The Hawaiian Historical Society

Organized 1892

The Hawaiian Historical Society is dedicated to preserving historical material relating to Hawai’i and the Pacific and publishing scholarly research on the history of Hawai’i and the Pacific. The Society maintains a research library, publishes The Hawaiian Journal of History and limited-edition books, and holds regular lecture meetings. The Society is a not-for-profit membership organization funded by dues, contributions, book sales, an endowment, and grants for special projects.

Membership in the Society is open to both individuals and institutions and includes The Hawaiian Journal of History, Nā Mea Kahiko newsletter, membership meetings, and discounts on publications.
