Patriotic Ode.
SUNG IN CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA, ON THE 4TH OF JULY, 1828.

The following patriotic ode was written for and sung at the celebration of American Independence, in the City of Charleston, South Carolina, in 1828, and is now re-produced from a memory of 59 years.

Text—Bruce's Address.

Hail! our country's natal home,
Hail! our spreading kindred born,
Hail! our banner not yet torn,
Waving o'er the free.
While this day in festal throng
Millions swell the patriot's song,
Shall not we the notes prolong?
Hallowed jubilee!
Who would sever freedom's shrine?
Who would draw the invisible line?
Though one spot by birth be mine,
Dear to all the rest.
Dear to me the South's fair land,
Dear the central mountain band,
Dear New England's rocky strand,
Dear the prairie West.
By our altars pure and free,
By our laws' deep rooted tree,
By the past's dead memory,
By our Washington;
By our common parent tongue,
By our hopes, bright, buoyant, young—
By the ties of country, strong—
We will still be one.
Fathers! have ye led in vain?
Ages! have ye dropt again?
Make us rashly stain
The flag sent by thee?
They give our solemn vow—
The life we give Thy throne we bow—
We'll maintain as now,
Our Union's Liberty!

Queen Victoria is fond of silver-grey as a color in costume. So her new daughter-in-law wore a silver-grey poplin dress, on her first visit to Her Majesty, which took the latter by surprise. And it is now understood that a silver grey poplin, from this circumstance, is to be "all the rage" this season; and, moreover, that, by the act of making it fashionable, the Princess of Wales inaugurates her reign as the English, as the Empress Eugenie is the French, Queen of the Modes.

New Iron-Clads.—The immense iron clad frigate Rouale is out of the hands of the workmen who have been engaged on her for nearly a year in alterations and repairs. She is now ready for commission, and when that work is completed, she will be taken down to the Narrows, where she is to be stationed as one of the permanent guardships of our harbor.

Another famous steam frigate, the Niagara, which has been undergoing repairs and alterations at the Brooklyn Navy Yard, is now nearly ready for commission. This vessel has been strengthened and fitted for carrying a battery of enormous weight, and she is expected to prove one of the most formidable craft in our Navy. It was the intention of the Department to have gotten her off in season to join in the attack on Charleston. She is behind time for that glorious work, now so well commenced, but her sailing qualities will enable her to do good service in any other war meridian where her assistance may happen to be needed.

WHY THE NATIONAL NOTES HAVE "GREEN" BACKS.—Ever since the adoption of a paper currency, it has been the constant study of bank note engravers to get up some plan of printing bills that could not be counterfeited; in this they only partly succeeded till as late as 1857. A person named Stacey J. Elson invented a kind of green ink, which he patented June 30th of that year. It is called anti-photographic ink, because it cannot be photographed on account of its color, and cannot be discolored with alkalis by counterfeiters, to get a complete fac simile of the bills. And as it is a secret only known by the American Bank Note Co., and the inventor, it is impossible to counterfeit the greenback money. It was used by many banks before the war, but was never a leading feature in the bill; but if the composition of the ink was known, it would be of no use, as the work could not be copied from the genuine bills as with any other kind of ink. The date of the patent can be seen in all the bills in small print.

WHY ARE TO FIGHT.—All citizens are subject to military duty who are over 20 and under 45 years of age, with the following exceptions: Those who are of unsound mind; those who have been to the penitentiary; those who have any bodily defect or disease; the Vice President of the United States; all United States Judges; the heads of the Executive Departments of the United States; Governors of States; the only son of a widow depending on his labor for support; the only son of aged or infirm parents dependent on his labor; if two or more sons of such are subjects, the parents may decide which shall go to the war; the only brother of children under 12 years of age; the father of motherless children under 12, who are dependent on his labor for support; where there are father and sons in the same family and household, and two of them are in the service of the United States, as non-commissioned officers, officers, or privates, the residue of such family, not exceeding 2, shall be exempt, and no persons shall be exempt except as mentioned above. The bodily conditions which exempt from military service are chiefly as follows: 1. Those having disease of the lungs or heart; 2. Loss of forefinger of right hand or leg; 3. Lameness in either foot; 4. Loss of any limb; 5. Having any kind of rupture; 6. Any defect in either eye; 7. Any deafness in either ear; 8. Having a "hump-back"; 9. Subject to any kind of fits; 10. Having chronic sore leg.—Hall's Journal of Health.

number, the COMMERCIAL enters on its 25th year. During the period that has elapsed since its establishment, many changes have taken place in the metropolis and throughout the group, and many who were then our most prominent and active business men have left us, either for other spheres of activity or for their final rest.

This journal was established and has been conducted to represent the liberal or conservative views of the foreign community, avoiding as much as possible an ultra or radical position on any question.

Next to poverty, delinquent subscribers, and duns, to which most editors are subject, the greatest difficulty is to please the public. For so great is the variety of public taste and opinion that had the conductor of a periodical paper as many heads as the human race, he could never hope to please all.

Not long since, there was a dinner given by the publishers in Berlin, Germany, at which some two hundred editors and authors were present. Among such a number of men devoted to the press, there must have been much said worthy of note.

acquiring it. In such and other minor offices of the government, we are in favor of promoting the native element, as rapidly as the proper qualifications are shown.

Some may say that as foreigners contribute a majority of the income of the government, therefore they should also fill a majority of the public offices. This argument certainly has some weight, especially in positions here in the metropolis where the greater part of the business is transacted with foreigners and in a foreign language.

We doubt not that the public will look favorably on the appointment of Mr. Kalakaua, and give him every opportunity to acquire the duties of his new office, so that he may perform them with credit.

There exist everywhere some very suspicious, tender-souled mortals, of whom the editor of the Polynesian is the most notable example among us. In alluding last week to the resignation of the late Postmaster, taking it for granted that the office was vacant, which appears was not strictly correct, we said that the incumbent (the successor of course intended) should be a man of unimpeachable qualities and in every respect qualified for the position.

Some have supposed, that because we occasionally have censured public officers, we were necessarily inspired with personal animosity in so doing. This is not the case, as we have before had occasion to remark. The position we occupy as the conductor of the only medium through which the public can utter its grievances against public officers, high or low, compels us often involuntarily to assume a position of apparent animosity against those censured.

In this connection we may state that Mr. Clark has received from the Minister of the Interior a very courteous response to his resignation, expressing satisfaction with him as an officer in every respect, and regretting that he intended to leave the kingdom.

We insert below the report of the Treasurer of the Queen's Hospital, which was placed at our disposal too late for insertion in last week's issue. It shows that the annual expense of supporting this institution is now about $7,000.

The unceremonious attack of the government organ last week on the American Missionaries because as much was not contributed by their churches throughout the islands as the editor of that paper thought ought to have been, is not calculated to enlist sympathy.

His Majesty has appointed Mr. DAVID KALAKAUA to be Postmaster General, vice Mr. A. K. Clark resigned. Mr. K. is a native Hawaiian, well versed in the English language, and has served as assistant clerk in the Interior Department for several years, where he gave entire satisfaction.

As required by the first article of the Charter of the Queen's Hospital, the Treasurer respectfully presents the following report, showing the amount and sources of the receipts and the amount and character of the expenditures during the two years ending with this date; and also the gross receipts and disbursements from the establishment of the Institution to the present time.

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes DISBURSEMENTS DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS, RECEIPTS DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS, and RECEIPTS DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS.

DISBURSEMENTS DURING THE LAST TWO YEARS. Paid wages of Purveyors and servants up to 1st inst. $ 3104 50. Physician's salary up to 15th April, 3050 00.

LAHAINA, June 29, 1863. EDITOR COMMERCIAL.—Your notice in last week's paper of a "Deserted Village," reminds me of an extraordinary exodus which took place from our little town a day or two since, in the Collector, Coroner, Governor of the Jail, Harbor Master and Sheriff of Maui, with the Treasurer of the Lahaina Sugar Company, all left for Waikapa, and the whole party mounted on one horse. Much to our surprise the horse was returned, so that the services of the Coroner were not required. The Treasurer of the Sugar Company has also returned, but is much exhausted, and was confined to his room all day yesterday. There are reports of his having been hurt by a donkey last week.

LEGAL NOTICE.—The undersigned having resigned his position as one of the Circuit Judges for Hawaii hereby offers his services to the public.
