

PACHECO OPPOSES CHANGE IN LAWS

Any attempted legislation to alter the present militia laws to permit aliens or non-citizens becoming members of the National Guard will be vigorously opposed by Senator-elect Manuel C. Pacheco. Pacheco says he unreservedly favors and approves of the stand taken by the Star-Bulletin in an editorial published Monday.

In view of the fact that Federal Judge H. W. Vaughan has held in a recent decision that Filipinos are not eligible for American citizenship, there has been some talk of an amendment in the next legislature of the local militia laws permitting persons not citizens to join the National Guard. A large number of Filipinos, not citizens, belong to the local militia.

"There are several ways in which the Filipinos might be permitted to remain in the guard in spite of the Vaughan decision," says Pacheco. "One would be a changing of the federal naturalization laws, and another would be a change of the local militia laws to permit aliens or non-citizens to join the guard. A third way would be the setting aside of the Vaughan decision by a higher court.

"No doubt the easier way would be to change the local militia laws," Pacheco continues. "This would permit the Filipinos now in the guard to continue as enlisted men. But I am vigorously opposed to any legislation permitting non-citizens, or those ineligible to American citizenship, to become members of the guard.

"It would not be a good policy. It would place discretionary powers in the hands of the governor and he would keep certain aliens from forming companies of the guard, as happened in the case of a number of Japanese young men who, I am informed, wished to organize a Japanese company some time ago. That project was abandoned and the men got discouraged and discontinued their efforts. I would never favor such legislation and that is decisive."

COMPANY A WILL HOLD SMOKEFEST

The annual smoker of Company A, National Guard, will be held in the dining room tomorrow evening. The company's instrumental club will furnish the music for the occasion. The resulting campaign will come to a close at this time. The sum of $1 will be given to any member of the company who brings in a new recruit.

It is expected that no less than 10 new men will be added to the company rolls tomorrow night. Capt. Henry O'Sullivan, who is in command of the company, announces that drill will begin promptly at 7:30 o'clock so that there will be ample time for the smoker. The committee in charge of the affair consists of Lieut. Harold Godfrey, Cpl. Albert Akana and Pvt. Samuel Kahaulewa.

ARMY OFFICERS INSPECT GUARD

Major Charles S. Lincoln today announced the list of officers who will make inspection of various organizations of the National Guard of Hawaii. The list is complete, with the exception of the Oahu regiment and the 4th Infantry, Kauai.

Col. Rudolph G. Ebert will inspect the medical organization; Maj. Otto B. Rosenbaum, 2nd and 3rd Infantry and 1st Separate Troop of Cavalry; Capt. Charles J. Taylor, engineers; Capt. C. A. Mack, Signal Corps; Capt. Louis D. Pepp, coast artillery. The inspection will be held from January 15, approximately, to the latter part of February.

POLICE NOTES

Y. Kodawa paid $25 for heedless driving.

Leo Cruz was given six months for larceny.

Five Chinese gamblers forfeited bonds of $10 each.

A. B. Vierra will be tried Thursday on a statutory charge.

Louis Hess, in a motorcycle accident on Kalanika'ua avenue Sunday, has been arraigned on charges of heedless driving and operating without a license. He will be heard Friday.

C. W. Shearer, charged with heedless driving, the result of which was a disastrous auto accident on Kalanika'ua avenue Saturday night, was arraigned in police court and hearing set for Thursday.

Three drunks who either fell off the New Year's waterwagon or were unable to get a seat on account of the crowd were shown considerable leniency in police court by Judge Munarrat, who gave them suspended sentences and told them to try again to start the new year right.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

E. LARIMER: The numbers given by Professor J. Wanell at the G. M. C. A. Monday evening were the finest heard in the city for some time. He has a record of 20 years on the operating stage in Europe and America and Honolulu is fortunate in securing such a noted musician. It is to be hoped that his studio will be the meeting place of the lovers of music in Honolulu.

Building Shows Gain For Year of Almost $900,000

That building operations in Honolulu during 1916 totaled in cost nearly $900,000 more than in 1915 and establishes a record far in excess of any previous year is the information obtained this morning from the building inspector's office. According to the compiled figures, building permits issued last year numbered 1471 with an estimated cost of $2,353,026.03, while in 1915 1283 permits were issued with an estimated cost of $1,468,307.36 or $884,718.47 more last year than in 1915.

August was the largest month with 146 permits and estimated cost $291,465.50. March was second with 144 and $244,396. November third with 93 and $22,101.12 and May fourth with 143 and $215,807.

Last year also set a new record for the number of new buildings erected, the total being 1291.

The estimated cost of buildings with fees is $2,335,425.03 and without $1,276,1. Fees collected during 1916 amounted to $5,134.90.

RARE COLLECTION OF AMERICANA COMES TO U. S.

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Valued at $350,000, the collection of Americana made by S. R. Christie-Miller of Britwell Court, Burnham, England, has been added to the library of Henry E. Huntington.

The Christie-Miller collection comprises 350 items and was brought to this country by George D. Smith, who sold it to Mr. Huntington.

Perhaps the most precious book in the collection is a volume of Massachusetts laws, printed at Cambridge in 1690. Only two copies are known and Mr. Huntington now has both of them. Its title is "The Book of the General Laws of the Province of Massachusetts, collected Out of the Records of the General Court for the Several Years wherein they were made and established."

Another volume, valued at $15,000, is "New Mexico; Otherwise, the Voyage of Anthony de Espejo," published about 1587, and rare, if not unique. It narrates the adventures of the Spanish explorer, who, "in the year 1583, with his company, discovered a land of 15 provinces, replenished with towns and villages, with houses of 4 or 5 store height. It lies northward, and some suppose that the same way men may by places inhabited go to the land termed Le Labrador."

Another extensively rare book is "For the Colony in Virginia Britannia, Laws Divine, Moral and Martial," printed in 1612. The only other known copy is in the British Museum. The book, written by William Strachey, appears to be the earliest compilation of the laws of Virginia. Mr. Huntington's volume is a presentation copy from the author to his friend, "sometimes a Personal Confederate and Adventurer," Thomas Lawson.

Other curious works are Jourdan's "Discovery of the Bermudas; Otherwise called the Isle of Devils," the first account of the Bermudas, published in 1610, the only other copy being in the British Museum; a perfect set of De Bry's Voyages in 103 volumes; "A Friendly Farewell to Sir Francis Drake," London, 1585, believed to be unique; Frobenius's Voyages, printed in London in 1578, a "true discourse of the late voyages of discovery for the finding of a passage in Cathaya by the Northwest," valued at $5000; Harlot's "Briefe and True Report of the New Found Land of Virginia," dated 1590, and Hubbard's "Narrative of the Troubles with the Indians in New England," Boston, 1677, first edition with a map of New England.

THAYER IS NOW NOTARY PUBLIC

Wade Warren Thayer was appointed notary public today by Attorney-General I. M. Stainback. Thayer has taken up work in his private office, though keeping tab on the office of secretary of the territory which he has resigned.

Territorial officials are still in the dark as to whom Governor Pinkham will recommend for the vacancy. Thayer's resignation was accepted effective on January 1 or until his successor has been appointed.

BEGIN COMPILATION NUMBER PUPILS BY THEIR NATIONALITY

Compilation of figures to show the number of school students by nationality has been begun by the department of public instruction, private schools on the Big Island being the first institutions taken up. Figures completed for three of the largest private schools are as follows:

Hilo Boarding School—Hawaiian, 13; part-Hawaiian, 28; American, 3; Japanese, 43; Chinese, 4; Porto Rican, 2; Korean, 2; Spanish, 1; Russian, 1; Filipino, 6; other foreigners, 2. Total, 105.

Kohala Girls' School—Hawaiian, 20; part-Hawaiian, 49; American, 1; Portuguese, 1; Japanese, 1; Chinese, 6. Total, 77.

Maunaloa Seminary—Hawaiian, 37; part-Hawaiian, 33; Portuguese, 2; Japanese, 6; Chinese, 11. Total, 89.

TENNEY SAYS CAPTAIN MATSON IS NOT WELL

Bringing back with him the news that Capt. William Matson is "not very well," E. D. Tenney, president and general manager of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., the local Matson Navigation Company agency, returned this morning on the Matsonia, accompanied by Mrs. Tenney.

"Capt. Matson is able to get around, come down to the office every day and attend to business, but he is not very well," said Tenney. "There is nothing new in Honolulu Oil or the Matson line. I went up to San Francisco simply because of my wife's illness. She is much improved now."

HANSEN TO HAWAII

A. W. Hansen, territorial food commissioner, will leave tomorrow morning for Hilo, where he goes in connection with his work as an official of the board of health. He will remain on Hawaii until the end of the present week.

HUNDREDS ENJOY HOSPITALITY OF Y. W. C. A. AT NEW YEAR RECEPTION

Hundreds gathered at the Y. W. C. A. last evening to attend the reception commemorating the first anniversary of its occupancy of the building at Hotel and Alakea streets. From 5 until after 8 o'clock the building was crowded with members and guests.

The program of the evening opened with candle lighting. The candles were placed around the walls, backed by pretty decorations of green and red. A number of vase containing poinsettias helped in the decorative scheme.

Mrs. Walter F. Frear, president of the association, with the officers and directors of the association, were in the receiving line. Those who assisted Mrs. Frear were: Mrs. F. B. Smith, Mrs. A. F. Jackson, Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mrs. R. D. Williams, Mrs. J. B. Guard, Mrs. R. G. Moore, Mrs. O. H. Walker, Mrs. C. R. Hemenway and Miss Alice Walker.

During the reception the Hawaiian Girls' Club rendered a number of songs and the The Mul Club and Girls' Guardian Society served refreshments. They were garbed in quaint Chinese costumes. Exhibits of work of the military classes were shown during the reception. Following the reception dinner was served in the cafeteria.

COL. BRETT WILL COME TO HAWAII

According to orders received at department headquarters today from Washington, Col. Lloyd M. Brett is relieved from duty with the Southern department and will arrive here on the transport this month for duty with the 4th Cavalry. Col. Brett has been on the list of detached officers.

Col. Brett is well known to army folk in Hawaii as he has been in the service since 1879, when he was graduated from West Point.

This will not be his first service with the 4th Cavalry as he was with that regiment in 1905. He has also served with the 2nd Cavalry, 1st Cavalry and the 7th Cavalry. He was commissioned colonel in 1914.

COURT IMPOSES FINES OF $30,000

Over $30,000 in fines was imposed in the district court of Honolulu last year, according to a partial report completed at noon today by Police Clerk Solomon Meheula. The report so far compiled included the district of Honolulu only, in which 4540 arrests were made last year.

Last year there were more arrests but the total of fines imposed was about the same.

Chinese top the list this year with $11 of the nationally arrested; Japanese come second with $74; Hawaiians third with $58.

The largest number of arrests for one offense resulted from gambling of which there were 1553. Arrests made for drunkenness were 487, a little over one a day, but this figure does not include soldiers held for detention, or the many assault, vagrancy, threatening and profanity charges, which were directly caused by booze.

For the last month arrests were 403 and fines imposed $2788.20. The Japanese lead in convictions with 64. There were 141 arrests for gambling and 48 for drunkenness.

U. S. RAILROADS IN HYSTERIA OF PESSIMISM

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The railroads are trying to ruin their own credit and lay the foundation for federal ownership, according to Max Thelen, president of the National Association of Railway Commissioners. In his testimony before the congressional railroad investigating committee.

"The railroads are in a hysteria of pessimism," he said. "With savings beyond all previous records and constantly growing larger, the railroads seem to be engaged in the absurd task of trying to ruin their own credit. If they were really acting in the public interest, as they contend to be, they would stop complaining about public regulation and would devote themselves to supplying the cars, equipment, terminal facilities and extensions that the public urgently requires.

"Federal incorporation of the railroads as proposed by the carriers has for its avowed object the taking from the people of the states their power to regulate the purely state rates, service, equipment and facilities to virtually every railroad in the United States. The railroad scheme brazenly provides that by direct compulsion, to be exerted by the federal government, new securities equivalent to all the outstanding securities, including all the excessive fixed indebtedness and all the watered stock, are to be issued. The railroads apparently are laying the foundation for the ultimate purchase of their property by the federal government.

"The talk of the railroads about 49 masters is simply language to tickle the ears. No railroad in the United States runs through more than one-third of 48 states. Although all other corporations that do business in different states are subject to regulation by each such state, nobody except the railroads is complaining."

CAPT. D. H. GIENY AT DESK OF MAJ. D. B. CASE

Capt. D. H. Gienty, who was transferred from the quartermaster's department at Schofield Barracks, has taken charge of the transportation division of the local quartermaster department in place of Maj. David B. Case, transferred.

Capt. Gienty took up his new duties this morning. Maj. Case will sail on the transport Logan. His new work will be at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri.

GOVERNOR'S RECEPTION IS DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR

Governor Pinkham's reception yesterday was one of the most enjoyable events ever held in Honolulu, a large number of people attending through the afternoon to pay their respects to the governor.

The guests began coming at 2:30 o'clock and were still present in considerable numbers at 5, the hour set

NO EXTENSIONS WILL BE GRANTED

Requests of local officers for an extension of time in foreign service tours are not to be considered by the war department, according to a cable message today from Washington.

Immediately after the message had been received at army headquarters in this city instructions were sent out to the various posts giving its contents.

This news will not cause rejoicing among a considerable number of officers and their families in the Hawaiian department, who have come to consider Hawaii as home in the last few years, and who had hoped for an extension of service here.

Though no official confirmation has been received of the word from Washington, printed several weeks ago in the Star-Bulletin that the foreign service roster was to be resumed, this message is taken as practical proof of that report.

Today's advice will probably mean that several officers in the local department whose terms have expired or are about to do so will soon "swap places" with officers who have seen strenuous duty on the border for some time.

ARMY ORDERS

The following orders were received today at the Hawaiian department headquarters from Washington:

Assistant Engineer Ralph E. McGhee, Coast Artillery Corps, is to be transferred from Honolulu to New Bedford. Regimental Supply Sergt. William H. Duty, 1st Infantry, has been placed on the retired list at Schofield Barracks and will repair to his home.

Capt. James A. Gallogly, C. A. C., judge advocate of the Hawaiian department, has been removed from the detached list as of December 18.

Capt. John K. Herr, 4th Cav., has been placed on the detached officers' list, effective December 15.

Col. Lloyd M. Brett has been relieved from duty in the Southern department and will sail on January 5 for duty with the 4th Cavalry, Schofield Barracks.

Capt. La Verne L. Gregg, 25th Infantry, is transferred to the 32nd Inf. Assistant Engineer Theodore Gunther, C. A. C., is transferred from Fort Hancock, N. J., to the Coast Defense of Oahu.

Pvt. Isadore Jacob, C. A. C., Ft. Kamehameha, is transferred to the Signal Corps for instruction in the aviation school at San Diego.

First Sergt. Henry C. Bell, Company B, 25th Infantry, is placed upon the retired list at Schofield Barracks.

PERSONALITIES

MISS EDITH DUNN went to Maui in the Claudine to teach.

ARTHUR C. ALEXANDER of Alexander & Baldwin has gone to Maui; He left in the Claudine.

DEPUTY SHERIFF JULIUS W. ASCH came home in the Matsonia from a business trip to San Francisco.

HENRY L. REILY, wharf superintendent at Pier 7, has been unable to work for several days owing to a sprained ankle.

MISS VIVIA APPELTON of the faculty of the University of California, who has been visiting U. S. Attorney and Mrs. S. C. Huber, left for San Francisco today.

MR. AND MRS. H. F. PROCTOR arrived in the Matsonia. Mrs. Proctor is a sister of Miss Alice Shager of the Associated Charities and will visit her while here.

MR. AND MRS. AMBROSE BARKER of London, singers and vaudeville artists, and known professionally as Ambrose and Peggy Barker, are in Honolulu en route to the United States, where they are to begin a tour of the Orpheum circuit February 7. It is probable that they will make a local engagement for the next three weeks here.

FORMER INMATE OF IWILEI IS KEPT OUT BY FRISCO OFFICIALS

K. Kauanni, a Hawaiian-Chinese girl, who returned on the Matsonia, is the first Iwilei inmate who has been refused admission on the mainland so far as the local police know. She reported this morning that the weather was too cold for her in San Francisco, but Deputy Sheriff Asch, who came back in the same boat, reports that it is rather because mainland immigration authorities made it too warm for her that she returned. According to the deputy she did not have a birth certificate to show that she had been born in Hawaii and therefore could not land because of her Chinese blood. The deputy says several of the former inmates here are now located in San Francisco, according to advice given him by the San Francisco police.

"BANJO-UKE" IS LATEST MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

Hawaii, having successfully introduced the ukulele to America, is about to make the acquaintance of an American ukulele.

It is known as the banjo-uke and is a combination of the American banjo and the Hawaiian instrument. The Polander Company, 52 Second street, is the originator of the new instrument, which is to be sent to Hawaii in hopes that it will prove more popular than the ukulele.—San Francisco Daily News.

MAINTENANCE OF ROADS COST CUT

Fifty-five thousand four hundred and seventy-one dollars and fifty cents less was spent in 1916 for the maintenance of roads on Oahu than in 1915 according to the figures of the city auditor's office. Last year the road department spent $182,340.76 in the several districts while in 1915 the total was $237,812.26.

To offset that, however, under the franchise improvement law, work was started on six projects, the total cost of which is $398,851.08 and of which the city's share is $103,007.61. These improvement districts are Manoa, $196,157; Lualaba, $31,121.02; Kalaheua avenue, $96,290; King street extension, $32,942.88; Beach Walk, $33,264.17, and Seaview, $9,046.01.

The money spent during 1916 in the seven districts is as follows: Honolulu, $128,000; Ewa, $18,000; Waianae, $9,204.42; Waiialua, $13,118.52; Koolauloa, $13,658.07; Koolapoaka, $5330.50; and Waimanaloa, $1,629.25. The biggest difference is in the Honolulu district where the 1915 expenditures were $166,000.89.

There were also four special projects undertaken in the outside districts of which the city and county paid the entire cost. They are Wahiawa, $24,431.69; at Hakiipua in Koolapoaka, $31,500; Fall road and wall, $29,500, and a coral road at Ewa, $3000, making a total of $87,410.09. The total amount, therefore, spent by the city and county for road during 1916 is $272,759.46.

AUTO LICENSES FOR YEAR BRING TO HONOLULU $5601

After a little figuring on the business of his office for the year Chauffeur Examiner Robert Lillis reports today that $5601 was collected in license fees from over 3900 chauffeurs and drivers. This is over $2000 more than that collected last year—the first year that a charge was made by the city and county government for licenses.

"It's a tidy sum if I do say so myself," remarked Lillis this morning, "and I think it will not be at all unwise in the city treasury."

The last automobile number given out at the sheriff's office was No. 2840, which brings the total of autos, trucks and motorcycles on this island to over 3000.

MEN WHO TILL

Of cultivated land—as rich as any in the world, so that this small kingdom stands fifth among the nations for wheat and fifth for wine—Rumania has 20,000,000 acres.

Some 10,000,000 acres are devoted into peasant holdings of less than ten acres each; some 10,000,000 into great estates averaging over 4000 acres, worked by laborers not far from serfdom; while the owners, absentee like the Irish landlords of the past, spend their money lavishly in Bucharest or Paris.

So it comes that in no other country in Europe is the chasm so wide between the few very wealthy land owners—less than 5000 families—and the great bulk of the people who till the soil.

BELIEVES APPEAL WILL NOT LIE IN CASE OF OCAMPO

Ass't. District Attorney Kemp is Confident Naturalization Cases Will Hold Good

An altogether new angle is given in the discussion of the Federal Judge Vaughan's decision, holding that Filipinos are ineligible for American citizenship...

Attorney Kemp told the Star-Bulletin today that he is of the opinion that a decision denying a person naturalization does not come within any of the classes that the federal statutes make appealable...

Kemp explains that if a court grants a person citizenship and the government is of the opinion that the court erred, the U. S. attorney may take steps to have the order of the court granting the petition canceled.

The attention of Attorney Kemp was called to the case of Takao Ozawa, Japanese, whose petition for naturalization recently was denied in a decision by Federal Judge Charles F. Clifton.

He was in conference with Governor Pinkham on the question for some time this morning.

Governor Pinkham declines to comment in detail on the matter, though expressing the conviction that it is one not to be passed over lightly and is a national matter of great importance.

Attorney General I. M. Stanback expressed the belief today that national rather than territorial legislation will be required to arrange the status of the Filipino guardian relationship.

Here and there today the feeling is expressed that a special clause may easily be added by Congress allowing the Filipino to become a member of the guard without regard to his citizenship.

HAWAIIAN ROMANCE HAS CULMINATION IN MARRIAGE HERE

A pretty romance which began in Honolulu some time ago culminated last Saturday afternoon when James C. Counts, formerly in the employ of the British-American Tobacco Company at Shanghai, China, and now proprietor of the Tuxedo Shop, this city, and Miss Edith E. Pratt, clerk and stenographer in the U. S. attorney's office, were married at the Christian church.

The pretty bridegroom stole a march on his associates in the federal court. He one suspected why she was in such a hurry to leave her desk at noon and it was not until after the ceremony had been performed that the news leaked out in official circles.

FILIPINO GUARDSMEN CELEBRATE RIZAL DAY

In honor of Dr. Jose Rizal, the Filipino martyr who was executed by the Spaniards December 30, 1896, local Filipinos celebrated on Saturday night under the auspices of Companies B and M of the National Guard.

Governor Pinkham was the chief speaker. He reviewed the history of the Philippines, his own experiences in the islands and the showing made by the race in Hawaii.

Brig-Gen. Samuel I. Johnson, adjutant-general of the Hawaiian National Guard, and Capt. William J. Hampton of Company M, N. G. H., also spoke on the Filipino as a guardsman.

BELIEVE GERM OF INFANT PARALYSIS NOW DISCOVERED

ST. PAUL, Minn.—Half of one of the greatest battles of modern science has been won, it is believed here, in the discovery of the germ of infantile paralysis, which has been accomplished by investigators in the famous clinic of the Mayo brothers of Rochester, according to a report of recent investigations conducted there.

Dr. E. C. Rosenow, who is in charge of the experiments, will not yet assert positively that the germ which he and his associates, Dr. E. F. Torrie of Boston and Dr. G. W. Wheeler of New York, have succeeded in isolating is the germ of poliomyelitis, or infantile paralysis.

In a preliminary note, however, presented to the State Medical Society, it is shown that innumerable experiments in the last few months all point in the same direction.

If it be true that the agent of the disease has thus been found—and there is no real doubt in the minds of the scientists acquainted with the experiments that this has been done—then half of one of the greatest battles in modern medical science already has been won.

Because of the high hopes which the discovery of some mistake or broken link in the present chain of scientific evidence would dash, those interested in the experiments at Rochester are especially chary of making announcements. Nevertheless, Dr. Rosenow's guarded report cannot but have the effect of creating intense public interest in the outcome of experimentation with curative vaccines and serum.

SEEK TO CONDEMN MAUI ACREAGE AS LIGHTHOUSE SITE

Two acres of land at Cape Hanalei on the southwest coast of Maui is to be condemned by the federal government for use as a site for the erection of a lighthouse. The property is owned by the Raymond Ranch but, owing to complications in the title, it has been found necessary to bring condemnation proceedings despite the fact that J. H. Raymond, owner of the ranch, offered to turn over the property to the government.

MORE THAN HUNDRED DEPENDENT KIDDIES CARED FOR IN YEAR

The cases of 121 dependent children, 27 boys and 94 girls, were disposed of in juvenile Judge Whitney's court during the year just closed, according to the annual report now being prepared. The children were committed as follows:

To private institutions—Boys, 9; girls, 39.
To public institutions—Boys, 2; girls, 4.
To private homes—Boys, 55; girls, 21.

C. U. ENDEAVORERS SELECT OFFICERS

Miss Helga Wikander was elected president of the Christian Endeavor Society of Central Union church at the annual meeting Sunday evening. Other officers for the coming year were chosen as follows:

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Excelsior Lodge, I. O. O. F., has business meeting tonight.

William McKinley Lodge, Knights of Pythias, meets tonight for regular business.

The Hawaiian Humane Society has a meeting scheduled for 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The weekly meeting of the Kaimuki Mothers' Club will be held at noon Wednesday in the Liliuokalani school.

Thursday evening Dr. C. F. Dole, the great pacifist who is visiting in Honolulu, will lecture in Cooke hall, Y. M. C. A., on "Is Peace Practicable?"

The total collections of the water department for 1916 were $207,028.97 or $17,949.29 more than in 1915, when $189,079.68 was taken in.

Because of the lack of quorum there was no meeting today of the federal grand jury. A meeting will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Two Spanish boys, whose parents are dead, are looking for homes. Inquiries should be made to Probation Officer Joseph Leal, circuit court.

The Outrigger Canoe Club will give another moonbeam dance, for members and guests only, Saturday evening, January 6, at its dancing inn on the club grounds at Waikiki.

With an approximate enrollment of 32,500, a considerable gain over the last term, the public schools of the territory opened today for the spring term.

Charging cruelty, George Arthur Beasley has filed in circuit court a suit for divorce from Lucy Keweha Beasley. This is the first action for divorce to be filed in 1917.

Divorce suits have been filed in the circuit court as follows: Marie Mendocino against John L. Mendocino, cruelty; Sarah Leong Lun against Leong Lun, non-support.

The members of the board of industrial schools will meet at 3 o'clock next Thursday afternoon in the chambers of Circuit Judge Whitney to draw up a budget for the next two years.

Members of the federal trial jury who have been summoned to be in court at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning will not be wanted until 9 o'clock next Friday morning.

There will be no meeting of any committee of the Chamber of Commerce this week, but next week the directors will meet Wednesday, January 10, and the board of retail trades on Thursday, January 11.

The rainfall in Honolulu during 1916 was one of the largest in the history of the city, totaling 44.80 inches or 13.26 inches more than the normal which is 31.58. The largest precipitation came in January, when 12.36 inches fell. March was second with 6.79, and December third with 5.47 inches.

Mrs. Frank Archer, wife of former Supervisor and present Road Overseer Archer of Ewa, died Monday afternoon at Pearl City. The funeral is to be held there this afternoon. Burial will be in the Loch View cemetery. The deceased was born on this island and is survived by her husband. She was one of the popular women of her neighborhood.

Mrs. W. G. Allen is at the Queen's hospital today suffering from a shock sustained in an auto accident on King street near Keolu, last night. Hospital authorities announce that her condition is not serious and that she will probably be able to go home tonight or tomorrow. Mrs. Allen was riding with her husband in a roadster when the accident occurred and according to Allen his wife fell out when the door flew open on a curve.

LUSITANA STREET BONDS RESOLUTION IS READY

A resolution authorizing the issuing of bonds for the Lusitana street improvement work to the amount of $2750 has been drawn up for presentation to the board of supervisors this evening.

The bonds are to be in denominations of $500, with one of $225, dated January 15, 1917, payable July 15, 1925, and subject to call July 15, 1917. Interest on the bonds will be 5 1/2 per cent.

VANGUARD OF COAST TEACHERS ARRIVES

Miss Roberta E. Laughlin, Miss Marie Perry and Miss Eva Austin, all graduates of the San Jose, Cal., Normal school, arrived in Honolulu today to enter the employ of the department of public instruction. Miss Laughlin goes to the Hilo Union school and Miss Perry to the Kona school. Miss Austin may also be assigned to a school on one of the other islands.

GERMAN BONDS BRITISH SEIZED TO BE RETAINED

LONDON, Eng.—Sir Samuel Evans, president of the British prize court, ruled that German bonds come under the reprisals order, and that German securities to the value of 30,000 marks, seized on the way in a letter to the State Commercial & Savings Bank, Chicago, should remain in court as property of enemy origin until the declaration of peace or until dealt with as the court may direct. The securities were seized aboard the Danish steamship Frederik VIII.

LOGAN BRINGING MAJ. F. T. AUSTIN

Wireless advices received from the army transport Logan, en route here from Nagasaki and the Philippines, state that the big vessel will set 375 miles at 8 o'clock last night. This should put her off port next Friday morning.

Maj. F. T. Austin, 1st Field Artillery, with his wife and child, is on board for Honolulu. There are seven bags of mail for this port and 109 tons of freight.

Passengers for San Francisco include the following: Col. Edward Burr, Corps of Engineers; Lieut.-Col. W. T. Wilder, 27th Infantry; Lieut.-Col. Charles Lynch, Medical Corps; Lieut.-Col. J. L. Knowlton, Quartermaster Corps; Lieut.-Col. H. J. Gallagher, Quartermaster Corps; Lieut.-Col. E. K. Ferguson, Coast Artillery Corps; Capt. L. A. Chapman, Cavalry; H. Rogers, S. M. Neisser and C. Famel of the Philippine Scouts; J. F. Hammond, A. G. Wilde, and J. G. Angold, Medical Corps; 1st Lieut. J. S. Young and M. P. Cooney of the Philippine Scouts; A. L. James and L. A. Falling-ann, Cavalry; L. J. Dillow, Corps of Engineers, and James Muir, Infantry; 2nd Lieut. J. H. Caron, Philippine Scouts; Paymaster J. S. Higgins, Navy, and 1st Lieut. R. Bryant, Marine Corps.

There are two Filipino stowaways, and one American, Charles Russell by name.

INTERMEDIATES WILL HAVE CHARGE OF BIG CAMPAIGN AT Y. M. C. A.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. have outlined a plan whereby the intermediate department will have charge of the membership drive for the month of January. On Friday evening at 6:30 all the members of the intermediate department will be guests of the membership committee at a dinner at the association.

At this meeting Ed Towse, chairman of the membership committee, will outline the plan of campaign for January. Six teams will be formed, each team working one day each week in a boating campaign for membership. It is expected that six clubs will be represented, five from the intermediate department and one club formed from members not belonging to this department.

Y. W. GIRLS' ENTERTAIN BOYS AT WAILEE SCHOOL

More than 25 members of the Business Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. journeyed to the Boys' Industrial school at Waialeale yesterday to give an entertainment at the school. The girls left the association building at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, returning at 7 o'clock.

Miss Harriet Forbes, chairman of the service committee; Miss Margaret Linn and Miss Margaret Herenden were in charge of the arrangements. One of the features of the day was the appearance of Bragger's band. The girls played a number of selections on the zebra. The musicians were as follows: Miss Amelia Coates, director; the Misses Ruth Benedict, Lillie Riest, Gertrude Riest, Margaret Omsted, Martha Mulholland, Ruth Parr and Pearl Cox. Among the selections played were "Tipperary," "What Do You Mean, You Lost Your Dog?" and others.

The second feature was a playlet entitled, "Reveries of a Bachelor." The characters were interpreted by Miss Vera Shaw, Alberta Ames, Marie Deppers, Jeannette Matthews, Jessie McKay, Margaret Herenden, Margaret Mulholland, E. Chislett, and Eva Decker. This was followed by the showpiece dance by the Misses Eunice Caron, Margaret Linn, Margaret Omsted, Eva Decker and Birdie Riest.

Following the program the boys of the school entertained with a musical program and followed this up by a gymnastic exhibition under the direction of Sam W. Robley. The horizontal bar work and military maneuvers were decided successes. The girls voted the trip a complete success.

CHECK AND ORDER FOR KUKUI NUTS RECEIVED

As the result of a story which appeared in the Star-Bulletin several weeks ago concerning the demands being made by mainland paint companies for kukui nuts from which an important ingredient is obtained for the manufacture of paints, interest in what may become a new industry for the islands has been awakened.

Following the story, A. T. Longley, superintendent of the territorial marketing division, informed Raymond C. Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, that he would try and collect the nuts. This morning a check for $12.50 was received by Brown from the Paint Manufacturers' Association of the United States in payment for a half ton of the kukui nuts, which will be forwarded as soon as they are gathered.

Experiments will be made by the association and if the nuts prove satisfactory, more will be ordered.

TUESDAY JANUARY 2, 1917.

COMPETING FOR THE TOURIST.

Hawaii cannot afford to rest content with the commanding position this territory is taking in the tourist traffic of America.

We must be "on the job" all the time, for when the war closes every European country, suffering for gold, will bid for the tourists with an eagerness and vigor which is bound to have its effects.

When the war began, the world looked at the United States and said, "You have an unparalleled opportunity to take the leadership of world-trade." Simultaneously Hawaii's door of opportunity opened to take the leadership in tourist traffic. The wonders, the historic palaces, temples, cathedrals of Europe, the Alps and the Riviera, Venice, Naples, Paris, London, were virtually closed to mere visitors.

Mainland United States had been pretty well "shone" by the majority of American globe-trotters. But Hawaii, with its South Sea glamor (thanks to literature) had a powerful call they heeded when the fall of Europe was silenced by war.

But after the war—
A few months ago mention was made in these columns of the thoroughness with which Italy was preparing to engage in the tourist business when she had finished with her war business. Now comes by mail a significant report to the department of commerce by Commercial Attache C. W. A. Yeditz of Paris. He writes:

France is preparing actively to receive an unprecedented number of tourists at the close of the present war. Various new organizations are devoting themselves to the task of improving hotels and railway facilities, of advertising French health resorts, of bettering the innumerable agencies designed to attract foreign visitors and to satisfy their demands in such a manner that they may acquire the habit of visiting France in large numbers.

Perhaps the most interesting of the new offices in the Office National du Tourisme, enlarged and reorganized, which recently held its first meeting at the Ministry of Public Works. At this meeting were represented, under the direction of the Minister of Public Works, the Etats Generaux du Tourisme, the Touring Club of France, the Alpine Club, the Automobile Club, the General Automobile Society, local promoting organizations, and organizations of hotel owners and managers. A former member of public works and of agriculture has been made president of the administrative council of the new organization, which proposes to set at work immediately upon the numerous tasks confronting it.

It is not unlikely that the government of France will exercise supervision over the whole subject and will sanction the imposition of "cure" taxes and "tourist" or visitor's taxes.

Hawaii has to meet such competition as this, and the only way to meet it is by making Hawaii increasingly attractive to the tourist. We must have not merely a few roads, but most of our roads, in every all the year around for pleasurable motor travel. We must have plenty of amusement, plenty of first class hotel accommodations, plenty of well-planned short trips out of Honolulu and the other cities and towns of the group. It is axiomatic that the tourist must have first-class ship transportation—plenty of it.

Hawaii has the natural advantages to bring visitors here year after year. They may go to Europe for a year or so, to see the battle fields of the Marne, Verdun and the Somme, view the wreckage Germany has wrought at Belgium, traverse Belgium, travel through Germany to see what the war has done in reality for the Teutons—in short to "do" the ruins and results of the great war. But there is plenty of evidence that Hawaii has a permanent hold on the interest and affections of its visitors. We can compete with Europe, in the long run, by handling her tourist opportunities with intelligence.

PROHIBITION AND THE SOUTH.

From the Daily Financial America.

One hears much facetious and often disparaging comment on prohibition and its efficacy. It is decried that prohibition acts as no real check on intemperance and, indeed, is so widely evaded that it is little more than a hypocrisy. This may be true to a considerable extent among the higher classes of society in states and sections where prohibition laws are in existence; but it can be said—at least for the southern states which have adopted such laws—that the result has been excellent as regards the negro and "poor white" elements. Officials of railroads operating in the South assert that small communities along their lines have been transformed by the enforcement of prohibition from laziness and idleness into energy and prosperity. And in the cities, representative businessmen and government officials testify that prohibition has reduced intemperance and crime. The jail at Savannah, Ga., for instance, is now frequently bare of persons under arrest, and the prison farm near Savannah is actually complaining of a lack of men to carry on the agricultural work of that establishment.

It may be suggested that the demand for labor here accounts for this change; that men who, without the law, would find ways to obtain intoxicants, are now too well occupied to make nuisances of themselves. No doubt this condition is a factor, but it cannot, more than in part, account for the really great transformation that has taken place.

There are thousands of men in the South who have been leading for years, for themselves and their families, a hand-to-mouth existence, having no ambition beyond getting just enough to eat off their patches of ground, except to indulge their desire for liquor. This condition of affairs is changing with astonishing rapidity. Without intoxicants to be obtained except at unusual expense—in Georgia the individual deliveries of intoxicants from outside the state are limited to two quarts per month, and that involves an expense which the poorer classes have been unable to afford—the negroes and "cracker" classes with patches of ground have been turning more seriously to the cultivation of the soil. The result is shown in flourishing fields, in better houses, better clothing, and an improved intelligence and morality.

THE NEW CHINESE MINISTER.

(From the Japan Advertiser)

The record of Mr. Wu Chao-cha, newly appointed Chinese minister of the United States, is that of a brilliant man. Mr. Wu, who is the son of Wu Ting-fang, the new foreign minister of China, has lately been counselor to the foreign office in Peking. He began his public career in China shortly after the formation of the Republican government, when he returned to China to take the post of commissioner for foreign affairs at Hankow and Wuchang.

A brief record of Mr. Wu's career as a student in the United States and in England is of interest as a demonstration of unusual ability. He went to Washington with his father in 1897 and attended the public grammar school there, finishing the eight grades in three years. The following two years he attended public high schools at Washington and Atlantic City, completing his course at the latter school in 1904, first in his class and Valedictorian at the commencement exercises.

Returning to China he spent some time in Shanghai, Hongkong and Peking. He left again in 1908 for England, where he matriculated at the University of London and also kept terms at Lincoln's Inn. In Trinity term, 1911, in the final examinations of the law students he headed the list and won the studentship of 100 guineas a year, tenable for three years and was called to the English bar, ranking in seniority over all the other students. In September of the same year in the examination for laws at the University of London, when he graduated as L. L. B., he took first-class honors and was bracketed equal and divided with another student an additional scholarship. He then practised law in a barrister's chambers in London for six months. The outbreak of the revolution in China decided him to return to Shanghai, where he took an active part in the political reform of his country.

FIRST AIDS TO THE NEWCOMER.

Perhaps the most noteworthy features of the hospitable receptions given by the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. last evening was the presence of a remarkably large number of newcomers to the city. Perhaps one-third of the callers were "malihinis." Their presence was not only significant of the rather unexpected growth of the city's population by the addition of residents who come from the mainland to take up business here or to make this their winter home, but also significant of the place these two organizations hold on the esteem of the community. Their wide avenues of usefulness and opportunities for beneficial exercise and wholesome enjoyment were well exemplified in the programs of the evening. The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. are invaluable factors in giving to strangers places to go in otherwise idle hours. They are, in a very practical and helpful way, "first aids" to the newcomer.

Once again is revived the familiar story that Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria committed suicide with his mistress because he learned that she was his half-sister, with the local "trimmings" that this state secret is "buried in the archives of Hawaii." The mystery and this explanation, it might be said, have been used by many a writer for the illustrated feature section of mainland Sunday papers when he ran short of material on European royal gossip and scandal. It is like the story of a Hapsburg prince who came to America and raised a family—part of which recently laid claim to succession—mighty handy material for the Sunday newspapers to purvey to those of the proletariat who read with avidity anything then can find on the romance of royalty.

Among the ten most important events in Hawaii during the year just passed was the steady retreat of old King Booes. His army is in confusion and some of his strongest allies in days gone by have deserted his banner.

President Wilson's move for peace will be properly appraised and appreciated in history, whether or not any belligerent is immediately affected by it.

Some of the brethren who have been laughing at W. J. B.'s grape-juice might as well begin acquiring the taste for it without further delay.

Another "spring drive" is apparently planned by the Allies. And what grim preparations both sides are making for it!

Be it noticed in Hawaii that Arizona appears to take gubernatorial politics seriously.

BISHOP BASHFORD HOPES FOR FUTURE OF CHINESE REPUBLIC

no part in the family, clan or province struggles of ambition—in other words, he keeps himself free of factionalism. Furthermore, he has generalship to a large degree. In case of war, he would probably be a strong figure, though his generalship has never been tested as was Yuan Shih-kai's.

Bishop Bashford's view of Oriental affairs, and the relations of China and Japan, are succinctly expressed in his book "China: An Interpretation," recently off the press and already running through its second edition. It is published by the Abingdon Press of New York and Cincinnati. In this book the bishop writes:

"Located as the two nations are, Japan must adopt one of two policies. Japan must either conquer and govern China or else she must treat China as one neighbor should treat another, and thus win her friendship, her trade, and in time of need her support. She cannot possibly combine the two. As the two nations must always remain neighbors, and especially as Japan is the smaller nation, and for most of the last 3000 years has been the weaker nation, the only wise course is neighborly conduct."

Bishop Bashford in this notable chapter—"China and Japan"—then proceeds to outline why in his belief neighborly conduct in the Far East is far better for Japan, for China, for the Orient and for the world than the policy to which he frankly refers as "Japanese aggression of China." Of the now-famous demands upon China he says: "An examination of these demands shows their cruel injustice to the Chinese, and the attempt of the Japanese government to keep them secret and to compel China by threats and by doubling the Japanese troops in China to sign them speedily, reveals Japan's own recognition of the injustice of her demands."

War Party's Hand Shown

At the same time, this authority on Far Eastern affairs points out that Japan's aggression was due to the "War party's attempt to seize for Japan the suzerainty of China," and makes a clear distinction between the War party and the Economic-Ethical party, and gives full appreciation to the ethical points urged by many Japanese leaders as against the militarism of the war party.

"Japan has reached the parting of the ways," he says. "Can she put the cross above the flag, the interests of humanity above the interests of the Japanese? Upon her answer to this question depends not only the present peace of the world but Japan's ultimate survival as a nation."

Bishop Bashford's views upon Japanese immigration to the United States are interesting, especially to Hawaii. In general, he indorses the plan proposed by Dr. Sidney Gulick, who has taken the leadership in the attempt to reconcile the United States and Japan upon this knotty point of international controversy. Dr. Gulick's proposal is that the United States should not make an exception of Oriental races, but should agree to the admission annually from any country of a number of immigrants equal to a fixed per cent, say five, of the living immigrants from that country who have become American citizens.

LETTERS

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE INTERESTS IN PUUNUI

Editor Honolulu Star-Bulletin.
Sir: Mr. Sherman opposes a public improvement because he says his privacy will be interfered with. Of what value to Honolulu is his privacy, compared to the progress of the city? What great thing has Mr. Sherman done for Honolulu, that the city should retard its advancement to accommodate Mr. Sherman's alleged privacy? Mr. Sherman has not cared enough for the city's progress to align himself with any of the public undertakings of its citizens.
Not Even a Voter

Mr. Sherman has not cared enough for the city even to become a voter. All he wants of Honolulu is a place to spend about four months of the year, while the other seven or eight months are passed on the mainland.

Since he is away from Honolulu most of his life, how can a road along the boundary of his Circle drive in Honolulu interfere with his privacy? Will Mr. Sherman's father, away from Honolulu be disturbed by the dream that the Honolulu people in passing along Circle drive may look at his mansion, to be distant from the road? Mr. Sherman, let us put through Circle drive, and we will promise not to look at your castle until we get to Nuanuu street.

Now Mr. Sherman, with his immense wealth, is really a block in the way of Honolulu's advancement, for which he seems to care so little.

His wealth enables him to employ lawyers to hold up improvements which cannot affect him adversely since he is most of his time away from the city.

A matter of minor importance to Mr. Sherman has not been emphasized in public, i. e., if Hawaii street be extended it will completely destroy the house and lot of a poor Portuguese who cannot afford to fight proceedings in court. This Portuguese is naturally for Circle drive. Hawaii street extension will not run along his boundary as Circle drive would in Mr. Sherman's case, but clean through, taking house and all. The public should know this for the supervisors seem to want to forget it.

Two Biblical parallels come to mind in regard to Mr. Sherman and the Portuguese. They are found in I Kings, 21, and II Samuel, 12.

Put Up or Shut Up
I am a poor man, who has made his home in Honolulu. I am earnestly working for Honolulu's improvement, though Mr. Sherman has attributed other motives to me.

My offer to buy Mr. Sherman's land in the proposed Puunui improvement district (not a large portion) is a genuine invitation to him to "put up or shut up" (to use a slang term). Since he has completely lost the common touch, I will translate for his benefit. Mr. Sherman is invited to fall in with the present progressive undertaking, for the welfare of the city as a whole, and allow Circle drive to go through, or step on one side and let it be done by someone else who is willing.

Thanking you for the use of your valuable space,
JOHN F. G. STOKES.

Bishop Bashford will be in the states probably most of the spring and summer. He is accompanying his wife, whose health has not been of the best, to the states in the hope that a change of climate will benefit her. They were met here yesterday by Dr. William Henry Fry, superintendent of the Methodist Mission in Hawaii, and by other friends who were able to see them on a necessarily brief stay. It had first been planned that Bishop and Mrs. Bashford would spend a month or more here, but they felt it necessary to proceed directly to the states.

Bishop Bashford has the confidence of leaders both in Japan and China, and in the United States his knowledge of Far Eastern affairs makes his views acceptable to very high official authority.

ITALY PERFORMS MIRACLES WITH TRANSPORTATION

(By Associated Press)
HEADQUARTERS OF THE ITALIAN ARMY.—The transportation romance of this 45-mile mountain front, set down in cold, hard figures, reads this: Two thousand, four hundred and forty-eight miles of railroad rebuilt or repaired; 530 miles of new railroad built; 150 miles of air line cables stretched for the telegraphic system; 30,000 miles of telephone wire put up; 10,000 new troop, hospital and freight buildings erected; 200 miles of narrow-gauge railroad laid in or behind the trenches; 110 new bridges thrown across rivers and precipices to accommodate 2040 miles of operating road.
 The work is credited to 120 civil engineers of the government department of public works, aided by army engineers proper; likewise by 200,000 workmen, and 100,000 army mules, hitched to 50,000 wagons.
 The foregoing is the first official record of the exact extent of the construction work on this front, carried on steadily for 18 months, despite enemy artillery, avalanches, snow falls, rains, floods, frost, lack of material and all the other ills by which engineers are beset.

RECLUSE TO PAY GIRL HE JILTED $170,000 BALM

PITTSBURG, Pa.—The highest "heart balm" award on record in Allegheny county records was made when a jury awarded Miss Nettie Richardson, former downtown hotel cashier, $170,000 damages in her suit against Henry Deniston, 78, recluse, of Swissvale, whose banker testified during the trial that he was worth more than $2,000,000. Miss Richardson alleged that relatives with designs on Deniston's fortune prevented their marriage.

The Johnstown Fuel Company of Johnstown, Pa., notified the Cambria Steel, the Lorraine Steel and Davis Drakebeam companies that after January 1 it will discontinue supplying natural gas to manufacturers because of a shortage.

MANY GATHER AT ARMY RECEPTION

Brig-Gen. and Mrs. Frederick S. Strong proved themselves hospitable hosts in one of the biggest receptions ever held in Honolulu—that at their quarters in Waikiki from 4 to 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon.
 Army and navy folk from all parts of the island came to pay their respects to the general and Mrs. Strong, wishing them all good will and happiness for the new year.
 Impressive in its dignity and quietness and yet lacking in set social formality, the reception gave a feeling of hospitality that charmed every guest. There was excellent music for those who cared either to dance or to listen. Musicians from various posts under the direction of Musician Francis Leigh, 32d Infantry, made up the 30-piece orchestra.

Earlier in the day receptions had been held at the posts. Col. and Mrs. Daniel L. Howell received at Fort Shafter from 11 o'clock to noon, and Schofield and Kamehameha witnessed several social gatherings in honor of the day.

CHINESE EJECTED FROM RENO THEATER; BRING HEAVY DAMAGE SUIT

RENO, Nev.—The question of the right of theater companies or those who conduct public places of amusement to exclude from their houses or places of business any person because of his race is involved in an action now pending in the district court. Two companion cases are to be filed as a result of the same facts alleged in the complaint already on record, according to a statement made by M. B. Moore, attorney for the plaintiff in the case now pending.
 Rubit Tsang, a Chinese girl born in the United States, is the plaintiff in the action. The Reno Amusement Company, et al., are the defendants. The

HIGH COSTS OF LIVING DO NOT AFFECT BEREA

(By Associated Press)
BEREA, Ky.—In order to prove that the cost of living has not reached every part of the country, Berea College, in the Kentucky mountains, is responsible for the statement that its 1400 students are fed at a cost of 7 cents per meal, that they gained "several tons" in weight and that the boarding hall made a net gain of $559.48.

In explaining this record President Frost of the college refers first to the economy of numbers, some 1400 students being in constant attendance in the five departments. Another explanation of the 7-cent meal is the fact that most of the students are accustomed to plain fare, so that they almost unanimously choose to go without tea, coffee and butter to reduce expenses. To offset these omissions the "balance ration" has been introduced on the assumption that it is just as important for students as "for any other livestock."

plaintiff asserts that she was ejected from the moving picture house conducted by the defendants about three months ago. She alleges that in company with Flora Woo and Yum Lee, also American born Chinese, she bought tickets and entered the place. Yum Lee, she asserts, was stopped by the usher and made to leave the theater before he had taken his seat. The two girls, according to the complaint, took their seats and later were damaged to leave. Rubit Tsang asks for damages against the defendants in the sum of $10,000.
 As a result of the affair, local moving picture house proprietors may ask the next state legislature to pass a segregation law.
 Rubit Tsang, Flora Woo and Yum Lee are quite well known in Reno.

MATSONIA FIRST MATSON STEAMER OF NEW YEAR TO COME TO HAWAII

With the distinction of being the first Matson steamer to arrive in 1917, the Matson liner Matsonia, Captain Charles Peterson, arrived from San Francisco this morning. She was docked at Pier 15 by 7:40 and was made fast by 8 o'clock.

Bringing a good sized list of cabin passengers, 175, including many Honolulu and residents of the other islands, the Matsonia brought another big cargo totaling 9023 tons, of which only 34 are for Hilo, making the Honolulu cargo 8344 tons. Mail was 643 bags.

Tenneys Are Back

Among the kamaeaina returning were E. D. Tenney, president and general manager of Castle & Cooke, Ltd., the local Matson agency, and Mrs. Tenney, who witnessed the launching of the new Matson flagship Maui at the Union Iron Works, San Francisco, on December 23. Two prominent Kamaeaina residents also returned, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rice.

Honoluluans returning consisted of the Tenneys, Miss Lillian C. Arnold, daughter of the late Mrs. Cecilia Nielsen Arnold; Miss Arnold arriving late to see her mother alive, as Mrs. Arnold died on Sunday; Julius W. Asch, deputy sheriff; Mr. and Mrs. A. K. F. Yap and child, Morris Rosenbleid, a former Honolulu businessman, and several others.

"Cy" Takes New Job
Chief Steward C. Y. ("Cy") Wilmarth stood by the gangplank and bade his passengers goodbye for the last time this morning. It was his final voyage as chief steward of the Matsonia, because later in the day he took up his new duties as manager of the Blossington Hotel. "Cy" was congratulated by a score or more of his friends in this port today and was kept busy shaking hands with his well wishers most of the morning.

Wilmarth's place will be taken temporarily by Chief Steward George Peterson of the Wilhelmias, who will complete the present voyage of the Matsonia and make one more round trip on her, after which the Matson line will announce who will have the position permanently.

Arrivals Returns
Captain Peterson reported a pleasant voyage and said the number of prominent tourists arriving on the liner today is the best this winter to date. Arthur H. Armitage of Castle & Cooke's shipping department returned with his bride from their wedding trip, after an absence of about two months.

MAUI LAUNCHED TO HAWAII AIRS

With the Union Iron Works band playing "Hawaii Hono" the new Matson flagship Maui was launched a week ago Saturday. The first description of the launching, printed in the San Francisco Chronicle of December 24, reached Honolulu today. It reads: "Slipping into the gray mist of a driving rain, the Matson liner Maui sped down the smoking ways at the Union Iron Works yesterday morning and took her initial plunge into the waters which will be her home. Statily, with never a list, she parted the waters of the bay and rode them as evenly as she had stood upon the ways at the yard."

"While the iron works band played the Hawaiian national air, the vessel started down her glide, wine foaming down her bow from the christening bottle, broken by Mrs. William Matson, wife of the head of the Matson Navigation Company.

"Grouped around the sponsor and adding an unusual touch to the launching were 35 orphans from the Protestant Home. They had been brought to the launching by Mrs. Matson and each child, mostly having a red Matson banner, waved his or her shrill cheers to the heartier ones of the grown-ups.

"Despite the heavy rain at the launching hour, there were hundreds of persons present to witness it. The christening platform was filled with officials of the Matson company, both in this port and Honolulu, with a large sprinkling of the fair sex from both cities.

"At the conclusion of the ceremony and while Red Stack tags were puffing alongside the Maui to take her to her berth, Vice-President J. J. Tyran of the Union Iron Works presented to Mrs. Matson a diamond brooch on behalf of the builders.

"The Maui will be in commission in the Hawaiian service early in March, and all her special staterooms have been taken already. She is nearly a sister ship of the present flagship, the Matsonia, but is a little larger.

"She has more passenger accommodations, is to be turbine driven by twin propellers, and is to have a speed of 16 1/2 knots."

Another news story in the Chronicle of the same date says: "Capt. William Matson, head of the steamship company bearing his name, was host at a dinner last night in a downtown cafe to heads of the Union Iron Works, who were responsible for the successful launching of the Maui yesterday. Among those who attended the dinner were A. C. Dierck, assistant general manager; M. J. Lindsay, general freight and passenger agent of the Matson line; Joseph Barker, port engineer; John K. Bolger, supervising inspector of hulls and boilers; J. J. Tyran, secretary and general manager of the Union Iron Works, and William Roth, Capt. Matson's son-in-law.

"Under orders of his physician, Capt. Matson did not linger at the banquet more than half an hour. Witty speeches were made by several of the guests."

MAINLAND ARRIVALS ON LATEST STEAMER

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Niles, Eastern tourists, arrived on the Matsonia to see the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. George G. Whitelaw of the Eastern states came on the Matsonia to visit Hawaii net.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Wheeler, prominent mainland residents, came on the Matsonia to visit Honolulu and see the sights here.

Miss Nell Findley, who owns a large poultry ranch in Contra Costa county, California, was among the tourists arriving on the Matsonia.

Miss Dietz, a New York woman, arrived on the Matsonia to meet her sister, also from the Eastern metropolis. Both will tour the territory.

A party of four tourists, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bremmer, H. C. Calahan and Mrs. H. Lemson, arrived on the Matsonia to see the islands.

Three St. Paul, Minn. residents came on the Matsonia to visit the islands. They are the Misses Mary McNamee, Nees Miller and Elsie John.

YUCATAN'S CREW FIRED IN KOBE

Bound for San Francisco, where they will enter suit against the vessel's owners for payment in full of wages due them for the round trip, 34 sailors who were left stranded in Kobe when the American steamer Yucatan was held to Japanese December 15, are today on the T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru.

According to the story told aboard the liner before she left for the coast at 9 o'clock this morning by F. Call, who was a water tender on the Yucatan, the officers and crew of the freighter, which called in here for bunkers November 1, on route from San Francisco to the Orient, were disembarked without warning in Kobe the day the freighter was sold to Japanese parties.

Capt. Milton Thwing and his officers at once took the liner Sado Maru and went to Seattle. The Yucatan's agents in Kobe wanted the men to sign off. They refused, claiming they had no money for the round trip and would not accept in payment any sum less than what would have come to them for completion of the voyage. They were given the money due. The American consulate at Yokohama secured their transportation back to San Francisco.

Winthrop M. Daniels of New Jersey, whose term as a member of the interstate commerce commission expires Dec. 31, will be reappointed by President Wilson.

LOGAN IS LATE; ARRIVES FRIDAY

Friday morning, one day late, the U. S. army transport Logan will arrive from Manila and Nagasaki, according to a wireless received this morning from the vessel by the quartermaster's office. She was 875 miles from Honolulu at 8 o'clock last night and will dock probably at Pier 8 and steam for San Francisco about 5 Friday afternoon.

The China Mail liner China completed repairs to her main steam pipe and left for Yokohama at 6 o'clock last evening, three days late. The T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru, which arrived Monday afternoon from the Orient, steamed for San Francisco at 9 o'clock this morning.

Three boats in today
Vessels entering port today were the British steamer Kestrel, with 77 tons of alfalfa from Fanning Island; the schooner William Olsen, from Antioquia, with nitrates, and the lumber schooner Carolina, from Port Angeles with lumber. The Kestrel docked at Pier 11, Allen & Robinson's wharf, and the Olsen at Pier 13.

The Matson steamer Maui left at noon today for San Francisco.

They refused, claiming they had no money for the round trip and would not accept in payment any sum less than what would have come to them for completion of the voyage. They were given the money due. The American consulate at Yokohama secured their transportation back to San Francisco.

Winthrop M. Daniels of New Jersey, whose term as a member of the interstate commerce commission expires Dec. 31, will be reappointed by President Wilson.

LOGAN IS LATE; ARRIVES FRIDAY

Friday morning, one day late, the U. S. army transport Logan will arrive from Manila and Nagasaki, according to a wireless received this morning from the vessel by the quartermaster's office. She was 875 miles from Honolulu at 8 o'clock last night and will dock probably at Pier 8 and steam for San Francisco about 5 Friday afternoon.

The China Mail liner China completed repairs to her main steam pipe and left for Yokohama at 6 o'clock last evening, three days late. The T. K. K. liner Siberia Maru, which arrived Monday afternoon from the Orient, steamed for San Francisco at 9 o'clock this morning.

Three boats in today
Vessels entering port today were the British steamer Kestrel, with 77 tons of alfalfa from Fanning Island; the schooner William Olsen, from Antioquia, with nitrates, and the lumber schooner Carolina, from Port Angeles with lumber. The Kestrel docked at Pier 11, Allen & Robinson's wharf, and the Olsen at Pier 13.

The Matson steamer Maui left at noon today for San Francisco.

FANNING HAS NO WATER TO SPARE

Delayed by continuous head winds all the way up from Fanning Island the British steamer Kestrel, Captain F. E. Ferris, arrived off port at 7 o'clock last evening and entered today, bringing 80 tons of copra. Captain Ferris said he would have arrived Monday morning had it not been for the unfavorable winds. Steaming time was six days.

The steamer would have been back in Honolulu again by Christmas, but was delayed seven days at Nonouti, in the central portion of the Gilbert group, waiting for British labor commissioners to arrive so 150 laborers recruited in the Gilberts could be signed up and taken to the Fanning copra plantations. The Kestrel left here October 24.

Andrew Farrell, ship news reporter of the Advertiser, who made the voyage as second officer, returned on the steamer today and will go back to work in a few days. Captain Ferris said no rain has fallen on Fanning for 18 months, which will hurt the copra output for the next couple of years. He said no more improvements will be made on the island until the close of the war.

No such volume of business as was transacted at the session of the stock exchange this morning has been seen in months. The market fairly hummed and stocks boiled up as if they were in a hot kettle. Sales in the short half-hour session were 2835 shares.

Before the morning session brokers were alert and expectant, but all waiting. There had been practically three days since the last session and since then there had been developments in the peace and war situation which changed the aspect of things as well as rumors of an added duty on sugar. There were "hateful" orders from the other islands, too, but these had to wait until the exchange members met to establish prices. And then the fun was on.

Prices at the session were: Oaa 16-12 and off to 16-14; McEgry 12, 12-4 and 13; Oaha 31-12, 31-4 and 32; Pioneer 40, Ewa 34-12 and Hawaii Railway 4 1/2. Between boards sales were 225 shares, but the prices then realized were no criterion after the session of the board this morning.

Sugars overshadowed all else and there was less interest in unlisted stocks than in many days past. Mineral Products gained 11 cents and was strong at $1.10. Engels Copper was unchanged at $3.05. Oil was $3.55. Montana-Bingham strengthened to 40 cents and Mountain King remained at 25 cents.

After the session the demand for stocks continued and brokers were hustling back and forth from office to office for the balance of the afternoon.

Highlander Milk

Condensed

Milk

makes cooking a success - not a speculation

Cooking is always a success where Highlander Condensed Milk (full cream) is used.

There's good reason, too, why the careful housewife should use this famous brand.

Firstly, it ensures better flavoured dishes. It is easy to prove this.

Try a dressing where Highlander Condensed Milk has been used against one in which ordinary milk or some other condensed milk has been employed—you can at once taste the superior flavour of Highlander.

Then, too, it makes food more digestible. Scientists tell us that the process of condensation modifies the caseinogen and thus makes the milk more digestible.

Then, too, Highlander Condensed Milk is richer—you have a standard full cream milk as against a fluctuating product, of varying quality and richness.

Made from the world's finest milk, Highlander is the standard brand for tens of thousands of women who have proved its superiority. One test will suffice—you owe it to yourself to make it.

There are hundreds of recipes in the big 200-page beautifully illustrated Highlander Cook Book. Write for a free copy, to-day—address "Highlander," Dept. "A," Fred L. Waldron, Ltd., Agents, Honolulu.

LARGEST CROWD IN HISTORY AT Y. M. NEW YEAR'S DAY RECEPTION

More than a thousand people, the largest crowd ever, attended the big New Year's open house program and president's reception at the Y. M. C. A. last night. It was a varied, continuous and interesting program and kept the visitors in a happy, joyous mood throughout the long evening. This is an annual affair and all agreed that this one was the biggest New Year's event staged by the association.

Beginning at 5:30 o'clock the program ran without a break or hitch through the evening, closing at 11 o'clock. The program started with ladies' night in the cafeteria and the committee had its hands full taking care of the many couples who took supper there. The cafeteria crowded over into the billiard room, where extra tables had been set out. Kala's orchestra furnished sweet music at the feast and was an enjoyable number.

Following the supper everyone moved on to the gymnasium, where several movies were thrown on the screen. This number consisted of some comical, serious, and a news weekly.

At 8 o'clock the crowd began to move through Cooke hall, where they were received for a New Year's greeting by Mr. Frank C. Atherton, president of the association, Mrs. Frank C. Atherton, Mr. A. E. Larimer, executive secretary, and Mrs. A. E. Larimer. The president's reception committee, which helped to carry through this part of the program, were: J. P. Morgan, chairman; E. T. Chase, A. H. Tarleton, George Bennett, George Raymond, J. Brooks Brown, C. E. King, M. O. Johnson, George Cornes, Roy Blackshear, R. R. McEldowney, A. R. Robertson, Henry Bredhoff, P. H. Nottage, William Mehncke, Ralph Gaylord, Harry Decker, Richard Whitcomb, secretary.

Following this the big part of the program was held in the large games hall and here the crowd was in its element. The first number was the basketball game between the Reds, Island champions, and the All-Stars, the only team that defeated the Reds in the last basketball series of the Senior League. The Reds proved to be the better team, winning by the score of 29 to 11. It was a fast and exciting game and was appreciated by the spectators.

Prof. J. Wanell appeared twice in basso solos, Gounod's "Even Bravest Heart May Swell," and "Ouchois" "A Toreador's Love Song." He was encored for both numbers and had to respond.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra rendered some splendid selections from "The Red Mill," which took well. The Apollo Club made its first appearance with Kipling's "Recessionist" and got a big hand.

The hits of the evening were the Castner Quartet and the "Wireless Telephone." The quartet, composed of Wm. F. Wagner, first tenor; Daniel Delaney, second tenor; Charley Fuertsch, baritone, and Frank A. Wisniewski, bass, rendered a few popular airs and then assisted Harry Spiegel in a Jewish comic song act that was good.

The "Wireless Telephone" proved to be a clever and original skit, full of humor and local color. The action was built around a promoter and his pal who struck town broke. They hit upon the idea of getting a fake wireless telephone and the business they put across with them and their customers in their efforts to get the "kale" brought out many laughs. They sprang quite a few jokes on the "Y" officials. The cast included Harry Marshall as the promoter, John Ness as the negro pal, and "the whole works;" Charles Gagnert, an effeminate youth, Nell Slattery as Mae Dunsun, Harry Decker as a Japanese—Harry surprised his friends with the way in which he handled the Nippon lingo—and Pop Hutton as Wooley Bill, the wild West "puncher" who took up the shop and brought the act to a close.

Refreshments were served at the close of the performance in the big lobby.

GIRLS! TRY IT! HAVE THICK, WAVY BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Every Particle of Dandruff Disappears and Hair Stops Coming Out

Draw a Moist Cloth Through Hair and Double Its Beauty at Once

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Dandergine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandergine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Dandergine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandergine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

Save your hair! Beautify it! You will say this was the best 25 cents you ever spent.—Adv.

CHINA AND FRANCE HAVE DIPLOMATIC Muddle on Hands

PEKING, China.—France and China have become involved in a hopeless diplomatic muddle as a result of the forcible seizure by France of an addition to its concession in Tien-Tsin on October 21, as previously reported in these despatches.

Sir John Jordan, the British minister and dean of the diplomatic corps at Peking, attempted to bring about a compromise by proposing to convert the disputed territory, which consists of about 350 acres, into a Sino-French settlement to be administered jointly by the French and the Chinese.

The Chinese press and much of the Chinese public opposed such a settlement, and criticism of the French official was so harsh that the negotiations came to an end. The British minister has left for England on a four months' vacation, and the Tien-Tsin dispute is at a standstill.

Spasmodic runs have been made by Chinese on French banks both in Peking and Tien-Tsin, and many of the Chinese newspapers are advocating a general boycott against the French.

NEVADA EXPECTS STORMY SESSION

CARSON CITY, Nev.—One of the stormiest sessions of the Nevada legislature is likely when that body convenes here for a 60-day session on January 16. The storm centers are expected to be proposed legislation changing existing divorce and gambling laws and a proposition to make the state "bone dry." Heated debate is in the more likely because the house is Democratic, while the senate is controlled by the Republicans.

Good roads legislation and a proposal, fostered by the Nevada State Bar Association, to inaugurate the short ballot system, are other legislative features that will cause contests in both houses. The short ballot measure will have the support of Governor Emmet D. Boyle, who advocated it in his message to the last legislature.

The proposal to change the divorce laws to make a year's residence necessary instead of the present six months, probably will supply the material for the longest and stormiest contest of the session. An initiative petition on this failed recently because of a lack of sufficient voters signing it.

A strong fight for "bone-dry" prohibition already has been started through the filing of an initiative petition. In case the legislature passes the proposed statute it will go on the ballot at the next general election.

Efforts probably will be made to restore the direct primary system, although friends of the present convention system are prepared to make every possible move for its retention, with some slight modifications.

The gambling fight likely will center about a proposal to prohibit all forms of games of chance in the state. Only slight changes are expected in the race track laws, however, which now permit betting under the pari-mutuel system.

ASSETS OF BISHOP MUSEUM AMOUNT TO OVER ONE MILLION

Charging themselves with $102,824.80 and asking to be allowed $92,143.64, the trustees of the Bernice Pauahi Bishop museum have filed in circuit court their 20th annual accounts. The report covers the 12 months ending October 12, 1916.

The accounts show that on October 12 there was a balance of $10,781.76 in the hands of the trustees and that real property investments amounted to $194,956.75 and the total assets to $1,367,989.37. In addition to the year's surplus, the accounts show, the museum's reserve fund at the end of the fiscal year was $66,392.27, an increase of $9188.81 over the previous fiscal period. The accounts as a whole show the institution to be in excellent financial condition.

President Poincare has awarded a gold medal to Mrs. Harry Duryea of New York for her services during the last two years as head of an American aid committee for war victims.

NIGHT SCHOOLS OPEN TONIGHT

The new term of the Y. M. C. A. night school opens tonight, work being resumed after the Christmas holidays in all of the regular classes. The registration of the old classes and the many who are coming in for the new classes will largely increase the enrollment.

The complete commercial course, which includes the subjects of bookkeeping and accounting, commercial arithmetic, business English and spelling as well as the special series of lectures which are given from time to time, will be open for the enrollment of a new class. The cost of this course makes it possible for everyone to obtain high grade business instruction at a low figure.

There will be 29 courses open for enrollment this week. Besides the courses in business there will be offered four classes in English, three classes in mathematics, with arithmetic, algebra, geometry and trigonometry. The mechanical courses, such as mechanical architectural drawing and the machine shop course, will also be open to enrollment this week. R. K. Thomas, educational secretary, is in charge of the registration.

BURGLES STEALS BOOZE

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondent) WAILUKU, Maui, Dec. 29.—A burglar or burglars broke into the wholesale liquor house of the Kaupakaha Wine & Liquor Company at Paowai one night last week and got away with about $1.50 in change and several gallons of assorted liquors. Entrance to the place was effected by cutting a hole in a window, apparently by means of a diamond, through which it was possible to insert an arm and unfasten the door. The police are working on the matter but have as yet made no arrests.

HUNDREDS OF MEN SEEK CITIZENSHIP

Thirty-six aliens naturalized and 202 declarations of intention filed.

This is the record of the naturalization department of the local United States court for the year just closed. With regard to the filing of declarations of intention, the Filipinos took the lead, 223 "little brown brothers" having secured their first papers. Following is a summary of the filing of declarations:

Natives of the Philippines, 223; Portugal, 6; France, 1; Denmark, 2; Netherlands, 1; Austria, 1; Sweden, 2; Russia, 11; Canada, 1; Great Britain, 24; Germany, 12; Spain, 2; Norway, 2. A majority of the Filipinos who have filed their declarations are laborers and members of the National Guard.

MR. AND MRS. E. J. BOTTS ARRIVE FROM THE COAST

Arriving simultaneously with cards to friends here announcing their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Ebert J. Botts came in on the steamer today from San Francisco. Their wedding took place on Wednesday, December 27, at San Francisco. Mrs. Botts was Miss Ethel Murray. They are moving into the bungalow 1328 Dominis street, which Mr. Botts has taken for his residence.

A skate strap with a pad for the top of the foot to relieve the pressure has been patented.

DR. DOLE WILL TALK ON PEACE

A lecture of particular interest will be the talk given by Dr. C. Fletcher Dole of Boston at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night. Dr. Dole will talk on "Is Peace Practicable?" This subject is expected to bring out a large crowd because of the interest which has been manifested recently in the warring nations and attempts to formulate some basis for terms of peace.

The lecture Thursday evening in Cooke hall will be the first of a January series of educational and entertaining lectures under the educational department of the association. These lectures will be open to the members of the Y. M. C. A. and their men friends.

MATSONIA NIGHT AT HEINIE'S

A cordial invitation is extended to all passengers and officers of the S. S. Matsonia to attend the dinner-dance in honor of the arrival of the big Matson liner at Heinie's Tavern, on the beach at Walkiki, this evening.

A splendid cabaret program has been arranged for the evening and a most delectable dinner will be served from six to eight, after which dancing will be the feature of the evening. Local society and army and navy folk are also cordially invited to attend.

COMPANY C, NATIONAL GUARD, RESUMES REGULAR DRILLS

Members of Company C, 1st Hawaiian Infantry, National Guard, are reminded that regular drills will be resumed tomorrow evening at the armory, after the vacation during the holidays. If it is hoped by the company of recruits that a full attendance will be present to start the new year off in good style.
