SMART'S REPLY TO MRS. KNIGHT FILED IN KONA: COUNTER CHARGES ARE GRAVE

Hope for Compromise in Bitter Fight Over Child and Estate of Thelma Parker Smart Shattered—Answer of Young Husband to Mrs. Knight's Accusations Declares Her Home Not Fit Place for Baby Son to be Reared in—Fred Knight Accused—Affirms Own Tender Care of Girl-wife—Paris "Slumming" Story Denied

Hope of a compromise in the litigation over the huge Parker estate and the will of the late Thelma Parker Smart was shattered today when Attorney F. W. Milverton filed in the third circuit court at Kailua, Kona, Hawaii, the answer of Henry Gaillard Smart to the petition and many affidavits of Mrs. Elizabeth J. Knight. The legal fight between these interests for the control of the estate and the minor child, Richard Smart, is in full blast today.

In addition to entering a general denial of all the charges made against him by Mrs. Knight, Smart questions the jurisdiction of Judge Matthewman of the third circuit to handle the guardianship question, and then in detail makes a number of replies to Mrs. Knight's accusations. His replies in many instances are of a highly sensational character.

Some of these are in brief as follows:

He denies cruel treatment of wife and child; did not know that Mrs. Knight objected to the marriage; did not alienate wife's affection from the members of her family; never had any control over her estate.

He denies placing obstacles in the way of the wife seeing her mother; Mrs. Knight was also dissatisfied with trust deed to A. W. Carter; the trip to Paris was planned by the wife when the husband was not in the territory; the wife wanted to leave the territory and a local physician acquiesced; physician advised her to leave; he did not know she was tubercular and was not so warned by doctors.

He did not go slumming in Paris; never controlled his wife's financial affairs; did not know of his wife's tender condition; that she had every kindness and attention at Norfolk, Va.; that he always treated her with utmost kindness; that he did all he could during her last illness; that there never was a question of divorce; that he was not intoxicated during her illness.

He always treated the child with kindness and affection; does not intend to leave the territory; that Mrs. Knight's family is predisposed to insanity; that Mrs. Knight's husband is a notoriously immoral person; and that he—Smart—believes the child, under the third and last will, is entitled to two-thirds of the ranch property.

Smart's answer covers 35 typewritten pages. The major and first part is given to general denials for record. The later part is of an affirmative nature, a portion of which is as follows:

"Respondent further alleges that the said petitioner, Elizabeth J. Knight, has a violent, vindictive, intense, malicious, unreasonable hatred of respondent and in her said petition herein has recklessly and without careful or proper investigation made false, libelous and grossly unfair charges against respondent and against his character, morality and fitness to rear his son, Richard, many if not all of which charges respondent is informed and believes and upon such information and belief alleges, the said Elizabeth J. Knight at the time of making the same did not and does not now believe to be true. That the said hatred and bitterness of the said Elizabeth J. Knight against respondent is of such an intense character that respondent verily believes and thereupon alleges that if the said Elizabeth J. Knight should be given the care and custody of the said child Richard, or be appointed guardian of said child, she would teach and train the said child to hate respondent, would alienate the affection and love the child has now for respondent, and would bring or attempt to bring said child up as a perfect stranger to respondent, its own father.

Accuses Fred Knight.

"Respondent alleges on information and belief that Fred S. Knight, husband of the said petitioner, Elizabeth J. Knight, and who resides with the said Elizabeth J. Knight at her said home in the city of San Francisco, California, is a notoriously immoral person, . . . is now and for many years has been unfaithful to his said wife, . . . is now and for many years has been a rake, roue and libertine and well known as such in the city of San Francisco, State of California, the place of his residence, and is in the habit of . . . associating with immoral women. Respondent further alleges on information and belief that the said Fred S. Knight is in receipt of a regular monthly allowance or income from the said Elizabeth J. Knight out of the moneys

RECKLESS AUTO DRIVERS GIVEN DRASTIC FINES

Police Judge Monsarrat Deals Heavily With Offenders, and Makes Warning Emphatic—Determined to Put a Stop to Many Needless Accidents

Police Judge Monsarrat issued to reckless auto-drivers this morning the most emphatic warning ever given from the district court bench. Not in words alone but in heavy fines did the district magistrate deal hard and straight from the shoulder with violators of the law.

Here in brief is what he did:

He found Charles Murasky, city building inspector, guilty of reckless driving and fined him $225 and costs.

He found A. A. Braun, charged with a similar offense, guilty and fined him $125 and costs.

He found James McQueen, charged with driving on the wrong side of the street, guilty and fined him $100 and costs. An appeal was noted in this case by Attorney Magoon for McQueen.

It was a sad day for violators of the traffic law. Police officials say these are the heaviest fines ever imposed in police court for similar offenses.

In one case, that of Braun, the judge stated from the bench that he regretted that under the charge as brought he did not have the right to cancel the driver's license if he so wished.

Braun's case was first up. He was charged with having run into a Hawaiian when backing into Morris lane, Palama. The man was not badly hurt but the judge held that Braun should have exercised more judgment and care and the first of the heavy fines was imposed.

McQueen was defended by Magoon and the case was fought out for more than an hour, Deputy Chillingworth making an energetic case for the prosecution. The principal witness proved to be C. W. Case Deering. His testimony, summed up, was that McQueen was driving on the wrong side of the road on Beretania approaching Nuuanu last Sunday evening, that he himself had to swerve his car to avoid a collision, and that as a result of McQueen's driving the man smashed into a motorcycle. Deering's testimony was given with emphatic precision and there were frequent verbal clashes with Magoon, at each of which Deering adroitly inserted more damaging evidence. Magoon made a strong defense, arguing that the evidence of Deering was contradicted by other witnesses and there was much detail of

'BUCK IS PASSED' BY SENATORS ON BREWERY BILL

The brewery bill introduced a few days ago by Senator R. H. Makekau of Hawaii is creating tremors of apprehension among the Oahu solons. It is no secret that the Big Island senator assumed its sponsorship because the Honolulu members feared the political stigma that might attach to the one who offered it. That they are still afraid of it was indicated yesterday when Chairman Castle of the judiciary committee hotly opposed Makekau's motion referring it to that body for consideration. Castle's objection was sustained and the bill eventually was sent to the committee of the whole to be taken up for discussion following the regular senate session next Monday afternoon. The measure would extend the Honolulu Brewing and Malting Company's franchise 15 years from April 4, 1918. Makekau is its strong champion.

"As long as prohibition does not prevail in Hawaii, I see no reason why we should deny a franchise to the brewery," says he. "I don't think the prohibition question enters into the subject at all."

The session of the committee of the whole will compel practically all members to go on record, showing whether they favor the franchise extension.

HOUSE ADOPTS RESOLUTION ON KUHIO'S SUGGESTION LEAVING LOCATION OF FEDERAL SITE TO M'ADOO

In response to a cablegram from Delegate Kalaniana'ole urging the legislature not to interfere in the selection of the $1,000,000 federal building site, the house of representatives today adopted a memorial resolution leaving the selection to the secretary of the treasury without official recommendation on any proposed site.

The resolution was introduced by Speaker Holstein and must be concurred in by the senate. It was adopted only after a strenuous debate had progressed for nearly an hour with Representative Crockett lined up with the speaker for the resolution and Representatives Lyman and Rawlins opposed. When the speaker's resolution and the cablegram from the delegate were read by Clerk Woodward, Rawlins took the floor and urged that the matter be deferred for a day or two.

"There have been whisperings about the house here since the receipt of the governor's message urging the selection of the Irwin site," he declared, "because it was believed by some that the governor was attempting to exercise the prerogative of the house. The same applies to this resolution. If the governor was attempting to exercise the prerogative of the legislature, then the delegate to Congress is attempting to do the same thing.

"What Behind Cable?"

"I want to know what is behind this cablegram from Delegate Kalanianaole, what prompted him to send this message. There must be some forces working back there in Washington to bring this memorial to bear on the secretary of the treasury. This resolution just presented states that the secretary of the treasury has been fully informed as to the various sites and their relative values. Has he? That is the main question. Without

PLANTERS STILL ABLE TO GET PHILIPPINE LABOR, SAYS MEAD ON RETURN

Royal D. Mead, director of the labor bureau of the Sugar Planters' Association, returned in the Nippon Maru today from the Philippines, where he has been on an extended business trip. He inspected the work of recruiting done by the planters in the islands and was in Manila when the Philippine legislators discussed anti-recruiting legislation.

His only comment on the bill as finally passed is that it is mildly restrictive, and he does not believe it will seriously interfere with the securing of labor for Hawaii.

CONGRESS PROBE OF SUGAR MILLS ASKED IN HOUSE

A congressional investigation into the prices paid by large sugar mills in Hawaii to small farmers and homesteaders for their cane is demanded in a resolution introduced in the house today by Speaker Holstein. The resolution was referred to the committee on agriculture.

Holstein sets forth that numerous complaints have been made by small growers that they are paid an unfair price by the large mills, whereas the mills say they are treating them fairly. He also cites that the prosperity of the territory depends on the building up of a class of small farmers, who depend entirely on the mills for their welfare.

The resolution follows:

"Whereas, There is a large number of homesteaders and small farmers in the Territory of Hawaii engaged in the raising of sugar cane for sale to the sugar mill corporations of the Territory; and

"Whereas, the success and prosperity of the said homesteaders and small farmers depend entirely upon the price paid for sugar cane by the said mill corporations; and

"Whereas, complaints are made by the said homesteaders and small farmers that the price paid for sugar cane by the said sugar mill corporations is not an adequate one, and results in an unfair division of the profits of their labor and enterprise, the said sugar mill corporations paying such a small price for the said sugar cane to the said homesteaders and small farmers that, at the average price of raw sugar, the price so paid for sugar cane barely, if at all, covers the cost of production; and

"Whereas, the said Sugar Mill corporations claim that they are paying a fair and just price for the said sugar cane so purchased from the said homesteaders and small farmers; and

"Whereas, the building up of a prosperous citizen farmer population in this territory depends almost entirely upon the successful prosecution of the cane industry on the part of said homesteaders and small farmers and upon their contractual relations with the said sugar mill corporations;

"Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the legislature of the Territory of Hawaii doth hereby recommend to and petition the Congress of the United received by her under said deed of trust and wastes and squanders said money so received from his said wife for vain and frivolous purposes and on immoral and dissipated women.

"Respondent further says that he is informed and believes and upon such information and belief alleges that John P. Parker, father of the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart, died shortly before attaining the age of majority, of tuberculosis, and that the petitioner herein, Elizabeth J. Knight, well knew that her former husband, the said John P. Parker, died of such disease, but notwithstanding such knowledge failed and neglected to inform or advise or warn respondent thereof, or that tuberculosis was hereditary in the family of the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart.

"Respondent further states that he is informed and believes and upon such information and belief alleges that the said petitioner, Elizabeth J. Knight, is of a neurotic and highly nervous temperament and comes of a family, some of the members of which are predisposed to insanity, and one or more of the members of which became and were actually insane.

Objects to Mrs. Knight.

"Respondent further says that he is informed and believes and upon such information and belief alleges that if the said petitioner, Elizabeth J. Knight, is appointed guardian of the said Richard Smart it is her intention to take the said Richard Smart out of the jurisdiction of this honorable court to the city of San Francisco, state of California, and there rear the said Richard Smart in the home of herself and the said Fred S. Knight. Respondent further alleges that if the said child Richard is taken to the said home of the said Fred S. Knight and brought up in contact with the said Fred S. Knight, he would by reason of the character, reputation and actions of the said Fred S. Knight as herein alleged, be subject to improper influences and contaminated at a period of his life when his surroundings should be of the best from a moral as well as from all other standpoints, and in this behalf respondent alleges that he has advised the said Elizabeth J. Knight that aside from other considerations the home of herself and the said Fred S. Knight would be an improper place for the rearing of the said child Richard unless the said Fred S. Knight were divorced or separated from her. And respondent further alleges that by reason of the facts in this answer alleged and set forth, and for other good and sufficient reasons, the said Elizabeth J. Knight is not a fit and proper person to have the care and custody and the bringing up of the said child Richard Smart and that the best interests of the said child would not be subserved by the appointment of the said Elizabeth J. Knight as guardian of said child or by the giving to her any custody or control over said child.

"Respondent further alleges that he is now of the age of twenty-three years; that at all times during the married life of himself and the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart, he treated his said wife with kindness and consideration, and in a loving manner, had great love and affection for her and was in return loved, respected and affectionately thought by her. That he has at all times treated his child Richard in a kind and affectionate manner and has all of the love and affection for his said child that a parent could have. That the said child, Richard, returns the love and affection he has for such child and cares for respondent in all respects as a natural child would and should. That respondent, though not a total abstainer from intoxicating liquors, is and has been temperate in the use thereof and has always borne a good reputation in the communities where he has resided. That he never at any time exercised any undue or improper influence over the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart either in relation to the execution of the last will and testament, to wit, the said third will of the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart, or in any other matter or thing. That the married life of the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart and respondent was a happy one and the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart was contented and satisfied with such married life, and more contended and happy during such period as respondent is advised and believes and thereupon alleges, than at any other time or period prior thereto in her whole life.

"Respondent further alleges that he is a fit and proper person in every respect to care for and rear his said child, Richard, and that no good or sufficient reason appears or exists why he should be removed as the natural guardian of his said child, and the said Elizabeth J. Knight or any other person appointed guardian of said child in his place.

"Respondent denies that said Richard Smart is now or at any time has been a resident of Waimea, within the third judicial circuit of the territory of Hawaii, as alleged on page one of said petition, and alleges that the residence of respondent and of his son, the said Richard Smart, at the time of the filing of the petition in the above entitled proceeding, and at the time of the service upon respondent of the order to show cause herein, was and ever since such time has been, in the city and county of Honolulu, territory of Hawaii, and that at the time said petition was filed herein and said respondent served with said order to show cause as aforesaid, respondent and the said Richard Smart were temporarily within the third judicial circuit of the territory of Hawaii and had not then or at any time prior thereto, and have not since, established any residence within said third judicial circuit of the territory of Hawaii.

"Respondent denies that the said Richard Smart is the owner of property and has estate within the said third judicial circuit of the territory of Hawaii, as alleged on page one of said petition, and alleges that all of the property and property rights formerly owned and held by Annie T. K. Parker Smart, situated within the third judicial circuit of the territory of Hawaii, were transferred and conveyed by the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart to Alfred W. Carter of the city and county of Honolulu, territory of Hawaii, in trust, and that the legal title to all of said property is now in the said Alfred W. Carter subject to the payment of the income thereof as in said trust deed provided and, as in the last will and testament of the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart set forth.

Denies "Slumming" Charges.

"Respondent denies that from time to time and on one occasion but a few weeks prior to the birth of said second child, he took his said wife to various and sundry resorts of a low character in Paris aforesaid with a young man whose acquaintance they had made in Honolulu, or at all, and notwithstanding her condition and her ill-health kept her out practically all night long, as alleged on page six of said petition, and alleges that he never at any time in Paris or elsewhere, took his said wife to any resort or resorts of low character, but alleges that he did on occasions in company with the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart and at her special and urgent request and wish, visit certain theaters and cafes in said Paris, being the same theaters and cafes as respondent is informed and believes and upon such information and belief states the fact to be, that had been previously attended and visited by the said petitioner, Elizabeth J. Knight and her husband, Fred S. Knight, upon their previous visit or visits to the said city of Paris, and respondent in this regard further alleges that he never at any time in said Paris or elsewhere, took the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart out at night beyond such time as she wished and desired to stay of her own free will and accord, and that on the only occasion that the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart was out late at night in said Paris respondent twice without avail urged the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart to return to her home earlier in the evening, and respondent never at any time in said Paris or elsewhere attempted in any manner to control and never at any time did control the actions and doings of the said Annie T. K. Parker Smart in that regard."

Although the hearing on the probate of the third will of the late Annie T. K. Parker Smart is set for March 10, Circuit Judge Whitney will continue it until the matter of the suggestion of his disqualification, raised by Mrs. Elizabeth J. Knight, has been settled. Argument on the latter point is to be heard Thursday afternoon, March 11.

Japanese Enter New Field.

For the first time in the history of the port of San Francisco a Japanese steamer is to go from there to Australia laden with general cargo received on the Coast. The vessel is the Japanese freighter Keishin Maru, which has been chartered by the Union Steamship Company to load at San Francisco and at British Columbia ports for Sydney and Wellington. The Keishin Maru arrived at Guaymas a few days ago from Moji with a cargo of coal under charter to J. J. Moore & Co., and will shortly come to undertake her new fixture. The fact that many British carriers, both passenger and freight vessels, have been impressed by the British Admiralty for service as transports is responsible for the charter of the Japanese steamer by the English company, which heretofore, when in need of additional tonnage, outside of its own fleet, confined its fixtures to British bottoms. It is confidently believed by local shipping men that the Australian waterside workers' union will raise no objection to working with their Japanese allies.

CHILLINGWORTH IS CENTER OF LEGAL QUESTION

The right of Charles F. Chillingworth to act as deputy city attorney and prosecute cases in the police court, simultaneously holding the office of territorial senator, was attacked on legal grounds today in the district court by Attorney A. S. Humphreys, who appeared in a case before Judge Monsarrat.

Not only is there a violation of the provisions of the organic act but of the city and county charter, is the opinion of Judge Humphreys, who called upon Magistrate Monsarrat for a ruling.

Chillingworth has served for several months as a prosecuting officer in the lower court. When the territorial legislature opened the middle of February, Attorney A. L. C. Atkinson was substituted. Atkinson resigned his commission March 1. At the suggestion of City Attorney Cathcart, Chillingworth resumed his labors at the district court.

A number of automobile cases had been disposed of today while others were pending before the court. Following Judge Humphreys' objection, Chillingworth immediately called for a postponment of all cases remaining on the police court calendar.

Judge Monsarrat declined to rule off-hand on the question. He granted a motion offered by Chillingworth that business in the lower court be brought to a close.

Judge Humphreys said today that his objection is not brought with a view of invalidating cases already tried with Chillingworth as prosecutor.

Attorney Frank Thompson, representing Tom Blackwell, a negro chauffeur charged with profanity and a violation of the automobile regulations, announced that he would waive any question of validity if Chillingworth would continue as prosecuting officer this morning. That official, however, declined to serve further until he had received an opinion from the attorney-general.

DEATH SUMMONS 'GRAND OLD MAN' OF HAWAIIANS

George Wood Ainoa, called "The Grand Old Man of Hawaii," died yesterday at his residence in Waikiki.

He was born in 1840 at the place now known as Ainahau. He was in line with the ancient high priests, his father, Lono Kauaili, being a brother of Hewahewa, Kamehameha's great priest. The day Ainoa's father was born was the day that King Kamehameha II overthrew the tabu, which brought out the expression "Ainoa," meaning "the tabu on food is lifted." Because of that fact he was given the name of Ainoa.

For five or six years George Wood Ainoa was associated with W. D. Westervelt in Hawaiian research. At an early age he was adopted by George Wood and was given the name of his guardian. He went to the school near Kawaiahao church and later taught Sunday school opposite the Moana Hotel. He leaves no children living. The funeral was held this afternoon from Townsend's parlors.

The Valley Mold and Iron Company plant at Sharpsville, Pa., resumed operations.

MORE EVIDENCE ON BOOZE-FESTS DUE IN KUPIHEA INVESTIGATION

Prepared to bring forward witnesses to prove that Representative David M. Kupihea encouraged the roistering of soldiers on his premises, Attorneys Alexander Larnach and George S. Curry will assist in bringing out before the house judiciary committee the facts concerning Kupihea's alleged responsibility for the delinquency of his daughter and niece.

The committee will hold its third session this afternoon in the hall of representatives, after the close of the day's house session.

Charles Bradbrook and French Oldham, the two soldiers in the case, appeared in police court this morning to answer to the burglary charge made by Kupihea yesterday and on which they were arrested, as told in the second edition of the Star-Bulletin. Attorneys Larnach and Curry, who represented them in the original case before Circuit Judge Ashford, appeared to defend them today. Deputy City Attorney Chillingworth, prosecuting in the police court, told Judge Monsarrat that the Kupihea investigation is proceeding in the house and that the grand jury may look into the case, and the police court hearing on the burglary charge was set over to March 10. Lieut. L. O. Matthews of Fort Shafter vouched for the appearance of the men on that date and they were released on their own recognizance.

Eva Kupihea, 14-year-old daughter of David M. Kupihea, representative from Oahu, told the members of the house investigating committee yesterday under oath that her father had invited French Oldham and Charles Bradbrook, soldiers, to visit with herself and Kupihea's niece and that luaus and all-night parties were part of the entertainment.

She said that her father gave the key of the cottage, 150 yards from the Kupihea home, to her step-brother with the instructions that it be given to the soldiers. She also said that she first met the soldiers, who were convicted in connection with her downfall, in November, while she was living with her father, the latter having invited the two young men to his home.

"I sat out on the porch one night with Bradbrook for about an hour and a half," she said, "and lots of times I saw my father in the house drinking with the soldiers, and they got drunk." She said that dancing also was a part of the entertainment. Bradbrook gave her $3.50 to buy shoes with because her father had not bought her any shoes or clothing, according to her story. She said that her father sent her out of his home about Christmas time.

Oldham Testifies.

French oldham, who is 18 years old and one of the soldiers, testified that he and several others had been invited to visit at the Kupihea home whenever they desired and that Kupihea had made them welcome. He said he had met Eva and Irene Kupihea and Rose Johnson, the representative's niece. Later they brought liquor with them when visiting the Kupihea home, he said. They also were at the home of Kupihea's sister.

"We were there four days around Christmas time," the witness explained. "We ate at Kupihea's place and he was there most of the time. We slept out on the porch. Kupihea prepared a luau and we paid him $12 for a pig. The girls were there nearly all of the time. We furnished about 45 gallons of booze."

Oldham said that Kupihea gave them the key to the cottage where the girls slept and that Kupihea convoyed them to the cottage with a lantern the first time and that they used the place with his permission.

"We used the cottage at will and Kupihea often joined and drank booze with us," he said. "He knew we were there. The key admitted us to the house where the girls slept. We all tried to sleep in one bed in the room and then gave it up and tore the bed down."

Testimony Is Corroborated.

Charles Bradbrook, the other soldier, corroborated Oldham. He said that the luau around Christmas time lasted four days, but that he was so drunk after the first day that he couldn't remember what happened afterward. He said that the crowd slept on the floor of the house. He said that there was a bed in the room but that it had been broken to pieces when too many tried to sleep in it at one time.

Bradbrook said that language was used in the presence of the girls which he would not let his sister hear. All the witnesses were cross-examined by Attorney Andrews, Kupihea's counsel.

Chairman Rawlins yesterday secured the services of A. D. Larnach and G. S. Curry, the attorneys for the two soldiers in the court trials, to assist him in the house investigation.

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 15.—An amazing number of men and women are expressing an earnest desire to serve as guards and nurses in leper colonies. A huge number of them express preference for service in Hawaii.

For the past month the public health service has been deluged with communications applying for positions of the nature indicated. Many of them are bringing influence to bear as an aid to pull down the coveted plum. These letters pour in from people all over the country. Just what started the movement toward the leper colonies has not been discovered. It is surmised that some foolish newspaper intimated that Uncle Sam desired a few guards and nurses, whereupon hundreds of people began writing letters on the subject.

The stream of incoming applications eventually reached such proportions as to cause defensive action by the public health service officials. They appealed to the press and gave out this formal statement as a counter-irritant:

"The United States public health service is being flooded with letters from people all over the country who desire employment as guards, nurses, etc., in the 'leper colonies.'

"No leper colonies are maintained by the federal government. Institutions of this character have, however, been established under the control of the respective state, territorial or insular authorities in the following places:

"San Francisco, Cal., leper home, administered by the health officer, San Francisco, Cal.

"Louisiana state leper home, administered by the board of control for leper home, New Orleans, La.

"Massachusetts leper station, Penikese Island, Mass., administered by the state commissioner of health, Boston, Mass.

"Hawaiian leper colony, Molokai, Hawaii, administered by the secretary, territorial board of health, Honolulu, T. H.

"Philippine leper colony, Culion island, P. I., administered by the director of health, Manila, P. I.

"Porto Rico leper colony, Cabras Island, P. R., administered by the insular director of sanitation, San Juan, P. R.

"The United States public health service has no knowledge of vacant positions in any of the above mentioned places."

CONGRESS PROBE ON SUGAR MILLS ASKED

ADVERTISING IS SPECIAL FEATURE OF AD CLUB TALK

A rousing meeting of the Honolulu Ad Club, with "advertising" as the day's special, was held 'round the luncheon table at the Young hotel this noon. A number of clever stunts had been arranged by E. W. P. St. George, who had charge of the arrangements, the opening feature being the singing of a song on the gentle art of advertising, written by St. George himself and sung by Miss Hazel Kellogg, dressed to represent a well known figure in the advertising pages of the magazines.

Prof. A. L. Andrews of the College of Hawaii gave a short talk on the psychology of advertising, pointing out how the "buying impulse" could be started by intelligent ad writing.

The ad of a local concern, appearing in this afternoon's issues of the Star-Bulletin, was taken under consideration and suggestions as to its composition and makeup were offered by the members present.

The vigilance committee of the Ad Club, which had been asked to report on the official Carnival program as an advertising medium, reported that 5000 programs had been the original order, but that 6000 had been actually printed and 4200 actually distributed.

Judge Heyward of Utah, Mr. Schilling of Idaho and Mr. Donzel of San Francisco answered to the "roll call of the states" with brief talks.

A bill being urged by the Board of Retail Trade, to come before the present legislature, to prevent the circulation of false information in advertisements, was presented to the Ad club and referred to the committee on judiciary of the club.

HOUSE DECLINES TO TAKE SIDES ON FEDERAL SITE

knowing what the forces working back of this cablegram are, we are voting in the dark and I would like to have this matter deferred until we find out what these forces are."

As soon as Rawlins had concluded, Representative Crockett of Maui demanded to be heard and in a five-minute speech he branded the efforts to have the matter deferred as against the progress of the city of Honolulu and the territory. He declared that the matter has been deferred for so long that if continued further the city may lose the building entirely. He urged that the house "take the bull by the horns and thresh the whole business out at once." When Crockett finished members of the house and spectators applauded vigorously.

Representative Lyman arose and said that his views were the same as Rawlins, to which Speaker Holstein replied:

Object to Delay.

"We have been deferring this matter for six or seven years, and we have elected a delegate to Congress whom we are bound to rely upon. He knows what is needed at Washington more than any of us and I urge that this resolution be adopted at once."

Holstein called for the question and Temporary Speaker Coney. Holstein having relinquished the chair previous to the debating, put the resolution to a vote. Watkins cast the only negative vote. Rawlins did not vote.

Holstein then moved that the governor's message be placed on file and Temporary Speaker Coney so ordered. It is believed that the memorial resolution will go through the senate without debate, as leaders of the upper body have expressed themselves as opposed to any legislative interference in the selection or recommendation of a site for the federal building.

The resolution introduced by Holstein is as follows:

The Resolution.

"Whereas, The government of the United States has for a number of years by legislative action recognized the need of a federal public building located at Honolulu in the territory of Hawaii; and

"Whereas, delay in the erection of such a public building has largely been occasioned by the local differences of opinion as to the site for the location of the building; and

"Whereas, the people of the territory of Hawaii believe that the plain intent of any act of Congress of the United States providing for the erection of such a building should not be defeated or delayed by any further local contentions as to the location of the site therefor; and

"Whereas, under recent legislation passed by Congress, the secretary of the treasury of the United States has full and ample authority to purchase the site for and begin the construction of a public building in Honolulu; and

"Whereas, the secretary of the treasury of the United States has been fully advised as to the various sites proposed and is in possession of all necessary facts to enable him to arrive at a proper determination; and

"Whereas, the members of the legislature of the territory of Hawaii have confidence that the secretary of the treasury of the United States will properly decide as to the best available site upon which the said public building shall be erected; now therefore be it

"Resolved by the house of representatives of the territory of Hawaii, the senate concurring, that the secretary of the treasury of the United States be and is hereby memorialized to determine as soon as possible upon which available site a public building in Honolulu shall be erected; to thereupon purchase such site; and to institute for the acquisition of such a site proceedings necessary to have the construction of such building begun and completed; and be it further

"Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded to the secretary of the treasury."

The cable from the delegate is as follows:

"Speaker Holstein, Honolulu:

"Secure resolution whereby choice of federal building site is at the discretion of the secretary of the treasury. This will expedite the selection. Otherwise another delay.

Joseph Jessop, a student of archaeology at San Diego, California, who has gathered a collection of 2000 pieces of warlike implements of historic and prehistoric peoples in all parts of the world, is convinced that in prehistoric times the people of La Jolla, in Southern California, and those in Hawaii were in communication.

He has discovered stone implements near La Jolla identical in shape and material to those found near Kilauea, Hawaii. Some are specimens of lava, identical to those produced in the early days of the islands. He believes the natives of the islands and the mainland were in regular communication in those early times.

THE GERMAN REPLY REASSURING.

Germany's prompt acquiescence in the spirit of the United States note concerning submarine warfare and neutral commerce is extremely gratifying to the American people.

It is no small thing for Germany to concede, as yesterday's despatches to the Star-Bulletin indicated she has conceded, that her submarines must make investigation of merchant vessels in the proclaimed "war zone" before attacking these ships for carrying contraband or sailing under neutral colors to secure immunity. Germany's proclamation was issued in the face of extreme need, as the kaiser's government frankly admitted. Her war on British commerce is an offensive measure adopted only because of absolutely vital interests. Part of the effectiveness of that war consists in spreading the feeling among British masters that they cannot hope for protection by hoisting a neutral flag. And in conceding now that vessels carrying neutral flags cannot be sunk without prior investigation, Germany lays down one of her most potent weapons.

The German reply relieves those uninformed Americans deeply alarmed and distressed because of fear of an open break between the United States and the Teutons, and it confounds the jingoes who shout war and the croakers who predict it because of the administration's diplomacy.

Whether one agrees or disagrees with Wilson's secretary of state, the president has shown himself no weakling in the greatest emergency that has confronted a chief executive since Lincoln calmly faced the Civil War. The press and the people of the belligerent countries may rail at the United States because it stands neutral, but the chancelleries and the embassies are well aware that up to the present time Uncle Sam has not compromised his impartial position. The German note is a profound tribute to this position. It recognizes, in the face of a nation's dire necessity, the righteousness of the American position that neutral vessels in the war zone are not to be attacked by submarines simply because belligerent vessels have misused neutral flags.

Of course Germany will not permanently yield this point unless there is some assurance that the Lusitania incident is not to be indefinitely repeated—that British merchantmen are not to fly the American flag in dangerous waters as a matter of habitual protection. We shall be very much mistaken if Britain does not limit rigidly the use of neutral flags. Unless she does so, the United States might consider the retaliation of embargoes—which would be uncomfortable for Britain just now.

Once more a triumph for neutrality and for Uncle Sam's strong position is recorded. And once more is emphasited the importance of American citizens standing behind the president in his great effort to preserve this country from the horrors of war.

MR. WEAVER'S EXAMPLE.

Deputy City Attorney Weaver in his letter of resignation has voiced a principle that may well serve as an example to municipal officials. For more than two years, he writes, he has been carrying on the city's business in addition to his private business, until the point has been reached where he has to decide whether to give up private practice or public employ. He has decided to give up the public employ.

The saying that no man can serve two masters is trite but it is true. No public official paid a reasonable salary should carry on any private business that interferes with his public duties.

Attorney Weaver's letter recognizes the difficulty, the lack of effectiveness, in divided interests, and in deciding to give up public employ he has recognized that were he to continue, public interest might be the one to suffer.

NO NEED FOR THE BILL.

Two of the supervisors, in conference with house members yesterday over the bill boosting salaries in the municipality, seem to believe there is nothing out of the way in having these salaries raised during their term of office.

If any public official elected on a platform of economy and knowing full well the duties and the salary of his office cannot see the impropriety in urging a bill doubling that salary, it is not likely that mere adverse comment will greatly enlighten him. But adverse comment may halt the legislature. And it should be halted.

There is no necessity for the bill being thrashed over at all—no necessity for its amendment. The whole bill should be tabled. It is not only uncalled-for, it is superfluous, for other legislation so renders it.

The legislature will be asked to pass a bill providing for a city charter convention, to revise the city charter and report back to the legislature of 1917. This convention will sit for months; it will be composed entirely of voters and tax-payers in this city and as such men personally and actively interested in good government. The whole subject of city government is to be worked out on a systematic basis. It is hoped to replace the present patchwork charter with a document framed to suit present and future needs. The matter of salaries will be thoroughly discussed.

With this competent and modern plan just ahead for getting a model government, why should the legislature pass or even consider a bill whose sole object is to boost salaries?

The Star-Bulletin repeats that the city itself should determine the salaries paid its officials. The new city charter should provide for such determination, and the referendum vote might well be the method. The charter should also provide that no increase in the salary of any office take effect during the current term.

If the Sixty-third Congress adjourns without any further action on the shipping bill, the administration will have been signally defeated through the aid of Democratic senators. It will be by far the worst blow the president has received. The temper of the country is plainly against the bill, both because it embarkks the United States on a government-ownership-of-steamships policy and because it might involve Uncle Sam in the European conflict. So there is both national and international objection to it.

Essad Pasha, the stormy petrel of the Turkish army, is in the despatches again. He is reported to be heading an army of 100,000 men ready to attack the Allies forcing their way through the Dardanelles.

A POST-CARNIVAL SUGGESTION.

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin,

Sir: Now that the 1915 Carnival is a thing of the past no harm can be done by the enclosed:

Invitations for the Carnival ball read "The director-general, etc., etc., request the pleasure of your presence." On arrival at the door the "guests" were invited to dance to the tune of 50 cents for two pieces of ribbon of the Carnival colors.

I did not attend myself—but my impression, gained from talks with several who were there—is that this bordered pretty close to being an insult.

Of course nothing of the kind was intended, but the idea is almost identical with the tactics of the annual French students ball in New York, where complimentary tickets are freely issued—the holder of one finding on arrival that it is complimentary for $2.50 toward a $5 ticket of entrance.

My suggestion is, charge admission to the hall if it cannot be done in any other way, then everyone will understand.

Trusting that this letter will be taken in the spirit in which it is intended, the spirit of friendship, I am

Yours very truly,

KENNETH ALEXANDER.

Six thousand dollars' damages were awarded Mrs. Zane Shee by a jury in Circuit Judge Stuart's court yesterday afternoon, to be paid by the Honolulu Taxi company, one of whose drivers ran over and killed the Chinese woman's husband many months ago. The hearing occupied two days and the jury required only a few minutes to find its verdict. The widow sued for $10,000 damages. The decision holds the taxi company responsible for the act of its employe and makes it incumbent on the employer to engage drivers who exercise care and discretion at all times.

MRS. PARK TALKS ON PEACE FLAG OF NATIONS

The international peace flag was the subject of a short address at the Normal school this forenoon by Mrs. Alice Park, a delegate from California to The Hague Peace Congress in 1913.

Mrs. Park spoke of the peace pageant and its emphasis of arbitration. She said internationalism is one step further than arbitration and Hague ccurts, and that the international flag is appropriate for use at all public occasions.

Principal E. J. Wood announced the Normal school would make a new peace flag for its own use, teachers and pupils cooperating in providing materials and work.

PEPEEKEO CROP FOR 1914 PAYS 17 PER CENT

Hawaii Plantation Has Big Year With Prospects As Good For 1915

With a crop of 9806 tons, far above estimate, the Pepeekeo Sugar company reaped a profit of $217,953.93 for 1914 and paid dividends of 17 per cent. The balance of $84,453.93 was added to the surplus account, making a total carried forward at the end of the year of $486,842.82, equal to more than half the capital stock of the company.

The 1915 crop is estimated at 10,500 tons from 1982 acres. For next year 1895.45 acres are in plant.

James Webster, manager of the Hawaii plantation, reported in part as follows:

"Crop 1914: Having had a favorable season to start its growth in 1912, and a more favorable year in 1913 to carry it along, results were ahead of expectations. With all the improvements and alterations of previous years in mill and boiling-house, we were able to get the crop off in good time before the effects of the abnormally wet season of 1914 had begun to show.

"Crop 1915: This crop had the finest season on record to start with and took full advantage of it, but during 1914 it made very little headway; a somewhat late and pretty close tasselling of all the fields precludes any hope of further growth. However, it built up well in 1913 and indications are for a crop in the neighborhood of 10,500 tons.

"Crop 1916. This crop had a hard struggle to get through the ground, owing to the prolonged heavy downpour of rain extending over six months of the growing period of the year. From about the middle of April to the end of September the ground was soaked in water, thoroughly stopping all aeration in the soil, and the consequence is that the crop is thin and patchy. After drier weather came along the plants did their best to remedy matters by stooling vigorously, but, with it all, prospects are none too bright for 1916. That and the practical certainty of 'free sugar' make it look like an off year.

"Milling: We commenced grinding the 1915 crop on the 18th inst., and everything started off without a hitch. A Ramsay scraper has been installed between the second and third mills and is doing good work. Between the first and second mills we put in a similar conveyor, without the scraper; this is much cleaner and more convenient than the aprons displaced, and gives satisfaction. The Messchaert grooving was installed on the rolls early last season, giving us an increased extraction of fully two per cent. Indications point to another two per cent betterment by the installation of a Jeffrey disintigrator by another season."

Officers were re-elected as follows: E. F. Bishop, president; W. H. Baird, vice-president; Geo. H. Robertson, treasurer; E. A. R. Ross, secretary; S. M. Damon, director; T. R. Robinson, auditor.

fered, but Judge Monsarrat found McQueen guilty. It being his first offense, the fine was made $100. The damage, aside from a few bruises on the man struck, was not great. Pending the appeal bond was fixed at $125.

Inspector Murasky's case was short. He was charged with furious driving, being on the wrong side of the street and driving without lights. Only the first charge was heard. In a brief statement, Murasky said he was perhaps technically guilty, that the steering gear of the car in which he was driving had gone wrong and he could not control it. He said his tail-light was lit and that it was early in the evening and therefore his other lights were not lit. For this he was censured by the court.

A Japanese named Shukuka, who was struck and knocked down by Murasky's car, testified to the facts of his accident. The evidence showed that Murasky later came back but found the man was not seriously hurt and drove away. Murasky said he was going about ten or eleven miles an hour. He admitted that he should have stopped his car when he found the steering gear defective.

Denies He Was Intoxicated.

Chillingworth questioned Murasky regarding his sobriety. The inspector denied that he was under the influence of liquor.

In presenting the case Chillingworth said that Murasky's action had laid him open to the full responsibility for violating the law. The court agreed and fined Murasky $225 and he was given until 1:30 o'clock to raise the money. By mutual agreement the other charges were nolle prossed.

The prosecution stated that it had no evidence that Murasky had hit another man on the same evening. Murasky was asked if he had done so and replied, "No, not that I know of."

Throughout all the trials Judge Mousarrat made it plain that he was prepared to deal summarily with violators of the speed, or other traffic laws.

More Cases Coming.

Two more cases of alleged violation of the law by auto drivers are before the police. Tom Blackwell, George R Carter's colored chauffeur, alleged by the police to be a frequent offender, appeared in court for trial this morning. He is charged with using profanity in a public place and refusing to obey the orders of a traffic policeman during the Carnival pyrotechnics at Moiliili. He was released without bail. His case was continued today until March 10, as there was no time to hear it and a question of Attorney Chillingworth's legal right to prosecute had been raised in another case. Attorney Frank Thompson appeared to defend Blackwell.

E. L. Tindall of the British steamer Kestrel came into the police station today and said he heard the police were looking for him, which they had been for two days. The warrant was served and he was released on $50 bail, to appear at police court tomorrow morning. According to statements of Motorcycle Officer Chilton, Tindall ran down a motorcycle left standing near a street curb, partly wrecking the machine. It is charged by the officers that Tindall failed to stop his car, but kept going at a fast and furious pace.

KOLOA PLANTATION HAS 1914 PROFIT OF $165,000

Profits of $165,531.75 were reported for 1914 at the annual stockholders' meeting of the Koloa Sugar company yesterday. The profit and loss account carried forward was $479,894 as against $324,387 at the end of 1913.

Ernest Cropp, manager of the plantation, reported that the 1914 crop was 8572 tons from 1982.5 acres. The area under cultivation for 1915 is 1935.8 acres.

Officers were re-elected as follows: Rev. Hans Isenberg, president; R. A. Cooke, vice-president; J. F. C. Hagens, secretary; Geo. Rodiek, treasurer, and C. H. Wilcox, director. A. Haneburg was again elected auditor.

Paul, Hawaiian, 24; W. F. Cooper, 35, and K. W. La Follette, 34, American; James Paul, 24, and Gussie Kaahala, 27, Hawaiian. A license was also issued to a Japanese couple.

MRS. LYON'S ACHES AND PAINS

Have All Gone Since Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Terre Hill, Pa.—"Kindly permit me to give you my testimonial in favor of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. When I first began taking it I was suffering from female troubles for some time and had almost all kinds of aches—pains in lower part of back and in sides, and pressing down pains. I could not sleep and had no appetite. Since I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the aches and pains are all gone and I feel like a new woman. I cannot praise your medicine too highly."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS LYON, Terre Hill, Pa.

It is true that nature and a woman's work has produced the grandest remedy for woman's ills that the world has ever known. From the roots and herbs of the field, Lydia E. Pinkham, forty years ago, gave to womankind a remedy for their peculiar ills which has proved more efficacious than any other combination of drugs ever compounded, and today Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is recognized from coast to coast as the standard remedy for woman's ills.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing hundreds of thousands of letters from women seeking health—many of them openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; and in some cases that it has saved them from surgical operations.

SOCIETY

The Mid-Pacific Carnival, the celebration to which all Honolulu looked forward for many months, has come to a close and society folk have settled down into the regular routine of affairs after the week's gaieties. The Carnival ended with a bang and already preparations are being made for the 1916 affair.

With the close of the local entertainment, however, Honolulans are turning their thoughts toward the mainland. Already many of the steamers leaving for the mainland are "booked up" clear through June and July. The Panama-Pacific International Exposition is in full blast and the exposition city is in a stir of excitement from early morning till late at night.

The fair started the twentieth of February and though most of the buildings were opened at that time, the Hawaiian exhibits were not all shown until the first of March. The thousands of tourists passing in and out of the exposition grounds during the day have been more than interested in Hawaii's aquarium with its exhibit of brightly colored fish which have been placed in 10 huge tanks. This exhibit, together with the tropical garden, has turned the thoughts of hundreds of people towards the "Isles of Peace," and it is quite possible that when they have seen enough of the fair they will come to Hawaii.

To the people of the islands the local exhibits may not be a particular attraction, but there are scores of other buildings featuring the products of other countries that will be interesting to them.

At the opening of the Hawaii building, Princess Kalaniana'ole was one of the hostesses and took part in the ceremonies. The princess is soon to leave for Washington and the visitors will be received during a part of the time by Mrs. Houston, wife of Commander V. S. Houston.

Supper at the Outrigger Club.

One of the pleasant affairs of the week was the chowder supper and swimming party at which Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rasch entertained at the Outrigger club on Monday evening. The guests gathered at the club early in the evening and after a dip in the warm Pacific were served a delightful supper. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. George Foden, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ginaca, Mrs. Roycroft, Miss Alice Moore, Miss Coila Moore, Miss Evelyn Carruth, Miss Catherine Chase, Miss Catherine A. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. William Flack, Mrs. Leslie Brandt, Mr. A. Sommers and Mr. and Mrs. Rasch.

Miss Powers Returns From Hilo.

Charlotte A. Powers, the monologist, who has won a place of modest but undeniable distinction in the events of the current season, as an artist, having a style of apparently effortless charm, returned Tuesday morning after a week's sojourn on Hawaii. While in Hilo she was the house-guest of Judge and Mrs. W. H. Smith, where she gave one of her delightful recitals of fresh, spontaneous humor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas Entertain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas entertained at a delightfully appointed dinner on Monday evening at their home on Punahou street. An attractive arrangement of sweet peas, roses and maidenhair fern ornamented the center of the table and covers were laid for Bishop Edward Hughes, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Fry, Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Brace, Mrs. Shelton, Mr. and Mrs. William Gaynor, Mr. Richard Trent and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas.

Tea at the Country Club.

In honor of her mother and sister, Mrs. Hargear and Miss Hargear, Mrs. James McCandless is entertaining at an elaborate tea at the Country club this afternoon. The affairs will be one of the largest of the season and more than 200 guests have been invited. From 4 until 6 o'clock autos will meet the Nuuanu street cars to convey the guests to the club house.

An Informal Luncheon.

Mrs. Henry Ginaca was hostess at an informal luncheon and sewing bee at her home on King street on Friday afternoon. An artistic arrangement of nasturtiums ornamented the center of the table and places were laid for Mrs. M. A. Moore, Miss Coila Moore, Miss Alice Moore, Mrs. Alfred Rasch, Miss Catherine A. Scott, Mrs. Ryerott, and the hostess.

A Monday Night Frolic.

Miss Louise Larabee, Miss Haley, Miss Warne, Mr. George Casper and Mr. Lambert, all of whom are celebrating birthdays in March, gave a delightful entertainment on Monday evening which opened with a swim and supper at the Outrigger Club and closed with a hay ride. At the long table at which a delicious supper was served carnations were arranged in the decorations and at the place for each guest was a corsage or buttonhole flower of carnations. Following the supper the guests were taken out on a hay ride which lasted till late in the evening. Among those present were Miss Ida Pitts, Miss Ruth Stacker, Miss Margaret Scudder, Miss Bills, Miss Ethel Mills, Dean Lake, Mr. Coe, Dr. T. W. Lunn, Mr. Yates, Mr. I. D. Canfield, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Bokeland, Jack Cornelinsen, Sam Stacker and Miss Louise Larabee, Miss Haley, Miss Warne, Mr. Lambert and George Casper, the hostesses and hosts at the affair.

Returning to Honolulu in the Matsonia yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Agee, who have been on the mainland for some months. The return of Mrs. Agee will be a delight to society for the charming matron and author has hosts of friends here.

Honolulans have read with interest Mrs. Agee's (Fannie Heaslip Lee) charming stories of Sicily Ann's experiences in Honolulu, and lovers of romances of the islands are waiting for another series to be published. "Sicily Ann" won a place in everyone's heart as have all of Mrs. Agee's heroines.

Among the Honolulu society matrons who returned to the islands yesterday was Mrs. Henry E. Cooper, who has been in the East the greater part of a year visiting her married daughters. It is hoped that before long one of these daughters will make a trip to the islands, for they have scores of friends here who would eagerly welcome them.

Dance Friday Evening.

A number of young folks are entertaining at an informal dance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Bush on Kewalo street on Friday evening in honor of Miss Dorothy Becker. About 40 guests have been invited and it is expected that the affair will be an enjoyable one.

A Friday Evening Dinner.

In honor of Captain and Mrs. Thomas of Schofield Barracks Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Thomas entertained informally at dinner on Friday evening at their home on Punahou street.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Moore, Miss Coila Moore and Miss Alice Moore, who are spending several months in Honolulu, are being entertained extensively by their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Moore and their daughters have spent several winters in the islands, the beach at Waikiki and the delightful climate attracting them to Hawaii.

The return of the officers and ladies to Schofield Barracks this week has left a decided lull in the social affairs of the service set, for while the visitors were in town there was a continual round of gaieties at which they were the guests of honor.

Mrs. L. L. Sexton, wife of Dr. L. L. Sexton of Hilo, was an incoming passenger in the Mauna Kea yesterday morning. Mrs. Sexton expects to spend several weeks in Honolulu visiting friends.

Mrs. Henry Bicknell is booked to leave in the Matsonia next Wednesday for a several weeks' visit to the mainland.

CHILD WELFARE COMMITTEE IN MEETING TODAY

The women of the central committee on child welfare are meeting this afternoon to determine their policy as to minors involved in such cases as that now before the house of representatives in which the details are far from pleasant. The public may be of two minds as to women's mounting the rostrum and of all distressing fads that which harps upon such subject is the least endurable. Still there is but one opinion concerning the need of level-headed, mature women keeping up a sustained attention toward such public matters, if their child welfare work is to go beyond the stage of fancy work and frills.

Here's to hoping the ladies are in earnest and on their job to stay. The meeting they announce as open, and yet particularly a matter for the members of the central committee and the societies which the central committee represents. The meeting is at 5 o'clock in the lecture hall of the Library of Hawaii.

OUTDOOR COMMITTEE TO CONDUCT PARTY TO PEARL HARBOR

For visitors and residents who would like to see the United States naval station with its plant of industrial buildings comprising eight huge structures, its drydock in course of construction, its power plant and roadways, etc., the opportunity will be given next Sunday morning when the Outdoor Promotion Committee will conduct a party to the shores of Pearl Harbor.

The naval station is one of the greatest plants of its kind under the American flag. The ground has been attractively laid out, well grassed and fruit and shade trees set out along the street borders. The naval station is a model town and might be considered a "model factory town."

Rear Admiral C. B. T. Moore, U. S. N., commandant of the naval station, notified the Outdoor Committee the visitors will be admitted.

For Saturday afternoon the Outdoor Committee plans a trip up Pacific Heights to the Panoa rest house.

On Sunday morning another tramping trip will be conducted from the Promotion rooms up Nuuanu valley and up the Lanihuli trail on the Ewa side of the valley.

George Nelson, aged 21 years and a native of Hilo, Hawaii, died in Fort Stanton, New Mexico, February 17, after a lingering illness. Two sisters survive him, Mrs. J. M. Ostergaard and Mrs. M. J. Garrida.

INDOOR BALL GAME TONIGHT FOR THE CUP

A game to decide the indoor baseball championship of the National Guard and ownership of the handsome cup donated by Wall & Dougherty, will be played on the armory diamond this evening, between the teams of Companies G and H. These two teams tied in the regular series, each dropping a single game, G losing to H, and H losing to F. The play-off has been postponed several times.

Tonight's game should be a hummer from start to finish. The two teams are very evenly matched and during the regular series both showed excellent fielding combined with unusual hitting strength. It is an even money bet either way and both companies will have a crowd on hand to root for their respective teams.

The game will be called at 8:30 sharp and the full nine innings, instead of the seven played in league games, will be run off.

OUTDOOR CIRCLE WOMEN AGAINST SCHOOL SHOP

Objection to the erection of a carpenter shop on the old Fort street school property was made in a lengthy communication to the board of supervisors last night by the Outdoor Circle and the protesters ask that the building now in course of construction be removed at once.

Part of the communication is as follows:

"The governor of the territory set aside this particular piece of property for park purposes, and the proclamation is a matter of public record. We submit that you have no right to use the grounds so set aside, for establishing a county work shop and that the fact as stated by you, viz. that you did not know that the property had been so set aside, was no satisfactory excuse and that after this had been brought to your attention that work should have been stopped. Aside from the matter of your having no right to use the grounds for this purpose is the fact that the presence of such a building on the grounds tends to destroy the use of them for play-grounds for children, particularly girls, and so defeats the purpose for which the property was set aside.

"While it is unfortunate that you did not know the circumstances when you planned to put your building there yet as explained we notified you as soon as we knew of your intentions and we certainly think that there is only one thing for you to do, both legally and morally, and that is to remove the building."

A joint resolution for the creation of the state of South Texas was introduced in the Texas legislature.

IMPROVEMENTS ORDERED FOR FEDERAL BUILDING

The postoffice is to take on a new dress, inside and outside and on the roof, according to Postmaster W. F. Young, who has just received a communication from the treasury department. The contract has been let to H. F. Bertelmann, the Honolulu contractor, for $759.

The brown color scheme of the McCandless building, in which the postoffice has three rooms, will be used for the exterior of the postoffice to make it look like an annex. Postmaster Young is pleased with the prospective improvement in the appearance of the federal building.

JAPANESE STAFF IN COMMAND ON NIPPON MARU

For the first time since going into commission as a transpacific liner more than a score of year ago, the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Nippon Maru steamed into Honolulu harbor today with practically a Japanese staff.

The elimination of Europeans is complete, with the exception of Purser John P. Bourne and Dr. F. M. Hillyer, both veterans in the service and well known to a host of Honolulans.

Captain K. Hashimoto, identified for many years with the Japanese steamship company in its Central and South American service, has been given command of the Nippon Maru. He takes the position vacated by the retirement of Captain A. G. Stevens. It is unofficially reported that the T. K. K. will eventually supplant all its European vessel masters by Japanese.

The Nippon Maru berthed at Pier 7 this morning, two days behind the regular schedule. It was held 10 hours at Manila and was also delayed 24 hours between Kobe and Yokohama because of storm. On board were 51 cabin, 14 second-class and 275 Asiatic passengers. The vessel brought two cabin and 175 steerage passengers for Honolulu.

A large number of Filipino laborers for island sugar plantations reached the city in this vessel. They were in charge of D. R. Mead, who has represented the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' Association in the Philippines for the past six months.

The cargo consists of valuable products of the Orient, 814 tons to be left at Honolulu before the Nippon steams for San Francisco at 5 o'clock this evening. More than a half-million dollars' worth of raw silk is being taken to New York.

Japanese provisions, merchandise and Philippine cigars, cigarettes and tobacco made up the bulk of the freight left at Honolulu.

A large mail will be forwarded to the mainland in the Japanese steamer. A few layover passengers may join the vessel at this port.

Kauai Sugar Brought to Port.

The Inter-Island steamer W. G. Hall brought 5000 sacks of sugar, 40 sacks of rice, several drums of molasses and 31 packages of sundries in returning from Kauai today. Officers report sugar at garden island ports, including 2500 sacks at Libue and 1000 at Grove Farm. The vessel met with moderate weather.

'MAKING OF BOBBY BURNIT' HEADS NEW BILL AT POPULAR THEATER

Mary Pickford Is an Added Feature to Program for Midweek Offering

Beginning with the matinee this afternoon the Popular theater will put on one of the largest bills that has yet been attempted at that playhouse. In addition to the new feature film, "The Making of Bobby Burnit," Messrs. Blair and Bredhoff have decided to continue for the balance of the week with Mary Pickford in "Such a Little Queen." Add to this an up-to-the-minute Pathe weekly pictorial news review, and last, but not least, a bill of 14 high-class songs by the members of the Shanley Cabaret de Luxe and the most critical theatergoer must admit that the Popular's mid-week card will be equal to anything that can be found on the mainland.

"The Making of Bobby Burnit" is from the play by Winchell Smith, with Edward Abeles in the title role. He is supported by Bessie Barriscale, a San Francisco girl, who has scored a distinct success in the moving picture world. In this film as well as others in which are now being shown in San Francisco as well as along the Pacific coast, she is being greeted by packed houses, according to reports received here.

Abeles needs no introduction to theater patrons, being recognized as one of the best dramatic artists now appearing in the films.

It will be gratifying to Popular patrons who have not had an opportunity to see little Mary Pickford in her latest success to know that the management has decided to continue her in "Such a Little Queen" until Friday night.

The cabaret bill opens with "The Good Ship Mary Ann," by Miss Trixie Leach, assisted by the entire company in the chorus. This song was rehearsed last night after the regular performance and gives promise of being one of the song hits of the new show.

"Every One in Town Loves My Girl," will be sung by Miss Clifford. This clever singer is one of the popular members of the cabaret, and without doubt will increase her popularity in this number.

QUEEN WRITES ON HAWAII HISTORY IN MID-PACIFIC

The Mid-Pacific Magazine for March comes out with a new makeup which is a great improvement. The magazine now appears with a full four-color cover picture of a tropic scene. The March number is particularly interesting and has articles from some of the ablest men of the Pacific.

Premier Holman of New South Wales contributes a leading article on his state as the granary and garden of the Pacific. Queen Liliuokalani tells her story of Hawaii. There is an interesting extract from the diary of the Rev. Emmanuel Rougier, describing his experiences on Christmas Island. Joseph B. Stickney tells of the Adelaide way of taking care of the tourist in South Australia as he experienced it.

Among the local stories there is one by Jack Walker, the youngest guide in Hawaii, describing some of the recent experiences in guiding others through the volcano of Haleakala. There are articles from each of the Hawaiian islands and from every part of the Pacific as well as the usual art gallery of scenes from around the great ocean.

HONOLULU BOY RETURNS; WILL OPEN ART STUDIO

A. S. Chaney, a Honolulu boy who left the islands six years ago to study art, has returned after a successful career in San Francisco and New York and plans to spend the next few months here. He will open a studio and start classes, according to his present plans.

Chaney was born and educated here. Anxious to study drawing, he went to the coast and later to New York. There he studied with W. M. Chase among others, also at the National Academy of Design and Art Students' League. He believes there is an opportunity here for poster drawing and other work with a characteristic Hawaii note in it.

WAYSON SUBMITS SUBSTITUTE FOR NEW HOSPITAL

City Physician J. T. Wayson has submitted to the board of supervisors a proposal from the officers of Queen's hospital which, if accepted by the board, will cause abandonment of the city's plan to build an emergency hospital. Dr. Wayson's communication, setting forth the proposed agreement, is as follows:

"The hospital to build and maintain a dispensary or 'out patients' service on a part of the hospital grounds where all 'out patients' may be treated.

"The nearness of this dispensary would allow a much earlier discharge of many patients, thus reducing monthly expense. The city to pay for drugs and dressings required, and, in addition, $50 monthly toward the expense of one more medical interne, for the extra duty.

"The chairman of the health committee and the city physician to be allowed to visit all city patients, with the resident physician or superintendent for the purpose of maintaining an interest in them, and also to confer with attending physicians regarding earlier discharge of any patient; the city physician, on behalf of the supervisors, to sign a proper release, if within the judgment of the attending physician such patient should not be discharged from the hospital, as a protection to the hospital.

"The hospital to consider, if feasible, the employment of trained Hawaiian nurses for Hawaiian patients.

"In consideration of the hospital enlarging the scope of the service for city patients, the supervisors to improve their ambulance service by immediately employing a police surgeon or surgeons who will be on duty at all hours ready to accompany the ambulance.

"The city to own and maintain an up-to-date ambulance which at times may be at the disposal of the hospital; to own one or more pulmotors (the necessity of a pulmotor is constantly before us).

"All police and emergency patients to be taken to the hospital by a police surgeon who will, while at the hospital, thoroughly examine each case in the presence of the receiving surgeon before turning the case over to the proper hospital authorities; the receiving surgeon not to receive any patient (to be cared for at the county expense) without a signed card from the police surgeon stating the nature of the illness or accident; in this way holding each to his own field of responsibility. If an emergency case be taken before the police surgeon can be in attendance, the hospital is to give first aid and immediately notify the police surgeon.

"The police station should be provided with a suitable room to properly care for unruly and noisy intoxicated persons, not rightfully hospital cases, even if such inebriated persons are in need of medical and surgical attention due to other cause than that of their excesses.

"Having a police surgeon accompanying police sick calls will greatly reduce cases now taken to the hospital.

"Even with this improved service the community is constantly increasing and general expenses for the care of this proportionate increase of indigents is liable to increase, but much more and better service will be rendered for the same money now expended.

"It was suggested by one of the hospital trustees that it would be to the mutual interest of the city and the hospital of the chairman of the health committee of the board of supervisors should be present at meetings at which matters affecting the city would be discussed.

"The trustees of the hospital have appointed a committee composed of Richard Ivers, John Waterhouse and George W. Smith to confer with the health committee of the board of supervisors."

"With the adoption of these suggestions," said Dr. Wayson, "the indigent sick would be as well cared for and at less expense than if the city and county should establish, equip and maintain its own hospital."

WHY NANCY USES GAS

The other day we said:

Nancy Gay is free from care;—
Nancy uses Gas!
Nancy's home is bright and fair;—
Nancy uses Gas!
Nancy cooks her meals so quick
Hubby has no chance to kick!
Nancy's kitchen's clean and slick—
Nancy uses Gas!

You can be like Nancy Gay,—
If you'll use Gas!
Household cares just fade away
When you use Gas!
Gas cooks the food in half the time!
Gas lights the home 'til it's sublime:
It's THE right fuel for this clime:—
So YOU use Gas!

Nancy further explains:

"I use Gas not only for Cooking and Lighting, but also for Heating my Iron and for Heating husband's shaving water—and I find Gas to be the most efficient and quick fuel when Hot Water is needed for Baby's bath, or, as often happens in cases of sickness, when something needs to be heated or cooked at night.

"Gas is an ideal fuel, I think,—because it is ready when you want it; you use only what you need; it allows you to have a cleaner home than is possible with many fuels;—and, as I said above, it is quick and efficient."

PRIZE CONTEST

White us a "Nancy Uses Gas" jingle on the plan of the one above (two verses). Send us your jingle so that we receive it by 5 p. m. next Monday afternoon, the 8th. WANTS CITY REPRESENTED ON BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Conkling Recommends to Supervisors Changes in Municipal Government

City and County Treasurer D. L. Conkling recommended many legislative measures in his letter to the board of supervisors which held its regular meeting last night. Chief among the proposed changes was an amendment of the tax law giving the city and county a representative on the board of equalization and providing for a sworn statement from the tax assessor as to the assessed value of all property by May 15.

It was also proposed to make provision allowing the county to borrow money from the territory at 2 per cent when the issuing of warrants became necessary, rather than pay the banks 5 per cent. Licenses should be payable in March and September, instead of June and December, or July and January. He also proposed that the insurance tax go to the county instead of the territory; that the fees of chauffeurs' examinations go to the county; that the merchandise license be amended to place on the basis of earnings; that the law under which the water and sewer systems were acquired be amended so that the city will have 30 years to make its payments, and that the water and sewer departments be made into one bureau to handle delinquents. All these proposals were referred to the legislative committee.

The present system of issuing vouchers and warrants is slipshod, said Conkling. The treasury balance on December 31, 1914, did not agree with the actual cash in the treasury January 1, 1915, by several hundred dollars. He suggested that every voucher show the steps through which it has passed to the final approval by the supervisors' chairman. Conkling showed that the auditor at present has no power to refuse any demand of the supervisors for a warrant, nor can the treasurer refuse to honor any warrant presented to him. To remedy this he suggested that all demands go first to the auditor, and then to the board. This method would do away with the possibility of the excess of appropriations which the last statement showed.

That the deeds for the right-of-way for the widening of Pulwa street, tendered to Harold Castle and Arthur Macintosh, have not been signed was the text of a communication from J. T. Taylor. The matter was referred to a committee.

The police report showed that out of 449 arrests made in the month of February 245 were convicted and 61 others held to the grand jury. Of the arrests made, 714 were on gambling charges, of which 117 were convicted and 16 held for the grand jury.

The building plans filed for the month of February numbered 83, with an estimated cost of improvement totalling $90,300.

The Outdoor Circle entered a protest against the completing of the carpenter shop on the old Fort street school lot, which had been set aside for a girls' playground, and asked that the building be removed.

On the recommendation of the ways and means committee no steps were taken regarding the paving of Allen street.

Automobile stand ordered to vacate ground on Ewa side of Maunakea street between Hotel and Pauahi and occupy their licensed ground on the Waikiki side.

All laborers in the electric light department to be paid at the rate of 25 cents an hour.

That readvertisement be ordered for the creation of the Manoa Improvement District.

That $400 be appropriated for the laying of a 1200-foot water pipe line into Palolo valley for the relief of homesteaders.

That Fire Chief Thurston be empowered to immediately begin the granting of annual two weeks' vacation to city firemen.

Bids for supplies for the current six months were received, ordered tabulated by the city purchasing agent and referred to the committee of the whole.

Thirty dollars was appropriated to obtain membership for the city of Honolulu in the League of California Municipalities.

Action on appropriations for furnishing autos for the building inspector and probation officer was deferred.

The ordinance compelling the laying of sidewalks on both sides of Kalakaua avenue passed final reading and became law.

Monthly reports from the various city officials were read.

Treasurer Conkling reported that he had issued $16,371.81 in registered warrants against the general fund between February 23 and 27.

The next meeting of the board of supervisors will be held Wednesday night, March 10.

ARTESIAN WELL FOR Y. M. C. A. SWIMMING POOL

The Y. M. C. A. swimming pool committee met last night to settle the question of water supply. It was decided to drill an artesian well. The contract for drilling was given to McCandless Brothers, who will begin work at once.

It will require two months to drill the well, after which the work on the pool proper will be rushed. The association architects, Ripley and Davis, are completing plans and specifications for the pool, for which the necessary money has already been contributed. The directors and trustees of the Y. M. C. A. decided to borrow funds to pay for the well drilling.

Those present at the meeting were: George Angus, chairman; G. C. Potter, Robert Anderson, A. H. Tarleton and Paul Super.

LEVEL OF SUGAR TO REMAIN HIGH, EXPERTS THINK

Cuban sugar production is increasing, though still below that of last year, Willett & Gray reports for the week ending February 18. The drop in price from 3.05 to 4.515 is reviewed and the belief is expressed that the reaction has run its course and that a higher price is to be expected from present conditions. There will be occasional reactions but the price level will remian high, it says:

The report in part follows:

The receipts for the week under review proved less than requirements for meltings. The exports from Cuba the present week, 4000 tons to Atlantic ports, with Porto Ricos and Hawaiians should show receipts at least equal to meltings.

An interesting problem is as to whether the vessels in the foreign trade will hesitate to enter the "war zone," and be turned to the Cuban trade to some extent to the relief of this traffic.

Cuba exports for the week included 4500 tons to Great Britain.

Sales of the week amount to a total of 260,000 bags, which is much less than usual under normal conditions.

Louisiana sellers participated in the reaction to extent of selling refining grades at 4.6ic, delivered New Orleans, date on the 15th.

The latest reports from Cuba which we are receiving direct from many estates, when analyzed and applied to all, indicates a total crop but little reduced from our original estimate of 2,600,000 tons.

The unsettled weather conditions continue to keep the cane green and growing, so that two crop problems are to be solved in the next few weeks, the first being as to whether the few weeks ahead will turn cold and fully ripen the cane for grinding with best results, or second, whether the hot weather season will come on to the crop before such ripening takes place, and thus the low degrees of sugar content will continue throughout the season and shorten the crop eventually.

These results can only be known as the weather conditions are reported from day to day, and cannot be anticipated.

As to the course of the market, prices from either of these results, there is little doubt but that the trend is upward for some time to come, with such occasional reactions as the present.

The new way of carrying on the war, which goes into practise today, is quite likely to have an important influence, the consequences of which may be vital to the United States as well as to the countries actually at war.

RECEIVE DETAILS ON LAKE VIEW OIL STRIKE

In its issue of February 20, the Los Angeles Tribune gives an account of the resumption of business of the "wonder well" of Lake View No. 2 Oil Co., in which the production is rated at 30,000 barrels a day. Besides the information in the postcard to stockholders quoted in the Star-Bulletin yesterday, the Tribune says in part:

"Every bit of the oil is marketable and is being stored away as quickly as it flows from the earth. In a test made yesterday it was shown that 32 per cent of the oil is clean and ready for market. The balance, or 68 per cent, is emulsified and will be marketable after passing through the company's treating plant.

"The production of the well is not needed now as the company has 3,000,000 barrels of oil above ground now ready for distribution."
