JOHN THOS. WATERHOUSE'S BEE HIVE STORE!

Freedom's Banner. God of Nations! hear the vow which we offer to Thee now. Never while an arm can raise, in our hearts beats true and free, shall this banner of the Free, be the standard of Liberty.

VARIETY. Practice flows from principle; for as a man thinks, so he will act.

A good man is kinder to his enemy than bad men are to their friends.

Every heart has a secret drawer, the spring of which is only known to the owner.

A Scotch Cassinier—a lady advertiser in a Glasgow paper that she wants a gentleman "for breakfast and tea."

COCKNEY WAITER—"Am, sir? Yes sir! Don't take anything with your 'am, do you, sir?"

"I'd just like to see you," as the blind man said to the policeman, when he told him he would take him to the station-house if he did not move on.

Learning, it is said, may be an instrument of fraud; so may greed, if discharged from the mouth of a nation, be an instrument of death.

A great man commonly disappoints those who visit him. They are on the look out for his thundering and lightning, and he repays them with a smile, and a much like other people; say, sometimes he may even be seen laughing.

A student went into a book-shop and inquired of the proprietor if he had any pocket ornaments in the shape of an umbrella.

The Pleasure of Pain—There are lessons of patience and submission, yes, and of gratitude, which are best learned when the head is low.

Small Difference—At a trial in the western part of the State, a short time since, after the rendition of the verdict, the defeated party broke out in a tirade of abuse against the presiding officer.

A SPEECH—A worthy gentleman, major—was once placed in charge of the Penitentiary in the District of Columbia.

A MODEL WIFE—"The following is a copy of a will left by a man who chose to be his own lawyer."

SPECIMENS! Lava, Sulphur, Pele's Hair, ABOVE 20 VARIETIES.

THREE WEEKS LATER!

Arrival of the Clipper Ship Storm King!

NINE AND A HALF DAYS PASSAGE! HIGHLY INTERESTING NEWS.

Advance of the Union Forces into Tennessee.

Interesting European News.

The fine clipper ship Storm King, Callaghan, arrived early on Sunday morning, after a remarkably short passage of 9 1/2 days, bringing the California and Eastern mails to us.

Our latest telegraphic advices by the Comet were in Jan. 2 from Washington; by this arrival they are to the 24th of that month, and from Europe to Jan. 8.

New York papers by mail include dates from Nov. 15 to Dec. 15, and by Sullivan's Express to Jan. 1.

We give below a summary of the principal telegraphic news of interest here.

Dates of January 7-12. The Charleston Mercury has a dispatch stating that a large force of Federal troops had landed on the coast at Edisto, and had made the seizure of the Rail Road Station No. 4, on the Charleston and Savannah Railroad.

General Butler has arrived at St. Paul Island with the remainder of his forces. Southern papers say he has landed on the main land and captured two small towns.

Steamship Vanderbilt from Port Royal, S. C., Jan. 24, arrived at New York yesterday, and brought three thousand six hundred and ninety-seven bales of cotton.

A special dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat, from Cairo, says that 25,000 troops are on the way there from different points. As soon as they arrive, a column of 60,000 or 75,000 men will march on Paducah, under General Grant.

The destination of the force is said to be Nashville, where, if a junction can be formed with the bulk of the command, the entire army will proceed to New Orleans.

Gen. Fremont's investigation has commenced at Washington. His friends express strong hopes that he will clear himself of all charges.

Treasury notes in Washington are four per cent. discount. Exchange on New York is one half per cent.

There was great excitement in the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, yesterday, occasioned by the election of officers, which resulted in the disruption of the Chamber. The trouble arose from Secession members refusing to vote for the admission of Union members.

Two hundred prisoners, released from Richmond, arrived at Washington, yesterday, and were paid off. Chicago, Jan. 9th.—Hale presented a petition in the Senate to-day, from citizens of Pennsylvania, asking that a statute be enacted, punishing those defaming the Government. It also introduced a bill for punishing frauds on the Treasury.

January 10th.—The feature of Congress yesterday was the speech of Senator Sumner sustaining the Administration in the surrender of Mason and Slidell, and showing clearly that it was in pursuance of the policy maintained by the Government from its inception to the present time. All the foreign legations were present except Lord Lyons.

St. Louis, Jan. 10.—The great gun-boat expedition left Cairo to-day, and proceeded down the river to points in Kentucky. There were on board seventy-five thousand men, who were accompanied by Generals Grant, McClellan, Smith, Wallace and Payne.

Senators Johnson and Folk, of Missouri, yesterday expelled from the United States Senate, because of their operations in favor of the rebellion. Gen. Burnside's expedition, well manned and equipped, has sailed from Annapolis for Hampton Roads, Va.

St. Louis, Jan. 13.—Simon Cameron had sent in his resignation as Secretary of War. Edward P. Stanton, according to the same authority, is his successor. Mr. Cameron is to go as Minister to Russia in place of C. M. Clay [who requested to be recalled some time since].

The New York Post has reliable information that a large party in South Carolina is anxious for peace, and is disposed to appoint commissioners to negotiate one. President Davis has appointed Messrs. Stephens, the object of the peace movement, while the Blunt party is opposed to it.

The capture of Port Royal has proved a heavy blow to the Rebels in the Carolinas. Dates from Jan. 18-24. Gen. Thomas on Saturday, the 18th of Jan. had an engagement with Zollicoffer, in which Zollicoffer and Balle Peyton, Jr. were killed. The rebels retreated to their entrenchments at Mills Springs. The Federals are in hot pursuit.

A battle at Somerset, Ky., occurred on Sunday evening. The rebels were repulsed and hotly pursued by Gen. Thomas to their entrenchment at Mills Springs, 25 miles from Thomas's position, where they crossed the Cumberland. Our forces followed up close to the enemy's entrenchments, on the north bank of the river, and lay in front of them all night, expecting to storm them in the morning; but during the night the rebels managed to go across the river in barges and boats. They left everything behind, including artillery, ammunition, horses, tents, quartermaster's commissary and medical stores. The Federal troops took possession of the enemy's entrenchment early on Monday morning.

On the battle field, after the rebels had fled, 200 dead and wounded rebels were picked up; among them was Gen. Zollicoffer and Balle Peyton, Jr. [This Balle Peyton was a son of Balle Peyton, former Secretary of State. The deceased was about 25 years of age; he was an aid-de-camp on Gen. Zollicoffer's staff.—Ed. Herald.] Gen. Zollicoffer was found mortally wounded in a wagon.

A private dispatch from Somerset, Kentucky, says that McCook, of the 7th Ohio, was wounded in the recent battle. Three battle horses, a fourth passed through his overcoat, and a fifth hit him, inflicting a painful though not a dangerous wound. Zollicoffer is said to have been killed by Col. Fry of the 24 Kentucky Regiment, who was struck in the forehead by a rebel bullet. The Federals are using the remaining barges in the transportation of troops across the river.

So far as ascertained, the rebel loss was 250 killed and wounded, our loss 150 dead and wounded. Heavy rains prevailed in Ohio. At Cincinnati, on the 20th, the river was fifty one feet above low water, and was rising at the rate of three inches per hour. There are five feet of water on the first floor of the buildings fronting the river.

Cassius M. Clay was yesterday confirmed as Major-General, and Abner Doubleday as Brigadier-General. General Stone's name will be probably stricken from the army roll; he has returned too many slaves for his benefit.

Senator Sherman has introduced a bill cutting down salaries of all Army and Navy officers. Kentucky and Cumberland Gap are now open for our troops to march into East Tennessee. The Federal army in Southern Kentucky has been with signal success, which event has created joy throughout the country. We can now feel as if the war was being waged in earnest. A few days will bring news of still greater victories. East and West. St. Louis, Jan. 12, 1862.—On the 7th instant, Humphrey Marshall, who commanded a body of 2,000 Rebel troops, which were stationed north of Columbus, Ky., bearing an attack from Gen. Garfield, (Union), by destroying all his wagons, tents, etc. Gen. Garfield, with his forces, pursued them to Columbus. The flight of Marshall, the advance of Garfield, and the movement of the flotilla from Cairo, has created great alarm in the Rebel camp.

European Intelligence.

Dates to Jan. 8th. The steamer City of New York, from Liverpool on the 24th of January, arrived at Cape Race. The steamer Java arrived on the 25th. She took out the announcement of the adjustment of the Trent affair, which was received with the greatest satisfaction. Consuls immediately advised the arrival of the City of New York, [?] of Cape Race yesterday morning, we have English dates to 9th of January. On that day two steamers arrived from America with the news of the surrender of Mason and Slidell. The great satisfaction, but we have nothing from the English press on the subject. The most noticeable news is an advance in consols of 1/2 per cent. This shows the relief of which the mercantile classes experienced. Some consider the surrender to have been performed in a very ungracious manner, while others are loud in their praise of Secretary Seward's tactics. Parliament is convened for the 6th of February, when, it is stated, an attempt will be made to compel the recognition by Government of the Southern Confederacy.

Russell, the Times' correspondent, maintains his reputation as a prophet, by a letter in the Times on the 24th of the news received. English of the secretary of the Southern Embassadors, in which he again predicts that the mob would never permit the United States Government to give up the rebels!

THE DEATH OF PRINCE ALBERT—ITS INFLUENCE ON THE QUEEN AND PEOPLE.—The death of Prince Albert occurred about 11 o'clock, on the night of December 14th, and caused a most profound seclusion throughout England. The London Times thus records the event, in their praise of Secretary Seward's tactics. Parliament is convened for the 6th of February, when, it is stated, an attempt will be made to compel the recognition by Government of the Southern Confederacy.

Russell, the Times' correspondent, maintains his reputation as a prophet, by a letter in the Times on the 24th of the news received. English of the secretary of the Southern Embassadors, in which he again predicts that the mob would never permit the United States Government to give up the rebels!

THE DEATH OF PRINCE ALBERT—ITS INFLUENCE ON THE QUEEN AND PEOPLE.—The death of Prince Albert occurred about 11 o'clock, on the night of December 14th, and caused a most profound seclusion throughout England. The London Times thus records the event, in their praise of Secretary Seward's tactics. Parliament is convened for the 6th of February, when, it is stated, an attempt will be made to compel the recognition by Government of the Southern Confederacy.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as DR. HOEFLER'S SEDATIVE BITTERS. Although the name of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous debility, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. 207-1m
