The Humane Educator.

The following paragraph appears in the last number of the Humane Educator, of which Mrs. Helen Wilder Craft has been the energetic publisher and editor:

"This will be the last issue of the Humane Educator. It is the twelfth number, completing the year. Though the paper and the movement it represents have been well supported in some quarters, there is not the general public co operation which it is felt should be given to such an enterprise. The work that falls to the duty of a humane society in Honolulu is no light burden, and the writer, after some ten years' efforts which it is her pleasure to know have saved many a dumb brute from ill treatment, and which, it is hoped, have also helped to spread in our community the lessons of kindness in dealing with animals, intends now to lay aside the work and leave it to other hands."

Try it.

A new cure is being advocated for asthma, bronchitis, and other lung diseases. Hitherto the asthmatic person has kept indoors as often as possible, carefully shutting windows and doors, and keeping a roaring fire blazing in the grate. Now he is bidden to fling his windows open, and moreover, to keep in the open air as much as possible. But this is not all. He is taught that it is not so important what he breathes as how he breathes. Breathing exercises, then, are part of the cure, and here not only the sufferer from bronchial asthma is concerned, but even the woman of fashion anxious to maintain her good looks. For 15 minutes twice a day women of fashion, asthmatic patients, and, indeed, all the world, are bidden to stand out of doors, preferably in the sunshine, and holding the chest up, to inhale slowly through the nose, and then quickly exhale the breath through the mouth.

An organization was made last Monday evening of an anti-Saloon League at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. The following are the officers: Theodore Richards, president; Rev. G. L. Pearson, first vice president; Franklin Austin, second vice president; Mrs. Dr. Whitney, third vice president; J. M. Moore, secretary; J. B. Atherton, treasurer; W. K. Azbill, chairman of agitation committee; Rev. Westervelt, chairman of legislation committee; Major Wood, chairman enforcement committee; J. P. Erdman, chairman of finance committee, and Wm. Templeton, chairman of enrollment committee.

LAW MAKING.

A perfect avalanche of bills is falling on the desks of the clerks of the Legislature. Every man elected considers it his duty to "do something," but so far every member seems to have lost sight of the main object of the Legislature; we mean that of raising the necessary revenues with which to pay the expenses in connection with running the government.

Our legislators are, of course, all wise and earnest men, but we have seen men, even of that stamp, making horrible political blunders.

Now, it seems to us that the Legislature has lost sight of the appropriation bill, which ought to have been one of the first measures introduced. We know, of course, that the idea was to delay that important bill so as to force the Governor to extend the term of the session by thirty days, which the following clause in the Organic Act gives him the power to do. In Section 43, which reads: "That each session of the Legislature shall continue not longer than sixty days, excluding Sundays and holidays; provided, however, that the Governor may extend such session for not more than thirty days."

That is surely plain enough, and every member can obtain a calendar, with the aid of which he can find out how many working days are left for the Legislature. The wheels of the Dole government will run as smoothly as ever, even if no appropriation bill is passed, because Section 54 of the Organic Act plainly says that "all legislative and other appropriations made prior to the date when this Act shall take effect shall be available to the government of the Territory of Hawaii."

We see no use in, at this date, criticizing the merits or demerits of the provisions of the Organic Act. We are obliged to act according to that Act or go out to Diamond Head and make a revolution, and "Bob" being absent, we are hardly prepared for that. The Legislature ought to get down to practical work at once. Let the Senate deal with the tax bills while the other house attacks the appropriation bill. Then change around and something may be gained definitely before Dole gets his chance to ring down the curtain and keep the old boat a-sailing over the same old pond of the family compact.

An enormous lot of work is before the Legislature. The "draft of the charter for the city and county of Honolulu" has just been sent to us from the Republican charter committee. It is a printed pamphlet of 170 pages, and the reading of it in two languages would occupy two weeks at least. We had to hire a warehouse to hold the bulky charters of the Independents, and we presume that both "charters" will, in some form or other, be read in the two houses. Be practical, gentlemen, and figure closely how much time there is at your disposal, and do not waste time on trifling measures, which may be excellent at another time, but which hardly ought to have consideration now.

Why devote time to a bill like this: An Act to Provide That Eight Hours Shall Constitute a Legal Day's Work, Either Mechanical or Industrial.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

Section 1. On all works, either mechanical or industrial, which shall or may be and now carried on in this Territory of Hawaii, that laborers on such works are to be employed for eight hours on each day's work.

Sec. 2. That the eight hours, as provided in Section 1, shall constitute a legal day's work in the Territory of Hawaii; and such hours to begin from 8 o'clock in the morning to 12 o'clock at noon, and from 1 o'clock in the afternoon to 5 o'clock in the evening.

Sec. 3. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its publication.

A similar bill has already been declared unconstitutional by the highest court of our country (by that we don't refer to our local circuit court), and a discussion of the bill would simply be waste of time and useless.

Here is another bill which might as well be sent to the waste basket. It refers to the education at public expense of Hawaiian youths, and we only quote:

Section 4. The Secretary of the Territory, with the Board of Education, are hereby directed to send the said youths only to be taught in the following occupations: First, the legal profession; second, the medical profession; third, surveying and civil engineering; fourth, the art of teaching; and the youths shall pursue such course of studies until they shall receive diplomas from the instructor of the schools on the mainland or abroad.

The Hawaiians are now American citizens, and a Hawaiian boy must take his chances with any other boy. The Hawaiians have never been beggars, and public charity, as it would be, they have never called for. Introduce a bill to establish a university here and our boys can become lawyers and doctors and surveyors right here, and probably with as much ability and honor as that possessed by some of our professionals from the mainland. But is it not wiser to attend to the finances of the Territory before we discuss universities and diplomas?

Of course a tax law has been introduced by Colonel Dickey, which would have the same effect on the treasury as that one introduced a few days ago by a colleague of his, relating to the repealing of taxes on female dogs. We refer to the effect of the bill as reducing the revenues of the Territory. The bill reads:

An Act to Abolish Personal Taxes. Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

Section 1. The levying, assessment and collection of personal taxes heretofore known as poll, road and school taxes, are hereby abolished.

Sec. 2. All sections or parts of sections of laws inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This Act shall take effect on the 1st day of January, A. D. 1902, and shall not be so construed as to interfere in any way with the assessment and collection of the personal taxes of A. D. 1901.

Let us repeat to our honorable and honored members that time is short, that the enacting of laws is a slow and difficult business, and that Dole and his crowd will obstruct but not help the first Hawaiian Legislature in the Territory. He is all right under the Organic Act and nothing will suit him better than to see the Legislature prorogue after doing NOTHING.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Senator Brown and Senator Russell had a "spat" on Tuesday. The ex-Siberian dignitary had the advantage of being president of the Senate and backed by a majority, while Senator Brown is on the floor in a minority. The gentleman in the chair knows nothing about parliamentary rules and was only put there to show that the Hawaiians have no feelings against the "whites." The Senator on the floor knows a great deal about rules, but cannot, parliamentarily speaking, keep his shirt on. The result was necessarily a clash, which might simply have been a source of amusement to the audience, if it was not that the clash came near to ending in a row. The president of the Senate was wrong in his autocratic ruling. Senator Brown was wrong in arguing a point of order, and both gentlemen were wrong in creating a disgraceful or, at least, an unnecessary scene. The Independents believe, and we also are beginning to smell a rat in the same direction, that an effort is being made by Senator Brown and his colique, to block legislation here, until such a time when Congress now in its long session can be heard from. The people begin to believe that Senator Brown and his followers are trying to "monkey" with the Territorial Legislature, and the people have no inclination just now to allow such proceedings, when they are anxiously waiting to have actions taken on the fire-claims, the roads, the taxes, etc. etc., measures of vital importance to them. We predict that in spite of the attempted and intended obstruction methods of the Brown-Carter Baldwin combination, the Legislators will finish their work within a ninety days session. The attitude adopted by Senator Brown will not help an iota and any further spats with the President will be a useless attempt to gain time. Senator Brown has always been a poor politician, but we didn't think he was quite as bad, as he showed himself to be on Tuesday. From days gone by we know that it takes not less than two weeks, in which to cool off Kikila politically and get him ready for business. He is older now; the time of the session is not so long, as it used to be, so we humbly suggest that he cuts it short, and stays sulky only for four days this time. If he accepts this proposition, he will be in good fighting trim again on Monday next, and ready to look after the interests of the Territory, instead of indulging in a boyish squabble with a colleague.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Defending Sapho.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

"When the devil would his darkest deed put on he wears the garb of angel."

For the last three months the City of Honolulu has lacked a place of amusement. After some considerable persuasion a firm of theatrical managers from the Pacific Coast agreed to bring to the City an aggregation of actors and actresses, headed by a lady who is known in the English Speaking World as one of the noblest and grandest of English Speaking actresses. The managers of this aggregation, in their superior wisdom of what is beautiful in stage lore, saw fit to open their engagement here in a production that has won the applause of every thinking honest virtuous man and woman, that have witnessed the play. A newspaper in this City headed by a man of unquestioned Christian charity (?) has seen fit to think that Alphonse Daudet is immoral. Let the learned gentleman who wrote the editorial in that paper point out, in what the play is immoral. Is it immoral for a woman to love? Is it immoral for a woman like Sapho to love wisely but not well? Can a nobler picture be shown than this so-called vile creature's love for the off-spring, born of her misfortune? Is there a work in the classics, spoken of in that same editorial, that teaches a grander and more beautiful lesson of the weakness of human nature battling against itself, and becoming victorious out of its very vice, than is taught in Daudet's Sapho? Would it be wise for these most virtuous gentlemen that control the policy of the paper to take the broom of virtue, the mop of honor and honesty and do some sweeping and cleaning where they live, and know and learn that Sapho was no more a prostitute, than were some of the classic heroines they sought to tell us of, and that when virtuous men and virtuous women attend such a play, they go there armed in the armory of their own purity, and I can say this, that I will advise the gentlemen who wrote the editorial to learn, "He is only evil who thinks evil."

THESPIA.

Trebelli Tomorrow.

Mlle Antonia Trebelli-Dolores will entertain the music loving people of Honolulu at the Opera House tomorrow night. The program has been arranged and will include twelve songs by Trebelli who will be assisted by Robert Clarence Newell, the celebrated pianist.

The Shriners Have the Ventura.

Those who expect to go to the Coast on the Oceanic steamship Ventura on April 2 will be disappointed. The Ventura will not take any passengers from Honolulu to San Francisco except a large party who have engaged the entire steamship for the trip from the Paradise of the Pacific to the Mainland. Orders to this effect have been received from the head office at San Francisco. The special party which has practically purchased the great vessel for the voyage to the Coast is composed entirely of the Shriners.

The Shriners sailed from San Francisco yesterday for this port on the Sierra. The great excursion is in charge of Saladin Temple, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. There will be 225 people in the expedition. Aloha Temple is to be organized here.—P. C. A.

Not to Blame.

Yesterday morning an official investigation was made concerning the wreck of the Hawaiian Navigation Company's gasoline schooner Surprise, which went on the reef at Koloa, Kauai, not long ago, during a severe Kona storm.

Captains Whitney and Lehnars, Federal inspectors of hulls and boilers, conducted the investigation. The master of the wrecked vessel, Captain Nystrom, was the principal witness.

The Federal inspectors returned a verdict exonerating the officers of the Surprise from all blame for the vessel's loss.

The Donau Here.

The Austrian training ship Donau arrived in port yesterday from Guatemala on her way to the Orient.

The Donau is a fine full-rigged ship, supplied with steam power. Her engines are only used, however, upon entering a port or for very short distances. She is a vessel of 2,500 tons and was built about eight years ago.

She sailed from Austria in May of last year and has been cruising in South American waters. She will return home some time this year, it is thought, by way of the Suez canal.

There are 340 men aboard the training ship, the majority being trained for the navy; twenty-four are young naval officers. Her battery consists of ten 4 inch guns and four rapid-fire Hotchkiss guns.

Baron von Rakovsky, a member of the Austrian diplomatic service is aboard, having been instructed by his government to visit the different Austrian consulates. Upon the arrival of the warship he called upon Mr. P. A. Schaefer, Consul for Austria at this port. The usual salute was fired upon the Donau entering the harbor and was responded to by the naval station.

Trouble on a whaler.

The American whaling bark, Andrew Hicks, Captain Shorey, arrived here yesterday. There had been trouble on board the bark and Captain Shorey came here for the purpose of shipping more men in his crew, and have a serious stabbing affray among two members of his crew laid before the federal authorities here.

There was a row on board between Maao and Mullaly which resulted in the former stabbing and inflicting serious wounds on the latter. Maao is now in the custody of the United States Marshal and will have a hearing tomorrow before Commissioner Robinson of the U. S. District Court.

The Humane Educator.

The following paragraph appears in the last number of the Humane Educator, of which Mrs. Helen Wilder Craft has been the energetic publisher and editor:

"This will be the last issue of the Humane Educator. It is the twelfth number, completing the year. Though the paper and the movement it represents have been well supported in some quarters, there is not the general public co operation which it is felt should be given to such an enterprise. The work that falls to the duty of a humane society in Honolulu is no light burden, and the writer, after some ten years' efforts which it is her pleasure to know have saved many a dumb brute from ill treatment, and which, it is hoped, have also helped to spread in our community the lessons of kindness in dealing with animals, intends now to lay aside the work and leave it to other hands."

Try It.

A new cure is being advocated for asthma, bronchitis, and other lung diseases. Hitherto the asthmatic person has kept indoors as often as possible, carefully shutting windows and doors, and keeping a roaring fire blazing in the grate. Now he is bidden to fling his windows open, and moreover, to keep in the open air as much as possible. But this is not all. He is taught that it is not so important what he breathes as how he breathes. Breathing exercises, then, are part of the cure, and here not only the sufferer from bronchial catarrh is concerned, but even the woman of fashion anxious to maintain her good looks. For 15 minutes twice a day women of fashion, asthmatic patients, and, indeed, all the world, are bidden to stand out of doors, preferably in the sunshine, and holding the chest up, to inhale slowly through the nose, and then quickly exhale the breath through the mouth.

An organization was made last Monday evening of an anti-Saloon League at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. The following are the officers: Theodore Richards, president; Rev. G. L. Pearson, first vice-president; Franklin Austin, second vice-president; Mrs. Dr. Whitney, third vice-president; J. M. Moore, secretary; J. B. Atherton, treasurer; W. K. Azbill, chairman of agitation committee; Rev. Westervelt, chairman of legislation committee; Major Wood, chairman enforcement committee; J. P. Erdman, chairman of finance committee, and Wm. Templeton, chairman of enrollment committee.

LAW MAKING.

A perfect avalanche of bills is falling on the desks of the clerks of the Legislature. Every man elected considers it his duty to "do something," but so far every member seems to have lost sight of the main object of the Legislature; we mean that of raising the necessary revenues with which to pay the expenses in connection with running the government.

Our legislators are, of course, all wise and earnest men, but we have seen men, even of that stamp, making horrible political blunders.

Now, it seems to us that the Legislature has lost sight of the appropriation bill, which ought to have been one of the first measures introduced. We know, of course, that the idea was to delay that important bill so as to force the Governor to extend the term of the session by thirty days, which the following clause in the Organic Act gives him the power to do. In Section 43, which reads: "That each session of the Legislature shall continue not longer than sixty days, excluding Sundays and holidays; provided, however, that the Governor may extend such session for not more than thirty days."

That is surely plain enough, and every member can obtain a calendar, with the aid of which he can find out how many working days are left for the Legislature. The wheels of the Dole government will run as smoothly as ever, even if no appropriation bill is passed, because Section 54 of the Organic Act plainly says that "all legislative and other appropriations made prior to the date when this Act shall take effect shall be available to the government of the Territory of Hawaii."

We see no use in, at this date, criticizing the merits or demerits of the provisions of the Organic Act. We are obliged to act according to that Act or go out to Diamond Head and make a revolution, and "Bob" being absent, we are hardly prepared for that. The Legislature ought to get down to practical work at once. Let the Senate deal with the tax bills while the other house attacks the appropriation bill. Then change around and something may be gained definitely before Dole gets his chance to ring down the curtain and keep the old boat a-sailing over the same old pond of the family compact.

An enormous lot of work is before the Legislature. The "draft of the charter for the city and county of Honolulu" has just been sent to us from the Republican charter committee. It is a printed pamphlet of 170 pages, and the reading of it in two languages would occupy two weeks at least. We had to hire a warehouse to hold the bulky charters of the Independents, and we presume that both "charters" will, in some form or other, be read in the two houses. Be practical, gentlemen, and figure closely how much time there is at your disposal, and do not waste time on trifling measures, which may be excellent at another time, but which hardly ought to have consideration now.

Why devote time to a bill like this: An Act to Provide That Eight Hours Shall Constitute a Legal Day's Work, Either Mechanical or Industrial.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

Section 1. On all works, either mechanical or industrial, which shall or may be and now carried on in this Territory of Hawaii, that laborers on such works are to be employed for eight hours on each day's work.

Sec. 2. That the eight hours, as provided in Section 1, shall constitute a legal day's work in the Territory of Hawaii; and such hours to begin from 8 o'clock in the morning to 12 o'clock at noon, and from 1 o'clock in the afternoon to 5 o'clock in the evening.

Sec. 3. This Act shall take effect from and after the date of its publication.

A similar bill has already been declared unconstitutional by the highest court of our country (by that we don't refer to our local circuit court), and a discussion of the bill would simply be waste of time and useless.

Here is another bill which might as well be sent to the waste basket. It refers to the education at public expense of Hawaiian youths, and we only quote:

Section 4. The Secretary of the Territory, with the Board of Education, are hereby directed to send the said youths only to be taught in the following occupations: First, the legal profession; second, the medical profession; third, surveying and civil engineering; fourth, the art of teaching; and the youths shall pursue such course of studies until they shall receive diplomas from the instructor of the schools on the mainland or abroad.

The Hawaiians are now American citizens, and a Hawaiian boy must take his chances with any other boy. The Hawaiians have never been beggars, and public charity, as it would be, they have never called for. Introduce a bill to establish a university here and our boys can become lawyers and doctors and surveyors right here, and probably with as much ability and honor as that possessed by some of our professionals from the mainland. But is it not wiser to attend to the finances of the Territory before we discuss universities and diplomas?

Of course a tax law has been introduced by Colonel Dickey, which would have the same effect on the treasury as that one introduced a few days ago by a colleague of his, relating to the repealing of taxes on female dogs. We refer to the effect of the bill as reducing the revenues of the Territory. The bill reads:

An Act to Abolish Personal Taxes.
Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the Territory of Hawaii:

Section 1. The levying, assessment and collection of personal taxes heretofore known as poll, road and school taxes, are hereby abolished.

Sec. 2. All sections or parts of sections of laws inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Sec. 3. This Act shall take effect on the 1st day of January, A. D. 1902, and shall not be so construed as to interfere in any way with the assessment and collection of the personal taxes of A. D. 1901.

Let us repeat to our honorable and honored members that time is short, that the enacting of laws is a slow and difficult business, and that Dole and his crowd will obstruct but not help the first Hawaiian Legislature in the Territory. He is all right under the Organic Act and nothing will suit him better than to see the Legislature prorogue after doing NOTHING.

TOPICS OF THE DAY.

Senator Brown and Senator Russell had a "spat" on Tuesday. The ex-Siberian dignitary had the advantage of being president of the Senate and backed by a majority, while Senator Brown is on the floor in a minority. The gentleman in the chair knows nothing about parliamentary rules and was only put there to show that the Hawaiians have no feelings against the "whites." The Senator on the floor knows a great deal about rules, but cannot, parliamentarily speaking, keep his shirt on. The result was necessarily a clash, which might simply have been a source of amusement to the audience, if it was not that the clash came near to ending in a row. The president of the Senate was wrong in his autocratic ruling. Senator Brown was wrong in arguing a point of order, and both gentlemen were wrong in creating a disgraceful or, at least, an unnecessary scene. The Independents believe, and we also are beginning to smell a rat in the same direction, that an effort is being made by Senator Brown and his clique, to block legislation here, until such a time when Congress now in its long session can be heard from. The people begin to believe that Senator Brown and his followers are trying to "monkey" with the Territorial Legislature, and the people have no inclination just now to allow such proceedings, when they are anxiously waiting to have actions taken on the fire-claims, the roads, the taxes, etc. etc., measures of vital importance to them. We predict that in spite of the attempted and intended obstruction methods of the Brown-Carter Baldwin combination, the Legislators will finish their work within a ninety days session. The attitude adopted by Senator Brown will not help an iota and any further spats with the President will be a useless attempt to gain time. Senator Brown has always been a poor politician, but we didn't think he was quite as bad, as he showed himself to be on Tuesday. From days gone by we know that it takes not less than two weeks, in which to cool off Kikila politically and get him ready for business. He is older now; the time of the session is not so long, as it used to be, so we humbly suggest that he cuts it short, and stays sulky only for four days this time. If he accepts this proposition, he will be in good fighting trim again on Monday next, and ready to look after the interests of the Territory, instead of indulging in a boyish squabble with a colleague.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Defending Sapho.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:—

"When the devil would his darkest deed put on he wears the garb of angel."

For the last three months the City of Honolulu has lacked a place of amusement. After some considerable persuasion a firm of theatrical managers from the Pacific Coast agreed to bring to the City an aggregation of actors and actresses, headed by a lady who is known in the English Speaking World as one of the noblest and grandest of English Speaking actresses. The managers of this aggregation, in their superior wisdom of what is beautiful in stage lore, saw fit to open their engagement here in a production that has won the applause of every thinking honest virtuous man and woman, that have witnessed the play. A newspaper in this City headed by a man of unquestioned Christian charity (?) has seen fit to think that Alphonse Daudet is immoral. Let the learned gentleman who wrote the editorial in that paper point out, in what the play is immoral. Is it immoral for a woman to love? Is it immoral for a woman like Sapho to love wisely but not well? Can a nobler picture be shown than this so-called vile creature's love for the off-spring, born of her misfortune? Is there a work in the classics, spoken of in that same editorial, that teaches a grander and more beautiful lesson of the weakness of human nature battling against itself, and becoming victorious out of its very vice, than is taught in Daudet's Sapho? Would it be wise for these most virtuous gentlemen that control the policy of the paper to take the broom of virtue, the mop of honor and honesty and do some sweeping and cleaning where they live, and know and learn that Sapho was no more a prostitute, than were some of the classic heroines they sought to tell us of, and that when virtuous men and virtuous women attend such a play, they go there armed in the armory of their own purity, and I can say this, that I will advise the gentlemen who wrote the editorial to learn, "He is only evil who thinks evil." THE SPIN.

The Shriners Have the Ventura.

Those who expect to go to the Coast on the Oceanic steamship Ventura on April 2 will be disappointed. The Ventura will not take any passengers from Honolulu to San Francisco except a large party who have engaged the entire steamship for the trip from the Paradise of the Pacific to the Mainland. Orders to this effect have been received from the head office at San Francisco. The special party which has practically purchased the great vessel for the voyage to the Coast is composed entirely of the Shriners.

The Shriners sailed from San Francisco yesterday for this port on the Sierra. The great excursion is in charge of Saladin Temple, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. There will be 225 people in the expedition. Aloha Temple is to be organized here.—P. C. A.

Not to Blame.

Yesterday morning an official investigation was made concerning the wreck of the Hawaiian Navigation Company's gasoline schooner Surprise, which went on the reef at Koloa, Kauai, not long ago, during a severe Kona storm.

Captains Whitney and Lehnert, Federal inspectors of hulls and boilers, conducted the investigation. The master of the wrecked vessel, Captain Nystrom, was the principal witness.

The Federal inspectors returned a verdict exonerating the officers of the Surprise from all blame for the vessel's loss.

The Donau Here.

The Austrian training ship Donau arrived in port yesterday from Guatemala on her way to the Orient.

The Donau is a fine full-rigged ship, supplied with steam power. Her engines are only used, however, upon entering a port or for very short distances. She is a vessel of 2,500 tons and was built about eight years ago.

She sailed from Austria in May of last year and has been cruising in South American waters. She will return home some time this year, it is thought, by way of the Suez canal.

There are 340 men aboard the training ship, the majority being trained for the navy; twenty-four are young naval officers. Her battery consists of ten 4 inch guns and four rapid fire Hotchkiss guns.

Baron von Rakovsky, a member of the Austrian diplomatic service is aboard, having been instructed by his government to visit the different Austrian consulates. Upon the arrival of the warship he called upon Mr. F. A. Schaefer, Consul for Austria at this port. The usual salute was fired upon the Donau entering the harbor and was responded to by the naval station.

Trouble on a whaler.

The American whaling bark, Andrew Hicks, Captain Shorey, arrived here yesterday. There had been trouble on board the bark and Captain Shorey came here for the purpose of shipping more men in his crew, and have a serious stabbing affray among two members of his crew laid before the federal authorities here.

There was a row on board between Maao and Mullaly which resulted in the former stabbing and inflicting serious wounds on the latter. Marato is now in the custody of the United States Marshal and will have a hearing tomorrow before Commissioner Robinson of the U. S. District Court.
