Mo‘i Kane - FRITZ KUA III
Mo‘i Wahine - PAULA ANN IOPA REZENTES
The Ali‘i all left behind them perpetual monuments to the love they bore their people.

Princess Pauahi’s interest was in Hawai‘i’s young people. To that end, she made them her heirs through the Kamehameha Schools for Boys and Girls.

King Kamehameha IV and Queen Dowager Emma always held uppermost in their minds, the welfare of their people. Their crowning achievement was the Queen’s Hospital.

King Lunalilo left his large landed estate to the “poor, destitute and infirm people of Hawaiian blood” — Lunalilo Home.

King David Kalakaua catalyzed the Hawaiian cultural renaissance of the last quarter of the 19th century. His impact is still felt today, for the inspiration for Hawai‘i’s present-day cultural resurgence can be traced to his reign. His active pursuit of the ancient chants was perhaps the most important factor in the revival and perpetuation of the oli and the hula.

Hawaiian music was the chief beneficiary of this dynamic cultural life, for it encouraged aspiring singers and composers, instrumentalists and dancers, chanters and poets.

While he urged the preservation of Hawaiian traditions, he also encouraged the adaptation of new art forms introduced from the West. The best examples are: the “ukulele he promoted as a Hawaiian instrument and the hula ku‘i.”

Equally interested in the welfare of the people, Queen Consort Kapiolani later willed her fortune to found and maintain a maternity home, namely Kapiolani Children’s Hospital.

Leleiohoku and Princess Likelike, brother and sister of King Kalakaua, were accomplished musicians and composers. Their compositions still live on.

Queen Lili‘uokalani was the most accomplished musician and composer of all her family. Two beautiful songs which live today in world affection: “Aloha Oe” and “The Queen’s Prayer."

She spent her later years working for the welfare of her people. Her large estate was left for the care and protection of Hawaiian orphans; Queen Lili‘uokalani Children’s Center-Lili‘uokalani Trust.

Prince Kuhio Kalanianaole Piikoi, better known as Prince Cupid, was elected delegate to Congress. He won the hearts of his Congressmen, and in 1920, the Hawaiian Rehabilitation Bill, known as “The Hawaiian Homes Commission Act”, was passed. He also organized the Hawaiian Civic Club.

NĀ NALU ʻO HAWAIʻI

The Waves of Hawaiʻi

Eia mai ka nalu mai Hawaiʻi! Kuauli mai.

Haki nuanu a ka nalu i Maui Ihilamaewa.
Papa ka nalu i ʻOahu-Nui-ʻA-Laʻilaʻi.
Warua ka nalu i Kauaʻi o Olo-i-mehani.
ʻAhe ilala ʻo nalu i Kekalukuahéewa.
Kū mai, kū mai ka nalu.
Papa'i kai uli, kai ko ʻo.
Aia ka nalu o kāua i Kahiki-mai-eka.
Nā kāua ka nalu o Hawaiʻi-Nui-Kuauli,

Here comes the surf from Hawaiʻi of the verdant countryside.
The surf masses and breaks at Maui Ihilamaewa.
The surf breaks at ʻOahu-Nui-ʻA-Laʻilaʻi.
The surf roars at Kauaʻi of Olo-i-mehani.
Your surf is not there, Kekalukuahéewa.
The surf looms forth, looms forth.
The dark surf, the rough surf breaks.
There our surf is at Kahiki-mai-eka.
For the two of us the surf of Mighty Hawaiʻi of the verdant countryside,

Breaking and dashing at Huia in Piʻihonua.
Your wave comes aground at Kanuokamanu of Waikākea.
A rustling surf is the wave of Punahoa.
And the surf of Pualea leaps at Puʻueo.
Your board mounts the surf of Kapoʻai.
Surfing from the waters of Honoliʻi.
Here is your wave for surfing toward the mouth of the stream at Papaʻikou.
Numerous are the waves of the surfers at Laupāhoehoe,
Racing together with Paiʻea’s (waves).
Striving for the wave to take you to the sands of Waipiʻo.
The surf of Mālūi surrounds at Halelua.
The surf of Kūmohō Nāʻohaku rises high.
A celebrated surfing spot is Puakea, there by the tidepools.
The surf of Huhi runs past Kiʻikau.
The buildup of waves washes out upon Nāʻohulelua.
The surf of Kamakaiʻa strikes obliquely at ʻAuaukeʻa.
The surf leaps at Kamao, come ashore at Puʻu.

HE INOA LEI NŌ KA MOTWAHINE KAPIʻOLANI

A Name Chant Honoring the Queen Kapiʻolani

Aia i ka ʻopua kō lei nani.
'O ke ʻanuenero pipiʻo iluna
Haʻaheo i ka mea ua liʻi i.
A warawae ʻula i ka maka ʻo ke ao,
A he like ʻa like me ka Tōnohi,
Me ka pūnuka ʻula i ka mālie,
Ke hāliʻa mai la e ka noe anu,
Me ka ala ko ʻula koʻawāwarwe,
Ulumākiehe i ka ʻu ʻa noe,
I ka ʻEhuakāi Kūlanikākōʻi.
A he kahiho ia nū ʻo nei,
Nā ka pua kapu i ka ʻiu o Lono,
I kukupu a pua ma ka Hikina,
I wae i Hawaiʻi o beina ʻo ʻOleilua,
Ua kau aʻe la i Makanomi,
I kāhi ʻa ka lā i puka mai ai,
Kaena ka hana i Hanahauaulua,
I ka ʻohi pua i ka mālie,
Hānua ke Lī i ʻo na ʻo, ha li ʻo Kapiʻolani i ka ʻiu o ka motu.

There high upon the horizon clouds is your lei of adornment.
The rainbow arches above
Vaunting the gentle mist.
Red beams at the first dawn,
Like the eye of the sun,
Like the red rising mist in the calm,
The cold mist and the rainbow-hued rain,
The column of light rain are all pathways of remembrance,
Attractively arrayed in the misty rain,
In the sea spray of Kūlanilākāʻi.
It is a splendor befitting this one,
The sacred offspring of the highest heavens of Lono,
Budding and flowering in the East,
Diffusing over Hawaiʻi, island of Keawe,
Placed high above Makanoni,
At the place where the sun emerges.
Proud is Hanahauaulua
At the serene budding,
Sing the praises for the Chiefess whom this honors,
Kapiʻolani of the highest realm of the island.

USS BADGER

Commanding Officer
Capt. John Malcolm Schantz, USN

Captain Schantz was born in Long Beach, California, the son of RADM Curtis W. Schantz (DC) USN, and Catherine McElhanan Schantz. After graduation from Valley Forge Military Academy, he accepted a Presidential appointment to the United States Naval Academy, and was commissioned with the class of 1963. He reported immediately to sea, serving in USS Conway (DD-507) until detached to attend the Naval Destroyer School. Following Destroyer School, he reported to USS Harold J. Ellison (DD-864) as Engineer Officer. In April 1967, after warfare training at Naval Amphibious Base, Coronado, he relieved as Officer in Charge of YRBM-18, a mobile support base for river patrol in this capacity, which included action during the 1968 Tet Offensive, he was decorated with the Legion of Merit and Combat "V".

Following service in Southeast Asia, he reported to Headquarters, Commander in Chief, Allied Forces Southern Europe in Naples, Italy, for duty on his staff. He returned to sea as Operations Officer in USS Plymouth Rock (LSD-29) until August 1974, when he was appointed to Flag Secretary and Aide to Commander, Naval Forces Caribbean. He then served as Executive Officer of USS Truett (FF-1095) while that ship deployed as a unit of NATO'S Standing Naval Force, Atlantic. Duty as a student at the Armed Forces Staff College was then followed by assignment as head of the Politico-Military Policy Section on the staff of Commander in Chief, U.S. Naval Forces Europe, in London, England. In February 1981, Captain Schantz assumed command of USS Rathbarne (FF-1057) in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii. He relinquished command two months later when hospitalized for surgery. Prior to reporting to Badger, he served as Surface Anti-submarine Warfare Officer on the staff of Commander in Chief United States Pacific Fleet.

In addition to the Legion of Merit, Captain Schantz's decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal with Gold Star, the Combat Action Ribbon, and the Navy Unit Commendation. He is a proven subspecialist in Politico-Military Affairs (Europe), and holds a Master's Degree from Boston University.

In 1963, Captain Schantz married Sarah Gates of Howell, Michigan. Their son, John M. Jr., was born in 1970.

On behalf of the people of the County of Hawaii, it gives me pleasure to welcome everyone with a very warm aloha to the 22nd Annual Merrie Monarch Festival. Special greetings are extended to those of you who have traveled from other islands and the mainland to join us in this annual celebration.

We are honored that Hilo has become the home of this magnificent display of Hawaiian dance and music. Through the years we have seen this merry and festive event grow to be the main Hawaiian cultural program statewide. The authors of this Festival are to be commended and congratulated for their extraordinary efforts which have made this spectacular pageant possible.

For the next few days we will be able to see and enjoy the Miss Hula, Auwana and Kahiko competitions. We will be treated to the sounds of old Hawaiian chants, the beat of the pahu, melodic Hawaiian voices, and the strum of guitars by the participants in these contests. The superior abilities and accomplishments of all the halaus will be demonstrated as they take part in this cultural performance.

We wish the best of luck to everyone who is participating in this year's festivities. May this Merrie Monarch Festival prove to be the most successful and memorable of all.

Me Ke Aloha Pumehana,
YOU ARE Beautiful TOO

Best wishes for every success here on the most beautiful island on earth.
