DETERMINED THAT DEMOCRATS SHALL RULE LOCAL BENCH

That is Department of Justice's Attitude, as Viewed By D. L. Withington After His Recent Visit to National Capital

ATTORNEY-GENERAL IS ON THE HUNT NOW FOR "DESERVING" BOURBONS

But Feeling is Rather Bitter Over Outcome of McCarn and Stuart Appointments—Assistant Graham Confers With Honolulu Lawyers

The department of justice is determined to "put none but Democrats on guard" in Hawaii judgeships and is making its determination plain, in the frank opinion of Attorney D. L. Withington, who returned from the mainland yesterday.

Attorney Withington and Attorney Robbins B. Anderson, when recently in Washington, visited the department of justice on a special mission of discussing the judicial situation in Hawaii. The story of the visit and their talk with Assistant Attorney-General Samuel J. Graham has not before been made public. Mr. Withington told of it very frankly today.

Assistant Attorney-General Graham is in charge of appointment and patronage matters in the department of justice; that is, he considers them before they are referred to Attorney-General Gregory. His comments and questions during the hour's visit of the two Honolulu attorneys made it obvious, said Withington today, that there is little or no chance of the reappointment of Republican judges if Democrats can be found to take their places.

It appears that the department of justice very keenly desires to supplant Chief Justice Robertson of the territorial bench with a Democrat. Mr. Graham questioned the Honolulu visitors closely with regard to the record and other qualifications of the two Democratic associate justices, E. M. Watson and R. F. Quarles. It was evident that the attorney-general's office wishes such endorsements of one or both of the associates that it may have reason to recommend to the president the elevation of one of them to the chief justiceship.

"Both of the local papers have about stated the case in saying that the judicial situation is being allowed to drift in Washington while the department is looking around for available Democrats for judges," says Mr. Withington.

Department Feels Bitter.

"It is evident that the attorney-general's office feels rather bitter over the Hawaiian situation. The criticisms of McCarn and Judge Stuart and the information on these appointments which is reaching Washington, have made the department touchy on the subject.

"It is also apparent that there is particular bitterness over the bill introduced in the last legislature providing for the election of district magistrates—I refer to the bill introduced at the suggestion of Mr. Breckon. We explained that it was the intention of the bill to remove the appointing power and thus the patronage feature from the chief justiceship."

Referring to the statements regarding Democratic appointments, Mr. Withington said that during the visit of himself and Attorney Anderson "the dissatisfaction of the Hawaiian bar and the people with the district attorney and the third judge of the first circuit court was stated."

He is strongly inclined to the opinion that unless the Republican judges now in office force the department's hand, as Judge Whitney did, the department will keep on hunting for available and deserving Democrats.

JUSTICE TEMPERED WITH MERCY FOR AGED CULPRIT

Aged and infirm, refused admission to Lualaba Home because the institution is already overcrowded, John Ko Palani, a Hawaiian with snow-white hair and beard, was arraigned at police court today charged with selling intoxicating liquor without a license. He was arrested by Special License Officer Fennell at the O. K. block, Iwilei. He pleaded guilty. The man is said to be destitute. An effort is being made to provide a home for him.

HONOLULU SUBMARINE BASE FOR SOME TIME YET; ORDERS YESTERDAY

Honolulu, not Pearl Harbor, will be the submarine base of Hawaii for some time, to come. Word to this effect was received by cable from the Navy Department yesterday by Admiral Moore. No estimate is given as to the probable time of the eventual transfer of the undersea craft to the new naval base. The lack of proper berthing and docking facilities for the submarines at Pearl Harbor at the present time is the reason for the retention of Honolulu as a base. About a year ago it was announced that as soon as possible the submarines would be sent to the new naval station, but evidently the Navy Department has decided to postpone this step indefinitely. Announcement that the submarines are to stay at Honolulu is received with favor by officers of the fleet, many of whom have their families established in the city. Quarters would not be available at Pearl Harbor, and a change would mean that officers on submarine duty would be put to extra expense and loss of time in getting to and from their work.

PEARL HARBOR FOR 'REFUGEE FLEET' URGED

Harbor Commission Will Take Up With Secretary Daniels Need For Action to Relieve Congestion of Local Harbor

At a meeting of the board of harbor commissioners this afternoon, direct action in the matter of relieving the congested condition of the harbor was taken when a motion was passed providing that Chairman Forbes be instructed to cable at once to the secretary of the navy at Washington for permission to move the German freighters "interned" here to Pearl Harbor.

The action was brought about partly as a result of a letter received from Admiral Moore after he had been requested by the harbor commission to grant the privilege of moving the war-bound boats to Pearl Harbor.

Admiral Moore stated in reply to the request that he had no direct power to grant it, but that the matter must necessarily be taken up with the naval authorities at Washington.

Immediate action by the harbor commission was necessary from the fact that 25 boats from the Panama run are to arrive here, within the next few weeks in addition to the regular service. If the request is granted by the authorities at Washington, as many of the boats will be moved to the other waters as the commission thinks feasible for the clearance of the harbor.

Strictly speaking the steamers are not "interned" but are refugee craft which came to Honolulu as a neutral port to avoid seizure, but they are ordinarily referred to as the "interned fleet."

SEATTLE WHARF STRIKE IS NOT FEARED LOCALLY

The strike of longshoremen, told of in despatches from Seattle, will, it is said, not seriously interfere with the operation and maintenance of its freight schedule from Puget Sound to the Hawaiian Islands by the Matson Navigation Company.

A Seattle despatch reported 100 union longshoremen loading several steamers, including the Matson steamer Hiclianan, as having struck rather than work alongside nonunion men. It is said several steamship companies had attempted to introduce the "open shop" system.

John H. Drew, shipping manager of the Matson line, said today he had not been officially advised of any difficulty in loading the Hiclianan at the Sound. Officers in the Matson steamer Wilhelmina now here say that 100 union men refusing to work at Seattle, where thousands of men are available at all times, would not delay the handling of steamers sufficiently to change the schedule.

TRAINING-SCHOOL FOR MARINERS IS HERE FOR VISIT

New York State's Vessel, Newport, Comes on Longest Voyage in School's History

COMMITTEE WELCOMES OFFICERS AND STUDENTS

Business First For Those on Board, Then Will Be Ready for Local Entertainment

At daybreak this morning the Newport, nautical training-ship of New York state, hove in sight off Diamond Head from Hilo and at 6 o'clock dropped anchor in the harbor. She was met by Boarding Officer L. B. Reeves of the custom house, who is a graduate of the school, and who has a prominent part in the arrangements for the entertainment of the maritime visitors.

At 9 o'clock a committee of representatives from the city boarded the Newport at her anchorage in the harbor opposite the foot of Fort street, and were given a hearty welcome by Capt. W. S. McMurray and the other officers.

The committee from the city was composed of Mayor Lane, R. C. Brown of the chamber of commerce, Harry L. Strange of the Ad Club, A. P. Taylor, assistant secretary of the Promotion Committee and Harbormaster Foster.

One hundred and fifty leis were taken out by Mr. Taylor and presented to the young sailors by Mayor Lane as they lined up at attention on the spar deck. In his presentation speech Mayor Lane said:

"In the name of the city of Honolulu I have come, accompanied by a committee from the chamber of commerce, to bid you 'aloha,' and present you with these leis, the Hawaiian wreaths of hospitality and love. These you may take back to your sweethearts in far off New York and tell them of your visit to Hawaii. Again I repeat, 'aloha to you.'"

After a little reception in the captain's cabin, where plans were discussed.

'WAR CONDITION PERIOD' FOR THE SEACOAST FORTS

Coast Defenses of Oahu in Midst of Strenuous Season of Activity

Officers and men of the coast defenses have been on duty 24 hours out of the 24 for the last few days, and at that, their work has just begun. This is the busy month for the seacoast gunners, and from now until July 29, when target practice comes to an end, there will be something doing all the while.

At present the coast defenses of Oahu are in the midst of what is known as the war condition period. For 10 days the batteries are supposed to be ready for action at a moment's notice. The men go under canvas right at the guns, or sleep in the batteries when accommodations are provided. At some of the Oahu posts, where the barracks are within a few rods of the batteries, the men remain in their regular quarters, although subject to call at any and all times.

At night the searchlights play incessantly over the zone from which a sea attack may be expected, ready to pick up the vessel which is used as a target. This work has been going on since July 2, and will continue until the 12th, when the period will end.

The following ten days will be given over to preparations for night and day service practice, and from the 22d to 29th inclusive all the forts will engage in the annual target tests.

The coast defenses of Oahu have made splendid records in target practice for the last few years, and it is confidently expected that the high standard will be maintained.

JAPAN IN FAVOR OF NEW TREATY WITH PETROGRAD

(Special to the Hawaii Shipper.)
TOKIO, Japan, July 7.—With a view to establishing permanent peace in the Orient, it is reported, an entirely new treaty between Japan and Russia may be perfected within a few weeks.

It is generally known that for a long time certain high Japanese officials have been of the opinion that further Japanese-Russian alliances are necessary, and that the Japanese government has asked the Russian government for an informal opinion of the matter.

Several days ago the Russian government replied that it would favor a further alliance with Japan.

The Japanese cabinet ministers and Genro, or elder statesmen, are in conference today regarding a new treaty. The details of the conference probably will not be made public.

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

The following cablegram from official German sources was received this afternoon:

"German Headquarters, July 7.—West of the Upper Vistula good progress has been made by the Austro-Germans against the Russians. East of the Vistula there is no important change. During the pursuit of the Russians to Zlotopola, from July 3 to 5, the Germans took prisoner 3500 Russians. The number of prisoners taken south of Biala Blota has increased to seven officers and about 800 men.

"In Poland south of the Vistula the Germans stormed Height 95, east of Dolowatka. South of Borzymow Russian losses have been very considerable. Ten machine-guns, one revolver gun and plenty of rifles have been taken. Further northward near the Vistula a Russian charge was repulsed.

"North of Ypres the English troops yesterday invaded one German trench and were again ejected in the evening. West of Spauchet two night attacks by the enemy were repulsed. During the shelling of enemy troops gathered at Arras, the town took fire and the cathedral burned.

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle there is lively fighting. Some activity is apparent southwest of Lee Eperages, where the enemy has continued efforts to win back positions recently lost. At the first attack the French got into part of the German line of defense but a counter attack won back all the trenches with the exception of a piece of a hundred meters in length. The enemy abandoned one machine gun. Two more charges by the enemy as well as an attack on the trenches failed completely.

"Half way between Alilly and Apremont the Germans attacked and stormed the enemy's positions along a front of 1500 meters, taking prisoner about 300 French. Near Croix and Descaumes in Priest Wood which was made an unexpected attack which was repulsed. On the Sudel in the Vosges an enemy's trench was stormed and made improper for defense purposes. In Champagne, southwest of Suippes, a German aviator shelled successfully a training-camp of the enemy."

BRITISH GENERAL NOW UNDER SHARP ATTACK

Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton, commanding land forces at the Dardanelles. The Northcliffe papers are rapping him for the loss of British lives and the failure to make more progress on Gallipoli peninsula.

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
LONDON, Eng., July 7.—Lord Northcliffe's papers, whose criticisms preceded the formation of the coalition cabinet and which have severely commented upon the failure to furnish sufficient heavy explosives to British troops in the field, have begun a new attack.

The Times today calls the naval dash upon the Dardanelles "another Balaklava," and characterizes the whole of the operations to reduce the Dardanelles forts as "unforgivable blundering."

The Northcliffe papers are severely criticizing the tactics of Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton in the landing of forces at the Dardanelles.

An Associated Press "flash" late this afternoon brought the two words from New York, "Saxonia safe."

Evidently the Saxonia had been reached by wireless, and the earlier fears lest she might have met disaster from a bomb "planted" by Frank Holt were allayed.

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 7.—One of two big liners now in mid-Atlantic is believed to be menaced by the act of the war-crazed Cornell instructor, Frank Holt, whose sensational attack on J. P. Morgan and dynamiting of the Capital were soon followed by suicide after one unsuccessful attempt.

Holt, who succeeded in killing himself late yesterday by leaping from an upper corridor window of the Long Island jail, had sent a letter to his wife, it was learned today, in which he told of his plan to blow up an ocean liner.

Either the American liner Philadelphia, 10,768 tons, or the Cunard liner Saxonia, both far at sea, may be menaced by the supposed presence of dynamite secreted on board by Holt before the vessel sailed and provided with a clock attachment timed to explode the dynamite today.

Holt's letter to his wife stated that he could not remember in which vessel he had put the dynamite. He advised her to watch today's papers to learn what he had done and entreated her to observe silence.

The vessels sailed on July 3 for Europe. Some of the fear for the safety of the Philadelphia was relieved today when the captain wirelessed that everything aboard the steamer had been identified and no dynamite was found.

The Saxonia has not been reached but this may possibly be accounted for on the ground that she cannot be heard on account of a weak wireless.

All but 30 pounds of the 100 pounds of dynamite that Holt is known to have had in his possession has been accounted for. It is feared that this 30 pounds is aboard the liner.

HOLT IDENTIFIED AS ERICH MUENTER

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 7.—State's Detective Smith of Massachusetts, Theodore Hiller, an automobile dealer of Cambridge, and A. T. Brown, a Boston reporter, have positively identified Holt as Prof. Erich Muentzer, a Harvard instructor several years ago.

Prof. Chester Gould of the University of Chicago, who has taken research work at Cornell, admitted today that last November he recognized Muentzer, then teaching at Cornell, but was silent because "he seemed to be getting along so nicely."

UNEXPLODED BOMBS FOUND IN RECENT CARGOES

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 7.—It is known that the British steamers Bankdale, Lord Erne and one other arriving at Havre with a cargo of war supplies recently were found to have unexploded bombs hidden on the vessels.

THINKS HOLT MUST HAVE HAD ACCOMPLICES

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—Professor Charles Monroe, an expert on explosives in the government bureau of mines, has made an investigation of the Holt dynamiting and believes that Holt had accomplices. He declares that such a bomb as Holt describes as having been set off at the Capitol would not explode.

Conflicting Reports From East; Petrograd Says Teutons Checked

LONDON, England, July 7.—Reports as to war situation in the east arent—Galicia and Poland—are very conflicting today.

The despatches from Petrograd contradict those from Vienna. Petrograd claims that the Teutonic Allies have been distinctly checked in the Krasnik region, where the Austrians assert the Russians were crushed and in full retreat.

Otherwise the war arenas are quieter today than for several days past.

Italians Batter Way Along Isonzo

LONDON, England, July 7.—The Italian forces are battering their way along the Isonzo front, according to today's advices.

DR. BACK'S STUDY OF FRUIT FLY OF INTEREST IN ISLAND CAMPAIGN

Dr. E. A. Back, who is in charge of the fruit fly inspections on the islands, has furnished recently to the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bulletin No. 161, entitled, "The Mediterranean Fruit Fly in Bermuda." The paper is the result of an investigation made by Dr. Back during December, 1913, and gives first hand information on the subject of the fruit fly in Bermuda, which is especially interesting. Dr. Back's investigations in these islands for the past several years, aided him directly in the publication of the bulletin, and frequent comparisons are made in it between the fly here and in Bermuda. "The situation in Bermuda," Dr. Back says, "is not so serious as it is in Hawaii, owing to the fact that they have there so few of the mountain fruits, such as guava, rose apple, etc., that we find in the mountains here.

"It would be very easy," he says, "to count the number of apple, guava, mango and bestial trees in the islands of the Bermuda group. One common guava was pointed out in a beautiful garden as a curiosity. One winged kamani, and one apple tree was seen. Citrus, papaya and peach trees were more numerous, though by no means plentiful. Experimenters wishing to rear flies in large numbers for scientific purposes would be forced to depend upon imported fruits, such as apples, in order to have a constant and satisfactory supply."

The Bulletin shows that if Bermuda

were in direct communication with the southern parts of the United States, to which she is so closely situated, these states would be in great danger from the pest. Her regular trade is, however, to the north, commonly to New York. Such small quantities are brought, and climatic conditions are so unfavorable that the danger in this way is very slight.

Though this danger is not great, Dr. Back feels that joint work carried on by both the United States and Bermuda, to rid the island group of the fruit fly, would be of very definite advantage to both. It would take away this danger to the fruit interests of the Southern states, and would undoubtedly bring about a greater knowledge as to manners of eradication which would be of vital importance to the United States and especially to Hawaii. With proper care he thinks the fly could be completely eradicated from Bermuda in three years.

Work at the local Experiment Station is going on toward the destruction of the fly, though it is doubtful if it will ever be completely driven from these islands.

W. R. Potter, illustrator at the Sugar Planters' Association station, has just completed a series of water color drawings, showing the effect of the fruit fly on the peach, orange, mango, grape fruit, lime and lemon. These drawings are to be shipped to the exposition for exhibit work.

CEREMONIES OF NAVAL COMMAND CHANGE JULY 17

The ceremony of the transfer of naval command in Hawaii will take place July 17 at Pearl Harbor, according to present plans. On that date the flag of Rear-Admiral C. B. T. Moore will come down, and that of Rear-Admiral C. J. Boush will be raised, each flag receiving the prescribed salute.

Admiral Moore, who retires from active service July 29, yesterday received word from Admiral Boush, his relief, that the latter would reach Honolulu in the Siberia, July 16. The transfer of command is scheduled for the following day.

Admiral Boush will retire August 13, 1916, so his tour of duty here will be only 13 months at most. This is at variance with the announced intention of Secretary Daniels to pick out a commandant for Pearl Harbor who could remain on duty here until the station and drydock were completed.

The retirement of Admiral Moore will promote Captain Albert Boush, now commanding the battleship Utah, to flag rank. It is a coincidence that the Utah figures twice in Admiral Moore's retirement, that vessel having been the flagship of Admiral Boush up to the time he received his orders for shore duty at Pearl Harbor.

Admiral Moore and Admiral Boush are lifelong friends, the beginning of their intimacy dating from the time the latter entered the naval academy, one year after Admiral Moore. According to present plans Admiral Boush will go directly to Pearl Harbor as the guest of Admiral Moore, and will remain there until the latter leaves for the Coast in the Manoa, July 30.

NOTED ENGLISH ORGANIST TALKS ON WAR FEELING IN COLONIES

Harold Greggson, an organist of world fame, who has recently returned from an extended engagement in New Zealand, is spending a month in Honolulu. Mr. Greggson is stopping at the Granville.

Speaking of the business conditions of New Zealand, from a theatrical standpoint, Mr. Greggson says that the war, while making things rather quiet in this line in the first few months after it began, is not now seriously affecting the number of concert and theater-goers in the colony.

"I fancy," says Mr. Greggson, "that the condition in Australia is different from the fact that many troupes that were touring there have canceled their engagements and have come to New Zealand for the season. The drought is partly responsible for this state of affairs, as is also the difference in the characteristics of the people. New Zealand has not been affected by the drought that has wrought such havoc in Australia, but has continued to produce the commodities which find ready sale during the war.

"It is also true," Mr. Greggson says, "that the New Zealanders are by nature a pleasure loving people, and their characters more nearly approximate the characters of the people in England. Conditions are not booming, but are pretty good, and everyone seems to have a fair amount of money to spend."

"The city of Auckland has 22 large moving picture theaters which are always crowded and which are located in magnificent buildings. In addition to these are several large buildings that house players of the regular drama, and two large council chambers in the town hall in which concerts are held."

RILEY H. ALIEN EDITOR

WEDNESDAY, JULY 7, 1915.

THE NEWPORT IS WELCOME.

The visit of the New York state nautical school ship Newport to Honolulu emphasizes the increased public attention that is being paid the merchant marine of the country. It emphasizes, also, how little of constructive value has been done by Congress to develop the American merchant marine. In fact, the legislation of the last Congress was detrimental instead of beneficial. Undoubtedly well-meant, it was short-sighted. The provision whereby some 75 per cent of the crew must speak the same language as the captain and officers is designed to afford greater safety at sea in time of emergency. In practice on the Pacific it will rule off the American vessels, because of the high wages paid American crews, and will put the commerce of the ocean in Oriental hands.

The merchant marine is a pet topic for congressional and after-dinner oratory. Statesmen innumerable have ridden triumphantly through congressional term after congressional term upon this hobby. Yet the result of their speeches, committee-meetings and investigating junkets works out in the Seamen's Bill, whose first effect is to bring statements from the Pacific Mail and the Dollar lines that they must haul down the American flag or go entirely out of business.

New York and Massachusetts maintain nautical training schools, fitting youths to become officers of steam and sailing vessels. The value of these schools and of the practice cruises such as the Newport is now engaged upon is in proportion to the opportunities given those who take the instruction. The coastwise fleets of the Pacific, Atlantic, Great Lakes and inland waterways offer considerable field, but the seamen's bill greatly restricts the opportunities in oceanic commerce.

Happily there is prospect that the law will be modified or repealed. The public attention directed to merchant marine matters in the last ten years will not go for naught.

Honolulu is particularly glad to welcome the Newport and those aboard. They are engaged in eminently practical and useful work whose value to the future commerce of the country is likely to be great. In time of war men with education such as they receive would be able to strengthen the naval forces with a minimum of naval training. In times of peace their services would be even greater.

"CLOSING THE DOOR."

The Saturday Evening Post's issue of July 10 gives its principal space to an article by Samuel G. Blythe, in which the noted American journalist declares that Japan's recent demands on China would, if accepted, have transferred sovereignty from Peking to Tokio.

Precisely this was pointed out in the Star-Bulletin three months ago at the time this paper published the Japanese demands in full. So far as we know this was the first time an American newspaper had secured and published the accredited English text of the demands, and the statement was widely copied in the American press of the mainland.

"Closing the Door," is the title of Blythe's article. He says in part:

At this distance—I am writing in Peking—there is no way for me to gauge the public sentiment in my own country. I do not know whether the people consider the saving of China of supreme importance. I know these two things, however: First, the Japanese will protest that they have none but the best interests of China at heart; but that talk is for consumption in the United States, and in Great Britain and elsewhere. If Japan finally gets her program through, time will prove the correctness of the statement that China will cease to be an independent country and become a fief of Japan. The Japanese do not stop when they have started. They have a big hold on China now. If they can increase it, as they hope to increase it, there will be a repetition of the Korean episode in some terms or other. China will cease to be China, but will become Sino-Japan, or Japan-Sino, which describes it more accurately.

The second fact is, that if Japan gets this hold on China the policy of the open door in China and the preservation of the territorial integrity of China, as originally proposed by John Hay, will cease. The door will be open just so far as Japan chooses to open it.

When the demands were first made, a pretty fair summary of them reached the outside world—was wisely allowed by the Chinese to "leak out." The Star-Bulletin's comment at that time is exactly what Blythe's comment is now, after three months' study of the situation in Tokio, Peking and other Japanese and Chinese centers. The demands were intolerable for any self-respecting country and were particularly dangerous to the United States because they were to be used as a stepping-stone to the possession of China and ultimately to a great organization of the yellow race. Japan admits this latter aim, though in less frank terms. Her state motto is "Japan taking her rightful place in the hegemony of the Orient." What that means is that Japan shall dominate and direct the Orient for defensive and offensive purposes.

Mr. Blythe's article also shows in rather plain terms that while the original demands of Tokio could not be forced through, enough were forced through to enlarge greatly the Japanese "sphere of influence" in China. It is time indeed for the American state department and department of commerce to bestir themselves lest the "open door" be shut in the face of legitimate American trade. China is very friendly to America now and very hostile to Japan. American businessmen have legitimate trade opportunities waiting in the Orient to be seized in fair competition. Japan knows of those opportunities and just now needs Chinese trade much worse than does America.

Mr. Blythe gives in full the original Japanese demands. It is of interest to note that they are identical with the text the Star-Bulletin was able to give its readers as early as last April 15.

TRAGICALLY RIDICULOUS.

A correspondent for the Chicago Daily News—a veteran newspaper man and one hardened to the manifold cruelties of war—recently wrote what a good many people are beginning to feel about this as about other conflicts. He said:

"For me, after beholding nine months of fighting, war is stripped of all the glory that historians falsely attribute to it. War is a butchery of men and a slaughter of innocent women and children. Men who do not wish to fight are forced to kill and be killed. War is cowardly. Failing to injure each other, the combatants vent their rage on those who cannot defend themselves. Only yesterday, in the next street to me, a peaceful father and a good mother were killed and eight children were made fatherless and motherless by a projectile fired without any possibility of its benefitting those who fired it. War is unjust. Those who desire only peace, are forced to pay for those who fight. War degenerates. Both French and German soldiers go to the charge transformed by alcohol, ether and morphine. War is tragically ridiculous. Historians tell us of the glory of a soldier's death." In reality soldiers are cattle led to slaughter. War is everything wrong and nothing right."

"War is tragically ridiculous." When the war lords realize it, they will talk in less high-flown phrases of the slaughter of human beings.

The contention of Leo Frank and his attorneys that he did not have a fair trial in Atlanta is borne out by the passionate mob-spirit which has been displayed since Governor Slaton commuted his sentence. That the governor should be threatened bodily harm for his action shows the blind prejudice and lawless rage against the young Jew. The supreme court of the United States declined to go into the merits of the case in the slightest degree; but in considering the appeal for commutation, the governor dealt not merely with the technicalities of law but with material facts, and came to the steadfast conclusion that the identity of the criminal had not been sufficiently established. It is a black blot on Georgia that his decision should have been received as it has been.

THE JAYWALKER'S LAMENT.

(Traffic policemen in Honolulu no longer permit pedestrians to cross a street in the middle of a block, nor to cross diagonally at street intersections.—News item.)

No more can I enjoy a walk
In Honolulu's busy parts,
For those autos are herded now
Like afoot, cabs, banana carts.

The other day a fine cravat—
A rainbow-hued, exotic tie
Hung in a window just across
The street and caught my roving eye.

Straight as a bee to honeyed flower
I sought to cross the thoroughfare:
A warning about arrested me—
Made everyone in carshot stare.

The traffic cop, all khaki clad,
Explained the law in accents low,
And "wise" pedestrians paused a while
And sniggered as they watched the show.

While those not versed in traffic rules
No doubt believed me on a spree,
One woman said, in pitying tones,
"Tis liquor ruins such men as he!"

You'd think I was a motor truck
About to crush some man's life out.
A limousine, a touring car,
Or some fast-going runabout.

For traffic men now hold me up
At every crossing; warning hands
Impede my progress, and I hear
Soft-spoken or abrupt commands.

I thought of going in deep disguise
With horn and muffler, steering wheel—
With "high" and "low," with brake and clutch,
To personate an Oldsmobile.

I steered a cat-a-corner course
For a supply house, when some brat
Shrilled from the curb, "Dat guy don't know
"De law. I guess his tire's flat."

Yes, that was bad, but just last night
The climax came. Some lazy lout
Hailed me, and with a loud guffaw
Said, "Mister! Hey! Your tail light's out!"

MAGAZINES AND PAPERS COMING IN CONTINUOUSLY

Honolulu Will Send Great Quantity of Reading-Matter to U. S. S. Princeton

And still they pour into the Star-Bulletin office—magazines, books and newspapers for the boys of the U. S. S. Princeton at Tutuila, Samoa. Apparently everybody on Oahu read in the Star-Bulletin of the request from the Princeton for reading-matter, and of the isolation of the Samoan station since mails have become infrequent. And certainly everybody that saw the request is anxious to help.

By carrier, by the Territorial Messenger Service, by autos and wagons and drays and wheelbarrows the bundles are coming in.

Early this morning one of the best-known businessmen in the territory drove up with his auto filled with files of magazines—and valuable files they are, too. There are many which probably couldn't be duplicated in Hawaii and would be an asset to almost any library. And he's giving them all to the boys of the Princeton. At his own request his name isn't to be used. So it goes in as the contribution of "A Friend."

Yesterday afternoon packages were received from James Guild, G. W. R. King of the territorial auditor's office and E. Heitmann of Kaimuki.

Contributions today, many sent through the Territorial Messenger Service, include the following:

E. A. P. Newcomb, Royal Hawaiian hotel.
Mrs. G. F. Humbert of Fort Ruger.
Milton P. Morgan of the Star-Bulletin mechanical department.

C. J. Boisse of the Hawaiian Gazette Company.
E. M. Ehrhorn, territorial entomologist.

Leo E. Weaver, Manoa.
Mrs. Charles F. Chillingsworth.
Mrs. J. List, Manoa.

Mrs. S. R. L. Short, Asylum road.
Mrs. H. L. Lyon.
J. T. Stacker.

Mrs. R. A. Woodford.
Mrs. F. Peter.
Prof. M. M. Scott, principal of McKinley High School.

Mrs. H. M. Whitney.
There will be such a large quantity of reading-matter to send the Princeton that it may be necessary to box

VARIED DUTIES OF THE COAST GUARD SERVICE

Captain J. H. Brown of the Thetis Speaker at Ad Club Weekly Luncheon

Ad Club members learned some interesting facts about an important branch of the United States service at the noon luncheon-meeting today, when Capt. James H. Brown, commanding the revenue cutter Thetis, explained some of the duties of the coast guard service, and touched on its former history. Although Honolulu is the home port of the Thetis, neither the ship nor the duties which her crew are expected to perform, are very generally known.

The Thetis has a long and honorable history, although, as Captain Brown explained, the ship is hardly representative of the service, owing to the peculiarly favorable conditions which prevail in these waters. The vessel is an old Dundee whaler, purchased by the United States in 1884 with the Bear and the Alert, to take part in the Greeley relief expedition. In 1890 she was turned over to the coast guard, or as it was known until very recently, the revenue cutter service. One of the most interesting uses to which the Thetis has been put recently is that of a floating court for Alaska, carrying judge and court attendants to little known ports during the summer, for the administration of justice.

Speaking of the service, Captain Brown said that the revenue cutter service was the first armed sea service of the United States, organized immediately after the disbanding of the revolutionary navy, and that the first commission to an officer afloat, signed by President Washington, was to a captain of the revenue cutter service.

One of the duties of the service is to cooperate with the navy in time of war and after pointing to the honorable record of the revenue cutters in all our wars, except against Algeria, Captain Brown went on to say that the achievements of peace were even greater than those of war, and that probably the officers of the service took more pride in the former.

Going down the list of what were the duties of the service the speaker mentioned the following, giving instances in each case: Assistance to vessels in distress, cooperation with the navy in time of war, destruction of derelicts, protection of the customs revenue, enforcement of the navigation laws, policing of regattas and marine parades and the patrolling of anchorages.

Captain Brown's talk was full of interest and undoubtedly served to bring the coast guard service in closer touch with Ad Club members, who in their turn may be counted on to spread the word about.

Ad Club Ideas.
M. R. Jennings, a newspaper publisher from Edmonton, Alberta, who has been in Honolulu for the past two months, gave a first rate talk on the scope and hope of ad clubs in general. That the ad club is the best preventive on loose business methods in any community, was the contention of the speaker.

"An important feature of any ad club is its vigilance or censorship committee," said Mr. Jennings. "Even 2000 miles of water won't protect you from the wolves who take your moneys and fall to return results."

Mr. Jennings closed with a plea for greater confidence and better understanding between space buyers and space sellers.

The club transacted routine business before the speakers took the floor. J. Morton Riggs was appointed chairman of the membership committee. The next Ad Club affair will be a dinner to be given at Heine's Tavern, Friday, July 16.

MANOA HEARING TO BE HELD TONIGHT

The following notice was issued from the city clerk's office today: "Public notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held this evening (Wednesday) at 7:30 o'clock in the chamber of the board of supervisors, McIntyre building, city and county of Honolulu, on the proposed street and drainage improvements in what is it a day or two before the Ventura sails, July 12. For this reason those with magazines or papers are asked to send them to the Star-Bulletin office if possible today, Thursday or Friday. The Territorial Messenger Service still holds out its offer to call at any home or office from Diamond Head to Moanalua to secure and deliver free of charge such packages addressed to the Princeton as may be in readiness.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—DANIEL LOGAN: As an impression has got abroad that I, a nominee of the Republican club, of the 1st precinct, 4th district, made common cause with the Democrats to secure my election to the charter convention, I wish to say that there is absolutely no ground for it. In the first place I did not seek the nomination, deciding to run, if nominated by the club, only after being requested so to do by the Research club, of which I am not a member. Without having asked anyone to nominate me or vote for me I received 21 out of 23 votes in the precinct club meeting. Some days later a Democratic leader in the precinct told me that a meeting of his party had decided to nominate Mr. Liffie and another not yet selected, throwing the third vote to myself. It had been the intention, he informed me, to ask the Republicans for representation on a non-partisan ticket, but before anything was done the Republicans had put a full ticket in the field. I told my Democratic friend that, having accepted the Republican nomination, I could not make any dicker with his party nor even discuss the election with him. From that conversation until the polls closed I did not ask anyone whatever to vote for me. Yesterday morning, on my way into town, I waited at the booth for the poll to open—with Mr. Keiki, the independent Democratic candidate, helping the judges with the preparations. After voting I came to the Star-Bulletin office and worked there until the first edition was out. At 3 o'clock I went to the booth and helped Mr. Clark all I could in trying to get out more Republican voters. By not so much as a wink or a nod, from first to last, did I give either of the Democratic candidates any assistance. I do not even know Mr. Liffie by sight. About ten days before Mr. Towse left with the Shrimers I advised him known as the Manoa Improvement District No. 1, said improvements to be made under the provisions of act 164 of the session laws of 1915.

The hearing will be held for the purpose of considering all or any protests or objections to said proposed improvements.

Dance at the Moana.

The Moana Hotel was the scene of one of the most important dances of the week on Monday, the official Fourth of July. Mme. M. Lester and Mr. Charles Ransford of London, two fine society ballroom exhibition dancers, performed in style. New sensations, fox-trots and one-steps were danced for the enthusiastic onlookers and afterwards tried by the bravest of them. Good music furnished by Kala's quintet whirled away hour after hour until early morning.

A number of dinner parties were given before the affair, one of the prettiest hostesses being the popular Miss Henrietta Schwartz, who is a guest at the hotel.

Many gowns worn at the affair were stunning and in the latest modes of fashion. A goodly number of the matrons, who were strikingly costumed, wore evening hats, now the accepted garb for dancings.

Credit for the success of the evening is due to Manager Thiele, who spared no effort to have everything as it should be. It is expected that Mme. Lester and Mr. Ransford will appear again, either at the Moana or the Young.

An Engagement of Interest.

Of interest to Honoluluans comes the announcement of the engagement of William Mayo Newhall to Miss Gertrude O'Brien. Mr. Newhall is a brother of the charming Miss Marion Newhall who returned to her mainland home in the Sierra on Saturday. A coast paper says:

"The engagement of Miss Gertrude O'Brien and William Mayo Newhall was told at a dinner which Mrs. Smith O'Brien gave on Thursday night. The wedding will take place in August.

"Miss O'Brien is the only child of the late William Smith O'Brien. On her mother's side, her grandparents are the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Buckley, who came to California in 1849 from Valparaiso. She was educated at the Convent of the Sacred Heart and abroad, and is devoted to athletics, particularly to horseback. The last season's paper chase rides were often led by Miss O'Brien and Mr. Newhall.

"Mr. Newhall is a Yale graduate, class of 1914. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mayo Newhall."

Departure of the Stanford University Ball Team.

Two steamers, the Lurline, which left at 4, and the China, at 6 o'clock, yesterday afternoon took the members of the Stanford University nine who have been playing a series of games in Honolulu. The visit was so saddened by the accidental death of one teammate, Russell Downing, that the farewell at the docks had an air of sadness. A host of friends were at the steamers to bid the visitors from the university bon voyage. Members of the team who left on the Lurline were Tom Workman (captain), Leslie Dent, John Lander, Gus Hoeber, Blaine Stevens, Ray Maple, Walter Stafford, Paul O'Neill. Those who bid farewell to the islands two hours later were Will Noonan, Don Day, Walter Wickersham and A. H. Hayes.

Miss Ruth Soper and Miss Blanche Soper are leaving next week in the Wilhelmina for San Francisco, where they expect to remain for some months. Miss Ruth Soper has received her diploma from the Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack London to Leave Hawaii. Jack London, famous author, and his charming wife, who have been spending several months in Honolulu, with occasional trips to the other islands, have planned to leave Hawaii on next Tuesday. This fact will be regretted by every one who has met the noted couple. During his stay here Mr. London has been busily engaged in his work gathering data on things typical of our land to be used later in his new book and for one or two of the leading magazines. Eight years elapsed between Mr. and Mrs. London's first and second trips here. Mr. and Mrs. London have made a host of good friends among the islanders.

Miss Rosamond Swany is a hostess this week at Kuaioa, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Swany, on the other side of the island. Years ago when Miss Rosamond Swany, Miss Ruth Soper, Miss Thelma Murphy and a few others were in Punahou Academy a club was formed of the horseback riders and it is this club of girls which Miss Swany is entertaining at Kuaioa. Incidentally this week is the "round-up" of the cattle at the summer place.

Miss Clorinda Low Returns. Miss Clorinda Low was a returning passenger in the Wilhelmina yesterday morning. Miss Low is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Parker Low and returns from two years at Smith's College, Northampton, Massachusetts. She will leave on Thursday for Hilo, where she will spend two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Albert Riddle, who was Miss Annabelle Low before her marriage some three years ago. Miss Low will return to her studies early in September.

Miss Gertrude Ripley Returns. Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Ripley returned in the Wilhelmina yesterday morning with their daughter, Miss Gertrude Ripley, from California. Mrs. Ripley and Miss Ripley have been in Berkeley for a year, Miss Ripley having attended Berkeley High School. A host of friends were at the dock to greet the Honolulu girl, and it is expected that she will be the motif for a number of affairs this summer.

In Honor of Miss Ruth Gartley. Miss Ruth Gartley is to be the complimented guest at a dance to be given at the Country Club this evening by Miss Evelyn Breckons. About 100 guests are expected.

Miss Dorothy Hoogs was a departing passenger in the Lurline yesterday afternoon, for San Francisco. Miss Hoogs is a graduate of Punahou Academy, having received her diploma this June. She, with Miss Werthmuller will visit the fair for about two months and then return to the islands. Miss Hoogs will attend the College of Hawaii next year.

Miss Louise Coleman was a departing passenger in the transport, which left Honolulu on Monday. Miss Coleman is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Sherard Coleman and will remain in San Francisco visiting the fair for some months.

Mrs. John E. Baird and her household guests, Miss Annie Atherholt of Philadelphia and Miss Margaret H. Sisson of Baltimore, Maryland, have returned to the city after a two weeks' tour of the islands of Maui and Hawaii. Miss Atherholt and Miss Sisson will be with Mrs. Baird until her return to the states the middle of August.

Miss Ruth Soper and Miss Blanche Soper are leaving next week in the Wilhelmina for San Francisco, where they expect to remain for some months. Miss Ruth Soper has received her diploma from the Normal School.

Carter Galt, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Galt of this city, was a returning passenger in the Wilhelmina yesterday morning.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Miss Genevieve Champ Clark, daughter of the Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark, who is to be married to Mr. James Thomson of New Orleans June 30, has received a wedding gift from President Wilson of two silver com- putes. They are of hand wrought silver, lined with gold, and stand about ten inches high. The handles are American eagles holding wreaths of laurel. Two cupids hold up the medallions of the sides, which are engraved with the initials "G. C. C." The composites have a fitted glass dish that can be used for serving candies or fruits, but when removed flowers can be placed in them.

Not long ago McGrath, while awaiting sentence, slipped quietly from the city prison at night and disappeared, so to speak. It is declared he is now in San Francisco, as steamship men say they have seen him about the wharves in that city.

Shipping & Waterfront News MACKINAW OWNER WAR CARGO SHIP WAITS ARRIVAL OF VESSEL ON PEACEFUL TRIP HERE

George D. Flood, prominent in steamship circles on the Pacific coast, who visited the islands two years ago as a stevedoring contractor to superintend the discharge of 30,000 tons of coal brought to Pearl Harbor, is in the city to await the arrival of the former Dollar steamship Mackinaw, now crippled and slowly steaming from Columbia river and San Francisco with grain for Australia.

The Mackinaw met with an accident to its machinery a few days after leaving the coast. It was passed by the Matson steamer Wilhelmina, Capt. Peter Johnson reported the Mackinaw making about six knots an hour, which in his opinion, would bring it into Honolulu about Saturday morning.

Mr. Flood reached the port in the Wilhelmina. He says he has purchased the vessel from the Dollar company and will accompany it to Australia where it will land 3200 tons of wheat.

The Mackinaw may be given a return charter to the Hawaiian islands to bring Australian coal to the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company. The steamer last visited the islands in 1898 at the beginning of the Spanish-American war, when it called at Hilo to land several hundred horses en route to the Philippines. The vessel has traded for years along the Pacific coast. It is said to be equipped along the lines of the steamer Yucatan, which visited Honolulu a few weeks ago, carrying grain to the southern hemisphere.

Repairs to the Mackinaw may cause a delay of some days at this port.

PARAGUAY ARRIVED. Per str. W. G. Hall from Kaula ports—Mr. and Mrs. H. Morgan, Mrs. E. Thornton, J. N. Spaulding, J. S. Carstairs, A. L. Bushnell, J. Hoops, S. J. Shaw, F. Kalbaum, Father Herman, and 13 deck.

Sonoma Can Take 100 Passengers. The Oceanic liner Sonoma, due from Australia July 17, can take more than 100 cabin passengers to the California coast. The vessel sailed Monday from Sydney with a small cabin and second class list. It is believed to be well filled with freight. C. Brewer & Company, agents, are advised the vessel will have room for 330 tons of outgoing cargo. It is expected that a large share of the freight shipped from the port to San Francisco will consist of preserved pineapples. Owing to the crowded condition of the ship few bananas will be taken.

Korea to Land Many Passengers. The Pacific Mail liner Korea from San Francisco will land 45 cabin passengers at Honolulu early Friday morning. It will leave 100 tons of cargo and take 600 tons of coal before its despatch to Japan, China and the Philippines at 5 o'clock in the evening. A radio message to H. Hackfeld & Company, agents, reports the Korea leaving the coast with 157 cabin, 17 second class and 184 Asiatic steerage passengers.

THOMAS SAMMONS, American consul-general at Shanghai, who is now on his way to the United States, will arrive in Honolulu July 20 on the Tenyo Maru.

BROTHERS ALBERT, Matthias, Raymond and Joseph of St. Mary's School in Hilo returned in the Mauna Kea this morning. They have been visiting the city.

C. BASCOM SLEMP, representative from Virginia, has written the Promotion Committee assurance that he will be a booster for Hawaiian pineapples on November 23.

EZRA CRANE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Crane, left in the Lurline yesterday on his first visit to the mainland. He went with Captain Tom Workman of the Stanford team and will return in September in time to resume his studies at the Punahou Academy.

LIEUT. CALHOUN ANCRUM, wife and two children, who arrived from Manila in the transport Thomas on Monday, are visiting Judge and Mrs. Quarles, parents of Mrs. Anicum. Lieut. Anicum will return to the Philippines next week in the transport Sherman. Mrs. Anicum and children will remain here until the fall when they will leave for the mainland.

CHILLINGWORTH OBJECTS TO POLICE COURT DELAY Deputy City Attorney Chillingworth offered decided objections to a long continuance asked for by Attorney Straus at district court today in the case of Ramon Ramos, a Porto Rican, charged with illegally selling intoxicating liquor. Straus wanted the hearing postponed until the middle of the month. Chillingworth insisted on a speedy trial. He openly declared against delays which heretofore characterized many cases brought before the lower court, he claimed.

The district magistrate upheld contention of the prosecution and ordered a hearing set for Tuesday morning. Ramos was arrested by Special Officer Pennell, who confiscated a quantity of beer and wine at the Camp 2 premises.

SPLENDID FILMS TO BE SHOWN

AT YE LIBERTY THIS MONTH

"Honoluluans will have a rare treat during the present month," says Manager Pedrick of the Liberty theater.

The great Paramount productions coming to rapid-fire succession include some of the world's top-notchers. Gaby Deslys, a world-famed celebrity, whose charms drew the king of Portugal into exile, will be seen in her only attempt in motion pictures, 'Her Triumph.' Every woman knows Gaby through her clever writings on physical culture and her 'beauty talks.' She will be a well-known number on the month's calendar.

Mary Pickford, America's sweet heart, will appear as 'Mistress Nell,' Marguerite Clark, Mary's only rival, comes to us in the great play 'The Goose Girl.' Blanche Sweet, also in the running for supremacy, leads in 'The Warrens of Virginia.' Bosworth, a Jack London favorite, appears in 'Buckshot John,' while John Emerson comes to the front again in 'The Bachelor's Romance.' Marshall Neilan, in 'The Country Boy' is another sure winner.

The Paramount two-a-week policy of the Liberty theater places the big play-house on a par with the most exclusive theaters in America. R. K. Young, our new organist, is doing some clever work accompanying the pictures with fitting music, on the beautiful pipe organ.

LAST RUN OF 'THE DEEP PURPLE'

"The Deep Purple," that stirring "crook" drama by Paul Armstrong and Wilson Mizner, will be shown at the Bilou theater for the last time tonight. As is usual with "crook" offerings, either in the animated or silent drama, "The Deep Purple" has proved a magnetic drawing card, the intimate story of the underworld being ably told by the collaborators and strongly picturized by the World Film Corporation.

Clara Kimball Young, incidentally, has added new laurels through her interpretation of the part of 'Dorrie Moore' in this offering. Miss Young has been seen before in the photoplay in Honolulu but never before has she been cast in such a suitable role. Milton Sills, as William Lake, also has proved quite popular, while "Fitzco" Kato and the "crook" band are types that cannot fail to interest wherever shown. The workings of the popular "crook's" pastime, the "badger game," is a revelation to many local theatergoers, while the inside story of the underworld is one with a grip that is most intense.

Beatriz Michelena, California's idol, in "Mignon," will be the offering commencing with tomorrow night's performance.

JAPANESE ACTOR SHOWN ON SCREEN

"After Five," one of the cleanest cut comedies ever shown in Honolulu, closes a most successful half-week at the Liberty theater with tonight's performance. In connection with this most laughable bit will be shown, also for the last time, the ninth episode of the "Exploits of Elaine," the scientific-detective serial which appears each Saturday in the Star-Bulletin, and which is proving an educational revelation, inasmuch as the plot in each episode centers around something new in the scientific world.

Edward Abeles, one of America's favorite high-class comedians, and Susco Hayakawa, the leading Japanese actor in the United States today, are featured in "After Five."

Commencing with tomorrow night a young actress but an old favorite will appear at the Liberty, "The Goose Girl" being the offering and charming little Marguerite Clark the star. This is a picturization of Harold McGrath's romantic novel and allows Miss Clark an excellent opportunity to display her ability.

FORESTERS PLAN HIGH JINKS FOR ANNIVERSARY

Under the direction of Deputy High Chief Ranger John W. Short, the newly elected officers of Court Lunaillo, Ancient Order of Foresters, will be installed at a ceremony in the K. of P. hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening. The following will take office: Junior past chief, ranger, Manuel K. Richard; chief ranger, Joseph Ordenstein; sub-chief ranger, John Kekuewa; treasurer, W. Aha; financial secretary, James K. Kaulla; recording secretary, David K. Trask; senior woodward, John J. Keola; junior woodward, David K. Fuller; senior beadle, John Aylett; junior beadle, Joseph Awa; trustee, C. H. Rose; Nagara Fernandez; Eli J. Crawford; auditors, Benjamin Franklin Hollinger, Ed Hopkins, E. S. Boyd.

The 36th anniversary of its foundation will be celebrated by Court Lunaillo, No. 6890, on Saturday, July 17, which will begin with appropriate exercises in the K. of P. hall and end with a monster luncheon at the residence of Junior Past Chief Ranger Manuel Richard, 1954 Kamehameha IV road. The luncheon will begin at 5:30 o'clock in the evening. Arrangements are being made to seat about 500 guests. The 2d Infantry band and a Hawaiian quintet club will furnish music. Speeches by well known Honoluluans will be delivered during the luncheon.

Beginning at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon there will be a street parade by the members of Courts Lunaillo and Camoes. One section will be headed by the Hawaiian band and the other by the 2d Infantry band. The parade will start from the K. of P. hall and proceed to the Capitol grounds, where a group picture will be taken. The parade then will proceed back to the K. of P. hall, where Court Lunaillo will initiate several new members. Special street cars will carry the foresters from town to the scene of the luncheon.

Various Forester officers on the other islands have been invited to Honolulu for the events of July 17. W. H. Beers, deputy high chief ranger of Court Maunakea, will arrive in Honolulu the morning of July 17 to represent his lodge.

The committee in charge of the luncheon is as follows:

Chas. H. Rose, chairman; J. Ordenstein, secretary; John Kekuewa, David Trask, John C. Anderson, Joe Richards, Benjamin Franklin Hollinger, E. K. Richards, Chas. W. Arnold, Thomas Saffrey, Paul Perreira, Louis Perry and A. K. Vieira. The last three are representing Court Camoes.

FEET INSURED

FOR A FORTUNE

Thus far no one has claimed a return of his admission fee to the Hawaii theater, where there is a standing offer of "money refunded if you fail to laugh." Not even blind people are barred in this offer as "Tillie's Punctured Romance" causes such a turore of mirth that it becomes infectious and the most hardened grouch casts off his shell and joins in the merriment.

Charles Chaplin, the man who carries $150,000 insurance on his feet; Marie Dressler, and Mabel Normand, who has supported Chaplin—in the photoplay—in all of his many successes, are the trio who bring tears of joy to all who visit the Hawaii. This offering runs for but one week and is being put on at popular prices, in order to give the Hawaii proper impetus under its new management.

There is no particular plot to "Tillie's Punctured Romance," it being merely a series of incidents that are threaded together to give people enjoyment and in this they are a huge success.

MAILE WEEK AT BENSON, SMITH'S

Benson, Smith & Co., at the corner of Fort and Hotel street, are demonstrating the efficacy of Maile toilet preparations this week and ladies are invited to call and see the effect of them on skins suffering from exposure, etc. As Maile preparations are not new to Honolulu this demonstration is principally for those who have not yet tried them.

SIX MONTHS' LABOR FOR AN EMBEZZLER

For embezzling $112.15 of the funds of Lovejoy & Company, Eugene Love, erstwhile collector for that concern, will spend the next six months at hard labor in Oahu prison. He was sentenced by Circuit Judge Ashford this morning and ordered to pay the costs of the court. Love pleaded guilty to the indictment last week.

Two other indictments are pending against Love. Both charge embezzlement, one in the sum of about $300 and the other $140.30. He will enter plea to these charges on July 17.

According to details brought out in the hearing this morning, Love formerly was in the navy. It is alleged he became involved in a shady financial transaction and was sentenced by the naval authorities to serve four years at San Quentin. He told the court he served 22 months of the sentence.

CONVENTION IS IN CONTROL OF REPUBLICANS

Have 40 Members of Charter Convention Out of Total of 63—Kupiehea Elected

Three of Honolulu's present supervisors will sit in the charter convention which will meet in the hall of the house of representatives September 7. C. N. Arnold, Daniel Logan and William Ahia having been elected yesterday.

The Republicans have an easy control of the convention assured, with 40 members elected against 18 Democrats, two Progressives and two Home Rulers.

Interest in yesterday's election was very slack, the total vote being only 2496 out of a registration totaling 9966. In only a few of the precincts were there any contests. In the fourth district, Katmuki, Manoa, Punchbowl and Pauoa were the only precincts in which the results were not reached by acclamation, while in the fifth district there were contests only at Waianae, Aiea, Kalihi pumping station, Kalihi-waena, Kunawai lane, Bates street and Kamakela precincts.

The fifth district will have 32 delegates, but the fourth only 31, because Waimanalo precinct failed to nominate a candidate. David M. Kupiehea, Democrat, who achieved unsavory notoriety during the recent legislature, led the ticket in the ninth of the fifth. Another surprise was the defeat of Ed Towse and the election of two Democrats out of the three delegates sent from Kaimuki.

Although the supervisors were forced to an appropriation of $5000 to defray election expenses, the actual cost to the municipality yesterday will be about $2200.

The list of successful candidates at the polls yesterday is as follows:

Fourth District.

First precinct—Dan Logan (R), Sam Litfee (D) and J. W. K. Keiki (D).

Moral: $1.10 Can't Claim High Finance

The "crime" described in this story, says Probation Officer "Johnny" Anderson, evidently was not the aftermath of an evening spent at a motion picture theater. It may have been committed, however, after reading newspaper accounts of certain deals in Honolulu, he declares. Here it is:

Bright and early Saturday morning a Japanese boy, about 16 years old, entered the lobby of the Judiciary building and sat down on the visitors' bench. In one hand he held a dollar and a 10-cent piece. He was waiting for the tax office to open. He was the owner of a bicycle and he wanted to renew his license to operate the vehicle. He had been there about 10 minutes when a Chinese boy of about the same age entered the lobby. They started to talk, as newsboys and other youngsters sometimes will do, whether they are acquainted or not. The Chinese boy soon learned that the Japanese boy had $1.10.

"What is the use of you waiting around here," is alleged the Chinese boy said. "The tax office won't open for a couple of hours. I'm going to be here all morning. You give me the dollar-ten and I'll pay your tax."

The Japanese boy thought the matter over. It looked like a pretty straight business proposition. So he turned the money over to the Chinese boy and went on his way rejoicing.

But the Chinese boy erred when he failed to carry out his end of the agreement. Instead of paying the tax he "beat it with the coin," according to Anderson.

Officer Anderson caught the Chinese boy yesterday. He had spent the money and was very sorry.

The Chinese boy probably will be sent to the reform school.

SCULLY-CHILTON-FISCHER MATTER TAKES NEW TURN

A new motion to quash the indictment returned against John T. Scully, Willmot R. Chilton and J. H. Fischer by the territorial grand jury, charging them with conspiracy, was filed in Circuit Judge Ashford's court this morning by the attorney for Chilton. This makes the fourth time the validity of the indictment has been questioned since it was found.

The new motion is based largely on the facts set forth in a motion to quash filed by Fischer. It alleges that the indictment is not valid from the fact that it was returned against Chilton after he had testified before the grand jury regarding the alleged conspiracy case.

Chilton, Fischer and Scully were to have pleaded to the indictment today, but no pleas were heard. The defendants were given until next Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock to file any further pleas. The case will come up for disposition Saturday morning, July 17.

John T. Scully, now serving a year and a half sentence in Oahu prison, was called upon to plead in the conspiracy case. Attorney C. H. McBride interposed as counsel for Scully and asked that Scully's plea be reserved until the court took action on the second Chilton motion.

Deep Lots With Wide Beach Frontage Sold—Cottages Will Be Built

The cutting up of a tract of land on Kailua bay belonging to the Kaneohe Ranch Company will result in the establishment of a new summer colony for Honolulu people. The land in question, fronting for half a mile on the bay, has one of the finest sand beaches on Oahu and is only 14 miles distant from the city by the road over the Pal.

James F. Morgan & Company have handled the sale of the tracts which have been purchased by the following: Former Governor George R. Carter, E. Faxon Bishop, John R. Galt, Rev. W. D. Westervelt, A. Horner, Georg Rodiek, H. Focke, J. W. Harvey and Frank Andrade.

Each tract has a frontage of 200 feet on the beach and a depth of 800 feet. The land has been disposed under 20-year leases and the new lease owners are all planning the immediate erection of summer homes of the bungalow type.

ANOTHER FINE TIME AT THE TAVERN TONIGHT

You can always be certain that you will have an enjoyable time when you go to Heinie's for dinner and the little after-dinner dance, which always follows to the music of a Hawaiian orchestra.

This evening Heinie has laid plans for one of these pleasant affairs and invites friends and patrons to be present. There is no need of elaborating upon the merits of the dinners further than to say that they are "done by Heinie"—that's quite enough.—Adv.
