Washington Declares No Intervention is Contemplated, But Steps are Being Taken

MANY DENIALS OF INVASION OR PLOT

Carranza Says No Outrages on Foreigners Committed—Villa Agreeable to a Truce of Three Months' Duration

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—Steps are being taken by the navy department to have a strong naval force in Mexican waters in case of need. Secretary Daniels today called for a complete report upon the situation at Vera Cruz. Last night the press at Vera Cruz was given by Carranza a protest from Candido Aguilar, governor of the state of Vera Cruz, who protests against interference by outside nations. Secretary Daniels said today: "No new orders have been issued to the Atlantic fleet and it is not contemplated to send more ships south. Target practice will be held August 29."

It is learned that the fuel ship Jupiter has been ordered to Vera Cruz, the cruiser Denver, which has been in reserve at Vallejo, and the cruiser Albany to join Admiral Howard's Pacific fleet. The gunboats Annapolis and Yorktown have reached Acapulco and the cruiser Chattanooga is at San Blas. The cruiser Cleveland has reached Mulage.

GALVESTON, Texas, Aug. 12.—Gen. Carranza has called that the Guatemalan minister was expelled from Mexico under the statute providing for the deportation or expulsion of "vicious foreigners." The reason for the action is given that he was encouraging Gen. Zapata's rebellion.

WILSON AND LANSING SAY "NO INTERVENTION"

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—President Wilson and Secretary of State Lansing today held a conference with regard to the Mexican situation. After the conference it was reiterated that the plan discussed and favored by the Pan-American conferees, representing the United States, Central and South American republics, is to induce the Mexicans to hold a peace conference. It was emphasized that no discussion of intervention has been had by the conferees.

The Carranza agency here during the day received telegrams from Gen. Carranza denying that any outrages on foreigners had been committed in his jurisdiction, or even contemplated.

RAIDING BANDS HUERTA'S MEN, SAYS ONE GENERAL

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Aug. 12.—Three more Mexicans have been killed in fighting in Hidalgo county, where lawless bands, slipping across the border, are marauding.

Gen. Nafarrete, one of the Carranza men accused of being at least tacitly in the plot to invade Texas and other border states, denied today the story that 1000 of his men had entered Texas and that uprisings are being fomented. He charged that the bands which cross the border are made up of brigands who formerly were followers of Huerta and who are now attempting to make trouble.

VILLA WOULD AGREE TO A GENERAL TRUCE

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—Administration officials have been notified that Gen. Villa will agree to a truce for three months, declared by all the warring Mexican factions, and a peace conference to settle their controversies if possible.

Gen. Villa is said to be ready to order his generals to avoid any fights if the truce plan meets with favor. He will even go so far, as an evidence of good faith, as to have his generals evacuate the towns which they are now holding.

STAR-BULLETIN'S SHIPMENT GIVEN CHEERS GALORE

Whole Population of Pago Pago Throgs Dock to See Unloading of Magazines

ALMOST LEGAL HOLIDAY; GOVERNOR IN CHARGE

"Yells of Delight Greeted Each Sack of Two-ton Contribution," Says Marshal Smiddy

"The whole population of Pago Pago, white, brown, yellow and black, was at the wharf cheering their heads off over the Star-Bulletin's splendid consignment of magazines and papers for the soldiers, sailors and residents of the place in general," said U. S. Marshal J. J. Smiddy today, speaking of the reception tendered the Ventura when it arrived at Pago Pago carrying nearly two tons of literature forwarded by the Star-Bulletin to relieve the "famine" in reading matter there.

The shipment was made in response to a request for reading matter sent to Honolulu by the men on the United States gunboat Princeton. A. E. Livingstone, grandson of the African explorer, brought the message to Honolulu, together with news that Tutuila received mail only once every 28 days. "It was almost a legal holiday," continued the marshal. "Everyone in the place was at the steamer landing, and the Star-Bulletin's gift was called a God-send by everyone there. Most of the white men hadn't seen a new magazine or weekly publication in months, and the big pile of literature looked better to them than a million dollars."

Mr. Smiddy added that Cmdr. John M. Poyer, retired, governor of Pago Pago, personally supervised distribution of the precious reading matter. "The magazines and papers will be placed in the entertainment hall and reading room of the barracks and the officers' club and will be given out in general circulation, so that everyone will have a chance, in due time, to read everything sent, and no one will be allowed to keep his share out of circulation. The magazines will be issued on the signing of receipt cards, much the same as at the public library," he said.

"Everyone was certainly more than grateful. The shouting and yells of delight which greeted the shipment's unloading would have warmed anyone's heart. Everyone helped to unload the packages. It was a regular Fourth of July jollification, and the men told me it was the brightest spot in their daily round of existence for many months. The Star-Bulletin is certainly popular with everybody in Pago Pago this summer." Marshal Smiddy's primary object in (Continued on page two)

REFUGEES FROM NEW GUINEA GO TO FATHERLAND

Reach Honolulu En Route to New York—Promised Safe Conduct by British

On board the steamer Ventura of the Oceanic line, which arrived at 7:30 this morning from Sydney, Australia, are 14 German refugees, returning to Germany under safe conduct, from New Guinea, the former German possession captured by British forces early in the war.

One of the conditions on which the Germans gave up the island was that they should be assured of safe conduct back to the Fatherland. This was granted and the Teutons are now sailing to San Francisco and thence to New York where they will take steamer to Germany.

Included in the list of refugees are business and professional Germans of New Guinea, doctors, lawyers, bankers, merchants, and men of other professions. They seemed cheerful and good-natured today and pleased that they are 3000 miles nearer home than a month ago.

1916 CARNIVAL WILL HAVE GREAT EFFECTS IN ELECTRICAL LINE

Theodore Hoffman, superintendent of the Alexander Young Building Company and recently appointed by Director-general Cooper as chief of the electrical display division of the 1916 Carnival, is leaving on the Ventura today for the mainland to gather ideas for the Carnival. He expects to visit the San Francisco and San Diego expositions and other cities. Unique and spectacular electrical effects will be created for the 1916 playweek.

CAPT. MATSON READY TO FIGHT COASTWISE LAW SUSPENSION

Head of Big Navigation Company Declares if Foreign Ships are Allowed to Enter Trade His Line Will Withdraw Its Passenger Service

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Aug. 12.—Capt. William Matson, head of the Matson Navigation Company, said today that he does not expect the coastwise shipping law to be suspended in the case of Hawaii, as has been suggested in order to allow foreign ships to carry passengers between the islands and the coast.

Capt. Matson declares he would fight consideration of the matter before Congress and asserts that if the coastwise law is suspended as proposed, he will withdraw the Matson

Captain Knox Killed In Aero Accident; Lieut. Sutton May Die

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)

FORT SILL, Okla., Aug. 12.—Another tragedy in army aviation came today with an accident, as yet unexplained, which cost the life of one army officer and will probably cost another. Capt. George H. Knox (infantry) of the first aero squadron and Lieut. R. B. Sutton of the coast artillery were the two victims. They were maneuvering 500 feet in air in an army aeroplane when something went wrong with the machinery and the men and plane hurtled to the ground. Capt. Knox was instantly killed and Lieut. Sutton probably fatally injured.

MARYLAND HERE ONE DAY AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Brings Pontoons for Raising F-4—All in Readiness for Final Salvage Work

The cruiser Maryland, carrying the six steel pontoons that are to be used in raising the sunken submarine F-4, docked at the quarantine wharf this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. The Maryland is a day ahead of schedule time, the original announcement being that the cruiser would be here Friday morning.

All preliminary work toward the resumption of salvage operations on the F-4 has been done, and Naval Constructor Furer and Capt. Crittenden of the submarine flotilla are ready to get down to the actual operations as soon as the necessary gear is taken off the cruiser. This afternoon the big 150-ton floating crane that has been in the harbor ever since the F-4 went down last March, will be taken alongside the Maryland, and the big pontoons and marker buoys will be lifted out of the cruiser.

"If good weather prevails we will be ready to get right to work as soon as the gear is on the spot," said Capt. Crittenden this morning. "We have done everything possible at this end of the line to get ready for the coming of the pontoons, and the work should run along smoothly."

None of the officers connected with the salvage operations will hazard a guess as to the probable amount of time required to raise the F-4. Everything depends on the weather and the condition of the harbor where the F-4 lies near the reef.

The Maryland has practically the same commissioned personnel as when she left here a couple of months ago. Capt. Sumner E. W. Kittelle is still in command, with Lieut. Comdr. David Boyd as executive.

GEORGE CUNHA JOINS OLYMPIC CLUB TO SWIM

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless) SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 12.—George Cunha, the crack sprint swimmer from Hawaii, and Ludy Langer, the Los Angeles swimmer who carried off all the middle distance honors in the open water competitions held here recently, have both joined the Olympic Club. The two new wearers of the "Winged One" will add considerable strength to its water team, it is figured.

KINDLY FEELING FOR U. S. GROWS IN AUSTRALIA

Mrs. Lillian S. Fisher, Traveler and Lecturer, Says Former Bitterness Dying Out

Anti-American sentiment is rapidly dying down in Australia, according to Mrs. Lillian S. Fisher, a lecturer and traveler who arrived here this morning on the Oceanic liner Ventura, from a trip to Samoa and through New Zealand and Australia, accompanied by her son, Master Charles A. Fisher.

"Australians are now seeming to realize that America's neutrality is helping the Allies far more than if the United States had entered the war," said Mrs. Fisher. "The general belief through Australia is that America is suffering more from the indirect effects of the European conflict, than is Australia. In fact, Australians declare the recent drought, now broken, has hurt them more than the war."

Mrs. Fisher is a lecturer in the employ of the New York City board of education and carries credentials from Mayor John Purroy Mitchel and other city officials. She lived for more than 20 years in the South Seas, and her son, born in Samoa of American parents, was registered in German birth records, and had the British flag hoisted for him, so that his mother says his nationality is considerably varied.

Conductor On Wai'ale'ale Line "Hears Things"

"Are You Well," Inquires Dulcet Voice, as He Stands Alone Waiting for Car

"Are you well?" This was the friendly salutation heard by a conductor on the Wai'ale'ale line the other day, as he stood by the roadside awaiting the return of his car from the top of the hill. He thought he was alone, and he was alone so far as human beings were concerned. Looking about him for the origin of the voice, he espied a parrot resting upon a shrub and preening its plumage. No dwelling being close by, the surprised man concluded that Poi was a wanderer from his home. Therefore he took it along with him, and the next morning gave money to a Star-Bulletin man on his car to advertise the talking bird as "found."

This, of course, was as good as handing the parrot to its owner, which was done within a few hours. It was a household pet of Edward A. Jacobson, president of Union Pacific Transfer Company, living on Wai'ale'ale road.

There is said to be a number of parrots flying wild in Kaimuki, however—pretty pink-breasted ones, whose choice of residence is taken by the people of that suburb as equally indicative of intelligence with the pow-

RUSSIANS HURLED BACK IN RETREAT ALONG WHOLE LINE

German Baltic Fleet Wins Running Fight; Meteor Sinking Is Related

German official announcements today include news of much naval activity, some favorable, some adverse to the Teuton cause. In the Baltic sea a German squadron is credited with a distinct triumph over Russian war-vessels, a running fight taking place.

The Germans declare that the recent aerial raid on the English coast towns resulted in damage to British war vessels at anchor.

A new version is given to the sinking of the German auxiliary cruiser Meteor in the North Sea. The German official statement is that the Meteor was a mine ship and after the commander had sunk her to avoid capture he and his entire crew reached a German port. Earlier despatches said that the crew was captured by the British.

The following cablegram from official German sources was received this morning: "The German admiralty reports that the German Baltic squadron on August 10 attacked, at the island of Utoe, situated at the entrance to the Aland archipelago, the Russian fleet which was there and forced the fleet to retreat. Among the Russian vessels was the armored cruiser of the Makarow class.

"The Germans further silenced the shore batteries. "On the same day other German cruisers near Zere, at the entrance of the Gulf of Riga, chased Russian torpedo boats into the bay. One of the Russian destroyers caught on fire. The German ships suffered neither damage nor loss of life, although the Russians attacked them repeatedly."

The following cablegram from official German sources was received today:

"German Admiralty Report: On the night of August 10 German airships attacked fortified places and harbors on the English east coast. In spite of a strong defense, British warships on the Thames and London docks and torpedo boats at a point near Harwich, and important construction work on the Humber were bombarded. The airships after observing that the results were good returned from their successful expedition."

The following cablegram from official German sources was received today:

"The German admiralty reports that the German auxiliary mine ship Meteor, after crossing English coast guard forces, cast mines in several places where the English are engaged in commercial warfare. During the night of August 7 it encountered the British auxiliary cruiser Ramsey southeast of the Orkney islands, attacked and destroyed her. "The Meteor saved 40 men of the Ramsey's crew, among whom were four officers.

"On the following day, surrounded by four British cruisers, the commander of the Meteor sunk his ship. After saving the prisoners from the Ramsey and from an English sailing ship, the entire Meteor crew safely reached a German port."

INCREASE GUARD IN BOTH NUMBERS AND EFFICIENCY

Col. Johnson, New Adjutant-General, Anxious to Start Work With Troops

Col. Samuel Johnson, the new adjutant general of the Territory, may take over the duties of the office before the first of September. He plans to leave for Hilo Saturday, returning August 24, and whether he takes office officially at once or not, he will probably be hard at work by the following Monday.

Col. Johnson has extensive plans for the national guard, which he does not care to discuss until he takes office, but he is definite in the statement that he is after efficiency, and that he hopes for quick action.

"Besides bringing the 1st Infantry right up to strength," said Col. Johnson this morning, "I hope that we can recruit another regiment of infantry, and possibly auxiliary troops. This increase in the territorial force is the desire of Governor Pinkham, who is keenly interested in national guard affairs. I hope that the rifle team which goes to Florida will make a first class showing, and we want to send as good a team as we can, but that is by no means the most important feature of guard work at the present time. Because the crack shot and some of the officers are away won't mean that the whole guard will mark time until their return. In fact, the next three months will be the busiest we'll have, if my schedule is carried out. In three months I expect to see the National Guard of Hawaii right up to strength and standard."

Col. Johnson is chock full of enthusiasm and is optimistic over prospects. He believes that Hawaii is an ideal field for militia work, owing to the local problems of defense which bring military service to every man's door, and to the close cooperation with the regular troops which is possible here.

Col. Johnson desires to meet the guard officers and have a talk with them before he leaves for Hawaii, and Lieut. Col. Riley, commanding the 1st infantry, has issued an order for all officers of the regiment to meet at the armory at 7:30 tomorrow evening. Either white or service uniform is prescribed.

Russian Press Awakens to the Need for Repulse of Teutons to Avoid Greatest Defeat of the War to Slav Armies

HOPE TURKEY'S PLIGHT WILL HALT THE ENEMY

Think Germans Will Turn to Help Ottoman Ally—Italy Makes Substantial Gains in Carso District, Says Rome

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 12.—Official.—The Russian lines have yielded under the Teutonic pressure and the Russians are retreating along the entire front from the Bug river to Parazew.

LONDON, England, Aug. 12.—Within a week one of the greatest battles of the war is expected on the road which the Germans are trying to cut to Petrograd.

Suddenly the Russian war critics and newspapers have awakened to the fact that the objective of the great German drive is not Moscow, as has been supposed, but Petrograd itself, and that the Germans are steadily advancing toward the capital.

Instead of halting after the capture of Warsaw, the Germans did not even try to occupy the Polish city fully but pushed their enveloping plans. Their recent movements show that they are striking toward Petrograd now.

The Russians are fighting desperately. They have hopes also that the heavy British onslaught at the Dardanelles will press Turkey so hard the Teutons will have to detach a large part of their army and send it south to help the beleaguered Ottoman ally.

This is counted upon to relieve the pressure of the German-Austrian troops on the Polish front.

Y. M. C. A. WANTS NEW BUILDING FOR BOYS' CLUB WORK; TO COST $6000

Activities Have Grown Until Present Housing Facilities are Far Outgrown

The Y. M. C. A. needs a new building to house the boys' club work, which in 11 months has far outgrown present quarters. The site and building, it is estimated, will cost about $6000, and a campaign to raise that sum will soon be under way.

The boys' club work under the direction of S. W. Robley during the past year has far outgrown the two small club houses "Kakaako and Kaulauea," and the urgent need of a better and a larger building has long been felt.

The proposed new building will have a floor space of 50x95 feet and will be located at such a point as best to handle the large number of Punchbowl street youths who at present have nothing in the line of boys' club work. The building will also act as a clearing house for all the Y. M. C. A. boys' clubs of the city in regard to competitive games, lectures and socials.

During the last year the number of extension clubs has doubled, from four to eight, and the actual membership has increased from 170 to 385, a gain of 215. In 11 months the members of the various clubs have paid in dues (5 cents to 10 cents a month) the sum of $86.50. This money is used to partly defray the expense of balls, bats, gloves and other portable equipment used in the work.

"The new building and ground will cost in the neighborhood of $6000, and while seemingly an expensive proposition, is dirt cheap from the standpoint of character building which the extension clubs stand for and produce," says Mr. Robley.

Healthy, clean physical exercise, whether games or straight gymnasium work will, if properly administered, keep the boys off the street corners and away from pool rooms and other questionable places of amusement.

During the past 11 months ending June 1, 426 meetings were held with a general average of 30 present and a total attendance of 12,790.

All activities pertaining to the extension clubs of the Y. M. C. A. will close this week for the remainder of the month, and then open with a complete reorganization of each individual club.

THOMAS BRINGS MANY OFFICERS FOR OAHU DUTY

High Rankers of the Medical Corps are Among Arrivals—Many From Leave

The transport Thomas, which docked shortly after noon today, will make an unexpectedly long stop at Honolulu. Owing to trouble with the propeller, which developed just before the transport reached Honolulu, the Thomas will be repairs or four days in Honolulu while repairs are being made. An unusually large passenger list received the announcement with approbation, the delay being to the liking of all.

Bringing a number of officers to Hawaii, both returning from leave and coming to Oahu for station, the transport Thomas arrived in port this afternoon. An unusual number of high ranking medical officers are aboard the Thomas and of these Hawaii gets a goodly share.

Capt. J. B. Douglas, signal corps, arrives to take command of Field Company E. He will relieve Lieut. J. A. McAndrew, 2d Infantry, who has been commanding Company E and the telegraph and telephone detachment of Company M, since the departure of the transport for the coast.

Officers returning from leave include Lieut.-col. F. P. Reynolds, M. C.; Maj. Joseph Frazier, 1st Inf.; Capt. W. C. Short, 4th Cav.; Capt. H. E. Knight, 25th Inf.; Capt. J. L. Jordan, 1st Inf.; Capt. D. W. Chamberlain, 2d Inf.; Capt. N. B. Rehkopf, 1st F. A.

Capt. Charles C. Mettler, ordnance department, arrives here for station. Capt. Mettler has been ordered as department ordnance officer.

Capt. Charles Van Way, quartermaster corps, comes here for station.

Following is the list of military passengers:

"WAITING AT THE CHURCH" IN LINE FOR NEW VERSION

Betrothed Officers at Shafter Cannot Get to Coast in Time for Their Wedding Dates

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
PORT SHAFTER, Aug. 11.—"My bonnie lies over the ocean—my bonnie lies over the sea."

Thus runs the chant of two 2nd Infantry bachelors who have been granted a leave of absence to lead two of nature's fairest daughters to the altar, but 2000 miles of blue brine lies between each "bonnie" and happiness.

The War Department was liberal to rank extravagance with leaves of absence and even suspended the operation of the orders requiring all officers to attend the autumn maneuvers, in order to appease Dan Cupid. Then just as the last threads were knotted in the trousseau, the same authority facetiously announced that Dan will have to put on the brakes until the Philippines can be cleared of surplus officers.

It's a long way to San Francisco by liner, a little longer by transport, and some distance when doing the "Duke Kahanamoku" through shark-infested waters.

There is one, or maybe two, very dim and glimmering hopes to which the heart strings are fastened but, though the heart strings are strong, the anchorage may be a myth. The Maryland is coming over, and on her last return trip she carried a few extras. Then there is the mine planter that might be converted into a Cupid's Ark, but if both of these hopes fade away a new version of "Waiting at the Church" will be written. One of the fortunates or unfortunates, depending on the point of view, swears he will stow away, and the other is looking over the outriggers with a view to decking one over for the trip. To make matters still more pathetic, there are three "happiest men in the world" coming to the regiment on the transport today.

Hawaii is beautiful, and as a honeymoon garden it is grand, but when one is stranded here on the eve of his wedding day it must appear a desolate speck in the mire of despair.

CIRCLE BRITAIN WITH 115 UNDER SEA CRAFT SOON

Escaped Officer of Emden Says Blockade of England Will Be Tight By October

That Germany, by October 1 of this year, will have a fleet of 115 submarines encircling England, is one of the statements made by Lieut.-con. Lauterbach of the German battle cruiser Emden, to a lady passenger on the Mongolia, while that ship was on its way to Honolulu.

Lauterbach, who traveled under the name of Johnson on the Mongolia, kept his identity pretty well hidden until the last few days of the trip when rumor about him had spread so widely on board, that he took a few of the passengers into his confidence.

Lauterbach has gone on to San Francisco but the lady passenger to whom he divulged some of his secrets, is in Honolulu, and has asked that her name be not published.

"Mr. Johnson, as we knew him on the boat," she says, "was a fine, handsome fellow, and well liked by everybody. Among the things he told me was that Germany would eventually win in the great war because of the fact that she had previously prepared for so long and had such stores of ammunition laid up for use. Also he predicted that Germany would encircle England within two months' time with a fleet of 115 submarines that would entirely shut off shipping communication from the outside.

"Mr. Johnson thought that his identity would not become known in Honolulu and he accordingly asked the few of us with whom he was especially intimate to help him keep it hidden. We were all willing, of course, and it was a surprise to read of him in the Star-Bulletin on the day the Mongolia got into port."

MARYLAND BOYS HAD GAY TIMES ON MAINLAND

Took Part in Parades, Celebrations, and Played Part in New Moving Picture

Since the cruiser Maryland, which returned to Honolulu today, left here June 19 she has had some time in the states, at the fair, at the navy yard, and at Long Beach and California. Upon arrival at San Francisco on the 26th of June as many men as could be spared went on liberty and leave and the Maryland was the host of a large number of visitors.

On July 5 there was a large parade, composed of the army and naval forces around San Francisco and the Maryland's battalion led the sailor forces. On the Fourth there were sailing and dingy races between all the ships in the bay and the Maryland won the sailing race with time to spare and the dingy race was declared a dead heat.

After remaining at the exposition for some time the Maryland was ordered to Long Beach, Cal., to take part in the Elks' celebration at Los Angeles. She arrived off San Pedro where she remained for two days. From there she shifted berth to Long Beach, where for four days she received visitors in the morning and afternoon. It is estimated that on Elks' day there were over 2000 visitors on board.

In addition to marching in the parade, in which Happy, the ship's dog, made a great hit, the Maryland, by permission from the navy department, was the scene of the taking of a moving picture play, called "Neal of the Navy," soon to be released. Not only the officers but many of the men took part in this play. Her "Navy" crew was shown in action and a landing force in heavy marching order was sent ashore. The quarterdeck was used to stage a dance and all the officers participated in this. The leading lady of the play is Miss Lillian Lorraine and Mr. Courtney, son of William Courtney of New York fame, plays the part of Neal.

From Long Beach, after a delightful stay, the Maryland went to the navy yard where she went into drydock, was cleaned and the bottom painted. While she was in drydock the pontoons to be used for raising the F-4 were placed on board, and dropping down to California City the Maryland took on 1500 tons of coal and on Friday, August 6, she started her trip across, averaging 15 knots all the way over. The sea was exceptionally calm, scarcely a ripple disturbing the surface of the water.

The Maryland ship's company is going to give a ball on Wednesday, August 18, and from present indications it will be even a greater success than the one held on board ship before the departure of the Maryland for the states.

BREAK RECORDS FOR MOUNTING HEAVY ORDNANCE

Tenth Company Has Done Fine Work With New 14-inch Rifle at De Russy

Breaking all Coast Artillery records for the moving and mounting of big guns, the new 14-inch rifle for Fort De Russy was placed on the trunnions of the carriage at 11:30 o'clock this morning, just eleven and one-half days from the time it was landed on the De Russy beach from the barge on which it was towed over the reef.

When, two years ago, the first 14-inch gun was mounted at De Russy, a record of three weeks in the handling was achieved, and brought special commendation from the department. The new gun, besides being longer and about six tons heavier than the one mounted two years ago, was handled in nine days less time, though the distance each had to be moved from the place of landing was practically identical.

The new rifle is 48 feet long and weighs a trifle less than 40 tons. It was moved from the beach to the battery in a wooden cradle, placed on rollers on a track of massive timbers, and dragged by a crew of 20 men of the 10th company. The moving of the huge piece of artillery was accomplished without even a minor accident to any of the men engaged, though the work was twice set back, once by the breaking of the jacks with which it was being raised, and prior to that by the necessity of turning the gun over, it having been placed on the barge wrong side up.

The carriage has been waiting for the big rifle for more than a year. The gun was proof fired at Sandy Hook, but proof firing to test the carriage will be done here, probably within the next two months.

CHINESE FLOOD RELIEF FUND IS STILL GROWING

A total of $435.50 was collected yesterday by solicitors for the flood relief committees sending money to China. The amount from the other islands received by the Chinese Christian Union is $216.50. Of this sum, $132.75 comes from Waikiki, Manu, and $82.75 from Waimea, Kaula.

From the collections among merchants of the city, Yap Kwai Fong reports $145 for yesterday. The givers are Henry May & Company, $50; B. F. Ehlers & Company, $50; H. Wichman & Company, Ltd., $15; Benson, Smith & Company, $15; M. McIneray, Ltd., $15.

Plans for the ball game on Sunday, August 22, between the Chinese team and the Army team, are being furthered by Mr. Yap, who says that both parties have agreed to play and that there is no doubt the game will act a good sum to the flood subscriptions.

Chong Chow of the Chinese Merchant's Association, which is also sending money to the sufferers, announces recent receipts from Kaula and Hawaii amounting to $74. A. S. Wilcox has sent a check for $50 from Lihue, and commends the Chinese merchants on the relief work they are doing. Sun Hong, Chung of Lihue has sent $14, and John T. Moir of Papakou, Hawaii, has forwarded $10.

OUTRIGGER CHANGES DATE FOR BIG CHOWDER DANCE

Because of the conflict of dates with Madame Melba's concert on Saturday, August 21, the Outrigger Canoe Club has postponed until Saturday, August 28, the big chowder and dance which will be given at the beach to celebrate the completion of the costly new dancing laanai.

making the long journey to Pago Pago was to bring back Dr. William T. Dutton, who is to be tried here on a statutory charge. The physician left Honolulu on the Sonoma, but a wireless message sent by the marshal caused him to be taken from the boat and detained at Pago Pago. There being no return steamer, Marshal Smiddy had to go on to Australia and back with his prisoner.

"I found anti-American sentiment to be very bitter in Sydney and, so far as I could learn, among most of the common people of Australia. This feeling is caused by America's not fighting on the side of the Allies in the European war. Among the higher-class Australians, the matter is taken philosophically," he said.

"I told Australians they have no reason to kick because the United States is helping to feed Australia right this minute. The Ventura, the ship I was on going over and coming back, carried 500 tons of butter to Sydney and hundreds of cases of eggs and other provisions.

"The U. S. gunboat Princeton is now in commission again at Pago Pago, having been raised and the hole in her hull repaired. She sank in Samoa harbor after striking a rock. A big German freighter has been interned there."

Marshal Smiddy says elephantiasis has been quite prevalent in the Samoa group, but that army doctors and surgeons have brought it under control, chiefly by operative measures. This is a malady in which the arms and legs of victims swell to enormous size.

PARENTS MAKE GOOD SHORTAGE; MCDONALD CASE TO BE DROPPED

In police court this morning embezzlement charges brought by Catton, Nell & Company against R. McDonald, manager of the firm's electric shop on Fort street, were dismissed, and the case settled. McDonald's parents, living in the states, agreed to make good the shortage in his accounts. The company on this condition refused to prosecute charges against its former employe.

According to Captain of Detectives McDuffie, McDonald embezzled about $110. He was arrested last week after the shortage came to light. He will probably return to the mainland.

SUPERVISOR IS HALED TO COURT AND PAYS FINE

To be fined $5 for breaking the city traffic ordinance was the bitter dose given to Supervisor Robert W. Shingle this morning. J. W. L. McGuire also made an involuntary contribution to the city's exchequer. "Billy" Fennell, license inspector, the third city official to be arrested on the same charge, pleaded not guilty, and will be heard tomorrow.

Supervisor Shingle brought the law down upon himself by leaving his auto standing at Fort and Merchant streets longer than the half-hour allowed by the ordinance. Fennell was arrested because he passed a street car which had stopped at a street intersection to take on and let off passengers. Fennell denies that any persons were there to be taken aboard, or any to get off.

McGuire "came through" with $5 for the same offense as Supervisor Shingle, leaving his car standing on a business street longer than 30 minutes.

FIGHT AGAINST KENTUCKY BAR IS COMING UP

Anti-Saloon League Secures Signatures Against Saloon on Alakea Street

A strong fight against any reopening of the "Tommy Marlowe case" by the Oahu liquor license board will be made by the Anti-Saloon league.

Through his attorney, Marlowe is asking that the license commission have a rehearing of his case, when presumably the commission decided finally against a renewal of the Kentucky Bar license. Whether or not the commission will allow a rehearing, and whether, if it is allowed, Marlowe's license will be renewed, are points to be discussed tomorrow afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, when the commission meets in the supervisors' assembly room.

The Anti-Saloon league has notified the attorneys who represented it at the June sessions of the commission, A. L. C. Atkinson and Lorrin Andrews, that the Marlowe case is coming up. Furthermore, the league has been securing signatures to a petition against any renewal of the Kentucky Bar license, under the provision of the law which automatically will prevent a renewal if the majority of property-owners, licensees and renters in the immediate neighborhood protest against it. It was stated at the league headquarters yesterday that the league felt that a sufficient number of signatures had been secured to stop the reopening of the saloon.

The application for a rehearing was filed on behalf of Marlowe on June 30, it was stated today, which complies with the law, though the consideration of the application is rather belated. The commissioners are confronted with an interesting technical point from the fact that Marlowe's place has actually been closed for several weeks, which may have some effect on the status of the application for a reopening of the case.

'Y' DIRECTORS GET REPORT ON POOL CAMPAIGN

At a meeting of the directors of the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon General Secretary Paul Super reported a total of $1500 collected so far in the campaign now being waged toward completing the fund for the new swimming pool.

Mr. Super urged the necessity of getting pledges for at least $2000 immediately, the remaining $1000 to be collected in the next few weeks if necessary.

A total attendance of 1623 in all departments of the gymnasium was reported for the calendar month ending today. This is an unusually fine showing for the summer months.

Three new classes have been organized in the gymnasium, known respectively as the P. B. C., the H. A. C., and the Saturday Night group. Two baseball teams, indoor and an outdoor aggregation, have been recently organized.

The secretary also made announcement of the good showing in the work of the intermediate department since it was taken over by William Dreier. Mr. Dreier has organized two new clubs, which are making effective progress.

Sixteen new members were voted in this afternoon, thus bringing the total membership of the association up to 1540.

Directors present at the meeting were F. C. Atherton, C. B. Ripley, H. G. Dillingham, G. C. Potter, Robert Anderson, R. B. Anderson, C. H. Atherton and Judge C. F. Clemens. A. H. Tarleton was present to represent the membership committee.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

A. H. Rice today was appointed appraiser of the estate of Mitaro Kurasaki, relieving J. L. Fleming.

Y. Ahin today was appointed guardian of Kai Chong and Ah Moy, residing in China. Their property consists of real estate in Honolulu and about $3500 in the bank.

Circuit Judge Whitney today appointed Lusiana Leandro as guardian of Inez, Virginia, Alberto, Concepcion, Genardo, Luisa, Mathilda and Margarida Leandro, minors.

A sale of unclaimed articles held this morning at the custom house netted the government nearly $30. Most of the articles sold consisted of unclaimed bags of rice and Chinese dried vegetables. The bidders were mostly Chinese and Japanese. The merchandise had been accumulating since the first of this year.

Lying outside the harbor today while her auxiliary engines are being repaired, the four-masted schooner A. J. West will probably remain here several days. The boat has had a tempestuous time coming this far. She is bound from Manila to New York with a cargo of mahogany valued at $500,000. The boat has been 74 days sailing to Honolulu, typhoons and bad weather generally causing the delay. Capt. I. V. Chapman ran short of provisions and was reduced to feeding his crew with salt beef, rice, beans, salmon and coffee.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Circuit Judge Whitney has appointed Mrs. Malla Keoloea as guardian of Adeline Keoloea, a minor, without bond.

The executive committee of the Anti-Saloon League was to meet in the office of the league, Stangenwald building, this afternoon.

A meeting of the Honolulu Street Railway Benefit Association will be held in the club house, Beretania streets, at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. Mary McMaster has been appointed by Circuit Judge Whitney as guardian of Virginia and Mary McMaster, minors, under bond in the sum of $2500.

An active campaign is being carried on by the Honolulu Automobile Club, to increase its membership to 300. The number of members is now nearing 100.

Building permits issued for the week ending yesterday total $25,314. The permits are for residences, stores, laundries, garages, wine houses and stables.

Without bond, Mrs. Elizabeth Mossman has been appointed by Circuit Judge Whitney as guardian of the person and property of Agnes K. H. Kawelo, a minor.

A motion for temporary alimony has been filed in circuit court by the plaintiff in the case of Ida Mahikoa against Lionel Mahikoa, a suit for maintenance.

A. S. Humphreys has withdrawn as attorney for I. Yamamoto, one of the defendants, in the matter of a bill for dissolution of partnership involving the Japanese Bank.

The equity case of the City and County of Honolulu against the McCandless Building Company will go to trial in Circuit Judge Ashford's court next Monday morning.

An inventory of the estate of Alfred P. Ryan was filed in circuit court today. The estate consists of an undivided one-fifth interest in the undistributed estate of Nancy K. Hobron.

The Trent Trust Company, executor under the will of the late J. J. Byrne, has filed in circuit court a discontinuance of an assumpsit case against J. Goetas, defendant, and J. M. Levy & Company, garnishee.

A change of date has been made from August 21 to August 28 for the cross-country run of the Honolulu Automobile Club. This is in order to accommodate members who wish to attend the Melba concert on the earlier date.

Credit for starting the injunction proceedings against city road work is claimed by officials of the Honolulu Automobile Club, who say that the automobile club, rather than the Mauna Improvement Club, is responsible for beginning the case.

A meeting of the Hawaiian Engineering Association is called by its secretary, Frank O. Boyer, for Thursday, August 19, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The meeting will be held in room 202 of the McCandless building. Nominations will be made for officers and directors for the coming year.

The women's auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe Club requests all of their ladies who are providing chowder, coffee and other necessities for the big supper of the Outrigger Club entertainment to send these to the Outrigger Club grounds on Saturday, August 28, instead of on Saturday, August 21, as the entertainment has been postponed.

During July the nursing division of the anti-tuberculosis bureau handled 191 cases on all the islands, according to a report which has been made to the board of health. The month began with 128 patients and ended with 153. This increase was due to the fact that new nursing districts were established on Maui and Oahu. Of the 191 cases, six deaths were reported. Eleven patients left the territory. Ten new cases were discovered during the month, and a generous list of "suspects" was filed.

'WEIRD, SAVAGE, BEAUTIFUL,' IS THORLEY'S IDEA

Noted Organist Says Scenery of Hawaii is Incomparable—Hospitality is Great

"Weird, savage, beautiful." Into these three words Walter Handley Thorley, the noted organist, today packed his impressions of the Hawaiian islands.

Mr. Thorley, who delighted the residents of Honolulu and Wailuku, Maui, with several concerts, left for the mainland in the steamer Ventura this afternoon. Before he left he told the Star-Bulletin he was leaving with great regret, and asked this paper to thank the local residents for the delightful hospitality extended to him.

On Tuesday Mr. Thorley returned to Honolulu from visits to Haleakala and Kilauea. Today he said that the latter appealed to him most, as it is a thing of life and action, and a sight that would long be remembered.

"I am a man who lives a great deal in the present and who gives but little attention to the future or past, so naturally a volcano in full activity meant more to me than Haleakala. But they were both mighty impressive, he continued.

From the top of Haleakala, he said, he saw a sunrise the like of which he had never seen before. Iao valley, on Maui, also interested him greatly.

"I am not quite sure that I do not prefer Iao valley to the Yosemite," he said. "It is simply wonderful the way the precipices are clothed in vegetation.

Speaking of his recital at Wailuku, Mr. Thorley said that people came from all parts of Maui to hear him. It was considered by him as being a fine compliment.

"Haleakala presented the most marvelous sight I have ever seen, and I have seen some of the greatest sights in the world," he declared. "I never have imagined anything so terrible or weird. It seemed almost impossible, incredible."

Mr. Thorley intends to spend some time in California. He will play at the Panama-Pacific exposition. His home is in London and he has been touring Australia and New Zealand during the past year and three months.

"I have been greatly impressed with the splendid hospitality and kindness of the people of Honolulu, not a whit less than with the scenery," he said.

"After all, the people must be given the first consideration. I have never received greater kindness and hospitality than in these islands. I am really charmed with the people."

AH SING COMES WITHIN AN ACE OF BEING IN TROUBLE

Ah Sing, a Chinese, came very near getting "pinched" today. He was to have been in Circuit Judge Whitney's court at 10 o'clock on an order to show cause growing out of a suit for divorce against him by Susie Ah Sing. A motion was before the court for temporary alimony, attorney's fees and court costs. When Ah Sing did not appear at the appointed time, the court ordered the issuance of a bench warrant. While the officer was searching for the defendant Ah Sing appeared in court. He explained that he had gone to the district instead of the circuit court. The case will be taken up at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

THURSDAY.....AUGUST 12, 1915.

MUNICIPAL SINS COME HOME.

THE "MEXICAN PLOT."

The story of a Mexican plot to seize a large part of New Mexico, Arizona and Texas sounds like the vapors of a superheated brain. Therefore it is probably true, for the vapors of superheated brains are quite common south of the border just now.

What brains Carranza, Villa, Zapata, Obregon and the rest of the jitney generals possess are chronically superheated. Next to perfervid aspirations their most marked characteristics are lack of scruple and inclination to run when the fighting begins to get hot. Therefore Mexico is torn by personal factions and it would be as impossible for the doughty generalissimos to carry out any concerted plot against the United States as for old Porfirio Diaz to come back to life.

The "Mexican plot" is chiefly noteworthy because it illustrates the degree of esteem in which the United States is held by the various 'istas which carry on their banditry for profit and pleasure. That Carranza, who had a hard enough time defeating the ill-armed, undisciplined, dissolute, untrained outlaws of Villa and Zapata, could even contemplate a successful movement against the United States shows how little Uncle Sam's warnings are regarded—how insolently the revolutionists look upon the attempts that have been made to help them.

The "watchful waiting" policy, so far as Mexico has been concerned, is admittedly an absolute failure. The republic has drifted from bad to worse. The people are outraged, starving, without hope of the future. The one advantage in the administration's Mexican policy is that it stamped the United States as flatly averse to territorial aggression, as determined to maintain peace. That reputation has been beneficial to the country since the European war broke out, much as some people may doubt it. It has also cemented friendship with the Pan-American powers—and a united America need not worry so much about Europe.

The time has passed, however, when our pacific intentions toward Mexico can evoke any responsive movement among this faction-saddled people. Their bandit leaders know no law but might, no truth but that driven home by soldiery. Growing bolder and bolder, the marauding bands along the border are committing outrages against American citizens and American property on American soil.

The administration's recent moves indicate that intervention is not far away. First there comes the successful plan of securing joint action by the Pan-American powers, so that none of the suspicious republics of Central or South America can accuse the United States of trying to grab Mexico. Next there is the movement of troops and warships. A show of force will probably be made along the border and in the ports. If this show is not sufficient to unsaddle the generalissimos and guarantee the workings of the Pan-American peace plan decided upon by the conferees, it is reasonable to suppose that armed intervention will be the next step. Possibly President Wilson will ask for further joint action by the American powers, and we shall have the Pan-American Allies garrisoning Mexico City.

When war started a year ago today some people thought war had its uses. They know better now.—Chicago Daily News.

Nashville's unfortunate experience in commission government is, paradoxical as it may seem, a strong argument in favor of such government when rightly operated.

The New York World thus commented on the situation in the Tennessee city:

The commission form of government for cities, hailed everywhere not long ago as certain to bring relief from municipal extravagance and corruption, has broken down in Nashville, Tenn., which is now, by action of the state chancery, in the hands of a receiver. Under the old charter system no such action could have been taken.

Even in states where the commission has been adopted, relief from wrong-doing is to be had in most cases, only by means of the recall. Tennessee has an ouster act under which a single judge is authorized to remove a city government and establish a new one in its place. Nashville has developed more than its share of delinquents in municipal service, but it remains to be proved whether judicial correction is any more certain in its results than the old-fashioned house-cleaning that was ordained at the polls.

What the World says is true. Further, the election of careful, prudent and competent officials would have kept Nashville from its humiliating plight. Under commission government sins of administrative omission or commission come home more unerringly, more sharply, perhaps more disastrously, than under the older forms. Power is concentrated in the hands of a few men and they must be good men.

American cities are coming to find out that their officials have to put into the public business the same qualities of zeal and persistence that they would put into private business, or the public business will fail as does the private. The days of "muddling along" are passing.

Henry James, the author, has repudiated his American citizenship to become a Briton, because, he says, he is dissatisfied with America's course in this war. Yet no one has noticed James himself starting to the front, not even as a hospital attendant or chauffeur.

Rocking the boat helped cause the Eastland disaster but somebody was to blame before that for operating a boat that could be rocked so easily.

"First Chief" Carranza now proposes to hold the United States to "strict accountability." Evidently he believes the phrase is meaningless.

A man from Hawaii has confessed to a murder 45 years ago. He should have learned that after a month or two in Hawaii crimes are outlawed.

Though we Americans may be too proud to fight, we are not too proud to stand pat in the cause of humanity.—Chicago Daily News.

John Wanamaker's plan to buy Belgium for $100,000,000,000 is still among the idle summer fancies.

Perhaps Villa thinks that conference plan would be simply out of the Pan-American into the fire.

Gen. Scott might be despatched to placate the German submarines.

America is still waiting for an answer to that last straightforward note to Germany.

Carranza is becoming comic.

DR. WELCH WILL GO ON TO ORIENT WITH NOTED MEN

Dr. Simon Flexner and Dr. Wallace Buttrick Will Be on Tenyo, Bound for China

Dr. William H. Welch, professor of pathology at Johns Hopkins University, who has been spending his time in Honolulu since his arrival on July 23, will leave on the Tenyo Maru, which gets in tomorrow morning bound for the Orient.

Dr. Welch, who goes on behalf of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, to make a study of the conditions necessary to build up medical work in China, will join Dr. Simon Flexner and Dr. Wallace Buttrick, who are now on board the Tenyo Maru, and who are the other members of the party for the investigation of the Chinese needs.

Dr. Flexner is director of the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research and is a physician of world repute, and an author of note in medical subjects. He has held in turn the positions of associate professor and professor of pathological anatomy at Johns Hopkins, professor of pathology at the University of Pennsylvania, and pathologist at the University hospital in Philadelphia at various times. He was appointed to the Rockefeller Institute in 1903, and has been connected with the work ever since.

He has written papers on snake venom, bubonic plague, dysentery, infantile paralysis and on general bacteriological and pathological subjects.

Dr. Buttrick goes to the work in China after having served as pastor in several large Baptist churches of the East. He was pastor of the First Baptist church of New Haven, of the First Church of St. Paul, and of the Emmanuel Church in Albany. Since 1902 he has been employed as executive secretary of the general educational board and is also a director of that board and of the Southern Educational board.

CLUB WILL HAVE FLAGS OF EVERY PACIFIC NATION

To Be Presented at September Luncheon By Women in Distinctive National Costumes

Pacific Flag Day will be the big event in the Pan-Pacific Club in the month of September. A Tuesday luncheon will be set aside at which each nation of the Pacific will present a five-by-seven-foot flag to the club, and these flags will be hung about the great hall with proper ceremonies.

This occasion will also be made a ladies' day, as it is expected that the flags will be made by the ladies, and they will be requested to come to the lunch in their national costumes. Each flag will be brought into the great hall by the women of the country represented, and the presentation will be made in a two or three minute speech by the chairman of each country's committee.

The arrangements have been made for the making of several of the flags, and it is probable that the Hawaiian flag will be made of silk and presented with charming ceremonies. Committees are being appointed to secure the flags of Canada, Washington, Oregon, California, the South American states, New Zealand, Australia, the Philippines, China, Japan, Korea and Siberia. The flags will be used for decorative purposes, and it is expected that they will be taken by the delegates to the civic convention on Kauai.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—H. GOODING FIELD: I'm making the rounds of the capitol building today in the interest of the community.

—E. J. BOTTS: When my foot gets better and I can move without the aid of an Oriental slipper and a cane, I'll feel much better, you bet.

—MARSHAL J. J. SMIDDY: Australia certainly has no aloha for the United States. That is one of the reasons why I am glad to get back to Honolulu.

—HENRY W. KINNEY: Plans for the coming school year are proceeding in excellent shape. I expect to get away for a brief vacation within a short time.

—WADE WARREN THAYER (secretary of the territory): The first man I ever met who was so in love with his job that he refused to take a vacation is my chief clerk, Eben Cushingham.

—I. M. STAINBACK (attorney-general): Politics and worry are two things that I left at home when I went to the mainland for my vacation, and to show my disdain for both while there I shaved off my mustache.

—U. S. MARSHAL J. J. SMIDDY: I've been on shipboard so long that my desk keeps rolling to starboard and port this morning. I was on the Ventura altogether 30 days and am certainly glad to put my feet on Honolulu pavements again.

—FRED C. SMITH of the Oahu Railway Company: Speaking of the pineapple season, the busy part of it concerns us about as much as it does the canneries. The last few weeks have been as busy or busier than any in years.

—WALTER HANDEL THORLEY: Put me down as a member of the Come-Back Club. I have traveled around the world, but nowhere have I found the brand of hospitality such as is prevalent in Hawaii. It is with much regret that I leave the islands and their people.

—A. C. WHEELER: I think the use of road passes on which motorists sign and agree to take full responsibility for accidents is a good action on the part of the department of public works. It will prevent judgments being entered against the territory in the event of accidents on Round Top road.

—BREWER & COMPANY, Oceanic S. S. Company agents: Every berth on the Ventura is taken today for the San Francisco run, and on her return here from that city she will have every stateroom filled. There is a waiting list of 75 persons in San Francisco now, wanting to get Honolulu accommodations. They are mostly school teachers trying to get back here for the fall term.

Experience is a great teacher, but even experience can't teach some people.

URGE NAMING OF LOAN FUND MEN AT EARLY DATE

To make possible the expenditure by the city of $105,000 reappropriated by the last legislature for the Honolulu sewer and water works loan fund, Mayor Lane and Chairman Larsen of the city water and sewer works committee called upon the chief executive of the territory yesterday and urged immediate appointments by the latter to the Oahu loan fund commission, appointments which the executive has long delayed making.

It was pointed out that if the territorial head does not make these appointments soon and thus allow the city to draw on the loan fund commission for a part of the $105,000, the unsanitary condition surrounding Nuanu stream, where part of the sewerage is now emptying, will continue. In addition to that there may be a large deficit in the water supply.

The Queen street improvement is necessary if the sewer works plans, according to a letter written by Superintendent Harry Murray of the water and sewer works department, in order to keep the sewers from backing up and overflowing at the manholes.

ONLY ONE PERSON IS INJURED WHEN OAHU LINE TRAINS BUMP

A passenger and freight railroad collision, which resulted in the breaking of a Japanese woman's arm and the tying up of traffic for half an hour, occurred yesterday afternoon on the Wahiawa branch road, near the Wai'ahu pump.

Several people were jarred up slightly in the crash and one Sergt. Kapoon received some scratches. Fred C. Smith, general passenger agent, says that none of the engines were badly damaged, one of the freight engines being sent out this morning on the regular run.

Mr. Smith thinks that the accident occurred through the fact that the train's stalling on the grade was unlooked for and that the flagman was not able to get far enough up the hill to flag the passenger train in time for it to come to a stop before hitting the freight engine.

"AFTERNOON IN HAWAII" PLANNED FOR GAS MEN

Harry L. Strange, manager of the Honolulu Gas Company, who has been trying for several years to have the annual international convention of gas men meet in Honolulu, has just received a communication from R. J. Thompson, president of the Welsbach company, saying that "an afternoon in Hawaii" will be held by the gas convention delegates during the congress this year in San Francisco.

This will be on October 1, and Mr. Strange is accordingly making plans for a unique display of Hawaiian decorations and attractions. He will provide several hundred leis for the delegates.

DRY ROT RUINS BOWLING ALLEYS AT 'Y' BUILDING

Dry rot in the bowling alleys of the Y. M. C. A., resulting from a lack of ventilation underneath the three alleys, has made it necessary to ship maple lumber 4000 miles, from the eastern states to Honolulu, to replace them.

General Secretary Paul Super announced today that the contract for replacing the maple flooring of the alleys, and raising them six inches off the basement floor, to allow plenty of ventilation underneath, has been awarded to J. C. Chamberlin.

The lumber is expected to arrive August 17 on the Matsonia. The work will cost altogether approximately $1000. The alleys were installed when the new building was built, and have been in active use for four years.

TEXAS VISITORS SO CHARMED ARE TO BUILD HERE

Judge R. H. Looney of Colorado City, Texas, his wife and daughter, Miss Marguerite, sail on the Ventura, this afternoon for the mainland, after spending about four weeks here. They have enjoyed their trip and are very enthusiastic over Honolulu.

They have made up their minds to invest here and to build a winter home in the city.

MRS. H. L. WHITE PASSES AWAY AT PARENTS' HOME

Mrs. H. L. White, daughter of Capt. J. Goncalves, died this morning at 10 o'clock at the home of her father and mother, Lisben street. She was 33 years of age, born in Honolulu, and married 11 years ago. She was separated from her husband. She leaves two children, a girl 10 years old and a boy 9. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from Silva's undertaking establishment. Interment will be at Nuuanu cemetery. The cause of death was dropsy.

PERSONAL RISK PASSES ISSUED FOR ROUND TOP

Motorists desiring to use Round Top road must do so at their own risk, and will be required to sign an agreement to that effect before permission will be granted to use the road. The department of public works, through Assistant Superintendent A. C. Wheeler, is having printed passes prepared, and these will be ready for motorists in a few days.

The passes bear a written inscription at the bottom of which the motorist signs his name. In doing so he agrees to take full responsibility for accidents to his machine, himself or passengers in his car while making the trip on the day for which the pass is dated. While the road will not be in any sense a "toll" road, yet an agent for the department will be on guard at the entrance of the road and he will collect these passes. Then the passes are filed at the department of public works and in the event of an accident the territory has the passes on which the owner of the machine signed to take full responsibility.

SUGAR BUSINESS EVERY CABIN ON AT HANA IS BOOMING VENTURA IS FILLED

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
HANA, Aug. 11.—A thousand tons of sugar and then more to go is the story of the sugar business of the Kaeleku Company at Hana.

This afternoon Captain Hersey of the Honolulu called out of the harbor here at Hana with nearly if not almost a thousand tons of sugar on board. John Chalmers, manager of the plantation, told the Star-Bulletin reporter that this was one of the largest single shipments of sugar that the Honolulu had ever taken out of the harbor for the plantation. Another schooner is expected daily that will have a shipment nearly if not quite as large as the one that sailed away today. This has been to all appearances a good year with the plantation and Mr. Chalmers feels justly pleased with things. The prosperity of the plantation means the prosperity of the whole region for everyone has a direct or indirect connection with the life of the company and its business here.

SHIP OF MYSTERY, THE MAVERICK, SEIZED

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)
TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 12.—The mystery ship Maverick, from Hilo, Hawaii, which was detained by a Dutch warship in the waters of Java, searched and released, was seized again yesterday by another Dutch warship, and held for further investigation. Between seizures the Maverick took on supplies at Batavia, Java.

HILO MARKSMEN WILL CAMP AT SHAFTER RANGE

Try-outs for Team That Will Go to Florida Set for Next Month

Five crack shots of Company M, 1st Infantry, N. G. H., stationed at Hilo, will come to Honolulu August 31 to try out for places on the National Guard rifle team that is to take part in the national match at Jacksonville, Fla. They will be given plenty of opportunity for practice on the Fort Shafter range before being called on to shoot through the national course twice, their final averages to figure for places on the team.

The following order issued from regimental headquarters yesterday covers developments in the shooting competition:

Headquarters 1st Infantry, N. G. H., Honolulu, August 11, 1915.

Special Orders No. 45.

1. The following officers and enlisted men of the 1st Infantry, N. G. H., stationed at Honolulu, who made the 15 highest average scores at Fort Shafter Range, August 1st and 8th, 1915, in competition for place on the National Guard of Hawaii rifle team will continue practice at the Fort Shafter range on Sundays until further notice:

Capt. Chas. Cester, 1st Lieut. P. M. Smooth, 2nd Lieut. F. Stevenson, Sgt. A. K. Lucas, Sgt. T. J. K. Evans, Sgt. S. Pinao, Sgt. L. Feary, Cpl. J. C. Searle, Jr., Capt. H. Van Geisen, 2nd Lieut. J. L. K. Cushingam, 2nd Lieut. G. W. Baker, Sgt. W. E. Miles, Sgt. John Stone, Sgt. J. Ho Yap, Pvt. J. Kekahuna.

2. The following officers and enlisted men of M Company, 1st Infantry, N. G. H., stationed at Honolulu, arriving August 31, 1915:

Capt. J. D. Easton, Sgt. J. L. Desha, Sgt. G. Ahin, 2nd Lieut. J. Caceres, Cpl. John Todd.

3. Members of M Company will camp at Fort Shafter range for a period of five days, commencing September 1st, 1915. On Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 4th and 5th, 1915, they will fire competitive scores, identical with those fired on August 1st and 8th, 1915, by competitors stationed at Honolulu. Rifles now issued will be used until after competitive trials.

4. Pay for members of M Company not to exceed 10 days will be received for service ordered under the provisions of sections 222, 223 and 224 of the Revised Laws of Hawaii.

5. The final selection of the rifle team will be published as soon after September 5th as practicable.

By order of Lt. Col. W. R. Riley.
 GEORGE R. SCHRADER,
 Capt. and Adj. 1st Inf. N. G. H.

HEINIE PLANS ENJOYABLE TIME FOR TONIGHT

In honor of the arriving transport Thomas, Heinie has arranged an especially entertaining evening for the patrons of his popular beach resort this evening.

During the dinner hour a Hawaiian orchestra will render a fine program. There will also be a violin soloist to contribute beautiful and varied selection between the pieces played by the orchestra.

These dinner dances are becoming more and more popular with each succeeding evening. Edith Mellor, who has won so much favor with Honoluluans, continues to charm the diners of the Tavern. She is at her best and doubtless will contribute largely to the pleasure of this evening's entertainment.

The dancing will begin as the diners finish the delightful dinner, especially prepared for the occasion.—(adv.)

CALL MASS MEETING TO AWAKEN HAWAIIANS TO THEIR INTERESTS

To awaken the Hawaiians to their own interests, the Hawaiian Protective Association has called for a special mass meeting to be held in Kawaiahaeo church on Friday evening, August 20, and not on Wednesday, August 18, as announced this morning. The Hawaiian Protective Association was formed a year ago at a similar mass meeting of Hawaiians held in Aala park, and 74 persons were admitted as charter members.

Delegate Kublo, president; Mayor Lane, vice-president; Rev. A. Akana, secretary, and Rev. Poepoe, one of the trustees, will tell the Hawaiians of what the organization is striving to accomplish. Samuel C. Dwight is treasurer and J. H. Wise, W. G. Achi and E. A. C. Long are the other trustees.

"The Hawaiian Protective Association is striving to uplift our people," said Mayor Lane today, "and this includes everything that will tend to make better men and women of our people. Spiritual uplift is one of the things we are trying to accomplish. I sincerely hope the Hawaiians will attend in large numbers August 20."

STUNT PROGRAM BY AD CLUB ON SEPTEMBER 27

One of the features of the forthcoming civic convention to be held at Lelehue September 26 and 27, will be a program of stunts put on by the Ad Club of Honolulu the evening of the 27th, according to the Garden Island. A meeting of the general committee, together with the regular committees' chairman, was held Saturday afternoon to discuss details. Among those present were J. M. Lydgate, chairman of the literary committee; Charles H. Wilcox, chairman of the committee on lodging and local transportation; J. H. Coney, chairman of the entertainments committee, and J. K. Farley of the literary program committee.

The date of the Ad Club's program depends on whether that day is agreeable to the organization.

TEN DEATHS IN JULY LAID TO VIOLENCE OR TO FATAL ACCIDENTS

Ten persons died in Honolulu last month as a result of accidents or violence, according to the July report of Miss M. H. Lemon, registrar-general of vital statistics of the board of health, which was issued today. Of this number three died from injuries received in falls and one from being struck by a vehicle. One committed suicide.

The report shows that there was a total of 90 deaths in July. Of this number 53 were males and 37 females. Two of these persons were more than 80 years old, three were between 70 and 80 years old and 20 were less than 1 year old. Ten deaths were due to tuberculosis.

WHERE IS KIT? DR. W. T. DUNN IS TURNED LOOSE ON $500 BOND

Dr. W. T. Dunn, who was brought back today on the Ventura from Pago Pago by U. S. Marshal J. J. Smiddy, was given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner George Curry today, and his bond fixed at $500, which the physician furnished.

The doctor is charged with a statutory offense. He left this city on the Sonoma, but was arrested at Pago Pago when the steamer arrived there. Marshal Smiddy brought him back to this city for trial. The returning of the defendant to Honolulu will cost the federal government more than $500.

MEXICO WOULD GRAB BORDER STRIP

AUDACIOUS PLOT TO INVADE U. S. UNCOVERED BY GEN. FUNSTON; RAIDERS ALREADY ACROSS LINE

Widespread Mexican Conspiracy for General Uprising Laid Bare

PLANNED INDISCRIMINATE SLAUGHTER OF ALL MALES Carranza Alleged to Be Back of Hairbrained Scheme of Aggression

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—General Funston, in command of the American forces on the Mexican border, reports to the war department the discovery of a widespread plot, apparently winked at by General Carranza, the Constitutional First Chief, to invade the United States and carve a new Mexican state out of American territory by slaughter and conquest.

3000 Members in Secret Society. The plot was hatched at San Diego, according to the information of General Funston, and has been extended until it now includes 3000 pledged members of a secret revolutionary organization. They plan, by recruiting the support and secret aid of Mexicans and natives in the southern border states, to conquer and annex to Mexico a state including 21,514 square miles of territory. Chinese and Japanese, also supposed to be hostile to the American government, are being invited to join the revolution.

All the territory in the proposed state formerly belonged to Mexico, but was ceded to the United States at the close of the Mexican war. It comprises portions of Southern California, including the city of San Diego, and a vaguely defined strip extending the entire length of the border, across the states of New Mexico, Arizona and along the Rio Grande to the Gulf, taking in the cities of Yuma, Naco and Nogales, Arizona; Las Cruces and El Paso, New Mexico; El Paso, Laredo, Eagle Pass and Brownsville, Texas; and a host of other border points, all of which still contain large Mexican colonies.

General Slaughter Planned. The first step in the plot was to be a series of simultaneous raids across the border, timed to coincide with native uprisings, in which every American male more than 16 years old should be slaughtered.

Many circumstances indicate that subordinate officials of the Carranza government, by lax discipline and tacit connivance, made themselves responsible for the growth and spread of the conspiracy, of which they had knowledge.

In the pockets of Mexican raiders taken prisoners were found telegrams urging them to incite a revolution of their countrymen living under the American flag.

Texas Governor Wants More Troops. Governor Ferguson of Texas telegraphed to President Wilson, requesting that the number of troops on the Rio Grande be doubled. He declared that conditions are perilous.

Practically every citizen of Cameron, Hidalgo and Starr counties, Texas, is going armed, in fear that a racial fight between Americans and Mexicans resident in those counties may break out at any moment.

Protests Against Interference. Carranza gave to the press last night at Vera Cruz a protest from Camilo Aguilar, governor of the state of Vera Cruz, in which that official deprecated Pan-American interference in Mexican affairs.

Similar protests, Carranza said, had been received from many other states of the republic.

The American Society at Mexico City appealed to Secretary Lansing yesterday to send a diplomatic representative to take the place of the Brazilian minister expelled by Carranza.

IN WAR ARENA

VON DER GOLTZ RECALLED FROM TURKISH COMMAND.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The operations on land and sea in the Dardanelles fighting are growing in importance and the recent successes of the Allies have resulted in the recall of Field Marshal von der Goltz and the sending of Grand Duke Adolf Friedrich of Mecklenburg-Strelitz as commander in chief of the Turkish troops operating against the French and British.

The bombardment of the Turkish Asiatic batteries yesterday by the French battleship St. Louis put five of the six shore guns out of commission. The St. Louis made excellent target practice with her four 12-inch guns.

British Submarine. The Turkish battleship Sultan Selim, formerly the German battle cruiser Goeben, has been torpedoed by a British submarine operating in the Bosphorus. The warship was hard hit, but managed to make the nearby shore, where she was beached to prevent her from sinking.

The crew is at work attempting to effect temporary repairs in order to save the vessel and take her to Constantinople.

GERMANS BLOW UP CRUISER TO AVOID CAPTURE.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 12.—The brush in the North Sea reported yesterday resulted in the sinking of the British patrol boat Ramsey and the blowing up of the German auxiliary cruiser Meteor. Five officers of the Ramsey were lost in the sinking of their ship, while the crew of the Meteor were all taken prisoners.

The Meteor pursued and sank the British patrol boat, the pursuit bringing the German auxiliary within sight of some British destroyers, which in turn pursued the German. The commander of the Meteor, finding that he could not escape, ordered his men into small boats and blew up his ship. The destroyers took the crew aboard as prisoners.

In the destruction of the British destroyer Lynx off the Norwegian coast by a mine on Tuesday, two of the officers were killed.

AUSTRIANS LOSE U-12 IN SUBMARINE DUEL.

ROME, Italy, Aug. 12.—The Austrian submarine U-12, in a battle with an Italian submarine, in the Adriatic on Monday, was torpedoed and sunk, with all her crew.

The U-12 was one of the newest of the Austrian submarines, having been finished only this year. She had a surface displacement of 1000 tons and was armed with five torpedo tubes. Her surface speed was 18 knots, with a submerged speed of 10 knots.

BERLIN SAYS ZEPPELINS BOMBARD WARSHIPS.

BERLIN, Germany, Aug. 12.—It is officially announced that Zeppelin dirigibles dropped bombs last Monday on British warships in the Thames docks at London, on torpedo boats at Harwich, and on military structures at Harwich.

BARON HAYASHI LIKELY TO TAKE FOREIGN OFFICE

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] TOKIO, Japan, Aug. 12.—It is understood that Viscount Hayashi, ambassador to Italy, will likely accept the invitation of Premier Count Okuma to enter his new cabinet as foreign minister, a position which Okuma is now filling temporarily himself. The portfolio of foreign affairs has been declined successively by Baron Ishii, ambassador to France; Viscount Inouye, ambassador to the court of St. James; Viscount China, ambassador to the United States; and Baron Motono, ambassador to Russia.

MONUMENT FOR JUDGE HARDY IS KAUAI IDEA

At the Waimea end of Kauai island a movement has been started to provide, by popular subscription, an appropriate monument for the grave of Judge Jacob Hardy, who died recently, says the Garden Island. Judge C. B. Holgaard of Waimea is one of those most actively interested in the project, which will be further discussed at a banquet session of the Chamber of Commerce of Kauai Thursday night, August 19.

JAPANESE MINISTER LEAVING MEXICO NOW

[Special Cable to the Nippon Jiji.] SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 11.—The railroad between Mexico City and Vera Cruz, which was destroyed by revolutionists some time ago, has been temporarily repaired. Minister Adachi, who received a summons to return to Japan several weeks ago, is making arrangements to leave at once. Mr. Adachi will go by way of Vera Cruz and San Francisco.

CLAIM BIG JAPANESE BOY BEAT UP SMALL CHINESE

On a warrant sworn to by Probation Officer John C. Anderson, the police yesterday arrested a Japanese, 20 years old, the charge being that he severely "beat up" a Chinese boy about 13 years old. According to Anderson the Japanese declares the Chinese boy stole a tricycle. Among other things, the Chinese boy suffered two black eyes.

Fourteen persons were killed and 15 injured when soldiers fired into an armed mob at Lamego, Portland.

IMPORTERS URGE ACTION AGAINST BRITISH ORDER

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Three hundred importers have joined in a petition to President Wilson to take some definite action to relieve American trade upon the limitations placed upon it by the British orders-in-council declaring a blockade of all German imports and exports. Last night it was announced that, following negotiations between the trade advisers of the state department and the representatives of the British government, the British have agreed to allow the exportation from Germany to the United States of 50,000 bags of sugar beet seed, to make up the American demand.

REDFIELD ORDERS SHIP INSPECTION RULES REVISED

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless] WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 12.—As a result of the Eastland disaster, in which more than 1300 persons were drowned by the overturning of an excursion steamer, Secretary Redfield ordered a revision today of the rules governing steamboat inspection. It is probable that the new rules will include inclining tests, to determine a vessel's stability.

Mae Bennett Wins Prize As One Of Few Perfect Women

Miss Mae Bennett at a surfing party at Waikiki.

Miss Mae Bennett, who will be remembered by Honolulu as the young woman who was awarded a trip to Hawaii not long ago for winning a beauty contest in San Francisco, has won new laurels for herself in that she has been given the third prize in a national physical perfection and beauty contest. This is according to a San Francisco newspaper, which tells the story as follows: "While other girls munched sweets, she ate fruits and avoided candies. While they lounged, she devoted herself to athletics. Today Mae Josephine Bennett of this city is holder of the recently awarded third prize in a national physical perfection and beauty contest. "Miss Bennett was a clerk in a Market street store here when her striking brunette charm first began attracting attention. She then won a local beauty contest over hundreds of entrants. "Having always been interested in athletics, Miss Bennett devoted herself to swimming while in Hawaii. Since then she has made water sports her pastime. To this she has added half an hour of calisthenics morning and night, and has very carefully ob-

HIGH PRAISE FOR JAPANESE FROM C. A. COTTRILL

In Interview at Cleveland He Says Sons of Nippon Make First Class Citizens

"Havilians are not in the least alarmed at the large number of Japanese in their country," said Charles A. Cottrill, for four years collector of internal revenue at Honolulu, in a recent interview with the Cleveland (Ohio) Plain Dealer.

"The reason for this is due to the fact that the Japanese make first-class citizens. They are intelligent, keen, active and efficient. They run banks, control business interests and are eminent in professions.

"When it is a question of patriotism," Mr. Cottrill said, "the Oriental, Japanese or Chinese, is active. He takes part in every American patriotic celebration." Mr. Cottrill recalled that when he was on a committee for raising funds for sufferers in the Dayton (Ohio) flood more than 40 per cent of the money was contributed by Japanese. "Rivalry on that island is purely in business, he added.

"The Chinese businessman is honest and his word in business is as good as a written bond," declared Mr. Cottrill. "Chinese are, as a race, not so keen as the Japanese, but honest. In fact the Chinese are known in Honolulu as ultra-honest."

Mr. Cottrill claimed Hawaii is a great example of what harmonious associating of races may be. Many nationalities live in harmony, cordiality and equality.

"Since my experience in Hawaii, I am more convinced than ever that before long the so-called race problem of continental United States will become a thing of the past. The splendid example of these islands in the matter of international and interracial relationship cannot fail to exert an influence for good in the settlement of this most important question," Mr. Cottrill said.

BURDEN OF SOLDIERS' FAMILIES INCREASES

BERLIN, Germany.—More than twice as many soldiers' families in Berlin are receiving public support today than last August, the number being 141,660, against 62,980 in August. The sum paid out, however, had almost quadrupled. It was $1,252,000 in June, compared with $330,000 in the first month of the war. In addition to this, $275,000 was paid out for rent allowances, a sum nearly double that paid in March, and almost 50 per cent more than the May allowances. A total of $9,940,000 has been paid out since the beginning of the war for the care of the families left behind.

served dietetic requirements. "She is of French, Spanish and Irish lineage, and her figure has been pronounced practically perfect by a jury of medical experts and artists. Miss Bennett's Proportions:

- "Height—5 ft. 2 in. "Weight—123 lbs. "Bust—36 in. "Hips—37 in. "Waist—26 in. "Thigh, below hip—22 in. "Calf—13 in. "Ankle—7 in. "Arm span—62 in. "She was judged by the following standards:

- "Height and arm span coincide. "Neck and calf measure the same. "Waist 10 inches less than bust. "Hips slightly larger than bust. "According to the table of weight, that of Miss Bennett is correct for her height."

PREPARING TO CREATE A MODEL VILLAGE

SEWARD, Alaska.—Citizens of the new town of Anchorage, the Cooks Inlet headquarters of the Alaska Engineering commission, have begun preparations to create a model village, following the completion of the government's first sale of town lots. Out of 118 lots offered 635 were sold for a total of $147,235. There will be another sale next month.

Under the supervision of the United States land office, Anchorage is to be a model town in every respect. E. A. Moore, manager of the town for the government, is mayor. He has issued strict rules regarding building and sanitation. The engineering commission there is directing the construction of the government railroad between Seward and Fairbanks.

A large ordnance plant which will cost about $20,000,000 is being erected at Harrison, N. J., by the Crucible Steel Co.

Home Course in Advertising

FOR THE MERCHANT MAN FOR THE MANUFACTURER FOR THE AMBITIOUS YOUTH

PURPOSES OF THE COURSE:—(1) To increase returns for the retailer who now advertises. (2) To show the non-advertising retailer how he can lower his prices, yet increase his profits. (3) To suggest to the jobber and manufacturer a cautious method to create demand and increase good-will. (4) To prepare the person with latent advertising ability for a place in this new "profession."

This course, when delivered personally to a class of students, costs $15. It is equivalent to a correspondence course which costs $95. The entire 90 lessons will be given exclusively with this newspaper free of charge.

Home Course in Advertising

Conducted in this Paper by Alex. F. Osborn, Instructor in Advertising, Buffalo T.M.C.A. High School IN 90 CHAPTERS A CHAPTER A DAY.

CHAPTER LVII. ADVERTISING AND DEALER-DISTRIBUTION. The manufacturer who sells every dealer is tempted not to advertise. He is tempted to give the extra margin profit to the dealer and thus get the dealer to sell a lot of his goods—therefore, to buy more and more. This will keep the factory busy, even though what is sold at but little, if any, profit, for the manufacturer. Even then, it would be necessary for you continually to drive home to the dealer the fact that he will make more money if he sells your goods. Here enters the necessity for a lot of so-called dealer literature. This includes the house-organ; a publication goes to the dealer periodically, and tells the dealer why he should tell his clerks to sell your soap whenever they can; why he should put your soap out on the counter and in the window, why, in general, he should stimulate the sale of your soap as much as possible. Of course, your appeal would be on the basis that this cooperation would mean money in the dealer's pocket, for the reason that he would make so much more on your soap than if he sold some other kind on which he did not enjoy so long a margin of profit.

There are lots of different ways by which this method of general dealer-distribution may be stimulated through advertising. There is the general campaign carried, for instance, with Fairy Soap. By this you would seek to keep your soap ever before the public so as to create a demand which would make the dealer sell your product whether he makes 1c per sale or whether he makes 1 1/2c per unit. Such a campaign, as a rule, will require tremendous resources, because if you spend $150,000 the first year to create a popular demand for your soap, you may not clean up enough profit to pay for that advertising. The advertising will be paid for by that cumulative repetitive demand—the snow-ball-like building-up of a business that comes from the fact that the first trial so satisfies the users that they buy more.

Most manufacturers have neither money enough nor faith enough in their product to try to establish a demand in that way. Therefore, they depend on that more cautious, more simple, and often more perilous system by which they sell to the dealer at little or no profit and depend upon the dealer's covetousness to make him create your demand for you by getting behind your goods on account of the extra retail profit they offer.

For such goods as can be shown in catalogues, such as furniture, etc., such printed matter takes a large part of the advertising appropriation when this method of consumer-less distribution is used. These are really but part of the sales effort, however, because they merely aid the traveling men in getting stock into the dealers' stores. For some of these catalogues, the dealer has to pay $50. But, if the dealer sells enough goods from that catalogue without having to buy those goods from the manufacturer until after he gets his order from the consumer, then the catalogue is probably worth $50. In one case, when the dealer has bought $2000 worth of goods from the catalogue, the manufacturer refunds the $50. This but stimulates the dealer to try to sell goods from that catalogue.

There are two ways to get your goods forced out to the public if you use this general dealer system of distribution. One is to create consumer demand through general advertising. The other is to get the dealer to push your goods on account of the fact that he will make a little more money on your goods. The former method means a progressively large and secure volume of business. The latter involves many perils for producer, dealer and consumer.

CASTLE'S TENNIS TERRORS READY FOR THE MAUI INVASION

A. L. Castle has finally rounded up a bunch of regular tennis players for the invasion of Maui. Some of 'em haven't seen a racket for many moons, but everyone feels confident that he can do a come-back stunt and they are sure to swagger on to the Puuene courts with an air of confidence that may prove quite as effective as constant practise. Alan Lowrey's Oahu Slashers of last year established a reputation that Castle is trying hard to live up to this year.

- Following are the eight doubles teams that will represent Oahu in the games next Saturday:
1. A. L. Castle and W. H. Hoogs.
 2. W. F. Dillingham and H. K. L. Castle.
 3. J. O'Dowda and V. E. Macey.
 4. C. T. Littlejohn and A. Davis.
 5. W. L. Warren and N. Pfeuger.
 6. C. G. Bockus and E. Gibb.
 7. E. Podmore and G. Zabriskie.
 8. A. H. Rice and Dr. Peden.

HIT OR MISS IN THE WORLD OF GOOD SPORTS

That clinching should be altogether abolished from boxing is the contention of an English writer who advocates a change in the rules making it a foul to embrace an opponent. Rather a strange stand for a countryman of Freddie Welsh to take, considering that it was in England the leading exponent of the jab and grab style of boxing was handed the lightweight title.

That boxing would be a hundred fold more exciting if the clinch could be eliminated goes without saying. In that case practically every bout would be decisive, either ending in a knockout or a disqualification. However, the idea obviously is impracticable for many reasons.

Clinching is illegal under the present rules, but the foul penalty never is imposed, because to do so would make the sport a little too strenuous for safety. The most practical interpretation of the code as followed by the best referees is to penalize the man who forces the clinch one point. Under this system the boxer who jabs and grabs gets no credit for his work, as the point he scores for landing the blow is offset by the penalty for clinching. If this style of judging bouts were followed more closely men of Welsh's type would be forced to box cleanly in order to gain credit for a victory on points.

The really great boxers have been those who never clinched except as a last resort when too dazed and weakened to block accurately or to use footwork. Under these conditions the clinch is highly necessary, but as a general thing it should be discouraged as much as possible by imposing the penalty.

While it is doubtless impossible to dispense with the clinch, it would be highly interesting to try the experiment. Perhaps two boxers can be found willing to put the matter to the test in a trial bout. Such a contest certainly would prove a great drawing card.

HANDSOME CUP FOR WINNER OF ARMY BASEBALL SERIES

Above is a picture of the handsome silver cup for which the teams of the Schofield Barracks league are competing. It has just been turned out by Wichman & Company, and is one of the best looking trophies ever hung up for local competition.

The trophy is known as the Salvatore Cup, and is offered by the Honolulu Freewig & Malting Company.

That Capt. Middlebrook and Coach Quimby have not worked in harmony at all times and that Middlebrook is said to have advised with the assistant coach, Bernie Tommers, more often than he did with Quimby.

Judging from the recent remarks of President Hadley and Prof. Taft, it is not likely that Yale will revert to the system of professional coaching. It is likely that one of Yale's recent baseball captains may be appointed coach of Exeter. Morgan Bowman of Hill school and Fred Murphy are likely candidates for the place. The new athletic committee is now investigating the baseball situation, as it is believed that Yale should have made a better showing with the strong material on hand.

Judging by the number of responses received by Tom Andrews, the Milwaukee promoter and boxing authority, who has been making a tour of the leading boxing centers in order to enlist support for his scheme of a national organization of promoters to control the sport, something more than empty talk is likely to come of the movement.

MAYOR LANE WILL TRY TO FAN THE JAPANESE CONSUL

Plans for the Meiji series have been practically completed by officers of the international baseball league, who held a meeting last night, and decided on some important details concerning the games.

The Shinyo Maru, in which the players are travelling from the Orient, is reported a day ahead of schedule, so that the Japanese players will be here next Monday. As the first game is not carded until Saturday they will have plenty of time to get back their land legs and to get used to the diamond at Athletic Park.

The Meiji series is to be opened with all due ceremony. Saturday, Aug. 21, will be the first game with the Hawaiians, and Mayor Lane has been pressed into the service to pitch the first ball. At that time will be the Japanese consul, H. Arita, and the battle of brains and brawn between the pair should be worth the price of admission alone. The Sunday double header will be the occasion of a big baseball parade, in which five teams headed by the band will take part. The parade will start from the corner of Fort and King streets at 12:30.

GOLF IS A FINE GAME FOR NUTS

An alienist has figured out that golf will bring a cure about when other treatment fails; He'd take his patients to the links and there, the soothing game, he thinks, would heal them of their ailments.

It's true, one feels much better when when His drive goes far and then, again.

When putting nicely, BUT—How would a patient reason who Should chance to lose a ball or two Or miss a six-inch putt?

OLD MACHINES ARE BREAKING, SAYS 'MATTY'

Mack, McGraw and Stallings Among Those Who Must Rebuild Teams

By CHRISTY MATHEWSON.
The old machines are breaking up this year. Connie Mack has voluntarily disintegrated his Athletics. He himself says that if the Federal League had not come into the field and made many of his players money mad the club could probably have gone ahead winning pennants for a period of five years.

But the most startling break of all appears to be the crack in the Braves. That ball club was built around Johnny Evers, and he was the key to its success last season. There is no doubt of that in my mind. Even George Stallings admitted this fact when he said after he first heard Mr. Gaffney had obtained Evers for his club: "Now we'll win the championship."

John Evers is not right now, and I will be surprised if he is able to play regularly over any long stretch this season. Perhaps Johnny will never be fit to hit and retain his old pace. This fighting ball player has been the victim of much physical misfortune, as well as other breeds of ill luck. Without him in the lineup fairly regularly I don't believe the Braves can come through to the pennant.

The Giants began to fade last season. McGraw is making desperate efforts to stand off the ultimate break. The club has not the speed which carried it to three championships, for it was the base stealing and dash of the boys in those years that landed us out in front.

The surprise of the season to me is the Chicago Cubs. That team looked to be about as ripe to "blow" as any, but good pitching and steady hitting have kept it buzzing along ahead in a mediocre field. The present team wouldn't have been in the first division in the National league race of 1908.

Athletics Lack Harmony.
The next few seasons will find some great managers trying to build up new teams and keeping little of the remnant of the old machines. Connie Mack, until this season, has always looked ahead and prepared for the bending and breaking of a machine as it aged and rusted, but it was not age which stopped this Athletic club. It was lack of harmony. Mack was not looking for the crack so soon, but when it came he face it and tore his club apart, turning out some of the greatest ball players of all time. It will be interesting to see whether he can develop another great ball team along the lines he constructed his two sets of champions.

Heretofore Connie has always kept his youngsters on the bench for a season or two, schooling them along and letting them get used to the team and the big league and his ways. Collins, Barry, McInnis, Baker and most of the other members of his greatest club received the bench preparation. But this time he has been forced to throw men who are practically only recruits right into the game regularly. It means a new method for Mack. He is, however, a genius at making a ball club.

Must Rebuild the Braves.
It would not surprise me to see George Stallings rebuilding the Braves next year, and he is another great constructionist. As I have said, that ball club grew up around John J. Evers, and Evers is in no sort of physical shape. At his best he has always been frail, even when in Chicago, but misfortunes have increased his fragility. The pneumonia last winter left his health bad, and then he had a touch of his characteristic bad luck in the accident to his leg early this season. He does not sit patiently by while he recovers, so he will get back in the game for a few days, always too early, only to be hurt again.

On top of all this actual misfortune, Johnny has always played on his nerve, and this is a big physical strain. It means a man will wilt under it sooner or later. If the Boston club does fade after a championship flash of one year, fans will probably express surprise that a young team should go so fast. It is a young club in some ways, but the key to it was not young in baseball. Johnny Evers has been through many hard campaigns and they have told.

Evers Not in Old Condition.
"What do you think of Evers' condition?" I asked McGraw right after our latest series with the Braves at the polo grounds, in which Johnny worked in the last game.

"He's not right," declared Mac, "and I'm sorry for it. He is a grand ball player, but he is in bad shape. What he showed out there today was just a flash. You can't tell me those old fellows can come back in shape quickly after an injury. Evers is the kind who will keep trying to come back too soon until he is hurt so often he won't be able to go any further. I will be sorry to see that day."

McGraw to Build Up Team.
After his first championship team in New York began to fall to pieces in 1906 and 1907 McGraw said: "I am up against the spot in my distance that I have dreaded. When I took 1st Infantry 6, 25th Infantry 2.

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, Aug. 12.—

For the first time since their defeat by the 4th Cavalry two years ago, the regimental team of the 25th Infantry lowered their colors to a team from Schofield Barracks. Battling with the 1st Infantry yesterday afternoon to see which team would take the lead in the Schofield series, the 25th Infantry went down to defeat by a score of 6 to 2.

Crowds of fans from all parts of the post filled the stands long before the game was called, and with the preliminary practise before the game, commenced a clamor and uproar such as has never been heard at Schofield before, and which continued until the last man was out. The rooting was about equal on both sides until the eighth inning, when part of the 25th Infantry rooters giving up in despair began to vacate the benches.

After the game the 1st Infantry surged out on the field and, lifting their pitcher York high in the air, carried him to the 25th Infantry stands yelling and whooping with joy at the downhearted soldiers of the 25th.

York must share his honors with Judd, who made three wonderful catches in left field, which had gone as hits might have changed the result of the game; with Stratton, who scored three of the runs and who pulled out a hit every time he went to bat, one a three-sacker; and with Lieut. Sadtler, who played a star game in the field and who developed the team work and inside baseball that enabled the team to win this victory.

Scoring Begins in Second.
Buckland and Stratton started the second with singles to right field. Rowan and Sadtler fanned and it looked as if Willis had the situation under his thumb. York waited for four balls and the bases were full. Willis seemed unable to put one over the plate and passed Judd, forcing in a run, the first score to be made. Heaton followed with a single to right and scored two more. Willis then changed places with Rogan. The first ball Rogan pitched Maddes lifted into centerfield and it dropped into Wood's waiting hands, ending the inning.

This was the only ball that Rogan pitched. Waterhouse was sent to the box in the next inning. Rogan went hold of this club I was able to go out and buy players. Now it can't be done. I will have to find them and develop them myself. I have never done it before, and I don't know whether I have it in me. I can run a ball team after it is made, but judging a youngster and developing him is another proposition.

The answer is that Mac turned out championship clubs in 1911, 1912 and 1913. Teams made up of men he had found and developed himself. Of course, none of these aggregations won the world's championship, but they grabbed the pennant of their league. McGraw made good. He faces practically the same situation today and he is planning to repeat. It will take him probably three or four years, but he will do it. I don't think I will live in the harness to see another outfit of champions under McGraw unless the club should hit a spurt and develop some of the real power of which it is capable and breeze through this season. The weakness of the competition makes this very possible, and it is the only thing which does. A good consistent winning streak could carry any team along to a pennant in this sloppy race. We all think we have a good chance yet, but we must start soon.

Cardinals Have Good Chance.
Next year I expect to see Stallings, McGraw and Mack building again. Connie has started already. Then will be a great chance for some outsider to slip in and win a championship. With a little luck Miller Huggins might do it with his St. Louis club during this reconstruction process.

Frank Chance was a great manager, but he was by no means a builder. He took hold of a strong ball club and by his virile, driving personality kept it together and driving along a season or two after it would have fallen down under a less powerful hand. The rapidity with which the Cubs started to crack when Chance began to fall in health under the strain makes this clear. I should say Frank Chance took ball out of the old champion Cubs there was in them.

back to third, Swinton replaced Cross behind the bat and Willis went to first in place of Hawkins. The 25th now had their old-time lineup, with their veteran Waterhouse on the mound, but even this formidable combination failed to stop the onslaught of the Castner doughboys.

The last four innings were almost devoid of hits. In the ninth frame the hopes of the 25th had a slight rise when Johnson got as far as third, but there were two outs and Waterhouse ended the game with a strike-out.

The fielding of both teams was superb. Three of the four double plays made by the 1st Infantry were of almost professional caliber. No game ever played at Schofield before has created so much interest and excitement.

JOCKEY FERREIRA TO DELAY TRIP TO COAST

Jockey D. Ferreira announces that it will be impossible for him to be at the opening of the San Francisco Exposition race meet on account of the short notice given him by the Manhattan Stables, which wished his services. He says that he has to take off 15 pounds and that Hawaii is a better place to take off weight than the colder climate of the coast. However, he will get to the meeting as soon as possible, and expects to have a busy season.

STOPPED TRAIN TO RESCUE WOMEN FROM DROWNING

EAST BERSHIRE, Vt.—Seeing Mrs. B. N. Caswell and her daughter Aleta of Gardner, Mass., struggling in the Missisquoi river, an engineer on a Canadian Pacific freight train stopped his engine and with the aid of the train crew brought the women ashore. Mrs. Caswell and her daughter were driving along the river when the bank gave way and the horse and carriage with its occupants went into the river. Mrs. Caswell suffered severely from the shock, but is expected to recover. The horse, a valuable racer, was drowned.

An unidentified man cut his throat in the Hoboken district courtroom. He is expected to die.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

BLANCHE SWEET IN CIVIL WAR PLAY

"The Warrens of Virginia," featuring that charming actress, Blanche Sweet, will be the feature offering at the Liberty theater for the last half of the week, commencing with the performance of this evening. A Lasky-Belasco production, written by William C. DeMill and produced under the direction of his brother, Cecil B. DeMille, "The Warrens of Virginia" is in the forefront of Paramount picture offerings. It tells a charming story, one that is vivid with action and interest, and one that deals with a topic that will never grow old for either the author or the playwright—the Civil War.

WEBB IS HERE IN TALKING MOVIES

George Webb, leading artist with the George Webb All-Star Players, who figured in two successful engagements in this city a little more than a year ago, returns to the Bijou theater tonight, minus the balance of the members of the company, and in a role that is entirely different from anything Webb has previously done in this city.

INNOCENT GIRL JUDGED GUILTY

Full of gripping situations the five-reel feature entitled "The Little Girl That He Forgot," running this week at the Popular theater, is proving to be a splendid drawing card. The picture is a release of the Cosmos company, and with Miss Beulah Poynter as the star is a drama of the lumber camp. Miss Poynter's acting is winsome and captivating.

In order to fill an order for $18,000.00 worth of cartridges for one of the Allies the United States Cartridge Co. of Lowell, Mass., plans to double its plant capacity.

BY AUTHORITY.
NOTICE.

The Honolulu Civil Service Commission will hold a general competitive and classified examination at the McKinley High School, corner of Beretania and Victoria streets, Honolulu, on Thursday, August 26, 1915, at 7:30 p. m., for United States citizens desiring positions in the Honolulu Fire Department and the Police Department of the City and County of Honolulu, said examinations to be held under the rules and regulations of said Commission for the following positions:

General entry examination for the Fire Department.
Mounted patrolmen, foot patrolmen (including country officers and guards), traffic officers and sub-station officers for the Police Department.
Application and medical certificate blanks can be obtained at the office of the City and County Clerk, McIntyre building, corner of Fort and King streets, same must be filed with said City and County Clerk not later than 4 p. m., Tuesday, August 24, 1915.

All applicants must call at Baron's Gymnasium, King street, on Wednesday, August 25, 1915, at 5 p. m., for physical and muscular test.

By order of
HONOLULU CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION,
D. KALAUOKALANI, JR., Secretary.
6239-121

SEALED TENDERS.
Sealed tenders will be received up to 12 o'clock noon on Tuesday, October 5, 1915, at the office of the City and County Clerk, Room No. 8, McIntyre building, for furnishing the City and County of Honolulu with one Tantalum Water Wheel Unit, Governor, Indicating Instruments, Gate Valves and Pipe Fittings and one Generator, Switchboards and Instruments, one Direct Current Exciter and Rheostats.

Plans, specifications and form of proposal may be had upon application and a deposit of Five ($5.00) Dollars at the office of the City and County Clerk.

A certified check or a certificate of deposit on a bank doing business in the Territory of Hawaii, representing 10 per cent of the total amount bid submitted must accompany proposal.

The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any and all tenders.
D. KALAUOKALANI, JR., Clerk, City and County of Honolulu.
6233-Aug. 4, 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14.

REMOVAL NOTICE

Drs. A. C. and O. E. Wall announce that they have moved their offices to the fourth floor of the Boston building above May & Co. 6219-3m

Handled from an angle that cannot offend the most ardent supporter of the cause of the Sunny Southland nor the most rabid Northern sympathizer. "The Warrens of Virginia" cannot but appeal to both sides.

From the spectacular standpoint this is one of the banner offerings to be shown in the Liberty's long list. Blanche Sweet is one of the big stars of the Paramount productions, and is supported by an exceptionally high grade cast.

tion, the kineophone—talking movies—so that the former local favorite will undoubtedly bring out a number of his followers once more to hear his voice and see him in action.

Another prominent figure in the talking photo-drama of tonight's bill is Andrew Carnegie, the "Ironmaster" appearing in a short address which has for its title "The Wealthy Man."

Fort Shafter Notes

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)
FORT SHAFTER, AUG. 10.—The orders affecting officers transferring to other regiments in the states have again been changed and all officers ordered to leave Honolulu on the transport due here about the 4th of October will have to wait over another month and take the November transport. A telegram from department headquarters received this morning gives as a reason for the change the war department order stating that the commanding general, Philippine Division, has reserved all bookings on the transport leaving Manila September 15th for officers and troops leaving the division. There are a few remaining bachelors in Shafter looking for transportation to the Golden Gate and the altar, but will have to stow away unless someone falls overboard between Manila and Honolulu and leaves a vacancy.

Pursuant to General Orders, Hawaiian Department, a new general court martial has been appointed to meet at Fort Shafter at 10 o'clock on August 13th, or as soon thereafter as possible for the trial of such persons as may be brought before it. Detail for the court: Major William B. Dashiell, 2nd Infantry, president; Captains Robert McCleave, James E. Bell, Eleutheros H. Cooke and Clyde B. Parker, 2nd Infantry; 1st Lieutenants Vernon W. Bolter, Thomas L. Crystal, 2nd Infantry; 2nd Lieutenants Frank A. Sloan, Lindsay McD. Silvester, 2nd Infantry, and 1st Lieut. Paul A. Manchester, 2nd Infantry, judge-advocate.

The family of Lieut. L. O. Mathews, 2nd Infantry, has been released from the whooping cough quarantine which has held the youngsters in close confinement for over three months. Lieut. Mathews and family and Lieut. Wright and family have been held over since July on account of this malady and will probably get away on the September transport.

Private William Bergstrom and Ivon Friend, Company F, 2nd Infantry, recently convicted in the civil courts of larceny, have been discharged from the army by the department commander without honor.

Artificer John W. Gaines, Company K, 2nd Infantry, has been transferred to the hospital corps and will report to the commanding officer, department hospital, for duty.

Private Sam Davidson, Company C, 1st Infantry, is transferred to Company C, 2nd Infantry, and will report to his company commander at Fort Shafter for duty.

Private Fred J. Deeg, Company K, 2nd Infantry, will be sent to Fort McDowell, California, by the next transport and discharged for fraudulent enlistment.

Private Charles Byers, Company F, 2nd Infantry, is transferred to the hospital corps and will report to the commanding officer, department hospital, for duty.

Thornton Lyman of Hilo has been a visitor on the post for several days with his brothers, Lieutenants A. K. B. Lyman and Charley Lyman.

Private Ernest Holmgren, Battery C, 1st Field Artillery, Schofield Barracks, has been transferred to Company G, 2nd Infantry, at Fort Shafter.

First Lieut. Frank S. Besson, corps of engineers, has been attached to Company I, 3rd Battalion of Engineers, for target practice.

SEND THANKS FOR BIBLES.
(By Associated Press.)
PETROGRAD, Russia.—Count Rostetzoff, secretary to Her Imperial Majesty, the Empress, has written a letter to J. D. Kilburn, representing the American Sunday School Association, asking that the thanks of the young Tsarevitch be expressed to the children of America for their gift of testaments to Russian soldiers.

A report received at Copenhagen from Berlin declares that martial law will be declared in Germany to suppress the socialists who are demanding peace.
