coat government.
Other amusing "howlers" quoted include the following:
Much butter is imported from Denmark because Danish cows have greater enterprise and superior technical education to ours.
Finally James II. gave birth to a son, and so the people turned him off the throne.
After twice committing suicide, Cowper lived till 1809, when he died a natural death.
The trope of cancer is a painful and incurable disease.
When Chaucer describes the Prioress as amiable of port he means that she was fond of wine.
When the last French attack at Waterloo proved a failure Napoleon turned very pale and rode at full gallop to St. Helena.
The Mediterranean and the Red Sea are joined by the Sewage Canal.
Milton was called the father of English poetry because he was blind and his daughter did the writing for him.
The Minister of War is the clergyman who preaches to the soldiers in the barracks.
Woman's suffrage is the state of suffering in which they were born.
A candidate for the civil service must be a neutralized British subject.
The immortal William is a phrase applied to the German Emperor.
Julius Caesar was murdered in the Cinema House.
Milton wrote "Sampson the Agnostic."

The circulation of the blood was invented by Martin Harvey.
A problem is a figure which you do things with which are absurd, and then you prove it.
People are vaccinated by being inarticulated with Iht.
A synonym is a word you can use when you don't know how to spell the one you thought of first.
Before a man can become a monk he has to have his tonsils cut.

SICK, SOUR STOMACH, INDIGESTION OR GAS
Take "Pape's Diapiesin" and in five minutes you'll wonder what became of misery in stomach.
Wonder what upset your stomach— which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapiesin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.
Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapiesin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion, if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapiesin which costs only fifty-cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—advertisement.
