SMALL SAVINGS.

These Trifles are the Real Foundation of Wealth.

The man who saves something every year, quotes a contemporary, who had heard the remark from every quarter, is on the road to prosperity. It may not be possible to save much. If not, save a little. Do not think that a dollar or a dime is too small a sum to lay by. Everybody knows how little expenditures get away with large sums. But few seem to know that the rule is one that works both ways. If a dime spent here and a dollar there soon makes a large hole in a man's income, so do dimes and dollars laid away soon become a visible and respectable accumulation. In this country any man can make himself independent or keep himself under the harrow for life, according as he wastes or spends his small change.

Most of our millionaires laid the foundation of their fortunes by saving. It is said that Senator Farwell commenced life as a surveyor.

Cornelius Vanderbilt began life as a farmer.

Postmaster-General Wanamaker's salary was $1.25 a week.

A. T. Stewart made his first start as a school-teacher.

Cyrus Field began life as a clerk in a New England store.

Andrew Carnegie did his first work in a telegraph office at $3 a week.

Whitelaw Reid, our Minister to France, did work as a correspondent of a Cincinnati newspaper at $5 a week.

Moses Taylor clerked in Water street, New York, at $2 a week.

George W. Childs was an errand boy for a book-seller at $4 a month.

Jay Gould canvassed Delaware county, N. Y., selling maps at $1 25 apiece.

And to the above names, which are familiar to most persons, might be added hundreds of others whose fortune and fame had the small beginning.

The same or better opportunities exist to-day for bright, energetic young men to succeed that existed when the above millionaires began their business life, but to accomplish it the same perseverance and economy which characterized their early career must be observed.—Scientific American.

By Authority.

Normal Classes.

Agreeably with a published notice of the Board of Education, of the 6th of November last, normal classes will be opened at Fort Street School, in this city, commencing on FRIDAY NEXT, the 10th inst., at half-past two o'clock (2:30) P. M., for the benefit of all teachers who desire to attend, and for applicants for teachers' places in the public schools. All public school teachers in Honolulu, holding primary grade certificates, will be expected by the Board of Education to attend such of these classes as shall be designated in each case by the person in charge of the instruction. All other teachers will be welcome. A meeting of all the public school teachers and applicants for teachers' places will be expected at the opening session on Friday next.

By order of the Board of Education.

W. JAS. SMITH,
Secretary.

Education Office, Jan. 7, 1890. 6-3t

Notice of Reward.

In accordance with the power conferred upon me by Law, I hereby offer a reward of Fifty Dollars ($50) to be paid to any person who shall give evidence which will lead to the conviction of any person for the violation of any of the provisions of the Election Law by doing any act designated in such law as a "corrupt" or "illegal" practice.

L. A. THURSTON,
Minister of the Interior.

Honolulu, Jan. 6, 1890. 5-10t 1305-td

Notice to Voters.

The last Legislature changed the boundaries of certain Election Districts, to correspond with the changes in population.

Changes have been made in the following named Districts, and consequently all voters residing therein will have to Re-register before the Inspectors of Election of their respective Precincts, in order to vote at the coming election, viz:

ISLAND OF OAHU.

The five Districts of Honolulu.

ISLAND OF MAUI.

The District of Wailuku.
The District of North Wailuku.
The District of Hana.
The Second Precinct District of Makawao.

ISLAND OF HAWAII.

The District of South Hilo.
The District of Central Hilo.
The District of North Hilo.
The First and Second Precinct of the District of Hamakua.
The District of Kona.

In all other Districts the Register of those who voted at the Elections in 1887 will be used as the basis of the Register for 1890, subject to the corrections and additions required by law.

Every voter should examine the Register of the Precinct in which he resides, in order to see that his name is there, whether re-registering is required or not, as it may have been omitted by accident.

L. A. THURSTON,
Minister of the Interior.

Interior Office, Jan. 4, 1890.

Thy Country's, thy God's, and Truth's.

FRIDAY, : : JAN. 10, 1890.

THE Reform party is told that it ought to be gratified because its enemies have borrowed everything good in their platform from that party. This is like asking Uncle Sam to feel pleased and happy when somebody gives him a counterfeit of one of his own notes, or like expecting the sheep to baa for joy when the wolf drops into the fold all clad in a coat of their own wool. The poor foolish sheep generally are glad until they are eaten, but the Reform party has no idea of tamely letting itself be swallowed.

THE Bulletin is very much worked up over the lack of conscience in the ADVERTISER's "bogus slate." We did not mean to deceive anybody, not even the most simple and credulous. But where is the sinfulness in suggesting that the success of the re-actionary party might result in just such a ministry as we have foreshadowed? If Bush and Wilcox are fit to represent the nation in the Legislature why are they not fit to be Ministers? If they are the right men to make our laws why are they not the ones to execute them. As to the general horror with which the proposed slate is received, we sympathize with that of course entirely.

THE ADVERTISER is criticized for inconsistency in commenting on "men" after advocating "measures." People seem to have taken our article as a promise not to object to any candidates, no, not to the Devil himself, if he only came with his mouth full of pious phrases. We have said most emphatically that men must be nominated whose character and record are a guarantee of the good faith of their professions, and not men whose public career makes their so-called principles seem like a cheap hoax.

The ADVERTISER was and is seriously anxious to take our political contests out of the realm of vituperation of persons, into that of dispassionate discussion of principles. It is the Re-actionary party which has made this impossible, not we. It is that party which has forced the issue on "men," not "measures." The issue thus thrust upon us, we cannot evade without breach of public duty. Several of the candidates nominated by the Reactionaries are unfitted by their record to represent the people. We propose to keep the facts before the people's attention. We have no idea of letting them die.

WHAT THE REFORM PARTY HAS DONE.

2. It has taken the subject of Leprosy out of politics, strictly enforced the segregation law without fear or favor, sparing no expense for the comfort of the lepers; established a hospital for the scientific investigation of the disease and treatment of the patients, and pledges itself to stamp out the disease.

The treatment of the leprosy question by the old regime constitutes one of the blackest pages of Hawaiian history. The law requiring strict segregation of all lepers is preremptory. Experience has shown that in no other way can safety to the community be secured. The lives of the men, women and children of this country depend upon the enforcement of this law. In spite of these facts, with a cold-bloodedness that was nothing less than fiendish, the late administration deliberately and with malice aforethought, treaded on the disease and made political capital of it.

Many native Hawaiians have no fear of the disease, and oppose the segregation law. Taking advantage of this, for the purpose of obtaining votes and support at the elections, the segregation law was allowed to become almost a dead letter.

A few, whose cases became too notorious, or who were polifically hostile, were sent to Molokai. Some semblance of respect to foreign public opinion on the subject had to be paid, and with great flourish and parade a station for the treatment of the lepers in the earlier stages was opened at Kakaako, within ten minutes walk of the center of town.

This soon degenerated into a physical and moral pesthole of the worst kind. Instead of being reserved for light cases as originally announced, lepers in all stages were kept there. Such lepers as were removed from the community, instead of being sent to Molokai were retained here.

The rankest favoritism prevailed. No one with any political influence thought of going to Molokai. His political "pull" was operated, and he was not sent. Permits were freely issued to the inmates to go out and visit their friends by the agent in charge, the President of the Board, and even by the King. Shysters made a practice of charging a commission to obtain permits of release.

Meanwhile lepers publicly walked the streets without molestation, the disease steadily increased among the natives, and the Board of Health turned out volumes of high-sounding literature on the subject of the treatment of leprosy.

This was the situation when the Reform party came into power on the 1st of July, 1887.

During the fifteen months from April 1, 1886, the beginning of the biennial period, until July 1, 1887, when the Gibson regime came to an end, the Board of Health records show that only twenty-eight lepers were sent to Molokai.

During the first nine months of the incumbency of the Reform party, from July 1, 1887, to March 31, 1888, there were sent to Molokai 293 lepers; and during the twenty-one months from March 31, 1888, to July 1, 1889, there have been sent to Molokai 760, making a total of 1,053.

This enormous number; the expense of removing and caring for which has been cast upon the Reform party, is directly traceable to the policy of the late administration of trafficking in human life for political ends.

By the strict measures now adopted the disease is thoroughly in hand. With individual exceptions, the country is free from lepers, and those at large are mostly hidden away in caves and mountain fastnesses where they are practically segregated.

New cases as they develope are immediately removed.

The Reform party, whilst strictly carrying out the segregation law, has displayed the greatest liberality in caring for the lepers.

Since July, 1887, the Government has spent over $50,000 in permanent improvements at the Molokai Settlement, in laying on water throughout the settlement, erecting additional hospital facilities, homes for the care of boys, girls and unprotected females, and a large number of new and commodious buildings for occupation by the lepers. The food supply has been improved in quality, and the annual stipend paid by the Government to each leper for miscellaneous expenses has been increased from $6 to $10 each.

In addition to this a station has been established at Kalihikai, in a retired spot four miles from Honolulu, where persons exhibiting preliminary symptoms of the disease receive hospital treatment free of charge.

This is in charge of a Specialist, who comes with the highest recommendations, who devotes himself, first, to treating the "suspects," with the hope that by taking the disease in time its progress may be checked and the victims preserved to society; and second, to the scientific investigation of the disease looking toward its prevention and cure. A branch hospital for treatment of lepers at Molokai under Dr. Unna's method will shortly be established there, under the supervision of Dr. Lutz, the specialist referred to.

Mr. Rosa and Mr. Bush, who proclaim themselves as hostile to the Administration, and are now asking to be again placed in control of the machinery of the Board of Health, were members of the Cabinet during whose administration on the iniquitous methods above referred to were carried on.

No wonder they are opposed to the Reform party. Every day of its existence is a standing reproach to them and a continuous protest against their criminal incompetency, if not deliberate wickedness, while in office, which has resulted in death and misery to hundreds of their fellow-citizens.

The declaration of the administration in their statement of policy on this subject is as follows:—

* * "It is believed that a strict adherence to the policy of the segregation will stamp out the disease in the course of a few years. The present indications are that high tide has been reached, and that the number of new cases developing will steadily diminish. With this object and hope in view the Cabinet will continue to carry out a policy of rigid segregation of every person having the leprosy."

In bold contrast to this unequivocal stand, is the only reference to the subject in the platform of the Re-actionary party, which reads as follows:—

"11. Due attention must be given to the general education with liberal support of schools; to the health of the country at large, and to the sanitary conditions of the city of Honolulu."

This vital subject is not even worth mention in a section by itself, and is referred to only in a general, inane manner without any meaning.

The two declarations are significant.

If the voters of this country wish this loathsome disease again to be made political capital of, and to see their wives and families the victims of those who trade in flesh and blood to secure political aggrandizement, let them secure that boon by voting for the party which delights to honor Mr. Rosa and Mr. Bush. If they wish the segregation laws executed, the sacred cause of humanity defended and safety to themselves and their families secured, let them support the party which has had the courage and the strength to undertake to deliver the country from this scourge and which is pledged to stamp it out.

The indictment of the Re-actionary party upon the subject of leprosy, is sufficient in and of itself to warrant the perpetual banishment from political power of every individual who was connected with the regime which was responsible for the acts stated.

The fact that Messrs. Rosa and Bush are among the leaders of the party is sufficient to give it a character which must condemn it in the eyes of every honest public citizen.

If the Reform party has done nothing else but wipe out this shame, disgrace and danger, it thereby deserves the unanimous support of the country.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the statements made, or opinions expressed by our correspondents.

The Returning Prodigals.

MR. EDITOR: The editor of the Bulletin, in view of the remarkable "change of base" just executed by the Opposition, facetiously remarks that "one would have thought that rejoicing over repentant sinners and jubilation because of returning prodigals would have been more seemly." Perhaps so.

For while the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return.

But, unfortunately, experience has proved that death-bed conversions are not worthy of much confidence. When we consider that until within a few days the chief organs of the coalition generally spoke of the existing government as "the rebel government," and of our Constitution as "the bayonet constitution," and boasted that the coming election would bring about what the insurrection of July 30th had failed to accomplish, we think a little delay is advisable before they are accepted as sincere reformers. As Chatham said, "Confidence is a plant of slow growth." In this case the chicanery and intrigue which led to the concoction of the "new platform" are so well known that Charity herself cannot cast her mantle over it.

CITIZEN.

The Observance of Sunday.

MR. EDITOR: It is always to be expected that the "unchurched multitude" will rebel against any restraint that may be placed on their actions, not merely as regards the observance of the Sabbath day, but in all other directions.

All human nature is actuated by the same spirit that prompted our first progenitors to help themselves to the fruit of the forbidden tree. It is not satisfied with the abundance that is given it, but kicks and squalls like a naughty, selfish child for the full possession of all that has been withheld from it.

Consequently we are accustomed to hearing grumbling and protests from those who care nothing for the claims of the Superior Power, against the restraints placed on them either by law or prevailing public opinion in supposed conformity with His expressed will; those who are at liberty to use the six days of the week for seeking their own pleasures no less than those who are compelled to work ten to twelve hours a day.

The saloon-keeper works for the abolishment of all regulations that are imposed on his traffic. What cares he how many families he robs of their home and support, or how many men he ruins? And the licentious man avers that it is no one's business how he carries on.

Those who are possessed of convictions of an opposite nature have nothing for it but to meet these assaults or protests and withstand them; and, so long as their minds are united, their hands are strong. But when those of their own camp rise and virtually say, "We are deluded creatures, self-deceived, blindly carried away by the arguments, customs and usages of our ancestors and their false interpretations of scripture, that may have been all well enough for them but not for us, and we ought to do better because we know better." Immediately an issue is raised, a break is made, and what is there to reunite and sustain the parted hands, or who is there to settle the disputed question for them?

To judge from my own feelings and desires in the matter, I say, all we want to know is, what is right.

We do not regard these restrictions in any sense burdensome. We conform to them with perfect willingness because we regard them as having emanated from the wisest of all sources, and been proved by all experience to be for the well being of all humanity. We do not feel that we sacrifice anything in so doing, but would not for a moment cling to these views any longer, nor strive to train or convert others to them, could we be but once convinced that they were fallacious, originating only in man's brain.

There are bounds of course within which a man may conduct himself, for instance, on Sunday, without violating any moral law. A conscientious man will do on that day, under one set of circumstances, what he would not do under another. But are there really no bounds beyond which a man may not go, in a manner, however, devoid of any injury to his neighbor, and not be held accountable to a general moral law?

Is the scriptural law prohibiting work on Sunday really obsolete, worn out, intended only for the people of those times and not for us? Is the latitude allowed by that law to cover "works of necessity," to be so extended as to cover anything and everything that selfish human nature chooses to include under the head of necessities?

If I, being the driver of a licensed hack, consider it an act of kindness and perfectly right, to take a passenger arriving by a steamer on Sunday, to his home or hotel, may I also take a baseball club that arrives by the same steamer in transit to another port, out to the play grounds to have a game on Sunday, because, forsooth, the steamer will not stop over for them to play a game on Monday, and a certain portion of the community demands the playing of a game on Sunday as a necessity, or as a pleasure which Christian people through the laws have no business to interfere with? And if we once admit that the position so taken is sound, and yield to the demand or desire, how long would it be, before there would be practically no Sunday? And when the abolition of the Christian Sunday became an established fact, would it not also come to pass, that the moral tone and character of the whole community be lowered?

Consequently, is it not better for those who profess to believe in the authenticity and wisdom of the scriptural teachings, to resist the encroachments that are sought to be made on the sanctity of the Sabbath, than to yield to the demands of those who care nothing for such matters, when the necesity for so doing is not clear?

I ask these questions in all candor, and though I have but barely touched the subject, and that in an imperfect manner, I will not trespass further on your space. Thanking you for indulging me thus far.

Valuable Real Estate!

At Auction.

In the Business Center of Honolulu!

The attention of Capitalists, Trustees and Real Estate Investors, is called to one of the most important sales of Real Estate, for business blocks, ever held in Honolulu; the property being situated in the heart of the city and bounded by

NUUANU, HOTEL & BETHEL STREETS.

The undersigned has received instructions to offer for sale by auction, at his salesroom, Queen street,

Saturday, Jan. 18, 1890,

AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON,

The whole of that valuable city property, known as the

"BOOTH ESTATE."

(Excepting only the corner lot on Nuuanu and Hotel streets, owned by Mr. James Olds,)

Containing in all 16,000 Square Feet.

This is the most compact and desirable piece of property in Honolulu, and being situated in the heart of the retail business quarter of the city, between the two main arteries of traffic (Fort and Nuuanu streets), leading to and from the wharves and harbor, it will have a value for all time, and therefore holds out unusual inducements to capitalists, as a remunerative and permanent investment.

The main frontages of this property are 40 feet on Nuuanu street, 93 feet on Hotel street and 125 feet on Bethel street, which three streets have been recently widened by the Government to 40 feet each, and finely macadamized and graded throughout, rendering them the finest thoroughfares in the city. A new street of 12 feet width, which runs through the center of the property from Nuuanu to Bethel streets, has been donated by the owner of the block, and this will give additional street frontage of 195 feet on one side of the new street and 91 feet on the other, to all the lots to be sold, leaving no lot without a valuable street frontage and to some of them very desirable and valuable street corners.

Another advantage of this fine property as an investment, is its excellent sanitary conditions, and being on the highest part of the city, makai of Hotel street, it will have excellent drainage for buildings erected thereon, and being of sufficient elevation, permits the construction of deep cellars, on account of being beyond the reach of tide water.

The block has been sub-divided into building lots, numbering 1 to 12, as can be seen on a large new survey map, now on view at my salesroom.

The title to the property is perfect. Terms of sale are one-third cash, one-third one year, and one-third two years, with interest at 6 per cent per annum.

An examination of this property is solicited, and is confidently recommended as a permanently remunerative investment.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Good morning, Lieutenant E. B. Thomas.

The Hawaiian Social Club held a meeting last evening.

A meeting of Engine Company No. 1 will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A Mutual telephone has been placed on board H. M. S. Champion. It is A.

Wanted—the meaning of Mr. Widemann's story as told at the mass meeting.

The foreign jury is required to attend in the Supreme Court at 10 o'clock this morning.

The S. S. City of Rio de Janeiro arrived at Yokohama December 24th from Honolulu.

The steamer W. G. Hall is due this afternoon with the latest news from Maui and Hawaii.

The Board of Health intends to inaugurate a more thorough system of vaccination.

The Australia should be along from San Francisco between 11 and 12 o'clock this morning.

The R. M. S. Mariposa is due this evening from the Colonies en route to San Francisco.

An adjourned meeting of Company D, Honolulu Rifles, will be held this evening for the election of officers.

Capt. C. Young of the steamship Yamashiro Maru has the thanks of the ADVERTISER for late Japan papers.

The Hawaiian band will give one of its popular concerts at the Hotel this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Programme elsewhere.

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian Camera Club has been postponed from this evening to Friday January 17th at 7:30 P. M.

Captain Penhallow's trim looking craft, the Robert Lewers, sails for the Coast to-day, and if she meets with anything like fair weather, will make a good record.

The following are booked to leave on the Mariposa for San Francisco: Mrs. Robt. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Pancoast, Mrs. W. S. Baxter, Miss T. Powes, and Capt. E. Howard.

If the Boston Ideal Company arrive on the Australia, Mr. L. J. Levey will at once make an announcement to the public regarding the sale of tickets for the first performance on Saturday evening.

The last meetings of the week of prayer will be held to-day at the Central Union Church as follows: 11 A. M. "Home Missions" by Mr. Justice McCully; 7:30 P. M. "The Church, Its Power and Progress" by Rev. C. M. Hyde, D. D.

A meeting of the second district Reform club is called for Monday evening the 13th inst., at Atkinson's school house, Pauoa valley road, for the purpose of nominating a representative, and electing delegates to the convention for nominating Nobles.

Government school teachers, and applicants for teachers places in the public schools, should remember that normal classes will be opened at Fort Street School, commencing at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. All other teachers will be welcome.

The Japanese steamship Yamashiro Maru came into the harbor Thursday morning. She was twelve days from Yokohama and brought 1,070 Japanese immigrants, 869 men and 201 women. This is the eleventh batch of Japanese to this country. They have been landed at the Immigration depot. The Yamashiro Maru departs for Yokohama on Monday next at noon.

The community will deeply sympathize with Mr. Daniel Lyons in another loss that he is called upon to sustain. His son Raymond died at the Queen's Hospital last evening, aged 7 years and 9 months. The funeral takes place this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the Roman Catholic Cathedral. This is the fourth death in Mr. Lyons' family that it has been our sad duty to chronicle since December 28.

At the annual meeting of Company A, Honolulu Rifles, held last evening, Capt. E. W. Langley presiding, forty-three members answered the roll call. The election resulted as follows: Captain, C. W. Zeigler; First Lieutenant, E. H. F. Wolters; Second Lieutenant, E. B. Thomas. Speeches were made by Col. V. V. Ashford, and the three officers elect. Plans for a new armory were shown the company by Col. Ashford, and they met with approval. Dancing was then indulged in and kept up for a couple of hours, refreshments being served during a brief recess.

Golden Wedding Gift.

The employees of the Kilauea Sugar Plantation Co., Kauai, will forward on the next steamer to Mr. R. A. Macfie, the President of the Company, who resides in Scotland, an illuminated address on the occasion of his golden wedding. The address is an admirable specimen of the illuminators art, executed in the style of early renaissance. On either side, at the top, are miniature sketches in water colors of the Kilauea mill and the residence of the President's son, Mr. R. A. Macfie, Jr. The lettering is in gold, red, blue and black. There is a place for the signatures of the employees, who represent the following nationalities: Hawaii, America, England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, France, Russia, Portugal, Japan, Poland, China, Finland, Denmark and Africa. The address is a most beautiful piece of work, and is on view for two days in the window of the Hawaiian News Co.'s store, Merchant street. Mr. R. C. Barnfield is the illuminator, and the work is highly creditable to him.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, Jan. 9.

Clarence Fick and Hinau were both mulcted in the sum of $6 for drunkenness.

Kahaku, for the larceny of a hat valued at $1, was sentenced to three months' imprisonment at hard labor.

Kui was caught with opium in possession, and, pleading guilty, was fined $50 with one hour's imprisonment at hard labor.

KAUAI NEWS.

Christmas and New Year's Celebration at Lihue—Other Events.

A large concourse of natives and many foreigners assembled at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at Lihue to witness the distribution of gifts from a truly beautiful Christmas tree. The hall was gayly decorated with evergreens and was filled to overflowing with happy children and their no less happy parents. The presents were tied up in neat packages, with the names of the recipients attached. The gifts had been carefully selected according to the age and sex of each child. The tree itself was laden with gorgeous decorations and ornaments, and pendant from the branches were numerous bonbons. The children of the various classes were successively called up, and each received his or her package, in which were confined the useful article as well as the article for play, each boy receiving a shirt and each girl the material for a dress, besides the toys. After the presentation was over the children and adults formed in single file outside of the building and marched through the grounds. At a convenient place a few ladies and gentlemen were stationed, who presented each child, and later on the parents, with a pretty bamboo basket filled with cake, candies, oranges and apples. Then soda water and ginger ale were distributed among them all, and a pretty sight it was to see the bright faces of the youngsters, and the quiet contentment of their elders, as all, seated on the grass, enjoyed their lunch, while at a little distance the sweet strains of the Hawaiian meles filled the air. After it was all over the rousing cheers with which the natives attempted to show their gratitude for all the good things received, could be heard nearly half a mile away.

The German Lutheran church had a very handsome tree, and the hearts of both young and old were made very happy by substantial gifts. The Catholic church at Kapaia was profusely decorated with evergreens and beautiful flowers, and their service, the high mass, was very impressive.

A pedagogue from Oahu who has been visiting our hospitable island, has been passing his vacation by seeking for dead men's teeth, of which he intends to make a chain. When finished, it will be a rather unique ornament, and if he sends it to his friends in the States, it will not require a vivid imagination on their part, to infer that we still enjoy cannibal feasts, at the close of the nineteenth century.

The Oahu College boys who are passing their vacation in our midst, are having a happy time, hunting, fishing, riding, rowing, and swimming. They won a boat race on New Year's day, and showed their skill as hunters by catching an abundance of game.

New Year's day passed very quietly here, but one pleasing event transpired that will be long remembered. The employees of the Hon. W. H. Rice turned out in full force to attend a New Year's dinner, to which they had been invited at Kalabake. After the luau which was spread in the hau grove adjoining the house, the men gathered around the building and called for Mr. and Mrs. Rice. Nicholas, the blacksmith, addressed them in a very neat speech, in which he thanked them in the name of all the employees, for the many kindnesses received at their hands. He said how, in times of sickness and other pilikias, both Mr. and Mrs. Rice had taken much care of them, and always helped them in every way, and to show that they were not unmindful of this care, they wished to present Mrs. Rice with a token of their regard. This token took form of an elegant piano lamp. It is on a movable stand and can be raised to a height of six feet or more, and connected with it is a tray to hold books. Mrs. Rice tried in vain to make a speech in return for the unexpected gift, but could scarcely say more than "I thank you." Then a small box was handed to Mr. Rice from which he took a massive gold watch chain. In attempting to thank them, Mr. Rice could scarcely speak so overcome was he by emotion, but after a few moments he thanked the men in some well-chosen words, saying, that all that he did for them he considered it but right to do, and that they appreciated it so much made him very happy, but that their appreciation should have taken this substantial form, left him at a loss for words in which to express his pleasurable emotions.

Friday, the 3d of January was one of the coldest days experienced here in many years. The thermometer in Lihue showed 57 deg. and in a residence about a mile away, nearer the mountains, it was 52 deg. People felt as though the island had moved towards the north pole.

GEO. W. LINCOLN,

THE WELL-KNOWN BUILDER, IS STILL IN THE FIELD AS A CONtractor, and is now better prepared to do any and all kinds of work appertaining to contracting or any other class of work belonging to his trade, in the same good and workmanlike manner as heretofore; having curtailed my shop expenses and still retain plenty of room to do any and all kinds of work appertaining to the building trade that may be entrusted to my care. I am enabled to do the same at very low rates, to suit the extremely dull times, and at the same time bearing in mind that what is worth doing at all is worth doing well.

Thanking the public for past favors,
I remain respectfully yours,
GEO. W. LINCOLN.
