EXCISE TAX WILL AFFECT HAWAII'S SUGAR BUT LITTLE

Senator Broussard of Louisiana Suggests Plan to Minimize What Slight Disadvantages New Revenue Proposal Involved

By C. S. ALBERT
(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—Limiting the application of the one-half cent excise tax to such sugar as has been through the bone-black refining process, and suspension of the "drawback section" of the Underwood-Simmons tariff act, has made the situation appear brighter for the producers of Hawaii. The "drawback" feature already has been incorporated in the pending bill by the senate finance committee. The bone-black limitation is under serious consideration.

Senator Broussard of Louisiana has made a determined fight on these two propositions. In doing so he acted for the cane-growers of his own state and those of other sections. He was granted a special hearing by the finance committee.

In presenting his case Senator Broussard first declared his opposition to the excise tax of one-half a cent a pound, but said if that tax was insisted on that it should not be imposed upon the man who tills the soil and produces the cane and the beets from which the sugar is made. The tax should be paid by the refiners, and the only way this tax could be collected from the refiner was to put a provision in the bill stating that the tax was not to apply to any sugars that had not been through a process of bone-black refining. This would exempt the cane people in Louisiana, Texas, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippine islands, provided the manufacturers of sugar in these sections washed their sugars and put them directly on the market for consumption.

He said the refiners would pass the tax back to the makers of raw sugars and the makers of raw sugars in turn would pass it to the cane growers in the sections mentioned. This amendment is still under consideration by the committee, awaiting further information.

The adoption of this provision, the senator said, would reduce the contemplated revenue to be derived from the one-half cent tax by less than $20,000,000, and to make up this loss he suggested a suspension of "drawbacks" on refined sugars. The committee has acted favorably on this suggestion and the bill when reported will contain a provision suspending the drawback section of the Underwood bill. The effect of this will be to place domestic and insular sugars on a parity with Cuban sugars and other foreign sugars so far as these sugars enter the export trade after being refined.

W. L. Welsh Barred, Alleged He Tried To Bribe Jockey

Scandal of Betting Coup Which Failed Exposed By Association Which Takes Drastic Move to Guarantee Cleanliness of Sport at Kapiolani Park—Detectives Corroborate Information From Men Who Refused to Enter Purported Deal

An alleged betting coup at Kapiolani park race track that went wrong was exposed today by the Hawaii Polo and Racing Association when George P. Cooke, chairman of the racing committee, announced that W. L. Welsh has been permanently barred from the track because, it is declared, he attempted to bribe Jockey Carroll to "throw" the six-furlong race last Saturday.

Welsh has been a chauffeur, was recently a clerk in the legislature, and is well-known in political circles. Cooke also announced that if Jockey Carroll wished to do so, he could swear out a complaint against Welsh for threatening bodily injury, and have him bound over to keep the peace.

The announcement is the result of an investigation conducted by Cooke and other leading racing men here. Last night they secured what they say is complete evidence of Welsh's effort to bribe the jockey to "pull" Satisfax, Capt. R. E. D. Hoyle's black mare which was the sensation of the recent Kapiolani park meet.

The story that came out today is complex and startling. It shws that two days before the race on Saturday the association's racing committee had information of the attempted bribe and betting coup and prepared to secure evidence upon which they could convict those behind it. Detectives, private and in the city's employ, were used and Cooke gives special credit to both sets of detectives for the work they did to unearth the alleged "fixing."

The Story

Here in brief is the story:

It is alleged that on Thursday Welsh approached Jockey Carroll, who had the mount on Satisfax, with a proposition that Carroll should "throw" the race while Welsh and his backers "cleaned up" several thousand dollars in bets. According to the proposition, Carroll was to get $50 down and $300 if he "pulled" the army mare.

This plan came to the knowledge of Satisfax's owner and his friends. They also learned that Carroll had no intention of throwing the race. Carroll was thereupon advised to accept the $50 as evidence against the men said to be in on the game.

Welsh Fails to Enlist Backers

Chairman Cooke says that Welsh said he had two men who would put up the money for the bribe, Carroll knowing that Welsh did not have it. Coke has the names of the two men but his information is that they declined to enter the deal s he does not believe it fair to them to make public their identity. However, Welsh is said to have gone ahead on the assumption that he could get the money from these two, and it is declared that on Friday Walsh told them he had Carril "fixed all right." Carroll by this time had agreed to take the $50 and have it used as evidence, under instructions from his employer.

On Saturday just after noon, Welsh is alleged to have hurried out to a beach hotel with the $50 for Carroll and there to have paid it to the jockey, with the promise of the $300 later. Then, the story goes, Welsh rushed back down town and saw the two men on whom he relied for the money, telling them they must hurry and put up sme coin to get down the bets against Satisfax. It was then, according to the information, that the men told Welsh point blank there was nothing doing. Welsh rushed back to the track and saw Carroll just before the race, telling him that the deal was off.

And just after this Carroll, who had been instructed to watch developments, reported to Cooke that Welsh said there was no chance for the deal to go through and the plan to pull Satisfax was abandoned.

The men who, it is said, refused to go in on the deal are also said to have been betting 2 to 1 on Satisfax to win.

Detectives have verified the essential parts of this information, says Cooke.

One part of the story is that Welsh said to the two men if Carroll double-crossed him he would "do up" the jockey, and also that Welsh made the same threat to Carroll direct. On these grounds, it is possible, says Cooke, for action to be taken against Welsh. Otherwise the public officials are said to have no chance to prosecute Welsh.

The whole matter has been laid before City Attorney Brown as well as before the leaders of the racing association, and Cooke says that the city attorney's office believes, as the association does, that in the interest of clean sport and as a warning to all and sundry, the story of "The Deal That Failed" should be given to the public.

That one person out of every 225 in the Territory of Hawaii purchased a Liberty bond is the conclusion derived from figures compiled by the Bishop Trust Company. Of the bonds taken fully four-fifths were of denominations of $1000 or less while those of over $5000 were approximately 10 per cent of the total number of subscribers.

Of the subscriptions taken by Bishop & Co., 469 were for amounts of $1000 or less and these are divided into 186 of $50, 180 of $100 and 103 of $500. Between $1000 and $5000 50 were purchased and over $5000 20.

The subscriptions came from all the inhabited islands in the group and the nationalities represented by the subscribers are Americans, Hawaiians, English, Scotch, Irish, French, Russian, Canadians, Germans, Poles, Italians, Portuguese, Swiss, Norwegians, Danes, Japanese and Chinese. License Body May Put Curb On Liquor Evil

Following a lengthy conference this morning between Brig. Gen. F. S. Strong, commander Hawaiian department, and Richard A. Cooke, chairman of the liquor license commission, at which the problem of controlling sale of liquor to soldiers was discussed from various angles, it became known that at this afternoon's meeting of the liquor commission, action to curb what the army terms a growing evil, will probably be attempted by the license commission. The meeting is scheduled for 4 o'clock.

Just what was discussed or what remedy considered at this morning's conference neither General Strong nor Chairman Cooke would reveal, while primarily the license commissioners meet to consider 53 applications for renewal of licenses to saloonists and wholesale liquor dealers, it is down on the program that the liquor situation shall be gone over with a view to arriving at some solution of the problem in view of General Strong's and U. S. Attorney Huber's declarations that they will call on Washington to proclaim Oahu "a dry" territory in the event steps are not taken by the civil authorities of the islands to prevent the soldiers from obtaining booze at will.

All Chairman Cooke would say regarding the meeting was that the commission will endeavor to cooperate with the military arm of the government in checking the evil. One proposal that may be acted on favorably is to prohibit bottled liquor being taken from the premises of any saloon.

General Strong's Stand

No recommendation on the local liquor question as it affects soldiers has yet been made to Washington by General Strong, nor will be until he is more thoroughly acquainted with all the facts in the case.

Gen. Strong said today that he is vitally interested in the protection of the 10,000 soldiers on Oahu and intends to do his part along with other officials to see that the present law is enforced.

"I do not intend to take any steps to harm any legitimate business, nor to override the local government so long as I am convinced it is enforcing the law," he said. "If conditions warrant it later, and if no orders are received from Washington, I shall probably make recommendations intended to aid in the protection of the soldiers. It is my duty to see that every man here is fit for service if called upon."

Many Soldiers Arrested

Several soldiers were brought in again last night for offenses which hinged around booze, Sheriff Rose's men made most of the arrests.

Policeman Abel Kia arrested August H. Snickers, Company M, 1st Infantry, in Aala Park on a charge of drinking. He is said to have had a half bottle of wine. Homer E. Ferris, 1st Company, Fort Kamehameha, was also brought in for drinking wine. He was taken by Policeman S. Kalilimoku on Beretania street near River street.

A man named McKee of the Quartermaster's Corps, Schofield barracks, was arrested by Policeman D. K. Kupa at the corner of Smith and Pauahi streets. He is said to have had two bottles of wine. Evan Flanry, Company C, 2nd Infantry, and Charles N. Wilson of the same company, were found in an alley off Aala lane with half a bottle of tokay wine and half a bottle of whisky. They tried to run away but Policeman Kia overtook them.

Cpl. Lewis Hoff and James Villars of Battery F, 9th Field Artillery, were locked up for safe keeping by the provost guard.

HUBER TO ASK U. S. TO MAKE ISLAND "DRY"?

"If the liquor license commissioners and saloon men and wholesale liquor dealers will cooperate in doing all in their power to prevent military officers and men from securing liquor, Gen. Strong's proposal to ask for an executive order establishing 'bone dry' areas would probably not be necessary," said U. S. Attorney S. C. Huber today.

Attorney Huber declares that if this cooperation is not forthcoming, and if the federal officials and the police find it impossible to cope with the situation, he himself will ask Washington for such an executive order.

"I will request this order if I fetl it is absolutely necessary," he says, "and there would be no hesitancy on my part should the occasion arise."

Attorney Huber said that the federal and other officials have hardly had adequate time to give the new law a thorough try-out. He declares that if the men who run the saloons and people who are interested in the liquor business generally attempt to evade or thwart the law, it will be impossible to cope with the situation.

"It would then be necessary to recommend to Washington that strictly dry areas be designated here," he continues. "This is the only course that could be followed.

"The authorities in Washington do not intend that military officers and enlisted men shall have liquor during the period of the war, and if they cannot enforce the law through the civil courts, then they are going to do it

WHAT IS HAWAII GOING TO DO FOR "RED CROSS WEEK?"

"Half of America's special Red Cross Week is over and so far as Hawaii is concerned, we are doing nothing.

"We need and should at once begin a real 'drive' to raise $100,000 in this territory for Red Cross purposes this week. Hawaii can easily afford it—we can afford twice that much!"

W. R. Castle thus today set forth a situation he believes needs community attention—failure here to make a special Red Cross fund appeal this week.

"Look what the mainland communities are doing—the magnificent response told of in the telegraph news," he continued. "More than one-third of the $100,000,000 has been subscribed! But the last half of that sum will come much harder than the first.

"Hawaii has had many demands and yet there is plenty of money here for the Red Cross. What are we going to do to meet this patriotic appeal?"

How about it, Honolulu? How about it, Hawaii?

FATE OF MATSON BOATS REMAINS STILL A PUZZLE

Up to noon today there were no new developments in the Maui-Matsonia situation. Castle & Cooke, the local Matson agency, received no further cables from Captain Matson over night.

There was a report today along the waterfront that the American-Hawaiian freighters Mexican and Texan, which now come back in ballast from San Francisco after taking full cargoes of sugar to the coast, might be utilized to relieve the congestion of freight awaiting shipment to island ports, which would result at San Francisco if the two largest Matson liners are commandeered this summer.

General Agent C. P. Morse of the American-Hawaiian's local office, said this morning the question has not been taken up, and that the two freighters now have all they can do to maintain their present schedule, by coming back empty from San Francisco. He said that for them to load general cargo at the coast and bring it to Honolulu would make them lose easily two weeks, one at San Francisco and another here.

Late yesterday the Associated Press sent a despatch from San Francisco, which indicates that the present Matson schedule may continue indefinitely. The despatch read:

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 19.—The Matson schedule will continue for an indefinite period, sailings remaining unchanged. The government, however, has served notice that the boats will be ultimately requisitioned, but no direct orders have yet been received.

HOW TO REGISTER FOR MILITARY SERVICE UNDER NEW WAR DRAFT

Along with the first official information received by Governor Pinkham regarding registry for the war draft is a circular on how to answer the questions which will be put on the registration cards. This circular was received yesterday in mail from the mainland, and is as follows:

Questions will be asked for you to answer in the order in which they appear on this paper. These questions are set out below with detailed information to help you answer them.

Do not write on, mark, or otherwise mutilate these instructions. Do not remove them. They should be carefully read so that you will have your answers ready when you go before the registrar.

All answers will be written on the registration card in ink by the registrar, who should be careful to spell all names correctly and to write legibly.

1. Name in full. Age in years.

This means all your names spelled out in full.

State your age today in years only. Disregard additional months or days. Be prepared to say "19," or "25," not "19 yrs., 3 mos.," or the like.

2. Home address

This means the place where you have your permanent home, not the place where you work. Be prepared to give the address in this way: "232 Main street, Chicago, Cook County, Illinois;" that is, give number and name of street first, ten town, then county and state.

3. Date of birth

Write your birthday (month, day, and year) on a piece of paper before going to the registrar, and give the paper to him the first thing. Example: "August 5, 1894."

If you do not remember the year, start to answer as you would if some one asked you your birthday, as "August 5." Then say "on my birthday this year I will be (or was) .... years old." The registrar will then fill in the year of birth. Many people do not carry in mind the year they were born. This may be obtained by the registrar by subtracting the age in years on this year's birthday from 1917.

4. Are you (1) a natural-born citizen; (2) a naturalized citizen; (3) an alien; (4) or have you declared your intention to become a citizen (specify which)?

(1) If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a natural-born citizen, no matter what may have been the citizenship or nationality of your parents. If you were born in Porto Rico, you are a citizen of the United States, unless you were born of alien parentage. If you were born abroad, you are still a citizen of the United States if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

(2) You are a naturalized citizen if you have completed your naturalization; that is, if you have "taken final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen (that is, if you have only "taken out first papers"); in the latter case you are only a "declarant."

You are also a naturalized citizen if, although foreign born, your father or surviving parent became fully naturalized while you were under 21 years of age, and if you came to the United States under 21.

(3) You are a declarant if, although a citizen or subject of some foreign country, you have declared on oath before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. Receipt from the clerk of the court of the certified copy of such declaration is often called "taking out first papers." You are not a declarant if your first paper was taken out after September 26, 1906, and is more than 7 years old.

(4) You are an alien if you do not fall within one of the three classes above mentioned.

5. Where were you born?

First name the town, then the state, then the country, as "Columbus, Ohio;" "Vienna, Austria;" "Paris, France;" "Sofia, Bulgaria."

6. If not a citizen, of what country are you a citizen or subject?

This need be answered only by aliens and declarants. Remember that a "declarant" is not yet a citizen of the United States. If an alien or declarant, state the name of your country, as "France," "Japan," "China," etc.

7. What is your present trade, occupation, or office?

This does not ask what you once did, nor what you have done most of the time, nor what you are best fitted to do. It asks what your job is right now. State briefly, as "Farmer," "Miner," "Student," "Laborer (on farm, in rolling mill, in automobile, wagon, or other factory)," "Machinist in automobile factory," etc. If you hold an office under state or federal government, name the office you hold. If you are in one of the following offices or employments, use one of the names hereafter mentioned:

"Customhouse clerk," "employed in the transmission of the mails," or "employed in an armory, arsenal, or navy yard," "mariner, actually employed in the sea service of citizen or merchant within the United States."

8. By whom employed? Where employed?

If you are working for an individual, firm, corporation, or association, state its name. If in business, trade, profession, or employment for yourself, so state. If you are an officer of the state or federal government, say whether your office is under the United States, the state, the county, or a municipality. In answer to the question as to where you are employed, give the town, county, and state where you work.

9. Have you a father, mother, wife, child under 12, or a sister or brother under 12 solely dependent upon you for support (specify which)?

Consider your answer thoughtfully. If it is true that there is another mouth than your own which you alone have a duty to feed, do not let your military ardor interfere with the wish of the nation to reduce war's misery

10. Married or single (which)? Race (specify which)?

This does not ask whether you were once married, but whether you are married now. In answer to the question as to your race, state briefly whether "Caucasian," "Mongolian," "Negro," "Malayan," or "Indian."

11. What military service have you had? Rank? Branch? Years? Nation or state?

No matter what country you served, you must give complete information. In answering these questions, first name your rank, using one of the following words: "Commissioned officer," "Noncommissioned officer," "Private." Next, state branch in which you served in one of the following words: "Infantry," "Cavalry," "Artillery," "Medical," "Signal," "Aviation," "Supply," "Marine," "Navy." Next, state the number of years' service, not counting time spent in the reserve. Finally, name the nation or state you served. If you served under the United States or one of the states of the United States, name your service in one of the following terms: "National guard (of such and such a state)," "Militia (of such and such a state)," "Volunteers of United States," or "Regular Army (Navy) of United States."

12. Do you claim exemption from draft? Specify grounds.

Because you claim exemption from draft, it by no means follows that you are exempt. For the information of the war department you should make a claim now if you intend to prosecute it. Some persons will be exempted on account of their occupations or offices, some on account of the fact that they have relatives dependent upon them for support. Your answer touching these things will be important in supporting the claim you now intend to make in your answer to the present questions. Be sure, therefore, that the grounds you now state are in conformity with your answers to questions 7 and 8. In stating grounds you claim as exempting you, use one of the following terms: If you claim to be an executive, legislative, or judicial officer of the state or nation, name your office and say whether it is an office of the state or nation. If you claim to be a member of a religious sect whose creed forbids its members to participate in war in any form, simply name the sect. If you are employed in the transmission of the United States mails or as an artificer or workman in an armory, arsenal, or navy yard of the United States, or if you are a mariner employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, so state. If you are a felon or otherwise morally deficient and desire to claim exemption on that ground, state your ground briefly. If you claim physical disability, state that briefly. If you claim exemption on any other ground, state your ground briefly.

HUB CLOTHING CO. TO HAVE NEW STORE

The Hub Clothing Store has moved to temporary location, at 78 South King street, opposite the Union Grill, in the building recently vacated by the Cunha Music Company.

The Hub is one of the oldest men's clothing stores in Honolulu, in fact there is but one such establishment that has been here longer than the Hub. The first store was opened in 1898 by the late J. S. Spitzer, father of the present proprietor and manager, in a small building on King street, near Alakea. In the second year, it was found necessary to have larger quarters, and the move was made to the location on Hotel street, which has since become so well known as a place of fair prices and high qualities.

The Hub plans to have the most modern clothing establishment in the city when the new buildings are completed and will move back to the old and permanent address just as soon as the contractors will make the place ready, which, it is hoped, will be by the end of this year.—Adv.

LIQUOR SUSPECTS UNDER BIG BOND

A. Garcia, charged with furnishing liquor to military men in uniform, was bound over to the federal grand jury under bond in the sum of $1000 late yesterday afternoon following a preliminary hearing of the case before U. S. Commissioner George S. Curry. Garcia is the second alleged liquor seller to be bound over since the arrest of six persons charged with a similar offense.

The four men arrested Monday evening and turned over to the marshal yesterday, probably will have a hearing of their case tomorrow afternoon. Bond has been fixed at $1000 in each case.

ISLANDS BOOSTED BY SEED EXPERT

How an expert seed man and horticulturist of Philadelphia is advertising Honolulu through the medium of popular lectures on Hawaiian plant life is learned in a letter received by C. Y. Wilmarth, manager of the Pleasanton Hotel, from J. Otto Thilow, who visited here last January, enclosing clippings of one of his lectures and a "Who's Who" of himself.

The letter to Wilmarth contains a new testimonial for the island's attractiveness and reads in part as follows:

"I regret I could not stay in Honolulu much longer as I only got a taste of that beautiful place which to the eye of a horticulturist is a great enticement and certainly satisfying. I gave a lecture recently before the University of Pennsylvania and June 11 delivered the same to the New York Horticultural Society, Florists' Club.

The "Who's Who" follows in part:

"Mr. Thilow is a member of the community whose natural tastes and aptitudes lead him to a study of the wonders of vegetation. He is one of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, a former president of the Philadelphia Florists' Club and a member of the Society of American Florists and National Gardeners' Society. If the small householder would follow Mr. Thilow's advice he would convert his little back yard into an item which he could post on the credit side of his expense account. Mr. Thilow is secretary of the well known seed house of Henry A. Dreer, Incorporated, of 714 Chestnut street, Philadelphia. He is one of those rare men who make their business a noble pursuit for the development of civic pride even more than for personal gain."

The newspaper article then goes on to state that nearly 300 members of the Masonic fraternity listened to a lecture on Hawaii and Honolulu given by Past Master J. Otto Thilow, and illustrated by 125 pictures, nearly 100 of which were taken by himself while on a visit to that island of the United States with his wife and daughter during January and February.

U. S. IS NEGOTIATING FOR JAPANESE SHIPS

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—The United States government is now negotiating with Japan for the transfer to Atlantic waters from the Pacific of enough merchant shipping to relieve the great freight congestion which is developing, with many American ships being tied up for government purposes and the British shipping being employed in the transportation of its own and its allies' supplies.

PROMOTED, GOES TO COAST POST

Cable advices announcing the promotion of Capt. John F. Curry, Aviation Corps, to rank of major and ordering hi nto the mainland on the next transport were received today at army headquarters from the adjutant general at Washington. Curry is in charge of aviation at headquarters.

Caj. Curry is ordered to report by telegraph to the adjutant general for assignment as soon as he reaches the mainland No officer has been assigned in his place here, but it is expected that Capt. Jhn B. Brooks, associated with Curry in aviation work, may fill the vacancy.

The fact that Curry had been promoted to major was interesting news at headquarters. It is evident that the promotion is under the new allotment in signal corps through which one colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, eight majors, 24 captains and 114 first lieutenants were required. It is probable that Capt. Brooks gets his promotion in the infantry branch from first lieutenant to captain it.

Curry has been in Hawaii about four months, having come for duty with the 6th Aero Squadron, assigned here. He served previously on the border under Gen. J. J. Pershing.

BLEDSOE SAYS HE CAN BE FAIR IN OIL TRIALS

Federal Judge Benjamin F. Bledsoe experiences no sense of disqualification, personal or legal, to prevent him from giving a fair trial in the suit brought by the government to recover oil land from the Honolulu Consolidated Oil Company, according to his answer filed June 12 in the circuit court of appeals to the mandamus proceedings instituted against him, according to the San Francisco Examiner.

Peter F. Dunne of the counsel for the company claimed that Judge Bledsoe had owned stock in the National Pacific Oil Company in 1915, when he disposed of it; that the National's interests were similar to the Honolulu corporation's and the jurist would be affected in his decision.

When questioned by Presiding Judge Wm. B. Gilbert of the circuit court why Dunne should bring up this question when ostensibly Dunne's client, if any, would be in the favored position, and the government at a disadvantage, Attorney Dunne answered that if the judge were disqualified neither side had the right to overlook the disqualification.

Judge Bledsoe stated in the answer that he owned 1125 shares of National Pacific which cost him in 1912, $300. This he disposed of for $16.90 in 1915, when Federal Judge Oscar Trippett was disqualified because he owned a large block of stock in an oil corporation.

MAY BE AVENGED

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

HUTCHINSON, Kansas, June 20.—Dick Carter of Springfield, Mo., was arrested here yesterday, charged with direct complicity in the death of little Lloyd Keet, the 14-months-old son of a wealthy Springfield family who was abducted two weeks ago and whose body was later found in a well.

The prosecuting attorney of the county in which the Keet family lives issued a warrant several days ago charging Carter, who is 26 years old with having strangled the baby by wrapping blankets around the body until the little lad was smothered.

Following the issuance of the warrant, private detectives, federal agents and the police of more than 100 cities were asked to aid in running down Carter. Federal agents who had been working at Springfield soon after left for Kansas.

LARGE RESPONSE TO RED CROSS APPEAL

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—More than one-third of the $100,000,000 sought for the American Red Cross has already been subscribed and less than a third of the time set for the raising of it has elapsed. Figures set for the amount to be raised during Red Cross week are expected to be surpassed much as the Liberty loan was over subscribed.

The general committee in charge of the Red Cross week campaign last night announced that contributions for the first two days were in excess of $35,000,000 and at that were incomplete. Committeemen were enthusiastic over these results and the hearty and ready support that is being given the movement from every section of the country that has reported.

APPLICATIONS FOR JOBS POUR IN ON BOURBONS

Further applications for positions under the new city and county administration were received at a meeting of the Democratic county committee held last night in the new headquarters of the party in the Elite building. This, and the transaction of routine business, was all that transpired.

Another meeting is scheduled for next Tuesday evening at which time it is reported, the applications will be opened and definitely passed on.

Outdoor Circle members have been called into a special meeting Saturday morning at 10 o'clock to discuss a resolution directed against liquor and commercialized vice on Oahu.

PUUNUI STREETS

Fred Kirchhoff, engineer of the loan fund commission, today filed with that body a report on the present condition of streets in Puunui district, recently sewered under contract with the Lord-Young Engineering Company, as follows:

"On Liliha street, at the corner of Judd street, the entire road surface has been washed away, not only over the sewer line, but also on both sides of the road.

"This same condition exists about 800 feet above Judd street, where the entire surface, for about 200 feet, has been destroyed by floow waters.

"From there up to Wyllie street the surface over the sewer line is in fair condition, better in fact than along either side, where the surface was not disturbed by the trenching.

"Above Wyllie street, the surface in many places has been removed by water. This is the case as far as the manhole at Kauai street. One bad place is about 200 feet mauka of Wyllie street, where the whole surface and sub-grade is loose.

"Alewa street and Lani stret are in god shape. Neither of them was an improved road. Having no macadam, they naturally are muddy in rainy weather.

"Wyllie street, from Liliha street to Puunui, is in bad condition over the whole width.

"In four or five places the top surface has been washed away, and generally the whole surface is undulating and bumpy.

"Between Puunui and Rooke street the surface is fair, there being one soft place in the vicinity of the man hole at Rooke street.

"On Wyllie street, from Liliha, going toward Nuuanu avenue, the top surface over the line of the sewer has been washed off, leaving the present surface slightly below the level of the street surface."

GERMANS MUST SECURE PERMITS

Marshal J. J. Smiddy wants it understood that it is a violation of the law for German aliens to roam the streets and the local restricted areas without possession of permits issued by his office.

In the opinion of the marshal there are a number of German aliens in Honolulu who thus far have failed to secure their permits, and the arrest of such persons within the restricted areas will necessitate a water-tight and emphatic explanation on the part of the defendant to keep the mills of federal justice from beginning to grind.

To date the marshal's office has issued in the neighborhood of 150 permits to German aliens and applications are drifting in daily. German aliens residing on the other islands have applied for permits in order that they come to Honolulu on business.

Buildings, Parks, Vierra Is Slated

In order that all public grounds and buildings may be under one head, an ordinance was passed by the board of supervisors Tuesday night creating the position of superintendent of public grounds and public buildings and eliminating the positions of superintendent of parks and playgrounds and superintendent of Kapiolani park and the public baths. The ordinance also gives the new superintendent the power to appoint and discharge all school janitors and park employes.

While this ordinance tends to promote efficiency by seeking to secure concentration and unity, the political significance of it is that it further curtails the power of J. J. Fern, the Democratic mayor-elect.

A. K. Vierra, a protege of Ben Hollinger, who has held the position of superintendent of parks, is slated for the new job. John H. Wise, who rules at Kapiolani park will in all probability remain, according to Hollinger, as an appointee of Vierra and the Republican county committee.

Until the passage of this new ordinance the janitors were appointed by the mayor with the approval of the board.

There has been doubt as to whether Mayor Lane will sign the ordinance, but he has cleared this up with the announcement that it would be signed as soon as it reaches him.

The board failed last night to introduce ordinances establishing the positions of superintendent of the electric light department and fire chief as A. M. Cristy, deputy city attorney, told the board that it would not be necessary because the departments had been established by the territory before handing them over to the county. It is expected, however, that at a future meeting to make it doubly sure the ordinances will be passed.

RENEWAL OF DOMESTIC DEMAND FOR SUGAR EXPECTED BY MARKET CRITIC

(From Czarnikow-Rionda Company, 112 Wall Street.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 1.—The market has been quiet, with very few transactions recorded the past week, during which business in Cubas was limited to small lots for June and second-half June shipment at 5c. c.f. (6.02c.) to operators and about an equal quantity in nearby positions at .06c. less to refiners, who also paid 5.89c. delivered for some Porto Ricos afloat for New York. Total reported sales for the week aggregate about 7,500 tons Cubas, 6,000 tons Porto Ricos and 1,500 tons full duty sugars, the last mentioned being placed on 24th inst. with Canadian refiners and on 28th with local refiners, at 4.69c. and 4.75c, respectively, all c.i.f. New York.

United States refiners having as yet shown little or no desire to provide for June/July requirements, sellers in Cuba have consequently been confining their attention to the small business that from time to time it is possible to close for shipment abroad, at prices ranging between 4.60c and 4.65c. f.o.b. terms. However, though sales for July shipment could be readily made at the latter figure, business thereat is for the present of greatly restricted character, owing to the fact that sellers in the Island are looking for higher prices.

In Granulated for export to both Europe and South America a moderate amount of business is booked here almost daily, transactions for the week being estimated at about 20,000 tons at prices ranging between 6.60c. and 6.75c. f.o.b., according to the shipment required.

The falling off in domestic demand for refined sugars, after the very large purchases made by the trade in general, is quite natural at this time, but with the usually large summer demand now so close at hand, a renewal of activity may be expected to set in at no distant date. And the advent of the reopening of the Franklin refinery in Philadelphia, as recently intimated will shortly occur, together with the generous quantity of Granulated pending delivery to the trade against outstanding contracts, doubtless forecast heavy melting for some time to come. In fact, it would not be surprising if the figures for June/July at the three Atlantic ports should exceed the 457,000 tons melted during the corresponding two months of last year. The bulk of the necessary raw supplies for these operations would naturally have to be drawn from Cuba, and in a larger ratio than last year, by reason of Porto Rico, with an estimated crop about equal to its predecessor, having already sold and shipped to the Atlantic ports and New Orleans combined almost 69,000 tons more than in 1916. In addition to this, Cuba, having hither to disposed of a larger percentage of her estimated production than was the case at same time a year ago, should be in a position to avoid the development of any selling pressure of sufficient force to materially depress prices, as witnessed during the past fortnight when, in the face of very small transactions, the market has held comparatively steady at between 4.875c. and 5c. c.f.

United States Tariff

According to advices from Washington, D. C., the senate finance committee has decided to eliminate from the war revenue bill the extra 10% ad valorem duty on sugar contained therein when previously passed by the lower house, but has agreed to the levy of ½c. per pound xcise tax on the product. The latter provision would, of course, apply to the domestic as well as the imported article and present indications are that the bill will ultimately be enacted in this form.

EXPLANATION MADE OF BIG CUT IN ESTIMATE OF CUBA SUGAR PROFITS

A further statement on the reduction in estimates on the profits of the Cuban sugar crop has been made by the Republic of Cuba news bureau of New York. As already published in the Star-Bulletin, the bureau announced that the 1917 crop would net the producers only about $3 instead of $9 per sack. An explanation of the mistake is made as follows:

"When the statement of the estimate of the profits to the Cuban producer was first made it was confused somewhat with the amount of money returned to the island and with what it contributed to the economic and industrial life of Cuba, but it was not intended to indicate the amount that would accrue to the owners of the sugar estates through the net operations of the sugar centrals alone. In clearing up this misapprehension it is important to state that at the present cost of sugar and the market rate, the average profit will approximate $3 a bag or a cent a pound. Some of the island estates organized with a view to special efficiency, will exceed this profit while others with decidedly lower profits will leave the average as stated.

"The fact of the highest importance, therefore, is that the rumors of excessive profits, which have become generally credited, are not in fact correct, and that in a faithful estimate of the actual average profits, not only typically efficient sugar producers should be considered, but the industry in Cuba as a whole.

"While raw sugar today commands an exceptionally high price in the world market, the factors that have entered into its production in Cuba this year are such as to discount all earlier estimates of abnormal profits. The facts, being as here stated, are cited at this time in order that the public, which in the end pays for the sugar produced, may realize the correct status of the matter and that Cuba, in levying its war tax on sugar, may be understood as exerting the maximum effort to raise war revenues at a time when the sugar producers there, through a variety of causes, are bound to realize only the minimum of the various estimated profits."

News has been received by the Waterhouse Co. that at the latest Singapore rubber auctions commencing Wednesday, plantation pale crepe realized 58.78 cents per pound. The New York price for the corresponding date was 70.50 cents.

WHITNEY-MARSH STORE IS TO BE REMODELED

Epidemic of remodeling has struck Fort street and there is hardly a store now between King and Hotel which has not in view some kind of change or has already finished the work.

Wickman remodeled its store the end of last year, Ehlers is now in the throes of reconstruction, the Hollister Drug Company building is to have another floor added and now Whitney & Marsh announces that it is having plans drawn for additions to its store.

According to the plans outlined by Maurice Brasch, manager of Whitney & Marsh, the second floor is to be extended back to the rear wall of Henry May & Company's annex, which will enlarge that floor 35 feet to the rear and 25 feet wide. The entire interior is to be remodeled, new show cases installed and an artistic front built. Ripley & Davis are the architects.

PAHALA SUGAR MILL RESUMES OPERATIONS

The Hawaiian Agricultural Company's mill at Pahala has resumed operation after a shut down of several months, according to C. Brewer & Company, agency.

The 1917 crop was late this year due to a late planting because of weather conditions. During the interval, however, new vacuum pans were installed and so nothing was really lost by the delay as the pans would have had to be replaced anyway.

When the mill stopped grinding 4000 tons had been run, which leaves 9000 tons still to grind, as the estimate of 13,000 tons is expected to hold.

MONTANA-BINGHAM IS HEAVY TRADER

Except for a sudden spurt in Montana-Bingham the stock market experienced a listless day. But Montana-Bingham, reinforced by favorable reports received in the last mail from Utah, proved an attractive stock, overnight sales approximating 35,000 shares being recorded. The top notch price was 48 cents. Starting off at 39, Montana-Bingham went up cent by cent until a block of 3000 was gobbled up at 48.

Honolulu Oil fell off a trifle from yesterday's price, being quoted today at from $4.10 to $4.15.

HONORS GIVEN IN PUNAHOU 'PREP' COMMENCEMENT

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

OAHU COLLEGE, June 20.—The eighth grade of the Punahou preparatory school held its commencement exercises before a large and enthusiastic audience of parents and friends yesterday morning. The program opened with the singing of the Processional by the school chorus, to which the graduates marched in and took their places upon the platform. The girls looked sweet in their simple but dainty white dresses, as did the boys look gallant in their new suits.

The stage had been transformed into an attractive "Green Spring House" with its background of graceful, feathery bamboo and at the sides were potted ferns and clinging vines. Along the front of the platform was an attractive little white lattice which came up to an opening through which the students passed. Trailing greens and lilies of white and yellow, the class colors, nodded their stately heads over this lattice. The stage at either end was curtained with live vines and flowers which finished the frame for the class.

Golden Shower, which formed part of the decorations above, occasionally showered bits of gold on the graduating class which added to the beauty of this picture. A large part of the credit for these decorations is due to the seventh grade teachers, Mrs. Davis and Miss Hasty, and their pupils.

The invocation was offered by Rev. John H. Williams.

Marion Stodart delivered in a most pleasing manner her personal reminiscences of her visit to the exposition. "The Rise of a Great Industry," by Theodore Cooley, was ably given.

The topics, "A Great Wrong" and "A Great Wrong Righted," given respectively by Bernice Tong and Edward Akioka, were intensely interesting.

"The History of Moving Pictures," by Ethel Harvey, showed great study and preparation on a topic in which the whole world is interested and entertained.

Charlotte Cox, with a map drawing of the island group, led the audience to realize the importance and interesting facts and features of our own Hawaii nei.

"Time and Its Measurement," by Frederick Klebahn, with drawings, showed how the ancients measured time and how the Hebrew, the Greek, the Roman and the Punahou boys told the time of day.

Dorothy Beardmore's "Lydia Kahanamoku and the Better Vacation School," gave a very lifelike description of the experiences and the joys of this little Hawaiian girl, who attended the vacation school.

Richard Simonton entertained the audience with the good old story of the horse trade, from "David Harum."

The singing of "Hawaii" by the school chorus accompanied by the orchestra was a fitting number towards the conclusion of the program. The music was in charge of Miss Jane L. Winne, who has done much for Punahou this year in the line of music.

Bonnar Lindsay, class president, in a neatly phrased speech, narrated the history associated with that series of bas reliefs known as Thorwaldsen's "Triumph of Alexander." Last year's class presented a portion of this frieze and Bonnar, in his remarks, said that this year's graduating class wished to add to this work of art. In addition to this handsome gift, in the name of the class, he presented a large framed picture of the graduates perpetuating the custom of having each class leave this token of aloha for their school.

Mr. Fitts, in behalf of the school, thanked the graduating class for their gift and for the sentiment of loyalty to the school that went with it. Mr. Fitts' final message to the class was "Be On Deck." Using as an illustration the scorer of a baseball team calling on the players in their turn he made the point that every boy and girl was on deck in the game of life and should be prepared by doing every day with their might the things that their hands found to do, preparing themselves to take their turn and do their part.

Tie for Scholarship Cup

Diplomas were then presented to the class. The ward of the scholarship cup showed a tie between Ethel Harvey and Edward Akioka, both of whom have maintained a splendid record as well as a high standard in scholarship throughout their entire eighth grade year. Ethel Harvey started in the first grade and has had Punahou's full course. Edward Akioka has been with us one year and during that short period has made a fine record for himself.

The first prize in the Damon rhetorical contest was awarded to Richard Simonton and second prize went to Ethel Harvey. Edward Meyer received honorable mention. The prizes consisted of books. The first prize was two volumes, one of Hawthorne and the other of Dickens; while the second prize was an illustrated book of the Song of Hiawatha.

Last year one of our trustees, W. R. Castle, presented a large silver cup for the Punahou Preparatory School military drill. This cup is awarded to that company which has made the very best record in all round work for the year. This year this honor was won by Company E, Cadet Captain Henry Pogue.

A reception was then held for the graduating class in their class room.

The Graduates

FINAL EXERCISES OF NORMAL SCHOOL HELD

Fifty-six students of the Normal school, members of the class of 1917, received diplomas at commencement exercises held last night in the Mission Memorial building. Aside from the graduates, those on the platform were Edgar Wood, principal of the Normal for 22 years; Governor L. E. Pinkham, Henry W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction, and Theodore Richards.

The program opened with an invocation by Rev. L. L. Loofbourow, this being followed by the singing of "The Heavens Are Telling" by the Normal chorus. Mr. Richards, who addressed the graduates, explained some of the intricacies of the business of teaching and cited some interesting points with regard to how drudgery may be removed from this vocation.

Following the address the junior class chorus sang "Sweet May," and Principal Wood then conferred the diplomas. The program was concluded with the singing of "Awake, Ye Bards," from Smieton's wedding march from "King Arthur."

A Proclamation

The nations of the entire world, with few exceptions, are now at war.

The United States of America, through its Representatives in Congress, has decided it to be its duty and interest to take an active and leading part in this war. Its citizenship accepts the responsibility for all the cost in lives, tragedy and treasure.

Among those for whom this citizenship acts are the young, the innocent and the dependents.

To them the slaughter, the wounds, the destruction of war means a pitiful helplessness.

Children may help children. Children may, in the ways child heart speaks to child heart, send sympathy and material help to children now suffering.

I therefore recommend that the children of Honolulu, including the pupils of the public and private schools, meet together in the Capitol grounds on Friday afternoon, the twenty-second of June, at half past two o'clock, and there show the spirit of humanity and love the world has for ages been trying to attain, and bring such contributions as their generous impulses incline them to offer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the Territory of Hawaii to be affixed.

(SEAL) DONE at the Capitol, in Honolulu, this Fourteenth day of June, A. D. 1917.
(Signed) LUCIUS E. PINKHAM,
Governor of the Territory of Hawaii.

By the Governor:
CURTIS P. IAUKEA,

No Good Reason For a Fight

No good reason exists now for a fight between the five Republican supervisors and the two Democratic supervisors of the incoming administration.

The only questions of serious issue are those of patronage. The rank and file of the Republican party naturally wants all positions filled by Republicans. The rank and file of the Democratic party just as naturally wants all positions filled by Democrats.

But the five Republican supervisors and the two Democratic supervisors are all reasonable men, all men of experience in business as well as experience in politics, and all of them know as businessmen that difficult issues can be settled, apparent obstacles smoothed away, by discussion in a reasonable, sane spirit.

That is what should take place now.

It is a fact that the Democratic minority has made no unreasonable claims nor has it threatened to "get the scalp" of present Republican officials. During the campaign considerable talk of the typical stump speech variety was loosed by both sides. Since the election there have been various rumors of what Supervisors-elect Petrie and McClellan, Democrats, would do, but these rumors have been without any encouragement or authorization by the two men.

The situation is such that the seven supervisors-elect have every reason for getting together in a spirit of harmony and mutual understanding. They have every reason for beginning their administration two weeks hence without squabbles. They have every reason for adjusting their differences before the board is organized, so that on July 2 they can square away, without obstacle or friction, for the best two years of business management this city has ever experienced.

It can be done if there is the disposition on both sides to do it. And the disposition must exist on the Republican as well as on the Democratic side.

A policy by the Republicans of freezing out the Democratic minority in the matter of committee representation will work against a harmonious beginning. One Republican board was virtually wrecked some years ago because of a fight at the outset over a committee chairmanship. There is no need for such a fight now, for the Democrats have not made any demands for good committee representation, but they are entitled to such representation because they are on the board and because the city has elected them to the board to be workers and not figureheads.

A policy by the Republicans of freezing out the Democrats in the matter of city employes will also work against harmonious beginning. The Democrats are entitled to a voice—though they would get no general public support in an attempt to displace efficient Republicans who are looking after city affairs faithfully—they are entitled to a voice in city management, and that means the employment of men.

Messrs. Petrie and McClellan were elected by voters who were perfectly willing to entrust them with a share of the city management. There has been nothing since the election to demonstrate that these two Democrats are betraying that trust. They are entitled to fair play in the organization of the new board and the apportioning of its business, and if there is fair play and no prejudice all around, the new administration will be launched on an even keel, ready for efficient business.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOAT CLUBS.

Support for the boat clubs of the city in their efforts to secure permanent homes on the harbor is amply justified on the basis of the value these clubs have been to the city and the territory.

They have furnished splendid, clean sport for decades; they have provided wholesome social surroundings and activities for thousands of young men and boys; and they have been and are a fine promotion asset to Hawaii.

Their plans now call for the establishment of clubhouses along the new Pier 2, with a basin for a 100-yard swimming straightway. The plans if carried out will provide not only permanent homes for four clubs but also a permanent swimming center.

Yesterday an Associated Press despatch brought news that Hawaii has been awarded the Amateur Athletic Union 100-yard championship swimming event, one of the biggest annual fixtures in the world of amateur sport. The holding of this race will give Hawaii splendid publicity all over the United States aid in foreign countries. Because swimming has been fostered here in the past, Hawaii has had an untold amount of desirable publicity, and the fostering has been done by the swimming organizations and boat clubs.

It is essential to the future of swimming tournaments as well as to the future of rowing regattas that the boat clubs and the proposed 100-yard straightaway be established permanently.

The board of harbor commissioners will meet at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon in the basement of the Capitol to discuss the plans for the clubhouses and swimming basin. The clubs have worked out their plans carefully and secured indorsements from a number of business and public interests affected by the pier scheme. What the clubs ask seems reasonable and the board, if there is no practical objection, may well join unanimously in helping carry out these plans.

KENYON'S SUGGESTION.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa said in a speech the other day:

"If Congress can't stop this robbery of the food robbers—and that is a mild term for it—the people will find some way if they have to make use of the lamp post."

He was applauded.

The Austrian reichstag was broken up in a near-riot when somebody suggested hanging the Poles, but in the calm and deliberate United States senate everybody applauded lustily when Senator Kenyon of Iowa hinted that food speculators ought to be escorted to the lamp-posts.

British sentiment is swinging in favor of women's suffrage. The women have proved that in war-time they can step into the places in industrial life left by the men who go out to fight—and Britannia moves along about the same as ever.

Hawaii will not have bona-fide prohibition for the soldiers until there is bona-fide prohibition for everybody else.

Looks as if some of the Democratic patronage schemes will be submarined without warning.

A couple of stiff sentences will show the boot leggers that the shoe is on the other foot.

Swatting slackers in Hawaii is going to be a popular summer sport.

U. S. OFFICIALS STAND FIRM TO HUNT SLACKERS

"I have my instructions, direct from the attorney-general in Washington, and they are explicit," said U. S. Marshal Jerome J. Smiddy today. "As soon as the territorial officials are ready to begin registration, my office will be ready to enforce the registration law."

As reported in the Star-Bulletin yesterday, Marshal Smiddy has been instructed to be ready to arrest all "slackers" and others in Hawaii who, coming within the specified age limit, fail to register for military service when the proper time comes.

Since the publication of the story, there has been some discussion with regard to the right of the federal officials to take a hand in the work of registration. To clear this up, federal officials point out that the registration regulation is a federal law, and that the enforcement of the law rests solely with the United States attorney and marshal.

In rounding up "slackers" Marshal Smiddy will enlist the aid of the sheriffs and deputy sheriffs in various counties, but admits that the task of ferreting out the ones who fail to register will be difficult.

ROTARIANS TO HEAR ABOUT CITY CHARTERS

Here is the announcement of the Rotary Club for the weekly lunch program tomorrow:

"AN ISLAND BOY"

"Prof. J. R. Douglas, son of our old friend David Douglas of Ewa, is home for a visit. He will be the special guest and speaker at noon, this Thursday, June 21. Prof. Douglas, a graduate of McKinley High School and University of California, is an instructor in the 'department of political science' in the university at Berkeley. He has been a special writer and lecturer on the topic of 'Municipality and charters' for several years and and Charters' for several years and This will be a timely and valuable talk."

FERN CONVALESCING, CONDITION NOT SERIOUS

Mayor-elect Fern, who underwent an operation for a carbuncle at the emergency hospital Sunday, is convalescing there under the care of Police Surgeon R. G. Ayer and will probably be removed to the Manoa residence of Sheriff Rose in a day or two for a much needed rest.

Dr. Ayer says it will be but a matter of time before his patient is on his feet and at work again. The doctor denies the report that the condition of the mayor-elect is serious and classifies as absolutely false a statement he is suffering from blood poison.

HONOLULU MILITARY ACADEMY ENDS YEAR

Tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 6 the Honolulu Military Academy will hold the graduation exercises of its eighth grade. The features will include an address by Chaplain Ignatius Fealy, Schofield Barracks, the trial scene from "The Merchant of Venice" by the Century Club of the school, inspection of new buildings by visitors, and a competitive cadet drill. Visitors as well as relatives and old friends of the school are cordially invited to attend.

QUARTERMASTER CLERKS GET RAISE IN SALARY

Clerks in the quartermaster's division of the army will share the good fortune of a raise in salaries along with soldiers proper. This raise will begin on July 1.

For clerks receiving less than $1200 a year, an increase of 10 per cent is to be allowed. Between $1200 and $1800 the increase will be 5 per cent of the original pay. The exact number of clerks affected by the raise in pay could not be ascertained today at the office of the quartermaster.

FEDERAL BUREAU URGES REGISTRATION OF BIRTHS

Secretary of the Territory Curtis P. Iaukea has just received from the bureau of commerce and statistics a circular letter urging the need of birth registration of all children.

Special emphasis is laid on the registration of births, the present war draft being used to show the need of full data on individuals. The letter points out that the registration of a child's birth is a duty which is owed to the child by its parents.

Home defense corps of New York State will have uniforms of field gray or slate color.

COMPANY B, 25TH INFANTRY, WORKS BUSILY AT HILO

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

HILO, June 18.—Capt. McNab of Company B, 25th Infantry, is giving his men plenty to do now-a-days and they are to be seen performing all kinds of exercises and drills at Mooheau park every day. The men who are not on sentry duty are kept hard at work doing things that will come in handy for them later.

The 25th Infantrymen have created a fine impression in Hilo and they already seem part and parcel of the community. The men have behaved very well and they have settled down to be regular citizens of this city. They are still camped in the Hilo armory grounds, where they keep everything as bright as a new pin.

The guards on certain places in and near Hilo have been taken off in order that they might get some training that will prepare them for the war. That the 25th will, before long, be on the move to parts unknown seems to be the rumor that is going the rounds. The men themselves seem to imagine that things will go that way before long and they are not backward in declaring that it cannot come too soon for them.

Just to show that it is real wartime, a soldier who was one of the guard placed on the former German steamer O. J. D. Ahlers and who was found asleep while on duty, was sentenced recently to three years' imprisonment and dishonorable discharge at the end of the term.

AVIATION CORPS RULES CHANGED

The qualifications for entrants in the army aviation course for reserve officers have been slightly modified. Telegraphic instructions to that effect have just been received by Col. W. A. Glassford, department aeronautical officer, 610 Royal Insurance building, San Francisco.

The minimum age limit has been reduced from 21 to 19 years, but the maximum remains at 30. The educational qualifications are now two or three years in college or the equivalent.

A practical or theoretical knowledge of internal combustion engines, or other special knowledge of a kindred nature, will be considered as the equivalent of the necessary years in college.

Minimum height is 64 inches, minimum weight, 128 pounds; maximum weight, 190 pounds. The physical examination will continue more rigid than that for admission to any other branch of the army.

The students enter as privates, and are promoted to non-commissioned grades and eventually to first lieutenancies as they progress.

REGISTRATION APPLIES TO ALIENS WHO DESIRE TO BECOME U. S. CITIZENS

"Is an alien who has declared intention of becoming an American citizen, and who is between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, subject to draft?"

This is a question which was put to Will Wayne, secretary to the governor, a few days ago by the mother of an alien, the argument advanced to the secretary being that such a declaration did not necessarily mean protection from the government.

Wayne answered the lady to the effect that registration would be required of her son. The law is explicit on this point, he says.

ARMY ORDERS

Pvt. 1st Cl. Rollin O. Ritter and Pvt. Lawrence Denoyer, Jr., C. A. C., 4th Company, Fort Kamehameha, T. H., are transferred as privates to Troop D, 4th Cavalry, now at that fort, and will report to the commanding officer of the latter named organization for duty accordingly. The expense incident to these transfers will be borne by the soldiers.

The following changes of station of enlisted men of the Ordnance Department are ordered:

First Cl. Pvt. John St. John, Hawaiian Ordnance Depot, Honolulu, and 2d Cl. Pvt. Carlton F. Morris, Ordnance Depot Site, Fort Shafter, to Ordnance Detachment, Hawaiian Ordnance Depot, Fort Kamehameha.

First Cl. Pvt. Floyd Morse and 2d Cl. Pvt. Harvey Johnson, Ordnance Detachment, Hawaiian Ordnance Depot, Fort Kamehameha, to Hawaiian Ordnance Depot site, Fort Shafter.

First Cl. Pvt. Morse and 2d Cl. Pvt. Johnson will be attached to Company D, 3d Engineers, Fort Shafter, for rations while on this duty.

The Quartermaster Corps will furnish the necessary transportation. The journeys are necessary for the public service.

Capt. Raymond A. Wheeler, Corps of Engineers, has been relieved from assignment to the 3d Engineers and from duty in Hawaii and assigned to the 4th Engineers.

Cpl. John Rampley, Company I, 32d Infantry, now at the Letterman General Hospital, Presidio of San Francisco, has been transferred as private to general service infantry and sent to Fort McDowell, Cal., for assignment.

Pvt. Lewis W. Brown, Company D, 1st Infantry, has been ordered sent to Fort McDowell on the first available transport on account of fraudulent enlistment.

A dance will be given Friday night, June 22, by the 1st company, C. A. C., at Fort Kamehameha, in the headquarters pavilion. For the benefit of people from town who would like to attend, an auto bus will leave from Fort and King street at 8 o'clock.

WHEN MERCHANTS AWAKE

They Follow Business Leaders Who

Lead Thru Publicity.

Scribner's Magazine says:

Printers' Ink, the leading authority on this line publishes a table showing the advertising statistics of New York department stores during the first six months of 1916. Summarizing the facts this publication says "Even in department stores doing an annual business of more than $1,000,000 and less than $10,000,000 more than three per cent of the gross sales is required for advertising. The lowest percentage of gross sales invested in advertising in this group of stores is three and one-half per cent and the highest is over six per cent, the average being over four and a half. The smaller the business the greater the proportion of gross sales required for advertising."

When the small city and rural merchants really begin to realize the power of good advertising, we may look for radical revisions of statistics that now show astonishingly low percentages in small communities.

Paid Publicity Will Do It.

NEW BUILDINGS THROWN OPEN BY SALVATION ARMY

How the Salvation Army is planning a broader and bigger work for the care of unfortunate children was demonstrated yesterday afternoon when, at the big home in Manoa, three new buildings were formally dedicated and the cornerstone of a fourth laid. With Commissioner and Mrs. Thomas Estill of Chicago interested observers, the doors of a hospital building, a cottage for babies and a home for friendless boys were opened and dedicatory services were held on the site of a new assembly hall.

Commissioner Estill presided at the ceremonies which opened the new boys' home and the band from the girls' home played. Commissioner Estill pointed out the aid given the Army by George N. Wilcox of Kauai, who had provided the means for the erection of the boys' building, the site having been given by the Atherton family. The new building, he said, will have accommodations for 20 boys, and added that the girls' home is now taking care of 115 children.

The commissioner then introduced Mr. Wilcox. The latter inserted a key in the lock of the structure and it was declared opened and accepted. Raymond C. Brown spoke in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, Mayor John C. Lane praised the Salvation Army and said its work was proving invaluable here. The hospital was then opened and later the Dillingham baby cottage. Mrs. B. F. Dillingham personally opened the cottage and she and her husband were warmly thanked by the commissioner and his wife for their generous donations to the army work.

Last on the program was the formal dedication of the new assembly hall which Commissioner Estill declared

CITY BUSINESS AND SUPERVISORS' NOTES

The board of supervisors will hold its next meeting Saturday noon.

John Walker, contractor, was awarded the contract to widen Hotel street.

The appointment of H. Akuna by Mayor Lane as janitor of Kalihi-kai school to succeed S. W. Kanpaktule, resigned, was approved by the board.

The board of supervisors approved the plans and specifications of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Company for a road through the Spreckels annex.

Deeds from the Campbell and Detor estate to the city and county for land on Hotel street to be used for the purpose of widening the street at Fort were accepted by the board Tuesday night.

On a motion made by Supervisor Larsen, the board instructed the city and county engineer to mark off an automobile parking place at the junction of King and Hotel and a letter was ordered sent to Sheriff Rose asking that he see that all automobiles in that locality be parked there.

The new paving on Beretania street from King to Nuuanu was accepted by the board and the auditor authorized to draw a warrant in favor of the Lord-Young Engineering Company, for whatever amount is due, providing the company files a bond for five years as a guarantee.

Because the billboard on the Waialae road just beyond the Girls' Reform school obstructs the view, making it dangerous for automobiles, the board of supervisors on a motion made by Supervisor Larsen instructed the clerk to write a letter to C. R. Frazier asking that it be moved back further from the road.

The new traffic ordinance with a few amendments passed second reading Tuesday night and was ordered printed. The principal change was that no vehicle may stand for more than 30 minutes on Hotel street between Fort and Nuuanu between 8 a. m. and 10 p. m. and on Hotel street between Nuuanu and King between 8 a. m. and 5:30 p. m.

BOARD SPENDS CITY COIN OVER LOGAN'S PROTEST

Although Daniel Logan, chairman of the finance committee, refused to indorse the recommendation that $2400 be appropriated for the repair of the Paukauwila bridge out of the permanent improvement fund the board of supervisors voted the money Tuesday evening.

Logan is working hard to have the board go out of office without incurring a deficit and accordingly votes against practically every appropriation bill.

Logan's aspirations received another jolt last night when the board voted to purchase 20,000 barrels of fuel oil for the water and sewer department. The present price of oil is $2.05 a barrel, but under contract the city gets it for 98 cents. The contract runs out July 1, and so the board to save approximately $20,000, is ordering a year's supply.

will cause an upheaval of both the gutter and the new concrete pavement which is planned for Beretania from Alapai to Punahou, the board Tuesday evening, on a recommendation from the engineer's office, ordered them cut down.

Because the Rapid Transit has been requested to remove its oil stand pipe from its present location near the Queen street bridge by the O. R. & L. on whose land it is erected, the street car company is seeking a new location. C. G. Ballantyne, manager, appeared before the board Tuesday night and asked that a right of way be granted the company to lay a 4-inch pipe on South street from the harbor board's pipe on Ala Moana road to the company's property on Halekauila street. It was granted.

MISS MILDRED CLEMENS WEDDED

The following from a Berkeley paper of recent date tells of the wedding of Miss Mildred Clemens (Mark Twain's niece) who visited the islands some months ago gathering data for a lecture course. She will be remembered by quite a number of Maui people:

"A half hundred guests will be present tomorrow evening at the wedding of Miss Mildred Clemens and Robert Evans von Schenck, which is to be simply celebrated at St. Clement's chapel in Claremont.

"The wedding plans are the first announcement which Miss Clemens has made of her approaching marriage and the news will come as an interesting surprise to all but her intimate friends. The ceremony is to be celebrated at 7 o'clock with Rev. F. Augustus Martyr, pastor of the chapel, officiating, and will be followed by a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton J. Hutchins in Claremont. Miss Doris Hutchins will attend Miss Clemens, while Darley Pollard, brother-in-law of the groom, will be best man.

"Mr. von Schenck and his bride are planning an extended honeymoon tour and will be at home in Berkeley after September first.

"Miss Clemens is a well known graduate of the University of California, where she received her sheepskin several years ago, and is a member of the Prytanean Honor society and other college organizations. She is a niece of the late Mark Twain and inherites her distinguished relative's talent for writing and lecturing, having on several occasions made lecture tours of the state. Miss Clemens is a daughter of Mrs. Leonora Renshaw of Portland and has been making her home in Berkeley since graduating from the university.

"Mr. von Schenck is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin with the class of 1912 and a member of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. He is engaged in business in San Fransisco.

RARE PRINTS AND RICH TEXTILES AT LANIAKEA

The "Grey Studio" of Mary J. Coulter at Laniakea has recently added new treasures to its store of beauti-

Some interesting etchings and dry prints by Cadwalader Washburn, notably those done last year by the artist at Juba, Arizona, and some fine proofs of his well known "New Jersey" series have been received, and these prints with some splendidly rendered lithographs by Louis Christian Mullgardt, who arrived here yesterday on the Matsonia, add much to the already comprehensive collection of prints in the studio. There are also to be seen a number of exquisite draperies and textiles for use in interior decoration, from the famous looms of Albert Herter, whose work in fabrics is second to none, and who during the last few years has gone extensively into the evolving of beautiful textiles for interior decorative purposes. The materials are unique and run from heavy loosely woven silk to the most delicate of silver gauze fabrics and are to be had in those subtle tones found only in hand-dyed textiles.

ROYAL COUPLE MAY VISIT HERE

Prince and Princess Gregorie Ghika of Rumania are in San Francisco en route to Paris, a statement that may seem strange, but that is nevertheless true, as these interesting persons have found in the present strenuous times abroad that from Rumania to Paris via San Francisco is the shortest route possible. They received a cordial welcome from society during their brief stay in San Francisco, and are expected to pass through Honolulu on the next lap of the voyage.

One of the delightful affairs arranged in their honor was the informal luncheon over which Captain and Mrs. Charles Lyman presided at the Burlingame Country Club. Seated with the hosts about the prettily decorated table with the guests of honor were Christian de Guigne, Jr., a cousin of Prince and Princess Ghika; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Howard and Edmunds Lyman.

It will be pleasant to be able to drop into this "homey" hotel and enjoy tea and toast on the comfortable lanai. A rubber of bridge and a cup of tea is indeed a delightful thought.

Public Hearing Tomorrow Will Decide Future of Boat Clubs

Meeting Will Be Held Tomorrow Afternoon at Capitol Building —Various Organizations of City Rally to Support of Clubs—100-Yard Swimming Course Supported By Followers of Aquatics—Kunalu, Myrtle, Healanis and Honolulus Active

A public hearing will be held at the harbor commissioners' office in the basement of the Capitol building tomorrow afternoon at 2:30, at which time the question of a site for the boat clubs of Honolulu will be discussed.

Members of the Chamber of Commerce, Ad Club, Pan-Pacific Club, Rotary Club, A. A. U., Hawaii Promotion Committee, Pacific League and Mid-Pacific Carnival will have representatives at the meeting this afternoon and will discuss the proposition of giving a permanent berth to the boat clubs.

Many of the leading businessmen of Honolulu have been identified with rowing at some time, and the committee in charge of the campaign to set aside a 100-yard course has received a number of favorable letters from these men.

The following letter has been sent out to the general public by the Kunalu, Myrtle, Healani and Honolulu Boat clubs:

"We are taking the liberty of writing you regarding the present critical situation of the boat houses of Honolulu.

Forced Out

"It has been one of their main objects to become permanently located, and as you are no doubt aware, the Myrtle Boat Club and the Kunalu Boat Club have already been given notice to vacate, so it is necessary fr all lovers of aquatics in Honolulu to help secure a permanent site; both for rowing and swimming meets.

"The territory for some time past has been working on plans for an open bulkhead wharf with concrete decking, to be known as Pier No. 2, to be situated along the old coral wall near the southerly entrance of the harbor. An appropriation was made by the last legislature covering the expense of this wharf, and if these plans are carried out the above clubs will be wiped out. In addition to this the Healani Y. & B. Club, which is located on U. S. reservation, has also received notice to vacate in the near future, placing them in the same disheartening position.

"The boat clubs, including the Honolulu Yacht Club, have all joined on this most important matter and after considerable work have formed the following plan:

100 Yards

"To request the territory through the board of harbor commissioners to set aside a certain section of this pier for the use of swimming meets and a site for four boat houses, plans for which have been submitted to the board. This plan shows a basin, giving space for a 100-yard straightaway swimming course, and a site for four boat houses that will not interfere with the discharge of vessels at this pier. We base our assertions on interviews we have had with various business concerns directly interested in this pier, and have assurances that our plans will meet with their approval.

"The board of harbor commissioners has granted a public hearing June 21, at 2:30 p. m., at their rooms in the basement of the Capitol building, and we earnestly request you to be present at this meeting to support us, or, in the event of your not being able to be there in person, a letter to the chairman, board of harbor commissioners, will be appreciated.

"In conclusion we wish to state that this movement has the support of the majority of the business and athletic organizations of Honolulu.

"Yours very truly,

"A. B. KROLL,
"Chairman."

WRESTLING BOUT GOES TO LIMIT

Young Santell and Edosakura wrestled one hour to a draw at the Asahi theater last evening. Edosakura failed to take any chances of getting in bad holes, and as a result made the bout last for one hour. The bout was a good one, considering the situation, and was battled for on merits.

The match was not unusually fast, but it has been noticeable that the square matches in the past have not been the fastest. Every wrestler can put up a lightning fast match, but he must take chances or else frame. Framing would be the worst possible thing for the game in Honolulu, and it is much better that the mat men work to win than work to show some flashy stuff and queer the game as it has done in many cities on the mainland.

Santell once had a head scissors on Edosakura, but in trying for a toe hold lost it. Once Edosakura had a double hammer lock on Santell, but the American wriggled out of it. There was a good crowd present and the consensus of opinion was that Santel would win in a finish match. Edosakura is strong, but has a lot to learn about catch-as-catch-can.

Santell had a bad cut in his hand, and this perhaps robbed him of a victory, although Edosakura refused to give the American a hold. In the preliminary Williams won two falls from Kismet.

FAMOUS HORSES SOLD ON BLOCK

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 6.—Omar Khayyam, William, The Harvester, Raomer, and twenty or more other famous harness horses, forming the stable of C. K. G. Billings, go under the hammer at auction this afternoon at Belmont track, on Long Island.

Only Uhlan, 1:54 1-2, and Lou Dillon, 1:58 1-2, will be retained, and these only for sentimental purposes.

Curlsneck farm, Richmond, Va., is the home of this remarkable stable of horses, and it will be turned over to the government for war purposes. Billings will retire from the turf game. He may come back some day, he recently said, but his intention now is to get out permanently.

More than $500,000 has been expended by Billings in building up the farm where he has stabled some of the most illustrious horses that ever appeared on the track.

In William he has a most remarkable performer. The Harvester has a mark of 2:01 and is the champion trotting stallion. William has equaled the championship mark of Uhlan, who startled the racing world only a short time ago by his brilliant trotting.

Omar Khayyam only recently leaped to fame by winning the Kentucky derby from a splendid field of starters. His winnings in that race alone totaled $16,000. His original cost was $1,500, when he was purchased in England at auction.

In addition to the historical string mentioned, Billings will send to the block Peter Dillon 2:11 1-4, and the imported Russian Orloff trotter Bion. Fifty-nine brood mares, thirty-seven of which have records, will be disposed of. Fourteen of these are in the 2:10 list, their marks ranging from 2:03 1-2 to 2:09 1-4.

The Harvester represented a price of $65,000 when he became the property of Billings.

Billings has been accustomed to use his trotting horses as saddle horses Lou Dillon and Uhlan will be retained for this use.

President Wilson favors the daylight saving plan.

FIELDING HONOR GOES TO STARS

Second in Hitting; Wreckers Lead Hitters; Hawkins First With Bat

Despite the fact that the All-Stars are leading in fielding and are second in hitting they have not yet scored a victory over the Wreckers. Averages to date show that the Chilly crowd are the best team in the league in handling the ball, while the Wreckers have a big lead with the bludgeon.

Hawkins still leads in hitting, but is closely followed by Buckland of the 32d, Dunlap of the All-Stars, Johnson of the 25th, and Kovish of the All-Stars. Goliah and Aulston are hitting well, while Smith has made a big improvement, and is hitting at a 321 gait. McGavin and Lang Akana are over the 300 mark. Charley Lyman is the best sacrifice man in the league.

Regatta Will Be Feature of Celebration at Hilo July 4.

Crescent City Promises Best Program in History—Rowing, Swimming, Baseball, Track Sports and Other Cards are Scheduled—Large Crowd Expected to Be Present at Big Affair—Big Island Expects Large Delegation from Honolulu

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

HILO, June 18. — Preparations for the Fourth of July celebration continue to go on with great success. The financial end of the matter is being well attended to and the directors feel pleased over the way in which things are going.

The coming Fourth should be about the best ever celebrated in Hilo for, with the United States actually at war with Germany, the people are beginning to realize that our country is taking up the burden of civilization and that it is once more going to fight against the same kind of Teuton and their influence that had to be met in Washington's time. No wonder the British settlers of North America won on that great occasion.

The Fourth of July program this year is a splendid one and it ranges from patriotic speeches to boat racing. There will be baseball games, athletic sports for the youngsters and the grown-ups and all sorts of things to enjoy.

The regatta promises to be a beauty and the manner in which the Hilo oarsmen are getting down to real hard work and the manner in which they are sending the boats through the water on Reed's Bay, promises well for the success of the Hilo representatives.

The oarsmen are in strict training and they are doing fine work. Their time trials are, of course, kept secret, but enough is known to assure all Hiloites that their crews are doing well and that they will put up even a better fight than they did on the last July Fourth regatta. Every afternoon the men are out on the bay and they are accompanied by a fast launch upon which is installed the coach. The trial rowing that has been done has pleased this very particular coach and he wears a peculiar, satisfied smile nowadays.

Hilo Out to Win

Both the seniors and juniors are doing well and the manner in which they lift their craft through the water makes everybody think that the Healanis, Myrtles and Honolulu Club oarsmen are going to have a tough time trying to defeat Hilo's representatives.

The land athletic end of the day's sports is in the hands of a committee, headed by the Rev. J. K. Bodell, and he is working hard to make a success of the affair. A splendid lot of specially manufactured medals has been procured through Mr. J. D. Kennedy and they are now on exhibition in the well-known jeweler's windows. The medals for first place are solid gold, while those for second and third places are silver and bronze, respectively.

An attractive program has been arranged for the larger and smaller youths of the city and there is also a race for girls. The races which are for all comers are several and they should attract much attention from the aspiring peds of the city and country districts. There are, of course, also races for the younger lot of boys and they should provide some good fun.

The parade feature of the great day is being worked up well also and it is certain that there will be many automobiles and floats in the procession. The fireworks part of the program is also coming along well and it with the lantern parade of the Japanese residents, should prove to be a very attractive feature of the day or rather evening.

There will be a special excursion steamer from Honolulu and it will leave the capital city on Tuesday, July 3, at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. This will bring the boat in early on Wednesday morning, July Fourth, so the 300 or more visitors will be able to see everything that is doing in Hilo on the Fourth and then go to the Volcano or elsewhere for Thursday and, tired and happy, later on Friday morning can board the steamer for Honolulu, which city will be reached on Saturday morning. It looks good to many Honolulu men and they are said to be striving to get away from the Tuesday afternoon till the Saturday morning. Let us hope they succeed.

Awarded Game at Meeting of League Last Evening; Managers Favor Nine Innings

At a meeting of the Commercial league held last evening at the office of the Star-Bulletin the Hawaiian Electric baseball team was awarded the game which had been given to the Service First by Umpire Moriyama. The matter was left to the managers, who voted in favor of the Hawaiian Electrics, upholding the bylaws of the league.

The league had passed a rule whereby the teams in the first game were to begin their contest at 9 o'clock, and leave the field at 10:30. The second game is scheduled to start not later than 10:45 and must end by 12:15. Ben Hollinger, manager of the Service First team, contended that he did not know this rule.

The majority of the teams of the league were anxious to see the Hawaiian Electrics lose, but it appeared to be the consensus of opinion that they had won the game according to the rules laid down, and were therefore awarded the place. It was a noticeable fact that the two teams who were tied for second, voted against the Hawaiian Electric team. Had Service First been awarded the game it would have made these teams tied for first place with the Electrics. The question remains now as to whether these two teams will live up to the bylaws as set forth by the league. That the Hawaiian Electrics were stalling for time is certain, but this point had no effect on the voting.

As a matter of fact there should be nine inning games played, whenever possible, and Ben Hollinger said today that the teams would be allowed to play two nine inning games at Athletic Park, providing that they were started at a certain hour. It is thought that Manager Stewart of Moiliili Field will consent to this arrangement. The present arrangement leaves the way open for stalling, and the new arrangement would be ideal if possible to be worked out. It is expected that a meeting will be called some time this week to vote on this point.

BILLY MILES TO TAKE ALL-STARS ON KAUAI TRIP

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)

LIHUE, Kauai, June 19.—Manager William E. Miles of the St. Louis College baseball team is to bring an all-star aggregation of student players to Kauai during the week of July 4.

An effort had been made to bring over the St. Louis club but as some of the players could not make the trip, Manager Miles recruited a number of the stars from other schools to make up a strong team.

The party will arrive on the Garden Island on July 3, and on the following day they will meet the P. A. C. and the All-Kauai team at Lihue.

This is the Fourth of July special which the baseball fans of the Garden Island are looking forward too, and Manager Fernandes says that they will have to play ball to get away with anything on the glorious Fourth. Ex-Senator Rice is taking an active interest in the series and the financial end of the trip is being cared for by Kauai people.

It is expected that this will be the beginning of an awakened interest in baseball.

'DRYS' WILL NOT FIGHT LICENSES

For the first time in several years the Anti-Saloon League will offer no protests against the reissuance of licenses to saloons and wholesale liquor houses at the annual meeting of the board of liquor license commissioners being held this afternoon.

This announcement was made this morning by George W. Paty, secretary of the league, who says that the organization this year has no definite cases against any particular saloons or wholesale houses that would warrant a fight against the issuance of new licenses to them.

"The league, however, has information with regard to two saloons which are believed to be selling liquor to certain persons with the knowledge that it will later be turned over to soldiers," says Paty.

Paty believes that if the board today would pass a regulation forbidding the sale of bottled liquor across bars, it would have a tendency to reduce the supply of liquor furnished soldiers.

He expresses himself as being heartily in favor of Brig. Gen. F. S. Strong's proposal to suggest an executive order from Washington establishing "bone dry" areas about forts and government reservations.

ELSASS MOVED TO NEW BERTH

To discharge the old general cargo of 1700 tons which she has had in her holds ever since she fled from Sydney harbor at midnight in July, 1914, after getting a "tip" that war was about to be declared by England on Germany, U. S. navy authorities moved the big ex-German freighter Elsass to Pier 16 this morning from the berth she has occupied at Pier 5, near the navy wharf.

After the Elsass' old cargo is discharged it will be taken over by Collector of Customs Malcolm A. Franklin and stored in the customs warehouse until orders are received from Washington concerning its final disposal. It may be sold at auction here, under orders from the treasury department.

The Elsass will begin loading 10,000 or more tons of island sugar as soon as her cargo is out. She will take the big cargo to San Francisco. A crew is now being signed on for the voyage.

JAPANESE SHIPS MAY AID IN WAR

Bearing out the story published in the Star-Bulletin last week, Associated Press despatches reaching Honolulu last night say that the United States government is now negotiating with Japan for the transfer to Atlantic waters from the Pacific of enough merchant shipping to relieve the great freight congestion which is developing, with many American ships being tied up for government purposes and the British shipping being employed in the transportation of its own and its allies' supplies.

It is said that the Japanese could spare enough ships to handle two million tons on the Atlantic without seriously interfering with their own transportation business on the Pacific.

Great Britain is said to be particularly anxious that the efforts of the United States with Japan be successful, as this will release still more British bottoms for necessary war work.

So far as Honolulu is concerned, taking off tramp steamers will not hit this port greatly. As a matter of fact, the number of Japanese "tramps" calling here is now practically nil, where six months ago it was quite large. Their cutting out this port is believed due to the big money obtainable by carrying cargoes direct from Japan to Pacific coast ports, via the great circle route from Yokohama.

HARBOR NOTES

Next mail for San Francisco closes at the postoffice at 6:30 Friday morning and leaves at 8 o'clock on the Matson liner Manoa.

Sugar awaiting shipment on Kauai is reported by Purser Kamaiopili of the Mauna Loa to be as follows, by plantations and bags: Kekaha, No. 43, 20,000 bags; Lihue Plantation, 19,000; Gay & Robinson, 16,671; Makee, 13,200; Grove Farm, 6000; Kilauea, 1173.

The Inter-Island steamer Mauna Loa arrived this morning from Kauai ports, with 34 cabin and 18 deck passengers. Purser D. Kamaiopili reports inward freight to have been 6000 sacks of Lihue sugar, 107 packages of sundries, 72 empty containers and one auto.

Advices to the local American-Hawaiian agency say the freighter Mexican will arrive tomorrow. She is bringing the next mail, one day's accumulation, having left San Francisco last Thursday, one day after the Matsonia, which arrived here yesterday.

Freight brought here yesterday from Hilo and Lahaina by the Inter-Island flagship Mauna Kea included four autos, two cows, two calves, 10 cords of wood, 100 sacks of rice, 368 of sugar, 160 of wheat, 71 bundles of hides, two crates of chickens, nine crates of fruit, and 693 sundries.

Pacific Sailors May Be Insured

Local seafaring men are interested in the news received last night from the Associated Press concerning insurance of officers and men of American merchant vessels plying from American ports through the war zone to Europe.

If the desires of John J. Growley, in charge of the seamen's division on war risks, are carried out, it is possible that sailors and officers of American lines calling here, such as the Matson, Oceanic, Pacific Mail and China Mail, will also be insured. Growley wants the regulations broadened so as to extend them to cover vessels trading between coastwise ports and other ports that are outside of the war zone.

Last night's despatch says Secretary McAdoo yesterday issued regulations that will require the owners of all American ships operating in the war zone to insure the officers and men of such ships against death, maiming or capture. Insurance on officers is to be in amounts varying from $1500 to $5000, according to the officer's grade.

These new insurance regulations are to go into effect as to vessels in American ports on June 26 and as to vessels in foreign ports on July 10.

MARITIME WORKERS OF SEATTLE ARE AGAINST POLICY OF STRIKERS

A despatch from Portland dated June 18, to the San Francisco Chronicle, says that harmonious relations between employer and employe, and not strikes, is the result hoped for from the Pacific Coast Maritime Convention, according to leaders here today. Maritime workers from all major points on the Pacific are in session. Dan P. McKillop of Seattle, president of the Seattle Coastal Trades Council, and R. W. Burton, president of the Iron Trades Council of San Francisco, indicated that the convention hoped to bring about a more equitable scale throughout the district. They said businesslike and peaceful negotiations instead of stringent measures were favored. General working conditions and wage scales are under consideration.

OTTAWA, Ontario, June 20.—Canadian paper manufacturers will be compelled to bear their share of the burden of supplying the Dominion with its news print paper, which has now reached such a price as to be a serious handicap on the publishing business. The announcement of this was made yesterday by Crown Commissioner Pringle, presiding over the board of inquiry being held over the news print situation, the board having resumed its sessions. It is probable that the government will fix a maximum price and compel the manufacturers to fill orders at the agreed upon figure.

SHIPOWNERS COMPELLED TO INSURE SAILORS OPERATING IN WAR ZONE

By a majority of 330 the members of the house of commons put themselves on record when they passed a resolution that as a general principle the women of the realm are by right entitled to full suffrage.

Last night suffragist leaders expressed confidence that the long fight they have made will soon be finished with victory for them as its reward.

H. C. OF L. DUE TO GREED OF RETAILERS, SAYS N. Y. OFFICIAL

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 20.—The high cost of living was assailed yesterday by officials here and by Food Commissioner Hoover in Washington, each of whom asserted that the prices now being charged the public for the ordinary staples are exorbitant and the result of manipulation rather than as any result of any increased demand or shortage in supplies.

The commissioner of weights and measures of New York announces that the prices on food stuff in this city are due to the rapacity of the retailers, who are holding back supplies in order to keep up the market. Every cold storage plant in the city today is full to capacity, says this official, evidence indisputable that the supply is plentiful, yet the retail prices show practically no declines and in some instances are actually advancing.

At a meeting held at the capital last night between the heads of many of the most prominent women's organizations of the country and Mr. Hoover, the women pledged their support to him in his fight to drive down prices on the necessities of life.

FOR NEW PAVING

Although James T. Taylor, engineer, made a strong appeal before the board of supervisors for a reduction in the concrete base for the streets in the Laimi, Park and Puiwa district from five to four inches, his plea fell on deaf ears and following considerable argument between Taylor and Supervisor Arnold, the board adopted the recommendation of George Collins, city and county engineer, that five inches were necessary because of the condition of the soil in that district.

Taylor contended that four inches would be sufficient, declaring that the subsoil was as good as any on the island. Judge C. F. Clemons, another resident of the district, said he thought the base should be five inches. When Taylor found that the board would not reduce the thickness of the base he tried to have it replaced with an asphalt macadam pavement but in this he also failed.

Collins' new estimate of the cost of the work is $15,779.04, and the board ordered that bids be called for the work.

LOCAL RED CROSS SENDS SUPPLIES

Splendid response to the call for more Red Cross supplies which has come from the war zone is being made by workers of the Hawaii War Relief organization, it was stated yesterday.

During May eight big cases of surgical dressings and bandages and five cases of garments were sent to the New York clearing house which has charge of distribution. By this means not a single garment is sent where it cannot be used.

Ladies of the local churches are working steadily this week which is known especially as Red Cross week, and by Saturday it is expected the output will be heavier than at any time thus far.

Take Iron, Says Doctor, if You Want Plenty of "Stay There" Strength Like an Athlete!

Ordinary Nuxated Iron Will Make Delicate, Nervous, Rundown People 200 per cent Stronger in Two Week's Time. In Many Cases

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Most people foolishly seem to think they are going to get renewed health and strength from some stimulating medicine, secret nostrum or narcotic drug, said Dr. Sauer, a well known specialist who has studied widely both in this country and Europe, when, as a matter of fact, real and true strength can only come from the food you eat. But people often fail to get the strength out of their food because they haven't enough iron in their blood to enable it to change food into living matter. From their weakened, nervous condition they know something is wrong, but they can't tell what, so they generally commence doctoring for stomach, liver or kidney trouble or symptoms of some other ailment caused by the lack of iron in the blood. This thing may go on for years, while the patient suffers untold agony. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test. See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five grain tablets of ordinary nuxated iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. I have seen dozens of nervous, rundown people who were ailing all the while, double and even triple their strength and endurance and entirely get rid of all symptoms of dyspepsia, liver and other troubles in from ten to fourteen days' time simply by taking iron in the proper form, and this after they had in some cases been doctoring for months without obtaining any benefit. But don't take the old forms of reduced iron, iron acetate or tincture of iron simply to save a few cents. You must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nuxated iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless. Many an athlete or prize fighter has won the day simply because he knew the secret of great strength and endurance and filled his blood with iron before he went into the affray, while many another has gone down to inglorious defeat simply for the lack of iron.

NOTE—Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sauer, is one of the newer organic iron compounds. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy, in nearly all forms of indigestion, as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The Manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron that they offer to forfeit $100.00 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron and increase their strength 200 per cent or over in four weeks' time provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Hollister Drug Co., Benson Smith & Co., Chambers Drug Co. and all other druggists. Adv.

Dorothy Dix Talks

TO MEET MR. JONES AND MISS SMITH

By DOROTHY DIX
The World's Highest Paid Woman Writer.

IN tens of thousands of American homes, at this season of the year, there is being enacted a domestic drama that is either tragedy or comedy, according to your point of view.

They who went forth to college last fall plain Bobby Jones and Sallie Smith, have returned to the bosom of their families Mister Robert Algernon Jones and Miss Sara Smith, and their bewildered parents are realizing, with amazement and despair, that of all strange people under the sun there is none with whom they are so little acquainted as with their own children.

Bobby Jones, who went away, was such a nice, jolly, enthusiastic lad, and he was so proud of his parents and his home and his town. The Robert Algernon Jones, who has come back, is a blase creature who has discovered that the world is stuffed with sawdust, and is generally cinders, ashes and dust. He patronizes everybody and everything, from the Deity down. He calls his home town a hole not fit for a dog to live in, and does not conceal the fact that he considers his father and mother superannuated provincials whose opinions are only to be accepted with pitying toleration by one who has been privileged to have a wider outlook on life.

"By George, can you beat it?" says Father, surveying Bob—Robert over the rims of his glasses. "I have always regretted that I did not have the advantage of a good education when I was young, but if this is what college does to a boy, I thank God that the only education I ever had I got in the University of Hard Knocks, which, at least, beats some common sense into the thickest head."

And then Father gives a contemptuous glance at Robert Algernon's flamboyant hat and tie, his dinky little stick, and the two sit up in embarrassed silence when left alone together because they have not got enough points of mental contact to even start a conversation.

And mother looks at Sal—Sara exactly as the old hen who hatched out a swan must have looked at her fledgling. The Sallie mother knew was a sweet, simple, clinging little girl who flushed to the roots of her hair if you spoke to her suddenly.

This strange Sara is an aggressive young woman with radical opinions about life and expressing one's own individuality and one's duty to one's inner's self, and so on, and she discusses with perfect frankness, in mixed company, subjects that mother has never mentioned except in a whisper to her family physician.

Moreover, Sara considers it her duty to raise everyone up to the higher level she believes she has attained, and she has scarcely bestowed a kiss of greeting upon her parents before she begins trying her prentice hand on reforming all of the pleasant, comfortable, homely ways in which they have jogged along for thirty years. No more sitting around in slippered ease in the evening for father. No more doughnuts for breakfast, even if mother is famous for making them. Daughter is home from school and she is putting in her vacation doing missionary work on her long suffering family.

"I declare," says Mother with a tired sigh, "I don't know what to make of Sal—Sara, she's so changed. I used to think what pleasure and comfort I would take in her society when she got grown, but now she corrects my pronunciation and my grammar until I am afraid to open my mouth to speak, and as for having any real talk with her, why I'd know a lot more what to say to the Queen of England than I do to my own daughter."

Of course it is easy enough for those of us on the outside to smile at the superciliousness of youth, drunk on its first draught of the heady wine of culture. We may even assure Bobby's and Sallie's distraught father and mother that the symptoms that seem so alarming to them really mean nothing. They are just as inevitably a concomitant of a college course as the measles are of childhood. Bobby and Sallie will get over being superior and feeling that they are oracles, and will come back to normal and be glad enough to take father's advice and ask mother what to do when the baby has colic.

In the meantime the significant phase of the situation is that the boy and girl really have changed. In the few brief months they have been away from home they have suddenly and mysteriously crossed over that invisible line that divides childhood from man and womanhood. In all good truth they are no longer Bobby and Sallie. They are Robert and Sara.

Nature has sent out her invitation to their parents to meet Mr. Jones and Miss Smith, and few fathers and mothers have a spirit gallant enough—are good enough sports—to accept the invitation cordially and full heartedly.

They do not want to be forced to face the fact that their babies are babies no longer, to be ruled and dictated to, and thought for, but men and women with rights and privileges, and individual lives of their own that they must live in their own way.

There is no other gift that parents bestow so grudgingly as their recognition of their children being grown up, and it is because of this niggardly withholding from youth of the tribute to its new found dignity that many of the estrangements between parents and children arise.

Fathers and mothers are always complaining that their children do not confide in them. "I am good pals with the young fellows in my office," a man will say, 'but I haven't the slightest idea what my own son thinks on any subject. He is as dumb as a clam in my presence."

"My daughter never tells me anything," a mother will moan. "She is more intimate with half a dozen other women than she is with her own mother."

The reason is that other people accept the boy and girl as grownups, listen to them respectfully, accord them the treatment that they would to mature people, while their parents persist in regarding them as infants who are not entitled to an opinion on any subject and whose hopes and aspirations are no more to be seriously considered than a child's desire for a new toy.

And youth, which is morbidly sensitive, resents this and retaliates by withholding its confidences from those from whom it knows it will receive no sympathy. Bobby knows that father will jeer and sneer at his views if he dares to express them, so he keeps silence. Sallie is perfectly aware that mother still thinks her a little girl incapable of deciding even what dress she shall wear, so she tells mother as little of her plans as possible in order to secure to herself even a modicum of freedom.

Mother and father have positively declined to meet Mr. Jones and Miss Smith. They refuse to admit that the children that they have thought would stay babies forever have arrived at man's and woman's estate, and so they make no effort to get acquainted with these strangers on their hearthstone. They do not try to find out what they are thinking, what their aims and aspirations are, or even to sound their ability and ascertain what they are best fitted for in life.

It is a pity, for the girl and boy taking their first steps in the new world of grown-up people need the guiding hand of their parents far more than they did when they first toddled with unsteady feet across the nursery floor. The boy needs a father who will talk to him as man to man. The girl needs a mother who will meet her on the plane of a common womanhood. Then there could be confidences given and received that would save many a young life from shipwreck, but how can this be done if parents have scarcely even a speaking acquaintance with their grown-up boys and girls?

That is why it is so important for fathers and mothers to come out of the counting room and the kitchen and meet Mr. Jones and Miss Smith, and get really acquainted with them. They would find these strangers very interesting.

Ain't It a Grand and Glorious Feelin'? . . . By BRIGGS

BEAUTY CHATS

By EDNA KENT FORBES

Eye Comfort

I KNOW AN OLD LADY of ninety-nine who has never worn glasses, and who can thread a fine needle. She claims her wonderful eyesight is due to the fact that she kept her eyes washed, and always took extra good care of them. She thinks that half the people who wears glasses to-day, do so because they have neglected their eyes in youth, or because of their parents' neglect of their own eyes, they were born with weak sight.

As the eye is such a sensitive organ, it should never be tampered with unintelligently. But certain little rules might be followed, that will keep the eye more comfortable, and therefore increase its strength, and indirectly, its beauty.

For instance, the eye should never be strained while it has a stye, or a cinder, or a bit of dust, in it. The whole nerve force is working then to throw off this foreign matter, and if the eye is called upon to take impressions of things about you, it will be overstrained and weakened.

With a stye, it should be washed with some solution for the purpose, which any doctor can prescribe; or it can be bandaged with alternate hot and cold compresses, wet, of course, to scatter the impure blood drawing to a head here. A water made by boiling elderflowers, straining and bottling, is soothing to styes. Plantain water is good, too, that homemade remedy our grandmothers made and kept in their medicine cupboards, and water with a tiny bit of baking soda dissolved in it, is also cooling and healing.

Questions and Answers

What shall I do for my hair; it is awfully thin and dry? I wash it every week, using an egg, and the next week egg and soap and the juice of a lemon. But it doesn't grow and is so thin and dry. My face is always red, I can't use soap. What will grow eyelashes? I enclose stamps and envelope.—Dora Hyack.

Reply—The stamps and envelope were not in the letter when it reached me. Loose stamps are apt to get lost, you know; the only safe way is to put in a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Red, swollen eyes are never pretty—the least affection should be cared for at once

However, you need a hair tonic. If you will write again, enclosing stamped and addressed envelope, I will send you a recipe for a splendid one. If your hair is dry, omit the lemon in the shampoo, and use tar soap to wash it. Vaseline will make your eyelashes grow; cold cream will bring your skin into condition.

FILMS TO SHOW HAWAII'S BEAUTY

Louis Francis Brown of the Burton Holmes Company and L. W. de Vis-Norton established a new record for "doing" Hawaii last week. Leaving Hilo early Thursday morning they arrived at the Volcano at 8 o'clock, and then began filming the wonders there.

They visited the caves, tubes and sulphur banks, secured a number of feet of film on the dead craters, and then began work on Kilauea, where Brown made some great views. Hurrying away to their travels, taking views along the way, they arrived at Kona at sunset. They next visited Captain Cook's monument, took views of an ancient heiau at Napopoo, made films of the loading of cattle and then took a sampan down the coast.

A number of excellent views were secured at the Temple of Refuge. They also filmed the coffee country thoroughly. Returning to Waimea and Hilo they took more scenes and then left for Puna and Hamakua, where they made a number of views.

The Burton Holmes tour of the islands has been completed. They have taken pictures of every real feature on the islands, and Kauai, Oahu Maui and Hawaii have been thoroughly worked. The tour was made under the auspices of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, and the committee believes this tour will be worth much to Hawaii.

The Burton Holmes films of Hawaii will be divided into 22 separate films, and will be released in all the principal show houses on the mainland. Burton Holmes will select the best films for his lecture on Hawaii, and the remainder will be sent out by the big film exchanges.

The Lackawanna Steel Company has declared an extra dividend of 2½ per cent, out of earnings of the first two quarters of 1917.

Technical schools were appealed to by the department of labor to furnish available men between 18 and 21 for apprentices in shipyards.

WOMAN NOW IN PERFECT HEALTH

What Came From Reading a Pinkham Advertisement.

Paterson, N. J.—"I thank you for the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies as they have made me well and healthy. Sometime ago I felt so run down, had pains in my back and side, was very irregular, tired, nervous, had such bad dreams, did not feel like eating and had short breath. I read your advertisement in the newspapers and decided to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It worked from the first bottle, so I took a second and a third, also a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, and now I am just as well as any other woman. I advise every woman, single or married, who is troubled with any of the aforesaid ailments, to try your wonderful Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier and I am sure they will help her to get rid of her troubles as they did me."—Mrs. Elsie J. Van der Sande, 36 No. York St., Paterson, N. J.
